Unea·red, ppl. a. Obs. exc. arch. [Un-[1] 8 + Ear v.[1]] Unploughed, untilled.

c 1000 Ælfric Gloss. in Wr.-Wülcker 147 Rus, unered land. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. II. 15 The balkis that they calle vnered land. 1598 Reg. Cupar Abbey (1890) II. 268 [He] sall ere..Robertsonis land for this instant crope, safar as is vnerit. c 1600 Shaks. Senn. iii, Where is she so faire whose vn-eard wombe Disdaines the tillage of thy husbandry?

Unea·rned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1. Not earned by merit or desert; unmerited or undeserved (as reward or punishment).

c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 39 Deffen..bireueden him [Adam] alle his riche weden, pat waren unerned gilne, and undeddlicnesse. 1599 Shaks. Mids. N. v. i. 439 If we haue vnearned lucke, Now to scape the Serpents tongue, We will make amends ere long. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla II. 383 The sufferings, so utterly unearned by fault or by folly, of a sister so dear to her. 1805 Wordsw. Prelude vi. 268 Such dispositions then were mine unearned By aught, I fear, of genuine desert.

2. Not earned by labor; not worked for.

1667 Milton P. L. IX. 225 Casual discourse..intermits Our dayes work brought to litile,..and th' hour of Supper comes unearn'd. 1708 J. Philips Cyder I. 374 Wilt thou.. rather chuse To live supinely, hoping Heav'n will..give thee Bread unearn'd? 1799 Coleridge Ode to Duchess of Devonsh. 17 Rich viands..Were yours unearned by toil. 1850 Grote Greece II. xxii. VIII. 53 This anticipation of an unearned salary. 1873 Hamerton Intell. Life I. iii. 11 One of the unearned gifts of nature.

b. Unearned increment, such increase in the value of land or property as takes place without labour or expenditure on the part of the owner.

1873 J. S. Mill in Dissert. & Discuss. (1875) IV. 299 The detention by the State of the unearned increment of rent. 1884 in A. Cameron Street Dispros. London (1889) 115 The increased value, the unearned increment of this property.

Unea·rnest, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 352 Aly⁹ whyle [he] pronounced suche an heinous matter w⁹ an unearnest countenance. 1548 — Erasm. Par. Luke 11. 105 Except that ye chose vertie thinges..be possessed of vs after an vnearnest sorte. 1611 Florio, Disfeuruare, to make vnearnest, to coole. 1877 Asp. Benson in Life (1899) I. 435 The state of things in which she wrote was very unearnest in many ways.

Unea·rth, v. (Un-[2] 5 and 6.)

1. trans. To dig out of the earth, to exhume; to disclose by the removal of earth.

c 1450 Mirour Saluacionis (Roxb.) 7 When he his fadirs body eftir deth vnherthid. 1626 T. H[awkins] Caussin's Holy Ct. 67 As Diamonds buryed in a Dunghill, which if once you vn-earth,..will set like stars before your eyes. 1798 Wordsw. Simon Lee 75, I chanced to see This old Man doing all he could To unearth the root of an old tree. a 1845 Barham Ingol. Leg. Ser. III. Knight & Lady, His cane,..which he used..when unearthing his worms and his grubs. 1877 Huxley Physiogr. 209 When the ruins were first unearthed, the upper floor stood much higher.

b. To force out of a hole or burrow.

1622 Mabbe tr. Aleman's Guzman d'Alf. I. 48 Hee was jealous, that the Foxe was now vn-earthed. 1730 Thomson Autumn 475 The sly destroyer of the flock..from his craggy winding haunts unearth'd. 1818 Scott Rob Roy xii, We will join the rest..and see their luck at unearthing the badger. 1844 H. H. Wilson Rig. Veda III. 39 On man ..dug a hole in the ground deep enough to give him shelter, ..[but] he was speedily unearthed.

transf. 1841 Lever C. O'Malley cxii, Oh, it's you, is it?—at last! so I've unearthed you, have I?

c. To free from, to clear by removal of, earth.

1663 Davenant Siege of Rhodes I. 31 Away! unchain the Streets, unearth the Ports! Pull down each barracade!

2. fig. To bring to light; to disclose, reveal, discover, etc. (Freq. from c 1860.)

1820 Byron Blues ii, Scamp. They have merit, I own.. Job. Then why not unearth it in one of your lectures? 1863 Cowden Clarke Shaks. Char. xii. 308 You may trust a woman to unearth a plot. 1883 Stevenson Silverado Sq. 114 What would I not have given to unearth a letter..?

3. fig. To free from earthly qualities.

1765 J. Brown Cher. Synl. 286 O to be unearthed, unselfed, that I may be like him!

Hence Unearthed ppl. a.[1]; Unearthing vbl. sb. and ppl. a.

1612 Two Noble K. v. i. 58 Thou mighty one,..whose havocke in waste Feild Vnearthed skulls proclaime. 1890 Monies Earthly Pur. III. iv. 1 Unearthed the mole.. Was wandering there. 1876 Fox Bourne Locke II. xv. 527 To invent,..with much..material of his own unearthing, the art of logic. 1897 19th Cent. Aug. 276, I got to regard a resurrection man as..an unearthly because unearthing demon.

Unea·rthed, ppl. a.[2] (Un-[1] 8.) Not buried; not carried into the ground.

1513 Douglas Æneid VI. ii. 145 Vnerdit lyis of new the deid body. Ibid. v. 62. 1905 Elect. World & Engin. 18 Feb. 339 (Cent. Suppl.), Giving over 14,000 volts between the unearthed conductors.

Unearthliness (Un-[1] 12; cf. next.)

(a) 1860 Pusey Min. Proph. 569 A picture of our Lord's humility and of the unearthliness of His kingdom. 1896 G. A. Simcox in Academy 22 Feb. 150/3 The world..liked him all the better for the elegant unearthliness of his aspect.

(b) 1867 H. Macmillan Bible Teach. ii. 33 There was a coldness and unearthliness about it..which repelled..me.

Unearthly, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1. Rising above what is characteristic of earth; exalted, sublime; celestial.

1611 Shaks. Wint. T. iii. i. 7 O, the Sacrifice. How ceremonious, solemne, and vn-earthly It was th' Offring? 1795 Coleridge Refl. Place of Retirem. 24 The inobtrusive song of Happiness, Unearthly minstrelsy! 1885 Bemiley Ess. (1898) 304 [An] almost unearthly intensity of faith, love, and resignation. 1876 H. W. Pullen Med. Christianity 73

Having made choice of an unearthly Guide, you should be content to follow Him along unearthly paths.

2. Not belonging to this earth; supernatural, mysterious, ghostly. (Cf. Sc. wanearthly.) a 1802 Tantlime xxxv. in Scott Minstrelsy, How shall I thee know Amang so many unearthly knights? 1828 Lytton Pelham II. x, A mysterious and unearthly communion of the soul with the beings of another world. 1871 L. Stephen Playgr. Env. ii. 82 There is something almost unearthly in the sight of enormous spaces of hill and plain.

b. Of sounds or voices.

1808 Scott Marm. II. Introd., In the bittern's distant shriek, I heard unearthly voices speak. 1846 Mrs. A. Marsh Father Darcy II. xi. 183 The unearthly sound...immediately ceased. 1890 'R. Boldrewood' Col. Reformer (1891) 150 The half-heard music is full of unearthly cadences.

c. colloq. Not appropriate to anything earthly; absurdly early or inconvenient.

1865 Mrs. Carlyle Lett. (1883) III. 267 Your starting from the Gill at an unearthly hour. 1891 Mrs. Riddell Mad Tour 63 In the streets of Cologne at that unearthly hour in the morning.

Unea·se, sb. [Un-1 12. Cf. Wanease sb.] Want or lack of ease; discomfort; uneasiness.

App. not in use in the 18th cent., and not common in the 19th till about 1880.

a 1300 Cursor M. 29007 Discipline..in askes and in hare, And weping and vneses lair. c 1400 Rom. Rose 3102 Thanne seide I, ser, not you displease To knowen of myn gret vnease. a 1450 Knt. de la Tour (1906) 152 That none other creature aught not to be amermitted to suffre displesance and vnease, whanne so he iladye suffered..so gret sorw and tribulacion. 1523 Ld. Berners tr. Froiss. I. cxlvi. 174 We haue endured moche payne and vnease. 1593 Nashe Christ's Tears 13 More and more thou addest to my vnease. 1632 Lithgow Trav. VII. 327 In this vnease Of tackling Boards, we so the way make short. 1676 Hobbes Iliad Pref. (1686) 3 Such unease, as in a Coach a man unexpectedly finds in passing over a furrow. 1828 Carr Crayons Glass. Uneasy, uneasiness. 1857 Sir F. Palgrave Norm. & Eng. II. 458 The unease thereby occasioned was exceedingly enhanced.. when general belief superadded [etc.] 1894 J. Knight D. Garrick vii. 109 A tendency to self-consciousness with a consequent unease was a fault of his style.

†Unea·se, v. Obs. [Un-2 4.] trans. To incommode, trouble, distress.

c 1400 Laud Troy Bk. 14481 Vnnethes of vs is any That vnease hym with vne-seik. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. III. 562 Cannetes oll ek tyme is now to wede, And of to kyte hit that vnease vne-seik. 1464 Rolls of Parlt. V. 563/2 The comon people..is greetly uneased therby. c 1590 J. Stewart Poems (S.T.S.) II. 195 Not, Sir, till vneis 30w, Bot mening to meis 30w.

Unea·seful, a. [Un-1 7.]

1515 in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. 1. I. 266 Forsomuche as the Queene is lyeng here is unreasfull and costelye, by occasion of fame caringe of every thing. 1597 Drant Horace, Ep. xii. E iij, For thou this drosse, vneasefull drosse, doste sette but little by. 1840 Lowell The Moon 28 Howe'er its waves above May toss and seem uneaseful.

Hence Unea·sefulness.

1661 Rust Origen's Opin. 74 If this gentler smart and uneasefulness will not reclaim them.

Unea·sily, adv. [Un-1 11.]

†1. a. With difficulty on account of discomfort; only with pain or suffering. Obs.

c 1290 Beket 2211 in S. Eng. Leg. I. 170 With luytel aise he mizte sitte, and fel on-sslithe hit ag. And on-sslithe ligge also. 1535 Stewart Cron. Scot. (Rolls) II. 534 Vneselie thocht that he mycht ryde or go, ..Than vp he rais rycht fraklie on his feit. 1500 Hakluyt Voy. III. 54 It was.. counted a place very hardly and vneasily to be inhabited for the great colde.

†b. Not in easy or simple manner; with difficulty or trouble. Obs.

1600 E. Blount tr. Conestaggio 232 Where (although vneasily)..they might imbarke and descend. 1669 Stormy Mariner's Mag. A. 4, I might haply appear..monstrous to the eye of the World, and uneasily escape submersion. 1725 Sloane Jamaica II. 17 They are uneasily kept from apes and squirrels.

2. In an uneasy or uncomfortable manner; in such a way as to cause discomfort.

In older use (a) of physical uneasiness.

(a) 1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. xiv. 232 He goth to cold beddynge, And his heued vn-heled vn-sslithe I-wrye. a 1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula, etc. 38 Pai slepe vneasely; pai ar made heuy als wele in myinde as in body. 1550 Thomas Ital. Dict., Distrutto, strictly or vneasilie. 1647 J. Taylor (Water P.) Sir G. Nonsence Wks. (1930) Aa 1 b, Resting vneasily on a banke of Sicamores. 1822–7 Good Study Med. (1829) I. 211 Concentrated jellies..sit more uneasily on a weak stomach, than meat..in a solid form.

(b) 1863 Mrs. Oliphant Salem Chapel iv. 30 Mr. Vincent stood uneasily at a corner when he was brought into the apartment. 1887 Miss Betham-Edwards Next of Kin Wanted II. xi. 140 He..hemmed and ha'd uneasily.

†3. Without ease; awkwardly. Obs.—

1611 Cotgr., Inhabilement,..vnweildily, vneasily, vnhandsomely.

Unea·siness. [Un-1 12.]

†1. The quality of being troublesome. Obs.

1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) VII. 331 He commaundede to put out Lanfranc out of Normandye for his uneysnes [L. pro suis importunitatibus]. 1712 in J. Vernon Corr. 8 Kirk Hawick (1900) 100 The s[aid day compeared Bessie Pasley..for her uneasiness among her nighbours.

†2. Difficulty; difficult nature or character.

1594 R. Ashley tr. Loys le Roy 73 b, The vneasinesse of the places where he made his Conquests. 1645 Ussher Body Div. 271 Frowardnesse, and uneasinesse to be intreated. 1691 T. H[alk] Acc. New Invent. 38 Very apt to gather Filth, and of no less uneasiness when fouled to be thoroughly cleansed again.

†b. Unwillingness, reluctance. Obs.

a 1715 Burnet Own Time ii. viii. (1897) I. 374 The king..charged him to tell him the truth. The other did it, though not without some uneasiness. 1737 Whiston Josephus, Hist. iv. iii. § 3 The Roman garrisons,..partly out of their uneasiness to take such trouble,..did little or nothing.

†c. Unpleasantness; ill feeling. Obs.

a 1734 North Lives (1826) III. 366, I mentioned before some uneasinesses between the doctor and his seniors about elections. 1771 Ledwich Antiq. Sarish. 42 The Prelate stiffly refused, and thence created much uneasiness between Henry and Pope Paschal.

3. Discomfort, trouble, or anxiety, as affecting one's circumstances or welfare. Also (with pl.), an instance of this.

1599 Shaks. Hen. V, II ii. 27 There's not I think a subiect That sits in heart-greefe and vneasinesse Vnder the sweet shade of your gouernment. 1698 Whole Duty Man viii § 9 An abundant amends for all the uneasiness and hardship thou canst suffer in the way. 1681 J. Scott Chr. Life i. 1. 8 Short intermissions of the pains and uneasinesses of a wretched Life. 1740 Richardson Pamela I. 13 But, may-be, without these Uneasinesses to mingle with these Benefits, I might be too much puffed up. 1805 A. Knox Rem. (1834) I. 29 When we wish to rise above worldly uneasiness.

b. Physical discomfort (falling short of actual or definite pain).

1665 Boyle Occas. Reff. II. xiv. 235 Having sadly Experienc'd the uneasiness of Sickness. 1709 Phil. Trans. XXVI. 491 The Cause of this Peeping in the Shell, I take to be from some Uneasiness the young Bird may find there. 1774 Goldsm. Nat. Hist. (1776) II. 55 The infant's cries are sufficient indications of the uneasinesses it must at every interval endure. 1815 J. Smith Panorama Sci. & Art II. 446 With nearly all persons who have breathed this gas, not the least uneasiness or language subsequently remains. 1862 A. Meadows Man. Midwifery 220 Pain in the seat of injury, followed by a general sense of uneasiness and distension.

c. Mental discomfort; anxiety, apprehension.

1682 Norris Hierocles 60 There is a necessity therefore of Impatience and Uneasiness, and that our misery be augmented from the ignorance of our selves. 1709 Lady M. W. Montagu Let. to Miss A. Wortley 8 Aug., Till then I shall be in terrible uneasiness. 1756 Cowper Wks. (1837) XV. 291, I have lately been under some uneasiness at your silence. 1814 Kinglake Eothen xviii, My coming from an infected city did not cause him the least uneasiness. 1885 Mrs. Alexander' At Bay iv, The next day brought Glynn a few lines..which struck him as expressing more uneasiness than was intended.

Unea·stern, a. (Un-1 7.) 1760–2 Goldsm. Cit. W. li, Unnatural, un-Eastern,..would be the whole cry. 1838 Thackeray Major Gahagan iv, The phraseology peculiar to my own country..is so uneastern.

Unea·sy, a. [Un-1 7.]

1. Not conducing to ease or comfort; productive of physical discomfort. Also in fig. context.

† Occas. const. to (a person).

c 1290 Beket 1446 in S. Eng. Leg. I. 148 Swiþe on-aisi [v.r. unese] was is brech a-boute for-to ride. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xvii. clxix. (Bodl. MS.), Wheite þat groweth in vnmoderat tyme & vneasy wedre & tyme is vnparfite. 1601 Holland Pliny II. 265 If the skin be newly fretted off by wearing some uneasie shoes. 1660 N. Ingelo Bentiv. & Ur. II. (1682) 21 Golden fetters are as uneasie as those of Iron. 1713 Guardian No. 52 ¶ 7 [He] appeared in Cloths, that were so strait and uneasy to him, that he seemed to move with Pain. 1748 Anson's Voy. II. v. 183 The heat in..the tropics must be much more troublesome and uneasy. 1820 Keats Hyperion II. 64 Above her, on a crag's uneasy shelve, ..Shadow'd Enceladus. 1860 Hawthorne Marb. Faun viii, A minute's walk will transport the visitor from the small, uneasy lava stones.

†b. Causing mental discomfort or disquietude; unpleasant, disagreeable. Obs.

Very common in 18th cent., freq. with to.

1483 Gower's Conf. (Caxton) V. 459 Wherof it is yt he conceyueth That yike vnesy [orig. unsely] maladye, The which is cleped jelousye. 1669 Earl Orrery Parthen. (1676) 790 Till I knew my Fate..I should be in Horrors, whose visible Effects were the least uneasy part of them. 1691 Stillingfleet Charge 52 Nothing will be more uneasie to me, than to be forced to make use of any Severity against you. 1744 Johnson Let. to S. Lewis 3 Jan., Not to have the satisfaction of waiting upon [you]..will be a great and uneasy disappointment. 1788 Charlotte Smith Emmeline (1826) IV. 240 The anxiety of Delamere..is uneasy even to me. 1798 — Ymg. Philos. IV. 209 My mother,..I thought, wished..to conceal something from me; that something then must be uneasy.

c. Characterized by absence of ease or comfort; suggesting or manifesting want of ease in body or mind.

a 1513 Fabyan Chron. vi. clxxii. 167 Alurede, beynge thus ouerset in mytyuldes of enemyes,..ladde an vncertayne lyfe, and vneasy. 1590 Spenser F. Q. I. v. 36 Where was a Caue..Deepe, darke, vneaste, doleful, comfortlesse. 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. II. § 55 They..made the residence of any amongst them very uneasy, and very insecure, who were but suspected by them not to wish well to their Proceedings. 1697 Milton P. L. I. 293 His Spear..He walkt with to support uneasie steps Over the burning Marle. 1748 Anson's Voy. II. v. 184 That uneasy and suffocating sensation. 1780 Mirror No. 88, I soon found my situation at the university a very hard and uneasy one. 1846 Mrs. A. Marsh Father Darcy II. iii. 75 He sank into an uneasy slumber. 1893 Tout Edw. I, 54 The surgeons exchanged uneasy whispers.

†2. Of persons: Troublesome, annoying, disagreeable, unaccommodating (to others). Obs.

1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) I. 87 Euere þei beeþ vnesi [L. inquieti] to hir owne neiheboures oþer to strong [= strange] men. c 1400 Pilgr. Sowle (Caxton, 1483) iv. xxxiv. 83 Shirreues shold speke for the peple, so that they be nought mysfaren ne ouercharged with ouer sore seruyce ne by vneysy lordes. 1652 Nicholas Papers (Camden) 291, I am much afraid that Mr. Attorney will be very unquiet with his associates and uneasy to the K[ing] in council. 1678 Dryden All for Love ii. i. 26, I kept you far from an unseasie Wife. a 1715 Burnet Own Time ii. xii. (1897) I. 481 He was cynical in the whole administration, and uneasy to the king in every thing. 1737 Whiston Josephus, Antiq. I. xviii. § 4 Not caring to be uneasy to his son,..he resolved to be silent.

†b. Unfriendly; on bad terms. Obs.—1

1725 P. Walkden Diary (1866) 15, I..discoursed them concerning the division that is among them, and they both own they had been uneasy, but were now reconciled.

†c. Displeased, dissatisfied. Obs.

a 1715 Burnet Own Time iii. viii. (1900) II. 125 The king was uneasy at this, and sent them several very angry messages. Ibid. xvii. 449 The king seemed to be so uneasy with him, that he was glad to send him away from the court.

d. Uncompromising, rigid.

1819 Byron Juan I. lxii, Ladies even of the most uneasy virtue Prefer a spouse whose age is short of thirty.

3. Not easy or simple; difficult, hard, troublesome. Now rare. (Common in 17th c.)

In first quot. = 'having difficulty'.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. v. vi. (Tollem. MS.), The thycker and more trowbled spirite that a man hathe, the vneasyer [L. tenuio difficilior] and the feblier of sygthe he is. Ibid. vi. xx. (Bodl. MS.), In olde menne abstinence of mete is eth and esy, and in yonge menne & children hard and vneasye. 1570 Levins Manip. 108 Vneasy, difficilis. 1591 Savile Tac. Hist. I. xxii. 99 By lewdeuesse and craft (a matter not vneasy) [he] bare it away from good men. 1614 Raleigh Hist. World I. iii. 139 About this time the Spartans beganne to perceiue how vneasie a thing it would bee to maintaine the wrong against mens as good as themselves. 1663 Boyle Coneid. Usef. Nat. Philos. II. (1664) 348 To keep the rectified Spirit..is more uneasie, than any thing but trial would make one think. a 1724 in Ramsay's Tea-t. Misc. (1732) I. 22 If I can but get it [sc. a sword] dawn, Which will be right uneasy. 1821 Hazlitt Comic. Lectt. iii. 37 By a not uneasy diversion of mind, I turned to another branch. 1900–1 in Eng. Dial. Dict.

b. Const. with inf. (active or passive).

(a) a 1548 Hall Chron., Edin. IV, 241 The kyng of England answered, that the counte of Flanders were..vnto vneasie to bee kepte when they were conquered. 1603 H. Crosse Vertues Commw. (1878) 45 A way vneasie to be tracke, hard to finde. 1666 Boyle Orig. Forms & Qual. 268 Much more elaborate, and therefore more uneasie to be restored, then that of many other Concretes.

(b) 1570 Buchanan Admonitionn Wks. (S.T.S.) 56 It is not vneasie to persuae..that yai meane..ye deid of ye King. 1595 Sylvester Nemesis 82 Till time..did worne away Her sorrowe's edge, vneasie to allay. 1621 Quarles Div. Poems, Esther Wks. (Grosart) II. 58/2 To him there's nought vneasie to atchieue. 1650 T. Barker Theory Earth II. 163 It will be very uneasie to give a satisfactory account ..of the regeneration. 1819 Scott Ivanhoe ii, 'The road will be uneasy to find,' answered Gurth.

†c. Of ways, etc.: Difficult to traverse on account of ruggedness, steepness, or other obstacles. Obs.

1550 T. Hoby Trav. (1902) 46 It is a very uneasie way by the reason of the great quantitie of great and sharpe stones that are upon yt. 1604 E. G[rimstone] D'Acosta's Hist. Indies IV. vi. 221 As he strived to gette vp a way which was somewhat rough and vneasie, hee was forced to lay holde vpon a branch. 1697 Dryden Æneis xi. 458 The flood, constrained within a scanty space, Roars horrible along the uneasy race. 1756 Nugent Gr. Tour, Italy III. 38 Gentlemen..are in the wiuo to choose to travel there in winter, for the ways are intirely at that time, and dangerous.

†d. Difficult to handle. Obs.—1

1611 Cotgr., Inhabile,..vnweildie, vneasie, vnhandsome.

4. Uncomfortable or disturbed in mind; anxious, apprehensive.

1680 Burnet Rochester Pref. A 5 b, He..seemed not uneasie at my frequent Visits. 1693 in Verney Memoirs (1907) II. 486 Nothing but the want of your blessing can make me uneasie, for otherwise I am perfectly happy. 1719 De Foe Crusoe II. (Globe) 362 The Spaniard..found himself very uneasy in the Night, and could by no Means get any Sleep. 1748 Anson's Voy. II. ii. 229 We began to be uneasy for her safety. 1782 Miss Burney Cecilia v. I, It contributed to render her thoughtful and uneasy. 1832 Lyt. Martineau Ireland 38 His countenance brightened..but he still seemed uneasy till he had put one question. 1859 W. Collins Q. of Hearts I. 117, I was..as anxious and as uneasy as our guest.

b. Suffering physical discomfort.

1725 N. Robinson Th. Physick 276 If he be very restless and uneasy, let the following Prescriptions be exhibited.

c. Of animals: Restless, unsettled.

1855 Poultry Chron. II. 449/2 Should they not be fed at regular intervals, it will render them uneasy and discontented. 1897 Mrs. Rayner' Type-writer Girl xix, Like ..restless Spanish sheep in spring, when they herd and leap, uneasy to be driven to their pastures in the mountains.

d. transf. Of things: Moving in a disturbed or unquiet manner.

1816 L. Hunt Rimini III. 61 Scattering smiles on this uneasy earth. c 1860 H. Stuart Seamin's Catech. 62 Weights at the extremities cause a ship to be uneasy in a seaway. 1894 Crockett Raiders 103 The upper arch of the caves is not less than forty feet above the floor of uneasy water.

5. Quasi-adv. Uneasily.

1596 Mascall Govt. Cattle 120 Let your axeltrees..fill close the nathes of the wheeles, for when they gaggle or shake, they goe vneasie. 1597 Shaks. 2 Hen. IV, III. i. 31 Vneasie lyes the Head, that weares a Crowne. 1684 Contempl. St. Man ii. viii. (1699) 226 You..will perswade your self, that you never laid so uneasie in your whole Life before. 1809 Southey Espriella's Lett. I. 176 The farmer told him it was but an uneasy-going beast. 1832 Thackeray Philip xxviii, [So] thinks the general, rolling uneasy on the naid-night pillow.

Unea·table, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1611 Cotgr., Immangeable, vneatable, vnfit to be fed on. 1775 Adair Amer. Ind. 16 The..Indians..formerly reckoned it [sc. opossum] an..uneatable animal by a hog. 1798

W. Blair Soldier's Friend 16 Biscuits would..be preferable: a loaf becomes mouldy and uneatable in a few days. 1861 Musgrave Byways 12 A dreary breadth of sand hills, dotted with tufts of uneatable herbage and rank weeds. 1876 Miss. Whitney Sights & Ins. xviii, We got an uneatable dinner (having blundered upon a wrong hotel).

Hence Uneatableness.

1869 Trans. Entom. Soc. I. 21 Thus showing that the spines were not the cause of the uneatableness of the larvæ.

Uneaten, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8 b. Cf. ON. il-etinn, MDu. ongeeten (Du. -gegeten), MLG. ungegeten, MHG. ungeezen, -gezzen (G. ungegessen).] Not eaten; left undevoured.

c 1250 St. Brendan 301 in S. Engl. Leg. I. 237 Al ore comen nis nouht here, ake muche it hath vneten [v.r. for muche de is un-y-eten]. c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints vii. (James Minr.) 682 For nothire wes lewit in pat towne hwnde, na catte,..vnbetyne, be bis wes done. c 1450 Bk. Husbdry in Rel. Ant. I. 309 Of thess fleschys loke that sho have good plente ech day, so that sche leve sum what uneten. 1612 Braum. & Fl. King & No King iii, Therefore I will out-swear him and all his foll wers, that this is all that's left uneaten of my sword. 1630 J. Taylor (Water P.) Siege Jerus. Wks. 15/1 From out their throats they tear the meat in haste, Halfe eaten, halfe uneaten. 1791 Cowper Odyss. VIII. 582 A huge brawn, of which uneaten still Large part and delicate remain'd. 1868 Rep. U. S. Commissioner Agric. (1869) 297 The remains of the uneaten leaves must be carefully taken away.

Uneath, a. Obs. or arch. Forms: (see quots.) [OE. unéaðe, -éðe, etc.: see Un-¹ 7 and Eath a.] Difficult, hard, troublesome, distressing.

a 900 Andreas 205 Nis þæet eaðwealdan godne to refreminanne on foldwege. c 1000 Ælfric Saints' Lives xiii. 243 Þa cwæð dauid him to: Uneaðe me is ðis. c 1050 Voc. in Wr.-Wülcker 448/1 Molestus, uneaðe. a 1200 Moral Ode 281 Nis na sullic þeoh hom þo wa and hom þo uneaðe [v.r. uneaþe]. c 1205 Lay. 2259 Corineus wes un-eðe, & wa on his mode.

1599 Lewins Manip. 213 Vneathe, difficilis. 1590 Spenser F. Q. IV. x. 39 An altar of some costly masse, Whose substance was vneath to vnderstand. 1629 H. Burton Truth's Triumph 210 The..hare..makes many doubles,..that vneath it is for the most sagacious pursuiter to finde her out. 1647 H. More Song of Soul II. iii, But what's within, vneath is to convey To narrow vessels that are full afore. Ibid. lxxxv. 1714 Crowall Another Orig. Canto Spenser xii, Where Friend Monks sweat vneath Mass vnseasonable May seem 'mongst them to live. 1767 Mickle Concubine II. xxxvii, Uneath it is long Habits to expell. 1799 Scott Covenanter's Fate xxii, 'I fear me,' quoth he, 'uneath it will be To match thy word with deed.'

Uneath (unī·þ), adv. Now only arch. Forms: a. 1–3 uneaðe (3 -eðe), 2–3 uneðe (3 -eðe), 3 on-, 4 unepe, 4–6 unethe (4–5 on-), 6 Sc. on-, uneith, 6–uneath. β. 3–5 unnepe (3 -eepe, -eðe, onnepe), 4–6 (9) unnethe (5 onnethe, unnythe); 3 unneaðe, -eape, 4 onn(y)eape, 6–7 unneath, 7 unneth. γ. 4–7 uneth (5–6 oneth), 4 unnep, 4–7 unneth. (Also 3–7 vn-.) [OE. unéaðe, f. un- Un-¹ 11 b + eaðe Eath adv.]

1. Not easily; (only) with difficulty; scarcely, hardly.

In very common use from c 1300 to c 1600. Usually denoting limitation of the power to act in the way desired or intended, so that the sense of 'scarcely' becomes the prominent one.

c 888 K. Ælfred Boeth. v. § 3 Uneaþe ic mæg forstandan þine æsunga. Ibid. xxvii. § 4 Uneaðe hire cymð æmig mon of, þif he ærest an cwæð. c 950 Lindisf. Gosp. Matt. xix. 24 Forðon wlonc uneaðe on[e] hefis inngeongis in rie heofna. a 1000 Colleg. Ælfric in Wr.-Wülcker 96 Hwylon forlidnesse ic þolie ..uneaþe cwic æðberstende. ? a 1050 O. E. Chron. (MS. C) an. 1040, He..æstealde þa swiðe strang xyld, þæt man hit uneaðe mæg gesecan. 1205 Lay. 31468 Mucel ief del heo slogen of þan mon-weorede, and þe king Penda uneðe gon awende. a 1250 Owl & Night. 1605 þu me hauest ure lgrennd..þat ic maye vnneþe speke. 13.. Sir Beues (A.) 884 So mani arwes to him þai sende, Unneþe a mizte him self defende. c 1369 Chaucer Dethe Blaunche 712 As I yow telle Vnnethe myght y lenger duelle. 1382 Pol. Poems (Rolls) I. 267 Unnethe may prestes seculers Gete any service for thes frers. c 1440 Gesta Romanorum 97 So sorowfull was that he onnethe myght speke to the kyng. Ibid. 4946 [He] was..sore for-bled that vnnethe myght he stonde. a 1450 Knt. de la Tour (1906) 9 Making suche noise that unnethe thei might haue herd thunder. 1542 Uhtred Erasm. Apoph. 338 b, Whiche did asmuche benefite to the commenweale, as uneith any penne may write. 1578 Lyte Dodoens v. lxxiv. 641 The blades are cut almost every day barde by the ground,..and that uneth any thing cannot easily growe vp. 1601 Holland Pliny II. 90 Thyme seed lyeth so close, that uneth or hardly it can be found. 1631 Gouge God's Arrows I. § 70. 117 There was so grievous a mortality of people, as the quicke might uneath burie the dead. a 1656 Ussher Ann. (1658) 395 His army grew so loaden with the spoile..that they were unneath able to march above five mile a day. 1739 G. West Abuse Trans. xliii, A small river, that full slow did glide, As it unneath more find its wonted path For stones and rubbish. 1805 Scott Last Minstrel vi. xxix, The standers-by might hear uneath, Footstep, or voice,..Through all the lengthen'd row. 1834 Hare Guesses (1848) 346 Man's hard, clench mouth, whence words uneath do slip.

b. Scarcely, hardly, barely (in respect of extent, amount, degree, etc.).

c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 33 Þeines..wundeden him swiðe sore, and forleten him unneðe liues. 1297 R. Glouc. (Rolls) 1421 After him was gayus [emperor] vif yer vnepe. c 1300 Seyn Julian (Ashm. MS.) 178 Þat led þat bolynde was, vnneþe it þoste hire warm. c 1374 Chaucer Anel. & Arc. 288 On him is al hir thought, þat wele vnneþe of mete toste she keeps. 1390 Gower Conf. I. 364 The remenant of folk aboute Unethe stonden eny doute To werre ech other and to slee. c 1450 Two Cookery-bks. 44 Put hem in a panne..; & vnneþe ony grece in þe panne. 1484 Caxton Fables of Alfonse i, I haue lyued longer than thy self haste & vnnethe I haue gete half a frend. 1542 Uhall Erasm. Apoph. 296 Uneth any tree [is] more goodly to behalde afarre of then the cypres tree. 1596 Fitz-Geffrey Sir F. Drake (1881) 58 Honour enmoves her to attend the flight, And wave her feathers (unneath taught to flie). 1606 N. Baxter Sidney's Ourania D ij, Ignorant, lewde, Uneth with one drop of Nectar bedewde.

† o. With accompanying negative. Obs.

13.. Guy Warw. (A.) 254 He no dar his lone kepe, No sen hir wel vnneþe. 1362 Langl. P. Pl. A. v. 100 Al my breste bolleþ for bitter of my galle; May no suger so sweete aswagen hit vneþe. c 1400 Maundev. (1916) xxii. 128 Fissches..cawen alle þat thei fischeden to the see bauke of þat yle, so gret plentee..þat noman may vnnethe see but fissch. 1412–20 Lydg. Chron. Troy I. 3392 Wel onethe he ne myst endure Hym to dismembre. 1477 Paston Lett. III. 175 The cussey..is so sore weyghed that he no mane that may onethe passe it. 1559 Primer in Priv. Prayers (1851) 90, I dare not unneth make my prayers unto thee, for thou art angry with me. 1600 Fairfax Tasso v. xxxiv, And further ads,..That none offence could greater be vneath, And yet the place the fault did aggravate.

† d. ellipt. with but. (Cf. But conj. 7.) Obs.

1601 Weever Mirr. Mart. C 2 b, A vile contagious mist which can vneuath But pestilence or worse diseases breede.

† e. erron. Almost. Obs. rare.

1590 Spenser F. Q. I. xi. 4 A roaring hideous sound That ..seend vneath to shake the stedfast ground. 1600 Fairfax Tasso iv. lix, Thus cruselesse hatred, endlesse is vneath.

† 2. a. Reluctantly, unwillingly. Obs.

c 900 tr. Boeðe's Met. II. ii. 100 þa geðafolan þæt uneaðe þa his ierdæl. c 1000 Ælfric Gen. xxxiii. 12 Ic hidde þe, þæt þu onfo þissa laca..Þa underfeng he hig uneaðe. a 1200 Moral Ode 189 We þeueð uneðe [v.r. uneaðe] for his luue a stuche of ure brede. 1382 Wyclif Gen. xxxiii. 11 Vneeth, the broher compellynge, takynge [he] seith, Goo we togideres.

† b. In difficult circumstances; in hardship. Obs.

1591 Spenser F. Q. I. ix. 38 Is then vniust to each his due to giue?..Or let him die at ease, that liueth here vneath? a 1592 Greene Selimus I. 375 The gray-beard..liu'd at ease, while others liu'd vneath.

† 3. Scarcely, in respect of time; only just. Obs.

c 1000 Ælfric Gen. xxvii. 30 Uneaðe Isaac þæremidde þas sprace, þa Iacob ut eode. c 1205 Lay. 16597 Vn-neðe [c 1275 onnepe] wes þis spel iseid to þan ende, þa iseþen heo Hængest halden oure dune. a 1225 Leg. Kath. 1993 þis wes uneaðe iseid, þet an engel iue cwom: a 1300 Cursor M. 11684 Vnnethe had he said þe sune, Quen þe tre it boghed doune. 1382 Wyclif Gen. xxvii. 30 Vneneth Ysaac had fulfilled the word, and Jacob goon out, Esau com. a 1400–50 Alexander 4185 Vnneth he wist was pais, quen purid all be floudis. 1513 Bradshaw St. Werburge I. 1227 Whan kynge Vulfer approched his castell And vneth wans entred into his hall. 1556 J. Heywood Spider & Fly lxxiv. 83, I was on some side vneth vowed, Ere I had..judgement of death.

† Unneth, adv. Obs. Forms: 1 a. 3 unneðes, 4 unepes, 4–6 unethes (5–6 -is), 5 onethes (-ys), anedes, 6 uneathes. β. 2–3 unneðes, 4 unnepes (-is, -ys, -us), 4–6 unnethes (4–5 -is, 5 -ys), 5 onnethis. γ. 4 uneths, 4–5, 7 unneths. δ. north. and Sc. 4 unees, 4–5 un(n)ese, 5 onnese, un(n)es, unnes, wnes, 5–6 uneis, 6 uneais. [f. prec. + -s.]

1. = Uneath adv. 1.

a, β, γ. c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 179 Unneðes hie winnen siet lere louerdes rihttes. c 1220 Bestiary 134 Ilc..nimeð vnne'es hurt, for his fel he ber leteð. c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 2341 He slo þat ilc ilke wrecche gon, And spus unneðes, so i rede. a 1300 Cursor M. 12686 Hes knes war bolnd sua þat he ne moght vnnethes ga. Ibid. 20982 Vnneths he lar lif a-way. c 1330 R. Brunne Chron. Wace (Rolls) 1176 Bybinde, biforc, in þeynn bel cam, Vnnebes any a-way þer nam. c 1380 Wyclif Wks. (1880) 22 Þei wolen travaile..so bisily þat vnnepis may þei at reste seie metenes or masse. 1450 Paston Lett. I. 124, I..have soo wesche this litel bille with sorwfulle terys, that on-ethes I shalle write it to youre lordshipe. Ibid. (Arb.) 23 In a voyce onethys audybille and noo thyng intelligibille. c 1520 Barclay Ygurtha (1557) 7 b, Vnnethes coude he with moche paine induce him therto. c 1530 Lo. Berners Arth. Lyt. Brytt. (1814) 135 Rodoryk, of such heyght, that..the toppe of them myght vnnethes be seene. 1590 Spenser F. Q. II. vi. 1 Vneathes it can refraine From that, which feable nature couets faine. 1622 Br. Mountagu Diatribe 22 For unneths shall we finde a man,..but hath a rang one of these two wayes. 1635 Heywood Hierarchy IX. 579 He lifts at juggs.., but they..Had been so well fill'd, that he vnneths may Adiuance them..to his head.

δ. a 1300 Cursor M. 1648 Al þat þai worthi for to wite, wnes a sal hiden ivelnes. c 1325 Sc. Leg. Saints xix. (Christopher) 247 [e lytil barne..wox [h]euiare mare & mare, þat wnese oure þe watir he wane. c 1400 Yeuinge & Gaw. 342 There sal cum slik sleite and mayne, That unnese sal thou stand ogayne. c 1450 St. Cuthbert (Surtees) 262 þar was a grete clerenes of lyght,..Vnnes þar on men luke myght. c 1475 Rauf Coilsear 157 He start vp stoutly agane—vneis micht he stand. 1500–20 Dunbar Poems lxxii. 45 Vneis with lyf he mycht sustene That crune.

2. = Uneath adv. 2 a.

1388 Wyclif Gen. xxxiii. 11 Vnnethis, while the brothir compellide, he resseyuede, and seide, Go we to gidere.

3. = Uneath adv. 3.

a 1300 Cursor M. 8139 Vnnethes [Gött. unese] had he mondi his mode, þat a lam fra he wandes stode. c 1340 Hampole Pr. Conse. 476 For unnethes ea a child born fully þat it se bygynnes to..cry. 1388 Wyclif Gen. xxvii. 30 Vnnethis Isaac hadde fillid the word, and..Esau cam.

Uneating, vbl. sb. (Un-¹ 13.) 1692 R. L'Estrange Fables I. 51 They, that take Eating and Drinking, and Un-Eating, and Un-Drinking,..to be the Great Bus'ness of Mankind. Une'bbing, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10.) 1652 Benlowes Theoph. VII. xc, Floods of unebbing joyes from Thee do rowl. 1822 Byron Foscari iv, Unrivall, Oh, glorious laurel! since for one sole leaf,..Of blood and tears must flow the unebbing sea.

Une'briate, a. (Un-¹ 7, 5 b.] a. Unintoxicating. b. Untoxicated. 1853 Lytton My Novel iv. xvii, There were.. unebriate liquors, pressed from cooling fruits. Ibid. vi. xxii, Forth, unebriate, unpolluted, he came from the orgy. Unecclesia·stical, a. (Un-¹ 7). -ally, adv. (Un-¹ 11.) 1766 Sterne Tr. Shandy IX. iv, Most unecclesiastically did the Corporal do it. 1834 Mozley Lett. (1888) 40 Newman and all his party declare it to be quite unecclesiastical. 1870 E. R. Wilson Ch. & Dissent 14 Carlisle Church is another of the unecclesiastical buildings. Une·choed, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1601 Sir W. Cornwallis Ess. II. xlii, Speach and reason.. loue trafficke and exercise, the former of which is vnechoed without company. Une·choing, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10.) 1817 Moore Lalla R., Veiled Proph. Khorassan 486 The.. Priestess, whose light bound Came like a spirit o'er th' unechoing round. 1823 J. Wilson Marg. Lyndsay IX. 66 There was..no sound in the misty and unechoing air.

Uneclipsed, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1649 Rawlins in Lovelace Poems (1904) 8 More bright Then the first day in 's uneclipsed light, Is thy Lucasta. a 1687 R. Loveday Lett. (1663) 180 Till the uneclipsed Sun shall chase keen winter before his victorious rayes. 1764 Phil. Trans. LIV. 106 A full digit of the sun, or more, remained uneclipsed. 1827 Pollok Course T. vi. 357 The moon..grew black and dark, Unclouded, uneclipsed. 1882 Nature XXV. 573 Various phenomena observed on the uneclipsed sun. Jg. 1675 tr. Camden's Hist. Eliz. III. 269 Her Glory, she retained intire to herself and uneclipsed. 1683 in Lond. Gaz. No. 1856/5 An uninterrupted, uneclips'd Monarchy. 1824 Galt Rothelan IV. vii, Increasing the lustre of your own hitherto unclouded and uneclipsed name.

Uneconomical, a. (Un-¹ 7). -ally, adv. -alness. 1816 Dentham Chrestom. Wks. 1843 VIII. 117 As to uneconomicalness. 1840 Herschel Ess. (1857) 109 The abandonment of ancient methods as comparatively inefficient and uneconomical. 1881 Nature XXIV. 137 It would work.. not so uneconomically as to be..fatal to the proposed use.

Une·dge, v. [Un-² 4.] trans. To take the edge off; to blunt. Also fig.

a 1614 Fletcher Valentinian i. iii, Here our weapons And bodies..Are both unedg'd and old with ease and women. 1638 Mayne Lucian (1664) 71 Least despaire should lessen their flame, or unedge their desires. 1718 D'Urfey Grecian Heroine v. 1, About good Kings, I grant there is a..sacred Virtue That would unedge the Sword of Treachery.

Une·dged, a. (Un-¹ 9.) 1799 Lamb J. Woodvil in Lett. (1837) I. 126 To instruct raw youth in..practice of the unedg'd players' foils. Une·dible, a. (Un-¹ 7 and 5 b.) 1884 Impl. Dict. (citing H. Miller). 1894 19th Cent. XXXVI. 421 We repined under a spending tree, a wild unedible fig.

Une·dified, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1618 Fletcher Women Pleas'd iv. i, This un-edified ambling, hath brought a scourge upon us. 1644 Milton Areop. (Arb.) 59 Our Ministers..frequented with such an unprincipl'd, unedifying, and laide reliqui. 1746 Hervey Hobbinolia II. 261 In Shoals they come, Neglected, feeless Clients, nor return Unedify'd. 1825 Lamb Lett. (1888) I. 298 My zeal is great against the unedified heathen. 1859 Sala Tw. round Clock (1862) 58 Not wholly, I trust, unedified by the cursory view we have taken of Babylon the Great.

Une·difying, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10, 5 b.) Also unedifyingly adv. (Webster, 1847).

1641 Br. Hall Answ. Vind. Smect. II. 19 Bringing in loud Musick; uncouth, and unedifying Anthems. 1698 Norris Pract. Disc. (1707) IV. 2 Those that thinke and know most, being remarkable for speaking least, which makes their conversation so insignificant and unedifying. 1722 Wodrow Corr. (1843) II. 649 Matters are yet before sub-committees, and tedious, unedifying delatesse taes place. 1824 Beckford Italy II. 309 It was not unedifying to witness the solemnity ..with which these devotions were performed. 1881 W. R. Smith Old Test. in Jews. Ch. i. 10 Finding much that seems ..at first sight, positively unedifying.

Une·dited, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8, 5 b.) 1829 Q. Rev. XXXIX. 368 The unedited Poem on the Superstitions of the North. 1834 J. Akerman (title), Descriptive Catalogue of Rare and Unedited Roman Coins. Une·ducable, a. (Un-¹ 7 b, 5 b.) 1884 Contemp. Rev. May 685 The Serbs are..unless utterly uneducable, is directed to a suitable dietary. Une·ducate, a. Obs. exc. Sc. [Un-¹ 8 b.] Uneducated. 1592 Kyd Sol. & Persa I. iii. 141 [harsh, un-educate, illiterate peasant. 1871 W. Alexander Johnny Gibb xxxv, An inhaudin, unedicat taupie chiel.

Une·ducate, v. (Un-² 3.)

1838 R. Mudie Man his Phys. Struct. II. 66 That system which uneducates the physical powers of the child. 1852 Spencer Soc. Stat. xxi. 320, 355 A government can not educate in one direction only by uneducating in another.

Une·ducated, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1588 Shaks. L. L. L. iv. ii. 17 After his vndressed, vnpolished, vneducated, fashion. a 1676 M. Hale Prov. for Poor Pref. The multitude of Poor, and necessitous, and uneducated persons. 1780 Mirror No. 106, His mind was as empty and uneducated as that of Drexelius. 1847 Prescott Peru (1850) II. 348 His uneducated mind had no relish for..intellectual recreation. 1872 B. Taylor Stud. Germ. Lift. 87 He was wholly uneducated, could not read and write.

Hence Une·ducatedness.

1825 Bentham Offic. App. Maximized, Indic. (1830) 59 Uneducatedness..operating in extenuation of moral guilt.

Une·rily, adv. Sc. [Un-¹ 11.] † Fearlessly.

c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xliii. (Cecilia) 379 Þal brethire þane vneirely Sad to be prefet opynly [etc.]

† Une·ffable, a. [Un-¹ 7, 5 b.] = Ineffable a

c 1400 Comm. Luke i. 20 (MS. Bodl. 143), þe heuenly & vneffable natiuyte of crist. 1548 Udall, etc. Erasm. Par. John 26 Therfore there is felt an vneffable strength & efficacie. 1575–85 Abp. Sandys Serm. 264 Yes, inestimable & vneffable was the loue of our gratious Lord. 1614 Raleigh Hist. World I. i. 1 God, whom the first men acknowledge to be a Power vneffable. 1689 Contempl. St. Man II. iv. (1699) 160 The Joy and Happiness of God, must needs be infinite and uneffable.

Uneffaceable, a. (Un-¹ 7 b and 5 b.) 1611 [see Undeface-able a.]. 1851 [J. B. Hume] Poems Early Years 169 A fragment of a sculptured stone..; there it lies Apart and uneffaceable.

Uneffa·ced, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
[1775 Ash.] 1592 Byron V. Knox Serm. ii. 46 If we have received a good imp...ssion, let us bear it away unefaced to our graves. 1826 Byron Siege Cor. iv, Unnamed accusers.. Within the 'Lion's mouth' had placed A charge against him unefaced. 1864 Pusey Lect. Daniel 564 Its own unchanging brightness.. unefaced, undimmed, uninjured.

Uneffe·ctual, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)
1594 Kyd Span. Trag. iii. iv. 80 One onely thing is vneffected yet, And thats to see the Executioner. 1653 Whitelocke Jrnl. Swed. Emb. (1772) I. 75 Butt the business was delayed, and unefected. to Whitelocke's great discouragement. 1846 Worcester (citing C. B. Brown).

Uneffe·ctible, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1646 Earl Monm. tr. Biondi's Civil Wars ix. 167 Moved by her womanish anger to practise uneffectible Chimera's, she lost her Honour.

Uneffective, a. (Un-[1] and 3 b.) 1658 G. Cantakes in Gataker's Antid. Errour Ep. Ded. A iij, The Stars, Skie, Air, or other Elements, which are all..uneffective upon the wills of men. a 1676 Hale Prim. Orig. Man. iv. vii. (1677) 351 Yet a Law or Rule or Order is a dead, unactive, uneffective thing of it self. Uneffe·ctless, a. (Un-[1] 7.) Not ineffective. 1607 Topsell Four-f. Beasts 347 This I have proued vneffectlesse for this disease, and also much auailable for any other inward sickenesse.

† Uneffe·ctual, adv., † Uneffe·ctualness.
1661 Baxter Mor. Prognost. ii. xxxiii. 55 Nor [shall]an uncertain Evil be uneffectually resisted by a certain greater Mischief. 1598 Florio, Inefficacia, vneffectualnes. 1652 Baxter Inf. Bapt. 319 His..reasons of the vneffectualnesse of baptism to some. 1663 Boyle Usefu. Exp. Nat. Philos. ii. 228 Having found the uneffectualness of ordinary Remedies,.. he resolved to try a sympathetick Medicine.

† Uneffectuous, a. Obs. (Un-[1] 7.) 1549 W. Wycherley in Lond. MS. 2, fol. 63b, Adoun wyth the olde past he vsed.. a sworde vnconsecrated, and therefor vneffectuose. Uneffe·minate, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1606 Daumm. of Hawth. Answ. Chall. Knts. Wks. (1711) 233 Men, overcome with Women, are meiter, far inferior to the Valiant of uneffeminate Knights. Unefferminate, v. (Un-[2] 6a.) 1631 Quarles Sampson Wks. (Grosart) II. 144/2 That strength of Nature..with her manly bounty did begin To uneffeminate his smoother chin. Uneffe·minated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1823 T. Busby Lucretius II. v. p. xxvii, Uneffeminated by luxury, his naked body braved the boisterous winds. †Uneffery de (un-yfurreth), obs. var. Unfurred ppl. a. 1532 Rec. St. Mary at Hill (1905) 44 Item, iij parteletes of velvet, two feryd with Conyne and two vneffeyrde. †Uneffica·cious, a. (Un-[1] and 5 b.) 1742 Johnson's Debates (1787) II. 264 Mocking her calamities with uneffacacious friendship. Uneffigiated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 : cf. Effigiate.) 1747 Carte Hist. Eng. I. 44 A great unshapen uneffigiated pillar or obelisk. Unefful·sed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1847 G. S. Faber Sacr. Calend. Prophecy (1844) III. 236 The contents of the still uneffused seventh vial.

† Unegall, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7, 3 b : cf. WFris. on-, inegael, and Unequal a.] Unequal. Also † Une·gally adv., † Une·galness.
1508 Fisher Penit. Ps. li. Wks. (1876) 104 Is not my waye good and egall, & yours shrewed nught & more vnegall [L. prava]. 1589 Puttenham Eng. Poesie i. xx. (Arb.) 57 Not onely because mens estates are vnegal, but for that also vertue it selfe is not in euery respect of egall vse. 1541 R. Copland Galyen's Terap. 2 D ij b, After the pustule is broken there commeth an vicere dyscoloured with fretyng vnegally. 1589 Puttenham Eng. Poesie ii. iii. (Arb.) 81 He must be sometimes swift, sometimes slow, sometimes vnegally marching. 1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. iv. 98 It behoued that he shouldie shewe that there is no vnegalnesse betweene vs and them in those good thinges.

Unegested, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1656 T. Adams Serm. Wks. (1629) 1053 The former crudities vndigested, vnegested, hauing the greater force, turne the good nutriment into themselues. Unegoti·stically, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1854 E. G. Holland Mem. Badger vii 91 Unegotistically do I record the simple fact. † Une·guality, var. Unegality. 1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 48 b, Thou and I do carke & feare for a..life of vnegual valour [=value]. 1553 T. Wilson Rhet. 101 b, Unegualll example commende muche the matter, 1548 Udall, etc. Erasm. xiv. 127 b, To prye the hasarde of battayie with powers..*vnegually matched.

Unela·borate, a. (Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.) 1663 Boyle Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. ii. v. vi. 159 Either simples, or cheap, or unelaborate Galenical mixtures. 1688 — Final Causes Nat. Things ii. 44 Most of them..are of such easy and unelaborate structures. 1747 Warburton in Shakespeare's Wks. VII. 349 The work of brief nature, i.e. of hasty, unelaborate nature. 1819 Wordsw. To Rev. Dr. Wordsw. 34 Whether the rich man's sumptuous gate Call forth the unelaborate sounds [etc.]. 1853 Ruskin Stones Ven. III. ii. 106 The comparatively Hebraized and unelaborate idiom.

Unela·borated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 and 5 b.) 1817 Coleridge Biog. Lit. xviii. (1907) II. 38 Simple and unelaborated expressions. 1850 Carlyle Latter-day Pamph. ii. (1872) 21 The materials of human virtue..lie yet unelaborated and stagnant in..[their] souls. Unela·psed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1805 Ann. Reg. III. 307 The average unelapsed term of a lease being three years and a half.

Unela·stic, a. (Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.)
1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Elasticity, The Difference between Elastic and Unelastic Bodies. 1764 Reid Inquiry vi § 21 Are the small vessels distended with some redundant elastic or unelastic fluid? 1846 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. IV. xlvi. 259 A hard unelastic substance like wood. 1861 Beresf. Hope Eng. Cathedr. 19th C. 14 An unelastic law of parochial subdivision and endowment.

Hence Unelasti·city. (Webster, 1847.)

Unela·ted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
1710 Palmer Prov. 236 How happy shou'd we be, if we cou'd..best prosperity with a steady unelated mind. 1758 Johnson Idler No. 11 ¶ 10 To make man unshaken by calamity, and unelated by success. 1885 Soc. in London 285 Unelated by the memory of past successes.

Une·lbowed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
1732 Pope Ep. Bathurst 22 Is there a Lord..Whose table, Wit, or modest Merit share, Unelbow'd by a Gamester, Pimp, or Play'r? 1814 Wordsw. Excurs. ix. 130 Unelbowed by such objects as oppress Our active powers. 1866 Seeley Ecce Homo viii. 135 When the Heroic cannot walk the Via Sacra unelbowed by Greeks and Syrians.

† Une·ld. Obs. [Un-[1] 4 b.] Weak or miserable old age. a 1300 E. E. Psalter lxx. 18 Til in-elde and alder-elde, God, ne deleteie me in vnelede [Cotton MS. ne vnere]. (Un-[2] 3.) 1570 Foxe A. & M. (ed. 2) 362/2 One John Blund was elected, who..was also repealed and vnelected agayne.

Unele·cted, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)
1581 Sidney Apol. Poetrie (Arb.) 20 In these my not old verses.. thinke not slip into the title of a Poet, [I am provoked to say something vnto you in the defence of that my vnelected vocation. 1607 Shaks. Cor. II. iii. 207 You should haue ta'ne th' aduantage of his Choller, And pass'd him vnelected. 1620 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. v. (1626) 97 Then, vnelected, rudely stept forth one, Who sung the Giants warre. 1836 E. Howard R. Reefer vi, The agonies of a new-born infant, under the torture of eternal fire, because it had died unelected. 1866 Sat. Rev. 8 Sept. 286/1 The privilege of..telling the unelected many [etc.].

Unele·ctive, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1666 Br. S. Parker Free & Impart. Censure (1667) 161 The Issues of a necessary and unelective cause. a 1675 Hale Prim. Orig. Man. iii. v. (1677) 274 An ignorant, unknowing, unelective Principle.

Unele·ctric, a. [1775 Ash.] 1876 Blackmore Cripps xxvii, To do all this required somehow with a mind so unelectric.

Unele·ctrified, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)
1747 Gentl. Mag. 200/2 Six being addled eggs, among which was one unelectrified egg. 1772 Phil. Trans. LXII. 654 A small unelectrified ball. 1867 Noad Text Bk. Electricity 207 In its natural or unelectrified state the natural electricities..are in equilibrium.

Unele·ctrify, v. (Un-[2] 6.) 1760 Phil. Trans. LI. 900 After unelectrifying the bottle, it was set again upon the stand of wood. Unele·ctrized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1761 Phil. Trans. LIII. 84, I placed myself on an electric stand, and, being well electrized, threw my hat on an unelectrized person. † Une·led, ppl. a. Obs. [f. Un-[1] 8 + OE. ælan to burn : cf. Anneal v.] Unbaked. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. ix. 103 A potters potte vneled wol alete..Yf eny sprynge of water ther wole rise.

† Une·legant, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.] = Inelegant a.
1570 Levins Manip. 26 Vnelegant, inelegans. 1611 Florio, Inelegante, vnelegant, without grace. 1656 Dryden Ann. Mirab. Pref., I hope they are neither improper nor altogether unelegant in Verse. 1712 Spect. No. 67 ¶ 8 Considering, that the Person who collected them is a Man of no unelegant Taste. a 1768 Secker Serm. (1771) VII. xv. 343 Possibly in some of these Books you meet with Expressions..which appear unelegant and singular.

So † Une·legantly adv. Obs.
1603 Holland Plutarch's Mor. 527 Neither seemeth he unelegantly and besides the purpose..to have expressed as much in this verse. 1659 O. Walker Oratory 23 Transitions ..are not unelegantly ushered in, by the Orators making Interrogations himself. 1758 Jortin Erasm. I. 142 It was no wonder if they wrote it ill and unelegantly.

Unelementary, a. (Un-[1] 7.) a 1706 Evelyn Hist. Relig. (1850) I. 85 Things unelementary, incorporeal, and consequently immortal. † Une·lemeratated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) Ibid. I. 150 That they could tell us how to unite an unelementated substance with corporeal matter.

Une·levated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
1667 R. Sclater Expt. 2 Thess. (1629) 243 Nature, I mean, vnelevated with the Spirit of God, and vnaltered by grace. 1690 Shadwell Am. Bigot 1, Thou hast a gross unelevated fancy. 1774 Trinket 198 A soul unelevated by nature, or worn down by art. 1877 F. H. Laing Bacon's Philos. Exam. 7 So unelevated a philosopher as the materialist Mill.

† Une·ligible, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.] = Ineligible a.
1690 Locke Hum. Und. I. iii. § 13 Unavoidable punishment, great enough to make the transgression very uneligible. 1709 Shaftesb. Characs. (1711) II. 142 He himself may..endeavour the utmost Enlargement of his own uneligible State. 1775 Adair Amer. Ind. xx. 187 [The] state of celibacy; which to many of them is as uneligible, as it was to the Hebrew ladies.

Unelimmed, a. (Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.) 1876 Contemp. Rev. XXVIII. 800 The unelimmable element of dualistic relation and difference.

Une·loquent, a. (Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.)
1565 Cooper Thesaurus s.v. Incolo, A rude style without eloquence : vnelocuent. 1603 Florio Montaigne iii. x. 6, If they once conceive a hatred against an Orator..the next day he becometh barbarous and vneloquent. 1642 Gauden Serm. 63 Innocence is often timorous, uneloquent, unexpert. 1885 Pennell Fishing 241 The foregoing description, however uneloquent, may give..a faint Idea of what every lover of the sport feels on rising and hooking a salmon.

Une·loquently, adv. (Un-[1] 11, 5 b ; cf. prec.)
1611 Cotgr., Indisertement, vneloquently. 1792 A. Young Travs. France (1794) I. 124 He speaks ungracefully, and uneloquently. 1836 J. Gilbert Chr. Atonem. ix. 412 We give many of you credit..for kindly deeds, and for recommending them not uneloquently.

Unelucidated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1845 Encycl. Metrop. II. 740/1 The most diligent research has left many things obscure and unelucidated. Unema·nicipated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1841 Lane Arab. Nts. I. 63 Unemancipated slaves..become the property of his heirs. 1875 Maine Hist. Inst. vii. 223 The home-staying, unemancipated son..is preferred to the others. Unema·sculated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1791 Cowper Iliad xxiii. 474 Borne by his unemasculated steeds Of Trojan pedigree. 1888 Pall Mall G. 6 June 6/1 If it becomes law with its main provisions unemasculated.

Unembacelled, obs. var. Unembezzled.

Unemba·lmed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) c 1730 Waldron Descr. Isle of Man Wks. (1731) 144 A human Body, unembowelled, unembalmed. 1800 in Spirit Pub. Jrnls. IV. 204 Yet one shall moulder unembalmed in the dust. Unemba·nked, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1807 Britton Lincoln 247 He conjectures there may be..200,000 [acres] of commons, wastes, and unembanked salt marshes. 1894 Daily News 2 July 5/2 The Thames, unparalled and unembanked.

Unemba·rrassed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]
1. Not encumbered, hampered, or impeded. (In lit. or fig. uses.)
1708 Diss. Drunkenness 31 Temperance, how clean and unembarrassed it keeps the Senses ! 1717 Berkeley in Fraser Life (1871) 551 [The church of] St. Spiritus [is] very neat and unembarrassed [with ornaments]. 1796 Instr. & Reg. Cavalry (1813) 201 The movements of the second line to conform to that of the first are free and unembarrassed. 1836 J. Gilbert Chr. Atonem. ix. (1852) 206 Not a single doctrine could remain unembarrassed with doubt. 1884 Manch. Exam. 6 Oct. 5/2 To be left to pursue an unembarrassed course in [governing] Egypt.
2. Not confused or constrained ; free, at ease.
1746 Yorke in G. Harris Life Ld. Hardwicke (1847) II. 235 The second [ballad] is entitled, 'The Unembarrassed Countenance'. 1762 Foote Liar i. 1, He is as unimbarrassed, easy, and fluent..as if he really believed what he said. 1786 Beckford's Vathek (1868) 73 His gait was unembarrassed and noble. 1820 Thackeray Vanderoix xxix, The young man was perfectly easy and unembarrassed. 1897 Harper's Mag. Apr. 726 Declining the unembarrassed entreaties.. I despatched my inquiries and fled.

Unemba·rrassedly, adv. (Un-[1] 11 cf. prec.) 1873 Miss Bickerton Rosamond, II, Looking frankly and unembarrassedly up into his face. Unemba·rrassing,-ment: see Un-[1] 8 and 12. Unembattled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
1623 G. Sandys Trans. 233 [The walls..vnimbattaled, and shining on the outside. 1876 T. Hardy Ethelberta (1890) 360 The square unembattled tower of Knollsea Church.

Unembe·llished, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
1630 Fanshawe Pastor Fido, etc. (1648) 228 Let no darke corner of the land be unembellisht with one Gemme. 1721 Eusebius in Addison Cato A. V. Wks. 1721 I. 208 Such energy of sense might pleasure raise, Tho' unembellish'd with the charms of phrase. a 1763 Shenstone Past. Ode Lyttleton 148 And Grenville..prais'd these unembellish'd woods. 1805 Wordsw. Prelude iii. 108 Earth, nowhere unembellished by some trace Of that first Paradise whence man was driven. 1862 † Shirley ('J. Skelton') Nugæ Crit. ix. 416 A literal and unembellished account of the fact.

Unembe·zzled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
1546 Inst. Ch. Gents (Surtees) 87 One chalice of sylver, and also two bells..savely to be kept unspoiled, unembecyled, and sold. 1553 Ibid. 88 To..kepe unspoiled, unembaccelled and solde. 1643 Chas. I in Carte Coll. (1735) 165 That the houses, chattels and other estates..be saved harmless,..that so they may be found unimbezzeled. 1744 Eliza Heywood Female Spect. No. 3 (1748) I. 120 We should leave it as entire and unembezzled as we received it.

Unembi·ttered, ppl. a. Also 8-9 unim-. (Un-[1] 8.)
a. a 1731 Ken Hymns Evang. Poet. Wks. 1721 I. 102 Bless'd are the Meek,..Who unimbitter'd, the injurious treat. 1748 Hervey Medit. (ed. 4) II. 69 Those happy Regions, where Delights, abundant and unimbittered flow. 1826 Scott Antip. xvi, While the tear can drop unimbittered by any painful recollection.
b. 1744 Young Nt. Th. vii. 296 They drink the Stream ..un-embitter'd With Doubts, Fears, fruitless Hopes. 1786 Fermete the Philanthropist II. 92 Our parting ..was however unembittered by any apprehensions. 1824 Whitwell in Todhunter Acc. Writ. (1876) II. 176, I am to have them unembittered by that part of the business.

Unembo·died, ppl. a. Also unim-. [Un-[1] 8.]
1. Not invested with a body ; incorporeal.
1662 Glanvill Lux Orient. xiii. (1682) 104 To urge, that there are..purely unembodied Spirits in the Universe. 1719 De Foe Crusoe II. (Globe) 363, I am satisfied our Spirits embodied have a Converse with..the Spirits unembodied. a 1768 Mrs. F. Sheridan Nourjahad (1767) 196 He felt as if were unimbodied, and an invisible adjuration had burst from his lips. 1848 R. I. Wilberforce Incarnation xii. 393 The natural intercourse of the mind with its unembodied Creator. 1895 Mitman Lat. Chr. xiv. iii. VI. 468 Matter ..subsisted potentially (or only..) unembodied, immaterial.
2. Not embodied, in various senses.
1760 Ann. Reg., Chron. 189 The charge of pay and cloathing for the unembodied militia. 1841 Miall in Nonconf. I. 27 A mere theory,..an abstract unembodied principle.

Unembowelled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) c 1730 (see Unembalmed). Unembowered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1824 Wordsw. Excurs. vii. 55 All unembowered And naked stood that lowly Parsonage. Unembra·ceable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1899 G. Meredith Poet. & Ks. (1912) 92 The bride..Scorcely forceable, Quite unembraceable !

Unembra·ced, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
[1775 Ash.] 1792 Elvina II. 83 [They] took their departure, unattended,—unembraced,—unregretted. 1853 Talfourd Castilian v. iii, It is hard To leave her unembraced, yet on a moment Hangs the last basise. 1867 Morris Jason x. 272 Another monster..raised aloft his crest Against her unembraced tender breast.

Unembroi·dered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1649 Lovelace Poems (1904) 136 Naked as their own innocence, And unimbroyder'd from Offence. Unembruted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1759 H. Walpole Let. to Mann 13 Sept., An opportunity of embrolling the little of Europe that remains unembroiled.

Unement, obs. form of Ointment.

Unemo·lumented, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1820 Bentham Offic. Apt. Maximised, Def. Econ. (1830) 126 The expense..they have been at in obtaining their unemolumented seats.

Unemo·tional, a. (Un- 1 7.)
Frequent from c 1880 ; hence also, in recent use, unemotionalism, unemotionalness.

1876 Geo. Eliot Dan. Der. lxii, Lapidoth..thought of all that this inscription signified with an unemotional memory. 1887 Miss Braddon Like & Unlike x. He was the most unemotional young man Colonel Deverill had ever encountered.

Hence Unemotionally adv.

1884 Athenæum 12 Jan. 52/1 The aged cynic, whose ungraceful task it is to regard them unemotionally. 1894 Du Maurier Trilby II. 202 He unemotionally, dispassionately, wished himself dead.

Unemo·tioned, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1817 W. Godwin Mandeville III. v. 98 The dry, parsimonious, unemotioned, way which he detailed them (sc. anecdotes). Une·mperor, v. (Un-[2] 6.) 1642 Fuller Holy & Prof. St. v. xviii. (1841) 427 Prince Manuel..in vain opposed this decree, alleging this to be the royal way for his father to un-emperor himself.

Unempha·tic, a. and sb. (Un-[1] 7.)

1800 Monthly Mag. X. 317 An emphatic syllable is long; an unemphatic syllable, short. 1836-7 Sir W. Hamilton Lect. Metaph. xxi. (1859) II. 19 The participle knowing is too vague and unemphatic to be employed. 1894 Blackie Self-Cult. 74 The general action..languid and unemphatic.

b. As sb. An unstressed syllable.

1815 Monthly Mag. XXXIX. 128 The regular arrangement of their longs and shorts,..their emphatics and unemphatics.

So Unempha·tical a. (Worcester, 1846, citing Brown), -tically adv. (Webster, 1847).

Unemphatically, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) a 1849 Poe Eureka Wks. 1865 II. 137 This result is in the fullest keeping with that which I have reached unemphatically. Unemployed (Un-[1] 12.) 1887 P. W. Newman in Sieveking Mem. (1909) x. 241 Unless..the causes of Un-Employed be removed, we must calculate on frightful disorder. 1891 [see Prochology].

Unemployable, a. and sb. (Un-[1] 7 b.) Common in recent use; hence unemployability.

1887 St. James's Gaz. 22 Dec. 4/1 Persons who are unemployed because they are unemployable. 1890 Q. Rev. Jan. 174 The class of the casual labourer or the unemployable.

Unemployed, ppl. a. and sb. Also 7–8 unim-. (Un-[1] 8.)

1. Not put to use; not applied to some end or purpose.

1600 Surflet Countrie Farme ii. iii. 205 Wherefore it behoueth that the vnimploied or fallow ground..be first well cleansed from stones. 1665 In De Fox Plague (1754) 53 Till their Coaches..have stood unemploy'd by the Space of five or six Days after such Service. 1748 Chesterf. Let. 16 Feb., Every moment may be put to some use, and that with much more pleasure than if it is unemployed. 1826 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. III. 363 The real instrument of suction, which when unemployed is retracted within the tubulet. 1882a Child Ballads Advt. p. vii, No becoming means has been left unemployed.

2. Not engaged in any work or occupation; idle; spec. temporarily out of work.

1667 Milton P. L. iv. 617 Other Creatures all day long Rove idle unimploid, and less need rest. 1677 Yarranton Eng. Improv. 6v Adam then be in England and Wales a hundred thousand poor people unimployed. 1740 Cibber Apol. (1756) I. 167, I remember him three times for some years unemploy'd in any theatre. 1824 Miss L. M. Hawkins Annalina I. 40 Being unemployed they amused themselves and others with conjectures. 1860 Ruskin Unto this Last iii. § 54 The vexed question of the destinies of the unemployed workmen. 1889 [see Unemployable].

b. absol. or as sb.

1882 Pall Mall G. 10 May 3/2 The genuine total abstainers among the unemployed. 1900 H. Lawson On Track 208 Here I've been mooning round like an unemployed for three weeks.

c. Pertaining to, connected with, unemployed persons.

1844 Stocqueler Handbk. Brit. India 49 During this interval he draws the unemployed salary of three hundred rupees per mensem. 1895 Daily News 19 Aug. 5/3 Twenty-four per cent. of its 10,000 members received unemployed benefits.

Unemployment. (Un-[1] 12.)

In common use from c 1895 (cf. Unemploy). Also attrib. with insurance, problem, etc.

1888 Science XI. 194/1 The chief purpose of the inquiry was to ascertain..the extent of unemployment generally. 1894 Liberal 1 Dec. 6/3 These figures..represent the normal unemployment of the State.

Unempoisoned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1792 Charlotte Smith Celestina (ed. 2) II. 27 'Till I..can see you, with all those delicious hopes unempoisoned. Unempowered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1731 A. Hill Acth. Poem Ep. p. vi, The Poet,..unimpower'd to act greatly Himself, asserts his Fire in describing the Great Actions of others.

Une·mpt, v. dial. [Un-[2] 9.] trans. To empty, to unload.

1798 J. Jefferson Let. to T. Boucher 29 Mar. (MS.), 1847- in dial. glossaries (Lincolnshire and western).

Une·mptiable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1594 Hooker Eccl. Pol. ii. i. § 4 A drop of that vnemptiable Fountaine of wisdome. 1682 Farrar Early Chr. I. 286 I he unemptiable fountain of Divine wisdom. †Une·mptible, a. Obs. (Cf. prec. and Empt v.) 1656 Jeanes Jhon. Christ 229 An indeficient fullnesse, an inexhaustible fountaine, unemptible treasures.

Une·mptied, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1624 Massinger Renegado iii. iii, There is not a vein of mine which yet is Unempted in his service but..should freely open. 1655 Vaughan Silex Scintill. Rules & Lessons xvii, Admire his ways Who fils the world's unempty'd granaries! 1820 Southey Kehama xxiv. xx, Yielding to the bony hand The unempted cup, he moved toward the Throne. 1828 Byron Ch. Harold iv. lxx, An unceasing shower ..With its unempted cloud of gentle rain.

Une·mulative, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1775 J. Collier Mus. Trans. (ed. 2) 68 The vulgar restrictions which reason imposes upon unemulative minds. Unena·bled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1802 Southey Thalaba v. xxiii, No eye of mortal man, If unenabled by enchanted spell, Had pierced those fearful depths. Unena·cted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1802-12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) II. 187 Unpromulgated, and unenacted, and spurious laws. 1843 Keble in Newman's Corr. (1917) 232 The unenacted leanings and tendencies of a particular generation. Unena·melled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1851 G. A. Mantell Petrifacta. iii. 253 [Teeth having] an unenamelled triangular space. 1889 Anthony's Photogr. Bull. II. 128, I prefer the prints unenamelled. Unena·moured, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1791 Huddesford Salmag. (1795) 14 There Townsend threats the pleasing maze: Ah who can unenamoured gaze! †Unena·rable, a. Obs. (Un-[1] 7 b and 5 b.) 1382 Wyclif 2 Cor. ix. 15, I do thankingis to God vpon the vnenarrable, or that may not be told, 3ifte of hym. 1382 — 1 Pet. i. 8 In ioui desse vnenarrable. Unencha·nt, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1654 Gayton Pleas. Notes iv. ix. 237 Where by this time the Don is unlanchanted from sleep.

Unencha·nted, ppl. a. Also 7 uninchanted. (Un-[1] 8.)

1634 Milton Comus 305 But beauty..hath need the guard Of dragon watch with unchanted eye. a 1642 Quarles Hos. Recreat. x. 11 The rash reproving mouth of fools are arm'd Like unenchanted serpents, if not charm'd. 1791 Cowper Odyss. x. 399 Amaz'd I see thee with that potion drench'd, Yet unenchanted. 1810 Crabbe Tales xx. 118 It requires ascetic virtue..to remain unenchanted by the glare.

Unenclo·sed, ppl. a. Also unin-. (Un-[1] 8.)

1676 Rector's Bk., Clayworth (1910) 20 Such as had grounds still unenclosed. 1712 Blackmore Creation vii. 700 In the dark and undistinguish'd Space, Unfruitful, uninclos'd and void of Face. 1776 Adam Smith W. N. i. xi. 214 In waste and uninclosed lands, any person who discovers a tin mine, may mark out its limits. 1809 Pinkney Trav. France 67 Being situated in an unenclosed country. 1867 Latham Black & White 30, 1/4 A country two-thirds of which are uninclosed. 1878 Taunton Eng. Black Monks I. 108 Uninclosed runs doing God's work in the world.

Unenco·mpassed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] a 1822 [Shelley] 'There is no work' 16 A brain unencompassed with nerves of steel. 1848 Pusey Parech. Serm. i, viii. (1873) 152 His Own All-encompassing, Unencompassed Love.

Unencounterable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1590 T. Fenne Frutes 73 b, Philip King of Macedon having by..experience found out the unencountrable force thereof. Unenco·untered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1821 Scott Pirate ii, He was then most sure to wander unencountered and unobserved. Unencou·raged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1842 E. Forbes in Geikie Mem. xv. (1861) 554 Tastes that might have speedily perished if unobserved and unencouraged. Unencou·raging, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1844 Stocqueler Handbk. Brit. India 277 They are, however, in an awkward and unencouraging position. 1868 Polson Law & L. 105 To the junior part of the bar..Lord Kenyon was unencouraging and ungracious. Unencroa·ching, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) a 1626 F. Greville Sidney (1652) 40 Iudicious..Favourites of unencroaching Monarchs.

Unencu·mbered, ppl. a. Also 8–9 unin-. (Un-[1] 8.) a. In pred. use and const. with or by.

a. 1722 De Foe Plague (1754) 22 Such People as were unincumbred with Trades and Business. 1800 Asiat. Ann. Reg., Hist. Ind. 13/2 His forces now consisting of light horse only, unincumbered by artillery or heavy baggage. 1877 Mrs. Olphant Makers Flor. iv. 117 He is unincumbered by any restrictions.

b. 1727 Thomson Britannia 208 Unencumber'd with the Pack-horse, and the Mule. 1822 Scott Nigel x, His address was gallant, free, and unencumbered either by pride or ceremony. 1866 Geo. Eliot F. Holt iv, His small legs, uncumbered by any other drapery than his black silk stockings.

b. Without const., in predicative or attrib. use.

c 1292 Somerville Mardia's Ledger. xvii. 6 An estate,..unincumber'd left, and free from debt. 1781 Cowper Truth 22 Heav'n's easy, aridless, unincumber'd plan. 1818 Syd. Smith Wks. (1869) I. 235 This seems a very spirited, unincumbered way of passing through life. 1856 Kane Arct. Expl. I. xvi. 188 My first impulse was to move..with an unencumbered party. 1884 Sir E. Fry in Law Rep. 25 Ch. Div. 581 Jeffery was the unencumbered lessee..of all the other plots.

Hence Unencu·mberedness.

1891 Atlantic Monthly Feb. 282/2 To step jauntily along in airy unencumberedness.

Uncumbering, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) [1775 Ash.] 1824 Landor Imag. Conv. II. 330 They would lose..no graceful and unencumbering ornaments of life. 1862 Sir F. Palgrave Norm. & Eng. II. 506 The unencumbered, or armed and unincumbering garb. Uncency·sted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1885 Encycl. Brit. XIX. 855/2 In rare cases sporuliation has been observed in uncncysted Gregarinidea. ‡ Unendi·ed, ppl. a. An-ing adv. 1559 Bullinger Serg. Northumb. xvii, Whereas the folke drew to me stil vnendied.

Unenda·ngered, ppl. a. Also 7 unin-. (Un-[1] 8.)

a 1658 Cleveland Rustick Rampant Wks. (1687) 409 These Implieties being once allowed, there can be neither Peace, Society nor Government amongst Men, but all unindangered. 1746 Young Nt. Th. ix. 1191 Un-endanger'd in health, wealth, or fame. 1814 Wordsw. Excurs. iii. 523 See, rooted in the earth,..The unendangered myrtle.

Unendeared, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1667 Milton P. L. iv. 766 Not in the thought smile Of Harlots, loveless, joyless, unindeard. Unendeavoured, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1656 Earl Monm. tr. Boccalini's Advts. fr. Parnass. 167 Nothing was left unindeavoured, neither by himself, nor by other Princes. Unendeavouring, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1831 Carlyle Sart. Res. ii. iv, The as yet unexhausted, unattaining young gentleman.

Une·nded, ppl. a. Now rare. [Un-[1] 8: cf. OE. unġeendod.]

1. Not made to end or stop; having no limit or bounds; continued, lasting, infinite.

c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 3318 For ði hi ðu it þennes and þæse, ðu þines wended blisse. 1240-70 Alex. & Dind. 751 Bochoun þen þei echon 3our body to dismembre, & euerich pinchen his part þere paine is wended. 1382 Wyclif Job xxii. 5 For thi mychie malice, and thi wikkidnesis vnendid. c 1400 tr. Secrets Secret., Gen. Lorebk. 84 Thes er tho þat our soght, and disputed..of full, of voyde, of endyd, of vnendyd. 2522 Vaus Rudiment. Gram. Bb ij b (Jam.), Infinitivo modo. On-endyt or determyt mode to nownyr or persone. 1596 Edw. II, iv. 1. 139 Wherefore talkest thou of a period To that which craues vnended admiration?

2. Not brought to an end or conclusion; unfinished, incomplete.

1382 Wyclif Wisd. ix. 5 Forsothe brauncis vnendis (1388 vnperfit) shul be to-broken. 1471 Sc. Acts, Jas. III (1814) II. 101/1 Al materis..þat ar now opynit in þis present parliament & vnendit. 1535 Stewart Cron. Scot. (Rolls) II. 414 Rych weill ye ken.. Quire interpryss vnendit is and done. 1591 Sparry tr. Cattan's Geomancie 235 The sute shall be for unmoueable goods, and shall not last long unended. 1805 Monthly Mag. XX. 413 It would probably have remained unended for a long time.

Une·nding, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 10.] Endless.

1661 Feltham Resolves, etc. (ed. 8) 378 When we think we have progress'd far in the un-ending Circles of laborious Science. 1729 Madden Themistocles iv. i. 50 Have I not sworn at the conscious Shrines Unending Faith to Xerxes? 1767 Goldsm. Vic. W. xxix, When our loves shall be unutterable, and still, to crown all, unending. 1813 Shelley Q. Mab ii. 73 Countless and unending orbs In mazy motion intermingled. 1875 Clodd Childhood of Religions ii. 28 How Frost and Fire had fierce unending battle.

Hence Une·ndingly adv., Une·ndingness.

1674 N. Fairfax Bulk & Selv. 165 You can no wayes..say, This half is unbeginningly, and that unendingly. 1845 Bailey Festus (ed. 2) 39 Though a thousand worlds..were elinced Each minute into life unendingly. 1882 Brit. Q. Rev. Oct. 499 The theory of the literal unendingness of even moral perdition.

†Unendliche, adv.: see Un-[1] 3. †Une·ndly, a. Obs. (Un-[1] 7: cf. Endly a.) Unending. a 1580 Sidney Arcadia iii. i, Shall..faith and loue be rewarded with mortall disdaine, bent to vnendly reuenge? Unendo·rsed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1682a Scarlett Exchanges 196 When he makes his Bills, or accepts of unendorsed Bills. 1686 Times 30 Aug. 3/6 Recommendations unendorsed by Governmen.

Unendowed, ppl. a. Also 7 unin-. (Un-[1] 8.)

1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. i. § 142 A man rather..unindowed with any notable virtues, than..transported with any vitious inclinations. 1709 Pope Tem. & May 550 Reflect what truth was in my passion shewn, When unendow'd, I took thee for my own. 1790 [see Unconsecrated]. 1819 Crabbe T. of Hall ix. 42 That every beauty..Must be by him, if unendow'd, resign'd. 1866 Geo. Eliot Ex (1884) 348 The claims of the unendowed multitude of working men.

Unendue·d, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. v. § 341 A sufficient Instance how unendued Men were with that Spirit and Courage, which was requisite. 1855 Pusey Doctr. Real Presence Note 1. 106 Things unendued with reason. 1862 Bellicott Destiny Preachers, etc. ii. (1869) 28 Individuals that belong to lower genera unendued with foresight and reason.

Unendurable, a. (and sb.). Also 7 unin-. [Un-[1] 7 b.]

1. Incapable of enduring; †impatient of.

1630 R. Johnson's Kingd. & Commw. 79 In battell they are fearlesse,..and in service unindurable of temporizing. 1879 Cassell's Techn. Educ. I. 314 If the steel, broken granite ..will prove a useless because an unendurable surface.

2. That cannot be endured; insufferable.

1801 Southey Thalaba xii, xviii, No eye could penetrate That unendurable excess of light. 1853 Kane Grinnell Exp. xxxiv. (1856) 303 The sensation was unendurable..as a pain between the eyes and over the forehead. 1880 'Ouida' Moths x, This ceaseless sense of unendurable reproach.

b. absol. An insufferable person.

1826 F. Reynolds Life & Times II. 84 That my friend Andrews may not be considered as one of these unendurables, I will yet add another short anecdote of him.

Hence Unendurabi·lity.

1858 Carlyle Frederk. Gt. v. viii, Some excessive pressure of that liquing snuffling unendurability. 1862a Ibid. xii. xi, Such injustices and unendurabilities.

Unendurably, adv. [Un-[1] 11: cf. prec.] In an unendurable manner or degree.

1832 Southey Hist. Penins. War III. 203 That sovereignty ..would become unendurably tyrannical. 1867 Augusta Wilson Vashti xxvii, My ardent lover would be too unendurably miserable separated from me. 1892 L. Bourne-wood Col. Reformer (1891) 177 The routine life..would be unendurably dull.

Unendu·ring, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) [1775 Ash.] 1814 Wordsw. Excurs. ix. 6 The stars Of azure heaven, the unenduring clouds. 1855 Milman Lat. Chr. xiv. viii. II. 573 The architectural..conquests of Justinian were but partial and unenduring.

Unenerge·tic, a. (Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.)

1805 A. Knox Mem. I. 6 The cold, low, unenergetic notion of it..is really below Cicero in moral sublimity. 1862 Lockerby Pendennis II, He is a very good boy, rather idle and unenergetic. 1878 Shelley Sicin III. 532 A man of this unenergetic character..has no colour.

Unenfeebled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1766 in Hansard Parl. Debates (1813) XVI. 286 The supreme law with me shall ever be to maintain, unrelaxed and unenervated, the fundamentals of the constitution. 1854 J. S. C. Abbott Napoleon (1855) I. x. 174 We shall found a colony there unenfeebled by the curse of slavery. Unenfee·bled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1648 Hexham II, Ongebreukt, Vnweakened, or Vn-enfeebled. 1814 Wordsw. Excurs. vii. 208 The comeliness of unenfeebled age. 1878 E. Jenkins Haverholme 78 The new doctrine is, that the Crown has a sacred trust..to preserve the Regal prerogative unenfeebled.

Unenforceable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1868 Benjamin On Sales (1884) 5 o 'The terms of the bargain included a wager that rendered it illegal: quare—unenforceable. 1885 Law Times 10 Jan. 183/1 A covenant to build or repair would be unenforceable as against an assignee even with notice.

Unenforced, ppl. a. Also 7 unin-. (Un-[1] 8.)

1607 Hebron Wks. I. 220, I will let you see how this doctrine ariseth kindly and vn-enforced from this scripture. 1625 K. Long tr. Barclay's Argenis ii. vi. 80 By a slow and uninforced inhibition of the old discipline. 1646 Earl Monm. tr. Biondi's Civil Wars iv. 177 The Duke of Orleans would not, unenforced, yeeld to any Pacification. 1832 Moore Mem. (1854) VI. 267 Sifting both sides and leaving nothing unenforced on either. a 1861 Sir F. Palgrave Norm. & Eng. III. 363 A formal..submission..unenforced by the sword.

Hence Unenforcedly adv.

1617 Hieron Wks. II. 165 Foure points doe very kindly and vnenforcedly spring out of this place.

Unenfra·nchised, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1832 A. Fonblanque Eng. under 7 Administr. (1837) II. 292 The identity of interest of the enfranchised, and unenfranchised. 1878 Bosw. Smith Carthage 62 The long..struggle between the privileged Patricians and the unenfranchised plebeians.

Unenga·ged, ppl. a. Also 7–8 unin-. [Un-1 8.] †1. Unimpeded. Obs.—1

1653 Gauden Hierasp. To Rdr. 2 b, From which free and un-ingaged prospect both he and they may..behold the later..changes in exterior matters of Religion.

2. Not bound or committed in any way (esp. by a pledge or promise).

a 1656 Bp. Hall Modest Offer 2 Both the Houses of Parliament..stand yet free, and unengaged to any part. 1697 Collier Ess. Mor. Subj. I. (1703) 110 'Tis my humble Opinion, that they should keep their Inclinations unengaged. 1757 W. Wilkie Epigon. v. 148 The truce subsists with all the rest; are we Alone excepted, unengag'd and free?

b. spec. Not bound by an engagement or promise to marry; not betrothed.

1702 Vanbrugh False Friend III. i, His Behaviour wou'd engage any thing that were unengag'd. 1709 Mrs. Manley Secret Mem. I. 217 He was handsome, he was young..She was innocent and unengag'd. 1814 Scott Wav. lviii, An alliance, which to an unengaged person,..holds out too many charms to be lightly laid aside. 1877 Sir H. Taylor Autobiog. (1885) I. 218 He consented to our seeing more of one another on an unengaged footing.

†3. Not committed to a special view or opinion; unprejudiced. Obs.

1653 Milton Hirelings Wks. 1851 V. 338 If it suffic'd..to convince..the uningag'd of other Nations in the justice of your doings. 1663 J. Spencer Prodigies (1665) 401 Persons of more free and unbiased minds, and that use not to believe without asking themselves why.

4. Not hired.

1654 Dorothy Osborne Lett. (1888) 203 He is commended to me..for a most excellent servant...I'll keepHim unengaged till I hear from you. 1889 Gunter That Frenchman xiii, She chances to find an unengaged cab.

5. Not occupied or busied (in something).

1712 Pope Lett. (1735) I. 187 If your Thoughts are unengaged, I shall explain myself further. 1759 Johnson Rasselas xiv, The activity of Rasselas did not leave much time unengaged. 1800 Mrs. Hervey Mountray Fam. II. 78 Her companion, who wandered about..unengaged in any pursuit. 1819 Crabbe T. of Hall iv. 187, I took a trip, But duty none, in a relation's ship; Thus, unengaged, I felt my spirits light.

b. Disengaged from.

1805 Emily Clark Banks of Doura II. 300 The first moment she was unengaged from Minette and Lady Archdale, she resolved to go and see them.

c. Not occupied or involved in fighting.

1806 A. Duncan Nelson 39 The ships..were..unengaged in the contest. 1895 A. Forbes in Daily News 18 Feb. 6/3 Mr. Herbert, in his redoubt in the centre of the Grivitza heights, remained unengaged until 4 p.m.

6. a. Not appropriated or allocated to a particular purpose.

a 1732 Swift (J.), When we have sunk the only unengaged revenues left, our incumbrances must remain perpetual.

b. Not assigned to a person.

1751 Smollett Per. Pic. xxi, Some profitable places were at that time vacant, and, as far as he knew, unengaged. 1755 Johnson Let. to Richardson 3 Feb. in Pearson's Catal. (1900) 44 If you have any parts of the Universal History yet unengaged I know a gentleman desirous of giving his assistance.

Unenga·ging, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1749 Chesterf. Lett. (1774) I. 429 Without them, your learning will be pedantry,..and your figure..awkward and unengaging. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 592 The one [life] is pleasant, easy, smooth, and dispatchful; the other unengaging, toilsome, stiff. 1895 Kath. Simpson Yorks. Stories 92 Too ugly and unengaging to be able to boast of a lover.

Unenage·nbered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1776 S. J. Pratt Pupil of Pleas. (1797) I. 159 At present, this is only in embrio,..unformed, uningendered.

Un-E·nglish, a. [Un-1 7.]

1. Not English in character; lacking the qualities regarded as typically English.

1633 Prynne Histrio-m. 546 So unmanly, degenerous and un-English (if I may so speake) in their whole conversation. 1745 H. Walpole Let. to Lt. S. Conway 27 May, This is so un-English, or so un-heroic, that I despair of you! 1763 Ann. Reg., Chron. 89/2 One of the members..called the attack 'a horrid un-English act'. 1803 Mackintosh Def. Peltier Wks. 1846 III. 286 Though deserted by the un-English Government of England, they asserted their own ancient character. 1848 in Life A. Fonblanque (1874) 225 The un-English practice of secret voting will be resorted to. 1872 Yeats Growth Comm. 308 A false patriotism that thought it un-English to wear foreign fabrics.

2. Not English by occupation or possession.

1738 Gentl. Mag. 427/1 Such beauties..are,..save at Finedon, hardly found On English or un-English ground. 1902 Daily Chron. 18 July 5/4 With Delagoa Bay the only harbour still un-English passes into England's power.

Une·nglish, v. (Un-2 6 a.) 1745 H. Walpole Lett. (1846) II. 55, I would not for the world be so unenglished as to do otherwise. 1786 Microcosm (1787) 23 Having thus unenglished himself, let him get his advertisement drawn up.

Une·nglished, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Not translated into English.

c 1546 Joye in Gardiner Declar. 52 b, He layd on scriptures wryten and vnwryten, englished and vnenglished as thicke as hayle. 1620 Br. Hall Hon. Mar. Clergy III. ii. (1628) 794 We..returne his [epistle]..to the next hand; whereto I am no whit beholding for leaving it vn-Englished. 1650 Fuller Pisgah v. xix. 174 Such passages (which for me shall goe unenglished) being found frequent therein.

Unengra·ven, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.) [1775 Ash.] 1831 Carlyle Sart. Res. II. iv, I undertook to compose his Epitaph; which however..still remains unengraven.

Unengro·ssed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1681 Local Gov. No. 1633/4 There is now published a Printed List of all such Fines as remain uningrossed.

Unenjoy·able, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

a 1797 Walpole Corr. II. (1820) I. 195 A very few years of unenjoyable power. 1890 Robertson Serm. Ser. III. vi. (1864) 92 Life is an unenjoyable Canaan. 1869 Tozer Highl. Turkey I. 90 How empty and unenjoyable life would be without the range of European ideas.

Unenjoy·ed, ppl. a. Also 7 unin-. (Un-1 8.)

1643–5 Milton Divorce II. i, A good man who finds himself consuming away in a disconsolate and uninjoy'd matrimony. 1684 T. Burnet Theory Earth I. 322 We cannot suppose the better [parts] to lie as desarts, uninjoy'd and uninhabited. 1797 Mrs. Griffith Lett. Henry & Frances (1767) II. 245 The pleasure..which you have suffered to pass by, unheeded, unenjoyed. 1827 Pollok Course T. III. 229 The spectre..threatened..to blast it unenjoyed.

Unenjoying, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1697 Cheron Manilius 10 The more we have, the meaner is our Store; The unenjoying craving Wretch is poor. 1799 Coleridge Ode to Duchess of Devonsh. 18 Nor could you see The unenjoying toiler's misery. 1852 Robertson Serm. Ser. II. v. 75 The selfish man of unenjoying and unenjoying national character. 1866 Geo. Eliot F. Holt i, When..her face looked bitter, restless, and unenjoying, like her life.

Hence Unenjoy·ingly adv.

1844 Browning Colombe's Birthday II. 106 Hurry one's feast down unenjoyingly At the snatched breathing-intervals of work?

Unenla·rged, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1741 Watts Improvement Mind II. xvi. 219 These unenlarged souls are in the same manner disgusted with the wonders which the microscope has discovered. 1805 Foster Ess. (1806) I. 58 Under the habitual..influence of one individual..of unenlarged views. 1844 Mrs. Browning Lett. R. H. Horne (1877) II. 24 You had better leave the notice unenlarged.

Unenli·ghtened, ppl. a. Also 7 unin-. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not illuminated or lit up.

1662 Boyle Spring of Air II. i. 22 For the Corpuscles of Light that permeate that space may be so numerous, as to leave no sensible part of it un-inlightned. 1789 Phil. Trans. LXXX. 8 During the time, when evidently we were turned towards the unenlightened side. 1803 Ibid. XCV. 152, I mentioned the probability that there existed..unenlightened stars (if I may be allowed the expression) that have ever remained in eternal darkness. 1832–3 J. Phillips Geol. in Encycl. Metrop. (1845) VI. 715/2 The Phlegrean Fields,..unenlightened either by the rising or the setting sun.

fig. 1774 Trinket 165 Faces unenlightened with the smile of friendship.

2. Not mentally illuminated; uninstructed.

a 1656 Br. Hall Rev. Unrevealed § 8 A conceit, that would have sounded very strangely in the ears of our unenlightened forefathers. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 638 The unlightened Indian takes pride in singing while tortured by his conquerors. 1797 Mathias Purs. Lit. II. 5 note, Such unenlightened and ignorant men as myself. 1865 M. Arnold Ess. Crit. v. 189 A strong, dogged, unenlightened opponent of the chosen people. 1882 Farrar Early Chr. II. 342 Imperfect, narrow-minded and unenlightened Christians.

b. Uninformed on some matter.

1829 Scott Anne of G. xxxi, The old King was..still strangely unenlightened on the difference of her taste from his own.

3. Marked by lack of enlightenment.

1792 A. Young Trav. France I. Pref. p. iv, Unenlightened practices exist, and want improvement. 1870 Lowell Among my Books Ser. I. (1873) 148 Political or other doctrines which seem to us barbarous and unenlightened.

Unenlightening, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1768 Pennant Brit. Zool. I. 193 Commentators, after loading whole pages with unenlightening learning, leave us..in the dark. Unenlivened, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1840 J. H. Newman Ch. of Fathers IX. 153 Yet unlistened in God's army.

Unenli·vened, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1692 Atterbury Serm. 29 May (1726) I. 31 That Majestick Plainness and Simplicity of Thought which goes through it, Unadorn'd by Words, Unenliv'd by Figures. c 1762 Beattie Ep. to Blacklock 57 The cautious, slow, and unenlivened eye. 1817 Coleridge Biog. Lit. (1907) I. 169 The distorting medium of his own unenlivened and stagnant understanding. 1893 Lubbock Life Pursey I. xiv, 330 Their intercourse was not unenlivened by differences of opinion.

Unenlivening, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1774 Trinket 158 My ideas are more unenlivening than the desolate prospect that inspires them. 1832 A. C. Dick Church Polity vii. 104 [He] falls into..an unenlivening coldness of address. Unenno·bled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1830 Westm. Rev. Oct. 300 The..deeds of the unennobled patriot-soldier. 1863 Q. Rev. CXIII. 469 The unennobled inhabitants of the province that were to be annexed to Russia. Unenno·ticed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1859 Sir W. Hamilton Lect. (1877) I. xvi. 286 It remains unenunced and unknown.

Unenqui·red, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 c.) a 1818 M. G. Lewis W. Ind. (1834) 367 He left their complaints unenquired into.

Unenqui·ring, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1813 Lamb Play-house Mem. Wks. 1908 I. 202, I love the unenquiring gratitude of such spectators. 1850 Marsden Early Purit. (1853) 65 He is a son of the church because he is unenquiring. 1862 M. Hopkins Hawaii 373 It demands..unenquiring condemnation and unpitying punishment.

Hence Unenqui·ringly adv.

1841 Myers Cath. Th. III. § 50. 191 They give themselves up..unenquiringly to mere traditions concerning it. 1862 M. Hopkins Hawaii 350 The American missionaries..threw themselves unenquiringly..into a crusade against the prevailing licentiousness.

Unenri·chableness. (Un-1 7 b, 12.) a 1816 Bentham Offic. Apt. Maximized, Introd. View (1830) 19 The French [language, with]..its scantiness, unenrichableness, and intractability.

Unenri·ched, ppl. a. Also 8 unin-. (Un-1 8.)

1723 Dr. Wharton True Britton No. 55. II. 473 That he died un-inriched by the Plunder of his Fellow Subjects. 1785 Mrs. Piozzi Anecd. of Johnson Pref. 7 The great parent of African plenty,..unenriched by any extraneous waters. 18.. Wordsw. Michael 19 A story—unenriched with strange events. 1864 Realm 12 May 5 He has preferred to remain ..unenriched by the events which have enriched..others.

Unenro·lled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. I. v. ix, Unenrolled men deposit their arms, ..and receive 'nine francs.' 1881 Jowett Thucyd. I. 27 The treaty allows any unenrolled cities to join either league.

Unensia·ve, v. (Un-2 3.) 1644 Prerogative Anatomized 1 That the deceived people..may see the necessitie..to uninsiave their soules, persons and estates, from Ecclesiastical tyrannie. Unensia·ved, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1691 Norris Refl. Cond. Hum. Life Ep. Ded. A vj b, If I happen to bring over here and there an ingenuous and uninslaved Spirit,..I shall not think my Labour ill bestow'd. 1705 Addison Remarks on Italy 168 By Thee She sits a Sov'reign, Unenslav'd and Free. Unensnared, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) a 1721 Ker Hymnothea Poet. Wks. 1721 III. 186 No Danger found them unprepar'd, They kept their Spirits in unensnar'd. 1860 Mozley Univ. Serm. viii. (1877) 134 Free and unensnared souls.

Unensou·led, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1860 Pusey Min. Proph. 47 When..they were lifeless bodies, unensouled by His grace.

Unentai·led, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1773 C-tess Winchilsea Misc. Poems 243 Your entailed, your undivided Air, Where no Proprietor was ever known. 1784 R. Bage Barham Downs II. 315 His unentailed estates are to be sold. 1827 Lytton Pelham iii, The whole of his unentailed property..he bequeathed to her.

Unentangle, v. Also 7 unin-. [Un-2 3.] trans. To disentangle.

1610 Donne Pseudo-martyr 226 It is impossible to..vnentangle our consciences by any of those Rules. 1655 tr. Sorel's Com. Hist. Francion IV. 13 All this was intermingled ..in a more than a barbarous confusion, which was so unease to unintangle [etc.]. 1889 Bowen Æneid VI. 29 Dædalus.. of himself unentangled the woven trick of the grove.

Hence Unenta·ngler. rare—1.

1610 Donne Pseudo-martyr 245 The late vn-entangler of perplexities..who vndertakes to cleare so many cases, which Vsurrers and many others left in suspence.

Unenta·ngled, ppl. a. Also 7–8 unin-. (Un-1 8.)

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia III. ix, So I in simple course, and unentangled minde, Did suffer drouisie lies mine eyes..to blinde. 1622 S. Ward Serm. at Hill (1627) 36 If he had now nothing left but..Christ, whom hee..would now with vnlimed and vnentangled wings flye vnto. 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. VII. § 228 He was unintangled with any Acquaintance or Friends. a 1732 Bonnet Inst. Vine I. (1760) I. 124 To keep the thread of the narration in an unintangled method. 1779–81 Johnson L. P., Collins, That this man..passed always unentangled through the snares of life, it would be.. temerity to affirm. 1824 J. B. Fraser Life Kouroo I. 20 Is it fair, shall for ward from it back, unfortunately unentangled by its harness. 1901 H. W. Holden Justif. 96 We may be free indeed to follow the Lord..unentangled and unembarrassed by any other will.

Unented, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 + late L. ent-, ens: see Ens.) Not endowed with being. 1657 Reeve God's Plea 241 God.. out of..an unshapen un-ented Nothing hath set up..this specious and spacious Universe. Unenterable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1650 Fuller Pisgah 366 That mysterious place being unenterable..save [for] the high-Priest alone.

Unentered, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not recorded by an entry in a book.

1482 in Charters, etc. Ediob. (1872) 168 Gudis..enterit in the tovnis buiks, togidder with the escheis of the sammyn quhare it beis fundin vnenterit. 1554–5 in Feuilles Archeol. Q. Mary (1914) 169, xij elles of white & blewe sarcenet..left out vnentred in the boke of the same [masque]. 1763 Brit. Mag. IV. 174 The makers of cyder or perry..shall enter ..the mills..and other places to be made use of,..under the penalty of 25*l.* for using any unentered place.

†2. Not initiated or introduced. Obs.

1548 Udall, etc. Erasm. Par. Luke i. 7 A people not vtterly vntraded or vnentred in his discipline, but somwhat prepaired already. 1652 Milton Apol. Smect. 45 In the Greek tongue most of them unletter'd, or unenter'd to any sound proficiency in those Attick masters of morall wisdome.

3. Sc. Law. Not formally admitted.

1711 in Nairne Peerage Evidence (1874) 142 [They are] not to lye out themselves unentered in the superiority to their prejudice. 1868 Act 31 & 32 Vict. c. 101 § 6 The rights and remedies competent to a superior against his vassal lying out unentered.

4. Of hounds: Not yet put into a pack.

1896 Sportsman 10 July 4/1 In young unentered hounds the Eamont were first and Bodlington second.

5. Not gone into; not penetrated.

1775 Warton Hist. Eng. Poetry I. i. so note, This cavern.. remained closely shut and unentered for many ages. 1821 Byron Cain II. ii, The intelligences I have seen Round our regretted and unentered Eden.

Une·ntering, ppl. a. (Un-1 5 d and 10.) 1583 Reg. Privy Council Scot. III. 603 For keping of his guides and cattell unentering in the said forrest. 1801 Southey Thalaba IX. 22 Still, The evening sun Pour'd his unentering glory on the mist, And it was night below. †Une·nterpen, v. Obs.—0 (Un-2 3: see Enterpen v.) 1647 Hexham I. (Birds), To unenterpen a Hawke, Een Valck ontwerren. 1671 Skinner s.v., The hawk unenterpenneth. Une·nterprise: see Un-1 12.

Une·nterprising, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

Also unenterprisingly adv. (Webster, 1847).

1777 Robertson Hist. Amer. II. P 12 A maxim under which the ignorant and unenterprising shelter themselves in every age. 1791 Burke Th. French Aff. Wks. VII. 29 Under a lazy and unenterprising prince. 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xviii. IV. 235 He would not again be told that he was a timid and unenterprising commander.

Unentertained, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1628 Wither Brit. Remeuib. lii. 1647 The Mother was consuméd To let her child depart unentertain'd. 1669 Earl Orrery Parthen. (1676) 737 These Generals..afforded me Particulars, which never left me unentertained. 1754 Fielding Voy. Lisbon 27 July, A man must..have been..duller than Gibber is represented in the Dunciad, who could be unentertained with him a little while.

Unentertaining, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)
1697 Collier Ess. Mor. Subj. II. (1703) 38 If he is silent and unentertaining to a visiter, the spleen is his excuse. 1748 Mandots Pitsudorex Lett. xlvii. (1751) II. 20 His conversation is unentertaining: for..all that he utters is delivered with labour and hesitation. 1796 Hist. Ned Evans II. 116 The ceremony of adoption being somewhat singular it may not be unentertaining to abate it. 1839 Syd. Smith and Let. to Singleton P 21 The idea of abandoning this taxation..is not unentertaining.

Hence Unentertainingly adv., -ness.
1740 Gray Let. to West 29 Sept., Last post I received a very disunitive letter. It made excuses for its unentertainingness. 1847 Webster, Unentertainingly. 1886 Ruskin Præterita I. v. 146 A conceited and unentertainingly troublesome little monkey.

Unenthralled, ppl. a. Also 7 unin-. (Un-1 8.)
1649 Milton Eikon. Pref., Wks. 1851 III. 335 It must needs be ridiculous to any judgement uninthrall'd, that they.. should in this one particular outstrip all precisianism. 1809-10 Coleridge Friend (1818) II. 172 Observation, unaided, but at the same time unentrallled, by partial experiment. 1857 Trench Poems 153, I know not any, unenthralled of sorrow.

Unenthusiastic, a. (Un-1 7.)
Also, in recent use, unenthusiastically adv.
1805 A. Knox Rem. (1834) I. 38 There is nothing supposed here, which the..unenthusiastic Addison does not..admirably describe. 1865 Trollope Belton Est. xxviii, He had been calm, unenthusiastic, and reasonable.

Unentitled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1823 in Spirit Pub. Jrnls. 102 Who scorned to share it with him; unenticed By shame's imperial bait.

Unentitled, a. Also 7 unin-. (Un-1 7.)
a 1618 J. Davies (Heref.) Witte's Pilgr. Wks. (Grosart) II. 50 The Elements, in these accounts, made accomplice.. Which well agrees to make me vnintire. 1702 S. Parker tr. Cicero's De Finibus III. 177 Representing Vertue as Unentire and Abortive.

Unentitled, ppl. a. Also 8 unin-. (Un-1 8.)
1752 Scots Serm. Gal. vi. 15 (1771) V. 396 That State is undoubtedly a bad one;..unintitled to Pardon of Sin. 1832 Scott Redgauntlet Introd., Persons totally unentitled to..such a distinction, were presented to the unfortunate Prince. 1869 Tanner Chin. Rebel. (ed. 2) 271 A boy appropriating a nicety to which he was unentitled.

Unentombed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1697 Dryden Æneis VI. 508 Think'st thou thus unintomb'd to cross the Floods,..And visit, without leave, the dark abodes? 1823 J. G. Todd Strifa 156 All gorgeous and mangled he hung unentombed.

Unentomological, a. (Un-1 7.) 1807 Kirby Let. in K. & Spence Entomol. (1826) App. 579 Occupied with unentomological affairs. 1817 Kirby & Spence Entomol. xvi. II. 29 Unentomological observers, might easily mistake one kind of insect for another. Unentrance, v. (Un-2 3.) 1834 Sir H. Taylor Artevelde, Elena 278 As that common day advanced His heart was wholly unentranced.

Unentreatable, a. Also 6 unin-. (Un-1 7 b.)
1561 Daus tr. Bullinger on Apoc. (1573) 97 Corrupt Preachers..haue..borne men in hand that God is an unintreatable Rhadamantus. 1581 J. Belt Haddon's Answ. Osor. 438 b, The Pope..did with unintreatable bloudthrystynes rushe vpon good and godly ministers. 1611 Cotgr., Inexorable, inexorable, vnintreatable.

Unentreated, ppl. a. In 7 unin-. (Un-1 8.)
1601 Munday & Chettle Death Earl Huntington ii. ii, A gallant crue Of courtly masters..Before whome, vnintreated, I am come. 1641 Earl Monm. tr. Biondi's Civil Wars I. 22 The doing of what of himself, as King, he ought uninteated to have done. a 1652 Brome New Acad. ii. ii, Will you tame Match-maker For others unintreated?

Unentrenched, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1642 Earl Monm. tr. Biondi's Civil Wars IV. 63 What doth Charles deserve, who ..durst not confront him, whilst unintrench'd, hee stood ready to receiue him. 1716 Pope Iliad II. 332 An army that lay unforti'd and unintrench'd. Unenumerable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1895 Westm. Gaz. 12 June 3/1 The countless triumphs...the unenumerable charms. Unenumerated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1887 Moloney Forestry W. Africa 198 Wood and timber imports. Unenumerated.

Unenvenomed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1767 S. Paterson Another Trivo. II. 134 Disarm them of their stings!—that henceforward they may be all dartless unenvenomed buz. 1831 Trelawny Adv. Younger Sir II. 322 The rejection, unenvenomed by ministers, was not offensive.

Unenviable, a. and sb. (Un-1 7 b.)
1641 Milton Animadv. Pref. 3 Their hopes of ascending above a lowly and unenviable pitch in this life. 1797 Mrs. A. M. Bennett Beggar Girl (1819) II. 205 All the unenviables of her situation recurred to her mind. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. vi. II. 143 He now daily proved that he was well entitled to this unenviable reputation. 1885 C. E. Pascoe Lond. of To-day 262 The church..which has earned an unenviable notoriety in connection with..Ritualistic practices.

Hence Unenviably adv.
1854 Huxley in Life (1900) I. 47 One of that class unenviably distinguished in the war-time as a 'donkey frigate'.

Unenvied, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 9.)
†1. Not mixed with envy. Obs.—1
1390 Gower Conf. I. 2 The was ther unenvied love, Tho was the verin sent, also ne coste put atte fole.
2. Not made the object of envy; not regarded with envious feelings.
1615 Chapman Odyss. xvii. 288 Why thou unenvied Swaine, Whither dost thou leade..this most nasty beggar? a 1667 Cowley Ess., Dangers Hon. Man, Why you may stay, and live unenvied here. 1723 Pope Odyss. xiv. 452 Let us..here, unenvy'd, rural dainties taste. 1741 Richardson Pamela III. 216, I shall..injoy, unenvied, the Favour of my dear Papa and Mamma. 1831 Wordsw. Primrose of Rock 33 Let myriads of bright flowers, Like Thee, in field and grove Revive unenvied.

3. Not enviously desired or grudged.
1645 Symmons Diary (Camden) 274 My wife, That seekes no higher prise, Than in vnlyved shelgs to set. 1667 Milton P. L. ii. 23 Mee..this loss, Thus farr at least recover'd, hath much more Establisht in a safe unenvied Throne. 1723 Berkeley in Guard. No. 60 a To draw a secret unenvied Pleasure from a thousand Incidents over-looked by other Men. 1816 Scott Antiq. xviii, Martin Waldeck..often regretted bitterly the labours and sports of his unenvied poverty. 1905 J. B. Bury St. Patrick ii, 17 To be a decurion..in the days of Calpurnius and his father was..an unenvied dignity.

Hence Unenviedly adv.
1758 R. Whatley Lett. & Applic. vii, A Right Reverend Prelate,..unenviedly possest of one of the most eminent stations.

Unenvious, a. (Un-1 7.)
1656 Cowley Pindar. Odes, and Olympique x, Fortune's free gifts as freely to impart With an Unenvious hand, and an unbounded Heart. 1746 Akenside Hymn to Naiads 67 You too, O Nymphs, and your unenvious aid The rural powers confess. 1754 Secker Serm. (1771) xi. 287 We shall be far surer of finding these upright, unenvious, compassionate, than others, who have not equal inducements. 1838 Thirlwall Greece v. iii, Caroline gazed with honest but not unenvious admiration at the fairy form. 1881 Fortn. Rev. Feb. 199 The only unenvious people in Europe.

So Unenviously adv.
1896 Daily News 13 June 5/6 Though the naval architects may look never so unenviously at the developement of the German fleet.

Unenvying, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1741 Richardson Pamela III. 242 They all yield to her the Palm, unenvying. 1820 Shelley Prometh. Unb. ii. ii. 97 Delightful strains..which charm To silence the unenvying nightingales.

Unenwoven, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.) 1872 Swinburne Songs bef. Sunrise, Mentana 83 Lycoris, with hair unenwoven.

Unepilogued, a. (Un-1 9.) 1773 Goldsm. Stoops to Conq. Epil., And now with late repentance, Un-epilogued the Poet waits his sentence.

Unepiscopal, a. [Un-1 7.]
1. Not controlled by bishops; not episcopalian in character or government.
1659 Gauden Tears Ch. ♣ 2 He never set up any sovereign and episcopal Power as an Idol or Moloch. 1863 A. Blomfield Mem. Bp. Blomfield I. xi. 298 The High-Church party..looked with dislike..upon any display of friendly feeling towards an un-episcopal Church.
2. Not pertaining to or befitting a bishop.
a 1661 Fuller Worthies, Wilts. iii. (1662) 150 If any say, this was an un-episcopal act; know, he did it not as Bishop, but as Lord Treasurer. 1716 M. Davies Athen. Brit. III. 34 They could not have pleas'd the Dissenters..better, than by such Un-episcopal Ravings. 1889 Dearmer Bishop's Harbk. 55 The sayings and doings of his early unepiscopal days were remembered. 1897 J. W. Clark Barnwell Introd. 20 The Bishop lost his temper, and used very unepiscopal language.

Hence Unepiscopally adv.
1886 Manch. Exam. 6 Jan. 3/1 The unepiscopally explicit declaration.

Unepitaphed, a. (Un-1 9.) 1827 Pollok Course 7. iii. 434 So live unknown..; to die unpraised, Unepitaphed! 1888 M. Arnold Merope 72 Those dead unepitaph'd, who lie In the stone coffins at Orchomenus.

Unequable, a. (Un-1 7 and 5 b.)
1692 Bentley Boyle Lect. viii. 261 March and September ..are..the most unsettled and unequable of seasons. 1748 Hartley Observ. Man i. i. § 3. 108 Unequable and irregular Motions of the Heart and Bowels. 1763 Phil. Trans. LIII. 245 The true (or unequable) motions of the Sun, Moon, and nodes. 1825 J. Nicholson Operat. Mechanic 45 The unequable motion of the piston moved in the common way by a crank. 1855 Faber Growth in Holiness xvii. 306 We are fluctuating and unequable in our very fears.

Hence Unequably adv.
1824 Mrs. Somerville Connex. Phys. Sci. iii. (1840) 20 As the planet moves unequably in its orbit. a 1849 Poe Eureka Wks. 1865 II. 180 We have now reached a point from which we behold the Universe as a spherical space, interspersed, unequably, with clusters.

Unequal, sb. [Un-1 7, 12; cf. next.]
1. pl. Persons who are not on an equality with each other in respect of rank or social standing.
1600 W. Watson Decacordon (1602) 51 It is an act of great humility, neither to strive for the last or first seed, or place taking amongst not much vnequals. 1667 Milton P. L. viii. 383 Among unequals what societie Can sort, what harmonie or true delight? 1768 Woman of Honor II. 56 Such is generally the end of that society among unequals. 1875 Poste Gains I. (ed. 2) 40 The law of Persons considers men as unequals.
2. pl. Things that are not equal to each other in kind, magnitude, etc.
1612 W. Sclater Key (1629) 140 An Antithesis of things diuers; sometimes a comparison of vnequals. a 1653 Gouge Comm. Heb. iii. 2 Unequals may be compared in quality and likeness, though not in equality. 1719 Whiston Elem. Euclid 6 If to Unequals you add Equals, the Wholes will be unequal. 1789 T. Taylor Proclus II. 17 Let a be equal to b, and add to each the unequals c, d.

Unequal, a. and adv. [Un-1 7 and 5 b; cf. the earlier Unequall (Unequall) and Inequal.]
1. Not equal in amount, size, quality, etc.
a. Of two or more things or persons in comparison with each other.
1565 Cooper Thes., Catami dispares, vnequall reedes, one smaller then an other. 1570 Billingsley Euclid i. post. v. 7 If to vnequal thinges ye adde equall thinges, the whole shall be vnequal. 1607 J. Davies (Heref.) Summa Totalis Wks. (Grosart) I. 142 Then, if his Will and Prayer vnequall be, How shall we equall make his Properties? 1623 Blithe Eng. Improver Imp. 197, I..onely advise that if your horses be unequall for height, then place the highest formost. 1693 T. Gregory in Dryden's Juvenal xiii. (1697) 328 Ev'ry Age relates That equal Crimes have met unequal Fates. 1743 Francis tr. Hor., Odes I. xxxiii. 16 With sportive cruelty she binds Unequal forms, unequal minds. 1784 Astle Orig. & Progr. Writing 79 The Ionic capitals were bold, negligent, unequal. 1836 W. C. Taylor Anc. Hist. xvi. § 1. 372 Tarraconensis was divided into two unequal portions by the river Iberus. 1860 Tyndall Glac. I. xiv. 95 These stakes..would, I think, move with unequal velocities. 1861 J. S. Adams 5000 Musical Terms 104 Compositions written for both male and female voices are said to be for unequal voices.
b. With abstract sbs. in the singular.
1593 Shaks. 3 Hen. VI, iii. ii. 159 Shee did corrupt frayle Nature..To shape my Legges of an vnequall size. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. I. viii. 34 The Experience of men equall in age, is not much unequall, as to the quantity. 1710 Tatler No. 253 ♣ That unequal Love by which Parents distinguish their Children from each other. 1780 Cowper Progr. Error 560 Halting on crutches of unequal size. 1847 Jarman Powell's Devises II. 265 There seems to be no solid ground for treating with such unequal regard the two objects of the testator's bounty. 1858 Lytton Calderon I. The courtiers one by one approached the marquis, who received them with very unequal courtesy. 1908 Animal Managem. 285 The more unequal the balance of weight carried the greater the risk of injury.
c. Of single persons or things.
a 1677 Barrow Math. x. 233 That will be called unequal, which contains in it another..and some thing besides. 1829 Scott Anne of G. xxxv, Surely..a match with one so unequal in birth..was too monstrous to be mentioned? 1889 Bowen Æneid I. 475 Ill-starred youth, for Achilles unequal match in the fight.
d. Of numbers: Odd; not even.
1697 Dryden Virg. Past. viii. 105 Thrice bind about his thrice devoted Head, Unequal numbers please the Gods. 1807 Robinson Archæol. Græca v. x. (1827) 447 The gods were supposed to be pleased with unequal numbers.
2. †a. Of things: Inadequate, insufficient. Obs.
1582 Bentley Mon. Matronas iii. 278 Continue, O God, such goodnesse towards me,..which doo here..appeale, as accept mine vnequall thanks for the same. 1646 Sir T. Browne Pseud. Ep. Pref., Authority..which the privacie of our condition, and unequall abilities cannot expect. 1676 Dryden Aurengze i. 1 ♣ Those Rebel-Sons, who dare..To sway his Empire with unequal Skill And mount a throne which none but he can fill. 1736 Gray Statius i. 5 From out the gazing host Young Pterelas with strength unequal drew, Labouring, the disc, and to small distance threw.
b. Not equal or adequate to some task, etc. (Occas. with inf. or vbl. sb.)
a 1694 Tillotson Serm. (1743) VII. 1991 We are very unequal to our religion, or will make a doubt of these things. 1776 Gibbon Decl. & F. ii. (1782) I. 60 Four of them were immediately rejected as unequal to the burden. 1820 Marian Moore Lascelles II. 99, I was unequal to personally opposing that dear friend. 1816 Scott Old Mort. xxxiii, Unequal..to arrange his own thoughts into suitable expressions. 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xiii. III. 229 Avaux had given it as his opinion that Sydney Hamilton was unequal to the difficulties of the situation. 1885 ' F. Anstey ' Tinted Venus 111 Imagination was unequal to the task.
3. Exhibiting inequality in some respect; varying, variable: a. In movement or action.
1565 Cooper, Inæquabilis percussus venarum, vnequall pulse. 1652 Culpepper, etc., Riverius viii. II. 181 After an unequal Pulse, is fell into a Palpitation and an Asthma, and so died. 1715 tr. Gregory's Astron. (1726) I. 463 The Motion of this Body which is in its own Nature unequal, ought to be reduced to an equality. 1799 in Spirit Pub. Jrnls. III. 271 The gratitude of the depredator of Hibernia walked forth with unequal pace by the side of his emoluments. 1821 Scott Kenilw. xxxiv, Her step was not only slow, but even unequal.
b. In extent, amount, duration, etc.
1591 G. Fletcher Russe Commw. (Hakl. Soc.) 112 By means of an unequall partition of the people and parishes. 1593 Fale Dialling 40 By an unequall houre is meant the 12 part of the day whether it be short or long. 1656 Earl Monm. tr. Boccalini's Advertis. xxiv. (1674) 26 Is it not..able to make a man die for anger,..in so unequal a thirst, to drink still the same measure? 1684 Earl Roscom. Ess. Transl. Verse 234 If you will unequal Numbers try, Their Accents on odd Syllables must lie. 1812 Stephens in Shaw's Gen. Zool. IX. i. 6 Tail very long, unequal, the outer feathers the shortest: tip black. 1836 Macgillivray Trav. Humboldt xxi. 302 The climate..is marked by an unequal distribution of heat at different periods of the year.
spec. 1816 R. Jameson Char. Min. (ed. 2) 204 Unequal tourmaline..is a nine-sided prism, having seven alternating planes on one extremity, and three on the other.
c. In surface: Uneven, undulating.
1623 Purchas Pilgrimage viii. iii. 624 The unequall Seas, which might amaze the hearer, and amate the beholder. 1686 tr. Chardin's Trav. Persia 79 The Country it self is unequal; full of Hills..., Valleys and Plains. 1718 Prior Solomon ii. 5 The perplexing and unequal Ways, Where Study brings Thee. 1732 Munro Anat. Bones 131 This Bone is extremely ragged and unequal. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla I. 4 The parsonage-house,..beautifully situated in the unequal country of Hampshire. 1826 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. xlvi. IV. 270 Unequal, having very slight and indeterminate excavations. 1852 Bailey Festus (ed. 4) 342 Shining upon it like the quiet moon Illustrating the obscure unequal earth.
d. In character, condition, quality, etc.
1703 Rowe Fair Penit. iv. i. 1259 With what unequal Tempers are we form'd? 1799 S. & H. Lee Canterb.

T. (1800) III. 147 Her spirits were often unequal from the delicate state of her health. 1811 SCOTT Let. in Lockhart (1837) II. xi. 364 The unknown author of a fine, but unequal poem, called Albania. 1897 GRANT DUFF Notes from Diary (1911) 81 No man writes above himself; but most men are very unequal.

†4. a. Not characterized by equal or fair treatment; inequitable, unjust, unfair. Obs.

1535 COVERDALE Ezek. xviii. 25 Are my wayes vnright, o ye house of Israel? Are not youre wayes rather vnequall? a 1598 LINDESAY (Pitscottie) Chron. Scot. (S.T.S.) I. 66 His unequall punishing of innocencie. 1606 SHAKS. Ant. & Cl. II. v. 101 To punish me for what you make me do Seemes much vnequall. 1620 E. BLOUNT Horæ Subs. 531 It is a thing both vnequall and vniust to insnare the people with multitude of Lawes. 1647 J. TAYLOR Lib. Proph. Ep. Ded. 12 Yet it will be unequall to say, that he who owns this Doctrine preaches it lawfull. 1761 HUME Hist. Eng. I. x. 205 To lend [money] at exorbitant and unequal interest.

† b. Of persons: Acting, or disposed to act, unfairly or unjustly. Obs.

1588 GREENE Pandosto (1607) 75 Iealousie is an vnequall Iudge. 1605 B. JONSON Volpone iii. ii, You are vnequall to me, and how ere Your sentence may be righteous, yet you are not. 1628 FELTHAM Resolves II. xxiii. 75 Few againe are so iust, as that they seeme not to some vnequall. a 1721 PRIOR Ess. Opinion Wks. 1907 II. 195 You will find him always uncertain, .. an Unequal Parent and a Froward Master. 1725 POPE Odyss. XIV. 73 Far hence is by unequal Gods remov'd That man of bounties!

transf. 1613 PURCHAS Pilgrimage (1614) 689 The sword, the vnequallest arbiter of equity, is now made empire. 1692 R. N. tr. Camden's Hist. Eliz. I. 111 She .. admonished her, .. saying that the times were vnequall and maligne, and malice blinde. 1743 FRANCIS tr. Hor., Odes II. x. 4 And when you hear the tempest roar, Present your breast to the vnequal shore.

5. In which the two sides or parties are not on equal terms, or have not equal advantage.

1552 ELYOT, Impar certamen, in contencion, or in gameyng, where is an vnequall matche. 1591 SHAKS. 1 Hen. VI, v. 34 A poore Earles daughter is vnequall oddes, And therefore may be broke without offence. 1604 BACON A Apol. Wks. 1879 I. 437, I doubted his words would have so unequal a passage above theirs that should charge him. 1671 MILTON Samson 346 Himself an Army, now unequal match To save himself against a coward arm'd At one spears length. 1748 ANSON Voy. III. x. 416 This was much short of her value, but the impatience of the Commodore .. prompted them to insist on so unequal a bargain. 1796 MME. D'ARBLAY Camilla II. 399 She had entered the world, by a sudden and most unequal marriage. 1833 HT. MARTINEAU Cinnamon & Pearls v. 92 The colony will not long fulfil its part in this unequal bargain. 1856 KANE Arct. Expl. II. xx. 205, I left my own tired dogs .., and took from them their only team in unequal exchange.

b. esp. Of combats or contests.

1654 FULLER Two Serm. 4 The next verse presents an unequall combat between armed power .. and naked Innocence. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis IX. 540 Or desperate should he rush and lose his life, With odds oppressed, in such unequal strife? c 1750 SHENSTONE Rural Abbey 56 My pinnace .. shuns Th' unequal conflict, and declines the deep. 1817 SHELLEY Rev. Islam VI. xiv, Then the combat grew Unequal but most horrible. 1898 DAVIDSON Inververie & Garloch ix 317 The struggle with England which ensued was necessarily an unequal one.

†c. Disproportionate, excessive. Obs.

1704 SWIFT Battle of Bks. 170 Which, yielding to the unequal Weight, sunk down to the very Foundation. 1727 POPE Eloisa 195 Unequal task! a passion to resign, For hearts so touch'd, .. so lost as mine.

6. Comb., as unequal-lengthed, -lobed, -sided, -tempered, -valved.

1853 R. S. SURTEES Sponge's Sp. Tour IV, The unequal-lengthed candles of the previous night's illumination. 1861 G. A. MANTELL Petrifact. v. § 2. 433 Two genera .. which are characterised by their unequal-lobed tail. 1725 W. HALFPENNY Sound Building 19 An unequal-sided Groin. 1856 HENSLOW Dict. Bot. Terms 208 Unequal-sided, when opposite sides are not symmetrical. 1885 J. E. TAYLOR Brit. Fossils 243 The shells are frequently unequal-sided. 1703 MOXON Mech. Exerc. 169 Heavy unequal tempered Stuff. 1822 J. PARKINSON Outl. Oryctol. 187 An irregular, adherent, unequal-valved bivalve.

7. adv. or quasi-adv.

1602 SHAKS. Ham. II. iii. 403 (Q 1). Vnequall match, Pirrhus at Priam driues. 1653 GERBIER Counsel 50 To cause the foundation .. to be .. laid, without leaving any toothings, since walls new begun on them will settle more unequal than those [etc.]. 1700 S. WESLEY Epist. Poetry 12 Of Chaucer's Verse we scarce the Measures know, So rough the Lines, and so unequal flow. 1853 MARKHAM Skoda's Auscult. 266 Unequal-bubbling dull rales.

Une·quálable, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

1648 BOYLE Seraph Love (1659) 129 Christ .., whose love to God is questionlesse Filiall and unequalable. 1799 SOUTHEY Lett. (1856) I. 87 Milton and Shakspeare, .. the two unequalable men. 1890 CARLYLE New Letters (1904) II. 263 Our welcome continues to be unsurpassable, or indeed unequalable.

†Unequa·lity. Obs. [UN-1 12 and 5 b.] = INEQUALITY.

1541 R. COPLAND Guydon's Quest. Chirurg. M iv, Than it is seen that it [sc. the pulse] alyeneth to vnequalyte, .the veyns ought to be stopped. c 1550 Pr. de Mortemar II. 20 When .. wee see an equalitie of good behaulor in an vnequality of degrees of people. 1623 COCKERAM II, Vnequalitie, or contrary to a thing, anomalie. 1720 Temple's Ess., Govt. Wks. I. 106 The first mischiefs arrisen whenever there happens any unequality [1680 inequality] in the Balance. 1770-4 A. Hunter's Georg. Ess. (1803) I. 289 Hence an unequality of the crop.

Une·qualized, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1596 FITZ-GEFFREY Sir F. Drake (1881) 65 A vowed votarie to honour still, Vnequalis'd by valours chiefest peeres. 1822 J. PARKINSON Outl. Oryctol. 69 The terminations of unequalized pentagons and hexagons. 1880 EARLE Philol. Eng. Tongue (ed. 3) § 239 Its application is unequalized even within the four seas.

Une·qualled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1562 J. HEYWOOD Dial. Prov. IV. i, Do ye like wealth, and most unequal'd beauty? 1639 SIR W. BERKELEY Lost Lady 1. i, I will relate the story of his Unequal'd suffrings. 1667 MILTON P. L. IX. 983 Chiefly assur'd .. of thy so true, So faithful Love unequalled. 1746 FRANCIS tr. Hor., Sat. II. ii. 58 No; 'tis th' unequal'd beauty of its train Deludes your eye. 1794 R. J. SULIVAN View Nat. I. 177 Why should there be .. such unequalled hearts, and such unequalled evaporation? 1841 MISS MITFORD in L'Estrange Life (1870) I. viii. 190 Our ancestors were rare architects. Their painted glass and their carved oak are unequalled. 1872 YEATS Techn. Hist. Comm. 81 Buildings which are unequalled for grandeur.

b. Const. by.

1769 GIBBON Hist. Rome (1786) II. 103 An act of unequalled heroism by the nobility had that hitherto appeared in Rome. 1796 MORSE Amer. Geog. II. 19 A violence and noise unequalled by the loudest cataracts. 1829 Chapters Phys. Sci. 64 The bastard dipper, .. formed a force which in some respects rendered it unequalled by our battering cannon. 1869 TOZER Highl. Turkey II. 124 A panorama .. unequalled .. by any view in Greece.

Une·qually, adv. [UN-1 11: cf. UNEQUAL a.]

1. In an unequal manner; not equally or evenly.

1548 ELYOT, Inæqualiter, unequally. 1563 GOLDING Caesar VII. (1565) 208 b, The Romanes were vnequallye marched, both in place and number. 1611 BIBLE 2 Cor. vi. 14 Be ye not vnequally yoked together with vnbeleuers. 1665 MANLEY Grotius (1686) 177 All this Region is divided, though somewhat unequally, between wild Beasts, and these Savage men. 1726 MONRO Anat. Bones 149 The square-bone is unequally concave... Its .. Edge is unequally ragged. 1776 GIBBON Decl. & F. I. (1782) I. 23 That great peninsula [Spain], at present so unequally divided between two powerful states. 1831 BREWSTER Optics iv. 40 Rule for finding the principal focus .. for a glass unequally convex. 1880 GREIRIE Phys. Geog. iv. 284 The rocks .. are worn down unequally.

†2. Unfairly, unjustly. Obs.

1596 SPENSER F.Q. VII. vii. 14 Damning all Wrong .. Which any of thy creatures to do other (Oppressing them with power, vnequally).

Une·qualness. [UN-1 12: cf. UNEQUAL a.]

1. The quality of being unequal.

1550 BALE Image Both Ch. II. xxi. NNn iij b, As for the vnequalnesse of the vpright & curbis [etc.]. 1561 T. HOBY tr. Castiglione's Courtyer IV. (1577) I' vij b, Bestowing promotions and honors according to the vnequalnesse of deserte. 1652 FRENCH Perfoh. Spa xiii. 102, I forbid much variety of meats, because of the unequalness of their concoction. 1698 ATTERBURY Serm. (1737) IV. 308 This unequalness in acting .. will draw upon a man the suspicion of hypocrisy. 1776 Ann. Reg. 148 Notwithstanding the unequalness of the wind .. he only missed the target three times. 1880 Wood's Guide Steam-Engine Indicator (title-p.), Geometrical Sketch, showing the Cause of Unequalness.

†2. Lack of equity; unfairness. Obs.

1628 tr. Mathieu's Powerfull Favourite 126 The vapours of his wasted disposition, of his distrust and unequalness. 1695 Def. Vind. Deprived Bps. 98 The very unequalness of it [sc. a contract] would be in Equity a strong Presumption.

Uneque·strian, a. (UN-1 7.) 1846 H. W. TORRENS Rem. Milit. Hist. 21 A remarkable proof of the unequestrian habits of the Greeks. Unequinaqular, a. (UN-1 7.) 1805 R. JAMESON Char. Min. 41 These lateral edges are either equiangular as in the icosahedron, .[or] unequiangular as in topaz. Unequi·xed, a. (UN-1 9, 5 b.) a 1853 PEREIRA Materia Medica (1854) II. 1 In a very large proportion of cases the axes are not all equal, and these crystals are said to be unequixed. 1877 LE CONTE Elem Geol. (1879) 185 A plastic mass, with unequixed foreign particles disseminated through it. Unequi·valve, a. (UN-1 7, 5 b.) 1862 J. BARGRAVE Pope Alex. VII (1767) 120, I have in my cabinet another triangular unequilateral .. loadstone. 1761 London & Environs IV. 145 Nineteen unequilateral arches .. supported the street above. Unequilibrated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1775 ASH, 1833 HASCHEL Ess. (1857) 50 The .. constant fluctuation of an unequilibrated ocean. 1895 W. H. HUDSON Spencer's Philos. 97 Remaining exposed to surrounding forces that are unequilibrated. Unequi·pped, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1895 HARDY in Harper's Mag. Mar. 569 The miserable struggle in which he had been engaged thus unequipped.

Une·quitable, a. (UN-1 7 and 5 b.)

1647 DIGGES Unlawf. Taking Arms 19 Not all, but in an unequitable proportion. 1662 J. BARGRAVE Pope Alex. VII (1867) 82 For very fear of falling into the legate's displeasure, who they knew was averse to such unequitable designs. 1726 AMHERST Terræ Fil. II. App. 169 It is almost as unjust and unequitable .. as it would be to act .. against any such authority. 1759 STERNE Tr. Shandy II. xvii, A cunning contexture of dark arts and unequitable subterfuges. 1844 THIRLWALL Greece VIII. lxi. 101 This would seem perhaps not unequitable.

Hence Une·quitably adv.

1649 [F. ROUS] Bounds Publ. Obed. 61 They being unequitably deriv'd upon us. 1750 SECKER Eight Charges (1771) 226 Any Part of it, which is illegally or unequitably seized.

†Une·quity. Obs. rare. [UN-1 12 and 5 b.]

a. Iniquity, wickedness. b. Unfairness.

c 1380 WYCLIF Wks. (1880) 304 If it was vnequite .. for to leue pe prechyge of godis word, .. hou mycle more vnequite and wronge to god & man is it [etc.]. 1382 — Rom. iii. 5 If oure wickidnesse, or vnequyte, comende the rightwysnesse of God. 1598 FLORIO, Inequità, vnequitie.

Une·quivalve(d), a. (UN-1 9, and 5 b.) 1788 J. BARSUP Genera Vermium 92 The shell unequivalve, of a hard consistency. 1822 J. PARKINSON Outl. Oryctol. 179 A regular unequivalved, inequilateral bivalve.

Unequi·vocal, a. (UN-1 7 and 5 b.)

In common use from about 1795.

1784 COWPER Task IV. 653 In the deed, The unequivocal authentic deed, We find sound argument. 1792 NEWTN Tour Eng. & Scot. 236 In the Highlands .. men of years .. are struck with the most unequivocal proofs of depopulation. 1838 THIRLWALL Greece xlii. V. 213 He .. aided him in several acts of unequivocal hostility against his country. 1898 SEARS Athan. III. v. 294 This .. is here asserted by the Apostle in most unequivocal language. 1897 EARLE Philol. Eng. Tongue 340 An adjectival form which should be unequivocal.

Hence Unequi·vocalness.

1846 WORCESTER (citing Godwin).

Unequi·vocally, adv. (UN-1 11.)

1794 PALEY Evid. I. vii, The descent of Christ from David, .. his resurrection, .. are unequivocally referred to. 1800 MRS. HERVEY Mourtray Fam. III. 26, I hope .. to receive a line from you, unequivocally to contradict it. 1844 THIRLWALL Greece lxvi. VIII. 467 Still the good-will of the manly emperors was unequivocally manifested. 1884 EARL SELBORNE in Law Times Rep. 70 May 313/2 Such an intention .. might have been expected to be made unequivocally clear.

Unera·dicable, a. (UN-1 7 b and 5 b.) 1818 BYRON Ch. Harr. IV. CXXVI. This ineradicable taint of sin. This boundless ripe. Unera·dicated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1828-32 WEBSTER.] 1861 J. G. SHEPPARD Fall Rome VI. 323 The uneradicated influences of heathen taste. 1871 ALABASTER Wheel of Law 41 The believers in it .. will still have their souls contaminated with uneradicated evil. Unera·s(e)able, a. (UN-1 7 b and 5 b.) 1826 MRS. SHELLEY Last Man II. 156 Now in words unerasable .. the knowledge went forth. 1853 G. JOHNSTON Nat. Hist. E. Bord. I. 233 The coloured uneraseable stain cries out for yet unavenged blood. Unera·sed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1760-72 H. BROOKE Fool of Qual. (1809) IV. 65, I discerned some unerased traces of the image .. of my Dear. 1802 Poems Two Friends 1. 1. Lett. It is written thus. Dear. And will you leave it unerased? Unera·sible, a. (UN-1 7.) 1811 SHELLEY St. Irvyne I, Grief, in unerasible traces, sate deeply implanted on the front of the outcast. Unera·sing, ppl. a. (UN-1 10) 1820 SHELLEY Prometh. Unb. III. iii. 160 Where ever lies, on unerasing waves, The image of a temple built, above. †Unerrabi·lity. (UN-1 12 and 5 b; cf. next.) 1628 PEYNNE Brief Survey 14 Hee doeth .. likewise apply this Popish Position .. cuen to iustifie the vnerrabilitie of these his Denotions.

†Une·rrable, a. Obs. [UN-1 7 b and 5 b.] = INERRABLE a.

1616 SHELDON Miracc. Antichrist vii. 142 This puddle of Pope Ioane, whereout the ignominy of your vnerrable See is so liuely discouered. 1664 H. MORE Myst. Iniq. xviii. 67 The ancient Types .. already made to be vnerrable, which this was unerrable. 1715 M. DAVIES Athen. Brit. I. 172 Those sole unerrable Records of the Holy Scriptures.

Hence †Une·rrableness. Obs.

1645 HAMMOND View Infallibility (1646) 186 Concluding the truth of all their assertions from the unerrableness of the asserter. 1667 Decay Chr. Piety XVI. P 3 The danger of presuming upon the unerrableness of a guide.

Une·rracy. (UN-1 12 and 5 b.)

1646 J. HALL Horæ Poet. 7 Hee takes the best course.. that narrowly heeds upon what principles both parties build .., so long as no man can challenge an unerracy. 1891 F. G. LEE Sinless Concept. 66 Unerracy belonged alone to the Church Universal.

Une·rring, ppl. a. (UN-1 13.) 1709 STEYPE Ann. Ref. 247 He was in judgment for the unerring of General Councils.

Une·rring, ppl. a. [UN-1 10 and 5 b.]

1. Making no error or mistake; not going or leading astray in judgement or opinion.

c 1660 SOUTH Serm. (1697) I. 254 They believed his Miracles upon the Credit of constant unerring Tradition. 1697 DRYDEN Virg. Georg. IV. 565 With sure Foresight, and with unerring Doom, He sees what is, and was, and is to come. 1731 CHALLONER (title), The Unerring Authority of the Catholic Church in matters of Faith. 1795 SOUTHEY Joan of Arc IV. 324, I know this vision sent From Heaven, and feel of its unerring truth. 1844 H. H. WILSON Brit. India I. 565 The unerring principles of political economy. 1875 JOWETT Plato (ed. 2) I. 32 The unerring guides of ourselves and of those who were under us.

absol. 1813 COLERIDGE Remorse III. ii. 36, I breath'd to the Unerring Permitted prayers.

2. Corresponding with the utmost exactness or closeness to some standard or aim.

1665 GLANVILL Def. Van. Dogm. 39 The unerring exactness we find in Animal formations. 1684 J. S. Profit & Pleas. United 166 Therefore I thought fit to lay down such Unerring Rules, as [etc.]. 1707 PRIOR Examiner 7 Sept., The Works of learned Men are weighed here by the unerring Ballance of Party. 1775 TYRWHITT Chaucer's Cant. T. IV. 91 An operation, which every Ballad-monger in our days .. is known to perform with the most unerring exactness. 1819 SCOTT Leg. Montrose xiv, The Son of the Mist again led the way, with an unerring precision. 1861 BUCKLE Civilis. (1873) II. viii. 434 We may trace with unerring certainty the steps [etc.].

3. Not going astray from the intended mark; certain, sure: a. Of missiles or other weapons.

1621 G. SANDYS Ovid's Met. XII. (1626) 240 With that, th' vnerring dart .. [he] flung. 1712 Spect. No. 527 P 3 Procris .. made her Husband .. a Present of an unerring Javelin. c 1743 FRANCIS tr. Hor., Sec. Poem 12 Goddess, whose unerring dart Stops the lynx, or flying hart.

b. Of aim, agents or agencies, etc.

1697 DRYDEN Æneis XII. 712 One dart he drew, And with unerring aim, and utmost vigour, threw. c 1709 PRIOR 2nd Hymn Callimachus 127 Thy unerring Hand elane'd Another, and another Dart. 1743 FRANCIS tr. Hor., Odes V. v. 9 By the unerring wrath of Jove, Unerring shall his vengeance prove. 1802 SCOTT Glenfinlas II, How matchless was thy broad claymore, How deadly thine unerring bow! 1849 EASTWICK Dry Leaves 46 He was considered an unerring shot. 1858 Orr's Circ. Sci., Inorg. Nat. 112 Occasionally striking with unerring aim at its prey.

Une·rringly, adv. (UN-1 11; cf. prec.)

1645 TOMBES Antihropol. 15 A power to interpret Scriptures unerringly. 1746 HERVEY Reflect. Flower Gard. 76 Know, that God is unerringly wise. a 1774 TUCKER Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 399 It does imply an exact discernment .. so as to distinguish unerringly what lies within its compass, and what does not. 1826 SYD. SMITH Wks. (1859) II. 104/2

They first learn it practically and unerringly. 1873 Earle Philol. Eng. Tongue (ed. 2) § 239 Here is a distinction which is unerringly observed by the most rustic people.

Une·rringness. (Un-1 r 2.)
1670 Vaughan Rep. (1677) 139 If any man thinks that a person...must submit in all, or any of these, to the implyed discretion and unerringness of his Judge. 1866 Meredith Vittoria vii, The result corroborated his devotional belief in the unerringness of his own powerful intuition.

Unerupted, ppl. a. (Un-1 ē.) [1775 Ash.] 1802 Playfair Illustr. Hutton. Th. 69 A subterraneous or unerupted lava. 1833 Lyell Princ. Geol. III. 107 These unerupted pever Pliocene lavas of Sicily.

Unesca·pable, a. (Un-1 7 b und 5 b.)
1614 Donne Lett. (1651) 197 In this particular, I am under an unescapable necessity, as [etc.]. c 1625 — Serm. Wks. 1839 VI. 70 She expposes herself to an imminent and (for any thing she knew) an unescapable danger of death. 1832 L. Hunt Redi's Bacchus in Tuscany 135 Gall of the satiric poet, Gall from out his blackest well, Shuddering, unescapable. 1886 W. Graham Soc. Problem 243 A power more subtle and all-compelling and unescapable than that of the sword.

Hence Unesca·pableness; -ably adv.
1610 Donne Pseudo-martyr 353 With how much curiositie and unescapablenesse their formes of Abluration vnder oath are exhibited? 1882 Gt. Words Apr. 274 With a certain twinkle at the back of his eye,..full, unescapably full of fun.

Unesche·wable, a. (Un-1 7 b und 5 b.)
c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. v. pr. i. (1868) 151 Pilke ordre procedynge by an vneschewable bydynge to-gidre. 1513 Douglas Æneid xi. xiv. 102 He, schulde in hand hys oneschewabil speir. 1542 in Harl. Misc. (1745) IV. 509/2 Ther came a sodeyne and piteous Calamyte or Miserye vneuitable or unescbuable. 1602 Carew Cornwall 124 b, If an vneschewable destiny had not hatered him to that aduancement. 1870 W. H. Gillespie Being & Attributes God (1872) iv. II. 149 Our dread but unescbewable topic.

Hence Unesche·wably adv.
c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. v. pr. iii. (1868) 157 Yif þat he deme þat þei ben to comen vneschewably.

Unescorted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1774 Trivbet 45 The chits knew I must attend them, for it was not safe to go unescorted. 1805-6 Cary Dante, Inf. VIII. 127 Passing the circles, unescorted, comes One. 1898 Ruder Haggard Dr. Therne i. 19 Now, quite alone and unescorted, she was on her way to Mexico City.

Unescutcheoned, a. (Un-1 9.) 1814 Wordsw. Excurs. VI. 412 Their homes..., With unescutcheoned privacy interwed Far from the family vault.

Unespied, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
c 1374 Chaucer Troylus IV. 1457 It is ful hard to halten vn-espied Byfore a crepul for he kan on þe craft. 1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 81 No faulte of the bodye maye escape vnespied. 1596 Spenser F. Q. VI. x. 17 He..in the conert of the wood did byde, Beholding all, yet of them vnespyde. 1653 H. Cogan tr. Pinto's Trav. xix. 67 He got up close to this Junk, and..boarded her on a sudden unespied. 1697 Dryden Æneis ix. 786 The second shaft came swift and unespied, And pierced his hand. 1703-3 Observ. Methodists 8 Of all other Religions every man enjoys the free Exercise..unquestioned and unespied. 1831 Scott Ct. Rob. xxvi, Nothing, however, in a palace, passes altogether unespied. 1854 Browning Through the Metifha ii, Through the desert..Do I glide unespied as I ride?

Unessay·ed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1640 in Clarendon Hist. Reb. iv. § 266 They cannot leave any means unessayed for their relief. 1683 Pas. II Sp. Ethic 29 Apr. in Lond. Gaz. No. 2135/3 [He] will leave nothing unessayed that may promote a work so beneficial. 1742 Col. Rec. Pennsylv. IV. 601 The French, who will leave no methods unessay'd to corrupt their fidelity. 1778 Miss Burney Evelina Letter xxiv, There one resource unessayed? 1855 Singleton Virgil II. 299 Lest aught there had been or of crime, or craft, Unhazarded or unessayed.

Une·ssence, v. (Un-2 4.) trans. To deprive of essence or essential properties.
1640 T. Case God's Rising (1641) 8 The Enemies of Gods truth and people would..not un-scepter him only, but unessence him. 1659 Revett in Lovelace Poems (1904) 212 While we sustain the loose that thou art gone Vn-essenc'd in the separation. 1822 Lamb Elia 1. Distant Correspondents, Not only does truth, in these long intervals, unessence herself, but [etc.].

Unessential, a. and sb. (Un-1 7 and 5 b.)
1. Possessing no essence or substance; immaterial.
1657 Milton P.L. II. 439 The void profound Of unessential Night receives him next. 1727 Thomson Summer Ex Prime Chearer, Light!..Without whose vesting Beauty, all were wrapt In unessential Gloom. 1768-74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 666 Ask me by what authority of history I prove that Regulus had any notion of..the unessential nature of Justice. 1827 Pollok Course T. vii. 412 Most unsubstantial, unessential shade, Was earthly Fame.

2. Not pertaining to or affecting the essence of a matter; unimportant.
c 1656 Br. Hall Beauty & Vnlite Ch. Wks. 1837 V. 245 Neither difference of time, nor distance of place,..nor any unessential error, can bar our interest in this blessed Unity. 1716 Addison Freeholder No. 39 P 5 Those, who differed from him in the unessential Parts of Christianity. 1748 Mumpsimus Pitasborne Left. (1769) 267 So far is he from thinking it unessential, that he acknowledged it as the only separation which distinguishes them from prose. 1838 Arnold Hist. Rome (1845) I. 166 A form..as unessential as the crowd's acceptance of the king at an English coronation. 1872 M. Arnold Lit. & Dogma (1876) 166 This exclusive as unessential much of the criticism which [etc.].

b. absol. That which is not essential.
1840 Carlyle Heroes lv. (1904) 139 He distinguishes what is essential, and what is not; the unessential may go very much as it will. 1841 Myers Cath. Th. iii. § 33. 120 Who is to determine...the limit of the Unessential?

3. sb. An unessential thing or feature.
1828-32 Webster s.v., Forms are among the unessentials of religion. 1876 Stainer & Barrett Dict. Mus. 444/2 Unessentials, notes not forming a necessary part of the harmony. Passing, auxiliary, or ornamental notes. 1882 Nature XXVI. 523 A general conception..is arrived at by abstracting the essentials and neglecting the unessentials.

Hence Unesse·ntially adv.
[1847 Webster.] 1856 Olmsted Slave States 182 With a climate so unessentially dissimilar.

Unesta·blish, v. (Un-2 3.) To disestablish.
1649 Milton Eikon. xxvii. 215 In order to which the Parliament demanded of the King to un-establish that Prelatical Government. 1834 W. P. Wood Let. in Stephens Hook (1878) I. 261 Where we find a Church established we ought not to lend any assistance towards unestablishing.

Unesta·blished, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]
1. Not established or firmly settled.
1646 Sir T. Browne Pseud. Ep. 227 [A conclusion] clapt up from petitionary foundations and principles unestablished. 1744 Young Nt. Th. vi. Pref. This great fundamental truth, unestablish'd, or unawaken'd in the minds of men. 1776 Mugge Cemment' Lucinet Introd. 154 A work which claims poetical merit, while its reputation is unestablished. 1873 M. Arnold Lit. & Dogma xi. § 3. 346 A notion unestablished, not resting on observation and experience.

2. spec. a. Of churches or religious bodies: (see Establish v. 7).
1885 Abp. Benson in Life (1899) II. 496 The difference of court made no difference to the union even of an established Church, and how can it..do so for an unestablished Church? 1887 Pall Mall G. 4 Oct. 1/2 Her communion embraces Churches established, unestablished, and disestablished.

b. Of employees or employment: Not included in the regular staff or establishment.
1890 Pall Mall G. 7 July 5/2 Sanction..to..increase the minimum wage to postmen (including unestablished men). 1894 Daily News 15 Sept. 6/3 Within the same time 'unestablish' situations'..have been given to 1,110 soldiers.

Unesta·blishment. (Un-1 2a.) 1776 S. J. Pratt Pupil of Pleas. (1777) I. 182 Shall I once again confess to you..my unestablishment in the maxims of my Preceptor?

Unestemed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
c 1550 Cheke Matt. xiii. 57 Theer is not a prophet..vnesteemed but in his own contree. 1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. i. 18 The Hebrue tong hay not only vnestemed, but almost vnknown. 1616 Bullokar, In Mythl. Aesopicall, 266, O Syllow of S nowes! of vnestemed Worth. 1852 Bailey Festus (ed. 4) 473 In thy voice The warning and foreknowledge unexplained, Not unesteemed. 1858 Carlyle Frederk. Gt. iii. 1. 167 An unesteemed creature, who strove to make his time peaceable in this world.

† Une·stimable, a. Obs. [Un-1 7 b and 5 b.]
1. = Inestimable a. 1.
1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 172 marg., A learned kyng [is] an vnestimable treasure. 1548 — Erasm. Par. Luke xxiv. 38 b, Beyng vnkleanlie of the vnestimable fyer of charytee & loue towardes mankynd. 1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades 210/1 Some by warre haue..vnestimable riches with veile little losse or no dammage at all. 1598 tr. Ma hiel's Powerfull Fauorite 102 Here all the world laments the vnestimable losse of the bookes of Cornelius Tacitus.

2. = Inestimable a. 3.
1654-66 Earl Orrery Parthen. (1676) 694 There can hardly be a higher evincement how unestimable most Worldly things deserve be. a 1690 Lucey Abp. Williams (1692) 18 None are so unestimable..as those fickle-fancy'd men, whose friendships will hold no longer then Pliny's peaches.

Unestra·ned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] a 1891 Moir Poems, High. Retirement 8 Your years had lapsed in absence, ..but the heart was unestranged.

† Une·ta, a. Obs. [OE. uneáte* (cf. micel-, oferéte), f. pret. stem of eáan to eat.] Without eating.
1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) I. 405 The men may dure longe vneta, And longeþ wel comune mete.

Uneternal, a. (Un-1 7.) [1775 Ash.] 1862 F. Hall Hindu Philos. Syst. 254 That which exists, and is destroyed at a given time, is..uneternal and perishable.

Uneth(e, -ethes: see Uneath(s adv.

Unethrial, a. (Un-1 7.) [1775 Ash.] 1847 Bushnell Chr. Nurture iii. (1861) 183 This unethrial and undiffusive kind of bliss. Une·thic, a. (Un-1 7.) = next. 1871 Tylor Prim. Cult. I. 370 An imagination so little in keeping with his unethic nature jars upon the reader's mind.

Une·thical, a. (Un-1 7.)
1871 Tylor Prim. Cult. II. 94 The savage, unethical doctrine of continuance. 1879 Spencer Data of Ethics xi. § 68. 187 Ethics has to recognize the truth, recognized in unethical thought, that egoism comes before altruism. 1882 Pall Mall G. 25 July 4/2 The intermingling of so unethical a people with..societies of European blood.

Hence Une·thically.
1886 W. S. Lilly in Fortn. Rev. 591 How can we predicate ethicalness or unethicalness of a thing?

Uneuphonious, a. (Un-1 7.) 1880 Burton Reign Q. Anne I. 1. 36 The unsophonious name of Godolphin has been traced..to certain words of Celtic origin. Un-Europe·an, a. (Un-1 7.) 1849 Eastwick Dry Leaves 81 The un-European officers might..take the lead. 1870 Kingsley At Least x, Around were..all appliances of European taste, even luxury: but in a house utterly un-European. Uneva·cuated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1612 Woodall Surg. Mate Wks. (1653) 201 Some cholerick matter remaineth behinde in the right-gut yet unevacuated.

Uneva·dable, a. Also -evadeable, -evadible. (Un-1 7 b, 7, and 5 b.) 1839 De Quincey Casuistry Wks. 1862 VII. 272 The..downright unevadable pressures of realities. 1887 Toulmin Smith Parish 367 Efficient action on this matter was formerly unevadible. 1869 Rossetti Mem. Shelley p. liv, [A] deadly, and, at last, unevadeable discovery.

Unevane·scent, a. (Un-1 7.) 1802-12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) I. 597 Signs of an unevanescent and imperishable nature. Unevange·lic, a. [Un-1 7.] = next. 1857 Baden Powell Chr. without Judaism 219 Engrafting on it an unevangelic formalism most alien from its spirit.

Unevange·lical, a. (Un-1 7.)
1648 Eikon Bas. xii. 203 Which..un-evangelical Zeal is too like that of the rebuked Disciples. 1661 Prynne Unbish. Tim. (ed. 3) 82 An unevangelical, malignant, or Romish Spirit. 1710 T. Godwin Life Ep. Stillingfleet 28 Their unevangelical and destructive doctrines. 1848 Manning Serm. xvii. (1848) I. 249 They are looked upon as carnal, legal, unevangelical rites. 1881 W. R. Smith Old Test. in Jew. Ch. L. 7 This point of view is..unprotestant, unevangelical.

Unevangelized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
[1775 Ash.] 1823-5 Proc. Ch. Miss. Soc. IV. 519 If the Heathen, un-evangelized, be considered as objects of salvation. 1884 J. Parker Apost. Life II. 135 The Church..would see every unevangelised country..typified in this Macedonian man.

Unevaporate, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.) 1864 Lowell Fireside Trav. 174 Faith and Awe survive there unevaporate.

Unevaporated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1829 Bentham Offic. Apt. Maximized, Militia (1830) 6 Hostility from the small, still unevaporated, remnant of the savage race. 1890 Nature 11 Sept. 481/2 The natural salts..with which the unevaporated residue of water becomes saturated.

Une·ven, a. [OE. unefen (f. un- Un-1 7 + efen Even a.), = OFris. onioven (WFris. on-, ûneven, NFris. unêven, -ween), MDu. and Du. oneven, -effen, MLG. uneven, OHG. uneban (MHG. and G. uneben), ON. and Icel. ú-, ójafn (Norw. ujamn, Sw. ojemn, Da. ujevn).]

1. Unequal; not properly corresponding or agreeing. Now rare.
a 900 Cuthwulf Crist 1460 Hu þær wæs unefen racu uu gemane! a 1225 Ancr. R. 372 Ure blod..ageæn his blode þet he shedde for us feel unefne chaunge. a 1340 Hampole Pealter xlii. 1 My consciens and my þeryynge is vneuen til þairs. 1390 Gower Conf. II. 279 Thou telest forth, Hou that hire weyhte of love uneuene Is unto thin. c 1450 Myrr. our Ladye 104 Yf it were vneuen to the tother, or fayleynge in eny thynge that an other had. a 1470 H. Parker Dives & Pauper (W. de W. 1496) viii. 253/1 By wyckednesse of false couetyse in the people men ben vneuen in rychesse. 1596 Spenser F. Q. vi. v. 9 So forth they traueld an vneuen payre,..A saluage man matcht with a Ladie fayre. 1609 J. Davies (Heref.) Holy Roode Wks. (Grosart) I. 8/2 What diff'rence is betweene those Hymnes diuine!..They are as Faine, and Shame, no lesse vneu'n. 1669 Boyle Contin. New Exp. i. (1682) 40 Two pipes of Glass very uneven in length. 1886 Manch. Examiner 14 July 4/5 Stands are very uneven, and the size of the plant varies from 2 in. to 3½ ft.

b. Of numbers: Odd. Also of things: Making up, or marked by, an odd number.
1577 B. Googe Heresbach's Husb. i. (1586) 35 Which Plinie accounteth to haue vneuen corners as Peaso hath. 1598 Florio, Disparo, vneuen, or od in number, vnequall. 1613 Purchas Pilgrimage (1614) 173 Nothing ought to be eaten by euen numbers, but by vneuen, wherewith God is pleased. 1615 G. Sandys Trans. 7th Bk. 12 Vneuen Poets drinke thrice three, Of whom the vneuen Muses be Belou'd. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Number, The Sum, or the Difference, of two uneven Numbers, makes an even Number. 1772 Lockman Hist. Printing 265 According to the folio either of an even, or uneven page. 1875 Jowett Plato (ed. 2) I. 485 Then the triad or number three is uneven. 1888 Jacob Printers' Vocab., Uneven pages, pages with odd folios, such as 1, 3, 5, etc.

† 2. Unequitable, unfair, unjust: a. Of acts, etc.
c 1380 Wycliv Wks. (1880) 316 Summe ben too wel fed bi vneuene partyng of here goods. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xix. cxxi. (1495) 922 For euen and vneuen dedes that here ben doon. 1585 Abp. Sandys Serm. ii. 40 If merchaunts ..doe inriche themselues by imporcenishing others, through deceitfull shifts, the common wealth suffereth dammage by their vneuen dealings. 1613 J. Fletcher Christ's Bloody Sweat 11 Hy courses indirect and lawes vn-euen, Of will and sensuall lust.

† b. Of persons, etc.
c 1400 Apol. Loll. 104 Þei are vnfeiʒful to her soureyns, vn euyn to her lowar. a 1500 Ratis Raving Prol. 60 He saw ..rychtwysmen and god-lyk balth, With wykyt men & vneuyne lyk scalth. 1582 J. Bell Haddon's Answ. Osor. III. 292 They are in this their partition, so parcial and vneuen dealers, that they will not leaue to Christ, the whole cleansing of the guilt. 1612 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. ix. xxi. 800/2 N. D. with his vneuen hand (euer vneuenly to shadow the truth). 1641 Milton Animadv. 7 Sir Francis Bacon.. complaines of the Bishops uneven hand over these Pamflets.

3. Diverging from a straight or exactly parallel position. (In early quots. fig.)
1390 Gower Conf. I. 30 Thei hemself divide And stonden out of reule uneuene. Ibid. II. 126 Among the vices..Ther is yit on.. Which al this world hath set uneuene. 1639 Lab. Digby Lett. conc. Relig. (1651) 90 And lines made many times that at first appear parallels to the eie..prove apparently uneven. 1683 Moxon Mech. Exerc., Printing xxiv. P 15 If..the sides of the Sheet lye uneven upon the Tympan-sheet. 1862 Miss Braddon Lady Audley i, The windows were uneven.

4. Not smooth or level; irregular, broken, rugged.
a. Of ground, etc.
c 1275 in O. E. Misc. 75/88 Þe weyes beoþ vn-euene, Wiþ wepynde stefne To helle he schulle benne. 1565 Cooper s.v. Inæquabilis, An open place beyng high and low, or vneuen. 1577 Googe tr. Heresbach's Husb. i. 42 b, Heastes and Poultry..with trampling and skraping wyll make it rugged and uneuen. 1596 Shaks. 1 Hen. IV, ii. ii. 26 Eight yards of vneuen ground, is threescore & ten miles afoot with me. 1618 J. Taylor (Water P.) Pennilesse Pilgr. E 4, The way so vneuen, stonie, and full of bogges. 1653 W. Ramesey Astrol. Restored 91 Aquaries [governs] Hilly and uneven places. 1746 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 440 As we march'd, all the way up hill, and over very uneven Ground, our men were greatly Blown. 1774 Goldsm. Nat. Hist. (1776) I. 290 In it [sc. the sea-bottom] we find the same uneven surface that we do upon land. 1858 Hawthorne Fr. & It. Note-bks. (1891) II. 259 On the verge and within the crater of an extinct volcano, and therefore..as uneven as the sea in a tempest.

fig. 1598 Shaks. Rom. & Jul. iv. i. 5 Vneuen is the course,

I like it not. a 1596 Sir T. More iv. v. 4 You see the floore of greatnesse is uneuen.

b. In general use.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. iv. iii. (1495) e vj b/1 The viter partyes ben vneuyn ryth holownes sonke and had partes areryd. 1590 Spenser F. Q. i. viii. 48 For one of them was like an Eagles claw,..The other like a Beares vneuen paw. 1599 Hakluyt Voy. II. 162 The sorting together of Wools of seuerall natures,..which causeth cloth to cockle and be uneven. 1683 Moxon Mech. Exerc., Printing xvii. 2 2 [He] cuts out what may remain in the bottom of the Shanck by means of the vneuen Ryveting. 1712 J. James tr. Le Blond's Gardening 140 Its Bark is somewhat rugged and unenven. 1798 S. & Hr. Lee Canterb. T. II. 431 The uneven writing..proved that it was sent while the young man was still fluctuating between life and death. 1810 Crabbe Borough xxii. 178 The sun-burnt tar ..And bank-side stakes in their uneven ranks. 1855 Poultry Chron. III. 522/1 The upper part of the cell..being more convex; therefore, the comb is very uneven. ibid. 1796 Kirwan Elem. Min. (ed. 2) 1 257 Fracture, fine or coarse splintery, which sometimes pass into the uneven of a fine grain.

c. transf. and fig. (of immaterial things, sounds, style, etc.).

OE. unefn, unemn, occurs in similar uses.

(a) 1596 Shaks. 1 Hen. IV, i. i. 50 Farre more vneuen and vnweloome Newes Came from the North. 1603 — Meas. for M. iv. iv. 3 In most vneuen and distracted manner, his actions show much like to madnesse. 1649 Lovelace Poems (1864) 114 Where is a joy uneven, There never can be Heav'n. 1719 De Foe Crusoe i. (Globe) 159 Such is the uneven State of human Life. 1763 Scrapton Indostan iii. (1770) 76 The uneven temper of the Sepoah could never long retain its disguise. 1888 J. J. H. Burgess Shetland Sketches, etc. i. 48 He..went away down to the house, feeling very sorrowful, and mad, and altogether uneven.

(b) 1668 Willet Hexapla Exod. 50 The horses euill and vneuen going proceedeth of his owne lameness.

(c) 1668 Culpepper & Cole Barthol. Anat. III. ix. 150 Not only with cold Air, but with any other uneven noise, passes through their Mouth into their Ears. 1731 Pope Ep. Burlington 143 Light quirks of Music, broken and uneven. 1812 W. R. Spencer Poems Ded., His strain is weak, his voice uneven.

(d) 1763 J. Brown Poetry & Music vi. 111 Homer is equal, large, flowing, and harmonious; Eschylus is uneven, concise, abrupt, and rugged.

5. Comb., as uneven-carriaged, -numbered, -roofed.

1670 Brooks Wks. (1867) VI. 342 A rotten heart, is a very uneven-carriaged heart. 1882a Contemp. Rev. Aug. 234 The 4 alternate or unenumbered sections in all townships. 1887 Hissiey Holiday on Road i. 3 Weather-stained outbuildings, lichen-laden and uneven-roofed.

Une·ven, adv. [OE. unefne (f. un- Un-1 11 b + efne Even adv.), = MDu. onevene, -effene (obs. Du. oneven), OS. unefno, MLG. unevene, -even, MHG. unebene, -eben.] = Unevenly adv.

c1000 Ags. Ps. (Thorpe) cxlj. 9 Swa unefne is eor'he ðisce. c1275 in O. E. Misc. 69/1 Weole, þu art awarled þing, vneuene consti dele. a 1300 Cursor M. 24178 þou..folus þam þat þe wald fle, And luues all þat lethes þe, þis part vneuen es delt. 1390 Gower Conf. I. 9 So stant the pes unevene parted. 1500–20 Dunbar Poems lxxxi. 96 The ballance gois vnevin.

Une·ven, v. [Un-2 6 a.] To make uneven.

c1440 Pallad. on Husb. x. 100 For eny thyng no beest vppon hit trede; Vneven hit they wolde, hit is to drede.

†Une·venly, a. Obs. [Un-1 7: cf. OE. unefenlic various, diverse.]

1. Incomparable.

c1225 Ancr. R. 410 Þeo blisse þet he þerkeð ham..is unefenlich o alle worldes blissen.

2. Unequal; ill-matched.

c1425 Eng. Cong. Irel. 30 Reymond & hys men—thogh they fewe wer, they wer nat feyrm—with vneuenly host wenten out & assembled wyth them. 1513 Douglas Æneid xii. iv. 147 This ilk bargane Semyng..To be ane rycht oneyvnly (v.r. vneuinly) interprys.

3. Uneven; not level.

1633 J. Reid Scots Gard'ner 1. iii. 12 Though the ground be unevenly, yet yous hold the chain level.

Une·venly, adv. [Un-1 11.]

†1. Unfairly, injustly. Obs.

1382 Wyclif Gen. xvi. 5 And Saray seide to Abram, Vneuenlie thow dost a3ens me. c1400 Apol. Loll. 74 Scho may sey þat Sara seid to Abraam, þu dost vneuenly a3ens me.

2. In an uneven or unequal manner; not regularly, uniformly, or smoothly.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. viii. xvi. (1495) 143 b, Though it seme somtyme þat he meue vneuenly, swyther other slower in comparison to other thynges. 1412–20 Lydg. Chron. Troy i. 2242 And þus sche stood in a lupardye Of Loue and Schame, in mynde of a trauise, Vneuenly hanged in balance. 1557 Recorde Whetst. iij b, Euen nombers vneuenly, are suche nombers as maie bee diuided into 2 equalle partes, whiche are odde numbers. 1570 Billingsley Euclid ix. Introd. 60 In this booke are set forth the powers of lines, squared evenly and vneuenly. 1638 Rawley tr. Bacon's Life & Death (1650) 60 The same Abundance unevenly placed, is in like manner hurtfull. 1668 H. More Dip. Dial. i. xxxiv. (1713) 77 To harbour such unconceivable Notions, that lie so unevenly in every Man's Mind but your own. 1704 Dict. Rust. s.v. Waggons, Therefore the lesser the Wheel is, the heavier and more unevenly and jogging they go. 1839 De la Beche Rep. Geol. Cornwall, etc. xii. 318 An opening between the unevenly-fractured surfaces of a fissure. 1879 R. K. Douglas Confucianism iv. 95 A chair which..stands unevenly on its feet, is useless as a support.

†3. Not in equal proportion. Obs.[1]

c1440 Pallad. on Husb. xii. 221 Oyldreggis watertempryd eueny..Or old vryne adm yxt vneuenly With water parties too.

Une·venness. [f. Uneven a.]

1. Inequality, discrepancy, difference.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. ix. iii. (Tollem. MS.), Solstitium is moste vneuennesse of day and nyght. 1622 Malynes Anc. Law-merch. 48 Hee findeth twentie two ..pieces or thereabouts, because of the vneuennesse of the sheyre. 1659 Gentl. Calling (1660) 18 The great uneuenness that is..between Gentlemen and their Inferiors. 1684 Bower & Scott De Bary's Phaner. 44 The subsequent various uneuenness of height..arises through the growth of the cells.

2. The quality or fact of being uneven in form.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. iv. iii. (1495) e vj b/1 Roughnesse is not elles but an vneuynnesse in an harde thynge. Ibid. iv. e viij/2 Contrary humours werke contrarywise and vneuynnesse with roughnes in the vyter parte of the body. 1560 Whitehorne Arte Warre (1588) 49 b, Also the vneuennesse of the ground saueth them, for that euery litle hillocke, or high place,..letteth the shotte thereof. 1577 B. Googe Heresbach's Husb. III. (1586) 115 His cheekebones would be euen and small, for..the vneuennes of the Cheekes will make him headstrong. 1634 Sir T. Herbert Trav. 51 Hills of stupendious height and vneuennesse to ascend. a 1688 Cotworth Immut. Mor. (1731) 200 We plainly observe much..Unevenness and Inequality in the Lines, and Bluntness in the Angles. 1772 Ann. Reg., Nat. Hist. 82/2 Which extreme agitation and whirling, I presume, must be owing to the unevenness of the rocky bottom. 1853 Markham Skeda's Anecdt. 3 The finger must be always used whenever, through unevenness of the surface, the pleximeter cannot be well applied. 1880 Blackw. Mag. Feb. 243/1 The painful unevenness of the principal roadways.

b. An instance of this; an inequality; a rough or rugged part, place, or feature.

1597 A. M. tr. Guillemeau's Fr. Chirurg. 12 b/2 If there remayne anye small splinter thereone, or other vneuennes. 1664 H. More Myst. Iniq. 297 Upon which one and the same Hill for some little unevennesses in it to be more then one. 1680 Tides (MS. Bodl. Add. A. 202) fol. 3 In deep Rivers the surface conceales these unevennesses. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Filter, The Filter..serves to take off the Unevennesses of the Work, left by the Hammer, in Forging. 1753 Phil. Trans. XLVIII. 88 An horizontal thin edge, which scooped up and carried off the little unevennesses of the turfy parts. 1847 Emerson Rep. Dry Leaves 140 There was not the slightest jag or unevenness—a tolerable proof of the sharpness of the sword.

c. In various figurative uses.

1636 B. Jonson Discoveries Wks. (1641) 98 They would not have it run without rubs, as if that stile were more strong and manly, that stroke the eare with a kind of unevenesse. 1652 Gaule Magastrom. 255 Saturne was pressed with unevennesse or roughnesse, either in leaping or speaking. 1790 Feltham Resolves Moral & Poetical The rhimistical unevenness of some People ruins the pleasure of Conversation. 1779 Johnson L. P., Dryden Wks. II. 427 Such is the unevenness of his compositions, that [etc.] 1805 Med. Jrnl. XV. 395 The unevenness of disposition, the convulsive sobs and strong paroxysms of weeping. 1882 L. Keith Alasnam's Lady III. 105 Di hardly noticed the unevenness of her mood.

†3. Unhappiness, injustice. Obs.

a 1450–70 Knt. de la Tour Landry (W. de W. 1496) 203/1 Goodes of this worlde ben called rycheesses of uneuennesse and of wyckedenesse.

Unevent·ful, a. (Un-1 7.)

1800 Mas. Hervey Mountray Fam. I. 7 There is little to keep up his energy in the uneventful tenour of domestic life. 1862 Gifts & Graces xxv. 249 There is little to tell, for their uneventful lives are gliding on as usual. 1890 W. J. Gordon Foundry 167 We have said enough to show that its story has not been uneventful.

Hence Unevent·fully adv., -fulness.

1865 Cornh. Mag. Apr. 405 The two next days passed quietly and uneventfully. 1872 Howells Wedding Journ. (1892) 192 They rattled uneventfully down..by rail. 1878 Grobart H. Morel's Poems Introd. p. ix, The uneventfulness outwardly of the 'Life' accounts for the few facts given.

†Unevesed, ppl. a. Obs. (Un-1 8.) ? 14.. Lat.-Eng. Voc. (MS. Harl. 2257), Intonsus, vncliipped, vnesesed.

Unevidence, rare[1]. (Un-1 12.) a 1676 Hale Prim. Orig. Man. 1. i. (1677) 10 So full of unevidence and uncertainty, so full of precarious and imaginary Postulata.

Unevidenced, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1842 G. S. Faber Prov. Lett. (1844) II. 53 The unevidenced Popish Innovations advocated by my two opponents. 1892 J. Tait Mind in Matter 234 The impression [made] on the illiterate mind by the unevidenced assertion of miracles.

Unevident, a. (Un-1 7 and 5 b.)

c1400 Apol. Loll. 9 As þis consonant is vnknowen to þe lapee, so þis feuly marchandy is vneuident to þe lyelful peple knowend þis. 1570 Levins Manip. 69 Vneuident, inevidens. 1629 H. Burton Truth's Triumph 165 The actuall faith here cals a firme and certaine, but vneuident Inferences. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. ii. xxv. 134 Rash and unevident Inferences. a 1670 Hacket Abp. Williams 1. (1692) 197 We conjecture at unevident things by that which is evident.

Unevidential, a. (Un-1 7.) 1826 G. S. Faber Diffic. Romanism (1853) 17 Arbitrary exertion of more unevidential dogmatic authority.

† Une·vitable, a. Obs. [Un-1 7 b and 5 b.] = Inevitable a.

1539 Elyot Cast. Helthe 59 They receyne in medicine that, whiche shall ingender..vneuitable destruction vnto al the body. 1594 J. King Funeral Serm. (1599) 677 Let his dead corpse side one more [instruction] vnto you of common & vneuitable mortalitie. 1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. vi. (1626) 123 His haste th'vneuitable bowe o're-took, And through his throte the deadly arrow strook. 1636 W. Montague Accomp. Wom. 59 We have put on black, because mourning is unevitable, since we must needs bewaile our husbands. 1711 W. King Heathen Gods & Heroes xiii. 38 [Pluto] bound them with uneivitable Chains.

So † Une·vitably adv., inevitably. Obs.

1623 in Rushw. Hist. Coll. (1659) I. 142 Seeing we..cannot but foresee and fear lest the like may..unevitably bring such peril to your Majesties Kingdoms.

† Une·vitated, ppl. a. Obs. (Un-1 8.) 1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. xii. (1626) 240 With that, th'vnerring dart at Cycnus [he] flung. Th'vneuitated on his shoulder rung.

Unevo·lved, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1831 Landor Wks. (1846) II. 633, I held down a branch And gathered her some blossoms..So crisp were some, they rattled unevolved. 1884 Congregational Year Bk. 93 Nature..holds in her bosom, unsolved and unevolved, the problems and the germs of all the philosophies.

Unexa·ct, a. [Un-1 7 and 5 b.] = Inexact a.

1758 Maclaine Mosheim's Eccles. Hist. I. 407 note, Dr. Mosheim's account of the time of Nestorius's death is perhaps unexact. 1776 S. J. Pratt Pupil of Pleas. (1777) I. 153 How is it that so scrupulous a man in point of equity is so unexact a correspondent? 1862 'Shirley' (J. Skelton) Nugæ Crit. ii. 237 The literalness of an unpoetic intellect.. is always comparatively sterile and unexact.

So Unexa·ctness, inexactness. rare[1].

1677 Gilpin Demonol. ii. ix. 389 Satan here plays upon the unexactness of the Translation.

Unexa·cted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1609 Tournour Funerall Poem Sir F. Vere 23 All that I speak is unexacted, true and free. 1697 Dryden Virg. Georg. i. 196 All was common, and the fruitful Earth Was free to give her unexacted Birth.

So Unexa·ctedly adv.

c 1642 Observ. his Majesty's late Answer 18 The father doth all his offices meritoriously, freely, and unexactedly.

Unexa·cting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1862 Milman in Proc. Roy. Soc. XI. p. xv, A seat in Parliament, independent even on generous and unexacting friendship. 1884 Mrs. Cooch Sure Harvest 24 The most unselfish, unexacting lady I ever knew. Unexa·ggerable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1818 Q. Rev. XVIII. 41 Gongora's exaggerating and unexaggerable style.

Unexa·ggerated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1770 Armstrong Misc. II. 272 In some places natural and unexaggerated representations of life are not felt. 1812 Q. Rev. VIII. 329 A mass of immediate evil..of which the unexaggerated report might almost startle our belief. 1861 Mill Repr. Govt. (1865) 341 It would be..ungenerous to offer this..as an unexaggerated picture of the French people.

Unexa·ggerating, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1825 Ld. Cockburn Mem. (1856) 332 Calm, clear, and unexaggerating, he went into all the details with precision.

Unexa·lted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1611 Florio, Inuezzalato, vnexalted. 1648 Hexham II, Ongehoogh, Vnlifted up, or Vn-exalted. 1746 Young Nt. Th. ix. 755 Who sees it unexalted, and unaw'd? 1805 Wordsw. Prelude xiii. 243 Not unexalted by religious faith, Nor uninformed by books.

Unexa·minable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1641 Milton Reform. i. Wks. 1851 III. 4 The lowly, alwise, and unexaminable intention of Christ. 1890 Abp. Benson Let. in Life (1901) 373 She had read your book carefully, and I daresay knew it (in an unexaminable sort of way).

Unexa·mined, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1495 Act 11 Hen. VII, ii. § 3 As often as eny suche of the seid mysdoers..departen unexamyned and unpunysshed. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 139 That no worde passe out vntryed, & nothynge entre vnexamyned. 1568 Grafton Chron. II. 765 Watching that no man shoulde..passe vnsercched nor vnexamined. 1620 Southampton Court Leet Rec. (1907) III. 182 The teaching of a Stranger vnexamined and vnripe of yeres. 1684 T. Burnet Theory Earth I. 285 Those manuscripts that are yet unexamin'd in these parts of Christendom. 1747 Richardson Clarissa (1811) II. 268 More pride and vanity than I could have thought had lain in my unexamined heart. 1779 Johnson L. P., Watts Wks. IV. 187 He has left neither corporeal nor spiritual nature unexamined. 1875 Scrivener Lect. Text N. Test. 14 To leave the great mass of copies wholly unexamined.

Unexa·mining, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1682 in Lond. Gaz. No. 1714/6 A means to ferment the Factious Un-examining Vulgar into Rebellious Heats. 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) IV. 213 Which concealed itself from my unexamining heart under the specious veil of humility. 1809–10 Coleridge Friend (1865) I. 163 The unexamining and boisterous youth of the world. 1835 Willis Pencillings I. 90, I passed them with the same lost unexamining..feeling which I cannot overcome in this place.

Unexa·mpled, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Having no preceding or similar example; unprecedented, unparalleled.

1620 Holland Camden's Brit. I. 724 David King of Scots, who with his unexampled cruelty had made this country almost a wilderness. a 1676 Hale Prim. Orig. Man. IV. iv. (1677) 325 This admirable..production of such a Nature unexampled before. 1763 Wilkes Corr. (1805) I. 75 Your lordship's unexampled care of his majesty's youth. 1816 J. Scott Vis. Paris (ed. 5) 176 With unexampled ability and villainy, he fashioned the people to suit his views. 1835 Bain Senses & Int. III. iv. § 24 This is an extreme case, but not unexampled in the history of the world.

Unexa·sperating, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1855 Milman Lat. Chr. xiv. viii. VI. 549 The most quiet, uninsulting, unexasperating satire. Unexcavated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1874 Withrow Catacombs (1877) 20 Some unexcavated spaces have been observed traced in outline.

Unexce·eded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1813 T. Busby Lucretius I. i. Comm. p. xii, The comparison..is conceived with unexceeded vigour.

Unexce·lled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

a 1800 Cowper Iliad (ed. 2) v. 193 Say, Pandarus! Thy bow, thy shafts, thy fame Unrivall'd here, in Lycia unexcell'd, Where are they now? 1821 Hughes Ginge Hill Introd. 3 Unexcelled as a father, unshaken as a friend. 1874 H. H. Cole Catal. Ind. Art S. Kens. Mus. 216 The textile fabrics of India..remain unexcelled by other countries.

Unexce·lling, ppl. a. (Un-1 5 d.) 1844 Mrs. Browning Dead Pan xxxvii, Shame!..To think God's song unexcelling The poor tales of our own telling. Unexceptable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1702 C. Mather Magn. Chr. III. ii. 33/1 Waiting, till God might furnish him with Unexceptable Opportunities, for his..Preaching of the Gospel.

Unexce·pted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 and 8 c.)

1614 B. Jonson Barth. Fair Induct., Hee that will sweare, Ieronimo, or Andronicus are the best playes, yet, shall passe vnexcepted at, heere. 1710 Frideaux Orig. Tithes II. 46 The Precedent doth become of unexcepted authority. 1813 Chalmers Posth. Wks. (1849) VI. 172 There is no getting away from..His ceaseless, from His unexcepted agency. 1852 Bailey Festus (ed. 4) 265 Progress is nature's unexcepted law.

Unexcepting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10). 1716 M. Davies Athen. Brit. II. 410 A rising Clergyman..seem'd to excuse that..Prelate's Prophetick Vein, or even exempt it from his unexcepting Censure. 1879 J. Bruce Life of Gideon xxii. 401 There is a general and unexcepting revival..within his heart, even of all such graces.

Unexceptionable, a. [Un-1 7 b.]

1. To whom, or to which, no exception can be taken; perfectly satisfactory or adequate.

a. Of persons.

1654 Ingelo Bentivolio & Urr. vi. 276 All which I have said was done in the Presence of unexceptionable Witnesses. 1699 T. Baker Refl. Learn. iii. 27 Cicero tho the most unexceptionable [authority] has not escaped their censure. 1740 Cibber Apol. (1756) i. 48 Not even the Revolution.. has been able to furnish us with unexceptionable statesmen. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla II. 193 She affectionately embraced the unexceptionable Lavinia. 1868 Freeman Norm. Conq. (1877) II. ix. 431 There was now no such unexceptionable rival to oppose to the Norman.

b. Of material things. (Rare before 19th c.)

1681 Flavel Meth. Grace xvi. 301 The blood of Christ..; 'tis unexceptionable blood, being..untainted by sin. 1756-7 tr. Rapin's Trans. (1760) II. 425 This statue..is in all its parts unexceptionable. 1858 Browning Parmeniss v. 455 Fest. This cell? Par. An unexceptionable vault: Good brick and stone. 1852 H. Rogers Ecl. Faith 168 Questionable as was the entertainment for the mind, that for the body was unexceptionable.

c. Of character, conduct, style, taste, etc.

1697 C. Leslie Snake in Grass (ed. 2) 359 And the Lives of these Seperatists were as un-exceptionable as any of the Quakers. 1716 M. Davies Athen. Brit. III. 31 His English style is unexceptionable. 1748-9 Johnson's Debates (1787) II. 503 The authority of this man, my Lords, cannot indeed be urged as unexceptionable and decisive. 1794 S. Williams Vermont 183 The most unexceptionable evidence ought to be produced. 1846 F. Reynolds Life & Times II. 126 His taste was unexceptionable, and his judgment was never sullied by prejudice. 1848 Mill Pol. Econ. ii. xv. § 2. 478 Lending his capital on unexceptionable security. 1884 Law Rep. 9 App. Cases 558, I am..of opinion that rule 32 is unexceptionable.

2. Admitting of no exception. rare—1.

1871 Ruskin Fors Clav. vii. 9 That being the, alas, almost unexceptionable lot of human creatures.

Hence Unexceptionableness.

1837 Chambers's Jrnl. 8 July 102 Morals of pure unexceptionability. a 1849 Poe Whipple, etc., Wks. 1864 III. 388, I—with a very partial modification of the imagery..—may elevate the passage into unexceptionability.

Unexceptionableness. (Un-1 12.)

1669 H. More Exp. 7 Epist. Pref. a vij b, If it had been accompanied with other parts of his Exposition of these Epistles that had had the like unexceptionablenesse. 1712 H. More's Antid. Ath. iii. x. Reading, A reflection on the unexceptionableness of these Instances for the proof of Spirits. 1753 Richardson Grandison (1781) II. xiv. 151 My Lord..modestly hinted at the unexceptionableness of his own character. 1823 Bentham Not Paul 229 In order to have the clearer view of the plan..; from which will be seen the unexceptionableness of it.

Unexceptionably, adv. [Un-1 11.]

1. In an unexceptionable manner; beyond criticism or objection.

1662 H. More Antidote agst. Atheism vi. 58 Wee'l betake our selves to..what is more unexceptionably stringent and forcing. 1718 Free-thinker No. 141 (1739) III. 178 It is very rare to find a Glass, that does Justice unexceptionably to Objects, in every nice Circumstance. 1740 Richardson Pamela II. 328 It will not be an easy Task to behave unexceptionably to him. 1787 Smyther Hist. Pestiv. Wer II. 626 The Junta of Cadiz had obtained their power unexceptionably. 1859 Geo. Eliot A. Bede xvii, Let all people who hold unexceptionable opinions act unexceptionably.

2. = Unexceptionably 1. obs.

1719 J. T. Phillips tr. Thirty-four Confer. 89 All your Religious Women who assist at the Performances of Pagod Ceremonies, are unexceptionably great Whores. 1799 Monthly Rev. XXX. 507 Such is not unexceptionably the character of all treatises of this kind: it consequences not obtain universally. 1806 Bloomfield Wild Flowers 106 It has generally and almost unexceptionably appeared a subject of little promise.

Unexceptional, a. [Un-1 7.]

1. = Unexceptionable a. 1 c.

1775 Mme. D'Arblay Early Diary (1889) II. 10 She bears an unexceptional character. 1806 Ann. Rev. IV. 730 We ..secretly retain a higher esteem for the stimulant and unusual, than for the quotidian accuracy of regular unexceptional composition. 1877 W. S. Gilbert Eugenia's Fairy (1892) 62 The duty is extremely light, and the county society unexceptional.

2. Admitting of, subject to, no exception.

1844 Kinglake Eothen xxix, Declaring that the orders received from Constantinople were temperative, and unexceptional. 1883 Sir H. Cotton in Law Rep. 24 Chan. Div. 332, I should think that that would, almost as an unexceptional rule, be of the greatest possible advantage to the infant.

Unexceptionally, adv. [Un-1 11.] Without exception.

1866 Ruskin Crown Wild Olive (1873) 68 So completely and unexceptionally is this so, that [etc.]. 1871 W. G. Ward Ess. Philos. Theism (1884) I. 30 That which I have habitually and unexceptionally experienced, I regard as contingent.

†Unexceptlonable, a. Obs.[1] [Un-1 8.] = Unexceptionable a. 1. 1704 T. Baker Act at Oxf. ii. ii. 22 A Gentleman unexception'd in Person, Temper, and Estate.

Unexceptive, a. (Un-1 7.) 1856 N. Brit. Rev. XXVI. 34 An unexceptive Christian belief. 1860 I. Taylor Ess. I. 128 The Rights of Man..are universal and unexceptive.

Unexchanged, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1618 In W. Foster Eng. Factories in India (1906) I. 8 And we compelled to leave a whole chest of ryalls and three ingotts unexchanged. 1777 Burke Let. to Sheriffs of Bristol Wks. III. 143 If..we.. contend that you may justly reserve for vengeance, those who remain unexchanged.

Unexcised, (ppl.) a.[1] [Un-1 8, 9.]

1. Not subjected to an Excise or tax.

c 1740 I. H. Browne Pipe of Tobacco v. 20 Come to thy post..And let me taste thee unexcis'd by kings. 1861 Sat. Rev. 123 Nov. 532 So all the benefits of a free press, unstamped, unexcised, may be altogether thrown away.

2. Not appointed to a post in the Excise.

1820 Byron Yuan ix. xciii, All are not moralists, like Southey,..Or Wordsworth unexcised, unhired.

Unexcised, ppl. a.[2] [Un-1 8.] Not excised or cut out.

1872 T. H. Green Introd. Pathol. 203 The inflammatory changes..in the unexcised cornea of the opposite eye.

Unexcitable, a. (Un-1 7 b and 5 b.)

1839 Lo. Clarendon in Maxwell Life & Lett. (1913) I. 515, I am of a massive age, unexcitable temperament. 1859 Cornwallis New World i. 297 He did the work simply as a means of living, and he liked it because it was dry and unexcitable. 1895 Outing XXVI. 432/2 During this battle royal, the other fish had darted away, and..only the unexcitable sturgeon was to be seen.

Hence Unexcitability.

1889 E. G. Parry Snake's ix. 215 The extreme unexcitability of temperament of these people.

Unexcited, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not mentally stirred or moved.

1735 Dr. Lynom Lett. fr. Persian in Eng. iii, The human brutes, who, unexcited by any rage or sense of injury, could spill the blood of others. 1850 Robertson Serm. Ser. iii. ix. (1867) 133 Remember Him pausing to weep..; unexcited, while the giddy crowd around Him were shouting 'Hosannas to the Son of David!' 1856 Kane Arct. Expl. I. xvii. 202 A more unexcited inspection showed us.. that their numbers were not great.

2. Not affected by outward influence.

1746 Phil. Trans. XLIV. 734 There is an Endeavour by the nearest unexcited Non-electric to restore the Æquilibrium. 1839 G. Bird Nat. Philos. 399 To produce upon an unexcited eye the sensation of a colour corresponding to that of the violet. 1856 Froude Hist. Eng. II. 26 [Protestantism] sprung up spontaneously, unguided, unexcited, ..among the masses of the nation.

Unexciting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1823 J. H. Newman Arians i. § 1. 20 Judaism..indisposed the mind for the severe and unexciting mysteries..of the Catholic faith. 1861 Mill Repr. Govt. 37 Uncivilized races ..are averse to continuous labour of an unexciting kind. 1885 Mrs. Alexander At Bay viii, He had..led a quiet, busy life, humbly useful, but unexciting.

b. spec. of diet.

1889 Barwell Aneurism v. 44 If an aneurismal patient.. have a dry, unexciting diet. 1888 P. Furnivall Phys. Training 3 Substantial, nourishing solids, with simple unexciting fluids.

Unexcluded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1780 [see Uncounterbalanced]. 1814 Wordsw. Excurs. v. 542 [The sun] doth dispense His beams; which, unexcluded in their fall,..Have gently exercised a twofold power. Unexcluding, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1822 Lamb Elia ii. Detached Th. on Bks., I can read almost anything. I bless my stars for a taste so catholic, so unexcluding. Unexclusive, a. (Un-1 7.) 1831 Sir W. Hamilton Discuss. (1852) 222 Mussel's unexclusive views have found favor with Mayerhoff. 1862 J. Martineau Ess., Sci. Nescience & Faith (1866) 189 To the Infinite, as unexclusive, every thing affirmative belongs. Unexclusively, adv. (Un-1 11.) 1824 Wordsw. Excurs. ix. 392 From culture, unexclusively bestowed On Albion's noble Race in freedom born. 1841-2 Sir W. Hamilton Diss. in Reid's Wks. (1846) 886/1 note, Mr. Stewart.. is wrong in thinking, unexclusively, that Reid's writings were anterior to Kant's. Unexclusiveness. (Un-1 12.) 1818 Bentham Mem. & Corr. Wks. 1843 X. 498 Though I should prefer universality on account of its simplicity and unexclusiveness. 1861 Mill Repr. Govt. 137 A government equally democratic in its unexclusiveness, but better organized in other important points.

Unexcogitable, a. (Un-1 7 b and 5 b.)

1592 R. D. Hypnerotomachia 82 b, Her virgineal aspects, exceedingly beautified with a comely grace and unexcogitable elegancie. 1614 Raleigh Hist. World I. ii. § 2. 24 Wherein can man be said to resemble his unexcogitable power and perfectenesse? c 1624 Chapman Hymn Hermes 158 Unexcogitable thoughts in act Putting.

Unexcogitated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) a 1706 Evelyn Hist. Relig. (1850) I. 23 Moreover, this unexcogitated division would also have been illimited. Unexcommunicate(d, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 8 b.) 1588 Udall Demonstr. Discipline (Arb.) 82 If they had not throwne out the incestuous person, he had remayned still vnexcommunicated. 1680 Answ. Stillingfleet's Serm. 15 Every one that dies Un-excommunicate in the Parish. Unexcorticated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1795 Pann. Dict. s.v. Dialcaphte, Take juniper-Berries unexcorticated, and Bay-berries excorticated.

†Unexcusable, a. Obs. [Un-1 7 b and 5 b.] = Inexcusable a.: a. Of persons.

Chiefly in a religious or moral sense, after Rom. ii. 1 (Gr. ἀναπολόγητος, L. inexcusabilis).

1382 Wyclif Rom. ii. 1 For which thing thou art vnexcusable, thou each man that demest. a 1425 St. Elizabeth of Spalbeck in Anglia VIII. 118/39 Pou, man, arte vnexcusabil, if so quik argumentis..stir pe not to strenghte of feith. c 1561 Varon Free-will 47 That they may..be made unexcusable aygynst the day of iudgement. 1583 Golding Calvin on Deut. i. 4 Therefore are we too unexcusable if we cannot tell what God saith to us there. 1642 G. Mountagu in Buccleuch MSS. (Hist. MSS. Comm.) I. 298 To leave them altogether unexcusable, [he] sent them a licence ..for their absence. 1685 Baxter Paraphr. N. T. Matt. x. 27 That both Jews and Gentiles..may..be unexcusable in their sin.

b. Of faults, offences, etc.

1550 Latimer Last Serm. bef. Edw. VI, Sermons (1580) 113 b, An irremissible sinne, an vnexcusable sinne. 1602 T. Fitzherbert Apol. 12 Whereby their martyrdome was far more glorious,..the iniury done vnto them vnexcusable. 1659 Bp. Walton Consid. Considered 3 The unexcusable negligence of the Greek church. 1688 J. Scott Chr. Life ii. 1. 32 As gross and unexcusable a Stupidity as if [etc.].

Hence †Unexcusableness; -ably adv. Obs.

1621 Cotton, Inexcusableness. 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. i. § 25 The Prince Electour..had unexcusably, and directly against his Advice, incurred the Ban of the Empire in an Imperial Dyet. a 1660 Hammond Serm. xii. Wks. 1684 IV. 642 We will..rip up to you the unexcusableness of the heathen ignorance in general.

Unexcused, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) c 1650 Don Bellianis 84 Get you out of my Persepolis..unless you will here dye, unheard, and unexcused. Unexcusing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1853 Ruskin Stones Ven. II. 299 Scripture History..sets down with unmoved and unexcusing resoluteness the virtues and errors of all men of whom it speaks. 1898 Miss Mulock Th. ab. Wom. 275 With a resolute, uncompromising, unexcusing veracity. †Unexcused, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1660 Stanley Hist. Philos. IX. (1687) 540/1 Concerning all these, he delivered most proper Sciences, leaving nothing unexcused. Unexecutable, a. (Un-1 7 b and 5 b.) 1794 Earl Malmesbury Diaries & Corr. III. 223 The instructions..were nearly unexecutable. 1850 Grote Greece ii. IX. VIII. 455 Though sensible of the wisdom of his advice, the generals thought it wholly unexecutable.

Unexecuted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1985 T. Washington tr. Nicholay's Voy. II. xiii. 48 b, There was no kind of..cruelty by them left vnexecuted. 1666 Sharp Ant. & Cl. iii. vii. 45 You therein..leaue vnexecuted Your owne renowned knowledge. 1742-3 Gray Agrippina 155 Why do I waste the fruitless hours In threats unexecuted? 1790 Pennant London (1813) 140 A vast plan, left unexecuted on account of the unhappy times. 1850 Grote Greece ii. Intr. VIII. 253 The duty remained unexecuted, and the seamen..were left to perish unassisted. 1863 H. Cox Instit. II. viii. 499 The Court directs the cancellation of unexecuted agreements.

Unexecuting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1570 Pedigree to Lee's Alexander i. i, Curse on this weak, unexecuting arm!

†Unexemplar, a. Obs. [Un-1 7.] = next 2.

1685 J. L. Papist Mis-represented & Rep. 76 If some,..by their unexemplar lives, prove a scandal to their profession.

Unexemplary, a. [Un-1 7.]

†1. Unexampled, unprecedented. Obs.

1649 in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. III. 1. 240 To give you some relation of the sad and unexemplary murther of our Soveraign. 1704 in Lond. Gaz. No. 4058/1 Your Majesty's unexemplary Piety. 1730 Swift Vind. Lt. Carteret Wks. 1761 III. 36 He hath in a most unexemplary manner led a regular domestic life.

2. Not exemplary; not to be taken as a model.

1699 Shaftesb. Inquiry conc. Virtue i. ii. 3 Nothing horrid or unnatural, nothing unexemplary, nothing destructive of..natural affection. 1894 Daily News 5 Feb. 3/3 A staunch upholder of that unexemplary husband (sc. George IV) in his long contest with his wife.

†Unexempled, obs. var. Unexampled ppl. a.

1612 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. i. § 18 His eies, which now beheld in a stranger, so strange and vnexempled kindnes. 1640-6 Sir J. Culpeper in Rushw. Hist. Coll. III. (1692) 25 There are some worthy Gentlemen..that carried themselves ..with great wisdom and unexempled moderation.

Unexemplified, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

a 1634 Chapman Rev. for Honour iv. 1. 284 Dismiss these tyrannous instruments of death And cruelty unexemplified. 1681 Owen Design Impend. Judgm. To Rdr. A 2 b, There is an unexemplified Neglect in calling the Inhabitants of it unto Repentance. 1755 Johnson Dict. Pref. C 1 b, It is remarkable that, in reviewing my collection, I found the word 'Sea' unexemplified.

Unexempt, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.) =next. 1634 Milton Comus 685 Scorning the unexempt condition By which all mortal frailty must subsist. Unexempted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1636 Pagitt Christianogr. (ed. 2) II. 40 Ecclesiasticks were unexempted, and deposing of Kings was then undreamed of. 1643-5 Milton Divorce II. xiii, How can the..Law of God..require an unexempted and impartiall obedience to all her decrees,..and yet [etc.]. Unexempting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. I. iii. iv, Is there not Calonne's..universal, unexempting Landtax, the sheet-anchor of Finance? Unexercise. (Un-1 12.) 1640 Br. Reynolds Passions xiii. 129 By reason of the volubility of the minde joyned with an infirmity and unexercise of memory.

Unexercised, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not employed or made use of; not put in force or practised.

c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. II. pr. vii. (1868) 56 Pat is to seyn, pat list pat he wex olde, His uertue pat lay now ful stille ne sholde nat perisshe vnexercised in gouernance of comune. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 86 Let neuer ony parte of thy good day passe and scape the vnexercysed. 1562 J. Shute Cambini's Turk Wars 29 A place whereon no filthie exercise was left vnexercised. 1635 Brathwait Arcad. Pr. 19 Their Comitiall courts like desarts, wilde and unexercised. 1671 Clarendon Hist. Reb. ix. § 45 The enemy left no manner of barbarous cruelty unexercised that day. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla II. 278 Her judgment and penetration had been wholly unexercised. 1893 Fairbairn in Selbie Life vii. (1914) 247 Certain faculties would remain unexercised.

2. Not taking exercise; remaining inactive; not put in motion; left unmoved or unstirred.

1562 Turner Baths 6 Some other [men]..eat euell and vnholsome meates,..and then being vnexercised..make much euill humours. 1607 Topsell Foure-f. Beasts 273 Be not afraid..of this sluggish and vnexercised people, for..they stir not out of the City. 1624 Wotton Archit. i. 3 That it [sc. air] be not..vndigested, for want of sunne, not unexercised for want of winde.

3. Of persons: Not accustomed or prepared by training or practice: untrained.

1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades i. iii. (1592) 24 Whereby we gather, that the scripture is difficult or obscure to the vnlearned, vnskilfull, vnexercised, and malicious..wils. 1623

BINGHAM Xenophon, Comp. Wars, An unexercised Souldier is always raw, though he have served never so long. a 1653 GOODE Comm. Heb. xii. 5 This teacheth us, to fit and prepare ourselves for tryals. An unexercised man will not dare to enter into the list. 1702 ECHARD Eccl. Hist. (1710) 599 Some few, being unprepared and unexercised, through fear and fraility, fell away. 1768–74 TUCKER Lit. Nat. (1834) I. 377 Unexercised in their understandings and unpractised in the ways of men. 1802 LAMB Cooke's Rich. III, Wks. 1908 I. 47 Breaking out into...phaudits at its own success, like an unexercised noviciate in tricks. transf. 1887 W. FOWLER Wks. (S.T.S.) I. 16 With my unexercised style [to] debaise suche graces.

Unexe'rted, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1675 TRAHERNE Chr. Ethics 347 Without its exercise it remaineth unexerted, is wholly vain. 1708 Brit. Apollo No. 88. 1/2 The Faculties of the Soul lie Dormant and Unexerted. 1790 HAN. MORE Relig. Fash. World (1792) 182 To prevent the total stagnation of unexerted principles.

Unexha'led, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1793 Phil. Trans. XXIII. 1433 The little Water which remained unexhaled.

Unexhau'sted, ppl. a. [UN-1 8 and 5 b.]

1. Not emptied or drained of contents.

1648 BOYLE Seraph. Love (1659) 87 His Plenty being so unexhausted a spring of goods. 1852 E. DENLOWES Theoph. vii. xc, Floods of unebbing joyes. Thou dost exhibit in an unexhausted bowl! 1704 Phil. Trans. XXV. 1766 As the Vibrations in the unexhausted Receiver were a little contracted. 1721 RAMSAY Prospect of Plenty 245 Neptune's unexhausted bank has store Of endless wealth. 1833–4 J. PHILLIPS Geol. in Encycl. Metrop. (1845) VI. 756/2 An unexhausted fountain of melted matter.

2. Not used up, expended, or brought to an end.

1602 LODGE Josephus, Antiq. vi. xiv. 149 Whatsoever they be that spend their many and unexhausted treasures in their service. 1656 COWLEY Pindar. Odes, 2nd Olympique vii, In the Lands of unexhausted Light. a 1704 T. BROWN Mr. H. Silly Wks. 1711 IV. 249 Thy Tenants,...With deep and unexhausted Woe, Lament their generous Master dead. 1887 JARMAN Powell's Devises II. 77 Such unexhausted interest...belongs to the heir as real estate undisposed of. 1887 DUFFERIN Lett. High Lat. (ed. 3) 112 Having separated into two streams, the unexhausted current again reconvenced its march. 1878 JEVONS Prim. Pol. Econ. 93 Tenant right consists in giving the tenant a right to claim the value of any unexhausted improvements.

Unexhau'stible, a. Also 7 -able. [UN-1 7, 7 b, 5 b.] = INEXHAUSTIBLE a.

1646 EARL MONM. tr. Boccalini's Advts. fr. Parnass. i. xv. (1674) 18 His own so unexhaustible riches which he had accumulated. 1683 TRYON Way to Health 345 From the divine Principle, doth arise and flow, as from an unexhaustible Fountain, all Fruitfulness. 1690 in Cath. Rec. Soc. Publ. IX. 359 Ye unexhaustable purse of Gods divine providence. 1779 JOHNSON L. P., Butler, If unexhaustible wit could give perpetual pleasure, no eye would ever leave half-read the work of Butler.

Unexhau'stion. (UN-1 22.) a 1741 TULL Horse-hoeing Husb. (1822) 151 There unexhaustion is more effectual than dung. Unexhi'bited, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1862 THORNBURY Turner I. 262 Nor can I affix a certain date to the unexhibited 'Squally Weather'. Unexi'(e)able, a. (UN-7 7 b.) 1592 NASHE Strange Newes E iv, A thousand more such unexilleable over-thwart merrimentes.

Unexi'stence. (UN-1 12 and 5 b.)

1593 NASHE Christ's T. 9 b, Some there be that fantasie phylosophicall probabilities of the Trinities vnexistence. 1623 COCKERAM 1, Vnexistence, not being. 1828 Blackw. Mag. Sept. 300/2 Can it be that thou art numbered among forgotten things—in unexistence? 1854 CDL. WISEMAN Fabiola II. viii. 179 Had he melted into unexistence?

Unexi'stent, a. (UN-1 7 and 5 b.)

1682 SIR T. BROWNE Chr. Mor. III. xiii. (1716) 97 A Retrogade cognition of times past...is more satisfactory than a suspended Knowledge of what is yet unexistent. 1723 BLACKMORE Alfred Pr. p. xiv, Only empty Phantasms, and the unexistent Creatures of human Invention. 1746 YOUNG Nt. Th. IX. 812 Are there...those to whom Unseen and unexistent, are the same?

Unexi'sting, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

1785 ANNA SEWARD Lett. (1811) I. 18 What you tell us is an unexisting circumstance. 1804 — Mem. Darwin 33 It is surely better to recede, even at the church-porch, than to plight at it's altar the vow of unexisting love. 1834 MRS. JAMESON Visits & Sk. (1839) I. 198 There are those who regard...the unknown as the unexisting.

† Une'xorable, a. Obs. [UN-1 7 b and 5 b.] = INEXORABLE a.

1577 Fruites of Prayer H 5 b, If God were (in a maner) vnexorable. 1608 BP. J. KING Serm. 5 Nov. 12 Is your malice vnexorable as the grave? Deepe and bottomles as hell? a 1641 BP. MONTAGU Acts & Mon. (1642) 422 They were...vnexorable against malefactors for breach of the Law.

Hence † Une'xorableness. Obs.

1611 FLORIO, Inessorabilità, vnexorablenesse.

Une'xorcised, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

c 1750 SHENSTONE Ruin'd Abbey 174 That their dishonour'd corse...Must sleep with brutes, in mere unexorcis'd! 1854 MILMAN Lat. Chr. III. vii. (1864) II. 152 She is possessed by a devil, who had been swallowed in the unexorcised lettuce. 1860 FROUDE Hist. Eng. VI. 306 That spectre remained unexorcised in all its shadowy terror.

Unexpa'nded, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1664 POWER Exp. Philos. II. 110 The Quicksilver,...overpowring the Atmospherical or unexpanded Ayr, falls down. 1722 BLACKMORE Creation vi. 290 So every fortus bears a secret hoard, With sleeping unexpanded issue stor'd. 1796 WITHERING Brit. Plants (ed. 3) III. 657 Leaves, and especially the unexpanded heads, with a good deal of woolliness. 1854 HOOKER Himal. Pinus. I. vi. 163 Most of its flowers drop unexpanded from the tree. 1889 W. PHILLIPS Brit. Discomycetes 358 The unexpanded cups somewhat like a Cucurbitaria.

Unexpa'nsive, a. (UN-1 7 and 5 b.)

1846 GROTE Greece (1862) II. 332 These bodies were close and unexpansive. 1862 T. A. TROLLOPE Marietta I. xv. 271 By nature an unexpansive man. 1869 LECKY Europ. Mor. I. 433 The Jewish religion was essentially conservative and unexpansive.

† Unexpe'ct, ppl. a. [UN-1 8 b.] Unexpected.

1633 P. FLETCHER Elisa I. xl, Not unexpect thou com'st to claim thy due.

Unexpe'ctable, a. (UN-1 7 b and 5 b.)

1598 BARRET Theor. Warres I. ii. 9 Brought through manifold daungers, and vnto vnexpectable events. 1604 T. WRIGHT Passions v. § 4. 289 The difficulty of obtayning that we desire...rendreth the thing desperate and consequently vnexpectable. 1842 INGELO Benitio & Ur. v. 90 The concatenation of like Successions...seems to make the end of sinning almost unexpectable. 1749 BYROM Rem. (1857) II. II. 489 Your brother's journey to Smithills was indeed unexpectable. 1825 BENTHAM Offic. Apt. Maximized, Judic. (1830) 27 One of the most unexpectable of all incidents. 1863 HAWTHORNE Our Old Home (1879) I. 260 Our kind friend kept bringing out one unexpected and wholly unexpectable thing after another. 1892 Graphic 16 Apr. 478/1 Where the unexpected, or rather unexpectable, occurred.

Unexpe'ctant, a. (UN-1 7 and 5 b.)

1811 WORDSW. Epist. to Beaumont 209 Not unexpectant that by early day Our little Band would third this mountain-way. 1881 E. F. POWYSE Among the Hills II. 84 Abashed by the unexpectant calm that met her.

Unexpecta'tion. (UN-1 22 and 5 b.) 1611 FLORIO, Innaspettatione, vnexpectation. 1650 BP. HALL Balm of Gilead vii, § 1 As every one knew evill, so this [loss] especially is aggravated by our unexpectation.

Unexpe'cted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 and 5 b.)

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia I. v, In such an unexpected mischiefe. 1597 A. M. tr. Guillemeau's Fr. Chirurg. 50/1 Because of unexpected accidentes, he is blamed, disdayned and diffamed. 1634 SIR T. HERBERT Trav. 5 An unexpected violent gust. 1651 HOBBES Leviath. II. xxviii. 162 The unexpected addition is no part of the Punishment. 1733 BERKELEY Let. Wks. 1871 IV. 204 This circumstance, not foreseen, occasions an unexpected delay. 1781 GIBBON Decl. & F. xxx. (1787) III. 147 Stillicho...suddenly repressed, by his unexpected presence, the enemy. 1885 SCOTT Tailleman iii, Had the attention been suddenly caught by an unexpected apparition. 1890 MAURY Phys. Geog. xviii. § 750 The most unexpected discovery of all.

absol. 1884 in Little's Living Age April 125/2 He is very great in the art of the unexpected. 1891 BARTLETT Fam. Quots. (ed. 9) 70 The unexpected always happens.—A common proverb. 1892 [see UNEXPECTABLE].

Unexpe'ctedly, adv. (UN-1 11, 5 b; cf. prec.)

1605 DRAYTON Idea li, Calling to mind...How things still unexpectedly have run, As it please the Fates. 1693 DRYDEN Juvenal (1697) ix. xxii, A most Bountiful Present, which...came most seasonably and unexpectedly to my Relief. 1774 PENNANT Tour Scotl. in 1772, 283 A seat beautifully wooded, gracing most unexpectedly this almost treeless tract. 1825 SCOTT Talisman xxiii, Engaged in subduing the angry feelings which had been so unexpectedly awakened. 1869 TOZER Highl. Turkey II. 220 We found ourselves close to the beach..., on which we unexpectedly emerged.

b. With adjs. or advs.

1818 SCOTT Rob Roy xxvi, We took a kind farewell of this unexpectedly zealous friend. 1850 MRS. CARLYLE Lett. (1883) II. 123 She arrived yesterday unexpectedly early. 1877 LADY BRASSEY In Ly. Anderson xviii, Rejoicing that we had...a fresh fair wind, so unexpectedly soon.

Unexpe'ctedness. (UN-1 12 and 5 b.)

1614 TOMKIS Albumazar iv. ii, This man admires the vnexpectedness Of my returne. 1654 EARL ORRERY Parthen. (1676) 72 The cause lessen'd my pruine, at least of one misery, which is the suddenness and unexpectedness of it. 1725 WATTS Logic iii. iv. § 8 This will plainly prove that he describes the Unexpectedness of his Appearance. 1804–6 SYD. SMITH Lett. Peter Plym. (1850) 378 The unexpectedness of the news excites...the feeling of surprise. 1893 MCCARTHY Red Diamonds III. 221 An adventure stranger in its ironic unexpectedness than anything which had befallen him.

Unexpe'cting, ppl. a. (UN-1 10, 5 d.) 1632 LITHGOW Trav. iv. 7 The harmless honest, vnexpecting souls, may suddenly bee surprised. 1831 JAMES Phil. Augustus I. ii, The cold unexpecting fiendness of his companion's features. Unexpe'ctingly, adv. (UN-1 11.) 1801 ELIZ. HELME St. Margaret's Cave xx, Thus unexpectingly meeting with a stranger...had the most sensible effect upon the good old man. † Unexpe'diency. Obs. (UN-1 12 and 5 b.) 1607 T. SPARKE Brotherly Persuasion 7 Some inconuenience, and vnexpediencie is some of the things commanded.

† Unexpe'dient, a. Obs. [UN-1 7 and 5 b.] = INEXPEDIENT a.

c 1449 PECOCK Repr. II. v. 163 For ellis the sacramentis of Crist weren vnleeful, vnexpedient, and vnprofitable. c 1520 BARCLAY Jugurth (1557) A ij b, Neuertheles so to do it is vnbehouefull and vnexpedient. 1583 GOLDING Calvin on Deut. xxiii. 134 For this kinde of speach were vnexpedient if to make images were...lawfull. 1643 QUARLES Loyal Convert Wks. (Grosart) I. 142/2 What is unexpedient in the one, is lawfull in the other. 1655 FULLER Ch. Hist. IX. ii § 25 Others did condemne the present excommunication, as unexpedient. a 1768 SECKER Serm. (1770) II. 180 For their Abuse doth not of Necessity make our Use of them unlawful, nor possibly sometimes unexpedient.

Unexpe'ditated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1598 MANWOOD Lawes Forest xvi. 97 b, The forfaiture...onely for the keeping of Mastiues within a Forrest vnexpeditated. 1885 M. COLLINS in Eng. Illustr. Mag. 586/1 Some Commoners claimed a right to keep certain dogs unexpeditated. Unexpe'rted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1811 BYRON Hints fr. Hor. 240 He...unexpelled perhaps, retires M. A.

Unexpe'nded, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1571 Act 13 Eliz. c. 4 § 9 Any Part thereof...founde to be owing and unexpended. [1775 ASH.] 1828 SCOTT Br. Lamm. xviii, Computing how long...the provisions which had been unexpended might furnish forth the Master's table. 1855 PUSEY Doctr. Real Presence Note R. 365 That which is eaten is unexpended. 1884 Act 47 & 48 Vict. c. 73 § 5 The unexpended balances of certain votes for navy services.

Unexpe'nsive, a. (UN-1 7 and 5 b.) = INEXPENSIVE a.

1642 MILTON Apol. Smect. Wks. 1851 III. 305 Providence...hath ever bred me up in plenty, although my life hath not bin unexpensive in learning, and voyaging about. 1727 THOMSON Britannia 204 Then cherish this, this unexpensive power,...By lavish Nature thrust into your hand. 1790 LANGHORNE Plutarch (1879) I. 74 2 His sacrifices...consisting chiefly of...simple and unexpensive things. 1834 HR. MARTINEAU Farrers ii. 21 Mr. Farrer eschewed luxuries, except a few of the most unexpensive. 1859 MILL Lib. Lect. (1910) I. 233 Neither they nor the Tories wish to make elections unexpensive.

Hence Unexpe'nsively adv., -ness.

1812 JANE AUSTEN Emma XXV, Keeping little company, and that little unexpensively. 1825 CARLYLE Schiller (1845) App. 285 Add to this the unexpensive manner in which such a town as Weimar.

† Unexpe'rience, sb. Obs. [UN-1 12 and 5 b.] = INEXPERIENCE.

1611 FLORIO, Imperitia, vnskillfulnesse, vnexperience, ignorance. 1617 BP. HALL Quo Vadis? x, To recant that which my vn-experience hath...written in praise of the French education. 1691 HARTCLIFFE Virtues 61 Ignorance and Unexperience makes men bold and foolhardy. 1755 Mem. Capt. T. Drake I. xiii. 93 He offered to appoint me his second Lieutenant, which I declined accepting, on account of my Unexperience in maritime Affairs.

Unexpe'rience, v. [UN-1 14.] trans. To fail to experience.

1603 HARINGTON in Nugæ Ant. (1804) I. 336 Nor did I... unexperience her love and kyndness on manie occasions.

Unexpe'rienced, ppl. a. [UN-1 8 and 5 b.]

1. Not furnished with, or taught by, experience; not skilled or trained in this way.

1569 UNDERDOWN Ovid's Invect. Ibis Pref. A v b, If you wil bear with mine vnexperienced indgements. 1608 WILLET Hexapla Exod. 273 No man will commit his...bodie to an vnexperienced physitian. 1658 OWEN Friendship in F. IV. i, Her natural and unexperienced tenderness exceeded practis'd charms. 1751 JOHNSON Rambler No. 175 10 Credulity is the common failing of unexperienced virtue. 1793 HOLCROFT Lavater's Physiog. i. 16 Shades scarcely discernible to an unexperienced eye. 1822 CHISHOLM in Good Steady Med. (1829) II. 213 Let the young and unexperienced practitioner guard himself against it. 1860 A. L. WENDSOR Ethica iii. 146 An unexperienced hand might have expected [etc.].

b. Const. in.

1599 HAKLUYT Voy. II. ii. 138 Our English Surgeons (for the most part) be vnexperienced in hurts that come by shot. 1620 E. BLOUNT Horse Toilo. 85 To be vnexperienced in the first argues much disability for the latter. 1654 tr. Martini's Conq. China 211 He quickly dispersed them, being wholy unexperienced in Military Discipline. 1760–72 H. BROOKE Fool of Quat. (1809) IV. 27 My lady...child here, is unexperienced in the world. 1772 SCHOLLETT Triumph. Ch. Oct. iii, Unexperienced as I am in the commerce of life.

c. absol. (with the).

1622 PEACHAM Compl. Gent. xvi. 200 If it be the common Law of Nature, that the learned should...Instruct the ignorant, the experienced, the vnexperienced. 1665 BOYLE Occas. Reft. iv. xix. 125 Whatever the unexperience'd may imagine. 1742 Johnson's Debates (1787) II. 100 By these arts I have known the young and unexperienced kept in suspence. 1810 COBBBE Borough xxiii. 67 The unexperienced and the inexpert.

2. Not known or felt by experience.

1698 NORRIS Pract. Disc. IV. 89 A new and altogether unexperienced State and way of Life. 1721 PERRY Doggrel. Breach 69 My Work was in a Method entirely new, and unexperience'd by those Persons appointed to carry on the same in my Absence. 1756 Monitor No. 21. I. 239 The towers...gave me an unexperienced delight, as I had never seen such a place before. 1844 DISRAELI Coningsby ix. v, There was ...no unexperienced scene or sensation of life to distract his intelligence.

Hence Unexpe'riencedness.

1654 GAYTON Pleas. Notes I. viii. 30 Whereat he vapoured extreamely, shaking his head at the fellows unexperiencednesse. 1727 BAILEY (vol. II) s.v., Unskilfulness.

† Unexpe'rient, a. Obs. rare. [UN-1 7 and 5 b.] Inexperienced.

1597 SHAKS. Lover's Compl. 318 The naked and concealed fiend he coueted, That th' vnexperient gaue the tempter place. 1750 CARTE Hist. Eng. II. 658 Errors and oversights...proceeding...from unexperient ignorance.

Unexpe'rimented, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

† 1. Inexperienced; unskilled. Obs.

1598 BARRET Theor. Warres I. i. 1 My selfe, and other country Gentlemen, vnexperimented in such martiall causes. 1622 R. HAWKINS Voy. S. Sea 152 To comment such charges to men vnexperimented in their profession. 1635 J. HAYWARD tr. Biondi's Banish'd Virg. 162 So ignorant and unexperimented in all wylinesse...as to discover her love.

2. Not tried, known, or ascertained by experiment.

1594 R. ASHLEY tr. Loys le Roy 78 b, The diligence of the auncients, who haue left nothing vnsearched, and vnexperimented. 1674 R. GODFREY Inf. & Ab. Physic 54, I cannot but...wonder, that any persons should be so stupidly idle, and vain, to publish unexperimented Processes. 1839 B. H. SMART Way out of Metaph. 31 We may...apply it to similar particulars remaining unexperimented. 1890 LOWELL Study Wind. 194 Whether equally so to the most distant possible heaven or not was unexperimented.

† Unexpe'rt, a. Obs. [UN-1 7 and 5 b. Cf. MDu. onexpert.]

1. = INEXPERT a.

a 1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula, etc. 55 Lewed men and vnexperte men calleg al be infirmitez bredyng in pe lure emeroydez, or pilez, or ficz. 1509 BARCLAY Ship of Fools (1570) 88 v, If ye consider the scarcenes of my wit, and my vnexpert youth. 1598 BARRET Theor. Warres II. i. 23 The expert souldier loth to obey the vnexpert Captaine. 1639 G. DANIEL Ecclus. xxxiv. 25 Ignorance is vnexpert, and the Face Of smiling Error leads to Wickedness. 1698 Fryer Acc. E. India & P. 269 The Men here being unexpert how far the Friendly Offices [etc.].

b. Const. of or in.

(a) a 1440 Found. St. Bartholomew's (E.E.T.S.) 62 Vtterly vnexpert of mannys counsell and helpe. c 2500 Barclay Jugurth 32 b, Theyr felowes whiche were fereful and unexpert of suche chances of warre. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. VI, 150 b, Nor of diligence, studie, and businesse, she was not vnexperte. 1635 Heywood Hierarchy vi. 393 A Barbarian,..Unexpert of your Greekish plenitude. a 1689 Mrs. Behn Hom. Crt. K. Bassalem (1722) II. 295 A pure Celibate, and altogether unexpert of Women.

(b) 1546 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 274 They that be vnexperte in suche spirituall swetnesse. 1551 Robinson tr. More's Utop. 11. (1895) 121 Yf they should be al together newe and fresh and vnexperte in husbandrie. 1629 Wadsworth Pilgr. 35 Wee were young and vnexpert in sea fight. 1684 J. S. Profit & Pleas. United 166 Such Unerring Rules, as will..perfect the unexpert therein. 1778 W. H. Marshall] Minutes Agric., Observ. 139 A man unexpert in boxing the Compass.

c. ellipt. in special sense.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia III. v, Not doubting the easie conquest of an unexpert virgin. 1629 Wodroephe Marrow Fr. Tongue 292/2 If a Woman be a Virgen, shee is vnexpert.

2. Of things: Untried. rare[-1].

c 1510 Barclay Mirr. Gd. Manners (1570) B v, When thou shalt ought do of unexpert or newe.

Hence †Unexpertly adv., -ness. Obs.

1538 Latimer Serm. (Parker Soc.) 398 If affection do reign in me, then I will not; if ignorance and unexpertness, then I cannot. 1565 Cooper, Imperite, vnexpertly: vnskilfully. 1598 Florio, Imperitia, vnskilfulnes, vnexpertnes. 1611 Cotgr., Inexperiment,..vnlearnedly; vnexpertly.

†Unexplable, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7 b and 5 b.] = Inexplicable a. 1.

1606 Br. J. King Serm. Sept. 46 The fault is unexplable; the blood of martyrdome cannot wash out this spot. 1657 Trapp Comm. Esther ii. 10 This lyeth upon them as a punishment for their unexplable guilt.

Unexplated, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 and 5 b.] = Inexpiated a.

1681 Earl Roscommon Poems (1721) 6 The Bar..Stain'd with the (yet unexplated) Blood Of the brave Strafford. 1809 Malkin Gil Blas x. 1. 74 It gives me the horrors..to think of my unexplated murders. 1879 Symons Geb. Poets vii. 190 Orestes..has..unexplated crimes of father and of grandsire to atone for.

Unexpired, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1570 Walsingham in Wills Doctors' Comm. (Camden) 70 All my leases, or no many of them as then shall remayne unsoulde and unexpired. 1635 Quarles Emblems v. x. 282 She ..begs th' untimely date Of unexpired thraldome, to release Th' afflicted Captive. 1659 Knaresb. Wills (Surtees) II. 240 Years of a lease..which are yet uncome and unexpired. 1778 [W. H. Marshall] Minutes Agric., Observ. 791 The unexpired term of the lease. 1859 J. Lang Wand. India 27 The unexpired portion of their leave having been cancelled. 1883 D. C. Murray Hearts xxiii. (1885) 189 The unexpired lease of the theatre was supposed to be worth a thousand.

Unexplainable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b and 5 b.] Inexplicable.

a 1711 Ken Hymnotheo Poet. Wks. 1721 III. 357 Each Plant, Worm, Mite, Pebble we behold, Strange Wonders unexplainable enfold. 1838 Mrs. Oliphant Laird of Norlaw II. 88 The uncomfortable, inexplainable poetic elevation of the lad. 1875 Whitney Life Lang. x. 195 Facts which for the time seem unexplainable by ordinary means.

Hence Unexplainably adv., inexplicably.

1899 Somerville & Ross Experiences Irish R., M. 247 At last we came, unexplainably, into smooth water.

Unexplained, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1721 Amhurst Terræ Filius No. 31, All their doctrines are generally embraced whilst unexplained and unexamined. 1784 Cowper Task II. 58 Fires from beneath, and meteors from above, Portentous, unexplained, unexplain'd. 1842 Manning Serm. (1848) 10 The great and unexplained fall of the 'sons of God'. 1879 St. George's Hosp. Rep. IX. 706 A rule, subject doubtless to no few unexplained exceptions.

Hence Unexplainedly adv.

1811 Miss L. M. Hawkins C'tess & Gertr. II. 366 These Insular situations,..where nothing can occur unexpectedly and unexplainedly, without..carrying an inflammable train.

Unexplanatory, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1816 Bentham Chrestom. Wks. 1843 VIII. 171 The arbitrary and unexplanatory denomination given to them. 1847 C. Bronte J. Eyre xxxiii, The hasty and unexplanatory reply. †Unexplicable, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.] = Inexplicable a. 1. 1658 J. Jones Cato's Ids 15 The Belides sieve [may be] the unexplicable desires of the soule.

†Unexplicable, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7 b and 5 b.]

1. = Inexplicable a. 2.

1532 More Conful. Tindale Wks. 540/1 Which places of themselfe all olde holy doctours confesse for diffuse and almost unexplicable. 1644 Digby Nat. Soul Pref. P 5 Later Philosophers..have filled their bookes..with vnexplicable opinions, out of which no account of nature can be given. 1656 Earl Monm. tr. Boccalini's Advts. fr. Parnass. I. lxxvii, 100 Justice being oppressed by the unexplicable ambition of potent men. 1803 Ann. Reg. I. 275 What remains unexplicable in the conduct of public men is not solved by conjecture. 1825 Monthly Mag. XXXVIII. 111 Many hundred words obsolete, unexplicable, barbarous,.. will be dislodged.

2. = Inexplicable a. 1.

1615 G. Sandys Trav. 225 Him Minos doomes To durance, in vnexplicable roomes. a 1644 R. Crakanthorp Vigilans Dormitans (1654) 313 By most admirable and unexplicable fraud & subtility. 1673 Rowlay Verney (1656) 61 Mould to entertain the Fibers, which else you will find to mat in unexplicable intanglements.

Hence †Unexplicableness. Obs.

1711 H. More's Apo. Divine. Adm. 183 The unexplicableness of a Spirit's moving Matter in no greater argument [etc.].

Unexplicated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1665 Boyle Orig. Formes & Qual. Pref. B 6 b, Qualities..which have been by the Schoolmen either left Unexplicated, or Generally refer'd, to..Incomprehensible Substantiall Formes. 1698 Locke Let. to Molyneux 6 Apr., To have..unravell'd to you that which lying in the lump unexplicated in my mind I scarce yet know what it is my self.

Unexplicit(ly, a. and adv. (Un-[1] 7, 11, 5 b.) [1775 Ash, Unexplicit.] 1831 Scott Ct. Rob. xxvi, So unexplicitly expressed,..that it was by no means easy to conceive the meaning of it. 1838 Sir W. Hamilton Logic xvii. (1866) I. 319 Very brief and unexplicit in his treatment of this subject. 1852 James Pequinillo II. 211 It was briefly and unexplicitly that he explained himself.

Unexplicit(ness, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1888 Pall Mall G. 3 Sept. 2/1 Developing the wonderful resources of their unexploited continent. Unexplo·rable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.) 1859 T. S. Henderson Life E. Henderson 149 The guide, who regarded the region not only as unexplored, but unexplorable.

Unexplored, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1697 Dryden Æneis iv. 600 No female Arts or Aids she left untry'd, Nor Counsels unexplor'd, before she dy'd. 1700 — Sigism. & Guiscarda 658 Under thy friendly Conduct will I fly To Regions unexplor'd. 1751 Johnson Rambler No. 137 P 7 The unexplored abysses of truth. 1824 Miss L. M. Hawkins Annaline III. 65 They had led him round through an unexplored country. 1884 J. Gilmour Mongols xviii. 225 The spirit which prompts men to..seek out unexplored knowledge.

Unexplo·sive, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.) a 1828 Sir W. Congreve (Worcester, 1846). 1866 [see Inexplosive a.] 1882 Contemp. Rev. Nov. 617 Guns firing solid, and therefore unexplosive, shot. Unexportable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1827 P. Cunningham N. S. Wales II. 103 Paper-money..being unexportable, and consequently only available for home use.

Unexpu·ged, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not brought to light; not shown up.

1703 Mrs. Centlivre Beau's Duel ii. II, Would they take my advice, no fop..shou'd 'scape unexposed. 1741 Watts Improv. Mind i. v. § 8 (1801) 55 They will endeavour..to render it useless by their censures, rather than suffer..the little mistakes of the author to pass unexposed. 1817 Corbett Taking Leave 29 While her infamous press was revelling in unexposed falsehoods and calumnies.

2. Not rendered open, subject, or liable, to something.

a 1692 Boyle Hist. Air (1692) 82 A place unexposed to the moon's light. 1769 E. Bancroft Guiana 17 The white inhabitants..are unexposed to the rays of the sun near midday. 1814 Wordsw. Excurs. iv. 757 Existence unexposed To the blind walk of mortal accident. 1865 Neale Hymns Paradise 10 Unexposed to change and chance.

3. Photogr. (See Expose v. 3.)

1852 Photogr. Ann. II. 229 The principal constituent of an unexposed dry plate is silver bromide.

Unexpostulating, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1819 Shelley Cenci ii. ii. 150 Her mother scared and unexpostulating.

Unexpoundable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1611 Cotgr., Inexplicable, ..vndisplayable, vnexpoundable. 1835 Court Mag. VI. 290/1 In spite of legal interdictions and unexpoundable acts of parliament. 1844 North Brit. Rev. I. 147 Dark sayings and unexpoundable dogmas. Unexpounded, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1648 Hexham II, Onbedwydet, Vnexpounded. 1652 Jer. Taylor Serm. for Year II. xxii, 279 When we are to choose our doctrine,..we take that which is in the plain unexpounded words of Scripture. 1826 Scott Woodst. xiv, 'As gospel unexpounded by a steeple-man', said the incredulous Cuthbert. Unexpress, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1851 Carlyle Sterling I. iv, The express schoolmaster is not equal to much at present—while the unexpress..is so busy.

†Unexpressable, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7 b.] = Unexpressible a.

1548 G. Wishart tr. Conf. Fayth xxii, We exulte and rejoyce with a myrth unexpressable in words. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia III. x, As well consorted partes to such an unexpressable [1622 unexpressible] harmonie. 1607 Hieron Wks. I. 468 Now she..still beggeth with Him by sighes vnexpressable. 1611 Bible Baker 75 A felicity that fils our hearts with an unexpressable delight. 1683 E. Hooker Pordage's Mystic Div. Pref. 70 To the..unexpressall refreshing of the..faithful Servants of Christ. c 1721 Mrq. Tullibardine in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 126 Those who find their account in unexpressable confusion.

Unexpre·ssed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 and 5 b.)

1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. I. Pref., So that he do with an vnexpressed Fayth (as they cal it) submit hys mynde to the ingiment of the Church. 1621 Burton A. Fr. Mad's Trag. III, And you will feel so unexpreat a joy In clasi embraces, that you will indeed appear another. 1659 Evelyn tr. Gold. Bk. Chrysostome Ep. Ded. A x, The Ellipses, Defects of Verbs and Nouns unexpressed. 1676 Life Father Sarpi in Brent's Conna. Trent 8 All their regular orders continued with professions as yet unexpreat. 1812 Byron Corsair III. xv, His thoughts..; deep, dark, and unexpreat, They bleed within..his breast. 1876 Fox Bourne Locke II. vi. 273 By its unexpressed terms all the courtiers and politicians..were to be well bribed.

So Unexpre·ssedly adv.

1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. III. 173 It is not enough, if a man vnexpressedly believe..; but he requireth an expressed acknowledging of God's goodnesse.

Unexpre·ssible, a. (and sb.). Now rare or Obs. [Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.] = Inexpressible a.

1621 [see Unexpressable a., quot. a 1586]. 1626 Donne Serm. 746 That unexpressible worke of the Redemption. 1675 Traherne Cent. Ethics 73 The first of these is occasioned by a secret and unexpressible agreement of temper. 1732 Hist. Litteraria II. 267 The many, almost unexpressible, Calamities he suffered, during his Captivity. 1826 Southey Vind. Eccl. Angl. 177 An unexpressible, uncomparable, unimaginable stench..filled that whole place of darkness.

b. sb. = Inexpressible sb. 2.

1810 S. Green Reformist I. 92 No, we called 'em 'fie-for-shames', 'unexpressibles', 'inspeakables'; for 'small-clothes' has been long out of wogue.

Hence Unexpre·ssibleness. Also -ibi·lity.

1649 Ambrose Medin iii. (1659) 56 The Infiniteness, and unexpressibleness of God's Bounty. a 1672 Sterry Freed. Will (1675) 7 The unexpressibleness of the Divinity, and the Divine Unity. 1816 Bentham Chrestom. Wks. 1843 VIII. 117 Of impracticability, in this case two causes present themselves..: viz. incognoscibility and unexpressibility.

Unexpre·ssibly, adv. Now rare or Obs. [Un-[1] 11 and 5 b.] = Inexpressibly adv.

1634 Br. Hall Char. Man (1635) 47 Till then your condition..is unexpressibly wofull. 1668 H. More Div. Dial. III. xvii. 412 Tumbling them down into the pit of Hell, there to be eternally and unexpressibly tormented. 1702 Echard Eccl. Hist. (1710) 598 Which meeting with a person of his age,..must needs be unexpressibly burdensome.

Unexpre·ssive, a. (Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.)

†1. = Inexpressive a. 1. Obs.

1600 Shaks. A. Y. L. III. ii. 10 Run, run Orlando, carve on every Tree, The faire, the chaste, and vnexpressive shee. 1629 Milton Hymn Nativ. xi, Harping in loud and solemn quire, With unexpressive notes to Heav'ns new-born Heir. 1637 — Lycidas 176 So Lycidas..hears the unexpressive nuptial Song, in the blest Kingdoms meek of joy and love.

2. = Inexpressive a. 2.

1755 World No. 150. V. 8: If the device had been a triple-crown, it would not have been unexpressive. 1816 Bentham Chrestom. 109 In so far as it simply fails of being subservient to those purposes, it is unexpressive—simply unexpressive. 1851 W. R. Greg Creed Christendom xv. 227 Exhausting superlatives, even to unexpressive and wearisome satiety.

So Unexpre·ssively adv., -ness.

[1846 Worcester, Unexpressively.] 1888 Athenæum 21 Mar. 369/2 She is distinguished from the other muses by the unexpressiveness of her name.

†Unexpromisable, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7 b and 5 b.] Inexpressible.

1632 Lithgow Trav. I. 9 An infinite treasure, of unexprimable vertues. 1797 [Dorrington] Philip Quarll 222 The two Indians..with unexprimable Activity leapt in it.

Unexpugnable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b and 5 b.] = Inexpugnable a.

1382 Wyclif Ezek. xxxii. 12 Alle thes folkis ben vnexpugnable, or mown not be ouercomen. 1388 — 2 Macc. xii. 21. 1533 Bellenden tr. Livy II. iv. (S.T.S.) I. 140 He began to edifie ane strang toure..quhilk be municioun and straitnes of pe ground apperit Vnexpugnabil. 1608 Chapman Byron's Conspir. Plays 1873 II. 223 Their owne strengths Are not so sure and vnexpugnable But that [etc.]. 1653 H. Cogan Diod. Sic. 70 Arabia is a country unexpugnable to a foraign enemy. 1831 Scott Ct. Rob. xxiv, A safe and unexpugnable barrier of the empire against the Saracens.

†Unexpui·sable, a. Obs. [ad. F., inépuisable.] Inexhaustible.

1622 Lisle Æliric on O. & N. Test. Preface b 2 b, That vnexpuisable, that vnwastable light, .. which they had of old time shining..in their sepulchers.

Unexpunged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8) [1775 Ash.] 1826 Malthus Popul. (ed. 6) II. 457 If the statute..were to remain unexpunged.

Unexpurgated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1832 Farrar Early Chr. II. 516 Even in the unexpurgated passages of the Amsterdam edition. 1889 Hamerton French & Eng. 315 Young maids and old maids read Shakspeare in unexpurgated editions.

Unexte·nded, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 and 5 b.]

1. Not extended or stretched out.

1648 Hexham II, Ongerecht,..Vnrenched, or Vnextended. 1697 Congreve Mourn. Bride iii. vi, Think on to-morrow, when thou shalt be free From these weak, struggling, unextended arms. 1712 Blackmore Creation vi. 75 See his right hand he unextended keeps. 1757 Johnson Let. to C. O'Connor 9 Apr. in Boswell, Of these provincial and unextended tongues, it seldom happens that more than one are understood by any one man.

2. spec. Having no extension.

1674 N. Fairfax Bulk & Selv. 33 Nor is All-fillingness any more unextended,..because 'tis not thing enough to be rent out. 1698 Cudworth Intell. Syst. ii. i. § 20. 20 Aristotle..did suppose Incorporeal Substance to be unextended, and as such, not to have Relation to any place. 1764 Reid Inquiry vii. 210, I appeal to any man of common sense, whether extension can be in an unextended subject. 1803 Monthly Mag. XV. 322 If..spirit be defined an active sensitive unextended formless substance. 1860 Mansel Prolegg. Log. (ed. 2) 49 An unextended colour is therefore a purely negative notion.

So Unexte·ndedly adv., -ness.

1674 N. Fairfax Bulk & Selv. 16 If..Gods eternity not be an everlasting now, and his immensity an unbounded unextendedness. 1678 Cudworth Intell. Syst. I. v. 823 Such considerations..as tend directly to prove, that there is something unextendedly Incorporeal.

Unexte·nuated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1778 Johnson Shakespeare's Othello i. iii. 80 note, The main, the whole, unextenuated. 1823 Southey Hist. Penins. War I. 237 The whole transaction was a business of pure, unmingled treachery, unprovoked, unextenuated. 1844 R. H. Horne New Spirit of Age I. 150 Licentious works, which are unredeemed and unextenuated by any one sincere passion.

Unexti·nct, a. (Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.)

† 1622 Fletcher Love's Cure iii. ii, Be there but one spark Of fire remaining in him unextinct, With my discourse I'll blow it to a flame. 1678 Cudworth Intell. Syst. I. iv. § 18. 512 Their arcane Theology remained more or less amongst them unextinct to the last. 1820 Shelley Ode to Naples 168 Be man's high hope and unextinct desire The instrument to work thy will divine!

Unexti·nguishable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b and 5 b.] = Inextinguishable a. Of fire or flame (also fig. and transf.).

1642 Forerunner of Rev. in Select. fr. Harl. Misc. (1793) 274 The duke's fire of his anger and fury being unextinguishable. 1654 Cokaine Dianea iv. 352 Perceiving the flames unextinguishable, and defence impossible. 1762 Falconer Shipwr. iii. 169 There, all unquench'd by cruel fortune's ire, It glows with unextinguishable fire. 1860 Pusey Min.

Proph. 375 We see the arrow with the unextinguishable fire, ready to be discharged.

b. Of feelings, qualities, actions, etc.

1656 JEANES Fulm. Christ 156 A ground of unconquerable comfort, and unextinguishable joy. 1697 COLLIER Ess. Mor. Subj. II. (1709) 14, I must repeat, That this Earnestness..is an unextinguishable Jealousy. 1760-72 H. BLOOMER Poem of Qual. (1809) III. 52 The people's inseparable and unextinguishable share in the legislative power. 1815 J. CORMACK Abol. Pun. Infanticide General viii. 143 The ardent and unextinguishable zeal of female character. 1873 MOZLEY Univ. Serm. (1876) 201 The doctrine which..declares most unextinguishable war with materialistic ideas of the Deity.

c. Of laughter. (After the Homeric ἄσβεστος γέλως, Iliad I. 599, Odyss. VIII. 326.)

1698 SIR T. BROWN Gard. Cyrus ii. 42 That famous network of Vulcan, which..caused that unextinguishable laugh in heaven. 1801 MAR. EDGEWORTH Angelina iii, The milliner ..burst into uncontrollable and..unextinguishable laughter. 1842 MRS. BROWNING Grk. Chrs. Poets 1 P 5 That unextinguishable laughter which is the laughter of gods or poets.

Hence Unexti·nguishableness; -ably adv.

a 1660 HAMMOND Hell Torments i. Wks. 1684 I. 615 So the Unextinguishableness of the one must be answered with the durableness of the other. 1775 JOHNSON, Unquenchableness, unextinguishableness. 1779 — L. P., Hammond, Hammond..was unextinguishably amorous, and his mistress inexorably cruel.

Unexti·nguished, ppl. a. [UN-1 8 and 5 b.] Not extinguished, quenched, or put out: a. Of fire or light (also fig.).

1697 DRYDEN Æneis v. 601 The souls whom that unextinguished flame invades . Lament too late their unextinguished fire. 1730 in Willis & Clark Cambridge (1886) I. 230 One of y^e Candles..happen'd..to fall down unextinguish'd. 1757 W. WILKIE Epigoniad VIII. 241 The seeds of life, which unextinguish'd glow in ev'ry pyre. 1817 SHELLEY Rev. Islam Ded. xiv, Two tranquil stars..That burn from year to year with unextinguished light. 1858 HAWTHORNE Fr. & It. Note-bks. II. 173 The comet was already visible amid the unextinguished glow of sunset.

b. Of feelings, etc. (Cf. UNEXTINGUISHABLE a.) 1700 DRYDEN Sigism. & Guisc. 732 If thou hast remaining in thy Heart Some Sense of Love, some unextinguish'd Part Of former Kindness. 1757 W. WILKIE Epigoniad VII. 198 But burning still the unextinguish'd pain, Thee shore he left. 1800 COLERIDGE Tallyrand to Ld. Grenville 72 Your merit self-conscious..keeps you up, Unextinguish'd and swoln. 1858 SEARS Athan. III. x. 331 There is conflict between the Holy Spirit..and our own unregenerate selfishness.

Unex·tirpated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1663 BOYLE Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. II. i. 10 That I might be sure there was not the least part of the spleen left unextirpated. 1792 HORSLEY Serm. xi. (1816) III. 221 Taking offence at the sin which unexpiated as yet remaineth. 1802-12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) IV. 189 So long as that system of abominations remains unextirpated. 1897 PUSEY Eleven Addresses xi. (1908) 142 Our besetting sins, unextirpated.

Unexto·rted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1721 SWIFT Examiner No. 25 P 5 The free unextorted addresses sent some time before from every part of the kingdom. 1755 COWPER To Delia 20 The soul's affection can be only given Free, unextorted, as the grace of heaven. Unextra·ctable, a. (UN-1 7.) 1659 FULLER App. Inj. Innoc. II. iv. 44 The Animadvertor now proceeds to a new Intimation of mine, utterly unextractable from my words. Unextra·cted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1639 R. Johnson's Kingd. & Commw. 37 Selling their Sugars unextracted from the Cane. 1879 Pall Mall Budget 12 Sept. 24 One passage is too characteristic of the writer to be left unextracted. Unextra·vagating, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1864 J. GROTE Explor. Philos. I. 105 It is impossible to find words un-extravagating in this respect.

†Unex·tricable, a. Obs. [UN-1 7 b and 5 b.] = INEXTRICABLE a.

1659 H. MORE Immort. Soul. II. iii. 126 Which supposition we shall finde involved in unextricable difficulties. a 1677 BARROW Serm. Pr. cxvii. 9 Vol. 1686 III. 202 Many times the World is rescued from confusions, and distractions unextricable by any visible wit or force.

Unextru·ded, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1808 BENTHAM Sc. Ref. 100 More..there may be..as yet lying unextruded in the womb of time.

Uney·ed, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.] Unobserved, unperceived, unseen.

a 1616 FLETCHER Wit at Sev. Weapons ii. ii, A pair of Lips, oh that we were uney'd, I could suck Sugar from 'em. 1654 B. JOHNSON Wonderworkr. Provid. 15 Many thousands uneyed of mortal man. 1820 L. HUNT Indicator No. 23 (1822) I. 184 The maiden..Kept her bloom uneyed Which now a veil must hide. 1852 BAILEY Festus (ed. 4) 500 Pure and mere autocracy, unchecked—Uniled—uneyed—ruled with a random hand.

Uneymable: see UNAIMABLE a. Obs.

Uneyment, obs. Sc. var. OINTMENT.

Unfa·bled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1809 SYD. SMITH Wks. (1859) 142 They are more amusing than plain, unfabled precept. 1853 C. BRONTE Villette xxvii, Not thickly, as the diamonds were scattered in the valley of Sindbad, but sparely, as those gems lie in unfabled beds.

Unfa·biling, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1797 The College 33 Shall the unfabling Muse the tale pursue? †Unfa·bricate, ppl. a. Obs. (UN-1 8 b.) 1600 J. TAYLOR (Water P.) Epigr. xxxvi. Wks. II. 256/1, I could wish man were vnfabricate, His faults he doth so much exaggerate.

Unfa·ce, v. [UN-2 4.] trans. To strip of a facing or disguise; to expose the face of.

1611 FLORIO, Sutsare, to vnface, to disuisage. 1640 SIR J. CULPEPPER in Rushw. Hist. Coll. III. (1692) I. 34 Vnface these, and they will prove as bad Cards as any in the Pack. 1886 Cheshire Gloss. 374 To 'unface sand' would be to dig away all the soil so as to expose a face of sand.

Unfa·ceable, a. dial. [UN-1 7 b.] a. (See quot. a 1825.) b. Unattractive in features.

a 1825 FORBY Voc. E. Anglia, Unfaceable, unreasonable; indefensible. 1899 CROCKETT Kit Kennedy xxxiii, I had been many queer-lookin' and queeble ministers.

Unfa·ceted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1803 E. A. BUTLER Household. Ins. 327 A pair of simple, rounded, unfaceted eyes. Unfa·ceitious, a. (UN-1 7.) 1831 [see INFICITE a.]. Unfa·ct. (UN-1 12.) 1889 North Star 3 Dec., The astounding statement..was an unfact. 1890 Cath. News 4 Oct. 6/4 We will call this an evangelical unfact. Unfa·ctious, a. (UN-1 7.) 1834 DE QUINCEY Autob. Sk. 1854 II. 220 The purebearded or unfactious champions of Calberto. 1883 BP. S. WILBERFORCE in Life (1882) II. 170 Temperate, reasonable, and unfactious in their conduct. Unfa·dable, a. (UN-1 7 b.) 1626 BP. HALL Contempl. O. T. XXI. iv, A crowne incorruptible, unfadable.

Unfa·ded, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

†a 1550 in Dunbar's Poems (S.T.S.) 327 O fair sweit blossum, .. Vnfaidit bayth of cullour and vertew! 1697 DRYDEN Æneis XI. 101 A lovely flower, New cropt by virgin hands, .. Unfaded yet. 1796 MISS BURNEY Cecilia I. iii, Her cheeks..unfaded by bad hours and continual dissipation. 1821 SHELLEY Ginevra 81 The flowers upon my bridal chamber strewn Will serve unfaded for my bier.

†Unfa·dging, ppl. a. Obs. [UN-1 10.] Not going properly; intractable.

1629 T. ADAMS Medit. Creed Wks. 1720 The potter may erre in framing his vessel, and so in anger dash the vnfadging clay against the walles.

Unfa·ding, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

1652 BENLOWES Theophi. XII. xlii, Such suppling balm As might vain trophies turn to an unfading Palm. 1738 GRAY Prospective 11, 9 Let on this head unfading flowers reside. 1816 SOUTHEY Poet's Pilgr. I. 226 The vallies with perpetual fruitage blest, The mountains with unfading foliage drest. 1865 RUSKIN Q. of Air i. § 5 The real atmosphere, calm in its dominion of unfading blue.

b. In figurative use.

1665 BOYLE Occas. Refl. Sect. iv. 73 We should..receive unfading Honours, and uncloying Delights. 1728 RAMSAY Bonny Kate viii, His pleasure each moment shall blossom Unfading, gets her for his mate. 1765 TUCKER Lit. Nat. (1834) II. 312 He might have excited sensations, ideas, and intelligence,..permanent, unfading, and unsatiating. 1820 SCOTT Monast. xxxii, By His holy Word, that unfading and unerring lamp of our paths.

Hence Unfa·dingly adv., Unfa·dingness.

a 1692 STERRY Rise, Race & Royalty Kingd. God (1688) 211 All flourish together unfadingly in the person of Christ. 1806 MOORE Epist. v. 44 That..The rose and the stream.. Should still be before me, unfadingly bright. 1698 PHILLIPS, Immarcescence, unfadingness. 1797 POLWHELE Hist. Devonsh. I. 160 That its use..was known to the Phenicians will appear probable, when we consider the unfadingness of their purple. 1860 PUSEY Min. Proph. 91 Graces beyond nature, in their manifoldness, completeness, unfadingness.

†Unfai·lable, a. Obs. [UN-1 7 b and 5 b.]

1. = INFALLIBLE a. 2 a.

c 1425 St. Elis. of Spalbeck in Anglia VIII. 208/15 Stronge and vnfayllabil preef of hool and clene virginite. Ibid. 123/41 Bi an vnfaillabil clock. 1555 EDEN Treat. New Ind. (Arb.) 10 Moste certayne..demonstrations of Geometrye, and vnfayleable experymentes. 1623 BP. HALL Gt. Impostor Wks. (1625) 509 Trust them not, till you haue tried them by that vnfailable touch of righteousnesse. 1673 O. WALKER Educ. 49 (Religion) is a principle, universal, perfect, unfailable.

2. Incapable of failing; sure, reliable.

c 1450 HOLLAND Howlat 383 Of Scotland the wer wall.. Our fais force to defend, and vnfaileable. 1553 Short Catech. Edw. VI. 38 b, Christ, the author, earnest and vnfailable pledge of theyr fayth. 1643 TRAPP Comm. Gen. xvii. 7 The sure or unfailable mercies of David. 1681 in Somers Tracts I. 276 That He left there one to be Heir of His Grace and Spirit, in a perpetual unfailable Succession.

Hence † Unfai·lableness; -ably adv. Obs.

1555 EDEN Decades W. Ind. (Arb.) 350 By the degrees is vnfaylably measured the hole circumference of the lande and sea. 1641 BP. HALL Def. Humble Remonstr. viii. 71 This is perpetually and unfailably done by us. 1644 — Peacemaker Wks. (1625) 558 Every where extolling—the assurance and vnfailablenesse of that comfort. 1644 — Serm. Rem. Wks. (1660) 137 He takes all beleevers into the partnership of this comfortable unfailablenesse.

Unfai·led, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1827 POLLOK Course T. v. 523 When, on the glittering dews of orient life, Shone sunshine hopes, unfailed, unperjured then.

Unfai·ling, ppl. a. (and adv.). [UN-1 10.]

1. Not failing or giving way.

a 1400 Sir Perc. 1474 Thair scheldis were un-failande. 1648 BP. HALL Serm. Wks. 1808 V. 545 Hereby..are we freed from the sense of the second death and the sting of the first, to the unfailing comfort of our souls. 1653 BLITHE Eng. Improver Impr. 129 An unfailing Prevention of Crows, Rooks, or Daws from Corn. 1718 POPE Iliad XV. 551 Some god..Has, from my arm unfailing, struck the bow. 1798 S. & HT. LEE Canterb. T. II. 554 May you deserve that love, is the prayer of your unfailing friend. 1827 POLLOK Course T. x. 2 My God! my Father! my unfailing hope!

2. Never giving out or coming to an end; unceasing, constant, continual.

1382 WYCLIF Ecclus. xxiv. 6, I made in heuenus, that vnfailende liȝt shulde springe. 1435 MISYN Fire of Love 38 Þi swetnes.., þat end art of syghing, of desire begynynge, þe gate of ȝernynge vnfaylinge. c 1450 Myrr. our Ladye 180 shal thow in thyne vnfaylynge fayrenesse..shuldest abyde vndepartably in his moste loued loue. 1784 COWPER Tiroc. 316 This fond attachment..Maintains its hold with such unfailing sway, We feel it ev'n in age. 1832 LYTTON Eugene A. i. 1, He found a pure and unfailing delight in watching the growth of their young minds. 1855 [J. R. LEIFCHILD] Cornwall 127 An unfailing bank of bituminous bullion. 1896 FANCROFT Hist. U. S. I. x. 29 A country.. watered by unfailing rivers.

3. Infallible, positive, certain. † Also as adv.

c 1400 Sc. Trojan War II. 273 Quharfor wnfaileand ar we Mayd rytht certeyn þat it shall be. 1553 WOOD tr. Gardner's True Obed. To Rdr. A ij b, The vndoubted truth of gods vnfailing word. 1849 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. vii. II. 164 The event of battles, indeed, is not an unfailing test of the abilities of a commander. 1853 KANE Grinnell Exp. xxix. (1856) 240 This frost-smoke is an unfailing indication of open water. 1862 A. MEADOWS Man. Midwifery 76 One almost unfailing test may be here mentioned, namely, chloroform.

† 4. As adv. Without fail, infallibly. Obs.

c 1425 WYNTOUN Cron. IX. xxi. 2146 (Cott. MS.), Off Marche þe xxv. day, Wnfaillande þat [sc. the Annunciation] sal be ay.

Hence Unfai·lingness.

c 1630 SANDERSON Serm. II. 307 The stability, unchangeableness, and unfailingness of Gods counsels. 1656 BP. HALL Serm. Wks. 1837 V. 576 We may be so much the more infallibly assured..by how much we do more know his unfailingness, his unchangeableness.

Unfai·lingly, adv. [UN-1 11: cf. prec.] Without fail; in all cases or circumstances.

c 1400 Sc. Trojan War II. 319 Fra Gregeois þat sal ay but les Be holden ay wnfaseandly [r.r. wnfenȝeandly; L. inviolabiliter]. 1436 Pol. Poems (Rolls) II. 191 God wote, we have nede, Unfaylyngly, unfeynynge, and unfeynte, That conclence for slought you not atteynte. 1833 ARNOTT Physics (ed. 5) II. 8 If the colds of winter arrive too early, they unfailingly produce the wintry scene. 1888 H. MORTON Hospital Life 26 He was..unfailingly patient with the querulous babes.

Unfai·n, a. Now arch. and dial. [OE. unfægen (f. un- UN-1 7 + fægen FAIN a.), = ON. ufeginn (Norw. ufegen).] Not glad or delighted; ill-pleased, sorry; reluctant.

a 1300 Cursor M. 3591 Quen þai it [sc. eld] haue þai are vnfayn, And wald ha youthed þan again. 1338 R. BRUNNE Chron. (1810) 200 He seged hi þat coste þe kastelle of Tenlerce..þe Courthes was wynne, him þat was a trespas. c 1400 Destr. Troy 12107 All þe folke were vnfayn, & of fyn will To haue reft hir the rynke. a 1450 Le Morte Arth. 2691 They made hem Redy to that Rese, There-fore was fele folke vnfayne. 1592 STEWART Crown. Scot. (Rolls) III. 43 Force it was the Romanis for till fle, And leif the feild, thocht tha war rycht vnfane. a 1600 Flodden F. xiv. in Child Ballads III. 355 If Lancashire and Cheshire be fled and gone, Of those tydings wee may be vnfaine.

1846 Whistle-Binkie II. 21 Though o' him the men were a' rede and unfain, The lasses aye leuch when they met him again. 1876 Whitby Gloss. 288: Macm. Mag. XLIII. 234 As she told, The hearers were unfain to hear.

Unfai·nt, a. (UN-1 7.)

1436 [see UNFAILINGLY]. 1486 Bk. St. Albans, Her. F ij, Durable & unfayynt in his kyngys battayle [he] shall be. 1886 FIERRE Blas. Genivie 148 Dyamond [is] vnfaint and durable.

† Unfai·nted, ppl. a. Obs. (UN-1 8.)

c 1425 St. Cath. of Senis in Anglia VIII. 187 Alwey and wiþ vnfeyntyd herte she spake of god. a 1539 COVERDALE Ghostly Ps. cxxix. Wks. (Parker Soc.) II. 577, I wyll alyde the Lorde pacienty; My soule loketh for hym unfayynted.

Unfai·nting, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

1623 G. SANDYS Trav. 167 And o that I could retaine the effects which it wrought, with an vnfainting perseuerance! 1691 Androx Tracts II. 297 With inviolate Integrity, excellent Prudence, and unfainting Diligence. 1830 S. DOBELL Roman vi, Thou who in thy breast didst carry The fate of worlds unfainting. 1852 BAILEY Festus (ed. 4) 274 Some with wings Like an unfainting rainbow.

Unfai·ntly, adv. (UN-1 11.)

c 1425 St. Cath. of Senis in Anglia VIII. 286/27 Vnsuffisabil labours, vnfeyntly borne. 1844 MRS. BROWNING Catarina to Camoens xvi, Since with saintly Watch unfaintly Out of heaven shall o'er you lean Sweetest eyes.

Unfair, a. [OE. unfæger (f. un- UN-1 7 + fæger FAIR a.), = ON. ufager (Norw. ufager), Goth. unfagrs.]

†1. Not fair or beautiful; uncomely; disfigured; ugly. Obs.

Beowulf 727 Him of eaȝum stod lixte ȝelicost leoht unfæger. c 888 K. ÆLFRED Boeth. xli. § 4 Sio ȝefrednes ..ne mæȝ ȝefredan hwæðer he bið þe blæc þe hwit, ne fæger þe unfæger. 971 Blickl. Hom. 111 [Him] ȝinc6 his neawist lapliico & unfæger. c 1050 Voc. in Wr.-Wülcker 530 Lacheta, se unfæȝera. c 1300 Cursor M. 22509 Þe sun þat es sa bright..It sal becum þan ful vnfair, Dune and blak sum ani hair. 13.. Gaw. & Gr. Knt. 1572 Þe frobe femed at his mouth vnfayre bi þe wykes. a 1400-50 Alexander 4864 Rochis & rogh stanes, rokkis vnfaire. c 1449 PECOCK Repr. v. xii. 548 In oon name of sumwhat foul or vnfair schap and in oon maner of poor and symple colour. a 1500 Ratis Raving I. 1722 Pis eild is wnfair of fassoun, And failȝes of perfectiun. 1648 HEXHAM I, Onschoon, Vnfaire, or Vnbeautifull.

† b. Wicked; evil, bad. Obs.

13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 1801 He was corsed for his vnclannes,..Done doun of his dygnete for dedez vnfayre. 1375 BARBOUR Bruce I. 123 For wnfayr thingis may fall, perfay, Als weill to-morn as yhisterday. Ibid. xv. 123 Bot I trow falsat euirmar Sall haue vnfair and euill ending.

2. Not fair or equitable; unjust: a. Of actions, conduct, etc.

1713 BERKELEY Hylas & Phil. II. Wks. 1871 I. 319 This shifting, unfair method of yours. 1746 WESLEY Princ. Methodist § If indeed it were so abridged as to alter the Sense, this would be unfair. 1798 S. & HT. LEE Canterb. T. II. 98 This conclusion appeared so unfair,..that she burst into tears. 1854 E. FITZGERALD Lett. (1889) I. 229 There was a very unfair Review in the Athenæum. 1890 R. BOLDERWOOD' Col. Reformer (1891) 185 Riding a well-bred powerful horse, which evidently made little of his somewhat unfair weight.

b. Of persons, the mind, etc.

1724 WATERLAND Further Vind. Christ's Div. II. § 15. 57 Sometimes they complain of me as very unfair to take an Advantage of an Opinion of theirs. 1736 BUTLER Anal. II. vi. 325 Opportunity to an unfair mind of explaining away ..that evidence. 1822 SCOTT Let. to Byrom July in Lockhart, I do not know the motive would make me enter into controversy with a fair or an unfair literary critic. 1885 TENNYSON Maud I. xiii, Who shall call meungentle, unfair.

c. spec. Not paying the usual rate of wages.

1886 Pall Mall G. 22 Oct. 10/2 To give their printing contract..to what was known in the trade as an 'unfair house'. 1888 JACOBI Printers' Vocab., Unfair offices, this term is applied by society hands generally to those printing offices where the existing scale of prices is not recognized.

3. Of the wind: Unfavourable.

1801 in Nicolas Disp. Admiralty IV. 209 If the wind proved fair..they should be sent up the harbour, but if unfair, no time would have been lost. 1802 Naval Chron. VIII. 433 The wind being unfair at S.W.

4. Not fitting or corresponding exactly.

1862 Sir E. REED Shipbuild. xix. 415 That chafing unfair holes would be considered bad work. 1874 THEARLE Naval Archit. 58 Great precautions are..necessary to prevent unfair seams in the subsequent operations of laying the deck.

† Unfair, adv. Obs. [UN-1 11 b: cf. prec.] In a rough, disorderly, or untidy manner.

c 900 Genesis 2063 Gripon unfaere under sceat werun scearpe garas. a 1400-50 Alexander 555 Cloudis clenely to-cleie, clatird vn-faire. c 1400 Destr. Troy 13891 With the remnond full rade he rixlit unfaire. c 1480 HENRYSON Test. Cres. 162 Atonit his belt his pyrat lokkis lay Feltrett vnfair.

Unfair, v. [UN-2 6 a.] trans. To deprive of fairness or beauty.

c 1600 SHAKS. Sonn. v, Those howers..Will play the tirants to the very same, And that vnfaire which fairely doth excell.

Unfairly, adv. [UN-1 11.]

1. In an unfair manner; inequitably, unjustly.

1713 BUTLER Let. to S. Clarke 1 (1716) 8 If I have..in any respect argu'd unfairly, I assure you it was without design. a 1768 SECKER Serm. (1772) VII. xiii. 283 To use even those unfairly, who have used us so, is very bad; but to use any one unfairly, because Another hath used Us so, is..monstrously wicked. 1796 [see UNFAIR 1]. 1848 KINGSLEY Yeast ii, Argemone..fancying herself, and not unfairly, very intellectual. 1897 HUXLEY Physiogr. 84 It might, therefore, not unfairly be assumed that the carbonic acid..would tend to settle down in a certain near the ground.

2. By unfair or foul means.

1791 MRS. RADCLIFFE Rom. Forest v, There were strong reasons to believe he came unfairly to his end.

Unfairness. [UN-1 12: cf. OE. unfagernes.] Lack of fairness or equity; injustice.

1713 BENTLEY Remarks Disc. Free-Think. xiv. ii. 33 We may observe from this Passage, the unfairness and inequity of our Writer. 1796 MME. D'ARBLAY Camilla IV. 287 [They] have a certain instinctive sense of its unfairness. 1833 BINYON Eccl. Hist. xx. 192 The unfairness which looks for different results in the second century from those which are produced in the nineteenth. 1875 JOWETT Plato (ed. 2) IV. 232 He is occasionally playing both parts himself, and even charging his own arguments with unfairness.

Unfaith. [UN-1 12.] Lack of faith or belief, esp. in religion.

1415 HOCCLEVE To Sir J. Oldcastle 247 For thym vnfeith men maken many mones. 1826 MISS MITFORD Village Ser. II. 272 At the end of one of her daily professions of unfaith in gipsies and their predictions. 1889 TENNYSON Merl. & V. 386 Faith and unfaith can ne'er be equal powers: Unfaith in aught is want of faith in all. 1870 SWINBURNE Ess. & Stud. (1875) 81 Another form of bastard belief, another cross-breed between faith and unfaith.

Unfaithful, a. [UN-1 7.]

1. Not having the proper religious faith; infidel, unbelieving. Also absol.

1382 WYCLIF 1 Cor. vii. 12 If ony brothir haue an vnfeithful..wyf, and sche consentith for to dwelle with hym, leue he, hir not. 1388—Ps. I. 15, I schal teche wickid men thi weis; and vnfeithful men schulen be conuertid to thee. 1456 SIR G. HAYE Law of Arms (S.T.S.) 102 That lands that the unfaithfull men haldis. 1534 MORE Treat. Passion Wks. 1341/2 Iustinus..writing of our faith in his second apology to the vnfaithful Emperour Antoninus. 1560 BIBLE (Genev.) 2 Esdras xv. 4 For every unfaithfull shall dye in his vnfaithfulnes. 1643-5 MILTON Divorce i. viii, The author of a general divorce between the faithfull and unfaithfull seed. 1667—P. L. XII. 487 What will betide the few, His faithful, left among th' unfaithful herd, The enemies of truth? 1768-74 TUCKER Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 484 Whatever supernatural virtue or nutritive faculty the priest has infused into the bread, are verily..received by the unfaithful. 1890 Archd. Cant. Regr. Miss. IV. 334/1 Therefore he who follows Mahommedanism and..violates this treaty, so comporting himself like the unfaithful [etc.].

† b. Not in accordance with faith; irreligious.

1549 Compl. Scot. i. 22 Mony ignorant pepil hes confermit ane ymaginet onfaythful opinione in ther hede.

2. Not keeping good faith; acting falsely or treacherously. Also absol.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 724 Vnfaithfull freke, with vil fals cast, Put such a lady belirt. 1530 PALSGR. 328/1 Unfaythfull of promesse, déloyal. 1549 CHEKE Hort Scilit. L j, Shall they not truly say the subiectes to be more vnfaithfull in disobedience, than other subiects worse ordered be. 1600 SHAKS. A. Y. L. iv. i. 199, I will thinke you the most pathetical breake-promise..that may be chosen out of the grosse band of the vnfaithfull. 1620 in Foster Engl. Factories Ind. (1906) I. 209 Theis Pegu factors were fownde to be royotous, vitious and vnfaithfull. a 1729 CONGREVE Ovid's Art of Love iii. 63 The prince so far for pietty renown'd, To thee, Eliza, was unfaithful found. 1829 WELLESLEY in Owen Desp. (1877) 331, I propose to view this transaction as the combined offence of two unfaithful servants. 1832 HR. MARTINEAU Demerara ii. 35, I should be unfaithful if I had ever promised either.

b. transf. Of things.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. xii, The unfaythfull armour yeelding to the swoordes strong-guided sharpenesse. 1615 G. SANDYS Travels. 2 A sea tempestuous and unfaithfull, at an instant incensed with sudden gusts. a 1660 DENHAM Dyrsmic Love i. i, I.. Did first the depth of trembling Marshes sound, And fix'd my Engles in unfaithful ground. 1726 LEONI Alberti's Architr. I. 35 Sea-sand..is..unfaithful in supporting great Weights. 1799 SOUTHEY Memory on Gosforth 14 An Fancy oft..Has view'd by shadowy Eve's unfaithful Gloom, A weeping Cherub on a Martyr's Tomb. 1834 JAMES Phil. Augustus I. v, One of those people whose lips—those ever unfaithful guardians of the treasures of the heart—are peculiarly apt to murmur..unconsciously. 1842 TENNYSON Love & Duty 91 With quiet eyes unfaithful to the truth.

c. Not following an original, not translating or translated, faithfully; incorrect, inexact.

a 1697 AUBREY Lives (1898) II. 174 He was a learned man,..but is much blamed for his unfaithfull quotations. 1724 A. COLLINS Gr. Chr. Relig. 165 The Septuagint seems the work both of ignorant and unfaithful Translators. 1776 MICKLE tr. Camoens' Lusiad Introd. 130 The unfaithful and unpoetical version [of the Lusiad] of Fanshaw. 1798 FERRIAR Illustr. Sterne, etc. 91 Burton has spoiled this passage by an unfaithful translation. 1885 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. xix. IV. 332 An unfaithful interpreter of the sense of the nation. 1884 PUSEY Lect. Daniel 379 To which act this writer probably alluded in his unfaithful paraphrase, 'christmas shall be removed'.

d. spec. Not faithful in wedlock.

1828 WEBSTER s.v., An unfaithful husband or wife. 1841 W. SPALDING Italy & It. Isl. II. 147 Galeazzo Manfredi,..having married Francesca Bentivoglio,..not only was unfaithful to her, but treated her with cruelty.

3. Of conduct: Characterized by want of good faith; not honest or upright.

1565 COOPER s.v. Perfidia, To be deceiued by ones treacherie and unfaithfull dealing. Ibid. s.v. Infidus, An vnfaithfull league that will not long be kepte. 1651 JER. TAYLOR Serm. for Year xxiii. 292 Lying or craftinesse, and unfaithful usages, robs a man of the honour of his soul. 1680 OTWAY Orphan IV. vi, I might think with Justice most severely Of this unfaithful dealing with your Brother. 1704 TRAPP Abra-Hall II. i. 42 Spies..who for hope Of a Reward, will give the Sultan notice Of such unfaithful Dealing. 1866 GEO. ELIOT F. Holt v, Your father..was, as I understand, a man whose walk was not unfaithful.

Unfaithfully, adv. [UN-1 11.] In an unfaithful manner; with lack of good faith.

1340-70 Alisaunder 239 And Philip unfaithfully be faire coste had, Arisiba in exile euer was after. 1491 Act 7 Hen. VII, c. 22 Preamble, The seid John unfeithfully and untruly suffred the bringer of the seid writing to goo at his plesire. 1548 LD. CORLEY Hyst. Mussiccio fol. 2 b, You haue been vnfaithefully, vniustly and falsely [accused]. 1579 E. K. Spenser's Sheph. Cal. June, Argle, He is nowe forsaken vnfaithfully. 1607-12 BACON Ess., Counsel (Arb.) 316 Counsel is a thing of weight, of being vnfaithfulie councelled. 1679 EVERARD Popish Plot 5 Sir Robert most unfaithfully..discovered all to Colonel Talbot. 1722 WOLLASTON Relig. Nat. vi. § 19 (1724) 144 He, who acts unfaithfully, acts against his promises and engagements.

Unfaithfulness. [UN-1 12.]

† 1. Lack of faith; infidelity. Obs.

1388 WYCLIF 2 Tim. ii. 16 But eschewe thou vnhoeli and veyn speches, for who thi profiten myche to vnfeithfulnesse. 1395 PURVEY Remonstr. (1851) 61 Vnfeithful men that shulen be damnid vnto..if thei dien in vnfeithfulnesse. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 129 Therof foloweth somtyme infidelite or vnyaythfulnes. 1561 T. NORTON Calvin's Inst. i. 56 Whoso therfore wil beware of this vnfaithfulnesse, let him kepe always in remembrance [etc.].

2. The quality of being unfaithful; lack of good faith or fidelity.

c 1480 HENRYSON Test. Cres. 370 Traisting in vther als greit vnfaithfulnes, As vniconstant, and als vntrew of fay. 1532 in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. II. 1. 251 As towchinge the vnfaythfulnes..of Father Forest, I dyd wryte of hym my Lady Marcas of Penbroke. 1590 SWINBURNE Testaments 218 So the legataries and children of the deceased are often defrauded..by the vnfaithfulnesse of the executor. 1685 BAXTER Paraphr. N. T. Matt. xxv. 26-27 Unprofitableness and omission of duty, is damnable unfaithfulness in us that are but Stewards and Servants. 1737 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 403 It contains a clear Proof of the Unfaithfulness of a Person in whom Your Majesty has placed a Trust. 1754 CARTE Hist. Eng. III. 14 Henry was in the height of his resentment, at the unfaithfulness of his allies. 1844 J. B. FRASER Allas Nouroo II. 31 If you impute to me any unfaithfulness towards you, I swear that you are deceived. 1881 R. W. CHURCH Cathedral & Univ. Serm. v. (1892) 59 The taint..of insincerities, of treacheries, of unfaithfulnesses to light.

b. spec. (Cf. UNFAITHFUL a. 2 d.)

1848 THACKERAY Van. Fair lxvi, Is it unfaithfulness to my husband? I scorn it and defy anybody to prove it. 1851 FROUDE Short Stud. (1867) II. 192 Nor, again, was unfaithfulness..conclusively fatal against a wife.

† Unfaken, a. : see UN- 2.

Unfalla·cious, a. (UN-1 7, 5 b.) 1802-12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) IV. 490 Shutting the door against an article of true and unfallacious evidence. Unfalla·ciously, adv. (UN-1 11.) 1852 BACHOFF Lit. Stud. (1879) I. 69 Pope unfallaciously said, 'Once a heretic, always a heretic'.

Unfallen, ppl. a. [UN-1 8 b. Cf. G. ungefallen, ON. úfallinn (Norw. dial. ufallen).]

1. Not morally fallen.

1653 H. MORE Conject. Cabbal. ii. 41 The natures..of the fallen and unfallen Angels, or good and bad Genii. 1679 J. C. [BENNET] Vind. Oaths & Swearing 7 In Paradise it self,..while man was innocent and unfallen. 1740 CHEYNE Regimen 129 This..must be the Constitution..of the unfallen angelical State. 1825 COLERIDGE Aids Refl. (1848) I. 242 We may say, that in the unfallen rational agent, the will constitutes the law. 1848 KINGSLEY Yeast vi, Who am I to demand her all to myself? Her, the glorious, the saintly, the unfallen!

fig. 1759 YOUNG Conject. Orig. Composition 60 What we mean by Blank verse, is verse unfallen, uncurse.

2. Not fallen (in literal sense).

1738 SOMERVILLE Chase I. 128 Fix'd as a mountain ash, that braves the bolts Of angry Jove; tho' blasted, yet unfall'n. 1878 GILDER Poet & Master 29 It was I who behold the sun's level light strike through the unfallen..leaves.

Hence Unfa·llenness.

1876 W. BATHGATE Deep Things of God v. 79 A peerless perfect man,—albeit entirely Divine in his unfallenness.

† Unfa·llible, a. Obs. [UN-1 7 and 5 b.] = INFALLIBLE a. (Common c 1530–1620.)

1529 MORE Dyalogue I. Wks. 168/2 If ye will..take a sure and vnfallible way yse most..beleue and obey the churche. 1548 BRINKLOW Compl. 5 b, It is certen and vnfallible, that if we knock,..we shal be hard. 1552 R. ROBINSON Hypnerotomachia 8a b, Disposing my selfe to her sweete loue, with an vnfallyble, obstinate, and firme resolution. 1614 LATHAM Falconry 68 These my friendlie admonitions, being grounded vpon the absolute truth of vnfallible experience. 1653 BUTRIE Eng. Improver Impr. 145 A very Excellent Unfallible Remedy against Barrenness.

† Unfa·llibly, adv. Obs. [UN-1 11 and 5 b.] = INFALLIBLY adv.

1542 UDALL Erasm. Apoph. 32 b, A felow..who professed.. to bee habile vnfallibly..to fynd out & iudge the naturall disposicion of any manne. 1567 DRANT Horace, Ep. i. i. C iii, The wyseman annes vnfallible. 1604 HIERON Wks. I. 547 A christian man may bee vnfallibly certaine of his salvation in his owne conscience. 1642 ROGERS Naaman 44 The Lord..beholds the effecting of the one, in the other, necessarily and unfallibly.

† Unfa·llid, a. Obs.[1] [UN-1 7 and 5 b: see INFALLID a.] Infallible.

1624 HEYWOOD Captives IV. i, In Bullen O. Pl. IV, By these tokens, These of her childhood most unfallid signes, I knowe her for my doughter.

Unfa·llowed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1607 J. CARPENTER Plaine Mans Plough 102 Why man.. is likened to the Earth, or to the vnfallowed Land. 1634 RAINBOW Labour (1635) 40 Let not vs bee that vnfallowed ground where the Divell may sowe his tares. 1708 J. PHILIPS Cyder i. 549 Th' unfallow'd Glebe Yearly o'ercomes the Graneries with Store Of Golden Wheat.

Unfa·lsified, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1687 MIEGE II. s.v., Provided the Accounts be true and unfalsify'd. 1855 LEWES Cred. Early Rom. Hist. xiv. § 2. II. 491 The current story.. has descended..in a substantially unfalsified state.

Unfa·ltering, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

1797 THOMSON Summer 299 With unfaltering accent to conclude That This availeth nought? 1744 ARENSIDE Pleas. Imag. i. 163 Thro' the tossing tide of chance and pain To hold his course unfaltering. 1825 SCOTT Betrothed xxix, He sits in one of it with..an eye composed, an unfaltering tongue. 1862 SHIRLEY (J. Skelton) Nugæ Crit. v. 233 The confident and unfaltering witness of the strong man, who goes to the stake with..a sense of triumph in his heart.

So Unfa·lteringly adv.

1665 BOYLE Occasn. Reff. i. i. 169 Unfaultringly to traverse Adversitie's rough ways. 1850 MRS. SARAH ELLIS Pique (1875) 269 Lady Catherine turned away, and..unfaltering approached the door. 1885 Manch. Exam. 9 Sept. 5/2 A character who is at once vividly human..and unfaltering noble.

Unfa·med, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1606 SHAKS. Tr. & Cr. II. ii. 159 There's..none so Noble, Whose life were ill bestow'd, or death unfam'd, Where Helen is the subject. 1724 A. HILL Prol. to Savage's Sir T. Overbury p. xi, Young, and unfam'd, and but by Hope inspir'd. 1855 SINGLETON Virgil II. 346 Thus laid aside, unfamed here let him pass His life. 1887 HISSEY Holiday on Road 156 Some few whose names and deeds will dwell a little longer than the unfamed rest.

Unfami·liar, a. (UN-1 7.)

1594 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. i. i. § 2 The matters which we handle seeme by reason of newnesse..darke, intricate, and vnfamiliar. 1648 HERRICK Hesper., Oberons Feast 4 Because thou prizest things that are Curious, and unfamiliar. c 1698 LOCKE Cond. Underst. § 32 (1754) 127 Abstruse and unfamiliar ideas which the mind is not yet throughly accustomed to. 1753 WARTON Obs. Spenser's F. Q. 141 It must be confest that his uncouth or rather unfamiliar language has deterr'd many from reading him. 1829 LYTTON Devereux III. vi, His face did not seem unfamiliar to me. 1848 DICKENS Dombey xlix, Looking without interest or recognition at the unfamiliar walls around her. 1891 EMMA Durdle & Fraun xli, When Onesimus recovered full consciousness he did not recognise his unfamiliar surroundings.

Hence Unfami·liarness.

1881 Times 17 May 4/6 A multitude of little changes of this kind..across a general sense of unfamiliarness.

Unfamilia·rity. (UN-1 12 and 5 b.)

1755 JOHNSON Dict. Pref. C 2 How shall it be..recalled again..when it has once by disuse become unfamiliar, and by unfamiliarity unpleasing. 1861 MILL Repr. Govt. (1865) 65/2 The only serious obstacle is the unfamiliarity..But unfamiliarity is a disadvantage which..it only requires time to remove. 1880 MUIRHEAD Gaius IV. § 16 note, An inaccuracy, due..to his unfamiliarity with a procedure that had become a mere matter of history.

Unfami·liarized, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1775 S. J. PRATT Liberal Opin. xcvii. (1783) III. 211 Whenever the eye is struck with scenes to which it is unfamiliarised. 1817 COLERIDGE Lay Serm. 109 The plan itself would, I suspect, startle an unfamiliarized conscience. 1847-8 DE QUINCEY Protestantism Wks. 1863 VIII. 163 The gay mythologic religion of Greece..; that of Egypt, more revolting to unfamiliarised sensibilities.

† Unfa·mous, a. Obs. [UN-1 7 and 5 b.]

1. Not famous; unrenowned.

c 1384 CHAUCER H. Fame III. 56 Of the lettres oon or two Was mote away of euery name, So shamouse was wox hir fame. a 1560 PHAER Æneid x. D d 2 b, Let him dwell there, Vnfamous, free from wars, and honourlesse lead our his age.

2. Infamous, ill-famed.

c 1380 WYCLIF Sel. Wks. III. 357 Bi pes two vnfamous lawes mai men wite whiche hen opin. c 1489 CAXTON Blanchardyn xlviii. 186 Olde vnfamouse mysschaunt, how arte thou soo folyshe..as for to wene to haue her. 1530 PALSGR. 328/2 Unfamouse, yvell named, infame. 1596 D. BLACK in Calderwood Hist. Kirk Scot. (1678) 337 To compear and answer for certain unreverent, unfamous and indecent speeches.

Unfanatical, a. (UN-1 7.) 1826 COLERIDGE in Lit. Rem. (1836) III. 52 The prudential morals..that have characterized the unfanatical clergy since the Revolution in 1688 1828 J. T. Rutt in Burton's Diary IV. 441 note, The signatures are 164, all quite unfanatical. Unfa·nciable, a. (Un-1 9 b.) 1669 Earl Orrery Parthen. (1676) 796, I could not hinder myself from saying in unfanciable Transports [etc.].

Unfa·ncied, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1655 Earl Orrery Parthen. v. i. 14 So many unfancy'd joyes disclose themselves. 1777 Kelly Clementina v. 62 Hence with his more than crocodile complaining.. Let him teach tears of yet unfancy'd falshood. 1840 Browning Sordello i. 232 Till some growth, Unfancied yet, exuberantly clothe A surface solid now.

Unfa·nciful, a. (Un-1 7.) 1815 L. Hunt Feast Poets, etc. 48 There is something not inelegant or unfanciful in the conduct of Mr. Hayley's Triumphs of Temper. 1839 G. Darley Beauma. & Fletcher's Wks. (Reldg.) p. xxiv, Ambitious fustian,..unfanciful extravagance.

Unfa·nkle, v. Sc. [Un-2 4 b.] trans. To unfetter, set free.

1824 Macfaggart Galloviad. Encycl. 113 The auld fowk left now closer draw, O' care their sauls unfankle.

Unfa·nned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1764 Golding. Trans. 222 Their level life is but a mouldering fire, Unquench'd by wan, unfann'd by strong desire. 1818 Scott Old Mort. xxxvii, Their zeal, unfanned by persecution, died gradually away.

Unfanta·stic, a. (Un-1 7.)

1794 T. Taylor Pausanias Introd. p. xxv, Nature operates without knowledge in an unphantastic manner. 1842 Lytton Zanoni 22 His wife was a daughter of quiet, sober, and unfantastic England. 1871 Palgrave Lyr. Poems 2 That unfantastic strain, Void of weak fever and self-conscious cry, ..What modern hand can try?

Unfanta·stical, a. (Un-1 7.) [1775 Ash.] 1862 R. H. Patterson Ess. Hist. & Art 334 In any common-sense and unfantastical view of the matter.

Unfa·rced, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1725 Fam. Dict. s.v. Potage, They may be garnish'd with fare'd or unfare'd Lettice. 1775 Ash, Unfarced.. not farced, not stuffed. 1890 Child Ballads IV. 232/2 C is a brifer, that is, an unfarced, form of B.

Unfa·rcical, a. (Un-1 7.) 1850 L. Hunt Autobiog. x. II. 25 Some of these comic actors..are as unfarcical as can be imagined in their interior.

†Unfa·rdle, v. Obs. [Un-2 4 b.] trans. To unload, unburden, discharge.

1599 Nashe Lenten Stuffe H 3 Our Fisherman..vnfardled to the King his whole sacke of wonders. 1706 Stevens i, Desenfardelar, to unfardle, to unpack.

Unfarewe·lled, a. (Un-1 9.) 1904 D'Urfey Abrad. & Panth. i. 25 The pangs she feels To part unfarewell'd to his gloomy cells, From her lov'd Abradate.

Unfa·ring, ppl. a. Obs. exc. Sc. Also Sc. 6 onfarrand, 9 on-, unfarrant. [Un-1 10.] Unattractive, unpleasant. Also †Unfa·ringly adv. Obs.

1513 Douglas Æneid ix. ix. 52 Wyth drawin sword in hand, And quhite targat, onsemly and onfarrand. 1519 Horman Vulg. 57 b, He wene with an vnfaryng chere [vultu adducto]. Ibid., He loked vnfaryngly [L. tenuit fuit aspectu]. c 1530 tr. Erasmus' Serm. Ch. Jesus (1901) 38 So that it, whiche a lytle to fore semed unfaryngye, waxeth amyable; whiche semed amyable, waxeth vnfaryngye. 1818 Hogg Hunt of Eltrick II. 187, yet an unfarrant beast! 1887 Suppl. Jamieson 179 An onfarant body.

Unfarme, var. Unfermé a. Obs.

Unfa·rming, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1797 J. Whitaker in Polwhele Trad. & Recoll. (1826) II. 469, I have had cares and anxieties..that you can hardly conceive. 1888 Unfarrant, Sc. variant of Unfaring ppl. a.

Unfa·rrowed, ppl. a. (Un-2 4, 8.) 1844 Tennyson Walking to Mail 92 We took them all, till she was left.., the Niobe of swine, And so return'd unfarrow'd to her sty.

Unfa·shion, v. [Un-1 12.)

1822 Galt Sir A. Wylie xxv, I have fallen in, notwithstanding the unfashion of my apparel, with some creditable acquaintance. 1876 Miss Yonge Womankind xiii, Sunday-schools were the fashion of one generation, then the unfashion.

Unfa·shion, v. [Un-2 4.] trans. To undo the fashion or make of.

1569 J. Sanford tr. Agrippa's Van. Artes 170 b, They rente our Sauiioure Christe in peeces,..and..do facion and vnfacion him vnto what forme they liste. 1580 Lupton Simplis 23 Man..doth so disorder and unfashion himselfe, that you wyll not take hym that was laste yeare, to be hym selfe thys yeare. 1611 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. ii. § 10 They to curry fauour with the Normans..altogether vnfashioned themselites to imitate them. 1651 Quarles Samson Wks. (Grosart) II. 149/2 Our sinfull usage does unfashion What heaven hath made, and makes a new creation.

Unfa·shionable, a. and sb. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.]

†1. Incapable of being fashioned or shaped; not admitting of a material form. Obs.

1563 Man Musculus' Commonpl. 47 They doe sinne in that they set forth to the invisible and unfashionable God an image of an olde man with a bore beard. 1607 Hieron Wks. I. 236 Thou, beeing a builder, when a stone breakes or is vnfashionable, throwest it from thee.

†2. Badly shaped or formed. Obs.

1594 Shakes. Rich. III, i. i. 22 Scarse halfe made vp, And that so lamely and vnfashionable, That dogges barke at me, as I halt by them. 1614 Sherd Hist. Gt. Brit. vi. v. § 6. 58 He was of stature tall, of complexion pale and wan, of body somewhat grosse and vnfashionable. 1638 Strafford Lett. (1739) II. 197 The Pikes short and ill-headed, their Arms unfashionable and very little good. 1663 Cowley Cutter Coleman St. Pref., The slight Reparations..of an Old and unfashionable Building.

3. Of actions, conduct, etc.: Not in accordance with the prevailing fashion.

1648 Boyle Seraph. Love (1659) 158 As Unfashionable as such a Profession may seem in a Gentleman not yet two and Twenty. 1693 Locke Educ. § 70 All the Actions of Childishness, and unfashionable Carriage, and whatever Time and Age will of it set by scorn. 1759 Johnson Idler No. 48 ¶ 8 They give the mind an unfashionable cast. 1776 Adam Smith W. N. i. ix. (1869) I. 201 It is there [sc. in Holland] unfashionable not to be a man of business. 1843 Bethune Sc. Fireside Stor. 16 She had herself been bred in the country where unfashionable revels of this kind are quite common.

4. Of persons: Not following the current fashion; not living in a fashionable way.

1660 F. Brooke tr. Le Blanc's Trav. 340 These unfashionable Doctors had mind on nothing but to satisfie their insatiable avarice. 1693 Congreve in Dryden's Juvenal xi. (1697) 290 Then, that Unfashionable Man am I, With me they'd starve for want of Ivory. 1704 Steele Tender Husb. v. i, Let me come at the intruder on ladies' private hours—the unfashionable monster! 1766 [Anstey] Bath Guide i. 70 When Sim, unfashionable Nimy, In public calls me Cousin Jenny. 1865 Dickens Mut. Fr. i. ix, They sat side by side, a hopelessly Unfashionable pair. 1890 Spectator 16 Aug., Far from the maddling crowd of fashionable or unfashionable society.

b. sb. An unfashionable person.

1822 [Lady Blessington] Magic Lantern 19 The crowds ..tempted me to stroll into that gay rendezvous of fashionables, as well as unfashionables. 1831 Westm. Rev. XIV. 436 The fashionables are almost uniformly witty and agreeable, the unfashionables stupid and disagreeable.

Hence Unfa·shionableness.

1693 Locke Educ. § 184 Natural Unfashionableness being much better than apish, affected Postures. 1884 Contemp. Rev. July 102 All that people will see in this latter sort of work..will be its shapelessness, plus its unfashionableness.

Unfa·shionably, adv. [Un-1 11.] In an unfashionable manner; at variance with the prevailing fashion; so as to be unfashionable.

1621 Lady M. Wroth Urania 122 Assuredly more there was of this Song, or else she had with her vnframed and vnfashioned thoughts, as vnfashionably fram'd these lines. 1683 Oldham Wks. (1686) 99 That sniveling Puritan, who spite of all the mode Would be unfashionably good. c 1704 T. Brown tr. Sylvius' Death Lucretia Wks. 1709 III. ii. 84 At thy Work among thy Maids unfashionably busy. 1797 J. Lawrence in Monthly Mag. XI. VIII. 490, I..am most unfashionably unacquainted with all..the great post-roads and cross-roads. 1871 Figure Training 50 Her waist is not unfashionably high, but..almost disproportionately large.

Unfa·shioned, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not wrought into form or shape.

1538 Elyot, Inelegintus, vnfacyoned, vthoute good proporcyon. 1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. i. 38 When Moses sheweth that the very vnfashioned lump [of the world] was sanctified in him (sc. the Spirit). 1635 Donne Elegy xv. 97 Countlesse multitudes Of formlesse curses, projects unmade up, Abuses yet unfashion'd. 1659 Sturmy Mariner's Mag. b.), Go forth, thou shapeless Embryon of my Brain, Unfashion'd as thou art. 1721-5 Spect. No. 554 ¶ 9 Many a good natural Genius is lost, or lies unfashioned, like a Jewel in the Mine. 1764 Goldsm. Trav. 330, I see the lords of human kind pass by..; By forms unfashion'd, fresh from Nature's hand. 1848 T. Aird Winter Day, Evening 24 A cloudy confluence of unfashioned light.

†2. Not refined or polished; not made elegant or fashionable: a. Of persons. Obs.

1606 Daniel Queen's Arcadia 2509 Worthier people too, of subtler spirits, Then these vnfashion'd and vncom'd rude swaines. 1673 Dryden Marr. à la Mode ii. i, Is an unfashioned untravelled mere Sicilian is a bête. 1711 Steele Spect. No. 154 ¶ 2 A sober modest Man was always looked upon by both Sexes as a precise unfashioned Fellow. 1821 Mar. & R. L. Hodgson Cheltenham I. 73 She was a plump goodnatured unfashioned girl, with little knowledge of any sort and no accomplishments.

†b. Of things. Obs.

1630 J. Taylor (Water P.) Water Cormorant Wks. ii. 6/2 That Mold-Sack for his most vnfashion'd fashions is the fit patterne of their transformations. 1670 Dryden 1st Pt. Cong. Granada iii. 1, There's something roughly noble there, Which, in unfashion'd Nature, looks Divine. 1695 J. Edwards Perfect. Scrip. 436 Illiterate, blunt, unfashion'd language.

Unfa·st, a. Now rare. Also 4 unfest(e. [OE. unfæst (Un-1 7),) = WFris. on-, infest, MDu. and Du. onvast, MHG. unvast, MDa. ufast; OHG. unfesti, -uesti (MHG. unveste, G. unfest).]

1. Insecure.

c 888 K. Ælfred Boeth. xi. § 2 For þæm þe ælcþer is unfest, ne seo wyrd se seo sceaðð. c 897 — Gregory's Past. C. 37. c 1200 K. Trauiare 1 Ich tolde þeder mi gainges under me, And mi steppes noght unfest þai be. Ibid. xxvi. 4 Mi faas þat are, þai are unfest and felle sare. 13.. Prose Psalter cviii. 23 (Dubl. MS.), Mynn knowes beþ vnfast for fastyng. c 1384 T. Mayhew Lett. in Life Sir C. Hatton (1847) 407 You be not the first, Sir,..that have found both friends unfast and neighbours unthankful. 1818 Todd, Unfast, not safe; not secure. 1883 R. W. Dixon Mano i. xiv. 45 Ah, could he but have rent shame's unfast cloak, And seen her heart.

2. Not close or tight.

1648 Herrick II. s.v. Leken, To Leake as unfast Vessels.

Hence Unfa·stness, want of firmness. rare.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xvii. cl. (Bodl. MS.), þat treen beþ scharp with pikes & bornes..comeþ of vnfastenes & vnsadnes of þe tre. 1616 T. Adams Forest of Thorns Wks. (1620) 1055 Hee would haue it [sc. thorniness] caused by the insoliditie and vnfastnesse of the Tree.

†Unfa·st, v. dial. Obs. [Un-2 3.] = next.

1684 Meriton Yorksh. Ale Gloss. 112 To unfest is to untye or unloose.

Unfa·sten, v. Also 4 onvestne, 5 onfestyn. [Un-2 3 and 7.]

1. trans. a. To unfix; to deprive of firmness or fixity; to make loose or slack. Also absol.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 252 Al his attente is uorte unuestnen heorten & fort to binimen luue, þet halt men togederes. 1382 Wyclif Isaiah xiv. 27 The Lord forsothe of ostes demede, and who shal mown vnfastnen? 1532 Hervet Xenophon's Househ. 55 b, Eis the sonne dryinge the erthe away from the rootes of the plante, shulde lewse and vnfasten it, and so kyll it. 1597 Shakes. 2 Hen. IV, iv. i. 209 Plucking to vnfixe an Enemie, Hee doth vnfasten so, and shake a friend. 1698 Atterbury Serm. (1737) IV. 326 He must take care not to..come within reach of anything that may anyways unfasten his resolutions. 1736 Carte Ormonde II. 373 The design of this proposal was, first to unfasten him, and then to lay him totally aside.

b. To detach; to undo or release.

c 1440 Promp. Parv. 565/2 Onfestyn, idem quod on-losyn. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia ii. viii, He had no sooner unfastned his hold, but that a wave forcibly spoiled his weaker hand of hold. 1633 T. James Voy. 74 We vnfastened our Ship, and came to saile. 1667 Milton P. L. II. 879 Then..every Bolt and Bar Of massie Iron or solid Rock with ease [she] Unfast'ns. 1797 Mrs. Radcliffe Italian xii, We will see whether my key cannot unfasten all the locks that hold it. 1860 Walter Sea-board II. 459 Unfastening, as it were, the links that bound the people to their Parish Church. 1862 Miss Braddon Lady Audley vii, Lady Audley was standing unfastening her dress. a 1873 Lytton in Life & Lett. (1883) I. 289 The sian began to unfasten the boat.

fig. 1655 tr. Sorel's Com. Hist. Francion ix. 29 She.. prayed me to come to her house as soon as I could unfasten my self from my Mistresse.

2. intr. To become detached or loose; to open; fig. to separate.

c 1325 Shoreham Poems i. 2093 Nou lestne: 3ef þe oþer oþren so by-swykeþ, No mu3e hy noust onuestne. c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode i. cxxvi. (1869) 67 The hocle holt and keepeth faste the girdel that it vnfastne nouht. 1865 Swinburne Atalanta 91 From this time..My lips shall not unfasten till I die.

Unfa·stenable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1820 Blackw. Mag. Mar. 377/1 A left not always unfastenable in a moment.

Unfa·stened, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1587 Golding De Mornay xxiii. 402 The Image of Serapis hung vnfastened in the ayre. 1621 Speed Theat. Gt. Brit. (1614) 132/2 An Iland that removeth from place to place, as the vnfastened forcheth her singeregeon and unfastened body. 1794 Miss. Radcliffe Myst. Udolpho xiii, She asked the housekeeper whether she was certain no door had been left unfastened. 1861 Geo. Eliot Silas M. iv, Where could he be ..on such an evening, leaving..his door unfastened? 1897 Miss. E. L. Voynich Gadfly (1904) 69/2 The unfastened sleeve fell back, showing a series of..scars covering the arm.

Unfasti·dious, a. (Un-1 7.)

1815 Jane Austen Emma x, So prosing—so undistinguishing and unfastidious. 1822 Lamb Elia i. Decay of Beggars, Well fare the soul of unfastidious Vincent Bourne! 1869 Sat. Rev. 4 Feb. 141/2 An unfastidious taste is not offended by its style.

Hence Unfasti·diousness.

1882 Grant White Eng. Without & Within 476 None the less, however, was I puzzled to account for the unfastidiousness of palate.

Unfa·thered, *a.*1 [Un-1 9.]

1. Having no (known or acknowledged) father; illegitimate.

1597 Shakes. 2 Hen. IV, iv. iv. 122 The people feare me: for they doe observe Vnfather'd Heires, and louthly Births of Nature. 1726 Pope Odyss. xix. 187 Thy port asserts thee of distinguish'd race; No poor unfather'd product of disgrace. 1895 Mrs. Browning Aur. Leigh vii. 327 Mamin's babe, her poor unfathered child. 1874 Trollope Lady Anna i, She would be a penniless unfathered female with a daughter, her child would be unfathered and base.

2. Unfatherly. rare—1.

1778 Langhorne Owen of Carron xviii. 2 And Moray, with unfather'd Eyes,..Attends his human Sacrifice, Without the Grecian Painter's Veil.

3. Of obscure origin; unauthenticated.

1830 De Quincey Bentley Wks. 1863 VI. 55 Unfathered rumours, rumours unacknowledged and untraceable. 1888 Bryce Amer. Commw. III. ci. 419 Men are..therefore ready to trust their own fancies or unfathered tale.

Unfa·thered, *a.*2 [Un-2 4, 8.] Deprived of a father; made fatherless.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia iii. xvii, Iole had her owne father killed by Hercules..& yet ere long this..unfathered Lady could sportfully put on the Lions skin. c 1600 Shakes. Sonn. cxxiv, Yet my dears loue were but the childe of state, It might for fortunes bastard be vnfathered.

Unfa·therlike, a. or adv. (Un-1 7 c.) 1610 Heywood Gold. Age iii. 1, Haue not these ruthlesse and remorselesse eyes (Vnfather-like) behold their paining teares?

Unfa·therly, a. [Un-1 7. Cf. Du. onvaderlijk, MHG. and G. unvæterlich, Da. ufaderlig, MSw. ufaderelik; also OE. unfederlice adv.] Unbefitting a father.

1621 J. Taylor (Water P.) Unnatural Father Wks. (1630) 138/2 So hee performed his last vnfatherly deed vpon her. 1621 Lady M. Wroth Urania 209 To trie, if by his vnfatherly tortures, thine may bee wrought to leaue loving you. 1784 Cowper Tiroc. 866 Nature, pulling at thine heart, Condemns th' unfatherly, th' imprudent part.

Hence Unfa·therliness.

1850 L. Hunt Autobiog. xxv. III. 285 No hell. No unfatherliness. No monstrous exactions of assent to the incredible.

Unfa·thomabi·lity. (Un-1 12.) cf. next.) 1866 Renan Renain. (1881) II. 331 To my private self his divine reflections and unfathomabilities seemed stinted..and uncertain.

Unfa·thomable, a. [Un-1 7 b.]

1. fig. Of feelings, qualities, conditions, etc.: Incapable of being fully ascertained, explored, exhausted, etc.

1617 Collins Def. Bp. Ely n. ix. 404 Who are you then to gage hearts, which Hieremy says are vnfaddomable. 1663 Bp. Patrick Parab. Vigr. xxvii, Thy Goodness is unfathomable, else we should have sunk long before this beyond the depth of it. 1719 Young Busiris v. i, An earnest Of vast unfathomable woes to come. 1768-74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 119 What their real sentiments may be I shall not pretend to guess, for they are an unfathomable sort of people. 1801-12

BENTHAM Ration. Justice. Evid. (1827) II. 315 Subjected to an unfathomable mass of punishment. 1840 THACKERAY Pendennis IV. Her eyes..shone with tenderness and mystery unfathomable. 1891 MEREDITH One of our Conq. xxvi, Lady Cantor spoke to her of Dudley's unfathomable gloom.

2. Incapable of being fathomed or measured; unsoundable, immeasurable, vast:

a. Of space (esp. in depth).

*a*1696 HALE Prim. Orig. Man. II. vii. (1677) 187 Not.. meerly by the Superficies of the Sea, but by its vast depth, which in some places is unfathomable. 1712 ADDISON Spect. No. 420 ¶ 3 Those unfathomable Depths of Ether. 1799 KIRWAN Geol. Ess. 299 The unfathomable abysses of the ocean. 1815 SHELLEY Alastor 373 On the unfathomable stream The boat moved slowly. 1842 MRS. BROWNING Casa Guidi Wind. I. 160 Ye may well look up surprised To those unfathomable heavens that feel Your purple hills! 1899 MISS BRADDON Cloven Foot IV, The long dazzling boulevards stretching into unfathomable distance before her eyes.

b. In fig. contexts. (Cf. 1.)

1640 EP. HALL Chr. Moder. II. § 7, 47 These are indeed unfadomable depths in that Ocean, wherin we shall vainly hope to pitch our anchor. 1672 STILLINGFL. Serm. xii. (1673) 237 O the unfathomable Abysse of Eternity! 1712 ADDISON Spect. No. 309 ¶ 14 Sounding the unfathomable Depths of Fate, Free-will and Fore-knowledge. 1730 WESLEY 'Lo! God is here!' v, Thou source and life of all! Thou vast, unfathomable Sea! 1820 SHELLEY Flordispina 9 For thou the wonders of the depth canst know Of this unfathomable flood of hours. 1895 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. xxi. IV. 575 In truth the depths of this man's knavery were unfathomable. 1899 GEO. ELIOT A. Bede III, An unfathomable ocean of love and beauty.

absol. 1831 CARLYLE Sartor Res. II. viii, Two little visual Spectra of men, hovering..in the midst of the Unfathomable.

c. fig. Of the eyes.

1817 SHELLEY Rev. Islam VI. xxxviii, The sweet peace of joy did almost fill The depth of her unfathomable look. 1854 THACKERAY Newcomes xxx, The unfathomable eyes were wells of gloom. 1882 'OUIDA' Maremma I. 212 Her lustrous, unfathomable, star-like eyes.

Hence Unfa·thomableness.

1690 NORRIS Beatitudes (1692) 133 The Unfathomableness of the great Dispensation of Mercy. 1832 tr. Tour Germ. Prince II. xii. 244 The immortal secret.., the unfathomableness of which had so tormented the 'dégants' of the metropolis. 1872 GEO. ELIOT Middlem. III. xxiii, In Mr. Horrock there was certainly an apparent unfathomableness, which offered play to the imagination.

Unfa·thomably, adv. [UN-1 11; cf. prec.] To an unfathomable extent.

1695 BLACKMORE Pr. Arth. VII. 62 A wide mouth'd Den, ..That downward goes unfathomably deep, Beneath the subterranean Vaults. 1771 SMOLLETT Humph. Cl. 3 Sept., A surprising body of pure transparent water, unfathomably deep in many places. 1820 SHELLEY Witch Atl. xlix, The tremulous stars sparkled unfathomably. 1833 HT. MARTINEAU Briery Creek I. 4 His grandfather appeared to him ..unfathomably wise.

Unfa·thomed, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Of unascertained depth; unsounded.

1648 FELTHAM Resolves II. xxvii. 85 [The river] at last.. inwaves it selfe in the vnfathom'd Ocean. 1634 MILTON Comus in Birch Wits. (1778) I. p. vii, Haffe his wast Flood the wide Atlantick still, And halfe the slow unfadom'd Sygian Poole. 1723 MRS. CENTLIVRE Stolen Heiress V, Ope' earth, hide me in thy unfathom'd womb. 1757 GRAY Elegy xiv, Full many a gem of purest ray serene, The dark unfathom'd caves of ocean bear. 1852 SHELLEY Adah IV. 95 The lovely silence of the unfathomed main. 1873 PROCTOR Expanse Heav. 300 He still saw that cloudy light which speaks of star depths as yet unfathomed.

2. In fig. context. (Cf. 2.)

1623 MIDDLETON & ROWLEY Sp. Gipsy III. iii, A soul drown'd deep In the unfathom'd seas of matchless sorrows. 1633 NORRIS Passions of Saviour 5 Sing the unfathom'd depths of love. 1755 YOUNG Centaur IV, The first moment man quits hold of his Creator, he drops! In distraction and ruin, how unfathomed his fall! 1817 BYRON Manfred I. i. 243 By thy unfathom'd gulfs of guile, .I call upon thee! 1861 W. F. COLLIER Hist. Eng. Lit. 146 The unfathomed depths of the poet's mind.

2. fig. Not fully explored or known; unascertained; immense.

1659 T. PECKE Parnassi Puerp. 181 Nature in the unfathom'd Stagyrite, Compo'd a Body, abject to the sight. 1688 PRIOR Ode VI, Man does with dangerous Curiosity These unfathom'd Wonders try. 1784 COWPER Task II. 538 When in him reside Grace, knowledge, comfort—an unfathom'd store. 1809 COLERIDGE Friend (1865) 61 If the mere acquiescence in truth, uncomprehended and unfathomed, were sufficient. 1890 Athenæum Monthly I. XXIX. 35 That was the thought of the unfathomed might of man.

†Unfa·thomless, a. (UN-1 5 a.) 1673 JANEWAY Heaven on E. 20 Oh that I might lose myself..as a small drop in the unfathomless depth of his Love.

†Unfa·tigable, a. Obs. [UN-1 7 b and 5 b.] Indefatigable.

*c*1550 Clariodus V, 1925 Apollo restless and unfatigabill. 1592 NASHE P. Penilesse F 2 b, As industrie and vnfatigable toyle rayseth meane persons, .to high thrones of authoritie. 1622 MALYNES Anc. Law-Merch. 84 Which cannot be done without an vnfatigable industrie. 1629 Lisander & Cal. IX. 184 Hee seemed so unfatigable in his armes.

Unfati·guable, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

1799 SOUTHEY Songs Amer. Indians, Huron's Address to Dead III, Those are the unfatiguable feet That traversed the forest tract. 1809 — Madoc II. ix. 84, With fleet feet and unfatiguable. 1873 RUSKIN Fors Clav. xxxiii. 5 The waist elastic as a reed, and as unfatiguable.

Unfati·gue, v. [UN-2 4 b.] refl. To restore (oneself) from fatigue.

1734 CAREY Chrononhotonthologos I, Fatigu'd with the tremendous Toil of Wars, .. I downy Couch .. Himself he unfatigues with gentle Slumbers. 1836 B. HALL Schloss Hainfeld I. 14 May I trust you will induce Mrs Hall to 'unfatigue herself'..in this Padmore in the wilderness?

Unfati·gued, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1705 J. PHILIPS Blenheim 39 Over dank, and dry, They journey toilsome, unfatigu'd with Length Of March. 1775 S. J. PRATT Liberal Opin. vi. (1782) I. 19 Celebrated for volubility of conversation, and so unfatigued a continuer, that nothing human could ever come in for a word. 1860 HOLME LEE Leg. Fairy L. 93 He was again standing beside me, perfectly cool and unfatigued. 1879 SPENCER Data of Ethics x. § 95, 179 Sounds..which yield to unfatigued ears intense pleasure.

Unfati·guing, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

1808 SCOTT in Lockhart I. i. 20 That imperceptible and unfatiguing exercise. 1822–7 GOOD Study Med. (1829) III. 473 Provided the patient passes a quiet and unfatiguing life. 1865 Pall Mall G. 31 AUG. 3/2 To accept scanty pay for monotonous but unfatiguing work.

Unfa·tted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1752 J. HILL Hist. Anim. 486 The phesant..when in good condition..is little less than a common unfatted fowl.

Unfau·ltly, a. (UN-1 7.)

1548 UDALL, etc., Erasm. Par. Matt. xxi. 83 Whom because he had prouoked agaynst hym with well doynge, he made them not vnfaultye. 1587 Mirr. Mag., Locrinus III, What meane I here th' vnfaultly for to blame? 1628 WITHER Brit. Remains. 289 b, In a Watch or Clocke When it is out of order once, or broke, The wheeles that are unfaultie move awry. 1645 MILTON Tetrach. 31 A Covnant therfore brought to that passe, is on the vnfaultly side without injury dissolv'd. 1737 RICHARDSON Pamela (1824) I. xiv. 250 And glad I am that the poor unfaultly baby is so justly beloved by Mr. B—. 1855 SINGLETON Virgil II. 27 Be it allowed to me To pity my unfaultly friend's mishap.

Unfa·vourable, a. (and sb.) [UN-1 7 b.]

1. Not favourable, in various senses: a. Of persons, opinions, etc.

1548 UDALL Erasm. Par. Luke xix. 147 The Pharisees ..thynke themselues fortunate that they carry the deuill on theyre backes, ye roughest sitter possible and ye moste vnfauourable. 1678 SIR G. MACKENZIE Crim. Laws Scot. II. xxii. § 1. (1699) 239 After a Crime is proved, the Pannel is most unfauourable. 1777 ROBERTSON Hist. Amer. II. ▼ 12 Talavera, at last, made..an unfavourable report to Ferdinand and Isabella. 1779 Mirror No. 32, He was pleased.. to communicate his opinions. The last I found generally unfavourable to the rights of men and things. 1828 D. MITCHELL Acharn. of Aristoph. 200 note, The insertion of a choriambus.., viewed with an unfavourable eye by Bentley and Elmsley. 1890 Retrospect Med. CII. 45 The prognosis was unfavourable only in severe cases.

b. Of conditions, circumstances, times, etc. Also const. to or for.

1748 Anson's Voy. I. viii. 77 These tempests.., though unattended by any other unfavourable circumstance, were yet rendered more mischievous to us by their inequality. 1766 SMOLLETT Trans. xi. I. 174, I have always found a cold and damp atmosphere the most unfavourable of any to my constitution. 1796 MME. D'ARBLAY Camilla III. 444 [She] thought the moment unfavourable for a tête-a-tête. 1846 MRS. A. MARSH Father Darcy II. xvi. 277, I must dispose of the saying matches in Northamptonshire, and these times are unfavourable. 1874 J. GEIKIE Gt. Ice Age xxiii. 302 In situations that would now be considered most unfavourable to their growth.

c. Of winds or weather.

1788 GIBBON Decl. & Pf. xii. IV. 132 An unfavourable wind detained them four days. 1789 CHARLOTTE SMITH Ethelinde IV. 155 A successless hunt, the morning being frosty and unfavourable. 1820 W. SCORESBY Acc. Arctic Reg. I. 307 The winds were mostly unfavourable. 1865 CARLYLE Frederk. Gt. XIX. VIII. V. 581 In spite of..the unfavorablest weather, it was..his fixed purpose to recapture Dresden.

†d. Of diseases, physical injuries, etc. Obs.

1782 V. KNOX Ess. clxiii. (1819) III. 227 They were seized with an unfavourable small-pox. 1793 COWPER Let. to X. Hill 10 Dec., You mentioned..an unfavourable sprain that you had received. 1818 SCOTT Hrt. Midl. xxxiii, Her mind is totally alienated, which..is sometimes the consequence of an unfavourable confinement.

2. Of features or appearance: Ill-favoured.

1776 E. TOWNSHAM Lett. Edin. 83 The men are large and disproportioned with unfavourable, long, and saturnine countenances. 1782 A. HIGHMORE Ramble Coast Sussex (1873) 47 She said I did not carry an unfavourable appearance. 1876 Scribner's Illustm. V, With all this most unfavourable exterior, there was one trait in the features of both which argued alertness and intelligence.

b. Creating a bad impression.

1817 JAS. MILL Brit. India II. iv. vi. 230 A procedure which bore a most unfavourable appearance.

3. sb. An unfavourable result.

1838 DE MORGAN Ex. Probab. 42 But of these 36 throws, any one of the five unfavourables of the first throw may combine with any one of the second throw.

Hence Unfa·vourableness.

1764 Phil. Trans. LIV. 105 The best account..of my observation, however imperfect through the unfavourableness of the weather. 1841 LOUDON Suburban Hort. 123 The unsuitableness of the soil, the unproptiousness of the climate, and the unfavourableness of the seasons.

Unfa·vourably, adv. [UN-1 11.] In an unfavourable manner: a. In respect of opinion, statement, etc.

1460 Paston Lett. Suppl. (1901) 63 Thei reporten you unfavorably and without credence, as men seyn, and some I have herd. *a*1680 GLANVILL (J.), Bacon speaks not unfavourably of this. *a*1768 SECKER Serm. (1771) V. xv. 335 There hath been..something or another that should not have been; else so many would not have judged..so unfavourably. 1816 SCOTT Old Mort. XV, If our summons is unfavourably received we will instantly attack. 1866 J. H. NEWMAN Let. to Pusey 86 That compromise of which our countrymen report so unfavourably from abroad.

b. In respect of circumstances, conditions, etc.

1833 CARLYLE Misc. (1840) IV. 337 A richly endowed, unfavourably situated nature. 1846 MRS. A. MARSH Father Darcy II. ix. 151 His tones and gestures..contrasted unfavourably with the appearance either of Catesby or Winter; 1871 A. MEADOWS Man. Midwifery (ed. 2) 230, I believe it.. to compare very unfavourably with the death-rate of the supposed more formidable operation.

Unfa·voured, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1774 GOLDSM. Nat. Hist. II. 251 There was a time, when these unfavoured children of Nature, were the peculiar favourites of the great. 1796 [see UNCULTIVATED ppl. a. 3]. 1908 WALLACE Children Chapel 175 This diminished the reputation and profit of the unfavored players.

Unfa·vouring, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1835 Woman II. 203 In an unfavouring soil, where many seeds are sown, we reap a full harvest of weeds. 1878 STEVENSON Inland Voy. 17 We still spread our canvas to the unfavouring air.

Unfaysible, obs. f. UNFEASIBLE a.

Unfea·red, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

†1. Not affected by fear; undismayed. Obs.

1435 MISYN Fire of Love 100 Als þi saule criste truly has soght & vnferde & in seikyne wolde not cees. *c*1475 Gath. Angl. 127/2 (A), Vn-Ferde, vbi hardy. 1600 FAIRFAX Tasso I. lii, Vnfear'd in fight, vnti'd with hurt or wound. 1611 B. JONSON Catiline IV. i, Though Heaven should speake, with all his wrath at once, ..we should stand vpright, and vnfear'd. 1627 MAY Lucan II. 556 He yet vnfear'd, his anger doth retain.

2. Not regarded with fear; unthreatened.

1612 Two Noble K. I. ii. 71 A most unbounded Tyrant, whose successes Makes heaven unfeard. 1667 MILTON P. L. IX. 187 Nor nocent yet, but on the grassie Herbe Fearless unfeard he slept. 1796 COLERIDGE Destiny of Nations 146 That..herself Unfeared by Fellow-natures, she might wait On the poor labouring man with kindly looks. 1839 BAILEY Festus 291 It is the thing Unfeared and unforethought which tempts heinous. 1868 MORRIS Earthly Par. (1870) I. II. 597 Till death unfeared at last shall come to me.

Unfea·rful, a. [UN-1 7.] Having no fear; fearless.

1544 BETHAM Precepts War I. cxliii. G viij b, To chose souldiours whyche bin vnfearfull and courageous to encounte wyth theyr enemyes. *a*1569 KINGESMYLL Compl. Afflict. (1585) E 6 Other notable women, that were so unfearefull to suffer moste shorpe death. 1603 BEXTON Mind World Wks. (Grosart) II. 10/2 He..led me to his house, the doore open, as unfearefull of theeves, as vnprovided for strangers. 1784 Unfortunate Sensibility II. 155 Thou mayest enjoy thy full inheritance unfearful of the shafts of envy. 1829 ALISON Hist. Eur. (ed. 2) XIII. xc. 270 The hunning-bird,..so quick in its motions, so unfearful of man. 1888 Encycl. Brit. XXIII. 313/2 The very fish..would glide, unfearful, between his (Thoreau's) hands.

Unfea·rfully, adv. [UN-1 11; cf. prec.] Fearlessly, resolutely.

*c*1450 Life St. Kath. (1884) 33 Þe holy seruant..was ryght nought troubled, but vnfearfully sche commended be labour of hir chyualrye vnto our lord god. 1563 GOLDING Cæsar (1565) 81 b, Our enemies fought stoutly and unfearfullye. 1572 — Calvin on Ps. IV. 3 Vnfearfully to despise whatsoever they wrought against him. 1615 G. SANDYS Trans. 270 The vndanted giuing or receiuing of wounds; and life so vnfearfully parted with.

Unfea·ring, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

1796 Monthly Mag. I. 615 Him would the storm-vext Adriatic surge,..The wreck of shattering words, Unfearing smite. 1824 MISS MITFORD Village Ser. I. 18 In addition to these multifarious talents, he was ready, obliging, and unfearing. 1868 LYNCH Rivulet CLXI. viii, Down with unfearing heart I lie, And wait sleep's healing mystery.

Hence Unfea·ringly adv.

1895 Contemp. Rev. Mar. 434 Unfearingly to allow the total severance of the bond.

Unfeary, var. UNFEIRIE a. Sc.

†Unfea·sable, a. Obs. [UN-1 7 b and 5 b.] = UNFEASIBLE a.

1608 MEAD in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. I. III. 268 Their works seem now altogether unfeasable. 1640 SIR K. DIGBY in Lismore Papers Ser. II. (1888) IV. 133 All those wayes were not onely very difficult and peradventure vnfeazable [etc.]. 1673 S'too him Dayes 15 The bishop was a weak man, and laid an unfeasable design.

Hence † Unfea·sableness; † Unfea·sably adv.

1612 WOODALL Surg. Mate Wks. (1653) 390 To brand it with pittiful inhibitions, and vnfeasablenesse [etc.]. 1678 CUDWORTH Intell. Syst. 682 Those small and pitiful attempts ..only showing the unfeasablenesse and impossibility thereof. 1638 JUNIUS Paint. Ancients 331 Workes..done by an unspeakable way of Art, delicatly, divinely, vnfeisably, etc. insinuate nothing els.

Unfeasibility. [UN-1 12; cf. next.] 1688 FULLER Hist. Cambr. 70 The failing is not in the unfeasibility of the Design, but in the accidentall defaults of the Vndertakers. 1839 CARLYLE Chartism IX, The matter, can at least solace itself with hope, and die gently, convinced of unfeasibility. 1860 — Latter-d. Pamph. II. 9 Nature, taught him the futility and unfeasibility of the system followed here.

Unfea·sible, a. (UN-1 7 and 5 b.)

1597 St. Papers Hen. VIII, I. 247 As the discripcion.. shulde be to tedious..to rede, so the explicacion therof shulde be unfaysible unto me. 1648 J. BEAUMONT Psyche XVIII. cccix, But seeing this unfeasible, the sight Redoubled her compassionate sorrows weight. 1657 G. STARKEY Helmont's Vind. 145 This Logick would make almost all Mechanicks to be impossible, if what ever you cannot do must straight be unfeeible. 1673 O. WALKER Educ. (1677) 37 Harshnes is discovered in..enjoyning things in themselves too difficult, unfeeible, unsupportable. 1804 COLEBROOKE Hush. Bengal 35 Circumstances that render it unfeasible to enter these fields to select the ripe plants, without damaging the rest. 1886 Brit. Med. Jrnl. 12 June 1142/2 The use..is doubtless charming in theory,..but, in practice, it is unfeasible.

Hence Unfea·sibleness.

1653 HOLCROFT Procopius, Pers. Wars II. 42 Seeing excessive undertakings ever are rewarded with unfaisibleness, Unfea·sted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1636 Heywood Love's Mistress 1, Nor shall they part from hence with unfeasted eares. 1897 R. Kearton Nature & Camera 51 The trippers had to return with .. their curiosity unfeasted. Unfea·stful, a. (Un-[1] 7.) † Non-festival. a 1564 Becon Art. Chr. Relig. xvii, Not on y^e feastful, nor on the vnfeastful, dayes only, but at al tymes.

Unfea·stly, a. (Un-[1] 7. Cf. G. unfestlich.] Not in festival trim.

c 1386 Chaucer Sqr.'s T. 38 Hir liste nat appalled for to be Nor on the morwe vnfeastlich [orr. unfestelyche, vnfestiy, etc.] for to se.

† Unfea·t, a. Obs.[-1] (Un-[1] 7.] Not well disposed; unfit.

a 1533 Ld. Berners Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. (1535) C ij b, They ar vnfete to do wel: & are holly disposed to do yl.

Unfea·ther, v. (Un-[2] 4 and 7.]

1. trans. To strip of feathers; to unplume.

1483 Cath. Angl. 124/2 To vn-Fedyr, expennare, expinnare. 1586 J. Hooker Hist. Irel. in Holinshed II. 116/2 He so handled the matter, that he had vnfethered him of his best friends, aids, and helps. 1603 Florio Montaigne II. x. 236, I will love him that shall trace, or vnfeather me. a 1826 T. Carew Poems Wks. (1824) 79 Love lent thee wings to flye, so hee Vnfeather'd, now must rest with mee. 1682 Rycaut tr. Gracian's Critick 183 None are here of those who can.. unfeather our Nests, whilst they envrap us in the quilts. 1769 Colman Oxonian in Town I. 8 Ay, ay, we'll unfeather the whole nest in time.

2. intr. To lose the feathers.

1849 J. A. Carlyle tr. Dante's Inf. 202 When poor Icarus felt his loins unfeather by the heating of the wax.

Unfea·thered, a. (Un-[1] 9. Cf. OE. ungefeðered, MDu. ongevedert, G. ungefiedert, † feðert, older Da. ufedret, Sw. ofjädrad.]

1. Not provided or covered with feathers: a. Of birds, etc.

1570 Levins Manip. 50 Vnfethered, implumis. 1609 A. Willet Hexapla Gen. Ded., I..have brought forth my implumed and vnfeathered birds. 1653 Jer. Taylor Serm. for Year I. Ep. Ded., They are like callow and unfeathered birds. 1697 Dryden Virg. Georg. IV. 193 Whose Nest some prying Churl had found, and thence, By Stealth, convey'd th'unfeath'd Innocence. 1780 Cowper Sparrows in Trin. Coll. 14 In hope of crumbs, Which kindly giv'n, may serve with food Convenient, the unfeathered brood. 1826 S. Cooper First Lines Surg. (ed. 5) 83 A roughness which is compared to the skin of an unfeathered goose. 1884 Coues N. Amer. Birds 86 Feathered Tracts and Unfeathered Spaces.

b. Applied generically to man.

c 1600 Timon v. iv. (1842) 86 A peripatetick is a two legd liuing creature, gressible, unfeathered. 1681 Dryden Abs. & Achit. I. 170 And all to leave what with his Toil he won To that unfeather'd two-legg'd thing, a Son. 1754 Warburton Bolingbroke's Philos. I. 36 Ribaldry and ill language disgrace the animal implume bipes, the two-leg'd unfeathered Philosopher. 1817 Bentham Parl. Reform Introd. 213 The speeches of so many unfeathered bipeds. 1895 Atlantic Monthly LXXVI. 141/2 Such tastes..have been known among the unfeathered tribes.

2. Of arrows: Not fitted with feathers.

1612 Cotgr., Matieras desempenné, .. an vnfeathered quarrell. 1790 Cook's Voy. I. 93 But..kneeling down, [he] shot an arrow, unfeathered (as they all are), near the sixth part of a mile. 1837 Lytton Athens II. 122 Lycians with mantles of goat skin and unfeathered arrows of reed. 1860 Maury Phys. Geog. (Low) iv. 103 The unfeathered arrows represent winds.

† Unfea·thy, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1548 Udall Erasm. Pref. Par. Luke (:.) ij b, It was a thynge not vnfeacthy ne vnskilfully spoken in the prouerbes of the Grekes, that [etc.]. 1618 Cotgr., Inpropremment, .. vnapply, vnfitly, vnfeathy.

Unfea·tured, a. (Un-[1] 9.)

1693 Dryden Juvenal x. 308 A copy Chain of Rhumes; a Visage rough, Deform'd, Unfeatur'd, and a Skin of Buff. 1810 L. Hunt Politics & Poetics 30 Nightmare, horrid mass! unfeatured heap! 1826 R. A. Vaughan Hyster. xiii. 111, The starless, unfeatured night. 1892 Stevenson Across the Plains 226 His whole unfeatured wilderness of an existence.

† Unfea·ty, a. (Un-[1] 7.) Obs. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia II. ii. (1598) 100 For his part, hee neuer saw more vnfeatie [1590 vnfeactie] fellowes then great clearkes were.

Unfecible, obs. f. Unfeasible a.

† Unfect, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7: cf. Fect v.] Uninfected.

1502 Atkynson tr. De Imitatione III. xxxviii. 227 Seldome suche persones be fre and vnfecte of the venym of theyr owne sekynge. † Unfectual, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7: cf. Fectually adv.] Uneffectual, ineffective. 1549 Coverdale, etc. Erasm. Par. Gal. 11 It was..meete, that shadowes should gyue place to the truth; and the unfectuall, to that whiche was..effectuall.

Unfe·cundated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 and 5 b.)

[1775 Ash.] 1857 Geo. Eliot Amos Barton v, An unfecundated egg, which the waves of time wash away into nonentity. 1859 Todd's Cycl. Anat. V. 68/1 The mass of the yolk and the germ, in their unfecundated state.

Unfe·d, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 b. Cf. MDu. ongevoedet, -voet, Du. -voed unfed, unnourished; ON. and Icel. ó-, ófeðdr (Sw. ofödd, Da. ufødt) unborn.]

1. Not supplied or nourished with food.

a 1300 Cursor M. 19925 Iesus..fasted fourti dais vn-fed. Ibid. 19650 Thre dais liued he par vnfedd. 1513 Douglas Æneid IX. vi. 71 The empty lioun, lang orhed, ..Trubland the fald full of sylly schep. 1579 Spenser Sheph. Cal. May 44 Shepherds..That playen, while their flockes be vnfedde. 1641 Best Farm. Bks. (Surtees) 123 Carre-swannes, that are vnfedde, are vsually at 2s. 6d. a peece. 1687 Dryden Hind & P. III. 195 Some sons of mine.. Have sharply tax'd your converts, who unfed Have follow'd you for miracles of bread. 1737 Gentl. Mag. VII. 570/2, I wonder'd, why his oxen stray'd, His sheep and heifers pine'd unfed. 1853 Kane Grinnell Exp. xlvii. (1856) 442 Now the half-tutored, unfed Esquimaux dog would eat a goat, bones, skin, and for aught I know, horns. 1868 Morris Earthly Par. (1870) I. II. 565 Upon his perch the falcon sat Unfed.

transf. 1890 'R. Holdrewood' Col. Reformer xxvii, The diet..became wellnigh intolerable: the flaccid unfed meat, ..the milkless tea [etc.].

2. fig. Not supplied with necessary material, support, etc.

a 1625 Fletcher & Shirley Lover's Progr. IV. i, She that is forfeited to lust must dye, That humour being unfed. 1654 Dryden & Howard Indian Queen IV. ii, I shou'd..like an unfed stream run on and dye. 1697 Dryden Æneis XI. 102 A lovely Flow'r, New cropt by Virgin Hands,..Unfadd yet, but yet unfed below. 1816 Byron Ch. Har. III. xliv, Even as a flame unfed, which runs to waste With its own flickering. 1883 Trans. Educ. XVIII. 148 A church unfed from the public table.

Unfee·ble, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1547 Salesbury Dict. Civ, Dilicaj, unfeble. 1569 J. Sanford tr. Agrippa's Van. Artes lviii. 83 b, Sinners with the faithfull hadd already entred into the Churche, the feeble with the unfeeble.

Unfee·d, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.] Not rewarded with, or engaged by, a fee; unpaid.

1605 Shaks. Lear I. iv. 142 Then 'tis like the breath of an vnfeed Lawyer, you gaue me nothing for't. a 1628 Daborne Poor-man's Comf. II. (1663) C. 4 Now he's as speechless, as an unfeed Attorney. 1709 Garth Dispens. (ed. 6) v. 39 Vaunt now no more the Triumph of your Skill, But, tho' unfeed, exert your Arm, and kill. 1802–12 Bentham Rationn. Judic. Evid. (1827) IV. 429 But it is..the honest interest of the unfeed judge, that..the truth shall come to light. 1850 Blackie Æschylus I. 148 And why walks Grief, an unfee'd page, with thee?

Unfee·dable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1867 Ruskin Time & Tide III. § 10 Have you considered what is to be done finally with the unfeedable mouths? Unfee·ding, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1585 Abp. Sandys Serm. xviii. 316 What can..the vnfeeding pastor, the vniust iudge, ..answere in that day but pleade guilte? 1610 Br. Hall Apol. Peccantes xxvii. (1627) 596 The necessary patterne of an vnteaching pastor, or an vnfeeding teacher.

Unfeel: see Unfele a. and Un-[2] 3.

Unfee·lable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.]

† 1. Unable to feel; insensible. Obs.

c 1400 Lovel. Bonaventure. Mirr. (1908) 243 Sche was all out of hir self and vnfeelable made, as half deda. 1568 Turner Herbal III. 51 The Nux methel is poyson and maketh man or vnfeelable...It maketh vnfeelable the head.

2. Incapable of being felt; impalpable. rare.

1611 Cotgr., Impalpable, impalpable, vnfeelable. 1652 J. Doo Ten Sermons, etc. 269 This Christ..in whom we behold God which is invisible, and touch him which is vnfeelable.

Unfee·ling, vbl. sb. [Un-[1] 13.] Lack of feeling.

1603 Florio Montaigne II. xii. 285 Indolencie or vnfeeling of paine. 1805 Monthly Mag. XIX. 667 The rapacity, the selfish unfeeling, the low cunning of Odysseus.

Unfee·ling, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10 and 5 d.]

1. Having no feeling or sensation, insensible; fig. not sensitive to impressions, etc.

c 1000 Sax. Leechd. II. 264 Yfele swilas unfelende. a 1300 Cursor M. 24426 Quen i sagh þus all things..Vnfeland for pair lauerd murn, Moght i me noght for-ber. c 1430 Life St. Kath. (1884) 2 For þay wot not hem self þat þay are [offended] whyl þay are bot vnfelyng matere. 1590 Shaks. Com. Err. II. i. 103 Vnfeeling fools can with such wrongs dispence. 1593 1 Hen. VI, III. ii. 143 Fain would I go to chafe his paile lips,..And with my fingers feele his hand, vnfeeling. 1619 J. Taylor (Water P.) Kicksey Winsey Wks. (1630) 45/1 They must not take me for a Stupid asse, That I (vnfeeling) will let these things passe. 1780–2 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1809) IV. 127 [He] pressed his lips to the pale and unfeeling lips. 1780 Cowper Progr. Error 528 So one..Woo'd an unfeeling statue for his wife. 1846 Trench Mirac. iv. 56 When he blesses, it is many but where he smites, there he blesses. 1896 Blackie Songs Relig. & Life 223 All my weeping can recall her never, Back from the cold unfeeling sod!

b. Const. of, to, or with direct object.

1744 Eliza Heywood Female Spect. No. 3 (1748) I. 113 Is it sure a picture which may well pass paint I—No heart unfeeling it conceive! 1748 Thomson Cast. Indol. II. liv, But should to fame your hearts unfeeling be,..Then hear [etc.]. 1760–72 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1809) II. 119 They appeared so cheerful and unfeeling of their own wretchedness.

2. Devoid of kindly or tender feelings; uncompassionate, unsympathetic.

1595 Shaks. Merch. V. iv. i. 63 This is no answer thou unfeeling man, To excuse the current of thy cruelty. 1598–9 B. Jonson Every in a Humor V. iii. 1 Sweet! can it be? That men should live with such vnfeeling soules, Without or touch or conscience of religion? 1734 Pope Ess. Man IV. 319 The broadest mirth unfeeling Folly wears, Less pleasing far than Virtue's very tears. 1781 Gibbon Decl. & F. (1789) III. xxx. 167 note, The bloody actor is less detestable than the cool unfeeling historian. 1818 Scott Rob Roy xviii, I was neither a false lover nor an unfeeling son. 1883 Froude in Mrs. Carlyle's Lett. III. 204 John Carlyle..had been rough and unfeeling.

absol. 1742 Gray Prospect Eton Coll. 94 The tender [groan] for another's pain; Th' unfeeling for his own.

Unfee·lingly, adv. (Un-[1] 11; cf. prec.)

c 1374 Chaucer Troylus II. 29 Ek þough I speke of loue infelingly, No wonder is. 1793 T. Cibber Lives Actors, Booth 74 The first has been unfeelingly mouthed and ranted throughout. 1768 Sterne Sent. Journ., Dwarf, The German turn'd his head back, look'd down upon him as Goliah did upon David—and unfeelingly resumed his posture. 1901 Monthly Rev. Aug. 187 'Bid your minnie good-bye, lad,' said Robin, not unfeelingly.

Unfee·lingness, [Un-[1] 12.]

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. vi. xxv. (Tollem. MS.), Auntyle sayeþ þat slep is a kynded unfelingenesse [L. in-sensibilitas] comen to þe body and to þe soule. 1583 Babington Commandm. (1590) 99 When wee ..headlong in vnfeelingnesse runne on. 1598 Florio, Insensibilità, senselesnes, vnfeelingnes. 1766 Mrs. Carter Lett. (1809) III. 283 Surely it implies rather the want of philosophical pride and unfeelingness. 1780 Mirror No. 101, A warm remonstrance against the inhumanity of parents, the unfeelingness of age, and the injustice of the world. 1853 Robertson Serm. Ser. IV. xvi. (1876) 209 Would it may be coarse unfeelingness to treat such customs with anything but respect. 1895 Pop. Sci. Monthly Sept. 654 The same predominance of self..is said to reappear in the..unfeelingness of children.

Unfei·gned, ppl. a. (and adv.). Forms: (see Feign v.). [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not feigned, pretended, or simulated; sincere, genuine, true, real.

a. c 1374 Chaucer Anel. & Arc. 289 Verraylye yee slee me with þe peyne þat may yee see vnfeynid on myn huwe. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. v. 194 Of vnfeyned curage [L. sponte] Of been therto wole come a multitude. 1494 Act 11 Hen. VII, c. 18 Or ellis he have such vnfayned sikne, letting or diseas that he may not..come to do his personell attendance. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 99 b, Neuer eate ne drynke out of due tyme, except..vnfeyned nede compell the. 1577 Grange Golden Aphrod. L j, Neither passed this tedious tyme..without vnfayned ioyes & vnspeakeable pleasure. 1649 Br. Reynolds Hosea ii. 68 Profession of faith, unfained, and sincere Repentance was made before Baptisme. 1712 Steele Spect. No. 402 P 2, I have an unfeigned Love of Virtue. 1778 Miss Burney Evelina lxxxii, I need not tell you what unfeigned joy accompanied our meeting. a 1859 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xxiii. (1861) V. 82 Keppel..looked up with unfeigned admiration to a master whom he had been accustomed..to consider as the first of living men.

β. c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xliii. (Cecilia) 528 Of conscience gud & clere, & fail vnfeynyd. 1560 Winzet Wks. (S. T. S.) I. 2 Ane Exhortatioun..For vnfenseit reformation of doctrine and maneris. 1609 Hume in Wodrow Soc. Misc. (1844) 585 So I wische to God that..the Prince's wrathe mycht be appeased..and his vnfainnied loue recouerand.

2. Of persons or the heart: Honest or sincere in feeling or action.

c 1374 Chaucer Troylus II. 839, I loue oon which is most ententyf To seruen wel vnwery or vnfeyned. c 1400 Rom. Rose 7363 As it were in a pilgrimage Lyke good and hoolyf folk vnfeyned. 1528 Ld. Berners Prefac. II. clxx. 195/2 Whan his companyons..herde hym speke those wordes, they parceyued well howe he spake them with all his herte vnfayned. 1573 Barry Alc. V 126 Your unfeined, trusty, and assured friend. 1613 W. Browne Brit. Past. i. iv. 302 Succour a seely maid, that doth implore Aide, on a bended heart, unfain'd and meeke. 1647 N. Bacon Disc. Govt. Eng. i. iv. 16 Of fained friends, becomming unfained foes to the Britons. 1696 (title), Some Seasonable and Modest Thoughts ..Concerning the Scots East India Company, by an unfeigned and hearty Lover of England.

† 3. As adv. Without feigning; honestly. Obs.

1463–7 Paston Lett. Suppl. (1901) 81, I shal and do pray God hertily to sende you such one..that wil diede and faithfully unfeyned love you. a 1529 Skelton Ware the Hawke 81 But the fawconer vnfayned Was much more feblier brayned. 1550–3 Decays Eng. in Supplic. (1571) 100 And then vnfayned, as we do thynke, we sholde haue corne ynough.

Unfei·gnedly, adv. [Un-[1] 11.] In an unfeigned manner; without feigning or pretence; sincerely, honestly.

a 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 77 b, He must subdue & meke hym selfe in very treuth vnfayndely. 1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades 564 Then shall wee like true penitents vnfeignedly reuerence & dread the Lord. 1628 Wither Brit. Remnant. II. 1221 Men should vnfeignedly we practise thus He doth of safety also warrant us. 1686 Hornecк Crucif. Jesus xiv. 308 Both parties do unfeignedly, and without guile, or fraud, or equivocation, declare themselves willing..to perform the things agreed upon. 1698 Burkit Corr. (1824) I. 51, I am very unfeignedly glad to hear from you. 1825 Scott Betrothed xix, If you will speak unfeignedly, you must..allow [etc.]. 1891 Farrar Darkn. & Dawn xxiii, She replied..unfeignedly at the boy's recovery.

β. 1552 Abp. Hamilton Catech. (1884) 56 Quhasaevir luffis God with trew luffe unfeynyeltie. 1573 Satir. Poems Reform. xiii. 774 Quha feiris God vnfenzeitlie Of that sweit word will neuer lick.

Unfei·gnedness. [Un-[1] 12.] The quality of being unfeigned; sincerity, etc.

1535 Coverdale 1 Chron. xxx. 17, I knowe..that vnfaynednes is acceptable vnto the. 1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. III. 209 That by prouing them y^e be his he may haue a triall of their vnfaynednesse. 1628 Wither Brit. Remnant. V. 941 Lord, remember thou, That with unfainednesse, I beg thee, now, To keepe me always mindfull of thy love. a 1684 Leighton Comm. 1 Peter ii. (1693) 468 His feet strive to keep pace with his Tongue, which gives evidence of its unfainedness.

Unfei·gning, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

c 1400 [see Unfeigningly adv.]. 1436 [see Unfailingly adv.]. 1791 Cowper Iliad x. 488 With unfeigning truth Simply and plainly will I utter all. 1791—Odyss. xxi. 247 He then, convinced Of their unfeigning honesty, began.

Unfei·gningly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.)

c 1400 Sc. Trojan War II. 580 Dyomed has furst sworne þe pees Wnfenseiandly [v.r. wnfenseand] to hold. a 1568 Bannatyne MS. (Hunterian Club) 623 To yow..Unfeyeandlie with hairtlie lufe..I me commend.

Unfei·rdly, a. Sc. rare. [Un-[1] 7 + feirdy able, active.] a. Awkward, clumsy. b. (See quot.)

c 1590 J. Stewart Poems (S.T.S.) II. 9/58 Than sall It pertlie occupie the place, Thocht it be framd with my vnferdie fyle. 1866 Edmonston Orkney Gloss. 136 Unfierdy, unwieldy, overgrown.

Unfeirie, a. Sc. Also 6 vn-, onfery, vnfeire, 8 unfiery, 8–9 unfeary, 9 onfeirie. [Un-[1] 7.] Inactive; incapable of exertion.

1513 Douglas Æneid x. xiv. 70 Thocht the violens of his sayr smart Maid hym onfery [v.r. vnfery]. 1535 Stewart Cron. Scot. (Rolls) III. 437 Cruikit he wes, vnfeire of his cors. a 1736 T. Whittell Poems (1815) 170 But Sawney grew weary, .. Being auld, and unfeary, and fall'd of his strength. a 1779 GRAHAM Writings (1883) II. 32 The auld beast being unfiery o' the feet, she fundred. 1806 R. JAMIESON Pop. Ballads. II. 271 Thoch auld onfeirie and lyart I'm now. 1869 SCOTT Let. in Cockburn II. vii. 263 Coursing is my only and constant amusement, and my valued pair of four-legged champions.. wax old and unfeary.

Unfe·le, a. Obs. exc. dial. Forms: 1–2 unfæle (2 unn-), 3 unfeale; 2–3 unfele (vn-), 3–4 unvele (vnuele, onvele), 9 Sc. and north. onfeel, unfeil. [OE. unfæle, f. un- UN-1 + fæle good, FELE a.[2]] Bad, evil, wicked; wretched, miserable, unpleasant.

a 900 Genesis 723 Hit wæs þeah..menniscra morð, þæt hie to mete dincon ofet vnfæle. a 1000 ÆLFRIC Gloss. in Wr.-Wülcker 108 Satiri, uel faunii,..unfæle men, wudewasan, unfæle whitu. c 1000 Ags. Gosp. Mark vi. 49 Hiwendon þæt hit unfæle [c 1160 un-fele] gast wære. c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 11. 79 Sif þu unfele man his wille folgeð and ..teð him to unwrenches. c 1205 Lay. 22018 Neh þere ænstronde is a mere swiðe muchel; þat water is un-fæle. a 1250 Owl & Night. 1002 þat lond is grislich & vnuele. Ibid. 1381 He is vnvele and forbroyde. c 1290 S. Eng. Leg. I. 468/231 þe sarazins onvele weren fulle of nyþe and hete. 13.. R. Gloucester's Chron. (Rolls) App. G. 39 þe moder his brote carf, þo was heo vnfele. c 1400 Laud Troy Bk. 8830 The wind that he hadde his hal-sail, ther he hadde Gregeys as vn-vele. 1825 JAMIESON, Onfeel,..unpleasant, disagreeable, implying the idea of carelessness or roughness; as, 'an onfeel day,' 'onfeel words', &c. Teviotd. 1894 Northumberland Glass. 256.

Unfeli·citous, a. (UN-1 7 and 5 b.) 1802–12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) IV. 487 In principle, the arrangement [is]..correct, however in the application misguided and unfelicious. 1896 N. D'ALLAIRE Midnight to Midds. III. viii. 136 Let us predict for them premature and unfelicitous exit into the land of scoundrels.

Unfe·lled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1543 Act 35 Hen. VIII, c. 17 § 1 There shall be left standing and unfelled..twelve Standards for the Navyes of Oak. 1593 MARLOWE tr. Lucan I. 448 In vnfeld woods, and sacred groues you dwell. c 1612 CHAPMAN Iliad VI. 68 Nor, like the king of men, Let any scape unfell'd. 1839 CARLYLE Cartism x, Where Canadian Forests stand unfelled. 1882 Harper's Mag. Feb. 432/2 Countries are out summoning.. the wood-choppers to leave the half-cut tree unfelled.

Unfe·lling, a. (UN-1 9.) 1885–94 R. BRIDGES Eros & Psyche March xxix, Meliceres drave His chariot..with swift unfelled wheel. Unfelt (UN-1 8 b.) 1896 Mrs. BROWNING Aur. Leigh v. 559 Death quite unfelloweth us, Sets dreadful odds betwixt the live and dead.

Unfe·llowed, a. (UN-1 9.)

1597 Prayers in Liturgy. Serv. Q. Eliz. (Parker Soc.) 67 So shall..the faithful [be] encouraged to repose in thy unfellowed Grace. 1634 FORD Perk. Warbeck IV. i, The English general returns A sensible devotion from his heart..to this unfellowed grace. 1649 ARNWAY Tablet 22 If it be high treason against the Allmighte, to severe so unfellow'd a Paire. 1887 MEREDITH Ballads & P. 104 Every second man, unfellowed, Took the strokes of two, and gave.

Unfe·llow-like, a. (UN-1 9 c.) 1608 HIERON Defence II. 29 An act of abasement..such as conviueth us..to be of an inferior and unfellowlike condition, with Christ at his table. † Unfe·lon, a. Obs. (UN-1 7.) a 1300 Cursor M. 6040 þan sent drightin a litel beist, O toth es noght vnfelunest. Unfelo·niously, adv. (UN-1 12) a 1634 CHAPMAN & SHIRLEY Chabot III. ii, If traitorous pride..Were sentenc'd unfeloniously before, I'll burn my books.

Unfe·lt, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 b. Cf. Du. ongevoeld, G. ungefühlt.)

a 1388 SIDNEY Astr. & Stella Sonn. xxiv, Let him, deprin'd of sweet but vnfelt joyes, grow in only Folly rich! 1595 DANIEL Civ. Wars v. xcvii, Whilst Talbot..Carries his vnfelt age as if forgot. 1607 CHAPMAN Busy d'Ambois III. ii, O, 'tis a subtle knave; how like the plague Unfelt he strikes into the brain of man. 1681 DRYDEN Abs. & Achit. I. 693 Thus, form'd by Nature, furnished out with Arts, He glides unfelt into their secret hearts. 1742 GRAY Adversity 8 Purple Tyrants vainly groan With pangs unfelt before, unpitied and alone. 1824 WORDSW. Excurs. IV. 456 Nor is its power Unfelt among the sedentary fowl That seek yon pool. 1883 PARKER Apost. Life II. 192 He was writhing in an unfelt and unknown agony.

absol. 1886 A. WEIR Hist. Basis Mod. Europe (1889) 487 Few have been destitute of some theory respecting the unseen and unfelt.

Hence † Unfe·ltly adv. Obs.

1629 SYLVESTER Du Bartas II. iii. III. Law 107 Into his breast its blows A beneath sayre, whose strength unfeltly flowes Through all his veins.

Unfe·lt, v. (UN-1 4 b.) 1611 FLORIO, Disfettivare, to unfelt. 1658 W. DU GARD tr. Comenius' Gate Lat. Unl. 135 Having unfelted the hair [the barber] partly polleth it with scisers.

Unfe·mmine, a. [UN-1 7, 5 b.] Not in accordance with, or appropriate to, female character.

1757 MRS. GRIFFITH Lett. Hen. & Frances (1767) IV. 30, I ..continue still..averse to the unfeminine Vanity of a literary Name. 1796 MISS D'ARLAY Camilla III. 300 What a lesson is this to youthful females against..the false brilliancy of unfeminine popularity! 1849 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. vi. 111. 69 She had..two brilliant eyes, the lustre of which, in men of delicate taste, seemed fierce and unfeminine. 1875 MRS. RANDOLPH Wild Hyacinth I. 14 Why should it be wrong and unfeminine for us to do anything except dress, and read novels, and play the piano?

Hence Unfe·mininess.

1856 MISS YONGE Daisy Chain I. vi, If those high purposes should..grow out into eccentricities and unfeminiNessses, what a grievous pity it would be! 1876 — Womanhood I. 7 She becomes ridiculous..and renders him averse to the culture to which he strongly ascribes her unfeminineness.

Unfemi·nity. (UN-1 22.) 1863 COUTHWE CHARGE Shakesp. Char. viii, 197 He has retained the two women from the remotest charge of unfeminity. Unfe·minize, v. (UN-2 6 c.) 1886 MISS MULOCK in Gd. Words 313/2 These young students seem to go through the order..without being unfeminized. 1895 F. ADOLPHUS Mem. Paris 296 The example offered by the English is unfeminising France. Unfe·nce, v. (UN-2 4.) a 1716 SOUTH Serm. (T.), Whensoever it shall please God to unfence it (sc. a vein or artery), and let in some sharp disease or distemper upon it.

Unfe·nced, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Undefended, unprotected.

1548 ELYOT, Immunitus, not defended, not fortified, vnfensed. 1585 HOLINSHED Hist. Scot. in Chron. II. 408/2 Iedworth [is] a towne which after the manner of the countrie is vnwalled and vnfensed, but quelle with the strength of the inhabitants. 1646 J. HALL Horæ Vac. 90 When a man is in earnest, he stands upon his guard; in mirth he lies open unfenc't. 1654 tr. Martini's Conq. China 115 The Chinesses ran away, leaving the whole shore unfenced to their landing. 1792 COWPER Odyssey XI. 316 Though puissant Heroes both, in spacious Thebes, Unfenced by towers, they could not dwell secure. 1867 MORRIS Jason VI. 332 For the unfenced head, Where we have been, soon rests among the dead.

2. Not provided with, or enclosed by, a fence or fences.

1608 Presentment in Essex Rev. XV. 46 The churchyard is unfenced, the windows unglazed. 1623 LISLE Ælfric on O. & N. Test. Dedi, xviii, This three-cornered He on ey'sy side, Unfens'd, undelv'd, ungardined. 1785 Fam. Dict. s.v. Melonry, These take in three Ridges, only the outermost Ridge lies to the South unfenced. 1794 MISS BERRY Jrnl. (1865) I. 148 The country, tho' not without trees, is..perfectly open and unfenced and undivided. 1847 Lonsdr. Evang. I. i. 9 Orchards and cornfields Spreading afar and unfenced o'er the plain. 1885 Law Rep. 14 Q.B.D. 918 The footpath ran over an open moor and was unfenced.

b. Not provided with a ledge, guard, or the like.

1683 MOXON Mech. Exerc., Printing xxiv. P 11 He might draw too great a body of Inck to the unfenced sides; so that the Inck would be subject to run off. 1894 Daily News 4 July 3/3 Machine after machine was found this unfenced, the weight being too indefinitely to take the trouble of putting them on.

† Unfe·ncible, a. Sc. Obs. In 6 -fensabil. [UN-1 7.] Incapable of defence.

1513 DOUGLAS Æneid IX. xii. 16 Lyke as ane rageand wyld lyggy onschill Amang the febill beistis onfensabill. 1535 BELLENDEN Chron. Scot. (1821) I. 239 The agit and febill personis, that war left at hame as unfensabill bodyis.

† Unfe·nded, ppl. a. Obs.[1] (UN-1 8.) 1576 GASCOINE Steel. Gl. (Arb.) 76 Some other name, before the greeuous woofe, and the vnfended folke, vnto the Iudge Rhe. Unfe·nestrated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1884 C. R. KELSEY Dis. Rectum vii. 209 A good, fresh, unfenestrated drainage-tube.

Unfenzei·tle, obs. Sc. f. UNFEIGNEDLY.

† Unfe·re, sb. Obs. [Cf. next, and ON. ófæra fem., ófæri neut., a state of trouble or difficulty.] Infirmity, weakness.

a 1300 Cursor M. 3556 Sir ysaac þat dughti man, Vnfere and eld a-pon him ran.

† Unfe·re, a. Obs. Also 3–4 unfer, 3 onver, -viere, vnuereu. [OE. unfēre (= ON. and Icel. ó-, ófærr, Norw. ufør, MSw. and Sw. oför): see UN-1 7 and FERE a.] Infirm, weak, unfit or or incapable of exertion. Also absol.

a 1060 O. E. Chron. (MS. C) an 1055, Tremerig se Wylsca biscop..was Ælpelstanes biscopes xespelia; syðan he unfere was c 1205 Lay. 6780 þe king wæreð þe king vn-fere [c 1275 on-ver]. Ibid. 11079 þa iwæreð his fader vnueren [c 1275 onviere]. c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 2810 In hise bosum he dede his hond, Quit and al unfer he it fond. a 1300 Cursor M. 3307 His fader was wel onfere. 13.. Ibid. 13262 (Göt.) þe vnfer fast tilin him þai soght. c 1325 Metr. Hom. (MS. Ashm. 42) fol. 158 b, A man vnfere þat nouther might speke ne here. c 1400 Destr. Troy 1357 Childer..of chere febill, With alle floke vnfere. Ibid. 13618, I am febyll and vnfere, fallyn into elde.

Hence † Unfe·reness, infirmity. Obs.

a 1300 Cursor M. 20744 He on hir bere laid his hand, Parof vnferness son he fand.

† Unfe·rme (also 6 -farme), obs. var. UNFIRM a.

c 1450 tr. De Imitatione III. lxiv. 149 In þe þerfore I sette all my tribulacion..for I finde all vniferme & vnstable, what euere I beholde oute of þe. 1483 CAXTON Gold. Leg. 84/1 Theauangelyste was not so unferme but that he myght gete for his syghe that sayne andwete gate for hym syghyng. a 1542 WYATT in Anglia XIX. 427, I..fele my bouis consume and wax vnfarme By dayly rage.

Unfermentable, a. (UN-1 7 b.) 1844 H. STEPHENS Bk. Farm I. 121 Filling the paunch with unfermentable matter.

Unferme·nted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 and 5 b.)

1663 BOYLE Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. II. ii. 40 The volatile salt of unfermented urine. 1731 ARBUTHNOT Aliments v. (1735) 123 All such Vegetables must be unfermented, for Fermentation changes their Nature. 1799 G. SMITH Laboratory I. 230 To make the wine keep unfermented. 1834 Brit. Husb. I. 250 (L.U.K.), The effect of unfermented dung on.. crops. 1886 AXON Ann. Manchester 217 An unfermented wine for sacramental use.

Unfe·rtile, a. and sb. (UN-1 7 and 5 b.)

1596 Edward II, i, 111 The ground..Seemes barrayne, sere, vnfertill. 1620 MARKHAM Farew. Husb. (1625) 24 That barren and unfertile earth,..which is overrunne only with whinnes. 1661 J. CHILDREY Brit. Bacon. 51 These unfertile beds do intersect each other. 1792 Rental. Fryance (1797) I. 121 Unfertile, neglected vallies and hills. 1818 COLEBROOKE Import Colonial Corn 104 The permanent improvement of poor and unfertile land. 1868 W. G. PALGRAVE Arabia II. 244 A most unfertile strip of coast.

fig. 1616 R. C. Times' Whistle (1871) 110 The abortive issue of my unfertile braine. 1667 Ducay Chr. Piety xix, P 12 Peace is not..such a sapless unfertile thing. 1866 WHIPPLE Char. & Charac. Mem 54 The thought..would not come into that unfertile brain.

b. sb. An unfertile egg.

1891 Bazaar 20 Feb. 269/3 Purchasers should always make sure that unfertiles will be replaced before giving their orders. Ibid., I returned the unfertiles carriage paid.

Hence Unfe·rtileness, Unfertility.

1611 COTGR., Infecondité,..vnfertilnesse, vnfruitfulnesse. 1888 19th Cent. June 894 The unfertility of the soil. 1899 MARY KINGSLEY W. African Stud. xi. 279 The unfertility of the greater part of their country.

Unfe·rtilized, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1893 TUCKEY Amphioxus 37 A nucleus..in the unfertilized [eggs] ..was always quite plainly to be seen. Unfe·rvency. (UN-1 12.) 1787 J. BROWN in Mackenzie Life (1918) 285, I see ..such unfervency, and unconcern,..in all that I have done.

Unfe·ry, obs. f. UNFEIRIE a. Sc.

† Unfe·st, v. Obs. [UN-2 4 b + fest FAST v.[1]] trans. To unfasten; to untie.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 218 He..makeð him swuðe sterne,..norte uonden sete þif he muhte hire liue touward him uuiesten. c 1230 R. BRUNNE Chron. Wace (Rolls) 62 Loke by schip be vnfest, & þy folk be al prest. 1790 GROSE Prov. Gloss., Unfest, to untie.

Unfe·stival, a. (UN-1 7.) 1603 HOLLAND Plutarch 599 But a sacrifice, where no god is present,..is profane, unfestivall, impious. Unfe·stive, a. (UN-1 7.) 1844 THACKERAY Greenwich Whitebait Wks. 1899 XIII. 615 Sudden gusts of genius unknown in the quiet unfestive state.

Unfe·stly : see UNFEASTLY a.

Unfe·tched, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 c.) c 1611 CHAPMAN Iliad XIX. 196 Our friends by Hector slaine,..lie vnfetch [sic] off. 1616 J. LANE Contin. Speed's Ch. 430 Distributing all and some, that stood in 'a way, nor left hee one vnfetchd vp.

Unfete : see UNFEAT a. Obs.

Unfe·tid, a. (UN-1 7.) 1754 Phil. Trans. XLVIII. 829 Which must therefore be the effect of unfetid putrefaction.

Unfe·ter, v. [UN-2 4 b. Cf. G. entfesseln.] To free from fetters; to remove the fetters from.

1562 LANGE P. Pl. A. III. 134 Heo sæuep þe layler Gold and grotes..To vn-Fetere þe Iuise. c 1400 Gamelyn 613 The shirreue unfetered him right sone anone. c 1412 HOCCLEVE De Reg. Prince. 2399 To prison he goonth; he gette no betre, Till his mainpernoure his arrest vnfetere. 1485 CAXTON Paris & V. (1868) 81 He sayd to the freres that they shold unfeter the doulphyn. 1598 FLORIO, Scatenare, to vnchaine, to vnfetter, to vnshakle. 1621 COTGR., Desfrayer, to vnshackle, vngyue, vnfetter. 1798 SOUTHEY R. Kendham xxvii, Captain Oakum, ordered the fellow to be unfettered. 1799 COLERIDGE Devil's Thoughts xi, He saw the same Turnkey unfetter a man, With but little expedition.

b. In fig. contexts or uses.

c 1374 CHAUCER Troylus II. 1216 She..gan hire herte vnfette Out of disdaygnes prison but a lyte. a 1470 HARDING Chron. CXI. vii, Fyftye bataylys and syx he smote, Somtyme the worse, and somtyme had the better;..Lyke as fortune his cause leste vnfetter. 1697 DRYDEN Virgil Georg. I. 280 As for whatsoever other hank thou mayst think thou hast over him,..the cann..easily unfetter himself from them all. 1671 WOODHEAD St. Teresa I. xx. 136 Whom she desires to see unfettered from the prison of this life. 1766 BLACKSTONE Comm. II. 345 The transcendent power of parliament is called in..to unfetter an estate. 1830 HERSCHEL Study Nat. Phil. § 11 Unfetters the mind from prejudices of every kind. c 1860 FABER Hymns, Desiere of God v, And the langour of love captive hearts can unfetter.

Hence Unfe·ttering vbl. sb. and ppl. a.

a 1653 BINNING Serm. (1845) 289 To bring along a Deliverer unto your spirits, for the..unfettering of them from the chains of fleshly lusts. 1884 Miss L. M. HAWKINS Mem., etc. I. 257 Too much of the spirit of John Knox, or something equally unfettering. 1854 J. B. PATON in Life III. (1914) 33 Those words which should for ever consecrate us to His unfettering service.

Unfe·ttered, ppl. a. [UN-1 8: cf. SW. offetrad.] Not confined or restrained by fetters. Chiefly in fig. use: Unrestrained, unrestricted.

1601 DONNE Progr. Soul I. xviii, To an unfettered soules quick nimble hast Are falling stars, and hearts thoughts, but slow pac'd. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis Ded., Ess. (ed. Ker) II. 220 Now, if a Muse cannot run when she is unfettered, it is a sign she has but little speed. 1748 SMOLLETT R. Random xxiv, One of my fellow captives who was unfettered. 1787 BURNS Let. to Moore 15 Feb., The unfettered wild flight of native genius. 1855 PRESCOTT Philip II, II. (1857) 193 A people accustomed from infancy to an unfettered exercise of their faculties. 1879 FROUDE Cæsar x. 117 He was left unfettered to act at his own discretion.

b. Const. by.

1800 Asiat. Ann. Reg., Chron. 141/1 He took a new estate, unfettered by conditions, and subject only to the quit rents. 1850 TENNYSON In Mem. xxvii, I envy not the beast that takes His license..Unfetter'd by the sense of crime.

Unfeudal, a. (UN-1 7.) c 1815 JANE AUSTEN Persuas. xv, Feelings..too strict to suit the unfeudal tone of the present day. Unfeudalize, v. (UN-2 6 c.) 1837 CARLYLE Fr. Rev. II. v. v, The Austrian Kaiser answers that his German Princes..cannot be unfeudalised. Unfeudalized, ppl. a. (UN-2 8.) 1860 HELPS Ill. WILLIAMS Sk. Fr. Rep. I. vi. 57 The lavish produce of the earth unfeudalized, and untythed. 1874 Act 37 & 38 Vict. c. 94 § 9 A personal right to land under an unfeudalized conveyance.

Unfeved, ppl. a. Sc. (UN-1 8.) 1819 Aberdeen Jrnl. 20 Jan. (Jam.), The unfeued and unproductive property. 1871 W. ALEXANDER Johnny Gibb xiii, Half-a-dozen acres of the unfeued land. Unfe·vered, ppl. a. (UN-1 8) 1864 SIR A. DE VERE Tr. & Cr. 4 Had I been worthy of the love you gave,..My bed had been unfever'd as my grave.

† Unfew a.: see UN-1 3.

Unfeza·ble, var. UNFEASABLE a. Obs.

Unfi·brous, a. (UN-1 7.) 1768–74 TUCKER Lit. Nat. (1834) I. 395 That small mixture of unfibrous matter, which may serve as an integument. Unfi·ckle, a. (UN-1 7.) 1802 MARIAN MOORE Lascelles II. 233 Frank, ingenuous and unfickle in his behaviour. Unfictitious, a. (UN-1 7.) 1836 Todd's Cycl. Anat. I. 799/2 Scott's touching picture.. has had many unfictitious counterparts. 1858 CARLYLE Fred. Gt. IV. xiii, For work is of an extremely unfictitious nature. Unfiery, a. (UN-1 7.) c 1611 CHAPMAN Iliad VII. 84 But you are earth and water all, which..Have framed your faint unfiery spirits. Unfight, v. (UN-2 3.) 1720 T. GORDON Humorist I. 2 Fighting Battles and unfighting them in the same Paper. Unfighting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1678 Rymer Trag. Last Age 27 The Spectators were some sort of feminine unfighting fellows. a 1704 T. Brown Wks. (1720) IV. 37 Their General gone, the rest like Lightning fly, A cheap unfighting Herd. 1747 in Gentl. Mag. XVII. 234 Descants upon unfighting captains at sea. †Unfigurate, a. Obs. (Un-1 7) a 1752 R. Erskine in Fisher Mem. (1765) 115 Christ is the second Adam, the real unfigurate head of the human body. Unfi'gurative, a. (Un-1 7.) 1780 Bentham Princ. Legisl. x. § 4 The sense it bears on these occasions may be styled its literal or unfigurative sense. 1797 Mrs. Mary Mem. Fatmas xxi. 287 St. Peter's unfigurative Epistle.

Unfi'gured, (ppl.) a. [Un-1 8 and 9.]

1. Not expressed in, or employing, figurative speech.

1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades iv. 1. 534/2 The vnfigured and vnrecouered promises..in the Psalmes. 1783 Blair Lect. I. xv. 317 What we call the literal, is the unfigured sense or meaning of the Allegory. 1827 G. S. Faber Secr. Cal. Prophecy (1844) I. 8 The unfigured language of highly cultivated nations. 1901 Dowden Browning 68 A plain, unfigured and uncoloured style.

2. Not marked with a numerical figure or figures.

1596 Nashe Saffron Walden F a b, Hee..in halfe a quire of paper..hath left the Pages vnfigured. 1873 H. C. Banister Music 6: It is understood that the unfigured notes bear Triads. Ibid. 287 All the unfigured Basses.

3. Not including figures of persons, etc.

1624 Wotton Elem. Archit. 96 In vnfigured paintings the noblest is, the imitation of Marbles, and of Architecture it selfe.

b. Not (yet) depicted by a figure.

1822 J. Parkinson Oryctology 244 Nautilus, an unfigured species deeply umbilicated. 1869 D. G. Elliot (title), The new and heretofore unfigured Species of the Birds of North America.

4. Logic. Of a syllogism: Not belonging to one of the usual figures.

1838 Sir W. Hamilton Logic App. (1860) IV. 350 The Unfigured Syllogism, or that in which the terms compared do not stand to each other in the reciprocal relation of subject and predicate. 1864 Bowen Logic viii. 244 Reducing all Mediate Inference to what is called the Unfigured Syllogism.

Unfi'lamentous, a. (Un-1 7.) 1831 R. Knox Cloquet's Anat. 472 The white and unfilamentous cord..behind the rest of the nerve. Unfi'ched, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1828 Byron Juan x. clxv, Nothing so dear as an unfilch'd good name!

Unfi'led, ppl. a.[1] Obs. exc. dial. [Un-1 8 + File v.[2]] Undefiled; unfouled.

c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 133 Ure drihten him shop of eorðe þat was unfiled. a 1300 E. E. Psalter xvii. 33 Mi God unfiled es his wai. a 1340 Hampole Psalter xvii. 33 God þat beltid me wiþ vertu, & sett vnfiled my way. 1435 Misyn Fire of Love 44 Fayrnes of þi mynde..sall make þe beloued If it to lufe of hym onely þou kepe vnfiyled. a 1470 Harding Chron. cxxvi. iii, Clothes and meate and drinke and news vnfiled, Wyne also and ale she gaue. 1513 Douglas Æneid ix. ii. 133 Be the hie goddis abuife, ..And by the faith vnfilit, ..Gif it with mortale folkis ma fundin be. 1583-4 Burgh Rec. Eddnb. (1882) IV. 320 That thai keip the said nichbouris quheitt..vnfylet. 1791- in Eng. Dial. Dict.

Unfi'led, ppl. a.[2] [Un-1 8 + File v.[1]] Not reduced or smoothed by filing; fig. unpolished, rude.

1590 Spenser F. Q. III. vii. 30 He was all armd in rugged steele vnfilde, As in the smoky forge it was compilde. 1633 Webster Fuenedilla, Sal. King 340 London may disgrise a gracious eye On this my rude vnfil'd Apologie. 1641 W. Cartwright Royal Slave Epil., The unfil'd Author..Fears yet he may miscarry. 1774 W. Mason Heroic Postscript to Chambers 12 Each glittering orb the sacred features bore Of George..1 Unfil'd, unsweated, all of sterling weight.

Unfi'led, ppl. a.[3] [Un-1 8 + File v.[3]] Not arranged in or as in a file; not placed on a file.

1571 Campion Hist. Irel. v. (1633) 15 Of this people therefore severally by themselves I must intreate. Yet none otherwise then as they stand unfiled. 1864 Trevelyan Compet. Wallah (1866) 36 Codes and translations of codes, and letters of every size and age, filed and unfiled.

Unfi'lial, a. (Un-1 7.)

Also unfilially adv. (Webster 1864), unfiliainess.

1611 Shaks. Wint. T. iv. 4. 177 You offer him..a wrong Something vnfilliall. 1648 Boyle Seraphic Love (1659) 121 To preserve them from the Contagion of Sinne, or the Curse of the unfilial habitudes of it. 1756 Foote Eng. fr. Paris II, Ungratefull, unfilial wretch! so soon to trample on his ashes. 1803 Worsw.' When I Kame forrie 8 Verily, in the bottom of my heart, Of those unfilial fears I am ashamed. 1880 Moule Chinese Stories v. 78, I charged him with unfilial conduct in compelling his mother..to connive at idolatry.

†Unfi'ling, ppl. a. (Un-1 10 + File v.[2]) a 1400 New Test. (Paues) 1 Peter iii. 4 (p. 215), Þat þat is hydde wip-inne in mans herte..in vnfilyngne reste (of here body & soule).

Unfi'll, v. [Un-2 3. Cf. obs. Flem. ontvullen.] trans. †a. To stop, break off. Obs. b. To empty.

1486 BK. St. Albans, Hunting e vj b, To fulfill or vnfill sche maner of chaas The hunter wyll sette in his mouth that worste he haas. 1607 Tourneur Rev. Trag. II. ii, Thy veines are sweld with lust, this shall unfill'em. 1611 Cotgr., Desemplier, to emptie, or vnfill.

Unfi'llable, a. Now rare. (Un-1 7 b.)

a 1340 Hampole Psalter xv. 4 Wiþ proude eghe & vnfilabil [L. insatiabili] hert. 1382 Wyclif Prov. xxvii. 20 Helle and perdiciouu neuere ben fulfild; and the eyen of men vnfillable. 1456 Sir G. Hayes Law Arms (S.T.S.) 27 Are unfillable gredy appetite. c 1475 Cath. Angl. 130/2 Vnfylabylle, insaciabilis. c 1650 Women Saints 178 Ouergoing that vnsatiable greedynes of euill, with vnfillable desire of goodnes. 1890 Brit. Med. Jrnl. 2 Aug. 293 Places which had hitherto seemed unfillable by the pigmies of our later days.

Unfi'lled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 3 c. Cf. OE. unġefylled, Du. ongevuld, G. unangefüllt.]

1. Not filled; not made full.

1584 Cogan Haven Health ccxiv. 201 That it were better to eate fine meates first, and grosser meates afterward, if perchaunce any corner were left vnfilled. 1601 Shaks. Twel. N. II. iii. 7 A false conclusion: I hate it as an vnfill'd Canne. 1646 Crashaw Sospetto d'Herode iii, A cursed Feast, Which Harpyes, with leaane Furies fed vpon, Vnfill'd for ever. 1755 Johnson, Unstuffed, unfilled, unfurnished. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. I. vii. I, Our months, unfilled with bread, are to be shut, under penalties? 1893 Spectator 15 Apr. 471/1 The Colonies..possess great properties in their unfilled lands.

b. With up.

c 1640 J. Smyth Lives Berkeleys (1883) II. 380 Hee..being within less then his length of an old Cloject unfilled up. 1817 J. Scott Paris Revisited. (ed. 4) 105 That their capacities ..did not seem to be improved,—that much of them remained unfilled up.

†2. Unfulfilled. Obs.

c 1400 Apol. Loll. 34 So is no man worþi to mak a letter or title of his to go by vnfillid. 1651 Baxter Inf. Bapt. 296 Those to whom that Promise is yet unfilled.

Unfi'lleted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1802 Coleridge Picture 138 The hand Holds loosely its small handful of wild-flowers, Unfilleted, and of unequal lengths. 1868 Swinburne Lex. & Stud. (1879) 163 The heavy straying flakes of unfilleted hair. †Unfiling(like, ppl.) a. Obs. (Un-1 10, 7 c.) Insatiable. a 1300 E. E. Psalter c. 6 With proud egh and un-fillandlike [v.r. un-fillandi] hert.

Unfi'lm, v. (Un-2 4 b.) 1839 Bailey Festus 16, I will.. unfilm them, That so thou mayst not daily with the blind. 1871 Palgrave Lyr. Poems 115 The callow bird unfilm'd his fervent eyes. Unfi'ltered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1896 Pub. Sci. Monthly April 857 The resulting unfiltered stream of bacteria.

Unfi'ndable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1791 Bentham Mem. & Corr. Wks. 1843 X. 248 Hampstead is the road you must take, as the other would be unfindable. 1859 Green Lett. (1901) 32 Lady of my dream, unfindable among human flesh and blood. 1895 Athenæum 27 Aug. 224/3 [A book] not unfindable, scarce though it be.

Unfi'ne, a. (Un-1 7; cf. MDu. onfijn, MHG. unvein, G. unfein, Da. ufin.)

c 1400 Maundev. (Roxb.) 149 Fissemyres..dissueres þe fyne gold fra þe vnfyne. 1566 Dant Horace, Sat. II. iii. G j b, If one..drincke nothing but vinaiger, vntastie and vnfyne. 1687 Montague & Prior Hind & P. Travsw. 26 Thou hast brought us a Wine, Sour to my taste, and to my Sense unfine. a 1700 B. E. Dict. Cant. Crew, Fine of Wine, when it stinks; also when unfine. 1762 H. Walpole Let. to Montagu 8 June, The birth-day was far from being such a show; empty and unfine as possible. 1793 Sir J. Dinely Methods to get Husbands 7 Your comment begs, younger than mine, Can nimbly travel in weather unfine.

†Unfi'ned, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 8 + Fine v.[3]] Unrefined, unpurified.

a 1500 Colkelbie Sow iii. 857 (Bannatyne MS.), So long as it lay on the ground, it was vnfynit as fruet nevirmoir found. 1566 W. Crashaw Rom. Forgerie 33 This is new and vnfined wine put into this old vessell. 1611 Cotgr., Ballauge, gold ore, or gold vnfined. 1628 Feltham Resolves I. lxxxix. 83 In drinking the Wine, that is yet vnfined.

Unfi'ngered, (ppl.) a. [Un-1 8 and 9. Cf. (in sense 2) older Flem. ongevingert.]

1. Not provided with fingers.

1603 J. Davies (Heref.) Extasie Wks. (Grosart) I. 92/2 Not haire, but golden wire drawne like the Twist The Spider spins with her vnfing'red fist.

2. Not touched with the fingers; unhandled.

1 Jos. W. R. Spencer Poems 190 When sighs of sera[p]h lovers Breathe upon th' unfingered wire. 1889 Barrie Windows in Thrums 173 The few shillings..remained unfingered.

†Unfi'nished, ppl. a. Obs. (Un-1 8.) 1609 W. M. Man in Moone (1849) 26 No friend to the barber it should seeme by his rustical, crooked and unfinished beard. Unfi'nish. (Un-1 12.) Want of finish; unfinished state. 1831 Fr. A. Kemble Rec. Girlhood (1878) III. 26 Found the stage in a state of unfinish. 1875 Pitt-Rivers Evol. Culture (1906) 34 A cell..somewhat rougher, and showing evidence of unfinish.

Unfi'nishable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

a 1739 Jarvis Quix. I. i. I, He commended in his author the concluding his book with a promise of that unfinishable adventure. 1835 Motley Corr. (1889) I. iii. 59, I thought..of strange, unfinished, unfinishable buildings. 1878 T. Sinclair Mount 166 Faust..over remains a torso: unfinishable.

Unfi'nished, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1553 in Feuillerat Revels Q. Mary (1914) 150 The same.. surseased and were leffe of vnfynysshed. 1590 Shaks. Com. Err. III. ii. 173 The chaine vnfinish'd made me stay thus long. 1671 Milton Samson 1021 That inward gifts Were left for hast unfinish't. 1714 R. Fiddes Pract. Disc. I. 144 We have so great a work lying unfinish'd upon our hands. 1797 S. & Hr. Lee Canterb. T. (1799) I. 373 The recital he was about to make remained unfinished. 1865 Dickens Mut. Fr. II. i, Here, another unfinished street already in ruins. 1887 Bowen Æneid iv. 77 She..Speaks, then leaves unfinished the speech already begun.

Hence Unfi'nishedness.

1887 Pall Mall G. 22 Jan. 4/1 There is an appearance of hurry and unfinishedness about some [pictures].

Unfi'nishing, vbl. sb. (Un-1 13.) 1642 Milton Apol. Smect. § 8 Their noble deeds, the unfinishing whereof already surpasses what others before them have left enacted.

Unfi'red, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not set on fire; unignited.

1590 Sir J. Smythe Disc. Weapons 18 b, With the powder next vnto the bullets vnfired. 1623 Massinger Boudman iv. ii, Marullo. We'll right ourselves...Gracculo. And not leave One house unfired. 1664 Evelyn Sylva 102 It is continually to be fed with short and fitting wood, that no part remains unfir'd. 1756 Demi-Rep 14 Chaste as unfired coals they seem. 1781 Phil. Trans. LXXI. 248 No less than 40 large grains of unfired powder were driven through the screen. 1849 James Woodman ix, The abbey itself was still unfired.

fig. 1729 T. Cooke Tales, etc. 24 The human Brute, who view'd her Charms unfir'd. a 1788 Earl Nugent Ep. Visct. Cornbury 134 Such gifts she to the happy few imparts,..To heads unfir'd by youth's tumultuous rage.

2. Not subjected or exposed to fire.

1791 Cowper Iliad XXIII. 1092 Then, last, Achilles in the circus placed A pond'rous spear and cauldron yet unfired. 1888 Archæol. LI. I. 52 These un-fired bricks lasted perfectly well.

3. Of a gun: Not discharged by firing.

1892 Greener Breech-Loader 12 If one barrel is fired repeatedly without discharging the other, it is advisable to take out the unfired cartridge occasionally. 1902 Daily Chron. 16 Apr. 7/6 The starboard gun remained unfired.

Unfi'rm, a. [Un-1 7 and 5 b; cf. Infirm a. and the earlier form Unfirmer.]

1. Of a loose or soft consistency; incompact.

1592 Shaks. Rom. & Jul. v. iii. 6 The Churchyard..Being loose, vnfirme with digging vp of Graues. 1625 K. Long tr. Barclay's Argenis II. ii. 71 Further onward the water very deepe, and the ground unfirm. 1683 Tryon Way to Health 95 What is the reason that most Veal is so unfirm, and like a Jelly? 1726 Leoni Alberti's Archit. II. 117 b, When the banks of a River are unfirm, its channel will be stopt up with shelves. 1866 J. B. Rose tr. Ovid's Met. I Unfirm the earth, unhouseat was the wave.

†2. Unsteady, flighty. Obs.

1601 Shaks. Twel. N. II. iv. 34 Our fancies are more giddie and vnfirme..Then womens are.

†3. Weak; wanting in strength or power; feeble, infirm, invalid. Obs.

1626 Surfl. & Markh. Country Farme III. ix. 345 A subject of a more feeble and vnfirme nature than the graft it selfe. 1660 Jer. Taylor Doctor III. v. rule viii. § 8 For without it, it [sc. marriage] is not only inauspicious and unlucky, but illegal, unfirm and insufficient.

4. Not firmly placed or planted; insecure; unstable, unsteady; liable to slip or fall.

1697 Dryden Æneis x. 307 Now take the time, while staggering yet they stand With feet unfirm. 1761 Earl Pembroke Milit. Equitation (1778) 58 Depend upon it those people are not only ignorant and unfeeling, but also very unfirm in their seat. 1777 Mrs. Griffith Hist. Lady Barton III. 20 His supplicating eye..may change my unfirm purpose. 1809 Susan I. 176 Our best resolutions are, however, unfirm.

Unfi'rmamented, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. III. viii, Burying itself..in the waste unfirmamented seas. 1865 Mrs. Whitney Gayworthys xliii, He had touched unfirmamented space.

Unfi'rmly, adv. (Un-1 11, 5 b. Cf. Unfirm a.) 1633 Ford Broken H. iv. ii, Like tempest-threatened trees, unfirmly rooted. 1822-7 Good Study Med. (1829) II. 418 The child walks unfirmly, as though stepping over a threshold.

Unfi'rmness. (Un-1 12, 5 b; cf. Infirmness.) 1566 Act 8 Eliz. c. 8 § 1 Fenne Grounddes, because of their rottennesse, unfirmnes, moysture and waterysshnes [etc.]. 1828 Webster.

Unfi'shable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1873 G. C. Davies Mount. & Mere ii. 8 The other side was so shallow and muddy that it was unfishable. 1892 A. Lang Angling Sk. 98 The loch is almost unfishable.

Unfi'shed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1863 Johns Home Walks 47 The main reason why unfished waters are most productive, is that they are then more plentifully stocked. 1883 in N. Okoshi Fisheries Japan 26 In his unfortunate country [sc. Ireland] they had at present over 2500 miles of unfished coast. Unfi'shlike, a. (Un-1 7 c.) 1874 Wood Nat. Hist. 622 A creature so unfishlike that its real position..was long undecided.

Unfi'st, v. [Un-2 4 b.] trans. To unhand.

1692 [J. Smith] Scarron. 85 You goodman Brandy-face, unfist her; How durst you keep my wife?—your sister.

Unfi't, a. (and adv.). [Un-1 7 and 5 b.]

1. Of things: Not fit, proper, or suitable for some purpose or end. †Also const. to (a person).

In quot. 1709 app. "badly fitting".

1548 Udall, etc. Erasmi. Par. John i. 11 b, For there is no tyme nor place vnfit or vnconuenient for to learne those thynges whiche pertayne to euerlastynge welth. 1584 in Cath. Rec. Soc. Publ. V. 82 The Earle..gave the poorerman many..opprobrious wordes, unfytte and unsemely for a man of that howse and blod. a 1658 Lovelace Poems (1904) 191 He that dares this, nothing to him's unfit. 1697 Dryden Virg. Georg. IV. 170 Lord of few Acres, and those barren too: Unfit for Sheep or Vines, and more unfit to bow. 1709 Lond. Gaz. No. 4551/4 He wears..a brown Drugget Coat and Wastecoat..very unfit for him. 1785 Cowper Let. to Newton 19 Mar., The sideboard-table..was equally unfit for my purpose. 1824 Crabbe Tales xiii. 351 Those duties were to her unfit, Nor would her spirit to her tasks submit. 1827 Faraday Chem. Manip. v. (1842) 151 Mortars of wood, marble, or iron, are unfit for ordinary laboratory service. 1884 Thompson Tumours of Bladder 11 In cases considered temporarily unfit for operation through exhaustion, etc.

b. Without prepositional const.

1548 Ascham Toxoph. (Arb.) 118 An vnfit and staffysh bow. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia II. xxix, Because of the unfit election she had made. 1604 E. G[rimstone] D'Acosta's Hist. Indies VI. xiv. 460 Although these buildings were great, yet were they commonly ill appointed and vnfit. 1661 Rust Origen's Opin. 78 If old age it self can make the Soul quit her unfit tenement. 1712 in Nairne Peerage Evidence (1874) 233 Rendered the same unfit and in human probability impossible. 1863 Hawthorne Our Old Home (1879) 317 The anxious fidelity with which they discharged their unfit office.

c. Const. with inf. (active or passive).

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia I. xiii, A place for pleasantnes, not unfitte to flatter solitariness. 1611 Cotgr., Imbuvable, vn-drinkable; vnfit to be drunke of. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. II. xxix. 173 There be other [diseases], not so great, which nevertheless are not unfit to be observed. 1697 [see 1 a]. 1710 Lady M. W. Montagu Let. to Mr. W. Montagu Aug., There are a thousand things, not ill in themselves, which custom makes unfit to be done. 1879 Harlan Eyesight viii. 117 The flame..is never steady, and is unfit to read by.

2. Of persons (or other agents): Not fitted, suited, or adapted for some end or action. Also Comb. (in unfit-like) and absol.

1551 T. Wilson Logike D j, We see many dull wittes for lernyng, and muche vnfit that wale. 1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades (1592) 510 To giue an vnfitte man orders,..is that kinde of sin which we doe call anothers sin. 1782 J. Brown Nat. & Rev. Relig. II. i. (1796) 105 I propagating the gospel by so unfit-like instruments. 1818 Cruise Digest (ed. 2) III. 128 A person unknown and unfit..may happen to have the same, under an estate of inheritance. 1882 Nineteenth & Indep. 10 Oct. 986/1 The survival of the unfittest, instead of the fittest.

b. Const. to (chiefly with inf.) or for.

(a) 1586 T. B. La Primaud. Fr. Acad. (1589) III It maketh him good for nothing,..slothfull, and vnfit to every good thing. 1630 Peynne Anti-Arminn. 136 This makes them.. open rebels against God, vnfit to take his word or name within their lips. 1645 Milton Colast. Wks. 1851 IV. 349 The unfittest man that could bee to offer at a comment upon Job. 1747 H. Walpole Lett. (1846) II. 201, I am the unfittest person in the world to give you any satisfaction on this head. 1816 Byron Ch. Har. III. xii, But soon he knew himself the most unfit Of men to herd with Man. 1863 H. Cox Instit. I. vii. 91 Men who are morally or intellectually unfit to be jurors.

(b) 1594 Shaks. Rich. III, I. ii. 109 Rich. He was fitter for that place then earth. An. And thou vnfit for any place, but hell. 1660 R. Coke Power & Subj. 73 Being of all mortal men the most unfit for a Churchman. 1697 Dryden Virg. Georg. III. 102 Then release the Cow, Unfit for Love, and for the lab'ring Plough. 1736 Berkeley Disc. Wks. 1871 III. 413 Monsters, utterly unfit for human society. 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xvii. III. 984 In order that one man might fill a post for which he was unfit. 1880 Dixon Windsor IV. i. 2 He was a man unfit for such a trust.

3. Not physically fit.

Usually const. for or with infinitive.

1665 in Verney Mem. (1907) II. 251, I grow every day more unfit for such a journey. a 1718 Prior Amaryllis 24 The furious heat forbids the reaper's toil. Both beast and men for work are now unfit. 1798 S. & Hr. Lee Canterb. T. II. 428 The Marquis was very unfit for a journey when he left Naples. 1896 Kant Pract. Reason II. i. 6, I am myself so disabled..as to be entirely unfit..to do any work.

4. As adv. Unfitly.

1653 J. Taylor (Water P.) Cert. Trav. uncert. Journ. 8 Sometimes the wits and tongues do, most unfit, Travell, when tongues do run before the wit.

Unfit, v. [Un-[2] 6.] trans. To render unfit; to disqualify.

1611 Florio, Disadattare, to vnfit, to disorder. 1665 Boyle Occas. Reff. II. x. (1848) 128, I..esteem'd sickness more formidable for its unfitting me to learn. 1690 Norris Beatitudes (1692) 80 Consider again, How much causless..Anger unfits us for the Duties of Divine Worship. 1779 Mirror No. 16, It may disqualify the mind for the more active..scenes of life, and unfit it for the enjoyments of ordinary society. 1847 Helps Friends in C. (1851) I. 36 To have erred in one branch of our duties does not unfit us for all the rest. 1898 'Merriman' Roden's Corner vi. 57 Those whose birth and education unfit them for such pursuits.

Unfit·tly, adv. [Un-[1] 11.] In an unfit or unsuitable manner; unfittingly, inappropriately.

1561 T. Norton tr. Calvine's Inst. I. xiii. 37 b, Least if I bryng foorth any thyng vnfitly, it shuld geue occasion..to the malicious to cavill. 1632 Massinger & Field Fatal Dowry III. i, Wherein hath Charalois Vnfitly so demean'd himself? 1676 Jas. Cooke Marrow Chirurg. I. III. vii. 599 The sharp edge of the Lips and other parts, which if neglected or unfitly dressed, may turn Cancerous. 1788 Gibbon Decl. & F. lx. VI. 128 Their military talents were unfitly recompensed by the lucrative offices of judges and treasurers. 1807 G. Chalmers Caledonia I. III. viii. 393 It is, however, unfitly interpolated, by the editor, as a continuation of the Chronicon Pictorum.

b. In the phr. not unfitly.

1586 T. B. La Primaud. Fr. Acad. I. 160 The answer also of an Egyptian was not unfitlie made to one that asked him what he carried there folded. 1651 Hobbes Body of Man 54 Thence also they are not vnfitly called by a Poet..The Jeaues of the Eye. 1695 J. Edwards Perfect. Script. 236 They..are not unfitly translated aprons. 1710 Berkeley Princ. Hum. Knowl. § 108 The steady consistent methods of nature may not unfitly be styled the Language of its Author. 1853 Ruskin Stones Ven. II. vii. 215 The three architectures may..not unfitly receive their names from those nations by whom they were carried to the highest perfection.

Unfit·ness. [Un-[1] 12.]

1. Want of fitness (in various senses).

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia III. xxiv, Having impatiently borne the delay of the nights unfitnesse, this morning he gat up. 1644 in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. I. III. 173, I represented to her the unfitnesse of the seventh article. 1643-5 Milton Divorce I. i, What greater, unfitnes of mind than that which hinders ever the solace..of the married couple. 1736 Butler Anal. I. iii. 69 A Proof from Fact..which is deduced from..the Fitness and Unfitness of Actions. 1750 tr. Leonardus' Mirr. Stones 31 A bad commixture..sometimes happens..from the unfitness of the place, which gives a diversity to stones. 1824 Southey Sir T. More (1831) II. 94 There is a natural unfitness in distant dominion. 1863 Cox Instit. II. iii. 636 The rule..has no respect to the fitness or unfitness of the persons.

b. Const. for, or to with inf.

1629 in Foster Engl. Factories India (1906) I. 70 The unfitnesse of those comodityes for the Dabulleers. 1631 Gouge God's Arrowes III. § 22. 224 Mans unworthinesse and unfitnesse to appeare in Gods sight. 1750 Secker Eight Charges (1771) 124, I have too much Cause, in every Thing, to be sensible of my own Unfitness to direct. 1811 Regul. & Orders Army 283 The Causes of their unfitness for further Military Service. 1884 Manch. Exam. 28 Mar. 5/2 There was..evidence of his unfitness to take care of himself.

2. With pl. An instance of lack of fitness.

1645 Milton Tetrach. Wks. 1851 IV. 193 Law..cannot make equal those inequalities, it cannot make fit those unfitnesses. 1674 N. Fairfax Bulk & Selv. 32 If they could be brought in without other unfitnesses.

Unfit·ted, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not adapted or suited; unfit.

1592 in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. III. IV. 109, I am come upp raggedlie suted and clothed, unfitested to geve duetiefull attendance on Royall presence. a 1625 Fletcher Hum. Lieut. II. iv, How yet unripe we were, unknown, unheaded, Unfitted for such fatal ends. 1794 S. Williams Vermont 351 Such a code is wholly unfitted to the uncorrupted state of the people. 1829 Kendall Trav. I. i. 7 A scene, that was not unfitted to leave on the mind a..respectful impression. 1873 Symonds Grk. Poets x. 346 Unfitted, perhaps, by temperament for the most impassioned lyrics, Tennyson delights in minutely finished pictures.

2. Not provided with something suitable.

1606 Chapman Gentl. Usher IV. iv, If it be nothing but the jarre Of your unfitted fancie that procures Your wilfull coynesse.

3. Not fitted up or out; not properly furnished.

1708 Lond. Gaz. No. 4414/3 Some [ships] in the Peer are yet unfitted. 1908 Annual Managem. 269 If the military reasons long journeys have to be made in unfitted trucks.

4. Not adjusted by fitting.

1895 Pall Mall G. 1 Feb. 5/2 Nations that have not arrived at the artificial prettiness of finely-fitted dress had best be content with the natural beauty of unfitted.

Hence Unfit·tedness.

1654 Gayton Pleas. Notes III. v. 94 The Actors were privately to be tried upon the Stage, that upon the insufficiency of the persons, or unfittednesse, the men might be chang'd. 1891 Hales Longer Engl. Poems 122 This sense of his unfittedness to perform as yet a poet's high duties.

Unfit·ting, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 10, 5 d.] Not fitting or suitable; unbecoming, improper.

Apparent earlier examples, when verifiable, have proved to be errors for unsitting. Cf. the note to Fitting ppl. a.

1590 Greene Orl. Fur. 1. 1. 20 Least little brooking these vnfitting braues, My choiar ouer-slip the law of Armes. 1631 Weever Anc. Funeral Mon. 318 These Canons did not continue long at Ottenham, the situation of the place being vnfitting. 1656 Earl Monm. tr. Boccalini's Advis. fr. Parnass. II. lxviii. (1674) 221 A thing which..is altogether unfitting to be named. 1687 in Magd. Coll. & Jas. II (O.H.S.) 103 He was unfitting by reason of his Humility. 1771 Burke Present. State Nat. Wks. 1842 II. 493 This is an unfitting, it is a dangerous, state of things. 1853 Abp. Thomson Laws Th. (ed. 3) Pref. p. v, Some account of the exact position which this work pretends to occupy..may not be an unfitting introduction to its pages.

b. Const. for, or with direct object.

1591 1st Pt. Troub. Raigne K. John (1611) B j b, These thoughts are farre vnfitting Fauconbridge. a 1593 Marlowe Ovid's Elegies III. i. 40 Small doores vnfitting for large houses are. 1603 Florio Montaigne I. xxxix. 123 Qualities mis-seeming his place, and unfitting his calling. 1660 R. Coke Power & Subj. 71 Lest..the seamen should be forgetfull, and unfitting for naval warfare. 1849 Rock Ch. of Fathers I. v. (1903) I. 293 What so unfitting the solemnity of soul..at a burial service?

Hence Unfit·tingness.

1861 Macm. Mag. June 134 Colour or form which represents an unfittingness would be likely to become itself an unfittingness.

Unfit·tingly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.)

1637 Abp. Laud Sp. Star-Chamber 14 June 24 That clause being unfittingly expressed, we thought fit to passe it over. 1656 W. Montague Accompl. Wom. 101 It were to be ill advised..to be so unfittingly pitifull to insolence or detraction. 1828 Scott T. M. Perth xiii, Men who have matched unfittingly became careless in the choice of those whom they love.

Unfittyly, a. Now dial. [Un-[1] 7.] Unfit. 1612 Withers Juvenilia, Abuses I. x, For, 'tis a shame to speake How wonderfull vnfitty and how weake This ignorance makes most of vs. 1837–in s.w. glossaries (s.v. Unvitty).

Unfix, v. [Un-[2] 3 and 7.]

1. trans. To undo from a fixed state or position; to unfasten, loosen.

1597 Shaks. 1 Hen. IV, IV. i. 208 Plucking to vnfixe an Enemie, Hee doth vnfasten so, and shake a friend. 1605—Macb. I. iii. 135 That suggestion, Whose horrid Image doth vnfixe my Heire. 1775 Ash, Unfix,..to loosen, to make less fast. 1864 J. Graham Sabbath 554 Storms that loudly threaten to unfix Islands. 1864 H. Miller Sch. & Schm. (1868) 438 Unfixing the haulser from the stem, and bringing it aft to the stern, we commenced hauling.

b. spec. In military use.

1802 James Milit. Dict., To unfix, in a military sense, to take off, as Unfix Bayonet, or which the soldier disengages the bayonet from his piece, and returns it to the scabbard. 1813 Examiner 10 May 303/2 Two men lost their bayonets, whilst in the act of unfixing them. 1859 F. A. Griffiths Artillr. Manu. (1860) 23 Unfix Swords (or bayonets).

2. fig. To unsettle; to render uncertain or doubtful.

1650 R. Stapylton Strada's Low C. Wars I. 6 Neither gold,..nor the noise of War,..could any way unfix his mind. 1663 J. Spencer Prodigies (1665) 211 Now one Negative instance will argue far more force to unfix a pretending Rule, then two Affirmative to establish it. 1802 Paley Nat. Theol. xxvi. Wks. (1834) 548/2 By unfixing those motives which promote exertion, or by relaxing those habits which engender patient industry. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. viii. II. 322 The shock which had overturned his early prejudices had at the same time unfixed all his opinions.

3. intr. To become unfixed; to lose fixity.

1844 Hood Forge II. 417 But the ruthless talons refuse to unfix. 1865 Reade Hard Cash II. 57 As the blood escaped, his eye unfixed, and the pupils contracted and dilated.

Unfixable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1831 T. Hope Ess. Orig. Man I. 26 The fleeting perceptions of that fugitive and unfixable present. 1832 Coleridge Selfknowledge 7 Dark illusion, all unfixable by thought.

Unfixed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not fixed in a definite place or position; unfastened, loose, free.

1598 Sylvester Du Bartas II. ii. IV. Columnes 131 The Critical and double-sexed Seven, The Number of th' unfixed Fires of Heav'n. 1660 Jer. Taylor Ducior I. iii. rule 1 § 5 It is like a fire-stick, which..being gently mov'd gives a volatile and unfixed light. 1721 Ramsay Morning Interview 93 Her unfix'd eyes with various turnings range. 1787 Jefferson Writ. (1859) II. 99 The Count of Vergennes has..had a very severe attack of what is deemed an unfixed gout. 1805 Loudon Improv. Hot-Houses 65 A stripe of cloth..is left unfixed at top. 1837 Dickens Pickw. iii, The house was a low cinder fire in a rusty unfixed grate. 1844 Regul. & Ord. Army 260 All Guards are to parade, with shouldered Arms, and unfixed Bayonets.

†b. Of persons: Not restricted by office or one or a special place. Obs.

1661 Papers on Alter. Prayer-bk. 10 Generall unfixed Bishops, like the Evangelists or Apostles,..and the fixed Bishops of Parochial Churches. 1685 Baxter Paraphr. N. T. 1 Tim. iii, 7 The Ministerial Work was..Indefinite, by Itinerant, or unfixed Men.

2. fig. a. Unsettled, uncertain, undetermined; fluctuating, variable.

1654 Z. Coke Logick Pref., To guid the intricate and perplexed thoughts of the unfixed people through the great Labyrinth of Time. 1697 J. Potter Antiq. Greece I. ix. (1715) 48 It appears to have been unfix'd and arbitrary. 1763 Johnson 21 July in Boswell, He is totally unfixed in his principles, and wants to purchase one people. 1826 E. Irving Babylon I. III. 197 Which..doth exactly determine the time of this trumpet which otherwise would have been unfixed. 1862 Arsted Channel Isl. III. xix. (ed. 2) 440 The orthography is not only unfixed, but..is varied.

absol. 1844 Mrs. Browning Vis. Poets clix, The tones.. throbbed betwixt The incomplete and the unfixed.

b. Unstable; lacking permanency.

1669 Boyle Notes Atmospheres in Contin. New Exp. I. 196 The weights themselves..are commonly made of Brass (a Metal very unfixt).

†3. Not properly fitted. Obs.[1]

1643 Chas. I in Tregaskis' Catal. (1907) 6 So many recovered men of that Regiment as are able to march, divers of whom have unfixed muskets.

Hence Unfix·edness.

1668 J. Cosmet Sac. Disc. Relig. Eng. § xix. 44 Christianity it self would be much endangered in a state of Ataxy and unfixedness. 1707 Norris Treat. Humility iii. 53 The unfixedness and dissipation of his spirit. 1754 Edwards Freed. Will III. iv. 174 There is a vast Indistinctness and Unfixedness in..very many of the Terms. 1840 Mill Ess. (1859) 65 That entire unfixedness in the social position of individuals.

Unfixing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1810 Crabbe Borough III. 98 Not sought a resting way the heart to move Than by faint dalliance of unfixing love. Unfixity. (Un-[1] 12.) 1856 Bagehot Eng. Studies (1880) 19 A certain unfixity of opinion. Unfla·ged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 and Flag v.[1]) 1608 Heywood Lucrece v. vii, Yet grow our lofty plumes unflag'd with blood.

Unfla·gging, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

1725 South Serm. IV. i. 4 With a continued, unflagging Vigor of Expression. 1860 Froude Hist. Eng. VI. 395 A purpose..which he pursued with unflagging energy. 1891 E. Peacock N. Brendon II. 247 Her unflagging spirits were a great consolation.

So Unfla·ggingly adv.

1898 Lit. Churchman 15 May 186/2 A hundred pages, in which the 'view' of this writer is unflaggingly pursued. 1883 Contemp. Rev. Sept. 321 Forces that are constantly and unflaggingly at work.

†Unflain, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 8 b.] = Unflead ppl. a.

c 1320 Sir Tristr. 468 Sond ilk a best vnflayn, Atire it as bou wold. 1486 Bk. St. Albans e iij, Ye shall vndo hym vnflayne when he shall be dight.

Unfla·ky, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1675 Han. Woolley Gentlew. Comp. 162 Green ginger;..the tender sort is unflaky. Unflame, v. (Un-[2] 4.) 1635 Quarles Emblt. iii. Prol. 22 Where neither..doubt afflicts, nor base fear Unflames your courage in pursuit. Unfla·ming, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1644 Nye Gunnery xlvi. (1647) II. 24 Dispart your peece with a lighted and unflaming wax candle.

Unfla·nked, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1553 Berner Q. Curtius III. 25 It was the thing that he doubted most, that they..should invade the open side of his battaile whiche lay vnflancked towardes them. 1756 Home Douglas III. iii. 40 Water-wafted armies, whose chief strength Lies in firm foot, unflank'd with warlike horse. 1870 Milit. Engineering I. v. 93 The points selected for assault should be, if possible, unflanked parts of the work.

Unfla·ttened, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1884 McLaren Spinning 178 Four feet of yarn in its natural state unwinded and unflattened. Unflatterable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1640 D. Cunningham Commission for Assize (1641) 9 Such as Chrysippus would have all earthly Judges: Incorrupt, unflatterable. 1647 Trapp Comm. Matt. xxii. 16 He was inadulabilis, unflatterable.

Unfla·ttered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1632 Habington Castara I. (1634) 47 Time mocks our youth; and..brings us to unflattered age. Ibid. II. 76 Retir'd like Princes from the noise of men, To breath a while unflatter'd. 1742 Young Nt. Th. II. 652 In vaults, thin courts of poor unflatter'd kings. 1789 T. Twining Aristotle's Treat. Poetry 322 The unsoftened and unflattered character of Achilles. 1845 Darwin in F. Darwin Life (1887) I. 333 At which I ought to be much flattered and unflattered.

Unfla·ttering, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

1598 Sidney Apol. Poetrie (Arb.) 62 They that delight in Poesie it selfe, should..looke themselves in an vnflattering Glasse of reason. 1651 Sherburne Salmacis 283 The Neighbouring Lake,..In whose unflattering Mirrour, every Morn, She Counsell takes how best her self t'adorn. 1704 Norris Ideal World II. iii. 237 A faithful and unflattering representation of his beloved object. 1823 Byron Juan IX. x, To you the unflattering Muse deigns to inscribe Truths, that you will not read in the Gazettes. 1873 H. Rogers Orig. Bible ii. (1875) 96 A plan so unflattering to man's self-righteousness.

So Unfla·tteringly adv.
1874 Fortn. Rev. Feb. 246 Our most popular poet..unflatteringly compares them to 'broken lights'.

Unfla·wed, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.)
1665 HOOKE Microgr. 97 A very solid and unflaw'd piece of cleer white Marble. 1817 SCOTT Harold I. vii, Firm was that faith,—as diamond stone Pure and unflaw'd. 1856 RUSKIN Mod. Paint. IV. v. ix. § 7 Furnishing light, broad, and unflawed pieces to serve for slates upon the roof.

†Unflea·d, ppl. a. Obs. [UN-¹ 8 + flea FLAY v.] Not flayed or skinned.
1580 BLUNDEVIL Horsemanship III. 32b, Two sheepesheads unfleade. 1647 HERRICK Noble Numb., Thanksgiving for House 22 A little Byn, Which keeps my little loafe of Bread Unchipt, unfleaed. 1654 GAYTON Pleas. Notes III. x. 142 Such a beardlesse boy as the unfleaed goatheard.

Unfleehand: see UNFLIGHING ppl. a. Obs.

Unfle·cked, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.) 1865 J. THOMSON Sunday up River vi. iii, White-robed, my own white dove unflecked. 1883 STEVENSON Silverado Sq. 4 Although the upper sky was still unflecked with vapour.

Unfle·dge, v. (UN-² 4.)
1598 FLORIO, Spennacchiare, ..to vnfeather, to vnfledge, to vnplume. 1809 MALKIN Gil Blas x. x. ¶ 23 For fear he should unfledge me, by taking away my livery.

†Unfle·dge, a. Obs. [UN-¹ 7.] = next.
1581 NEWTON tr. Seneca's Plays Pref., Mine I confess to be an unfledge nestling, unable to flye. 1609 HOLLAND Plutarch's Mor. 570 The nightingales instruct their young birds in song, insomuch as those which be taken unfledge out of the nest, ..never afterwards sing so well.

Unfle·dged, ppl. a. Also 7–8 unfletch'd, 7 unfletcht. [UN-¹ 8.]
1. Not yet furnished or covered with feathers; callow; unfeathered. In fig. context.
1611 SHAKS. Cymb. III. iii. 27 We poore vnfledg'd Haue neuer wing'd from view o' th' nest. 1777 Poem Birthday K. George, Now boldly dare, With unfletch'd Wings, Nobly to soar. 1752 FOOTE Taste I. i, This superannuated Bedame games for flattery, like a nest of unfledg'd crows For bread. 1821 SCOTT Kenilworth, The two-legged and unfledged species called mankind. 1890 Science-Gossip XXVI. 19/2, Two unfledged birds lying dead at the base of the wall.
b. prod. Of an ARROW; = UNFEATHERED a. 2.
1752 VOYNE Brothers II. i, Not an hair nor feather there his unfledg'd shaft But from ambition's wing.
2. Of things: Not fully developed; still in a crude or imperfect state.
1615 BRATHWAIT Strappado (1878) 50 You that..betake to worser parts Your vnfledg'd fancies. 1649 G. DANIEL Trimarch., Hen. V, xxxviii, Vnfledg'd Wit limi't from the ragged Sarcill Chaucer drop't. 1790 SIR J. REYNOLDS in Leslie & Taylor Life & Times (1865) II. x. 592 Newly hatched, unfledged opinions. 1851 MRS. BROWNING Casa Guidi Wind. II. 270 Alas, poor people, of an unfledged will!
3. Of persons: Immature, inexperienced, undeveloped in knowledge, etc.
1602 SHAKS. Ham. I. iii. 65 But doe not dull thy palme, with entertainment Of each vnhatch't, vnfledg'd Comrade. 1669 DRYDEN Prol. to Wild Gallant revis'd 14 By such degrees, while knowledge he did want, Our unfletch'd Author writ a Wild Gallant. 1712 ADDISON Spect. No. 305 ¶ 15 This Society of unfledged Statesmen. 1769 Junius Lett. xxv. (1788) 159 The unfledged race of ensigns, who infest our streets. 1824 DOYLE in Fitz-Patrick Life (1886) I. 314 'To stare with wonder..at what appears strange only because it is unknown to some unfledged traveller or essayist.
4. Pertaining to, characteristic of, youth and inexperience.
1611 SHAKS. Wint. T. I. ii. 78 In those vnfledg'd dayes, was my Wife a Girle. 1760–74 H. BROOKE Fool of Qual. (1809) III. 134, I am but as a bird from the nest, and this is the first of my unfledged excursions. 1809 MALKIN Gil Blas x. x. ¶ 42 My unfledged youth might lead him to take me for some graceless little truant. 1881 World 28 Dec., She has lost the innocence of unfledged girlhood.

Unflee·ce, v. (UN-² 4.) 1609 DEKKER Ravens Alm. D 2 The Clergie..shall haue thin cheekes, for euerie body shall fleece or rather vnfleece them. Unflee·ced, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.) c 1882 MOORE Country Dance & Quad. 98 Yet unfleeced by funding blockheads, Happy John Bull..had..' Money in both pockets'. Unflee·cing, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 10.) a 1640 JACKSON Creed x. iii. § 1 The original controversy..plainly propounded in constant or unfleeting terms. 1811 W. K. SPENCER Poems 49 Painting..whose magic-gifted hand Can..raise unfleeting visions of the past. Unfle·nched, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.) 1820 SCORESBY Acc. Arctic Reg. II. 32 Leaving one ship with..two whales and a half unflenched.

Unfle·sh, v. [UN-² 4.] trans. To strip of flesh. Hence Unfle·shing vbl. sb.
1598 FLORIO, Scarnare, to vnflesh, to pare the flesh from the bones. 1611 Ibid., Scarnatura, any vnfleshing. 1683 E. HOOKER Pordage's Mystic Div. Pref. 25 When the inexorable Messenger..shal come..and uncloath and unflesh him too. 1894 BARING-GOULD Deming France I. 199 A body had been deliberately unfleshed before it was laid in its last habitation.

Unfle·shed, ppl. a.[1] [UN-¹ 8 + FLESH v.] Not yet stimulated by tasting flesh; fig., untried, inexperienced, new. Also absol.
1542 UDALL Erasm. Apoph. 280, I wil never present an hoste unto yᵉ high capitaine of Roome..unfleashed on their enemies. 1621 SPEED Theat. Gt. Brit. 125/1 Some, who (like unfleshit soldiers) gaue ouer their enterprise without further hope. 1635–55 COWLEY Davideis III. 499 With some less Foe thy unflesht valour try. 1692 DRYDEN Cleomenes v. ii, As a generous, unfleshed hound, thus hears From far the hunters horn and cheerful cry. 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa VII. 409, I am no unfleshed novice; this [duel] is a sport, that..I love as well as my food. 1833 LYTTON Godolphin 8 Percy's heart was full of enterprise and the unfleshed valour of inexperience. 1895 MEREDITH Amazing Marriage ix, Customary phrases of the unfleshed in folly.

Unfle·shed, ppl. a.[2] [f. UNFLESH v., or UN-¹ 8.] a. Stripped of flesh. b. Not covered with flesh.
1607 W. BARKSTED Mirrha D 4 b, Not the dead repine, ..let the vnfleshed throngues..be glad. 1795 SOUTHEY Vis. Maid Orleans I. 95 Behold this skull, These eyeless sockets, and those unfleshd jaws. 1864 Cornhill, Fireside Tract., At Sea, May it be long before Professor Owen is comforted with the sight of his unfleshed vertebræ.

Unfle·shly, a. (UN-¹ 7.)
1895 PUSEY Doctr. Real Presence 335 For if some unfleshly reality of a kind is opposed to us, surely..it will not have blood. 1861 READE Cloister & H. I, Those unfleshly eyes, with which they say the very air is throged.
Hence Unfle·shliness. a 1889 DR QUINCEY Posth. Wks. (1891) I. 186 Without the idea of holiness and unfleshliness, eternity..cannot sustain itself.

Unfle·shy, a. (UN-¹ 7.) 1612 J. DAVIES (Heref.) Muse's Sacr. Wks. (Grosart) II. 13/1 At gastly Deaths vnfleshy feet. †Unfle·t, ppl. a. Obs.— [UN-¹ 8 b + FLEET v.?] 1688 R. HOLME Armoury III. 335/1 Dairy People..make.. Flet and unflet Milk Cheese.

Unfletch'd, obs. var. UNFLEDGED.

†Unfle·xible, a. Obs. [UN-¹ 7 and 5 b.] = INFLEXIBLE a.
a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. xv, Falsly accusing an unflexible anger, a courageous constancie. 1611 SPEED Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. viii. § 44. 498 Seeing the Pope vnflexible, and vnsensible of so many Christians calamitie. 1677 GILPIN Demonol. (1867) 152 Some spirits are unfixed and volatile. Others are tenacious and unflexible.

†Unfli·ching, ppl. a. Obs. [UN-¹ 10.] Unflinching.
a 1340 HAMPOLE Prayer ii. 9 Jou sall gouern þaim.. in stable and vnflichand [v.r. unflechand] rightwisnes.

Unfli·cketing, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 10.) 1898 MISS BROWNING Aur. Leigh III. 173 With fixed unflickering outline of dead heat. 1884 Pall Mall G. 23 June 26/2 A steady and unflickering light.

Unfli·nching, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 10.)
1728 MORGAN Algiers II. v. 315 The Valour and Resolution of the unflinching Knights. 1814 SCOTT Lord of Isles vi. xxvi, Unflinching foot 'gainst foot was set. 1846 MRS. A. MARSH Father Darcy II. ix. 245 A fresh element of resolute, unflinching, unremitting determination. 1882 Macm. Mag. XLV. 372 Yet he is..determinedly persevering, unflinching as a foe.
Hence Unfli·nchingly adv.
1832 COLERIDGE Table-t. 5 Feb., Oh! for a great man.. who could..unflinchingly put it into act! 1879 CHR G. ROSSETTI Seek & F. 236 The more unflinchingly we abide by this truth, the keener will our spiritual faculty become.

Unfloa·table, a. (UN-¹ 7 b.) 1880 [MARK TWAIN] Tramp Abr. I. 237 They beste down the walles, they vnfloored the lofties, they vntiled it. 1621 COTGR., Desplancké, ..vnfloored, or, whose floore is taken vp. Unfloo·red, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.) 1816 in Hone Every-day bk. (1825) I. 572 The upper story is unfloored. 1897 Daily News 26 Nov. 6/4 Unfloored, corresponded iron shanty. Unflou·red, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1795 in Spirit Pub. Jrnls. IV. 229 With surly face and head unflour'd. Unflou·rished, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.) 1486 Bk. St. Albans, Her. j b, Adam the beginnyng of mun lynde was as a stokke vnsprayde and vnfloreshed. Unflou·rishing, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 10.) 1782 BAKER Biog. Dramatica III. 92 The Edinburgh theatre, at that time in no unflourishing condition. Unflow·er, v. (UN-² 4.) 1610 G. FLETCHER Christ's Vict. I. lxxxv, Bring..all your silver flaskets... That I may scone unflow'r your fragrant baskets, To strowe the fields with odours. Unflow·ered, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.) 1648 HERRICK Hesperides, Unflowred, or without Flowers. 1775 ASH, Unflowered..not flowered, not ornamented with flowers. Unflow·ing, a. (UN-¹ 8 b.) [1775 ASH.] 1791 COWPER Iliad IV. 137 He chose a dart Unflown, full-fledged.

Unfluctuating, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 10.)
1723 BLACKMORE Alfred IV. 129 In the Steerage they preside, And, tho' in Storms, unfluctuating guide The agitated Gates. 1823 DE QUINCEY Lett. Educ. I. x That you had the priceless blessing of unfluctuating health. 1858 NORTON Topics 243 The tax must be..unfluctuating in amount. 1896 N. Amer. Rev. Dec. 743 A sound unfluctuating currency.

Unfluent, a. (UN-¹ 7.) 1605 SYLVESTER Du Bartas I. vi. 29 Poure vpon my faint vn-fluent tongue The sweetest hunnie of th' Hyantian Fount. 1659 O. WALKER Instruct. Oratory 25 The first making the language dull and slow; the other,..abrupt, and stuttering. Unfluri·ted, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.) 1854 COL. WISEMAN Fabiola (1855) 287 She completed, unflurried, the preparations for supper. Unfu·sh, v. (UN-² 7.) 1866 M. ARNOLD Thyrsis xvii, The west unflushes, the high stars grow bright.

Unflu·shed, ppl. a.[1] [UN-¹ 8 + FLUSH v.[1] 2.] Of game: Not driven up.
1769 Stratford Jubilee I. i, There will be rare poaching for experienced sportsmen among unflush'd game.

Unflu·shed, ppl. a.[2] [UN-¹ 8 + FLUSH v.[2]] Not flushed in colour.
[1775 ASH.] 1826 LADY DUDLEY LYTTON Lucile II. i. § 16. 4 That pale cheek for ever by passion unflush'd. 1868 H. BUSHNELL Moral Uses Dark Th. (1869) 217 We see it in a laying out of white, unflushed by mortal sympathy.

Unfluted, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1843 Civil Eng. & Arch. Jrnl. VI. 270/2 The columns are unfluted. 1854 tr. Hittner's Athens & Peloponnese 46 Pieces of friezes, ..and unfluted drums of pillars. Unfluttera·ble, a. (UN-¹ 7 b.) 1872 MRS. WHITNEY Real Folks viii, The quiet, unflutterable gray bonnet calmly horizontal. Unfluxile, a. (UN-¹ 7.) 1757 tr. Henckel's Pyritol. 349 Crude, unmetallic, unfluxile earth. Unfoa·led, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.) 1863 MISS BRADDON Aurora Floyd xiii, Winning future Derbys..with colts that are as yet unfoaled. Unfo·ed, a. (UN-¹ 9.) 1588 WARNER Alb. Eng. III. xviii, Augustus..was Emperour alone; In whose vnfoed Monarchie our common health was known.

Unfoi·led, ppl. a.[1] [UN-¹ 8 + FOIL v.[1]]
†1. Not injured, marred, or impaired. Obs.
1579–80 NORTH Plutarch (1595) 242 When the golden and vnfoiled age remained yet whole..at Rome. a 1640 JACKSON Creed x. viii. § 3 The Naturalist..hunts after the truth with fresh unfoiled scent. 1691 RAY Creation II. (1692) 22 To let in [to the eye] the Light and Colors unfoiled and unsophisticated by any inward tincture.
2. Not overcome, beaten, or baffled.
1587 T. HUGHES Misfort. Arthur v. i. 31 For had impatient ire indu'rde abuse..I mought haue liu'd in forreine coastes vnfoilde. 1600 SIR F. VERE Comm. 93 Their footmen (which were old trained soldiers, and to that day unfoiled in the field). 1672 TEMPLE Ess. Govt. Wks. 1720 I. 107 The usurped Powers..thought themselves secure in the Strength of an unfoiled Army of above Sixty Thousand Men.

†Unfoi·led, ppl. a.[2] Obs. [UN-¹ 8 + FOIL v.[3]] Unplough'd.
1611 COTGR., Terre vierge, ground that is whole or vnfoyled; good ground that was neuer plowed.

Unfoiled, ppl. a.[3] [UN-¹ 8 + FOIL v.[4]] Not coated or backed with foil.
1640 in Entick London (1766) II. 165 Glass-plates, or sights for looking-glasses, unfoiled. 1732 Phil. Trans. XXXVII. 255 The second Specimen may have a Part unfoil'd. 1762 Ibid. III. 561 By reflexion from the unfoiled part of the speculum.

Unfo·ld, v.[1] Forms: 1 unfealdan, 3 un-uolden, 3–6 un-, vnfolde (5 onfolde), 4– unfold (4–7 vn-), 6–7 vnfould; 5 north. vnfald(e, 6, 8 Sc. unfauld. [OE. unfealdan (f. un- UN-² + fealdan FOLD v.[1]), = MDu. and Du. ontvouden, -vouwen (eastern MDu. -volden, -valden), G. entfalten.]
1. trans. To open or unwrap the folds of; to spread open; to expand; to straighten out.
c 890 WERFERTH tr. Gregory's Dial. 333 þa boc..unlysan & unfealdan. c 1000 Ælfric Gosp. Luke iv. 17 Þonna wʼnde þa boc unfold, þa funde he [etc.]. c 1200 LAY. 10544 Æuere his writen he vnfeold þer he forð ferde. 13.. Coer de L. 4809 Hys baner anon was unfolde, The Sarezynes anon gan behold. 1338 R. BRUNNE Chron. (1810) 284 Bot if he bolde vnfolden were red among vs here, 3our hote salle be holden. 1377 LANGL. P. Pl. B. xvii. 276 þe paume hath powere..to vnfolde þe folden fuste. a 1400–50 Alexander 3027 Bald bernes on bent banes vnfaldis. c 1450 LOVELICH Grail xxxvi. 462 Whanne this body he hadde beholde, Anon the clothes he dyde on-folde. 1530 PALSGR. 767/2, I unfolde any thyng that is folded up togyder, Je desploye. Ibid., Unfolde this cloths. a 1553 UDALL Roister D. III. iv, No lesse..Than this letter purporteth, which ye haue vnfolde. 1663 DAVENANT Siege of Rhodes Wks. (1672) 8 Sweeter then Buds unfolded in a Shower. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis vi. 393 Sirife, that shakes Her hissing tresses, and unfolds her snakes. 1743 FRANCIS tr. Hor., Odes IV. xv. 5 Phœbus.. warn'd me..Not to unfold my little sail. 1784 COWPER Task iv. 153 The pattern grows, the well-depicted flow'r..Unfolds its bosom. 1820 SCOTT F. M. Perth xix, Come now.. unfold your arms from about my patient. 1841 T. R. JONES Anim. Kingd. 399 One of the snails unfolds from the right side of its neck..a wide sacculus.
b. transf. or fig.
1530 GOWER Conf. II. 24 For I ne mai my wit unfolde To find o word of that I mene. 1603 KNOLLES Hist. Turks (1621) 540 Unfolding his troupes (that standing there, they might at more liberties use their swords). 1633 G. HERBERT Temple, Dominie 3 Unfold thy forehead Father'd into frowns. 1744 AKENSIDE Pleas. Imag. I. 73 Till in time.. What he admired and loved, his small smile Unfolded into being. 1839 TRENCH Greece VI. 253 As these thoughts had been matured and unfolded in himself by the recent change in his fortunes.
c. To open (the eyes or lips); to open (a gate, etc.) upon hinges.
a 1325 in Horstm. Altengl. Leg. (1878) 144 Sebanon eisen vnfeid; & sebþen his sone he bhild. 1620 SHELTON Quix. II. iv. 518 He would not once vnfold his lips, vnlill he might see what would be the period of his disgrace. 1667 MILTON P. L. IV. 381 Hell shall unfould..her widest Gates. 1801 SOUTHEY Thalaba VI. xvi, The gates of iron, by no human arm Unfolded, turning on their hinges slow. 1896 DR VINE Moxon's Mech. Exerc. 400 He..unfolded the frisket and tympan.
d. refl. (Also in fig. use.)
1779 Mirror No. 22, Her voice seemed to unfold itself in singing, to suit every musical expression. 1821 SHELLEY Epipsych. 480 An atom of th' Eternal, whose own smile Unfolds itself. 1891 FARRAR Darkness & Dawn XXXV, The whole world had turned..to thorns; would some new rosebud now unfold itself among them?
2. To disclose or reveal by statement or exposition; to explain or make clear.
a 1050 Liber Scintill. xxxviii. (1889) 140 Sebancu unrihtwisnesse [hi] unfealdaþ. a 1225 Ancr. R. 100 þis is a cruel word...Hit is bilepped & bihud, ac ich hit wulle unuolden. a 1250 Prov. Ælfred 629 Al he bi-fuilt his frend, þen he him vnfoldit. 13.. E. E. Allit. B. 1569 Calle hem alle to my cort.., Vnfolde hem alle þis ferly þat is bifallen here. 1426 LYDG. De Guil. Pilgr. 10962 At the grete Ingement Wher tassyses shal be holde, Al conset falsenesse to vnfolde. c 1440 Partenay 5124 The holy fader wondred on that he told, Off the meruelles that ther [he] gan vnfold. 1595 Locrine I. i. 83, I will vnto you all vnfold Our royall mind and resolute intent. 1658 FLECKNOE Relig. & Enlgm. Char. 1 Clearly unfolding and explicating the notions of her minde. 1693 Humorist Town 38, I will only unfold it to you as the nature of the thing is. 1782 PRIESTLEY Matt. & Spir. I. Pref. p. xxxii, His system is..perhaps the same..if he would distinctly unfold it. 1817 JAS. MILL Brit. India II. v. ix. 689 In a speech..[he] unfolded the causes and extent of the national calamities. 1875 JOWETT

Plato (ed. 2) IV. 239 The brethren whose mysteries I am about to unfold to you are far more ingenious.

refl. 1620 SHAKS. Ham. I. i. 2 Nay answer me: Stand & vnfold your selfe. 1637 B. JONSON Sad Sheph. II. v, What fiddle is this? unfold your selfe, cleare Robin. 1831 CARLYLE Sart. Res. II. v, The self-secluded unfolds himself in..free, glowing words.

3. To disclose or lay open to the view; to display. Also fig.

c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. IV. met. v. (1868) 132 Whi let hoetes be stere vnfolde hir cloutes? 1600 SHAKS. Mids. N. I. i. 146 Briefe as the lightning in the collied night, That (in a spleene) vnfolds both heauen and earth. 1713 BLACKMORE Creation I. 430 The hollow vales their smiling pride unfold. 1812 S. ROGERS Columbiad XII. 32 To other eyes shall Mexico unfold Her feathered tapestries, and roofs of gold. 1872 JENKINSON Guide Eng. Lakes (1879) 97 When the steep part of the journey is accomplished a lovely prospect is unfolded.

refl. 1837 W. IRVING Capt. Bonneville III. 76 From this lofty eminence, a vast and magnificent prospect unfolds itself.

4. a. To unwrap; to take out of something folded.

1553 BRENDE Q. Curtius 120 Vnfolding his wound,..[he] shewed his legge vnto them. 1887 SCOTT Chron. Canongate v, Then was unfolded, out of many a little scrap of paper, the reserved sum of fifteen shillings.

b. To release, let go.

In Beaum. & Fl. Faithf. Shepherdess II, 'vnfould' is an error for 'infold' or 'enfold,' from to Un-1 b 1.

1633 P. FLETCHER Purple Isl. XII. xlviii, These suppliant hands..Will never let the loose, will never more unfold thee.

5. intr. To open (up or out); to spread out or expand; to become patent or plain, etc.

(a) c 1350 Libeaus Desc. 2091 As he set bus in halle, Out of pe stone walle A window fare unfolde. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis x. 1 The Gates of Heav'n unfold; Jove summons all The Gods to Council. 1715 POPE Iliad IV. 1 And now Olympus' shining gates unfold. 1725 — Odyss. IX. 533 Sweet those lids that now unfold in vain! 1746 FRANCIS tr. Horace, Epist. I. xviii. 122 Ears, that unfold to every Tale, Intrusted Secrets ill conceal. 1828 SCOTT F. M. Perth xix, But the fingers do unfold. 1887 BOWEN Æneid III. 94 The gates unfold of the shades.

(b) c 1586 C'TESS PEMBROKE Ps. (1823) LXXXI. i, Let joyfull songes to god unfold. 1601 SHAKS. Twel. N. I. ii. 19 Mine own escape vnfolded to my hope. 1725 POPE Odyss. XII. 240 Now all at once tremendous scenes unfold. 1759 ROBERTSON Hist. Scot. V. Wks. 1813 I. 130 The queen's scheme began gradually to unfold. 1833 TENNYSON Eleanore v, I see thy beauty gradually unfold. 1858 SHARS Athan. III. i. 256 A system of infinite truth, which is to unfold through ages.

(c) a 1649 CRASHAW Carmen Deo Nostro, To C'tess of Denbigh, Unfold at length, unfold fair flowre. 1813 SCOTT Rokeby VI. i, That morning sun has three times seen The flower unfold on Rokeby green. 1862 THACKERAY Philip XVI, The pony-chaise unfolded into a noble brauche. 1875 BENNETT & DYER tr. Sachs' Bot. 175 The position of the leaves in the lateral buds before unfolding.

Unfo'ld, v.[2] [UN-2 b + FOLD v.[2]] trans. To release (sheep) from a fold or folds.

1530 PALSGR. 768/2 It is tyme to unfolde our shepe. a 1633 OVERBURY A Wife, etc. (1638) 172 She dares goe alone and unfold sheepe i'th'night. 1782 COWPER Retirem. 397 The boy, who..Unfolds his flock.

Unfo'ldable, a. Obs. [UN-1 7 b.] Incapable of being unfolded.

1611 COTGR., Inexplicable, inexplicable, vnfoulddable. a 1642 BP. MOUNTAGU Acts & Mon. (1642) 420 The sense is mayred, intricate, unfoldable.

Unfolded, ppl. a.[1] [UN-1 8 + FOLD v.[1]] Not folded or arranged in folds.

1683 MOXON Mech. Exerc., Printing XXII. 2 10 Folding in the un-folded corners. 1695 Lond. Gaz. No. 3047/4 Part of them is Unfolded, so as to be useful to all Gentlemen and others conversant in the Mechanicks. 1860 DICKENS Uncomm. Trav. IX. A pretty large prayerbook in an unfolded pocket-handkerchief.

Unfo'lded, ppl. a.[2] [UN-2 8 + FOLD v.[2]] Not enclosed in a (sheep) fold.

1589 GREENE Menaphon (Arb.) 44 So long we..forget our labours, that both our flockes shall be vnfolded. 1641 BEST Farm. Bks. (Surtees) 14 Men cannot leave their sheepe unfolded soe longe as there is any corne in the field. 1832 J. BEXE St. Herbert's Isle 8x Th' unfolded flocks that o'er them bleat. 1856 MRS. BROWNING Aur. Leigh II. 820 A lamb's small shadow..Thy unfolded I.

Unfo'ldel, ppl. a.[3] [f. UNFOLD v.[1]] Opened out or up; fig. displayed, revealed.

1602 FULBECKE Pandects 29 Though the parties will, doe appeare in a secret will,..yet consent is onely verified in an expresse & vnfolded will. 1629 H. BURTON Truth's Triumph 212 Every believer must have..a clear, explicite, and vnfolded faith in Christ. 1657 CONGREVE Mourn. Bride II. v, The iron gates..are still wide stretch'd..And staring on us with unfolded leaves. 1784 COWPER Task VI. 280 From shop to shop Wandering, and loitering with unfolded silks The polished counter. 1820 SHELLEY Liberty iv, Like unfolded flowers beneath the sea.

Unfo'lder. [f. UNFOLD v.[1]] One who, or that which, unfolds, in various senses of the word.

1611 COTGR., Expligneur, an explicator, vnfolder, explainer. 1651 BAXTER Inf. Bapt. 240 Himself was an accurate unfolder of truth. 1708 TYRRWHITT Double Falsehood I. ii, Is your Father yet moved in the Suit, who must be the prime Unfolder of this Business? 1797 Monthly Mag. III. 464 Both copyists and unfolders [of papyrus rolls] are injudiciously paid by the month. 1845 FERRIER Philo. Lect. VII. 115 The unfolder of all the nobler and higher life of the world. 1872 MACDUFF Mem. Patmos IX. 119 The sudden appearance..of the Unfolder of the roll.

Unfo'lding, vbl. sb. [f. UNFOLD v.[1]] The action of the verb, in various senses.

1483 Cath. Angl. 391/2 An vn fyldyng, explicio, devoucio. 1538 ELYOT, Replicatio, a replycation or vnfoldynge of a thynge. 1599 MINSHEU Span. Gram. 80 The farther unfolding of this language. 1615 HIERON Wks. I. 653 Death..is (as it were) the vnfolding of the net, or the breaking open of the prison doore. 1646 P. BULKELEY Gospel Cont. I. 122 The time of unfolding [of the blessings] is not yet come. 1760-72 BROOKE Fool of Qual. (1809) IV. 45 The growth and unfolding of any common vegetable from..the seed. 1794 MRS. RADCLIFFE Myst. Udolpho I. He watched the unfolding of her infant character with anxious fondness. 1843 MANNING Serm. I. 276 The springing or unfolding of a stately tree. 1873 TRISTRAM Moab II. 26 The sudden unfolding [to view] of the Dead Sea basin.

Unfo'lding, ppl. a.[1] [f. UNFOLD v.[1] 5.] That unfolds, discloses, or develops.

1762 FALCONER Shipwr. II. 285 The sailors..Attend th' unfolding brails at his command. 1798 S. & HT. LEE Canterb. T. II. 355 The gay delights of unfolding nature. 1814 WORDSW. Excurs. VI. 855 It was the season of unfolding leaves. 1862 SHIRLEY (J. Skelton) Nugæ Crit. II. 107 The unfolding nets of a great drama.

Unfo'lding, ppl. a.[2] [f. UNFOLD v.[2]] 1. Indicating the time for unfolding sheep.

1603 SHAKS. Meas. for M. IV. ii. 218 Looke, th' vnfolding Starre calles vp the Shepheard.

2. Coming out of the fold.

1822 CLARE Vill. Minstr. I. 13 Raising the bleatings of unfolding sheep.

Unfo'ldment. [f. UNFOLD v.[1]] The process of unfolding.

1850 D. THOMAS Crisis of Being iv. 64 Matter is..the unfoldment of ideas. 1884 Christian World 11 Sept. 688/2 All that is added..is yet in preparation..in its unfoldment.

Unfo'ldress. [f. UNFOLDER.] A female unfolder.

1577 STANYHURST Descr. Ireland Ep. Ded. in Holinshed I. 1 b/1 The learned haue..adiudged an hystorie to be..the vnfoldresse of treacherie.

Unfo'ldure. [f. UNFOLD v.[1]] Unfolding.

1827 C. LOFFT Self-formation I. 254 The relaxation and expansion and gentle unfoldure of the mind.

Unfo'llaged, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1808 [see UNACCUSED ppl. a.]. 1896 DANIELL tr. Comines VIII. vi. 332 The Estradiots..forsooke their men of armes, who by means thereof were vnfollowed. 1630 J. TAYLOR (Water P.) Trav. Ded., I shall hereafter sacrifice whole Hecatombs..at the shrine of your vnfellowed and vnfollowed vertues. 1826 Q. Rev. XXXIV. 75 This example remained unfollowed by England for almost a century. 1864 E. SARGENT Peculiar I. 122 We will allow Peculiar Institution to quit this room free and unfollowed.

Unfoo'l, v. (UN-2 6 b.)

1598 SHAKS. Merry W. IV. ii. 120, I, but if it proue true (Mr. Page) haue you any way then to vnfoole me againe. 1632 STRAFFORD in Life (1892) 301 The sooner we vnfoole ourselves of this errore, the sooner wee shall learne to know ourselves. 1652 QUARLES Emblems I. iii. 5 Will no plaints fee Bribe thy false fists..Tunfool whom thou hast fool'd?

Unfoo'lish, a. (UN-1 7.) 1603 FLORIO Montaigne 561, I daylie heare fooles utter unfoolish wordes. 1885 Sat. Rev. 3 Dec. 718 The foolisher sort of a very unfoolish people.

Unfoot, v. [UN-2 4.] trans. To wash or wear away the foot of.

1758 BORLASE Nat. Hist. Cornw. 66 Vast masses of cliff, which the sea has unfooted. Ibid. 109 The contiguous strata have been unfooted..many times.

Unfoo'ted, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.] Not trodden by the feet (of man); untraversed.

1818 KEATS Endym. I. 77 Some unfooted plains Where fed the herds of Pan. 1839 BAILEY Festus 338 And oft, at night, ..We would breathe ourselves amid unfooted snows. 1895 MEREDITH Amazing Marriage XXX, Calamity hung around, with the future an unfooted wilderness.

†Unfoo'tsore, a. Sc. Obs. (UN-1 7.) c 1480 HENRYSON Fables, Two Mice 15 Ane tyme quhen scho wes full and vnfute sair. c 1500 Priests of Peblis 5 Thire Preists..sat richt soft and waluteisit. Unforaged, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 + FORAGE v.[1] a 1649 DRUMM. OF HAWTH. Hist. Jas. IV, Wks. (1711) 75 By fighting in England, he kept his own Country unforaged. Unforba'de, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 b.) 1844 MRS. BROWNING Vis. Poets CCXLII, Nor know I if the man who prayed Thee to be accepted, unforbade. Unforbearance, (UN-1 12.) 1699 SHAFTESB. Char. (1711) II. 150 The Injurys we do our-selves, by Excess and Unforbearance. Unforbearing, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1820 T. MITCHELL Aristoph. II. 113 A trifling, storming, unforbearing fellow.

Unforbi'd, ppl. a. [UN-1 8 b.] = next.

1667 MILTON P. L. VIII. 94 If unforbid thou mast unfold What wee..ask. 1847 POLLOK Course T. VIII. 350 He.. took all joys, Forbid and unforbid, as impulse urged. 1869 LOWELL Winter Evening Hymn to Fire VII, Nicotia..We worship, unforbid of thee.

Unforbi'dden, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 b.)

1535 COVERDALE Acts XXVIII. 31 Teachinge those thinges ..with all boldnesse, vnforbydden. 1611 FLORIO, Insolentio, vnforbidden. 1648 HEXHAM II, Ongeboden,..Vnforbidden. 1819 SHELLEY Cenci V. iv. 99 All was prepared by unforbidden means Which we must pay so dearly, having done. 1881 OBO. ELIOT Silas M. x, To..take up his old quarters unforbidden, and swagger as usual.

Hence Unforbi'ddenly adv., -ness.

1665 BOYLE Occas. Reff. V. ix. 179 This unforbiddenness they think sufficient to evince, that the Sumptuousness..is not absolutely..Sinful. 1860 ELLICOTT Life Our Lord VIII. 387 When..love..may hereafter unforbiddently direct itself to the ascended Lord.

†Unforbo'den, obs. var. UNFORBIDDEN ppl. a. Cf. MDu. and Du. onverboden, MHG. and G. unverboten.

1534 TINDALE Acts XXVIII. 31 Teachynge those thinges.. with all confidence, vnforboden.

Unforced, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not compelled or constrained.

1598 SYLVESTER Du Bartas II. ii. Furoches 513 Being fed.. With wholesome Fruits of an unforced soyl. 1624 HEYWOOD Gunaik. V. 231 Artimesia..unforced and uncompeld followed the expedition of Xerxes against Greece. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis XI. 654 Why thus, unforced, should we so tamely yield? 1741 RICHARDSON Pamela III. 248 He will judge us according to the unforced and unbyassed Use we make of that Light. 1805 WORDSW. To the Daisy 52 Unforced by wind or wave To quit the Skip for which he died. 1884 19th Cent. Mar. 436 The unforced zeal and docility of the horse.

b. Of plants: Not produced out of season.

1868 Daily News 8 July, Some of the fuchsias..would have borne comparison with any unforced flowers of their class.

2. Not pushed beyond the natural limits; not produced by exertion or effort; easy, natural.

1604 SHAKS. Oth. II. i. 239 This grated (as it is a most pregnant and vnforc'd position) who stands so eminent..as Cassio do's? 1665 J. SPENCER Vulg. Proph. 52 All the great Prophets..delivered themselves in a natural and unforc'd order of words. 1717 ADDISON tr. Ovid's Met. III. Notes, Wks. 1721 I. 242 This is one of Ovid's finished stories. The transition to it is proper and unforced. 1790 PALEY Horæ Paul. xii. 8 2 Here we have a fair unforced example of coincidence. 1850 IRVING Goldsm. 177 The unforced humour, blending so happily with good feeling and good sense. 1883 D. C. MURRAY Hearts IX, His objections..were unforced and genuine.

3. Requiring or involving no physical exertion.

1643 DENHAM Cooper's H. 42 With such an easie and unforc't ascent. 1765 STERNE Tr. Shandy VIII. xix, By an unforced compression..of his cap with the thumb and the two forefingers.

Hence Unfo'rcedly adv.; Unfo'rcedness.

1652 C. SMITH Ovid's Met. XIII. Notes 451 This may vnforcedly admit of former interpretation. 1664 H. MORE Myst. Iniq. 261 The naturalness and unforcedness of this Imbibition shall be made good. 1696 M. HENRY Life P. Fearry IV. Wks. 1853 II. 637/1 Such a distribution as the matter did most easily and unforcedly fall into.

Unforcible, a. [UN-1 7.]

1. Lacking force or power.

1597 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. V. lxv. § 9 Wee cannot thinke that the signe which our new baptized foreheads did there receive, is either vnfruitfull, or vnforcible. 1871 MURPHY Gray's Inn Jrnl. No. 90, Pieces..unforcible in Sentiment, and destitute of Character.

2. Incapable of being forced or enforced.

1611 COTGR., Insforyable, vnforcible, vnexpugnable, impregnable. 1649 MILTON Tenure Kings 39, I wish them ..not to compell unforcible things in Religion especially.

Unforcibly, adv. (UN-1 11.) 1831 SCOTT Ct. Rob. V, So I did express myself,..and, as I trust, not altogether unforcibly. c 1890 A. MURDOCH Yoshiwara Episode 8 Which ..illustrates not unforcibly what a glorious thing the.. system is for the capitalist.

Unfordable, a. (UN-1 7 b and 5 b.)

1611 FLORIO, Inguazzabile, vnwadable, vnfoordable. 1649 TAYLOR Gt. Exemp. II. § 21 When he is to pass a sudden or unfordable flood. 1732 LAMBERT Acts II. 58 Their excursions..over unfordable rivers. 1834 PRINGLE Afr. Sk. 187 A very heavy rain..swells the river to an unfordable size. 1868 Rep. U.S. Commissioner Agric. (1869) 251 Many of the unfordable streams are still crossed by flat-boat ferries.

fig. a 1641 BP. MOUNTAGU Acts & Mon. (1642) 25 Many deep hidden mysteries, and unfordable.

Hence Unfo'rdableness.

1652 HELYLN Cosmogr. II. 193 The unfordableness of the River.

Unforded, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1697 DRYDEN Virg. Georg. III. 396 He..contemns Unruly Torrents, and unforded Streams. Unforeboded, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1818 COLERIDGE Impert Colonial Corn 3 Unforeboded Ill. 58 Their excursions..over unfordable rivers. 1834 PRINGLE Afr. Sk. 187 A very heavy rain..swells the river to an unfordable size. 1868 Rep. U.S. Commissioner Agric. (1869) 251 Many of the unfordable streams are still crossed by flat-boat ferries.

fig. a 1641 BP. MOUNTAGU Acts & Mon. (1642) 25 Many deep hidden mysteries, and unfordable.

Hence Unfo'rdableness.

1652 HELYLN Cosmogr. II. 193 The unfordableness of the River.

Unforded, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1697 DRYDEN Virg. Georg. III. 396 He..contemns Unruly Torrents, and unforded Streams. Unforeboded, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1818 COLERIDGE Impert Colonial Corn 3 In the event of ultimate failure of accustomed supplies not unforeboded. 1863 B. TAYLOR H. Thurston III. 284 A power,..as welcome as it was unforeboded, had usurped her life. Unforebo'ding, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1725 POPE Odyss. II. 212 Innumber'd birds glide through the aërial way, Vagrants of air, and unforeboding stray. 1863 MRS. OLIPHANT Chron. Carl. I. Salem Ch. xvii. 246 Could see the half-awakened girl starting up..unforeboding of evil. Unforegone, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 b.) 1844 MRS. BROWNING Vis. Poets 1 The life lay coiled unforegone Up in the awful eyes alone. Unforeign, a. (UN-1 7.) 1718 QUINCY Compl. Disp. 36 The Amalgamation of Metals..[is] not unforeign to this Head. Unforeknowable, a. (UN-1 7 b.) 1696 HOBBES Leviath. Syst. I. v. 710 Predictions of Future Events, otherwise unforeknowable to men. 1697 J. SERGEANT Solid Philos. 447 These, and a thousand other Unforeknowable Mischances.

Unforeknow'n, ppl. a. (UN-1 7 b.)

1667 MILTON P. L. II. 119 Foreknowledge had no influence on their fault, Which had no less prov'd certain unforeknown. a 1680 CHARNOCK Attrib. God (1834) I. 561 No man can certainly prove that anything is unforeknown to him. 1882 ARMSTRONG Gard. fr. Greece 95 Nor unforeknown it comes.

Unforensic, a. (UN-1 7.) 1838 CARLYLE Fredk. Gt. VIII. iv. II. 323 Fancy the hurry-scurry, the unforensic attitudes and pleadings! 1883 Edin. Rev. Jan. 245 The turn of his mind did not lead him astray into unforensic rhetoric.

Unforesee', v. [UN-1 14.] To fail to foresee.

a 1670 HACKETT Abp. Williams (1693) I. 171 The Lord Keeper did not unforesee how far this Cord might be drawn.

Unforesee'able, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

Also, in recent use, unforesee'ableness, -ably.

1672 SOUTH Serm. (1727) V. 300 By such unlikely and unforeseeable Ways does Providence sometimes bring about its great Designs. 1802-12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) I. 205 The suddenly put and unforeseeable question. 1877 MORLEY Crit. Miscs. Ser. II. 377 The source of continual and unforeseeable improvements.

Unforeseeing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10, 5 d.)
1602 Daniel Cleopatra 1. i. F iiij, My vnforeseeing weakenesse must intoome My Countries fame and glory with my fall. 1690 Child Disc. Trade Pref. A 7 b, May we not think that some..People in the World may be as un-foreseeing as this Gentleman pretends to be? 1758 Mun No.4. 3 An indulgent but unforeseeing parent. 1801 Southey Thalaba IV. xiv, Later years..teach me to regret Youth's unforeseeing indolence. 1886 Swinburne Misc. 130 The unforeseeing security of a charmed and confident happiness. absol. 1855 Singleton Virgil I. 94 Ne'er storm of rain Hath to the unforeseeing scathful proved.

b. Const. with object.
1871 M. Collins Marg. & Merch. II. iv. 172 Amy, unforeseeing anything of this sort, had been doing what she thought was her duty.

Hence Unforeseeingly adv.
1621 Florio, Improuistamente, vnprouidedly, suddainely, vnforeseeingly. 1832 Chalmers Pol. Econ. iii. 96 This sum ..might have been imprudently or unforeseeingly vested in the manufacture of luxuries.

Unforeseen, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b. Cf. MDu. onvoorzien, Du. onvvoorzien ; MHG. unvorsên.) 1651 Hobbes Leviath. iv. xliv. 334 By reasoning from the un-foreseen mischances. 1667 Milton P. L. II. 82 Through dire change Befallin us unforeseen, unthought of. 1725 Berkeley Proposal Works 1871 II. 248 Unforeseen difficulties may arise. 1778 Earl Carlisle in Jesse Selwyn & Contemp. (1844) III. 302 In case nothing unforeseen happens. 1836 W. Irving Astoria III. 132 Unless some unforeseen contingency should render a modification necessary. 1873 Whitney Life Lang. vii. 127 The unforeseen consequence of an external addition.

Hence Unforeseenly adv., -ness.
1853 G. J. Cayley Las Alforjas I. 104 A peasant appeared unforeseenly, and offered to carry me across. 1897 Daily News 21 Sept. 4/7 The ' unforeseenness ' of the cycle is its worst reproach in towns.

Unforeshortened, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1846 Worcester (citing Godwin). 1866 Herschel Familiar Lect. Sci. v. 8 10. 104 So as to be seen unforeshortened in the star.

Unforeskinned, (ppl.) a. (Un-1 9 or Un-2 4.) 1671 Milton Samson 1100 The glory of Prowess..won by a Philistine From the unforeskin'd race. Unforesta'led, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1657 J. Howe in R. Rogers Life (1836) 74 They shall meet with unforestalled judgments. 1698 Osborne Adv. Son Wks. (1673) 178 Unforestalled by a like custom.

Unforested, ppl. a.[1] [Un-1 8.] Not covered with forest; not included in a deer-forest.
1885 Pall Mall G. 11 Mar. 4/2 One class of incident..on unforested ground when in quest of deer. 1897 Outing XXIX. 387/2 The snowshoe..is better adapted to an unforested, or partially forested, hilly country.

Unforested, ppl. a.[2] [Un-2 6 b, 8.] Deprived of forest, or of the status of a forest; deforested.
1502 Arnolde Chron. (1811) 79 That alle the wareyn of Stanes wyth the apertinance be unwareyned and vnforested for euermore. 1881 Mommsen Hist. Rome Gong. II. 58 Sherwood Forest in Notts,..now almost unforested.

Unforethought, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b, c.) 1601 Daniel Cleo. Wars vi. vii, This unfore-thought-on accident confounds All their designes. 1839 [see Unfored ppl. a. 2]. Unforeto'ld, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b). 1846 Worcester (citing Ex. Rev.). 1853 Ruskin Stones Ven. II. iv. § 71 A silence has followed them, not unforetold. Unforewarned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1651 Cleveland Poems 38 The Devill sure such language did at(h)ens vnforewarned Grundam Eve. 1667 Milton P. L. v. 245 This let him know, Least.. he pretend Surprisal, unadmonisht, unforewarnd. 1814 Wordsw. Excurs. VII. 685 All unforewarned, The household lost their pride and soul's delight.

Unforfeit, a. (Un-1 7.) Unforfeited.
1631 Chapman Cæsar & Pompey II. 156 That most strangely Would put..powers (Unforfeit by my fault) in others' wills. 1742 Young Nt. Th. III. 96 This group Of bright ideas, flow'rs of Paradise, As yet unforfeit!

Unforfeitable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)
1648 Netherselle Problems 1. 3 Their rights ought..to be ..unforfeitable. a 1754 Carte Hist. Engl. (1755) IV. 62 Conveying an actual right..unforfeitable by any act of their father. 1894 W. R. Cotter Rocks Ahead 45 Short of declaring this peasant's farm inalienable,..unforfeitable for any negligence,..—how is he to keep it?

Unforfeited, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1595 Shakes. Merch. V. iii. vi. 7 To keepe obliged faith vnforfaited. 1663 Cowley Verses Sev. Occas. To the Royal Society 3 All that Human Knowledge which has bin Unforfeited by Mans rebellious Sin. Unforgeable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1837 Lockhart Scott III. x. 332 Stamped with the unforgeable seal of truth and nature. 1889 Pall Mall G. 30 Sept. 2/3 Genius is..no difficulty in the way of making a practically unforgeable note.

Unforged, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]
1. Not fashioned at the forge.
c 1374 Chaucer Former Age 49 Vnforged was the hawberke and the plate.

2. Not forged or counterfeit ; genuine.
1610 Br. Carleton Jurdan 102 You dare not auouch them to be vnforged. 1668 Fox Lawner's Met. iii. A letter printed From my vnforg'd relation. 1804 Europ. Mag. XLV. 367/2 We have as much reason to doubt the existence of any unforged manuscript upon this subject.

Unforgetful, a. (Un-1 7). -ness (Un-1 12). 1632 Lithgow Trav. vi. 288 A grateful and vnforgetfull Friee. 1850 Blackie Æschylus I. 111 For vengeance unforgetful, From their graves they call. 1888 Mackey Life Sp. Forbes ix. 76 The bishop's unforgetfulness of those to whom honour is due.

Unforgettable, a. Also -getable. (Un-1 7 b.)
1806 Ann. Rev. IV. 608 The unforgettable scenes of this fine poem. 1856 Emerson Eng. Traits i. 5 Wisdom, wit, and indignation that are unforgetable. 1873 M. Arnold Lit. & Dogma (1876) 173 In single sentences, which have their ineffaceable and unforgettable stamp.

Hence Unforgettably adv.
1871 Carlyle in Mrs. Carlyle Lett. (1883) II. 242 Jean's look unforgettably sad and grand. 1899 Mackail Life Morris I. 213 The powerful..face impressed itself unforgettably even on those who saw it but once.

Unforgetting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1777 Potter Æschylus, Prom. Ed. 33 The triple Fates and unforgetting furies. 1867 Howells Ital. Journ. 95 The latest witness of God's unforgetting justice.

Unforgi·v(e)able, a. (Un-1 7 b.)
Sometimes spec. with sin, in allusion to Matt. xii. 31.
1548 R. Hutten Sum of Divinitie H 3 b, Eueryre persecution of the Gospell is not to be iudged synne vnforgyueable. 1550 Latimer Last Serm. bef. Edw. VI, Wks. (Parker Soc.) 250 This sin it was that he thought to be unforgiveable. 1852 Southey Hist. Penins. War III. 195 Had as his conduct was, it would be his own fault if he made it unforgiveable. 1851 Carlyle Sterling I. vii, This is what it would have been the unforgivable sin to swerve from and desert. 1885 Manch. Exam. 17 June 4/7 The circumstances..ought to stamp it as an unforgivable offence.

Hence Unforgi·v(e)ably adv.
1890 Pall Mall G. 15 May 2/3 All these books sin unforgivenly against the scientific sense. 1897 ' M.S.B. Rayner ' Type-writer Girl xxi. 243, I have never acted.. grossly and unforgivably wrong.

Unforgi·ven, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 b. Cf. (in sense 2) OE. unforgifen, MDu. onvergeven.] †1. Sc. Without any remission. Obs.
1429 Sc. Acts Jas. I (1814) II. 12/1 Ande quha sa..be funden faulyie sal pay ane wylum..vnforgyn. 1442 Extr. Aberdeen Rec. (1844) I. 7 The said Master Jhon sal pay to kyrk werk xl s. vnforgiffin. 1510 Ibid. 81 Ane amerciament of viil s. vnforgiven. a 1578 Lindesay (Pitscottie) Chron. Scot. (S.T.S.) II. 242 Nane sould eit fleische on fydayes..vnder the paine of xx pounds on forgyvin for the first fault. 1622 Extr. Aberdeen Rec. (1848) II. 378 The counsailour.. sail pay for ilk dayis absence..twelff schillingis, money vnforgiven.

2. Not forgiven. Also absol.
1568 Harding Confut. Apol. Ch. Eng. v. vii. 251 b, That temporall satisfaction, which after the sacrament of penaunce is left vnforgiuen. 1737 Chesterf. Epitaph. Q. Charlotte 8 To her own offspring mercy she denied, And unforgiving, unforgiven died. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla V. 409 To present herself ..undemanded and unforgiven at Etherington, she thought impossible. 1819 Shelley Cenci iv. i. 89 As she shall die unshriven and unforgiven. 1849 Bailey Festus (ed. 2) 226 And thou wilt then be wretcheder than I†—The unforgiving than the unforgiven.

Unforgiveness. [Un-1 12.] = Unforgivingness.
1612 Florio, Impertinanza, vnforgiuenesse. 1748 Richardson Clarissa VII. 128 They are sufficiently barred from every imputation of unforgiveness. 1797 Mrs. A. M. Bennett Beggar Girl (1813) I. 65 He became notorious for ingratitude to his friends, and unforgiveness of his enemies. 1829 Fraser. Rev. XI. 276 Adding at that fearful moment the expression of his unforgiveness and his hate. 1870 T. Erskine Unconditional Freeness Gospel vii. 153 We cannot have confidence in any one who, we think, regards us with unforgiveness.

Unforgiver. (Un-1 12.) 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) VII. 26, I hope, however, that these unforgivers..were always good, dutiful, passive children to their parents.

Unforgiving, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)
1673 Rowe Tamo Shore iv, Accursed Jealousy! O merciless, wild and unforgiving Fiend! 1784 Cowper Task II. 247 Chatham..Secur'd it by an unforgiving frown. 1828 Scott F. M. Perth xi, I have brought the vengeance of an unforgiving devil upon this helpless creature. 1880 ' Ouida ' Moths II. 165 We are an unforgiving race.

absol. 1819 Shelley Cenci v. iii. 105 Canst Thou forgive even the unforgiving? 1845 [see Unforgiven 2].

Hence Unforgivingness.
1748 Richardson Clarissa VII. xlvii. 184 That cruelty and unforgivingness, which..have no example. 1890 L. Hunt Autobiog. II. xi. 55 An extraordinary mixture of ..good nature with unforgivingness. 1897 Mary Burt Browning's Women 52 Unforgivingness beyond a certain limit is a base crime.

Unforgo't, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 b.] = next.
1653 J. Taylor (Water P.) Cert. Trav. Uncert. Journey 15 But to them all my thanks is unforgot. a 1847 Eliza Cook Old Barn iv, Delight that is still unforgot. 1870 Morris Earthly Par. II. iv. 372 Many a tale yet unforgot.

Unforgotten, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b. Cf. MDu. and Du. onvergeten, MHG. unvergezzen, G. unvergessen.) 1813 Byron Giaour 103 Clime of the unforgotten brave! a 1822 Shelley Triumph Life 209 The great, the unforgotten,—they who wore Mitres and helms and crowns. 1850 H. Warburton Poems 1. 1. 1. The foe that would win ever again his unforgotten triumph.

Unfork, v. [Un-2 5, 6 b.]
1. trans. To remove from a fork.
1598 Florio, Disforcare, to vnforke. 1611 Ibid., Sforcinato, vnforked, vnhooked.

2. To make straight or plain.
1654 J. Cook Logick (a 1). It unforks Oracles, making them Toothless. 1657 Tomlinson Renou's Disp. Pref., Their Enigmatical expressions unforked and unvailed.

†Unforla·tit, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [Un-1 8 + MDu. verlaeten to draw off, rack (wine).] Not drawn off from one vessel into another.
1513 Douglas Æneid v. Prol. 53 Bot my propyne..[is] Vnforlatit, not jawyn fra tun to tun. Ibid. Direction 90 Vnforlatit, new drawn the berry run.

†Unforle·t, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [Un-1 8 b. Cf. OE. unforlæten.] Not abandoned or given up.
1513 Douglas Æneid xi. xi. 16 Ne this luf, suythly, is nocht cummin of new,..Bot of ald kyndnes lang tyme vnforlet.

Unforlo·rn, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 b. Cf. OFris. onforloren (unforfeited), MDu. and Du. onverloren, MHG. unverlorn (G. -loren), older Da. usforloren.] a. Not lost. b. Not bereft (of).
1567 Gude & Godlie B. (S.T.S.) 146 Zit keipit scho hir madinheid vnforlorne. 1633 J. Hayward tr. Biondi's Banish'd Virgi. 13 Yet was hee alive, and as yet unforlorne of either sense or memory.

†Unform, obs. var. of Unformed ppl. a. ?a 1400 in MS. Lincoln A 1 17 fol. 276 b, Whilom when a man was noughte, Bothe vnformne and vn toothe broghte.

Unform, v.[1] [Un-2 4.] trans. To divest of (a special) form ; to make formless. Also absol.
1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. II. (1626) 35 How great our act! how is our powre display'd! Vnform'd a Woman, and a Goddesse made. 1704 Hymn Victory xvi, He never form'd a proper Scheme, But they unform'd it ill or slight. a 1822 Shelley in Medwin Life II. 169 It was easier to form, than unform or reform. 1876 Gladstone in Contemp. Rev. June 12 It has formed Christian nations; or at least, has not un-formed them. 1882 Pall Mall G. 14 June 5/1 It unforms his style, and produces scrappy sentences.

Unform, v.[2] [Un-2 5.] trans. To rouse (a hare) from form.
a 1773 in Ruddiman Coll. Pieces (1773) 277 Such with the beagle rise, at dusky morn,..Unfourm the hare close squatted in her bush.

Unformal, a. [Un-1 7, 5 b.] = Informal 1.
c 1449 Pecock Repr. I. ii. 9 Thei schulden not be..se ruyde and vnformal and boistose in resonyng. 1597 Morley Introd. Mus. 81 Your fift, sixt, and seuenth notes be wilde and vnformall, for that vnformall skipping is condemned in this kinde of singing. 1661 Cameron Counterpoint 109 This passage from the flat to the sharp would be unformal. 1678 Sir G. Mackenzie Crim. Laws Scot. tr. xxiii. § 4 (1699) 249 Often times they return unformal verdicts. 1799 H. Mitchell Scottiscismes 87 The contract was unformal.

b. = Informal a. 1 b.
1825 Cath. Stanley Frnl. in Mem. (1879) 211 The unpunctual [people] are easy, good-tempered, unfussy,..unformal. 1858 M. Pattison Ess. (1889) II. 328 The rude independence of character, which was generated by that free and unformal life.

Hence Unformally adv.
1597 Morley Mus. 86 Your seuenth and eighth notes, wherein you fal..so vnformallie to B fa ♭ mi backe againe.

Unformalized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 a.) 1892 C. Brooke Villette xix, He listened so kindly, so teachably; unformalized by scruples.

Unformed, ppl. a.[1] [Un-1 8 and 5 b. Cf. MDu. ongeformet, -vormet (Du. -vormd), MHG. ungeformet (G. -formt), NFris. iinfuaremd.]
1. Not formed or fashioned into a regular shape ; not invested with any definite form.
a 1340 Hampole Pealter xxxii. 9 Yai ere fourmyd of vnfourmyd matere. 1382 Wyclif Deut. xxxvii. 6 Thow shalt bild there up an auter..of stonus vnfourmed and vnpolishid. 1599 Daniel Musophi. 952 Who..knows..What words in th' yet vnformed Occident, May come refin'd with th' accents that are ours? 1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. xv. 406 [He] sees Their bodies limme-lesse: these vnformed things In time put forth their feet, and after, wings. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. I. xii. 55 The unformed matter of the World, was a God, by the name of Chaos. 1712 Addison Spect. No. 309 ¶ 2 His Passage through the Regions of unformed Matter. 1825 Bull-baiting II. in Houlston Tr. I. No. 28. 6 His head so torn and mangled, that it appeared nothing but a frightful unformed mass of blood. 1885 Poultry Chron. II. 57/1 Those amateurs who, like myself, prefer..the breast small and unformed. 1877 Caird Philos. Kant II. i. 203 While matter altogether unformed is a mere abstraction.

b. transf. Of immaterial things : Not brought to a definite or properly developed state ; crude.
1689 Andres' Tracts II. 105 They would..endeavour to prevent what ill effects an Unform'd Tumult might produce. 1736 Butler Anal. I. v. 86 Mankind is left, by Nature, an unformed, unfinished Creature. 1774 Reid Aristotle's Logic vi. § 2 (1788) 144 Every science is in an unformed state until its first principles are ascertained. 1857 Buckle Civilis. I. xiv. 832 The chemical department of mineralogy is in an unformed and inarchical condition. 1880 Sayce Introd. Sci. Lang. viii. II. 188 The rude and unformed Bushman and the polished Finnic [language].

c. fig. Of persons (or the mind): Not developed by education or training ; unpolished.
1711 Addison Spect. No. 66 ¶ 2 You can't imagine how unformed a Creature it is. She comes to my Hands just as Nature left her. 1798 S. & Hr. Lee Canterb. T. II. 12 On [him],..in the helplessness of an unformed mind, his sister threw herself. 1856 Miss Yonge Daisy Chain I. xx, Ethel was very queer and unformed, and could do nothing by herself. 1894 Mrs. H. Ward Marcella I. 104 Very clever in some ways—and very unformed and almost—in others.

2. Not formed or made ; uncreated.
a 1325 Prose Psalter (1891) 194 Vnfourmed is be fader, vnfourmed is be sone, vnformed is be holi gost. c 1400 Pilgr. Sowle (Caxton, 1483) v. xiiv. 207 God hymself is nature vnformed and vnwrought that yeneth nature formed to euery creature. 1611 Cotgr., Informé,..also, vnformed, vnmade, vnfashioned. 1757 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 323 If the New Ministry yet unformed, should subsist. 1794 R. J. Sulivan View Nat. IV. 99 Would it not sound strangely to talk of a self-existent house, an uncaused pyramid, an unformed statue? a 1824 Byron Heav. & Earth I. iii, He broke forth Into the dawn, which lighted not the yet Unform'd forefather of mankind. 1889 Poultry Chron. II. 109/1 Lime..is especially necessary for making the as yet unformed bones.

†3. Unformed stars (or signs) : (see quots.). Obs.
1590 T. Hood Use Celestial Globe 34 b, The vnformed starres about the Scorpion. 1638 Chillmead tr. Huet' Treat. Globes (1889) 53 This Constellation hath..three vnformed..Starres. 1700 Moxon Math. Diet., Unformed Signs, such are those that are called Nebulous or Cloudy, scarce to be seen by the bare Eye or Instrument. 1764 J. Ferguson Lect. 185 Those stars which lie between the figures of those imaginary animals, and could not be brought within the compass of any of them, were called unformed stars. 1810 Vince Elem. Astron. 265.

†Unformed, ppl. a.[2] [UN-[1] 8.] = UNINFORMED ppl. a.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 760 Lest pe day vs be-dagheb..And I vnformet in faith how I fare shal.

Unformidable, a. (UN-[1] 7 b and 5 b.)

1669 Decay Chr. Piety xi. P 2 A gulk which nothing but our too familiar acquaintance with it could make unformidable. 1845 M'GEE Gallery Irish Writers 163 It was no unformidable degree of success which could call Clarendon against him. 1898 BODLEY France II. iii. v. 235 When a minister thus retains his portfolio, it is because he is unformidable.

Unformulated, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1866 Spect. 14 Apr. 406/1 The trustful, free, unformulated attitude of mind. 1899 MACKAIL Life Morris II. 115 The ambiguities of an unformulated creed.

Unforsaken, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 b.)

1648 HEXHAM II, Ondegeven, Vnforsaken. 1654 HAMMOND Fundam. viii. Wks. 1674 I. 290 Any sort of sins continued in or unforsaken. 1857 J. H. NEWMAN Serm. Var. Occas. vi. 100 Hearts polluted with mortal, unforsaken sin. 1864 PUSEY Lect. Daniel viii. 495 He...did not enter into a relation to His creature, only, of His own accord, Himself unforsaken, to end it.

Unforsaking, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.) 1862 MRS. NORTON Lady of La Garaye Ded. 74 Towards thee their thoughts shall roam, Whose unforsaking faith time hath not riven.

Unforsook, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 b.) 1838 MRS. BROWNING Seaside Walk v, Absent friends and memories unforsook.

Unforsworn, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 b.) 1636 MASSINGER Gt. Dk. Florence v. ii, Contino. You all conspire To force our mercy from us. Charomont. Which giv'n up To afterwhile preserves you unforsworne. †Unforthrinking, sb. and ppl. a. Obs. (UN-[1] 10.) 1483 Cath. Angl. 139/1 An Vnforthynkyng, poenitencia. Idem, Vn Forthynkyng, poenitens.

Unfortified, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

1525 LD. BERNERS Froiss. II. clxx. 484 The lorde of the Towre was sore blamed..that he had lefte that place vnfortifyed and vnprouyded. 1607 TOPSELL Four-f. Beasts 467 The which fearse ..finding the den vnfortified ..entred into the same. 1709 POPE Ess. Crit. 434 While their weak heads, like towns unfortify'd, Twixt sense and nonsense daily change their side. 1775 BURKE Sp. Conciln. Amer. Wks. III. 64 Trusting upon your unfortified frontiers a fierce and irresistible cavalry. 1849 GROTE Greece II. xlvii. (1862) IV. 170 Samos remained..unfortified, deprived of its fleet.

fig. 1602 SHAKES. Ham. I. ii. 96 It shewes..A Heart vnfortified, a Minde impatient. 1646 HAMMOND Sinnes 18 The will will be taken and unfortified and so..won to consent. 1705 COLLIER Ess. Mor. Subj. III. Pref. 14 PERSONS of the tendernest Age, of the most unfortified Sex..encountered the Fury of wild Beasts. 1802-12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) V. 659 A mere pecuniary interest, unfortified by any admixture of sympathy. 1888 Manch. Exam. 4 Feb. 5/2 This opinion,..unfortified by legal sanction.

Unfortify, v. (UN-[2] 3.)

1574 HELLOWES tr. Guevara's Fam. Epis. (1577) 272, I commaund you..to discamp your camp, and to vnfortifie Tordisillas. 1602 FLORIO Montaigne II. xv. 359 A peaceable time will require we shall vnfortifie them [sc. our houses].

†Unfortunable, a. Obs. [UN-[1] 7 b, 5 b.] Unfortunate.

1509 BARCLAY Ship of Folys (1570) 223 Which seeth and feeleth..That all his dedes are much unfortunable. 1567 FAYNELL tr. Treas. Amadis of Gaule 77 This manner of death..is so unfortunable, and so against reason. 1725 H. CAREW Contrivances (1729) 27 The Gentleman of this House, who was so unfortunable as to be kill'd by Thieves.

†Unfortunacy. Obs. [UN-[1] 12, 5 b.] Lack of good fortune; an unfortunate occurrence.

a 1575 tr. Pol. Verg. Eng. Hist. (Camden Soc. 29) 124 The rumor was spred thre dayes before by fleeing messenger, ..but in dede yt was the unfortuncy of king Henry. a 1662 HEYLYN Laud II. (1671) 312 The King he tacitly upbraids with the unfortunacies of his Reign by Deaths and Plagues.

Unfortunate, a. and sb. (UN-[1] 7 and 5 b.)

A. adj. 1. Of persons, etc.: Not favoured by fortune; meeting with bad fortune; suffering mishap or mischance; unlucky.

For examples of the superlative in -est see (b).

1530 PALSGR. 328/2 Unfortunate, .. malfortuné. 1553 BRENDE Q. Curtius iv. 55 b, I haue learned to be vnfortunate, and it is often times a comforte of a mans calamite to knowe his misshapp. 1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades 234 Hee was of all the Jewishe kinges..in his lyfe the most vnfortunate. 1656 Nicholas Papers (Camden) 315 He hath been not only unfortunate but in most circumstances but incompatible in business. 1680 Charac. Town-Miss (Hindley III) 5 She shall..fall a Sniveling and call herself the most unfortunate of Women. 1769 ROBERTSON Chas. V, II. Wks. 18/3 VI. 8 It was late next morning before the fate of the unfortunate prince was known. 1804-6 SYD. SMITH Mor. Philos. (1850) 218 You travel for twenty or five-and-twenty miles over one of the most unfortunate, desolate countries under heaven. 1889 MRS. ALEXANDER Valerie's Fate vi, The unfortunate gentleman was well known...What a blow his death will be to..his parties!

absol. 1674 DRYDEN Aureng. v. (1676) 72 Envious death will shun th'unfortunate. 1712 POPE Lett. (1735) I. 177 The Unfortunate of all People are the most ready to be left alone. 1781 GIBBON Decl. & F. xxvii. (1787) III. 7 He was taught, by cruel experience, that every gate is shut against the unfortunate. 1825 SCOTT Talism. xx, To have doomed the unfortunate to death might have been severity, but had a show of justice.

(b) 1622 R. HAWKINS Voy. S. Sea 2 The Revenge, which was ever the vnfortunatest Ship the late Queenes Maiestie had. 1639 S. DU VERGIER tr. Cameos d'Amour. Events 55 Tearming himselfe the unfortunatest of all lovers. 1840 DICKENS Old C. Shop xxix, I remember the time when he was the unluckiest and unfortunatest of men.

B. Consist. sb. Obs.[1]

1632 SPEED England, Wales II. vii, The Townes for commerce,..two of them vnfortunate of their former greatness.

c. In specific uses: (see quots.).

1785 GROSE Dict. Vulg. T., Unfortunate gentleman, the horse guards, who thus named themselves in Germany. 1796 — Unfortunate women, prostitutes. 1827 HAZLITT Guesses Ser. I. (1847) 154 As a strumpet is become an unfortunate female. 1883 MISS BETHAM-EDWARDS Disarmed xxxviii, Alice Ashe, seamstress, unmarried, 'unfortunate'.

2. Marked by, or associated with, misfortune or mishap; disastrous, inauspicious. Also, in weaker sense: Untoward, unlucky, regrettable.

a 1548 HALL Chron., Hen. VI, 178 What number of noble men haue ben..executed, sith that vnfortunate day. 1560 DAUS tr. Sleidane's Comm. 404 b, But after chaunced a time more vnfortunate. 1600 HAKLUYT Voy. III. 318 They put themselues to sea, and with so slender victuals, that the end of their interprise became vnluckily and vnfortunate. 1626 D'EWES in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. I. III. 218 By reason of suspicion of irregularitie upon the unfortunate killing of a man some few yeares since. 1672 MILTON Samson 747 In some part to recompense My rash but more unfortunate misdeed. 1779 Mirror No. 33, But for this unfortunate weakness, Mr. Gold..would make one of the best of husbands. 1846 MRS. A. MARSH Father Darcy II. xxi. 254 Would not some link of connexion with this 'unfortunate business', as he styled it, be detected? 1889 MRS. ALEXANDER At Bay iii, Is it not unfortunate?..my father can not return till to-morrow. 1890 Retrospect Med. CII. 103 The word 'massage' seems rather an unfortunate one to apply to the procedure.

B. sb. 1. One who is unfortunate; an unfortunate person.

1683 T. HOY Agatholes 23 But of the brave Unfortunates was none Whose glorious Suffrings Philocles out-shone. 1697 BURGHOPE Disc. Relig. Assemb. 87 Out of pity to those unfortunates that are design'd for that place [sc. hell]. 1776 S. J. PRATT Pupil of Pleas. (1777) I. 206 You..appeared only the light of a person, not allied to the parent of that dear unfortunate. 1801 Monthly Mag. II. 131 You will not be able to avoid pitying these unfortunates when they inform you that their souls are mortal. 1875 WHITNEY Life Lang. i. 2 These unfortunates are wont to be trained and taught by those who speak.

2. A fallen woman; a prostitute.

1844 HOOD Bridge of Sighs i, One more Unfortunate.. Gone to her death! 1866 ROGERS Agric. & Prices I. v. 118 Unfortunates committed to prison were in evil case.

3. Irish. An idiot.

1881 Folk Lore Rec. IV. 113 Do you see that 'innocent' or 'unfortunate' or 'object'?

†Unfortunate, v. Obs. [UN-[2] 6 a.] trans. To make unfortunate or unlucky.

1602 CAREW Cornwall 101 b, By his dreery influence, [he] unfortunateth any birth that shal then casually befall. 1653 W. RAMESEY Astrol. Restored 317 An Eclipse of the Sun.. unfortunateth the Sea and the affairs thereof.

Hence †Unfortunating ppl. a.

1647 LILLY Chr. Astrol. xxii. 131 If the unfortunating Planet be in the seventh.

Unfortunately, adv. [f. UNFORTUNATE a.] In an unfortunate manner; unhappily, unluckily.

1548 ELYOT, Infelicliter, vnhappily, vnfortunately. 1560 DAUS tr. Sleidane's Comm. 262 b, The death of kinge Frances chaunced vnfortunately for studentes. 1621 LADY M. WROTH Urania 536 Shee was..the vnfortunatelest married, and vnhappiest wife this Countrey had. 1651 HOBBES Leviath. 300 Sidney Godolphin, who..was unfortunately slain in the..late Civill warre. 1700 DRYDEN Sigismo. & Guiscard 69 She, Ev'n kept her Count'nance, when the Lid remov'd Disclosed the Heart, unfortunately lov'd. 1710 STEELE Tatler No. 204 ¶ 4 We use Words of Respect sometimes very unfortunately.

b. In parenthetic or detached use.

1706 E. WARD The Wooden World Diss. (1708) 37 He might unfortunately have grown up to be a Pedant. 1779 Mirror No. 10, Unfortunately for us, we found with our friend a number of his jovial companions. 1827 FARADAY Chem. Manip. 472 Unfortunately this evil increases with the heat. 1874 J. GEIKIE Gt. Ice Age xiv. 283 These relics, unfortunately, have almost invariably been lost or mislaid.

Unfortunateness. (UN-[1] 12 and 5 b.)

1561 T. HOBY tr. Castiglione's Courtyer iv. (1577) X ij b, Although it pretteth them in afflictions, daunguers, trauels, and..unfortunatenesse. 1608 T. MORTON Preamb. Encounter 123 The vnfortunatenesse of this his declamatorie calumniation. 1694 GAYTON Pleas. Notes II. xxv. 285 O the unfortunateness of this adventure! 1697 COLLIER Ess. Mor. Subj. I. 205 To play upon the Indigence..of another; and take an advantage from the Unfortunateness of his Condition. 1867 BP. WILBERFORCE Let. in Life (1882) III. 277, I cannot agree as to the unfortunateness of the language.

Unfortune. Now arch. [UN-[1] 12, 5 b. Cf. WANFORTUNE.] Misfortune, mischance; bad luck.

c 1470 Gol. & Gaw. 1225 Quhan on-forthe quhelmys the quheil, thair gais grace by. 1483 CAXTON Cato g iij, Thys fealwe mocqued..suche one now late of his unfortune and mysery. a 1529 LD. BERNERS Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. (1546) ff iv, The calme sesion moste sure, is the vigile of the more vnfortune. 1647 HEXHAM I. s.v., A Vnfortune that cold not be auoided. 1888 STEVENSON Black Arrow 164 What unfortune (if I have had), ye have noways deserved.

Unfortuned, a. rare. [UN-[1] 9.] Connected with, visited by, misfortune.

c 1403 LYDG. Temple of Glas 389 Purus be cruelte Of old Saturne, my fadur vnfortuned. 1909 R. BRIDGES Virgil's Æneid vi. 618 Sitteth and to eternity shall sit Unfortun'd Theseus.

Unfossiliferous, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1836 T. THOMSON Min., Geol., etc. II. 193 The unfossiliferous stratified formations. 1882 GEIKIE Geol. Sk. 192 The rocks of Scotland are, as a whole, unfossiliferous. Unfossilized, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1846 WORCESTER (citing Qu. Rev.). 1848 OWEN in Times 14 Nov. 9/1 The carcase of such reptiles..in a recent or unfossilized state. 1887 MOLONEY Forestry W. Africa 197 Newer resins (unfossilized). Unfostered, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1744 ARMSTRONG Preserv. Health II. 170 No youth of genius whose neglected bloom Unfoster'd sickens in the barren shade. 1849 C. IRONTS N. Ayre xiv, I was..partial to the unfledged, unfostered and unlucky. Unfo'thered, ppl. a. Sc. [UN-[1] 8.] Not foddered. 1725 RAMSAY Gentle Sheph. II. i, Like the pack-horse that's unfother'd And burden'd, [they] soll tumble down faint.

Unfought, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 b, 8 c; cf. next.)

1. Of persons: Not fought with or for.

1523 LD. BERNERS Froiss. I. xviii. 25 He toke mede and money of the Scottis, to thentent they myght departe prynsely by nyght, vnfoughte withall. 1586 J. HOOKER Hist. Ire. 148/1 in Holinshed II, Thinking it should be too great a dishonour vnto him to be bearded with a traitor, and to let him depart vnfought withall. 1619 FLETCHER, etc. Knt. Malta i. iii, Mountferrat should perceive my Sister had A Brother would not live to see her dye Unfought for. 1699 B. HARRIS Parival's Iron Age 211 Prince Rupert..might have gone away unfought with but that such counsell was too cold for so hot a stomach. [1822 SCOTT Halidon Hall i. ii. 9 If we leave it Unfought withal, it squares not with our honour.]

b. Not encountered in fight; without fighting.

1596 Edward III, iii. iii. 139 These English faine would spend the time in words, That, night approching, they night escape vnfought. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis ix. 159 For fly they cannot, and, constrained to stay, Must yield unfought, a base inglorious prey.

2. Of battles, etc.: Not fought; uncontested.

1669 EARL ORRERY Parthen. (1676) 738 How many Battels ..had been unfought? 1807 WORDSW. White Doe III. 217 We yield [and can it be?] an unfought field! 1820 HARD Eve of Battle 68 Anticipation fires his brain With fights unfought. 1898 Westm. Gaz. 6 June 2/2 We think that the constituency ought not to go unfought.

Unfoughten, ppl. a. Now arch. [UN-[1] 8 b. Cf. MDu. and Du. ongevochten, MHG. ungevohten (without fighting).] = prec.

1475 Bk. Noblesse (Roxb.) 47 Youre gret adversarie of Fraunce..fled and voided unfoughten at the said Jorney of Senlis. c 1500 Three Kings Sons 89 In asmoche as we haue ben so long vnfoughten with. ? 1535 Battle of Otterburn xli. in Child Ballads III. 297 If that I weyride vnfoughten away, He wolde me call but a kowarde knyght. a 1575 tr. Pol. Verg. Eng. Hist. (Camden No. 29) 140 He had sufferyd them..to passe by him vnfoughten withal. 1811 SCOTT Don Roderick iii. viii, But thou—unfoughten will thou yield to Fate? 1867 MORRIS Jason IX. 369 Soothly, have we no will to fight with thee If we may pass unfoughten.

Unfou'laihe, a. (UN-[1] 7 b.) 1862 Catal. Internat. Exhib. II. No. 2796, Unfoulable anchor. 1884 Health Exhib. Catal. 82/1 Treated with our patent unfoulable enamel.

Unfouled, ppl. a.[1] [UN-[1] 8 + FOUL v.[1]] Not made foul or impure; undefiled.

c 1380 WYCLIF Sel. Wks. III. 388 Seyn Iame seis, For pis is a clene religioun,..to kepe a mon unfouldi fro pis worlde. a 1425 Cursor M. 19504 (Trin.), God him kepte..His hondes vnfouled of monnes blood. a 1470 HARDING Chron. LXXII. vii, Hir wyfehode..Afore that tyme euer was kept vnfouled. 1653 H. MORE Antid. Ath. II. xii. § 3 Light and Colours unfoul'd and unsophisticated by any inward tincture.

†Unfoul, ppl. a.[2] Sc. Obs. [UN-[1] 8 + FOUL v.[2]] Unexhausted.

1535 W. STEWART Cron. Scot. (Rolls) II. 412 Kenethus than ..maid effter thame till go The freschest men [that] onfowlilit wer in feild.

Unfound, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8 b, 8 c. Cf. ON. ófundinn, older Da. ufunden, Du. ongevonden.] Not found; undiscovered. Also with out.

1584 LYLY Campaspe v. ii, Content to lyue vnknowne, and die vnfoundde. 1644 QUARLES Barnabas B. (1655) 121 Being lost, hee seekes himselfe vnfound, or findes himself e vnknowne. 1678 DRYDEN & LEE Œdipus i. i, But for the Murderer's self, vnfound by Man, Find him ye Pow'rs Celestial and infernal. 1721 RAMSAY Content 316 More than seventy years..I've sought this court, till now unfound by me. 1818 BYRON Ch. Har. iv. cxxiv, Unfound the boon, unslaked the thirst. 1898 RIDER HAGGARD Heart of World xi, Our eyes might behold the greatest of these cities, sought for many generations but as yet unfound.

(b) 1621 G. SANDYS Ovid's Met. II. (1626) 28 To farthest Earth affrighted Nilus fled; And there conceal'd his yet vnfound-out head.

Unfound, v. (UN-[2] 3.)

c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode III. viii. (1869) 139 To a king it is thing reprouable..to vnfoundde foundacions that bise auncestres haueu founded.

Unfounded, ppl. a.[1] [UN-[1] 8 + FOUND v.[1]] Having no foundation or basis; chiefly fig., groundless, unwarranted.

1648 HEXHAM II, Ongegrondet, Vngrounded, or Vnfounded. 1667 MILTON P. L. II. 829, I..one for all My self expose, with lonely steps to tread Th' unfounded deep. 1785 BURKE Nabob of Arcot Wks. IV. 282 These debts..[he] at one stroke expunged..as utterly irrecoverable; he might have added, as utterly unfounded. 1828 LYTTON Pelham I. xxxiv, I advance a claim not altogether new and unfounded. 1855 Orr's Circ. Sci., Inorg. Nat. 129 Vague speculations and unfounded theories concerning the origin of things. 1889 Law Rep. 11 Q.B.D. 593 The imputation..was altogether unfounded and absurd.

Hence Unfoundedly adv.

1820 SCOTT Monast. xxvi, I should wish to know the author ..of all these suspicions, so unfoundedly urged against me. 1883 Law Times Rep. XLIX. 257/1 Bringing a civil action, however unfoundedly.

†Unfounded, ppl. a.[2] Obs. [UN-[1] 8 + FOUND v.[3]] Not numbed or powerless.

14.. Sege Jerusalem (E.E.T.S.) 35/618 Pel wynnen vp wholly be walles to kepe, Fresche vnfounded folke.

Unfo'red, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.] Sober. 1622 J. TAYLOR (Water P.) Farewell to the Tower Bottles A 2 b, Yet alwayes 'twas my chance in Bacchus spight, To come into the Tower, vnfo'ed vpright. Unfra'ctured, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1724 De Foe's Tour Gt. Brit. (ed. 3) I. 262 Its huge Bulk lies unfractur'd. Unfra·grant, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) 1868 Rushkin Pr. & Pl. Note-bks. 1872) II. 211 Children ..excedingly unfragrant, but very courteous and gentle. 2880 Ruskin Bible Amiens i. (1884) 4 Extensive plains of useful and not unfragrant peat. Unfra·grantly, adv. (Un-1 12.) 1883 Harper's Mag. June 120/1 If fumed not unfragrantly. †Unfrai·sted, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 8.] Untried, inexperienced. ?a 1400 Morte Arth. 2736 Bot I ame bot a fawntkyne, vn-fraysteede in armes. Ibid. 2861. Unfra·ternizable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1504 Hooker Eccl. Pol. i. xvi. § 6 The cause of..their disposition so vnfraternable vnto societies wherein they liue. 1597 Ibid. v. ix. § 7 The matter which he hath to worke on is vnfraimable. Unfra·m(e)ableness. (Un-1 12.) 1648 Sanderson Serm. (1673) 9 The unframableness of our nature, to the doing of anything that is good.

†Unfra·me, sb.: see Un-1 3.

Unfra·me, v. [Un-2 3.]

†1. trans. To distress, trouble. Obs.—1

c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 1213 Wintres forð-wexen on ysaac, And ysmael was him vn-swaer; Often it gan ysaac un-framen.

2. To take to pieces; to destroy. Also fig.

a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. V, 46 All the bridges wer by his enemies broken and unframed. 1603 J. Davies (Heref.) Microcosmos Wks. (Grosart) I. 83/2 The Pynns, the Tenons, Beams, Bolts, ..All which they marke when they doe it vn-frame. 1621 Sanderson Serm. I. 179 The curse of God ..gnaweth asunder the pins and the joynts of the building, till it have unframed it, and resolved it into a ruinous heap. a 1716 South Serm. (1744) VIII. v. 129 Sin has unframed the fabrick of the whole man.

†b. To undo. Obs.

1567 Turberv. Epit., etc. 82 b, Those two agreed with common voyce my bondage to vnframe.

3. To dislocate; to throw into confusion or disorder, to distract.

1594 Hellowes Guevara's Fam. Ep. (1584) 109 You are much offended by manie slaunderers that deprave your doings, and unframe your attempts. 1603 J. Davies (Heref.) Microcosmos Wks. (Grosart) I. 55/1 Dissastrous Richard second of that name, ..Who did the forme of this State quite vnframe. 1668 Owtram Morall. Sen II. (ed. 3) 14 It unframes our Spirit; and thence is called the sin that so easily besets us. 1737 [Dorrington] Philip Quarll 87 This unexpected but lucky Adventure, like a sudden Surprize, unfram'd his Reason.

Unfra·med, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not formed or moulded, unfashioned.

1548 Udall, etc. Erasm. Par. John vi. 37 b, He fourneth and fasshyoneth the rude and vnframed witte with certayne principles. 1592 Savile Tacitus, Agricola 238 To compose, though in rude and vnframed speech, a memorie of our late thraldome. 1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. i. (1626) 1 The Sea, the Earth, al-couering Heauen vnfram'd, One face had Nature, which they Chaos nam'd.

2. Not set or enclosed in a frame.

1718 Pope Lett. (1737) 201 He lugg'd out the tatter'd fragments of an unframed picture. 1885 Howells Silas Lapham (1891) I. 13 A large warped, unframed photograph.

Unfra·nchised, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1648 Hexham II, Onbevrijdt, Vnfreed, or Vnfranchized. [1775 Ash.] 1832 A. W. Fonblanque Eng. under 7 Administr. (1837) II. 284 This honest element will only derive from his suffrage a share..which his unfranchised neighbour will also enjoy. 1847 Grote Greece II. xxxi. IV. 217 The memorable partnership..between Kleisthenês and the unfranchised multitude.

†Unfra·ngible, a. Obs. (Un-1 7 and 5 b.) 1601 Dolman La Primaud. Pr. Acad. (1618) III. 847 Iron, be it neuer so thin, is made vnfrangible by blowes. 1654 Jer. Taylor Real Pres. 198 That body of Christ which is in heaven..being whole and impassible, and unfrangible. Unfrank, a. (Un-1 7.) 1861 C. W. S. Brooks Silver Cord xxvi, Impertinent curiosity, and..unfrank conversation. Unfrank·able, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1829 Southey Lett. (1856) III. 106 The next question is how to transport them..; for they are of an unfrankable shape and texture.

Unfra·nked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8. Cf. G. unfrankiert, Da. ufrankeret, Sw. ofrankerad.) a 1765 D. Mallet Let. in Pearson's Catal. No. 81 (1900) 50 My last letter was franked by Mr. Nugent. Perhaps that was the cause of its miscarriage. I therefore send this unfranked. 1809 Sir G. Jackson Diaries & Lett. (1873) I. 3, I wondered..that a letter—an unfranked one, too—should follow me. 1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. III. xv, Heavy Packets, most of them unfranked.

Unfra·ternal, a. (Un-1 7.) 1865 Carlyle Fredk. Gt. xx. v, A not unfraternal or unpatriotic procedure. 1879 Farrar St. Paul I. 447 To them..he never utters one single disrespectful or unfraternal word. Unfrau·dulent, a. (Un-1 7.) 1590 Swinburne Testaments 237 To take of the goods..by the lawful & vnfraudulent gift of the testator.

†Unfrau·ght, sb. Obs.—1 [Un-1 12.] Want of cargo or freight.

1436 Libel Eng. Policy in Pol. Poems (Rolls) II. 191 And now so fele shippes thys yere there were, That moche losse for unfraught w.r. unfreyght did bye.

Unfrau·ght, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.)

1587 Turberv. Trag. T. (1837) 16 With manly minde, and mouth unfraught of feare. 1605 Bacon Adv. Learn. II. To the King § 12 Minides empitie & vnfraught with matter. 1650 Asshole Chym. Collect. Prol. 25 Such Vessants doubtless are empty and unfraught. 1709 Brit. Apollo II. No. 53. 2/2 Men of narrow Intellects are Unfraught with..Noble Ideas.

†Unfrau·ght, v. Obs. [Un-2 3.] trans. To unload, discharge.

1559 Mirr. Mag. (1563) X ij, Suffiseth nowe this playnt.. Whereof my hart his bottome hath unfraught. 1633 P. Fletcher Purple Isl. vi. xix, Then thou deare swain, thy heav'nly load unfraught. 1773 J. Ross Fratricide i. 413 (MS.), Meantime, unfraughting thus returning love, He to his Mother runs.

†Unfray·ed, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. (Un-1 8.) Undaunted. 1536 Bellenden Cron. Scot. (1541) 142 b/2 Thir men..went, with vnfrayit curage, to ye wallis. 1680 in Proc. Soc. Antiq. Scot. XIV. 489 Beliving in the sufficencie of a Saviour..quherby ye may stand unfraid befor his tribunall.

†Unfray·ed, ppl. a. Obs.—1 [Un-1 8.] Unasked. a 1275 Ancr. 332 Schrift ouh to beon willes, bet is, willeliche, ureined (MS. C. unfreined). †Unfre·desible, a. Obs. [Un-1 7 b + Freder v.] Insensible; without feeling. c 1450 in Alphita (Ancest. Oxon.) 123 note, A fishe pat..yf fissher put his honde upon hit bit makep his honde onfredesible.

Unfree, a. [ME. unfre (Un-1 7), = MDu. onvri (Du. onvrij), OHG. unfrî (MHG. unvrî, G. unfrei), WFris. on-, ûnfrij, MDa. and Da. ufri, MSw. and Sw. ofri.]

†1. Ignoble, base. Obs.—1

c 1320 Sir Tristr. 2727 Pou sloui his breber þre In fist: Vrgan and morgan vn-fre And moraunt, þe noble knist.

2. Characterized by want of freedom.

13.. E. E. Allit. P. B 1120 So if folk be defowled by vnfre chance,..he may polyce hym at þe prest, by penaunce taken. 1568 Grafton Chron. II. 120 The election beyng vnfree,..eche of them almost of necessitie must make the other. 1849 Kemble Saxons in Eng. I. 203 Serfs by reason of unfree birth. 1882-4 Stubbs's Engyl. Relig. Reviews. 2206 The State..must be invested with all power over industry, which thus may be called practically unfree.

†3. Not at liberty to do something. Obs.

c 1380 Wyclif Wks. (1880) 284 ȝif lordis myȝte seyne heritage to clerkis, þei weren unfree to helpe here soulis.

4. Not possessed of personal liberty; destitute of freedom.

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. I. 363 And so, as myche as in hem is, þei have maad Crist unfree. 1587 Golding De Mornay xii. 207 If it be demanded why God created man free, and not vnfree. 1602 J. Davies (Heref.) Mirum in Modum Wks. (Grosart) I. 28/1 Better vnfree (saist thou) then be so ill, But 'tis not ill at libertie to bee.

1849 Kemble Saxons in Eng. I. 203 The children..of parents who are both unfree, or..of one unfree parent. 1869 Kingsley Hereward xx, All the folk, free and unfree, man and woman, were out on the streets. 1882 Weeden Soc. Law Labor 40 The savage is the most unfree man in the world.

absol. 1587 Rel. Kingdome (1605) 54 The citizens of chiefs chooseing..their companions-in-arms, from among the most valiant of the unfree. 1874 Green Short Hist. I. § 2 (1882) 13 A slave class, a class of the unfree.

5. Not holding the position of a free or privileged member of a corporation. Obs. or arch.

1442 Exetr. Aldred Rec. (1904) I. 8 Item, that al the communytie, alsweile vnfree as free men, be sworne to rise..in the defence of the toune. 1459-60 Cal. Anc. Rec. Dublin (1889) 303 They be put out of thier franches and ymad unfree. 1574 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. V. 49 None of the inhabitance of Galway, free or unfree, yonge or old. 1608 in Gross Gild Merch. (1890) I. 150 note, Anie Englishe borne subject beinge vnfree or no member of this fellowship. 1687 Luttrell Brief Rel. (1857) I. 497 The lord mayor might drink to one as sheriff free or unfree of the citty. 1717 in J. J. Vernon Parr. & Kirk Hewick (1900) 205 Payd..for the bells tolling at the buriall of every unfree person within the said toun.

6. Not free of duty, tax, or impost; not exempt from commercial restrictions.

1678 Sir G. Mackenzie Crim. Laws Scot. I. xxvi. § ii. (1699) 130 The Customers Officers were about to poynd some unfree goods. 1684 Lond. Gaz. No. 1916/1 No such Clause or Provision as makes Free Goods to become Unfree when Laden and taken in Unfree Ships.

Unfree, v. [Un-2 6 a.] trans. To make unfree; to deprive of freedom.

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. III. 431 Also oblishyng of men unfreeȝ hem to God.

Unfreed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1656 Rep. Privy Council Scot. I. 423 How lang that evir the said Thomas remanit in Inglland unfreed or put to libertie. 1648 Hexham II, Onbevrijdt, Vnfreed, or Vnfranchized. 1715 Pope Iliad II. 213 Shall beauteous Helen still remain unfreed? 1852 M. Arnold Summer Night 51 Death in their prison reaches them Unfreed, having seen nothing, still unblest. 1873 W. Morris Love is Enough 127 Few folk as friends shall unfreed Pharamond meet.

Unfree·dom. (Un-1 12.) c 1380 Wyclif Wks. (1880) 286 þe moste vnfredom is vnfredom of synne, for þat makiþ a man seruaunt..to þe fend. 1884 Athenæum 12 Apr. 465/3 Slavery as distinct from enfreedom died out very early in England. †Unfree·holder. Sc. Obs. (Un-1 12.) 1507 Cartr. Aberd. Reg. (1844) I. 436 [Selling of ale] be fre folkis, and..be vnfreholdaris.

†Unfreely, a. Obs [Un-1 7.] Not beautiful.

c 1300 Cursor M. 8082 Pair muthes wide, pair eien brade, Vn-freli was pair face made! c 1450 Holland Howlatis 56 Quhy is..My name and my feitheren vnfreely, but fair? Ibid. 851. a 1568 Stewart in Bannatyne MS. (Hunter. Club) 307/35 Fast vnfrely fowll flobbis, And bubillis full lyk.

Unfree·man. Now arch. [f. Unfree a. 5.]

One who is not a freeman of a corporation.

1445 in Charters, etc. Edinb. (1871) 67 Of strangearis and of vnfreemen. 1480 Newcastle Merch. Vent. (Surtees) I. 3 The acknt [=act] of collarying of an unfremans gudes. 1511 Burgh Rec. Edinb. (1869) I. 134 Pakkis of lint..brocht to the samyn be vnfreemen and straynyeris. 1584 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. V. 433 Any goodes that apertayned to unfreemen (as it is termed). 1627 in Irving Hist. Dumbarton. (1860) 476 Gif ony freeman byis the same..for the use and behoof of an unfreeman..or wᵗ unfreemans moneyis to ane unfreemans behoof. 1797 Lond. Gaz. No. 4906/1 The Duties to be paid by the Unfreemen Importers of Coals into the Port..of Great Yarmouth. 1788 Faculty Decisions II. 30-1 (E.D.D.) That the three saddlers should be discharged to pack and peel with unfreemen. 1824 Scott Redgauntlet ch. x, I am not a person to pack or peel with Jacobites, and such unfreemen as poor Redgauntlet. 1876 Grant Burgh Sch. Scot. 141 The supplying of instruction to the son and daughter of every burgess and unfreeman.

†Unfree·ness. Obs. (Un-1 12.) 1648 Hexham II, Onvryigheydt, Vnfreeenesse, or Subjection. 1657 Thurloe in State Papers (1742) VI. 281 The three great men professing their great unfreeness to act,..sayd, that [etc.].

Unfree·ze, v. [Un-2 3 and 7.]

1 trans. To cause to thaw.

1584 Hudson Du Bartas' Judith iv. 196 Loues firy dart Could neuer vnfreeze the frost of her chast hart. 1598 Florio, Disghiacciare, to vnfreeze, to thaw. 1621 Ordiny Æsop (1666) 11 Such Trumpeters would blood turn'd Ice unfreeze. 1879 Miss Bird Lady's Life Rocky Mount. I. 280 Eggs, butter, milk,..have to be unfrozen.

fig. 1639 N. Whiting Albino & Bellama 56 Such quicking heat..That thawd his frozen ice, and did unfreeze his tongue. 1670 Brooks London's Lament. 41 God by fiery tryals will unfreeze the frozen graces of his people. 1862 Thornbury Turner II. 125 At an age when..he could not unfreeze himself into hospitality.

2. intr. To become thawed. Also fig.

1662 J. Davies tr. Olearius' Voy. Ambass. 64 The cold having..pierc'd to the Centre of the earth, it must have leasure to unfreeze. 1746 W. Hobsley Fool (1748) I. 234, I wish he would put off his Humour to the ensuing May, when the Virgin Heart unfreezes.

Unfree·zing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1775 T. Smith Jrnl. (1849) 270 It has been a wonder of a winter, so moderate and unfreezing. 1897 Outing XXIX. 555 Ghastly in its shroud of snow and the blackness of unfreezing waters about it.

†Unfreight, sb.: see Unfraught sb.

Unfrei·ght, v. (Un-2 3.) 1580 H. Gifford Gillofloweres 36 Unfraight the shippe of all unlawfull wares. Unfrei·ghted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1775 Ash.] 1854 Paynore Angel in Vo. I. viii. 5 [I] Breathed with a heart unfreighted.

†Unfreme: see Un-1 3.

Un-French, a. (Un-1 7.)

1830 Miss Mitford Our Village Ser. iv. 74 A step..so un-French, so un-English. 1890 N. Hawthorne Amer. Note-bks. (1891) 280 This poor little Frenchman,..eating our most un-French victuals. 1898 E. FitzGerald Lett. (1889) I. 423 Alfred [de Musset] appears to me a fine Fellow, very un-French in some respects.

Un-French, v. (Un-2 6 a.) trans. To translate from French. 1605 Gaywood in Sylvester's Du Bartas Pref. Soan., Whom..loue to Heau'n and vs, Mou'd to vn-French his learned labours thus. Unfre·nchified, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1784 P. Oliver in T. Hutchinson's Diary (1886) II. 400 Be sure, return unfrenchified in thought, word, and deed. 1833 T. Hook Love & Pride, Marquess vii, Following the extremely unfrenchified fashion.

Unfre·nchify, v. (Un-2 6 c.)

1598 Florio, Sgrenciosare, ..vnfrenchifide. 1814 Edinb. Rev. Sept. 297 We are glad..to have the assistance of a Parisian..to help to unfrenchify them.

Unfre·nzied, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1808 in Spirit Pub. Jrnls. IX. 243 In thy calmer and unfrenzied hour.

Unfre·quency. Now rare or Obs. (Un-1 12, 5 b.)

1611 Cotgr., Infrequence, vnfrequencie, solitarinesse. 1662 Glanvill Lux Orient. 133 This may be the reason of the unfrequency of their appearance. 1753 Miss Collier Art Torment. 224 The frequency of corporal punishments, and the unfrequency of rewarding men. 1802-12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) V. 708 The comparative unfrequency of criminative perjury. 1834 Good's Study Med. (ed. 4) IV. 397 A point, however, of less importance, from the unfrequency of their occurrence.

Unfre·quent, a. [Un-1 7 and 5 b.]

1. = Infrequent a. 3.

1611 Florio, Infrequente, vnfrequent, seld, not frequent. 1712 Steele Spect. No. 472 P 1 This Misfortune is so very great and unfrequent, that one would think, an Establishment for all the Poor under Heaven might be easily accomplished. 1793 Coleridge Songs of Pixies iii, Beneath whose foliage pale Fann'd by the unfrequent gale We shield us from the Tyrant's mid-day rage. 1824 Miss Mitford Village Ser. I. 216 In those unfrequented spots which destroy all vegetation. 1866 Howells Venet. Life v. 63 The blond, unfrequent beauty of the German aliens.

b. With preceding negative.

1665 Boyle Occas. Reft. ii. xiii. 230 As Deliriums and Phrensies are now unfrequent in Fevers. 1749 J. Mason Numbers in Poet. Compositions 57 This is a peculiar close, but not unfrequent in Milton. 1831 Scott Ct. Rob, vii, A personage not so unfrequent in the streets of Constantinople as to excite any particular notice. 1874 Mill Pol. Econ. (ed. 7) 200 This is, however, a not unfrequent case, in which the purpose of the borrower is different.

†2. = Infrequent a. 2. Obs.—1

1618 Rowlands Sacred Mem. 24 This place is solitary, vnfrequent; We are belated.

Unfrequent, v. [Un-1 14 or Un-2 3.] trans. To refrain or cease from frequenting.

1598 Florio, Disconuersare, to vnfrequent, not to conuerse together. Ibid., Sconuersare, to disaccompanie, to vnfrequent. 1708 J. Philips Cyder i. 404 Glad to shun his hostile Gripe, They quit their Thefts, and unfrequent the Fields.

Unfreque·nted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1588 Shaks. Tit. A. II. i. 115 The Forrest walkes are wide and spacious, And many vnfrequented plots there are. 1653 H. Cogan tr. Pinto's Trav. xlviii. 277 Not one appearing in the streets for the space of ten days together, tho' in all places were unfrequented. 1701 Norris Ideal World i. viii. 452 The straight and single, however unfrequented path of truth. 1779 Forrest Voy. N. Guinea 154 During our stay here we found the islands unfrequented. 1827 J. Scott Paris Revisit. (ed. 4) 275 Going round..by one of the more unfrequented walks, running through the woods. 1878 Huxley Physiogr. 189 There are no doubt many slight disturbances, in unfrequented districts.

Hence Unfreque·ntedness.

1654 Earl Orrery Parthen. (1676) 79 A Grove, whose unfrequentedness was fit for my melancholy. 1680 H. More Apocal. Apoc. 160 There would be a great deadness of Trade,..and so great unfrequentedness, would seize his principal Seat. 1727 A. Hamilton New Acc. E. Ind. I. i. 5 The Unfrequentedness of the Coast between the Cape of Good Hope and Natal.

Unfreque·nting, vbl. sb. (Un-1 12.) 1620 Southampton

Convt Leet Rec. (1907) III. 578 We fynde the vnfrequentinge therof doth breed a mutynye. Unfrequenting, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 10.] † Unfrequented. 1607 Rowlands Famous Hist. 46 Terry, Guy and Osile wanting guide, Did stay about the unfrequenting Wood.

Unfrequently, adv. (Un-[1] 11 and 5 b. Usually with preceding negative.)
1646 Sir T. Browne Pseud. Eph. 7 They like Judas desire death, and not unfrequently pursue it. 1674 Boyle Excell. Theol. 196 'Tis not unfrequently so [prejudiced] by those, that mention him with an Encomium. 1794 R. J. Sullivan View Nat. I. 297 Systematic philosophy..is not infrequently involved in difficulty. 1845 Lindley Sch. Bot. iv. (1858) 35 Flowers white, unfrequently pink. 1893 Law Times XCV. 56/1 Negotiations..not unfrequently fall through on some point of disagreement.

† Unfret, v.[1] Obs.[-1] [Un-[2] 3 + Fret v.[3]] trans. To unbind, untie.
1496 Bk. St. Albans, Fishing b j b, Unfrette hym thenne and lete hym drye in an hous roof in the smoke.

† Unfret, v.[2] Obs. [Un-[2] 3 + Fret v.[1]] trans. To make smooth; to uniknit.
1594 Greene & Lodge Looking Gl. III. i, To loppa will I flee, And for a while to Tharsis shape my course, Vntill the Lord vnfret His angry browes. 1601 Chester Love's Mart. xciv, O happie time since I with Nature met, My unmeldious Discord I vnfret.

Unfretted, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]
1. Not eaten or worn away; unimpaired.
1577 Stanyhurst Hist. Ireld. 91/1 in Holinshed I, At night againe he founde the Paper vnfretted, and musing thereof he beganne to poare on the writing. 1663 Boyle Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. II. iii. 84 Shewing that the shell was..eaten away..but this shell was continued altogether unfretted. 1894 Mrs. A. Webster Mother & Dau. (1895) 30 She sees this [feature] fair, and that unfretted still.
2. Not vexed or worried.
1870 E. Peacock Ralf Skirl. III. 47 When his mind was sufficiently unfretted. 1893 Atlantic Monthly Feb. 283 He is..unfretted by the cares of housekeeping.

Unfri·able, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)
1802 Paley Nat. Theol. viii. (1819) 105 The elastic and unfriable nature of cartilage.

Unfriend, sb. (Un-[1] 2.). Forms: (see Un-[1] and Friend sb.). [ME, unfreond, -frend, = WFris. on-, ûnfrijeon, MDu. onvriend (Du. -vriend), MLG. unvrund, MHG. unvriunt (G. unfreund).]
1. One who is not a friend or on friendly terms; an enemy. In early use chiefly Sc. (sometimes in predicate without article), and in the 19th cent. app. revived by Scott.
c 1275 Lay. 5632 We solen..slean houre onfrendes and wenden after Brenne. Ibid. 17612 Wend to oure onfreondes and drif heom of londe. c 1425 Wyntoun Cron. VIII. xxvi. 9890 For he doutit he gret mycht Off his vnfryndis, and fare slycht. a 1475 Ashby Dicta Philos. 885 Showe to al maner freindis grete honnour..And pardon freendes & vnfreendes errour. 1581 Mulcaster Positions xxxix. (1887) 243 Socrates..unluckily condemned by the furie of the people, and persuasion of his vnfreindes. 1600 W. Watson Decacordon (1602) 125 Some wight Crowes, or other vnfriends or backe friends that may be set on to incense against him. 1662 Cudworth's Sermons (corrected) I. 122 His unfriends here had taken pains to procure..copies of the books. 1814 Scott Wav. xv, He is a very impudent neighbour to his un-friends. 1835 Gen. P. Thompson Exerc. (1842) II. 158 With this reservation, there must be no unfriends. 1877 Stubbs Med. & Mod. Hist. (1886) 170, I am ready to stick to my friends and vote against my un-friends.
b. Const. of, to.
1513 Douglas Æneid IX. vi. 111 The day lycht, quhilk is to us ordynnd, Approchis nere. c 1600 W. Fowler Il. Ks. (S.T.S.) I. 241/30 Thow, o atropos, vnfreind to hir, and to freind to me. 1626 in Rushw. Hist. Coll. (1659) I. 253 That one near the Crown of England should..become an enfriend to our State. 1692 Scott Presbyterian Eloquence (1738) 47 This Way will render us more formidable to our Enemies, and Unfriends to our Way. 1819 Scott Leg. Montrose vi, They are but unfriends to each other. 1888 Spectator 29 Dec. 1804 Mr. Courtney, certainly no unfriend of the Parnellites.
2. One who is not a member of the Society of Friends. Also attrib.
1828 Southey Ep. to A. Cunningham 387 From such a barber, O unfriend Darton I was that portrait made. 1846 W. E. Forster in T. W. Reid Life (1888) I. 126 To make their movement a national one by adding the names of unfriend ladies to their committee.

Unfriend, v. (Un-[1] 6 b.) 1659 Fuller App. Inf. Innoc. v. xxx) b, I hope, Sir, that we are not mutually Unfriended by this Difference which hath happened betwixt us.

Unfriended, a. [Un-[1] 9.] Not provided with friends; friendless.
1513 More Rich. III (1883) 55 In how much she is now in the more beggerly condicion, vnfrended and wonne out of acquaintance. 1554 Ascham in Whitaker Rhetoricke (1829) I. 275 That [time] when I, unfreinded and unknowne, came first to your lordshipp. 1601 Shaks. Twel. N. III. iii. 10 A stranger, Vnguided, and vnfriended. 1656 Jeanes Mem. Schol. Dev. 5 And how should they, who were but..poor unfriended persons, escape..so potent..a malice. 1725 Pope Let. Wks. 1751 IX. 195 He will be a friend and benefactor..to your unfriended, un-benefited Nation. 1772 Trit Philal Dialy II. 2 [I] cannot think that I am unfriended, unheeded. 1842 Rogers Darke's Wks. Introd. 1, to Barry (afterwards the well known painter, then an unfriended son of genius). 1875 Howells Foregone Conclu. 209 A man more than ordinarily orphaned and unfriended.
absol. 1804 W. L. Bowles Spirit Discov. III. 120 Who stood a guardian angel in distress To the unfriended.
b. Const. of.
1589 Warner Alb. Eng. Prose Addit. 120 Fly Traytorous Kinsas, by vnfeloured and vnfriended of Elias. 1725 Pope Odyssey IV. 631 Still on this desert Isle my fleet is moor'd; Unfriended of the gales. 1868 Lanier Jacquerie v. 18 That blade flew up..And left Lord Raoul unfriended of his weapon.
Hence Unfrie·ndedness.
1821 Tales Landlord, Fair Witch of Glas Llyn III. 325 This sublime unfriendedness.

† Unfrie·ndfull, adv. Obs.[-1] (Un-[1] 11.) 1513 Douglas Æneid VI. i. 135 Hard fortoun has..The Troianis..persewit vnfreindfully [1553 vnfrendly]. Unfrie·nd-like, a. (Un-[1] 7 c.) 1797 Lamb Let. to Coleridge 7 April, I did not expect so long, so unfriend-like a silence. Unfrie·ndlily, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1824 W. J. Linton Claribel ii. ii, Your harsh words Unfriendily apparel'd.

Ufrie·ndliness. (Un-[1] 12; cf. next.)
a 1684 Leighton Comm. 1 Pet. ii. 12 (1693) 351 But by their troubles, and unfriendliness of the World he gains this. a 1768 Secker Serm. (1772) V. iv. 71 Every Day we see those..return monstrous Acts of Injustice for slight Instances of Neglect or Unfriendliness. 1790 Mme. D'Arblay Diary 10 May, I seem diminished from the frank unfriendliness to the cause with which I began. 1861 Geo. Eliot Silas M. ix, Not because of any unfriendliness, but because ..courtesy is not a growth of such homes.

Unfrie·ndly, a. (Un-[1] 7. Cf. WFris. on-, ûnfrijeonlik, MDu. onvriendelijc (Du. -lijk), MHG. unvriuntlîch (G. unfreundlich).]
1. Not characteristic of a friend or friends; exhibiting dislike or hostility.
1425 Rolls of Parlt. IV. 274/1 [Is delaye, of which were like to growe unease and unfrendely love betwene me and my said Cousyn. a 1513 Fabyan Chron. (1516) vii. 134/1 They mette with vnfrendely countenance, & ..departyd with ryche cheere & sharpe. a 1548 Hall Chron., Edw. IV, 229 The French kyng..knewe by his espials..the vnfrendly departyng of the Duke of Burgoyn. 1663 Br. Patrick Parab. Pilgr. xxxvii, Nor have you given me cause to be less your Friend than heretofore; unless it be by this unfriendly jealousie. 1757 Foote Author II, It was, d'ye see, a very unfriendly thing to make love to Becky in my absence. 1837 Dr Quincey Lake Poets, Coleridge, Discoverers who would make a more unfriendly use of the discovery. 1898 Westm. Gaz. 21 Jan. 2/2 We are very much afraid that this would be looked upon by other countries as an 'unfriendly act'.
2. Not having the qualities or disposition of a friend; esp. unfavourably disposed, inimical, hostile.
1483 Cath. Angl. 149/2 Vnfrendly, inhumanus, inimicus. 1553 Ascham Germany Wks. (1904) 127, I am not so vnadulesd..nor you so vnfrendly to looke for so much from me. 1579 Harvey Letter-bk. (Camden) 98 To his very unfrendly friende that procured yº edition of his slender and extemporall devises. a 1616 Beaum. & Fl. Wit at Sev. Weapons v. i, Sure some unfriendly Messenger Is imploy'd betwixt you. 1629 in Foster Engl. Factories India (1909) III. 98 Our unfriendlie neighbours the Dutch. 1794 S. Williams Vermont 170 The Indians became unfriendly. 1836 Thirlwall Greece III. 379 They put forward some of their partizans, who were not so notoriously unfriendly to him. 1884 Church Bacon 98 His unsympathetic and suspicious, but probably not unfriendly relative.
3. Not propitious or favourable (for or to).
1513 Bradshaw Lyfe St. Werburge II. 1047 By fortune vnfrendly..Both horse and man fell to grounde sodenly. 1608 Shaks. Per. III. i. 38 No light, no fire; the unfriendly elements Forgot thee utterly. 1707 Curios. in Husb. & Gard. 41 The Wind that blows from thence, is always unfriendly to Vegetation. 1784 Phil. Trans. LXXIV. 468 It must be supposed to have arisen from some unfriendly mixture in the air, probably from Arsenic. 1805 Dickson Pract. Agric. I. 406 It frequently happens that..a coarse, unfriendly, stiff soil, is brought up. 1875 Jane Austin Emma xxiv, The atmosphere in that unsettled state..which is..the most unfriendly to exercise. 1845 Whately in Encycl. Metrop. (1845) I. 225/1 Qualities unfriendly to each other are rarely combined.

Unfrie·ndly, adv. Now rare. [Un-[1] 11.] In an unfriendly manner.
a 900 Genesis 1689 Þu wa leanast nu, unfreondlic fremena þancast. 1483 Cath. Angl. 142/2 Vn Frendly, inhumane, inhumaniter. 1548 Elyot, Inhumaner, ..to speake vnfrendly agaynstone. 1553 [see Unfriendfully]. 1570 G. Harvey Letter-bk. (Camden) 3, I deliuer thee vnfrendly. 1792 Wollaston Relig. Nat. vi. § 15 To covet to obtain what is another man's by just means, and with his consent,..has nothing surely that looks unfriendly upon truth, or is blameable, in it. 1757 W. Thompson R. N. Advoc. 46 [This] I leave to be determined by the..Wisdom of the Contracting Coopers that undermine one another unfriendly.

Unfrie·ndship. Now arch. (Un-[1] 12. Cf. MDu. onvrienscap (Du. onvriendschap), MLG. unvruntschap, OHG. unvriuntscap (G. unfreundschaft).] Unfriendliness; enmity.
a 1340 Hampole Pealter xl. 10 In signe þat crist did til him nane vnfrendschip. c 1400–50 Alexander 2922 And þou wirke þaim all þe wa & wrak at þou may, þe mare vnfryndschip þarfore fall sall þe neuire. 1549 Coverdale, etc. Erasm. Par. Jas. iv. 36 A Christian, if he assaye to have frendship agayne with the world, doeth vttyerly receaue vnfrendship with God. 1666 Drexelius's Gern. Instit. D 8 b (Jam.), Inimicitia, unfriendship. 1819 Scott Ivanhoe I, An act of unfriendship to my sovereign person and royal wardrobe. 1897 Ld. E. Hamilton Outlines of Exercise xi, The unfriendship between the two bodies.

† Unfri·ght, a. Obs. rare[-1]. (Un-[1] 7. Cf. Affright ppl. a. and OE. unforht.] Unafraid.
c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 3713 Burges stronge and fole v(n)frigt, stalwurht so weren here rist.

Unfri·ghted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
1611 B. Jonson Catiline v. vi, If..he alone, In so great fearre of all men, stand vnfrighted. 1622 Quarles Job xvii. 54 Who ever heard the voyce Of th' angry heauens, vnfrighted at the noyse? c 1730 Ramsay Thimble 53 Could you unfrighted view hell's dismal shore? 1840 Browning Sordello vi. 692 To the soft small unfrighted bee.

Unfri·ghtened, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
1675 Crowne Calisto Prol. A. 4 b, These beautious Nymphs unfrightened too..Their innocent delights pursue. 1825 W. Irving Tour Prairies 259 He..fired, but without effect; the deer remained unfrightened. 1885 Pennell Fishing (1889) 417 He then..renews his attentions to the still unfrightened fish alone.
Hence Unfri·ghtenedness.
1898 Faber Foot of Cross 138 The manifest unfrightenedness of a creature who has for the moment forgotten Him.

Unfri·ghtful, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. I. vii. iv, Not unfrightful it must have been; ludicro-terrific, and most unmanageable. Unfri·nged, (ppl.) a.[1] (Un-[1] 8, 9 + Fringed ppl. a.] Not fringed; unadorned. 1646 Jenkyn Remora 30 Plain and unfringed reformations..are poor, dry, dull things to such. † Unfringed, ppl. a.[2] Obs.[-1] (Un-[1] 8 + (In)fringe v.] Not infringed. 1751 Eliza Heywood Betsy Thoughtless II. 234 She..thought it the privilege of youth to do whatever it listed, provided the rules of virtue were unfringed.

† Unfri·zzle, v. (Un-[1] 3.)
Unfri·zzled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1611 Cotgr., Drap d'or ras, smooth, or unfrizeled cloth of Gold. 1765 Sterne Tr. Shandy VII. xxxviii, She had better have gone with it [= her hair] unfrizled.

Unfro·ck, v. [Un-[2] 4. Cf. défroquer, and Ungown v.]
1. trans. To strip (an ecclesiastic) of his frock as a sign of degradation; hence, to deprive of priestly function or office. Also Unfro·cking vbl. sb.
The second quotation is the only source for the common attribution of the term to Queen Elizabeth.
1544 Milton Areop. 30 It is not the unfrocking of a Priest..that will make a happy Nation. c 1550 Forged Letter Q. Eliz. in Ann. Reg., Char. (1761) 15/1 If you do not forthwith fulfil your engagement, by ——, I will immediately unfrock you. 1817 T. L. Peacock Melincourt I. 10 He took especial care that this..should not reach the ears of his bishop, who would infallibly have unfrocked him. 1857 Trollope Barchester T. III. xviii. 296 Clergymen have been unfrocked for less than what you have been guilty of. 1884 Nineteenth & Inter. 22 May 505/2 Mr. Justice Stephen truly remarked, there was no power to unfrock him.
refl. 1822 Q. Rev. XXVIII. 41 Who had been first a Dominican friar, then, having unfrocked himself, a gardener. 1895 L. Hunt Old Court Suburb I. 150 Who had also been a prelate, but had unfrocked himself to become a statesman.
absol. 1808 E. S. Barrett Miss-led General 85 He had unfrocked, that is, given over the cure of souls in this world.
2. transf. To unmask or expose.
1896 Bancroft Hist. U. S. VI. xix. 74 Spain had the monkish Calderon..There no poet like Molière unfrocked hypocrisy.
Hence Unfro·cked ppl. a.
1794 Matthias Purs. Lit. (1798) 44, I love no atheist French Bishops, nor unfrocked Jesuits in England.
1861 Pearson Early & Mid. Ages 357 The unfrocked priest would of course be amenable to lay tribunals in future.
1880 Dixon Windsor III. xxiv, 245 On the unfrocked priest attempting flight, he..locked him in the Tower.

† Unfro·ckify, v. (Un-[2] 6 c.) = Unfrock v. 1694 Mottrux Rabelais v. xxvii, 134 In Germany they pull down Monasteries and unfrockifie the Monks.

† Unfrome, var. unfreme: see Un-[1] 3.

Unfro·ned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) Not faced or confronted.
1615 Brathwait Strapbadie 28 Hence Sergeants walk vnfronted (though they know it).

Unfro·st, v. (Un-[2] 4 b.) trans. To thaw.
1611 Florio, Disghiacciare, to vnfrost, to thaw. 1853 Kane Grinnell Exp. xxxii. (1856) 275 We celebrated it by an extra dinner, a plum-cake substituted for the occasion.

Unfro·sted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1886 C. Scott Sheep-farming 45 The relative value of frosted and unfrosted turnips in the feeding of sheep. 1889 W. Westall Her Two Millions xxi, The lightness of his hair..as yet unfrosted with white. Unfro·wardly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1869 Tennyson Pelleas & Ettarre 612 Hath the great heart of knighthood in thee fail'd So far thou canst not bide, unfrowardly, A fall from him? Unfro·wning, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1830 W. Taylor Hist. Germ. Poetry III. 5 O Jove, Canst thou, unfrowning, view his perfidy? 1888 A. S. Wilson Lyric Hopeless Love 123 Enough one solitary ray From thine unfrowning sky.

Unfro·ze, var. of Unfreez.
1705 J. Phillips Blenheim 234 The Memphian Soldiery That swell'd the Erythræan Wave, when Wall'd The infroze Waters marvellously stood. 1774 Goldsm. Nat. Hist. (1776) I. 178 The ice..grown more bulky, by freezing, than the water, which remains unfroze.

Unfro·zen, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8 b. Cf. Norw. ufrosen, Sw. ufrusen, MDu. (once) ongevroren.] Not frozen; not congealed by frost.
1596 Dalrymple tr. Leslie's Hist. Scot. (S.T.S.) I. 31 Their fatt..freises nocht frahand..bot certane dayes remanes vnfrosin lyke oyle. 1598 Florio, Ingelito, not frozen, unfrozen. 1656 tr. Hobbes' Elem. Philos. xxviii. 324 The Wine which remains unfrozen in the midst will be very strong. a 1691 Boyle Hist. Air (1692) 154 They..were obliged to dig about six foot deep in the ice, before they could come at unfrozen water. 1766 Reid Wks. (1846) I. 45/1 The frozen water soon came to the temperature of the room. 1817 Kirby & Sr. Entomol. II. 451 Remaining unfrozen though exposed to the severest cold. 1860 Tyndall Glac. II. xxiv. 360 The water..which has been carried down from the névé unfrozen.

Unfro·zen, ppl. a.[2] [f. Unfreeze v.] Released from frost; thawed.
1633 P. Fletcher Purple Isl. vi. lxviii, The flowres that..in the Spring..Peep out again from their unfrozen tombe.

Unfru·cted, a. Her. [Un-[1] 9.] Not furnished with fruit.
1688 R. Holme Armoury II. 89/1 The branch is not to be so termed (unfructed, or without fruit) except it be thus made, and consist of nine leaves. c 1828 Berry Encycl. Her. I. Gloss. s.v., Slips of laurel, bay, and the like, consist of three leaves, the sprig of five leaves, and the branch, being unfructed, of nine leaves.

† Unfructful, obs. var. Unfruitful. a. 1549 Coverdale, etc. Erasm. Par. Eph. v. 11 b, To doe fruitcefull workes, the offices of godlines...and from henceforth be ashamed to haue adoe with the vnfructefull workes of darkenesse. Unfructify, v. [Un-[1] 6 c.] trans. To render unfruitful. 1648 R. Hobart Eccles. Ecclesiast. xiii, So may we see how God unfructifies A fruitfull land for mens impieties. Unfructifying, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1827 Montgomery Pelican Isl. iv. 55 While in the womb of earth their embryos tarried, Unfructifying, yet indestructible Seed-germs slumbered. (Un-[1] 12 and 5 b: cf. next.) 1884 Manch. Exam. 29 Mar. 4/8 The intellectual unfructuosity of the Royal stock.

Unfructuous, a. [Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.]

†1. Producing no fruit; unfruitful. Obs.

1382 Wyclif Exod. xxiii. 26 Ne thi loond shal be vnfructuous, ne bareyn. — Job xxxi. 40 Be he not in recording, but be to-iredie as a tree vnfructuous. c 1400 Pilgr. Sowle (Caxton, 1483) iv. ii. 58 The trees...were bycomen wylde and vnfructuous.

2. fig. = Unfruitful a. 2. Now rare.

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. III. 29 My mouth..hat bifore was filid boru unfructuouse langelingis. c 1430 Lyda. Min. Poems (Percy Soc.) 258 Ryot and dronkenesse, Unfructuous talkyng, intemperat diete. c 1450 tr. De Imitatione iii. ii. 65 Speke..thou, my lorde god, euerlastyng troube: lest I dye & be made unfructuouse. 1513 Douglas Æneid iv. Prol. 79 Sour fruite is bot vnfructous fantasy. 1588 A. King tr. Canisius' Catech. 135 Be 3e nocht partakers of the vnfructious warkis of wickitnes. 1828 Scott Jrnl. 27 Feb. We had a final and unfructuous meeting. 1904 R. Bridges Demeter iii. 954 Unfructuous night Stifles her essence in her truthless heart.

Hence Unfructuously adv.

1827 Scott Jrnl. 6 May, Wrought again at Hoffmann—unfructuously I fear.

Unfrugal, a. (Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.)

?1629 T. Craufurd Hist. Univ. Edinb. (1808) 113 He was not given to the cares of the world, though not unfrugal. 1720 Humourist Ded. p. xvi, They will...restore us again to our unfrugal and unfortunate Revings. 1780 Bentham Princ. Legisl. xvii. § 19 This punishment, it is evident, is in an eminent degree unfrugal. 1826 Art of Brewing (ed. 2) 29 Some..brewers adopt the following dangerous and unfrugal practice. 1846 Landor Imag. Conv. Wks. II. 113/1 Ladies who have been unfrugal of their favours.

Unfruitful, a. [Un-[1] 7. In early use after L. infructuosus, infecundus.]

1. Not producing offspring; barren.

1388 Wyclif Exod. xxiii. 26 Neithira womman vnfruytful, neither bareyn. schal be in thi lond. 1535 Coverdale Judg. xiii. 2 His wife was vnfruitefull & bare him no children. 1577 B. Googe Heresbach's Husb. iv. (1586) 169 The vnfruitfull..., and the otherwise faultie, ought cheefely to be fatted. 1650 Bulwer Anthropomet. 233 They cu'd themselves, but became unfruitful and impotent. 1735 Berkeley Querist § 208 So many unhappy and unfruitful marriages.

2. fig. Not productive of good results; unprofitable, unremunerative.

a 1400 New Test. (Paues) Eph. v. 11 pe þe vnfruytful werkes of darkenesse. c 1430 Life St. Kath. (1884) 47 What euer we do to oure goddes me thinkeþ hit is bot veyn and vnfruytful. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 76 b. Thy communycacyon was not onely vnfruytfull, but also moche euyll. 1593 Shaks. Lucr. 344 But in the midst of his unfruitful prayer,..Even there he starts. 1634 Sir T. Herbert Trav. 29 Conditions dishonourable and unfruitfull. a 1718 Parnell Dunne's 3rd Sat. Versified 4 To laugh or weep at sins might idly show Unheedful passion, or unfruitful woe. 1780 Mirror No. 72, The cold unfruitful virtues of monkish solitude. 1821 Scott Pirate x, It was a time of idle and unfruitful laughter. 1862 J. Martineau Ess. II. 250 This hint has not been permitted to remain unfruitful.

absol. 1781 Cowper Truth 500 She may..leave to mercy ..The worthless and unfruitful of mankind.

3. Of trees: Not bearing fruit. Also fig.

1531 Tindale Exp. 1 John (1537) 94 He yt is cut from ye vynestocke..can not but abyde vnfruetful. 1846 J. Baxter Libr. Pract. Agric. (ed. 4) II. 177 The substratum ought to be dry..otherwise trees planted will be liable to become ..unhealthy and unfruitful.

4. Of ground or seasons: Not yielding fruit or crops; unfertile, unproductive.

1545 Brinklow Compl. 14 Moory ground, as is vnfruetful for corne or pasture. 1585 T. Washington tr. Nicholay's Trav. iii. xxii. 120 Moorish countries, sandyie, vnfruitfull. 1615 G. Sandys Trav. 2 A hill not vnfruitfull in Olives. 1653 W. Ramesey Astrol. Restored 268 The year shall be unseasonable,..unfruitful or scarce. Ibid. 284. 1712 Blackmore Creation ii. 197 Should but the sun is duty once forget, ..Unfruitful earth her wonted fate would mourn. 1782 Martyn Geog. Mag. I. iii. I. 201 Mountains and rocks, interspersed with unfruitful plains. 1820 Wordsw. River Duddon v, Unfruitful solitudes, that seem to uphold The sun in heaven.

fig. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia ii. xxix, She..besought him, not to cast his love in so unfruitfull a place.

Unfruitfully, adv. (Un-[1] 11; cf. prec.)

c 1450 tr. De Imitatione i. x. 11 We speke muche of suche things as we lous or desire..But alias! oftetymes veinly & unfruytfully. 1529 Supplic. Hen. VIII (1871) 42 To lyue both wickedly towardes God, and also vnfrutefully towardes the worlde. 1583 Melbancke Philotimus M j b, Senior Mondalo wasted his mispent time vnfruitfully. 1654–56 Earl Orrery Parthen. (1676) 568 Civilities were not unfruitfully placed. 1833 S. Hoole Discourses xiii. 171 We shall..praise him—not tremblingly and unfruitfully,.. but joyfully and profitably.

Unfruitfulness. (Un-[1] 12; cf. prec.)

1565 Cooper Thesaurus, Infecunditas,..barrainenesse: vnfruitefulnesse. 1577 B. Googe Heresbach's Husb. iv. (1586) 158 The little Pullets, or Hennes,..both for their vnfruitfulnesse, and other causes. 1615 Br. Hall Contempt., O.T. xi. v, The unfruitfulness of Hannah. 16..Middleton, etc. Old Law ii. 1, We judge Dotage complete then, as unfruitfulness In women at threescore. 1707 Mortimer Husb. 527 The great Point to be taken care of about Fruit Trees, which is the Unfruitfulness of them. 1764 H. Walpole Dryasto 1, I divorce her from this hour. Too long has she cursed me by her unfruitfulness. 1890 R. I. Wilberforce Holy Baptism 35 It is unreasonable..to complain of that unfruitfulness [of baptism] which results from their own neglect. 1873 B. Stewart Conserv. Force v. 140 The unfruitfulness of the earlier views.

† Unfruiting, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 10.] Barren. a 1300 Cursor M. 12257 A commament nu mak i here,..Þat be vnfruitand þis lond bes find. Unfructuous, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7.] = Unfructuous a. 1382 Wyclif Eph. v. 11 Vnfruytouse workes of derknessis. — Tit. iii. 14 Qure men lerne for to be lifore in good werkis,..þat thei be not vnfruytou-e.

Unfrustrable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b and 5 b.)

1714 R. Bidder Practl. Disc. ii. 239 Here is a fix'd and unfrustrable reward secur'd. 1791 W. Jay in Autobiog. (1855) vii. 74 Immutable in his nature, unfrustrable in his designs. 1832 Br. Law Charge to Clergy (R.), An irresistible, or, what the schoolmen have called, an unfrustrable power.

So Unfrustrably adv. (Un-[1] 11.)

1654 Owen Doctr. Saint's Persev. xii. 274 Those cloudy expressions of 'irresistibly' and 'unfrustrably'. 1754 Edwards Freed. Will ii. iii. 123 Such Means, as shall unfrustrably produce the End.

Unfurelled, (ppl.) a. (Un-[1] 8, 9.)

1687 Death's Vis. viii, But Let me Gaze on..That Boiling Ocean of Unfurl'd Fire. 1801 Southey Thalaba ii. ii, Before them in the vault, blazing unfurl'd,..Ten magic flames arose. 1817 Coleridge Lay Serm. 61 It must be Seraphs..that can burn unfuelled and self-fed. Ibid. 102 Ill-fed, ill-clothed, and unfuelled winters.

Unfulfilled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1382 Wyclif Rom. ix. 6 Soothli not that the word of God hath falle down, or failide vnfulfillid. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 187 b, Than one iote or lettre of ye lawe of God sholde be vnfulfylled or founde vntrue. 1548 Udall Erasm. Par. Luke iii. 34 b, To the entente that he would leaue no one poynte of iustice or of righteousnesse vnfulfilled. 1610 Healey St. Aug. Citie of God xvii. ii. 62 No part of the earthly promise was left vnfulfilled. 1676 Glanvill Ess. Philos. & Relig. i. 26 Had Authority prevail'd here,..Seneca's Prophecie had been an unfulfil'd Prediction. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla V. 459 Thou art come,..thy task unfulfilled, thy peace unearned. 1821 Shelley Adonais xiv, The inheritors of unfulfilled renown Rose from their thrones. 1893 B. Taylor Germ. Lit. 275 The promise of loftier development was not left unfulfilled.

Unfulfilling, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1821 Shelley Hellas 973 Alas! for Liberty! If numbers, wealth, or unfulfilling years, Or fate, can quench her free fire. Unfull, a. (Un-[1] 7.) c 1450 Mirk's Festial 80 And fore bycause þat pylke nombyr may not be vnfulle, hit ys nedfull to chese on of þes men. 1598 Sylvester Div Bartas ii. i. Handycrafts 540 Th' unfull Harmony Of uneven Hammers, beating diversly. Unfulled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1467 Rolls of Parlt. V. 621 That noo persone..carie..by yonde the See, any Wollen Yerne, nor untoked and unfulled Cloth. Ibid., To bie rawe Clothes, untoked and unfulled. c 1550 Cheke Matt. ix. 16 No man doth lai on a patch of an vnfulled ragg on an old garment. Unfully, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) c 1449 Pecock Repr. v, xx, 564 It is no nede forto seie ther of eny thing vnperfiill and vnfully..here.

† Unfulyeit, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [Un-[1] 8.] Not exhausted or worn out.

1508 Dunbar Two Marrit Wemen 62 Birdis..sik feir..fangis thame ane fresche feyr, vnfulyeit, and constant. 1535 Stewart Cron. Scot. (Rolls) I. 71 We ar all fresche vnfulyeit into feild.

Unfurbished, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1667 Milton P. L. v. 349 She..strews the ground With Rose and Odours from the shrub unfum'd. 1891 Anthony's Photogr. Bull. IV. 117 It is often advisable to print..on unfumed paper. Unfundamental, a. (Un-[1] 7) 1658 Chillingworth Relig. Prot. i. ii. § 155. 114 This assertion..is neither a Fundamentall nor Vnfundamentall point of Faith. a 1711 Ken Hymnothea Poet. Wks. 1721 III. 236 How tenderly God treats all Hearts sincere, Who tow'rds Mistakes unfundamental veer.

Unfunded, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1776 Adam Smith W. N. v. iii. 539 What is called the unfunded debt of Great Britain, is contracted in the former of those two ways. 1812 Examiner 4 May 285/1 The Unfunded Debt, up to the 5th of January 1812, amounted to fifty-two millions. 1879 F. Hitchman Public Life Beaconsfield I. vii. 425 That notable device for swelling the unfunded debt of the country.

Unfunny, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1848 Hood Life Whalley I. 318 The application was..'haud illepidum', not unfunny. 1892 Nation (N.Y.) 30 June 489/1 It is most lugubriously unfunny.

Unfur, v. (Un-[2] 4.) 1598 Florio, Spellicciare, to vnskin, to vnfur. 1655 Moufet & Bennet Health's Improve. (1746) 205 To stir up Appetite, to unfur the Tongue and relish the Mouth. Unfurbelowed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1772 Test Filial Duty II. 64 My ruffles are short, and my aprons unfurbellowed. Unfurbished, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1820 Scott Ann. of G. II. i. 8 Rear these, but..unfurbished and neglected, hung a helmet.

Unfurl, v. (Un-[2] 3.)

1. trans. To open or spread out (a flag or sail) to the wind.

1641 Milton Reform. ii. 69 Such poor drifts to..ingage the unattainted Honour of English Knighthood, to unfurle the sinning Red Crosse. 1667 — P. L. i. 535 A Cherubic tall: Who forthwith from the glittering Staff unfurld Th' Imperial Ensign. 1727 Prior Alma i. 489 Antonius fled from Actium's Coast,..His Sails by Cupid's Hand unfurl'd. 1795 in Naval Chron. III. 117 The royal standard was unfurled in the barge. 1836 W. Irving Astoria I. 87 They saw the sails unfurled, and that it was getting under way. 1860 Tyndall Glac. I. xvi. 105, I took the glorious banner thus unfurled as a sign of hope.

b. transf. and fig.

1678 Poor Robin's True Char. Scold 4 When once her Flag of Defiance, the Tippet, is unfurl'd, she cares not a straw for Constable. 1711 Addison Spect. No. 102 ¶ 4 The next Motion is that of unfurling the Fan, in which are comprehended several little Flirts and Vibrations. 1796 Mod. Gulliver 226, I once more unfurled my umbrella, and away we went. 1840 Dickens Old C. Shop xvii, Codlin pitched the temple,..hastily unfurling the drapery and concealing Short therewith. 1884 Harper's Mag. Dec. 117/1 He takes the fan out, and unfurls it.

2. intr. To open to the wind.

1813 Byron Corsair i. xvi, As marks his eye..the sails unfurling fast. 1854 Patmore Angel in Ho., Betrothal 119 As to the breeze a flag unfurls My spirit expanded.

Hence Unfurlled ppl. a., Unfurling vbl. sb.

1640 R. Ward Simple Cobler 54, I am resolved to display my unfurled soule in your face. 1780 Mirror No. 102, The art which the ladies..used in the unfurling of their fans.

Unfurlable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1845 E. Warburton Crescent & Cross i. 188 The Arabs..reel with the staggering boat, and look fearfully up to the unfurlable sails.

Unfurnish, v. [Un-[2] 4.]

1. trans. To divest (a place, etc.) of men or other means of defence. Also const. of.

1580 Hollyband Treas. Fr. Tong, Se Desgarnir de son armée,..to vnfurnish. 1591 Harington Orl. Fur. xxxi. xlix, Renaldo had six hundred men and more,..Though at this need his Princes turn to furnish, He soon agreed his own towns to unfurnish. 1600 E. Blount tr. Conestaggio vii. 225 He desired first to see the issue, before he woulde bee vnfurnished of his forces. 1686 Parr Life Usher 58 He was now forced to unfurnish his as well as others, of its Souldiers and Ammunition. 1829 Sir W. Napier Penins. War vi. iii. II. 157 English troops should, without unfurnishing Lisbon, co-operate for the relief of Oporto.

† b. To make clear of; to depopulate. Obs.

1603 Knolles Hist. Turks (1621) 292 Europe is unfurnished of the Turks, busied in the Caramanian warre. 1674 Markham Cheap Husb. i. viii. 50 This Pestilence..hath vtterly vnfurnished whole Countries.

2. To divest of furnishings or furniture; to dismantle.

1598 Florio, Sfornire,..to vnfurnish, to disaray, to deface. 1598 W. Phillip tr. Linschoten 66/2 All their ships are brought into the riuer, and vnfurnished of tacklings. a 1638 Mede Wks. (1672) 174 When men account them the most religious to God-ward who do or would vnfurnish the House of God most. 1662 J. Davies tr. Mandelslo's Trav. 108 His predecessour makes way for him,..vnfurnishes the Palace, and leaves him only the Guards and the bare walls. 1707 Lond. Gaz. No. 4377/1 His Excellency dispatch'd Orders to Rome to forbid his Holiness being vnfurnish'd. 1886 P. Fitzgerald in Art Jrnl. 324/1 Among the incidents of a flitting, or of unfurnishing a house.

† 3. To divest or deprive of something. Obs.

1621 Sparke Retrat. T. v. i. 123 Thy speeches Will bring me to consider that, which may Vnfurnish me of Reason. a 1642 Sir W. Monson Naval Tracts v. (1703) 489/1 This will..unfurnish them of all Materials to fit out Fleets. 1664 T. Mun Eng. Treas. 112 To unfurnish the poor Prince of his provision.

† b. spec. To divest (a tree) of foliage. Obs.[-1]

1712 J. James tr. Le Blond's Gardening 47 To raise..the Palisade itself,..would certainly unfurnish it at Foot.

Unfurnished, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not furnished, in various senses; unprovided, unequipped, unprepared.

(a) 1549 Cheke Short Sedit. (1569) F ij, Exeter..being in the midiest of Rebelles, vnuittialed, vnfurnished, vnprepared, for so long a siege. 1592 Shaks. Rom. & Jul. iv. ii. 10 Go, be gone, we shall be much vnfurnisht for this time. 1599 — Hen. V, i. 1. 18 The Scot, on his vnfurnisht Kingdome, Carre Bounting like a Sparke into a breach. 1601 W. T. Lit. Remy's Civ. Considerations ix. heading, Ambassadours of Princes ought not to shew themselues bashfull and vnfurnished. 1638 T. Verney in V. Papers (Camden) 197, I send not pott downe totles for every tradesman, for I beleeue you will not send them vnfurnished. 1734 Waterland Doctr. Holy Trin. vii. 306 [New servants] who..may be unfurnished for the Employ, or not well affected to his Person and Government. 1822 Shelley Chas. I, ii. 266 We want money, and my mind misgives me That for so great an enterprise, as yet, We are unfurnished. 1860 Froude Hist. Eng. V. 163 As the treasury was unfurnished, the lords..raised money by every possible shift.

(b) 1697 Collier Ess. Mor. Subj. i. (1703) 25 What though our Minds were poor, and unfurnished at first. 1731 Fielding Grub St. Op. i. ii, Whatever Nature hath done for him in another way, she hath left his head unfurnish'd. 1784 Cowper Task iv. 209 All the tricks That idleness has ever yet contriv'd To fill the void of an unfurnish'd brain. 1817 Coleridge Biogr. Lit. xvii. (1907) II. 43 An unfurnished or confused understanding.

b. Const. of or with.

(a) 1541 Act 33 Hen. VIII, c. 9 § 2 Other cities..remaine and be vnfurnished of artificers and craftes men before rehersed. 1625 Hart Anat. Ur. Ded. A iv, Some nations vnfurnished of frankincense, offer vp nille..to their gods. 1707 Norris Treat. Humility Pref. 3 So that..he may not be unfurnished of a competent consideration of the matter in hand. 1802 Lamb J. Woodvil, 1, Nor am I so unfurnish'd, as you think, Of practicable schemes.

(b) 1611 in Essex Rev. (1906) XV. 155 The sayd place is very muche hindred and unfurnished with a convenient Schole howse. 1691 T. H(ale) Acc. New Invent. 41 England being never to be supposed unfurnished with Lead, as bearing it within its own Bowels. 1791 Cowper Iliad xvii. 173 Chieftain of excelling form, But all unfurnish'd with a warrior's heart! 1833 Chalmers Const. Man v. (1835) I. 211 Because he is so unfurnished with the ideas of justice.

2. Of houses or apartments: Not provided with furniture, spec. not furnished by the landlord or person letting; requiring to be furnished by the tenant or occupant.

1581 Anne Askew in Nicolas Hatton's Life & T. (1847) 223 This short warning and my unfurnished house, do lid agree. 1593 Shaks. Rich. II, i. iii. 68 Alacke, and shall good old Yorke there see But empty lodgings, and vnfurnish'd walles. 1680 Lond. Gaz. No. 1555/4 A Fair House to be Left Furnished or Unfurnished. 1769 Phil. Trans. LIX. 181 An unfurnished room of the Hospital. 1824 Miss L. M. Hawkins Annalina II. 268 [He] pays for ships and houses...the latter he would let if he could either furnished or unfurnished. 1885 [W. H. White] M. Rutherford's Deliv. i. (1892) 11 McKay...had unfurnished apartments.

fig. 1663 Butler Hud. I. i. 162 Such [cobwebs] as take Lodgings in a Head That's to be let unfurnished.

b. Not fitted up; devoid of the usual fittings, tackle, etc.

1608 Sylvester Du Bartas II. iv. Schisme 298 Chariots, unfurnisht and unharnest. 1623 State Papers, Col., East Indies (1878) 202 They utterly refuse unfurnished ships.

c. Destitute of foliage; defective in flesh.

1712 J. James tr. La Blond's Gardening 151 If the Plant be crooked,...mishapen...or very much unfurnish'd. 1893 Kennel Gaz. Aug. 217/3 The latter [dog] is also smart but quite unfurnished, and his feet are not good.

Hence Unfurnishedness.

1649 Boyle in Birch Life (1744) 82 Trying such experiments, as the unfurnishedness of the place...will permit me.

† Unfurniture. Obs. [Un-[1] 12 + Furniture 2.] Lack of intellectual equipment.

1640 Reynolds Passion xxxvii. 481 [His] hesitancy and slownesse of resolution in matter of Learning proceeded not from any emptinesse or unfurniture. Ibid. xxxix.

Unfurnished, a. (Un-[1] 9.) † 1879 Lowell To W. L. Garrison i. The place was dark, unfurnished, and mean.

Unfurred, ppl.) a. [Un-[1] 8, 9.]

1. Not lined or trimmed with fur.

a 1450 Knt. de la Tour (1868) 165 She clothed her in a cote harde ynarmed, the whiche sighte sore grevede upon her.

2. Not having or provided with fur.

1830 Miss Mitford Village Ser. iv. 80 The unfurred, unfeathered animals, who walk on two legs,...and are called rational. 1906 Westm. Gaz. 8 June 8/1 Unfledged birds, and unfurred baby mice.

Unfurrowable, a. (Un-[1] b.) 1860 Ruskin Unto this Last (1862) 167 Their desert kingdoms, bound with unfurrowable rock, and swept by unarrested sand.

Unfurrowed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1566 Drant Horace, Sat. iii. B 3 b, In feildes vnforowde frute is none, for brakes all over growes. a 1700 Ken Hymnothea Post. Wks. 1721 I. 67 The Wheels kiss lightly the unfurrow'd Air. 1721 Ramsay Content 303 Unfurrow'd was her brow, her cheeks were smooth. 1792 Cowper Odyss. IX. 140 The unseeded and unfurrow'd soil. 1823 Byron Island II. xi, The unreap'd harvest of unfurrow'd fields. 1889 Geo. Eliot A. Bede xii, Such young unfurrowed souls roll in each other like a two velvet peaches.

Unfurthersome, a. Sc. (Un-[1] 7.)

c 1820 Hogg Tales & Sk. (1836) II. 131 The snow had been accumulating all day, so as to render walking very unfurthersome. 1864 Carlyle Fredk. Gt. iv. v. (1872) I. 310 Tearing off this own full-bottom wig,...finding it unfurthersome for actual business in battle.

Unfused, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1796 Kirwan Elem. Min. (ed. 2) I. 396 Shorls, which are fusible at 95°, are ejected [from volcanos], unfused, and unaltered. 1872 Whitney Life Lang. vii. 123 As donner-ai, 'I shall give', when compared with..'I have to give', its unfused equivalent.

Unfusible, a. (Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.) 1758 Reid tr. Macquer's Chym. I. 6 Earth, in general, with regard to its properties, may be distributed into fusible, and unfusible. Unfussy, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1825 Cath. Stanley Jrnl. in Mem. (1879) 211 The unpanctual are easy, good-tempered, unfussy. 1862 H. R. Reynolds Life vii. (1863) 185 The annual meeting will be made as quiet and unfussy as possible. Unfuzzed, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1885 Science V. 74/2 Threes unfuzzed shells...were fired from the eighty-pounder.

Unga, v. (Un-[2] 4 b.)

1705 Hearne Collect. (O.H.S.) I. 209 Then he ungagg'd him. 1719 De Foe Crusoe II. (Globe) 580 Having ...ungagg'd their Mouths. 1890 C. Martyn W. Phillips 302 Here lips were ungagged when they were padlocked elsewhere for thirty years.

Unga'ged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) † Unentangled, free. 1617 Campion Wks. (1909) 181 Shall my wounds onely weepe, and hee vngaged goe? Ungaged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1569 W. Phillips Sketches viii. 226 They must be free and ungaged. 1887 Pall Mall G. 8 July 4/1 A free, public, ungagged meeting.

† Ungai·n, sb. Obs.[-1] [Un-[1] 12 + Gain *sb.*1 Cf. ON. ágagn (MSw. and Sw. ogagn, MDa. ugavn), Norw. dial. ugjegna ] Detriment, harm.

13...St. Cristofer 251 in Horstm. Altengl. Leg. (1881) 457 Pere synnes byeyle þis heghe mountayne A water, þat turnes to mekill vngayne.

Ungai·n, a. Now chiefly dial. [Un-[1] 7 + Gain a. Cf. ON. ógegn unreasonable, obstinate, MSw. ogēn unsuitable, unpleasant.]

1. Of ways: Not plain or direct.

a 1400 Bone Florence 1421 The lady seyde, We ryde ylle, Thes gates they are ungayne. 1426 Audelay Poems (Percy Soc.) 2 Therof the poore wold be fayne, Fore to cum home nagayne, That hath goon gatis ungayne, for defaute of lyyt. 1613 Braum. & Fl. Cupid's Rev. iv. i, Though she take th' ungain'st wayes she can, I'll ne'er ha't fro' you. 1824 [Carr] Craven Gloss. 119 Fugeyin, round about, indirect. 1884 Miss Baker Northampt. Gloss. s.v., An indirect roundabout road is an ungain one.

† 2. Unsparing, severe; rough. Obs.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 7332 Ercules...Gird gomes vnto grounde with vngayn strokes. c 1425 Wyntoun Cron. I. xi. 92 Thare reueris ragis for na rayne, Na mussis for na wedderis vngayne.

3. Unpleasant, disagreeable.

a 1425 Curior M. 2275 (Trin.), Alas what shal þe synful say? vngeyn [earlier MSS. ungaiand] benne shal be his gamen. 1795 H. Walpole Let. to Miss Berry 98 Aug., The assemblage was not so ungain as I expected, for...there were several I knew. 1851 Palgrave Normandy & Eng. I. 312 The ungain character of Raoul Torta ,, has been clearly chronicled.

4. Awkward, inconvenient, troublesome, difficult.

† At ungain, inconveniently.

c 1460 Towneley Myst. ii. 379 Bot this cors I wold were hid, For som man myght com at vngayn. 1553 Bale Gardiner's De Vera Obed. C iii b, Left hande mater is vngayne, and wicked what saie inye proceedeth of the flesshe. 1635 Quarles Embl. i. xiii, How backward I how preposterous is the motion Of our ungain devotion! 1763 Wesley Compend. Nat. Philos. (1784) I. ii. i. § 2. 206 The joints by which they bend are nearly in the middle,..and the large bulk which they are to support, makes their flexure ungain. 1764 Museum Rust. II. 84 As they are ungain to empty on the cloth,..they are not much used. 1782 Miss Burney Cecilia IX. vi, But, Sir, that was but an ungain business..t' other morning. 1822 in dialect glossaries. 1837 Marryat Dog Fiend iii, The ungain temper of his bruise companion. 1893 P. H. Emerson Lagoon xxxii. 168 Are you all alone in that cherry?..isn't she ongain for the bridges?

5. Unskilled, incompetent; good-for-nothing.

1658 W. Burton Itin. Anton. 229 Peutingers Military Tables, which the noble Mark Velser set forth, but corruptly (for how could it be otherwise after so long time, and so ungain Transcribers?). 1834 Beckford Italy II. 93 One of the most ungain, conceited professors of the art of murdering I ever met with. 1851 Borrow Lavengro III. 374 For fear that he should turn out what is generally termed ungain, my father determined to send him to sea.

6. = Ungainly 1.

1709 Mrs. Manley Secret Mem. (1720) III. 269 She look'd wholesome, ungain, and country. Ibid. IV. 72 What we see of her now is nothing but an old slatternly, ungain Thing. 1779 G. Keate Sk. Pr. Nat. (ed. 2) II. 66, I was..a pupil of the famous Marcel of Paris, though no one who now views my curved and ungain figure, would suppose it. 1835 Beckford Recoll. 108 One of the most ungain hobbledehoys I ever met with. 1844 P. Parley's Ann. V. 306 He is the most ungain and foolish loitering bird in our domain. Comb. 1834 J. J. Halls Life H. Salt I. i. 25 A tall, thin, and somewhat ungain-looking young man.

b. Of movement, bearing, etc.

1757 [E. Perronet] Mitre I. xxxi, What ungain postures of defence, As void of manliness as sense! 1776 Mme. D'Arblay Let. 2 Dec. in Early Diary, She..has a carriage the most ungain that ever was seen. 1840 L. Hunt Indicator No. 64 (1822) II. 95 Walking in the most ungain manner upon its hind legs. 1824 Examiner 1 Feb. 71/2 The position on her knees is ungain.

Ungainable, a. (Un-[1] b.) 1661 Pierce Serm. 29 May 35 The better protected your Peace will be from the unganiable enemies of each extream.

† Ungainand, ppl. a. north. and Sc. Obs. [Un-[1] 10.] Inappropriate, unbecoming, unsuitable.

a 1300 Cursor M. 12404 Quen iesus him sagh sa bese be Abute þis ilk vngainand tre. Ibid. 17248 For for to serue lauerds tuin it es vngainand to be-gin. 1493 in Laing Abbey of Lindores (1876) 181 Gyff thar be ony vngainand persons resett in the burgh..that thair persons..be removit the toyne. 1533 Bellenden Livy iv. v. (S.T.S.) II. 66 þai fauchit in place richt vngainand to batell, and mare vngainand to fle. a 1562 Wyntet Wks. (S.T.S.) II. 59 It is weray inuist and vngainand, that we,..for the self veritie of the quheit, mot cheis the errour of fitches.

Ungained, ppl. a. (Un-[1] b.) 1606 Shaks. Tr. & Cr. I. iii. 313 Men prize the thing ungain'd, more than it is. 1860 Froude Hist. Eng. V. 389 Thus it is that patriots and..reformers show in fairest colours when their cause is ungained.

† Ungai·nful, a.[1] Obs.[-0] = Ungain a. 4.

1565 Cooper Thesaurus, Incommodus,..hurtfull; noysome: vngainfull: unhandsome.

Ungai·nful, a.[2] (Un-[1] 7.)

1599 Daniel Musoph. 2 Fond man,..that thus dost spend ..In an ungainful art thy dearest days. 1647 Br. Hall Account Wks. 1808 I. p. xxxii, Sir Robert Drury,..hearing my errand, was amazed at the sudden and ungainful change. 1803 A. Swanston Serm. & Lect. II. 232 Their conduct may be accounted for when they perform unfashionable or ungainful duties. 1849 Alford Gr.k. Test. I. Prol. 45 Those who carried on the by no means despised or ungainful business of fishermen.

† Ungainfully, adv.[1] Obs. [Cf. Ungainful a.] With discomfort; severely. c 1320 Antichrist 504 (MS. Cott. Vesp. A iii), Ungainfull þan sal þai quak, þat alle be erth it sal do scak. Ungainfully, adv.[2] [f. Ungainful a.] Unprofitably. 1593 Nashe Christ's T. Wks. (Grosart) IV. 93 Wherefore you Pilgrims,..vngainefully you consume good hours. 1612 Cotgr., Incommodamentd,..vngainefully, vnprofitably. Ungaining, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) c 1630 H. R. Mythomystes 24 All vngaining Sciences, that conduce not to worldly profit. 1801 Monthly Mag. XII. 579 The porcelain-makers of Paris..saunter in ungaining idleness. Ungainlike, a. (f. Ungain a.] Unsuitable. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla IV. 166 It's ungain-like to speak for one's self.

Ungainliness. (Un-[1] 12; cf next.)

1755 Johnson s. v. Clumsiness. 1848 L. Hunt Town iv. I. 182 There is an ungainliness in the lines we have just quoted. 1870 Dickens E. Drood ix, His ungainliness gave him enough of the air of his simile to set Rosa off laughing.

Ungainly, a. (Un-[1] 7. Cf. Norw. dial. ugjegnleg vexatious, obstinate.]

1. Awkward, clumsy, ungraceful.

1611 Cotgr., Gaucrement, vntoward, vngainely, ill-fauoured. a 1700 B. E. Dict. Canl. Crew, Blunderbuss, a Dunce, an ungainely Fellow. 1709 Steele Tatler No. 193 ¶ 3 Persons ..so very aukward and ungainly, that it is impossible to believe the Audience will bear them. 1752 Mrs. Delany in Life & Corr. (1862) III. 79 Her person is fine, her arms a little ungainly, and her voice disagreeable. 1814 Scott Waav. xxix, At length the tall ungainly figure and ungracious visage of Ebenezer presented themselves. 1878 E. Jenkins Haverholme ii. A man..with a slow delivery, ungainly gestures, an affected manner and accent.

† 2. Unsuitable, improper. Obs.[-1]

a 1660 Hammond Serm. (1664) xiii. 217 Their Misusing of their knowledge to ungainly ends, as either ambition, superstition [etc.].

Ungai·nly, adv. [Cf. prec. and Ungain a.] † 1. Threateningly, terribly. Obs.[-1] a 1200 St. Marher. 9 He..sconede mid his wide geneow uppon hire ungeinliche.

† 2. Improperly, unduly; unsuitably. Obs.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 9333 Oure godys, oure gold [are] vngaynly dispendit. c 1460 Towneley Myst. xvi. 260 Thus shuld ye not thrst vs, vngaynly to bete vs. 1548 Elyot, Incommode,..vngaynely,..vnhansomely, vneasyly.

3. In an ungainly manner; awkwardly, clumsily, ungracefully.

a 1661 Fuller Worthies, Cambridge. I. (1662) 150 A Camel passeth in the Latine proverb, either for gibbous and distorted, or for one that undertaketh a thing awkely or ungeenly. 1705 Vanburgh Confed. I. iii, Why dost thou stare, and look so ungainly; Don't I speak to be understood? 1854 Miss Baker Northampt. Gloss., Shramming, spreading widely, stretching out the arms ungainly. 1896 Westm. Gaz. 9 May 2/1 Mr. Record-Breaker..waddles ungainly by, and is lost in the crowd.

Ungai·nness. [f. Ungain a.] Ungainliness.

1797 Bailey (vol. II), Ungainness,..Awkwardness. 1887 Mid. Herald 28 May (E.D.D.), Their [sc. cattle] lovely ungainness when at play.

Ungainsai·d, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1587 Golding De Mornay xv. 263 With consent of all the wyse men of olde tyme vngainsaid of any. 1610 Holland Camden's Brit. I. 305 The sirname of Doctor Irrefragabilis, that is, the Doctor ungainsaid, as hee that could not bee gain-said. 1641 Milton Animadv. § 1. 11 The Pope may as well boast his ungainsaid authority.

Ungainsaya·ble, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1618 Barnevelt's Apol. G 3 The hypothesis makes the proposition of an ungainsayable truth. 1634 Jackson Creed vi. iv. § 3 Many matters of fact..of which there can be no ungainsayable proof or demonstration. 1718 Br. Hutchinson Witchcraft 95 A Book that was Ungainsayable. 1890 Gen. Booth in Daily News 18 Nov. 6/5 In the first place the facts were ungainsayable.

Hence Ungainsaya·bly adv.

Cf. the earlier Unsaynsayable.

1637 Declar. Faltsgrave's Faith 35 Out of which vngainesayably followes, that also wee ought to haue no Images. 1702 C. Mather Magn. Chr. III. iii. (1852) 551, I wish that the ministers..may be as ungainsayably importunate..as Mr. Eliot was.

Ungainsaying, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1681 J. Scott Chr. Life i. iii. 89 A full and ungainsaying Judgment.

Ungai·some, adv. (Un-[1] 7, 11.)

1655 Gurnall Chr. in Arm. I. (1669) 497/2 They know not how to handle them [sc. tools], they go ungainsomely about the work, and cut all into Chips. 1832 Lytton Eugene A. ii. vi, 'Tis so ungainsome, and be d—d to it.

Unga·llant, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

a. 1710 Shaftesb. Charac. (1711) I. 312 Nor is there any thing ungalante in the manner of thus questioning the Ladys-Fancys. 1762 H. Walpole Vertue's Anecd. Paint. (1765) II. 128 Vandyck..was so ungalant as to dispute with her on the price of her picture.

b. 1731 Gay Let. to Swift 27 Apr., All my fear is, that you will give up me for her, which, after my ungallant declaration, would be very ungenerous. 1829 Lytton Devereux I. i, It must not be supposed that Sir William Devereux was an ungallant man. 1864 Ouida Held in Bondage viii, True enough!..It is an ungallant admission.

absol. 1808 Eleanor Sleath Bristol Heiress V. 282 His behaviour was..a little upon the ungallant.

Hence Unga·llantness.

1859 Jeffries & Reeve Brittany 176 On my making him aware of his ungallantness.

Unga·llantly, adv. (Un-[1] 11: cf. prec.)

1835 Marryat Olla Podr. xv, The doctor..ungallantly told his wife she might remain all night. 1865 Tristram Land of Israel IV. 68 They had seen no indication on the side of our lads for ungallantly threatening them with the stick.

Unga·llantry. (Un-[1] 12.)

1723 Briton No. 7 (1724) 29 That I in a private capacity may atone for the Ungallantry of my Brethren. 1891 Pall Mall G. 29 Oct. 2/1 Such ungallantry, while there were partners sitting out, being considered most reprehensible.

Unga·lled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1590 Shaks. Com. Err. III. i. 102 Supposed by the common rout Against your yet vngalled estimation. 1602 — Ham. III. ii. 283 Why let the stricken Deere go weepe, The Hart vngalled play? 1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. III. (1626) 45 Cadmus..a Heifer saw, by no man tended, Her neck vngall'd with groaning servitude. 1828 Scott Hrt. Midl. li, Her conscience was ungalled. 1868 Geo. Eliot Sp. Gipsy 15 Men With limbs ungalled by armour.

Unga·lling, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1744 Eliza Heywood Female Spect. iv. (1748) I. 208 Follies..exposed in the ungalling satire of genteel comedy!

Unga·mboling, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1788 H. Walpole Let. to Mrs. H. More 22 Sept., Your gambols, as you call them, after the most ungamboling peeress in christendom.

† Unga·ng, v. Sc. Obs. [f. un- Um- + Gang v.] trans. To surpass, go beyond.

1768 Ross Helenore ii. 85 For it ungangs me sair gin at the last, To gang together hinna found the best.

Ungangrened, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1753 N. Torriano Gangr. Sore Throat 81 Those..think that by cutting,..they can more easily separate the gangrened from the ungangrened Parts. Ungarbed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1848 Bailey Festus (ed. 3) 199 A pure, cold..ruyonnance As is the moon's of naked light, ungarbed In circumspheral air. Ungarbished, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 and Garbage v.) 1641 S. Smith Herring Buss Trade 18 To sell them at sea ungarbished, salted or unsalted.

Unga·rbled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1. Not garbled, cleansed, or sifted; not selected or sorted out.

1439 Rolls of Parlt. V. 32/1 Uppon peyne of forfaiture of the said Spiceries so yfound ungarbeled and unclensyd. 1483 Act 1 Rich. III, c. xi. § 1 They will not suffre any garbelyng of theym to be made but sell good and bad at so excessyf price togedyr ungarbled. 1614 St. Papers, Col., E. Indies (1862) 294, 20 bags of ungarbled pepper. 1649 Jrnl. Ho. Commons VI. 304/1 An Act for Liberty to transport Spices ungarbled, was this Day read the Third time. 1859 R. F. Burton Centr. Afr. in Trans. Geog. Soc. XXIX. 37 At the end of the rains..[the copal] is usually carried ungarbled to Zanzibar. c 1870 Townend & Co.'s Circular Col. & For. Produce s.v. Coffee, Mocha Coffee, ungarbled.

2. Of a fact or statement: Not mutilated or misrepresented.

1721 Amherst Terræ Fil. No. 41 (1726) 213 Some future unpostituted, ungarbled history of a rebellion. 1810 Bentham Packing (1821) 116 A jury of the original, the constitutional, the ungarbled, the uncorrupted stamp. 1834 H. N. Coleridge Grk. Poets (ed. 2) 141 It is not without parallel in the ungarbled writings of greater wits than Zoilus.

Ungarded, (ppl.) a. (Un-[1] 8, 9.) 1623 [see Unpenced 2]. Ungarlanded, (ppl.) a. (Un-[1] 8, 9.) 1828 Wordsw. Triad 108 The ringlets of that head Wily are they ungarlanded! Ungarmented, v. (Un-[2] 4.) 1805 Southey Madoc in Wales I. iv. 73 They..Ungarmented my limbs, and in a net..They laid and left me.

Ungarmented, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1798 Southey Joan of Arc (ed. 2) iv. I. 245 And round her limbs ungarmented, the fire Curl'd its fierce flakes. 1818 Shelley Rosal. & Helen 477 "Ha, houseless Want in frozen ways Wandering ungarmented. 1856 J. B. Rose tr. Ovid's Met. 73 Now tell..that thou hast viewed Dian ungarmented.

Ungarnered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1850 Tennyson In Mem. lxxii, Thro' clouds that chequer the morning star, And whirl the ungarner'd sheaf afar. 1883 Goode Fish. Indust. U.S.A. 10 Where the harvest of the sea is still, for the most part, ungarnered.

Ungarnish, v. (Un-[2] 4.)

1530 Palsgr. 768/1, I ungarnyshe, je desgarnis...Me thynke my cupborde is ungarnished nowe I wante my salte celler. 1598 Florio, Sfregiare, to vngarnish, to vndeck, to disadorne. 1848 Dickens Dombey iii, When the funeral was over, Mr. Dombey ordered the furniture to be covered up..and the rooms to be ungarnished.

Ungarnished, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 1:17 The gome was vngarnyst with god men to dele. c 1400 Pilgr. Soule (Caxton, 1483) v. 1. 74 How durst ony wyght trowen..that he wold leuen his regne ..vngarnyssed of his werkes. a 1548 Hall Chron., Edw. IV 249 b, Thei shall..deplore, and lament their vngarnished estate, and naked condicion. 1591 Sylvester Du Bartas I. i. 292 A Heav'n..Un-garnished, un-gilt with Stars apparent. 1641 Quarles Div. Poems, Esther xiii, May my vngarnished Quill presume so much, To glorifie it selfe. 1641 Milton Animadv. § 4. 38 He that now for haste snatches up a plain ungarnish't present as a thanke-offering to thee. 1705 Watts Lyrick Poems II. (1743) 144 Beauteous she lies!..Ungarnish'd; yet not blushing. 1800 Wordsw. Michael 19 A story..ungarnished with events. a 1847 Eliza Cook Christmas Song of Poor Man ii, Some scrap, ungarnished, cold and scant. 1876 Fox Bourne Locke II. xi. 189 Plain, ungarnished words were certainly the best.

Ungarrisoned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1660 Marvell Corr. Wks. (Grosart) II. 18, I..hope to see your Town once more ungarrisoned. a 1701 Maundrell Journ. Jerus. (1721) 38 On the north side it has a mold Turkish ungarrison'd Castle. 1813 Edin. Rev. XXI. 193 The frontiers were unguarded,..the forts dismantled or ungarrisoned. 1855 W. G. Palgrave Arabia II. 283 It is crowned by an old castle and tower.., now ungarrisoned.

Ungarter, v. (Un-[2] 4 b.)

1594 Nashe Unfort. Trav. Wks. (Grosart) V. 98 He that had then ungartered mee, might haue plucket out my heart at my hams. 1607 Markham Cavel. iv. (1617) 9 Which as soone as he doth, you shall immediately vngarter his legges. 1753 A. Murphy Gray's Inn Jrnl. No. 31, Ungartering my Stockings, and pulling off my Wig. 1886 Pall Mall G. 2 Dec. 6 A native unbracelleting or ungartering himself.

Hence Ungartering vbl. sb.

1785 G. A. Bellamy Apology (ed. 3) II. 15 He loved his good fat capon;..and ungartering, as he called it.

Ungartered, (ppl.) a. (Un-[1] 8, 9.)

1. Not tied with or wearing a garter.

1591 Shaks. Two Gentl. ii. i. 79 When you chidde at Sir Protheus, for going vngarter'd. 1607 Parislon ii. i. 233 A man that would..go vngartered, vnbutton'd, nay, sir Reuerence, vntrust, to Morning Prayer. 1647 R. Stapylton Juvenal 68 Trebius, oblig'd, has that for which he must Break's sleep, and run ungarter'd and untrust. 1749 Fielding Tom Jones iv. viii, Catching hold of her ungartered stocking. 1823 S. Rogers Italy v. viii. 50 Gilding on, he comes Slip-shod, ungartered. 1828 Lytton Pelham I. xxiv, Thornton..lounged idly in a chair, with one ungartered leg thrown over the elbow.

2. Not invested with the Order of the Garter.

1845 Disraeli Sybil iv. xiv, Ireland was not yet governed by the Duke of Fitz-Aquitaine, and the Earl de Mowbray was still ungartered.

Un-Ga·sconated, ppl. a. (Un-[2] 8.) 1658 R. Baker tr. Balzac's Lett. I. iv. 20 You may..teach them to speak good French, now you are perfectly Vn-Gasconated.

Ungathered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8. Cf. Du. ongegaderd, -gegaerd.)

1. Not gathered or brought together; uncollected.

1461 Rolls of Parlt. V. 495/1 Youre dettes remaynyng ungadered. 1481 Coventry Leet Bk. 478 Per rested behynde ungadered..of be seide hole some xiij li. s. vj d. 1525 Ld. Berners Froiss. II. cxvi. 332 A great parte of chatmoney as than nat payde and vngadered. 1590 H. Barrow in Confer. i. 9 They being as yet vngathered to Christ. 1625 Chas. I Sp. in Rushw. Hist. Coll. (1659) I. 177 Your love to me..you expressed by a Grant of Two Subsidies yet ungathered. 1851 Buried City of East, Nineveh vi. 93 Finding..the bundle of faggots for the evening fire yet ungathered. 1873 Proctor Expanse Heav. 191 Enormous quantities of as yet ungathered materials.

b. spec. (See quot.)

1888 Jacobi Printers' Vocab., Ungathered, books delivered to binders in sheets, i.e. not gathered into books.

2. Of flowers, etc.: Not gathered or culled; unpicked, unharvested.

1592 Daniel Compl. Rosamond I 3 b, Th' vngathred Rose, defended with the thornes. 1600 Surflet Countrie Farme II. xxv. 412 If at this time there be found euer a combe vngathered and not pluckt away,..you must not therefore kill the Bees. 1697 Dryden Virg. Past. i. 51 We wonder'd..For whom so late th' ungather'd Apples hung. 1825 Scott Talism. xix, Is it not hard that..I should be doomed to see fade before me ungathered such a rich harvest of glory to God? 1850 Tennyson In Mem. civ, The holly by the cottage-eave, To night, ungather'd, shall it stand. 1896 Daily News 2 Sept. 7/5 The barleys which are still ungathered will, it is feared, be spoilt for malting purposes.

3. Not drawn together.

1615 G. Sandys Trav. 63 Ouer all when they goe abroad they weare gowns..vngathered in the shoulders. 1690 C. Nesse A. & M. Text. I. 10, As a web of cloth is rolled up, only a little left at the end ungathered.

Ungaudy, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1795 Southey Let. to G. C. Bedford 29 Nov., The violet is ungaudy in the appearance. a 1834 Coleridge To Thelwall Poet. Wks. 1912 II. 1090 Ungaudy flowers that chastest odours breathe.

Ungauged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1745 Young Nt. Th. viii. 671 A cask Unbroach'd by just authority, ungaug'd By temperance, by reason unrein'd. 1874 Geo. Eliot Middlem. iii, Dorothea..had looked deep into the ungauged reservoir of Mr. Casaubon's mind. 1881 M. A. Lewis 2 Pretty G. III. 207 There may be ungauged depths behind our chatter, and ungauged vanity behind your silence.

Ungauntlet, v. (Un-[2] 4.) 1846 Landor Imag. Conv. Wks. I. 144/2 The kings..ran against the chalice of poison,.. by which their own hands were..ungauntleted, undirked, and paralyzed.

Ungauntleted, (ppl.) a. (Un-[1] 8, 9.)

1800 Coleridge Tallyrand to Ld. Grenville 12 I'm no Jacobin foul,..That your Lordship's ungauntleted fingers need fear An infection! a 1876 M. Collins Th. in Garden (1880) II. 266 [He] offers his ungauntleted hand in knightly fashion to his old opponent.

Ungaved, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1670 Eachard Cont. Clergy 7 Getting by heart three or four leaves of ungay'd nonsense.

Ungazed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 c.)

1821 Mrs. Shelley Mathildi, xiv, I lived ungazed at and unmoleested. 1840 Shelley Prometh. Unb. II. iv. 5 The meridian sun, Ungazed-upon and shapeless. 1902 F. Thompson in Academy 12 Apr. 378/2 Ophir he saw, her long-unused at gold.

Ungazetted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1828 T. Hook Sayings Ser. II. II. 352 An ungazetted commandery of Poyais.

Ungear, v. [Un-[2] 3, 4 b.]

1. trans. To unharness. Now dial.

c 1161 Chapman Iliad xi. 536 And Nestor's squire, Eurymedon, the horses did ungear. [1775 Ash, Ungear..to unharness, to deliver from the gears.] 1825 Brockett N. C. Words s.v., Ungear the yoke. 1828 Trial of W. Dyon & Son at York Assizes 11, I was ungearing the horses. 1854 Miss Baker Northward. Cliss., Ungear, to unharness; restricted to husbandry horses.

2. To disconnect the gearing of.

1828 Craven Gloss. s.v., A mill is also said to be ungeared, when the water is turned off or the machinery displaced. 1832 Mosley Tanning & Currying (1855) 118 The necessity of ungearing the pinion.

Ungeared, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 15.. Christ's Kirk 167 But quhair thair gobbis wes vngeird They gat youan the gammis. 1588 Wills & Inv. N. C. (Surtees 1860) 329, vj geared yockes 4*l*, iiij yockes, ungeared, 6*s*, v geared harrows, 20*s*, ij forkes, vngeared, 6*s*.

†Unged, a. Her. Obs. [Irreg. f. L. ung-uis or ung-ula hoof.] Represented with the hoofs of a different tincture from the animal itself.

1562 Leigh Armory (1597) 52 b, He beareth Or, a Hart tripping Geules. If you desire some occasion to tel of his hornes, you should saie, he were attryred, and so likewise of the Bucke, and they are both vnged.

Ungelatinizable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1809 Phil. Trans. XCIX. 338 Ungelatinizable acids of animal substance. 1884 Encycl. Brit. XVII. 675/1 Gelatin..is converted into an ungelatinizable modification.

Ungelded, ungelt, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 8 b.)

a. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. v. xxiii. (Bodl. MS.), Malis haue strenger senewes..panne femalis..,and vngelded haue strenger panne gelded. 1538 Florio s.v. Integro. β. 1573 Tusser Husb. (1878) 82 Ungelt of the best [sows] keepe a couple for store. 1607 Markham Cavel. i. (1617) 68 The longer that a Colt goes vngelt, the thicker and fatter his head will grow. 1651 Howell Venice 124 What are their soldiers but..a multitude of ungheit Eunuchs? 1725 Fam. Dict. s.v. Sow, The Male [swine] ungelt being call'd a Boar.

Ungendering, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1706 De Foe Jure Div. xi. 260 The Froth of Envy! Vain ungendring Cloud, To beat the Minds of Fools, and move the Crowd.

Ungeneral, v. rare. [Un-[2] 6, 6 b.]

1. trans. To deprive of the rank of general.

a 1657 Loveday Lett. (1663) 80 My Lord F. his house (retir'd thither to a private life since he ungenerall'd himself).

†2. To free from generality or vagueness. Obs.

a 1661 Fuller Worthies, Wales iv. (1662) 8, I doe not despair,..that having gained better intelligence,..these persons may be Un-general'd, and impaled in their particular Counties.

Ungeneralized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1843 Mill Logic II. iii. § 3 A number of..unexpressed, ungeneralized analogies.

Ungenerate, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) = next. 1546 Langley tr. Pol. Verg. de Inuent. i. iii. 5 They which contende that the worlde was vngenerate. a 1618 Sylvester Mysterie of Myst., Holy-Ghost 2 The Comforter, ay Uncreate, Unmade, Unborne, Ungenerate.

Ungenerated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 and 5 b.)

1614 Raleigh Hist. World i. iv. § 1. 66 He foresaw..that Millions of soules must haue beene vngenerated, and haue had no being, if the first number..had abode thereon for euer. 1738 Warburton Div. Legat. App. 52 He must needs have made it ungenerated. 1861 Stanley East. Ch. iii. 99 Ask a man how many obol, he answers by dogmatising on generated and ungenerated being.

Ungenerative, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1733 Theobald Shakspere's Meas. for M. III. ii. 204 He is a motion ungenerative [1623 generative] that's infallible. 1854 Maurice Mor. & Met. Philos. (ed. 2) vi. § 17 Justinian existed..to declare that the Greek Church and the Greek Empire were withered and ungenerative stocks. Ungenero·sity. (Un-[1] 12; cf. next.) 1757 Mrs. Griffith Lett. Henry & Frances (1767) II. 91, I..raise it very unkindly that you will not recollect yourself a little, before you treat me with so much ingratitude and ungenerosity. 1886 Stevenson Kidnapped xxiv, I could open my mouth upon neither [subject] without black ungenerosity.

Ungenerous, a. [Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.]

1. Not generous or large-minded; illiberal: a. Of actions, conduct, etc.

1641 Milton Ch. Govt. ii. iii, To start back..from the mixture of any ungenerous and unbeseeming motion. 1699 Bentley Phalaris 223, I will not say, how ungenerous a design this is, to leave his Sicilian Prince in the lurch. 1748 Smollett R. Random xii, I recounted to him the ungenerous usage I had met with from Potion. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla V. 512 The sense that now breaks in upon me of ungenerous..doubt. 1842 W. C. Taylor Anc. Hist. xvii. § 9 (ed. 3) 552 An ungenerous attack on the memory of the late emperor. 1882 Miss Braddon Mt. Royal II. ix. 168 She had never harboured an ungenerous thought.

b. Of persons, disposition, etc. Also absol.

a 1704 T. Brown Eng. Sat. Wks. 1730 I. 25 His ungenerous Father-in-law..discreetly hang'd himself. 1753 Miss Collier Art Torment. II. iii. (1757) 141 Bent upon defeating the purpose of temporary friendly or relations. 1798 S. & Hr. Lee Canterb. T. II. 250 The Duke too, though not a tender parent, had never been an unkind or ungenerous one. 1850 Mrs. Browning Sonn. fr. Portuguese ix, Givers of such gifts as mine are, must be counted with the ungenerous. 1874 Stanley Serm. lix. (1876) 195 An ungenerous temper may be easily fostered under the guise of generous condescension.

†2. Inferior or poor in quality. Obs.[1]

1744 Phil. Trans. XLIII. 263 A small armed Loadstone ..which, being reputed but of an ungenerous Nature, took up..barely 2 Ounces.

Hence Ungenerousness.

1757 Mrs. Griffith Lett. Henry & Frances (1767) I. 94 The poverty of my nature, and ungenerousness of my principles. 1892 R. W. Church Cathedral & Univ. Serm. 61 The ungenerousness of the generous, the injustices of the just.

Ungenerously, adv. (Un-[1] 11; cf. prec.)

1722 Wodrow Corr. (1843) II. 676 People very ungenerously take more liberty with him when he is not to answer for himself. 1775 Sheridan Rivals iii. ii, I am ever ungenerously fretful. 1830 D'Israeli Chas. I, III. iii. 29 Charles..felt that the Commons had ungenerously used him. 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xvi. III. 918 Halifax, who had..been ungenerously and ungratefully persecuted by the Whigs. 1895 Daily News 29 May 3/6 [The horse] running ungenerously towards the finish, he was headed in the last few strides by Boxer.

Ungenial, [Un-[1] 7.]

1. Not favourable to growth or development. Also const. to.

1726 Thomson Winter 718 Those sullen seas, That wash th' ungenial pole, will rest no more. 1796 W. H. Marshall W. England II. 200 The frequency of rain..renders West Devonshire,..in a wet season, very ungenial. 1829 Southey Sir T. More II. 142 No plants will thrive in a cold and meagre soil, ungenial to their nature. 1836 Emerson Eng. Traits, Land ▼ 1 Art..transforms a rude,..ungenial land into a paradise of comfort and plenty.

fig. 1768 [W. Donaldson] Life Sir B. Sapskull II. i. 7 The citizen from the ungenial atmosphere of Watling-Street.

2. Of weather: Cold or wet: raw.

1815 Jane Austen Emma I, I did not quite like your looks on Tuesday, but it was an ungenial morning. 1884 Manch. Exam. 14 May 5/1 The ungenial weather has compelled the outdoor part of the programme to be abandoned.

3. Not agreeable or pleasant (to one).

1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla V. 243 She declined the excursion, as ungenial to her feelings. 1822 Lamb Elia I. Praise of Chimney-sweepers, The rake, cursed the ungenial fume, as he passeth. 1857 Dufferin Lett. High Lat. (ed. 3) 401 Henceforth, the words..can convey no cold or ungenial associations to my ears.

b. Not congenial or suited to the genius of.

1877 Earle Philol. Eng. Tongue 145 We must regard this ..as being a creation of the English speech-genius. To the Danish it is ungenial.

3. Not cheerful, jovial, or kindly.

1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla V. 98 [I] appeared to you too rigorous, too ungenial. 1869 Ln. Houghton in Bodrick, etc. Ess. Reform 48 An ungenial German, ignorant of our language and offensive to our manners. 1870 Lowell Among Bks. Ser. I. 237 The Puritans had their faults. They were narrow, ungenial. 1889 Gretton Nunnery's Hearth. 25 He was of a somewhat ungenial, crusty temperament.

Hence Ungeniality.

1859 G. Wilson Mem. E. Forbes iv. (1861) 209 A deep, quiet enthusiasm..which his ungeniality of nature could not prevent being contagious.

Ungenially, adv. (Un-[1] 11; cf. prec.)

1858 Carlyle Frederk. Gt. x. iii. II. 609 The Crown-Prince reports to Papa, in a satirical vein, not ungenially. 1889 Swinburne Study Jonson 85 He shows himself ungenially observant and contemptuously studious of his models.

Ungenitured, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1603 Shaks. Meas. for M. III. ii. 184 This ungenitur'd Agent will vn-people the Prouince with Continencie.

Ungenteel, a. Also † ungenteile, -iel, 7–8 ungentile. [Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.] Not genteel: a. Of manners, habits, employments, etc.

a. 1633 Prynne Histrio-m. Ep. Ded., Yet I hope I shall finde no such ungentile, discourteous entertainment. 1642 Fuller Holy & Prof. St. v. xiv. 413 Drinking is a most ungentile quality, fit to be banished to rogues and rags. 1691 E. Rawson in Andros Tracts I. 68 The Buffoonry and Railery of such ungentiel Pens. 1711 J. Greenwood Eng. Gram. 110 It is counted ungentile and rude to say, 'Thou dost so and so.

b. 1683 Moxon Mech. Exerc., Printing xii. ¶ 2 Some Letter-Cutters..scorn to use a Forge, as accounting it..Ungentiel for themselves to officiate at. 1716 M. Davies Athen. Brit. I. 180 Bale bestows another ungentiel Sarcasm upon this great Armach. 1778 Earl Malmesbury Diaries & Corr. I. 211 His person was awkward, and his dress ungentiel. 1821 Sporting Mag. XXXVIII. 29 It is considered ungentiel to cut the pastry. 1898 Watts-Dunton Aylwin iv. ii, Have I not often told you the reason I.. missed my high vocation in ungentiel comedy?

b. Of persons.

1595 Shakespeare Lucrece ii, Thou art the most ungentiel Knight alive: use your Ladies civilly, for shame. 1712 Spect. No. 404 ¶ 6 Iras is ugly and ungentiel, but has Wit and good Sense. 1749 Fielding Tom Jones x. x. [The half-pay officer] was not ungentiel, nor entirely void of Wit. 1823 Jane Austen Lett. (1884) II. 172 She is a large, ungentiel woman, with self-satisfied and would-be elegant manners. 1844 Thackeray Barry Lyndon ix, With this sum of money ..we were enabled to make us ungentiel figure.

Hence Ungentelness.

1706 Stevens 1, Dessolino, .. sluttishness, ungentelness. 1723 Briton No. 11 (1724) 50 Philander discovers some Ungentelenesses in his Manner and Behaviour. 1727 Art of Speaking in Publick 81 The indecency and ungentelenesse of clamour and noise.

Ungentee·lly, adv. Also 7 ungenti(le)ly. (Un-1 11; cf. prec.)

1666 Pepys Diary 6 Aug., My Lord..did treat her thereupon very rudely and ungentelly. 1673 Br. S. Parker Reproof Lech. Transp. 14 Yet I have done very honestly, but yet very ungentilly. 1709 Steype Ann. Ref. I. 505 And further, very ungentelly,..Dorman..charged his Adversary with no less than Eighty Two Lyes. 1825 Wattson Wanad. N. Amer. I. ii. (1872) 72 Parson Evans, the Welshman, was treated most ungentelly by an enraged spirit. 1875 W. Alexander Ain Folk 115 After you felt that you had been ungentelly treated.

†Ungentilesse. Obs. (Un-1 2a.) 1390 Gower Conf. II. 30 Wher was ther covert wit a lyttell, That so thurgh his ungentilesse..Ayein his trowthe brak his stevene? Ungentilly, v. (Un-1 6c.) 1614 in Birch Crt. & Times Jas. I (1848) I. 299 It is propounded that all these should be disarmed as ung-entilified, unless they give twenty or thirty pounds for confirmation of their gentry.

Ungenti·lity. (Un-1 12 and 5 b.)

1822 Lamb Old Actors Wks. 1908 I. 849 Miss Pope, a gentlewoman ever, to the verge of ungentility. 1891 W. Alexander Johnny Gibb xxxii, At the ungentility of which saying Miss Birse looked shocked.

Ungentilize, v. (Un-2 6c.) 1637 W. Saltonstall Eusebius Constantine 58 Such as had beene ungentilizd, and degraded from their Gentility.

Ungentle, a. Forms: (see Un-1 and Gentle a.). [Un-1 7.]

†1. Of persons, their birth, family, etc.: Not gentle or belonging to a family of position; not distinguished by birth. Also absol. Obs.

c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. II. pr. iv. (1868) 41 Som man hab greie ryychesse, but he is ashamed of hys ungentil lynage. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) III. 415 [He] putte adown meny gentil men, and putte ungentil men in here stede. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 365/1 On-gentylle of kynne, ignobilis, degenerr. Ibid. 365/2 On-gentyl be fadyr, and moder, spiritus. 1485 Bk. St. Albans, Her. A j, How gentilmen shall be knowyn from vngentilmen. a 1533 Ld. Berners Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. (1546) H viij, But for all he was not called vngentyll, nor infamed, nor traytour. 1594 R. Ashley tr. Loyo le Roy 56 b, Of noble, and vnnoble, of gentlemen, and vngentle. 1648 Herrick Relat. & Observ. I. 23 Gentle or ungentle, I write to all. 1688 R. Holme Armoury III. 68/2 The Ungentle is bound..to keep silence whilst a Gentleman speaks.

2. Of persons: Not possessing the attributes or characteristics of good birth; unchivalrous; discourteous, unmannerly. Now somewhat arch.

1411-2 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 3300 He dredde hym .. The peple hym wolde han for a proude man deemed, And vngentil. c 1450 Capgrave Life St. Aug. 44, I aspied wel pat I must chere men pat cam on-to me with mete and drynk, for if I ded not, I schuld be hald on-gentil. 1562 Legh Armory Pref. ¶ iv, The second sort are vngentile gentlemen. 1593 Marlowe Edw. II, iv. ii, Sith the vngentle King Of Prunce refuseth to giue aide of armes To this distressed Queene his sister heere. 1653 J. Taylor (Water P.) Short Relat. Long Journ. (1859) 22 Quoth I, I doubt I must bee necessitated to take up my lodging in the field: to which the said ungentle gentleman ..gave me a finall answer, that I might if I would. 1688 Shadwell Sgr. Abatis ii, Belfond, thou art the most ungentle Knight alive. 1829 Cunningham Brit. Poets. I. 344 They sided him in the resolution of forcing his escape from such crushing patronage and ungentle company. 1872 Tennyson Gareth & Lynette 738 Too well I know thee, ay—The most ungentle knight in Arthur's hall.

transf. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xii. xxxvii. (Tollem. MS.), The lapwynke is ungentel [1535 most filthy] and unclene.

b. absol. and as sb.

1562 Legh Armory Pref. ¶ iij b, I beseche your honours, to dayne to be patrones of this my woorke, against the middle finger poynsinges of the vngentiles. Ibid., The first wherof are gentel vngentile.

c. Not appropriate to or befitting one of birth or breeding.

1595 Hawes Pleasy Hunting (1621) 160 This seemeth to be a very simple argument, and a grosse vngentile opinion of the simplicity of the people. 1599 Spenser F. Q. III. i. 67 For nothing would she lenger there be stayd, Where so loose life, and so vngentile trade Was vsd of Knights and Ladies seeming gent. 1642 Milton Apol. Smect. Wks. 1851 III. 270 Wherof one to be sensible,..argues both a grosse and shallow judgement, and withall an ungentile, and swainish breast. 1823 Scott Quentin D. x, According to the rules of woodcraft, he held it ungentle to interfere with the game attacked by another hunter. 1861 Meredith Evan Harrington xxx, They had seen her ungentle training in a dozen little instances.

3. Not gentle in action; rough, harsh, unkind, violent: a. Of persons or disposition.

1509 Barnes Pennerol Serm. C'xas Richmond Wks. (1876) 309 Were not she an vnkinde and vngentyl moder? 1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. III. 202 The iudge that threatneth that he wil be vnappeasable to them that be to rigorous and vngentile. 1648 Vicars Brit. Reformed. ii. 1835 To travell farre, and finde Those prove ungentle, whom you hoped, kinde. 1693 Dryden Ovid's Met. I. 976 Her Head to her ungentle Keeper bow'd, She strove to speak. 1763 G. Colman Poetic. Lett. (1820) 256 Pray hint this to him, but let him not be ungentle with Sterne. 1837 Ht. Martineau Soc. in America III. 117 Men are ungentle, tyrannical. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. vi. II. 47 His temper, naturally ungentle, had been exasperated by his domestic vexations. 1872 Calverley Fly Leaves (1901) 7 She had gone from the ken of ungentle men!

b. fig. Of things.

1551 Robinson tr. More's Utopia I. (1895) 62 Moyses lawe, though it were vngentile and sharpe, punyshed thefte by the purse, and not wyth death. 1596 Shaks. 1 Hen. IV v. i. 13 You haue..made vs doffe our easie Robes of Peace, To crush our old limbes in vngentle Steele. a 1649 Crashaw Sonnets Dist. Sacro, Mag. Magd. xxvii, Such Tears the suffring Rose that's next With ungentle flames does shed. 1812 Byron Ch. Har. I. xxiii, Vain are the pleasances on earth supplied; Swept into wrecks anon by Time's ungentle tide!

c. Of actions, language, etc.

1603 Dekker & Chettle Grissil 2020 Why must my babes beare this vngentle doome? 1649 Jer. Taylor Gt. Exemp. Disc. iii. § 15 When two seas meet, the billows contest in ungentle embraces. 1726 Pope Odyss. xvii. 548 His shoulder blade crushed to a mark. 1779 Mirror No. 43 ¶ 2 Every better feeling, warm and vivid; every ungentle one, repressed or overcome. 1846 Keble Lyra Innoc. (1873) 180 Jesus in His babes abiding Shames our cold ungentle ways. 1890 Lowell Wks. in prose and poetry xcvii, Taken aback at this ungentle speech,..Alleyne stood [etc.].

†Ungentled, ppl. a. (Un-2 6 a, 8.) 1584 Sidney Disc. Def. Earl of Leicester Misc. Wks. (1829) 269 Even of charity seke the should leave him not only ungentled, but fatherless. †Ungentlefy, v. (Un-2 6 c.) 1595 R. Johnson Marocous Extaticus 10 The state of gentlemen that have ungentlefied..themselves by buying and selling.

†Ungentleman, v. [Un-2 6 b.] trans. To deprive of the standing or character of a gentleman. Also refl.

1671 F. Philipps Reg. Necess. 204 A man disenabled, or ungentleman'd by reason of his Fathers attainder of Treason. 1713 Gentl. Instructer III. vi. (ed. 5) 419 Some tell me home-breedingwill ungentleman him. 1719 Dr. Pox Serious Refl. iii. 58 The minute he does that, he ungentlemans himself. 1752 Chesterf. Let. Misc. Wks. 1777 II. 558, I..am persuaded, that you do not give into this cochonnerie, which ungentlemans every body.

Ungentlemanlike, a. and adv. [Un-1 7 c.]

A. adj. 1. Of character, actions, etc.: Not befitting or natural to a gentleman.

1592 Nashe Four Lett. Confuted H 1 b, Neither was I.. pincht with any vngentleman-like waut, when I inuented Pierce Pennilesse. 1652 Wadsworth tr. Sandoval's Civ. Wars Spain 363 Hee was mightily condemned by all that saw or heard of that ungentleman-like action. 1708 Lett. to Fop's Jrnl. 21 Dec. 1/1, I cannot conceive the Cause from whence that base, that unworthy, that Un-Gentleman-like Quality [sc. avarice] should arise. 1800 Mar. Edgeworth Lineck & Glenar iv, Complaining of the ungenerous and ungentlemanlike behaviour in the grocer. 1884 Macm. Mag. Nov. 12/2 Work just as dirty, and tricks just as ungentleman-like.

2. Not resembling a gentleman.

1798 Free-thinker No. 126, The most Illiberal, Ungentlemanlike, Members of Society. 1749 Chesterf. Lett. 15 May (1774) I. ci. 413 They come home, the unimproved, illiberal, and ungentleman-like creatures, that one daily sees them. 1814 Jane Austen Mansfield Park xii, Ungentlemanlike as he looked.

B. adv. Not after the fashion of a gentleman.

1664 Pepys Diary 14 July, My Lord Chancellor..said that I did most ungentlemanlike with him. 1687 Settle Refl. Dryden 74 Do not deal so unnaturally and ungentleman like, to treat a honourable a man..so rudely. 1823 Scott Quentin D. xxiii, How unkingly, unknightly, ignobly, ungentleman-like, he hath conducted himself towards us.

Hence Ungentlemanlikeness.

1848 J. H. Newman Loss & Gain i. iv. (1853) 201, I have believed quite rudely to the Puseyites sometimes, and then been ashamed of my ungentlemanlikeness.

Ungentlemanliness. (Un-1 12; cf. next.)

1828 Q. Rev. XXXVIII. 560 A charge of bigotry, intolerance, calumny, and ungentlemanliness. 1877 Miss Yonge Cameos I. i. xxxii. 329 The ungentlemanliness of the Tudor.

Ungentlemanly, a. (Un-1 7.)

1562 Legh Armory 122 There are nyne rebatins of armes, which for nyne soudry vngentilmanly dedes done, are resembled as hereafter followeth. 1614 B. Jonson Barth. Fair i. iii, What an vnmannerly companion art thou to quit thy lodging at such vngentlemanly hours! 1684 Otway Atheist v, It is an opportunity I should make no ungentlemanly use of. 1741 Richardson Pamela (ed. 3) I. 84, I can stoop to the ordinariest Work of your Scullions, sooner than bear such ungentlemanly Imputations. 1825 T. Hook Sayings Ser. II. 111. 303 This letter produced an abusive, vulgar, and ungentlemanly answer. 1887 W. G. Ward Ess. Philos. Theism (1888) II. 286 They thought it thoroughly ungentlemanly so to speak in the presence of ladies.

Hence Ungentlemanly v.

1834 Medwin Angler in Wales II. 117 There were some ungentlemanlying themselves, by giving it against the horse.

Ungentlemanly, adv. (Un-1 11.)

1572 Rosswell Armorie 12 b, The rebatinge of Armes for diverse vngentile deedes vngentlemanly done. 1603 Holland Plutarch's Mor. 179 They..so defraud and cousin them ungentlemanly of their parents love. 1713 S. Sewall Diary 24 Apr., [She] said Mr. Alford had done ungentlemanly by her. 1819 Metropolis II. 207 He speaks ungentlemanly loud, as all sailors do.

†Ungentlemanny, a. Sc. Obs. [Un-1 7.] = Ungentlemanly a.

1667 Sir R. Moray in Lauderdale Papers (1885) II. 42 How ungentlemanny a thing it is to use a lady rudely. 1770 Jr. Forbes Jrnl. (1886) 325 No man dare say he has ever been guilty of a dirty or ungentlemanny Action.

Ungentleness. [Un-1 12.]

†1. Lack of good breeding or manners; discourtesy; boorishness. Obs.

1387-8 T. Usk Test. Love II. iii (Skeat) I. 232 And therfore, he that wol ben gentil, he mot daunten his flesshe fro vyces that causen ungentilnesse. 1470-85 Malory Arthur viii. xxxviii, 332 For your curtosy and gentilness I shewed you vngentilnesse, & that now me repenteth. a 1533 Ld. Berners Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. ii. xv. (1546) 150 The whiche forgetynge is as straunge to be in him that serueth, as vngentilnes in the ladye that is serued. a 1577 Sir T. Smith Commw. Eng. (1609) 131 It is taken for vngentlenes and dishonor, ..if any gentleman doe take an other mans seruant [etc.]. 1600 Shaks. A. Y. L. v. ii. 83 You haue done me much vngentlenesse, To shew the letter that I writ to you.

2. Meanness of birth. rare—0.

1552 Huloet, Vngentlenes of blonde, ignobilitas.

3. Harshness, roughness, unkindness.

1548 Patten Exped. Scotl. Pref. d ij, It was too muche vngentlenes and inhumanitie sure in suche a case too be sheweed. 1598 Florio, Inhumanità, inhumanitie, vngentlenes. 1623 Cockeram II, Vngentlenes, inclemencie. 1716-20 Lett. Fr. Mist's Trans. (1722) I. 231 I there pass through the Male Line an odd Ungentleness of Temper. 1871 Smiles Charac. ix. (1876) 240 Their own crossgrained ungentleness. 1889 F. C. Kolbe Minnie Caldwell iv. 30 Whatever ungentleness or unkindness she had shown.., had proceeded from thoughtlessness, not ungenerosity.

Ungentlewomanlike, a. (Un-1 7 c.) 1789 Anna Seward Lett. (1811) II. 295 Vulgarisms, of most ungentlewomanlike choice, and most unsolicitous frequency.

Ungently, adv. [Un-1 11.] In an ungentle manner; unkindly; roughly; discourteously, rudely.

c 1440 Jacob's Well 200, I seyde of hym vnkyndely, vndewly, vngentylly, vnwysely, folyly, & perylously. 1483 Vulgaria ob Terentio 25 Thow hast serued me vngentilly. 1535 [Coverdale] Old Test (1574) D j, It shall make the sorye..to see that Paule..was so vnkyndly and vngentily entreated. 1575 Vautrollier Luther on Ep. Gal. 210 Paule handleth you very vngentely, he calleth you foolish,..and disobeiient to the truth. 1621 Br. Mountagu Diatribe 25 In this poynt you are to be taxed deeply, for dealing vngently and vnthankfully with your much admired..Iosep h Scaliger. 1655 tr. Sorel's Com. Hist. Francion iv. 25 It was not by these people alone that I was..so ungently intreated. 1822 Lamb Gentle Giantess Wks. 1909 I. 269, I have seen these shy gownsmen..ungently neglecting the delicacies of her polished converse. 1860 Ruskin Unto this Last i. (1862) 22 The servant who, gently treated, is ungratefuil, treated ungently, will be revengeful.

Ungenuine, a. rare. (Un-1 7 and 5 b.)

1665 J. Webb Stone-Henge (1725) 178 Making ungenuine and false Translations. 1698 Jer. Collier Immor. Stage I. 18 His best Plays are most alwaies Modest..this Amphitrio, excepting the ungenuine Addition, is such. 1882 Schaff's Encycl. Relig. Knowl. 2400 The writings that had been declared ungenuine.

Hence Ungenuineness.

1848 Pr. A. Kemble Rec. Latter Life (1882) III. 328 There is an element of ungenuineness about her. 1866 Felton Anc. & Mod. Gr. I. v. 84 Internal evidence of ungenuineness or genuineness, founded on mere style.

Ungeographical, a. (Un-1 7.) 1790 C. Mather Magn. Chr. I. i. (1852) 41, I would not quote any words of Lactantius,..because of their being so ungeographical. 1873 W. Cory Lett. & Jrnls. (1897) 301 They s y things wildly ungeographical. Ungeometric, a. (Un-1 7.) = next. 1989 [see Unarithmetic a.].

Ungeome·trical, a. (Un-1 7.)

1570 Billingsley Euclid xii. prop. xviii. 385 A notable Error, which among..vngeometricall Masters and Doctors hath..been vpholden. a 1656 Sanderson Euclid (1705) 13 Of all our late Transformers of Euclide, He is the most Ungeometrical in Demonstration. 1788 T. Taylor Proclus p. cvii, The testimony of the first mathematicians..against the unlawfulness of this ungeometrical invasion.

Hence Ungeome·trical·ness.

1690 Leybourn Curs. Math. 771 For they that object against Him an Ungeometricalness in the Hypothesis, have not yet solv'd his Problem.

Un-German, a. (Un-1 7.) 1830 Carlyle Richter Again Ess. 1840 II. 298 Even the Un-German part of the public. 1855 Geo. Eliot in Cross Life (1885) I. 374 Lessing's 'Laocoon'—the most un-German of all the German books that I have ever read. Ungermanism. (Un-1 12.) 1848 Carlyle Pamph. Cr. vi. V. II. 50 Friedrich Wilhelm, snorting contempt on 'Ungermanism (Undeutschheit)'. Ungerminated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1899 J. R. Green Soluble Ferments ii. 10 The diastase..of ungerminated grain.

Unget, v. [Un-2 3.]

1. trans. To cause to be unbegotten.

1725 Sheridan Rivals iv. 1, I'll disown you. I'll disinherit you, I'll unget you! 1788 Colman Ways & Means III. 47 I'll disclaim him, I'll discard him,..I'll unget him,..That's disinherit him.

2. To give up possession of.

1893 Daily News 24 July 2/7 Having got the conviction, how was he to unget it?

Unget-at-able, a. (UN-[1] 7 b.)
1862 H. MARRYAT Year in Sweden II. 204 The lusus more usually refers to some ungettatable new fashion. 1886 W. J. TUCKER L. Europe 2 The country swarms with quiet, retired, remote, cheap, and un-get-at-able towns. 1897 Outing XXX. 271/1, I always have the feeling...that we do not know him at all. He seems so unget-at-able.

Unge·ttable, a. (UN-[1] 7 b.) 1554 Extr. Aberd. Reg. (1844) I. 282 [If the sum is] vngettable of his office, thai oblissis thame..to releiff him therof.

Ungho·stly, a. [UN-[1] 7. Cf. (in sense 1) MDu. ongeestelijc, MHG. and G. ungeistlich.]
1. Unspiritual.
1526 TINDALE 1 Tim. iv. 7 Cast away vngostly and olde wyves fables. 1535 in Lett. Suppress. Monast. (Camden) 78 The mayntenans of the busshope and his ungostly spiritual officers. 1565 STAPLETON Fortr. Faith 94 Martin Luther the first preacher of this vnghostely ghospell. 1822 T. L. PEACOCK Black Mariian 219 The abbot of Rubygill picked up the...arrow..with a very unghostly malediction on the sender. 1854 CARLYLE Frederk. Gr. XVII. ii. IV. 524 Whom the Pompadour has brought with her as henchman, or unghostly counsellor.
2. Not belonging to a ghost.
1888 Daily Tel. 26 Jan. (Cassell's), A most unghostly-looking pair of boots.

Ungho·stly, adv. rare[-1]. [UN-[1] 11. Cf. prec. 1.] † Unspiritually.
a 1400–50 Alexander 2430 Youre grete garisons of gold vngastly se spende In bigging of burgis & bilding of toures.

Ungibbet, v. (UN-[2] 3.) 1747 W. HOSKLEY Fool (1748) II. 195 When, you become a sincere Penitent,..you shall be fairly ungibbeted again, and exposed to the Public View. Ungi·ddy, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1625 BRATHWAIT Strappado (1878 158 If I had lia'd in Phaeton his daies, When with vngiddy course he rul'd the Sun. 1904 E. NESBIT Phœnix & Carpet ii. 28 When..they were ungiddy enough to look about them, they were out of doors.

Ungifted, (ppl.) a. [UN-[1] 8, 9.]
1. Having no spiritual or intellectual gifts.
1637 LD. WARISTON Diary (S.H.S.) 276 Thou knouest thy servant,..thou ungifted, unfit, unready. 1655 tr. Sorel's Conn. Hist. Francion x. 16 We ought not to take such an ungifted Prophet as this. 1712 ARBUTHNOT Hist. John Bull ii. 7 A hot-headed, ungifted, unedifying Preacher. 1850 ROBERTSON Serm. Ser. iii. iii. Introd. (1857) 33 The Eternal Word spoke..to those who were uninspired and ungifted. 1891 FARRAR Darkness & Dawn xvii. While he was still young and beautiful, and not ungifted.
b. Not gifted with something.
1831 PALMERSTON in Francis Opinions & Policy (1892) 176 The conduct of a child ungifted with reason. 1861 BERESF. HOPE Eng. Cathedr. 19th C. ii. 41 The man ungifted with architectural tact.
2. Having received no gifts; giftless.
a 1631 DONNE Lett. (1639) A 4 b, Pure Virtue; an ungifted Deity..without Oblation, Altar, or Temple. 1791 COWPER Odyss. xv. 258 He..will himself entertain Thy longer stay, That thou may'st not depart Ungifted. 1822 MILMAN Mart. Antioch 19 The sad priests of all our Gods do sit Round their cold altars and ungifted shrines. 1887 BOWEN Æneid v. 304 This festival day None of the number around me shall go ungifted away.
Hence Ungi·ftedness.
1646 MAYNE Serm. agst. False Proph. 35 The ungiftedness of the persons, who have drawn this reproofe upon us.

† Ungig, v. Obs.[-1] [UN-[2] 3 + GIG v.[1] (?).] trans. To unravel, extricate.
1626 P. SIDNEY tr. Eurymenes's Misc. Pref. C 3 In a Comedy nothing is so unmerciffully insupportable as to ungigg or explicate the Intrigue by a Miracle.

Ungild, v. (UN-[2] 4.) Also Ungi·lding vbl. sb. (also attrib).
1611 COTGR., Dedorer, to vngild. 1641 MILTON Animadv. Wks. 1851 III. 238 By all this wee may conjecture, how little wee neede feare that the ungilding of our Prelates will prove the woodening of our Priests. 1651 STANLEY Poems 209 Night began to ungild the skies. 1743 YOUNG Nt. Th. v. 174 Vice sinks in her alarums, ungilded, and loolie, like other objects, black by night. 1873 SIDN Workshop Rec. Ser. i. 205/2 Iron and steel articles are ungilt..by dipping them into [etc.]. Ibid., Removing the gold from articles.. which cannot be submitted to the ungilding bath.

Ungildated, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 a.) 1890 GROSS Gild March. I. 49 Ungildated merchants could purchase..exemption from the many restrictions.

Ungilded, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.] = next.
1674 DRYDEN Prol. at Opening of New House 7 You, who each Day can Theatres behold, Like Nero's Palace, shining all with Gold, Our mean ungilded Stage will scorn, we fear. 1688 Lond. Gaz. No. 2340/4 A good Quantity of all sorts of Pictures, and Frames gilded and ungilded. 1829 KIRBY & SP. Entomol. iii. (1826) I. 67 Terms..not strictly applicable to ungilded pupæ. 1872 HOLMES Poet Breakf.-t ii. A..chamber..obliged to content itself with ungilded daylight.

Ungilt, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 b. Cf. ON. and Icel. ú-, ógylltr.) 1444 Test. Ebor. (Surtees) II. 112, I wil yt William my sone haue..vj sponis gilt, a dosen vngilt. 1497 Naval Acc. Hen. VII (1896) 98 Halberdes gilt in a chest, 1; Halberdes vngilt in the same Chest, xx. 1532–3 Act 24 Hen. VIII, c. 13 It shall be lefull for him to weare..a bonne tipped or flewed with silver, gilte or vngilte. 1591 SYLVESTER Du Bartas i. i. 291 A Heav'n..Un-garnished, un-gilt with Stars apparent. 1692 Lond. Gaz. No. 2806/4 A large gilt Plate for the Bread and a large Cup ungilt. 1812 Monthly Rev. LXVII. 529 They..forbad any other than..gondolas unvarnished, ungilt, undecorated. 1866 G. STEPHENS Runic Mon. I. 183 The staves are carved on the ungilt back.

† Ungilt, v. Obs. rare. [UN-[2] 4.] = UNGILD v. a 1533 LD. BERNERS Golden Bk. M. Aurel. Prol. (1536) A ij b, Bycause that there was none yll that did vngylt it. 1530 HOLLYBAND Trans. Fr. Tongs Dissorder, to vngilt.

Ungiltyf, obs. variant of UNGUILTY a. I.

Ungi·nned, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 + GIN v.[2] 2.) a 1898 in Homans Cycl. Comm. 436/2 An acre of ground will produce about 600 lbs. of unginned cotton.

Ungird, v. [UN-[2] 4, 4 b. Cf. MDu. on(t)-gorden (Du. ont-), OHG. ingurten, -curten (MHG. engürten, G. entgürten).]
1. trans. and refl. To divest of, or free from, a girdle or girth.
In OE. (quot. c 900) also with instr. (of the thing) as well as acc. (of the person).
c 900 tr. Bæda's Hist. III. xiv. (1890) 196 Se cyning þonne ..ongyrde hine þa his sweorde & sendde his þegne. c 1000 Ælfric Saints' Lives xix. 109 Se casere..þæt hine ungyrdan and bewæpnian. 14.. in Wr.-Wülcker 578 Discingo, to ungyrd. 1530 PALSGR. 768/1, I ungyrde a horse. 1548 UDAL, etc. Erasm. Par. John xxi. 117 For thou vngirdedst or gyrdest thy self at thyne owne will and pleasure. 1568 GRAFTON Chron. II. 301 As he stoode at the Barre, the Lord Neuil was commaunded..to vngyrde him. 1601 HOLLAND Pliny II. 301 Let the man come,..and after he hath ungirt himself, gird her about the middle with his owne girdle. 1612 BIBLE Gen. xxiv. 32 The man..vngirded his camels.
fig. 1593 NASHE Christ's T. E iv b, The resplendent..buildings of your Temple, (like a Drum), shal be vngirt & vnbraced. 1825 MACAULAY Ess., Milton (1897) 5 The sportive exercises for which the genius of Milton ungirds itself.
2. To release, or take off, by undoing a belt or girth.
1483 CAXTON Chas. Gt. 138 Rychard..descended fro hys hors for to vngyrde and lose hys sadle. 1623 B. HALL Contempl., O. T. xix. iii, Was not this he that advised Benhadad, not to boast in the putting on his armour, as in the ungirding it. 1641 J. JACKSON True Evange. T. i. 63 How many..in the hot sun-shine of prosperity have ungirt and cast off that cloake. 1810 SCOTT Lady of L. VI. xxii, When mourns thy tribe thy battles done,..Thy sword ungirt are set of sun! 1848 BP. A. JOLLY Observ. Sunday Services (ed. 4) 100 Let us ungird our armour.
fig. 1601 SHAKS. Twel. N. iv. i. 15, I prethee now vngird thy strangeness, and tell me.
Hence Ungi·rding vbl. sb.
1639 J. CORBET (title), The Ungirding of the Scottish Armour: or, an Answer to the Information [etc.].

Ungirded, † ungird, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8 or UN-[2] 8.] = UNGIRT ppl. a.
1382 WYCLIF 1 Kings xx. 11 Ne gloryeth euenly the gird as the vngird. 1387 TREVISA Higden (Rolls) VIII. 223 þe abbot and þe chanouns of Osenay..com barefoot and bareleggeed and ungyrd [tr. ungirdi] þorgh London. c 1449 PECOCK Repr. ii. I. 135 That a man wole were a girdel, or that he wole go vngyrd. 1490 CAXTON Eneydos xxiv. 89 [She was] alle vngyrde, and vpon her knees, as a vassal that doeth homage to his lorde. 1529 FITZHERB. Surv. 31 b, He shalbe vngirde and his head vncouered. 1565 COOPER, Recinctus, vngirded. 1865 W. G. PALGRAVE Arabia II. 42 His attendants caught up their swords where they lay ungirded for prayer. 1867 AUGUSTA WILSON Vashti xxx, Her white merino robe de chambre was partially ungirded.

Ungirdle, v. [UN-[2] 4, 4 b.] = UNGIRD v.
1618 BOLTON Florus II. iv. 132 For Æmilius having the victory, ungirdled them in the Capitoll. 1629 J. MAXWELL tr. Herodian (1635) 141, I command my souldiers to ungirdle you; and divest you of all Military Attire.

Ungirdled, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 or UN-[2] 8.)
1612 FLORIO, Discinto, vngirt, vngirdled. 1834 LYTTON Pompeii I. iii, Loosening to a yet more luxurious ease his ungirdled tunic. 1867 MYERS St. Paul (1908) 23 Oceans ungirdled of the ocean-stream. 1887 BOWEN Æneid iv. 518 The foot all unsandalled, her robe ungirdled, she stands.

Ungirlish, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1850 LYNCH Theoph. Trinal v. 80 Are not these last lines a little ungirlish? 1865 [MISS M. ROBERTS] Denise I. 92 Her new acquaintances thought her odd and ungirlish.

Ungirt, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8 b or f. UNGIRD v. Cf. OFris. un-, ongert, MDu. ongegort (Du. -gord), MHG. (and G.) ungegürtet.]
1. Not girded or wearing a girdle; having the girdle or belt undone, slackened, or removed.
1297 R. GLOUC. (Rolls) 10826 Vn-hosed & bareuot & vngurt al so. 13.. Coer de L. 4153 Out com the wardayn Orgayl, And an hundryd knyghtes..; Barefoot, ungyrt, withouten hood. c 1386 Sir Perteneb. 1913 Hach-fon most go, Al open-her, & eke oungerte. c 1400 Gawayn 215 Barfoot and vngirt Gamelyn In came. 1550 THOMAS Ital. Gram., Discinto, vngyrte. 1586 FERNE Blason. Gentrie 109 The idle and sluggish person..goeth loose and vngirt. 1604 Littleton's Tenures C 2 b, When the Tenaunt shall make Homage to his Lord, he shall be vngirt, and his head vncouered. a 1658 CLEVELAND Old Gill vi, She has always the Squire, She is loose and ungirt. 1790 J. TYRRELL Hist. Eng. II. 835 Prince Lewis coming Barefoot and Ungirt from his own Pavillion. a 1822 SHELLEY Fragm. Elegy Death Adonis 18 Aphrodite...is wandering through the woods, Wildered, ungirt, unsandalled. 1850 ROSSETTI Blessed Damozel ii, Her robe, ungirt from clasp to hem.
† b. In proverbial use. Obs.
1595 SPENSER F. Q. IV. v. 18 Fie on the man, that did it first invent, To shame vs all with this, 'Vngirt vnblest'. 1635 QUARLES Emblt. iii. xiii, Am I a fitting Guest, With hands and face unwash'd, ungirt, unblest? 1690 C. NESSE O. & N. Test. I. 451 Here, if ever, doth that proverb Ungirt, Unblest, hold true.
2. fig. a. Deprived or destitute of something.
c 1412 HOCCLEVE De Reg. Prince, 3663 Dignite had ben vnlaced And wright of honour, nad vertu be.
b. Not drawn together; left loose or incompact; not braced up for action.
1579 SPENSER Sheph. Cal. Ep. Ded., What in most English wryters yseth to be loose, and as it were vngyrt, in this Authour is..strongly trussed vp together. 1644 MILTON Divorce (ed. 2) Pref. A 4 b, Let him bethink him withall how he will soder up the shifting flaws of his ungirt permissions. 1670 Devout Commun. (1688) 27 If I go with a loose, ungirt spirit, I cannot instantly entertain my Lord. 1878 EMERSON Sov. Ethics Wks. (Bohn) III. 38: Our later generation appears ungirt, frivolous, compared with the religions of the Calvinistic age.

† Ungirt, v. Obs. [UN-[2] 4 b.] = UNGIRD v.
1598 FLORIO, Discingere,..to vngirt. 1612 R. DABORNE Christian turn'd Turke 1275 The Muffty..girds his sword: then sweares him on the Mahomet's head, vngirts his sword [etc.]. 1662 MORGAN Sph. Gentry IV. i. 5 He ungirteth himself of his Sword, and..to God offereth it there.

Ungirthed, (ppl.) a. [UN-[1] 8, 9.] Not provided with, or secured by, a girth. Also fig.
1628 FELTHAM Resolves II. ix. 24 Many times, honest Industry spends a man more, then the vngirthed Solaces of a sensuall Libertine. 1813 SCOTT Rokeby vi. note, The major..clapped the saddle, ungirthed as it was, upon his horse. 1901 Westm. Gaz. 13 Aug. 8/2 If..there had been a saddle thrown upon the pony, it was ungirthed.

Ungive, v. [UN-[2] 7, 3. Cf. obs. Flem. ontgheven to fail, Du. (sich) ontgeven to yield, desist.]
1. intr. To give way, to relax; to lose tenacity or firmness. Now dial.
1523 FITZHERB. Husb. § 25 Make it in greater hey-cockes, and to stande so one nyght or more, that it may vngive and sweate. 1655 FULLER Ch. Hist. II. ii. § 40 That Relition which is rather suddenly parched up, then seasonably ripened, doth commonly ungive afterwards. 1670 EVELYN in Phil. Trans. V. 1063 When the wheels will not turn round because of the clay and over-much moisture, it is a signe, that 'tis not fit for cultivation, until it ungive, and be dry. c 1700 in Lett's Ann. Peerage (1887) 19 Who thinks that love doth live In beauty's tempting show, Shall find his hopes ungive, And melt in reason's thaw. 1854 MISS BAKER Northampt. Gloss. 369 Gingerbread losing its crispness, and salt or any other substance relaxing from the humidity of the atmosphere, are said to ungive. 1881 in Eng. Dial. Dict. s.v. (Lanes., Cheh., Leics., Bedford, Bants).
† 2. trans. To relax; to yield or give up. Obs.
1645 LIGHTFOOT Comm. Acts vi. 104 It is a daring that deserves castigation in him,..that here should..deny the practise of the Greeke text, before he will ungive any thing of his owne groundless opinion. 1655 FULLER Hist. Cambr. 118 He was over-trozen, in his Northern Rigour, and could not be thaw'd, to ungive any thing of the rigidnesse of his Discipline.

Ungiven, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8 b. Cf. ON. and Icel. ú-, ógefinn (MSw. ogivin), MDu. ongegeven, MHG. ungegeben.] † 1. Not given in marriage. Obs. c 1330 R. BRUNNE Chron. Wace (Rolls) 6545 Gentil damysels vngyuen, Pat able to mennes companye were pryuen.
2. Not given or bestowed as a gift; not imparted.
1511 Acc. Ld. High Treas. Scot. IV. 253 To hald in ungewin the Kingis gonne, quhilk the King ordeinit to be gewin. 1542 UDALL Erasm. Apoph. 230 b, Fortune leaft nothyng vngeuen to hym. a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. viii, Philanax himselfe could hauie whished the blow vngiuen, when he saw him fall. 1600 SH. K. OTTO Lett. (Camden) 63, I beleeve that office wilbe for a while vngeuen. 1662 H. HIBBERT Body Divinity I 172 Sometimes men take offence ungiven. 1723 MRS. CENTLIVRE Wonder II. i, What proof remains unsaiven of his love? 1768–74 TUCKER Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 63 Neither let him harbour such an overweening conceit of his own ungiven strength. 1818 COLEBROOKE Obligations 48 By the Hindu law, whatever has been given by mistake, must be considered as ungiven.
3. a. Not given over; unsurrendered.
a 1670 SPALDING Troub. Chas. I (1850) I. 272 It [sc. the castle] was not long on-given over.
b. Unaddicted to something.
1876 Whitby Gloss. 206. 1897 Westm. Gaz. 2 Mar. 2/1 Silent of speech, morose of nature, not ungiven to beer.

Ungiving, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.)
1662 DRYDEN Epil. Unhappy Favourite 8 Courtiers living on the Rents Of the three last ungiving Parliaments. 1692 DRYDEN Cleomenes III. ii, In vain at shrines the ungiving supplicant stands. 1737 HERVEY Mem. (1848) xxviii. II. 251 The costive nature of the King's ungiving spirit. 1829 LAMB Gypsy's Malison 14 So sang a wither'd Beldam.., And bann'd the ungiving door.

Ungla·ciated, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1883 Science I. 270/2 The average production..is nearly twice as large in the glaciated as in the unglaciated portion.

Ungla·d, a. [OE. unglæd (UN-[1] 7 + GLAD a.) = ON. óglaðr (MSw. ogladh, Norw. and Da. uglad).] Not glad or joyful; unhappy, sorry.
c 888 K. ÆLFRED Boeth. vi, Þon wyrd heo swiðe hraðe unglaðu, þeah heo ær gladu were on to locienne. 23.. Guy H. arm. (A.) 1540 Now lak Gil niche sorwe made, For his felawes be is vnglade. c 1350 Will. Palerne 2106 He..gop to þempeiour of grece vnglad at his herte. 1390 GOWER Conf. III. 370, I..sih my colour fade, Myn yhen dymme and aud al unglade. c 1412 HOCCLEVE De Reg. Prince, 4082 At the last, þen þinke shulleþ me so mochil hise had, And of his worldys muk be ful vnglad. 1470–85 MALORY Arthur x. iii. 499 Whanne this eye was made many wyues were gladde and many were vngladde. 1536 BELLENDEN Cron. Scot. (1821) II. 128 The Scottis wer not unglaid thairof. 1620 SHELTON Quix. II. x. 60 Don Quixote..I eheld with vnglad..eyes her that Sancho call'd Queene and Lady. 1648 HERRICK II, Oblitie, Vnglad, Vnjoyfull. 1829 LAMB Sonne., Work 8 Sabbathless Satan! he who his unglad Task ever plies mid rotatory burnings. 1873 DIXON Two Queens IX. iv. II. 119 Max had been as loth to let him go, as he had been unglad to see him come.
† Ungla·d, v. Obs. [UN-[2] 6 a. Cf. ON. óglebja.] trans. To afflict, distress.

1300 Gower Conf. II. 317 O thou, which alle love ungladest, And art enemple of alle unirewe. 1430 Syr Gener. (Roxb.) 9202 The first assaute that euer thei made, Gwynan thei gan to vnglade.

Ungla·ddened, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

a 1851 Moir Lament of Selim I. The soul Of him whose days ungladdened roll On month by month. 1861 J. G. Shepard Fall Rome iii. 148 A howling wilderness, ungladdened by the sight of 'Flocks, or herds'.

† Ungla·dly, a. Obs.—[Un-1 7; cf. OE. unglædlic morose.] Of the eyes: Dull.

c 1450 Bk. Hawking in Rel. Ant. I. 302 At his eyen thu mayst perceve [tl], for his eyen wyll be derke, and ungladly.

Ungla·dly, adv. [Un-1 11.] Without gladness († or bright ness.)

a 1225 Ancr. R. 398 Hwon ich hit do, ..oker ich hit do unglediche,...oker lete wel þerof. 1485 Bk. St. Albans, Hawking Civ b, When yowre hawke is encombred in the bowillis ..hir Eighen will be derke and she will looke unsladli. 1901 Westm. Gaz. 25 Jan. 1/5 Men and women who know their Asia and are now returning to it ungladly.

Ungla·dness. [Un-1 12.] Want of gladness († or good spirits).

a 1300 Cursor M. 15545 Time sal cum bat yee Sal yur vnglednes bat es nu haf turnd in to gle. c 1450 Bk. Hawking in Rel. Ant. I. 304 A man may know by the unglednesse after the chear that he maketh. 1486 Bk. St. Albans, Hawking Civ, A man may knaw by the chere and vnglednet of an hawke this infirmyte.]

Unglad·dome, a. (Un-1 7.) 1598 Phaer Æneid III. 1 J, Than hauen at Drepanus I tooke in that vnladsome shore [L. illætabilis ora].

Ungla·moured, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1891 T. Hardy Tess x, However terrestrial and humpy their appearance just now to the mean unglamoured eye.

Ungla·zed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8. Cf. (in sense 2) MDu. ongeglazet.]

1. Not glazed or having a smooth shining surface.

1599 A. M. tr. Gab-Hosnot's Bk. Physicke 45 Cinnabure it to pouder in an vnglazede pot. 1612 Woodall Surg. Mate Wks. (1653) 211 Put these into an earthen pan unglazed. 1694 Salmon Bate's Dispens. (1713) 497/2 Lemery heats an unglazed Pot or Crucible red hot. 1744 Berkeley in Fraser Life (1871) viii. 300 Tar-water is best made in glazed earthen vessels;..it is finer and clearer when so made than if in unglazed crocks. 1799 G. Smith Laboratory I. 95 Then take an unglazed pot, or a large crucible. 1844 Noad Electricity=ed 2) 160 These porous jars..are now composed of the finest unglazed biscuit ware. 1874 H. H. Cole Catal. Ind. Art S. Kens. Mus. 208 Made of common red clay, unglazed.

2. Not filled in with glass; lacking glass windows.

1608 Presentment in Essex Rev. XV. 46 The churchyard is unfensed, the windows unglazed. a 1721 Prior Down-Hall xxxvii, O now a low rain'd white Sled I discern, Unty'd and unglaz'd: I believe 'tis a Barn. 1826 Q. Rev. XVI. 346 Unglazed windows, balconies, and lattices,—shops without windows. 1852 Lytton Str. Story I. 215 The cornice of the ceiling rested on pilasters, within which the compartments were formed into open unglazed arches.

† U·ngle. Obs. [ad. F. ongle (cf. Ongle) or L. ungula Ungula.]

1. A claw, nail, or hoof.

1480 Caxton Myrr. II. iv. 70 The gryffons wylde..which easily bere a man away..whan he may sease hym with his clawes and vngles. 1491 — Vitas Patr. (W. de W. 1495) x. xviii. 95/2 The vngles of his fete and his handes weren mureuyllously longe. 1565 Adlington Apuleius 39 We fleade of the skinne..of the beane..and kept his vngles whole. 1657 Tomlinson Renou's Disp. 457 It hath hindous vngles like a Goat.

2. A hooked instrument of torture.

1483 Caxton Gold. Leg. 122/2 The tormentes of the pryson, the nayles, the vngles, the streynynge combes of yron.

3. A morbid growth in the eye; = Ungula 2.

1590 Barnoun Meth. Physick I. xxxvi. (1596) 59 Sometime..another vngle ariseth in the other corner [of the eye].

4. Geom. = Ungula 4.

1669 Wallis in Rigaud Corr. Sci. Men (1841) II. 508 He proceeds to a sum of squares to find the solid ungula, or the moment of that plane; and so to the sums of cubes, to find the moment of that ungle, and so on.

Unglea·ned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1858 in Homans' Cycl. Commerce 1775/1 Scarce a field [has been] left unglean'd. 1859 Ruskin Q. of Air § 157 Remnants of wealth lion, which remain unglean'd.

U ngled, ppl. a. Her. [f. Ungle. Cf. F. ongié] = Ungulled.

1675 Wood Life (O.H.S.) II. 311 A lyon rampant sable ungled and lang'd gules. 1684 List Military 11 Unicorn passant, argent, armed, ungled. 1722 A. Nisbet Syst. Her. I. 123 A stag..attired and ungled. Or. 1892 Daily Tel. 12 July 5/1 A cock..armed or 'ungled'.

† Unglee. Obs.—[Un-1 12.] Sadness. a 1300 Cursor M. 24130 (Edin.), Bot for na bot bat he me mad. Ne moht he min vngle ma [= make] glad. Ungli·ttering, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1813 Monthly Rev. LXX. 458 The unglittering dilation of their stanzas. 1868 Geo. Eliot Sp. Gipsy I. 54 The time of sweet serenity When colour glows in unlittering.

Unglo·be, v. (Un-1 3.) 1621 Florio, Disglobare, to vnglobe, to make vnround. 1855 Patmore Aneel in Ho. II. Prol. 3 The beast [or, the hedge-hog], Found stock-still... And feigning so to be deceased,..Unglobed himself. Unglo·bed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1713 Green Sphem 700 With look unglobed'd by guile, And wearing Virtue's livery-smile.

Unglo·rified, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

a 1395 Hylton Scala Perf. I. xliii. (MS. Bodl.), Pe resoun was mand cleer and brist..as parfyth as a sonne in a bodi vnglorifyed myste hauis. 1533 More Antich. Fetith Wks. 899/1 But I am sure glorified or vnglorified, yf hee sayed it hee is able to doee it. 1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. xliii. § 3 So Least God should be any way vnglorified, the greatest part of our daily service they know consisteth..in much variette of Psalms and Hymnes. 1653 W. Ramesey Astrol. Restored 16 So long as we carry this earthy Tabernacle about us unchanged and unglorified. 1876 Mrs. Oliphant Curate in Charge II. 81 The triumphant sun-shine..leaving not an inch even of the common high road unglorified.

Unglo·rify, v. (Un-2 6 c.)

a 1740 Watts Remnants of Time, etc. § 21 Forbid it, O my God, that ever I should be so unhappy as to unglorify.. my Saviour, or my Sanctifier. 1752 R. Shiels in Amusins (1759) 75 The Word should as it were unglorify himself. 1873 Browning Red Cott. Nt-cap iii. 145 Unglossed was shrubbery, unglorified Each copse, so wealthy once.

Unglorious, a. Now rare. [Un-1 7 and 5 b. Cf. MDu. onglorioos.] = Inglorious a.

In earliest quots. rendering L. inglorius.

1382 Wyclif Job xii. 19 He bringeth the prestis of hem vnglorious, and the beste men of wrshipe he supplantith. — Isaiah lii. 14 So vnglorious shal ben among men his slyte. c 1400 The Brut cxxxvii. 298 pe same vnglorious Philip wijdcowe hab pe residue of al his peple. c 1450 Myrr. our Ladye 183 Tho aungels,..made vnglorious for thyr wyckednes, felle from glory. 1663 Cowley Ess. in Verse & Pr., Virg. Georg. 46 In the next place, let Woods and Rivers be My quiet, though unglorious destiny. 1744 Armstrong Preserv. Health III. 13 Needlessly to brave Unglorious dangers. 1888 Froude Carlyle II. 153 Something should be found..neither unglorious nor unprofitable.

Unglo·ry, v. (Un-2 4.] To deprive of glory.

1626 Laud Serm. Pr. Lectn. 22, 16 We must not looke that God should stirre to help vs, if wee arise to oppose and vnglorie him. 1655 Shirley Politician III. i, The triumph he Expected..Will be ungloried in our sudden match.

Unglorious, v. (Un-2 4.) 1873 [see Unglorious] 1.

Ungloss·ed, ppl. a. (Un-1 9.) 1689 W. Brayne Sacred Music & Manners II. 341 Why has he been thus branded, dateless and unglossaried. 1894 J. R. C. Hall Anglo-Saxon Dict. Pref., I do not profess to have searched unglossaried matter. Unglo·ssed, ppl. a.[1] (Un-1 8 and Gloss v.[1]) 1802 H. Martin Helen of Glenross III. 203 Her errors you saw unveiled, unglossed. 1862 Mrs. H. Wood Channings xxix, Tell me, the simple truth, unglossed over.

Unglo·sing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1827 Lamb in Hone Table-bk. I. 488 The honest unglossing pages of the homely Newgate Ordinary. Unglo·ssed, ppl. a.[2] (Un-1 8.) 1822 Good Stud. Med. IV. 693 A dull or unglossy white diffused over the body. 1854 H. Miller Sch. & Schm. xxi. 438 The dull, unglossy coat given..by the degenerate friction and water.

Unglo·ve, v. [Un-2 4 and 7.]

1. trans. To divest of a glove or gloves.

c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode IV. xliii. (1869) 196 Weel pou wost pe name of pe gloomen..A fool pou were wban pou vnglooued bee of hem. 1611 Florio, Disguantare, to vnglove. 1624 Massinger Parl. Love II. iii, See, I dare touch this hand, And without adoration unglove it. a 1629 Fletcher & Shirley Lover's Progress I. i. "Tis said you can tell fortunes to come. Lan. Yes Mistris and what's past, Unglove your hand. 1823 Scott Quentin D. xii, The King, ungloving his right hand, courteously handed the Countess Isabelle and her kinswoman to their apartment. 1851 Eng. Wom. Dom. Mag. III. 142 He laid the hand which he had ungloved upon his heart.

2. intr. To remove a glove or gloves. Also fig.

1797 Mrs. A. M. Bennett Beggar Girl (1813) IV. 222 The earl, on occasion a complete courtier, put out the glove to Mrs. Woudbe. 1855 Lynch Rivulet LXVI. iii, The covered buds ungloving Seem with offered hand to greet.

Hence Unglo·ving vbl. sb.

1818 Keats To Lady at Vauxhall 4 Smared by the unglowing of the hands. 1873 T. W. Higginson Oldport Days v. 129 The turning of her head, the ungloving of her hand.

Unglo·ved, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1626 Bacon New Atl. (1650) 26 Holding forth his Hand ungloved, and in Posture of Blessing. 1626 Breton Fantastickes Wks. (Grosart) II. 8/2 It is now March,..and the faire hands must be ungloved. 1802 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 417, I..would shake hands with them ungloved. 1844 W. Irving in Life & Lett. (1866) III. 359 On one hand is a black glove; the other hand, ungloved, is small. 1888 A. K. Green Behind Closed Doors v, She had laid her ungloved hand upon his arm.

Unglo·ved, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. iv. 145 Late yowre confessoure, sire Kynge, construe þis vngloued.

Unglue·, v. [Un-2 3 and 7.]

1. trans. To free from the binding or adhesive effect of glue; to detach or make loose in this way.

1548 Elyot, Regluthino, .. to vnglewe. 1598 Florio, Sgommare, to vnglum, to vnplaster, to vnglue. 1686 Aglionby Painting Illustr. i. 29 Being Vexed at the Suns unglueing some Pictures of his. 1703 R. Neve City & C. Purchaser 277 To prevent..Brick-walls from Unglueing the Joynts of the Plends. 1718 Orell tr. Tournefort's Voy. I. 130 Their Strings or Filaments separate..in parcels, as if they had been glued together at first, and now were unglued. 1859 Morley Mem. Bartholomew Fair i. 12 There was a young gentleman whose head stuck to his left hand. He was unglued at St. Bartholomew's establishment. 1872 T. Hardy Under Greenwo. Tree i. v, That there instrument [a fiddle] will be unglued and spoilt in ten minutes.

2. trans. To open (the eyes) after sleep.

1606 Dekker Seven Deadly Sinnes Wks. (Grosart) II. 31 Another..arriu'de at one of the Gates, before any Porters eyes were vnglewd. 1682 N. O. Boileau's Lutrin IV. 207 But yet the Noise that had unglew'd their eyes Could not perswade the Sluggish Chanons rise. 1798 Swift Tryal of Mod. Lady 42 She stretches, gapes, unglues her eyes, And asks if it be time to rise.

c. fig. To detach, separate, dissolve.

1619 Hieron Wks. I. 641 Happy were it for us if the meditation of this point..were able to vnglue and vnrivet our affections, which are so meerely tyed vnto it. 1649 Bp. Hall Cases Conec. iv. ii. (1654) 207 Heresie and Infidelitie, which are enough to unglew all naturall and civill relations betwixt father and son. 1675 Hobbes Odyssey (1677) 130 Your death..for which Age shall prepare you, and your soul unglew Insensibly. 1832 Syd. Smith in Lady Holland Mem. (1855) II. 314 Where is it to end? Are all political agglutinations to be unglued? 1897 Hall Caine Christian iv. iii, Unless we unglue ourselves from the vanities which imperil our existence.

2. intr. To lose cohesion; to become detached.

1693 Evelyn De la Quint. Compt. Gard. II. 112 Otherwise they are apt to unglue, that is, to separate cleverly from the part where they are Grafted, in great Storms of Wind. 1703 R. Neve City & C. Purchaser 29 When ever the Joints shall happen to unglue.

Hence Unglu·ing vbl. sb.

1591 Percivall Sp. Dict., Desengrudamiento, vnglueing. 1623 Cockeram I, Reglutination, an vnglueing. 1703 R. Neve City & C. Purchaser 277 Yet neither of these ways will prevent their unglueing in some Houses.

Unglue·d, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1694 Speede Mem. Cranmer II. xv. 206 They had Leaves put in as Additions to the Book, some glewed, and some unglewed. Unglu·tinate, v. [Un-1 3.] = Unglue v. 1 c. 1683 Pettus Ess. Metallick Words s.v. Lead-ceuse, To be kept from..moistplaces, which do unglutinate, and so destroyes or subdues their Virtues.

Unglu·tted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1813 Byron Corsair II. viii, For Seyd's unglutted eye Would doom him ever dying—ne'er to die! 1847 Lytton Lucretia II. viii, The two inheritors of a wife ungluttered by the grave. 1897 Rhoscomyl White Rose Arno 46 His eyes all hell with unglutted murder.

† Ungly, eironeous f. Ugly a. and adv.

c 1400 Apol. Loll. 55 But wo is þe..bigiinning of his bus gret iuel, I drede ungly to sey. a 1513 Fabyan Chron. v. cix. 85 Such an vngly nombre of multytude of monkes.

Ungnawe·n, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1836 F. Mahony Rel. Father Prout (1859) 376 Thy MSS. have come down to us.. ungnawed by the tooth of Time. 1881 Darwin Veg. Mould 80 Ungnawed petioles had not become more decayed near the base than elsewhere. Ugnawn, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.) a 1560 Phaer Æneid VIII. Y 3 I to hee he trembling shooke, and left his bones begone unglewn. 1748 Hexham II, Ongekauaght, Vngnawne. 1775 Ash, Ungnawn.

† Ungne·de, a. Obs. [Un-1 7: cf. OE. ungnieðe.] Unsparing, liberal.

a 1300 Cursor M. 9931 (castel brightnes sua vngnede, Oueral þat curt on lenght and brede. a 1400 Pistill of Swetnesse 176 Grete godnesse of gyftes vngnede.

Ugnement, obs. form of Ointment.

† Ungo·, v. Obs.—[Un-2 7. Cf. MDu. ontgaen (Du. -gaan), LG. und-, untgân, MHG. ent-engân (G. entgehen), to escape, fail, etc.] intr. To pass away, perish.

c 1450 Hymnis Virgin (1867) 121 They schalle se heuyn vngo, And be erthe schall also.

Ungo·ded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1817 Lady Morgan Florence VI. (1826) II. 130 Ungodded by the necessities of a commercial existence. 1873 W. Cory Lett. & Jrnls (1897) 313 A..creaking wheel turned by an ungonded, tall, lean ox.

Ungo·d, v. [Un-2 6 b. Cf. Du. ontgoden. G. entgöttern.] To deprive of the qualities or position of deity; to undeify. (Common c 1640–1740.)

1627 Wren Serm. bef. King 17 Feb. 33 All slight and unawful Expressions. Ungodding him no lesse..then does rash and unadvised blasphemie. 1655 Gurnal Chr. in Arm. II. 61 Though men cannot come to pull God out of his throne, and un-god him. 1697 Dryden Ungodded ppl. a.] 1708 O. Dykes Eng. Prov. 4 Refl. (1709) 243 Attempting saucily to rival, to insult, or to ungod his Creator. a 1750 T. Gordon Another Cordial (1751) II. 203 The Jew crucifies his Saviour, the Socinian ungods Mahometan ungod him. a 1834 Coleridge in Lit. Rem. (1839) IV. 124 A consistent Socinianism..in ungodding the Saviour must deify cats and dogs. 1892 Gospel Wisdom Dec. 191/2 God..will be dethroned and ungodded before it shall come to pass.

refl. 1672 Villiers (Dk. Buckhm.) Rehearsal iv. ii, For fair Parthenope, Gods would, themselves, un-god themselves to see. 1685 J. Scott Chr. Life II. vii. § 2 Which would be to destroy his own Being, and un-god himself.

Hence Ungo·dding vbl. sb.

1696 Beake in Burton's Diary (1828) I. 59 It is a crime that deposes the majesty of God himself,..the ungodding of God. 1678 Cudworth Intell. Syst. I. iv. § 20. 381 His Ungodding of the Sun, Moon and Stars. 1716 M. Davis Athen. Brit. II. 407 What a horror the Primitive Christians had of the Notions, of Ungodding our Saviour.

† Ungo·dded, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 8: see God v. 2.] Not spiritually united with God.

1579 W. Wilkinson Confut. Fam. Love B iij b, They are ..vnreuerend, vngodded, vnsensit. 1660 H. More Myst. God. vi. xii. 248 What the ungodded or uniluminated men ..preach and teach. 1687 Dryden Hind & P. iii. 742 Thus men ungodded may to places rise.

Ungo·ddess, v. [Un-2 6 b.] trans. To deprive of the status of a goddess.

1760 Murphy Way to Keep Him I. i, They whisk about the Town,..as if they were treated at home like so many Goddesses, though every body knows possession has ungoddessed them all long ago. 1797 Mrs. A. M. Bennett Beggar Girl (1813) VII. 300 Fortune..was at this moment most unmercifully ungoddessed. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. III. v. iv, What articulate words poor Mrs. Momoro.. uttered, when she had become ungoddessed again.

† Ungo·derly, a. Obs. [Un-1 7; the second element is obscure.] Squalid, filthy.

13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 145 þow art a gome vngoderly in þat goun fedele. Ibid. 1091 [Christ] nolde neuer towche Ost þat was vngoderly oper vrdre was a gome.

Ungo·dlike, a. (Un-1 7 c.)

a 1652 J. Smith Sel. Disc. viii. (1660) 364 But alas, such an ungodlike Religion as this can never be owned by God. 1684 T. Burnet Theory Earth I. 165 This, I confess, seems to me..a way of working very un-God-like. 1729 W. Reeve Serm. 149 The pleasures of God's right hand must be tasteless to an ungodlike filthy spirit. 1854 P. Fairbairn Typol. Script. (ed. 2) I. ii. II. 218 How cheering to know this ungod-like state of disorder and confusion is not to be perpetual. 1869 GLADSTONE Juv. Mundi vii. 211 It did not assign to deity that unGodlike quality, respect of persons.

Ungo·dlily, adv. (UN-[1] 11.)
1583 J. FIELD Godly Exhort. C j b, Being thus vngodlilie assembled, to so vnholy a spectacle. 1645 FAGITT Heresiger. (1647) 66 Ungodlily alledging the..Scriptures. 1674 Govt. Tongue 114 'Tis but an ill e-say of that reverence and godly fear, to use that very gospel so irreverently and ungodlily as men now do. 1860 PUSEY Min. Prophets 413 Israel..slaying ungodlily Him who was by nature His Begotten Son.

Ungo·dliness. (UN-[1] 12: cf. next.)
1526 TINDALE Rom. i. 18 For the wrath of god of heven apereth against all vngodlynes and vnrightewesnes. Ibid. xi. 26. 1555 EDEN Decades WP. (Arb.) 58 He dyd not keepe silence of so vngodlynesse. 1642 L. HUGHES (title), Certain Grievances: or, the Popish Errors and Ungodlinesse of the Service-book plainly laid open. 1672 BARROW Duty & Reward Charity 21 Performing such acts, is a good sign of true Piety; and omitting them, is a certain argument of ungodliness. 1742 YOUNG Nt. Th. III. 165 Oh! the curst ungodliness of zeal! 1865 C. J. VAUGHAN Plain Words x. (1866) 183 The recollection of His love in contrast with our ungodliness.

Ungo·dly, a. (UN-[1] 7. Cf. MDu. ongodelijc (Du. ongoddelijk), MHG. ungöttlich (G. ungöttlich), (M)Du. ugudelig, MSw. ogudhlik (Sw. ogudlig).]
1. Of persons: Not fearing or reverencing God; irreligious, impious, wicked.
1526 TINDALE Rom. v. 6 Christ dyed for vs which were vngodly. 1587 GOLDING De Mornay xx. 358 There is also a certeine Religion,..and the vngodlyest man that is cannot scape from it. a 1612 DONNE Sermons (1640) xlv. 454 The charitable man dreames of building Churches, but starts to thinke the vngodly Courtier will pull them down again. 1653 HOLCROFT Procopius, Pers. Wars ii. 48 His son succeeding him, proved the vngodlyest man living. 1698 NORRIS Pract. Disc. IV. 180 Which justifies a certain English Phrase..wherein we use to call a Man of a Wicked Life, an Vngodly Man. 1731 WATERLAND Script. Vind. ii. 100 Shimei was an ungodly wretch. 1849 Christian Guardian ii, The admission into her own private chamber of such very ungodly personages as Mars and Venus.
absol. 1526 TINDALE 1 Pet. iv. 18 Yf the righteous scasly be saved: where shall the vngodly and the sinner appe? 1535 COVERDALE Zech. iii. 3 But the vngodly will not lerne to be aszshamed. 1631 GOUGE God's Arrows i. § 12. 17 O the godlies exemption from the ungodlies destruction. 1738 WESLEY Ps. i. iv, But no Success th' Ungodly find. 1825 J. NEAL Div. Vonathan I. 24 While he was speaking the vngodly. 1847 S. AUSTIN Ranke's Hist. Ref. III. 385 He did not doubt that the ungodly, as well as the pious, partook of the body and blood of Christ.
transf. 1535 SHAKS. John iii. 1. 109 Let not the howres of this vngodly day Weare out the daies in Peace.
b. Of the stomach: Gluttonous, greedy.
c 1746 J. COLLIER (Tim Bobbin) Goose 78 You must not Pamper your ungodly Belly. 1749 AINSWORTH (ed. 2) 1, An ungodly gut, venter insaturabilis. 1828 CARR (Craven Gloss.), Ungodly, insatiable, or squeamish and nice; used of the stomach or guts.
2. Of actions, etc.: Not in accordance with the will or law of God.
1526 [see UNGODLY adv.]. 1555 EDEN Decades (Arb.) 109 They sayde it was vngodly to fyght against any, not being prouoked. 1577 GOOGE Heresbach's Husb. 15 Let hym in no wyse suffer them..to vse filthy or vngodly speache. 1617 WOODALL Surg. Mate Pref., Wks. (1639) 6 Wherefore it were a very ungodly thing, to forbid a Surgeon to learne all, or any thing that concerneth his calling. 1671 MILTON Samson 898 Gods unable To acquit them-elves and prosecute their foes But by ungodly deeds. 1851 LONGFELLOW Gold. Leg. iv. Reflectory Were Peter Damon still upon earth, To be shocked by such ungodly mirth. 1864 PUSEY Lect. Daniel i. (1876) 3 The moral law..strongly condemned forgery even when not ungodly.
3. colloq. Outrageous, dreadful.
1889 STEVENSON Merry Men, Olalla, The wind[?]..ungodly and uninterrmittent uproar, would not suffer me to sleep.

Ungo·dly, adv. Obs. exc. arch. [UN-[1] 11. Cf. MDu. ongod.e)like (Du. ongoddelijk), MHG. ungöttlich, MSw. ogud(e)like (Sw. ogudligt).] = UNGODLILY adv. (Common in 16th c.)
1526 TINDALE Jude 15 To rebuke..all their vngodly deles, which they have vngodly committed. [Also in later versions.] 1533 BELLENDEN Livy Prol. But quhat dare boldly professe, that his godly sayinges are vngodly handled. 1554 Brief Exam. A iij, All true Godly men, may Godly vse those rites, which wicked men haue abused, howsoeuer vngodly. 1566 G. WOODCOCK First Institute I 2, Leontius.. being made Emperor, ruled most vngodly eleuen years.
Ungo·dmothered, a. (UN-[1] 9.) † 1714 Widow of Watling Street i. 1, You Half Christened Katomites—ungodmothered varlets. † Ungo·dly Bible, a. Obs.[-1] (UN-[1] 7 b.) Impossible to traverse. 1482 Monk of Evesham (Arb.) 39 Sothly to owre semyng the lengthe of thys fyrste place afore seyde was on goyngable. Ungo·l·d, v. (UN-[2] 4.) 1637 N. WHITING Albina & Beltama 28 Saturne's exile, Jove awes this massie Ball, And now the Iron age un-golden'd all.

Ungon, obs. var. ONION.

Ungo·ne, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 b.)
1. Not (yet) gone or departed. † To keep ungone (Sc.), to keep from going.
c 1475 Rauf Coilgear 662 3lt was the King in the hall, And mony gude man with all, Vngane to tie meit. 1597 in Archibreit Contrem. (Camden) I. 2 Mr. Gwyn tould me that fisher was vngone at his comyng from London. 1638 SIR E. STANHOPE in Strafford's Lett. (1739) II. 239 A Letter ..to intreat me to meet him the next Day, and if he were ungone, to bring my Son John with me. 1657 Rec. Burgh Lanark (1893) 160 To keip their prentesis, servands, and childrin ungone avaiging on the Lordes day. 1824-77 in dialect glossaries (Yks., Linc.).
† 2. Untraversed. Obs.—0
1611 FLORIO, Inuio sentiero, an vngone, vntroden or vncouth path.

Ungoo·d, a. Now rare. [OE. ungōd (UN-[1] 7), = MDu. ongoet (older Du. ongoed), MLG. ungūt (LG. ungōd), OHG., MHG. unguot (G. ungut), ON. ugōðr (Norw. dial. ugod).] Not good; evil, bad; wicked.
c 1000 SAX. Leechd. III. 184 Seldan he bis eald, ungodan deaðe he swylt. Ibid. 188. c 1200 ORMIN 16739 Forrpi batt tessre dede iss all Unngod & all unnclene. Ibid. 17056. a 1300 E. E. Psalter i. r In strete of sinluile noght he stode, Ne sat in setel of storme un-goode. c 1305 Judas Iscariot 22 in E. E. P. (1862) 107 Lob hem was. a bern to norische, so liber and vngood. 1390 GOWER Conf. I. 20 The vice of hem that ben ungoode is no reprouef unto the goode. c 1445 PECOCK Donet 37 Pat ping whiche resoun knowiz..to be bad, or vngood. c 1485 Joseph Myst. (1882) IV. 505 His synowe, Are brokyn sonder by payns vngude! 1904 C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON Princess Passes xii, You have been so good to us; don't be ungood now.
b. Absol. or as sb.
a 1250 Owl & Night. 129 Al so hit is hi þan vngode þat is icumen of fule brode. Ibid. 1364 Vor nys a worlde þing so god þat ne may do vorse ynogh. a 1568 in Bannatyne MS. (Hunter. Cl.) 203/86 Vngud and gud sall fair, ..Bot richteous gud..lestis for euir mair. 1885 L. OLIPHANT Sympheumata 248 For universal good, and for suppresse of the ungood.
† Ungoo·dlihead. Obs.—[1] (UN-[1] 12: cf. next.) Lack of goodness.
1430-40 LYDG. Bochas VI. iii. (1554) 150 b, She her cours gan varye. To slewe her malice and ungoodyhed.
† Ungoo·dly, a. (UN-[1] 7. Cf. MDu. ongoedelijc- (Du. ongoedelijk), MLG. ungūtlik, -gōtlik, MHG. ungutlich, -güetlich (G. ungütlich).]
1. Lacking goodness; bad, wicked: a. Of persons.
1390 GOWER Conf. I. 293 He is that like ungoodliestle Which many a lusti love hath twinned. Ibid. II. 338 Ha, thou ungoodlich ypocrite. 1432 Paston Lett. I. 32 The which he defaulte might be caused by ungodely or unvertuous men. 1478 Coventry Leet Bk. 374 Wher ther be diuers and many vagabundes, and vngoodly & ille disposed persones. 1533 BECON Relignes of Rome (1563) 159 Iulis is yᵉ goodly Godlye Catholyke doctrine wherwith the vngoodly vngodly Papists infecte the minides of such Christians as are simple.
b. Of actions, language, etc.
1390 GOWER Conf. II. 333 Which thing, mi Sone, I thee forbede, For it is an ungoodly deede. 1422-50 LYDG. Chron. Troy III. 3352 Epistrophus..Rebuked hym in vngoodly wyse. 1455 T. BECKINGTON Corr. (Rolls) II. 342 That I sholde haue vitered and seid vngoodly language touchynge yor noble persone. 1530 W. H. Turner Select. Rec. Oxford (1880) 84 For his vngoodly maner so then usid to the comyssarie [he] did send hym to prison.
2. Uncomely; unhandsome.
1495 Treviza's Barth. De P. R. v. xiii. 49 Yf the nose lackyth, yᵉ ryme dele of yᵉ face is vngoodly & vnseemely. 1519 HORMAN Vulg. 14 b, No man that..hath a mahayme or a blemmyssche, that maketh hym vngoodly, shall take orders. 1549 COVERDALE, etc. Erasmus. Par. 1 Cor. 34 Suche [parts] as seme vngoodly, to them ipse we some comly vesture.
† Ungoo·dly, adv. Obs. [UN-[1] 11. Cf. MDu. (and obs. Du.) ongoedelike, MLG. ungūtliken, -gōtliken, MHG. ungutlîche, -güetliche.]
1. In an uncomely manner. rare.
a 1300 Cursor M. 18404 ]ar come ouerthuert A wreche man, vngodli gert, On his schuldres a croice he bar.
2. Badly, wrongly, improperly; roughly or rudely.
c 1380 WYCLIF Wks. (1880) 339 And þus is þat man contrite of synne, þat he vngodly it good hab don. 1486 LYDG. De Guil. Pilgr. 3952, I..full vngoodly spoke now, Wher-off I repente sore. 1450 Paston Lett. I. 158 He tolde H. his part how that he leviel ungoodly in puttyng awey of his wyff, and lyeth with other. 1475 Rel. Antiquiss. (1813) I. That noble and trew knight,..ayenst all manhode ungoodely entretid, died in prison. 1526 TINDALE Matt. xxii. 6 The tremaunt tokie his servauntes and entreated them vngoodly and slewe them. 1545 ASCHAM Toxoph. (Arb.) 50 Good thinges ungoodlye vsed, are not good.

Ungo·red, ppl. a.[1] [UN-[1] 8.] Unpierced.
1604 SHAKS. Ham. v. ii. 262 (Q. 2), I..will no reconcilement, Till..I haue a voyce and president of peace To [keep] my name vngord [1623 vngorg'd]. 1647 HEXHAM 1, Vngored, onbeseerdheen.
† Ungo·red, ppl. a.[2] (UN-[1] 8.] Unbloodied.
1605 SYLVESTER Du Bartas II. iii. Vocation 288 Yet one might behold Bright swords and shields, and plumed helms of cold Un goard with blood.

Ungo·rged, v. (UN-[2] 3.)
1602 CHETTLE & MUNDAY Death Earl Huntington v. ii. L j b, But when thou dost vngorge thee, grant me this, Thou power those poysons on the head of Iohn.

Ungo·rged, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)
[1623: see UNGORED [1].] 1700 DRYDEN Theod. & Hon. 213 The Hellhounds, as ungorg'd with Flesh and Blood, Pursue their Prey. 1743 FRANCIS tr. Hor., Odes III. iv. 79 On Tityus' liver shall the vulture feed With rage ungorged.

Ungo·rgeous, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1837 CARLYLE Fr. Rev. II. iv. viii, The ignominious Royal Free-coach..sweeps along there, in most ungorgeous pall.

Ungo·spel, a. (UN-[1] 12 b.) Unevangelical. 1649 H. LAWRENCE Some Consid., etc. 75 Can that Ordinance be legall, and servile, and ungospell? 1652 BAXTER Gos. Reflex. 32 Which ungospell practises I wish they would first reform. Ungo·spel, v. (UN-[2] 6 b.) 1847 H. BUSHNELL Chr. Nurt. ii. vii. (1861) 376 Confessing shortcomings and defeats..enough to ungospel all the gospel promises. Ungo·spelized, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1706 Acc. Sev. Propag. Gospel 57 They had addressed the Remoter ungospelized Plantations. 1721 S. SEWALL Diary 16 Feb., The Money for Gospellizing ungospellized places. Ungo·spelled, a. (UN-[1] 9.) 1674 N. FAIRFAX Bulk & Selv. 8 That thread-bare Question, which did so much gravel the ungospel'd world. 1902 SKEINE Pastor Agnorum 193 The sick that need the physician, the ungospelled poor.

Ungo·spel-like, a. (UN-[1] 7 c.)
1574 Life 70th Abp. Canterb. Pref. E 4 That so the open mouth of the Lewde Papist might lee stopped from..the approuing of suche vngospellike legends. 1642 MILTON Ch. Govt. ii. iii, The..tyranny of an undue, unlawfull and ungospellike jurisdiction. 1674 PENN Urim & Thummim (title-p.), The opposite plea of Samuel Grevill..in his ungospel-like discourse.

Ungot, ppl. a. Also 5 vnget. [UN-[1] 8 b.]
1. Not acquired, obtained, or won.
c 1400 Sege Jerus. (E.E.T.S.) 68/1169 Ay wer þe gates vnget till two 3eres ende: So louge þey sousht hit by sege, or þey þe cite hadde. 1601 DANIEL Civ. Wars VI. xlvii, Whilst Somerset with maine endeauour lay To get his gisen but vngot gouernment. 1861 COTGR., Fuerisions,..corne, grasse..standing, or vncut, vnget.
2. Unbegot.
1603 SHAKS. Meas. for M. v. i. 141 Your Substitute, Who is as free from touch, or soyle with her As she from one vngot.

Ungo·tten, ppl. a. Also 5 vngettyn, -getyn. [UN-[1] 8 b.]
1. Unbegotten.
1438 MSWR Fire of Love 14 For nouher be substanc of þe sonn som-tyme vngetyn myst be called,..with-oute an onely gettyn sone of þe self. 1470-85 MALORY Arthur VI. i. 571 He that shal sytte there is vnborne and vngoten. 1548 PATTEN Exped. Scot. A vij, Astyngyne..was..admitted yᵉ he shoulde be ouercommen by a nephew of hys as yet then vngotten & vnborne. 1599 SHAKS. Hen. V, I. ii. 288 And some are yet vngotten and vnborne, That shal haue cause to curse the Dolphins scorne.
2. Not acquired, obtained, or won.
a 1548 HALL Chron., Hen. VI, 107 b, The Frenchemen..seyng the strong fortres was vngotten, fetched a compasse about. 1600 PALFREYMAN Baldwin's Mor. Philos. 135 b, They that indeuoure to get their husbandrie or viues by deceipts & charmes, may lightly get them, but better vngotten. 1628 FELTHAM Resolves I. xlviii. 45 Let her wander, in a wearied sollicitude, after vngotten plenty. 1775 ASH, Ungotten,..not gotten, not gained. 1876 GEO. ELIOT Dan. Der. xxiii, To carry the map of an ungotten estate in your pocket is a poor sort of copyhold. 1883 GERSLEY Gloss. Coal-m. 197 Solid or ungotten coal forming the roof of a roadway.

Ungo·vernable, a. (and sb.). [UN-[1] 7 b.] That cannot be governed; uncontrollable.
a. Of persons (or animals).
1673 [R. LEIGH] Transp. Reh. 112 Such ungovernable cattle as consciences, plus savages. 1680 DRYDEN Orig's Ep. Pref. (ad fin.), So wild and ungovernable a poet cannot be translated literally. 1725 DE FOE Voy. round World (1840) 312 The fellows were so rude, so ungovernable and unbounded in their hunting after gold. 1768 BOSWELL Corsica ii. (ed. 2) 135 A lawless and ungovernable rabble of banditti. 1829 SCOTT Anne of G. xxv, The abbess..will have an ungovernable penitent under her charge. 1849 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. v. I. 592 These animals..became ungovernable as soon as they heard a gun fired. 1855 Ibid. xvii. IV. 102 The fiercest and most ungovernable part of the..population.
sb. 1810 BYRON Let. to H. Drury 3 May, I have been with ..governess and ungovernables.
b. Of temper, passion, etc.
1676 HALE Contempl. I. 341 Men pretending to greatness of wit and learning, but in truth of haughty and ungovernable spirits. 1741 RICHARDSON Pamela II. 36 I his strange wayward Heart of mine, that I never found so ungovernable and awkward before. 1781 GIBBON Decl. & F. xxxii. (1787) III. 251 The ungovernable spirit of a Barbarian host, impatient of peace or discipline. 1843 BETHUNE Sc. Fireside Ster. 200 He fell into a most ungovernable passion. 1876 T. HARDY Ethelberta (1890) 400 As Alf was an ungovernable impulse, Ethelberta broke into laughter also.
c. Of things.
1773 COOK Voy. S. Pole II. ii. (1777) I. 205 Having unshipped the rudder, which rendered her ungovernable. 1839 FR. A. KEMBLE Resid. in Georgia (1863) 58 The stiff and ungovernable hair. 1852 HAWTHORNE True Stories iii. (1879) 22 That..ungovernable wonder the wind.
Hence Ungo·vernableness.
1673 Lady's Calling i. II. § 13 The ungovernableness of a woman. 1701 COLLIER M. Aurel. (1726) 96 You'd best murther your general, and add villany to your ungovernableness. 1751 ELIZA HEYWOOD Betsy Thoughtless I. 103 Lamenting the ungovernableness of youth. 1853 RUSKIN Stones Ven. III. App. 303 I. he ungovernableness of its colour (changing in the furnace). 1882 Pall Mall G. 20 June 2/1 As much an illustration of misgovernment as of our ungovernableness.

Ungo·vernably, adv. (UN-[1] 11; cf. prec.)
1682 NORRIS Hierocles 134 Demeaning themselves ungovernably in all fortunes. 1764 GOLDSM. Travl. 314 Heavens! how unlike their Belgic sires of old! Rough, poor, content, ungovernably bold. 1810 CRABBE Borough III. 42 Accuse me not that I..think the 1 ashions, Strong as they are, ungovernably strong. 1855 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. xix. IV. 357 He had..been turned out of office in a way which had made him ungovernably ferocious. 1882 M. DODDS Genesis 193 A nature..whose passions raged ungovernably.

Ungo·verned, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.] Not brought under government or control; uncontrolled: a. Of disposition, feelings, actions, etc.
1591 SHAKS. Two Gentl. iv. i. 45 Some of vs are Gentlemen, Such as the fury of vngouern'd youth Thrust from the company of awfull men. 1622 MISSELDEN Free Trade 73 It now remaineth briefely to shew the Too Loose Vse thereof, by Vngouerned Trade. 1667 MILTON P. L. XI. 514 When themselves they vilifi'd To serve ungovern'd appetite. 1712 STEELE Spect. No. 290 P 1 The ungoverned Passions of such as are enamoured of each other. 1781 GIBBON Decl. & F. xviii. (1787) II. 95 Unable to withstand the ungoverned fury of the populace. 1839 FR. A. KEMBLE Resid. in Georgia (1863) 14 The furious and ungoverned execration which all reference to the possibility..draws down upon those who suggest it. 1846 MRS. J. MARSH Father Darcy II. x. 165 There was..something so violent and ungoverned in her temper and feelings.

b. Of persons, animals, or things.

1594 Shaks. Rich. III, iv. iv. 399 Thou..., Vngouern'd youth. 1606 Chapman Gentl. Usher iv. iii, For mad men, By payne ungoverned, have no sense of payne. 1628 in Foster Eng. Factories India (1909) III. 198 Our people for the most part being heedlesse, ungoverned, without discipline and order. 1719 De Foe Crusoe 1. (Globe) 348, I knew they were a Parcel of refractory, ungovern'd Villains. 1725 Pope Odyss. VIII. 199 Ill bear the brave a rude ungovern'd tongue. 1791 Cowper Iliad XXIII. 585 Thrown .. From his seat,.. his ungovern'd steeds have roam'd away. 1827 Pollok Course T. v. 1052 The Martar hordes, that roamed..., Ungoverned, southward to the unpeopled wild.

†Ungoverned, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[7] 6 b.] Deprived of the position of governor. 1654 Gayton Pleas. Notes iv. 230 Ungovern'd, Uncardinall'd, Unlorded, Outed of all his hopes.

Ungoverning, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1823 J. F. Cooper Pioneers xxxi, The ungoverning feeling that caused the violence of the youth had passed away.

Ungown, v. [Un-[2] 4.] a. refl. To deprive (oneself) of a gown. b. trans. = Unprock 2.

1789 Cowper Let. to Lady Hesketh 31 Jan., I had a thousand times rather be as poor as all poets are, than you should ungown yourself to prevent it. 1895 Westm. Gaz. 30 Jan. 5/3 She said he had gone out cursing her and then assisted in God's house, but she had no wish to ungown him.

Ungowned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1612 Sherry Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. ix. 8 59 To whose importunity the proud Legate would not condiscend, vnlesse all the Bishops..., vngowned, and vnshod, should humbly craue absolution. 1721 Amherst Terræ Fili. No. 50. 267 Sure of being mauled and insulted by the whole crowd of the gowned and ungown'd rabble. 1872 Pollok Course T. VIII. 69 Ungowned, unbeneficed, Uncorpulent.

Ungrace. (Un-[1] 12. Cf. Wangrace.[1]) 1430-40 Lydg. Bochas v. xxii. (1554) 137 b, Ungrace and youth made hym to erre. 1871 Jowett Plato I. 512 Ungrace and love are always at war with one another.

Ungra'ced, ppl. a.[1] (Un-[1] 8.)

1595 Daniel Civ. Wars iv. iv, Can England see the best that shee can boast, Ly thus vngract, undeckt, and almost lost? 1603 Drayton Barons' Wars iv. lxii, Merit goes vnregarded and vngrac'd. a 1618 Sylvester Du Bartas II. Ded. to Essex 14 Daign [thou] to grace my yet vngraced Muse. 1735 Thomson Liberty I. 265 Unadorn'd your hills! Ungrac'd your lakes. 1876 Carnegie Rosalind 284 To epithets [he] allots emphatic state, Whilst principals, ungrac'd, like lacqueys wait. 1867 Jean Ingelow Story of Doom, etc. 52 Her eyes...looked One moment in the ungraced lover's face. 1889 Serine Mem. Herbert 4 The plain, ungraced, ungilted nature, without destiny or distinction.

b. Const. by or with.

1768 Woman of Honor I. 60 A woman of honor though ungraced with a coronet in her family. 1781 Cowper Table-T. 378 Courage, ungraced by these, affronts the skies. 1862 H. Aide Carr of Carrlyon II. 165, I see..all the deformity ungraced by anything save love.

Ungra'ced, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[2] 4, 8.] Deprived or stripped of something.

1602 Marston Antonio's Rev. i. ii, Poore Maria must appeare vngrac'd Of the bright fulgor of gloss'd majestie.

Ungra'ceful, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1667 Milton P. L. VIII. 218 Nor are thy lips ungraceful, Sire of men, Nor tongue inelequent. a 1732 T. Boston Crook in Lot (1805) 11 The cause of the uneasy and ungraceful walking of the lame. 1751 Earl Orrery Remarks Swift (1752) 111 These real ornaments, like his hair, were thin and ungraceful. 1821 Scott Kenilw. xiv, His stature low, his limbs stout, his bearing ungraceful. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. III. I. 256 The wont, though ungraceful, was lofty and richly adorned. 1871 Kennedy Lat. Gram. 467 In Versus Elegiacus a final trisyllable is rare and ungraceful.

Ungra'cefully, adv. (Un-[1] 11: cf. prec.)

1661 Cowley Cromwell Wks. (1669) 74 This Man was wanton and merry (unwitty and ungracefully merry) with our sufferings. 1711 Steele Spect. No. 151 [7] He has been..ungracefully noisy at such a Time. 1748 Chesterf. Lett. (1774) I. 299, I shall judge of your parts by your speaking gracefully or ungracefully. 1887 Lytton Pelham xiv, In person, Vincent was short and ungracefully formed. 1888 Browning Ring & Bk. v. 914 Men say I battled ungracefully enough.

Ungra'cefulness. (Un-[1] 12: cf. prec.)

1658 Phillips, Incomfiturity, Ungracefulness. 1673 Lady's Call. I. i. P 11 Whether it were from the ungracefulness of the thing,..I shall not determin. 1782 Sir J. Reynolds Disc. xi. (1842) 75/2 The child..appeared to observe only the ungracefulness of the persons represented. 1835 Lytton Rienzi II. iii, Habituated to the ungracefulness of an unlettered pride. 1867 Ruskin Time & Tide xix. § 115, I cannot help what taint of ungracefulness you..may feel that I incur in speaking..of myself.

Ungra'cious, a. [Un-[1] 7 and 5 b. Cf. (in sense 5) MDu. ongracious.]

†1. Of persons: Devoid of spiritual grace; graceless, reprobate, wicked. Obs.

In ME. also const. with inf. (quot. 1362).

a 1225 Ancr. R. 368 pauh clennesse..beoth zeouen of grace, vngracluse stonded ber to-zeines. c 1330 R. Brunne Chron. (1810) 301 Pris pat alle ore zet se bi light on Roberd coke, Vngracious man was he, pris he it forsoke. 1362 Langl. P. Pl. A. x. 206 False folke..Vn-Gracios to gete loue or eni good elles. c 1420 Lydg. Assembly of Gods 754 He seyde he shuld haue..With Vyces to do a myghty strong batayll; Of vngracious gastes he bryngeth a long tayll. 1461 Paston Lett. II. 59 Ther is an ongracious felaschip of hem and a fals. 1593 Lv. Berners Froiss. I. clxxxii. 217 These myschenous pple chose hym that was moest vngracyousst of all other. Ibid., Ther were a company of the same vngracyous pple bytwene Parys and Noyon. 1579 Lodge Defence of Poetry 29 The Angels haue sinned in heauen,..among ye holy apostles vngracious Judas. a 1638 Mede Wks. (1672) 293 Let him..take heed of familiar and friendly conversing with lewd, prophane and ungracious company. 1693 Dryden Juvenal x. 545 To the Gods alone Our future Offspring, and our Wives are known; Th'audacious Strumpet, and ungracious Son. 1771 Foote Maid of B. I, Well, you ungracious young dog, and what is become of the poor wench? 1793 Burke Conduct Minority Wks. 1842 I. 623 The consequences are most logically..drawn from the premises..by that wicked and ungracious faction.

transf. 1820 Southey Wesley II. 256 At baptism, it was customary not to dip the right arm,..that he might strike a more deadly and ungracious blow therewith.

†b. Of actions, conduct, etc.: Characterized by gracelessness, or wickedness. Obs.

1415 Sir T. Grey in 43rd Rep. Dep. Kpr. Rec. 582 This vngracius and mischefius gouernaunz. c 1485 Digby Myst. (1882) IV. 649 Cruell Iewes! what mad yow so bold To conuynyt bis Cryst most vngracious? a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. VI, 104 Inquisition was made of the authors of this ungracious conjuracion. 1593 Shaks. Rich. II, II. iii. 88 That word Grace, In an vngracious mouth, is but prophane. 1654 Sir T. Herbert Trvv. 70 Their somes vngracious life opposed their best contentments. 1683 D'Urfey in Roxb. Ball. (1888) V. 246 Let Perkin his ungracious errour see, And Toney scape no more the Triple-Tree.

†2. Unfortunate, unlucky, unfavourable. Obs.

1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) IV. 289 He was most ungracious in homeliche pinges, and happy in oher pinges. 1398—Barth. De P. R. XII. xxxvii. (Bodl. MS.), Amonge dyuynyours here [ye. owls'] voice is vngracious. 1445-50 Mirham Wks. 152 The .xv. day ys noght spedeful to begynne my werke vp-on, for yt ys ongracyus. 1515 Scottish Field 349 in Chetham Misc. (1856) II, They had gotten them a ground Most ungracious of other Upon the toppe of a high hill. c 1600 Chettle in Athenæum 28 Aug. (1909) 237/2 Until I be mended of my ungracious disease. 1600 Holland Livy II. xlix. 78 Then set they forward on their journey,..taking the ungracious and unlucke way,..until at length they came to the river Camera. a 1634 Chapman Rem. for Honour I. i. 42 To give the noble weasand, Which has the steel defied, to th' hanging mercy Of the ungracious cord.

†3. Rude; unmannerly. Obs.

1534 More Comf. agst. Trib. II. Wks. 1187/1 Her husband said also that it were vnkyndly done..to choppe of that vnhappye head of hers, that caryed suche an vngracious tong therin. c 1550 Vertuous Scholeboys B j b, Thou vsest vngracious wordes, cursest thy good husbande. 1601 Shaks. Twel. N. IV. i. 51 Vngracious wretch, Fit for the Mountains, ..Where manners here were preach'd. 1606 — Tr. & Cr. I. i. 92 Peace you vngracious Clamors, peace rude sounds.

†b. Of low birth and manners. Obs.—[1]

1584 Lodge Alarum agst. Venerea (Hunter. Cl.) 23 Doeth the Wessell loue the Cockatrice? Or gentle borne, such as bee vngracious?

4. Not held in favour; unacceptable; disliked.

1598 Florio, Sgrato, vngrationes, nothing acceptable. 1671 Clarendon Hist. Reb. XI. § 149 Prince Rupert, at that time, was generally very ungracious in England. 1761 Hume Hist. Eng. III. I. 95 Abbot's principle of liberty, and his opposition to Buckingham, had always rendered him very ungracious at court.

b. Unpleasant and unappreciated.

1829 Med. Jrnl. XVII. 317 However ungracious the task is, I conceive it necessary to correct mistake. 1844 H. H. Wilson Brit. India II. 115 The ungracious duties inseparable from his office. 1884 L'pool Mercury 21 June 5/3 It is an ungracious duty to preach saving habits when times are bad.

5. Ungraceful, unattractive.

1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. IV. § 122 His Person, and manner of Speaking, were ungracious enough. 1695 Dryden Du Fresnoy's Art of Painting 9 Show no parts which are ungracious to the Sight, as all fore-shortings usually are. 1762–71 H. Walpole Vertue's Anecd. Paint. (1786) I. 181 It was difficult to ascertain the period when one ungracious form jostled out another. 1775 T. Sheridan Art Reading 1. 4 The best scholars often..disgraced beautiful composition by an ungracious delivery. 1807 Sir R. Wilson Jrnl. 7 May in Life, A religion so ungentlemanlike mean and ungracious that I would sooner be a pagan.

6. Lacking in condescension, courtesy, or affability: a. Of actions.

1745 H. Walpole Lett. (1846) II. 78 An ungracious parallel between the mercenary views of..the regiment-factors,.. with the disinterested behaviour of my Lord Kildare, was drawn. 1780 Harper No. 103, An overture of mine towards a reconciliation..., which met with a very ungracious reception. 1844 Kinglake Eothen xii, Whilst the amber is at your lips, there is nothing ungracious in your remaining silent. 1868 Dickens Let. (1880) II. 400 Refusal on my part would be too ungracious. 1890 Lancet 29 Nov. 1151 It would be ungracious to conclude without expressing my gratitude to our distinguished colleagues.

b. Of persons. Also fig. of a country.

1792 Young Brothers III. i, No! in my brother let it pass for virtue, That, as he is, ungracious he would seem. 1819 Shelley Cyclops 117 Ah! no; they live in an ungracious land. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. v. I. 654 The meek and affable duchess turned into an ungracious and haughty queen. 1864 Tennyson Aylmer's Field 47 Take it,..tho' his gift; For I am more ungracious ev'n than you, I care not for it either.

Ungra'ciously, adv. [Un-[1] 11; cf. prec.]

†1. With ill fortune; unfortunately, unhappily.

c 1330 R. Brunne Chron. (1810) 223 To Chestrefeld ikon pei com vngraciously. De kyng did pam spie,..assailed pam in pe toon. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) VI. 193 Elfer of hem hadde hymself so ungraciouslche, pat me woote nevere whefer of hem hadde worse spede. 1533 Frith Judgem. upon Tracy Wks. (1573) 81/2 And verely the iudgement of this crasse came out of season, & euer vngraciously vnto our Canonizes. 1548 Chr. Prayers in Petto Prayers (Parker Soc.) 454 We have learned of thee, how ungraciously [L. infeliciter] we be born of the first Adam.

†b. Injuriously, severely. Obs.

c 1450 Holland Howlat 840 He cryid: 'Allace,..I am vngraciously gorrit, baith guttis and gall!' c 1590 Sheryon Magnyf. 2970 Some rybbys of the mottow be so ranke That they wyll fyre one vngracyously in the flanke.

†2. Gracelessly; wickedly, wrongfully. Obs.

1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. xv. 129 pis pat with gyle was geten, vngraciouslich is spended. a 1400 Partonope 6432 'Allas,' iosyte he, 'howe vn-gracyously To my loue haue I gouerned me!' c 1520 Skelton Magnyf. 2295 And so vngracyously thy dayes thou hast spent, That thou arte not worthy to loke God in the face. 1581 Nowell & Day in Confer. 1 (1584) F ij, Hee hath most vngraciously broken the vowe made to God in Baptisme. 1645 Gataker God's Eye on Israel 44 Tho they ungratefully and ungratefully..demand of him, wherein he had loved them.

3. Not with a good grace; not pleasantly or agreeably.

1664 Jer. Taylor Disc. from Popery ii. § 4, 99 That a wicked person..can cause and take off the punishment..by any external good work done ungraciously, is a piece of new Divinity. 1823 Grace Kennedy Father Clement i. 18 Permission was always so unwillingly and so ungraciously given, that it was a penance to ask it. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. II. I. 227 The treasurer..was induced..to become, unwillingly indeed and ungraciously, an agent in those transactions. 1894 H. Nisbet Bush Girl's Rom. 95 'I'll do that also,' grumbled Timothy, somewhat ungraciously.

4. Unbecomingly; with lack of manners, discourteously.

1736 Warburton Alliance I. v. 51 They are,..I know not why, ungraciously ashamed of their Pedigree. 1791 Boswell Johnson (1904) II. 627 note, It were to be wished, that he..had not followed the example of Dr. Adam Smith in ungraciously attacking his venerable Alma Mater, Oxford. 1829 Scott Anne of G. xxix, His 'fleecy care' seemed actually to be under the influence of his music, instead of being ungraciously insensible to its melody.

Ungra'ciousness. [Un-[1] 12; cf. prec.]

†1. Gracelessness, reprobacy, wickedness. Obs.

1509 Barclay Ship of Folys (1570) 219 Yet trouble thou not by thy vngraciousnes Suche as are good and liue in righteousnes. 1572 Golding Calvin on Ps. Ep. Ded. 3 The verye welsprings of all error, hipocrisie, and ungraciousnes. 1612 Bunsley Lud. Lit. xxiv. (1906) 268 Who cannot indure to see sluggishnesse or idlenesse in any, much lesse any ungraciousnesse. 1658 T. Wall Charnock. Enemies Ch. 34 Dost thou see a man,..in contempt of goodness, to be a graduate in ungraciousness. 1748 Richardson Pamela IV. 353 Can those Persons be surpris'd at the Ungraciousness of their Children?

†2. Unfortunate or wretched state. Obs.—[1]

1578 J. Stockwood Serm. at Ang. 85 Complaintes of the vngraciousnesse and vnhappinesse of scholers.

3. Lack of courtesy or pleasantness.

1836 Keble Let. in Liddon Pusey (1893) I. 428 It was a great piece of ungraciousness, my not telling you sooner how much I am obliged to you. 1864 Tennyson Aylmer's F. 245 O pardon me, I seem to be ungraciousness itself. 1884 Contemp. Rev. July 150 To surrender the hand of a woman ..after a great deal of hesitation and ungraciousness.

Ungrada'ted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1829 Ruskin Two Paths App. v. 270 Colour ungraded is wholly valueless.

Ungra'ded, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not laid out with or in proper gradients.

1879 Miss Bird Lady's Life in Rocky Mount. 219 Golden City..is ungraded, with here and there a piece of wooden sidewalk. 1889 Atlantic Monthly April 467/2 These roadways, ungraded, unsewered, and unpaved.

2. Not classified by grades.

1884 Pall Mall G. 14 Aug. 11/1 Sales have been made of ungraded wheat..at 75 c.

†Ungra'duate, v. Obs. [Un-[2] 4.] trans. To degrade. 1633 T. Adams Exp. 2 Peter (1638) 1 Vp. 120 Your man should degenerate and ungraduate himselfe to a childe.

Ungra'duated, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. That has not graduated; having no University degree.

1783 H. Walpole Let. to Earl Strafford 12 Sept., I am glad at least that they have ungraduated assessors. 1802–12 Bentham Anticon. Judic. Evidd. (1827) V. 120 Your learned brethren, and their ungraduated fellow-practisers, the barristers of the present time. 1867 Seebohm Oxford Reformers 6 Another Oxford Student,..yet ungraduated in divinity, not even in deacon's orders.

2. Not graded or regularly arranged.

1841 Myers Cath. Th. III. § 4. 11 So ungraduated an estimate of Duty as this. 1899 Allbutt's Syst. Med. VII. 363 These [limbs] being..raised and set down in a brusque and characteristically ungraduated fashion.

Ungraft, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1600 Surflet Countrie Farme III. v. 432 You must also take grafters and graft them in other plum trees,..and not to vngraft sieuces to transplant them. †Ungraft, obs. var. of next. 1598 Sylvester Du Bartas II. i. Eden 525 A pleniteous Orchard planted rare With un-graft Trees.

Ungra'fted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1657 Austen Fruit Trees II. 175 Fruit trees that are ungrafted (wild trees). 1766 Compl. Farmer s.v. Fence, If they have protected from apple-kernels, they may remain ungrafted. 1795 Phil. Trans. LXXXV. 293 The bearing branches of some old ungrafted pear-trees. 1905 Haggard Garst. Year 235 An ungrafted lush of..the common stock.

†Ungrained, a. Obs.—[1] [Un-[2] 9.] Scep'ln. c 1440 Palladius on Husb. III. 1121 Vngreyned grape in high locundite Me may suppe of. †Ungrained, ppl. a.[1] Obs. [Un-[1] 8.] Not dyed in grain. 1502 Arnolde Chron. (1811) 203 The Subtile of Cloth as wel in greine as vngreyned.

Ungrained, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[1] 8.] Not reduced to separate grains. 1884 E. F. Knight Cruise Falcon I. xv. 266 When the maize arrived..we found it was ungrained. Ungrain'ing, vbl. sb. (Un-[2] 4, 8.) (See quot.) 1899 Use Dict. Arts 613 Ungraining [of gilt work] consists in rubbing the whole work with shave-grass, to remove any granular appearance.

†Ungrai'th, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7. Cf. ON. ágreiðr (Norw. ugreid).] a. Unready. b. Not straightforward; perverse.

a 1310 in Wright Lyric P. xxxvi. 99 Vol of merci thou art ay, al ungreythe icham to the to go. a 1400 Pistill of Susan, 293 Vmbeloke 30u, lordes; suche lawes ben leip;..Ayein to be gild-halle, 3e gomes vngreyd.

Ungrai·thed, ppl. a. Obs. exc. dial. (UN-1 8.) c 1290 Beket 200 in S. Eng. Leg. I. 169 Pat bodi..Al on greilpet [v.r. ungreithed] to leggen it in [the grave] heo heigeden blime. 1876 Whitby Glass. 206/1 Ungraithd, not yet furnished or equipped; unadorned.

†Ungrai·thly, adv. Obs. Also 4 vngretli, 5 vngraidly. [UN-1 11.] Badly, improperly.

a 1300 Cursor M. 24504 On him mi hefd i scock, and said, Vngretli, leif sun, er þou graid! c 1400 Destr. Troy 7615 As folis, þat folily gold & goodes vngraidly dispendit. c 1450 Towneley Myst. x. 341, I that thus haue vngratily gone, And vntruly taken apon Mary, that dere darlyng. Ibid. xxvii. 100.

Ungrammated, a. (UN-1 9.) 1837 FR. A. KEMBLE Rec. Later Life (1882) I. 119 Uncultivated men, unlettered, and ungrammared.

Ungrammatic, a. [UN-1 7.] = next.

1806 ANNA SEWARD Lett. (1811) VI. 258 All modes of phraseology within the limits of the immodest, the disgusting, and the ungrammatic. 1850 BROWNING Christmas Eve xxii. 30 Fourthly, the English is ungrammatic.

Ungrammatical, a. [UN-1 7 and 5 b.]

1. a. Not in accordance with the rules of grammar.

1654 JER. TAYLOR Real Pres. § 5. 88 [To] expound it in a sense which suffers a violence and a most unnatural, ungrammatical torture. 1679 DRYDEN Troil. & Cress. Pref. P 1 Of those [words] which we understand, some are ungrammatical, others coarse. 1749 CHESTERF. Let. 5 Dec., His diction was not only inelegant but frequently ungrammatical, always vulgar. 1841 LAMB Elia 1. Mrs. Battle on Whist, She called it an ungrammatical game. 1848 THACKERAY Van. Fair xxxiii, French..of a very ungrammatical sort. 1883 Law Rep. 11 Q. B. Div. 614 A defining section, confused and ungrammatical.

b. Not observing the rules of grammar.

1859 Habits of Gd. Society iii. 155, I am wondering whether everybody arranges his wardobe as our ungrammatical nurses used to do ours. 1871 EARLE Philol. Eng. Tongue 42 So they (the ungrammatical people) made a plural this-a.

2. At variance with correct rule or method.

1851 RUSKIN Mod. Paint. I. ii. 11. § 12 Some really ungrammatical and false picture of the old masters. 1903 G. BALDWIN BROWN Arts Early Eng. II. viii. 327 The enrichment of the wall surfaces..is, in parts quite ungrammatical.

Hence Ungrammatically.

1698 Christ Exalted § xi. 9 Omitting several Blunders of Ungrammaticalness. 1803 Gentl. Mag. LXXIII. i. 145 To vindicate the dialect of London..from the imputation of ungrammatical and unidiomatic.

Ungrammatically, adv. (UN-1 11.)

1727 BOYER Dict. Royal II. 1737 Gentl. Mag. VII. 13/2 As A. P. has very weakly, as well as unliterally and ungrammatically translated. 1763 BP. LOWTH Introd. Eng. Gram. 22 note, Some Writers have used Ye, as the Objective Case..very improperly and ungrammatically. 1860 HUXLEY in Life (1900) I. 274 Some of the..articles being absolutely ungrammatically written.

Ungra·table, a. (UN-1 7.) 1784 R. BAGE Barham Downs II. 258 'You shall be allowed to give and grant it, out of your own free will.'..'Ungrantable,' says Sir George. 1794 LD. MACARTNEY Wks. (1807) II. 326 A court artifice to ungrantable demand.

Ungra·nted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1570 LEVINS Manip. 50 Vngranted, inconcessus. 1660 BONDE Scut. Reg., Hist. Phæ-ton 12 He wisht..His suites ungranted. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis IX. 377 This only from you grant me (so great a Kind, this request and rewards are vain). 1828 P. CUNNINGHAM N. S. Wales (ed. 3) II. 333 The local administration..having the sole disposal of the ungranted lands. 1870 MORRIS Earthly Par. IV. iv. 385 He some day might..turn away from that ungranted kiss.

Ungra·pple, v. (UN-2 4 b.)

1612 COTGR., Desagrafer, to vnclasque, vngraple, vnhaspe. a 1642 SIR W. MONSON Naval Tracts II. (1704) 246/2 Our Barks were fore'd to ungrapple and fall off. 1653 URQUHART Rabelais I. xlii. 188 The Monk going about to ungrapple his vizor, let go his hold of the bridle.

Hence Ungra·ppler.

1891 C. E. NORTON tr. Dante, Hell xxii. 119 The heat was as sudden ungrappler.

Ungra·sp, v. (UN-2 3.) 1621 BP. MOUNTAGU Diatribæ 323 He might have knowne..y? Popes vse neuer to vngrasse what they haue griped. a 1784 C. DUNSTER in Chambers Illustr. Worcester (1820) 555 Have I not seen at thy command, Avarice herself ungrasp her hand?

Ungra·spable, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

1741 RICHARDSON Pamela I. Introd. p. xxvi, A beautiful Girl of Sixteen, who..had not, yet, reach'd ungraspable Roundness. 1822 POLLOK in D. Pollok Life (1843) 129 The ungraspable spectres of the night. 1853 COL. WISEMAN Lett. II. 309 Of all slippery phrases to conveyed a metaphorical one is the most ungraspable. 1880 'MARK TWAIN' Tramp Abroad I. 168 How ungraspable is the fact that real men ever did fight in real armour.

Ungra·sped, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1743 YOUNG Nt. Th. IV. 241 Its value va-t, ungrasp't by minds create. 1897 MATHER Ruskin (ed. 5) p xvii, Even though the truth burdening the style remains vague and is ungrasped by the reader. Ungra·sping, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1859 PARKER Growth in Holiness viii. 128 Humility..makes us unanxious, ungrasping,..and calm.

†Ungra·te, a. and sb. Obs. [UN-1 7 and 5 b.]

1. Unpleasant, disagreeable; = INGRATE a. 1.

1550 CROWLEY Inform. & Petit. 469 To passe ouer the days of theyr youth in vngrate seruitude. 1646 R. BAILLIE Lett. (Bann. Cl.) I. 364 It's a marvell to me if these men should allways prosper, their ways are so impious, unjust, ungrate, and every way hatefull. 1656 Arist. Handsom. 46 Impertinent and ungrate must that superstition be.

2. Ungrateful; = INGRATE a. 2. (In later use Sc.)

a 1548 HALL Chron., Hen. VII, 12 b Kyng Henry..thought it..necessary..to forgett the vngrate offence agaynst the duke of Britayne commyytted. Ibid. 26 b, So vngrate people were they to their soueresigne lorde. 1561 T. HOBY tr. Castiglione's Courtyer v. (1577) C vi. To discouer the deceytes of an vngrate woman, who..neuer agreeth hir tong wyth hyr minde. 1606 MARSTON Sophonisba ii. ii, But, Carthage, fie! It cannot be ungrate, faithlesse through feare. 1697 G. KEITH and Narr. Proc. Turner's Hall 8 Judge..whether they be not a very ungrate People. 1720 A. PETRIE Rules Good Deportm. (1877) 24 It is rude and ungrate to leave a House..without your taking Leave of the Master and Mistress. 1767 MERTON Poems 196 Ye Muses, who were never yet ungrate, When you your benefactors deed relate.

b. sb. An ungrateful person; an ingrate.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 13944 þan he..told hym full tyte, þat Telagon he was, His son,..Þat þou gate on þi gannyn, as vngrate felle. 1593 DALRYMPLE tr. Leslie's Hist. Scot. I. 120 A murthirer, a dum, or vngrate to his parents. 1689 Gl. Bastard, Protector of Little One 5 It was indeed the true Motive that induc'd this Vngrate to ruin them. 1720-1 Lett. fr. Mist's Jrnl. (1722) I. 128 The Sweetness of my Lips, which that Ungrate too oft has praised.

Ungra·teful, a. [UN-1 7 and 5 b.]

1. Not feeling or displaying gratitude.

1553 BRENDE Q. Curtius x. 216 The Macedons..confessing them selues bothe wicked and vngrateful for depriuynge him of suyes name wherof he was worthye. 1587 Mirr. for Mag., Albanact lxii, If you ungratefull mindes doe beare, What meaneth death to let mee linger here. 1621 in Foster Eng. Factories Ind. (1906) I. 354 Such base ungratefull slaves they bee. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis IV. 229 All symptoms of a base ungrateful mind, So foul, that which is worse, 'tis hard to find. 1740 RICHARDSON Pamela II. 356 If it was, I must be the ungratefullest Person in the World, because I am the most obliged Person in it. 1823 BYRON Rokeby iv. xx, Ungrateful to God's clemency, That spared me penitential time. 1875 JOWETT Plato (ed. 2) III. 206 That I am ungrateful I wholly deny.

absol. 1672 DRYDEN Aureng.-Zeb. (1676) 64 Th' ungrateful does a more ungrateful find. 1690 The Great Scandeville 82 The Ungrateful despises my flame with a cruel obstinacy. 1829 LYTTON Devereux I. i, He could not persuade his lips to repeat a sarcasm hurting even the dead or the ungrateful. spec. 1785 GROSE Dict. Vulgar T., Ungrateful man, a person, who at least once a week abuses his best benefactor, i.e. the devil.

b. Of actions, etc.: Displaying lack of gratitude.

a 1585 SIDNEY Arcadia III. iv. By ungratefull scorning the ornaments of Nature, am I now piping in a shadow? 1641 PRYNNE Antipathie 9 O perfidious, ungratefull Counsell and swasion of this Prelate. 1700 PRIOR Carm. Sec. xxxv, For let the Muses, ungrateful Pride, The Sources of their Treasure hide. 1799 Med. Jrnl. I. 220 Asserting, that contemporary writers received his works with an ungrateful silence. 1825 SCOTT Betrothed xix, These sentiments..I have combated..as being..ungrateful to you.

c. Ironsf. Of soil, trees, etc.: Not responding to cultivation.

1681 DRYDEN Abs. & Achit. I. 12 A soil ungrateful to the Tiller's care. 1732 POPE Ess. Man II. 181 As fruits, ungrateful to the planter's care, On savage stocks inserted, learn to bear. 1788 GIBBON Decl. & F. I. V. 178 Their ungrateful soil refused the labours of agriculture. 1842 BORROW Bible in Spain xxiii, The land is ungrateful and barren. 1864 TREVELYAN Conipet. Wallah (1866) 288 The labourers in this ungrateful vineyard.

2. Unpleasant, disagreeable, distasteful.

1596 DAVIES Orchestra 19 [To] tell..How she illudes.. Th'vngrateful loue which other Lords began. 1641 Vind. Sweetpunnus iii. 53 It is in his power to save himselfe and us this ungrateful Tyrant. 1691 HARTCLIFFE Virtue 178 For a Man to praise or dispraise himself is ungrateful, and quickly cloyes the hearer. 1753 HANWAY Trav. (1762) V. lxxi. I. 320 Monopolies..are generally ungrateful to the people of a free state. 1796 GIBBON Decl. & F. vii. I. 325 The ungrateful rumour reached his ears. 1836 J. GILBERT Chr. Atonem. ix. (1852) 28: Even the kindness.., though not ungrateful, will not excite the proper working of esteem.

b. Of taste or smell, or of things in respect of these.

1597 GERARDE Herball I. xxviii. 34 These roots have a strong..smell, and somewhat an vngratefull taste. 1612 WOODALL Surg. Mate Wks. (1653) 307 Laudanum is best to be taken in a Pill, because of his ungrateful taste. 1663 BP. PATRICK Parad. Pilgrv. xxviii, Good wine which..is rendred..acid and ungrateful to our palates. a 1682 SIR T. BROWNE Tracts (1683) 12 That which we now have is of an ungratefull odour. 1725 SLOANE Jamaica II. 17 The Nuts..are then tosted,..and made into an ungrateful drink. 1753 HANWAY Trav. v. lx. (1762) I. 279 The reeds through which we passed sent forth an ungrateful stench. 1846 MRS. A. MARSH Father Darcy II. ii. 59 There he sat—endeavouring to touch the ungrateful food. 1897 Allbutt's Syst. Med. III. 465 By which certain foods are recognised, consciously or not, as grateful or ungrateful.

c. Of sounds.

1659 O. WALKER Instruct. Oratory 24 Too many Consonants or Vowels comming together are to be avoided, as causing an ungrateful sound. 1690 C. NESSE O. & N. Test. I. 16 Some sounds..are very harsh and ungrateful. 1759 GOLDSM. Polite Learn. ii, It was the poet who harmonized the ungrateful accents of his native dialect. 1850 TENNYSON In Mem. xxxvii. 12 Then are these songs I sing of thee Not all ungrateful to thine ear.

Ungra·tefully, adv. [UN-1 11 and 5 b.]

1. Harshly, unpleasantly, disagreeably.

1581 SIDNEY Apol. Poetrie (Arb.) 42 Telling of a man, whose beloved Lambe was vngratefullie taken from his bosome. 1697 DRYDEN Juvenal (1697) p. lxxxi, It tickles sukeandly with a kind of pain;..we are pleas'd ungratefully, and, if I may say so, against our liking. 1698 HEARNE Duct. Hist. (1714) I. 385 Cæsar..returned to Rome and triumphed, though a little ungratefully to some of Pompey's friends. 1712 ARBUTHNOT John Bull ii. v, The musick..sounded more ungratefully in her ears than the noise of a screech-owl.

†2. Without due return or gratitude. Obs.—1

1593 NASHE Christ's T. P 1 b, Vngratefully hath God giuen thee long peace and plenty, since..thy peace and plentie hath begotte more sipnes then warre ever hearde of.

3. With lack of gratitude.

a 1625 FLETCHER Hum. Lieutenant iii. vi, I am most greedy of your lives and fortunes, Nor do I gape ungratefully to swallow 'em. 1692 WASHINGTON tr. Millom's Dif. Pop. M.'s Wks. 1738 I. 537 Yet these very men did a great part of the People ungratefully desert in the midst of their undertaking. 1737 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 493 A Person in whom your Majesty has placed a Trust and who has so Ungratefully abused that Trust. 1798 PENNANT Hindoostan II. 47 He continued in employ till 1754, when he was ungratefully superseded. 1856 N. Brit. Rev. XXVI. 105 Having been coldly received (as he thought) ungratefully treated by the Whig leaders.

Ungra·tefulness. [UN-1 12 and 5 b.]

1. = INGRATITUDE 1.

1581 SIDNEY Apol. Poetrie (Arb.) 20 They goe very neer to vngratfulnes, to seek to deface that which..hath been the first light-giuer to ignorance. 1599 GRIMSTONE Europa Spec. (1630) 247 Those graces and blessings, which vngratefulnesse would not acknowledge. 1631 GOUGE God's Arrows 1. § 20. 27 Or the ungratefulnesse of the wicked in the world? 1734 CHALMERS Jrnl. Wks. (1766) 91 A Youth..went out hastily..as I was showing the Ungratefulness of the first [sc. disobedience], much more of the last. 1896 Cincinnati (Ohio) Sunday Sch. Jrnl. Apr. 237/1 The ungratefulness of people to those who have helped them.

2. Unpleasantness; disagreeableness. rare.

a 1680 GLANVILL in Disc., Serm., & Rem. (1681) 338 He (considering the ungratefulness of the Message..) diverts another way, and flees towards Tarshish. a 1688 CUDWORTH Transit. Mor. (1731) 54 The Gratefulness and Ungratefulness of Tastes and Smells.

†Ungra·tely, adv. Obs. [UN-1 11 and 5 b.] Ungratefully.

1548 ELYOT, Ingrate, vngrately, vnthankefully. c 1614 SIR W. MURE Dido & Æneas II. 412 A woman..My mariage most vngrately hath disdain'd.

Ungra·tified, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1623 FLETCHER, etc. Pen. Man's Fort. I. i, By the justice now Of thine own rule,..I should turn thee away ungratified For all thy former kindness. 1728 ELIZA HEYWOOD tr. Mme. de Gomez's Belle A. (1732) II. 17 That Request being refused, he made his escape privately, resolving that the Queen should not be long ungratified. 1779 JOHNSON L. P., Waller Wks. II. 269 The poem of Davis, which..seldom leaves the ear ungratified. 1821 BYRON Sardanap. I. ii. 382 Leaving thy subjects' eyes ungratified. 1865 TREVELYAN Cawnpore 67 No whim ungratified, every propensity cherished and pampered. 1894 H. NISBET Bush Girl's Rom. 263 He had not a wish left ungratified.

Ungratifying, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1669 COLLIER Ess. Mor. Subj. iii. (1703) 115 Envy is of all others the most ungratifying and disconsolate passion. 1885 Law Times 3 Jan. 172/2 It will not be ungratifying to have the statute more authoritatively expounded.

†Ungra·titude. Obs. [UN-1 12 and 5 b.] Ingratitude; ungratefulness.

a 1548 HALL Chron., Edw. IV, 249 b, That the sequele thereof, male rather turne..to an vngratitude, than to a reward. Ibid., Rich. III, 34 b, All these vngratitudes and vndeserued vnkindnes I..suffred pacientelie. 1621 LADY M. WROTH Urania 29, I..neuer could be wonne to thinke of harming him, whose vngratitude I beleeu'd sufficiently would one day burden him. 1685 J. FRASER Let. in Academy 21 Oct. (1892) 408/2 The Princess..giving a Reprimand for their vngratitud, dismissed them.

†Ungra·ve, a. Obs. (UN-1 7.)

1609 J. DAVIES (Heref.) Holy Roode Wks. (Grosart) I. 7/1 Now thinke..thou seest those bounds of hell,..With vngrauue gate, to runne doe him entrance. 1642 in Clarendon Hist. Reb. v. § 276 Sure,..the Penner of that Declaration inserted that ungrave and insolent expression,..without the consent..of both Houses. a 1674 CLARENDON Surv. Leviath. 73 A very bold and ungrave wresting of Scripture.

Ungra·ve, v. [UN-2 5.] trans. To take out of the grave; to disinter.

1664 J. WILSON Commenius II. i, I seem to raze Thy monument, or to ungrave thy dust. 1788 MICKLE Eskdale Braes ix, As the spectres, ungrav'd, glide along. 1849 ROCK St. Fathers II. vi. 179 note, The unknown bishop whose body was as late as A. D. 1827, ungraved in Durham cathedral. 1866 R. MORRIS Ayenb. 61 margin, The beast Hyane, who ungraves dead men's bodies and eats them.

Ungra·ved, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) Unburied. a 1547 SURREY Æneid IV. 832 His realme, nor life desired may he brooke; But fall before his time, ungraved amid the sandes. 1635 PAGITT Christianogr. I. 131 After his death..he was ungraved and kept above ground 5 years. Ungra·velled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1 Hen. V, Henry. Epiue 3 in Loyat Cruetties, To him that farre and neere hath travaild, Gone & retourned, his wit ungraveld. 1616 [see UNDASHED ppl. a. 1]. Ungra·velly, a. (UN-1 7.) 1655 MOUFET & JENNINGS Health Improv. 213 The most clear, transparent, thin-skind, ungravelly [apples].

Ungra·vely, adv. (UN-1 11.)

1607 SHAKS. Cor. II. iii. 233 His present portance, Which most gibingly, vngrauely, he did fashion After the inueterate Hate he beares you. 1658 Christ Exalted Ep. A 4 The Doctor, whom you have very ungravely treated, as an Heterodox wild Monster.

Ungra·ven, ppl. a. Also 4 vngraue. [UN-1 8 b. Cf. (M) Du. ongegraven unburied, undug.]

1. Not engraved or carved.

1377 LANGL. P. Pl. B. iv. 150 That..Rome-renneres [take].. no siluer ouer see,..Noyther graue ne vngraue. 1611 FLORIO, Intagliato, vncarued, vngraven. 1652 STANLEY Poems 149 The oaks that most obdurate are Shall..by themselves ungraven wear My verse upon their leaves and rind. 1855 M. ARNOLD Balder Dead II. 165 Young men who died Too soon for fame, with white ungraven shields.

†2. Unburied, uninterred. Obs.

c 1400 Laud Troy Bk. 11104 Kyng Priamus Thought.. Where he myght saue Ector his sone Vngraiten with-oute corrupcione. c 1425 WYNTOUN Cron. v. x. 2290 Mony a day Vngraiffin [v.r. vngrawyn] outwith þe erd he lay.

Ungrayhair, v. (UN-2 4.) 1639 FULLER Holy War iii. xxix. 160 Whilest his old wife plucked out his black hairs.., his young one ungray-haired him. Ungra'ze, v. (Un-[3] 4.] trans. To render unfit for grazing. 1661 Fretham Reasons (ed. 8) 11. xivi. 273 No crowded throngs need fill our Law-Tribunals; nor armed Troops ungraze our fruitful fields. Ungrea'se, v. (Un-[3] 4.) 1611 Cotgr., Desgraisser, to unfatten; ungrease. 1799 G. Smith Laboratory I. 436 To ungrease Wine in less than twenty-four hours.

Ungrea'sed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

c 1440 Jacob's Well 200 As a carte-qweel, dryę & vngrecyd, cryeth lowdest of ojere qwelys. 1663 Boyle Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. II. v. xiv. 250 The grating of an ungreased cartwheele upon the axle-tree. 1816 Shadwell Sudden Lovers IV, What a vile noise he makes, worse than a coach-wheel ungreas'd. 1783 Latham Gen. Syn. IV. 687 Having a creaking harsh kind of note, somewhat like..an ungreased axle-tree. a 1894 Stevenson Lay Morals, etc. (1911) 247 A creaking of ungreased axles had been heard.

Ungrea'sing, vbl. sb. (Un-[2] 4, 8.) 1883 R. Haldane Workshop Receipts Ser. II. 321/1 The cleansing or separation of the peritoneal membrane, a portion only of which has been removed by the 'ungreasing' at the slaughter-house.

† Ungreat, a. Obs. In 6 Sc. ongrit. (Un-[1] 7.) Small.

1549 Compl. Scotl. xiv. 113 And als it was as ongrit blythnes to sa mony . tounis quhilkis hed randrit them..to Annibal.

Un-Grecian, a. (Un-[1] 1) 1847 Leitch tr. C. O. Müller's Anc. Art § 206. 171 The reliefs on sarcophagi..did not come into general use until this period, through the influence of un-Grecian ideas. 1869 E. Masson Winer's Gram. N. T. Diction I. Introd. 14 Peculiarities manifestly derived from un-Grecian source.

Ugree'able, a. Obs. exc. dial. [Un-[1] 7 b.] Disagreeable.

1550 Chaucer's Boethius I. met. i. 220 b, Wyne vnpytous lyfe draweth alonge vngreable dwellinges [L. ingratus morus]. 1580 E. Knight Trial Truth 4 b, This lone life is so vngreable vnto the children of pride, as [etc.]. 1806 Cunliffe Rochdale Gloss. 94 Ungreeable, disagreeable.

† Ungreeing, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 10.] Unlitting. 1560 J. Heywood Seneca's Thyestes Translator to Ric., Though thou slender wolne be, Vngreeyng gyfte for state of honour guest.

Un-Gree'k, sb. and a. (Un-[1] 12 and 7. Cf (in sense 1) Du. Ongrieks, G. Ungriecke (Luther), older Du. Ugraeke.]

A. sb. One who is not a Greek. rare.

1535 Coverdale Rom. i. 14, I am detter both to the Grekes, and to the vngreeks.

B. adj. Not Greek in character; not in accordance with Greek ideas or habits.

1846 Keightley Notes Virg. 332 Supplying..a totally un-Latin secundum, in Greek a κατά, which is for the most part quite as un-Greek. 1893 Wheewell Grotius III. 221 The slaughter of the Thebans, who had surrendered, was an un-Greek massacre. 1871 Jowett Plato II. 38 One of the most remarkable conceptions of the Republic [of Plato], because un-Greek in character.

Ungren n. (Un-[1] 71 cf. OE. ungrene, Du. ongroen, MHG. ungrüene.) c 1400 Rom. Rose 4749 May devoide of al delite With seer braunches, blossoms vngrene. 1838 Mrs. E. B. Browning Seraphim II. 39, I see her vales, ungreen Where steps of man have been! Ungrenable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1882 [see Greenable a.].

Ungree'ted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8. Cf. OE. ungegrét, MDu. ongegroetet, MHG. ungegrüetet.)

1611 Florio, Insalutate, unsaluted, ungreeted. 1648 Hexham II, Ongegroetet, Unsaluted, or Vngreeted. a 1849 Poe Angel of Odd Wks. 1864 IV. 285 My premeditated rudeness in passing her by ungreeted. 1877 Talmage Serm. 322 This Young Man was not ungreeted when he came back.

Ungre'ting, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1855 M. Arnold Haworth Churchyard 142 Parcel of dull and cold. Ungregarious, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1829 Southey in Corr. w. C. Bowles (1881) 173 Which would infallibly have made me a Beguine, ..if I was not a most ungregarious animal. 1884 Augusta Wilson Vashti xi, They appeared as gravely silent and ungregarious as Sphinxes.

† Ungrete: see Un-[1] 3.

Ungretli, obs. var. Ungrateful adv.

† Ungrie'fulness. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 12.) 1553 Grimalde Cicero's Offices III. (1558) 128 As they who measure thynges meete to thee desired ayther by pleasure or ungriefulnes.

Ungrie've, v. (Un-[3] 4 b.) 1589 Warner Alb. Eng. VI. xxix. 149 For you were boote ev then to gesse how to vngreeue my smart. Ungrie ved, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1676 Hobbes Iliad I. 397 Any dead [Thetis] would you could here rest Unhurt, ungrieved. 1837 Verlander Vestal, etc. 74 And joy'st thou in the life unliv d?..the griefs ungrieved?

Ugrie ving, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1837 Beard Drachenfels 142 He blinded them with gold and cold. Ungrega'rious, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1829 Southey in Corr. w. C. Bowles (1881) 173 Which would infallibly have made me a Beguine, ..if I was not a most ungregarious animal. 1884 Augusta Wilson Vashti xi, They appeared as gravely silent and ungregarious as Sphinxes.

† Ungrete: see Un-[1] 3.

Ungretli, obs. var. Ungratefully adv.

† Ugrie'fulness. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 12.) 1553 Grimalde Cicero's Offices III. (1558) 128 As they who measure thynges meete to thee desired ayther by pleasure or ungriefulnes.

Ugrie've, v. (Un-[3] 4 b.) 1589 Warner Alb. Eng. VI. xxix. 149 For you were boote ev then to gesse how to vngreeue my smart. Ugrie ved, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1676 Hobbes Iliad I. 397 Any dead [Thetis] would you could here rest Unhurt, ungrieved. 1837 Verlander Vestal, etc. 74 And joy'st thou in the life unliv d?..the griefs ungrieved?

Ugrie ving, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1837 Beard Drachenfels 142 He blinded them with gold and cold. Ungrigh'ty, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 8 b: see Grutch v.] Ungrudgingly; readily.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 8868 Priam..graunttid vngrighit with a Coke asnyes be mete vngryst.

Ugrindable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1840 Carlyle in A. H. Stirling Life Stirling (1912) III. 50 Windmills..to grind.. sunbeams, or some other entirely ungrindable substance.

† Ugrindt: see Un-[1] 3. Ugrizzled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1858 Mortley Corr. (1889) I. 91 Having thick, brown, ungrizzled hair and beard. Ugroa'ning, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1882 Byron Sardanap. I. ii. 265 Enough For me, if I can..glide Ungroaning to the tomb. Ungroo'med, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1864 Sara in Derby Tel. 26 Feb., Their horses as ungroomed, and their hair as unkempt as usual. Ungro'pable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1558 Phaer Æneid VI. R iij b, Through his hands he flies Like wind vngropable, or dreames.

Ungrou'nd, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 b.]

1. Not ground in a mill; not crushed or reduced to powder.

1488 Acta Dom. Conc. (1839) 98/2 Half a boll of malt vngrond, price xx. 1623 Fletcher & Rowley Maid in Mill V. ii, Shall the sayls of my love stand still? Shall the grists of my hopes be unground? 1631 Gouge God's Arrows II. § 24. 163 Some of them did eate the corne as it was unground. 1722 De Foe Col. Jack (1840) 300 A hundred sacks of unground malt. 1760 Ann. Reg., Chron. 192/2 A duty of 2d. ..shall be paid on every bushel of malt, whether ground or unground, which [etc.]. 1805 Dickson Pract. Agric. I. 221 The trials which Dr. Hunter made with ground and unground barley. 1882 U. S. Rep. Pres. Met. 603 The mill is then stopped, [and] the water drained off from the unground sand and mercury.

2. Not sharpened, smoothed, or worn down by grinding.

1611 Cotgr. s.v. Morsil, The edge side of a new and vnground knife. 1799 Phil. Trans. LXXXII. 92 The swinging level..fixed to the tube of the telescope..is unground. 1805 Tylor Early Hist. Man. viii. 193 The finding of hundreds of unground implements. 1893 Athenæum 25 Mar. 382/2 The palæolithic or unground stage of the implement-maker's art.

Ungrou'ndable, a.† -ably, adv. (Un-[1] 7 b, 11.) 1395 Purvey Remonstr. (1851) 84 The novelteis of this Innocent, ..thet ben vngroundable and vnlikli to be sothe. c 1449 Pecock Repr. I. xviii. 104 Rather he schal be schamed that he hath it bifore so vngroundablili holde, and withoute sufficient evidence therete.

Ungrou'nded, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8. Cf. MDu. ongegrunt, ongrond, (Du. -grond), G. ungegründet, Da. ugrundet, Sw. ogrundad.]

1. Not based or established in something.

c 1380 Wyclif Whs. (1880) 38 Euyle lawis vngroundid in holy writ & reson. c 1380 — Sel. Whs. III. 351 Pus loye vngroundid in God..mut nedis failie. 1426 Addelay Poems (Percy Soc.) 25 Se beth ungroundid in grace.

2. Having no real basis or justification; unfounded, groundless.

c 1380 Wyclif Whs. (1880) 337 If he had not couetise of worldly goodis..he shuld..leue al siche rownyng bat is ungroundid. 1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. lxii. § 16 A few men's new imagination, and as yet unapproved imagination. 1639 H. Burton Truth's Triumph 92 Humane devices, and labyrinths of vngrounded distinctions. 1672 Newton in Phil. Trans. VII. 5084, I shall refer him to my former Letter, by which that conjecture will appear to be ungrounded. 1728 R. Morris Est. Anc. Arabit. 70 The Executions of their own ungrounded Fancies. 1782 Priestley Corrupt. Christianity I. i. 30 Nothing can appear..more ungrounded. 1819 E. V. Neale Anal. Th. & Nat. 87 Thus the whole operation appears either useless or ungrounded.

3. Of persons: Not properly instructed or informed (in something).

c 1449 Pecock Repr. Prol. 3 Therfore to ech such vngroundid and vnredyd and ouer hasti vndirnymer and blamer yseie [etc.]. 1581 Mulcaster Positions III. 17 It is a sufficient argument..of an vngrounded learner, if his error be in speeche. 1646 P. Bulkeley Gospel Covt. II. 111 If any be ignorant and ungrounded in the doctrine of grace. 1670 Barrow Ch. Govt. xiii. 168 The pitiful case of the ignorant and ungrounded, and troubled sort of religious persons.

Ungrou'ndedly, adv. [Un-[1] 11.] Without any ground or basis.

1550 Bale Apol. 84 b, That putteth he in here, vngroundedly, doubtfully, hypocritically, and vtterly agaynst himselfe. 1593 Nashe Strange Newes (1892) 15 They that are vngroundedly offended at any thing in 'Pierce Pennilesse'. 1624 Bedell Lett. iii. 59 Many things there be in Poperie ..to my conceit weakely and vngroundedly affirmed. 1692 R. Ay Dial. II. 245 The evens flowes how ungroundedly and erroneously. [Also in recent use.]

Ungrou'ndedness. [Un-[1] 12.] The quality or state of being ungrounded: a. Of persons.

1628 Br. Hall Old Relig. Ded. ¶ 8 b, The cause..was, their vngroundedness in the points of Catechisme. 1652 Gauden Magnetrum, 28 Away, then, with that excuse, from the folly, errour, and ungroundedness of the artsmen!

b. Of opinions, statements, etc.

1637 Bastwick Litany III. 7 Besides the impiety, vanity, and ungroundedness of it, let us looke..into the needlenesse and unprofitableness of it. 1688 Sprele Old Age 284 The folly and ungroundedness of this Imagination, is obvious. 1804 Ann. Rev. II. 296 We mention this..to expose the utter ungroundedness of the writer's speculation.

Ungrou'ped, ppl. a. (Un-[2] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1853 Ruskin Stones Ven. I. vii. § 8. 238 That palace; ..its capitals are all different and ungrouped. Ungrow', v. (Un-[2] 7.) 1598 Florio, Discrescere,..to vngrow, to diminish, to wane. 1648 Hexham II, Onwassen, to Vngrowe, to Waxe lesse.

Ungrown, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) Not yet grown up or fully grown; immature.

1592 Shaks. Ven. & Ad. 326 No fisher but the ungrown fry forbears. 1596 — Hen. IV, v. iv. 23 With lustier maintenance then I did looke for Of such an vngrowne Warriour. 1633 P. Fletcher Purple Isl. vi. iv, A narrow compasse heat my ungrown Muse impounds. 1880 Miss Broughton Sec. Th. i. i, The Squire's half-grown daughters..; [and] his ungrown son.

Ungru'bbed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8) c 1374 Chaucer Former Age 14 Vn-koruen and vn-grobbed lay the vyne.

Ungru'dged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

a 1631 Donne Divr. Poems, Cross 31 For when that Crosse ungrudg'd, unto you stickes, Then are you to your selfe, a Crucifixe. 1822 Lamb Elia I. Decoy of Beggars, Theirs were the only rates..ungrudged in the assessment. 1877 Blackie Wise Men 245 Loved and lover grow, By mutual breathing in of excellence, Ungrudged, unstinted.

Ungru'dging, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 218 Such perfect ungrudging resistance both of pleasure and pain..being impracticable. 1823 Lamb Elia I. Decoy of Beggars, Cheap monument of no ungrudging hand. 1890 Science-Gossip XXVI. 179 The provisions gathered by their sisters with ungrudging generosity.

Hence Ungru'dgingness.

1885 J. Martineau Types Ethic. Th. I. i. 58 Plato speaks of the world as the product of the divine ungrudgingness.

Ungru'dgingly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.)

Common from c 1650.

1631 Donne Elegies xi. 67 Receive from him that doome ungrudgingly, Because he is the mouth of Destiny. 1822 Lamb Elia I. Roast Pig, I am one of those, who freely and ungrudgingly impart a share..to a friend. a 1862 Buckle Misc. Wks. (1872) I. 15 Let that honour be paid freely, ungrudgingly, and with an open and bounteous heart. 1887 Spectator 15 Oct. 1392 His gifts and graces must be ungrudgingly admitted.

Ungtment, obs. form of Ointment.

Ungual (ˈʌŋgwəl), a. and sb. [f. L. ungu-is nail, claw + -AL. Cf. Ungual a.]

A. adj. 1. Anat. a. Pertaining to, connected with, a nail or claw; esp. ungual phalanx, the terminal bone in the skeleton of the hand or foot.

1834 Rodgr Anim. & Veg. Phys. I. 495 To the last joint, which is often termed the ungual bone, there is usually attached either a nail, a claw, or a hoof. 1836 Penny Cycl. V. 22/2 An external thick condyle, with which the ungual phalanx is articulated. 1898 A. S. Packard Entomol. 101 The ungual joint is wanting in the weevil Anophus.

b. Ungual bone, a lachrymal bone.

1888 Cassell's Encycl. Dict. s.v. Lachrymal.

2. Path. Affecting the nail.

1872 T. Bryant Pract. Surg. 450 Ungual exostosis..is a bony outgrowth from the extremity of the great toe.

B. sb. An ungual phalanx, claw, or bone.

In recent use.

Unguarantee'd, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1855 Milman Lat. Chr. XIV. i. VI. 396 The faith and hope unguaranteed by any earthly mediator. 1864 Smiles G. & C. Stephenson 305 Stephenson..avoided holding unguaranteed railway shares.

Unguard, v. (Un-[2] 4.]

1. trans. To strip of a guard or edging.

1598 Florio, Disfrangiare, to vnfringe,..to vngard.

2. To deprive of a guard or defence; to lay open to attack.

1745 Fielding Tom Jones V. v, Some well-chosen presents from the philosopher so softened and unguarded the girl's heart, that a favourable opportunity became irresistible. 1801 Ireland Napitia Sacra 128 Every man, by degrees, will unguard the virtue of his home, hitherto sacred. 1847 Lytton Lucretia 64 She accepted the intimacy held out to her, not to unguard herself, but to lay open her opponent.

b. Whist, etc. To expose (a high card) to the risk of loss by discarding a lower and protecting card.

1869 'Cavendish' Whist (1874) 95 Trick v.—a unguards his queen of spades. 1887 McIvorson Mod. Whist 81 It is better to blank an ace than unguard king or queen.

Unguardable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1690 Def. Dr. G. Walker 14 Yet this boldly asserted impregnable Fortress hath an unguardable Breach.

Ungua'rded, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not furnished with, or protected by, a guard; left undefended or open to attack, spoliation, etc.

a 1593 Marlowe Ovid's Elegies III. iv. 26 Few lose what others have unguarded left. 1626 Mead in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. I. III. 250, I hear some of opinion that the Duke likes not so unguarded a place. 1697 Dryden Æneis XII. 87 He views the unguarded city from afar, In careless state, and secure of war. 1741–2 Gray Agrippina 5 Alone, unguarded and without a lictor. 1782 Gibbon Decl. & F. xxxi. III. 193 His troops..occupied the unguarded passes of the Apennine. 1824 Miss L. M. Hawkins Annales III. 40 [He] made off and left the door unguarded. 1869 Tozer Highl. Turkey I. 208 We used to ride..through the country unarmed and unguarded. 1888 Manch. Examn. 13 Jan. 5/3 A small body..entered the town by an unguarded gate.

b. In fig. contexts.

1673 [R. Leigh] Transp. Reh. 39 This is Momba's and De Groot's doings, to leave this passage open and unguarded. a 1704 T. Brown Sat. agst. Woman Wks. 1730 I. 56 Thus all the unguarded passes of his mind shell try.

c. transf. In chess or card-playing: Not protected by other pieces or cards.

1808 Hoyle's Game of Chess 46 note, Your knight will then defend your king's pawn, otherwise unguarded. 1862 'Cavendish' Whist (1864) 95 Queen singly guarded may make a trick, but the ten of clubs unguarded cannot.

2. Not on one's guard; not taking heed or exercising caution. Chiefly fig.

1640 Fletcher, etc. Coron. at. iv. i. ad fin., I..have not A thought so much unguarded, as to be won From my truth, and innocence. 1697 Dryden Æneis XII. 1058 Rais'd on the Stretch, young Turnus aims a blow, Full on the Helm of his unguarded Foe. c 1763 W. King Polit. & Lit. Anecd. (1819) 44 Sir Robert [Walpole] was frequently very unguarded in his expressions. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla IV. 285 The unsuspicious frankness of an unguarded, because innocent nature. 1840 Lady Lytton Rienzi (1912) 208 Such a new thing for her to dare to be unguarded in conversation with anybody. 1881 Jowett Thucyd. I. 186 The general who..never loses an opportunity of striking at an unguarded foe.

b. Of times: Characterized by the absence of guard or caution.

1680 Otway Orphan I, I'll yet possess her love, Wait on and watch her loose unguarded hours. 1776 Gibbon Decl. & F. xii. I. 336 An active enemy..must, in the end, discover some feeble spot or some unguarded moment. 1828 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xv. III. 596 It is highly probable that his mother..took a fatal advantage of some unguarded hour, when he was irritated by finding his advice slighted.

c. Of expressions, actions, etc.: Incautious, imprudent; careless.

1774 S. Ockley in Lett. Lit. Mem (Camden) 350 If a person should ..upon the account of an unguarded expression.. suffer a capital sentence. 1751 Earl Orrery Remarks Swift ix. (1752) 114 A picture..drawn in too loose a garment, and too unguarded a posture. 1827 Lytton Falkland 37: I have watched feeling in its unguarded sallies. 1835 — Rienzi x. vii. Their gestures were vehement and unguarded. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. vii. II. 163 Every unguarded word uttered by him was noted down.

3. Not protected, screened, or fenced off, by some arrangement or device.

1771 Lickorne Hist. Print. 240, d, f, i, when they stand with their beaks unguarded,..run as great a hazard [of being broken]. 1784 Cowper Task iv. 469 Ev'ry twentieth pace Conducts th' unguarded nose to such a whiff Of stale debauch. 1844 Noad Electricity (ed. 2) 80 Decomposing water by current alone, and with unguarded poles. 1872 Howells Wedding Journ. (1892) 177 The road..,next the precipice, is unguarded by any sort of parapet. 1900 Westm. Gaz. 2 May 6/3 Dust or gas..ignited by an unguarded lamp.

Hence Ungua·rdedness.

1825–9 Mrs. Sherwood Lady of Manor IV. xxvii. 282 That sort of unguardedness which consists in supposing all around one to be well-intentioned. 1887 Women's Union Jrnl. 15 Dec. 94 A moment of optical unguardedness, when ..eye-glasses lay on a table before him.

Ungua·rdedly, adv. [Un-[1] 11.] In an unguarded manner; incautiously, uncircumspectly.

1713 Berkeley Guardn. No. 3 P 1 Whatever Clergymen, in Disputes against each other, have unguardedly uttered. 1745 Wesley Princ. Methodist 40 But how little did I profit by begging your Excuse, suppose I had spoken a Word unguardedly? a 1813 in J. Thomson Lect. Inflam. 477 The same sponge having been unguardedly used for different sores. 1885 Manch. Exam. 19 Oct. 5/5 The Bishop spoke unguardedly and without due premeditation.

Ungu·lgual, var. of Ungual a. 1.

1835–6 Todd's Cycl. Anat. I. 280/2 The ultimate or ungual phalanges. 1841 Mantell Petrifactions ii. § 3. 116 The ungual or claw-bones are large and strong.

Unguent (ˈʌŋgwənt), sb. Also 5 vngwent, 6–7 vnguent. [ad. L. unguent-um, f. ungu̅ĕre to anoint. Cf. F. onguent, It., Sp., Pg. unguento.] An ointment or salve.

c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. iv. 147 Or madlife hit so in oil lauryne, Let dide hem, sowe hem, vp by oon assent They wol, and haue oulcer wol hem, 1448–9 J. Metham Amorym & Cleopes 1500 For had not a bene that precyus vngwent, He had be slayn and on pecys rente. 1563 T. Gale Antidot. II. 7 Unto whiche I haue also added no smal number of vnguents. 1634 Heywood Gunaik. III. 131 Forgetting the Physitions with all their drugges, unguents, and emplasters. 1656 J. Smith Pract. Physick 66 Unguents for scaldings must be made so that they stick not too fast. 1720 Pope Iliad xxiii. 229 Celestial Venus hover'd o'er his head, And roseate unguents, heav'nly fragrance I shed. 1778 Lightfoot Flora Scot. II. 618 The buds yield a yellow resinous unguent. 1867 Maurice Ep. St. John x. 162 Oils and unguents in the East had a virtue which we do not commonly attach to them. 1887 Bowen Aneid iii. 280 Bared and anointed shoulders with glistening unguent stream.

attrib. 1894 Daily News 13 Dec. 8 A small unguent bottle, only slightly damaged, was in this part of the building.

b. fig. or in fig. context.

1595 Fitz-Geffery Sir F. Drake (1881) 19 Soules sweet Emplastrum, unguent of the eyes. a 1625 Fletcher & Mass. Elder Bro. v. i, Your festred reputation, which no Balm or gentle Unguent could ever make way to. a 1683 Owen Two Discourses Holy Spirit (1693) 60 As an Unction, an Unguent from the Holy One. 1838 J. James Louis XIV, I. 257 There was no unguent which made the wheels of their foreign policy move so rapidly as gold.

c. spec. (See quot.)

1857 Ure's Dict. Arts (ed. 6) III. 971 Unguents, the name given by engineers to the greases applied to the bearing parts of machinery.

Ungu·ent, v. [f. prec. Cf. L. unguent-āre, It. -are.] trans. To treat with an unguent; to anoint.

1596 S. Holland Zara (1719) 42 When they found their Ears unguented with warm water. 1697 Tomlinson Renou's Disp. 689 A Medick should be Unguented, that is, Perfumed. 1819 Metropolis III. 191 Brushing, perfuming, unguenting, and twisting about the hair.

Ungueta·rian. rare. [-ian.] = Unguentary sb. 1.

1697 Tomlinson Renou's Disp. 123 Parfumes..bought in unguentarians shops. 1894 Yellow Bk. I. 81 The admirable unguentarians of Bond Street.

‖ Ungueta·rium. Archæol. [L. unguentārium (vās), f. unguent-um Unguent sb.] A vessel for holding ointment; an unguentary.

1859 R. Hunt Guide Mus. Pract. Geol. (ed. 2) 85 Vases, bowls, lamps, unguentaria, amphoræ. 1888 Pall Mall G. 22 Aug. 5/2 Besides the unguentaria, there are..specimens of the early Phœnician glass.

Ungueta·ry, sb. and a. Now rare. [ad. L. unguentārius, -a, -um (adj. and sb.), f. unguentum ointment. Cf. It. and Sp. unguentario, OF. ung-, ungentaire.]

A. sb. 1. A maker of or dealer in (perfumed) ointment; a perfumer.

1382 Wyclif Exod. xxx. 25 An oynement maad with the werk of ungwentarye [1388 a makere of oynement]. 1483 Caxton Gold. Leg. 64 b/2 It shal also take your doughters and make them his unguentaryes. 1609 Bible (Douay) Exod. xxx. 25 Thou shalt make the holie oile of unction, an oiutment compounded by the arte of an unguentarie. 1684 tr. Ayrsight's Van. Arts xx. 323 In stead of Alchymists, Cacochymists;..in stead of Unguentaries, Victuallers.

2. = Ungueta·rium.

1911 Sotheby's Sale Catal. Egypt. Antiq. 87 An Unguentary, shaped as a Gazelle with its legs tied together.

B. adj. Adapted for use, in, suitable for, having connexion with, ointments.

1697 Tomlinson Renou's Disp. 273 Which Hippocrates calls myrepsicum, that is, unguentary, from its suavity. 1846 Worcester (citing Gent. Mag.). 1891 Cent. Dict. Unguentary vase, a small vase for unguents.

Unguenti·ferous, a. [See Unguent sb. and -(i)ferous. Cf. It. unguentifero.] Producing ointment.

1844 T. Meyrick Fam. St. Richard, etc. 95 The saints who are called 'Elæophori' or 'unguentiferous'.

Ungunto·us, a. rare. [f. Unguent sb. + -ous.] 1. Smeared with ointment; greasy.

1654 Gayton Pleas. Notes III. ii. 73 His bed was full of holes, so that the Flocks broke through the breaches, and stuck all about his fulsome and unguentous Body.

2. Of the nature of ointment.

1684 tr. Bonet's Merc. Compitk. xix. 833 Unguentous things hinder transpiration. 1819 Metropolis III. 151 His unguentous compound has not hindered a spoke from being put into his wheel.

†Ungueuchy. Obs.–[1] (See quot.)

c 1420 W. Gibson Farrier's Dispens. xv. (1734) 284 Unguentum Album, called by the common people, Ungueuty.

Ungue·rdoned, ppl. a. Now poet (Un-[1] 8.)

1433 Rolls of Parli. IV. 424/2 Suche as have so served and be unguerdoned. c 1477 Caxton Jason 47 b, As your trewe louer and humble seruant vnguerdoned I shal goe withdrawe me into som desert. 1611 Cotgr., Inguerdoné, vnguerdoned, vnrecompenced. 1813 Scott Rokeby vi. xii, Unguerdon'd, I would give with joy The father's arms to fold his boy. 1855 Singleton Virgil II. 25 No one of this company By me unguerdoned shall depart.

Ungue·ssable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1832 Miss Mitford Our Village Ser. v. 278 An old bonnet..so twisted..that its pristine shape was unguessable. 1855 Dublin Univ. Mag. I. 266 [There are passages ..the meaning whereof..is to me unknowable, unguessable. [Common in recent use.]

Ungue·ssed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 and 8 c.]

†1. Unexpected, unlooked-for. Obs.

c 1400 Comm. Luke (MS. Bodl. 143) l. 7 God ordeyned hat iconn was born of fadir & modir of old age,..hat hi vngessid birhe of child a graciouse gifte shulde enfourme hem.

2. Not solved or known by guessing.

1590 Spenser F. Q. I. ix. 7 For whither he through fatall deepe foresight Mie hither sent, for cause to me vnghest, Or (etc.). 1805 Scott Last Minstrel v. xvii, But cause of terror, all unguess'd, Was fluttering in her gentle breast. 1837 Lytton Athens I. 50 The frequent operation of causes unrecognised, unforeseen, unguest. 1900 Pilot 22 Sept. 358/2 An explanation of its mysterious and once unseen and unguessed processes.

b. Not guessed at, not dreamt of.

1746 Eliza Heywood Female Spect. No. 22 (1748) IV. 203 By what unseen, unguessed at means, are frequently the greatest events brought about! 1838 Lytton Zicci xiv, Art thou some itinerant mountebank, or some unguest-of friend? 1876 Miss Yonge Womankind xiii, The best endeavours.. are often frustrated by some unguessed-at peril.

Ungue·stlike, a. or adv. (Un-[1] 7 c or 11 b.) 1645 Milton Tetrach. Wks. 1851 IV. 207 He cast his eye unlawfully and unguestlike upon Herodias.., the wife of Philip.

Ungu·gual, a. rare. [f. L. unguic-ulus (see next) + -al.] = Ungual a. 1.

1833 Sir C. Bell Hand (1834) 106 These ungualcal bones, or bones of the claws.

†Ungui·cle. Bot. Obs. [ad. L. unguiculus, dim. of unguis nail, claw.] A part of a leaf or petal resembling a nail or claw.

1697 Tomlinson Renou's Disp. 75 Medlers, which are of a moderate magnitude, with late heads, discreted with five unguicles or leafes. 1706 H. Hunter tr. St.-Pierre's Stud. Nat. (1799) II. 95 The unguicle..is always clearer [in colour] than that of the rest of the petal.

Ungui·cular, a. rare. [f. as prec + -ar.] = Ungual a. 1.

1826 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. III. xxxii. 307 The last or ungiucular Joint..is on both sides fringed with long hairs.

Unguiculate (ʌŋgwiˈkiʌlēt), a. and sb. [ad. mod.L. unguiculāt-us (Ray, 1693), f. L. unguiculus Unguicle. Cf. F. ung-, ongiculé]

1. Bot. Of petals: Having an unguis or claw.

1802 R. Hall Elem. Bot. 193 Unguiculate,..clawed. 1830 Lindley Nat. Syst. Bot. 34 Their..many-celled fruit, and unguiculate petals. 1861 Bentley Man. Bot. 454 Petals.. imbricate, generally unequal and unguiculate.

2. Zool., etc. Ending in, assuming the form of, a nail or claw: a. Of the limbs of animals.

1826 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. III. xxx. 138 Those of the former..resemble the second class of unguiculate prolegs, except in the defect of claws. 1852 Dana Crust. I. 252 Tarsus not unguiculate. 1881 Mivart Cat 472 Their digits are also unguiculate and never sheathed in horny hoofs.

b. Of other organs or parts.

1826 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. III. xxviii. 30 Mandibles chelliform or unguiculate. 1851 S. P. Woodward Mollusca 102 The operculum is described as..Claw-shaped, or unguiculate. 1872 Coues N. Amer. Birds 25 A bill is..unguiculate (clawed), when strongly epignathous.

3. Zool. Of quadrupeds: Furnished with nails or claws; belonging to the order Unguiculata.

1839 Hallam Hist. Lit. iv. viii. § 16 Quadrupeds he [sc. Ray] was the first to divide into ungulate and unguiculate, hoofed and clawed. a 1847 Todd's Cycl. Anat. III. 843/2 In all unguiculate Mammalia the tarsal bones are well developed. 1877 Coues Fur Anim. iv. 117 Causing the feet to appear slender..,though they are relatively stouter than in many unguiculate animals.

b. sb. An unguiculate quadruped.

1840 Cuvier's Anim. Kingd. 42 Among the unguiculates the first is Man. a 1847 Todd's Cycl. Anat. III. 236/2 Those Unguiculates which have the front teeth trenchant.

Ungui·culated, ppl. a. [f. as prec. + -ed.]

1. = prec. 2.

1752 J. Hill Hist. Anim. 110 The Lacerta,..with five unguiculated toes to each foot. 1819 Samouelle Entomol. Compend. 192 Antennæ moniform,..maxillæ unguiculated. 1841 Penny Cycl. XXI. 424/1 The external jaw-feet are.. sometimes unguiculated at the end. 1861 Hulme tr. Moquin-Tandon II. iii. i. 69 The toes free, flat, and unguiculated.

2. = prec. 3.

1834 M'Murtrie Cuvier's Anim. Kingd. 224 As the Marsupialia..are parallel to the other unguiculated Mammalia. 1851 G. F. Richardson Geol. 336 Rodentia (or Gnawers).—Form a natural order of unguiculated animals.

Ungui·culo. rare–[1]. [ad. L. unguicul-us.] A finger-nail.

1694 Motteux Rabelais v. xx, Your Taciturnity..discovers that..you have..scalyzid'd your heads with frequent applications of your Unguicules. [Not in Fr. original.]

Ungui·dable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1822 Bewick Mem. 6 My father began by telling him that I was so very unguidable that he could not manage me. 1896 Westm. Gaz. 22 May 4 1 [The vessel] in the absence of much wind, was almost unguidable. Ungui·dably, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. I. II. vi, Beautiful invention; mounting heaven-ward, so beautifully,—so unguidably!

Ungui·ded, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Not guided in a particular path or direction; left to take one's own course or way.

1585 Abp. Sandys Serm. xix. 341 The ship cannot keepe hir right course vnguided but will fall vpon euerie sande. 1633 Fletcher & Shirley Night-Walker iv. i, Fla. The world's a Labyrinth, where unguided men Walk up and down to find their weariness. 1674 Boyle Grounds Corpusc. Philos. 3 The material parts being able by their own unguided motions, to cast themselves into such a system. 1726 Pope Odyss. xx. 441 Unguided hence my trembling steps I bend. 1861 Southey Thalaba I. xviii, Not by Heaven unseen, Nor in unguided wanderings, hast thou reach'd This secret place. 1876 Kane Arct. Expl. II. xxi. 211 The dogs speed from hut to hut, almost unguided by their drivers. 1891 T. Hardy Tess ii, An unguided ramble into its recesses in bad weather.

b. fig. Of action, conduct, etc.: Undirected, uncontrolled.

1597 Shaks. 2 Hen. IV, iv. iv. 59 Th' vnguided Dayes, And rotten Times, that you shall look vpon. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. I. viii. 57 Passions unguided, are for the most part meere Madnesse. 1711 Steele Spect. No. 167 P 1 The unhappy Force of an Imagination, unguided by the Check of Reason and Judgment. 1760–72 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1809) III. 136 He..has left his own unbound unchastened and unguided. 1856 Froude Hist. Eng. II. 26 It (Protestantism) sprung up spontaneously, unguided, unexcited,.. among the masses of the nation. a 1880 Geo. Eliot Leaves fr. Note-bk., Lex. (1884) 364 They are not left to their own unguided rashness, or their own unguided pusillanimity.

Hence Ungui·dedly adv.

1660 tr. Angyraldus' Treat. conc. Relig. II. i. 153 To discharge all his actions at randome, and permit his natural appetites to run unguiledly as a wanton. 1885 E. F. Byrne Entangled I. xi, Her tongue spoke strangely and unguidedly Ungui·fercus, a. rare–[1]. [f. L. ungui-s nail, claw + -ferous.] Bearing nails or claws.

1826 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. III. 137 The remaining description of unguiferous prolegs..are those of certain Diptera.

Ungui·form, a. [f. as prec. + -form.] Having the form of a nail or claw; claw-shaped.

1726 Moxon Anat. Bones 157 The unguiform Bones compose the anterior internal Parts of the Orbites. 1815 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. iv. (1816) I. 140 Armed with two unguiform mandibles. 1843 Humphreys Brit. Butterflies 36 With simple claws furnished with an unguiform appendage. 1866 R. Tate Brit. Mollusks iv. 83 The shell..is unguiform.

Ungui·lded, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1858 J. S. Brewer Mon. Francisc. Pref. p. xvii, For the unguilded population who resided in the suburbs..there were no such advantages. Ungui·lful, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1630 R. Craven Good Tribunal (1631) 33 In the day when an vnguilefull Israelite shall not fale of a Testimonial.

Ungui·lite. Geol. [f. L. ungui-s nail + -lite.] Gompholite.

1799 Kirwan Geol. Ess. 246 It alternates with unguilite (Nagel flube) in Swisseland..and in Bavaria.

Ungui·lotine, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. I. II. viii, There too an unruly Linguet, still unguilotined,..can emit his hoarse wailings.

†Ungui·lthead. Obs. = Unguiltiness.

a 1470 H. Parker Dives & Pauper (1493) IV. xix. N vij b/2 The prest moste take hede whether his vnglyteede is openly known or is in doute.

Ungui·ltily, adv. (Un-[1] 11.)

a 1634 Chapman Alphonsus I. Plays 1873 III. 211 Thus am I wrong'd, God knows, unguiltily. 1861 Trench Comm. Ep. Churches Asia 129 All the while, by care-taking,..are in danger of unconsciously, but not unguiltily, being the same. 1891 Meredith One of our Conq. xxvi, Unguiltily tainted, in herself she was innocent.

Ungui·ltiness. (Un-[1] 12.)

1535 Coverdale Job vi. 29 Be indifferent iudges, and consider myne vnguiltinesse. 1591 Golding Calvin on Ps. xvii. 1 It is lawfull for us to protest our vnguiltynesse before God. a 1634 Chapman Alphonsus v. 60 Great Emperor,..Your Conscience knows my hearts unguiltiness. a 1680 Butler Rem. (1759) I. 301 Their approved Liberty of Conscience, and Unguiltiness of Faith.

†Ungui·ltless, a. Obs.–[1] (Un-[1] 15.)

c 1320 Sir Tristr. 2144 Vngiltles er 3e In swiche a sclaunder broust.

Ungui·lty, a. Forms: (see Un-[1] 4 c and Guilty a.). [Un-[1] 7.]

1. Not guilty; guiltless; innocent: a. Of persons.

c893 [see below]. *c*1374 Chaucer Troylus III. 1018 Is his an honour to þi deite That folk vngiltyf [v.r. ungilti] suffren here Iniure? 1388 Wyclif Num. xiv. 18 Doynge awei wickidnesse and trespassis, and leesynge no man vngilti. *c*1440 Jacob's Well 22 Fleeth hem, þif ze be vngylty, & leuyth hem, þif ze be gylty. 1558 Phaer Æneid II. C iv b, Whom by a treason false the Grekes.. Vngiltie did condempne. 1599 Bretton Mysteries Mumillia Wks. (Grosart) II. 46/2 The Lord of lordes doubt knowes this tale to bee untrue, And her ungiultie. a 1634 Chapman Alphonsus v. i. 220, I kill'd thy father, therefore let me die, But save the life of this ungiltie Emperess. 1736 Thomson Liberty iv. 330 Rare to be seen, ungiultiy cities rise, Cities of brothers form'd. 1816 Monthly Mag. XLII. 430 Thou sea,.. Receive for ever in thy dark abyss The ungiulty Mellerctes. 1860 Trench Serm. Westm. Abb. v. 53 The clothing..could only have been obtained at the cost of..the life of one ungiulty.

absol. *c*893 K. Ælfred Oros. iv. vii. 184 Ac hit God wræc on him..þæt he mid hiera cucum onguldon þæt hie ungyltige cwealdon. 13.. Prest Pealter iv. 30 (Dubl. MS.), He sittep in waytynges wyl ryche men in preuytes þat he slee þe vngylty. 1553 Latimer Serm. Lord's Prayer vi. (1562) 46 And so we acknowledge our selues to be offenders. For the vngilty neddeth no pardon. 1612 Woodall Surg. Mate Wks. (1653) 146 The guilty and ungiulty are censured both alike by the common sort. 1703 Secr. Policy of Jansenists 24 That I may not asperse the ungiulty.

b. Of the hands, mind, blood, etc.

*c*1300 Prose Psalter cv. 38 And hij..shadde blode nouht filed [v.r. vngilty blode]. 1382 Wyclif Gen. xxxvii. 22 Kepe 3e 3oure hondes vngilti. 1595 Daniel Civ. Wars I. xc, Stay here thy foote, thy yet vngiulty foote. 1605 — Philotas III. i, With th assured Clearnesse of my ungiulty Conscience. 1623 Ford Broken H. II. iii, Time can never On the white table of ungiulty faith Write counterfeit dishonour. 1740 Richardson Pamela I. 230 Surrendering up my Life, spotless and ungiulty, to that merciful Being who gave it.

c. Of an animal. rare.

1600 Maides Metam. I. in Bullen O. Pl. (1882) I. 109 And, hauing slaine it, rip his panting breast, And take the heart of the vngiulte beast.

2. Guiltless or innocent of something.

*c*1440 Jacob's Well 85 He of haldne cryed, 'late be I late be I he is vngylti of þat mannys deth!' 1535 Coverdale Matt. xxvii. 24, I am vngiltie of ye blode of this rightiousness man. 1577 Grange Golden Aphrod. E iij b, Silth I vnguiltie am thereof, I wil not seeke thine vnkindnesse. 1606 Chapman Bl. D'Olive Plays 1873 I. 224 Keepe your cullour stiffe, vnguiltie of passion or disgrace. 1820 Hogg Tales & Sk. (1837) III. 66 He is as ungiulty of the whole affair, as the child that is not after being born.

†b. Undeserving of. Obs.[-1]

1596 W. Smith Chloris (1877) 21 With patience bearing loues captiuitie, Themselues vnguiltie of his wrath alleaging.

†3. Not involving guilt. Obs.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia III. x, This outward glosse, intitled Beast, which it pleasuth you to lay to my (as I thinke) unguiltie charge. 1662 J. Chandler Van Helmont's Oriat. 213 That now and then, the digestion beares the ungiulty fault of the expulsive faculty.

Ungu'inal, a. Anat. [Irreg. f. L. ungui-s nail, claw.] = Ungual a.

1842 Mayne Expos. Lex. s.v. 1870 Gillmore tr. Figuier's Reptiles & Birds ii. 59 A spur or nail..in which the anatomist discovered the elements of an unguinal phalanx.

†Ungu'inous, a. Obs. [ad. L. unguinōsus, f. unguin-, unguen ointment.] Greasy, oily.

1601 Holland Pliny II. 174 The powder entreth into those unguinous or oleous plasters which the Greeks call Liparas. 1693 — Plutarch's Mor. 675 The tortoise makes of them..are so fattie and unguinous.

‖Ungnis (ʊ̄ngwis). Pl. ungues (-ēz). [L. unguis nail, claw, etc.]

†1. = Ungula 2. Obs.

1653 [see Ungula 2]. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Pannus, The Pannus is an Excrescence..less hard and membranous than the Ungnis.

2. Bot. The narrow part of a petal, by which it is attached to the receptacle.

1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v., In preparing of Medicines, the Ungues..are pull'd off the Flowers. 1760 J. Lee Introd. Bot. v. iii. (1765) 2 Each Petal consists of Unguis, a Claw, which is the lower Part fastened to the Base. 1830 Lindley Nat. Syst. Bot. 284 The inner segments of the perianthium being petaloid, with the stamens proceeding from the top of their ungues. 1859 A. Gray Struct. Bot. vi. § 4. 245 The expanded portion of a petal..is the Lamina or Blade; any much contracted base is the Unguis or Claw.

†3. A claw-shaped obstetrical instrument. Obs.[-1]

1752 Smellie Midwif. Introd. p. xii, [Hippocrates] directs us to introduce the hand,..dividing the parts within an unguis fixed on the great finger.

4. Zool., etc. A nail or claw.

*c*1790 Encycl. Brit. (ed. 3) VI. 680/1 Tarsus, or foot.. Unguis, or claw. 1819 Maclear Horæ Entomol. I. 66 The size of their tarsi and unguies, and their comparatively small pectus. 1840 Cuvier's Anim. Kingd. 526 Dasyus..has the ungues of the two fore-feet..bifid, the others entire. 1884 Coues N. Amer. Birds 102 There it is always terminated by a hard, horny, unguis or ' nail ', more or less distinct.

†Ungul, Anglicized s. form of ‖ungula.

1670 Phil. Trans. V. 2006 He shews the Center of Gravity of all Arches of Circles, with their Superficial Vngals.

‖Ungula (ʊ̄ngiulā). [L. ungula claw, hoof, f. unguis nail, Unguis.]

†1. = Onyoha, Onyx 2. Obs.

1382 Wyclif Ecclus. xxiv. 21 [xl], Galban, and vngula, and gutta [1388 vngula, and gummi].

†2. A morbid growth in the eye; = Onyx 3, Pterygium 2 a. Obs.

*c*1400 Lanfranc's Cirurg. 79 Vngula is a hing, hat bigynneþ bi þe nose & goiþ over be iris til he kenere al be he. 1597 A. M. tr. Guillemeau's Fr. Chirurg. 63 b/2 When we desire to cut off an Vngula. Ibid. 63 b/2 An Eye, in the which is an Vngula. 1693 tr. Blancard's Phys. Dict. (ed. 2), Pterygium,..a membranous Excrescence above the horny Tunic of the Eye, called Unguis and Ungula.

†3. = Unguis 3. Obs.[-2]

1693 tr. Blancard's Phys. Dict. (ed. 2), Ungula, a sort of hooked Instrument to draw a dead Fœtus out of the Womb.

4. Geom. (See quots.)

1719 J. Harris Lex. Techn. II. Ungula, in Geometry, is the Section of a Pyramid cut off by a Plane, which passes obliquely thro' the Plane of the Base, and part of the Cylindric Surface. 1824-5 Encycl. Metrop. (1845) I. 362/1 A spherical wedge or ungula is that portion of the solid sphere, which is included between the same great semicircles, and has the lune for its base. 1843 Penny Cycl. XXV. 514/2 The hoof of a horse looks like the part of a cone which is separated from the part containing the vertex by an oblique plane. Hence such a solid is called an ungula.

‖Ungulata (ʊngiulē'tā), sb. pl. [L. ungulātā, neut. pl. of ungulātus: see next.] The order or division of ungulate or hoofed animals.

1839 Penny Cycl. XIV. 352/2 The Ungulata, comprising the Bellua and Pecora. 1872 Mivart Elem. Anat. 43 The spinous processes may be very much more prolonged, as in the Ungulata. 1891 W. H. Flower Horse I. 11 The group Ungulata, discarded by Linnæus, Cuvier, and others,..has been resuscitated of late years.

Ungulate (ʊ̄ngiulēt), a. and sb. [ad. L. ungulāt-us, f. ungula hoof.]

1. Having the form of a hoof; hoof-shaped.

1802 R. Hall Elem. Bot. 193 Ungulate, or Hoof-shaped, ungulatus. 1828 W. Clark Van der Hoeven's Zool. II. 634 Feet ungulate; with all the toes insistent, ungulate. 1888 G. Allen in Longm. Mag. July 303 The slender and delicate ungulate feet of the gazelles and the chamois.

2. Of quadrupeds: Having hoofs.

The classification was introduced by Ray (1693).

1829 G. Roberts Dict. Geol. s.v., An ungulate quadruped. 1872 Darwin Orig. Spec. (ed. 6) vii. 179 The competition.. must be between giraffe and giraffe, and not with the other ungulate animals. Ibid. xi. 302 The existing horse and certain other ungulate forms. 1875 C. C. Blake Zool. 32 The odd-toed division of ungulate Mammalia.

b. sb. An ungulate animal.

1842 Brande Dict. Sci., etc. 1274/2. 1854 Owen in Orr's Cyc. Sci., Org. Nat. I. 236 In the odd-toed or 'perissodactyle' ungulates. 1891 Lydekker Rep. Nat. Hist. II. 159 In all the Ungulates the limbs have entirely ceased to be used as organs of prehension.

So U'ngulated a. rare.

1822 Good Study Med. I. 171 Generally speaking, the tendeness of the skins of the gallinaceous birds : then that of the ungulated quadrupeds. 1891 W. H. Flower Horse I. 11 The ungulated or hoofed animals, and the unguiculated.

Unguled (ʊ̄ngiuld), a. Her. [f. L. ungul-a claw, hoof. Cf. Ungleid.] Of animals : Having the hoofs or claws of a different tincture from the body.

1572 Bossewell Armorie II. 100 Two demye hyppotames, sable, armed and vnguled. 1610 Guillim Heraldry III. xiv. 130 He beareth Argent, a Stagge Tripping Proper, Armed and Vngled. a 1695 Wood Surv. Oxford (O.H.S.) III. 143 A lyon rampant sable, collered or, vnguled and langed gules. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Unicorn, An Unicorn seiant sable, armed and unguled, Or. 1763 Brit. Mag. IV. 238 Two backs, proper, attired, and unguled, or. 1864 Boutell Her. Hist. & Pop. xviii. (ed. 3) 280 Two bulls argent, armed unguled, collared and chained. Ibid. xxi. 366 An ox gu., armed and unguled or.

U'nguligrade, a. Zool. [ad. mod.L. ungulīgradus, f. L. ungula claw + -gradus walking. Cf. F. ongulígrade.] Walking on the tips of the digits.

1869 Huxley Introd. Classif. 246 Unguligrade, those animals which walk on the tips of the digits only, which are always hoofed. 1881 Mivart Cat 472 The Cetacea, also are always digitigrade or planligrade, never unguligrade.

Ungulite (ʊ̄ngiulīt). Palæont. [f. L. ungul-a, Ungula + -ite 1.] A Palæozoic brachiopod, the obolus. Ungulite grit : see Obolite.

1850 Ansted Elem. Geol., Min., etc. § 980 A sandstone, or grit, distinguished by a remarkable fossil (the Ungulite) unknown in Western Europe. Ibid. Index, Ungulite grit. 1859 Murchison Siluria (ed. 3) xiv. 374 The little horny brachiopod, the Obolus or Ungulite, is so much more abundant than any other fossil, as to have induced Pander to give to the rock the name of Ungulite grit.

Ungu'll, v. [Un-[2] 6 b.]

1652 Benlowes Theoph. x. xxvi, Fawn, and betray, and Treasons self outdare,..But I'l ungull thy Minions.

U'ngulous, a. [f. Ungula.] Pertaining to or resembling a hoof; ungulate. (Webster, 1879.)

Ungu'm, v. [Un-[2] 4 b. Cf. Du. ontgommen.] trans. To free from gum or from being gummed; spec. in the preparation of silk.

1598 Florio Sgommare, to vngum, to vnplaister, to vnglue. 1691 Ure Dict. Arts 142 As soon as the whole [of the silk] is completely ungummed, they [sc. the hanks] are taken out. 1902 B. Pain Another Englishwoman's Love-Lett. xxv. 111, I kiss the label..until it comes ungummed.

Hence U'ngumming vbl. sb.

1839 Ure Dict. Arts 149 For the first method of scouring silk], or the ungumming. 1883 R. Haldane Workshop Receipts Ser. II. 39/1 Two operations are necessary [in silk-bleaching], 'ungumming' (degommage) and 'boiling'.

Ungu'mmed, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8. Cf. Du. ongegommd.] Not smeared or treated with gum; free from gumming.

[1775 Ash.] 1799 G. Smith Laboratory II. 80 An ungummed paper will stick very close to the top of your tongue. 1891 Kipling City Dreadf. Nt. 95 He now takes up an ungummed chupatti and fits it carefully all round.

Ungu'mmed, ppl. a.[2] [f. Ungum v.] Freed from gum; detached from being gummed.

1839 Ure Dict. Arts 142 Into bags of coarse canvass.. about 25 lbs. or 35 lbs. of ungummed silk are enclosed.

Ungu'tted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1712 in J. J. Vernon Par. & Kirk Hanwick (1900) 99 Thinking they [sc. herring] would spile if lying ungutted until ye Monday.

Ungy've, v. [Un-[2] 4 b.] trans. To free from gyves or fetters. Also fig.

1531 Elyot Gov. II. vi, He..commanded hym to be ungyued and sette at liberte. 1569 Newton Cicero's Olde Age 4, I haue knowen a great maignte..who were well pleased to be ungiued, loosed, and deliuered out of the yoke of their sensuall lustes. 1610 Healey St. Aug. Citie of God 310 Our intellect being ungiued from the body, if it want the light of God's truth, it must needes lament and languishe. 1832 Carlyle Sart. Res. II. ix, My mind's eyes were now un sealed, and its hands ungyved.

Ungy'ved, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Not gyved or fettered; free.

1607 Marston What You Will II. i, Think't thou a libertine, an vngiu'd breast Skorines not the shackleese of thy enuious clogges? c 1850 Lowell Without & Within vii, I envy him the ungyved praise By which his freezing feet he warms. 1892 M. Field Night & Song 40 Intent upon her work, as though It were full liberty ungyved to go.

Unhabil, obs. Sc. var. Unable a.

†Unha'ble, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.] = Inhabile a., Unable a.

1539 Elyot in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. I. II. 117 Nowe although very unmeete and unhable, I have servyd the King.. truely and faithfully. 1567 Sc. Acts, Mary (1814) II. 573/2 Decerning thairfore.. his posteritie to be fra thine furth unhable to bruik offices..within this Realme. 1660 Jer. Taylor Doctor III. ii. rule 2 § 14 The offending person is bound in Conscience not to accept a benefice..to which by that consure he is made unhable and unapt.

Unha'bit, v. [Un-[2] 4 b.] trans. To free from a habit; to disaccustom.

1650 Fuller Pisgah II. i. 64 So hard it is to unhabit mens mouths from old ill customs.

†Unha'bit, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [Un-[1] 8 b.] 1580 Pitsc. Corr. Carmel Scot. III. 304 The said hous..remanis unhabite be him.

Unha'bitable, a. Now rare. [Un-[1] 7 b and 5 b.] Uninhabitable. (Common c 1550–1690.)

1382 Wyclif Jer. ii. 6 Wher is the Lord, that..ladde vs euer by desert, by the lond vnhabitable? 1388 — Jer. vi. 8 Lest .. Y sette thee forsakiu, and lond vnhabitable [1382 vndwellable]. a 1485 Fortescue Wks. (1869) 486 He..made Babyloyne unhabitable. 1527 in Hakluyt Voy. (1599) I. 219 The..opinion, that vnder the line Equinoctiall for much heate the land was vnhabitable. 1582 Eden Decades (Arb.) 297 That opinion .. touching the vnhabitable clime vnder the poles. 1615 G. Sandys Trav. 90 Next into this stands Rhodes,..once couered with the sea, or at least an vnhabitable marish. a 1652 J. Smith Sel. Disc. iv. 452 The soil of a wicked man becomes a very unhabitable and incommodious place to itself. 1702 C. Mather Magn. Chr. I. v. (1852) 76 They that have made Britain more unhabitable than the Torrid Zone. 1733 Swift On Poetry 182 So Geographers in Afric-Maps..o'er unhabitable Downs Place Elephants for want of Towns. 1887 Spectator 15 Oct. 1381 The whole deep Northern fringe..is unhabitable and uninhabited except by a few savages.

Hence Unha'bitableness.

1661 Boyle Physiol. Ess. (1669) 27 The Unhabitableness of the Torrid Zone. 1668 H. More Div. Dial. III. xxxiv. 1. 323 marg., Difficulties touching the Habitableness or Unhabitableness of the Planets.

†Unha'bitated, ppl. a. Obs.[-1] [Un-[1] 8.] = next. 1648 Hexham II, Een Onbewoont landt, a land or country Vnhabitated.

†Unha'bited, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 8 and 5 b.] Uninhabited. (Freq. c 1500–1625.)

1490 Caxton Eneydos xxii. 81 Goyng by longe wayes, dystroied, deserte & vnhabyted. 1491 — Vitas Patr. (W. de W. 1495) III. i. 317 b/2 We arryyed a londe in a contree vnhabyted. 1553 Eden Treat. New Inf. (Arb.) 39 When Vespuius had entered into the Iland, he found it rude and vnhabited. 1588 T. Washington tr. Nicholay's Voy. II. xi. 45 b, The promontory is ful of ruines vnhabited. 1640 J. Rutter and Pl. Cid III. i. 19 Ile seek some place unhabited by women. 1656 Heylin Surv. Presence 75 She will rather choose to leave her fine house unhabited.

Unhabi'tual, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1864 Lowell Fireside Trav. 60 A descon..drinking in, with unhabitual ears, a song.. with a dash of libertinism. 1895 J. Rae Life of Smith xx. 324 Smith's outbreak of very unhabitual irritation with Strah..n.

Unhabi'tuate, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) = next. 1815 Milman Fazio (1821) 28 This cataract of courtesy O'erwhelms my weak and unhabituate ears.

Unhabi'tuated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla I. 227 Delighted to give, but unhabituated to any other exertion. 1834 Cooper Good's Study Med. (ed. 4) I. 632 Strangers, unhabituated to the climate and its diseases, suffer from remittents. 1898 P. Manson Trop. Diseases iv. 89 A full dose of the drug which in the unhabituated would produce profound..narcosis.

Unhable, obs. var. Unable a. and v.

Unha'ckled, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8 + Hack v.[1] Cf. MDu. ongehact, Sw. ohackad.] Not hacked or cut.

1595 Shaks. John II. i. 254 With vnhack'd swords, and Helmets all vnbruis'd. 1606 — Ant. & Cl. II. vi. 38 To part with vnhackt edges, and beare backe Our Targes vndint-d.

Unha'ckled, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[1] 8, 9 + Hack sb.[3] or v.[1]

1. Not employed as a literary hack.

1778 Heroic Ep. Unfort. Monarch 2 A plain bard,..Unhack'd, unplac'd, amongst the venal quire.

2. Not made common or hackneyed.

1894 Baring-Gould Deserts S. France I. Pref. p. vii, It is a country unhacked by ordinary tourists.

Unha'ckled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1853 Hickie Aristoph. (1872) II. 424 My flax which I have left at home unhackled.

Unha·cknyed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]
1. Not habituated by long practice; inexperienced. Const. in.
1759 Sterne Tr. Shandy I. xi, In plain truth, he was a man unhackneyed and unpractised in the world. 1785 G. A. Bellamy Apology III. 94, I was then unhackneyed in the villainies of mankind. 1814 Scott Waw. xxxii, He had a sort of naiveté and openness of demeanour, that seemed to belong to one unhackneyed in the ways of intrigue.
absol. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla III. 112 Public amusements, to the young and unhackneyed, give entertainment without requiring exertion.
2. Not rendered commonplace or stale by frequent use or contact.
1824 Miss Mitford Village Ser. I. 93 Her English was racy, unhackneyed, proper to the thought to a degree that only original thinking could give. 1868 G. Brimley Ess. (1868) 236 To open to her almost untried and certainly unhackneyed regions of beauty. 1880 Academy 27 Nov. 390/1 His [picture]..shows a research after unhackneyed effects.
Hence Unha·cknyedness.
1884 Saintsbury in Ward Eng. Poets III. 218 There is almost always something novel in his dressing up of his images and a suggestive unhackneyedness in their expression.

Unha·d, ppl. a. rare. [Un-1 8 b.] Unobtained.
1422 Hoccleve Jereslaus' Wife 112 With this addicion, but he nat shul Wirke, my Conseil and assent vnhad. c 1449 Pecock Repr. II. xi. 212 That the hool profite of remembring..be not lost and vnhad. 1876 Whitby Gloss. 206 Unhad, not yet obtained.

† Unhadien, v. : see Un-2 2.

Unha·ft, v. (Un-2 4.)
1584 Stanyhurst Æneis I. (Arb.) 21 The oars are eleene splinted, the helme is from rudder vnhafted. 1598 Florio, Smaniare,..to vnhaft, to vnhilt, to vnhandle. 1611 Cotgr., Desmanchement, an vnhafting.

Unha·fted, (ppl.) a. (Un-2 8, 9.) 1894 Baring-Gould Deserts S. France I. 145 Their rude stone axes,..unhafted.

Unhail, a. : see Unhale a.

Unha·iled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1715 Rowe Lady Jane Grey iv. i, Thro' a staring ghastly looking crowd, Unhail'd, unbless'd, with heavy heart he went. 1828 Alford in Life (1873) 31 Disappointment, and unhail'd success. 1832 Tennyson Lady of Shalott 21 Unhail'd the shallop flitteth silken-sail'd. 1896 Kipling Seven Seas 7 Twixt seas unsailed and shores unhailed.

Unhailsum, obs. Sc. var. Unwholesome.

Unhair, v. [Un-2 4 and 7. Cf. MDu. and Du. ontharen, MHG. entháren.]
1. trans. To deprive (the head, etc.) of hair.
1382 Wyclif Ezek. xxix. 18 Eche heed mad ballid, and eche shulder is vnheerd. 1598 Florio, Disheriucare, to pull off ones haire or perawig, to vnhaire. 1606 Shaks. Ant. & Cl. II. v. 64 He vnhaire thy head, Thou shalt he whipt with Wyer. 1849 J. A. Carlyle tr. Dante's Inf. 393 Even if thou unhair me, I will not tell thee who I am.
b. Tanning. To remove the hair from (a skin) by special processes.
1845 G. Dodd Brit. Manuf. Ser. v. 182 The hide is then spread out on the beam, and 'unhaired', that is, scraped with a knife till the hair is removed. 1880 Times 27 Sept. 12/6 The cost of unhairing, fleshing, and scudding all kinds of skins.
2. intr. To lose the hair; to become free of hair.
1843 in Morfit Tanning & Currying (1853) 177 So that they [sc. the hides] may unhair without tainting. 1883 R. Halfane Workshop Rec. Ser. II. 370/1 The hide is said to unhair in 24 hours.
Hence Unha·ired ppl. a.
1852 Morfit Tanning & Currying (1853) 20 The softened and unhaired skins. 1881 Morgan Contrib. N. Amer. Ethnol. 137 Screens of willow matting or unhaired skins.

Unha·ired, a. [Un-1 9.] Hairless, beardless.
Suggested by Theobald (1733), and formally possible, but cf. Unheard ppl. a. 2.
1595 Shaks. John v. ii. 133 This vn-heard [Vh. unhair'd] sauciness and boyish Troopes, The King doth smile at.

Unha·iring, vbl. sb. Tanning. [f. Unhair v. 1 b.] The process of removing the hair from skins. Also attrib.
1842 Penny Mag. 28 May 212/1 The operations of 'fleshing', of 'unhairing' and of 'graining' are..nearly alike in their general appearance. 1851-4 Tomlinson Arts & Manuf. II. 30/1 A curved two-handled iron scraper, called the unhairing knife. 1899 C. T. Davis Manuf. Leather (ed. 2) 331 The goat-skins..then go on to the unhairing machine.. or to the unhairing beams.

Unhairy, a. (Un-1 7.) 1576 Newton Lemnie's Complex. 42 b, In their other parties their skinne is smothe and vnhayryre, because moysture is aboue heate.

Unha·lo, a. rare. [Un-1 7. See Hail a., Halm a. 3.] † a. Unsalutary. Obs. b. Not hale or healthy.
a. 1483 Gower's Conf. (Caxton) I. 2122 [He] yaf suche counseyle Towarde his kyng, which was vnheyle. b. 1653 E. Waterhouse Apol. Learn. 74 No more then it follows that a wasted man must get a child unhail, because he himself is consumptive. 1828-32 Webster, Unhale, a., unsound..not healthy.

Unhale, obs. variant of Unwhole a.; dial. var. Unhale v. Unhalesom, Sc. var. Unwholesome.

Unha·llow, v. [Un-2 3. Cf. G. ent-, Du. ontheiligen, ON. óhelga (Sw. ohelga, older Da. uhelge).] trans. To deprive of a holy or sacred character; to profane. (Common c 1575–1660.)
1535 Coverdale Isaiah lvi. 2 He that taketh hede, yt he vnhalowe not the Sabbath. — Zeph. iii. 4 Hir prestes vnhalowe the Sanctuary. 1571 Golding Calvin on Ps. I. 8 Defylements that vnhalowe the servis of God. 1628 Wither Brit. Remnant. III. 1838 That I, for ever, may those paths refuse Which may unhallow, or pervert my Muse. 1645 Milton Tetrach. Wks. 1851 IV. 192 Nothing more unhallows a man,..then a habit of wrath and perturbation. 1694 F. Bragge Disc. Parables xiv. 462 Pride, and vainglory, and self-esteem,..unhallow'd everything else that was good in him. 1821 Lamb Elia I. Grace before Meat, A sense of the co-presence of circumstances which unhallow the blessing. 1860 Trench Serm. Westm. Abb. xxix. 331 In a world where so much is ever seeking to unhallow our spirits, to render them common and profane.

Unha·llowed, ppl. a. [OE. unhálgod (and ungehálgod), f. Un-1 8 + Hallowed ppl. a.]
1. Not formally hallowed or consecrated; left secular or profane.
c 1000 Sax. Leechd. I. 380 Nim eall swa fela dropena.. unhalgodes eles. 1297 R. Glouc. (Rolls) 7356 Ac vor þe chriche vn-halowed was, þeruore him was wo; He þoȝt leste it halwy. 1393 R. Brunne Handl. Synne 8609 ȝyf þyng vnhalewed were forgete, þat yn holy cherche were lete, Or halewed þyng yn ouþer stede lay. c 1380 Wyclif Wks. (1880) 69 Þei wolen suffre an autir vnhalwed [Lat. or a chirche or a chirche yerde vnpolluted]. c 1440 Jacob's Well 16 Þey..hat..beryn awey, or steiyn holy cherche good out of ony oþer place vnhalwyd. 1532 More Confut. Tindale Wks. 375/1 Nowe wyll not Tyndal sette a strawe the more by the annoynytyng with holye oyle, then by smeryng with vnhalowed butter. 1587 in T. Norton Calvin's Inst. iv. xix. 492 margin, Men vnhallowed and vnconsecrated. 1797 S. & Hr. Lee Canterb. T. (1799) I. 312 Let us beware how we deem that spot unhallowed which receives the ashes of the good! 1805 Southey Madoc I. xv, This night, Thy father's body..shall be..cast aside In some unhallowed pit, with foul disgrace.
2. Not having a hallowed or sacred character; unholy, impious, wicked: a. Of actions.
1591 Troub. Raigne K. John xii. 88 His quarrell is vnhallowed, false, and wrong. 1626 Jackson Creed viii. xi. § 1 To adventure upon the pretended mysteries of some unhallowed art. 1668 Milton Lett. State Wks. 1851 VIII. 361 That unhallow'd villany rafarriously attempted upon the Person of our Agent. 1725 Pope Odyss. xii. 468 Six guilty days my wretched mates employ In impious feasting, and unhallow'd joy. 1823 Scott Kobehy vi. xviii, What ruth can Demal claim from him, Whose thoughtless youth he led astray, And damn'd to this unhallow'd way? 1846 Mrs. A. Marsh Father Darcy II. xvi. 271 She..felt her heart shudder with unhallowed pleasure, as she thought of the dreadful day of reckoning.
b. Of persons, the hands, tongue, etc.
1588 Shaks. Tit. A. v. iii. 14 Away Inhumaine Dogge, Vnhallowed Slaue. 1603 Drayton Bar. Wars v. xxxv, Vile traytors, hold of your vnhallowed hands. 1663 Br. Patrick Parab. Pilgr. xvii, He comes not being mouthed by such unhallowed mouths. 1703 Rowe Ulysses I. i, The rude unhallow'd Railer's Tongue. 1765 Goldsm. Hermit xxiv, Forgive a stranger rude,..Whose feet unhallow'd thus intrude Where Heaven and you reside. 1827 Disraeli V. Grey VI. i. 272 Ye most unhallowed rogues.
c. Of places or things.
1588 Shaks. Tit. A. II. iii. 210 Why dost not..helpe me out, From this vnhallow'd and blood-stained Hole? 1634 Milton Comus 757, I had not thought to have unlock'd my lips In this unhallow'd air. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. IV. xliv, 339 Wherein every thing..(except the unhallowed Spittle of the Priest) hath some set form of Exorcisme. 1853 Kingsley Hypatia i, He had entered the unhallowed precincts, where devils still lingered about their ancient shrines.
Hence Unha·llowedness.
1899 Mrs. E. Kennard Morals Midlands 399 It has shown me the unhallowedness of love that is not lawful.

Unha·llowing, vbl. sb. [f. Unhallow v.] The action of making unhallowed.
c 1154 Bradford Hurt of Hearing Mass (1580) C v, The propanation and vnhallowing, bothe of bodie and soule. 1571 Golding Calvin on Ps. lxxix. 1 Beholding the horrible unhalowing of the Temple. 1645 Ussher Roiy Div. (1647) 242 The unhallowing or prophaneing of the Sabbath. a 1889 De Quincey in Hogg Dr. O. & Friends (1892) 89 A sort of desecration and unhallowing analogous to the profanation of a temple.

Unhallow-washed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Not sprinkled with holy water. 1614 Sylvester Parl. Vertues Royall 196 When, by mis-heed or by mis-hap, hee comes Un-hallowwasht into the Sacred Rooms.

Unha·loed, a. (Un-1 9.)
1823 J. Wilson Trials Margr. Lyndsay xxxix, The evening sun sank, and left the sky open..to an unhaloed moon.

Unha·lsed, ppl. a. Sc. [Un-1 8 + Halse *v.*1 3. Cf. ON. óheilsaðr (MSw. ohelsadh, MDa. uhelset).] Not greeted or saluted.
1513 Douglas Æneid IX. v. 141 Now bir I leif onhalsyt as I ryde. 1821 Scott Pirate xxi, It shall never be said that my kinswoman sat in her bower unhalsed.

Unha·lter, v. (Un-2 4 b. Cf. MDu. onhalteren.) 1584 Peele Arraignm. Paris iv. ii, I do know a cast.. that we would help t'unhalter them as fast. 1598 Florio, Scapestrato, vnbridled, vnhaltred, disintangled. 1611 Cotgr., Deschevestrer, to vnhalter, or take off the halter from. 1826 J. Wilson City of Plague 98 Unhalter yon poor wretch—he must be carried Back to his prison.

Unha·ting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1832 L. Hunt Poems Pref. p. xiv, An unhalting and consistent narrative. 1852 Kock Church Hist. II. 54 Holding..the true Catholic belief in the Eucharist, with a faith that was unhalting.

Unha·mmered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1851 Sir W. Fairbairn Iron 214 These results give a mean of 27·246 tons for the unhammered..steel.

Unha·mper, *v.*1 [Un-2 5.] trans. To let out of a cage or hamper.
1620 Shelton Quix. II. xvii. 105 Ech of them striuing to get as farre from the Cuck-stoole as they could, before the Lyons should be vnhampered.

Unha·mper, *v.*2 [Un-2 3.] trans. To disengage; to set free, release.
1648 J. Beaumont Psyche xx. xxxvi, Now all her Passions unhamper'd were, And every Bond to Libertie relented.
1675 Worthington Self-Resignation I. vi. 39 His mind is unhampered, disentangled, and set loose. 1831 Lamb Hercules Pacificatus 111 The varlets, glad to be unhamper'd, Made each a leg,—then fairly scamper'd.

Unha·mpered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) Unclogged, unimpeded. (Common from c 1850.)
a 1699 J. Beaumont Psyche IX. lxxxix, Their free unhamper'd Contemplations towre Up to the crest of their divine desires. 1724 E. Erskine Serm. Wks. (1791) 118 A full, free, and unhampered offer. 1882 Bevce Methodist 2, He would start unhampered by old conditions and preexisting enactments.

† Unha·nced, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) Not raised or lifted up. 1582 Stanyhurst Æneis, etc. (Arb.) 126 Therefor in houre iudicial The vngodlye shal vnhaunst remayne.

Unha·nd, v. [Un-2 4 b.] trans. To take the hand off; to release from one's grasp; to let go. Chiefly arch. in the imperative phrase unhand me!
1602 Shaks. Ham. I. iv. 84 Vnhand me Gentlemen: By Heau'n, I'le make a Ghost of him that lets me. 1655 tr. Sorel's Com. Pist. Francion VII. 29, I desired them to unhand me. 1687 Mrs. Behn Lucky Chance v, Unhand me, false deceiver, let me loose! 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) II. 358 Unhand me this moment, or I will cry out for help. 1801 Mar. Edgeworth Moral T., Angelina iv, Unhand my Angelina, or I shall die! 1860 Sala Baddington Peerage I. vii. 132 The surgeon unhanded his assistant, looking at him with a vexed and puzzled air.
fig. 1880 Lanier Sunrise 77 Tis here thou canst unhand thy heart And breathe it free.

Unha·ndcuffed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1861 Gen. P. Thompson Audi Alt. Part. III. clxii. 178 They might as well say, allow men to go un-handcuffed, and [etc.]. 1894 Daily News 8 Dec. 7/1 The prisoner..was seen sitting..unhandcuffed.

Unha·ndicapped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1879 Meredith Egoist xxxvi, How was he to compete with these unhandicapped men?

Unha·ndily, adv. (Un-1 11.)
1706 Stevens tr. Indulmenate, unaptly, unhandily. 1775 Ash, Unhandily..unskilfully. 1865 Carlyle Frederk. Gr. XII. vi. IV. 163 St. Agnes Day falls but unhandily this year; and I think the Fair will..not be held. 1896 Dr Vinne Moxon's Mech. Exerc., Printing 421 The signature was put unhandily in the centre of the line.

Unha·ndiness. [Un-1 12.]
1. Awkwardness, inexpertness.
1706 Stevens tr. Inhabilidad, Inhability, Unhandiness, Incapacity. 1862 Miss Yonge C'tess Kate iii, Whether it were from the difference of height, or from Kate's innate unhandiness. 1889 The Voice (N. Y.) 19 Sept., From whom communications would be accepted,..if only some one would help their unhandiness with the pen.
2. Unmanageableness.
1883 Harper's Mag. Aug. 449/1 The sloop rig..is so dangerous as to demand large crews to control its unhandiness. 1897 Mary Kingsley W. Africa 609 It was highly dangerous,..because of the violent storms..and the unhandiness of the native craft.

Unha·ndled, ppl. a. [Un-1 8. Cf. MDu. ongehandelt, OHG. ungehandelôt, MDa. uhandlet (not negotiated).]
1. Of horses, etc.: Not broken in; untamed.
1558 N. Co. Wills (Surtees 1912) 12 My young blacke hambling gelding unhandlyd. 1596 Shaks. Merch. V. v. i. 72 A wilde and wanton heard Or race of youthful and vnhandled colts. 1639 T. de Gray Expert Farrier 302 Horses unhandled, to wit, in their youth. 1848 Sporting Mag. XXXIX. 68 Every description of horse, or mule, whether previously broke or unhandled. 1902 Kipling The Islanders 21 Sons of the sheltered city—unmade, unhandled, unmeet—Ye pushed them raw to the battle.
2. Not dealt with or treated of.
1613 Shaks. Hen. VIII, III. ii. 58 Cardinall Campeius.. Ha's left the cause o' th' King vnhandled. 1657 Tomlinson Renon's Disp. 79 The extraction of oyles is yet unhandled.
b. Untried, unemployed.
1826 Galt Last of Lairds xi. 103 There's no a claw..the whilk Caption will leave unhandled.
3. Not touched with the hand. Also fig.
a 1657 R. Loveday Lett. (1663) 218 Those [delights] that ..after an advantagious intermission return fresh and unhandled to the senses. 1748 Eliz. Heywood Female Spect. No. 17 (1748) III. 58 The plumb unhandled lost its bloom. 1794 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 59, I, too, possessed the tender irritableness of unhandled sensibility.

Unha·ndselled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1837 Emerson Addr. Amer. Schol. Wks. (Bohn) II. 182 Out of unhandselled savage nature..come at last Alfred and Shakespeare. a 1862 Thoreau Maine W. i. (1864) 70 Here was no man's garden, but the unhandselled globe.

Unha·ndsome, a. (and adv.) [Un-1 7. Cf. WFris. on-, unhûnsum inexpert, unmanageable, Du. and Flem. onhandsaam (earlier -saem) intractable, unusable, older Da. uhandsøm.] c893 [see below]. c1374 Chaucer Troylus III. 1078 Is his an honour to ji deite That folk vngiltyf [w.r. ongilli] suffren here Iniure? 1388 Wyclif Num. xiv. 18 Doynge awei wickidnesse and trespassis, and leesynge no man vngilti. c1440 Jacob's Well 22 Fleesh hem, jif ye be vngylty, & leyyth hem, jif ye be gilty. 1568 Phaer Æneid IV. 1 Whom by a treason false the Grekes.. Ungiltie did condempne. 1599 Breton Miseries Monillia Wks. (Grosart) II. 46/2 The Lord of lordes dooth knowe this to be untrue, And her unguilte. a 1634 Chapman Alphonsus v. i. 2 I kill'd thy father, therefore let me die, But save the life of this ungulty Empress. 1736 Thomson Liberty IV. 330 Rare to be seen, unguilty cities rise, Cities of brothers form'd. 1826 Monthly Mag. XLII. 430 Thou sea... Receive for ever in thy dark abyss The unguilty Mediterres. 1860 Trench Serm. Westm. Abb. v. 53 The clothing..could only have been obtained at the cost of.. the life of one unguilty.
1. Not handsome, elegant, or graceful; faulty in appearance, form, or structure; plain, uncomely.
1530 Palsgr. 268/1 Unhansome, inmanable. 1559 E. K. Gloss to Spenser's Skeph. Cal. Nov. 51 Not comed, that is rude and vnhansome. 1589 Horsey Trav. (Hakl. Soc.) App. 343, I was placed in an howse verie unhandsoom [and] unholsoom. 1648 J. Beaumont Psyche xvi. clxxxix, Who ever thought the Rose or Lilie stood Gullty of course unhandsom Nakednesse, Because they never put on borrowed Hood? 1695 Phil. Trans. XIX. 152 This was formerly no unhandsom Structure, being built in the form of our Churches. 1781 P. Beckford Hunting (1802) 49, I could tell you that I have seen very good sport with very unhandsome packs. 1789 Gibbon Autobiogr. (1854) 43 A narrow, gloomy street, the most unfrequented of an unhandsome town. 1819 Scott Ivanhoe xiv, Both dressed in the ancient Saxon garb,..not unhandsome in itself. 1866 R. Tate Brit. Mollusks iv. 142 Helix rotundata is provided with not an unhandsome shell. 1895 Sir G. Parker Trail of Sword viii, A large unhandsome house.

absol. c 893 K. Ælfred Oros. IV. vii. 184 Ac hit God wræc on him..þæt he mid biera cucum onguldon þæt hie ungultige cwealdon. 13.. Prose Psalter lx. 30 (Dubl. MS.), Nie sittejh in waytynges wyp ryche men in preuytes hat he slee þe vngylty. 1553 Latimer Serm. Lord's Prayer vii. (1562) 46 And so we acknowledge our selues to be offenders. For the vngilty neideth no pardon. 1612 Woodall Surg. Mate Wks. (1653) 116 The guilty and unguilty are censured both alike by the common sort. 1703 Secr. Policy of Jansenists 24 That I may not asperse the unguilty.

b. Of the hands, mind, blood, etc.

13.. Prose Psalter cv. 35 And hij..shadde blode nouht filed [w.r. vngilty blode]. 1382 Wyclif Gen. xxxvii. 22 Kepe ye youre hondes vngilti. 1595 Daniel Civ. Wars I. xc. Stay here thy foote, thy yet vngiltyfe foote. 1605 — Philotas III. i. With th' assured Chear Of my unguilty Conscience. 1633 Ford Broken H. II. iii, Time can never On the white table of unguilty Beth Write counterfeit dishonour. 1740 Richardson Pamela I. 230 Surrendering up my Life, spotless and unguilty, to that merciful being who gave it.

c. Of an animal. rare[-1].

1600 Maidies Metam. i. in Bullen O. Pl. (1889) I. 109 And, hating shine it, rip up its panting breast, And take the heart of the vnguiltie beast.

2. Guiltless or innocent of something.

c1440 Jacob's Well 89 He of Baldac cryed, 'late be I late be I; he is vngylti of þat mannys deth.' 1535 Coverdale Matt. xxvii. 24 I am vngilti of ye blude of this righteous man. 1577 Grange Golden Aphrod. E iij b, Sith I vnguiltie am thereof, I will not seeke the same T'excuse. 1606 Chapman H. D'Olive Plays 1873 I. 224 Keepe your cullour stiffe, vnguiltie of passion or disaster. 1840 Hood Tales & Sk. (1877) III. 56 He is as unguilty of the whole affair, as the child that is not after being born.

†b. Undeserving of. Obs.[-1]

1596 W. Smith Chloris (1877) 21 With patience bearing loues capitaine, Thousandes vnguiltie of his wrath alleaging.

†3. Not involving guilt. Obs.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia III. x, This outward glosse, intitled Beautie, which it pleaseth you to lay to my (as I thinke) vnguiltie charge. 1662 J. Chandler Pan Pelmont's Oriat. 213 Thus now and then, the digession beares the unguilty fault of the expulsive faculty.

U·nguinal, a. Anat. [Irreg. f. L. unguis-s nail, claw.] = Ungual a.

1860 Mayne Expos. Lex. s.v. 1870 Gillmore tr. Figuier's Reptiles & Birds ii. 59 A spur or nail..in which the anatomist discovered the elements of an unguinal phalanx.

†U·nguinous, a. Obs. [ad. L. unguinōsus, f. unguis-, unguen ointment.] Greasy, oily.

1601 Holland Pliny II. 174 The powder entreth into those unguinous or oleous plasters which the Greeks call Lipaea. 1603 — Plutarch's Mor. 675 The torch staves made of them..are so fattie and unguinous.

‖ Unguis (ʌ·ŋgwis). Pl. ungues (-ʌ·z). [L. unguis nail, claw, etc.]

†1. = Ungula 2. Obs.

1693 [see Ungula 2]. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Pannus, The Pannus is an Excrescence..less hard and membranous than the Unguis.

2. Bot. The narrow part of a petal, by which it is attached to the receptacle.

1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v., In preparing of Medicines, the Ungues..are cut off of the Flowers. 1760 J. Lee Introd. Bot. i. iii. (1765) 7 Each Petal consists of Ungues, a Claw, which is the lower Part fastened to the Base. 1832 Lindley Nat. Syst. Bot. 284 The inner segments of the perianthium being petaloid, with the stamens proceeding from the top of their ungues. 1879 A. Gray Struct. Bot. vi. § 4. 245 The expanded portion of a petal..is the Lamina or Blade; any much contracted base is the Unguis or Claw.

†3. A claw-shaped obstetrical instrument. Obs.[-1]

1752 Smellie Midwif. Introd. p. xii, [Hippocrates] directs us to introduce the hand,..dividing the parts with an unguis fixed on the great finger.

4. Zool., etc. A nail or claw.

c1790 Encycl. Brit. (ed. 3) VI. 680/1 Tarsus, or foot.. Unguis, or claw. 1819 Macleay Horæ Entomol. I. 66 The size of their tarsi and ungues, and their comparatively small pectus. 1840 Cuvier's Anim. Kingd. 326 Dasypus..has the ungues of the two fore-feet..bifid, the others entire. 1884 Coues N. Amer. Birds 120 There it is always terminated by a hard, horny, unguis or 'nail', more or less distinct.

†Ungul, Anglicized f. next (in sense 4).

1670 Phil. Trans. V. 2008 He shews the Center of Gravity of all Arches of Circles, with their Superficial Vngula.

‖ Ungula (ʌ·ŋgiulä). [L. ungula claw, hoof, f. unguis nail, Unguis.]

†1. = Onycha, Onyx 2. Obs.

1382 Wyclif Ecclus. xxiv. 21 [31], Galban, and vngula, and gutta [1388 vngula, and gammi].

†2. A morbid growth in the eye; = Onyx 3, Pterygium 2 a. Obs.

c1400 Lanfranc's Cirurg. 29 Vogula is a þing, bat bigynneb bi þe nose & goib over þe ei til be kenere al be ize. 1597 A. M. tr. Guillemeau's Fr. Chirurg. C ij b/2 When we desire to cut off] an Vngula. Ibid. C ij b/2 An Eye, in the which is an Vngula. 1693 tr. Blancard's Phys. Dict. (ed. 2), Pterygium,..a membranous Excrescence above the horny Tunic of the Eye, called Unguis and Ungula.

†3. = Unguis 3. Obs.[-0]

1693 tr. Blancard's Phys. Dict. (ed. 2), Ungula, a sort of hooked Instrument to draw a dead Fœtus out of the Womb.

4. Geom. (See quots.)

1710 J. Harris Lex. Techn. II, Ungula, in Geometry, is the Section of a Cylinder cut off by a Plane, which passes obliquely thro' the Plane of the Base, and part of the Cylindric Surface. 1824-5 Encycl. Metrop. (1845) I. 564/1 A spherical wedge or ungula is that portion of the solid sphere, which is included between the same great semicircles, and has the lune for its base. 1843 Penny Cycl. XXV. 514/2 The hoof of a horse looks like the part of a cone which is separated from the part containing the vertex by an oblique plane. Hence such a solid is called an ungula.

‖ Ungulata (ʌŋgiŭlē·tä), sb. pl. [L. ungulāta, neut. pl. of ungulātus: see next.] The order or division of ungulate or hoofed animals.

1839 Penny Cycl. XIV. 352/2 The Ungulata, comprising the Bellua and Pecora. 1872 Mivart Elem. Anat. 43 The spinous processes may be very much more prolonged, as in the Ungulata. 1891 W. H. Flower Horse i. 11 The group Ungulata, discarded by Linnæus, Cuvier, and others,..has been resuscitated of late years.

Ungulate (ʌ·ŋgiŭlēt), a. and sb. [ad. L. ungulāt-us, f. ungula hoof.]

1. Having the form of a hoof; hoof-shaped.

1802 R. Hall Elem. Bot. 193 Ungulate, or Hoof-shaped, ungulatus. 1858 W. Clark Van der Hoeven's Zool. II. 634 Feet tridactylous, with all the toes insistent, ungulate. 1888 G. Allen in Longm. Mag. July 302 The slender and delicate ungulate feet of the gazelles and the chamois.

2. Of quadrupeds: Having hoofs.

The classification was introduced by Ray (1693).

1839 G. Roberts Dict. Geol. s.v., An ungulate quadruped. 1872 Darwin Orig. Spec. (ed. 6) vii. 179 The conclusion..must be between giraffe and giraffe, and not with the other ungulate animals. Ibid. xi. 302 The existing horse and certain older ungulate forms. 1875 C. C. Blake Zool. 32 The odd-toed division of ungulate Mammalia.

b. sb. An ungulate mammal.

1842 Brande Dict. Sci., etc. 1274/2. 1854 Owen in Orr's Circ. Sci., Org. Nat. I. 236 In the odd-toed or 'perissodactyle' ungulates. 1894 Lydekker Roy. Nat. Hist. II. 159 In all the Ungulates the limbs have entirely ceased to be used as organs of prehension.

So U·ngulated a. rare.

1822 Good Study Med. I. 174 Generally speaking, the tenderest food is that of the gallinaceous birds: then that of the ungulated quadrupeds. 1891 W. H. Flower Horse I. 11 The ungulated or hoofed animals, and the unguiculated.

Unguled (ʌ·ŋgiŭld), a. Her. [f. L. ungul-a claw, hoof. Cf. Ungled.] Of animals: Having the hoofs or claws of a different tincture from the body.

1572 Bosswell Armorie II. 100 Two demye hyppotames, sable, armed and vngled. 1610 Guillim Heraldry III. xiv. 130 He beareth Argent, a Stagge Tripping Proper, Armed and Vngled. a 1695 Wood Surv. Oxford (O.H.S.) III. 143 A lyon rampant sable, collered or, ungled and langed gules. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Unicorn, An Unicorn sejant sable, armed and unguled, Or. 1763 Brit. Mag. IV. 238 Two bucks, proper, attired, and ungled, or. 1864 Boutell Her. Hist. & Pop. xvii. (ed. 2) 280 Two bulls arg., ..armed ungled, collared and chained. Ibid. xxi. 366 An ox gu., armed and ungled or.

U·ngligrade, a. [ad. mod.L. unguligradus, f. L. ungula claw + -gradus walking. Cf. F. ongulograde.] Walking on the tips of the digits.

1869 Huxley Introd. Classif. 146 Unguligrade, those animals which walk on the tips of the digits only, which are always hoofed. 1881 Mivart Cat 472 The Carnivora also are always digitigrade or plantigrade, never unguligrade.

Ungulite (ʌ·ŋgiŭlēit). Palæont. [f. L. ungul-a, Ungula + -ite 1.] A Palæozoic brachiopod, the obolus. Ungulite grit: see Obolite.

1850 Ansted Elem. Geol., Min., etc. § 980 A sandstone, or grit, distinguished by a remarkable fossil (the Ungulite) unknown in Western Europe. Ibid. Index, Ungulite grit. 1889 Murchison Siluria (ed. 5) xiv. 374 The little horny brachiopod, the Obolus or Ungulite, is so much more abundant than any other fossil, as to have induced Pander to give to the rock the name of Ungulite grit.

Ungu·ll, v. [Un-[2] 6 b.]

1562 Bienewyne Theaph. x. xxvi, Fawn, and betray, and Treasons self outdare,..But I'l ungull thy Minions.

U·ngulous, a. [f. Ungula.] Pertaining to or resembling a hoof; ungulate. (Webster, 1879.)

Ungu·m, v. [Un-[2] 4 b. Cf. Du. ontgommen] trans. To free from gum or from being gummed; spec. in the preparation of silk.

1598 Florio, Sgommare, to vngum, to vnplaister, to vnglue. 1839 Ure Dict. Arts 142 As soon as the whole [of the silk] is completely ungummed, they [sc. the hanks] are taken out. 1901 B. Pain Another Englishwoman's Love-Lett. xxv. 111, I skin the label..until it comes ungummed.

Hence Ungu·mming vbl. sb.

1839 Ure Dict. Arts 142 For the first[method of scouring silk], or the ungumming. 1883 R. Haldane Workshop Receipts Ser. ii. 39/1 Two operations are necessary [in silk-bleaching], 'ungumming' (dégommage) and 'boiling'.

Ungu·mmed, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8. Cf. Du. ongegomd.] Not smeared or treated with gum; free from gumming.

[1775 Ash.] 1799 G. Smith Laboratory II. 80 An ungummed paper will stick very close to the top of your tongue. 1891 Kipling City Dreadf. Nt. 95 He now takes up an ungummed chupatti and fits it carefully all round.

Ungu·mmed, ppl. a.[2] [f. Unguum v.] Freed from gum; detached from being gummed.

1839 Ure Dict. Arts 142 Into bags of coarse canvass.. about 25 lbs. or 35 lbs. of ungummed silk are enclosed.

Ungu·tted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1712 in J. J. Vernon Par. & Kirk Hawick (1900) 99 Thinking they [sc. herring] would spile if lying ungutted until ye Monday.

Ungy·ve, v. [Un-[2] 4 b.] trans. To free from gyves or fetters. Also fig.

1531 Elyot Gov. II. vi, He..commanded hym to be ungyued and sette at libertie. 1569 Newton Cicero's Olde Age 4, I haue known a great maignie..who were well pleased to be ungiued, loosed, and deliuered out of the yoke of their sensuall lustes. 1610 Healey St. Aug. Citie of God 320 Our intellect being ungived from the body, if it want the light of God's truth, it must needes lament and languish. 1831 Carlyle Sart. Res. II. ix, My mind's eyes were now un sealed, and its hands ungyved.

Ungyved, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Not gyved or fettered; free.

1607 Marston What You Will II. i, Think'st thou a libertine, an vngiu'd breast Skornes not the shacklesse of they clocks clogges? c 1850 Lowell Without & Within vii, I envy him the ungyved prance By which his freezing feet he warms. 1892 'M. Field' Night & Song 40 Intent upon her work, as though It were full liberty ungyved to go.

Unhabil, obs. Sc. var. Unable a.

†Unha·bile, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.] = Inhabile a., Unable a.

1539 Elyot in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. I. II. 117 Nowe although very unmeete and unhabile, I have servyd the King.. truely and faithfully. 1567 Sc. Acts, Mary (1814) II. 573/2 Decerning thairfore..his posteritie to be fra thine furth unhabile to bruik offices..within this Realme. 1660 Jer. Taylor Doctor III. iii. rule 2 § 14 The offending person is bound in Conscience not to accept a benefice..to which by that censure he is made unhabile and unapt.

Unha·bit, v. [Un-[2] 4 b.] trans. To free from a habit; to disaccustom.

1650 Fuller Pisgah II. i. 64 So hard it is to unhabit mens mouths from old ill customs.

†Unha·bit, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [Un-[1] 8 b.] Uninhabited. 1580 Reg. Privy Council Scot. III. 304 The said hous..remaris unhabite be him.

Unha·bitable, a. Now rare. [Un-[1] 7 b and 5 b.] Uninhabitable. (Common c 1550–1690.)

1382 Wyclif Jer. ii. 6 Wher is the Lord, that..ladde vs ouer by desert, by the lond vnhabitable? 1388 — Jer. vi. 8 Lest .. Y sette thee forsakun, a loond vnhabitable [1382 vndwellable]. a 1485 Fortescue Abs. (1869) 86 He..made Babyloyne vnhabitable. 1527 in Halliwell Pop. (1849) I. 219 The..opinion, that vnder the line Equinoctiall for much heate the land was vnhabitable. 1555 Eden Decades (Arb.) 207 That opinion..touching the vnhabitable clime vnder the poles. 1615 G. Sandys Trav. 50 Next vnto this stands Rhodes,..once couered with the sea, or at least an vnhabitable marish. a 1652 J. Smith Sel. Disc. ix. 452 The soul of a wicked man becomes a very unhabitable and incommodious place to itself. 1702 C. Mather Magn. Chri. I. v. (1852) 76 They that have made Britain more unhabitable than the Torrid Zone. 1733 Swift On Poetry 182 So Geographers in Afric-Maps..o'er unhabitable Downs Place Elephants for want of Towns. 1887 Spectator 15 Oct. 1381 The whole deep Northern fringe..is unhabitable and uninhabited except by a few savages.

Hence Unha·bitableness.

1661 Boyle Physiol. Ess. (1669) 97 The Unhabitableness of the Torrid Zone. 1668 H. More Div. Dial. III. xxxiv. 1. 323 marg., Difficulties touching the Habitableness or Unhabitableness of the Planets.

†Unha·bitated, ppl. a. Obs.[-0] (Un-[1] 8.) = next. 1648 Hexham II, Een Onbewoont landt, a land or country Vnhabitated.

†Unha·bited, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 8 and 5 b.] Uninhabited. (Freq. c 1500–1625.)

1490 Caxton Eneydos xxii. 51 Goyng by longe wayes, dystroied, deserte & vnhabyted. 1491 — Vitas Patr. (W. de W. 1495) III. i. 317 b/2 We arryued a londe in a contree vnhabyted. 1553 Eden Treat. New Ind. (Arb.) 39 When Vespatius had entered into the Iland, he found it rude and vnhabited. 1585 T. Washington tr. Nicholay's Voy. II. xi. 45 b, The promontory is ful of mines vnhabited. 1640 J. Rutter 2nd Pt. Cid III. i. 19 Ile seek some place unhabited by women. 1656 Heylin Surv. France 75 She will rather choose to leave her fine house unhabited.

Unhabitual, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1864 Lowell Fireside Trav. 60 A deacon..drinking in, with unhabitual ears, a song.. with a dash of libertinism. 1895 J. Rae Life A. Smith xx. 324 Smith's outbreak of very unhabitual irritation with Strah.n.

Unhabituate, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) = next. 1818 Mitman Fazio (1821) 28 This cataract of courtesy O'erwhelms my weak and unhabituate ears.

Unhabituated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla I. 227 Delighted to give, but unhabituated to any other exertion. 1834 Cooper Good's Study Med. (ed. 4) I. 632 Strangers, unhabituated to the climate and its diseases, suffer from remittents. 1898 P. Manson Trop. Diseases iv. 89 A full close of the drug which in the unhabituated would produce profound..narcosis.

Unhable, obs. var. Unable a. and v.

Unha·cked, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8 + Hack v.[1] Cf. MDu. ongehact, Sw. ohackad.] Not hacked or cut.

1595 Shaks. John II. i. 254 With unhack'd swords, and Helmets all unbruis'd. 1606 — Ant. & Cl. IV. xi. 38 To part with unhack'd edges, and bear backe Our Targes vndint.d.

Unha·cked, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[1] 8, 9 + Hack sb.[3] or v.[3]]

1. Not employed as a literary hack.

1778 Heroic Ep. Unfort. Monarch 2 A plain bard,..Unhack'd, unplac'd, amongst the venal quire.

2. Not made common or hackneyed.

1894 Baring-Gould Deserts S. France I. Pref. p. vii, It is a country unhacked by ordinary tourists.

Unha·ckled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1853 Hickie Aristoph. (1872) III. 424 My flax which I have left at home unhackled.

Unha'ckneyed, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.]

1. Not habituated by long practice; inexperienced. Const. in.

1759 STERNE Tr. Shandy I. xi, In plain truth, he was a man unhackneyed and unpractised in the world. 1785 G. A. BELLAMY Apology III. 94, I was then unhackneyed in the villainies of mankind. 1814 SCOTT Waav. xxxii, He had a sort of naïveté and openness of demeanour, that seemed to belong to one unhackneyed in the ways of intrigue.

absol. 1796 MME. D'ARBLAY Camilla III. 112 Public amusements, to the young and unhackneyed, give entertainment without requiring exertion.

2. Not rendered commonplace or stale by frequent use or contact.

1824 MISS MITFORD Village Ser. I. 93 Her English was racy, unhackneyed, proper to the thought to a degree that only original thinking could give. 1856 G. BRIMLEY Ess. (1858) 236 To open to her almost untried and certainly unhackneed regions of beauty. 1880 Academy 27 Nov. 390/1 His [picture]..shows a research after unhackneyed effects.

Hence Unha'ckneyedness.

1884 SAINTSBURY in Ward Eng. Poets III. 218 There is almost always something novel in his dressing up of his images and a suggestive unhackneyedness in their expression.

Unha'd, ppl. a. rare. [UN-[1] 8 b.] Unobtained.

1421 HOCCLEVE Jereslaus' Wife 111 With this addicion, þat he nat shal Wirke, my Conseil and assent vnhad. c 1449 PECOCK Repr. II. xi. 212 That the hool profite of remembring..be not lost and vnhad. 1876 Whitby Gloss. 206 Unhad, not yet obtained.

†Unhadien, v.: see UN-[2] 2.

Unha'ft, v. (UN-[2] 4.)

1582 STANYHURST Æneis I. (Arb.) 21 The oars are cleene splintred, the helme is from rudher vnhafted. 1598 FLORIO, Smontcare, ..to vnhafte, to vnhilte, to vnhandle. 1621 COTGR., Desmanchement, an vnhafting.

Unha'fted, (ppl.) a. (UN-[1] 8, 9.) 1894 BARING-GOULD Deserts S. France I. 145 Their rude stone axes, ..unhafted.

Unhail, a.: see UNHALE a.

Unhai'led, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

1715 ROWE Lady Jane Grey iv. 1, Thro' a staring ghastly looking crowd, Unhail'd, unbless'd, with heavy heart he went. 1828 ALFORD in Life (1873) 31 Disappointment, and unhail'd success. 1832 TENNYSON Lady of Shalott 21 Unhail'd The shallop flitteth silken-sail'd. 1896 KIPLING Seven Seas 7 Twixt seas unsailed and shores unhailed.

Unhailsum, obs. Sc. var. UNWHOLESOME.

Unhair, v. [UN-[2] 4 and 7. Cf. MDu. and Du. ontharen, MHG. entharen.]

1. trans. To deprive (the head, etc.) of hair.

1382 WYCLIF Ezek. xxix. 18 Eche heed maad ballid, and eche shulder is vnheerid. 1598 FLORIO, Disparuccare, to pull off ones haire or perawig, to vnhaire. 1606 SHAKS. Ant. & Cl. II. v. 64 He vnhaires thy head, Thou shalt be whipt with Wyer. 1849 J. A. CARLYLE tr. Dante's Inf. 393 Even if thou unhair me, I will not tell thee who I am.

b. Tanning. To remove the hair from (a skin) by special processes.

1845 G. DODD Brit. Manuf. Ser. v. 182 The hide is then spread out on the beam, and 'unhaired', that is, scraped with a knife till the hair is removed. 1880 Times 27 Sept. 12/6 The cost of unhairing, fleshing, and scudding all kinds of skins.

2. Intr. To lose the hair; to become free of hair.

1843 in Morfit Tanning & Currying (1853) 177 So that they [sc. the hides] may unhair without tainting. 1883 R. HALDANE Workshop Rec. Ser. II. 370/1 The hide is said to unhair in 24 hours.

Hence Unhair'ed ppl. a.

1852 MORFIT Tanning & Currying (1853) 20 The softened and unhaired skins. 1881 MORGAN Contrib. N. Amer. Ethnol. 127 Screens of willow matting or unhaired skins.

Unhai'red, a. [UN-[1] 9.] Hairless, beardless.

Suggested by Theobald (1733), and formally possible, but cf. UNHEARD ppl. a. 2.

1595 SHAKS. John v. ii. 133 This vn-heard [Th. unhair'd] sawcinesse and boyish Troopes, The King doth smile at.

Unhai'ring, vbl. sb. Tanning. [f. UNHAIR v. 1 b.] The process of removing the hair from skins. Also attrib.

1842 Penny Mag. 28 May 229/2 The operations of 'fleshing', of 'unhairing' and of 'graining' are, nearly alike in their general appearance. 1851-4 TOMLINSON Arts & Manuf. II. 30/2 A curved two-handled iron scraper, called the unhairing knife. 1897 C. T. DAVIS Manuf. Leather (ed. 2) 331 The goat-skins..then go on to the unhairing machine.. or to the unhairing beams.

Unhairy, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1576 NEWTON Lemnie's Complex. 42 b, In their other parties their skinne is smothe and vnhayrye, because moysture is aboue heate.

Unha'lo, a. rare. [UN-[1] 7. See HAIL a., HALE a. 3.] †a. Unsalutary. Obs. b. Not hale or healthy.

a. 1483 Gower's Conf. (CAXTON) I. 2122 [He] yaf suche counseyle Towarde his kyng, which was vnheyle. b. 1663 E. WATERHOUSE Apol. Learn. 74 No more then it follows that a wasted man must get a child unhail, because he himself is consumptive. 1828-32 WEBSTER, Unhale, a., unsound;..not healthy.

Unhale, obs. variant of UNWHOLE a.; dial. var. UNHELE v. Unhalesom, Sc. var. UNWHOLESOME.

Unha'llow, v. [UN-[2] 3. Cf. G. ent-, Du. ontheiligen, ON. óhelga (Sw. ohelga, older Da. uhelge).] trans. To deprive of a holy or sacred character; to profane. (Common c 1575–1660.)

1535 COVERDALE Isaiah lvi. 2 He that taketh hede, yt he vnhalowe not the Sabbath. — Zeph. iii. 4 Hir prestes vnhalowe the Sanctuary. 1571 GOLDING Calvin on Ps. I. 8 Defylements that vnhalowe the servis of God. 1628 WITHER Brit. Rememl. III. 2898 That I, for ever, may those paths refuse Which may unhallow, or pervert my Muse. 1645 MILTON Tetrach. Wks. 1851 IV. 192 Nothing more unhallows a man, then a habit of wrath and perturbation. 1694 F. BRAGGE Disc. Parables xiv. 462 Pride, and vainglory, and self-esteem, ..unhallow'd everything else that was good in him. 1841 LAMB Elia I. Grace before Meat, A sense of the co-presence of circumstances which unhallow the blessing. 1860 TRENCH Serm. Westm. Abb. xxix. 331 In a world where so much is ever seeking to unhallow our spirits, to render them common and profane.

Unha'llowed, ppl. a. [OE. unhâlgod (and ungehâlgod), f. UN-[1] 8 + HALLOWED ppl. a.]

1. Not formally hallowed or consecrated; left secular or profane.

c 1000 Sax. Leechd. I. 380 Nim eall swa fela dropena.. unhalzodes eles. 1297 R. GLOUC. (Rolls) 7136 Ac vor þe chirche vn-halewed was, þeruore him was wo; He bogt lete it halwy. 1303 R. BRUNNE Handl. Synne 8609 Syf þyng vnhalewed were forgeuyn to holy cherche were lete, Or halewed þyng yn ouþer stede lay. c 1380 WYCLIF Wks. (1880) 69 þei wolen suffre an auter vnhalwedit [sic], or a chirche or a chirche yerde suspendid. c 1440 Jacob's Well 76 Pey þat..beryn awey, or steiyn holy cherche good out of ony oþer place vnhalwyd. 1532 MORE Confut. Tindale Wks. 375/1 Nowe wyll not Tyndal sette a strawe the more by the annoyntyng with holye oyle, then by smeryng with vnhalowed butter. 1587 in T. Norton Calvin's Inst. IV. xix. 492 margin, Men vnhallowed and vnconsecrated. 1797 S. & HT. LEE Canterb. T. (1799) I. 311 Let us beware how we deem that spot unhallowed which receives the ashes of the good! 1825 SOUTHEY Madoc I. xv, This night, Thy father's body..shall be..cast aside In some unhallowed pit, with foul disgrace.

2. Not having a hallowed or sacred character; unholy, impious, wicked: a. Of actions.

1591 Troub. Raigne K. John xii. 88 His quarrell is vnhallowed, false, and wrong. 1596 JACKSON Creed VIII. xi. § 2 To adventure upon the pretended mysteries of some unhallowed art. 1656 MILTON Lett. State Wks. 1851 VIII. 361 That unhallow'd villany nefariously attempted upon the Person of our Agent. 1725 POPE Odyss. XII. 468 Six gaithly days my wretched mate employ'd In impious feasting, and unhallow'd joy. 1823 SCOTT Rokeby VI. xviii, What ruth can Denzil claim from him, Whose thoughtless youth he led astray, And damn'd to this unhallow'd way? 1846 MRS. A. MARSH Father Darcy II. xvi. 271 She..felt her heart shudder with unhallowed pleasure, as she thought of the dreadful day of reckoning.

b. Of persons, the hands, tongue, etc.

1588 SHAKS. Tit. A. v. iii. 14 Away Inhumaine Dogge, Vnhallowed Slaue. 1603 DRAYTON Barons Wars v. xxxv, Vile traytors, hold of your vnhallowed hands. 1663 BP. PATRICK Parab. Pilgr. xvii, He cares not for being extolled by such unhallowed mouths. 1703 ROWE Ulysses I. i, The rude unhallow'd Railer's Tongue. 1765 GOLDSM. Hermit xxiv, Forgive a stranger rude, ..Whose feet unhallow'd thus intrude where Heaven and you reside. 1827 DISRAELI V. Grey VI. i. 272 Ye most unhallowed rogues.

c. Of places or things.

1588 SHAKS. Tit. A. II. iii. 210 Why dost not..helpe me out, From this vnhallow'd and blood-stained Hole? 1634 MILTON Comus 757, I had not thought to have unlockt my lips In this unhallow'd air. 1651 HOBBES Leviath. IV. xliv. 330 What can deceiue more, ..(except the vnhallowed Spiritle of the Priest) hath some set form of Exorcisme. 1853 KINGSLEY Hypatia I. He had entered the unhallowed precincts, where devils still lingered about their ancient shrines.

Hence Unha'llowedness.

1899 MRS. E. KENNARD Morals Midlands 309 It has shown me the unhallowedness of love that is not lawful.

Unha'llowing, vbl. sb. [f. UNHALLOW v.] The action of making unhallowed.

c 1554 BRADFORD Hurt of Hearing Mass (1580) C v, The prophanation and vnhallowyng, bothe of the place and soulde. 1571 GOLDING Calvin on Ps. I. 8 Beholding the horrible vnhalowing of the Temple. 1645 USSHER Holy Div. (1647) 242 The unhallowing or prophaneing of the Sabbath. a 1854 DE QUINCEY in Hogg De Q. & Friends (1893) 89 A sort of desecration and unhallowing analogous to the profanation of a temple.

Unhallow-washed, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) Not sprinkled with holy water. 1614 SYLVESTER Parl. Vertues Royall 196 When, by mis-hued or by mis-hap, hees coms Un-hallow-washt into the Sacred Rooms. Unha'loed, a. (UN-[1] 9.) 1823 J. WILSON Trinis Marg. Lyndsay xxxix, The evening sun sank..and left the sky open..to an unhaloed moon.

Unha'lsed, ppl. a. Sc. [UN-[1] 8 + HALSE v.[1] 3. Cf. ON. úhelsaðr (MSw. ohelsadh, MDa. uhelset).] Not greeted or saluted.

1512 DOUGLAS Æneid IV. v. 141 Now hir I leif onhalsyt as I ryde. 1821 SCOTT Pirate xxi, It shall never be said that my kinswoman sat in her bower unhalsed.

Unha'lter, v. (UN-[2] 4 b. Cf. MDu. ontholteren.)

1584 PEELE Arraignm. Paris IV. ii, I do know a cast.. that we would help t'unhalter them as fast. 1598 FLORIO, Scapestrato, vnbridled, vnhalted, disintangled. 1621 COTGR., Deschevestrer, to vnhalter, or take off the halter from. 1816 J. WILSON City of Plague 287 Unhalter yon poor wretches—he must be carried Back to his prison.

Unha'lting, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.) 1832 L. HUNT Poems Pref. p. xlv, An unhalting and consistent narrative. 1852 ROCK Ch. of Fathers I. viii. 11. 54 Holding..the true Catholic belief in the Eucharist, with a faith that was unhalting.

Unha'mmered, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1861 SIR W. FAIRBAIRN Iron 214 These results give a mean of 27·246 tons for the unhammered..steel.

Unha'mper, v.[1] (UN-[2] 5.] trans. To let out of a cage or hamper.

1620 SHELTON Quix. II. xviii. 105 Ech of them striuing to get as fare from the Cart as they could, before the Lyons should be vnhampered.

Unha'mper, v.[2] (UN-[2] 3.] trans. To disengage; to set free, release.

1648 J. BEAUMONT Psyche XX. XXXVI, Now all her Passions unhamper'd were, And every Bond to Libertie relented.

1675 WORTHINGTON Self-Resignation I. vi. 39 His mind is unhampered, disentangled, and set loose. 1821 LAMB Hercules Pacificatus 111 The varlets, glad to be unhamper'd, Made each a leg,—then fairly scamper'd.

Unha'mpered, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) Unclogged, unimpeded. (Common from c 1850.)

a 1699 J. BEAUMONT Psyche IX. lxxxix, Their free unhamper'd Contemplations towre Up to the crest of their divine desires. 1724 E. ERSKINE Serm. Wks. (1791) 118 A full, free, and unhampered offer. 1882 BRYCE Manitoba 2 He would start unhampered by old conditions and pre-existing enactments.

†Unha'nced, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.] Not raised or lifted up. 1582 STANYHURST Æneis, etc. (Arb.) 126 Therefor in houre iudicial The vngodlye shal vnhaunst remayne.

Unha'nd, v. [UN-[2] 4 b.] trans. To take the hand off; to release from one's grasp; to let go. Chiefly arch. in the imperative phrase unhand me!

1602 SHAKS. Ham. I. iv. 84 Vnhand me Gentlemen: By Heau'n, Ile make a Ghost of him that lets me. 1655 tr. Sorel's Cont. Hist. Francion VII. 22, I desired them to unhand me. 1687 MRS. HERN Lucky Chance v, Unhand me, false deceiver, let me loose! 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa (1811) II. 358 Unhand me this moment, or I will cry out for help. 1801 MAR. EDGEWORTH Moral T., Angelina iv, Unhand my Angelina, or I shall die! 1860 SALA Baddington Peerage I. viii. 132 The surgeon unhanded his assistant, looking at him with a vexed and puzzled air.

fig. 1880 LANIER Science 77 'Tis here thou canst unhand thy heart And breathe it free.

Unha'ndcuffed, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1862 GEN. P. THOMPSON Audi Alt. Part. III. clxii. 178 They might as well say, allow men to go un-handcuffed, and [etc.]. 1894 Daily News 8 Dec. 7/2 The prisoner..was seen sitting..unhandcuffed.

Unha'ndicapped, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1879 MEREDITH Egoist XXXVI, How was he to compete with these unhandicapped men?

Unha'ndily, adv. (UN-[1] 11.)

1706 STEVENS I, Inhabilmente, unaptly, unhandily. 1775 ASH, Unhandily..; awkwardly. 1869 CARLYLE Fryth. Gr. XII. vi. 11. 165 St. Agnes Day falls last unhandily this year; and I think the Fair will..not be held. 1896 DE VINNE Moxon's Mech. Exerc., Printing 421 The signature was pat unhandily in the center of the line.

Unha'ndiness. [UN-[1] 12.]

1. Awkwardness, inexpertness.

1706 STEVENS I, Inhabilidad, Inhability, Unhandiness, Incapacity. 1862 MISS YONGE C'tess Kate iii, Whether it were from the difference of height, or from Kate's innate unhandiness. 1889 The Voice (N. Y.) 19 Sept., From whom communications would be accepted..if only some one would help their unhandiness with the pen.

2. Unmanageableness.

1883 Harper's Mag. Aug. 449/1 The sloop rig..is so dangerous as to demand large crews to control its unhandiness. 1897 MARY KINGSLEY W. Africa 609 It was highly dangerous,..because of the violent storms..and the unhandiness of the native craft.

Unha'ndled, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8. Cf. MDu. ongehandelt, OHG. ungehandelôt, MDa. uhandlet (not negotiated).]

1. Of horses, etc.: Not broken in; untamed.

1558 N. Co. Wills (Surtees 1912) 12 My yong blacke hambling gelding unhandlyd. 1596 SHAKS. Merch. V. I. i. 172 A wilde and wanton heard Or race of youthful and vnhandled colts. 1639 T. DE GRAY Expert Farrier 302 Horses vnhandled, to wit, in their youth. 1812 Sporting Mag. XXXIX. 68 Every description of horse, or mule, whether previously broke or unhandled. 1902 KIPLING The Islanders 21 Sons of the sheltered city—unmade, unhandled, unmeet—Ye pushed them raw to the battle.

2. Not dealt with or treated of.

1613 SHAKS. Hen. VIII, III. ii. 58 Cardinall Campeius.. Ha's left the cause o' th' King vnhandled. 1657 TOMLINSON Renou's Disp. 79 The extraction of oyles is yet unhandled.

b. Untried, unemployed.

1826 GALT Last of Lairds xi. 103 There's no a claw..the whilk Caption will leave unhandled.

3. Not touched with the hand. Also fig.

a 1657 R. LOVEDAY Lett. (1663) 218 Those [delights] that ..after an advantagious intermission return fresh and unhandled to the senses. 1745 ELIZA HEYWOOD Female Spect. No. 17 (1748) III. 238 The plumb unhandled zest its bloom. 1794 COLERIDGE Lett. (1895) 59, I, too, possessed the tender irritableness of unhandled sensibility.

Unha'ndselled, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1837 EMERSON Addr. Amer. Schol. Wks. (Bohn) II. 182 Out of unhandselled savage nature..come at last Alfred and Shakespeare. a 1862 THOREAU Maine W. I. (1864) 70 Here was no man's garden, but the unhandselled globe.

Unha'ndsome, a. (and adv.) [UN-[1] 7. Cf. WFris. on-, ûnhânsum inexpert, unmanageable, Du. and Flem. onhandsaam (earlier -saem) intractable, unusable, older Da. uhandsøm.]

1. Not handsome, elegant, or graceful; faulty in appearance, form, or structure; plain, uncomely.

1530 PALSGR. 328/1 Unhansome,..mausade. 1579 E. K. Gloss to Spenser's Sheph. Cal. Nov. 51 Not comed, that is rude and vnhansome. 1589 HOBBEY Trav. (Hakl. Soc.) App. 343, I was placed in an howse verie unhandsom [and] unholsom. 1648 J. BEAUMONT Psyche XVI. clxxxix, Who ever thought the Rose or Lilie stood Guilty of course unhandsom Nakednesse, Because they never put on borrowed Hood? 1695 Phil. Trans. XIX. 152 This was formerly no unhandsom Structure, being built in the form of our Churches. 1761 P. BECKFORD Hunting (1802) 49, I could tell you that I have seen very good sport with very unhandsome packs. 1789 GIBBON Autobiogr. (1854) 43 A narrow, gloomy street, the most unfrequented of an unhandsome town. 1819 SCOTT Ivanhoe xiv, Both dressed in the ancient Saxon garb, ..not unhandsome in itself. 1866 R. TATE Brit. Mollusks iv. 142 Helix rotundata is provided with not an unhandsome shell. 1895 SIR G. PARKER Trail of Sword viii, A large unhandsome house.

b. Of persons, their features, etc.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia II. xix, I was glad I had done so good a deede for a Gentlewoman not unhandsome. 1632 A. TOWNSHEND Albion's Tri. 22, I was as loath to be brought vpon the Stage as an vnhansom Man is to see himselfe in a great Glasse. 1653 R. SANDERS Physiogn. 144 Socrates was the most nasty and unhandsom of all men living. 1709 MRS. MANLEY Secret Mem. (1720) II. 215 This spruce, affected, not unhandsome Lawyer had made the Overture of his fair Person to Corinna. 1787 THOMSON tr. Hist. Gr. Brit. III. I. 121 generally well-shaped and unhandsome. 1826 Q. Rev. XXXIV. 331 It was hard to say whether he was more dunce or dwarf, more unlearned or unhandsome. 1887 ANNE ELLIOT Old Man's Favour II. i, A dark, unhandsome face.

c. As adv. Unhandsomely.

1596 SPENSER F. Q. v. xii. 38 Such were these Hags, and so vnhandsome drest.

†2. Unhandy, inconvenient, ill-adapted. Obs.

1548 UDALL, etc. Erasm. Par. John ix. 6*v* The night (percy) is unhansome to woorke in. 1567 PALFREYMAN Baldwin's Mor. Philos. To Rdr., If I should haue joyned the said number of sentences to the whole sum of this treatise, it should..haue seemed..the more vnhandsome for the reader to be carried. 1608 TOURNEUR Serpents 270 These kindes of Spyders haue..shorter feete, and more vnhandsome to worke or finish any Webbes in their Loomes. 1690 NERSE G. & N. Test. I. 431 A loose, distinct, and diffusive mind is unready, unnimble, unhandy, and unhandsome for Gods service.

†3. Inexpert, unskilful. Obs.[-1]

1604 SHAKS. Oth. III. iv. 151, I was (vnhandsome Warrior, as I am) Arraigning his vnkindnesse with my soule.

4. Unfitting, unbecoming, unseemly; discourteous, mean.

1645 CHAS. I in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. I. III. 317 The treuth is, that his unhansom quitting the Castell and Forte of Bristol, hath inforced me to put him off those Commands. 1658 in Verney Mem. (1907) II. 83 Let mee conjure you not to doe a thing soe unhandsome, soe unmanly. 1729 FRANKLIN Ess. Wks. 1840 II. 18 It is barbarously unhandsome that one should be the but of the company. 1799 DUNDAS in Owen Wellesley's Desp. (1877) 700 It was an unhandsome proceeding upon their part. 1802 Sporting Mag. XXXVI. 234 What he thought unhandsome conduct on the part of the plaintiff. 1856 G. WILSON Gateways Knowl. (1859) 96 To employ one's tongue..to speak against itself is but unhandsome treatment of it.

b. Of expressions, language, etc.

1647 CLARENDON Hist. Reb. v. § 263 To countenance those unhandsome expressions..they had found a new way of exprobration. 1696 HOBBES Six Lessons Wks. 1845 VII. 331, I leave it to your consideration to whom belong..the unhandsome attributes you so often giveme. 1704 Lond. Gaz. No. 3987/2 Their Commander, having used some unhandsome Expressions, was detained. 1732 NEAL Hist. Purit. I. 137 It was reported that some of the warmer Puritans had turned the Habits into ridicule, and given unhandsome language to them that wore them. 1814 JANE AUSTEN Mansfield Park xxi, Lest it should betray her into any observations seemingly unhandsome.

c. Not generous or liberal.

1800 MRS. HERVEY Mourtray Fam. III. 109 I'll take her without a sixpence; which, let me tell you, I think no unhandsome offer.

†5. Unfortunate; unhappy. Obs.

1633 FLETCHER & SHIRLEY Night-Walker i. 1, I know she loves him..Beyond the Indies in his mouldy Cabinets, But 'tis her unhandsome fate. 1657 W. COLES Adam in Eden To Rdr., Sundry unhandsome dysasters have happened to the ruine of many.

†6. Unpleasant, nasty. Obs.

1660 JER. TAYLOR Doctor I. v. rule 8 § 28 Like unhandsome and ill-tasted physick, it is against nature in the taking and in its operating.

Unha·ndsomely, adv. [UN-[1] 11; cf. prec.]

†1. Not dexterously or cleverly; unskilfully. Obs.

1545 ASCHAM Toxoph. i. (Arb) 89 And so the more stronge man not vsed to shote, shootes moost vnhansumlye. 1611 COTGR., Faire le mihaudichon, to doe a thing foolishly, or ill-fauouredly; vnhandsomely to goe about it. 1638 JUNIUS Painti. Ancients 100 The boy..did deligh..to make oxen, horses, and men likewise, and..did it not unhandsomly.

2. Ungracefully, inelegantly.

1565 COOPER R.V. Incompositus, The verses runne vnhandsomely. a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia I. xvii, About his middle he had..a long cloake of silke, which as unhandsomely, as it needes must, became the wearer. 1632 MASSINGER & FIELD Fatal Dowry iv, I, What fouler object in the world to see a young, fair, handsome beauty unhandsomely dighted? 1670 OWEN Disc. vi. (1676) 82 A Man may have a Garment that may fit very ill, very unhandsomely, about him. 1705 COLLIER Ess. Mor. Subj. III. Pain 13 The Roman Gladiators..chose rather to receive a Cut than avoid it unhandsomely.

†3. Unfitly; inappropriately, awkwardly. Obs.

1548 ELYOT, Incommodè..vngayniely,..vnhansomely, vneasyly. 1573 BARET Alv. I 96 Verie Incommodiously, verie vnhandsomlie. 1649 JER. TAYLOR Apol. Liturgy § 92 This was not unhandsomely applied by the word sentinnes used by..the Greek church. 1657 C. CARTWRIGHT Cert. Relig. I. 209 These things do but very unhandsomely hang together. 1660 H. MORE Apocal. Apoc. 192 Lacqueyes..in querpo, which sutes not unhandsomly with the word ouiaers, bodies.

4. Unfittingly, unbecomingly; illiberally, meanly.

1650 R. STAPYLTON Strada's Low C. Wars IV. 79 His Majesty..thought it best to do that, while his authoritie was entire, which perhaps necessity might unhandsomely inforce him to. 1668 DRYDEN Tyrannic Love iv. i, He raves, sir, and, to cover my disdain, Unhandsomely would his denial feign. 1700 in Pennsylv. Hist. Soc. Mem. IX. 4 A bill..opposed and voted out—I think, very unhandsomely. 1709 SWIFT Ann. Reg. iv. 83 Dering..had charged with neglect of religion, and unhandsomely and untruly told him (etc.). 1839 HALLAM Hist. Lit. III. ii. § 61 This story Franklin, rather unhandsomely, appropriated to himself.

1855 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. xvii. IV. 55 He had poor relations; and the government..had most unhandsomely left them to his care.

b. Discourteously, rudely; without due respect or consideration.

1662 PEPYS Diary 5 Nov., My Lady Batten..complained of my wife's speaking unhandsomely of her. 1707 NORRIS Treat. Humility vi. 250 To know when he is handsomely or unhandsomely treated. 1759 STERNE Tr. Shandy I. xii, Bruised and mis-shapened with the blows which..some prisers had so unhandsomely given me in the dark. a 1781 R. WATSON Philip II, III. (1793) I. 378 They complained that their masters were rather used unhandsomely. 1827 KIRBY & SP. Entomol. xix. II. 170 They seize her, keep her in confinement, and treat her very unhandsomely.

Unha·ndsomeness. [UN-[1] 12.]

†1. Unhandiness; inconvenience. Obs.

1550 THOMAS, Malagevolezza, vnhandsomnesse, or difficultee. 1577 B. GOOGE Heresbach's Husb. II. (1586) 83 b, Such Vines as are loyned with Trees, for the vnhandsomenesse, can not be thus handled.

2. Inelegance, uncomeliness, plainness.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia II. xxii, The sweetnes of her countenance did give such a grace to what she did, that it did make hansome the unhansomnes. 1606 DEKKER Sev. Sins (Arb.) 12 Conceyed with shroue three thread-bare Carpets..to hide the vnhandsomnes of the Carpenters worke. 1658 Whole Duty Man xiii. § 7 First, for infirmities, be they either of body or mind, the deformity and unhandsomness of the one, or the unsweetness and folly of the other (etc.). 1675 G. R. tr. Le Grand's Man without Passion 168 You carry nothing of less use about you then that which you employ to hide your unhandsomenesse. 1873 MISS BROUGHTON Nancy I. 6 We reach our nadir of unhandsomeness in Ton Ton.

3. Unbecomingness; unfittingness.

1598 FLORIO, Sgratia, a disgrace, a gracelesnes or vnhandsomnes. 1611 COTGR., Inconvenance, a misbecoming, vnhandsomenesse, vnfitnesse, vnseemlinesse. 1653 JER. TAYLOR Serm. For Year, Winter ii. 26 Then we shall see things as they are, the evill circumstances and the crooked intentions, the adherent unhandsomenesse and the direct crimes. 1664 INGELO Bentio. & Ur. vi. 350 When they Consider that Unhandsomness which will never cease to attend their unjust Prosperities. 1774 ADAM SMITH in Thomson Life Cullen (1832) I. 475 Baing the unhandsomeness of the practice,..in what manner does the public suffer by it? 1821 Wellesley's Ex. Boy's Ann. June 338 The unhandsomeness of breakfasting upon one's offspring.

Unha·ndsoming, vbl. sb. (UN-[1] 6 a, 8.) 1592 NASHE P. Penilesse B iv b, Any thing that is said or doone to the vnhandsoming of their ambition, is straight wrested to the name of treason. 1593 G. HARVEY Pierce's Super. 180 Vnhandsoming of diuinityship, absurdifying of phrases.

Unha·ndy, a. [UN-[1] 7. Cf. WFris. on-, ûnhandick, Du. onhandig, LG. unhandig, Da. uhændig, Norw. uhendig, Sw. ohändig.]

1. Not easy to handle or manage; inconvenient, awkward, clumsy.

1664 EVERGOOD Love in Tub ii. iii, If she be not as kind as fair, But peevish and unhandy, Leave her. 1719 DE FOE Crusoe II. (Globe) 422 They took in Pieces all my clumsy unhandy Things. 1775 R. CHANDLER Trav. Asia M. (1825) I. 68 Our boat carried a large unhandy sail. 1778 (W. H. Marshall) Minutes Agric. Digest 47 Their being worked double made them unhandy. 1816 J. WILSON City of Plague II. v. 114 These swords are ugly and unhandy things. 1821 Routledge's Ex. Boy's Ann. Feb. 91 The very size and nature of the gun of many of the Spanish ships rendered them unwieldy and 'unhandy', as sailors call it. 1876 N. Amer. Rev. CXXIII. 32 An unhandy arrangement, which detracts from the value of the work.

2. Not skilful in using the hands; lacking in dexterity.

1669 SHADWELL Royal Shepherd i. 1, O fie, Urania! how unhandy art thou! Sir, let me practise my little skill in surgery Upon you. 1726 SWIFT Gulliver III. ii, Yet in the common actions and behaviour of life, I have not seen a more clumsy, awkward, and unhandy people. 1798 W. HUTTON Life 6 Being hurt at seeing the nurse unhandy, she would do the work herself. 1850 GROTE Greece II. lx. (1862) V. 488 The Akarnanian darters..were for this reason unhandy with their missiles. 1876 TREVELYAN Macaulay (1883) I. 123 He was unhandy to a degree quite unexampled in the experience of all who knew him.

fig. 1683 KENNETT Erasm. on Folly 32 Wise men were so awkward and unhandy in the ordering of publick affairs.

Unha·ng, v. [UN-[2] 3. Cf. Du. onthangen.]

1. trans. To take down from a hanging position.

1399 LANGL. Rich. Redeles III. 293 For ho so þus leued his lyff to the ende..Myȝte seie þat he sawe..þat heuene were vnhonge out of be hookis. c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode v. cxxiv. (1869) 66 From thennes the scaulerk she vnheeng and brouhte it. c 1532 DU WES Introd. Fr. in Palsgr. 941 To vnhange, despendre. 1598 FLORIO, Disimpiccare, to vnhang. 1614 W. BROWNE Sheph. Pipe i. B 2 b, Wicked Swaines, that beare mee night, ..Of my fold will draw the peggen..Or vnhang my Weathers bell. 1630 J. TAYLOR (Water P.) Trav. Wks. III. 82/1, I pray the let vs make hast, and put the Waggon vnder the Gibbet, to see if we can vnhang and saue him. 1792 DE FOE Col. Jack v, They unhanged a small copper, and brought it off. 1769 Lloyd's Even. Post Sept.-Oct. 319/2 A Butcher's wife..was endeavouring to unhang a joint of meat. 1896 SMETHAM in Beardmore Cheetham (1906) 26 Unhanging a Turner from the wall of a distant room, he brought it to the table. 1888 A. NUTT Holy Grail 40 No knight should..unhang the shield till Galahad should come.

fig. 1616 HIERON Wks. II. 24 It was not inough..for our Saiuour to take them off, & (as it were) to vnhang them from the world, unlesse He did also fixe them other where.

b. Naut. To remove (a rudder) from its fastening.

1600 HAKLUYT Voy. III. 552 Their cables do oftentimes breake, and their rudders vnhanged,..by reason the shippes doe vide but in little water. 1691 T. H[AL]E Acc. New Invent. 49 They were forced to unhang the Rudder, and new hang it again. 1772–84 Cook's Voy. (1790) III. 756 We..found the Tamar lying between the island and the main, having unhung her rudder. 1799 Naval Chron. II. 568 The rudder of the Isis was unhung.

c. To divest of hangings. rare[-0].

1719 BOYER Dict. Royal II, To Unhang a Room, détendre la Tapisserie d'une Chambre.

2. To undo the hanging of (a person).

1829 SOUTHEY Pilgrim to Compostella III. 54 So, with all honours that might be, They gently unhang'd Pierre. 1837 HAWTHORNE Twice-told Tr. (1851) I. vii. 134 And hanging the nigger wouldn't unhang the old gentleman!

Unha·nged, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8. Cf. Sw. ohängd.] Not (yet) executed by hanging. (Cf. UNHUNG ppl. a. 2.)

c 1440 York Myst. xxxii. 186 Þou on-hanged harlott, hark what I saie. 1595 LD. BERNERS Froiss. II. cccxviii. (ccxix.) 674 It is pytie these vnthrifties be vnhanged or drowned, for tellyng of suche lies. 1596 SHAKS. 1 Hen. IV, II. iv. 144 There liues not three good men vnhang'd in England. 1986 BURNS Twa Dogs 208 They..Pore owre the devil's pictur'd beuks;..An' cheat like ony unhanged blackguard. 1821 SCOTT Kenilw. v, Some evil fortune dogs the heels of that unhanged rogue Lambourne. 1848 THACKERAY Van. Fair II, We may abuse a man as much as we like, and call him the greatest rascal unhanged—but do we wish to hang him therefore? 1899 T. M. ELLIS Cat's-eye Rings 78 Through this unhanged fiend..my mother was one day..murdered.

transf. 1834 Tait's Mag. I. 54/1 The advent of the Whigs to power..has been a decided godsend to the trading advocates of unhanged abuses.

Unha·nging, vbl. sb. [UN-[1] 13.] Omission of hanging (a gate). a 1500 Ib. of Byrne (1886) 26 ȝe shall enquere ȝet yer is ony mane yat hath noȝte hangyd his fal-gate..the whiche on-hangyng hath be noyans to hys neyburs. Unha·ngingly, adv. [UN-[1] 11.] † Disconnectedly. c 1449 PECOCK Repr. iv. iv. 441 For elles this clausul..hadde be seid vnperteynently and vnhangingli fro the materis of the clausulis folewing and afore going.

†Unha·p, sb. Obs. [UN-[1] 12. Cf. ON. úhapp (Icel. óhapp, Norw. dial. uhapp, and WANHAP.]

1. Misfortune, mishap.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 180 Misliknge wiþuten—ase sicnesse, meseise, scheome, vnhep. c 1325 Body & Soul 257 in Hab's Poems (Camden) 343 What eylede þe, þhou grimli gast? That me þus breidest of myn vnhap. c 1384 CHAUCER H. Fame 89 [To] shelde hem fro pouerte and shonde And fro vnhappe and eche disease. 1412–20 LYDG. Chron. Troy III. 5009 For of be cite, sothly, and be tonn, Ffull many were endeles ruyne. c 1440 Gesta Rom. xxxiii. 129, I have thorow vnhappe slayn a man. c 1489 CAXTON Sonnes of Aymon I. 38 Your sone is ded by grete vnhappe. 1523 LD. BERNERS Froiss. I. 521 This was the ende of yu..n, or Owen, of Wales,..slayne by great vnhap and treason. a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia II. xvi, Sometime to visit that place, where first she was so happy to see the cause of her vnhap.

2. With pl. A misfortune or mishap.

c 1230 Hali Meid. 29 Ne mei na worldlich unhap bireauen ham hare weole. a 1250 Owl & Night. 1267 Nauep mon no sikerhede þat he ne may wene & adrede þat sum vnhap neih him beo. 13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 892 Pay wern wakned ..Of on be wykkest vnhap pat euer on erd suffred. 1300 GOWER Conf. II. 36 Thei..to the god for helpe criden Of suche unhappes as betyden. c 1440 York Myst. xviii. 152 That no myschene on hym hetyde, Nor none vnhappe. 1559 Mirr. Magi. (1560) A 2 v.j. Al which unhappes that they were not foreseene, I was in fault.

3. attrib. or as adj. = UNHAPPY a.

1509 HAWES Past. Pleas. (Percy Soc.) 82 Now all my destenyUnhap and happy, upon you doth growe. Ibid. 137 This unhap love had his mynde so broken.

†Unha·p, v. Obs.[-1] [i. prec.] intr. To bring misfortune c 1560 A. SCOTT Poems xxxiv. 123 Quhair [v. r. For] hurdome ay vnhappis With quenry, canis, and coppis.

Unhap·ly, obs. var. UNHAPPILY adv.

†Unha·ppen, a. Obs. [UN-[1] 7: cf. ON. heppinn fortunate, Norw. uheppen unfortunate; and see UNHEPPEN a.] Unfortunate, miserable, wretched.

13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 535 Ach, wo is me for his ilk euel, þat vn-happen glette. 13.. Erkenwolde 50 in Eng. Studien. Altengl. Leg. (1881) 270 One þe vnhapnest hathel þat euer one erthe 3ode. 1535 STEWART Cron. Scot. (Rolls) I. 328 Than da ly dis wraitch on thair tyme, For to commit that curst vnhappin crime.

Unha·ppen, v. (UN-[1] 14 or UN-[2] 7.) 1805 Ann. Rev. III. 270 The past cannot unhappen. 1876 MRS. WHITNEY Sights & Insights II. xxxiii 628 Had I been letting things happen that couldn't unhappen any more, ever?

Unha·ppily, adv. [UN-[1] 11. Cf. ON. úhepiliga (Norw. dial. uheppelege.)]

1. Unfortunately, unluckily; by misfortune or mischance; regrettably.

c 1374 CHAUCER Troylus v. 937 But he was slayn..Vnhappily at Thebes al to rape. c 1400 Destr. Troy 7104 Pen vnhappely his heat he hastid to do, Pis angart hym after angarly sore. c 1450 Syr Genev. (Roxb.) 231 Jewel vnhappelie hidre did hir bring. For now he hath an euel ending. 1528 in Feuilleat Revels Q. Mary (1914) 251, I some not able to ryde..by reason of a strayn which I have vnhappelie met with. 1576 LAMBARDE Peramb. Kent 138 b, I delyver suche onely as lying in my waye doe offer them selues, and suche as..I haue not vnhappily lighted vpon. 1600 DANIEL Civ. Wars IV. lvii, Worc'ster (who had escap'd vnhappily His death in battel) on a Scaffold dies. 1647 CLARENDON Hist. Reb. I. § 51 That War in which the King was so unhappyly engaged against Spain. 1738 in Nairne Peerage Evidence (1874) 49 Whereas John Nairne..was unhappily seduced..to join in the rebellion.

b. Used parenthetically or in loose construction.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. xxviii, She saw, as he lifted up his armes..about one of them, unhappily, tied a garter. 1603 SHAKS. Meas. for M. I. ii, 160 Lucio. With childe, perhaps? Claudio. Vnhappely, euen so. 1629 Haunts Publ. Obed. 2 The first Treatise, in which (and the unhappiller, to give foundation to practicable errors) they.. mistake principles. 1697 Bentley Phal. (1699) 109 He had unhappily forgot it, when he writ this Epistle. 1728 Col. Rec. Pennsylv. III. 327 By being unhappy in the Company of those who committed it. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla III. 388 But to all that was thus most fascinating to others, she joined unhappily all that was most dangerous for herself. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. iv. I. 460 Unhappily the splendid qualities of John Churchill were mingled with alloy of the most sordid baseness. 1850 Retrospect. Rev. CII. 340 But when this is unhappily not to be accomplished, a partial removal has obviously prolonged life.

2. With evil fortune or mischance; evilly, miserably, wretchedly.

c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xxxiv. (Pelagia) 179, I..þat has nochi anerly wyselle Sorcyr þis syne vnhappily. 1390 Gower Conf. I. 54 And ate laste unhappely This Hert his oghne houndes slowhe. 1412–20 Lydg. Chron. Troy iv. 1189 Achilles axe[b] how it is Amonge Grekis, & cleryly how it stood.. 'Certis,' quod he, 'ful vnhappily'. 1599 Barclay Ship of Folys (1570) 20 But these lewde catiffs.., liuing vnhappily. In shame they liue, and wretchedly they dye. 1596 in roth Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 76 At the last mist unnaturally and unhappilie.. fell out the lamentable slaucher of the saidis vmquhill James Stirling. 1605 Shaks. Lear I. ii. 157, I promise you, the effects he writes of, succeede vnhappily. a 1658 Lovelace Poems (1904) 134 An Victory I unhappily wonne, Weeping and Red is set the Sun. 1667 Milton P. L. x. 1..Sin speaking here offended, Unhappilie deceav'd. 1779 Warner in Jesse Selwyn & Contemp. (1844) IV. 300 The giddy girl who married unhappily. 1781 Cowper Charity 632 If, unhappily deceiv'd, I dream, And prove too weak for so divine a theme.

b. Unsuccessfully.

1533 Bellenden Livy I. xv. (S.T.S.) I. 86 þe Sabynis faucht vnhappely in þis last battall. 1654 tr. Martini's Comp. Chirur. 55 So as if any fought unhappily.. the Governors hardly ever escaped alive. 1831 Scott Ch. Reb. xiii, One of those simple persons who manage so unhappily what they mean for civilities, that those to whom they are addressed receive them frequently in another sense.

†3. Mischievously, maliciously. Obs.

1509 Hawes Past. Pleas. xviii. (Percy Soc.) 85 What man on live can use suche governaunce..but right prywely Behinde his backe some sayth unhappely? 1549 Chaloner Erasm. on Folly G iij, They thynke unhappeliest in their herts, when they speake smoothest with their tounge. 1660 J. S. Andromana iii. iii, I know you always talk'd unhapplily, And if your heart dare do what's ill, I know it can well teach your tongue excuses.

†b. Unfavourably. Obs.–1

1613 Shaks. Hen. VIII, i. iv. 89 You are a Churchman, or ile tell you Cardinall, I should judge now vnhappily.

†4. Unpleasantly near the truth; shrewdly. Obs.

1577–82 Breton Toyes Idle Head Wks. (Grosart) I. 33/2 The last occasion why, God knowes: and I, perhappes, can gesse vnhappily. 1584 Lyly Campaspe v. iv. Alex. Think you not, Hephestion, that she wold faine be commanded? He. I am no thought catcher, but I gesse vnhappily. 1602 Shaks. Ham. iv. v. 13 Which..Indeed would make one thinke there would be thought, Though nothing sure, yet much vnhappily.

†5. Unfitly; unskilfully. Obs.

1602 Breton Wonders worth Hearing To Rdr., A few edde Wonders, that being vnhappily set downe, might passe away a little idle time to looke on. 1704 Swift T. Tub Pref., My genius being conceived to lie not unhappily that way. 1726 — Gulliver III. iv, On the contrary, I never knew a soil so unhappily cultivated.

6. Without happiness or pleasure.

1687 Miege Gt. Fr. Dict. II, He lives very unhappily with her, il vit fort mal avec elle. 1814 Jane Austen Mansfield Park ii, Fanny..grew up there not unhappily among her cousins. 1848 Thackeray Van. Fair xxix, A village ..where little Rawdon passed the first months of his life, not unhappily, with a numerous family of foster-brothers.

Unhappiness. [Un-[1] 12.]

1. Misfortune, mishap, ill luck.

1470–85 Malory Arthur VII. vii. 221 Vnhappely he hath donne this day thorou myshappe[:]..and other dedes he dyde before right merueyllous and thorou vnhappynes. 1509 Hawes Past. Pleas. xvi. (Percy Soc.) 70 Now lauee I tolde you all the veray trouthe Of my woful chaunce and great vnhappynesse. 1562 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. II. iii. 17 b, Whose feete are swyfte to shedde bloude, in whose wayes vs sorrowe and vnhappynesse. 1621 Wither Motto, Nec Habeo C 1 b, I haue not that vnhappinesse, to be a Rich Mans Sonne. 1651 Hobbes Gov. & Soc. Ep. Ded., Yet the naturall right of Preservation..will not admit it to be a Vice, though it confesse it to be an Unhappiness. a 1701 Maundrell Journ. Jerus. 17 March 1697, It was our unhappiness to have..a very violent storm of Thunder, and Rain. 1753 Chambr. Liver Poets I. 18 Lamenting the unhappiness of a fluctuating language, that buries in its ruins even genius itself. 1872 Tennyson Gareth & Lynette 1204, I..here lie thrown by whom I know not, all thro' mere unhappiness—Device and sorcery and unhappiness.

b. Unfavourable character.

1704 Collect. Voy. (Churchill) III. 659/2 The Unhappiness of the Climate.

†2. Evil, wrong-doing, mischief. Obs.

c 1485 Digby Myst. (1882) II. 627 Thys traytour..That doth this vnhappynes a-gayns all! 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 242 b, Manasses was as the pyt and synke of all fylth & synne and vnhappynesse. 1548 Udall, etc. Erasm. Par. John vii. 57 Readye to be hiered to do all unhappinesse. 1566 Hollyband Treasur. Lat. margin, Such as would play Bo-peepe and hide themselves when they had done some unhappinesse. a 1625 Fletcher Love's Pilgrimage ii. ii, A wild boy, That for the fruits of his unhappiness, Is faign to seek the wars.

3. The condition of being unhappy in mind.

1722 Wollaston Relig. Nat. vi. (1724) 243 No doubt there is to every wrong and vitious act a suitable degree of unhappiness and punishment annext. 1791 Boswell Johnson an. 1758, As easy and pleasant a state of existence, as constitutional unhappiness ever permitted him to enjoy. 1842 A. Combe Physiol. Digestion (ed. 4) 201 Hence..too often arise indifference and unhappiness between those whom Nature has formed..to suit each other. 1861 Mill Utilit. ii. 10 By unhappiness is intended, pain and the privation of pleasure. 1895 Rosa Baughan Palmistry 27 A star on Venus means unhappiness caused by love.

Unhappy, a. [Un-[1] 7.]

1. Of persons (or animals): Causing misfortune or trouble (to oneself or others); objectionable or miserable on this account.

To some extent passing into sense 2.

a 1300 Cursor M. 3037 Ful lath me ware, þat he þat blissing fin þe bare, Vnhappi wreche has he ben al. c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xxxvii. (Baptista) 736 For cowaitise a man, vnhappy & wnwyse, dalf ype his graf be nichtirtale. 1470–85 Malory Arthur VII. vii. 221 He is an vnhappy knaue, and vnhappely he hath donne this day thorou myshappe. c 1489 Caxton Sonnes of Aymon viii. 194 Lete vs gon assayle thise vnhappy folke of the kynge Charlemagne. c 1518 Skelton Magnyf. 1374, I haue brought Vnto Magnyfycence a full vngracyous sorte, For all hokes vnhappy to me haue resorte. 1586 T. Washington tr. Nicholay's Voy I. xix. 22 b, An vnhappie souldier of Prouence..declared vnto the Turkes the weakest places of the castle. 1607 G. Wilkins Miseries Enforced Marriage K 1, I am sure they are greater sinners, That made this march, and were vnhappy men, For they caus'd all, and may heauen pardon them. a 1614 Fletcher Valentinian v. ii, Lici. He is poyson'd.. Lyci. Who? Lici. The wretch Arcetus, That most vnhappy villain. 1621 Burton tr. De Moulin's Heraclitus vi. 41 There is nothing more hard to find in this world than a good woman, a good Mule, and a good Goat, being three vnhappie beasts. 1770 Harris in Priv. Lett. Ld. Malmesbury (1870) I. 192 He was an unhappy sot, and last week shot himself through the head. 1828 Scott F. M. Perth x, These unhappy Highland clans are again breaking into general commotion.

†b. Sc. Ill-natured; bad-tempered. Obs.–1

1795 Mrs. Cadenhead in Cadness Collect. (Maitl. Cl.) 127 Indeed he was so unhappy, (which signifies ill-nature in Scots,) that she durst never ask anything at him he was not pleased to tell her.

2. Of persons: Unfortunate, unlucky, ill-fated; miserable in lot or circumstances. Also, in later use, wretched in mind.

1375 Barbour Bruce III. 291 Bot he the mar be vnhappy, He sall eschew it in party. c 1400 Destr. Troy 2689 A I nobill Troye, þe noy þat neghis þe at hond!..A I vnhappy heigh kyng, what hardship is to the! c 1440 Promp. Parv. 506/6 Vnhappy, infortunatus, infelix. 1470–85 Malory Arthur VI. x. 198 Who that vseth peramours shalle be vnhappy, and all thyng is vnhappy that is aboute hem. 1523 Fitzherb. Husb. § 144 He is an vnhappy man or woman, that..vseth chose the worst parte. 1587 Golding De Mornay xvi. 295 The most parte..come to this point, that man is the most vnhappiest of liuing wights. 1600 J. Pory tr. Leo's Africa II. 70 This vnhappie king being utterly driuen to disspere,..in the night time fouth of the citie. 1665 Fuller Ch. Hist. III. vi. § 40. 86 Endless it were to reckon up the indignities offered unto these Jews. ..A people equally unhappy at feasts, and at frays. 1726 Swift Gulliver III. viii, The seamen might conjecture some unhappy mortal to be shut up in the box. 1794 Mrs. Radcliffe Myst. Udolpho xxvii, Some unhappy person, who, having been plundered by his banditti, was brought hither a captive. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. iv. I. 432 In the midst of this splendour,..the unhappy woman gave herself up to an agony of grief. 1900 Longm. Mag. Mar. 450 He fully agreed that her mother must not be made unhappy.

absol. 1849 Cowley Hist. Sleep iv, Thou scorn'st th' Unhappy; and the Happy, Thee. 1762 Sterne Tr. Shandy v. i, Pity the unhappy, said a devout, venerable, hoary-headed man. 1839 Carlyle Chartism viii, A land of tears is due to the unhappy.

b. Const. in (some respect).

1604 Shaks. Oth. III. iv. 102 Sure, there's some wonder in this Hankerchiefe, I am most vnhappy in the losse of it. 1634 Sir T. Herbert Trav. 221 Vnhappiest in this, that their own Nation forgot them quite. 1710 Addison Spect. No. 164 ¶ 1 Constantia was..very unhappy in a Father, who ..took delight in nothing but his Money. 1770 Harris in Priv. Lett. Ld. Malmesbury (1870) I. 201 They have been unhappy in another fire at Wilton.

c. Unsuccessful; apt to make mistakes.

1651 Witter tr. Primrose's Pop. Errr. I. 45, I have observed that no man is more unhappy than those physicians, that note their medicines out of books. 1662 Stillingfl. Orig. Sacra v. iii. § 9 He is as unhappy a person in Philology, as any that have pretended so much acquaintance with it. 1721 Mrs. Long Let. to Swift 18 Nov., That I may clear my meanings, which are always far from offending my friends, however unhappy I may be in my expressions.

d. Of places: Subject to, suffering from, misfortunes or evils.

1591 Spenser Ruins Time 146 Seemes, that that gentle River.. From my vnhappie neighborhood farre fled. 1667 Milton P. L. i. 268 Wherefore..call [we] them not to share with us their part In this unhappy Mansion? 1697 Dryden Virg. Georg. ii. 308 And such a country could Acerræ boast, Till Clanius overflowed the unhappy coast. Ibid. iv. 751 Th' unhappy Clitumnus, where Spring was never known. 1848 Mrs. Marsh Father Darcy III. iv. 90 You—have you ventured to our unhappy house? 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. iv. I. 438 The bands which oppressed and wasted these unhappy districts.

3. Of things: Associated with, bringing about or causing, misfortune or mishap; disastrous.

c 1386 Chaucer Man of Law's T. 204 Infortunat ascendent tortuous..O fieble Moone, vnhappy been thy paas. 1390 Gower Conf. I. 236 Sche tok vnto thilke unhappi scherte. Ibid. 326 At thilke unhappi freisshe welle. 1420–2 Lydg. Thebes I. 802 Of whom the weedynge..Vnhappy was and passing odious, Infortuned and vngracious. 1470–85 Malory Arthur II. xviii. 57 Thenne Balyn smote hym ageyne with that vnhappy swerd. 1523 Ld. Berners Froiss. I. ccccl. 216/8 This vnhappy weather for the englishmen fell well for them in the cyte. 1607 Peele's Jests 14 The Gentleman was..disturbed in thought at this unhappy accident. 1652 Howell Greyffs's Ven. Nephes II. 14 An vnhappy Bullet came and killed one of the principall of the Blackcoats that was in Arms. 1711 Addison Spect. No. 125 ¶ 7 It is very unhappy for a Man to be born in such a stormy and tempestuous Season. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla III. 18, I am shocked to find you informed of this unhappy transaction. 1837 Lockhart Scott III. iii. 110 His friend was aware that he had an unhappy propensity to drinking. 1892 Farrar Darkn. & Dawn 1 An unhappy and accidental collision between the jealous cohorts led to a battle.

b. Inauspicious; foreboding evil.

1533 Bellenden Livy I. viii. (S.T.S.) I. 47 Numa schewe in his Calendar sic dayis as wer happy and sic dayis as war unhappy. 1590 Spenser F. Q. II. vi. 44 Death is for wretches borne vnder vnhappie starre. 1638 Rawley tr. Bacon's Life & Death (1650) 17 The Black-Bird is reported to be..one of the longest livers: An unhappy Bird, and a good singer. 1824 Southey Roderick vi. 90 Is this the race Whom in unhappy hour Favila's wife Brought forth for Spain.

c. Infelicitous; unsuccessful.

1719 Swift To Yng. Clergyman Works. 1755 II. ii. 3 Neither is it rare to observe among excellent..divines a certain ungracious manner, or an unhappy tone of voice. 1779 Johnson L. P., Rochester Works. II. 199 His imitation of Horace on Lucilius is not inelegant or unhappy.

4. Of conditions: Marked by misfortune or mishap; miserable, wretched.

1390 Gower Conf. III. 59 Helas, that euer was I bore, That this unhappi destine So wellnigh cometh to be me! 1484 Caxton Fables of Æsop II. viii, In the vnhappy and Infortunat tyme men ought not to be despayred. 1509 Hawes Past. Pleas. xvi. (Percy Soc.) 68 Sayeng to him, my chance and destiny Of al other is the moste unhappy. 1585 T. Washington tr. Nicholay's Voy. I. xv. 16 The end of his moste vnhappye life. Ibid. iv. xxvii. 146 Through hunger [he] was..to die an vnhappie death. 1600 Breton Passquil's Madcapke D 3 b, If they be met with in their going home, I can not pitty their vnhappy speede. 1712 Blackmore Creation III. 325 You oft declaim on man's unhappy fate. 1794 Mrs. Radcliffe Myst. Udolpho xxx, Her mind deeply impressed with the unhappy fate of this object, she forgot all her faults. 1838 Fr. A. Kemble Resid. in Georgia (1863) 13, I have never been among them to judge what faculties their unhappy social position leaves to them unimpaired. 1898 Browning La Saisiaz 30 Life thus owned unhappy, is there supplemental happiness..in life to come?

†5. Causing or involving trouble or mischief; objectionable, evil; naughty. Obs.

1474 Paston Lett. III. 121 Wherffor I sende yow herwith yowr ryngs, and the onhappy muskeball. 1529 More Dyalogs IV. Wks. 259/2 Moreouer the vnhappy dedes of yt sect must nedes be imputed to the sect selfe. 1588 T. Washington tr. Nicholay's Voy. III. xvii. 102 They are also full of diuers vnhappy vices. a 1618 Raleigh Rem. (1664) 170 The world..never gave you but an unhappy welcome—a hurtful entertainment. 1678 Cudworth Intell. Syst. 40 It seems to be but like to Womens frighting of Children from doing unhappy tricks.

†b. Unfavourable, poor. Obs.

1765 Museum Rust. IV. xxviii. 125 A very proper grass to cultivate on such unhappy soils, where hardly any other grass..will grow at all.

6. Comb., as unhappy-faced, -happy, -looking, -witted adjs.

1591 Spenser M. Hubberd 49 For both were crafftie and vnhappie witted. a 1628 Sylvester Funeral Elegie Dr. Du Bartas' Wife 185 (Her first and last) unhappy-happy Boy, Which cost her life. 1853 W. C. Baldwin Afr. Hunting ix. 378 An odd unhappy-looking springbuck or two. 1876 Geo. Eliot Dan. Der. xxviii, That unhappy-faced woman.

†Unhappy, v. Obs. [Un-[2] 6 a.] trans. To make unhappy or unfortunate.

1593 Shaks. Rich. II, iii. 1. 10 You haue mis-led a Prince, ..A happie Gentleman in Blood, and Lineaments, By you vnhappied, and disfigur'd cleane. 1605 Sylvester tr. Paradox agst. Liberty 420 In our selues doth rest That which vnhappied vs, and that which makes vs happie. 1653 E. Lloyd Let. 28 July (MS. Ashmole), I admire you..should for any By-end vnhappie your selfe and stepdame your children.

Unharassed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1796 P. L. Courtier Pleas. Solitude (1802) 58 The solitary haunt, by foe unharassed more! 1889[1] Anna Thomas[1] Mod. Housewife 30 'We must retrench!' we said..; and in those unharassed days we said it cheerfully enough. †Unharborough, v. Obs. [Un-[2] 5.] = next. 1611 Florio, Disalberguare, to dislodge, vnharborough.

Unharbour, v. [Un- 2 ‖.] trans. To dislodge (a deer) from covert or shelter.

1576 Turberv. Venerie 100 An Hart and a Bucke [are] likewise reared, rowsed, and vnharbored. 1582 Stanyhurst iv. (Arb.) 100 The heard deare doth stray from mounten vnharboured. 1686 R. Blome Gentl. Recreat. iv. 89 / Your Hounds should not all be uncoupled until the Hart is unharboured by the Harbourer. 1721 Phil. Trans. XXXI. 167 After you unharbour a Moose, he will run a Course of 20, or 30 miles, before he..comes to a Bay. 1797 Sporting Mag. IX. 264 Mr. Sturt's stag hounds unharboured a hind at Maggot-Hill Wood. 1823 Scott Quentin D. ix, To the devil with the discourse, for the boar is unharboured. 1856 Stonehenge Brit. Rural Sports 109 The regular pack being held at hand.., ready to be laid on when the hart or hind is 'unharboured'.

b. transf. and fig.

1593 Sidney's Arcadia III. (1922) II. 29 Your compassion makes me open my hart to you, and leave a unharboured mine owne thoughts. 1647 N. Ward Simple Cobler 44, I am sure.. it was never storyed that Salus Populi began with Majestas Imperii, unlesse Majestas Imperii first unharbour'd it, and hunted it to a stand. 1768 Foote Devil, Advance! now let us unharbour the rascal! 1771 R. Cumberland West Indian ii. vi, I'll unlodge him, I'll unharbour him, I warrant. 1824 Scott St. Ronan's iv, Clara..is a little wilful; and I believe your ladyship must take the task of unharbouring her into your own hands.

Hence Unharbouring vbl. sb.

1591 R. Turnbull Exp. St. James 102 These..house themselues by the vnharbouring ..of the poore. 1686 R. Blome Gentl. Recreat. ii. 83/1 The Chase of the Hart or Stag; and first the Vnharbouring him. 1897 D. H. Madden Diary W. Silence 30 The rest of the company made ready to assist at the unharbouring of the hart.

Unharboured, a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Having no shelter or refuge.

c 1450 Cov. Myst. (Shaks. Soc.) 403 Ye had no pete on seke nor lame...Unherborwed men ye servyd the same.

2. Affording no shelter; wild.

1834 Milton Comus 493 She that has that...May trace huge Forests, and unharboured Heaths.

†Unhard, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7. Cf. ON. óharðr, ols. Flem. onherd, OHG. unherti.] Soft.

a 1300 Cursor M. 24502 Quen i sa moght kis þat suete, þe vnharder was mi harm. 1552 Huloet, Vnharde, edurum. 1570 Levins Manip. 31 Unhard, mollis.

Unharden, v. [Un-[2] 6 a.] 1552 Huloet, Vnharden, eduro. 1611 Florio, Discalliire, to supple, to vnharden. 1879 Browning Ivan Ivanovitch 243 Ivan Ivanovitch, "Tis you unharden me.

Unhardened, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

fig. 1590 Shaks. Mids. N. i. 1. 55 Messengers Of strong prevailment in vnhardened youth. Cent. 1 Clapham Sermon Right Hand A 4 If thine heart be vn-hardened, it will easily syone with mee. 1619 (see Unhatched [2]). 1747 Richardson Clarissa (1811) II. 26 After you have heard what your friends shall further urge in his behalf, unhardened by clandestine correspondencies. 1792 Mme. D'Arblay Diary V. 390 The few unhardened in crimes. 1821 Southey in Life A. Bell (1844) III. 630 Preserving his heart the while unstained and unhardened. 1846 Lanzoni Rome, Comm. Wks. I. 249/2 The studious, the enthusiastic, the unhardened in politics.

Ill. 1835-6 Todd's Cycl. Anat. I. 347/1 An intermediate layer of unhardened epiderm. 1884 P. J. Bruyn Welsch & Cinch. 1 Unhardened spring do not accelerate.

Unhardness. (Un-[1] 12.) 1611 Florio, Shaldanne, vnboldnesse, vnhardinesse. 1893 Med. Rev. April 252 A hundred generations of unhardness and want of power.

†Unhardle, v. Obs.[1] [Un-[2] 1.

The second element is app. A OE hard m. or hardelle f., either in the sense of 'troop, company', or of 'cord, leash' (cf. F. harde leash for hounds). In the former case the sense is 'to break up, disperse'; in the latter, 'to unleash, uncouple'. Either meaning is suitable to the context.

c 1325 Gaw. & Gr. Knl. 1697 Hunters vnharded bi a holt syde, Roeberes rounden bi rys, for rurde of her hornes.

Unhardy, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. Prol. 180 [They] helden hem vnhardy and here conseille foble. c 1386 Chaucer Reeve's T. 4208, I wil arise, and auntre it by my fayth! Vnhardy is vnseely, thus men sayth. 1430-40 Lydg. Bochas iv. viii. (1554) 105 Nother heauenly gods nor fortune blind of syght Wer both vnhardy tattempt asein his might. 1539 Taverner Erasm. Prov. (1545) 79 With sluggers or unhardy persons, it is always holy daye. 1611 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. ix. xi. § 5. 555/1 Neither yet was he vnhardie in Arms. 1671 Milton P. R. iii. 243 The wisest, unexperienc'd, will be ever..Irresolute, unhardy, unadventurous.

Unharmed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1340-70 Alex. & Dind. 227 And y bi-hote you her vnharmed to leue. c 1400 Beryn 2804 Howe shuld o sely lombe, a-mong wolvis weld. And scapen vn-harmyd? 1495 Sir G. Have Law Armes (S.T.S.) 164 He sall seurly cum and gang unharmyt of me or ony of myn. 1513 Douglas Æneid i. Prol. 5 Thocht I offend, onhermit is thine fame. 1582 Stanihurst Æneis ii. (Arb.) 64 Wasd for this (mother) that mee throgh danger vnharmed You led? 1667 Dryden & Davenant Tempest ii. (1670) 25 Prosp. No courage can resist 'em, Hip. How then have you, Sir, Liv'd so long unharm'd among them? 1697 (see next). 1702 Cowper Odyss. v. 197 I will also give New raiment for thy limbs, and will dispatch Winds after thee to waft thee home unharm'd. 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xiii. III. 327 Here he might possibly have remained unharmed and harmless, had not an event..made his enemies implacable. 1886 Hall Caine Son of Hagar iii. vi, What a mercy we're safe and unharmed.

Unharmful, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1538 Elyot, Innocuus, vnharmefull, he that doth none harme. 1548 Udall, etc. Erasm. Par. John 1. 9 b, This is he..whose vnharmefull blood defended the children of Israel. 1594 Carew Tasso (1881) 87 That hungry teene of gold, and thirst withall Of mine vnharmefull blood. 1615 Chapman Odyss. iv. 138 And..hold unharmful on your wished way. 1687 Dryden Hind & P. i. 299 Themselves unharmful, let them live unharm'd, Their jaws disabl'd, and their claws disarm'd. 1885 Singleton Virgil I. 162 Often have maligmant stepdames..mingled drugs and not unharmful spells.

Unharmfully, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1888 Contemp. Rev. Nov. 676 To grapple unharmed and unharmfully with the very deepest problems of our being.

Unharming, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

1795 Southey Joan of Arc vii. 169 Again he thrust the spear; At once Dunois on his broad buckler met The unharming stroke. 1835 Lytton Rienzi x. iv, Dangerous tools they were, but without the workman they may rust unharming. 1852 Kingsley Amyas Leigh 149 A fiery rainfall, unharming, Sparkled and gleamed.

Unharmonic, a. (Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.)

1694 Pepys Let. in Academy 9 Aug. (1899) 110/1 There is a decent and not unharmonick playnesse in it. 1810 S. Green Reformists II. 20 The unharmonic squalling of a balladsinger.

Unharmonious, a. [Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.]

1. Not sounding in harmony; unmelodious.

a 1634 Chapman Rev. for Honour ii. 3. 224 These sounds are unharmonious. 1797 Swift Let. Eng. Tongue Wks. 1755 II. 1. 188 Such harsh unharmonious sounds, that none but a northern ear could endure. 1753 R. Clayton Jrnl. p. Cairo to Mt. Sinai 4 The noisy sonnets of our Eastern friends, who ..designed these their unharmonious vociferations as a compliment. 1834 G. Downes Lect. Comm. Commerce I. 139 Some country-seats, one of which bears the unharmonious name, Gutsch. 1859 R. F. Burton Centr. Afr. in Jrnl. Geog. Soc. XXIX. 266 An unharmonious chorus of collective voices.

b. Not yielding or producing harmonious sounds.

1742 Young Nt. Th. iii. 89 Transfixt by fate,..How from the summit of the grove she fell, And left it unharmonious! 1784 Cowper Task iii. 734 Wholesome airs,..And groves, if unharmonious, yet secure From clamour. a 1862 T. Woolner My Beautiful Lady, Night i, What trite old folly unharmonious sages..write..Of sin original and growing crime!

2. Not exhibiting harmony or agreement.

1667 Milton P. L. xi. 51 Those pure immortal Elements that know No gross, no unharmonious mixture foule. 1796 Mrs. M. Robinson Angelina I. 125 Pardon me..for the impertinence of supposing that your enlightened mind can for a moment be unharmonious. 1805 Loudon Improv. Hot-Houses 38 Walls and flues covered with white plaster, the raw glare of which..has a harsh and unharmonious effect. 1846 Grote Greece ix. (1862) II. 246 The distinct and unharmonious elements of which the population..was made up. 1876 Bernstein Five Senses 120 The cause of the harmonious or unharmonious relation between colours.

Unharmoniously, adv. (Un-[1] 11; cf. prec.)

[1775 Ash.] 1783 Blair Lect. I. xix. 393 [There is] little beauty in the construction of his sentences, which are frequently suffered to drag unharmoniously. 1856 Froude Hist. Eng. I. 262 Factions nearly equal in number, though unharmoniously composed.

Unharmonize, v. (Un-[2] 6 c.) 1797 Mrs. A. M. Bennett Beggar Girl (1813) III. 67 It was not in the power of sir Jacob or his companion entirely to unharmonise her mind. Unharmonized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1829 Mary Charlton Wife & Mistress III. 144 This promised interview was now the only circumstance she looked forward to, ere she quitted this unharmonized society. 1873 Symonds Grk. Poets xii. 417 Fragments of primitive..superstition unharmonized with the serene element of the Hellenic spirit.

Unharmonizing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1851 W. R. Greg Creed of Christendom xi. 152 Those single, unharmonizing discrepant tests. 1862 Pusey Truth Eng. Ch. 42 The Holy Synod approved the letter..as..in no wise unharmonizing with the inspired Scriptures. Unharmony. (Un-[1] 12, 5 b.) 1834 Gen. Thompson Exerc. (1842) 101 A marvellous blunder,..which..caused all ancient music to flounder in a mass of unharmony. 1866 R. Chambers Ess. Ser. ii. 189 That unharmony of opinion which so often makes social life uncomfortable.

Unharness, v. [Un-[2] 4, 4 b. Cf. Du. and Flem. ontharnassen to disarm ('exarmare', Kilian.)]

1. trans. To divest of armour. Also fig.

c 1425 Tow. Portegeys 300 Blythe then wase the ladyes, Forto on-harnes Torrent. 1549 Coverdale, etc. Erasm. Par. Col. ii. 6 Then declared he them freely and playnly to be ouercommen and vnharnysed, when..he carryed vs about as it were in a triumphe. 1598 Hulloet, Vnharnayse exarmo. 1802 James Milit. Dict., Unharnessed, disarmed divested of armour or weapons of offence.

2. To free (horses, etc.) from harness; to unyoke. Also fig. and (in recent use) absol.

1611 Cotgr., Desharnacher, to vnharnesse, or vntrim; to take off the furniture from a horse. 1643-5 Milton Divorce ii. xxi, When two vnfortunately met are by the Canon forc't to drawe in that yoke..till death vnharnesse'em. 1697 Dryden Virg. Past. ii. 96 The sweating steers, unharnessed from the yoke, Bring, as in triumph, back the crooked plough. 1746 Phil. Trans. XLIV. 296 The Carter drove him home; but, as soon as he had unharnessed him, the poor Creature..drop'd down dead immediately. 1799 Hull Advertiser 2 Feb. 4/4 A number of respectable inhabitants unharnessed the cattle from his carriage. 1852 Grote Greece ii. lxxi. IX. 203 Xenophon unharnessing a waggon-bullock..immediately offered sacrifice. 1894 Westm. Gaz. 10 June 5/1 He had to leave off helping to unharness the horse.

Hence Unharnessing vbl. sb.

1896 Lever Martins of Cro' M. xv, Grooming, and shoeing, and unharnessing went on with..noise and merriment.

Unharnessed, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8.]

†1. Not ornamented or trimmed. Obs.

1488 Acc. Ld. High Treas. Scot. I. 83 A belt of crammasy heirnesit with gold and braid; .. a belt of gold vnharnessit.

2. Not provided with or wearing armour.

a 1513 Fabyan Chron. vii. 308 Kynge Rycharde,..with a fewe accompanyed & vnharnysed, shulde comme to ye Frenshe Kynges rent. 1562 Pilkington Expos. Aggeus 55, 500 naked men unharnessed,..vanquished them all. 1586 Hooker Coug. Treat. i. xiii. 28/1 in Hollinshed, As in combates in England, so they being vnharnessed, did fight with their swords or weapons in the open sight of the people. 1721 Ramsay Poems 197 Dogsaw, naked, not clad, unharness'd.

3. Not fitted with, or put into, harness.

1608 Sylvester Du Bartas ii. iv. Schisme 298 Chariots, unfurnisht and unharnest. 1697 Dryden Æneis ix. 425 Unharnessed chariots stand along the shore. 1791 Cowper Iliad ii. 950 Beside them the chariots stood the unharness'd steeds Cropping the lotus.

b. Not adapted for industrial use.

1903 Kipling 5 Nations 57 Watching unharnessed rapids wasting fifty thousand head an hour.

Unharnessed, ppl. a.[2] [f. Unharness v.]

1. Released from harness.

1676 Hobbes Iliad 212 The horses, that me brought, unharnessed Attend me at the foot of Ida hill. 1725 Pope Odyss. vi. 103 The mules unharness'd range beside the main. 1859 Dickens Holly Tree i. (1899) 31, I had the honour of leading one of the unharnessed post-horses.

fig. 1867 Macgregor Rob. Alone ii. 29 I reclined unharnessed in the cabin, reading intently.

2. Divested of armour.

1664 Butler Hud. ii. 11. 49 Where now arriv'd, and half unharness'd, To carry on the work in earnest, He stopp'd.

Unharped, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1829 P. K. Harrison Martyrs of Lyons & V. 26 Song unharp'd on Seraph's golden strings. Unharried, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1871 Freeman Norm. Conq. xvii. IV. 80 The coast..remained unharried by either friends or enemies. 1889 Daily News 10 Apr. 5/1 You will leave his nest unharried.

Unharrowed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1573 Tusser Husb. (1878) 88 Not onely thy peason, but also thy beanes, Unharrowed die, being buried in clay. a 1722 Lisle Husb. (1752) 218 Let the furrows lie unharrowed for some time. 1778 [W. H. Marshall] Minutes Agric., Observ. 109 A belt across the middle [of the field], left experimentally unharrowed.

Unharrested, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1. From which no harvest is taken.

1867 Morris Jason ii. 731 In what strange wain Hast thou crossed o'er the green and restless plain Unharvested of any? 1868 Rep. U. S. Commissioner Agric. (1869) 408 The method..of turning the hogs into an unharvested field when commencing to fatten. 1879 Butcher & Lang Odyssey 77 The perilous gulfs of the unharvested sea.

2. Not reaped or brought in.

1874 J. W. Long Amer. Wildfowl xvi. 198 They feed upon the previous season's waste and unharvested grain.

Unhasp, v. [Un-[2] 4 b.] trans. To free from a hasp or catch; to unfasten; fig. to disclose.

13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 688 Me bos..alle myn atlyng to abraham vn-hasge bilyue. 1598 Mucedorus Epil. 22 Enuie, spit thy gall;..Vnhaspe the Wicket where all pertureds roost. 1615 J. Taylor (Water P.) Urania, Eternall God, which..at the doomefull day will once vnhaspe Th' acusing booke of Subiects and of Kings. 1810 Scott Lady of L. vi. xii, While bolt and chain he backward roll'd, And made the bar unhasp his hold. 1895 Chemn. Jrnl. XII. 781/1 Old Hird unhasped the door in the corner.

Unhasped, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1856 Hawthorne Snow Image, etc. (1879) 221 By some accident, it had been left unhasped. 1894 Baring-Gould Kitty Alone II. 99 I will leave the door of my stores open—unhasped. Unhaste. (Un-[1] 12.) 1879 Deshler Afternoons w. Poets 8 'Cultivate the virtue of patience,' he replied with imperturbable unhaste. 1892 Bliss Carman Low Tide on Grand Pré 54 The noiseless secret Of Eternity's unhaste. Unhasted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1854 S. Dobell Balder iii. 13 The unhasted life That plods with equal step the wonted way.

Unhasting, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

Also, in recent use, unhastened.

1839 Carlyle Chartism iv, Perseverance, unhasting unresting diligence,..characterise this people. 1872 Morley Voltaire 289 That grave and unhasting dignity, which is the life of history. 1891 W. Tuckwell Tongues in Trees 131 Unhasting yet unresting chroniclers of fleeting time.

Unhasty, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1590 Spenser F. Q. i. iii. 4 One day nigh wearie of the yrksome way, From her vnhastie beast she did alight. 1631 Jer. Taylor Serm. for Year II. xv. 192 He is a perfect man..who hath..so unhasty and wary a spirit, as that he decrees upon no act before he hath considered maturely.

Unhat, v. (Un-[2] 4, 7.)

1611 Florio, Disbérrettare, to vncap, to vnhat. 1879 H. Spencer Ceremonial Inst. vi. 134 Unhatting on the knees when the host is carried by, occurs still in Catholic countries. 1883 Academy 30 June 460/1 To the latter we must often unhat as to the oldest of acquaintances.

Unhatched, ppl. a.[1] (Un-[1] 8 + Hatch v.[1])

1601 Holland Pliny I. 298 Whiles the chick is unhatched and within the egge. 1794 Morse Amer. Geog. 169 The young cuckow..immediately sets about clearing the nest of the young sparrows, and the remaining unhatched eggs. 1854 Badham Halieut. 186 Many [tunny-fish]..drop their unhatched posterity about, wherever they may happen to reside. 1872 Darwin Orig. Spec. (ed. 6) iv. 68 The hard tip to the beak of unhatched birds, used for breaking the egg. fig. 1602 Shaks. Ham. i. iii. 65 But doe not dull thy palme, with entertainment Of each vnhatch't, vnfledg'd Comrade. 1635 Pagitt Christianog. 223 Papall Indulgences were then unhatched. a 1652 J. Carew Poems Wks. (1824) 85 Though niggard Time left much unhatch'd by deeds.

†Unhatched, ppl. a.[2] Obs. [Un-[1] 8 + Hatch v.[2]] Unhacked; unstained.

1601 Shaks. Troil. N. iii. iv. 257 Vlis. I pray you sir what is in her? Tro. His knight dubb'd with vnhatch't Rapier. 1619 Fletcher Kat. Malte ii. v, Tender, and full of tears our blushing Sex is, Unhardned with relentless thoughts; unhatcht With blood, and bloudy practice.

Unhatted, a. (Un-[1] 9.)

1832 Miss Mitford Village Ser. v. 197 Frederick of Prussia's unhatted soldier. 1847 Hughes Friends in C. i. ii. 31 A great, unhatted, uncravated, bearded man. 1893 Westm. Gaz. 22 Apr. 2/3 He was unhatted, but he leant forward with a graceful bow.

Dial. spec. (Soc. Hat sb. 3.)

1880 Sat. Rev. 25 Dec. 808/1 Bembe..in his pleasant, unregenerate, because still unhatted, days.

Unhaunted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

†1. Not practised or used. Obs.[1]

1533 Bellenden Livy iii. C. 1. 298 Noch knawand (quhy be thing (qua) as ay mony 3eris sche vnhantit and out of consuetude) was brocht agane in vse.

2. Not frequented; lonely, solitary.

1568-9 Act 11 Eliz. in Bolton Stat. Irel. (1621) 369 Enormities that have followed of the disordered trade of aliens to creekes and vnhaunted portes. 1581 J. Bell Haddon's Answ. Osm. 349 b Nor were they sojourning then in ye Cities, or Townes. But coucht close..in vnhaunted woodes and fenes. 1617 Campion Wks. (1909) 181 We both will sit in some vnhaunted shade. 1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharonnida iv. 94 Like beauteous flowers, which vainly waste the scent Of odors in unhanted desarts.

3. Not haunted by (or of) something.

1818 Cobbett Pol. Reg. XXXIII. 162 [They] can lay their heads on their pillows unhaunted by the apprehension of seeing him no more. 1819 Keats Indolence ii, Unhanted quite of all but—nothingness. 1866 Howells Venet. Life ii. 21 Unhaunted by any pang for the decay that afterwards saddened me..; I glided on.

Hence Unhauntedness.

1612 Florio, Infrequenza, vnhauntednesse.

Unhauting, vbl. sb. (Un-[1] 13.) 1538 Elyot, Inconsuetudo, sildomnes of vse in any thynge, vnhauntynge of a place. †Unhaving, vbl. sb. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 13.) c 1449 Pecock Repr. i. xvi. 89 For learne which y haue known come bi defaut and the vnhauying and the vnknowing of this..consideracioun.

Unha'zarded, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
1588 Howard in Laughton State Papers Defeat Armada (1894) I. 288 There shall be nothing either neglected or unhazarded, that may work their overthrow. 1649 Milton Eikon. v. Wks. 1851 III. 376 He..hath himselfe left nothing unhazarded to keep three [kingdoms]. 1671 — Samson 809 Here I should still enjoy thee day and night,..Whole to my self, unhazarded abroad. 1885 [see Unessayed].

Unha'zarding, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1807 Southey Espriella's Lett. III. 75 Their habits of patient and unhazarding industry ensure success.

Unha'zardous, a. (Un-[1] 7.)
1682 Dryden Ob. Guise Epist. A j b, 'Tis enough, my Lord, that your Pen was neither obscure in it, nor unhazardous. 1802-12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) II. 227 It is in the honest and unhazardous task of recollection that he employs himself. 1891 T. Hardy Tess xiii, The fact..lent Tess's..position, by its fearsomeness, a far higher fascination than it would have exercised if unhazardous.

Unhea'd, v. [Uk-[2] 4. Cf. MDu. onthoveden, onthooden (also Du.), MLG. enthoveden, MHG. enthouheten, -houpten (G. enthaupten).]
1. trans. To behead (a person).
c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints i. (Peter) 377 For, lo, as I vnhevdyt wes, ..ye thrid day, as I sad to he,..I am resine. Ibid. xxxi. (Eugenia) 432 Schlo..gert pe lord pe gerle ta, &..At hyr tysinge gert hyme vnhed. a 1704 T. Brown Wks. (1720) II. 360 You..did not only dare to uncrown, but to unhead a Monarch. a 1734 North Examen. iii. vii. § 98 (1740) 580 Legs and Arms lay scattered about, Heads undressed, and Bodies unheaded.
2. To deprive or divest of a head, top, or end.
1612 Florio, Scapezzare, to vntop, to vnhead, to shred or lop trees on the top. 1725 Pardon Dict. s.v. Verpice, And when you have a mind to have your Verpiice you must unhead the Barrel, and you will find it very good. 1778 W. Pryce Min. Cornub. 98 They often meet with a Cross-Gossan, which..unheads and hoists off the continuity of the Lode they work upon. 1843 Tizard Brewing 473 When steam is not to be had, stinking casks need unheading.

Unhea'ded, a. [Un-[1] 9.] Destitute or devoid of a head, in various senses.
(a) 1586 J. Hooker Hist. Ireal. 94/1 in Holinshed II, The most part of those arrowes, which were shot ouer the walles, were vnheaded. 1600 J. Pory tr. Leo's Africa Introd. 36 A kinde of small slender dartes or pikes, some whereof are headed with some kinde metall, the residue being unheaded.
(b) 1668 Torelli Serpents 60 This monster..nor man nor dragon is..But man unslegged, and snake unheaded.
(c) 1607 Purilaine Widdow v. iv. 8 Such is the blind besotting in the state of an vnheaded woman thats a widdow. 1673 Temple Obs. United Prov. Wks. 1720 I. 16 The People were enraged, but awed and unheaded.

†Unhea'l. Obs. [OE. unhēle, -o, unhēl (Un-[1] 12 + Heal sb.),=OHG. unhailī, -heilī fem. Cf. MDu. (rare) and Du. onheil, MLG. unheil, OHG. unhail, unheil (also MHG., G.), Goth. unhaili neut.] Want of health or soundness; infirmity, trouble, misfortune.
c 900 Laws of Ine § 56 Sif mon hwelcne ceap gebyrede, & he ponne onfinde him hwelce unhalo on [etc.]. c 893 K. Ælfred Oros. iv. iv. 164 þa ðe þær on unhælce wæran. c 950 Lindisf. Gosp. Matt. iv. 23 Hælend..hælende all unhælne & all untrymnie in folce. c 1000 Rule of Chrodegang vii, þæt nan ne beo æpsæd..butan hwa for unhælce..ne mage. c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 39 Dos word sede þe engel..nuht for englen unhele þe habbeð eche hele, ne for mannen unhele. a 1225 Leg. Kath. 1064 He..healde halte & houserede, & euch unheale. a 1300 Cursor M. 8137 Mikel on him he had vnhele, Thritti yere had ben mesel. c 1386 Chaucer Doctor's T. 216 Saue Emye allone I am sorye I so coughe memeves wele And glad is of his sorwe and his vnhele. c 1450 Holland Houlate 254 It neidis nocht to renewe all myn vnhele.

Unheal, var. Unhele v.

Unhea'lable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b.] Incapable of being healed; incurable.
1382 Wyclif Ecclus. xxviii. 30 Lest paraueniture..thi fallyng be vnhealable in to the deth. — Isaiah xiv. 6 The Lord to-broseele the staf of vnpitous men..with an vnhealable plage. 1611 Cotgr., Incurable,..vnhealeable. a 1661 Fuller Worthies, Warwick. III. (1662) 125 He in his Youth was afflicted with an unhealable Sprain in his Hip. 1795 Coleridge Let. to Southey 135 Of innovation they see dreadful and unhealable consequence. 1852 Thackeray Philip xx, In the midst of feuds unhealable. 1891 F. W. Newman J. H. Newman v. vi, A most painful breach, through mere religious creed, broke on me..; and was unhealable.
absol. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. II. v. xii, Lafayette indites his emphatic Letter..against Jacobinism; which..will not heal the unhealable.

Unhea'led, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8. Cf. NFris. unhaled, Du. ongeheeld, MHG. ungeheilet, G. -heilt.) a 1225 Ancr. R. 328 Forði he iwende awei unhealed..nit of þe temple. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. VII. liv. (Bodl. MS.), But if he leue one (hemorrhoid) vnheled it is perile. a 1425 Academe's Trans. Pistolle, etc. 44 If ye fynger..of any man haue be long vnheled of vnwise cure. 1500-20 Dunbar Poems xc. 22 Off tuenty woundis, and ane be left unheilit (Quhat awaldis the leiching of the laif? 1573 Barst Alc. V 142 Unheled, vnseared. 1647 Heyman I. Vnheal'd, engenerate. 1795 Hylen M. Williams Lett. on France I. 251 Whom the tyrants had dragged to prison, while the wounds were yet unheaded, which he had received in defending his country. 1846 Trench Mirac. xxxi. (1866) 444 Their condemnation was..thus being unhealed, they counted themselves whole. 1834 R. W. Church Bacon vi. 154 The wounds of Ireland were unhealed.

†Unhea'lful, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7.] Unwholesome. c 1400 tr. Secreta Secret., Gem. Lordsh. 79 Pay ar vnhelful, as þos stondyng waters. Ibid., Waters..hote and vnhelful.

Unhea'lth. [Un-[1] 12: cf. Unheal.] Want of health; weak or poor health.
c 1000 Ags. Gosp. Luke v. 31 Ne bedurfon læces þa ðe hale synd, ac þa ðe unhælþe habbaþ. a 1050 Liber Scintill. xxxviii. (1889) 107 Manega..menn þurh uin lichaman unhælþe meste togederetungan. a 1200 Moral Ode 323 Ac þer his hunger ne þurst ne deð, ne vnhelþe ne elde. a 1250 Prov. Ælfred 113 in O. E. Misc. 108 Penne cumeþ elde, and vnhelþe. 1551 Parry in Macm. Mag. XLV. 454 Her Grace's unhealth hath made it [her hand] weaker, and so unsteady. 1826 Coleridge in D. Campbell Life (1894) 267 note, I am at present sadly below even my par of health, or rather unhealth. 1853 Kingsley Misc. I. 316 The spokesman..of all the unrest and unhealth of sensitive young men for many a year after.

Unhea'lthful, a. [Un-[1] 7.]
1. = Unhealthy a. 1.
1580 Sidney Ps. xxii. 1, My God,..from me why is thy presence taken? Soe farre from seeing mine unhealthfull eyes. 1600 Surflet Countrie Farme I. xv. 95 They be small, alwaies leane, vnhealthfull, and their flesh of small reiish. 1683 Trotty Wrongs to Hebeth 300 These latter forts of People ..are certainly the most unhealthful men in the World. ? 1737 Bolingbroke Study Hist. vii, Charles the second: an unhealthful youth. 1768-74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 81 Many come into the world maimed, weakly, and unhealthful. absol. 1660 R. Coke Power & Subj. 164 That you may never in the same manner judge rich and poor,..the healthful and unhealthful.
b. Of life, growth, etc.
1595 in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. III. IV. 124 In my decyninge and unhealthfull yeres. 1612 T. Taylor Comm. Titus I. 13 Of an vnhealthfull..and painfull life men are so weary, as they would seeke for death. 1786 Abercrombie Gard. Assist. 217 Any plants of an infirm, unhealthful, stunted, growth. 1831 Willis Poem. Brown University 88 Unhealthful fires burn constant in his eye. 1895 Atlantic Monthly Mar. 340 The bark peels away in strips, leaving them in white unhealthful nakedness.
2. = Unhealthy a. 2.
1598 Florio, Insalubre, vnholsome, vnhealthfull. 1653 W. Ramesey Astrol. Restored 303 The Winter following will be very unhealthful and obnoxious to all creatures. 1683 Dryden Life Bucharis Pr. Lives I. 5 Being also expos'd to the winds which blew from that quarter, the town was perpetually unhealthful. 1756 C. Lucas Ess. Waters I. 56 All countries where stagnant waters abound must be unhealthful. 1784 Cowper Task IV. 563 The unhealthful East, That breathes the spleen, and searches ev'ry bone Of the infirm. 1841 Myers Cath. Th. III. § 50, 103 Such Rest..is sweeter far than any which unhealthful indolence..can supply. 1865 Mrs. Whitney Gayworthys xxiii, There was truly something in the air that had made the place unhealthful to her.

Unhea'lthfully, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1677 Miege II. s.v., To live somewhere unhealthfully. 1846 Worcester.

Unhea'lthfulness. [Un-[1] 12.] Unhealthiness: a. Of persons.
1589 Puttenham Eng. Poesie I. viii. (Arb.) 33 Horace..was thought meete..to be Secretarie of estate,..which neuertheless herefised for his vnhealthfulnesse sake. 1612 Cotgr., Indisposition, .. vnhealthfulnesse. a 1676 Whitelocke Memorials (1732) 378 Which occasioned sir Thomas Widdrington to..excuse himself..because of his unhealthfulness. 1797 Bailey (vol. II), Sickliness, Unhealthfulness.
b. Of places, climate, etc.
1598 Florio, Insalubrita, vnhealthfulnes. 1626 Bacon Sylva § 786 margin, Experiment Solitary, touching the Healthfulnesse or Vnhealthfulnesse of the Southern wind. 1673 in Misc. Cur. (1708) II. 246 The Town lying in a bottom, ..the Air may be infected, and contribute to its unhealthfulness. 1757 J. H. Grose Voy. E. Indies 48 Bombay, in fact, had long born an infamous character for unhealthfulness. 1822 Annual Chron. VIII. 127 The unhealthfulness of Madagascar. 1897 Bryce Impress. S. Africa 2 Its unhealthfulness is a factor of prime importance.

Unhea'lthily, adv. (Un-[1] 11.)
1644 Milton Divorce (ed. 2) Pref. A 2, Which..puffs up unhealthily the big face of pretended learning. 1673 Kirkman Unlucky Citizen x. 171 She..lived poor and unhealthily, wanting and miserably. 1807 Sir R. Wilson in Life (1862) II. 302 His face was very pale and unhealthily full. 1896 Miss Yonge Womanskind xxxi, When a child is dressed cumbrously or unhealthily because it is the fashion.

Unhea'lthiness. [Un-[1] 11.] The quality or condition of being unhealthy: a. Of persons, etc.
1634 Sir T. Herbert Trav. 25 Doubtlesse their too much farcinating..acted rather their vnhealthiness. 1727 Bailey (vol. II), Unhealthiness, sickliness, unhealthful Quality or Condition. 1789 W. Buchan Dom. Med. (1790) 7 One great source of the diseases of children is, the unhealthiness of parents. 1828-32 Webster s.v., The unhealthiness of trees or other plants. 1851 Hawthorne Tanglewd T. I. vi. 207 A certain unhealthiness in the mind of the boy.
b. Of places, climate, etc.
1666 Sancroft Lex Ignea 51 To scatter the Cloud of the last years unhealthiness. 1697 Dampier Voy. I. 224 Whether it was the badness of the Water, or the unhealthiness of the Town was the cause of it we did not know. 1773 Cook's Voy. III. xi. 111, 728 In less than a week, we were sensible of the unhealthiness of the climate. 1871 Napheys Prev. & Cure Dis. I. viii. 205 Hence the unhealthiness of brilliantly lighted apartments. 1898 Trans. Sch. Geog. (U.S.) Oct. 300 The chief..cause of the unhealthiness of the city.

Unhea'lthsome, a. Now rare. [Un-[1] 7.]
The spelling with -same in quots. 1597-9 is due to the Dutch origin of the translations (after Du. -saeme).
1. Unwholesome.
1544 Betham Precepts War II. xxxviii. K vij, To make the water noysome and vnhealthsome to thyne enemies. 1599 A. M. tr. Gabelhouer's Bk. Physicke 378/1 Experience also hath taught the same to defende any man from vnhealthsome ayre. 1621 Heywood's Fables (1832) 50 Unhealthsome meat is of ane sairie Mouse. a 1860 J. Younger Autobiog. (1881) 130 No corn in these years was substantial; all meal black 'mattened' and unhealthsome.
2. Unhealthy.
1597 A. M. tr. Guillemeau's Fr. Chirurg. 23/1 In aged persons, and in those which are vnhealthsame of bodye. Ibid. 52/1 Those which..have binn badlye nourished, we call vnhealthsame people.
Hence Unhea'lthsomeness. † Obs.

1613 Purchas Pilgrimage (1614) 688 The aire is vnholesome. But what vnhealthsomenesse can there be found, where God is found?

Unhea'lthy, a. [Un-[1] 7.]
1. Of persons, etc.: Not possessed of good health; weak or sickly in health. b. Path. Not in a sound or healthy condition; diseased, morbid. Also absol.
1611 Cotgr., Mal-sain,..sicklie, crazie, vnhealthie. 1813 J. Thomson Lect. Inflam. 424 When they exceed this, and take on a growing disposition, they are then unhealthy. 1825 T. Hook Sayings Ser. II. 61 A watering-place, one of the most fashionable resorts for the idle and unhealthy. 1862 A. Meadows Man. Midwifery v. ii. 181 They are apt to take on afterwards unhealthy inflammation. 1877 W. Roberts Spontaneous Generation 22 We know that when a wound becomes unhealthy, as surgeons term it, the discharges become offensive.
2. Of places, climate, etc.: Prejudicial or hurtful to health; insalubrious; unwholesome.
1595 in Hakluyt Voy. (1600) III. 587 The towne was situated in a waterie soile,..very vnhealthy, as may appe in the Indies. 1616 W. Browne Brit. Past. II. i. 785 Then mists from marishes,..From standing pooles and fens were following Vnhealthy fogs. 1739 Labelye Piers Westm. Bridge 72 The opposite Shore,..cover'd with unhealthy Ooze and Filth. 1740 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 275 That very unhealthy and dangerous climate. 1805 Med. Jrnl. XV. 17 It was now the most unhealthy season of the year. 1887 Scott Chron. Canongate iv. These were was a trade so unhealthy yet, but men would fight to get wark at it. 1884 in Cawston Street Improv. London (1893) 108 We bought shops and warehouses on just the same terms as we bought unhealthy dwellings.
3. fig. (See Healthy a. 3.)
1821 Lamb Elia I. Imperfect Sympathies, I do feel the differences of mankind, national or individual, to an unhealthy excess. 1849 W. S. Mayo Kaloolah v. (1850) 39 He had set himself against what his good sense led him to pronounce an unhealthy..excitement.
4. Comb., as unhealthy-looking adj.
1890 L. C. D'Oyle Notches 98 We steamed away again, through a swampy and unhealthy-looking country. 1890 Reinsbect Med. CLI. 318 The skin is usually described as dusky,..unhealthy looking, or yellowish.

†Unhea'r, v. Obs.[-1] [Un-[1] 14.] trans. To hear not; to refuse to hear.
a 1300 Cursor M. 28793 Certes vr lauerd..for na riche man to here, Vn-liers he pouer man pruier.

Unhearable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1483 Cath. Angl. 184/2 Vn-Hereabylle, in-audibilis.

Unhea'rd, ppl.a. (Un-[1] 8. Cf. NFris. unhiard, ON. and Icel. ó-, óheyrðr (Sw. ohörd, Da. uhørt); also OE. ungehēred (in sense 2), MDu. ongehoert (Du. -hoord), MLG. ungehört, OHG. ungehōret (MHG. -hōrt, -hœrt, G. -hört).]
1. Not caught or apprehended by the sense of hearing; not heard.
a 1300 Cursor M. 25128 Or ai vm-quil vr bon es right, Bot vnherd thorw vr aun pligh. c 1450 Myrr. our Ladye 51 He that wyttyngly leuyth oughte of these holy houres vnsayde & vnharde..he synneth deadly, Ibid. 204 The prayer..may not be vnherde. 1595 Shaks. John iv. ii. 137 But if you be afeard to hearе the worst, Then let the worst vn-heard, fall on your head. 1616 W. Browne Brit. Past. II. i. 769 Clamour grew dumb, vnheard was shepheard's song, And silence girt the woods. 1667 Milton P. L. I. 395 Their children cries unheard, that pass through fire. 1671 id. 645 He drew not nigh unheard. 1740 Young Nt. Th. III. 337 To see what we have seen? Hear, till unheard, the same old slabber'd tale? 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla V. 66 The energy of Mulmond made her approach unheard. 1812 J. Wilson Cityr. North I. 89 Not unheard, although unseen noticed, was the cry of the curlew. 1894 Mrs. Dyan Man's Keeping (1899) 143 Crawing..for the sound of the long-unheard familiar tones.
b. Of persons: Not heard in self-defence or entreaty; not listened to.
1595 Daniel Civ. Wars III. xxii, Neuer shall this poore breath of mine consent That he..Should here be iudgd vnheard, and vnarraigud. 1606 Shaks. Ant. & Cl. III. xii. 24 This if shee performe, She shall not sue vnheard. 1607 — Cor. V. i. 43. 1665 in Verney Mem. (1907) I. 358, I will not condemn you vnheard. 1718 Prior Solomon II. 720 Unheard the injur'd Orphans now complain. 1760 [see Unconvicted]. 1805 Scott Last Minstrel v. xxiii, Unheard he prays;—the death-pang's o'er! Richard of Musgrave breathes no more.
2. Not before heard of; unknown, new, strange.
c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints I. (Catherine) 845 With wahard pane Sa fellounly scho sall be slanne. 1382 Wyclif Esther xvi. 13 For Mardoche..with newe manner and vnherd engynes ful out askide [Haman] in to deth. 1459 Rolls of Parlt. V. 346/1 His fals and traiterous ymaginations,..compassed by the most vnherd mesnes. 1535 Coverdale 2 Macc. iv. 13 The Heithenish & strange conuersacion, brought in throow the vngracious and vnherde wickednesse of Iason. 1586 A. Day Eng. Secretary I. (1625) 23 A huge wonder, of the vnheard secrets neuer before reported of. 1658 Cokaine Trappolin iv. ii, Some unheard malady Vnknown unto the world before. 1677 Yarranton Eng. Improv. 7 Notwithstanding all these strange, and unheard Inconveniences, yet they will not quit their Station. 1746 Francis tr. Horace, Art of Poetry 68 A new-discover'd Theme,..unheard in ancient Times. 1813 Shelley Q. Mab VII. 165 Humbly He came,..His name unheard, Save by the rabble of His native town.
b. More usually with of. (Common from c 1600.)
Hence, in recent use, unheard-of-ness.
1592 Greene Groats W. Wit (1617) 35 If wofull experience may moone you (Gentlemen) to beware, or vnheard of wretchednes intreat you to take heed. 1615 G. Sandys Trav. 145 Inflicting vnheard-of tortures on the patient Christians. 1699 Dryden Phaedra 170 The Phrase was then so new and vnheard of, that it puzzled a whole City. 1752 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 308 An Arminian who governed with unheard of Despotism. 1790

Burke Pr. Rev. 20 This new, and hitherto unheard-of bill of rights. 1848 Thackeray Van. Fair lxvii, She tended him through a series of unheard-of illnesses. 1891 Farrar Darkn. & Dawn xv, From the first he broke out into unheard-of extravagance.

Unhea·ring, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10.)

1785 Burke Sp. Fox's E. Indian Bill Wks. IV. 41 The cries of India are given to seas and winds to be blown about ..over a remote and unhearing ocean. 1828 Lights & Shades II. 106 My own clear Edwardsbearing. 1873 Hood Queen's Wake Concl. xxxviii, The Border chiefs, that long had been In sepulchres unhearsed and green.

Unhea·rse, v. (Un-² 5. The exact sense is doubtful.) 1596 Spenser F. Q. v. iii. 37 He..from him reft his shield, and it renuerst, .. And himselfe bafluld, and his armes vnherst. Unhea·rsed, ppl. a. (Un-² 8.) 1609 Lamb To a River, etc. ii, In thy channel, ..Deep immersed, and unharsed, Lies young Edwardsbearing. 1823 Hood Queen's Wake Concl. xxxviii, The Border chiefs, that long had been In sepulchres unhearsed and green.

Unhea·rt, v. (Un-² 4. Cf. MDu. ontherten, MHG. and G. entherzen.) trans. To deprive of heart; to dishearten. Also Unhea·rted ppl. a.

1593 Pass. Morrire (1876) 76 My..sences gon, my bodie have vnharted; so that I live alive, as being dead. 1607 Shaks. Cor. v. i. 49 Yet to bite his lip, And humme at good Cominius, much vnhearts mee. 1650 Let. Cens. & Redarguition Lilburne Verses, Which scorn the Son of Noble Jonathan, As a desponding, poore unhearted man. 1830 Carlyle Richter & De Staël Ess. 1840 II. 431 It is probbleshe knows only the French (un-souled and un-hearted) Shakspeare.

† Unhea·rt's-ease. Obs. (Un-¹ 12.)

1470 Paston Lett. II. 405 Wretyn with onhertes ease the Monday next affir Relifes Sonday. c 1530 Lo. Berners Arth. Lyt. Bryt. (1814) 70 It is a great shame for you ..thus to suffre payne and vnhertes ease.

Unhea·rtsome, a. Sc. and north. (Un-¹ 7.)

1637 Rutherford Lett. I. clxxix (1664) 317 It is an unheartsom thing to see our Father & mother agree so ill. 1752 E. Erskine Serm. Wks. 1871 III. 440 A melancholy unheartsome habitation would this be. 1876 Whitby Gloss. 206/2 Unheartsome, .without affection. 1877 Crockett Lochinvar xxi, An unsanny and unheartsome journey.

Unhea·rty, a. [Un-¹ 7.]

†1. Faint-hearted, spiritless. Obs.

c 1440 Promp. Parv. 237/2 Herdles, or vnherty, vecors. c 1482 J. Kay tr. Coeur-de's Siege of Rhodes 72 They had not ..to fyghte wyth men of Asea..couwerdes and unherty as women.

2. Not hearty or cordial.

1583 Melbancke Philotimus X j b, I..salute thy ingratitude with an vnharte greeting. 1621 First & Second Bk. Dindil. 11 Such as embrace the true religion were not onely vnhearthe friends, but..great hinderers. 1784 J. Brown Hist. Brit. Ch. (1823) II. v. 188 Most of the English either declined serving in the invasion, or were very unhearty in it.

3. Sc. Listless, dispirited; in poor condition.

a 1698 J. Fraser Mem. (1738) 136, I..lost my Assurance, Peace, and Strength, and became very unhearty and indisposed. 1823 Jamieson Suppl.

Unhea·ted, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

a 1691 Boyle (J.) Neither salts, nor the distilled spirits of them can penetrate the narrow pores of unheated glass. 1768 Sterne Sent. Journ. I. 78 Submitting the offer, and themselves with it, to be sifted, by an unheated mind. 1843 Civil Eng. & Arch. Journ. VI. 304/1 A blast of atmospheric air, in the natural or unheated state. 1883 World's Cycl. Sci. 15 As attraction is weak in the gases of the Earth's atmosphere—comparatively unheated.

Unhea·ven, v. (Un-² 5.)

1609 J. Davies (Heref.) Holy Roode Wks. (Grosart) I. 28/2 Vnheav'n your selues, ye holy Cherubins, And giue attendance on your Lord, in Earth. 1639 Gauden Tears Ch. II. xxviii. 242 How should all men..be..vnsainted,vnheaven'd, ..if them men might not have their wills. 1844 L. Hunt Our Cottage 97 Heav'n..held us flimsy triflers—gnats i' the sun—Made but for play, and so to die, unheav'n'd.

Unhea·venly, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1752 Law Spirit of Love I. (1766) 21 To remove every Thing that is unheavenly, pure, dark, from every Part of this fallen World. 1823 Moore Loves of Angels Introd. 61 Still fair and glorious, he but shone Among those youths th' unheavenliest one. 1893 J. Pulsford Loyalty to Christ II. 230 He feels that he is very unheavenly, very unworthy.

Unhe·aged, (ppl.) a. (Un-¹ 8, 9.)

1648 Hexham II, Onheymst, Vnhedged, or Vnfenced. 1743 Young Nt. Th. v. 741 Our needful knowledge, like our unheaged fence, Shall lyes open in life's common field. 1855 Lewes Goethe I. 98 The botanist despairs of flowers on the unhedged plains of France. 1868 Morris Earthly Par. (1870) I. i. 345 The fair abode..o'erlooked, across the road, Unhedged green meads.

Unhe·d, v. [Un-¹ 14.] trans. To pay no heed to, to disregard. (Cf. Unheeding ppl. a. 2 b.) 1847 Illustr. Lond. News 17 July 39/2 The girl..began to unheed his solicitations. 1865 J. Pulsford Jesus Revealing Heart of God (ed. 2) 19 He unheeds the charges brought against him.

Unhe·ded, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1611 Cotgr., Improueu, vnprouided for,..vnheeded, vnthought vpon. 1660 Boyle New Exp. Phys.-Mech. xxxviii. 320 Whether it were due to any unheeded accident, or to the execution of the Air. 1776 Gray Statius i. 21 He..scornful flung th' unheeded weight Aloof. 1748 Anson's Voy. III. v. 336 A good meal was neither an uncommon nor an unheeded article. 1827 Shelley Prometh. Unb. II. iv. 26 Pains, whose unheeded and familiar speech Is howling. 1864 Pusey Lect. Daniel (1876) 326 Only one or two raised an unheeded doubt.

b. In predicative use.

1628 Creech Lucretius IV. 126 The fleeting images, Unseen, unheeded, cease. 1790 Paton Henry & Emma 666 Succeeding Years their happy Race shall run; And Age unheeded by Delight come on. 1783 Crabbe Village I. 293 His drooping patient,..long unheeded, knows remonstrance vain. 1824 Miss L. M. Hawkins Annaline II. 221 [She] left them when she found that her warning to take rest passed unheeded. 1875 Jowett Plato (ed. 2) I. 33 He cannot let the thought..pass away unheeded and unexamined.

Hence Unhe·dedly adv.

1828 Byron Ch. Harr. IV. xlii, And such the frenzy,..that, beneath the fray, An earthquake reel'd unheededly away! 1842 Shelley Epipsych. 421 Day, and Storm, and Calm,.. Treading each other's heels, unheededly.

Unhe·dful, a. (Un-¹ 7.) Heedless.

1579 Lewins Manib. 186 Vnheedful, incautus. 1591 Shaks. Two Gentl. II. vi. 11 Vn-heedfull vowes may heedfully be broken. 1631 Heylin St. George 28 Some secret venome, which the unheedfull Reader may swallow unawares. 1710 Cibber Apol. (1756) I. 175 He so often lost the value of them by an unheedful confidence. 1782 Eliz. Blower Geo. Bateman II. 171 The glassman, unheedful of his threats, picked up the half-crown. 1824 J. Graham Sabbath 25 The tell-worn horse,..Unheedful of the pasture. 1842 Tennyson Gardener's Dau. 261 As once we met Unheedful, tho' beneath a whispering rain [etc.].

So Unhe·dfully adv.; Unhe·dfulness.

1592 Shaks. Two Gentl. I. ii. 3 Would'st thou then counsaile me to fall in loue? Luc. I Madam, so you stumble not vnheedfully. 1586 W. Webbe Eng. Poetrie (Arb.) 91 Such errours doo happen..by vnheedefulnes, when one escapeth them by negligence. 1603 Breton Pocket Mad Lett. II. lxxxv, I know you..therefore doe thus kindly touch the hurt of vnheedfulnesse.

†Unhee·dily, adv. [Un-¹ 11.] Heedlessly.

1596 Spenser F. Q. iv. x. 13 Whose manner was all passengers to stay,..Through which some lost great hope vnheedily. 1603 Florio Montaigne II. xxxv. 428 Beseeching him, that she wold not so vnheedily loose her self. 1629 H. Burton Truth's Triumph 301 If vnheedily thou hast fallen vpon the same rocks. 1720-1 Lett. fr. Mist's Jrnl. (1722) II. 279 Anything that has this Name of it deceives them, who unheedily take the Title for the Reality.

†Unhee·diness. Obs. [Un-¹ 12.] Unheedfulness, heedlessness.

1486 Lichfield Gild Ord. (1920) 21 That the seid summe.. by vnheedynes, blame, and neglygens of keepers..ys now diminyssched. 1596 Dalrymple Leslie's Complex. 23 b, Them y^t he phlegmatick, they helpe forward, to slouth,..sleapines, reclleasse vnheedynes. 1607 R. Wilkinson Serm. at Whitehall 9 She sailes not, but by sounding, lest by her vnheedines she runne her self aground. 1642 Br. Mountagu Acts & Mon. (1642) 276 The wicked practices..whereto, through unheedinesse the two young men had given great fomentation.

Unhee·ding, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10, 5 d.)

1. Not giving heed; heedless, inattentive.

pred. 1737 Glover Leonidas vi. (1810) 111 Some torn deer, which..Had roam'd, unheeding, in the secret shade. 1816 Byron Parisina x, All silent and unheeding now, With downcast eyes and knitting brow. 1848 Mrs. Gaskell Mary Barton ix, He sat down by the fire in his wet things, unheeding.

attrib. 1791 Cowper Iliad xvi. 424 Lambs, which haply some unheeding swain Hath left to roam at large the mountains wild. 1817 Shelley Rev. Islam II. x, These words had fallen on my unheeding ear. 1872 Black Adv. Phaeton xxvi. 355 Groups of unheeding trees and streams.

2. Const. of, or with direct object.

(a) 1795 Fate of Sedley II. 198, I ramble over the country unheeding of the storm. 1840 T. Hook Fitzherbert II. vi. 153 To pull the rose unheeding of the thorn.

(b) 1798 Southey Joan of Arc (ed. 2) I. I. 124, I sat in silence,..unheeding and unseeing all Around me. 1835 Lytton Rienzi I. iii, Waving his hand to the smith, and unheeding his brandished weapon. 1892 Gunter Miss Dividends xi, Then, unheeding his proffered aid, Erma descends from the carriage.

Hence Unhee·dingly adv., heedlessly.

1787 William of Normandy II. 126 All the secrets..I unheedingly trusted him with. 1834 Lytton Pilgr. Rhine xix, He passed..unheedingly.

†Unhee·dy, a. Obs. [Un-¹ 7.] Unheedful.

1579 E. K. Gloss to Spenser's Shepherd's Cal. April 26 His presumptuous and vnheedie hardinesse. 1590 Shaks. Mids. N. I. i. 245 Nor hath loues minde of any iudgement taste: Wings and no eyes, figure, vnheedy haste. 1632 Milton Epit. Marchioness Winchester 38 So have I seen som tender slip..Pluck't up by som unheedy swain. 1656 Hobbes Six Lessons Wks. 184/1 VII. 222 So much is unheedy learning a hinderance to the knowledge of the truth. 1787 William of Normandy II. 9 He again set off for his unheedy voyage.

†Unheer, a. dial. Obs. [? OE. unhere, -hère, etc., fierce.] (See quot.) 1691 Ray N. Co. Words (ed. 2) 78 Unheer, adj., impatient. [Hence in Bailey (1721), etc.]

Unheind, var. Unhend a. Obs.

Unheired, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 4 and 8.) c 2611 Chapman Iliad v. 25 If the God..Had not (in..pitie of his Sire, To leane him vtterly vnheird) given safe passe to his feet.

Unhe·id, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8 b; cf. Unholden.) 1622 Warner Alb. Eng. xi. lxv. 279 If amorous Hopes, or Hopes vnheid to him from me had past. 1827 Pollok Course T. v. 661 Forgetful, she leave him, lo, her infant! a while unheid.

Unhele, sb.: see Unheal.

Unhe·le, v. Obs. exc. dial. Forms: 1 unhelan, 2–3 unhelen, 4–6 vnhele, 4–6, 9 dial., unhele (4 oun-), 6 Sc. vnheild-, 6–7 vnheale, 7–8, 9 dial., unheal, 8 unheel, 9 dial. unhale. [OE. unhelan (Un-² 3 + Hele v.): cf. MDu. ontheilen, MHG. entheln, and Unhill v.]

1. trans. To uncover (something) so as to display or make visible; hence fig., to discover, reveal, make patent or known. Also refl.

c 1000 Ags. Gosp. Luke xii. 2 Nis nan þing oferheled, þe ne beo unheled. c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 77 Seinte poul.. mineged us, þat we..cunnen festliche to ure saule leche and unhelen him ure saule wundes. a 1225 Ancr. R. 150 Al so god dede þet wule adenden forworped hire rinde, þet is, unbeleh hire. c 1330 Arth. & Merl. 2639 (Kölbing) ye king.. ladde him fram & gan his priuete vnhele, & bad, þat he it schuld hele. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) VIII. 161 Here he is i-hud, but he is unheled. 1483 Caxton Gold. Leg. 249/1 Netheles the body of sayny laurence was discouerd and unheled by ygnorance. 1530 Tyndale Practice Prelates H vij, Thou shalt not vnhele ye secretes of thy brothers wyffe. 1590 Spenser F. Q. ii. xii. 64 Then suddeinly both would themselues vnhele.

2. To uncover so as to leave open or exposed; to strip of covering or (freq.) roofing material.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 58 Auh þe dom is ful strong upon hure þet unheleð þene put. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) I. 367 þere was a welle in þat lond..alle wey i-heled; and sif it were vnheled, he welle wexe and adrenche al þe lond. 1393 Langl. P. Pl. C. xx. 301 Yf hus hous be vnheled and reyne on hus bedde. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. II. 56 Yet wol this werk the roote..Vnhele or kerue, and cold hit after quelle. 1501 Douglas Pal. Hon. II. xlv, I heelill law, and vnheilcilit hy heid. 1551 Southampton Court Leet Rec. (1905) I. 28 Robarde foster hathe vnhelilyde partte off thomas cupers housse. 1604 Marston Malcontent II. iii. D j b, Would I were forcde To burne my fathers Tombe, vnheale [rpr. vnhill] his bones,..rather than this. 1620 G. Fletcher Christ's Tri. II. ix, Thear should the Swallowe see..the grave vnheale his face, To let the living from his bowels creepe. 1730 Bugden Passage of Hurricane fr. Rehilly 49 Mr John Collier had..the ridging of the house unheeled. 1742 Phil. Trans. XLI 852 It presently unhealed the House we were in. 1848[4] in Eng. Dial. Dict. s.v. Unheal (Wilts, Dorset, Som., Devon). 1891 T. Hardy Tess xlvii, They were busily ‘unhaling’ the rick, that is, stripping off the thatch.

†b. In pa. pple. Of the head: Uncovered. Obs.

1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. xiv. 232 He goth to cold beddynge, And his heued vn-heled vn-esliche i-wrye. a 1400–50 Alexander 3450 Hire hede vnheled was onhige & hild all in trissis.

Hence Unhe·ler ; Unhe·ling vbl. sb.

c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode III. xvii. (1869) 144 This hand is an vnmakere of howses, and an ‘vnhelere and brekere of cofres. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. v. xxvii. (Bodl. MS.), In scutis (febribus) Vnheling and puttinge oute of bare armes is tokene of deep. 1640 in Archaeol. Cant. (1902) XXV. 8 His mother being then in distress, by reason of the unhealing of her house by the late severe time.

Unhe·lm, v. (Un-² 4, 7. Cf. Du. onthelmen.)

1. refl. and trans. To divest (oneself or another) of a helmet.

refl. c 1400 Pilgr. Soule (Caxton, 1483) IV. xxxviii. 66 This knyght..vnhelmed hym, and come before the kynge. c 1468 in Archaeol. (1846) XXXI. 338 Then the Duke unhelmed hyme, and..chargid pece in paine of deth. 1587 Holinshed Chron. (ed. 2) III. 895/1 When the lists were doone, the king & all the other vnhelmed, & rode about the tilt. 1632 J. Hayward tr. Biondi's Eromena 100 Striving to unhelme himself..he taking his brothers hand, would needs kisse it. 1801 Strutt Sports & Past. III. i. 124 The laws of the tournament permitted any one of the combatants to unhelm himself at pleasure. 1866 Lawrence Sans Merci xii, The five kings..unhelmed themselves to quench their thirst.

trans. 1470–85 Malory Arthur x. lxxxvi. 565 Thenne they vnarmed them. And whanne syr Launcelot was vnhelmed, sir Trisiram and syr Palomydes knewe hym. 1525 Ld. Berners Froiss. II. cxxiii. 468 Eche of them strake other on their helmes..With yt^l sayynt the lorde of sayynt Pye was vnhelmed. 1587 Hughes Hieffort. Arthour v. 1, Vnhealme his luckelesse head, set bare his face. 1819 Scott Ivanhoe xii, The marshals..unhelmed him by cutting the laces of his casque. 1848 Lytton Harold XII. ix, They unhelmed another corpse.

2. intr. To take off one's own helmet.

1865 J. M. Ludlow Epics Mid. Ages II. 228 Nor will she let William in till he has unhelmed.

Unhe·lmed, (ppl.) a.[1] [f. prec., or f. Un-¹ 9 + Helm sb.[1]] a. Divested of a helmet. b. Not covered by, or not wearing, a helmet.

[1775 Ash.] 1795 Southey Joan of Arc v. 26 The Maid, her brows in reverence unhelmed,..Knelt to his presence. 1805 — Madoc in Ast. xxii. 5 The victors,..With unhelm'd heads, reclining on their shields. 1834 Beckford Italy II. 317 Here,..bare-headed and unhelmed, kneel the figures [etc.]. 1868 Morris Earthly Par. (1870) I. i. 20 By his side unhelmed, but armed, stood one.

Unhe·lmed, (ppl.) a.[2] [Un-¹ 8, 9 + Helm sb.[2] or v.[2]] Unguided, ungoverned.

1628 Feltham Resolves II. xxiv. 78 As if hee were an imperfect Prince, that leaueth an vnhelmed State. 1794 Coleridge Relig. Musings 126 Embattling Interests on each other rush With unhelmed rage.

Unhe·lmet, v. [Un-² 4.] = Unhelm v. 1823 Scott Quentin xvi, He was compelled to dismount,..and unhelmet himself.

Unhe·lmeted, a. (Un-¹ 9.)

1823 Scott Quentin D. xxii, His head was unhelmeted, but he wore the rest of his ponderous and bright armour. 1870 Ruskin Lect. Art vi. 153 Next you have Athena, again unhelmeted and crowned with leaves.

†Unhe·lp, sb. Obs. [Un-¹ 12. Cf. MLG. unhulpe disadvantage.] Absence of help; hindrance.

c 1449 Pecock Repr. I. xviii. 108 Manie lettis and manye vnhelpis and manye lackis of helpis. 1483 Cath. Angl. 182/2 Vn Helpe, irrefugium. 1598 Florio, Disaiuto, hinderance, vnhelpe, let.

Unhe·lp, v. [Un-² 3. Cf. MDu. ontheilpen, MLG. entheilpen.] trans. To deprive of help; to hinder.

1598 Florio, Disaiutare, to vnhelpe, to hinder, to disfauour. 1845 T. W. Coit Puritanism 118 They would help him, if thereby they might unhelp Churchmen.

Unhe·lpable, a. (Un-¹ 7 b.) 1886 Illustr. Lond. News 5 June 557/3 The most unhelpable creature possible.

Unhe·lped, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1388 Wycl. Wisd. xii. 5 Fadris and modris, autours of soulis vnhelpid. 1598 Drayton Heroic Ep. 6 That poore king, of all these hopes preuented, Vnheard, vnhelp'd. 1720 Pope Iliad xvii. 580 Unhelp'd we stand, unequal to engage The force of Hector. a 1784 J. Adam Poor Man's Guide (1788) 13 Your case is as much unhelped as if there was not one promise there. 1853 Ruskin Stones Ven. III. ii. 53 Let him consider..how many living souls may have been left uncomforted and unhelped by him. 1888 Bryce Amer. Commw. II. 531 Nor will the opposite party always accept the proffered help..; sometimes it hopes to win unhelped.

Unhe·lpful, a. [Un-1 7.]

1. Unable to help; not rendering help.

1593 Shaks. 2 Hen. VI, III. 1. 218 Euen so my selfe bewayles good Glosters case With sad vnhelpefull teares, and with dimn'd eyes. 1643–5 Milton Divorce II. xvii, A blamelesse creature, ..to whose ease you cannot adde the tithe of one smill atome, but by letting alone your unhelpfull surgery. 1856 Miss Yonge Daisy Chain I. xvii, Standing unhelpful, when the others were busy bringing in the benches. 1880 Swinburne Stud. Shakes. 62 As yet the one contemporary book..remains..inaccessible and unhelpful to students.

2. Helpless, shiftless. Also absol.

1855 I. Taylor Restor. Belief (1856) 290 The luckless, the unhelpful, the feeble,..receive such help as their several cases call for.

Hence Unhe·lpfulness.

1626 Br. Hall Contempl. O. T. xxx. v, To take vengeance ..for this cold unhelpfulnesse to his distressed Church.

Unhe·lping, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1604 E. Hake (title), Of Golds Kingdome and this Unhelping Age. 1645 W. Jenkyn Still Destroyer 35 View them as usefull and efficacious, not as idle and unhelping. 1861 [Mrs. A. J. Penny] Romance Dull Life xiii. 98 Others of the family came in with kind words and offered help... Poor Constance, alone, sat silent and unhelping.

†Unhe·lpy, a. Obs.–[1 [Un-1 5 a.] Helpless. 1681 Crowne Hen. VI, IV. v, 15 Whilst I with as unhelpless tears bewail The good Man's injuries.

†Unhe·lpy, a. Obs.–1 [Un-1 7. Cf. Da. uhjelpelig, Sw. ohjelplig irremediable; Norw. uhjelpelig unserviceable.] Unhelpful.

1408 tr. Vegetius' Art War (MS. Digby 233) fol. 216/2 At pat is helpliche to hym is vnhelpliche to pe.

Unhe·nmed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Unconfined, unrestrained.

a 1400–50 Alexander 2835 For-þi hoo with þi hatness & þi vn-hemmyd wittes, Avale of þi vanyte.

2. Not furnished with a hem.

1561 in Inventaires de la Royne Descosse (Bannatyne Club) 24 Aucht serviettis of vnhemmit great lyning. 1611 Florio, Inorlato, ..vnhemmed. 1889 Daily News 23 July 3/3 The new little Redfern capes..with their triple row of unhemmed cloth.

†Unhe·nd, a., sb., and adv. [Un-1 7.]

1. Of persons: Discourteous, impolite; ungentle, rude, rough.

c 1205 Lay. 28826 Ne durste nauere nan vn-hende þas kinges his isechen. a 1300 Cursor M. 9023 Bot mistru nan ..þat i Thinc sal o womman wilani, If i sua did i war vn-hind [v.r. vnhend]. Ibid. 28426 Gains godd i haue bene vn-hende, þat i wit-halden ha my tende. c 1330 R. Brunne Chron. Wace (Rolls) 16022 But longe er hit was brought til ende, He was slayn wyþ folk vnhende. c 1380 Sir Ferumbras 1965 Par-after schalt þow wende..And take he kyng þat is vnhende. a 1450 Le Morte Arth. 1087 Off foo ne frend, the sothe to say. So vn-hend of thewis is ther none. absol. c 1460 Towneley Myst. XX. 642 My comforth from care may ye sone wyn, If ye happely may hent that vnheynde.

2. Of acts, words, etc.: Unfitting, improper.

c 1205 Lay. 13266 þe frume wes vnhende & al swa wes þe sende. c 1225 Ancr. R. 204 Mid luue speche, oþes, unhende gropunges, þet beoð heaued sunnen. a 1300 Cursor M. 27734 Vnheind talking, o dede vtrage,..Hurtes grett, and sclander and tene. c 1400 Emare 445 The old qwene spakke wordes unkende. c 1425 Cast. Persev. 2000 in Macro Pl. 138 Þis day ȝe dyth a good defens! Whyl Mankynde is in good entent, His þouhts arn vn-hende.

b. sb. Trouble, mischief.

1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. xx. 185 'Sire euel-ytauȝte elde,' quod I, 'vnhende go with the!'

3. adv. Improperly; unfaithfully.

1338 R. Brunne Chron. (1810) 259 Ȝe sette a certeyn þing, at ȝour bope assent,..Þou brak þat certeynte wikkedly & vnhende.

†Unhe·ndly, adv. Obs. [Un-1 11.] Discourteously, rudely, roughly; improperly.

a 1225 Leg. Kath. 1270 He..bet, on hat heorte, unhendeliche neomen hire. 1297 R. Glouc. (Rolls) 8540 He it vorsok vnhendeliche & in vaire manere none. c 1350 Will. Palerne 492 Now witterly ich am vn-wis..Þus vn-hendly & hard mi herte to blame. c 1400 Destr. Troy 6929 He hurlet forth vnhyndly, harmyt full mony.

Unhenge, obs. f. Unhinge v.

Unhe·nt, pa. pple. [Un-1 8 b.] Untaken.

c 1350 Will. Palerne 1671, I kan bi no coyntyse knowe nou3 þe best, hw ȝe mowe un-hent or harmles a-schape.

Unhe·ppen, a. north. dial. [Un-1 7 + dial. heppen tidy, handy, a. ON. heppinn (Norw. heppen) lucky, dexterous. Cf. Norw. uheppen.] a. Untidy, slatternly. b. Ungainly, etc.

1790 Grose Prov. Gloss., Unheppen, slatternly. 1824 [Carr] Craven Gloss. 119 Unheppen, unbecoming, uncomfortable, indecent, untidy. 1885– in Eng. Dial. Dict. (Yks., Linc.). 1880 Tennyson Village Wife xvi, An' Lucy wur lazme o' one leg,..Strainge an' unheppen Miss Lucy!

Unhe·ralded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1845 Neale Eastertide 1 Angels iv. in Scatonian Poems (1864) 7 Yet not unheralded by fear, The End of all things shall draw near. 1871 Macduff Mem. Patmos xxii. 315 A prey to the disquieting thought of the unheralded foot-fall. [Freq. in recent use.]

Unhe·rd, v. [Un-2 5, 6 b, 7.]

1. trans. To disperse or separate (cattle, etc.) from a herd.

1611 Florio, Smandrare, to let out of the fold or pen, to vnherd, to scatter cattle. a 1641 Suckling Brennoralt I. i, When I had..at length unhearded the proud Deer, The Currs have snatch'd him up.

2. intr. To break away from the common herd.

1661 Boyle Style of Script. (1675) 175 The..title of a wit, which they hope to acquire by unherding and keeping out of the road.

Unhe·rded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1891 in C. Roberts Adrift in America 91 It is my opinion, after experience..; that unherded sheep do much better than those which are closely looked after. Unhere·ditary, a. (Un-1 7.) 1823 Lamb Elia II. Child Angel, As if to explore its path in those its unheraditary palaces. 1848 J. O'Donovan tr. Four Masters III. 2299 Countless numbers..were buried in strange places and unhereditary churches.

Unhe·ritable, a. [Un-1 7 b.]

†1. Incapable of being heirs. Obs.–1

1553 in Holinshed Chron. (1577) II. 1717/2 Thereby you [are] lustly made illegitimate and vnheritable to the Crowne Imperiall of thys Realme.

2. Uninheritable.

[1775 Ash.] a 1854 H. Reed Lect. Brit. Poets (1857) 384 The glory of Shakspeare's name began and ended with himself, his own unheritable self.

†Unhe·rited, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 8.] Uninherited. 1542 Test. Ebor. (Surtees) VI. 128 An erle or an erles sone and heyre,..his landes beinge unherited. Ibid., A knyghte haveinge the landes unherited. Unherit·ably, a. Obs.–1 [prep. OE. unherite, unhlertie (-hlertie), fierce, savage, dismal.] Repulsive. c 1325 Metr. Hom. 129 Rist als leper mas bodi Ugli, and lathe, and unherly.

Unhero·ic, a. and sb. (Un-1 7.)

1731 Lon. Perspective Let. in Pope's Wks. (1751) VIII. 164 If the translator of Homer find fault with this unheroic disposition. 1745 [see Un-English a. 1]. 1840 Carlyle Heroes v. (1904) 177 Hollow Formulism, gross Benthamism, and other unheroic atheistic Insincerity. 1888 F. Brooks Camelia of Lord 169 The heroic moments in all of our most unheroic lives.

absol. and sb. 1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. IV. 1, The Unheroic of such volumes. Ibid., An Alexandrian Library of Unheroics.

Unhero·ical, a. [Un-1 7.] = prec. 1635–56 Cowley Davideis III. Note r, I call it Nole..; for (methinks) Nob is too unheroical a Name. 1728 J. Tramp tr. Virgil (1735) I. Pref. p. xlix, Nor can I forbear thinking..that the Figure which Vulcan makes..is a little improper, and unheroical.

Unhero·ically, adv. (Un-1 11.) 1834 Beckford Italy I. 39 We procured comfortable though not magnificent apartments, and slept most unheroically sound. 1876 Emerson Lett. & Soc. Aims I. 63 The brains are so marred, so imperfectly formed, unheroically. Unhe·roism. (Un-1 12.) 1845 Carlyle Cromwell (1871) I. 72 Search not for the secret of Heroic Ages..among the-ry falsities, their greedy quackeries and unheroisms! 1871 J. S. Brewer Eng. Stud. (1881) 267 Shakspeare in his unheroism and in his realism was exhibiting..the growing tendency of his own age.

†Unhe·rsumness: see Un-1 3.

Unhese, obs. f. Unease.

Unhe·sitating, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1753 Francis Constantius IV. 48 Answer me: speak; unhesitating speak. 1823 Scott Quentin D. xxiii, I, who have the advantage of your unhesitating devotion, have done you foul and ungrateful wrong. 1862 Shirley (J. Skelton) Nugæ Crit. viii 203 He can discover..little or nothing that can command his clear and unhesitating assent.

Hence Unhe·sitatingness.

1876 Meredith Beauch. Career xl, Unhesitatingness was the warrior virtue of her sphere.

Unhe·sitatingly, adv. [Un-1 11.] Without hesitation; confidently; promptly.

1829 S. H. Cassan Lives Bpp. Bath & Wells 15 note, Such alienations have been unhesitatingly made. 1853 Kane Grinnell Exp. xliii. (1856) 396 They [snowbirds] alight on the decks, and come unhesitatingly to our very feet. 1877 Mrs. Oliphant Makers Flor. iv. 109 All the critics..take his opinion unhesitatingly on this point.

Unhew·ed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8. Cf. MHG. ungehouwet.] = next.

1382 Wyclif Josh. viii. 31 Thanne Josue bilde vp..an auter of stonus vnhewid, the whiche yren hath not touchid. 1612 Drayton Polyolb. IX. 431 With a bended knee On th' unhew'd altar laid. 1644 Bulwer Chiron. 5 If Man were disarmed of this native weapon, the expression of his Tongue would be very weake and unhewed.

Unhew·n, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b. Cf. MDu. on-, MHG. ungehouwen, ON. uhøgginn (MDa. u-, Sw. ohuggen).]

1. Not hacked or cut with weapons.

a 1400–50 Alexander 1945 Besely we shapid Out of þe handis vn-hewyn of oure hatill fais.

2. Not hewn or cut into shape; not fashioned or shaped by hewing.

1382 Wyclif Josh. viii. 31 (MS. Douce 369), An auter of stones vnhewen þe whiche eiren haþ not touchid. 1563 Homes Leviath. IV. xlv. 359 A Stone unhewn has been set up for Neptune. 1797 Mrs. Radcliffe Italian xviii, The walls, of unhewn marble, were high and strengthened by bastions. 1804 Ann. Rev. II. 191 An unhewn log of wood..decorated with red feathers. 1857 Dufferin Lett. High Lat. (ed. 3) 309 This fringe of unhewn timber that lined the beach. 1887 Bowen Æneid III. 688 Pantagia's harbour, a gorge in the unhewn stone.

b. fig. Unpolished, rough, rugged.

1659 Pell Impr. Sea 44 Ignorant, knotty, illiterate, and unhewn Sailors. 1687 Montague & Prior Hind & P. Transv. Wks. 1907 II. 18, I hate such a rough unhewen Fellow as Milton. 1703 Mrs. Centlivre Beau's Duel IV. i, I hope he would will distinguish the difference between a rough, unhewn soldier, and a polish'd Gentleman. 1850 Marsden Early Purit. iii. 71 Cartwright is described as unhewn and awkward.

Unheyle, obs. var. Unhale a.

Unheynd, var. Unhend a. Obs.

Unhid, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.] Not hid; unconcealed.

a 1300 Cursor M. 26617 O sin þat opin es and kid Tak open penance and vn-hid. a 1400–50 Alexander 3437 Bot ȝour harmes were vnhid I held noȝt myne athis c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode I. xxxv. (1869) 22 It is bettere the keyes..ben hid than unhyd. 1648 Hexham II, Ongeborgen, Vnhid, or Vncouered.

Unhi·dden, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.)

1599 Shaks. Hen. V, I. i. 86 The seuerails and vnhidden passages Of his true Titles to some certaine Dukedomes. 1829 H. Miller in Sch. & Schm. xx. (1858) 439 All around we saw extend the complete sphere,—unhidden above from Orion to the Pole. 1868 Morris Earthly Par. I. i. 379 All unhidden once again they saw That peerless beauty.

Unhi·de, v. [Un-2 3.] trans. To make unhidden; to lay open; to disclose, reveal.

a 1300 Cursor M. 7930 Drunkennes oft mai bitide Dos man his consail to vn-hide. c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints I. (Peter) 283 For dowt his craft vnhid sirid be, He kest his bukis in þe se. c 1400 Rom. Rose 2168 If that ye wole so long abide Tyl I this Romance may vnhide. c 1420 Anturs of Arth. 328 (Douce MS.) þe wyndes, þe weders, þe weltene vnhides; þene vncloses þe cloudes. 1535 Stewart Cron. Scot. (Rolls) III. 431 Quhen tha saw him nakit and vnhid, With bludie woundis..; tha..weipit full soir. 1580 Hollyband Treas. Fr. Tong. Descacher, 10 vnhide. 1631 P. Fletcher Piscatory Eclog. v. xiv, If thou desir'st my help, unhide the sore. 1676 Hobbes Iliad 59 Whilst in stooping he his flank unhides, Agenor quickly his advantage spyes. 1680 J. Nicol Poems & Songs 126 To thee the sea her secret oft unhides.

Unhi·deable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1606 Sylvester Du Bartas II. iv. II. Magnificence 1256 A light so bright, set in such eminence (Un-hideable by envious Arrogance, Under the Bushell of black Ignorance). Unhi·debound, a. (Un-1 7.) 1667 Milton P. L. x. 60 Where hen...all too little seems To stuff this Maw, this vast unhide-bound Corps.

Unhi·ded, ppl. a.[1 [Un-1 8.] Of land: Not divided into hides.

1867 Chronicle 10 Aug. 470/2 At 120 acres the hide..only one tenth of England would be left unhided. But..the real proportion of hided to unhided land was only as 1 to 2.

Unhi·ded, ppl. a.[2 [Un-2 4, 8.] Deprived of hide; skinned.

a 1658 Lovelace Poems (1904) 179 Is not this finer far Then walk un-hided, when that every Stone Has knock'd acquaintance with your Ancle bone?

Unhi·gh, a. rare. [Un-1 7, after OE. unhtah, -hēh.] Wanting in height.

1838 Longf. The Grave ii, Thy house..is unhigh and low [orig. unheh and lah]. Ibid., The heel-ways are low, The side-ways unhigh [orig. unhezc].

†Unhi·gle, v. Obs. [Un-2 3.] trans. To deprive of grace or beauty.

1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) I. 11 ȝif I..vnhiȝte [L. decolorarem] so noble a matire with grisbaitinge. 1398 — Barth. De P. R. IX. xxv. (Tollem. MS.), Nyȝte schulde noȝt be all unhyȝte [L. indecora] by absence of þe sonne.

†Unhi·ghted, ppl. a. Obs.–1 [Un-1 8.] Not invested with beauty.

1629 T. Adams Med. Creed Wks. 1138 Through the chinkes of an vnhighted flesh, we may read a neglected soule.

†Unhi·ghtness. Obs. [Un-1 12.] Impairment; uncomeliness.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. VII. iii. (Bodl. MS.), þe heed (suffereth) in here þereof with ..vnhiȝtenes þat phisicians clepen furfuriscia. Ibid. VII. xvii, Suche an vnhiȝtenes in þe yȝe comeþ of blood.

Unhila·rious, a. (Un-1 7.) 1879 F. W. Robinson Coward Conscr. I. iv, He laughed in an odd, unhilarious fashion.

†Unhi·ll, v. Obs. [Un-2 3 + Hill *v.*1]

1. = Unhele v. 1.

c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 69 Synnes on dede and on speche unhileð hem seluen. c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 1912 If he saȝ hise breðere mis-faren, His fader he it gan vn-hillen & baren. a 1300 Cursor M. 26585 Noght wit wordes fayr and slight Agh þou for to þe geuen..& þou vnhyles vch hidde þat heuen kyng myntes. 1388 Wyclif Ecclus. xlvii, 16 He was hild with wisdom..and his soule vnhilide the erthe. 1482 Caxton Trevisa's Higden 369 Here he is hyd, but he is vnhyled, for name dureth euermore.

2. = Unheele v. 2. Also refl.

a 1250 Ancr. R. 58 (Trin. MS.), (If anyone) unhileðe þe put & beast fel þerin. a 1300 E. E. Psalter xxviii. 9 Vn-hil thickenesses sal he swa. a 1340 Hampole Psalter cxviii. 18 Vnhil myn eghen & i sall bihalde wondirthyngis of þi laghe. a 1375 Joseph Arim. 515 þer weoren bedes vn-huled, heimes vphanuset. 1388 Wyclif 2 Sam. vi. 20 The kyng of Israel ..vnhilynge hym silf bifor the handmaidis. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 364/2 Oncuryn, or on-hyllyn, delego, discooperio. 1604 [see Unheele v. 2.] 1611 Coyer,..Descouurir, to vncouer, vnhill, denude.

b. In pa. pple. = Unheele v. 2 b.

13.. Gesp. Nicod. 169 His heued vnhyld, on knese he kneled. c 1400 Gamelyn 87 His howses were vnhiled; and ful yuel dight. 1470–85 Malory Arthur XIII. 644 A passyng old man..; his bolders were naked & vnhyled.

3. To remove (a covering).

1388 Wyclif Ruth iii. 4 Thou schalt..vnhile the cloth, with which he is hiled.

Unhind, var. Unhend a. Obs.

Unhinderable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1678 Cudworth Intell. Syst. 429 God made..the whole world Perfect and Vnhinderable. 1894 Advance (Chicago) 1 Mar., Nothing could be more natural or more unhinderable. Unhinderably, adv. (Un-1 11.) 1678 Cudworth Intell. Syst. 482 Because all things are by him Connected together, and proceed from him unhinderably.

Unhindered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8. Cf. MDu. ongehindert, ongehendert (Du. ongehinderd), MHG. (MLG., G.) ungehindert, MSw. ohindraper, ohindrat, etc. (Sw. ohindrad), MDa. (Da.) uhindret.)

1615 T. Adams Blacke Devill 30 The vnhindred force of the wind. 1703 Clarke Evid. Nat. & Rev. Relig. II. iv. (1738) 260 Virtue,..with all its full Effects and Consequences unhindered. 1839 Alford in Life (1873) 11 Flowing in one full, unhindered stream. 1846 R. A. Vaughan Hystics i. 56 The unhindered service of the state of glory.

Unhindering, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1839 Bailey Festus 28 In her [sc. Fiction's] loving and unhindering lap Voluptuously lulled, we dream.

Unhinge, v. [Un-[2] 3.]

1. trans. To take (a door, etc.) off the hinges; to remove the hinges from; to open in this way.

1616 A. Rich Cabinet 96 A house, whose chambers are full of cobwebbes; the dores vnhinged. 1634 W. Wood New Eng. Proofs. (1865) 106 Our hogges having found a way to unhinge their barne doores. 1644 Quarles Shiph. Oracc. x. The arme that shall unhinge Th' incestuous gates of Sodom. 1674 Jackson's Recantation A 2, I..perswaded my self that the Machinations of my Brain were able to unhinge the Poles. 1775 Mss. Delany Life & Corr. Ser. ii. (1862) II. 108 That may still be done, and yet box none the worse for it, or you may unhinge it and keep it in the top. fig. 1633 G. Herbert Temple, Sunday vii, As Samson bore the doores away, Christ hands, though nail'd, wrought our salvation, And did unhinge that day.

b. transf. To unlock, unclose, open.

1624 Quarles Job xv. 16 Would any..try a fall with Angels, and prevaile? Or with a Hymne, unhinge the strongest Iayles? 1889 A. J. Munby Verses New & Old 185, I will not once..Unhinge my lawes to speak again.

2. To unsettle, unbalance, or disorder (the mind, brain, etc.).

1612 Shelton Quix. ii. xlvi. 303 Thepowerfull force of Loue Oft doth vnhinge the soule. 1653–70 South Serm. (1715) IV. 366 Why should I then unhinge my Brains? 1690 Nesse O. & N. Test. I. 60 Until another bad bargain happen.. to unhinge his spirit again. 1764 H. Walpole Otranto iv, Theodore..has unhinged the soul of Manfred. 1793 Friendly Address to Clergy 13 These pieces..serve only to unhinge and disorder their minds. 1867 Baker Nile Trib. xii. (1872) 215 The nerves of Mahomet were completely unhinged. 1885 Leeds Times 7 Feb. 270/2 Study..had unhinged the deceased's mind.

b. With personal object. Also in weaker sense: To upset.

1631 Mabbe Celestina xvii. (1894) 254 The Blockhead hath swallowed the bayte; hee hath let her unhinge him. 1681 H. More Postscr. Glanvill's Saducismus 50 The Soul of Samuel might indeed have..so unhinged her, that she had been fit for nothing. 1719 De Foe Crusoe ii. (Globe) 320 One Blow from unforeseen Providence unhing'd me at once. 1782 Miss Burney Cecilia iv. vi, The effort..has unhinged me for a fortnight! 1855 Bain Senses & Int. iii. § 23 Some constitutions are rendered more alert and active by excitement, others are unhinged. 1888 Miss Brandon Fatal Three i. v, The very mention of sickness.. had unhinged him.

c. To unsettle (opinions, etc.), to render uncertain or doubtful. Also with personal object.

1719 De Foe Crusoe ii. (Globe) 320 But in the Middle of all this Felicity, one Blow from unforeseen Providence unhing'd me at once; and..drove me [etc.]. 1770 Priestley in Phil. Trans. LX. 197 The following experiments..quite unhinged me again, and left me as much at a loss as ever. 1782 — Matt. & Spir. I. p. xxviii, When persons' minds are unhinged with respect to their opinions. 1831 Blakey Free-will 58 Calculated, to unhinge opinions on matters highly important to our interests. 1856 Dove Logic Chr. Faith vi. § 4. 352 Does any such fact unhinge our moral convictions?

3. To deprive of stability or fixity; to throw into confusion or disorder.

1664 Lyttelton in Hatton Corr. (Camden) 37 Which wee doubt will unhinge all that trade we thought soe well settled. 1674 N. Fairfax Bulk & Selv. 149 Our bounded wills not being of strength enough to unhinge Gods unbounded power. 1709 T. Brown Timoch. Monack Syst. Introd. 5 To entertain such..Ideas of God..would certainly unhinge the Foundation of all Religion. 1760 Ann. Reg., Hist. Wor 25/2 Any motion of his threatened to shake and unhinge the whole scheme of his government. 1796 Mrs. M. Robinson Angelina I. 2 The extravagance of sordid connections..have so unhinged my finances. 1886 Daily News 10 Dec. 2/5 The supplies are coming in very irregularly and unhinge the trade.

b. etp. To unsettle (some established order of things).

1679 Hist. Jetzer Pref. A j b, That Principle which obliges them to unhinge, and overturn all Government. 1688 Lyttelton Brief Rel. (1857) I. 46 Restoring things to their old legall foundation, which hath been the work of some years past to unhinge. 1778 Free-thinker No. 42. 306 The Luxury of a Nation does likewise unhinge the Publick Peace and Tranquillity. 1788 Jefferson Writ. (1859) II. 372 The old system is unhinged, and no new one hung in its place. 1812 Examiner 24 Aug. 533/2 Wages that unhinged all that order in society.

4. To detach, separate, or dislodge from something. † Also const. of.

1652 Fuller Ch. Hist. x. xxii. 145 These unhinge the day off from any Divine Rights. 1680 C. Nesse Church Hist. 463 Thus God by this providence unhing'd him of his Romish religion. 1713 Blackmore Creation i. 233 And hills unhing'd from their deep roots departed. 1764 Mem. G. Psalmanazar 14 Some other avocations..unhinged me from my method oftener than I wished. 1788 Wesley Wks. (1872) VI. 447 Whenever the mind is unhinged from God. 1861 Geo. Eliot Silas M. ii, Minds that have been unhinged from their old faith and hope.

Hence Unhinging vbl. sb.

1661 Feltham Resolves (ed. 8) i. iii. 181 The unhinging of the whole frame of Government. 1678 Eng. Mad's Call. 72 The unhinging of the whole man from things of nobler worth toward God. 1704 T. Brown Wks. (1709) III. n. 37 It portends..the unhinging of his Polish Majesty, or the seating of Prince Eugene out of Italy. 1850 H. Martineau Hist. Peace II. v. vi. 383 The unhinging of society. 1886 Athenæum 4 Dec. 745/1 The outcome of an entire unhinging of his system caused by physical fear.

Unhinged, ppl. a. [f. prec.]

1. Thrown into confusion; unsettled, disordered.

1719 De Foe Crusoe ii. (Globe) 509, I might by my loose and unhing'd Circumstances be the fitter to embrace a Proposal for Trade. 1778 Pringle Gunnery 23 The unhinged state of this part of the mixed mathematics. 1835 Marryat Olla Podr. i. 5 Society is unhinged, and every one is afraid to offer an opinion. 1871 Jacobsen Lect. in Life (1891) i. 243 The moral constitution of our nature is unhinged. 1895 J. A. Noble in Contemp. Rev. Apr. 490 A person whose intellectual, moral, or emotional sanity was unhinged.

b. spec. Of persons or the mind.

1732 J. Whaley Poems 213 Shall the Mind lie unhing'd by each mad flight? 1757 Foote Author i, Last winter..I cou'd have made as good a speech upon any subject,..but I am all unhinged, all. 1812 Lamb Shakes. Tragy. Wks. 1908 I. 131 Tokens of an unhinged mind. 1836 Marryat Japhet xxx, I never felt more nervous or more unhinged.

2. Deprived of hinges; taken off the hinges.

1324 W. Irving T. Trav. I. 14 An unhinged window-shutter. 1824 Galt Rothelan II. iv. iv, 130 Bearing the corpse of a man on an unhinged door.

Unhingement. [f. as prec.] The act of unhinging; the fact of being or becoming unhinged.

1817 Chalmers Astron. Disc. vii. 251 A melancholy unhingement in the constitution of man. 1857 J. Hamilton Less. fr. Gt. Biog. 203 The disciples were beginning to recover from..the unhingement of old hopes. 1886 Symonds Renaiss. It. VII. viii. 130 The unhingement of his reason.

Unhinted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1889 C.C.R. Up for Season 26 New novels unprinted, new scandals unhinted Before.

Unhipped, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1847 L. Munby Man, Heroes, & B. I. xiv. 278 The most melancholy, hipped, unhipped generation, that ever walked.

Unhired, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8. Cf. older Du. ongehuurt (Du. ongehuurd), Sw. ohyrd.) 1617 Morison Itin. To Rdr., I wrote at leasure, giuing (like a free and vnhired seruant) much time to pleasure. 1653 Milton Hirelings Wks. 1851 V. 348 And who unhir'd will be so hardy as to say, that [etc.]? 1821 Scott Kenilw. iv, There..is thy morning wage—thou shalt not say thou hast been my guide unhired. 1892 Munby Autiphotos (1897) 203 There were..three hundred of them unhired at the Immigrant Dépôt.

Unhistoric, a. (Un-[1] 7; cf. next.)

1862 ‘Shirley’ (J. Skelton) Nugæ Crit. iii. 177 Only a rash and unhistoric man affirm that [etc.]. 1874 Wythesw Catacombs of Rome (1877) 535 A new, unscriptural, and unhistoric method.

Unhistorical, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1. Not in accordance with history.

1621 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. ix. viii. § 9 So partiall and vnhistorall is the report of one,..who faines [etc.]. 1830 Gentl. Mag. C. ii. 239 It is perfectly unhistorical to suppose that [etc.]. 1852 Bunsen Hippolytus & Age II. 160 The notion of a merely historical revelation by written records is as unhistorical as it is unintellectual. 1877 J. Northcote Catacombs i. v. 89 The thoroughly unhistorical way in which these few subjects are dealt with.

b. Not versed in history.

1865 W. G. Palgrave Arabia II. 22 Perhaps the unhistorical prophet had in mind some confused idea [etc.].

2. Not possessed of a historical character; not having actually occurred.

1848 Jas. Smith Voy. & Shipwr. Paul 252 Such circumstances..are unhistorical, and are..omitted by the Evangelist who wrote historically. 1882 Farrar Early Chr. II. 1. 3 The supposed fact is unhistorical, but the remark shows [etc.].

So Unhistorically adv.

Also, in recent use, unhistoricalness.

1887 Athenæum 13 Aug. 206/3 We have unhistorically applied the word ‘German’ as the designation of one particular language of the group.

Unhistoric, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. III. vi. vi, ‘What is passing?’ repeats Collot, in the unhistoric Cambyses' vein.

Unhit, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.)

1513 Douglas Æneid vi. xiv. 87 Quha wald the, gret Cato, leif vnhit? 1595 Ralegh Discov. Guiana (1596) 97 The woods are so thicke..as a mouse cannot sitte in a boate vnhit from the banke. 1601 R. Jonson Epetaster To Rdr. 26 Whilst I, at whom they shot, sit here shot-free, And as vnhurt of enuy, as vnhit. 1889 ‘Mark Twain’ Yankee xiii, They all looked unhit, and said they didn't know.

Unhitch, v. [Un-[2] 4 b.]

1. trans. To detach (from a practice).

1622 Mabbe tr. Aleman's Guzman d'Alf. i. i. 10 From which terrible griping..nothing can vn-hitch them but deaths flesh-hooke.

2. To detach (a horse, etc.) by undoing a fastening: a. From a vehicle, plough, or the like.

1706 Stevens i, Destrauer, to unhitch. 1862 B. Taylor Home & Abroad Ser. ii. iv. 91 While the younger children unhitched and watered the horses. 1884 J. Gilmour Mongols i. 2 My Chinese carter,..unhitching his two mules [from the cart], went off and left me in the encampment.

absol. 1889 I. R. Lady's Ranch Life Montana 150 So he helped me to unhitch, and I led the horses, while he dragged the buggy across.

b. From something to which its head is tied.

1883 Harper's Mag. Aug. 386/2, I went out and unhitched the horse, and drove straight home.

3. To detach or unlasten (a thing).

1876 Whyte Melville Katerfelto xxviii. 315 He unhitched his bridle from the garden palings. 1892 Cotes 3 Girls on Barge 27 With silent alacrity I unhitched the lamp. 1901 Westm. Gaz. 24 Oct. 7/3 A detachment of the men unhitched the long ladders.

Unhive, v. [Un-[2] 5.] trans. To turn out of a hive.

1729 Madden Themistocles i. 1. 2 These armed Millions, that, like some vast Swarm,..unhiv'd have left their Home To seek new Seats of Empire. 1736 Neal Hist. Puritn. III. Pref. p. ix, Having unhived a numerous swarm of labouring bees. 1879 Browning Ivan Ivanovitch 71 Fancies, swarms that stung like bees unhived.

Unhoard, v. [Un-[2] 5.] trans. To take or bring out of a hoard.

1667 Milton P. L. iv. 188 As a Thief bent to unhoard the cash Of some rich Burgher. 1721 Ambrust Terrar Fil. No. 12 (1726) 60 Every old hunks and miser unhoarded his dear treasure. 1797 Monthly Rev. XXIII. 569 Much coin has been reimported, and much unhoarded.

Unhoarded, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) a 1683 Oldham Rem. (1684) 99 His unconfin'd unhoarded Store Was still the vast Exchequer of the poor. Unhoarding, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1695 Locke Further Consid. Value Money 54 They would still be..greater losers than their unhoarding Neighbours.

Unhobble, v. (Un-[2] 4 b.) 1881 Chequered Career 332 Unhobble the spare horses. 1888 W. S. S. Tyrwhitt New Chum in Queensland Bush ix. 179 The horses are now unhobbled, saddled and bridled.

Unhoed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1733 Tull Horse-hoeing Husb. (Dublin ed.) 72 A Hoed Plant of Corn will have Twenty or Thirty Stalks,..where an unho'd Plant..will have only Two or Three Stalks. 1872 Pall Mall G. 22 Aug. 5 His roots cannot be left unhoed,..or his corn uncut. Unhogged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1886 Kipling Departm. Ditties, etc. (1899) 100 With your mane unhogged and flowing.

† Unhold, a. (and sb.). Obs. [OE. unhold (f. Un-[1] 7 + Hold a.), = MDu. onhout, Flem. (Kilian) onhoud, OS., OHG., G. unhold, MLG., MHG. unholt; MSw. ohulder (ohvul, ohull), MDa. uhuld.]

1. Unfaithful; disloyal; false.

c 1000 Ælfric Hom. II. 556 Se unholda ðeowa weard ða aworpen on þam yttmæstum. c 1395 Hoccleve's Tale 473 Hir servaunts be to hem unhold, But they can doubtin hir rentall To bigge hem castels.

2. Of persons: Exhibiting dislike or hostility; unfriendly, hostile.

c 900 tr. Beda's Hist. II. xii. (1890) 132 Swa..he him þa sendunge þa geweaxnode þæs unholdan cyninges (L. regis sibi infesti). c 1050 O. E. Chron. an. 1040 (Tiberius B. i), Him wæs þa unhold eall þæt his ær syrnde. c 1320 Sir Tristr. 936 Marke schuld yeld vnhold..þre hundred pounde of gold.

b. Of events: Troublesome, disastrous.

a 1310 in Wright Lyric P. iv. 24 He mai..sore ben holde on folde, Lest he to harmes helde, ant happes hente un-holde.

3. absol. or as sb. An enemy or foe.

a 1200 Moral Ode 56 (Lamb. MS.), Monies monnes sare iswinc hulleð oft unholde. a 1225 Ancr. R. 222 Vnholde uor-ureten þe strencðe of his soule, & he hit nout nuste.

† Unholden, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 b. Cf. MDu. and Du. ongehouden (dial. ongeholden, -halden), MLG. ungeholden, MHG. and G. ungehalten.] a. = Unbeholden 1. b. Not kept; unobserved.

c 1380 Wyclif Serm. Sel. Wks. I. 309 Here it semeþ þat þes prestis ben moche unholden to seculer lordis. a 1425 Cursor M. 18736 (Trin.), e lawe he holde wondir wel Vnholden lafte he neuer a del.

Unhole, obs. f. Unwhole a.

Unholily, adv. (Un-[1] 7. Cf. Unholy a.) 1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. iii. 221 So is it vnlawfull that it be vnholily profaned by the vncleannesse of the inhabitantes. 1619 W. Distres Exp. 1 Thess. 439 Men of corrupt mindes,..if they be elected,..shall be saued, how euer holily, or vnholily they liue. 1647 J. Vicars Colemen-st. Conscience Visited B j b, The sad..breach, which is..most vnholily made by Sectaries. 1752 Edwards Freed. Will iv. ii, It is impossible for Him to act unrighteously and unholily. 1898 Advance (Chicago) 16 June 808/2 Before their imaginations were unholily stirred by these pages.

Unholiness. [Un-[1] 12.]

1. The quality of being unholy; lack of holiness or sanctity.

1534 More Treat. Passion ii. Wks. 1311/2 The vyces of vicious folke in Christes church, can not lette, but that hys catholike church..is for their vnholynes, his holy catholyke churche. 1597 Hooker Eccl. Polit. v. lxxiv. § 3 Sin is not.. in respect of any vnholiness forbidden entrance into the Church. 1645 Milton Tetrach. 36 Where an unfit mariage administes continual cause of hatred and distemper, there.. cannot choose but ensue infinite slilde. 1675 Biscocs Gold. Key Wks. 1867 V. 195 Adam's holiness was as natural.. to him as any way of unholiness can be natural..to us. 1845 Corbie in Emp.cl. Metrop. II. 880/1 All that blindness of heart, all that unholiness of affections,..which issue in overt acts of sin. 1871 Farrar Witn. Hist. i. 11 Let us..beware that in us unholiness do not cloud the spiritual eye.

2. Applied to the Pope: cf. Holiness 2.

1682 G. Topham Rome's Tyrant. 204 No sooner did the news of that bloody Butchery arrive his Unholiness [Gregory XIII], but [etc.].

Unholl, obs. f. Unwhole a.

Unhollow, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1548 Udall, etc. Erasm. Par. John 117 b, The sepulchre..was cut out of an whole sound vnholow rocke of stone. 1611 Florio, Innacuo, vnempty, vnhollow. Unhollowed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1609 Douland Ornith. Microl. 22 Make it hollow in the middle, leaving the ends of it vnhollowed. 1913 R. Harris Boanerges xxxi. 301 The hollow oak is higher in sanctity than the unholowed tree.

Unholpen, ppl. a. Now arch. [Un-[1] 8 b. Cf. MDu. (and Du.) ongeholpen, MHG. ungeholfen; Sw. ohulpen.] = Unhelped ppl. a.

1382 Wyclif 1 Esdras ix. 11 But for the multitude is gret, and the time winter, and wee moon not vnholpen stonde. 1390 Gower Conf. II. 289 ‘The is nere’, and that he kepeth, So that the feith unholpe sleeth. c 1440 Gesta Rom. 121 (Add. MS.), She woll leve none vnholpen that crieth to her herthe. 1485 Caxton Chas. Gt. (1881) 174 God forbede.. that I leue hym vnholpen. 1545 Brinklow Lament. 88 Ye ..leaue..the presoned vnholpen. 1568 T. Howell Arb. Amitie (1879) 70 Thou hast the forme that cut the wound, of my vnholpen paine. 1608 Dod & Cleaver Expos. Prov. xxxii. 189 Never any was left vnholpen, that sought help at his hand. 1864 Swinburne Atalanta 1674 These shall lie Dead, unbeloved, unholpen. 1870 Morris Earthly Par. I II. iv. 224 The maddening fear that burned Round his unholpen heart.

Unho·ly, a. and sb. [OE. unhālig (f. un- Un-[1] 7 + hālig Holy a.), = Nfris. unhillig; older Fl. (Kilian) onheylich, MDu. onheilich (rare), Du. onheilig; ON. óheilagr (MDa. and Da. uhellig, Sw. ohelig).]

1. Not holy; impious, profane, wicked: a. Of persons.

c 1000 Lambeth Ps. xlii. 1 Toscead intingan minne of unhalizre þeode. 1362 Langl. P. Pl. A. Prol. 3 In Habite of an Heremite vnholy of werkes. 1526 Tindale 2 Tim. iii. 2 Men shalbe..vnthankfull, vnholy, churlishe. 1609 Shaks. Cor. v. vi. 119 Will you be put in minde of his blinde Fortune..by this vnholy Braggart? 1685 Baxter Paraphr. N. T. Matt. xxv. 26 To confess God's holy Government, and yet to be unholy, is to be self condemning. 1738 Wesley Ps. v. ii, In Souls unholy and unclean Thou never canst delight. 1817 Shelley Rev. Islam x. xlvii, Unholy men, Feasting like fiends upon the infidel dead. 1823 Carlyle Misc. (1837) III. 287 To lodge the whole unholy Brotherhood ..in separate cells of the Bastille!

absol. 1526 Tindale 1 Tim. i. 20 The lawe is..geven..to synners, to vnholy and vnclean. 1667 Milton P. L. xi. 100 Hast thee, and..drive out the sinful Pair, From hallowed ground th' unholie. 1873 Symonds Grk. Poets vii. 192 The idea of Nemesis quelling the insolent and smiting the unholy.

b. Of acts, things, etc.

1382 Wyclif 2 Tim. ii. 16 Schonye thou vnhoolil and veyn spechis. 1390 Gower Conf. II. 363 (MS. A), If he pourchace By wey of thefte unholy thing. 1526 Tindale Heb. x. 29 He..which..counteth the blood off the testament as an vnholy thynge. 1591 Shaks. Two Gent. iv. iii. 30 To keepe me from a mo-t vnholy match. 1632 Milton L'Allegro 4 In Stygian Cave forlorn 'Mongst horrid shapes, and shrieks, and sights unholy. 1653 Jer. Taylor Serm. for Yeer iv. 50 If things that are lawfull may yet be unholy in this sense; much more are unlawfull things most unholy in all senses. 1717 Pope Eloisa to Abelard 224 Far other dreams my erring soul employ, Far other raptures, of unholy joy. 1791 Cowper Odyss. xxii. 479 Unholy is the voice Of loud thanksgiving over slaughter'd men. 1842 Manning Serm. x. (1848) I. 135 Cultivation of mind, refinement,..are often found in men of the unholiest passions. 1888 'Mas. Alexander' Valerie's Fate v, There is nothing so awful, so unholy as a mere marriage of expediency.

2. colloq. Awful, dreadful. (Cf. Ungodly a. 3.)

1865 Dickens Mut. Fr. iv. iii, An unholy glare..shone in the eyes of Mr. Wegg. 1883 D. C. Murray Hearts xxxiv. (1885) 268 He had arrived..at a rather unholy sort of hour. 1899 E. Phillpotts Human Boy 35 Trelawny had called him an 'unholy bounder'.

3. sb. An unholy person or thing.

1831 Carlyle Sart. Res. III. xi, How many other Unholies has your covering Art made holy, besides this Arabian Whinstone! 1837 — Fr. Rev. I. i. II, All Phenomena of the spiritual kind: Dignities, Authorities, Holies, Unholies!

Unho·ly, v. [Un-[2] 3.] trans. To make unholy. Hence Unho·lied ppl. a.

a 1555 Philpot in Coverdale Lett. Mart. (1564) 238 You haue bene sanctifyed and made pure through the truth, take hede you be not vnholied and defyled. 1603 Drayton Bar. Wars i. vi, Thou shouldst to them have layd the Holy Word, And not thy hand to the unholyed Sword. 1649 Hevlin Relat. & Observ. II. To Rdr., O wretched unholied men! What are they that thus commit Burglary in the Sanctum Sanctorum of God's Providence?

Unho·med, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 and Un-[2] 8.) 1839 Bailey Festus xxvii. 334 [The day] shall shew itself With all its little tyrannous ..deeds, Unhomed and clear. 1884 Advance (Chicago) 23 Mar., In no state of the Union are there more un-homed young men. Unho·melike, a. (Un-[1] 7 c.) 1852 Mundy Antipodes (1857) 194 The unpaid and un-homelike look of the half-cleared fields. 1886 Athenæum 8 May 6ra/a The same large room with the dreadful shadows and unhomelike furniture. Unho·melikeness. (Un-[1] 12.) 1898 Hawthorne Fr. & It. Note-bks. (1872) I. 57 The ugliness, shabbiness, unhome-likeness of a Roman Street. 1869 Jos. Butler, etc. Pilgrim's Progr. i. 70 The unhomelikeness of the abodes of the richest single men..is pitiable.

Unho·meliness. (Un-[1] 12; cf. next.)

c 1440 Relig. Pieces fr. Thornton MS. (1914) 12 Ypocrisy and vnhamylnes, and oyher [sins] þat ofte ere sene amanges prowde men. 1879 Miss Kemp Doubting Heard III. 120 Such signs..only seemed to bring out more prominently the stately unhomeliness of the place.

Unho·mely, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1871 Athenæum 4 May, 280 Everything in the picture is neglected and unhomely and coarse. 1882 Pall Mall G. 31 Aug. 4 He does not chafe, because the hotels are so unhomely. 1892 Stevenson Across the Plains 185 This unhomely, rugged turret-top of submarine sierras.

Unho·mish, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1858 Mrs. Gore Heckington viii. The unhomish Gnome of her aunt. 1880 T. Hodgkin Italy & Inv. I. i. v. 298 Nor drinks he, wandering, from un-homish streams. Unhomogene·ity. (Un-[1] 12.) 1862 E. B. Denison in Guardian No. 882, The founder..and his advocates declare that porosity and unhomogeneity are unavoidable [in bells].

Unhomoge·neous, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1828 Herschel in Encycl. Metrop. (1845) IV. 449 Bodies of unhomogeneous density. 1865 W. G. Palgrave Arabia I. 369 Without taking into account healthier but unhomogeneous admixtures. 1899 Speaker 11 Nov. 134/1 The native races of Africa are at present utterly unhomogeneous.

†Unho·ne. Obs.[-1] [Un-[1] 12 + Hone sb.?] Absence of delay; haste.

a 1400–50 Alexander 5530 And he wharbt with mikill vnhone [read -hoine] he to his ost wynes.

Unho·nest, a. Obs. exc. arch. or dial. [Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.]

In senses 2 and 3 very common in the 16th cent.

1. a. Physically or morally objectionable, offensive, or unpleasant; indecent, filthy, vile.

13.. K. Alis. 6472 Bothe byfore and eke bybynde, They haveth clothyng unhonest. c 1350 St. Philip & Jas. 21 in Horstm. Allengl. Leg. (1881) 52 Blastes out of his mouth he blew, Þat war so cuyl and vn-honeste, þat destryyd oft both man and beste. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 283 The membres of our body that be moost vnhonest and most rebellynge to our reason. 1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 152 b, Whatsoever thyng wer not of it self unhonest, he affermed not to bee unhoneste in open presence. 1633 P. Fletcher Purple Isl. viii. xxx, His shamefull parts, that shunne the hated light, Were naked left; fah foul unhonest sight!

b. Uncomely, unbecoming.

1382 Wyclif 1 Cor. xii. 23 And tho membris that ben vnhonest, han more honeste. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. v. lxvi. (Bodl. MS.), If a man is without heed heere, he is yholde þe more vnhoneste.

2. Unseemly, unbecoming, improper.

a 1400–50 Bk. Curtayse 96 in Babees Bk., While þou holdes mete in mouthe, be war To drynke, þat is an [vnjhonest char. 1502 Arnolde Chron. (1811) 277 Item that the bookis and vestimentis bien broken and vnhonest for dyuine seruice. 1542 Udall Erasmus Apoph. 89 b, It was not a thyng unhonest for one to carrye a gammonde of bakon in his hande. 1568 Grafton Chron. II. 234 They dayly chaunged there apparel, sometime long and wide, and at another tyme, cutted short, and altogether unseemly and vnhonest.

2. Of actions, language, etc.: a. Morally unfitting or unbecoming; unseemly, immodest, lewd.

13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 579 Alle illez he hates..; But non nuyez hym..As harlottrye vnhonest, helpyng of selven. c 1386 Wyclif Sel. Wks. III. 23, I dreede to telle holy wordis with my foule mouth, filled with unhoneste wordis. 1456 Sir G. Haye Law Arms (S.T.S.) 142 Thair undertaking was in the begynnyng unhonest, unlefull. c 1475 Bodoes Bk. 99 Whenne yee se sette, take noone vnhoneste tale. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1506) xvi. xvi. T'ij, Yf in songes vnhonest, & tryfylles, & talkynges of lareagge, he sweeth god. 1598 Grenewey Tacitus, Ann. iv. xii. (1622) 107 Domitius After..laid to her charge that she lead an vnhonest life with Furnius. 1607 Dekker Jests to make you Merry Wks. (Grosart) II. 302 To this vnhonest pleasure, is begot a companion repentance. 1645 Ussher Body Div. 279 This commandement [is] broken by..taking delight in hearing unhonest things.

b. Dishonourable, discreditable.

c 1400 Apol. Loll. 100 A wowe is..vnwise, wan it is only about temporal bingis, or vnhonest, or vnprofitable to soule hele. c 1440 Alph. Tales 41 What profettis þi frenship vnto me, when þu desyris me for to do for þe þat þing þat is vnhoneste? a 1470 Dives & Pauper (W. de W. 1496) iv. xviii. 181/2 The suget shal not..do ony thyng unryghtfull & unhonest. 1540 Cromwell in Merriman Life & Lett. (1902) I. 254 There is daunger of vnhonest condicions or of displeasure or contentement at departing. 1587 Fleming Contin. Holinshed III. 1384/1 My case is hard, but yet am I not so desperat as to reuenge it vpon my selfe, which must needs be the euent of so vnhonest and vnpossible an enterprise. 1614 Raleigh Hist. World iii. x. § 5, 116 He brought an vnhonest message to his owne Countrimen. 1649 Canne Snare Broken 14 An oath is unlawfull when..we promise any thing that is unjust or unhonest. 1825 Brockett N. C. Words, Unhonest, dishonorable, dishonest. Stated in Todd's John. to be obsolete; but it is not so in the North.

3. Of persons: a. Not honourable, respectable, or of good repute; acting in a dishonourable or discreditable manner. Also absol.

1382 Wyclif Ecclus. xxxvii. 13 With the dredful trete [not] of batailie,..with the vnhonest, of honeste. 1388 — Prov. xxv. 8 Whanne thou hast maad thi freend vnhonest. c 1400 tr. Secreta Secreti, Gov. Lordsh. 64 Kepe by most noble saule hegh,..þat ys geuyn to þe, nodght to be maad vnhonest by þe, but to be enlyyed and glorifyed. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. IV, 26 b, This false father in law, this unirew, unhonest and perjured persone. 1586 A. Day Eng. Secretary 1. (1625) 32 These and such like, as confounders of all civility,..are confirmed to be vnhonest. 1610 Healey St. Aug. City of God 469 Some ambitious vnhonest fellow. 1624 Burton Anat. Mel. (ed. 2) iii. II. 442 Of a majesticall presence, but peradventure imperious, vnhonest, selfewill'd.

b. Bad or immoral in character or conduct; disreputable.

c 1422 Hoccleve Min. Poems 218/63 To goode wommen that it be no shame, Al thogh þat thise vnhonest wommen blame. 1456 Sir G. Haye Law Arms (S.T.S.) 150 Gif a man fyndis ane unhonest foule creature hafand conversacioun with his wyf. 1536 Cromwell in Merriman Life & Lett. (1902) II. 28 They shall not geye theymself to drinking and prayse sitting all daye at Tables or cardes playng.. and specially with vnhonest and vnthryfty persons. 1574 Hellowes Gueuara's Fam. Ep. (1577) 60 All which were in their liues very vnhonest, and in their gouernement very offensiue. 1632 Burton Anat. Mel. I. ii. iv. 1, If a Nurse be mishapen, vncheast, vnhonest, impudent, drunke,..the child..will be so too. 1640–1 Kirkcudbr. War-Comm. Min. Bk. (1855) 35 George cryit—Unhonest Beoche and adulterous Beoche.

4. Dishonest (in respect of dealings with others).

a. Of actions, gains, etc. (Also dial. as adv.)

1583 Fulke Def. Tr. Script. iii. (1843) 195 This scornful replier..is so accustomed to false and unhonest dealing. 1607 Markham Cavel. iii. (1617) 35 To giue a false colour to their owne knowledges,..or..to get vnhonest polling pence to their own purses. 1628 Fretham Resolves II. xxxv. 109 Vnworthines is euer the end of vnhonest Deceit. a 1670 Spalding Troub. Chas. I (1850) I. 109 The purchess of there bischoprikis be bryberie, and vnhonest dealling in civill bargaines. 1730 St. Trials V. 315 The Earl as well abusing the King's Favours,..as bearing unhonest Friendship, in Conference with Sir Thomas concerning that Imployment. 1901 'Zack' Dunstable Weir 48 What wud it feel like to come by the money unhonest?

b. Of persons.

1545 Ascham Toxoph. (Arb.) 20 Honest fletchers and bowyers do not so, and they that be vnhonest, oughte..to amende them selues. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia II. xv, The old man..followed his suits with all meanes of vnhonest seruants, large promises [etc.]. 1603 Breton Dial. Pith & Pleas. Wks. (Grosart) II. 13/2 How vnhonest is that labourer, who will not worke for his wages? 1645 in J. Wilson Annals of Hawick (1850-65) in calling of him..ane runnigar beggar,.. and ane false unhonest tiker. 1825- in dial. glossaries (N.Cy., Yorks., Lancs., Linc.).

Unho·nestly, adv. ? Obs. [Un-[1] 11, 5 b.]

1. In an unbecoming manner; indecorously.

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. II. 193 Trowe we not þat Crist dide here dispitously or unhonestly, spittynge in þis mannis face? c 1400 Maundev. (Roxb.) xxvi. 123 When þai hafe eten, þai wype þaire lend on þaire clathes vnhonestly. 1502 Arnolde Chron. (1811) 278 Item that the chircheyard is vnhon[e]stly kepte.

2. With dishonour; disgracefully; discreditably, dishonourably; dishonestly.

1382 Wyclif 2 Maccc. ix. 1 In the same tyme Antiochus turnyde ayein vnonestly [L. inhoneste] fro Perse. c 1449 Pecock Repr. 325 As into this point, that he therbi be iust or uniust, .. doing honestli or doing vnhonestli. 1535 Coverdale Ecclus. x. 34 Whoso ordreth himself vnhonestly in riches, how moch more shal he behaue himself vnhonestly in pouerte? 1598 R. Bernard tr. Terence, Adelphos iv. i, I my selfe am very vnhonestly dealt withall. 1628 Feltham Resolves ii. iii. 5 As I would never doe any thing vnhonestly, so I would never feare the imperiall wind of censure, when it is done. 1648 Hexham II, Onceerbnerlick, Vnhonestly, Dishonestly, or Impudently. 1721 Strype Eccl. Mem. II. 388 Most unhonestly slandering old Writings.

3. Indecently, immodestly.

1382 Wyclif 2 Sam. xiii. 2 The which for she was a mayde, hard to hym it semede, that eny thing vnhonestly [L. inhoneste] he shulde do with hir. c 1400 Pilgr. Sowle (Caxton, 1483) III. x. 56 These it ben that so horribly stynken,..for they haue lised ful vnhonestly in bowe stalles. 1486 Rec. St. Mary at Hill (1905) 12 Yf the same prest so chosen vnhonestly behave hym. 1535 Coverdale Prov. xii. 4 She that behaueth herself vnhonestly, is a corruption in his bones. 1597 Beard Theatre God's Judgem. (1612) 46 His Proctors wife, with whom..he acquainted himselfe quer familiarly and vnhonestly. 1609 Bible (Douay) Sam. xiii. 2.

Unho·nesty. Obs. exc. dial. [Un-[1] 12, 5 b.] Absence or lack of honesty (esp. in obsolete senses of that word).

c 1425 Wyntoun Cron. IV. xxv. 2356 Þat mane suld se Spot, fyth na vnhoneste Behind him in his doun falling. a 1470 Dives & Pauper (W. de W. 1496) viii. vi. 328/2 The lacbyter hath more lykynge to speke of other meanes defautes & of theyr unhonestes & synne. 1526 Tindale 2 Cor. iv. 1 We..have cast from vs the cloke of vnhonesty. 1586 A. Day Eng. Secretary II. (1625) 22 Where Gentilitie is not all onely spotted, but in a manner couered and debased already with vnhonesty. 1600 Breton Strange Fort. Two Princes Wks. (Grosart) II. 4/1 Vnthankefulnesse is so neare to vnhonestie, as to auoid the touch of both. 1647 Hexham I, Vnhonesty or dishonesty, onverbaerheyt. 1871 W. Alexander Johnny Gibb viii. 52 Sic creatures [ye are] wi' conhonesty.

†Unho·nour, v. Obs.[-1] [Un-[2] 3.] trans. To dishonour.

1382 Wyclif John viii. 49, I honoure my fadir, and ye han vnhonouid me.

†Unho·norable, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7.]

1. Not honourable; not deserving of honour.

a 1400–50 Alexander 2950 Sen þis vse is here vn-honourable, here I þam leue. 1456 Sir G. Haye Law Arms (S.T.S.) 280 He wer a wicked man of lyf, a tyran and unhonourable. 1548 Geste Pr. Masse 117 Why then shuld.. thee presence therof cause to honour his Godhed in the same, ther otherwyse unhonourable. 1599 Sandys Europe Spec. (1632) 209 To cross out an vnhonourable and fruitlesse life. 1635 [Glapthorne] Lady Mother III. ii. in Bullen O. Pl. (1883) II. 161 We are noe peasants or unhonorable To be affronted with indignities.

2. Dishonourable, discreditable.

1540 Sir T. Wyatt Let. to Cromwell 5 April, If it were so the King's pleasure, I would make him such company as should not be unhonourable to the King. 1595 Daniel Civ. Wars II. xxiv, Th' vnhonourable meanes of safety, bade Danger accept, what Maiesty withstood. 1621 in Foster Eng. Factories Ind. (1906) I. 274 Unhonorable action by breatch of his word and cowle.

†Unho·nourably, adv. Obs. [Un-[1] 11.] Dishonourably, discreditably.

1553 Ascham Germany Wks. (1904) 159 Libertie in speaking should be so mingled with..discretion, as no great person should be vnhonourably spoken vpon. 1560 Pilkington Expos. Aggeus (1562) 133 Mahomet..made him glad with money to bye peace vnhonourably. 1589 Puttenham Eng. Poesie II. xi[i]. (Arb.) 116 Dishonored be he, who meanes vnhonorably.

Unho·noured, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

a 1513 Fabyan Chron. VII. (1516) 103/2 The holye seruyce of God [was] lefte, and holye Churche vnworshypped & vnhonoured, with many great enomyties. 1633 P. Fletcher To my honoured Cousin W. K. vii, Here among th' unhonour'd willows shade. 1697 Dryden Æneis XI. 314 The rest, unhonoured, and without a name, Are cast a common heap to feed the flame. 1718 Prior Solomon III. 176 Unhonor'd from the Blood-Die Crystal Urn, when broken, is thrown by. 1751 Gray Elegy xxiv, Mindful of th' unhonour'd Dead. 1849 Ruskin Seven Lamps vi. § 3. 166 Those comfortless and unhonoured dwellings. 1891 Farrar Darkness & Dawn xxxvi, The site of her sepulchre was left unhonoured and no mound was raised above her ashes.

Unhood, v. [Un-[2] 4.] trans. To divest (spec. a hawk) of a hood or similar covering. Also absol.

(a) 1575 Turbervy, Falconrie 79 At the ende of three dayes you may unhood hir and feede hir unhooded. 1652 Fuller Holy & Prof. St. v. xviii. 488 Like Hawks when they are first unhooded, and newly restored to the light. 1667 Dryden Sir Martin Mar-all v. iii, He's an ill Falconer that will unhood before the quarry be in sight. 1742 Somervile Field Sports 70 Falconer, take care,..And slily stalk; unhood thy Falcon bold. 1892 R. F. Burton Falconry Valley Indus vi. 65 The falconer unhoods her, places her upon the perch, (b) 1601 HOLLAND Pliny I. 221 Perceiving after that he was unhooded that he served as a stalion to his own dam. 1608 SYLVESTER Du Bartas, Job Triumphant 615, I will not hide..[Leviathan's] Strength, nor seemly Symmetries. Who shall unhood him? 1629 MASSINGER Picture III. v. Enter servants with Mathias..blindfolded. Acomitus...I'll anon unhood him. 1797 MRS. RADCLIFFE Italian xii, [In] one of the lonely aisles..he unhooded the lamp. 1853 ROCK Ch. of Fathers III. x. 491 Among all that sea of heads, there is not one but is bared and unhooded. 1887 BROWNING Parleyings, Apollo & Fates 121 Unhook wings, unhood brows! Dost hearken?

trans. 1603 FLORIO Montaigne II. xii. 334 Some people ..who tooke pleasure to vnhood the end of their yard, and to cut off the fore-skin.

b. fig. or in fig. context.

1648 BOYLE Seraph. Love (1660) 11 As it has hitherto been my not unpropersous task to unhood your soul, I shall now..shew her game to fly at. c 1687 HICKERINGILL Trinumer Wks. 1716 I. 356, I am forc'd to bring him to light, and unhood him, sometimes by some (otherwise unwelcome) Periphrasis. 1824 New Monthly Mag. X. 306 Then unhood'st the stars, Shew'st their bright eyes. 1848 BOKER Calaynos III. iii, They two can put their restless heads together, Unhood their thoughts at every whim that flies. 1859 BLACKMORE Lorna D. xii, Tom Faggus himself was a quarry for the law, if ever it should be unhooded.

Unhoo·ded, ppl. a. [UN-1 8 or UN-2 8: cf. prec.] Not wearing, divested of, a hood. Also fig.

1575 (see UNHOOD v. (a)). 1614 LATHAM Falconry 32 Many of them will be more gentle..when they are vnhooded, then when they are hooded. 1700 DRYDEN Fables, Lucretius 1[Et] loos'd the falcon frae his hand. Unhooded, up she sprang with birr. 1795 SOUTHEY Joan of Arc VII. 140 A rude cont of mail Unhosed, unhooded, as of lowly line He wore. 1798 BLOOMFIELD Farmer's Boy, Autumn v. 269 In earliest hours of dark unhooded morn. 1848 LYTTON Harold IX. I, On a perch..sate his favourite Norway falcon, unhooded. 1868 ADAM I. MENKEN Infelicia 129 In the great strength of thy unhooded soul, pray for my weakness.

Unhoo·dwink, v. (UN-3 4.) a 1608 DEE Relat. Spir. I. (1659) 393 Least peradventure God unhood-wink and make open the sight of Satan. 1682 HICKERINGILL Black Non-Conformist Introd. C, The Popish methods of old, but not practicable now, people are generally unhoodwink. 1691 tr. Emiliane's Frauds Rom. Monks (ed. 3) 242 There is scarcely any way left to disabuse and unhoodwink them. Unhoodwinked, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1708 W. HEAYNE in Thurloe Coll. St. Papers (1742) VI. 211 They heaving bin unadvisedly brought unhudwinckt through the fortifications of our harbour. Unhoo·f, v. (UN-3 3.) 1530 PALSGR. 768/1, I unhoofe a horse, I pull of his hoofes, je desseis, Ibid., And you unhoofe this hors agaynst wynter, he is utterly marred. 1598 FLORIO, Disonghiare, to vn-naile, or to vnhoofe. Unhoo·fed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1709 SHAFTESB. Charac. (1711) II. 301 Ask not mercy, Why Man is naked, why unhoof'd, why slower-footed than the Beasts?

Unhoo·k, v. [UN-2 4 b.]

1. trans. To detach from a hook; to disengage or unfasten in this way. Also refl.

1611 COTGR., Desaccrocher, to vnhooke. 1662 J. BARGRAVE Pope Alex. VII, etc. (1867) 136 To break a fall, they will hang by the horns, and when they have taken breath, they unhook themselves and take another leap. 1845 J. NICHOLSON Operat. Mechanic 132 If the wind should blow against the back sides of the said sails..the said bars or rods will be unhooked and set at liberty. 1852 LONGFELLOW Martin Luther's Cro'M. 147 In an instant he had unhooked the heavy chain. 1878 T. HARDY Ret. Native v. viii, Venn unhooked the lantern and leaped down. 1890 [see UNHOOKER].

fig. 1640 C. HARVEY Synagogue, Ch-gate iii, Unhook'd from him, we quickly turn aside. 1669 BARROW in Rigaud Corr. Sci. Men (1841) II. 70 My mind being indeed unhooked from these things. 1692 MARVELL Reh. Transp. I. 324 Striving to unhook himself hence, p. 152 of his Second Book, swallows it deeper.

2. To take out the hooks of (a dress). Also with personal object.

1840 COCKTON Val. Vox xiii, The ladies [began] to unhook their dresses behind, in order to enjoy another small glass of gin. 1898 Longm. Mag. Aug. 366 She..remarked that..I must have my frock unhooked and be tried on. I submitted silently to be unhooked.

3. To disengage from a curved position.

1865 DICKENS Mut. Fr. II. i, As she said it, she unhooked her arm.

Hence Unhoo·ker.

1892 Labour Commission Gloss., Unhookers, old men or boys who stand on the plank connecting a ship with the dock and unhook the coal when it is in a stable position on the back of the men who carry it.

Unhoo·ked, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1600 in Hakluyt Voy. III 671 What more nimble spirits, Apter to byte at such vnhooked baytes, Caine by our losse. 1697 DRYDEN Virg. XXX. 1297 [see Hooked] Such instance will give an idea of how high an unhooked bass can leap when frightened.

Unhoo·l, v. Sc. [UN-2 5.] To disembody.

1722 RAMSAY Three Bonnets IV. 19 A stalwart gnaist Whase stern and angry looks amaist Unhool'd their sauls.

Unhool, obs. f. UNWHOLE a.

Unhoop, v. (UN-2 4. Cf. Du. ontheopen.)

1611 DOWME Range. Venus 36 in Coryate Crudities, When Merchants do unhoope Voluminous barrels. 1697 DAVENANT Entertainment at Rutland House 43 Let the sour Cynick live coopt; Let him quake in his third-bare Cloak Till he find his old Tub unhoopt. 1711 ADDISON Spect. No. 127 P 10 To Unhoop the Fair Sex, and cure this fashionable Tympany that is got among them.

Unhoo·pable, a. (UN-1 7 b.) 1672 MARVELL Reh. Transp. I. 246 Instead of assuming your unhoopable jurisdiction, they are..satisfied with the abundance of their power. 1673 [R. LEIGH] Transp. Reh. 23 The unhoopable Tun of Heidelberg. Unhoo·ped, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1861 DICKENS Gt. Expect. I, Like an unhooped cask upon a pole.

†Unhope, Obs. [UN-1 12. Cf. MDu. onthopen, and WANHOPE sb.] Lack of hope; despair.

a 1225 Ancren R. 8 Pet 3e muhten sone uallen..in desperaunce, þet is, in unhope. a 1240 Sawles Warde in O.E. Hom. I. 251 Ant tis ilke unhope is ham meast pine. 1477 EARL RIVERS (Caxton) Dictes H iv, Take not vnhope of that, that thou maist not amende.

Unho·ped, ppl. a. [UN-1 8. Cf. MDu. ongehopet, MDu. and Du. -hoopt.]

†1. a. Unexpected, unforeseen. Obs.

c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. IV. pr. vi. (1876) 108 What so euere þou mayst sen þat is don in this world vnhoped, or vnwenyd. 1381 WYCLIF Wisd. xvii. 14 Forsoothe to them sodeyn and vnhoped drede ouercam. a 1575 tr. Pol. Verg. Eng. Hist. (Camden) 36 1 85 [He was] amazed at this unhoped danger. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis x. 99 Did God, or Man, your Fav'rite Son advise, With War unhop'd the Latians to surprise?

†b. Unconceived, unimagined. Obs.

1435 MISYN Fire of Love 15 Treuly it is not of gods vnpower þat he may not þe tech hym-self als he is in hym-self, but for hys vnhopyd worþines.

2. Not anticipated with hope or desire; not hoped for. (Cf. 3.)

1382 WYCLIF Wisd. v. 2 Thei..shulmerueilenin the sodeynesse of the vnhopid helthe. 1561 T. NORTON Calvin's Inst. I. 19 Paul,..from a cruell and bloody enemy conuerted to a new man, with sodaine and vnhoped change. a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia IV. (1629) 496 His other prisoners..he found inexpressibly this vnhoped meaner. 1593 SHAKS. 3 Hen. VI, III. iii. 172 What are they that these?..Margaret. Mine such, as fill my heart with vnhop'd loyes. 1660 DRYDEN Astræa Redux 140 The Prince of Peace would..confer A Gift unhop'd without the pow'r of wars. 1697 — Æneis v. 262 Chance aids their daring with unhop'd success. 1721 RAMSAY Love's Cure I, He spies A ship, which gives unhop'd surprise. 1728 ELIZA HEYWOOD tr. Mme. de Gomez's Belle A. (1732) II. 175 Kenna, in no vnhoped Answer,..was so much transported at the unhoped Compliance of it, that [etc.]. 1820 L. HUNT Indicator No. 31 (1822) I. 245 What unhoped courage reanimates me!

b. In quasi-adverbial construction: Unexpectedly, beyond expectation.

1667 MILTON P. L. x. 348 To Hell he now return'd, And ..unhop'd Met who to meet him came, his Offspring dear. 1734 THOMSON Liberty III. 453 The power resign'd, And all unhop'd the commonwealth restor'd, Arose d'ad the public. 1791 COWPER Odyssey V. 1 Though Jove hath given me to behold. Unhop'd, the land again. 1810 SCOTT Lady of L. v. xviii, He falter'd thanks to Heaven for life, Redeem'd, unhoped, from imminent strife. 1829 W. TAYLOR Hist. Surv. Germ. Poetry II. 328 Like sons who meet unhop'd a father.

3. Not hoped († or looked) for.

1598 R. BERNARD tr. Terence, Andria III. iv, I was the cause of the marriage that shall be made to day, euen quite vnhoped of this yong mad man. 1622 FLETCHER Love's Cure I. ii, A Temple..where I may give thanks For this unhop'd for blessing. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis IX. 939 Suddenly th' unhop'd for News was brought. 1725 POPE Odyss. V. 525 When ..These eyes at last behold the unhoped-for coast. 1749 FIELDING Tom Jones XVI. vi, Blifil having obtained this unhoped for acquiescence. 1825 SCOTT Betrothed Concl., Her unhoped-for union with Damian. 1857 DUFFERIN Lett. High Lat. (ed. 3) 206 These unhoped-for circumstances opened a new field to our explorations.

Unho·pedly, adv. (UN-1 11.) 1611 FLORIO, Inesperatamente, vnhopedly. 1831 HOWITT Seasons 123 Was it that some faint pilgrim came Unhopedly to thee?

Unho·pefull, a. [UN-1 7.]

1. Not affording grounds for hope; unpromising.

c 1450 Mirour Saluacioun 2871 For both thire sonnes tholed she the vnhopfulle bitternesse. 1599 SHAKS. Much Ado II. i. 392 And Benedick is not the vnhopefullest husband that I know. a 1646 J. DAVIES, Poems Wks. (Grosart) I. 73 More valewing encrease From this vnhopefull lynge then all the Store Hee had beside. 1663 BOYLE Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. II. iii. 67 The unhopefullest season of the year, the winter solstice. 1785 JEFFERSON Corr. Wks. 1859 I. 406 The lethargic character of their ambassador here gives a very unhopeful aspect to a treaty on this ground. 1858 H. BUSHNELL Nat. & Supernat. vi. (1864) 183 There is nothing in it unhopeful, nothing to accuse. 1890 Spectator 7 June, The chance of reading the great Minister a lesson in humility seemed not unhopeful.

2. Not feeling hope; despondent.

1850 Westm. Rev. April 64 The fear which the mass, if uneducated and unhopeful, will always feel. 1858 CARLYLE Frederk. Gt. II. xiv. 1. 180 Jobst tried..to do some governing; but finding all very anarchic, grew unhopeful.

Hence Unho·pefulness.

[1737 BAILEY.] 1868 H. BUSHNELL Mor. Uses Dark Th. (1869) 326 They become, in this way, a kind of mystery of unhopefulness.

Unho·pefully, adv. (UN-1 11; cf. prec.)

1840 LOWELL Moon 13 The sea..lay unhopefully alone, And lived but in an aimless seeking. 1861 Stat. Rev. 21 Dec. 632 Both parties have been and danger..more unhopefully than many of his contemporaries.

Unho·ping, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

a 1628 F. GREVIL Wks. (1870) IV. 267 In which unhoping time you must resolue [etc.]. 1738 G. LILLO Marina II. i, Or Jove restore to my unhoping eyes What his vindictive hand hath taken from me. 1866 CARLYLE Remin. (1881) II. 179, I was Thomas the Doubter, the unhoping. 1892 Nation (N.Y.) 28 Apr. 322/2 The latest of these unhoping encomiums on greatness deferred.

b. As pple. with object. (UN-1 5 d.)

1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa (1811) III. 40 Unhoping..the success of their schemes in Solmes's behalf.

Unho·pingly, adv. [UN-1 11.] Inconceivably.

1435 MISYN Fire of Love 36 þat heet treuly sensibily swete smellyyge vnhopingly [L. inestimabiliter], I was besy vnto pe..takynge of heuenly sounde.

Unho·pped, ppl. a. (UN-1 8. See HOPPED ppl. a., and cf. G. ungehopft.) 1725 Ram. Dict. s.v. Malt Liquor, Hopp'd and unhopp'd Drinks. Ibid., Unhopp'd Liquor. 1799 W. TOOKE View of Russian Empire I. 362 Brown beer and methegelin are more in use than..busa or white unhopped wheat-beer. Unhori·zoned, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1821 MISS L. M. HAWKINS Ct'ess & Gertr. II. 121 The unhorizoned charity of him who bid us pray. 1888 LIGHTHALL Yng. Seigneur 122 A vista ocean-like and unhorizoned.

Unho·rned, a. (UN-1 9. Cf. Du. ongehoorned; older Du. onhornet.)

1370 LEVINS Manip. 50 Vnhorned, incornis. 1607 TOPSELL Four-f. Beasts 223 There are two kindes of Goates,..the vnhorned are best for breed. 1621 G. SANDYS Ovid's Met. IV. (1626) 66 Thou t'st seene in heauen;..And, when vnhorn'd, thou hast a Virgins face. 1648 HEXHAM II, Ongehoornd, Vnhorned, or without hornes.

Unho·rse, v. [UN-2 3. Cf. MDu. ontorsen.]

1. trans. To throw or drag (a person) from his horse, esp. in battle. Also in fig. context.

1390 GOWER Conf. I. 368 He..smot him with a dethes wounde, That he unhorsed fell to grounde. 1412–20 LYDG. Chron. Troy IV. 2077 Menelay..to Troilus faste gan hym spede Fully auysed to vnhorsen hym anon. 1448–9 MERHAM Amorous & Cleopes 933 Qwat ys he yon,..that thus fersly iustyth to-day; That no knyght hym onhors may? 1530 PALSGR. 768/1, I unhorse a man by feates of armes in the felde, Je rue jus. 1583 GOLDING Caesar 39 b, If any of them were sore wounded or vnhorsed, theis garded him about. 1607 CHAPMAN Busey d'Ambois IV. i, He turn'd wild lightning in the lackeys' hands, Who, through their sudden violent twitch unhorsed him. 1668 R. SPERIN Freebandman's Calling vi. (1672) 159 Neither wouldst thou be ridden at the Devil's pleasure if thou didst understand thyself: unhorse Satan quickly from off thy soul. 1724 DE FOE Mem. Cavalier (1840) 127 Jacobites..was unhorsed and taken prisoner. 1756 tr. Keysler's Trav. I. 29 A large quantity of armour,..some for unhorsing an antagonist in a turnament. 1820 SCOTT Monast. xxiv, To me it is recommended, because it..unhorses the lazy monks that have robbed us so long, and spur-galled us so hard. 1843 JAMES Forest Days xx, And so you unhorsed the traitor, but could neither kill nor take him?

b. fig. To dislodge, overthrow, discomfit, nonplus.

1577 F. de L'isle's Legendaire G vij, The Duke of Guise and his partakers..without the policie of the Queene mother, ..had at the same instant bene quite vnhorsed. 1602 J. RHODES Answ. to Romish Rime 519 So did all of Rome be-side. Untill they grew to their full pride; And were of late vnhorst agayne. 1656 EARL MONM. tr. Boccalini's Advts. fr. Parnass. I. lxxviii. (1674) 106 The trick of unhorsing people..by meer Words. 1680 C. NESSE Church-Hist. 46 Thescruples..about his marriage became the occasion of unhorsing the Pope in England. 1825 SCOTT Talism. xxvi, Thou hast unhorsed me with that very word. 1845 DISRAELI Sybil (1863) 207 She did not deign even to notice this unhappy cavalier whom she had thus as it were unhorsed.

c. In passive: To be thrown from a horse.

1583 MELBANCKE Philotimus X j b, He that rides with one girth, may feare to be vnhorst. a 1713 ELLWOOD Autobiography (1714) 72 If it [sc. the knife] should have been found..under my coat when I came to be Unhorsed. 1748 Anson's Voy. II. xii. 263 His horse..turning round suddenly rode off with his master, who was very near being unhorsed in the surprize. 1802 JAMES Nilli. Dict., Unhorsed, thrown from the saddle; dismounted.

†2. To help (one) to dismount. Obs.

1530 PALSGR. 768/1, I unhorse a man, I sette hym byyede his horse, je desmonte. Ibid., Helpe to unhorse these ladyes.

b. intr. To dismount.

1633 QUARLES in P. Fletcher Poet. Wks. (1909) II. 284 I lasht through thick and thinne, Dispatch'd my businesse, and return'd agen; I call'd the second time; unhors'd, wentin.

3. To deprive of a horse. rare.

1468 Paston Lett. III. 87 But I trow to gyte Dorlet aven hys hors or els Mr Phylyp ys lyke to be unhorsed anes, and we lyve all. 1651 in Crawford Proclam. (1910) II. 58 All tories not joining the army within 14 days to be unhorsed and counted traitors. 1837 W. IRVING Capt. Bonneville xii, A whip and a rope were left..by the robbers, as a taunt to the simpletons they had unhorsed.

4. To unharness the horses from (a carriage, etc.).

1654 EARL MONM. tr. Bentivoglio's Wars Flanders 385 Coming to their Batteries they unhorst some of their Peeces. 1784 COWPER Task VI. 901 Others..unloose The gilded equipage,..turning loose His steeds. 1829 SIR W. NAPIER Penins. War VI. iii, The artillery was unhorsed.

Hence Unho·rsement; Unho·rsing vbl. sb.

1603 B. HALL Serm. v. 23 If you ever therefore look to see..the unhorsing and confusion of that strumpet of Rome. 1884 TAILLE New Lucian 52 It was a moral unhorsement of the most dishonouring kind.

Unho·se, v. [UN-2 4. Cf. Hem. (Kilian) onthosen.] trans. To strip or divest of hose. Also fig. Hence Unho·sing vbl. sb.

1483 CAXTON Gold. Leg. 161 b/2 Peter is as moche to saye as knowynge or vnhosyng..and therfore he was sayd vnhosyng for he unhosed and dyd of his wyll fro his feet. c 1489 — Sonnes of Aymon XVI. 371 Whan mawgis had taken all this, he..vnhosed him. c 1532 DU WES in Palsgr. 940 To vnhose, deschausser. 1598 FLORIO, Scalciare, an vnhosing, vnhosing, vnbreaching. 1611 COTGR., Deschausser, ..to vnhose, or draw off hosen.

Unho·sed, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.] Not wearing hose.

1297 R. GLOUC. (Rolls) 10846 And hii..To him come at gloucetre..Vn-hosed & bareuot & vngurt al so. 1594 R. ASHLEY tr. Loys le Roy 27 Without clothing, vnhosed, and vnshood. 1795 [see UNHOODED].

Unhospitable, a. [UN-1 7 b, 5 b.] = INHOSPITABLE a. a. Of places.

1602 SHAKS. Troil. M. III. iii. 11 Being skillesse in these parts; which to a stranger, often prouse Rough, and vnhospitable. 1612 WEBSTER White Devil V. iii. 45 They have..divorst friends, and made great houses unhospitable. 1687 DRYDEN Hind & P. III. 612 No neighbouring Dorp, no lodging to be found, But bleaky plains, and bare unhospitable ground. 1703 ROWE Ulysses I. i, You..from th'unhospitable Dwelling drive Safety and friendly Peace. 1740

CHEYNE Regimen 106 Our Earth has,..unfruitful Climates, unhospitable and uninhabited Regions. 1808 FORSYTH Beauties Scotl. V. 472 A cluster of unhospitable rocks.

b. Of persons.

a 1625 FLETCHER Fair Maid Inn II. i, Serv. Shall we kill him? Alber. No, I'll not be so unhospitable. 1641 J. SMITH Sarah & Hagar (1649) 12 Jacob and John..called for fire from heaven upon those unhospitable Samaritans. 1708 ROWE Royal Convert v. i, The Britons then shall join their Arms with yours, To drive out these unhospitable Guests. 1722 DE FOE Plague (1754) 163 They would be loth to have it remembered..how unhospitable, and how unkind they were. 1842 J. B. FRASER Allee Neemroo II. 289 The young man, unwilling to be rash or unhospitable. 1854 THOLUOK Can you forgive? xii, I cannot perhaps fairly be said that George Vavasor was an unhospitable man.

c. Of actions, character, etc.

1625 K. LONG tr. Barclay's Argenis IV. ii. 237 To renounce your hospitality, were superfluous, when you have done first, by offering unhospitable injury. 1682 MRS. BEHN City Heiress 50 What Recompence can I make for so unhospitable usage? 1727 SWIFT State Irel. Wks. 1755 V. ii. 163, I think it a little unhospitable..that..guests [etc.]. 1750 G. HUGHES Barbados 93 He lies concealed..till the next prey calls him forth to repeat his unhospitable talents. 1760 Ann. Reg., Chron. 66/1 The unhospitable custom of giving vails to servants.

Hence Unhospitableness.

1681 J. KETTLEWELL Meas. Chr. Obed. II. iv. 165 The Law against uncharitableness..against unhospitableness.

† Unhospital, a. Obs. [UN-1 7, 5 b.] Inhospitable.

1570 LEVINS Manip. 13 Vnhospitall, inhospitus. a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia I. ii, A civill warre..hath..disfigured the face of nature, and made it so unhospitall as now you have found it. 1612 G. SANDYS Trans. 39 First called Axenus, which signifieth vnhospitall; by reason of the coldnese thereof, and inhumanity of the bordering Nations. a 1639 W. WHATELEY Prototypes I. xix. (1640) 174 Hee was hospital in that unhospitall city.

† Unhospitality. Obs. [UN-1 22, 5 b.] Inhospitality. 1388 WYCLIF Wisd. xix. 13 Thei suffriden iustli,..for thei ordeyneden more abhoynable vnospitalite. Unhostile, a. (UN-1 7.) 1599 J. PHILIPS Herbert 163 O Pain impatient, the high prancing Steeds..Spurn their dismounted Riders; they expire Indignant, by unhostile Wounds destroy'd. 1825 R. WILSON Sk. Hist. Hawick 214 A House of Common, formed much materials,..would be unhostile to the security of property.

Unhouse (ʌnhau'z), v. [UN-2 5. Cf. MDu. onthuisen, WFl. onthuizen, MHG. enthüsen.] trans. To turn out of a house, habitation, or abode; to make houseless or homeless.

a 1375 Joseph Arim. 455 Pei come bi tholomers tentes, vnhoused hem sone, Token holliche his stor. 1598 SYLVESTER Du Bartas II. ii. Colonies 154 So one People doth pursue another; And scarce the second hath a first un-housed, Before a third him thence again have roused. 1633 P. FLETCHER Purple Isl. VIII. i, Thirsill up starting from his fearlesse bed, ..Unhoust by his bleating flock. 1643 [ANGIER] Lanc. Vall. Achor 8 If they peeped out of the houses, they were unhoused. 1759 SARAH FIELDING C'tess of Dellwyn II. 117 He was at once unwived, unhoused, and undone. 1795 MACNEILL Scotland's Scaith III. vi, What a chnnge, unhoused and beggared, Starving. 1822 CLARE Vill. Minstr. I. 72 Unhous'd from beds of ling The flusheering pheasant took to wing. 1885 Manch. Exam. 13 July 5/5 Only 150 persons will be for the present unhoused.

refl. 1599 NASHE Lenten Stuffe 38 When he vn-housedh him, or hath cast off his shel, he..lookes as red as a Fox. 1606 J. RAYNOLDS Dolarnevy Prim. (1880) 123 The drowsie vapours, takes their sable flyghts, And bright Aurora, doth her selfe vnhouse. 1834 MILLER Sch. & Schm. xiii, We had very nearly unhoused ourselves ere our work was finished.

b. fig. or in fig. context.

1594 DANIEL Cleopatra (Bane) 1323, I must myselfe force open wide a dore To let out life, and to vnhouse my spirit. 1625 MILTON Death Fair Infant 21 He..all unwares with his cold-kind embrace Vnhoust thy Virgin Soul from her fair biding place. 1690 C. NESSE O. & N. Test. I. 122 He that hath God for his house..can never be unhoused. 1727 DE FOE Hist. Appar. v. (1840) 45 Souls which have been encased in flesh, but being unhoused are now wanting about. a 1814 Sulleiman II. iii. in New Brit. Theatre II. 26 But for wine..This shatter'd shell of body had unhous'd Long since my soul.

Hence Unhousing vbl. sb.

In recent use also attrib., as unhousing scheme.

1809 R. LANGFORD Introd. Trade 72 Unhousing, Wharfage and Shipping, £2 2*s.* 1*d.* 1886 Pall Mall G. 22 Sept. 6/2 This scheme..will take five years to complete, so that the unhousing will be gradual.

Unhoused, ppl. a.[1] [UN-1 8. Cf. MDu. ongehuset, MLG. ungehuset, MHG. -hûset.]

1. Not provided with, not lodged in, a house; homeless.

1604 SHAKS. Oth. I. ii. 26, I would not my vnhoused free condition Put into Circumscription, and Confine, For the Seas worth. 1623 MIDDLETON More Dissemblers IV. i, Th' vnhous'd race of Fortune-tellers. 1649 OGILBY Virgil's Georgics III. 370 Lybian Shepherds..unhous'd Cattel through vast Desarts lead. 1709 POPE Lett. (1735) I. 86 The faithful Dog,..Unfed, unhous'd, neglected, [lay] on the Clay. 1743 FRANCIS tr. Hor., Odes IV. xiv. 44 Whom unhoused Scythians fear, unconquer'd Parthians. 1830 CARLYLE Cent. Ilp. 28 Unhoused beggary, and the hideousness of civil bloodshed, combined and shaped themselves into a colossal power. 1860 LONGF. Wayside Inn, K. Olaf XVII. v, Every warlike Dane..Left..Unhoused the cattle. 1867 JEWES Hist. Philos. (ed. 3) II. 210 Their towering architecture would have sheltered none whom Spinoza's visionary fabric left unhoused.

2. Not occupied by houses.

1582 STANYHURST Æneis IV. (Arb.) 96 Heere ye sit embayed with Moors, with Syrtis vnhoused [L. inhospita Syrtis]. 1612 COTGR., Place, a plaine and vnhoused ground.

Unhoused, ppl. a.[2] [f. UNHOUSE v.] Deprived of house or dwelling. Also absol.

1627 SANDYS Ovid's Met. IV. (1626) 77 The gates still open stand. And not a Swan run into the Deep; Sc al vnhoused Soules die thither creep. 1886 Pall Mall G. 22 Sept. 6/1 This is a sufficient accommodation for the unhoused in this improvement.

Unhousel, ppl. a.[3] [UN-1 8: see HOUSE v.[2]] Not covered with a house or housing.

1560 [see HOUSED ppl. a.[1]].

Unhouseled, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.] Not having had the Eucharist administered.

1532 MORE Confut. Tindale Wks. 377/2 Yet thynketh Tyndall that..the people were as good vnhowseled as howseled. 1602 SHAKS. Ham. I. v. 77 Cut off euen in the Blossomes of my Sinne, Vnhouzled, disappointed, vnaneald. 1819 SCOTT Ivanhoe XXX, Me..they suffer to die like the houseless dog on yonder common, unshriven and unhouseled. 1826 SOUTHEY Ind. Eccl. Angl. 500 He died, unhouseled, in his sins. 1865 E. BURNITT Walk to Land's End 334 The articulate plaint of some unhouseled spirit moaning for admission.

Unhousewife. (UN-1 12 b.) 1823 J. WELSH in Lone Lett. (1909) I. 159 These 'reddings-up', to my unhousewife perceptions, produce no other effects than confusion, discomfort, and dirt. † Unhovisable, a. Obs. rare[0]. (UN-1 7 b. Cf. UNBROVISABLE a.] Unfitting. 1570 LEVINS Manip. 3 Vnhouisable, inopportunus. † Unho'ver, Obs. rare[0]. (UN-1 2 + HOVER sb.[1], probably after ON. úhöf] Lack of moderation. a 1300 Cursor M. 28222 My breth [=anger] it wald be till vnhope [ʌnhumpy man was wo to drouie. † Unho'ven, pl. a. Obs. [UN-1 8 b: see HEAVE v. 9.] Unhoisted. c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints XXXIV. (Pelagia) 115 He..byd pam pat vnhowine ware, pat pai suld ga par gat bur mare. 1456 SIR G. HAYE Law Arms (S.T.S) 204 Him beluift to be slayne on stilis or leve the barne unhoivin. Unho'ven, v. [UN-1 5: see HOVER sb. 3.] trans. To dislodge from a hiding-place. 1827 Sporting Mag. XX. 104 Mr. Treby's harriers, assisted by his..terriers, unhovered an otter.

Unhue, v. : see WANHUE v. Obs.

Unhull, ppl. a.[1] [UN-1 8.]

1. Not furnished with a hull or husk.

1597 [see UNHUSKED 1]. 1598 Herbal 1. xlviii. 68 These naked Otes..in Norinfolke and Southfolke..are called unhulled and naked Oats. a 1722 LISLE Husb. (1752) 126 Seeds will not grow unhulled, or extra cotyledones.

2. Not freed from husk.

1889 Pall Mall G. 27 Sept. 11/1 Sand and unhulled paddy are mixed with their morning and evening rice.

Unhulled, ppl. a.[2] [UN-2 4, 8.] Having the hull or husk removed.

1656 J. SMITH Pract. Physick 84 Take the decoction of unhulled Barley. 1698 BROWNE Gard. Cyrus III. 131 If Barley unhulled would grow.

Unhuman, a. [UN-1 7, 5 b.]

1. Inhuman, inhumane, unmerciful, cruel: a. Of actions, etc.

a. 1549 Compl. Scot. xiv. 129 Ther for he sal committit ane onhuman act. 1609 London Prodigal III. ii. 185 That were vnchristian, and an vnhumane part. 1622 in Foster Eng. Factories Ind. (1908) II. 18 They, have..committed such unhumaine acts in murthering all they take. a 1660 Contemp. Hist. Irel. (Ir. Archæol. Soc.) I. 251 Unnaturall lust and unhumane cruelties.

b. 1646 HAMMOND Tracts Pref., Not only the most unchristian but unhuman practices. a 1716 SOUTH Serm. (1744) XI. ii. 39 Their insatiable avarice, and their unhuman and remorseless cruelty. 1796 MRS. M. ROBINSON Angelina III. 273 Against parental authority so unhuman, so much the sons plea. 1887 BLACKIE Four Phases I. 36 A one-sided, unhuman, unworthy and altogether false assertion.

b. Of persons.

1611 SPEED Hist. Gt. Brit. VI. XXXVI. § 5. 136 He was flaied alive by direction of this unhuman King. 1663 SOUTH Serm. (1717) V. 101 Bleeding and dying at the Feet of Bloody, Unhuman Miscreants. 1700 RYCAUT Hist. Turks 333/2 That insolent and unhumane Robber. 1749 FIELDING Tom Jones VI. xi, All agreed that he was sent away penniless..from the house of his unhuman father.

2. Not limited by human qualities or conditions; superhuman.

1782 MME. D'ARBLAY Let. 6 Apr., [They] are neither plunged in the depths of misery, nor exalted to unhuman happiness. 1855 CDL. WISEMAN Fabiola I. ix. 49 Converted ..by some means, so unhuman, so divine, as we shall never forecast. 1856 R. A. VAUGHAN Mystics (1860) I. 100 This divorce between the virtues of daily life and certain other virtues which are unhuman. 1874 H. ROGERS Orig. Bible II. 70 An argument for the unhuman character of the project.

3. Not pertaining to mankind.

1885 G. ALLEN Darwin VII. 120 These curious and almost unhuman-looking objects [sc. palæolithic implements]. 1885 R. L. & F. STEVENSON Dynamiter 133 'How is this?' he cried, in a sharp, unhuman voice. 'Am I blind?'

Hence Unhumanness.

1885 L. OLIPHANT Sympneumata 275 The stamp of unhumanness which clings to the acts and operations of success.

Unhuman, v. [UN-2 6 a.] trans. To make unhuman.

1648 EARL WESTMORELD. Olia Saeva 120 And yet (as if unhuman'd) we by no means with each other can agree.

Unhumanize, v. [UN-2 6 c.]

1. trans. To deprive of human virtues; to render inhuman or callous.

1752 YOUNG Brothers III. i, Thy heart, how dead to every call of nature! Unson'd! unbrother'd! nay, unhumanize'd! 1755 Man No. 24, 3 A life consisting entirely of..sensual delights, unhumanises the soul. 1807 J. BARLOW Columb. VI. 398 How long, deluding phantom, wilt thou blind, Mislead, debase, unhumanize mankind? 1852 HAWTHORNE Blithedale Rom. xviii, That cold tendency..appeared to have gone far towards unhumanizing my heart. 1860 T. TAYLOR Spir. Hebrew Poetry (1879) 124 The work of slaughter did not unhumanize those who effected it.

2. To deprive of human qualities.

1800 Monthly Mag. X. 319 By endeavouring to sublimate his Jesus into a Jehovah, he unhumanizes the most lovely of characters.

Hence Unhumanized ppl. a.

c 1780 PORTEUS Serm. (1799) II. vi. 140 Purity is ridiculed and set at nought, as a sour, unsocial, unhumanized virtue. 1894 FOSTER Ess. (1898) I. 207 The fitness..is accompanied ..in a mere man of the world, with an unhumanized repulsive hardness. 1815 KIRBY & SP. Entomol. xiv. (1816) I. 434 The most ignorant and unhumanized of their race.

Unhumanly, adv. (UN-1 11, 5 b.)

1586 Reg. Privy Council Scot. IV. 118 The said Jonnett..most cruelliie and unhumanlie invedit and persewit hir. 1663 SOUTH Serm. (1717) V. 55 Charles I..Unhumanly Imprison'd, and at length Barbarously Murder'd. 1868 H. BUSHNELL Mor. Uses Dark Th. (1869) 305 Acting in a style of fiery so unhumanly foul and malign.

Unhumble, a. (UN-1 7.)

16xx FLORIO, Dishumile, vnhumble, high minded. 1642 DAVENANT Unfort. Lovers Epil., An unhumble Epilogue. 1842 POSEY Critic Eng. Ch. 13 A Communion,..in this country, schismatic, and acting in a very unhumble and schismatic spirit. 1882 W. MORRIS in Mackail Life (1899) II. 77, I hope I am not quite unhumble.

Hence Unhumbleness.

a 1752 T. BOSTON Crook in the Lot (1809) 117 Their condition will be brought to the lowest pass, but the unhumbleness of their spirits will remain.

Unhumbled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1604 HIERON Wks. I. 498 The sawcines of an ignorant and vnhumbled heart. 1657 BAXTER Agst. Quakers 8 What an unhumbled people these are. 1671 MILTON P. R. III. 429 Unhumbl'd, unrepentant, unreform'd. 1704 Faction Displ. x, Uncheck'd by Fear, unhumbled by Disgrace. 1808 HAN. MORE Cælebs XXIV. II. 3 A critical spirit..being a symptom of an unhumbled mind. 1846 G. S. FABER Lett. Tractar. Secess. 65 Or did he come to it in the unhumbled position of a modern Scinian..? 1904 P. FOUNTAIN Gt. North-West XXIV. 294 A flag..floating over its unhumbled sons.

absol. a 1732 T. BOSTON Crook in Lot (1809) 100 The removal of the cross is not a means to humble the unhumbled. a 1838 C. NEAT Serm. (1839) 129 The worldly-minded, the unhumbled, the prayerless.

Hence Unhumbledness.

c 1670 O. HEYWOOD Diaries, etc. (1881) II. 326 The unhumbledness and impenitency of most under open scandalls. 1737 J. WILLISON Afflicted Man's Comp. (1744) 46 It imports much Impenitency and Unhumbledness for sin.

Unhumilitated, a. (UN-1 7.) 1860 RUSKIN Mod. Paint. IV. 248 Precipices..gathered after every fall into darker frowns and unhumiliated threatening. Unhumorous, a. (UN-1 7.) 1881 Athenæum 17 Dec. 810/3 To treat the most dreadful of all crimes with a slight misdemeanour is..essentially unhumorous. Unhumorously, adv. (UN-1 11.) 1768 Woman of Honor III. 229 MRS. Arnold used, not quite unhumorously, to say [etc.].

Unhung, ppl. a. [UN-1 8 b.]

1. Not furnished with hangings.

1548 HEYWOOD 11, Ongelangen, Vnhung, or, not Hanged with hangings or tapistry. 1666 PEPYS Diary 2 Mar., [Sir P. Warwick] shewed me his house, which is yet all unhung, but will be a very noble house indeed.

2. Of persons: Not (yet) executed by hanging. (Cf. UNHANGED ppl. a.)

[1775 ASH, Unhung, a. not hanged.] 1840 DICKENS Old C. Shop lxvi, One of the greatest scoundrels unhung. 1875 W. S. GILBERT Tom Cobb II, To look upon you as the coolest scamp unhung. 1892 ZANGWILL Childr. Ghetto I. 206 The Emperor let the man live unhung.

b. Not hung up (for exhibition).

1880 Pall Mall G. 28 Aug. 6/1 It is said that much good work [in painting] will remain unhung for want of room.

transf. 1906 Macm. Mag. Feb. 302 Declaiming excitedly because some fellow's picture is unhung at the Academy.

Unhung, pa. pple. of UNHANG v.

Unhunted, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not hunted in; not searched by hunting.

1572 BOSSEWELL Armorie II. 94 A great Parke..that had remained vnhunted, during the time of foure mens ages. 1812 MISS L. M. HAWKINS C'tess & Gertr. 59 No part of England, but the extreme northern counties, was 'unhunted' in this search. 1883 R. BRIDGES Prometh. 1078 Skirting wide The unhunted forest. 1899 F. V. KIRBY Sport Africa xi. 118 In comparatively unknown and unhunted districts.

2. Not hunted on chased.

1648 HEXHAM 1, Ongejaeght, Vnhunted, or Vnchased. 1809 CAMPBELL Gert. Wyom. I. iii, The wild-deer arched his neck from glades, and then Unhunted sought his woods. a 1822 SHELLEY Fragm., 'When soft Winds' 4 Bold as an unhunted fawn.

Unhuntsmanlike, a. (UN-1 7 c.) 1607 MARKHAM Cavel. III. (1617) 9 When..I have vn-Huntsman-like ridden in amongst the Dogges. Unhurdled, a. (UN-1 6.) a 1711 KEN Dial. Poet. Wks. 1721 I. 4 My flock stray on the unhurdled Wild. Unhurled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1798 W. TAYLOR in Robberds Mem. (1843) I. 219 Not yet the great retributress has closed The book of fate—her unhurled lightnings gone.

Unhurried, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1768–74 TUCKER Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 547 There is a virtue in keeping one's self..unhurried in dangers or alluring pursuits. 1859 RUSKIN Two Paths I. 47 The noble person.. deals with them in unalarmed intelligence and unhurried strength. 1872 MRS. WHITNEY Sights & Ins. II. xxvi. 540 It was built into ourselves, by our unhurried possession of it in restful hours. 1881 A. A. KNOX New Playground (1883) 9 Eight hours of bed, and an unhurried breakfast.

So Unhurriedly adv.

1880 P. GILLMORE On Duty 349, I..then, unhurriedly, rode through the station.

Unhurrying, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1768–74 TUCKER Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 537 Continual unhurrying activity in pursuit of some end.

Unhurt, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 b.)

a 1225 Juliana 31 Pe worldes wealdent þat wiste sein luhan..unhurt the seat of wallinde coll. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) VI. 105 Ye passed hurt nyne breunynge cuitres. c 1400 Destr. Troy 1264 His shafte sil-to sheuerit, the shalke was unhurt. c 1440 Alph. Tales 25 If pine arm com vp vnhurte. c 1460 Oseney Reg. 144 And I and myne heyres that howse schall keep vn-hurt, that hit be not.. apeyred by ow vse. 1565 Cooper Thesaurus, Indictertum, ..vnhurte: without scarre. 1597 A. M. tr. Guillemeau's Fr. Chirurg. 9 b/2 With the shoit of a gunne, the first table was vnhurte. 1601 Jonson Poetaster iii. 1 Horat. Rob. n. § 7 They believed there [were]..no Persons of what Quality soever unconcerned and ..unhurt in them [sc. matters of religion]. 1676 Hobbes Iliad i. 397 Would you could here rest Unhurt, ungriev'd. 1718 Prior Pict. Seneca Dying 11 While unhurt, divine Jordain, They Work upon Seneca's remain. 1755 Young Centaur iv, His happiness is of so strong a constitution, that it can stand real calamities unhurt. 1828 [S. Weston] La Scanna 27 A statue of Venus, ..the legs and arms are broke, the nose unhurt. 1894 D. Campbell Coleridge i. 12 [He] escaped unhurt from the fray.

Unhurted, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Obs. or dial. = prec.

1483 Caxton Gold. Leg. 432/o They had oute of the quarrye the forsayd ten men the whyche were founde unhurted. 1742 T. de la Mayne Love & Honour 102 With Them familiar grown, unhurted dwell In unmolested Truce.

Unhurtful, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1549 Coverdale, etc. Erasm. Par. 1 Cor. 15 In vnhurtefull manners, playne, pure, and without all counterfaictyng. 1570 Drant Serm. G vij, That..the Wolfe [might] become an vnhurtfull neighbour to the Lambe. 1693 Shaks. Meas. for M. iii. ii. 175 You imagine me to vnhurtful an opposite. a 1680 Butler Charac., Humorist, A Humorist is..some out-lying Whimsie of Bedlam, that being tame and unhurtful is suffered to go at Liberty. 1712 Blackmore Creation iv. 175 Whence shoots..the falling snow, And flames unhurtful hovering dance in air? 1753 Richardson Grandison (1781) III. ix. 62 All that is wished for..is, that she may be made unhurtful. a 1806 H. K. White Poems (1837) 136 When happy Superstition, gabbling old, Holds her unhurtful gambols.

Hence Unhurtfully adv., Unhurtfulness.

1549 Coverdale, etc. Erasm. Par 1 Cor. vi. 15 b, Your vnhurtefulnes shal condemne theyr vnclennes. 1725 Pope Let. to Swift 24 Sept., To laugh at others as innocently and as unhurtfully as at ourselves.

Unhurting, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10, 5 d.)

1613 W. Browne Brit. Past. i iv. 74 As if she in her kinde (vnhurting elfe) Did bid me take such lodging as her selfe. 1824 Monthly Mag. xxxvii. 146 While the evening shower retires, Kindle thy unhurting fires. 1828 Beddoes Bride's Trag. iv. i, Because I fold Mine arms like any man unhurt, unhurting.

† b. Sc. With object: Without violating.

1582 Rec. Burgh Lanark (1893) 84 Hie being chossing his may, unhurtand his aith, refuis the samyn offece.

Unhusbanded, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1. Not improved by husbandry; untilled, uncultivated: a. Of ground.

1538 Elyot, Incultus, a place vnhusbanded or vntilled. 1601 R. Johnson Kingd. & Common. (1603) 184 No foot of land is left vnhusbanded. 1648 Rosson Neuse fr. Alepse 13 The vnhusbanded plaines, for many miles together blame their stupidity. 1654 Earl Monm. tr. Bentivoglio's Wars Flanders 134 Other little islands..are almost nameless, as being almost unhusbanded. 1894 Pall Mall G. 1 Nov. 2/3 Dwellers for the more part in remote, unhusbanded districts.

b. Of plants or trees.

1615 G. Sandys Trav. ii. 116 A desert producing here and there a few vnhusbanded Palmes. 1626 W. Browne Brit. Past. ii. v. 24 I have beheld A wilde vine, ..Vnhusbanded, neglected, all forlorne. 1620 Brinsley Virgil 43/2 The great brambles vnhusbanded (or vntrimmed, or not cut) but wilde. 1888 Doughty Arabia Deserta II. 284, I went..to dig up off-sets of unhusbanded young palms.

2. Not provided with a husband.

[1775 Ash.] 1797 Southey Eng. Ecl., Hannah 29 She bore unhusbanded a mother's pains. 1879 Meredith Egoist xxxii, He considered himself to have been too lenient to the wine of an unhusbanded hostess.

†Unhusbanding, vbl. sb. Obs.[2] [Un-[1] 13.] Lack of husbandry. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. i. 284 Vnhusbondynge yndoth fertilite. Unhusbandly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1607 Norden Surv. Dial. v. 230, I see the hedges lye very vnhusbandly: a true note of few good husbands. Unhushed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1812 Byron Corsair i. xiv, Still must each action to my bosom suit, My heart unhush'd, although my lips were mute!

Unhusk, v. [Un-[2] 5.]

1. trans. To divest of husk or shell; † to clean (a fish) of spines.

1598 Florio, Dilicare, to vnhuske or clense fish from bones. 1602 Dolman La Primaud. Fr. Acad. (1618) III. 112 It must bee beaten in a morter, to vnhuske it. 1665-6 Phil. Trans. I. 202, I have sown a little French Barley and Rice seed and am thinking on a way of un-husking them. a 1693 Urquhart's Rabelais III. xviii. 145 The Bean is not seen till..it be unhusk'd. 1828-4 A. Wilson in Poems & Lit. Prose (1876) I. 288 Unhusking the seed from the burr in a twinkling. 1884 R. Walker Fine Thereto 79 The nuts are then split open with an axe (not unhusked).

2. fig. To strip of a covering or disguise; to lay open, expose.

1596 Nashe Saffron-Walden Siv, I would we might know er, and see her vnhus[k]et and naked once. 1607 Tourneur Rev. Trag. i. i, He began By policy to open and unhusk ie About the time and common rumour. 1620 Healey St. ugs City of God 390 All the good wee doe, comes from od, by whose pardon wee are vnhusked of all the old man. 1892 Sat. Rev. 17 Dec., 719/1 The 'Comic Spirit' may izzle him...You have got but to unhusk and unshell it, d there it is.

Hence Unhusking vbl. sb.

1706 Phillips (ed. Kersey), Decortication, ..the peeling, unhusking of Roots, Seeds, Fruits, &c. 1756 T. Birch Hist. Royal Soc. II. 78 The way used by them for the unhusking of rice.

Unhusked, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8.] Not divested of the husk.

1769 E. Bancroft Guiana 61 Resembling unhusked coffee-berries. 1787 Jefferson Writ. (1859) II. 196 To furnish you with some of the Piedmont rice, unhusked. 1889 R. F. Burton in Jrnl. Geog. Soc. XXIX. 365 Upon journeys the African boils his bolosie unhusked in an earthen basin. 1888 J. Q. Bittinger Hist. Haverhill (N.H.) 360 The unhusked corn was piled in a heap,..and the huskers..sat around the five on the floor.

Unhusked, ppl. a.[2] [f. Unhusk v.] Stripped of, taken out of, the husk.

1597 Br. Hall Sat. iii. 1, Could no vnhusked Akorne leuue the tree, But there was chalenge made whose it might bee. 1661 Lovell Hist. Anim. & Min. 440 The diet of the sick ..: sparing, as unhusked barley, hydromel. 1708 Ochley Sarracens I. 239 That sort of Provision..is either Barley, Rice, or Wheat, sodden and unhusk'd.

Unhygienic, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1883 Jrnl. Educ. XVIII. 83 Unhygienic conditions in or about the building. 1897 Allbutt's Syst. Med. II. 313 When the heat is intense,.. the surroundings unhygienic. Unhygienically, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1861 J. H. Bennet Winter Medit. i. viii. (1875) 209 A densely populated city,..badly drained, and unhygienically built. 1897 Daily News 17 Sept. 6/7 Skirts will continue..dangerously and unhygienically to trail upon the ground. Unhymned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1838 Meredith Poems, Pastorals vii, All the flowers are falling! Falling unhymned.

Unhynde, var. Unhend a. Obs.

Unhypochondriacous, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1683 E. Hooker Pref. Pordage's Mystic Div. 13 All the name I desire is an honest good Fellow;..Unhypochondriacous, or touch with the yellow. Unhypocritical, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1862 Carlyle Fredk. Gt. xi. iii. 111. 61 My shrill Princess,..of a highly unhypocritical nature. Unhypothecated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1802 Guineas an Incumbrance 75 The unhypothecated part of the income tax. 1897 Westm. Gaz. 2 Oct. 6/3 The unhypothecated portion of the revenue. Unhyster-ical, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1886 Gurney, etc. Phantasms of Living II. 323 Accounts of..apparitions at death from educated and unhysterical witnesses.

Uni- (yū′ni), repr. L. ūni- combining form of ūnus one, a single, forming the first element in a number of words with the sense 'having, composed or consisting of, characterized by, etc., one (thing specified by the second element)'. The Latin prefix ūni- (before a vowel ūn-) was employed before or during the classical period in only a few terms, as ūnicolor, ūnigena, ūnimanus, ūniversus, ūnanimus, ūnoculus adjs.; ūniversitās, ūnanimitās sbs. In the post-classical and later language the prefix had a more extensive use, although the recorded instances are not very numerous; they are chiefly adjectival forms, as ūnicalamus, ūnicaulis, ūnicornis, ūniformis, ūnigenitus, ūnijugus, ūniversālis, ūnivocus, etc., ūnanimis. The earliest appearance of the element in English is naturally in words directly adopted from French or Latin, as Unanimity, Unicorn, Uniform a., Unison, Universal a., Universe, University, etc. In more general use it first appears in words adapted from Latin compounds or modelled on these, as univocate (1432–50), univocal (1541), unigenit (a 1568); but it was not until the 17th c. that the prefix obtained much currency, when in addition to normal combs. as unicolorate, unicornous, uniparous, unirenue, univalve, etc., such occasional formations as unifoil, unifoiled, unipresence, unipresent were coined on analogy with other numerical prefixes. In the 18th c. a comparatively small number of new compounds were adapted or formed, as uniangulate, unicapsular, unigenous, unilocular, uniseli, etc. In the 19th c. the element came to be freely employed in the formation of scientific and technical terms, especially in Bot. and Zool., freq. after mod.L. formations as unicapsularis, -cellularis, -foliatus, -labiatus, -lobatus, -nervatus, -nervus, -ovulatus, -sexus, or adapted from F. terms as unicursal, -cuspidé, -lobé, -nerve. The second element in these compounds is thus naturally of Latin origin, but after the prefix had acquired a more extensive use it was not infrequently combined with English forms or words, and has been used occasionally in place of the Greek equivalent Mono-. (The use with English participial forms in -ed was not fully established until the 19th c.)

In scientific works the prefix is sometimes represented by the Arabic numeral, as 1-bracteate, etc.

The older and more important combinations will be found in this Dict. in their alphabetical place as main words.

1. Forming adjectives with the general sense 'having, provided with, composed or consisting of, or characterized by one (thing specified or conoted by the second element)'. Many of these compounds are self-explanatory or are sufficiently explained by the quots., and in such cases no definition is added. Unia·ngulate Bot. Unia·rea·gerous [-gerous] Conch., having a single 'area'. Uniarticulate Ent. and Zool., having a single joint. Uniauriculate(d Zool., having a single auricle or auriculate process. Unibaccate, Unibra·cteate, -bra·cteolate. Unice·ntral (see quots. and cf. monocentric Mono-1). Unicilia·tal, = Monociliate a. (1879 Oldham Zoological Class. 58). Unico·rneal Zool., of an ocellus: having a single cornea. Unico·state Bot. and Zool., having one rib. Unicuira·ssed, = unipeltate. Unicuspidate, ending in one cusp or point. Unide·ntate(d Zool. and Bot., having a single tooth-like serration. Unidenticulate Zool. and Bot., having but one denticulation. Unidime·nsional, of one dimension. Unidire·ctional, having or moving in one direction. Uniequi·valent, = Univalent a. U·nifaced, of a coin (see quot.). Unifa·cial Zool. Unifa·ngellate Zool., of an infusorian: having but one flagellum. Unifo·rate, -flo·wered, = Uniflorous a. Unifo·liate, -fo·liate, of leaves, etc.: consisting of one leaflet; of plants: characterized by or bearing leaves of this kind. Unigl·obular, consisting of a single globular part; in quot. absol. Unigu·ttulate, marked with one drop-like spot. Uniju·gate Bot. Unila·mellar, Unila·minar, having one lamella, lamina, or layer. Unili·near Math., affecting or involving but one line (see quot. 1851). Unilo·bar, -lo·bate, -lobed. Unilo·bular Path., of cirrhosis: characterized by hypertrophy of single lobules; hypertrophic. Unima·cular, marked with a single spot. Unime·diate, coming through a single medium. Unimo·dular Math. Unimu·ltiplex. Unimu·scular Zool. Unine·rvate, -nerved. Unio·vular, -o·vulate, containing one ovule. Unipe·ltate Zool. (see 2). Unira·diate(d. Uniramo·se, -ra·mous, having or consisting of a single ramus or branch. Unise·ptate Bot. Uni·sexed, consisting of members of one sex. Unisoci·etary, consisting of or characterized by one society or social order. Unispi·culate, having but one spicule. Unispino·se, having or bearing one spine. Unisu·lcate, having one groove or furrow. Unitelegra·phic, pertaining to a telegraph capable of being used by only one person at a time. Unite·rnate·ly. Unite·rnary Cryst. (see quot.). Unitube·culate. Uniungui·culate, having one unguis or claw. Univo·calized, converted into a single voiced sound.

Various terms having little or no real currency have appeared in Dicts., etc., as unicarinated, -lineated (1840), uniclinal (1879), unicarinate, -foliar (1888), uniforate, -foveate, -lamellate, -laminate, -loculate, -sepalous, -serrate, -serrulate, -spiral (1891), etc.

1777 S. Robson Brit. Flora 4 Uninngulate*, having one angle, as in Stinking Sedge. 1850 W. King Permian Fossils 142 Genus Iuvenite. Diagnosis.—*Uni-areagerous..Area, both halves oblique to the hinge-margin, and to each other. 1879 Samouelle Entomol. Compend. 99 Legs bifid, the last joint of the four anterior pairs..*uniarticulate. 1866 W. Clark Van der Hoeven's Zool. I. 300 Tarsi uniarticulate, with simple arcuate claw. 1835 Kirby Hab. & Inst. Anim. II. xxii, 416 The Cacilia, or blind serpent, too, is almost *uniarticulate. 1859 Agassiz Ess. Classification 338 Gasteropoda (Uniauriculate animals). Membranous heart with one auricle. 1872 Penny Cycl. XXV. 332/2 M. de Blainville divides the genus into three sections..; 2, consisting of *uniauriculated species (Mallens normalis). 1890 Amer. Naturalist May 406 *Unibasal pectoral and ventral fins. 1870 Hooker Stud. Flora 387 Bog Asphodel,..pedicel *1-bracteate. Ibid., Eriocaulonceæ..Flowers minute.. in involucrate heads, *1-bracteolate. 1864 Spencer Biol. I. § 50, 137 Central development may be distinguished into unicentral* and multicentral, according as the product of the original germ dévelops symmetrically round one centre, or..in subordination to many centres. 1875 Dowden Shakespere 61 Assured that the organism is living, he fearlessly lets it develope itself in proper mode, unicentral (as Macbeth) or multicentral (as King Lear). 1902 Brit. Med. Jrnl. No. 2154, 908 Cancers either started from one centre (unicentral or monocentral) or from many centres (multicentral or pluricentral). 1884 Sinnwoick & Hyatt-cotr tr. Claus' Zool. 538 The *unicornal ocelli are principally present in larval life. 1849 Balfour Man. Bot. 72 Reticulated Venation. 1. *Unicostate..A single rib or costa in the middle (midrib). 1852 Dana Crust. i. 333 Hand. faintly uni-costate towards lower part. 1872 Penny Cycl. XXIII. 82/1 *Uniculrassed Stomapods. 1883 Flower in Encycl. Brit. XV. 4-2/2 The *unicuspidate upper and lower front incisors. 1819 Samouelle Entomol. Compend. 122 Antennæ with their internal base *unidentate. 1833 Hooker in Smith's Eng. Flora V. 1. 124 The lower [lobes of the leaves] ..frequently unidentate. 1856 W. Clark Van der Hoeven's Zool. I. 357 Mandibles small, narrow, unidentate or edentulous. 1822 J. Parkinson Outl. Oryctol. 201 Ancilla olivula: *unidentated at the base. 1828 Stark Elem. Nat. Hist. II. 266 Mandibles small, depressed, pointed and entire, or unidentated in the internal side. 1887 Trans. Roy. Soc. Edin. XXXII. 637 Radula, two rows of teeth, 1 and 2, lateral teeth; 3, median tridenticulate; 5 and 4, central *unidenticulate. 1883 C. S. Peirce's Studies in Logic 156 Analogous reasoning would obviously apply to any portion of an *unidimensional continuum. 1883 Knowledge 13 July 25/2 Intermittent, *unidirectional currents in the brushes. 1894 Athenæum 9 June 745/3 Note on the Possibility of obtaining a Unidirectional Current to Earth from the Mains of an Alternating Current System. 1867 Chambers' Encycl. IX. 537/1 Monad or *Uniequivalent Elements (or Monads), one atom of which in combination is equivalent to..one atom of hydrogen. 1897 Jewitt Halifax, among Eng. Antiq. 139 Many of the early coins are *unifaced, i.e. one side is plain, while the other bears the device. 1846 Dana Zoaph. iv. (1848) 65 A species, which usually has polyps only on one surface, -unifacial. 1881 Carpenter Microscope (ed. 6) xi. § 419 Their simple -uniflagellate Monad (Monas Dallingeri). 1860 Mayne Expos. Lex. 1310 Uniflorus, Bot., having or bearing one flower: -uniflorate. 1845-50 Mrs. Lincoln Lect. Bot. App. 97 Pl. xvi, Scape naked, *-uni-*flowered. Flower drooping, spathaceous. 1849 Craig s.v. -Unifoliate. 1881 Jrnl. Linn. Soc. XVIII. 291 These apparently unifoliate stems are long petioles. 1866 Treas. Bot. 1191/2 Unifoliate, -Unifoliolate, when a compound leaf consists of one leaflet only; as in the orange-tree. 1872 Oliver Elem. Bot. ii. 130 Common Barberry,..with fascicled unifoliate leaves. 1875 Bennett & Dyer tr. Sachs' Bot. 823 As in Duchesne's unifoliolate Strawberry. 1891 Geol. Jrnl. XLVII. 6 The structure of the sciscia and of the dorsal surface is the same as in those with shorter nodes, so that we seem to have a series from the -uniglobular. 1889 W. Phillips Brit. Discomycetes 13 Sporidia elliptic, obtuse, -uniguttulate. 1849 Balfour Man. Bot. 72 When a pinnate leaf has one pair of leaflets, it is -unijugate. 1861 Bentley Man. Bot. 168 The leaflets..are arranged along the sides of the rachis or common petiole in pairs, and according to their number, the leaf is said to be unijugate or conjugate, -bijugate, etc. 1875 Bennett & Dyer tr. Sachs' Bot. 315 A vein..is formed from the base towards the apex, dividing the -unilamellar lamina into right and left halves. 1876 Van Duyk tr. Wagner's Gen. Path. 466 In epithelial regeneration with -unilaminar epithelium. 1851 Sylvester in Lond. etc. Phil. Mag. Feb. 128 Accordingly this may be termed "unilinear-intersection contact, or more briefly, unilinear contact. 1870 Rankine Anim. Life 29 Both the liver and the pulmonary organs [of the common ringed snake] are -unilobar, the left lung being merely represented by a rudimentary structure. 1839-47 Todd's Cycl. Anat. III. 310/1 In the Potoroo the left lung is "unilobate. 1852 G. F. Richardson Geol. 286 In the strata anterior to the ilias, almost all the fishes had heterocercal or -unilobed tails. 1897 Allbutt's Syst. Med. IV. 170 In a less common variety [of cirrhosis of the liver] a finer network of new fibrous tissue tends to surround individual lobules ("unilobular), 1899 Todd's Cycl. Anat. V. [1341/1 The germinal vesicle is "unimacular in general in the small-yolked ova. 1802-12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evidt. (1827) III. 438 Constitutive of so many modifications or species of unoriginal evidence, we have "unimedial, bimedial, trimedial and so forth; in a word, multimedial evidence. 1865 Brande & Cox Dict. Sci., etc. II. 378/1 The determinant formed from the coefficients.. is called the modulus of transformation, and when this equal 0 is called the transformations are said to be unimodular.* 1816 T. L. Peacock Headlong Hall ix, These thousand images, indeed, were but one; and yet the one was a thousand, a sort of "uni-multiplex phantasma. 1835 Kirby Hab. & Inst. Anim. I. viii. 237 The second [order of molluscans] is "Unimuscular, having only one such [attaching] muscle with one impression. 1875 Blake Zool. 241 If there be but one muscular impression on a valve, the animal belongs to monomyary or uninuscular bivalve. 1866 Treas. Bot. 1191/2 Uninervate*,..one-ribbed. 1891 Nature XLIII. 454/1 The linear, "uninerved leaves characteristic of the..genus Asterophyllites. 1904 Brit. Med. Jrnl. 17 Dec. 1644 A chapter is devoted to this subject [Leucoplasmata] under the subheadings of "uniovular twins. 1857 A. Gray First Less. Bot. (1866) 235 Uniovulate*, having only one ovule. 1845 Encycl. Metrop. XXV. 2 This genus [squilla] belongs to the "Unipeltate family of the Stomapodous order. 1889 Sollas in Encycl. Brit. XXII. 416/2 Monaxon Uniradiate* Type (stylus).—By the suppression of one of the rays of an oxea, an acuate spicule or stylus results. 1828-32 Webster (citing Encyc.), Unirotulata*, having one ray. 1888 Roleston & Jackson Anim. Life 532 The first antenna is primitively "uniramose. 1890 Microsc. Sci. XXX. 109 Six pairs of (thoracic) appendages..of which the first are long, slender, and uniramous. 1897 Hickson Anal. Inv. Anim. vi. 283 Entirely destitute of appendages, except a shorter anterior, "uniramous..pair of oar-like organs. 1866 Treas. Bot. 1192/1  Uniseptate*, having but one septum or partition. 1875 Cooke Fungi 40 in other..species they [i.e. spores] are uniseptate. 1896 Putnam's Mag. Oct. 390/2 Besides, in England a bar-maid was highly respectable. How precious must she be in this "uni-sexed fair ! [= California]. 1889 L. Olphant Symphemunde 72 The wise and sanguine..inferred, both from the suffering and the capacities of present human nature, a future of new order in a "uni-societary world. 1900 Proc. Zool. Soc. 20 Feb. 138 Skeleton forming a rather regular reticulum of "unisipculate fibres. 1898 Stark Elem. Nat. Hist. II. 168 The Shrimp. Thorax behind, and on each side of the rostrum "unispinose. 1852 Dana Crust. I. 414 Emargination uni-spinose. 1819 Samouelle Entomol. Compend. 181 Thorax with a gibbous protuberance, "unisulcate above. 1853 Ure Dict. Arts I. 626 According to this improved plan of working, the wire of communication.. may be considered as a public word road, or an omnitelegraphic way; whereas, in contradistinction, the conductor, as heretofore used, may be considered as a private word road or a "unitelegraphic way. 1889 Amer. Nat. XXIII. 597 Microcampana is not the only "unitentacular Medusa found in the prolific waters of our Pacific coast. 1816 R. Jameson Char. Min. (ed. 2) 22 A crystal is named..."Unitermary, when there is one by one row, the other by three rows. 1852 Dana Crust. I. 122 Post-medial region with a small tubercle; intestinal "uni-tuberculate. 1856 W. Clark Van der Hoven's Zool. I. 323 Gymno Nitsch.—Tarsi "uniunguiculate. 1876 Douse Grimm's Law App. 206 Our own familiarity with "univocalized consonants.

b. Prefixed to a sb. and forming a compound used attrib., as uni-direction, -face, -rhyme, -soil. 1778 [W. H. Marshall] Minutes Agric., Digest 18 A Unisoil Farm requires fewer implements than a Polysoil Farm. 1859 E. Williams in Cambrian Jrnl. March 12 Four-lined unirhyme stanzas, of five or six syllables in a line. 1888 Bottone Electr. Instr. Making (ed. 2) 103 The uni-direction current machine. 1897 W. C. Hazlitt Shefl. Coinage Europ. Continent 17 A silver uniface bracteate of Otho I. 1900 Engineering Mag. XIX. 740 In some instances the engines are only uni-direction.

2. Forming sbs., as Unia·xifer. Unicell Bot., a unicellular plant (Jackson Gloss. Bot. Terms, 1900). Unipe·ltate (see quot.). Unisty·list [L. stylus] (see quot.). † U·nitrine [L. trim-us], a unity in trinity. Obs. Unitri·nity, unity in trinity.

U·nitrope (see quot.).

1869 Student II. 12 They [sc. polymerous leaves] will be "uniaxifers, biaxifers, etc.; multiaxifers, according as their meriphylls [= the space between two nodes of a leaf] are arranged along a single axis, or an axis ramified two, three, or more times. 1842 Brande Dict. Sci., etc. 1272 "Unipeltates, [Cuvier's] Unipeltata, the name of a family of Stomapodous Crustaceans, comprehending those in which the carapace is composed of a single shield-like plate. a 1849 Poe Marginalia xciii, He is as thorough a "unistylist as Cardinal Chigi, who boasted that he wrote with the same pen for half a century. 1605 Timme Quersit. ii. ii. 108 It hath pleased the omnipotent Creator to manifest & showe himselfe a "Unitrine or Triune. 1775 Adair Amer. Ind. 127 Her belief of the "uni-trinity, and tri-unity of the deity. 1910 A. B. Basset Treat. Geom. Surfaces 25 The reciprocal polar of a unode is called a "unitrope.

† Uniable, a. Obs.[1] (Meaning obscure.)

a 1450 Ten Comm. of Love (MS. Fairfax 16, fol. 185 b), Consider that my conning is disable To write to you the figure vniable.

† U·nial, a. Obs.[1] [f. Uni- + -al. Cf. Of. uniel, unial in Godef. Compl.] United into one.

1613 Shelley Trav. Persia 4 Those Countries, limitting upon Kitay & Sparus "vniall parts.

Uniat, Uniate (yū·niæt, -ēt). [ad. Russ. УНІАТЪ uniyat, f. УНІЯ uniya union (spec. the united Greek and Roman Catholic Churches), f. L. ūni-, ūnus one.] A Russian, Polish, or other member of that part of the Greek Church which, while retaining its own liturgy, acknowledges the supremacy of the Pope and is in communion with the Roman Catholic Church; a United Greek.

1833 R. Pinkerton Russia 82 The inroads of the Uniats among the members of the Greek Church. 1863 Edwards Polish Captivity II. 61 As a Uniate he acknowledges the authority of the Pope. 1883 Beresf. Hope Worship & Order 127 The restoration of the uniates to Eastern communion.

b. attrib. or as adj. Of, adhering or pertaining to, or denominating the United Greek Church.

1855 Pict. Chr. Heroism 37 The Greek-uniat curé of Jansff. 1885 Ch. Quarterly Rev. Apr. 162 In Russia, the once powerful Uniat Church has declined. 1901 Times 22 Sept. 7 The much persecuted Uniate or Greek Catholic creed.

Uniaxal (yūni,æ·ksăl), a. [f. Uni- 1 + Axal a.] = Uniaxial a. Hence Unia·xally adv.

1829 Nat. Philos., Polaris. Light vii. 24 (L. U. K.), The whole system of rings will appear to be like the uniaxal system. 1866 B. Stewart Heat § 43 Crystals that are optically uniaxal. 1881 Glazebrook in Phil. Trans. CLXXIII. 595 The Surface of a Uniaxal Crystal.

Uniaxial (yūni,æ·ksiăl), a. [f. Uni- 1 + Axial a.]

1. Optics and Crystall. Having one optical axis.

1827-8 Herschel in Encycl. Metrop. (1845) IV. 520 When the two axes coalesce, or the crystal becomes uniaxial, the lemniscates become circles. a 1853 Pereira Polarized Light (1854) 176 The crystal possesses the singular property of being uniaxial for violet light and biaxial for red. 1888 Rutley Rock-Forming Min. 37 Uniaxial crystals.

2. Bot. and Zool. = Monaxial a.

1879 Rossiter Bot. Sci., Uniaxial development: in all vertebrate animals, some molluscs and annulosa; in some of exogens, endogens, algæ, and fungi.

Uniber, sb. (a.) Obs. [ad. for Umber sb.] 4.

1824 Meyrick Ant. Armour II. 99 The war helmet..shews the intermediate form of the uniber. 1844 James Agincourt I. 77 Shields, and pallets and unibers.

† Unible, a. Obs. rare. [ad. med.L. ūnibilis (Dief.), f. L. ūnīre to Unite. So Sp. and Pr. unible, It. unibile.] Capable of being united; unitable.

1559 Udall tr. Gemiinus' Anat. 3/1 A father, by whose grace we have received a nature, visible to the glorified bodie of his sonne Christ. 1683 Baxter Dying Thoughts 22 Either Souls are partible substances or not. If not partible, how are they unible?

Unic, obs. f. Unique a. and sb.

† Unical, a. Obs. rare. [f. L. ūnic-us Unique a. + -al.] Forming or consisting of one unit; alone of its kind, unique.

1598 Sylvester Du Bartas ii. 1. ii. Impert. 651 A body.. filling little from th' One unicall, the onely-beating Beeing. 1650 Charleton Paradoxes Prol. 26 The form or Essence of Verity, is unical, single, and devoid of all Alterity.

Hence † Unically adv., entirely, undividedly.

1689 G. Harvey Curing Dis. by Expect. v. 33 If..your confidence is so unically fixed on the Virtues of Stones.

Unica·meral, a. [f. Uni- 1 + Cameral a.] Having, consisting of, or characterized by one legislative chamber.

1853 F. Lieber Civil Liberty & Self-Govt. xxiv. 242 As a feature of Gallican liberty, must be mentioned here the unicameral system. 1890 Century Mag. Feb. 506/2 Georgia, Pennsylvania and New Hampshire abandoned the unicameral system after a short trial of it. 1894 Morley in Daily News 28 June 7/4 There is very little chance of our being ..what is called unicameral.

Hence Unica·meralist, an advocate of a unicameral system. Also Unica·merist.

1888 Earl of Pembroke in Univ. Rev. I. 102 The ideal of the unicameristes seems to me to be quite out of the region of practical politics. 1893 Westm. Gaz. 14 Feb. 1/3 Of course, I, as a Democrat, do not care for the two Chambers. I am a unicameralist.

Unica·pular, a. Bot. [ad. med.L. ūnicapsulār-is (whence F. unicapsulaire); see Uni- and Capsular a.] Of a pericarp: Having a single capsule. Of a plant: Characterized by a pericarp of this kind.

Also Zool. = Monocytharian a. (Cent. Dict. 1891).

1720 P. Blair Bot. Ess. ii. 52 Therefore Papaver is only an Unicapsular Plant. 1760 Lee Botany 1. xv. 38 In respect to external Division, the Pericarpium is either..Unicapsular, ..as in Lychnis (etc.). 1793 Martyn Lang. Bot. s.v., A Unicapsular pericarp.

U·nicelled, a. [Uni- 1.] Unicellular. 1877 Le Conte Elem. Geol. (1879) 154 The beautifully silicious shells of diatoms (unicelled plants).

Unicellular (yūni,se·lĭăl), a. (and sb.). Biol. [ad. mod.L. ūnicellulār-is (whence also F. unicellulaire): see Uni- and Cellular a.]

1. Composed or consisting of, having, a single cell; said esp. of the organisms belonging to the primary divisions of the animal and vegetable kingdoms.

Also in recent use as sb.

1858 Carpenter Veg. Phys. § 55 The minute unicellular plants, known by the name of Diatomaceæ. 1875 Darwin Insectiv. Pl. xiv. 329 All the leaves contained unicellular and other Algæ. 1892 Mivart Ess. & Crit. II. 437 The distinction between unicellular and multicellular animals.

2. Characterized by the formation or presence of a single cell or cells.

1863 Dana Man. Geol. 747 Plants in passing from the unicellular state by growth lose in power. 1872 J. Tait Mind in Matter (ed. 3) 58 In the animal world colonies are the next approach of unicellular to multicellular organisation.

Unicellula·rity. [a. F. unicellularité, or f. prec. + -ity.] Unicellular condition or formation.

1896 G. W. Field tr. Hertwig's Zool. 21 The unicellularity of the lowest animals.

Unicist (yū·nisist). [f. L. ūnic-us one + -ist.]

1. A believer in the unicity of the Godhead.

1807 Coleridge in Lit. Rem. (1839) IV. 291 As understood by the modern Unicists. 1832 — Table-t. 4 Apr., The schoolmen would perhaps have called you Unicists: but your proper name is Psilanthropists.

2. Medd. A believer or adherent of the theory of unicity. Also attrib.

1890 Billings Nat. Med. Dict. II. 720. 1901 J. Ewing in Jrnl. Exper. Med. V. 483 Inclined to accept the unicist theory.

Unicity (yū·ni·sĭti). [ad. med.L. ūnicitās* (whence F. unicité, It. unicità, Sp. unicidad), or f. L. ūnic-us one, unique : see -ity.]

1. The fact of being or consisting of one in number or kind ; oneness.

1691 J. Howe Wks. (1834) 147/2 The most unquestionable unity or unicity of the Godhead. 1694 R. Burthogge Reason & Nat. Spirits 166 Composition is Unity, but simplicity is Unicity. 1817 Coleridge Blessed are ye that sow 55 For Unity or Unition, and indistinguishable Unicity or Oneness, are incompatible terms. 1849 Alford Grk. Testament I. 254 The κοινόνησις of this commandment consists in its simplicity and (so to speak) unicity. 1880 C. I. Black Proselytes of Judaism 302 What our so-called Unitarians teach is..the Unicity of the Godhead.

b. Med. The theory that syphilis is caused by only one kind of venereal virus.

1861 Bumstead Ven. Dis. 349 Some explanation..of what was called by its discoverer [Ricord] the 'unicity' of syphilis.

2. The fact or quality of being unique ; unique nature or character.

1859 Todd's Cycl. Anat. V. 106/1 Bernard then goes on to prove, by the method of elimination, the unicity and propriety of this property of the pancreatic secretion. 1887 Saintsbury Hist. Elizab. Lit. 91 Which..gives The Faerie Queene its unique unicity, if such a concept may be pardoned.

Unick, obs. f. Unique a.

U·nicode. [Uni- 2.] A telegraphic code in which one word or set of letters represents a sentence or phrase; a telegram or message in this.

1886 Unicode ', The Universal Telegraphic Phrase-Book Pref. p. iii, The 'Unicode' aims at, a low price. Ibid. p. v, The 'Unicode' word 'Obumbro'. 1897 Westm. Gaz. 20 Jan. 6/3 [He] gave evidence as to sending a unicode to both [persons]. 1899 Daily News 23 Dec. 5/3 The dispatch of messages in 'Unicode'.

Unico·lor, a. [L. ; cf. F. unicolore.] Of a single uniform colour. Chiefly Nat. Hist.

1781 Pennant Hist. Quadrup. II. 482 Unicolor Shrew of an uniform dusky cinereous color. 1811 Shaw Gen. Zool. VIII. 538 Unicolor Lory, Psittacus unicolor.

Unicolorate, a. rare. [f. L. ūnicolor + -ate[2].] Unicoloured, unicolorous.

1657 Tomlinson Renou's Disp. 302 Its flowers like Peasebloom, but lesser, unicolorate and purpureous. 1826 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. IV. xlvi. 291 Unicolorate (Unicolor), when a surface is of one colour. 1837 Richardson Fauna Bor.-Amer. IV. 14 Cymindis Unicolor. Unicolorate Cymindis.

Unicolorous (yūnikr·lərəs), a. Also 7, 9 unicolourous. [f. L. ūnicolor + -ous.] Having only one colour ; uniform in colour. Chiefly Ent.

1657 Tomlinson Renou's Disp. 197 Two unicolourous juices mixed together. 1843 Humphreys Brit. Moths II. 66 The wings rounded, destitute of markings, and unicolorous. 1894 Naturalist 296 All unicolorous black, instead of having the typical red elytra.

Unico·lour, a. [Cf. Unicolor.] = prec.

1860 Proc. Zool. Soc. 51 The fur of all parts of the body.. is unicolour, and of a lightish cinnamon-brown.

Unico·loured, a. [Uni- 1.] Unicolorous.

1811 Pinkerton Petral. II. 121 Others are spotted in infinite variety ; and others, though rarely, are unicoloured. 1821 Meyrick & C. H. Smith Costume Orig. Inhab. 24 The uni-coloured robe of sky-blue. 1890 Sat. Rev. 5 Apr. 413/2 The uni-coloured thread that runs throughout my motley history.

Unicorn (*yū*nikŏn). Forms: 3–7 uni-, 4–6 uny-, 4–7 vni-, vnycorne (6 inny-, ine-; Sc. 5 iny-, owni-, 6 wnicorne); 4–5 vny-, 4–6 vni-, 5 unycorn, 5– unicorn (5–6 vnykorn, 6 vnykhorn). [a. AF., OF. (mod.F.) unicorne (= Pg. unicorne, Pg. and Sp. unicornio, It. unicornio), or directly ad. their source L. unicorn-, unicornis having one horn (also in late Lat. as sb.), f. ūnus UNI- + cōrnu horn. Cf. late L. unicornuus, med.L. unicornus, -(i)um sbs., from the same source.

The word was corrupted in OF. to licorne (the usual form in mod.F.), iincorne, etc., 1t. liocorno, Pg. (a)licorne, etc.]

I. 1. A fabulous and legendary animal usually regarded as having the body of a horse with a single horn projecting from its forehead (cf. 2 note); the monoceros of the ancients.

The unicorn has at various times been identified or confused with the rhinoceros, with various species of antelope, or with other animals having a horn (or horns) or horn-like projection from the head. According to Pliny (Nat. Hist. VIII. xxi. § 31) it had a body resembling that of a horse, the head of a deer, the feet of an elephant, and the tail of a hon, with one black horn projecting 'two cubits' from the middle of the forehead.

The horn of this animal was reputed to possess medicinal or magical properties, esp. as an antidote to or preventive of poison: see UNICORN'S HORN.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 120 Mon wrœ is wulf, oder leun, oder unicorne. 13.. K. Alis. 6710 (Bodl. MS.), Sitt þou shalt habbe sex hundrede Rinoceros..And two hundreþ vnicornes. c 1315 SHOREHAM Poems v. 113 Of hyre barne þat hy hadde gode game, Per-inne þe vnicorn weks tame Þat er þan was so wylde. 1387 TREVISA Higden (Rolls) I. 159 Here beep also ..vnycornes [L. rhinoceros], camels, pardes [etc.]. 1423 JAS. I Kingis Q. clv, The lufter vnicorne, And wodie venyym with his cuoure horne. c 1511 1st Eng. Bk. Amer. (Arb.) p. xxxiii/2 These vnicornes slee many Lyons, and the Lyon sleeth the vnicorne with subtylnes. 1590 SPENSER F. Q. II. v. 20 Like as a lyon, whose rippened pow'r A proud rebellious Vnicorne defies. 1609 DEKKER Gull's Horn-bk. ii. 12 The Vnicorne, whose horne is worth halfe a City. 1657 TRAPP Comm. Job xxxix. 9 This is the..Vnicorn... A very fierce and strong creature; and adayes very much rare, but anciently more common. 1735 JOHNSON Lobo's Abyssinia, Descr. ii. 51 In the Province of Agaus, has been seen the Unicorn, that beast so much talk'd of, and so little known. 1801 Weekly Herald (N.Y.) XXXV. 3/2 Of the probability of the existence of an Unicorn. 1843 DE QUINCEY Ceylon Wks. 1859 XII. 8 The whole traditionary character of the unicorn as the antagonist..of the lion. 1895 J. G. MILLAIS Breath of the Veld 133 Any one who has seen a wild sable antelope galloping cannot fail to be struck by its resemblance to the unicorn.

b. Used in ME. versions of the OT. to render the Vulgate ūnicornis or rhinocerōs (Gr. μονόκερως) as translations of Heb. רְאֵם rēʾēm (also רְאִים rēʾīm), and retained in various later versions (but translated by 'wild-ox' in the Revised Bible). See REEM.

a 1300 E. E. Prolter xxi. 22 (exil. 21) Sauf me fra mouth of lioun es, and fra hornes of vnicornes mi mekenes. [Also versions a 1340–1621.] 1382 WYCLIF Numb. xxiii. 22 Whos strenghe is lijk to an vnycorn. [Also versions 1388–1611.] c 1386 CHAUCER Prioresses Tale xviii, Show to heare me, By aiding, when fierce Vnicornes come neere me. 1639 SIR W. MURE Ps. xxii, Wks. (S.T.S.) II. 89 From the hornes of vnicornes Thine eare (Lord) found I have. 1696 TATE & BRADY Ps. xxix. 6 They..leap, like Hinds that bounding go, Or Unicorns in youthful play.

c. In fig. or allusive use.

In quot. 1607 = 'a cuckold'.

1509 BARCLAY Ship of Fools 222 [Let] James of Scotlande.. haue the forward, hau ye no disdayne Nor indignacion, for neuer kynge was horne, That of ought of wom can shewe the vnycorne. 1592 G. HARVEY Four Lett. 52 The only Vnicorne of the Muses. 1607 DEKKER Northw. Hoe iv. B 3 b, Fetherstone..it seemes makes her husband a vnicorne. 1826 GALT Last of Lairds vi. 53 Bridle the unicorn o' your impatience.

†d. Horn reputed to be that of the unicorn prepared as an embellishment or ornament. Obs.

a 1533 LD. BERNERS Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. (1559) V ij b, It was of wood Libanus, and round about garnished with unicorne. 1599 PEELE David & Bethsab. H ij, Shee that in chaines of pearle and vnicorne, Leads at her traine the ancient golden world.

2. A figure, picture, or representation of this animal, esp. in Her. either as a charge or more usually as a supporter of the Royal Arms of Great Britain (or Scotland).

Usually depicted heraldically as having the head, neck, and body of a horse, the legs of a deer and the tail of a lion, with a straight and spirally twisted horn growing out of the forehead.

c 1400 Emaré 264 The fayr mayden her by-forn Was portrayed an vnykorn, Wyth hys horn so hye. 1483 Acc. Lal. High Treas. Scot. I. 85 A couering..browdin with thistillis and a vnicorne. 1549 in Cage Hengrave (1822) 127, iij cuppes with a cover chased, with unicorns on the top. 1610 GUILLIM Heraldry vi. vii. 280 Supported by a Lion.. and an Vnicorne Luna, gorged with a Crowne. 1766 in Seton Law Her. Scotland (1863) 442 His Majesty's royal coat-of-arms supported on the right side by a unicorn with an imperial crown over the head. 1789 MRS. PIOZZI Journ. France, etc. II. 221 The family crest, a unicorn, made in white marble. 1823 Gentl. Mag. LXXXIII. 37/2 With supporters (lion and unicorn) of the Royal arms. 1875 W. MCILWRAITH Guide Wigtownshire 55 Here is an escutcheon bearing two unicorns and a lion rampant and the crown.

3. Sc. The specific designation of one of the pursuivants of the court of the Lyon King of Arms. See PURSUIVANT I.

1445 Exchequer Rolls Scot. V. 204 Quia Unicorn signifer egis illam terram habuit ex concessione regis. 1473-74 Acc. Ld. High Treas. Scot. I. 52 Item gevin to Vnicorne herald, ..to his expensis, xl li. 1546 Ibid. IX. 33 To Petir Thomson, alias Unicorne pursevant. 1636 Reg. Privy Council Scot. Ser. II. VI. 605 The deceased George Wast, Unicorn pursuivant. 1662 Ibid. Ser. III. I. 259 Leyes..was charged by William Malcolm, Unicorn pursuivant, to compear this day. 1742 NISBET Syst. Heraldry II. iv. xvi. 171 As for Pursevants, they are also of best lucally denominate, Unicorn only excepted. 1862 SETON Law Her. Scotland 38 As in the case of the Heralds, the Pursuivants are also six in number, and bear the names of Kintyre, Dingwall, Carrick, Bute, Ormond, and Unicorn.

4. A Scottish gold coin current in the 15th and 16th centuries at the value of 18 shillings Scots; so called from the figure of the unicorn stamped upon its obverse. Also half unicorn. Now Hist.

1487 Exchequer Rolls Scot. IX. 549 In denariis aureis vocatis unicornys. 1500–20 DUNBAR Poems lxvi. 78 Vpon the heid of it is hecht Bayth unicornis, and crownis of weycht. 1538 Aberd. Reg. XVI. (Jam.), Ane vnicorn gud & sufficient gold. 1845 LINDSAY Coinage Scot. 137 The Unicorns generally weigh about fifty-eight grains,..the half Unicorns in proportion. 1887 E. BURNS Coinage Scotl. II. 151 The coinages of unicorns that took place under James V.

†b. Used attrib. as the designation of a weight, equivalent to about one-eighth of an ounce troy.

1506 Extr. Aberdeen Reg. (1844) I. 434 Ane corss of gold, weyand half ane unicorn and half ane unicorn weicht. 1560 St. Giles Charters (1889) p. xlvii, Foure vnce, ane half, and ane vnicorne weicht of gold.

5. Astr. A southern constellation lying between Canis Minor and Canis Major.

This constellation was noted by Hevelius in his Prodromus Astron. (1690) pp. 178, 204, under the name of Monoceros.

1771 Encycl. Brit. I. 487/2 Hevelius's Constellations made out of the unformed Stars [include], Monocerus, The Unicorn. 1868 LOCKYER Guillemot's Heavens (ed. 3) 382 The northern half of the Milky Way extends..to the Unicorn at the altitude of and near the belt of Orion.

6. A carriage, coach, etc., drawn by three horses, two abreast and one leader; now usually, a team of three horses so arranged. (Cf. 11 b.)

1785 GROSE Dict. Vulgar Tt. Unicorn, a coach drawn by three horses. 1800 MAR. EDGEWORTH Belinda xvi, She drove in her unicorn to Oakly-park. 1866 FREEMAN in Life & Lett. (1895) I. 342, I would put on the children's pony..in front of my two, so as to make an unicorn. 1889 Evening News 28 Aug. 3/2 Their demands for a 1st. for a single horse, 28s. for a pair, and 30s. for a 'unicorn'.

transf. 1860 R. F. BURTON Centr. Afr. xiii. II. 38 We crossed as usual on a 'unicorn' of negroids, the upper part of the body mounted by two men, and the feet resting upon the shoulders of a third. 1887 Cyclists' Tour. Cl. Gaz. May 215/1 The unicorn..is made up of s[n]..ordinary bicycle front-wheel coupled to a..sociable.

b. Quasi-adv.

1889 Habits of Gd. Society v. 200 You will seldom be called upon to drive tandem, unicorn, or four in hand. 1893 MISS BRADDON Aurora Floyd v, There were more lofty accomplishments than driving unicorn or shooting..game.

II. †7. The one-horned rhinoceros. Obs.

1398 TREVISA Barth. De P. R. xvi. ix. (Bodl. MS.), [In] þat londe [sc. Ethiopia] beþ..þe vnycoceros þat is þe vnicorne, a beste wiþ oon horne. a 1700 EVELYN Diary 22 Oct. 1684, I went..to see the Rhinoceros, or Unicorn, being the first that I suppose were ever brought into England.

8. As the name of a fish, shell, etc., having a projecting horn or horn-like process, or regarded as resembling the fabulous unicorn in some other respect. Cf. MONOCEROS 2 and 4.

A few examples other than those illustrated here are recorded in American Dicts. from 1891 onwards.

†a. (See quot.) Obs.

1668 CHARLETON Onomast. 123 Monoceros Clusii, the little Unicorn, or Sawfish.

b. The narwhal or sea-unicorn.

Named also unicorn-fish, -whale, and abbrev. UNIC.

1694 Marten's Voy. Spitsbergen in Acc. Sev. Late Voy. II. 126 The Unicorn is but seldom seen in these parts. 1748 Ld. Rupert's Discov. Greenland 76 Among the different Kinds of Whales, some reckon the Unicorn, as they commonly call him,..but his right Name is Nar-Whale. 1823 W. SCORESBY Jrnl. 39 Here we saw a considerable number of 'unicorns' (narwals).

c. A unicorn-shell. (See 11.)

c 1711 PETIVER Gazophyl. vi. liii, Grass girdled Indian Unicorn, Cat. 263. A beautiful Shell and rarely met with.

9. Zool. A species having one horn.

1822 J. PARKINSON Outl. Oryctol. 312 There appear to be three existing species of rhinoceroses:—1. That of India: a unicorn;..—2. That of the Cape: a bicorn.

III. 10. attrib. and Comb., as unicorn bone (i.e. horn), horse, -ivory; -crested, -like adjs.

1477 EARL RIVERS (Caxton) Dictes Div, Ther is summe contre that a litil yvory or vnycorne bone is bought for a grete summe of gold. 1538 Penny Cyclo. XII. 306/1 The ..Onager, figured, with a unicorn-like horn in the midst of its forehead. 1843 Ibid. XXVI. 3 Strabo..refers to Unicorn horses with the heads of deer. 1863 R. S. SURTEES Sponge's Sp. Tour xlix, The unicorn-crested gates, with tin-caddy looking lodges. 1865 KANE Arct. Expl. II. xiv, 141 The natives carried no arms but the long knife and their unicorn-ivory lances.

11. Special combs., chiefly in the names of animals, birds, fishes, plants, etc., which are characterized by a long projecting horn-like process or spine regarded as resembling the horn of the unicorn: unicorn xanthurus (see quot. and UNICORN-FISH c); unicorn auk (see quot.); unicorn-bird, the horned screamer, Palamedea cornuta; unicorn file-fish (see quot.); †unicorn guard Fencing, a guard in which the sword is advanced well to the front of the fencer; unicorn hawk (-moth), hornbill (see quots.); unicorn-moth, the North American moth, Celdadasys unicornis; unicorn narwhal, = sense 8 b; unicorn-plant U.S., a name for various North American plants, esp. Martynia proboscidea, the capsule of which terminates in two horn-like spines; unicorn-root U.S. (see quots.); unicorn-shell, a marine gasteropod having a horn-like lip projecting from the shell, now esp. one belonging to the genus Monoceros; unicorn whale, = sense 8 b.

1803 SHAW Gen. Zool. IV. 374 *Unicorn Acanthurus. Acanthurus Unicornis. .. From the front proceeds a strong, conical, horn-shaped process. 1884 COUES North Amer. Birds 805 Ceratorhina monocerata. .. *Unicorn Auk. Horn-bill Auk. 1681 GREW Museum I. § iv. ii. 65 The *Unicorne Bird [Is]..Horned on his Forehead (with some likeness) as the Unicorne is pictur'd. 1863 BATES Nat. Amazons I. 297 The Curicica..was soon joined by a unicorn bird..; whose harsh screams [etc.]. 1804 SHAW Gen. Zool. V. ii. 399 *Unicorn File-fish. Balistes Monoceros... Immediately over the head..is a very strong..spine of considerable length. 1617 J. SWETNAM Sch. Sct. Defence 126 An other very sure and dangerous guard at the Backesword, called the *Vnicorne guard, or the fore-hand guard. 1711 WYLDE Eng. Master Defence 23 The Medium Unicorn or Center Guard, is made thus. 1872 J. ROSENBERG Butterfl. & M. 24 The *Unicorn Hawk (Sphinx Convolvuli, Linnæus) appears in September. 1834 T. BROWN Butterflies & Moths I. 96 Two fine males of the Sphinx Convolvuli (Unicorn Hawk-moth). 1882 SHAW Gen. Zool. VIII. 11 *Unicorn Hornbill. [Buceros Monoceros].. The cnsque is prolonged in front into a kind of horn. 1892 Cent. Dict. s.v., Larva of *Unicorn-moth. 1813 BINGLEY Anim. Biog. (ed. 4) II. 1 The *Unicorn Narwal, or Sea Unicorn. 1798 MOSES Amer. Geog. I. 189 *Unicorn [plant] (Martynia fajrinosa). 1845–50 MRS. LINCOLN Lect. Bot. II. 110/1 Helonias diœcia, scape leafy..Unicorn plant. 1847 DARLINGTON Amer. Weeds, etc. (1860) 222 M. proboscidea..Long-beaked Martynia. Unicorn plant. 1891 H. HERMAN Vie Angelè Woodbine, unicorn plant, and wild currant surged all about it. 1846 A. WOOD Class-bk. Bot. (1850) 559 Helonias diœica, Ph. (Veratrum luteum. Linn.) *Unicorn Root. 1847 WEBSTER, Unicorn-root, a popular name of two plants, viz. Chamælirium Carolinianum [= Helonias diœica], to which this name was first applied, and Aletris farinosa..; both used in medicine. 1891 Cent. Dict., Unicorn-root, the blazing star, Aletris farinosa. 1891 Pop. Science Gossip vi. iv, A *Unicorn Shell with Bugle Twirls. Ibid. VIII. lxxv, Small Unicorn-shell, with rugged Twirls and Waves between. 1888 Cassell's Encycl. Dict., Monoceros,..Unicorn-shell; a genus of *prosobranchiate gasteropods, peculiar to the west coast of America. 1668 CHARLETON Onomast. 168 Balæna Monoceros, Vnicornu Marinum, .. the *Vnicorn Whale. 1694 Acc. Sev. Late Voy. p. xix, The Monoceros or Unicorn Whale. 1898 BAIRD Cycl. Nat. Sci. 1091 The..unicorn whale, Monodon Monoceros, has no teeth in the lower jaw.

b. Attrib. in sense 6, as unicorn carman, fashion, omnibus (attrib.), team.

1856 MORTON Cycl. Agric. II. 726 A unicorn team is two abreast and one in front. 1897 'C. BEDE' Figgers at Hastings 47 Some [wagonettes] with four horses, some with three (unicorn fashion). 1884 'R. BOLDREWOOD' Melb. Mem. I. 14 Frank Liardet is driving his unicorn omnibus team from the lonely beach. 1898 Westm. Gaz. 6 Sept. 1/3 A 'unicorn carman'..means 'one who drives three horses'.

†12. Passing into adj. Made a unicorn or cuckold (cf. sense 1 c above). Obs.— 1603 DEKKER Wonderfull Yeare E 4 The vnicorne cobler being ouer head and eares in sleepe.

Unicorn-fish. [Cf. UNICORN 8 b.] The narwhal or sea-unicorn, Monodon monoceros.

1688 R. HOLME Armoury III. (Roxb.) 324/1 For his Supporters he beareth a vnicorne fish, Argent, the fish or taile part, Azure: Horne, Hoofes, and finns, Or. 1752 J. HILL Hist. Anim. 314 Monodon. The Unicorn-fish, or Narwal. 1773 Gentl. Mag. XLIII. 220 The Jackinitor Fish, the Unicorn Fish, the Trumpet Fish. 1812 J. WALKER Ess. Nat. Hist. 327 Monodon Monoceros. Linn.. Scot. Unicorn Fish. 1860 WRAXALL Life in Sea i. 12 The Narwhal, or Unicorn-fish, attains a length of twenty or twenty-five feet.

b. (See quots.)

1876 GOODE Fishes of Bermudas 27 The Bahama Unicorn-Fish is Alutera scripta. 1900 Nature 21 June 182/2 An example of the rare unicorn-fish (Lophotes cepedianus) from the Cape of Good Hope.

c. One or other of various fishes belonging to the genus Acanthurus. (Webster, 1911.)

Unicornic, a. rare. [f. prec. + -IC.] Resembling, having the form of, a unicorn.

1882 R. BROWN Unicorn 14 A unicornic animal frequently appears in archaic art. 1885 — in Academy 28 Nov. 363/2 The familiar conventional unicornic representation.

Unicornous, a. rare. [f. L. unicorn-is (see UNICORN) + -OUS.] Having but one horn.

1646 SIR T. BROWNE Pseud. Ep. v. xix. 261 The Rhinoceros, the Indian Asse, and the Unicornous Beetles. [Hence in Blount, Phillips, Bailey, etc.]

Unicorn's horn. Also †unicorn horn. [See UNICORN I.]

1. A horn regarded as or alleged to be obtained from the legendary unicorn, but in reality that of the rhinoceros, narwhal, or other animal, freq. mounted or made into a drinking cup and employed as a preventive of or charm against poison.

a. 1452 Lincoln Diocese Doc. (1914) 51 A ryng of vnicorn horne. 1555 Reg. Gild Ca. Chr. York (1872) 203, I give to Sir Thomas Chaloner, knyghte, my vnicorn horne. c 1650 Invent. Goods Chas. I in Pegge Curialia (1806) IV. 122 An unicorn horn.

b. 1549 THOMAS Hist. Italie 89 b, Two fayre vnicornes hornes. 1564 Bullevn Dial. agst. Pest. 74 A pece of a Unicornes horne, good against poison. 1603 Lodge Treat. Plague Wks. (Hunter. Cl.) IV. 51 The horne of that beast which..the simple sorte [call] vnicornes horne. 1687 Lond. Gaz. No. 2237/4 There will be exposed to Sale..considerable quantities of Drugs, Colours, and Unicorns Horns. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v., What ordinarily passes among us for Unicorn's Horn,..we are assured by Pereyra..to be the Tooth of a large Fish of the Whale Kind. 1838 Penny*cyc. Feved. & Is.* I. vii. 383 He is said to have kept a reputed unicorn's horn always on his table.

b. Narwhal's horn.

1856 Kane Arct. Expl. I. 412 A shaft of unicorn's horn.

† 2. The material of this powdered or prepared as a drug and used medicinally, esp. as an antidote against poison. Obs.

1590 E. Webbe Trav. (Arb.) 35 Some lewde Gunners ..gaue me poyson in drinke..; his Phisition..gaue me speadely Unicorns horne to drinke. 1631 Jordin Nat. Bathes vii. (1632) 44 This volatill salt..is commonly very Diaphoretickes: & this it is which makes our..supposed Vnicornes horne to be in such esteeme. 1658 New Discov. Moscovy 21 Likewise some use the Powder to Antedote Poison, as the Vnicorns horne; this I hold to be the same with the Morse.

3. Bot. (See quot.)

1864 Chambers's Encycl. VI. 393 The root of Helonias dioica is used..as an anthelmintic...The plant..is called Starwort and Blazing Star, also Unicorn's Horn. [Cf. unicorn-plant, -root s.v. Unicorn 12.]

‖ Unicum (yū·nikŭm). [L., neut. sing. of ūnicus Unique a. So in G. and Du.] A unique example, specimen, or thing.

1882 Daily Tel. 14 July 5/3 Some picture, work of art, or old book, which is represented to him as being a 'unicum'. 1890 Mrs. J. P. Morgan tr. Ruhinstein's Conv. on Music 26 The symphony in G minor (this unicum of symphonic-lyric).

Unicursal (yū·nikŭ·rsăl), a. and sb. Math. [f. Uni- 1 + L. cursus course: see -al.] a. adj. Having, traversing, or being on one course or path. b. sb. A unicursal curve.

1866 Cayley in Proc. London Math. Soc. April, A unicursal curve is nothing else than a curve with a deficiency D = 0. 1871 — Math. Papers (1895) VIII. 388 On the Transformation of Unicursal Surfaces. 1873 G. Salmon Higher Plane Curves ii. 29 If the coordinates can be expressed as rational functions of a parameter the curve has the maximum number of double points. Curves of this sort are called unicursal curves.

Hence Unicursa·lity; Unicu·rsally adv.

1887 Amer. Jrnl. Math. X. 24 In the unicursality-equation a cusp plays the role of an ordinary double-point. 1892 W. W. R. Ball Math. Recreat. 124 A figure is described unicursally when the whole of it is traversed in one route.

Unicycle (yū·nisăk'l). U.S. [f. Uni- 2 + Cycle, after bicycle, tricycle.] A vehicle or conveyance having only one wheel; esp. a monocycle used by acrobats or for gymnastic displays.

1869 The Velocipede (N.Y.) April 76 Hemmings' Unicycle or 'Flying Yankee Velocipede'. 1884 Knight Dict. Mech. Suppl. 913/1 Unicycle, a one-wheeled vehicle for propulsion by foot-power.

Hence U·nicyclist, one who rides a unicycle.

1881 Sells Bros. Show-Bill, Celebrated Russian Bicyclists, Unicyclists, and Roller Skaters.

Unide·aed, a. Also unidea'd. [Un-1 9.] Not furnished with an idea.

1752 Johnson in Boswell (1904) I. 166 Leaving his social friends, to go and sit with a set of wretched un-idea'd girls. 1822 Scott Peveril xxvii, A silly scrumulous unidea'd Puritan. 1888 Pall Mall G. May 242 The un-idea'd vulgarity of the lower middle classes.

Unide·al, a. [Un-1 7.]

† 1. Of sounds or words: Expressing or conveying no idea. Obs.

1751 Johnson Rambler No. 184 P12 However we amuse ourselves with unideal sounds. 1792 W. Roberts Looker-On No. 23 (1794) I. 324 A language..rich in the unideal terms of a raving philosophy.

† 2. Destitute of, lacking in, ideas. Obs.

1751 Johnson Rambler No. 184 P9 A short relief from the tediousness of unideal vacancy. 1801 Phil. Trans. XCI. 91 Unideal operations conducted without principle, purpose, or regularity.

3. Having or following no ideal.

1760 D. Webb Beauties of Painting iv. 68 Those servile and unideal painters. 1836 Emerson Eng. Traits, Lit. Wks. (Bohn) II. 113 The scholars have become un-ideal. They parry earnest speech with banter and levity. 1867 F. Harrison Choice of Bks. (1886) 110 To be fierce is to be unideal, to be unideal is to be sanguinary.

4. Not marked by idealism; having no ideal character or features, etc.

1846 Ruskin Mod. Paint. II. iii. xiii. § 2 Unideal works of art..represent actual existing things. 1873 Spencer Stud. Sociol. ix. (1877) 222 Instead of our practice being unideal, the ideas which guide it verge on the romantic. 1877 L. Morris Epic Hades iii. 276 The bare And unideal aspect of the fields Which Spring not yet had kissed.

Unide·alism, -ist. (Un-1 12.)

Also, in recent use, unidealistic adj.

1870 J. Grote Exam. Utilit. Phil. xvii. 273 Utilitarianism may be..either of an idealist or unidealist type. 1888 W. S. Lilly Right & Wrong (1890) iv. 121 The singular unidealism..of the English mind in respect of eternal and divine things.

Unide·ntified, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1860 R. Noel in Vac. Tour. 467 The site of a town or village unidentified presented itself within incredibly short distances. 1867 Latham Black & White 68 Of these graves 138,901 will be nameless and unidentified.

Uni·dioma·tic, a. (Un-1 7.)

a 1822 Shelley Pr. Wks. (1888) I. 395 The clear, and exact, but unidiomatic phrases of their native language. 1855 Pusey Doctr. Real Presence 133 The interpretation of Bellarmin is inconsistent and unidiomatic. 1891 Driver Introd. Lit. O. Test. 145 An author who..translated the Aramaic idiom..into unidiomatic Hebrew.

Uni·dle, a. [Un-1 7.] Busy, industrious.

a 1586 Sidney Astr. & Stella Sonn. xxvi (Qu.[3]), For me, I doe Nature vnydle know. 1604 Marston Malcontent v. iii, Is he not a pretty dapper unydle gallant?

† Unidoctatrixe, v. Obs.[1] (Un-2 6 c.) 1659 Fuller App. Inj. Innov. i. 55 The Animadvertor..endeavouring to un-idolatrize the Brittains as much as he could. Unido·latrous, a. (Un-1 7.) 1842 Wiseman Remarks on Lect. Puseyism 5 Idolatrous or unidolatrous, for an unidolatrous worship. 1882 19th Cent. No. 49. 502 The two religions ..were both nominally monotheistic, and both unidolatrous.

Unie (yū·ni), abbrev. of Uniform 8 b.

1874 A. H. Markham Whaling Cruise Baffin's B. 137 A couple of narwhals, or as they are called by the whalers, 'unies' (unicorn abbreviated). 1878 — Gt. Frozen Sea v. 67 Another source of amusement..was chasing 'unies'.

Unie, v.: see Uny v.

Unific (yū·nifik), a. [ad. L. type ūnificus: see Uni- and -fic.] That unifies or unites; producing unity.

1798 T. Taylor Proclus I. 218 A power collective of divisible natures, and unific of such as are multiplied. 1841 Fraser's Mag. XXIII. 130 The centre of unific power is the invisible. 1861 Q. Rev. CX. 394 That so-called unific principle..by which we are impelled to reduce all that we see and hear to unity. 1877 Farrar Days of Youth xi. 105 The unific rectitude of a manly life.

Unification (yūnifikē·ʃŭn). [f. Unify v. (see -ation), or a. F. unification, It. unificazione.] The action or process of unifying or uniting; reduction to unity or to a uniform system; the result of this.

Unificationist, sb. and a., has had some slight currency in recent use (1909-).

1851 Gallenga Italy II. i. 25 The unification of Italy would thus be grounded and pacific. 1868 Lecky Ration. I. 231 A process of transformation or unification of religious ideas. 1880 E. Kirke Garfield 46 The recent movement for the unification and preservation of nations.

So U·nificator, a unifier.

1870 Contemp. Rev. XV. 400 The people..proclaimed them in anticipation the 'unificators' of Italy.

Unified (yū·nifoid), ppl. a. [f. Unify v. + -ed 1.] That is or has been made into one from separate parts; united, combined, consolidated.

1862 F. Hall Hindu Philos. Syst. 178 The residual part..he is to consider as unified. 1882 Standard 30 Dec. 5/2 The Unified Debt fell about 1/4. 1883 Fortn. Rev. July 107 After the whole metropolis is under a unified authority.

b. Used absolutely or as sb.

1883 Pall Mall G. 30 Nov. 5/2 Egyptian Unifieds continued to rise yesterday. 1884 Academy 2 Aug. 74/2 Unification is pleasant to the unified only, not to the unified.

Unifilar (yū·nifilăr), a. [f. Uni- 1 + L. fīl-us thread: see -ar 1.] Of a magnetometer or other magnetic instrument: Having or suspended by a single thread or fibre.

1866 Kane Arct. Expl. I. xiv. 153 We had a good unifilar [magnetometer]. 1873 J. C. Maxwell Electr. & Magn. II. 119 The Unifilar Declinometer. 1879 Thomson & Tait Nat. Phil. I. i. § 435 In the unifilar torsion-balance.

Unifloral, a. [Un-1 3.] = Uniflorous a.

1849 Craig. 1861 Bentley Man. Bot. 212 A series of single-flowered axes (uniflorals) arranged in the form of a raceme.

Uniflorous (yūnifl5·rŭs), a. Bot. [f. mod.L. ūniflōr-us (f. L. ūn-us Uni-+flōr-, flōs flower)+ -ous. Cf. F. uniflore (1753), Pg. unifloro.] Having or bearing only one flower.

1760 [see Multiflorous a.]. 1800 Asiatic Ann. Reg. 299/2 The hermaphrodite calyx is sometimes biflorous,..sometimes uniflorous. 1881 Jrnl. Linn. Soc. XVIII. 353 Distinguished..by its uniflolate uniflorous stem.

† U·nifoil. Obs.—[f. Uni- + Foil sb.] The plant one-blade, Smilacina bifolia.

1688 R. Holme Armoury II. 58/1 He beareth Argent, an Vnifoile Vert..Vnifoile or Vnifail. This is an Herb that never hath more then one leaf from a Root,..it is also called one blade. [Hence in Berry Encycl. Her. (c 1828), Elvin (1889), and in some recent Dicts. as a bearing in Heraldry.]

Uniform (yū·nifŏrm), sb. [f. the adj. Cf. F., It., Sp., and Pg. uniforme, Du., G., Sw., and Da. uniform in sense 2.]

† 1. 1. In uniform, in one body or flock. Obs.

1622 Lisle Æliric on O.& N. Test. Ded. p. ix, Our sheepe shall feare no Wolfe, or suddaine storme; But goe and come all safe in vniforme.

II. 2. A distinctive dress of uniform cut, materials, and colour worn by all the members of a particular naval, military, or other force to which it is recognized as properly belonging and peculiar.

1748 in Jrnl. Archæol. Soc. (1847) II. 79 That no commission-officer or midshipmen do presume to wear any other uniform than what property belongs to his rank. 1760 Cautions & Adv. to Officers of Army 123 You are..to consider what is to be furnished out of this last Sum, and that is your Regimentals or Uniform. 1802 James Milit. Dict. s.v., Scarlet is the national uniform of the British army. Ibid., Generally speaking each [corps] has an uniform within itself, yet this uniform, strictly considered, is a regimental. 1837 Dickens Pickw. iv, Colonel Bulder, in full military uniform, on horseback. 1879 Cassell's Techn. Educ. II. 363 Insisting that none shall fight who do not wear the uniform of one of the armies engaged.

fig. 1768–74 Tucker Lit. Nat. (1834) II. 121 Passion so commonly marches under the colours and in the uniform of reason,..that [etc.].

b. A distinctive uniform dress worn by the members of any civilian body or association of persons.

1837 Dickens Pickw. ii, The proposed uniform, sir, of the Pickwick Club. 1885 Mrs. Alexander' At Bay i, A good-looking boy in the polytechnique uniform. 1897 Hall Caine Christian x, The girls were nearly all nurses, and they wore their nurse's uniform.

c. A single suit of this kind. † Also pl., the separate garments composing this.

1783 Ann. Reg., Chron. 193/2 Such flag officers, however, as were provided with the uniform were permitted to wear the same. 1814 Scott Waav. xvii, He had laid aside the Highland dress for the time, to put on an old blue and red uniform. 1834 Marryat P. Simple xxxviii, That is the reason why my uniforms are so shabby. I spoilt them then.

† 3. A person wearing a uniform. Obs.—[1]

1786 Mme. D'Arblay Diary Oct., I opened the eating-room door,..but saw to my surprise a party of uniforms.

4. attrib. a. In the sense 'pertaining to, forming (part of) a uniform', as uniform case, clothes, coat.

In some instances not clearly distinguishable from the adj. Cf. Uniform a. 2 c.

1807 P. Gass Jrnl. 288 We got a canoe from the natives, for which we gave an officer's uniform coat. 1825 in J. A. Herand Voy. Mélchéon. (1837) x. 179 Buy your..uniform clothes (two jackets and one coat) in London. 1852 Thackeray Esmond ii. xiii, An officer in a green uniform coat. 1889 Hissey Tour in Phaeton 399 We pack our personal belongings in tin uniform cases.

b. In the sense 'wearing uniform; uniformed'.

1899 Westm. Gaz. 1 Jan. 4/3 Several uniform policemen watched the prosecutor and prisoners.

Uniform (yū·nifŏrm), a. Also 6 vniformme, 6–8 uniforme. [f. F. uniforme (14th c. in Godef.,=It., Sp., Pg. uniforme), or ad. L. ūniformis: see Uni- and Form.]

I. Of things in respect of their own qualities or constitution.

1. Of one form, character, or kind; having, maintaining, occurring in or under, the same form always; that is or remains the same in different places, at different times, or under varying circumstances; exhibiting no difference, diversity, or variation.

1540 Palsgr. Acolastus A ii, One selfe and vniforme maner of teachynge of all those Grammaticalle enseygnemenes. 1555 Westman Fazvile Jacob 1. v. 72 The order of Marriage among the Egiptians is not vniforme. 1601 Holland Pliny I. 161 This impression, that maketh either the foresaid vniforme likenesse, or confusion and varietie. 1662 Eccles. St. Papers Fortescue Ser. II. (1927) 150 We would be glad that all our Subjects could be brought to agree in a uniforme Worship of God. 1710 Prideaux Orig. Tithes ii. 127 From whence else should they have such a Uniform Usage but by a Uniform Tradition from them? 1780 Bentham Princ. Legisl. xiv. § 3 It is but time to seek for an uniform base of agreement upon so essential an object. 1828 Scott Br. Lammm. xi, According to a uniform custom in remote places in Scotland. 1869 F. W. Newman Miscc. 224 A uniform franchise through the whole federation would have followed. 1891 Law Times XCII. 124/2 In Ireland the practice in this respect..was not uniform.

absol. 1606 Sylvester Du Bartas ii. iv. ii. Magnif. 1335 Cause of all Causes, Ocean of all Good,..The Uni-form, which gives all forms their Being.

b. Of persons (or personifications), their disposition, etc. Hence, exhibiting or preserving uniformity or consistency in respect of conduct or opinion; consistent.

1551 Cranmer Answ. to Gardiner i. 14 The churche of Rome, sheweth her selfe alway vniforme and consonaunt, to confound all the doctrine of Christe. 1647 H. More Phil. Poems ii. lxxii, If he will his own fortunes overturn It cannot well be holp, we must be uniform. 1692 Dryden St. Evremont's Ess. 239 There is a man so uniform as to have nothing of Inequality and contrariety in his Actions. 1748 Richardson Clarissa i. 1. 3 Every-body pities you. So steady so uniform in your conduct. 1799 Wellington in Gurw. Desp. (1834) I. 16 Of this uniform disposition abundant proofs have been afforded by each of the allies. 1822 Scott Peveril xlviii, For Buckingham's sins,..he is the regular and uniform sponsor.

† c. Of consent: Unanimous. Obs.

1559 in Strype Ann. Ref. viii. (1709) 116 We..have with one uniform consent set forth this short declaration. 1620 Brent tr. Sarpi's Counc. Trent viii. 745 An vniforme consent of Doctors.

d. Of clothing or dress: Of the same pattern, colour, and material amongst a number or body of persons.

Merging into an attrib. use of Uniform sb. (sense 4).

1746 in Jrnl. Archæol. Soc. (1847) II. 77 That a uniform dress is useful and necessary for the commissioned officers. 1768 Ann. Reg., Chron. 63/1 The lappels and cuffs of the military uniform frocks, appointed to be worn by the lieutenants of his Majesty's fleet. 1783 Ibid. 193/2 The uniform clothing..worn by the flag officers. 1890 Harper's Mag. Feb. 333 The practice of clothing soldiers, by regiments, in one uniform dress.

2. Having or presenting the same appearance or aspect; exhibiting no, or little, diversity in respect of form, design, or dimensions; hence, having a plain, unbroken, or undiversified surface or exterior.

In the 17th-18th centuries freq. of buildings, etc.

a 1550 LELAND Itin. (1768) I. 107 The Church of S. Mary is excellent, newe, and uniforme yn work. Id. Cure in Kempe Loseley MSS. (1836) 456 The church of St. Treguse ys..a very good one, were it uniforme. 1632 MASSINGER & FIELD Fatal Dowry III. i, All else about you, cop-a-pie, So uniform in spite of handsomeness, Shews such a bold contempt of comeliness. 1696 WHISTON Theory of Earth II. 115 Every such state of external Nature was even, uniform, and regular. 1723 CHAMBERS tr. La Clerc's Pneut. Archæol. I. 59 Columns..ought not to have any Flutings; for ..plain uniform Columns carry..a better appearance. 1756 NUGENT Gr. Tour, Netherl. I. 299 The street called La Rue Royale, is one of the longest, straitest, and most uniform in Europe. 1784 COWPER Task VI. 178 All this uniform, uncolour'd scene, Shall be dismantled of its fleecy load. 1889 DARWIN Orig. Spec. III. 73 The face of nature remains uniform for long periods of time. 1884 BOWER & SCOTT De Bary's Phanerog. 120 The thickening mass is either uniform or pitted.

As adv. 1630 R. Johnson's Kingd. & Commw. 132 Paris.. is the greatest, the uniformer built, and strongliter situate.

† b. Del. Of flowers: (see quots.). Obs.

1693 Phil. Trans. XVII. 929 Such as have a Uniform Flower, as Senna, or such as have a difform or Papilionaceous Flower. 1704 J. HARRIS Lex. Techn. I, Uniform Flowers of Plants, the Botanists call such as are all round of the same Figure; or whose fore and back part, and whose right and left parts are exactly alike.

c. Of material things or colour.

In this group the sense sometimes becomes narrowed down to 'not mixed or blended'.

1756 BURKE On the Sublime & Beautiful III. xxvii, Nor ..is the power of black as black, or of white as white, so strong as when each stands uniform and distinguished. 1764 HARMER Observ. IV. § 27. 192 This mingled wine stands in opposition to new wine, which is, to the eye, an uniform liquor. 1823 SCOTT Quentin D. ii, His jerkin, hose, and cloak, were of a dark uniform colour. 1845 Florist's Jrnl. 161 Few gardens could boast an uniform luxuriant green among the plants. c 1880 FARADAY Forces Nat. Ty This piece of glass..being perfectly uniform in its internal structure.

3. Of motion, dimensions, etc.: Free from fluctuation or variation in respect of quantity or amount.

1559 W. CUNNINGHAM Cosmogr. Glasse 20 The sterres kepe one uniforme distance in moyst Eyre. 1660 BOYLE Excel. Pol. v. lxix. § 2 The heauens..keepe in their motions vniforme celeritie. 1656 tr. Hobbes' Elem. Philos. III. xv. 136 Uniform [motion] is that by which equal Lines are always transmitted in equal times. 1764 Mem. Kant. LV. 58 We should find it in an uniform progression of encrease. 1796 WITHERING Brit. Plants (ed. 3) III. 829 Branches of a uniform breadth. 1880 MAURY Phys. Geog. (Low) xxii, § 863 The flow of heat from the sun is held to be uniform. 1899 THOMSON & TAIT Nat. Phil. I. i. § 20 Velocity..may be uniform, i.e. the same at every instant; or it may be variable.

II. Of things of the same class in respect of each other, or of one thing in relation to another or others of the same class.

4. Of the same form, character, or kind as another or others; agreeing or according with one another, conforming to one standard, rule, or pattern; alike, similar.

1548 W. THOMAS in Strype Eccl. Mem. (1721) II. App. v. 71 So because we have no neighbour of uniform religion, I determine we can find no friend, whose amity is to be trusted. 1594 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. iv. xiii. § 2 The only doubt is about the manner of their unity; how far churches are bound to be uniform in their ceremonies. 1637 SALTONSTALL Rusciolus' Constantine 77 Thus the Emperours Edict discovered the Dens and uniforme Cages of these Heretickes. 1660 R. COKE Power & Obed. 200 The ceremonies of Edward's Reformation were more uniform than before. 1702 Engl. Theophrast. 263 Things Past, Present, and to Come, are strangely Uniform and of a Colour. 1766 KAMES Elem. Crit. (1823) 482 When two figures are composed of similar parts, they are said to be uniform. 1794 MRS. RADCLIFFE Myst. Udolpho xvi, My answers on the subject have been uniform. 1857 SMILES Huguenots Eng. i. 6 The cities sold having been compared with each other, were found to be exactly uniform. 1878 BRISTOWE Th. & Pract. Med. (ed. 2) 534 The symptoms of rupture of the heart are far from uniform.

† b. Of buildings. Obs.

1549 W. THOMAS Hist. Italy 90 Buildynges on bothe sides so layre and uniforme, vnlyke Monyse Italy. 1. 16 The houses are most of bricke, ..and so vniforme, as if they had all beene built at a time, and by the same workemen. 1684 BUNNET tr. More's Utopia 73 Their Buildings are good, and are so uniform, that a whole side of a Street looks like one House. 1700 in Picton L'pool Munic. Rec. (1883) I. 291 Ye buildings be handsome & uniform.

† c. Of persons. Obs.

In quot. referring to Matt. xxii. 11-13.

a 1626 DR. ANDREWES Pedeum Cat. (1630) 210 He that was not uniforme was punished.

† d. In agreement with, accordant to, something.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia II. xii, So divers be the Elements disposed in this weake worke, that it can never be Made uniforme to any state reposed. 1811 in Wills & Clark Cambridge (1886) II. 557 Three outward dore cases shalbe arched..with freestone vniforme to the windowes. 1702 H. DODWELL Apol. § 29. I have shewn it agreeable to the severest Reasoning..to make his Death uniform to the rest of his Life.

Uniform (yū·nifɔrm), v. [f. the adj. or sb. Cf. Sp. and Pg. uniformar, It. uniformare].

1. trans. To make conformable to.

In a parody of pedantic language.

a 1586 SIDNEY Wanstead Play in Arcadia (1629) 622 Thus must I vniform my speech to your obtuse conceptions.

2. To make or render (a number of persons or things) uniform or alike; to bring or reduce to uniformity.

In later quots. with suggestion of sense 3.

c 1681 HICKERINGILL Priamus III. Wks. 1716 I. 372 We'll uniform you all, and make you all alike. 1708 T. WARD Eng. Rel. i. (1710) 64 To..Uniform the Multitude In Prayer, and joyn the jarring crowd. 1870 LOWELL Study Wind. (1871) 258 The more than Protean travesties which words underwent before they were uniformed by Johnson and Walker. 1887 Harper's Mag. July 280 It is a human device to uniform people into friends and enemies.

3. To dress in, put into, uniform. Cf. UNIFORMED a., UNIFORMING vbl. sb.

1894 Outing XXIV. 98/2 Hull persisted in uniforming the militia after his own sweet will.

† Unifo·rmable, a. Obs. rare. [f. L. uniformis UNIFORM a. + -ABLE.] Uniform.

1632 LITHGOW Trav. x. 474 Vniformable no; some of your Priests glue the Sacrament onely in Bread..; some in Wine without Bread, and some in both. 1653 HUTTER Eng. Improver Impr. 155 As aside..to cast or lot out thy Wood into an Artificial uniformable plot, as to do it rudely or confusedly.

Unifo·rmal, a. [f. as prec. + -AL.] Uniform, in various senses.

1573 [implied in next]. 1598 FLORIO, Simbolo,..an vniformall consent of sundry opinions. a 1668 DEE Relat. Spir. I. (1659) 4 All things shall be brought into an uniformal order. 1645 HERRICK Descr. Woman 11 Her comly nose with uniformall grace Like purest white stands in the middle place.

1848 BAILEY Festus (ed. 3) 206 One arrayed in white And one in uniformal black. 1888 D. MAGUIRE Art Massage ii. (ed. 4) 18 A uniformal friction on those parts of the body which are irregularly formed.

Hence Unifo·rmally adv. rare.

1573 BARET Alv. s.v. C, [The letter C] should haue his proper sound and euer to keepe the same vniformally in speaking, nor waueringly. 1603 FLORIO Montaigne III. ii. 491. I will prouide my selfe..every where vniformallie. 1624 GATAKER Transubst. 48 These being..uniformally recounted by three Evangelists.

Uniformaliza·tion. [f. next + -ATION.] The action of making or fact of being made uniform.

1890 Athen. Pro. III. 255 The uniformalization of tenures.

Unifo·rmalize, v. rare. [f. UNIFORMAL a. + -IZE.] trans. To make uniform; to reduce to a uniform system.

1805 Ann. Rev. III. 294 It is desirable to uniformalize the circulating medium of both countries. 1830 W. TAYLOR Hist. Surv. Germ. Poetry I. 161 By uniformalizing coins, weights, and measures.

Uniforma·tion. rare. [f. UNIFORM a. + -ATION.] The action of making uniform; reduction to uniformity.

1895 Dublin Rev. April 335 Not through the blunting, checking, or uniformation of thinking.

U·niformed, a. [f. UNIFORM sb. 2 + -ED.] Dressed in or wearing uniform. (Freq. c 1880-.)

1823 LADY LITTELTON Corr. 12 Dec., Wednesday we dine at Count Romanzoff's—full-dressed, long-trained, uniformed. 1840 GEN. P. THOMPSON Exerc. (1842) V. 53 A uniformed agent of the law. 1895 MEREDITH Amazing Marriage xliii, A foreign army or tag-rag of uniformed rascals.

fig. 1862 Temple. 1864 LOWELL Fireside Trans. 154 We..come out uniformed..with habits of thinking and doing cut on one pattern. 1892 Nation (N.Y.) 3 Mar. 176/1 The book is handsomely uniformed in Confederate gray.

Unifo·rming, vbl. sb. [f. UNIFORM v.]

1. The action of making or fact of being made uniform in some respect. rare[-1].

1700 Ev. Post 8/2 The Hundred Regiments 115 The Twelvth Peiw ..Was a supernumerary Peiw at the uniforming of the seates.

2. The action of clothing in or providing with uniform or a uniform dress.

1891 Harper's Mag. March 647/2 In the uniforming of a community set apart for an unworldly purpose. 1897 Daily News 4 May 6/2 The uniforming of troops.

Uniformist (yū·nifɔrmist). [f. UNIFORM a. + -IST.] An advocate of or believer in uniformity or a uniform system, esp. in respect of religious doctrine or observance.

1885 R. W. DIXON Hist. Ch. Eng. III. 465 He was..as staunch a Uniformist now, as..he had been a Nonconformist. 1891 Athenæum 14 Aug. 214/2 A strict uniformist with regard to the phonetics of Latin.

Uniformitarian (yū:nifɔrmitē·riăn), sb. and adj. [f. UNIFORMIT-Y + -arian.]

A. sb. 1. Geol. One who maintains or accepts the theory that geological processes and phenomena have always been and still are due to causes or forces operating continuously and with uniformity. (Opposed to CATASTROPHIST or CONVULSIONIST.)

1840 WHEWELL Philos. Induct. Sciences I. p. xxxvi, The Catastrophist constructs Theories, the Uniformitarian demolishes them. 1860 HUXLEY Darwiniana Coll. Ess. 1893 II. 65 The most philosophical uniformitarian of the present day. 1891 SIR R. BALL Ice Age 173 It places the ice-sheet ..at the disposal of the geological uniformitarian.

2. An advocate of uniformity; a uniformist. rare.

1890 GUTHERSLEYE Ess. & Stud. 214 The Procrustean work of a miserable uniformitarian.

B. adj. 1. Geol. Of or pertaining to, characteristic of or held by, uniformitarians.

1840 WHEWELL Philos. Induct. Sci. II. 135 The uniformitarian doctrine on this subject rests on most unstable foundations. 1869 HUXLEY in Scientific Opinion 21 April 464/2 The influence of uniformitarian views has been..favourable to the progress of sound geology. 1884 H. SPENCER in Contemp. Rev. July 25 The leading expositor of the uniformitarian theory in Geology.

b. In accordance with the theory of the uniformitarians; proceeding from geological uniformity.

1869 HUXLEY in Scientific Opinion April 487/1 All these irregular..catastrophes would be the result of an absolutely uniformitarian action.

c. Of persons: Holding or adhering to the theory or doctrines of the uniformitarians.

1864 BOWEN Logic ix. 301 The speculations of those whom Dr. Whewell calls the uniformitarian school of geologists. 1895 Q. Rev. April 386 The most influential uniformitarian geologist of our age.

2. Of or pertaining to, advocating or practising, uniformity in something.

1897 Daily News 12 July 6/3 The Puritanism of the intolerant, uniformitarian Presbyterians.

Uniformitarianism (yū·nifɔrmitē·riănizm). Geol. [f. prec. + -ISM.] The principles or doctrines held by the uniformitarian school of geologists; the theory of uniformity of action in the forces and processes of inorganic nature. (Opposed to CATASTROPHISM or CONVULSIONISM.)

1865 T. MARSDEN Sacr. Steps Creation 113 One is induced to ask, whether Uniformitarianism be mere Proselytism in the garb of Philosophy. 1894 Nature 26 July 290/1 The natural though exaggerated reaction into scientific uniformitarianism.

Uniformity (yū·nifɔ·mĭti). Forms: 5 vniformite, 6 -ete, 6-7 -itie, 7 -ity, uniformitie, 7- -ity. [3. F. uniformité (14th c.), = It. uniformità, Sp. uniformidad, Pg. -dade), or ad. L. uniformitāt-, ūniformitās, f. ūniformis UNIFORM a.: see -ITY. So also Du. uniformiteit, G. uniformität.] The quality of being uniform.

1. The fact or condition of having the same form or character as another or others; conformity amongst several things, parts, etc., to one form or character.

1432-50 tr. Higden (Rolls) III. 215 Zenon, whiche put euery synne to be of vniformite, so that he scholde synne as moche in the steyle chiffe as the mast stedeye golde. 1513 Douglas Æneid IX. iv. 39 To thir tua was a will in vnite, A lust, and mynd in vniformete. 1611 CORYAT Crudities 23 Such is the vniformity of almost all the houses of the same stretee..that they are made alike both in proportion of workmanship and matter. 1614 RALEIGH Hist. World II. 543 The consent of those that have written thereof, nothing neare to uniformity. 1630 R. Johnson's Kingd. & Commw. 132 Its situation of a Winding river, and the five Bridges, sorting forsooth to uniformitie of streets. 1701 NORRIS Ideal World I. ii. 50 Whence should arise this specific uniformity in the natures of man..if not that they are all cast in one mould? 1756 BURKE Subl. & B. II. ix, Succession and uniformity of parts are what constitute the artificial infinite. 1815 J. SMITH Panorama Sci. & Art II. 602 Various differences in the depth, extent, or want of uniformity of the gravelly or clayey strata. 1884 Pentlny Chron. II. 149/1 Quality, purity, beauty of plumage, and uniformity [in fowls].

b. Conformity to (or compliance with) one standard of opinion, practice, or procedure, esp. in respect of religion or religious observance.

Act of Uniformity, in Eng. Hist., one or other of three Acts regulating public worship, passed in 1549 (1st Jan.), 1559, and 1662 respectively, which prescribed the use and acceptance of the Books of Common Prayer published in those years; esp. the Act (13 & 14 Charles II, c. 4) passed 19 May 1662, which also required the 'assent and consent' of the clergy to everything contained in the Book of Common Prayer; etc.

1549 Act 2 & 3 Edw. VI, c. 1 (title), An Acte for the Vnyformytie of Service and Administracion of the Sacramentes throughout the Realme. 1552 ABP. HAMILTON Catech. Pref., To keip vniformitie and concord in the setting furth to ye people the doctrine. 1611 BIBLE Transl. Pref. ¶ 13 When the father of their Church..findeth so great fault with them for their odiles and jarring; we hope the children have no great cause to vaunt of their vniformitie. 1652 BAXTER Inf. Bapt. 147 His treatise against Uniformity. 1670 in Somers Tracts I. 21 All Uniformity (or Colour of it) was distasteful to the Independents. 1708 J. CHAMBERLAYNE St. Gt. Brit. I. III. i. (7/10) 155 He must carry with him.. Letters Testimonial..from..Three..Reverend Divines, who ..can give a good Account of his Vertue, Uniformity, and Learning. 1830 D'ISRAELI Char. I, III. v. 65 Lord Bacon considered that uniformity in religion was absolutely necessary. 1871 C. DAVIES Metric Syst. III. 79 Its adoption was therefore a great and important advance toward uniformity. Comb. 1647 Case Kingd. 10 'Till Vniformity-mongers be pounted at as the only Enemies of a State.

c. With a or an.

1560 DAUS tr. Sleidane's Comm. 125 b, Therfore is an vniformitie to be sought for, that maye be grounded vpon the sure foundation of Scripture. 1641 MILTON Reform. II. 17 This distinction of honour will bring forth a seemly and graceful uniformity over all the kingdom. 1705 NELSON Fest. & Fasts I. (ed. 3) 19 The great Council of Nice ordained there should be a constant uniformity in this Case. 1874 GREEN Short Hist. iii. § 3, 125 An uniformity of weights and measures was ordered to be enforced throughout the realm.

2. The condition of having, occurring in, or maintaining only one form or character; resemblance to or agreement with itself at all times or on all occasions; regularity in action or occurrence. Freq. const. of.

1577 HARRISON England II. iii. (1877) I. 73 For vniformitie of building, orderlie compaction, and regiment, the towne of Cambridge exceedeth that of Oxford..by manie a fold. 1739 BUTLER Serm. Wks. 1874 II. 217 There is a wonderful uniformity in the conduct of Providence. 1802 PALEY Nat. Theol. xxv. 482 Of the unity of the Deity, the proof is, the uniformity of plan observable in the universe. 1863 KINGLAKE Crimea I. 64 That branch of industry which seeks to give uniformity and mechanic action to bodies of men. 1875 JOWETT Plato (ed. 2) IV. 415 Genius is of all ages, and there is perhaps more uniformity in excellence than in mediocrity.

b. spec. in Geol. Cf. UNIFORMITARIAN(ISM.

1839 WHEWELL Hist. Induct. Sci. III. 609 The progress of physical geology will be better understood by attending to the doctrine of uniformity. 1869 HUXLEY in Scientific Opinion 28 Apr. 487/1 It is very conceivable that catastrophes may be part and parcel of uniformity.

3. The condition of having the parts similar in appearance; presentation of one regular or unvaried form on this account; similarity of appearance, design, structure, style, etc.; freedom from or lack of variety, diversity, or irregularity.

Regarded as either an artistic virtue or defect.

1628 BACON Ess. (Arh.) 547 Houses are built to Lue in, and not to Looke on: Therefore let Vse bee preferred before Vniformitie. 1642 FULLER Holy & Prof. St. III. vii. 268 Uniformity also much pleaseth the eye. 1686 PLOT Staffordsh. 360 The beauty of a structure..did not consist, as now, in uniformity; but in the greatest variety the Artist could possibly shewe. 1753 HOGARTH Anal. Beauty iv. 22 Variety is more pleasing than uniformity, where the same end is answer'd by both. 1778 SHERIDAN Camp II. iii, The tents are all ranged in a straight line; now,..is there not a horrid uniformity in their infinite vista of canvas? no curve, no break. 1842 MRS. BROWNING Bk. Poet. ii. Wks. (1904) 635/1 There is a difference between uniformity and monotony, and he [Marlowe] found it.

b. Unvaried or wearisome sameness; monotony, esp. of life.

1707 Curios. in Husb. & Gard. 64 Custom and Uniformity ..soon make the best Things seem dull and insipid. 1751 JOHNSON Rambler No. 167 P 6 The uniformity of life must be sometimes diversified. 1819 SCOTT Leg. Montrose xvii, Men to whom the late uniformity of their military life had rendered any change of society an interesting novelty. 1860 W. COLLINS Wom. White I. W. H.'s Narr. viii, The dull uniformity of life at Limmeridge.

4. With a and pl. A particular instance of this condition; a uniform feature, law, etc.

1665 J. SPENCER Prodigies (ed. 2) 104 All kind of pretty Equalities and Uniformities, especially between Stars and Events. 1733 BERKELEY Th. Vision Vind. § 67 We must not, for the sake of uniformities or analogies, depart from truth and fact. 1864 BOWEN Logic xii. 412 Simple uniformities, such as are comprehended in a General Fact, may be merely accidental. 1867 BAKER Nile Trib. iii. 63, I measured the depth of some of the wells, and found a uniformity of forty feet.

Uniformize (yū·nifŏrmaiz), v. rare. [f. UNIFORM a. + -IZE. Cf. F. uniformiser, Pg. -izar, med. L. ūniformizāre.] trans. To make uniform; to reduce to a uniform system. So Uniformized ppl. a.

Also, in recent use (1907), uniformization.

1866 G. STEPHENS Runic Mon. I. p. xiii, To translate the oldest runic inscriptions..into a modern uniformized 'Icelandic'. 1889 Nature Oct. 563 The formation of..an International Commission to fix units and uniformize methods.

Uniformless, a. [f. UNIFORM sb. + -LESS.] Lacking or not wearing uniform.

1863 W. H. RUSSELL My Diary North & S. I. 308 Great long-bearded fellows in flannel shirts and slouched hats, uniformless.

Uniformly, adv. Also 6–7 vni-, 7 uniformely. [f. UNIFORM a. + -LY 2.] In a uniform manner; with uniformity.

1. With or in conformity to one form or standard on the part of several; in the same way as others or another; without diversity of one from another.

In later use merging into sense 3, from which it is not always clearly distinct.

1549 W. THOMAS Hist. Italy 74 b, The one syde [of the street] is built of harde stone, all vniformely with faire pinsen wyndowes. 1559 BP. CL. SCOT in Pryse Acts. Ref. (1709) I. II. App. x. 27 Common prayers, and the holie sacraments uniformly mynystred. 1627 MORYSON Itin. I. 182 The houses are vniformely, and very fairely built of free-stone. 1748 Anson's Voy. III. vii. 360 A hundred..were uniformly drest in the regimentals of the marines. 1847 C. BRONTË Jane Eyre v, They were uniformly dressed in brown stuff frocks.

2. With uniformity in degree, quantity, or extent; in or with the same relative proportion; equally, equably.

1577 HARRISON England II. vi. (1877) I. 156 They giue it gentle heats, till it be drie, and in the meane while they turne it often, that it be vniformelie heated. 1609 DOULAND Ornithoparcus' Microl. 78 A Consonance is a mixture of two Sounds falling into the eares vniformely. 1656 HOBBES Six Lessons Wks. 1845 VII. 282 Two moments, one uniform, the other uniformly accelerated. 1743 W. EMERSON Fluxions 109 The Space..would be uniformly discribed in a given Time. 1773 COOK First Voyage III. vi. I II. 632 Their skins were so uniformly covered with dirt, that it was very difficult to ascertain their true colour. 1815 J. SMITH Panorama Sci. & Art II. 654 It is advisable to make the soil uniformly deep in every part. 1869 TYNDALL in Fortn. Rev. 1 Feb. 244 If..the plate be wedge-shaped, thickening gradually and uniformly from one to back.

3. In a manner that is always the same; without variation or alteration; at all times or in every case alike; invariably.

1682 NORRIS Hierocles 11 By Law is understood the power of God as it always acts uniformly. 1736 BUTLER Anal. I. ii. Wks. 1874 I. 38 We find the consequences, which we were beforehand informed of, uniformly to follow. 1776 GIBBON Decl. & F. xiii. I. 375 The calm dignity which he uniformly affected. 1825 SCOTT Talism. xxvi, When once noticed, it uniformly made a strong impression on the spectator. 1863 EV. NEALE Anal. Th. & Nat. 249 The judgments of our propositions are uniformly made by the verb 'to be'. 1891 Law Times XCII. 124/1 Since 1846 the Chancellorship has been uniformly held by Irish barristers.

b. Qualifying adjectives or adverbs.

1769 ROBERTSON Chas. V, xi. Wks. 1813 III. 329 An administration uniformly equitable and moderate. 1827 J. IVIMEY Pilgr. 19th Cent. iii. 59 'Was he uniformly successful in trade?'..'I cannot say that he was always successful; he was uniformly honourable.' 1842 J. WILSON Chr. North I. 245 Life has gone uniformly well with him. 1898 'MERRIMAN' Rodell's Corner x, The result has been uniformly satisfactory.

Uniformness. [f. as prec.] Uniformity.

1579 W. WILKINSON Confut. Fam. Love B ij, That we might serue euen so the onely liuing God in..vniformenes of hart. 1581 MULCASTER Positions xlv. 296 The great varietie in teaching, which is now generally vsed, maye be reduced to some vniformnesse. 1710 BERKELEY Princ. Hum. Knowl. I. § 105. 151 Rules grounded on the Analogy, and Uniformness observ'd in the Production of Natural Effects.

Unify (yū·nifai), v. [ad. med.L. unificāre, f. L. ūni- UNI- : see -FY. So F. unifier (14th c.), It. unificare, Sp. unificar.] trans. To make, form into, or cause to become one; to combine (two or more) in one; to join (one or more) to or with another or other; as to form one whole or unit; to unite, consolidate.

Rare in 18th c. (see the ppl. a.); frequent in recent use.

1502 Ord. Crysten Men (W. de W. 1506) I. vii. G iv, Y^e holy goost vnyeth & vnyfyeth al these membres of the holy chyrche in one. 1509 HAWES Joyf. Med. 6 Two tytles in one thou dyest well vnyfye. 1654 W. MONTAGU Dev. Ess. II. viii. 156 Let then all the pretenders to peace, procure to simplifie and unifie their desires by this single address to the will and order of God. 1656 BLOUNT Glossogr., Unifie, ..to joyn or make one, as marriage doth Husband and Wife. [Hence in later Dicts.] 1802 COLERIDGE Lett. (1895) 404 A poet's heart and intellect should be..intimately combined and unified with the great appearances of nature. 1853 LYNCH Self-Improv. 5 Religion will..unify and glorify all his studies. 1884 Manch. Exam. 26 Mar. 5/1 The great effect of successive Reform Bills has been to unify the nation. absol. 1817 COLERIDGE Biog. Lit. xiii. (1882) 144 It..dissipates, in order to re-create; or..at all events, it struggles to idealize and to unify. 1888 Classical Rev. Oct. 256/1 These Homeridæ..worked continuously..,adding and unifying, and so they produced the epics.

Hence Unifying vbl. sb.

1681 BAXTER Ch. Sherlocke vi. 209 Distinguishing between the Unifying of the Society, and the uniting a single Member to that Society.

Unifying, ppl. a. [f. prec. + -ING 2.] That unifies.

1681 BAXTER Acc. Sherlocke iv. 184 The Church hath its true, proper, specifying and unifying, that is, constitutive Government. 1751 HARRIS Hermes III. iv. (1765) 303 No where is this collecting and (if I may be allowed the expression) this unifying Power more conspicuous. 1775 — Philos. Arrangem. viii. 237 By virtue..of this combining, this unifying Comprehension. 1840 DE QUINCEY Style iv. (1860) 298 This great unifying event. 1881 MIVART Cat 376 The organ and vehicle of such unifying activity.

Uni·genist, a. [f. UNI-, after MONOGENIST.] Of or pertaining to monogeny; monogenistic.

1896 A. H. KEANE Ethnology vii. 256 Another argument in support of the unigenist doctrine against polygenist views.

† Unigenit, a. Obs.—[1] [ad. eccl. L. ūnigenit-us. Cf. OF. unigenit.] Only begotten.

a 1568 in Bannatyne MS. (Hunter. Club) 207/5 O vnigeneit Sone to God of micht!

Unige·niture. [f. as prec. + -URE.]

1. Theol. The fact of being the only-begotten Son.

1659 PEARSON Creed 278 Unigeniture being the foundation of his singular love. Ibid. 279 As primogeniture consisteth in prelation, so unigeniture in exclusion. 1691 E. TAYLOR Behmen's Theos. Philos. 369 The inire Will, and Divine Unigeniture.

2. The fact of being an only child; the practice of having only one child.

1887 Edin. Rev. Oct. 304 The Norman peasantry who secure the advantages of primogeniture by unigeniture.

† Uni·genous, a. Geol. Obs.—[1] [f. UNI- + Gr. γένος sort, origin : see -OUS.] Of uniform structure. (Cf. MONOGENOUS a. 4.)

1799 KIRWAN Geol. Ess. 214 The unigenous limestone mountains of Carniola.

Unigni·ted, ppl. a. (UN- I 8.)

1773 Phil. Trans. LXIV. 27 The dark and unignited state of the great internal globe of the sun. 1784 Ibid. LXXV. 194 A very dense fume of unignited particles arises. 1896 FROUDE Hist. Eng. I. 28 Like a train of gunpowder, the isolated grains of which have..no effect on each other, while they remain unignited.

Unihoded, ppl. a. : see UN- I 3.

Unila·biate, a. [ad. mod.L. ūnilabiāt-us : see UNI- and LABIATE a.] (See quots.) Also Unila·biated a.

1731 BAILEY (ed. 2) II, Unilabiated, having but one lip, spoken of flowers. [Hence in Ash (1775), etc.] 1826 KIRBY & SP. Entomol. IV. 38 Some spiracles, however, are unilabiate, or have only one lip. 1847 PUSEY Met. Med. 614 Corolla with outer limb 3-parted, the interior unilabiate.

Unila·teral, a. [ad. mod.L. ūnilaterāl-is, f. UNI- + LATERAL a. Cf. F. unilatéral (1804), Sp. and Pg. unilateral, It. -ale.]

I. 1. a. Bot. Of a raceme or panicle: Having the flowers on one side of the peduncle. Also, of a cyme: Having a branch or axis on one side only.

1802 R. HALL Elem. Bot. 156 One-sided, or Unilateral, unilateralis, applied to a raceme with all the flowers inserted on one side. 1853 G. JOHNSTON Nat. Hist. E. Bord. I. 218 A coarse but productive species, distinguished readily by its unilateral panicle.

b. Bot. and Zool. Arranged or produced on one side of an axis or surface; directed or turned towards one side.

1870 HOOKER Stud. Flora 275 Disk hypogynous unilateral. 1876 tr. Wagner's Gen. Pathol. 118 The genital pores are unilateral. 1879 Hardwicke's Science-Gossip XV. 203/2 Its flowers are unilateral, as those of the forget-me-not.

2. Of or pertaining to, occurring on or affecting, one side of an organ or part.

Unilateral horse-shoe (see quot. 1843).

1843 YOUATT Horse (ed. 3) xxi. 424 The Unilateral, or one side nailed shoe. Ibid., The unilateral shoe has this great advantage. 1877 M. FOSTER Physiol. III. vi. 456 The loss of voluntary movement which follows upon a unilateral section of the medulla. 1880 BASTIAN Brain iii. 57 The unilateral influence of Light.

b. Path. and Med. Affecting or developed on only one side of the body at the same time.

1896 DURHING Dis. Skin 225 Zoster is almost invariably unilateral. 1899 P. SMITH Glaucoma 5 Hence the bilateral character of chronic glaucoma, and the unilateral acute attacks. 1893 A. S. ECCLES Sciatica 7 In the more common form, viz., unilateral sciatica.

c. Phonetics. Uttered or produced with the glottis open on one side only.

1867 ALEX. MELVILLE BELL Visible Speech 59 Uni-lateral formations. When the breath issues by only one side aperture in forming any 'divided' consonant, the modifier [etc.]. 1887 ELLIS in Encycl. Brit. XXII. 387/1 Voiced form or buzz of unilateral Welsh ll.

3. Math. (See latter quot.)

1884 SYLVESTER Coll. Math. Papers (1912) IV. 132 A unilateral simple equation. Ibid. 225 The Quadratic Equation of a form which I call unilateral, because the quaternion coefficients in it are supposed all to lie on the same side of the unknown quantity.

II. 4. Performed or undertaken by or on the part of one side; made, enjoyed, shared in, felt, etc., by only one person or party.

1802 W. WINDHAM Let. in Windham Papers II. 200 This communication..is in this way..unilateral, in which I may speak to you, without hearing anything in return. 1898 TURNBULL Stubbes' Anat. Abuses Pref. p. x, That the Editor may not be accused of an unilateral predilection for his protegé. 1888 Times 6 May 9 It is time to make him understand..that our relations with him cannot continue to be of this unilateral character.

b. Law. Made or entered upon by one party, esp. without reciprocal obligation on the part of another or others; binding or imposed upon one party only.

1802–12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) II. 495 In the case of an unilateral deed, the scribe may be the party himself. 1826 G. J. BELL Comm. Laws Scotl. I. 354 Unilateral obligations and bonds. a 1859 AUSTIN Jurisp. (1879) I. 324 The promise..is, in the language of the jurists, a convention unilateral. 1875 POSTE Gaius III. 362 A unilateral Disposition is one made by a solitary principal disposer.

c. Of succession: Of or from one side or parent.

1881 Times 17 Jan. 4 Men may contract for reciprocal rights of cross or unilateral succession.

5. Dealing or concerned with, relating to, only one side of a subject; one-sided.

1830 Edin. Rev. LI. 531 The results of this uni-lateral.. mode of proceeding. 1838 SIR W. HAMILTON Logic xxx. (1866) II. 111 The unilateral and incompetent reasoning which I have here supposed in the case of time. 1873 MORLEY Rousseau II. 145 This is a unilateral view of the social contract, and omits the element of reciprocity.

b. Logic. (See quot.)

1864 BOWEN Logic vi. 170 In some cases, the Restriction.. and the Integration may be bilateral.., as affecting both Subject and Predicate;..or unilateral,..as affecting either the Subject only,..or the Predicate only.

Hence Unilatera·lity, the quality or character of being unilateral.

1844 DELANDE in Basent Life & Corr. (1908) I. 46 Unilaterality (there's a long word for you) is an essential ingredient in a printer's happiness. 1887 ELLIS in Encycl. Brit. XXII. 387/2 This unilaterality [of click] is insisted on by Salesbury. 1899 Allbutt's Syst. Med. VIII. 622 True zoster of the face characterized by unilaterality.

Unila·terally, adv. [f. UNILATERAL a. + -LY 2.] In a unilateral manner: a. Bot., Zool., and Path. On one side or surface only.

1830 LINDLEY Nat. Syst. Bot. 162 Flowers..often arranged unilaterally along the divisions of the cymes. 1852 LAMA Cruat. n. 1207 With several setæ at the apex, which are unilaterally setulose. 1875 BENNETT & DYER Sachs' Bot. 463 The descending portions..joining others lower down either unilaterally or on both sides.

b. In respect of one side only; by means of or on the part of one side or party; one-sidedly.

1858 GLADSTONE Homer II. 297 But then such representations in Homer are not perceptibly, much less are they unilaterally, developed. 1875 POSTE Gaius I. Introd. (ed. 2) 8 A judgment..may be unilaterally penal, that is, may impoverish the defendant without enriching the plaintiff.

† Uniliche, a. and sb. Obs. [OE. ungelīc (see UN- I 7 and YLIKE a.), = MDu. ongelijc (Du. ongelijk, WFris. on-, ungelyk), MLG. ungelīk (LG. unglīk), OHG. ungalīh (MHG. ungelich, unglich, G. ungleich), ON. ógilkr.]

A. adj. Unlike; not of the same kind or condition; different; spec. incomparable, superior.

c 888 K. ALFRED Boeth. xxxiii. § 5 Ealle þæccesta þu þæccespe him gelice, & eac on sumum ðingum ungelice. 971 Blickl. Hom. 97 Ponne is ungelic be þon ecan life. a 1100 in Napier O. E. Glosses I. 2325 Dispari sexu, ungelicum [Brussels MS. unilicum] hade. a 1200 Moral Ode 360 (Trin. MS.), þæt ben wuniinges feie ... ofer uniliche. a 1225 Juliana 60 An godd ic mihti, al oðer uniliche. c 1400 A. Gloucester's Chron. (Rolls) 815/268 He was...swiþe riche; Of richesse to fore alle oþere he was uniliche.

B. sb. = UNILIKE (q.v., quot. a 1250).

† Uniliche, adv. Obs. [OE. ungelīce (cf. prec.) differently, = OS. ungilīko, OHG. ungilīcho, etc.] Incompatibly.

c 1240 St. Brendan 143 in S. Eng. Leg. I. 223 Fairere hi beoþ þan þoure schecp, & grettere viyliche. a 1400 R. Gloucester's Chron. (Rolls) 786/58 Ac þe oþer were strengore, & richore uniliche.

† Unilike. Obs. rare. [OE. ungelīca, = MDu. ongelīke: cf. UNLIKE a.] One different from, or superior to, another.

c 1000 ÆLFRIC Saints' Lives vii. 28 Ic hæbbe oðerne lufiend, þinne ungelican on eðelborennysse. a 1250 Owl & Night. 606 (Cott.), þu seist þat þu cunst fele wike Ac euer ich am þin unlike [Jesus MS. vnylike].

Unilingual, a. [See UNI- 1 and LINGUAL a., and cf. F. unilingue.] Pertaining to one language only; knowing or employing only one language. Hence, in recent use, unilingualism.

1856 VISCT. STRANGFORD Select. (1869) II. 78 In Crete, one of the most primitive and unilingual parts of the Levant.

1886 Saturday Rev. 2 Oct. p. 4 Good linguists are still...in this unilingual contemporary. 1894 Educat. Rev. VII. 190 The unilingual method...advocated by pedagogical writers.

Uniliteral, a. [See UNI- 1 and LITERAL a.] 1. Math. (See quot.)

1817 COLEBROOKE Algebra, etc. 185 Equation uniliteral, or involving a single unknown quantity.

2. Involving the use of, or consisting of, only one letter.

1828–32 WEBSTER. 1863 TOWNSEND Mod. Geom. I. 2 The latter or uniliteral notation is generally the more convenient. 1898 C. TAYLOR Witness of Hermas 86 Examples of the uniliteral acrostic abound in the Sibylline Oracles.

Unilluminated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1. Not spiritually or mentally enlightened.

1579 W. WILKINSON Confut. Fam. Love B iij b, H. N. seyth of all preachers without his Familie, that they are vnilluminated. 1639 W. SCLATER Worthy Commun. 23 Thus surely may your dull Capernaites, and unilluminated men imagine. 1660 H. MORE Myst. Godl. vi. 248 What the ungodded or unilluminated men..bring forth. 1798 Brit. Critic XI. 47 The hazard of being reputed the disciples of a very unilluminated school. 1838 H. BUSHNELL Serm. New Life 100 The unilluminated and superficial speculations of our times. 1882 FARRAR Early Chr. I. 454 To the eyes of the unilluminated heart the region in which Faith lives and moves is a dark cavern.

2. Not illuminated or lighted up. Also fig.

1824 De QUINCEY Analects fr. Richter Wks. 1860 XIV. 137, I saw the Form which still lightened as before, but left all around it unilluminated. 1874 tr. Lommel's Light 15 The back unilluminated surface of the body.

Unilluminating, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1888 A. AINGER C. Lamb 70 The very unilluminating notes of Johnson or Malone. Unilluminated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1826 LAMB Elia II. Pop. Fallacies xv, Our ancestors..winterling in caves inundated with water. 1892 M. FIELD Sight & Song 54 A solid disc of unilluminated brown. Unillusory, a. (UN-1 7.) 1853 LYTTON My Novel III. xxii, Always scrutinizing the domestic felicity..through a pair of cold unillusory barnacles. Unillustrated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1828 WEBSTER (citing Good). 1879 Cassell's Techn. Educ. II. 275/1 Better than the most impressive verbal description, unillustrated. 1883 American VII. 9 Heavy, unillustrated English magazines. Unillustrative, a. (UN-1 7.) 1803 GODWIN Chaucer II. xiii. 282 It may not..prove..unillustrative of the history..of England. 1867 Fortn. Rev. Oct. 377 Certain lights, not unillustrative as well of the one side as of the other. Unillustrious, a. (UN-1 7.) 1885 D. HANNAY in Mag. Art Sept. 448/1 A long and unillustrious line of successors. 1897 W. WATSON Year of Shame, To Sultan, It merged thee with the unillustrious herd.

Unilocular (yū'nĭl-), a. [f. UNI- + LOCULAR a. Cf. mod.L. uniloculāris and F. uniloculaire (1771).] Having, consisting of, characterized by only one loculus (in various senses); one-celled.

1753 Chambers' Cycl. Suppl. App., Unilocular, in botany, is applied to a capsule having but one cell. 1762 Phil. Trans. LIII. 83 An oblong, oval striated unilocular seedvessel. 1815 W. WOOD Gen. Conchol. 2 In the Paper Nautilus, the Cowries, the Olives, etc. are unilocular shells. 1860 PIRRIE Surg. 60 The unilocular cystic tumour. 1867 J. HOGG Microsc. II. ii. 376 The Polythalamia or Multilocular Rhizopods, in their earliest state are unilocular. 1899 Allbutt's Syst. Med. VIII. 634 A vesicle of H[erpes] Zoster at its height is a unilocular cavity.

Hence Unilocularity, unilocular character or formation.

1819 LINDLEY tr. Richard's Observ. Fruits & Seeds XI Unilocularity (provided there be no abortion) always establishes the unity of fruit. 1839 A. GRAY Lett. (1893) I. 150 The unilocularity of the anthers.

Unimaged, (ppl.) a. (UN-1 8, 9.)

1648 HEXHAM II, Ongebeelt, Vn-imaged, without Figure or Image. 1775 ASH, Unimaged, ..not imaged, not formed in the imagination. 1841 CLOUGH Poems (1862) 17 The bare conscience of the heart thing Unfelt, unseen, unimaged. 1860 PUSEY Min. Proph. 133 Their great forefathers ..worshipped the unimaged Self-existing God.

Unimaginable, a. and sb. (UN-1 7 b, 5 b.)

1. adj. Incapable of being imagined; inconceivable, incomprehensible.

1612 COTGR., Inimaginable, vnimaginable, vnconceivable. a 1632 DONNE Sermons (1639) 80 Miserable, unexpressible, unimaginable, macerable condition, where [etc.]. 1655 H. MORE App. Antid. vii. 377 It is utterly unimaginable, but that there should be a Triangular distance in the midst of them. 1796 HARVEY Medit., Rgd. Flower Garden 42 With what un-imaginable Complacency, does Justice rest satisfied! 1821 SCOTT Kenilw. vi, I shall thank him more for the love that has created such an unimaginable paradise, than for all his worldly benefactions! 1898 P. BAYNE Purit. Rev. i. 7 To believe in an unseen and unimaginable Spirit.

2. sb. pl. = INEXPRESSIBLE sb. 2.

1833 T. HAMILTON Men & Manners (1843) 391 The men..rejoiced in snuff-coloured waistcoats and unimaginables.

Hence Unimaginableness.

1669 H. MORE Immort. Soul I. vii. 37 The unimaginableness of Points and smallest Particles. 1871 W. G. WARD Philos. Theism (1884) I. 17 That the unimaginableness of a proposition is incompatible with its truth.

Unimaginably, adv. (UN-1 11; cf. prec.)

1666 BOYLE Orig. Formes & Qual. II. ix. 305 It appear'd a ..heap of Corpuscles ..unimaginably small. a 1692 SYBERY and Poeth. Vol. 331 The Righteousness..of God in Christ ..unimaginably outshineth ten thousand Suns. 1734 WATTS Relig. Tym. 191 And thus..we unimaginably slide into a cordial Defence of the Cause. 1867 HAWTHORNE Engl. Notebks. (1870) II. 432 Hues..indescribably beautiful, and unimaginably, unless one can conceive of the colours of the rainbow [etc.]. 1883 Harper's Mag. June 115/2 Unimaginably frightful shapes.

Unimaginary, a. (UN-1 7.) 1608 D. PRICE Chr. Warre 27 God ouercame more gloriously for you by a weake, small vnimaginarie, Characterical armie. 1828 MACKINTOSH Sp. Wks. 1846 III. 490 One of their not unimaginary grievances.

Unimaginative, a. (UN-1 7.) Also absol.

1820 WORDSW. Excurs. II. 24 Ranging through the tamer ground Of these our unimaginative days. 1831 SCOTT Ct. Rob. xvii, Nor shall Anna Comnena, the soul of wit and genius, be chained to such an unimaginative log as yonder half barbarian. 1898 Forthn. Rev. LXIV. 300 To the unimaginative, all imaginative work must inevitably present a closed door.

Hence Unimaginatively adv., -ness.

1850 N. Brit. Rev. XII. 320 Not contented with such a stretch of unimaginativeness. 1883 Cornh. Mag. April 456 The Roman, more unimaginatively, held to the bare fact of change.

Unimagine, v. (UN-2 3.) a 1670 RUST Disc. Truth (1682) 170 He may as easily unimagine that Imagination.

Unimagined, ppl. a. and adv. (UN-1 8.)

a 1638 MEDE Apost. Church, Ep. VI. 103 A thing discended from heauen, of theim vnsought, vnimagined and not deuised. 1649 LOVELACE Poems (1904) 69 The unimagin'd Woes..of the Hierarchy. 1736 BUTLER Anal. I. i. 20 A latent and..an unimagined unknown power of perceiving sensible objects. 1754 FRANCIS Constantine III. 36 What uninvented, unimagin'd Tortures Have I to dread? 1846 TRENCH Mirac. xvii. 276 His walking over the sea must have been altogether unimagined by them. 1884 CHURCH Bacon viii. 287 That hitherto unimagined empire of man over the powers and forces that encompassed him.

† b. adv. Unexpectedly. Obs.—1

1614 W. B. Philosopher's Banquet (ed. 2) 254 When, vnimagined, the wench demanded of him,..whether he [etc.].

Unimbue-d, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1813 SHELLEY Q. Mab v. 152 A weak and inexperienced boy,..unimbued With pure desire and universal love. 1880 TROLLOPE Life of Cicero I. 202 He was ..altogether unimbued with the humanity..of Cicero.

† Unime-te, sb. Obs. [OE. ungemet: see UN-1 12 and IMET.] Immoderation, excess.

c 888 K. ÆLFRED Boeth. xl. § 3 He ne mæg nauþres unmetes ædriogan. c 1000 Sax. Leechd. II. 106 Þonne geweaxeð on innan ungemet wætan. a 1225 Ancr. R. 74 Þrom soðliche slit te uals; vt of god ido vuel, & from mesure into unimete.

† Unime-te, adv. Obs. [OE. ungemete, dat. of ungemet: see prec.] Immoderately, excessively.

Beowulf 2420 Him wæs geomor sefa,..wyrd ungemete neah. Ibid. 2721 þegn ungemete till. c 1000 Ags. Ps. (Thorpe) cxv. 2 Ic sylfla cwæð ..þæt wæron ealle men ungemete lease. c 1205 LAY. 7393 Sixti scipen heo makeden vnimete [c 1275 onimete] muchele. a 1225 Leg. Kath. 738 Stoden on an half þeos meistres so monie, & unimete modi. 1300–1400 R. Gloucester's Chron. (Rolls) App. A. 12 Þe wynd..schouueþ & þrast þat al þe erþe quakiueþ & schake þo onymete.

† Unime-te, a. Obs. [OE. ungemēte: see UN-1 7 and IMETE a.] Immeasurable, vast; immoderate, excessive.

a 1122 O. E. Chron. an. 1115 (Laud MS.), Þises ȝeares wæs swa micel winter..& swa ȝreat þurh þæt unȝemete of cwealm. c 1175 Lamb. Hom. 101 Unimete festen and to mchel fore hefednesse..macað þene mon un-halne. c 1205 LAY. 4964 Þe ferde wes swa muchel þat heo wes vnimete [c 1275 onimete]. a 1225 Ancr. R. 40 þi swete blistfule sune undernimeþ ȝe in his vnimete blisse. c 1275 Sinners Beware so in O. E. Misc. 73 Chele and hete, And hunger vnymete.

Hence † Unime-tely adv., immeasurably. Obs.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 308 Ne schal neuer heorte þenchen swuch selubše, þet ich nolle ȝiuen more uor þine luue, vnimetelliche and wendlicne more. a 1240 Wohunge in O. E. Hom. I. 281 Swa unimetelliche þu swanc and swa sare þat reade blod þu swattes.

Uni·mitable, a. † Obs. (UN-1 7 b, 5 b.) Very common in 17th century.

1581 SIDNEY Apol. Poetrie (Arb.) 46 As the vnimitable Pindar often did. 1622 F. MARKHAM Bk. War Ep. Ded. A 3 b, As by his owne vnimitable pen is protested. 1683 KENNETT Erasm. on Folly 48 As they [sc. bees] give a model of in their unimitable Combs. 1695 J. EDWARDS Perfect. Scrip. Ded., You bore the..insults of the enemy with unimitable bravery. 1773 JOHNSON in Shakespeare's Wks. V. 508 But Falstaff unimitated, unimitable Falstaff, how shall I describe thee?

So † Uni·mitably adv. Obs.

1622 PEACHAM Compl. Gent. x. 91 His sweetness and facilitie in a verse, vnimitably excellent. 1670 WALTON Lives, Donne 80 His fancy was unimitably high, equalled only by his great wit.

Uni·mitated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

c 1610 Women Saints 185, I beseeche..you women doe not leave this example vnimitated. a 1670 HACKET in Plume Life (1865) 171 The..perpetual sobriety of the primitive Christians began to be unimitated. 1773 [see UNIMITABLE a.]. 1837 CARLYLE Fr. Rev. I. iii. viii, An excellent new-idea, which, in these coming years, shall not remain unimitated.

Uni·mitating, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa (1811) VIII. 331 A spiteful, perverse, unimitating thing. Unimitative, a. (UN-1 7.) 1807 ANNA SEWARD Lett. (1811) VI. 324 The original unimitative compositions of James H. 1849 RUSKIN Serv. Lamps iv. § 2. 95 The Doric capital was unimitative. 1883 Pall Mall G. 8 Sept. 2/1 Among us unimitative but not unappreciative Britons.

Unimo·diate, a., -ly, adv. (UN-1 7, 11.) 1802–22 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) III. 362 In an unimmediate, though, for efficacy, not too remote way. 1816 — Chrestom. Wks. 1843 VIII. 91 Instruments of all kinds, whether applied immediately or unimmediately to use.

Unimmergible, a. [UN-1 7.] Insubmergible.

1806 L. LUKIN (title), The Invention, Principles of Construction, and Uses of Unimmergible Boats. 1809 Naval Chron. XXI. 299 To make it..unimmergible,..casks..were ranged along. 1823 Blackw. Mag. XIV. 303 They met with an unimmergible buoyancy in this case.

Unimmo·rsed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1835 I. TAYLOR Spir. Despot. iv. 408 These good souls will not eat the Lord's loaf in company with the unclean and unimmersed commonalty of professed Christians. 1885 PENNELL Fishing 267 The effect of refraction kept the unimmersed portion of the fly fisher's figure practically out of sight.

Unimmortalized, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1895 PUSEY Doctr. Real Presence Note I. 115 We too shall be able to receive Him wholly in ourselves continually immolated unimmolated for us.

Uni·mmo·rtal, a. (UN-1 7.)

1667 MILTON P. L. x. 612 They both betook them several waves, Both to destroy, or unimmortal make All kinds. 1875 FARRAR Marlb. Serm. i. (1877) 5 Their unimmortal but sinless destiny being accomplished.

Uni·mmortalize, v. (UN-1 6 c.) 1839 BAILEY Festus 336 They have well-nigh unimmortalized myself. Uni·mmortalized, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 a c.) [1775 ASH.] 1839 BAILEY Festus 10 But The shadowy giant alway thinned away, And I was faint unimmortalized.

Uni·mmu·ted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) † Unwalled. (See IMMURE v. 1.)

1615 G. SANDYS Trav. 155 The Iewes..began to reedifie the same [temple]; which yet was vnimmured for three-score and three yeares after.

Unimpai·rable, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

1641 HAGEWILL Apol. (1650) 288 It is unimpareable like the light..of the sunne. 1647 CLARENDON Contempl. Ps. Tracts (1727) 504 From that unimpairable stock of thy mercies..blot out our offences. 1653 H. MORE Conject. Cabbal. (1713) 175 It being the lowest degree and shadow of Being; and not only immoveable, but undiminishable and unimpairable.

Unimpai·red, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

Before 1700 somewhat rare; in freq. use from c 1790.

1583 GOLDING Calvin on Deut. 41 b, In such wise as God may holde still his right vnimpayred. 1628 LE GRYS tr. Barcley's Argenis 122 To him will I restore what they rob'd thee of, as I finde by them yet vnempayred. 1738 G. LILLO Marina ii. ii, My youth yet unimpair'd By the disease. 1772 Junius' Lett. Ded. (1788) 7 When you leave the unimpaired, hereditary freehold to Your children. 1816 BYRON Ch. Har. III. v, Shapes which dwell Still unimpair'd, though dead, in this haunted cell. 1865 MACAULAY Hist. Engl. xx. IV. 532 She..repeated her part of the office with unimpaired memory. 1860 MOTLEY Netherl. ii. I. 51 He had preserved the most unimpaired good-humour.

Unimparadised, ppl. a. (UN-1 5, 8.) 1601 W. PARRY Trav. Sir A. Sherley (1863) 4 A scruple, whether Man were (for transgression) ever unimparadized or no.

Unimpa·rted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1655 (title), Natura Exenterata,..Whereunto are annexed, Mary Rats, hitherto unimparted. 1690 DRYDEN, 1791 COWPER Iliad XI. 924 But brave Achilles shuns His virtues close, an unimparted store. 1824 SCOTT St. Ronan's xvi, That the knowledge which is unimparted is necessarily a barren talent.

Unimpassionate, a. (UN-1 7.) 1845 HOZLEY Ess. (1878) II. 119 In proportion to the extent to which such a view obtains, worship must become necessarily unimpassionate and unadoring.

Unimpa·ssioned, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1744 THOMSON Autumn (ed. 4) 1070 Fancy then..Will..Correct her Pencil to the purest Truth Of Nature, or, the unimpassion'd Shades Forsaking, raise it to the human Mind. 1778 MISS BURNEY Evelina xxiii, The cool eye of unimpassioned philosophy. 1820 COLERIDGE Defection ii, A stifled, drowsy, unimpassioned grief. 1876 T. HARDY Ethelberta xxvii, She would not go out of her way at a beck from a man whose interest was so unimpassioned.

Unimpeachabi·lity. (UN-1 12; cf. next.)

1830 R. CHAMBERS Life Jas. I, I. iv. 119 Nations..too much disposed..to question the unimpeachability of their sovereigns. 1881 SALA in Illustr. Lond. News 19 Feb. 171 The unimpeachability of the arrangements.

Unimpea·chable, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

1784 COWPER Task iv. 676 Merchants, unimpeachable of sin Against the charities of domestic life. 1794 BURKE Sp. Acts Uniformity Wks. 1842 II. 465 The unimpeachable integrity and piety of many of the promoters of this petition. 1830 MISS MITFORD Village Ser. iv. 189 He could..take Harry's dinner to the same place with unimpeachable honesty. 1848 DICKENS Dombey iv, Seeing what time it is by the unimpeachable chronometer. 1864 BOWEN Logic xii. 392 The testimony of one unimpeachable witness.

Hence Unimpea·chableness. Also Unimpea·chably adv.

1817 Godwin Mandev. III. 188 The insinuations they threw out against the "unimpeachableness of his motives. 1865 Geo. Eliot F. Holt iv, Mrs. Holt was not given to tears; she was much sustained by conscious unimpeachableness. 1882 Lamb Confess. Delamore Wks. 1908 I. 266 For more than five centuries, the current of our blood hath flowed unimpeachably. 1883 Manch. Examr. 22 Dec. 5 The jury were aided by a luminous and unimpeachably fair summing up.

Unimpea·ched, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

†1. Not impeded or hindered. Obs.

c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode II. xcvi. (1869) 110 With hire coordes she withheeld me, of which I was not unenpeched.

2. Not assailed, accused, or called in question.

1583 Golding Calvin on Deut. xxxix. 235 Let vs glorifie him, and beware y^t he remaine vnimpeached in his Maiestie. c 1611 Chapman Iliad IX. 383 Many fair Achive princesses of unimpeached life. 1702 Rowe Tamerl. iv. I, While yet my Regal State stood unimpeach'd. 1790 Cowper Let. to Bagot 22 June, A person of most unimpeached veracity. 1823 Byron Siege Cor. vii, When unimpeached for traitorous crime...He glittered thro' the Carnival. 1869 [see Unimpeach]. 1871 Jowett Plato IV. 158 The public and unimpeached use of anything for a year.

Uni·mped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 + Imp v. 8.)

1603 Drayton To Maiestie K. Jas. A 3, Our early Muse... Of her own strength which boldly thus presumes, That's yet unimpt with any borrowed plumes.

Unimpe·ded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1760 D. Mallet in Derrick Lett. (1767) II. 23 Much more so as...your access to them [is] unimpeded. 1795 Southey Vis. Maid of Orleans I. 79 Through the roof...The moon-beams enter'd...With unimpeded light. 1861 Mill Repr. Gov. 52 Whatever invigorates the faculties,...creates an increased desire for their more unimpeded exercise. 1878 Bosw. Smith Carthage 388 It gave them an unimpeded landing, and a second base of operations in Africa.

Hence Unimpe·dedly adv.

Also, in recent use, unimpededness.

1846 Poe A. C. Mowatt Wks. 1864 III. 43 The mere instruments by which she may effectively and unimpededly lay bare to the audience the movements of her own passionate heart.

Unimpe·dible, a. (Un-1 7.) 1677 Gale Crt. Gentiles III. ii. 515 Where-ever there is passive Power there is impedibilitie: There is nothing ἀκωλύτου, unimpedible, but God. Unimpe·rative, a. (Un-1 7.) 1817 Bentham Parl. Reform Introd. 102 A necessary exercise of the unimperative faculty of deputation. Unimpe·rious, a. (Un-1 7.) [1775 Ash.] 1792 J. Richardson Fugitive IV. iii, The merits of your most unimperious sex. Unimpl·ngling, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1800 Coleridge Lett. (1895) I. 246 Alliances would make two houses sufficiently divided for unimpinging independence. Uni·mplicate, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.) = next. 1869 Browning Ring & Bk. XI. 1287 She, unimpeached of crime, unimplicate In folly. Uni·mplicated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1822–7 Good Study Med. (1829) IV. 687 The sound parts remain uniplicated in the action. 1857 De Quincey in 'H. A. Page' Life (1877) II. xvii. 56 The boy was quite uniplicated in any part of the case. Unimpli·cit, a. (Un-1 7.) 1673 Milton True Relig. 16 Which must needs conduce much...to the general confirmation of unimplicit truth.

Unimplo·red, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1667 Milton P. L. IX. 22 If answerable style I can obtaine Of my Celestial Patroness, who deignes Her nightly visitation unimplor'd. a 1711 Ken Hymnarium Poet. Wks. 1721 II. 85 To Sinners thou...Grace unimplor'd benignly dost impart. 1746 Hume Hist. Eng. (1773) V. 72 A sudden succour, un-implor'd, un-thought. 1806 John Hogg Poems 31 [She was] Impatient to perform her offer made To Zara, unimplor'd. 1824 Wordsw. Eccles. Sonn. III. xxix, If sorrow for thy sin be dead, Pain's penitent, pardon unimplored.

Unimportance. (Un-1 12.)

1751 Johnson Rambler No. 146 P 5 By such arts...does every man endeavour to conceal his own unimportance from himself. 1775 S. J. Pratt Liberal Opin. v. (1783) I. 15 The eye of a child converts every trifle into an object of entertainment, and every pretty unimportance, is esteemed a joyful acquisition. 1823 Lamb Wks. (1908) I. 286 The unimportance of the subject. 1879 R. K. Douglas Confucianism iii. 66 To the succeeding millions of China it has been a matter of unimportance.

Unimpo·rtant, a. [Un-1 7.]

1. Unassuming, modest. rare—1.

1747 Pope Let. to Swift 8 Mar., A free, unimportant, natural, easy manner; diverting others just as we diverted ourselves.

2. Of no importance or moment.

1750 Chesterf. Let. 1 Nov., Rosecaking...the minute and unimportant parts of remote and fabulous times. 1798 S. & Ht. Lee Canterb. T. II. 465 He was too unimportant to act on [the passions]...of any one around him. 1841 Miall in Nonconf. I. 1 The ends they sought appeared too unimportant to justify the cost. 1869 Freeman Norm. Conq. xi. III. 53 Esegar and Bondig play not unimportant parts in the great struggles of the year.

Comb. 1842 Carlyle Heroes iv. (1904) 129 There was not a more entirely unimportant-looking pair of people.

Unimported, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1784 R. Bage Barham Downs II. 88 Two bottles of unimported wine.

†Unimpo·rting, ppl. a. [Un-1 10.] = Unimportant a. 2.

c 1625 Bp. Hall St. Paul's Combat Wks. 1634 II. 449 If it be only matter of rite, or of unimporting consequence. 1642 Fuller Holy & Prof. St. III. xx. 206 Such Divines, who in unimporting controversies extract the probablest opinions from all Professions. 1658 T. Wall Charact. Enemies Ch. 40 Things of unimporting consequence.

Unimportunate, a. (Un-1 7.) 1755 Young Centaur iii. Wks. 1757 IV. 174 These are the men, who...rush headlong into even unimportunate temptations. 1824 Landor Imag. Conv. I. 209 The demon of Socrates, not always unimportunate, followed Euripides. Unimportuned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) ? c 1611–2 Donne Let. to Lady Carey 23 Who ever ran To danger unimportun'd. a 1631 — Paradoxes (1652) 27 To run into Death unimportuned is to run into the first condemned Desperateness. 1849 C. Bronte Shirley xiii, [They] were suffered to keep details to themselves, unimportuned by the curiosity of their listeners. Unimportunely, adv. (Un-1 11.) 1657 Earl Monm. tr. Parutas's Pol. Disc. 42 Rather...to dissemble their injuries and supplications, then by unimportunely revenging the one and asserting the other, put their affairs in greater danger.

Unimpo·sed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1642 Milton Apol. Smect. 50 The very act of prayer and thanksgiving with those free and unimpos'd expressions...is the greatest decency that can be imagin'd. 1677 Gilpin Demonol. IV. iv. 249 From the toleration of a private Opinion of some Doctors and unimposed, it obtained at last a Canon to make it Authentick, Publick Doctrine.

So Unimpo·sedly adv.

1649 Bovle in Birch Life (1744) 80 The gallantry...of their own principles will carry them on unimposedly to do much more.

Unimpo·sing, ppl. a. [Un-1 10.]

†1. Not burdensome or oppressive. Obs.—1

1736 Thomson Liberty v. 626 Beauteous Order reigns, Mainly Submission, unimposing Toil.

2. Unimpressive.

1809 C. Simeon in W. Carus Life (1847) 272 The slow unimposing voice. 1854 Milman Lat. Christianity VII. ii. III. 169 A grey haired man..of small unimposing stature. 1871 Earle Philol. Eng. Tongue 421 A feature..unimposing in its appearance.

So Unimpo·singly adv.

1880 Miss Bird Japan I. 15 The British Consulate, imposingly ugly;..the Union Church,..unimposingly so.

Unimpo·nded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1866 Howells Venetian Life 5 I do not say that these cells are calculated to enamour the unimponded spectator with prison-life. Unimpo·wered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1731 A. Hill Adv. Poets Epist. p. vi, The Poet...unimpower'd to act greatly Himself, asserts his Fire without Effect, Gulls Mirror of the Great Actions of others. Unimpre·gnate, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 b.] = next. 1834 Ld. Houghton Mem. Tour Greece 140 Dumb forms, unimpregnate with vital emotion. 1849 Lowell Biglow P. Ser. I. Poet. Wks. (1912) 206/2 Lads, unimpregnate with the more sublimated puncti llousness of Walton.

Unimpre·gnated, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not rendered pregnant.

1744 Phil. Trans. XLIII. 83 Nor can we conceive any Use of them while the Uterus is unimpregnated at any time. 1799 M. Bailie Morb. Anat. 265 The uterus in such cases is considerably larger than the unimpregnated size. 1862 A. Meadows Man. Midwifery 52 The nerve-tubules in the unimpregnated state. 1877 Huxley Anat. Inv. Anim. vii, 416 The unimpregnated, apterous, caterpillar-like females of the Lepidopterous genera Psyche and Solenobia.

b. Not fructified or made prolific.

1800 Med. Jrnl. III. 160 The remark, that a similar liquor had been found in unimpregnated eggs. 1842 J. Burnet Reynolds' Dico. 33 Many young men of genius have disappeared like unimpregnated blossoms, flowery but fruitless.

2. Not impregnated (with some matter).

1772–3 T. Percival Ess. (1777) I. 59 An ounce and a half of Jamaica Rum, which was...unimpregnated with any astringent matter from the cask. 1790 Phil. Trans. LXXX. 372 A thick white turbid liquor, which was rendered clear by addition of unimpregnated oil of vitriol.

Unimpre·ssed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

†1. Not subjected to restraint. Obs.—1

1743 Young Nt. Th. v. 122 Thoughts uncontroul'd, and unimpress'd, the hints Of pure science.

2. Not affected by feelings of respect or awe.

1861 [F. W. Robinson] Under the Spell I. 300 He did not mind her being 'un-impressed' by the knowledge that her father was only his tutor. 1895 Mrs. Caffyn Quaker Grandmother 110 Missy did this sort of thing remarkably well. But Miriam was quite unimpressed.

3. Not bearing an impression.

1868 Herschel in People's Mag. Jan. 63 Do the same with one side of the unimpressed square, and then apply the one square to the other, the impression being between them.

Unimpressibi·lity. (Un-1 12; cf. next.)

1854 Yonge tr. Athenaus III. 966 When he found he could make no impression on the coldness and unimpressibility of the stone. 1889 Skrine Mem. Thring 124 Heartiness in his own belief, and iron unimpressibility against the noise and flourishes of an enemy.

Unimpre·ssible, a. (Un-1 7.)

1828 L. Hunt Byron & Contemp. 26 She...was...absolutely unimpressible in that respect. 1856 Kane Arct. Expl. I. 24 As stolid and unimpressible as one of our own Indians. 1878 Bosw. Smith Carthage 44 The African was so unimpressible, and the Phœnician was so little disposed...to assimilate himself to his surroundings.

Hence Unimpre·ssibleness.

1850 Alcott Lect. in Stanley Life (1858) I. 223 Thorough careless unimpressibleness beats one all to pieces.

Unimpre·ssionabi·lity. (Un-1 12; cf. next.)

1862 F. W. Robinson Female Life in Prison I. 80 This strange apathetic indifference, this unimpressionability.

Unimpre·ssionable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1847 C. Bronte Y. Eyre xxi, Unimpressionable natures are not so soon softened. 1859 Thackeray Pendennis xiv, Ah! what mad desires dashing up against some rock of obstruction or indifference, and flung back again from the unimpressionable granite! 1884 E. Yates Recoll. II. 202 [He] was...as unimpressionable as an oyster.

Unimpre·ssive, a. (Un-1 7.)

1796 Gisborne Walks Forest (ed. 2) vi. 121 Does Truth, disclosed from heaven, ..her sacred shafts behold Bound unimpressive from the callous heart? 1828 P. Cunningham N. S. Wales (ed. 3) II. 314 The slovenly and unimpressive manner in which the witness is sworn. 1880 C. Wickstead in S. Brooke's Life & Lett. (1917) I. 330 Look at the men who pass into the shades of our theology—impassive, unimpressive shades!

Hence Unimpre·ssively (Webster, 1847), -ness.

1827 Hare Guesses Ser. I. 107 The accuracy and unimpressiveness of Algebraic characters. 1860 Geo. Eliot in Cross Life (1885) II. 221 The variety is in some degree a cause of comparative unimpressiveness.

Unimpri·son, v. (Un-1 3.) 1817 Coleridge Biog. Lit. (1882) 263 No fly unimprisoned from a child's hand, could more buoyantly enjoy its element. Unimpri·sonable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1649 Milton Eikon. 148 To imprison and confine by force..those two most unimprisonable things, our Prayers and that Divine Spirit of utterance that moves them.

Unimpri·soned, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 and Un-2 8.]

a. Not imprisoned. b. Released from prison.

1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharonnida I. 75 Her unimprisond Soul disrob'd of all Terrestrial thoughts. 1809–14 Wordsw. Excurs. IV. 106 The unimprisoned Mind May yet have scope to range among her own. 1820 Bentham Liberty of Press Wks. 1843 II. 283/1 To live unhanged, unsabred, unimprisoned. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. III. i. IV, That the King's Friends in Prison would burst out, and, joined by the unimprisoned, ride roughshod over us all.

Unimpri·soning, ppl. a. (Un-2 3, 8.) 1820 E. Irving in Froude Carlyle (1882) I. 86 Now it will be like the unimprisoning of a bird to come and be free as free talk.

Unimpro·priate, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1655 Fuller Waltham Abbey 8 An Abby and a Parsonage unimpropriate in the same place, are as inconsistent together, as good woods and an Iron Mill. Unimprovabi·lity. (Un-1 12; cf. next.) 1861 Gd. Words 432 The Boeotian dulness and unimprovability of the fatuous German King.

Unimpro·vable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

a 1660 Hammond Serm. Wks. 1684 IV. 577 The principal faculty which is irrecoverably wanting in sin, and by all teaching irreparable and unimprovable, is the power of numbring. a 1683 Oldham Art of Poetry Wks. (1684) II. 14 At first dash, as if before 'twere known, [he] Embarques you in the middle of the Plot And without is unimprovable leaves out. 1785 G. A. Bellany Apol. (ed. 3) III. 52 The 'Squire, however, remained totally unimprovable. 1799 Act 30 Geo. III, c. 50 To sell or alienate Fee Farm, and other unimprovable Rents. 1822 Scott Nigel xx, You show an absolute and unimprovable acquaintance with..mankind in general. 1847 Grote Greece xxiv. III. 548 A people the most unprincipled and unimproveable of all.

Hence Unimpro·vableness.

1654 Hammond Fundam. xvi. 174 This must be imputed ..to their ignorance and unimprovableness in matters of knowledge.

Unimpro·ved, ppl. a.[1] [Un-1 8.]

1. Not made better; not raised in quality.

1665 Boyle Occas. Refl. I. ii. 263 Flowers (which, unimprov'd by Art, delight but whilst they are..fresh). c 1695 J. Miller Descr. Avon Vale (1843) 41 The whole country, improved or unimproved, to belong to the King. 1764 Goldsm. Travl. 230 From sire to son Unalter'd, unimprov'd the manners run. 1794 S. Williams Vermont 134 Man in the most simple, rude and unimproved state. 1858 Gardner Gunnery 4 This range being quite equal..to that of the late unimproved rifles. 1890 R. Boldrewood Col. Reformer (1891) 247 A cheap unimproved property.

2. Not turned to use; not taken advantage of.

1781 Cowper Truth 124 He that scorns the noon-day beam, perverse, Shall find the blessing, unimprov'd, a curse. 1820 W. Jay Prayers 110 Those privileges, which, unimproved, will only augment our guilt. 1850 Grote Greece lxi. VII. 533 They preferred leaving their victory unimproved, to the hazard of a general battle.

3. Not medically bettered.

1879 St. George's Hosp. Rep. IX. 466 One case was discharged 'unimproved',..but the others were all benefited.

†Unimpro·ved, ppl. a.[2] Obs. [Un-1 + Improve *v.*1] Unreproved, uncensured.

1602 Sir R. Cecil Hatfield I. 96 Young Fortinbras Of vnimproued Mettle, hot and full.

Unimpro·vement. (Un-1 12.) 1757 Mrs. Griffith Lett. Henry & Frances (1767) I. 80 The visto of some absurd fellows unimprovement.

Unimpro·ving, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1797 Mrs. Inchbald Lett. I. 206 While Gen Haragen was indulged in play, and idle unimproving amusements. 1788 V. Knox Winter Even. lii. (1790) 378 If the idle were to lay aside such unimproving works. 1823 Keble Serm. iii. (1848) 48 It might be an unimproving exercise of self-denial, to men of refined judgments. 1883 Academy 15 Sept. 175/2 Many unimproving anecdotes of his proceedings still linger along the Spanish Main.

Unimpu·gnable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1832 Mrs. Gore Pair of Way Birds III. 278 His judgment was invaluable,..and unimpugnable at Lloyd's. 1867 Dickens Dorrit II. xxxii, Solely supported by his unimpugnable calculations.

Unimpu·gned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1838 James Louis XIV, I. 247 That all the arbitrary acts of his predecessor..should remain as unimpugned precedents in case of necessity. a 1857 R. A. Vaughan Ess. & Rem. (1858) I. 37 Thus did Origen.. attempt to retain the justice of God unimpugned.

Unimpu·lsive, a. (Un-1 7.)

[1775 Ash.] 1856 Lever Martins of Cro' M. xiv, 138 The most suspectful, unimpulsive, and ungenerously-disposed of all natures, an old lawyer. 1886 Ruskin Præterita I. iv. 112 The steady pains of her unimpulsive practice.

Hence Unimpu·siveness.

1860 Trollope Framley P. xxv, Such a degree of unimpulsiveness as this.

Unimpu·ted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1723 Pope Let. to Blount 27 June, You must look on this as the first day I've been myself, and pass over the mad interval un-imputed to me. Uninaugurated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1823 Scott Quentin D. Introd., An immense assistite of spinage, not smoothed into a uniform surface, as by our uninaugurated cooks upon your side of the water.

Uninca·rnate, a. (Un-1 7.)

1687 Death's Vision 182 Blind to the World of Uninca-rnate Hosts! 1716 Hume Sacr. Succession 159 What God ..perform'd by heavenly un-incarnate angels. 1827 Pollok Course T. v. 575 The spirits unincarnate. 1860 Faber Bethlehem 90 The unincarnate Saviour delivered millions before His actual Incarnation.

So Unincarnated ppl. a.

1859 W. ANDERSON Disc. (1860) 146 The idea of the Uncarnated Eternal One.

Uninc·nsed, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

1594 CAREW Huarte's Exam. Wits x. 130 The flegmaticke vnincensed, haue their braine very cold and moist. a 1800 COWPER Iliad (ed. 2) v. 899 Love I see'st thou, uninceased, these deeds of Mars? 1889 Swinburne Stud. Victor Hugo (1886) 84 The aspect of babies when unvexed and unincensed by any cross accident.

Uni·nchoative, a. (Un- 1 7.) 1649 J. ELLISTONE tr. Behmen's Epist. 106 The soule (which ariseth..out of the Eternall un-inchoative Nature). 1691 E. TAYLOR Behmen's Theos. Philos. 267 What God is in his Eternal uninchoative Generation. Unicide·ntal, a. (Un- 1 7.) Not marked by any incident. 1772 Theatrical Biogr. I. 147 [Parsons'] memoirs would be too unincidental, and consequently too unentertaining for a place here. 1853 WILBERFORCE in Life (1881) II. 194 The dead level plains of times of fat quietness and un-incidental ease. Unincl·ted, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1548 HEYWOOD tr. Onghelstus, Vninclied, or Vnsummoned. 1809-14 WORDSW. Excurs. v. 597 And unincited by a wish to look Into high objects farther than they may. Uninclinable, a. (Un- 7 b.) 1640 WALTON Life of Donne in D.'s Eighty Serm. Pref., The King..persuaded M. Donne to enter into the Ministery, to which he appeared (and was) uninclinable. 1656 HOBBES Liberty, Necess., & Chance 9 Seeing that mans heart without the grace of God, is uninclinable to good. Unincl·ned, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1792 Law Serious C. xvi. 291 They who..render themselves .. uninclin'd to observe rules and hours of devotion. 1740 RICHARDSON Pamela II. 10 In which..you take Notice of my being uninclin'd to marry. Unincl·ning, ppl. a. (Un- 1 10.) 1794 T. TAYLOR Pausanias' Descr. Greece III. 294 Of pure and uncontaminated order, and of uninclining power.

Uninclu·ded, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

1775 R. CHANDLER Trav. Greece (1825) II. 299 Lombardi was..uninclu'ded in the general amnesty. 1827 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) III. 474 If any one of the possible modes of transcription were left uninclu'ded in the penal consequences. 1855 W. H. MILL Applic. Panth. Princ. (1861) 234 Those who believe St. James the Just to be uninclu'ded in the number of the twelve.

Uninclu·sive, a. (Un- 7.) 1864 PUSEY Lect. Daniel viii. 468 The word 'until'..is to be understood ideally of an unending, uncloseed, uninclusive term. Uninconvenienced, ppl. a. (Un- 8 b.) 1829 Encycl. Metrop. (1845) VI. 291/1 Casemates..uninconvenienced by smoke.

Unincorporate, a. [Un- 7.]

1. Unembodied.

1821 BYRON Sardanap. IV. i. If there be indeed A shore where mind survives, Will be my mind. All unincorporate. 1866 GROTE Exam. Utilit. Phil. iv. (1870) 61 He is writing as a true utilitarian about happiness in that unindividual, unincorporate, abstract notion of it.

2. = next 2.

1880 Act 43 & 44 Vict. c. 12 § 7 Where the employer is a body of persons corporate or unincorporate.

Unincorporated, ppl. a. [Un- 1 8.]

1. Not incorporated or united with.

1715 ATTERBURY Serm. (1737) III. 128 They have continued unmixed, unincorporated with any of the nations..amidst whom they dwell.

2. Not formed into a corporation.

1818 HALLAM Mid. Ages (1829) I. 443 The arrangement of twenty-one trading companies had still left several kinds of artisans unincorporated. Ibid. III. 167 The representation of unchartered, or at least unincorporated boroughs. 1884 St. Pancras Gen. Ch. 7 Minutes of the proceedings brought against unincorporated clubs.

Unincrea·sable, a. (Un- 1 7 b.)

1648 BOYLE Seraph. Love i. (1659) 8 An..almost unincreasable Elevation, and vastnesse of affection. 1698 NORRIS Pract. Disc. IV. 296 The Blessed God, whose Perfect and Unincreaseable Happiness makes him utterly uncapable of ..such a Love. 1872 RUSKIN Fors Clav. xvi. 12 These..are your wealth, for ever—unincreasable. 1872 BAGEHOT Physics & Pol. 54 The unincreasable land being occupied.

Unincrea·sed, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1824 MISS MITFORD Village Ser. 1. 273 There it stands,..unincreased and undiminished by a single brick. 1890 Retrospect Med. CII. 140 Even with the urine uninceased..there is a large drain upon the liquids.

Unincre·asing, ppl. a. (Un- 1 10.) 1581 GOLDING De Mornay vi. 72 To be short, he caileth him ye myndly speech,..vncorruptible, vnincreasing, vndecreasing..and first beknowne after God. Unincru·sted, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1880 SWINBURNE Stud. Ballads 159 Uninstructed with any flake of dirt. Uni·ncubated, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1859 DARWIN Orig. Spec. vii. 217 Those first laid would have to be left for some time unincubated. 1891 Science-Gossip XXVII. 8 A clutch of eggs contained four eggs unincubated.

Uninde·bted, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

1672 DRYDEN Assignation v. iv, So you shall still be innocent, and I the blessed, and unindebted for my being. 1759 Ann. Reg., Hist. War 41/2 Unindebted to family or connections. 1781 COWPER Table-t. 585 Give me the line.. That, like some cottage beauty, strikes the heart, Quite unindebted to the tricks of art. 1846 SIR W. HAMILTON Diss. in Reid's Wks. 891 Neither ignorant of, nor unindebted to, their writings. 1884 SAINTSBURY Hist. French Lit. III. vii. 380 He was, probably, not unindebted to Descartes for the force and vigour of his reasonings.

Hence Uninde·btedness.

1866 Times 4 Jan. 8/4 If they shall have paid off their present debt, they will enjoy a confidence far stronger than that from simple unindebtedness.

Uninde·nted, ppl. a. [Un- 1 8.]

1. Not marked with indentations.

1750 G. HUGHES Barbados 133 Two unindented Seams crossing one another at Right Angles. 1888 LYTTON Pel. Adam II. v. The rest of the countenance was perfectly smooth and unindented. 1893 TYRRELL Hesiod v. 160 The border finally becomes unindented.

2. Of type: Set up without indention.

1903 Athenæum 17 Jan. 78/2 Printed either in fourteen unindented lines, or with only the final couplet indented.

3. Not indentured.

1881 STEVENSON Not I & other Poems (1898) 7 The pamphlet..Was planned and printed by A printer unindented.

Uni·ndexed, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1832 PALGRAVE Eng. Commw. II. 124 These matters are in records..are still unindexed. 1856 RUSKIN Mod. Paint. IV. v. ii. § 17 Over all this unindexed and immeasurable mass of treasure. Unindicated, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1825 COLERIDGE Aids Refl. 13 note, The unpurusive and unindicated convolutes of the Brain, that secrete honesty and commonsense. 1904 E. GOSSE Tr. Taylor iii. 103 No temptation ..is allowed to pass unindicated or unreproved. Undirectable, a. (Un- 7 b.) 1862 WYNTER Sow. Sees 39 The various hydro-carbons, escape in the form of thin unindicatable vapour, of a highly obnoxious character. 1870 LOWELL Among my Bks. Ser. 1. 127 The unindicatable Powers of Darkness. Unindicted, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1806 in Spirit Pub. Jrnls. X. 311 By unindicted thieves, alas! purloin'd.

Unindi·fference. [Un- 1 12.] = next.

1665 EVER Tyrals per Pais iv. 106 Where there is no unindifference or default in the Sheriff. 1844 BARNEWALL & CRESSWELL Rep. I. 104 The panel of tales having been quashed..on the ground of the unindifference of the sheriff.

Unindi·fferency. Now arch. [Un- 1 12 + INDIFFERENCY 1.] Lack of impartiality.

1578 WHETSTONE 1st Pt. Promos & Cass. IV. ii, Such grace would..with vnindifferencie teach, To pardon him, that dyd commit a Rape. 1625 tr. Boccaccio's Decam. II. 26 His successe proved answerable to his hope, no unindifference appearing in their purposes. 1665 EVER Tyrals per Pais 106 In respect of the cause of unindifference, or default of the Sheriff or other Officer that made the Return. 1844 Judgm. Ld. Denman in O'Connell v. Queen 7 Unindifferency or misconduct on the part of the sheriff.

Unindi·ferent, a. [Un- 1 7.]

† 1. Unequal, unfavourable. Obs.[-1]

1567 GOLDING Ovid 209 When he saw howe thencounter was in an vnindifferent place..[he] sent to..his Lieutenant.

2. a. Of persons: Not impartial or fair-minded; prejudiced. Now arch.

1571 GOLDING Calvin on Ps. xli. 3 The miserable man whom cruel and unindifferent persons surmise to bee forlorne. 1611 R. CAWDREY Briff Chrons. A 5 This vertuous..man, knowing Death to be an vnindifferent Executor. 1673 O. WALKER Educ. 204 Unindifferent are those who are prejingaed. 1852 Fraser's Mag. March 246/1 He may consequently be supposed, to use the language of the law, 'to stand unindifferent as he stands unsworn'.

† b. Of actions, etc.: Lacking in impartiality or fairness. Obs.

1583 GOLDING Calvin on Deut. xxxix. 231 Such vnindifferent dealing shall alwayes be taken for theft before God. 1600 TATE in Gutch Coll. Curr. I. 7 It may lastly be thought vnindifferent to nominate his own country for the place. 1602 WARNER Alb. Eng. Epit. 378 Stomacking..the vnindifferent sharing of the Nordaine Bootie.

3. Not indifferent; concerned, interested.

1823 LAMB Play-h. Mem. Wks. 1908 I. 202 Those honest, hearty, well-pleased, unindifferent mortals above.

So Uindi·fferently adv., unfairly.

1608 HIERON Defence ii. 126 He..maie easely perceyve.. how unindifferently and unequally he sorteth us and Cochleus together.

Uni·ndigent, a. (Un- 7.) 1830 T. TAYLOR Argts. Celsus 63 A corporeal worship cannot even be paid to these, because they are naturally unindigent. Unindignant, a. (Un- 7.) 1789 ANNA SEWARD Let. (1811) I. 299 A vehemently indignant woman..will at once find these volumes..too vulgar for her unindignant endurance. 1800 G. WAKEFIELD in Mem. (1804) II. 425 With unindignant apathy pass by Of Antijacobins the filthy rout. Unindividual, a. (Un- 1 7.) 1820 COLERIDGE in Lit. Rem. (1836) I. 351 In the abstract and, as it were, unindividual nature of the idea, self, or soul. 1892 Pall Mall G. 27 Apr. 2/3 A patient, thoughtful pianist.. but almost too clear unindividual. Unindividualized, ppl. a. (Un- 8.) 1864 W. SHEDD Hist. Chr. Doctrine II. 81 Original sin is the product of human will as yet unindividualized in Adam. 1882 TRAILL Sterne iv. 42 A completely colourless and unindividualized figure. Uninductive, a. (Un- 7.) 1855 BADEN POWELL Ess. 58 The 'catastrophic' hypothesis seems of an essentially uninductive nature. Uninduelged, ppl. a. (Un- 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1820 T. MITCHELL Aristoph. I. p. lxxviii, To leave nothing uninduelged, which could contribute to their gratification. 1847 Ainsworth's Mag. XII. 42 A luxury almost uninduelged since she had been in England. Uninduligent, a. (Un- 1 3.) 1749 (FRANCIS tr. Horace, Odes ii. xvi) To Me, not uninduligent Fate Bestow'd a rural, calm Retreat.

Unindu·strious, a. (Un- 1 7, 5 b.)

1599 DANIEL Musoph. Wks. (1602) C iii b, So farre beyond the ordinarie course, That other vnindustrious Ages ran. 1612 BONNE Letts. (1651) 229, I have [not] been..unindustrious in attempting that (i. e. to do good). 1667 Decay of Chr. Piety xiii. P 1 We cannot think it so sluggish or unindustrious an agent. 1693 W. FREKE Sel. Ess. xxxiv. 216 Is were..an unindustrious encroaching on the publick property so certain? 1. 1883 Century Mag. XXVI. 805 Hardly an industry, perhaps, or at any rate an unindustrious one. 1887 RIDER HAGGARD Jess xxi, That intelligent but unindustrious race.

So Uninduistriously adv.

1648 BOYLE Seraph. Love xvii. (1659) 115 Ev'n the Socinians..are not a little, or un-industriously sollicitous.

Unine·briating, ppl. a. (Un- 10.) a 1861 T. WINTHROP Life in Open Air xii. (1863) 96 Toasting each other in the uninebriating flow of our beverages.

Uninfe·cted, ppl. a. [Un- 1 8.]

1. Not infected or tainted with sedition, heresy, vice, or the like. Also const. by, with.

1528 LE GRYS tr. Barclay's Argenis 88 What dost thou stay for? Till there be nothing vninfected in Sicily. Art thou afraid to disturbe their scarce ripe preparations? 1678 CUDWORTH Intell. Syst. I. iv. § 36. 553 Neither was Plotinus himself..altogether uninfected with this Phantastick Conceit. a 1715 BURNETT Own Time ii. xiii. (1897) I. 535 By this means..all the outed ministers would be..kept from going round the uninfected parts of the kingdom. 1777 ROBERTSON Hist. Amer. I. (1778) I. 8 Preserving them a separate people uninfected by idolatry. 1795 V. KNOX Spir. Despotism § 29 As influence increases, the jealousy and vigilance of the uninfected part of the community should increase in proportion.

2. spec. Not infected with disease, poison, etc.

1625 K. LONG tr. Barclay's Argenis II. xv. 111 Let us see, quoth hee, whether the Bracelet be uninfected. 1684 J. S. Profit & Pleas. United 16 Separating the infected, from the uninfected [cattle]. 1744 AEMSTRONG Preserv. Health iii. 91 Serene he hears the peevish eastern blast, And uninfected breathes the mortal South. 1813 J. THOMSON Lect. Inflam. 485 If pains be taken to prevent intercourse between the infected and uninfected. 1890 Retrospect Med. CII. 292 The risk of leaving untreated a clot in the immediate neighbourhood of very virulent septic matter in the hope that it may remain uninfected.

Uninfe·ctious, a. (Un- 7.) 1744 BIRCH Life Boyle 32 If he were given to any vice himself, he was careful..to render it uninfectious. Uninfe·ft, pa. pple. (Un- 1 8 b.) 1869 R. CAMPBELL Austin's Jurisprr. I. 392 A. infeft can enforce his right against a persona in general; A. uninfeft, only against certain persons. Uninfe·sted, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1670 MILTON Hist. Eng. vi. 244 Nor was Devonshire and Cornwall uninfested on the shore. 1787 Generous Attachment IV. 82 The haunts uninfested by the voice of mirth. Uninfi·nitesness. [Un- 1 12.] 1656 [J. I. ENGRANT] tr. T. White's Peripat. Inst. 230 Science..is only restrain'd by uninfinitenesse of the number of the objects.

Uninfla·med, ppl. a. [Un- 1 8.]

1. Not set on fire.

1626 BACON Sylva § 602 When any of those..Bodies come to bee Inflamed then they generall receive much greater Heat, than others have un-inflamed. 1663 J. SPENCER Prodigies 15 The more gross and uninflamed parts must sometimes needs interrupt our sight of that fire. 1743 YOUNG Pt. Th. IV. 647 Rise odours sweet from incense uninflam'd? 1794 R. J. SULIVAN View Nat. II. 163 That this inflammable body of coal should have remained uninflamed..seems highly improbable.

2. fig. Not emotionally warmed or excited.

1714 YOUNG Force of Relig. II. 199 Oh! let thy thought o'er our past converse rove, And show one moment uninflam'd with love! 1846 LANDOR Imag. Conv. Wks. I. 204/2 You enunciate even these sentences,..the most sedition, uninflamed, unwarmed. 1896 LOWELL Among my Bks. Ser. II. 235 So hard is it to escape..uninflamed by the tumult of partisanship which besets the doors.

3. Path. Not affected by inflammation.

1793 J. HUNTER Treat. Blood, etc. (1794) 280 The uninflamed ear dried clear and transparent. 1813 THOMSON Lect. Inflam. 75 That the circulation is slower in inflamed than in uninflamed arteries. 1866 AITKEN Pract. Med. II. 911 Dry, imbricated scales..resting upon a perfectly uninflamed surface.

Uninflammabi·lity. (Un- 1 12; cf. next.)

1826 HENRY Elem. Chem. II. 553 The second class..are distinguished..by their uninflammability. 1843 Civil Eng. & Arch. Jrnl. VI. 210/2 To test their uninflammability, Mr. Nash had a bonfire..lighted on the roof.

Uninfla·mmable, a. (Un- 1 7 b.)

1666 BOYLE Orig. Forms & Qual. II. v. 325 To produce, out of two uninflammable Bodies, a third, that would be easily inflammable. 1674 — Gounds Colpitac. Philos. 25 Sulphur..abounds with an acid, and uninflammable salt. 1756 C. LUCAS Ess. Waters I. 52 Water is an uninflammable fluid. 1826 HENRY Elem. Chem. I. 234 That one measure of hydrogen and oxygen gases..was rendered uninflammable by eight additional measures of hydrogen. 1897 F. J. BUSGOYNE Library Construct. 22 Some uninflammable non-conductor.

fig. a 1797 H. WALPOLE Geo. II (1847) III. iv. 97 Uninflammable as the times were, they carried a great mixture of superstition.

Uninfla·ted, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1861 Times 22 Oct., He is perfectly modest, unassuming, and uninflated.

Uninfle·cted, ppl. a. [Un- 1 8.]

1. Not bent or deflected.

1713 DERHAM Phys. Theol. I. i. 13 An uninflected Ray [of light]. 1843 GRIFFITH in Trans. Linnean Soc. XIX. 198 The ordinary and uninflected membrane of the sac.

2. Not possessed of inflections.

1875 WHITNEY Life Lang. vii. 133 The original indeflnitness of uninflected languages.

Hence Uninfle·ctedness.

1875 WHITNEY Life Lang. xii. 239 The line which separates utter uninflectedness from a rude agglutination.

Uninflicted, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1757 W. WILKIE Epigon. v. 151 While uninflicted hangs the fatal stroke. Uninfluenceable, a. (Un- 7 b.) 1734 BOLINGBROKE On Parties Ded. p. xii, The uninfluence'd and uninfluenceable Freedom of Elections.

Uni·nfluenced, ppl. a. [Un- 1 8.] Not influenced or affected by influence.

1734 [see prec.] 1748 Anson's Voy. iii. vii. 363 Cool and uninfluenced by what they had drank. 1773 J. ALLEN Serm. at St. Mary's, Oxford 18 The unprejudiced, uninfluenced members of the holy Catholic Church. 1853 KANE Grinnell Exp. xii. (1856) 86 The pack seems as yet uninfluenced. 1880 DISRAELI Endym. xliii, Lord Roxhampton..will not.. be uninfluenced by the circumstances.

Uni·nfluencing, ppl. a. (Un- 10.) 1813-21 BENTHAM Wks. (1843) VIII. 209 Uninfluential or uninfluencing circumstances. Uni·nfluentive, a. (Un- 7.) 1816 COLERIDGE Statesm. Man. App. 32 A few, on whose convictions it will not be uninfluencing to know, that [etc.].

Uninflue·ntial, a. (Un- 1 7.)

1661 GLANVILL Vein. Dogm. 192 Causes in our account the most palpable, may possibly be but uninfluential attendants. 1815 WORDSW. Prose Wks. (1876) II. 123 Those pretended treasures of antiquity..have been wholly uninfluential upon the literature of the Country. 1840 GEN. P. THOMPSON Essays (1842) V. 67 It is intimated in some far from un-influential journals. 1882 Farrar Early Chr. I. 206 Would a writer so..powerful..have remained uninfluential and unknown?

Hence Uninfluentiality.

1880 J. Cairns Lect. in MacEwen Life (1895) 701 There has been a stronger tendency..to put the broader side..into visible uninfluentiality.

Uninformative, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1837 C. Lofty Self-formation I. 129 The child is driven to learn everything from books..uninformative upon points of doubt.

Uninformed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not informed, instructed, or enlightened on some matter or in some respect.

1597 Sir R. Cecil in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. I. III. 45 His being a King not of many years, may happile leave him uninformed of that counse. 1644 Milton Bucer on Div. To Parliat. B 2 b, I..was not uninform'd that divers..men testify'd their daily approbation of the book. 1667—P. L. VIII. 486 Guided by his voice, nor uninformd Of nuptial Sanctitie and marriage Rites. 1725 Pope Odyss. VIII. 533 Who by Phœbus uninform'd, could..sing so well the woe? 1794 S. Williams Vermont 156 The uninformed spectator is struck with horror. 1796 Mrs. D'Arblay Camilla IV. 328 She was uninformed he had propagated it. 1854 J. S. C. Abbott Napoleon (1855) I. xxvii, 436 Uninformed as to its contents. 1854 Poultry Chron. I. 260/2 Persons..totally uninformed on the subject.

absol. 1815 J. Cormack Abol. Pem. Infanticide Guerat i. 5 This is a position, which the uninformed and the unintelligent alone will dispute. 1892 Temple Bar Oct. 285 Notwithstanding the abstruse nature of his studies, Mr. Hopkins was a charming companion, even to the uninformed.

2. Uninstructed, uneducated, ignorant.

1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. II. § 98 They..obtained Proselytes of weak uninformed Ladies. 1745 Fielding Tom Jones vi. ii. So great a politician..that merely..find out what passes in the rude uninformed mind of a girl. 1791 Newte Tour Eng. & Scot. 372 Uninformed and credulous minds readily discover a similitude. 1825 Coleridge Aids Reff. 169 Even though the uninformed Heathensshould notperish.

b. Marked by lack of enlightenment, information, or knowledge.

1796 Gisborne Walks Forest (ed. 2) I. 14 Him uninform'd attachment to his chief..arranged Beneath Rebellion's standard. 1817 J. Scott Paris Revisit. (ed. 4) 114 In the vagueness of uninformed speculation. 1891 Daily News 5 Nov. 2/5 The bankers pledged themselves..with blind and uninformed confidence.

3. Not animated, enlivened, or inspired.

1709 Swift Vind. Bickerstaff Wks. 1755 II. 1. 172 If an uninformed carcass walks still about. 1911 Spectr. Spect. No. 33 P 12 Although this lifeadating Power..her most perfect Features are Uninform'd and Dead. 1803 Wordsw. Yew-Trees 19 A growth Of..fibrous serpentine upcoiling, and inveterately convolved,—Nor uninformed with Phantasy, and looks That threaten the profane.

† 4. Unimproved by art. Obs.

1748 Foote Knights I. Wks. 1799 I. 61 A raw boarding-school girl..with a mind unpolished, a figure uninformed.

Uninforming, ppl. a. (Un- 10.)

1709 Mrs. Manley Secret Mem. (1720) II. 109 An Absence of Mind, and uninforming Faculty. 1784 Goldsm. Hist. Eng. in Lett. (1772) II. 222 It would be..uninforming to relate all the preparations. 1812 Combe Syntax, Picturesque II, The mangled post thus long had stood, An uninforming piece of wood. 1901 C. A. Scott Evang. Doctrine ii. 28 The name of 'Protestant' is popular, accidental and uninforming.

Uninfringable, a. (Un-[1] 7. Cf. uninfringible there.) 1743 H. Walpole Let. (1903) I. 368 Upon conditions uninfringable, I will give you one (sc. a commission).

Uninfringed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1610 Healey St. Aug. Citie of God 784 Yet this doth not barre them [i. e. the Romans] the name of a people..as long as they beare this ensigne uninfringed. 1663 Boyle Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. II. ii. 60 Whether their strength be that way more uninfringed..then if they [sc. poisons] were taken in at the mouth. 1736 Franklin Ess. Wks. 1840 II. 281 Let us be vigilant to preserve them uninfringed, and free from encroachments. 1791 Cowper Iliad III. 128 He..insures The compact, to both parties, uninfringed. 1852 M. Arnold Human Life 4, I have kept uninfringed my nature's law. 1871 Geo. Eliot Middlem. xxxvii, Here was a question of ties which left them uninfringed.

Uninge·nious, a. [Un-[1] 7.]

† 1. = Uningenuous a. Obs.

1638 Chillingw. Relig. Prot. I. iv. § 53. 220 Full of uningenious dealing with your adversary. 1656 Hevlyn Extraemus Vespiarum Of Mr. Noye..(besides those uningenious passages of him which are still left standing) he telleth us also [etc.].

2. Lacking in ingenuity.

1769 Burke Obs. Late St. Nation 8 These uningenious paradoxes and reveries without imagination. 1787 Bentham Def. Usury xiii. 183 The wounded pride of the uningenious herd. 1888 Doughty Arabia Deserta I. 244 Little cups..made, for the uningenious Arabs, in the West.

Uningenu·ity. [Un-1 12.] † Disingenuousness.

1650 J. Weekes Truth's Compl. ii. 34 With as much disparagement and uningenuity, as likely can be in so many words. 1672 Clarendon Ess. Tracts (1727) 264 This uningenuity is still practised,..contrary to truth.

† Uninge·nuous, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7.]

1. Not frank, candid, or open; disingenuous.

1638 Chillingw. Relig. Prot. Answ. to Pref. 6 If beginnings be ominous..D. Potter hath cause to look for great store of uningenuous dealing from you. 1670 Clarendon Ess. Tracts (1727) 189 The grossest and most uningenuous importunities of the most worthless men.

2. Ignoble, servile.

1660 Jer. Taylor Doctor III. ii. rule 9 § 5 It is..an uningenuous subjection, to pay tribute for our meat and drink.

Hence † Uninge·nuousness. Obs.

1644 Hammond Vind. Christ's Reprehending Peter 72, I cannot gessee what could be further added to prove the injustice and uningenuousnesse..of this answer.

† Uninge·nuously, adv. Obs. [Un-1 11.] Disingenuously.

1656 Hobbes Lib., Necess., & Chance 4 To bring [such] arguments..is to deale uningenuously and fraudulently with his Readers. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla III. 394 A conquest, unduly, unfairly, and uningenuously obtained.

Uninga·rfted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1830 Gen. P. Thompson Exerc. (1842) I. 289 [France] attempted..to make terms with uningrafted royalty. 1834 J. Brown Lett. Sanctif. i. 204 It is folly to look for good fruit on an uningrafted tree.

† Uninha·bit, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [Un-[1] 8 b.] Uninhabited. *c*1460 in Dunb. Ch. Misc. (1855) III. 36 To seke void landis and unenhabyte.

Uninha·bitable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b. Cf. Uninhabitable.)

1448 Extr. Aberd. Reg. (1844) I. 401 The balyheis sal..tak doune the durris..of thaim [sic. houses], and mak thaim uninhabitable. 1574 Goodman Manlovera's Apocalips 209 The countrie of Sichimie..is desert and vninhabitable by reason of extreme cold. 1610 Shaks. Temp. II. i. 37 Though this Iskind seeme to be..Vninhabitable, and almost inaccessible. 1668 J. Davies tr. Mandelslo's Trav. 281 They would needs know of him..how he came to that uninhabitable place. 1774 Pennant Tour Scotl. in 1772, 174 The far greater part of the country being uninhabitable by reason of the..moorish. 1837 Whewell Hist. Inductiv. Sci. I. 155 It was supposed that the space between the tropical circles must be uninhabitable from heat. 1884 Law Times 27 Sept. 359/2 The Manor House..being so dilapidated as to be almost uninhabitable.

Hence Uninha·bitableness.

1669 Stillingfl., Serm. IX. (1673) 166 The opinion of the Ancients concerning the uninhabitableness of the torrid Zone. 1696 Doctrine of Devils 194 The Uninhabitableness of the middle Zone. 1839 Fa. A. Kemble Rec. L Adriane I. 235 Eight dwelling houses, all in different states and stages of uninhabitableness.

Uninha·bited, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8. Cf. Uninhabited.)

1572 Golding Calvin on Ps. lxvi. 12 The same fattnesse spreadeth itself even into the uninhabited countries. 1667 Cowley Mistr., Welcome iii, Hast thou not found each womans breast..Either by Savages possest, Or wild, and uninhabited? 1690 R. Coke Disc. Trade 70 The Country too becomes thin and uninhabited. 1721 J. Addison Spect. No. 26 P 4 The present War had filled the Church with many of these uninhabited Monuments. 1794 Mrs. Radcliffe Myst. Udolpho xxxv, This chateau was uninhabited when St. Aubert was here; his daughter were in the raughness hood. 1824 Miss L. M. Hawkins Annaline III. 193 The imposing stillness pervading these almost uninhabited regions. 1866 Geo. Eliot F. Holt i, We have been too poor to keep servants for uninhabited rooms.

Hence Uninha·bitedness.

1727 Bailey (vol. II), Wildness,..uninhabitedness. 1884 Chr. World 12 June 434/4 The solitary uninhabitedness..was something awful in its impressiveness.

Uninhaunta·bility. (Un-[1] 12.) 1818 Coleridge in Southey Omniana II. 7 A most determined believer in the uninheritability of sin. Uninhe·ritable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) † Incapable of inheriting. 1612 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. 671/1 (The allege) that the said Richard was finally for treason attainted, and so adjudged uninheritable. 1780 M. Madan Thelyphthora II. 13 If women..were not lawful wives in God's sight, then..the issue must be illegitimate, and, if so, uninheritable.

Uninhi·bited, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. VII. (1626) 142 Dead corps, without the Dues of funerall, They weakly beare;..Or vninhum'd they lye. 1791 Cowper Odyss. XI. 84 Leave me not undeplored Nor uninhumed. 1835 Oriental Ann. 215 Thousands of carcasses..would not then lie uninhumed, scattering pestilence over the land.

Uninitiate, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) = next.

1801 Southey Thalaba V. xxxvi, That, led by me, Feet uninitiate tread Your threshold, this atones! 1853 Kingsley Yeast viii, The uninitiate vulgar..who revile such interpretations. 1874 Withrow Catacombs (1877) 532 The sacred mysteries hidden from the uninitiate and the unworthy.

Uninitiated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) Also absol.

1678 Cudworth Intell. Syst. I. v. 637 The Prophane and Uninitiated in the Mysteries. 1818 Scott Rob Roy xxxiii, 174 The uninitiated reader will perhaps be astonished. 1816 Bentham Chrestom. 55 Those..formularies, so appalling to every as yet uninitiated, and more particularly to the uninitiated juvenile eye. 1842 Dickens Amer. Notes 3, What seemed to the uninitiated a serious journey. 1885 Athenæum 29 Dec. 800/2 One uninitiated in the mysteries of Scottish genealogies.

Uninitiation. (Un-[1] 12.) 1834 H. O'Brien Round Towers 303 Nor was it but on the plea of ignorance and un-initiation that he did ultimately obtain pardon. 1873 Mrs. Whitney Other Girls xv, She left no lee-way for uninitiation. Uninjuredutable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1830 R. Knox Bekker's Anat. 178 The sum of the capillary blood vessels, and their proportion to the solid and uninjectable substance. Uninjurable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1846 Mrs. Gore Eng. Char. I. 310 His soda-water, being uninjurable by street rumbling.

Uninjured, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1578 R. L. in Whetstone Promos & Cass. A iij, I hould my paynes wel satisfyed, and Maister Whetston uninjured. 1634 Milton Comus 403 [To] let a single helpless maiden pass Uninjur'd. 1693 Prior To Dr. Sherlock 37 Untouch'd thy Tomb, uninjur'd be thy Dust. 1725 Pope Odyss. XI. 477 Heroes who uninjur'd stood Amidst a war of spears. 1797 Nelson in Nicolas Disp. (1845) II. 346 To put me on board the first uninjured Ship of the Line. *c*1821 V. Knox Serm. Wks. 1824 VI. 171 Their own bosoms will be calm and serene, uninjured and uninjurious. 1884 Fortn. Rev. Jan. 50 The Indian tribes..uninjured by and uninjuring Western culture.

Uninjuring, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10 § 5 d.) 1820 Milman Fall of Jerusalem 42 The pines..From their proud heads shake off the uninjuring tempest. 1884 [see prec.].

Uninjurious, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1809 Coleridge Friend 155 The uninjurious and useful privileges of our English Nobility. *a*1821 [see Uninjured]. 1865 Pusey Mirac. Prayer 32 A concentration of rain or its absence, uninjurious at other times, would ruin seed-time or harvest.

Hence Uninju·riousness.

1850 Pusey Min. Proph. 374 Yea, foolishness itself is cloked under the name of uninjuriousness.

Uninjuri·ously, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1881 Sir W. Thomson in Times 2 Sept., 4/2 The cow-calf is a fine calf may be done uninjuriously, with and good dynamical economy [etc.].

Uninoked, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1637 Rutherford Lett. (1664) 290 What is harder then..to have blanks & uninked paper for assurance of Christ in real fruition or possession? Uninn, v. [Un-[2] 7.] intr. To leave an inn. 1602 Warner Alb. Eng. XII. [xxv. 312 The Gentle woman, hearing this, vn-Inn'd by day did peepe. Uninnocence. (Un-[1] 12.) 1593 Nashe Christ's T. F ij b, Thou shalt be vninocence, and whole summe of delinquishment. Uninoculated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1818 Monthly Rev. LXXXVII. 131 Mr. Koster..observes that the cow-pox was extensively contagious..among the uninoculated inhabitants. 1898 P. Manson Trop. Diseases 151 Afterwards the originally healthy and uninoculated mice also succumbed.

Unino·dal (yūni-), a. [See Uni- 1 and Nodal a.] Having one node or nodal point.

1839 Lindley Introd. Bot. 160 The cyme of Monocotyledons appears to be typically unionodal. 1880 Nature XXI. 427 Long oscillations..due to uninodal waves. 1894 Athenæum 17 Feb. 216/3 Some Properties of the Uninodal Quartic and Quintic having a Triple Point.

Unino·minal (yūni-), a. [a. F. uninominal (1878)]: see Uni- 1 and Nominal a.]

1. Based on the principle of one member being separately elected by each constituency.

1881 Times 12 Mar. 11 At present, the Chamber of Deputies is elected by what is called..the uninominal method of voting. 1884 Pall Mall G. 8 Nov. 1 The proposed uniformity of uninominal electoral districts.

2. Having or involving one name, spec. in Nat. Hist.

188.. [see plurinominal Pluri-].

Uninqui·red, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 c.) 1725 De Foe Voy. round World (1840) 224 Infinitely more [wealth] lay uninquired after, than had yet been known. 1826 Scott Woodst. xxviii, Some unhappy mistake, the grounds of which shall remain..uninquired into.

Uninqui·ring, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1804 Ann. Rev. II. 68 The uninquiring and contented ignorance with which he has beheld every thing. 1833 L. Ricciardi Wand. by Lake Geneva 1/2 Wandering..by a foreign town, ignorant and uninquiring, without a plan. 1863 Whittier Countess 83 There..The native dweller..keeps, in uninquiring trust, The old, dull round of things.

Uninqui·sitive, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1609 Daniel Civ. Wars VII. xxxv, Go loose the links of that soule-binding chaine; Inlarge this vninquisitive Beliefe. *a*1639 Wotton Relig. (1651) 154 Of those..have I many times heard (not uninquisitive, I acknowledg..) how [etc.]. 1796 Hoskins Serm. xi. (1876) I. 236 Their uninquisitive temper keeps them in a total ignorance about secondary causes. 1815 L. Hunt Feast Poets 34 So contented and uninquisitive had every body become. 1848 Thackeray Van. Fair xii, Mrs. Sedley was of so easy and uninquisitive a nature that she wasn't even jealous. 1872 Tulloch Ration. Theol. I. 290 Uninquisitive, unreflecting faith.

Uninscri·bed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1704 Pope Windsor for. 260 Make sacred Charles's tomb for ever known (Obscure the place, and uninscribd the stone). 1837 Lytton Athens I. 325 Altars uninscribed to a particular god. 1859 G. Wilson Mem. E. Forbes vi. (1861) 173 The whole of the uninscribed leaves of the book.

Uninspe·cted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1898 in Stat. Ken. 27 Nov. 531/1 Uninspected by the Church or Dissenting,..inspected or uninspected'. 1895 Westm. Gaz. 11 Oct. 2/2 Any change that gave us uninspected drinking clubs for inspected public-houses.

Uninspired, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1690 Locke Hum. Unst. IV. xviii. § 11 All the truths..that men uninspired are enlightened with. 1707 E. Chishull (title), The great Danger and Mistake of all new uninspired Prophecies relating to the End of the World. 1715 Pope Iliad II. 220 Ulysses heard, nor uninspir'd obey'd. 1746 Young Nt. Th. IX. 439 No mortal, un-inspir'd, Has ever yet conceiv'd..How kind is God. 1831 Campbell Lines on Poland 5 A theme for uninspired lips too strong. 1846 J. E. Ryland Life Foster I. 3 Vivacity was merely physical and uninspired by sentiment. 1900 Ch. Q. Rev. Apr. 110 As though..Paul [were] on a level with any uninspired writer.

Uninspi·ring, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

Also, in recent use, uninspiringly.

1812 J. Scott Fr. Lit. 24 Monotonous in its character, and uninspiring in its tendency. 1859 Jephson & Reeve Brittany 268 The uninspiring region of railroads and metropolitan industry. 1896 Harper's Mag. XCIII. 17/2 Gazing..over the uninspiring chimney-pots of New York, at the equally uninspiring Long Island station.

Uninsta·lled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] *a*1856 H. Miller Cruise Betsey 253 The minister of Alness—uninstalled at the time in his new charge. 1884 Uninstigated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1846 Poe Criticism Wks. 1865 III. 22 A voluntary, that is to say, an uninstigated notice of the book. Uninstituted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1702 C. Mather Magn. Chr. VII. iv. (1853) 144 Certain confessedly unscriptural and uninstituted rites. 1748 J. Wilson Balm of Gilead iv. Wks. (1852) 404/2 Many are warping towards popery..., observing uninstituted festivals.

Uninstru·cted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1. Not instructed or informed; unenlightened, ignorant. Also const. in, or with clause.

1598 Florio, Inerudito,..untaught, vninstructed. 1660 Jer. Taylor Doctor II. iii. rule 10 § 12 By uninstructed is only meant such who have not heard, or could not learn. 1665 Boyle Occas. Reff. III. xx. 131 These are utterly uninstructed in the Laws. 1690 Davenn Don. Schest. III. i. That Fool intrudes,..uninstructed how to stem the tide. 1744 Harris Three Treat. Wks. (1841) 3 Not even what we do intentionally, if it proceed from mere will and uninstructed instinct. 1783 Reid Intell. Powers II. xx. 326 The most uninstructed peasant. 1806 A. Hunter Culina (ed. 3) 268 Women uninstructed in cookery and the management of a family. 1875 E. White Life in Christ v. xxviii. 491 To build a credulous assent..on the authority of the uninstructed multitude.

absol. 1662 Jer. Taylor Fruites Formatæ (1663) 167 Faith ...if it be not followed, ..damns deeper than the Hell of the Infidels and Uninstructed.

2. Not furnished with instructions.

1892 Spectator 21 May 699/1 Its delegates will enter the Convention 'uninstructed'.

Hence Uninstructedness.

1833 Montgomery Lect. Poetry 323 That perpetual thraldom of uninstructedness (I may coin such a negative). 1872 Jowett Plato I. 170 These base fears and confidences originate in ignorance and uninstructedness.

Uninstructing, ppl. a. [Un-1 10.] = next. ?1630 H. R. Mythomystes 45 Our common uninstructing fabulous times. 1642 Milton Apol. Smect. 32 That Lordly and uninstructing jurisdiction which properlymakes the Pope Antichrist. 1762 Mills Syst. Pract. Husb. I, 441 The little differences in their methods may not be un-instructing.

Uninstructive, a. [Un-1 7.]

1666 Boyle Orig. Forms & Qual. ii. vii. 369 That the present Discourse shall not be uninstructive to You. 1695 Locke Hum. Und. II. xx. § 18 (ed. 3) 123 Pain from captious uninstructive wrangling. 1754 Reid Inquiry vi. § 15. 172 Facts less vague and uninstructive. 1839 Ure in Rickards Rep. Geol. Cornwall, etc. ii. 29 The sections near the Start Point are ..particularly uninstructive. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. vi. 11. 104 His character was remarkable, and his history not uninstructive.

So Uninstructively adv.

1816 Edin. Rev. Sept. 182 No great man has been..more uninstructively commended.

Uninsulate, v. [Un-2 3.] trans. To deprive of insulation.

1844 Noad Electricity (ed. 2) 17 Let the metallic plate be replaced, and uninsulated by touching it with the finger. 1866 R. M. Ferguson Electr. 54 When an insulated body is charged by being uninsulated.

Uninsulated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1791 Phil. Trans. LXXXIV. 266 The insulated and uninsulated parts of my high pointed rod. 1839 G. Bird Nat. Philos. 204 Holding beneath and parallel to it..a second disc of metal, but uninsulated. 1864 C. G. W. Lock Workshop Receipts Ser. iii. 126/1 Uninsulated German silver wire.

Uninsulted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1747 Carte Hist. Eng. I. 288 The Danes..left no part of the coast of England uninsulted. 1832 L. Hunt Poems Pref. p. xlv, The hearth of an uninsulted poverty. Uninsulting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1855 Milman Lat. Chr. xiv. viii. VI. 549 The most quiet, uninsulting, unexasperating satire.

Uninsurable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1864 T. S. Williams & Simmonds Eng. Commerc. Corr. 275 That vessel however being an American..was almost uninsurable here. 1884 Law Times Rep. LI. 248 The life..is..uninsurable by reason of the assumed state of his health.

Hence Uninsurability.

Also, in recent use (1903), uninsurableness.

1884 Law Times Rep. LI. 244/2 Written opinions..as to the insurability or uninsurability of the life..Harvey.

Uninsured, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1799 Hull Advertiser 16 Nov. 3/3 The tenant, who..will be a considerable sufferer, is uninsured. 1853 R. S. Surtees Sponge's Sp. Tour lxix, Farmer Slyfield's stack-yard was fired..and all its uninsured contents destroyed. 1892 C. James Rom. Rigmarole 154 My boots..were in London; and my life was uninsured.

Unintellective, a. (Un-1 7.) 1837 C. Lofft Self-formation i. 56 Scholarship without talent is..a mass of unintellective confusion—a mere chaos.

Unintellectual, a. [Un-1 7.]

†1. Not endowed with intellect; unintelligent.

a 1676 Hale Prim. Orig. Man. iv. viii. (1677) 373 The rest of Mankind, or the unintellectual Creatures.

2. a. Not intellectually clever; dull.

1819 Keats Lines to Fanny 24 My muse..Unintellectual, yet divine to me. 1872 Liddon Elem. Relig. i. 13 They thought that the apostles had been unintellectual persons.

b. Not characterized by the presence of intellect.

1837 Hallam Hist. Lit. iii. § 3. 6 A sound..not unpleasing to all..but monotonous, unintellectual. 1846 Poe A. C. Mowatt Wks. 1865 III. 43 The forehead is..by no means an unintellectual one. 1856 N. Brit. Rev. XXVI. 120 It has become the fashion to decry such pleasures..as unintellectual.

Hence Unintellectualism, Unintellectuality. Also unintellectually adv. (Webster, 1847).

1850 Tait's Mag. XVII. 735/1 The very same characteristics of inertness, unintellectuality, and uncombiningness. 1880 W. L. Courtney in E. Abbott Hellenica 254 That theory of unintellectualism with which Epicurus started.

Unintelligence. (Un-1 12; cf. next.)

1634 Br. Hall Contempl., N. T. iv, His un-intelligence, was not more strange then his mis-construction. 1829 Carlyle Mirabeau (1840) II. 228 From afar I heard say, that Unintelligibility was but the result of Unintelligence. 1891 Ethel Glazebrook Dower of Earth II. xv. 236 The general moroseness and unintelligence of the English race.

Unintelligent, a. [Un-1 7.]

1. Having no knowledge or understanding of something. rare.

1609 B. Jonson Sil. Wom. iv. iii. 572 My mistris is not altogether vn-intelligent of these things. 1621 Shaks. Wint. T. n i. 16 That your Sences (vn-intelligent of our insufficience) may..as little accuse vs. 1850 Carlyle Latter-d. Pamph. iv. 23 With China, or some distant country, too unintelligent of us and too unintelligible to us.

2. Devoid of intelligence.

1654 H. More Myst. Iniq. xiii. 45 The Sun is..an Inanimate and unintelligent mass of flammeous matter. 1798 Norris Ideal World I. vi. 322 So we must suppose God, as an unintelligent being, and also in the production of truth acting as an unintelligent agent. 1988 Reid Active Powers IV. ix. 627 If this be so, what is unintelligent may be the cause of what is intelligent. 1802 Paley Nat. Theol. ii. § 2 By the application of an unintelligent impulse to a mechanism previously arranged..the corn is ground. 1864 Pusey Lect. Daniel viii. 554 Time,..the most spiritual of the unintelligent creatures of God.

3. Deficient in intelligence or intellect; dull, stupid. Also absol.

a 1676 Hale Ep. to Son (1684) 13 A sort of brain-sick, melancholy, unintelligent persons. 1703 Moxon Mech. Exerc. 95 Its use is..well known (even to the most unintelligent). 1792 Cowper Odyss. vi. 234 Neither base by birth thou seem'st, Nor unintelligent. 1825 [see Uninformed ppl. a. 2 absol.]. 1862 Olmsted Journ. & Exph. Cotton Kingd. I. 44 Most of the company were of a very poor appearance, rude and unintelligent.

b. Marked by lack of intelligence.

1860 W. Collins Wom. White II. 267 My servant..is really attached to me, in his unintelligent way. 1869 Tozer Highl. Turkey I. 302 [A man] with..an unintelligent expression of countenance.

†4. Unintelligible. Obs.

1683 Moxon Mech. Exerc., Printing xxii. p 5 That I may be the less unintelligent to the Reader. 1756 Mrs. Caldenwood in Coltness Collect. (Maitl. Club) 190 He was obliged then to have recourse to 'calling grace', and severall other unintelligent things.

Unintelligently, adv. (Un-1 11; cf. prec.)

1754 Edwards Freed. Will II. xiii. 134 Liable to act unintelligently and unreasonably. 1836 J. Gilbert Chr. Atonem. iv. 119 The doctrine..has been charged with exhibiting the Divine Being as implacable, most unintelligently. 1889 [see Coming of Friars v. 224 They knew how to..go through the services though unintelligently.

Unintelligibility. (Un-1 12; cf. next.)

1665 Glanvill Scepsis Sci. iv. 17 To credit the unintelligibility..of this union and motion. 1729 T. Burnet's Theory Earth (ed. 4) I. vii. 200 If we have truly prov'd..the impossibility or Unintelligibility of it in all other ways. 1806–7 J. Berresford Miseries Hum. Life iv. i, Their own ruin..must obviously be the direct consequence of their unintelligibility. 1866 Farrar An. & Mod. Gr. II. ii. 288 Lycophron, chiefly famous for his unintelligibility.

Unintelligible, a. and sb. [Un-1 7.]

1. Not intelligible; incapable of being understood. Also absol.

1616 Bullokar Eng. Expos., Vnintelligible, which cannot be vnderstood. 1647 Cowley Mistr., Womens Superstit. 1, Or (in a word) Dunce or Woman kind Is as unintelligible thing. 1684 T. Burnet Theory Earth I. 259 The trajection..is to me, I confess, unintelligible. 1717 Berkeley Tour Italy Wks. 1871 IV. 507 The ruins above ground are pretty intelligible. 1796 Mrs. D'Arblay Camilla V. 516 This is..so incredible—so unintelligible! 1834 Lamb Wks. (1908) I. 454 Coleridge..had the tact of making the unintelligible seem plain. 1872 Jowett Plato I. 26 He made an unintelligible attempt to hide his perplexity.

b. Of language, statements, etc., or persons in respect of such.

1651 Hobbes Leviath. I. xii. 53 Men..choose rather to confesse he is Incomprehensible,..than to..confesse their definition to be unintelligible. 1683 Brit. Spec. 40 Their Records are the more preserved in the Greek Tongue and Characters..unintelligible by the Vulgar. 1703 De Foe More Reform. 41 To b' Unintelligible is a Crime. 1765 Johnson Shakespeare's Plays I. p. lxviii, Homer has fewer passages unintelligible than Chaucer. 1841 Lane Arab. Nts. I. 113 Where, taking a little of its water, she pronounced over it some unintelligible words. 1884 Solicitors' Jrnl. 8 Nov. 29/2 The prisoner..having an impediment in his speech, which made him unintelligible and unable to read it.

c. sb. An unintelligible thing.

1838 Southey Doctor cxlix. V. 176 As two negatives make an affirmative, it might be found that two unintelligibles make a meaning.

†2. Unintelligent. Obs.[1]

1694 R. Franck North. Mem. 121 Nor has it any Claim or Title from the Lough Minever, as superstitiously surmis'd by the unintelligible Inhabitant.

Unintelligibleness. [Un-1 12, or f. prec.]

†1. Lack of understanding. Obs.[1]

1616 Donne Serm. V. 466 God shall suffer him to settle..in an insensibleness and an unintelligibleness..of his own Condition.

2. The quality of fact of being unintelligible; unintelligibility.

1678 Allestree Lively Oracles viii. § 14. 201 We ordinarily have so much candor, as to impute their unintelligibleness to our own ignorance. 1736 Butler Anal. II. vii. 347 The obscurity or unintelligibleness of one part of a prophecy. 1754 Edwards Freed. Will II. ii. 38 The Thing in Question seems to be forgotten, or kept out of Sight, in a Darkness and Unintelligibleness of Speech. 1832 H. Melvill in Preacher III. 222/1 If it is unintelligible, it is the unintelligibleness of the Scripture, and not of the commentator. 1877 E. R. Conder Basis Faith ii. 69 The supposed unintelligibleness..of the doctrine.

Unintelligibly, adv. (Un-1 11.)

1664 Power Exp. Philos. Pref. 11 Motion may be both invisibly and unintelligibly slow, as well as swift. 1713 Berkeley Hylas & Phil. II. (1725) 70 You talk unintelligibly, instead of forming a reasonable Hypothesis. 1794 Mrs. Radcliffe Myst. Udolpho xxx, He..hurried unintelligibly over some lines, and..offered her a pen. 1808 L. Murray Engl. Gram. I. 413 The second occasion of our being apt to write unintelligibly. 1892 [see Undiscoverably].

Uninteded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1649 Milton Eikon. xix. 173 By any pretentions in the Parliament, which are now prov'd false, and uninteded. 1676 Rachard Cons. Clergy 78 The ridiculous, senseless, and uninteded use, which many of them make of concordances. 1740 Cibber Apol. 117 The first uninteded Favour. 1798 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla I. 233 The youthful group was much diverted with this uninteded exhibition. 1835 Mill Diss. & Disc. (1859) I. 253 The uninteded good or evil which has followed from our actions. 1884 Manch. Exam. 4 Nov. 6/1 The debate very nearly suffered an uninteded collapse.

So Uninte·ndedly adv.

1782 Paine Let. Abbé Raynal (1792) 43 This declaration ..has led me unintendedly into a train of metaphysical reasoning. 1818 Bentham Ch. Eng. Introd. 34 The intimation thus..unintendedly afforded.

Uninte·ntional, a. [Un-1 7.]

1. Not done with, not arising from, intention.

Given by Johnson (1755) as employed by Boyle.

1782 V. Knox Ess. I. 120 The infirmity of human nature which causes unintentional lapses in the duties of friendship. 1803 Syd. Smith Wks. (1859) I. 28 A very unintentional encouragement to offences. 1883 J. Gilmour Mongols xxiii. 285 The accused admitted the charge, but pleaded that it was unintentional.

2. Not acting with intention.

1828 James Robber v, He had been an unintentional, and even an unwilling witness to [it]. 1851 Kitto Hist. Palestine v. iii. 125 Six cities,..to any one of which the unintentional man-slayer might hasten.

Hence Unintentionality.

1780 Bentham Princ. Legisl. (1823) II. xiii. 8 In the case of unintentionality: where he intends not to engage..in the act. a 1859 Austin Jurisprr. (1863) II. xx. 110 Unintentionality, and innocence of intention, seem both to be included.

Uninte·ntionally, adv. (Un-1 11.)

1769 Pennant Brit. Zool. III. 71 A spear..with which he afterwards committed parricide, unintentionally,..on his father Ulysses. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. x. II. 574 Those who..had unintentionally done him a great service. 1874 H. R. Reynolds John Bapt. i. § 6. 55 He unintentionally revealed the forgery.

Uninte·ntioned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1851 Mrs. Browning Casa Guidi Wind. II. 11 As little children take up a high strain With unintentioned voices. Uninte·ntiveness. (Un-1 12.) 1670 Clarendon Contempl. Ps. Tracts (1727) 651 There is not a greater obstruction to devotion than the unintentiveness upon the action they are at. Unintercepted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1646 Earl Monm. tr. Biondi's Civil Wars vii. 92 She had not time enough to keep the secret undiscover'd, and him uninterrupted. 1824 R. Hall Wks. (1832) I. 288 The light..becomes stronger and clearer by an uninterrupted converse with its object.

† Uninteressed, ppl. a. Obs. Also 8 -est. [Un-1 8.] = Uninterested ppl. a. 1 and 2.

1647 Diggers Unlawf. Taking Arms iv. 158 None can be named, who are uninteressed in the decision. 1688 Norris Theory Love I. v. 58 Although there cannot be a pure and uninteressed Malice. 1720 tr. Gr. Prim. Fathers 153 This is rather a Panegyrick than an uninterest History.

Hence † Uninteressedness. Obs.

1702 Eng. Theophrast. 360 'Tis the Motive only that gives Merit to our Actions, and Uninteressedness that makes them perfect.

Uninterest. (Un-1 12.) 1890 Tablet 5 July 19 A few notes concerning the great antiquity of the..church..may not be of uninterest.

Uninterested, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

†1. Unbiassed, impartial. Obs.

a 1645 J. Gregory Posthumus, Episc. Puerorum (1649) 107 By this uninterested disguis, the more to justifie the Celebrations. 1660 R. Coke Power & Subj. 49 Nor do I think that any uninterested casuist will deny [etc.].

†2. Free from motives of personal interest; disinterested. Obs.

1661 (title), A Relation of the business..concerning Bedford Levell,..by a person uninterested. 1704 N. N. tr. Boccalini's Advts. fr. Parnass. III. 191 What think you of uninterested Men, who value the Publick Good beyond their own private Interest? 1767 Cowper Let. Wks. 1837 XV. 17 You know me to be an uninterested person.

3. Unconcerned, indifferent.

1772 Ann. Reg. II. 253/2 He is no cold, uninterested, and uninteresting advocate for the cause he espouses. 1774 Trifoldet 54 In this society scarcely can my heart be uninterested? 1823 Byron Juan x. lxxiii, In the same quaint, Uninterested tone. 1850 Thackeray Pendennis lvii, An almost silent but not uninterested spectator.

Hence Uninterestedly adv., -ness.

1692 T. [Hale] Acc. New Invent. 55 As to that Uninterestedness so pretended to by them. 1891 H. Herman His Angel 108 He looked upon the..crowds..uninterestedly.

Uninteresting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1769 Burke Observ. State of Nation P 4 Uninteresting barren truths which generate no conclusion. 1782 Miss Burney Cecilia VII. ix, Too much occupied..to..listen to such uninteresting discourse. 1840 Hood Up Rhine 43 The banks of the Lower Rhine are of a very interesting character. 1869 Tozer Highl. Turkey II. 176 Writers, whose pages are..extremely uninteresting.

Hence Uninterestingness. Also Uninterestingly adv.

1793 W. Roberts Looker-on No. 82 My days pass serenely, but 'uninteresingly. 1896 Black Priests xvii, I'm sick of blue skies—skies that are monotonously and uninterestingly blue. 1794 European Mag. XXVI. 344 The uninterestingness of genealogical detail. 1854 Faber Growth in Holiness viii. (1872) 129 The momentary dulness and uninterestingness of the things of God.

Uninterme·diate, a. (Un-1 7.) 1863 Ld. Lytton Ring of Amasis II. 232 His nerves..had forced into his service a new uninterme·diate sense. Uninterm·ission. (Un-1 12.) 1682 Br. S. Parker Demonstr. Law of Nat. 134 The continuation and uninterm·ission of his Pain had tired out his Patience.

† Uninterm·issive, a. Obs. (Un-1 7.)

1610 E. Sikore Extract fr. Hist. Hen. IV of France 5 Anxieties caused by vn-intermissive infidelities. 1645 Quarles New Distempter Wks. (Grosart) I. 159/2 The unintermissive continuance [of Episcopal government] for so many Ages. 1655 Earl Orrery Parthen. II. iii. 293 His first strokes were so vninterrissive and briske.

Hence † Uninterm·issively adv., -ness. Obs.

1655 Earl Orrery Parthen. I. i. 3 Perceiving the un-intermissiones of his melancholy. 1656 Ibid. III. iv. 295 That admirable equalitie which this fair Princess had so uninterrmissively practised.

Unintermittedly, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1621 Cotgr., Suyte, ..a succession, continuance, or vninterrmitted course of things. 1651 T. Swan Speculum Poesis, Moschus 48 The hoarse frogs uninterrmitted groan. 1738 Gentl. Mag. VIII. 581/2 His Application was uninterrmitted, his Head clear. 1751 Johnson Rambler No. 108 P 1 Some scorched with unintermitted Heat. 1818 Shelley Wordsworth Life (1887) I. 218 My desire is ardent and uninterrmitted. 1884 Church Bacon ix. 220 Easy and unstudied as his writing seems, it was..the result of uninterrmitted trouble.

Hence Unintermittedly adv.

a 1693 Urquhart Rabelais III. xvii. 140 A pair of Yarn Windles, which she nine times uninterrmittedly veered, and fisked about. 1861 Mill Utilit. v. 81 Unless the machinery ..is kept uninterrmittedly in active play. 1863 W. Phillips Speeches iii. 51 This heart of mine which beats so uninterrmittedly in the bosom.

Unintermittent, a. (Un-1 7.)

1850 J. H. Newman Diffic. Anglic. 130 Which has been in uninterrmittent traditionary error. 1883 J. Gilmour Mongolia 261 The uninterrmittent questioning busts about a week.

Hence Unintermittently adv.

1875 Wonders of Phys. World I. iii. 100 Their ruins crumble uninterrmittently.

Unintermitting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1652 Feltham Resolves, 2 sec. 384 To procure an un-interrmitting joy..is beyond the Colosson. 1709 Mrs. Manley Secret Mem. (1720) IV. 195 In answer to her uninterrmitting Reproaches. 1777 Robertson Hist. Amer. v. (1778) II. 117 All were ready to sink under the toils of uninterrmitting service. a 1828 M. G. Lewis Feud. W. Ind. (1834) 4 The flashes of lightning were..uninterrmitting. 1890 Retrospect Med. CII. 368 The continuous roar..is..uninterrmitting.

Hence Unintermittingness.

1856 Mrs. Ritchie Village on Cliff xiv, His talk was a wonder of ingenuity and uninterrmittingness.

Unintermittingly, adv. (Un-1 11; cf. prec.)

1782 Ann. Reg., Hist. 85/1 An infinite number of rockets were uninterrmittingly thrown. 1809 Pinkney Trav. France 164 The attention of the French Government is now uninterrmittingly occupied. 1832 J. Fenn Tale of Troon I. 103 He now resolved to cultivate it [i. e. his father's favour] uninterrmittingly, and at any sacrifice.

Unintermixed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8).

1598 Daniel Cto. Wars I. vi, Vnintermixt with fiction's fantasies, I verily the truth. 1658 B. D'Urfey Antibiog. (1845) I. 110 An eternal and uninterrmixed happiness. 1630 Drumm. of Hawth. Hymn of Fairest Faire 189 Those Bodies faire and greate Which faint not in their Course,.. Vninterrmixt, which not disorder prouse. 1740 Warton Suffer. Son of God II. xxvii. 714 In Him, Aloue, whose Love and Friendship is Pure, and un-intermixed.

Uninterpolated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1790 Porson Lett. to Travis 277 [They] think that authentica means no more than genuine, uninterpolated. 1818 G. S. Faber Horæ Mosaicæ I. 350 It is found impossible to ascribe the uninterpolated Pentateuch to any author save Moses.

Uninterposing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1749 Melmoth Fitzosborne Lett. xlviii. II. 13 To prove, that the supreme being remains an uninterposing spectator of what is transacted upon this theatre of the world.

Uninterpretable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1629 Purchas Pilgrims II. 1456 Through the virtue of an uninterpretable name. 1729 G. Adams tr. Sophocles, Antig. iv. i. II. 56 An unknown Voice of Birds crying with an ill Fury, uninterpretable. 1879 Thomson & Tait Nat. Phil. I. § 385 Many formulæ are at present obscure and uninterpretable. 1884 Pop. Sci. Monthly XXIV. 822 Figures of men and animals and uninterpretable signs.

Uninterpreted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1662 Hobbes Body of Divinity I. 218 Amen. It is..an Hebrew word, ..and remaineth uninterpreted. a 1768 Secker Serm. (1771) V. vii. 139 Combinations of several Words may come to have Meanings very different from what the Terms,..uninterpreted by Practice, would lead one to apprehend. 1848 C. A. Lanham Charmeuse (1858) II. 22 Attributing that uninterpreted gladness to..the sighs and sounds of a spiritual world. 1895 Educat. Rev. Nov. 352 Unsorted and uninterpreted fragments.

Uninterred, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1648 Hunting of Fox 17 Left uninter'd for the Fox and other beasts to prey upon. a 1684 Leighton Com. 1 Pet. iii. 19 Rotting above ground, as carcases uninterred. 1720 Pope Iliad xxii. 474 Unwept, unhonour'd, uninter'd he lies! 1849 Pollok Course T. 238 Thy him lay the uninterred corpse. 1837 Lytton Athens II. 161 Leaving the remainder uninterred lie invited all..to examine the scene of contest.

Uninterrogable, a., +ated, ppl. a. (Un-1 7 b, 8.) 1802–12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) II. 295 His own ready-written and uninterrogable testimony. Ibid. I. 450 The mass of sworn but uninterrogated deposition called an affidavit. 1803 Mary Charlton Wife & Mistress III. 174 No one will question me upon the dark subject..., and uninterrogated, how could I endure to mention it!

Uninterrupt, ppl. a. Sc. (Un-1 8 b.) = next. 1776 C. Keith Farmer's Hal lxiii, O here are joys uninterrup', Far hence is pleasure's gang'ene cup.

Uninterrupted, ppl. a. and adv. (Un-1 8.)

1. Not interrupted or broken in respect of continuity or sequence; uninterrmittent, continuous.

1602 Warner Alb. Eng. xiii. lxxvi. 316 The euer mouing heauens vninterrupted runde. 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. I. § 5 The uninterrupted pleasures..of twenty-two years Peace. 1709 Addison Tatler No. 192 P 6 An uninterrupted Friendship and Felicity. 1781 Gibbon Decl. & F. xxxi. III. 195 The uninterrupted succession of senators. 1849 Condren Speeches 29 An interval of several years of uninterrupted peace. 1880 McCarthy Our Times xl. III. 223 His career was one of uninterrupted success.

b. Not broken in surface; having no nervinds between the parts.

1791 Newte Tour Eng. & Scot. 58 The cascade..falls..in one uninterrupted sheet. 1822 J. Parkinson Outl. Oryctol. 259 The margin [of the shell is]..uninterrupted and reflected. 1866 Treas. Bot. 1191/1 Uninterrupted, consisting of regularly increasing or diminishing parts, or of parts all of the same size.

2. Not disturbed or broken into; not interrupted by something.

1667 Cromwell SA. in Somers Tracts (1812) VI. 367 A more free exercise, more uninterrupted by any hand of power. 1728 Eliza Heywood tr. Mme. de Gomez's Belle A. (1732) II. 63 The rest of our Voyage was..uninterrupted by the least cross Accident whatever. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla V. 202 Mr. Tyrold would not suffer this scene to be long uninterrupted. 1854 Poultry Chron. II. 194/2 An uninterrupted day of rest. 1873 B. Harte Fiddletown 7 The dwellings..uninterrupted by shops.

3. adv. Without interruption; uninhindered.

1677 Yarranton Eng. Improv. 3 That the Smacks and small Vessels may..fetch in Provisions and Naval Stores uninterrupted.

Uninterruptedly, adv. (Un-1 11; cf. prec.) Without interruption or break; continuously, connectedly.

1665 Sir T. Herbert Trav. (1677) 203 Where the Mountain uninterruptedly runs as far as Mergiana. a 1691 Boyle Hist. Air (1692) 7 Having not the leisure to prosecute this discourse uninterruptedly. 1794 Phil. Trans. LXXXV. 39 In which case the following particles would meet their force uninterruptedly. 1826 F. Reynolds Life & Times II. 183 From that time..our intimacy has continued..uninterruptedly. 1895 Jowett Plato (ed. 2) III. 4 That the Republic was written uninterruptedly and by a continuous effort.

Uninterruptedness. (f. Uninterrupted.)

1665 J. Serjeant Sure Footing 206 The ever-continuance or uninterruptedness of Tradition. 1671 Flavel Fount. Life ii. 4 The Perpetuity and uninterruptedness thereof. 1791 Washington Let. Writ. 1892 XII. 46 My return to this place is sooner than I expected, owing to the uninterruptedness of my journey. 1834 J. W. Croker in C. Papers II June, The musicians..spoiled that uninterruptedness (what a word) which was so beautiful yesterday. 1876 Canervin in Contemp. Rev. Jan., The Scientific Deist..looks at the uninterruptedness of this order [in Nature] as the highest evidence of its original perfection.

Uninterruptible, a. (Un-1 7.) a 1683 Sidney Disc. Gover. III. xxx. (1704) 361 An uninterruptible Line of Descent. Uninterruptibleness. (Un-1 12.) 1654 Owen Doctr. Saints' Persev. Pref Rdr. B j b, The uninterruptibleness of any Act of God. Uninterrupting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1828 Mrs. Kerr in Rokeby Mem. (1829) II. 364 My imagination is rapidly learning..to exult in the uninterrupting character of rural scenery.

Uninterruption. (Un-1 12.)

1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. III. § 65 To have Questioned..the Seditious Riots..before the uninterruption and security had confirmed the People in all three. 1740 Cheyne Regimen 47 To allow Time and Uninterruption from the natural Powers. 1744 Waldron Descr. Isle of Man (ed. 2) 106 That Uninterruption and Solitude of the Sea, gave the Mermen..frequent Opportunities of visiting the Shore. 1808 G. Edwards Pract. Plan iii. 20 The enlargement and uninterruption of commerce.

Uninterspersed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1887 Browning Parleyings, Apollo & Fates, Is age..so uninterspersed with good? Uninterviewed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1886 Phelps Burglars in Paradise viii, The hitherto uninterviewed American citizen.

Uninthralled, -intitled, etc. : see Unen-.

Uninimidated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1764 Museum Rust. II. lxxviii. 275 If I find your Museum that unintimidated receptacle which I hope it will appear to be. 1815 Wraxall Hist. Mem. I. 361 Unintimidated by the clamours of Sir Fleicher's adherents. a 1849 H. Coleridge Ess. Poets (1851) 66 The unbought, unintimidated suffrage of fame. 1876 Bancroft Hist. U.S. III. xx. 305 Unintimidated by the prophecy.

Uninto·xicating, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1773 Observ. State Poor 57 This unintoxicating beverage. 1844 H. G. Bohn Odes of Horace i. xxiii. 17 Unscathed thou quaff..The unintoxicating bowl Of Lesbian. 1876 Tyndall Fragm. Sci. (1879) II. xii. 256 Unintoxicating grape-juice is converted into intoxicating wine.

Unintricated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) a 1662 Hammond Serm. Wks. (1683 IV. 502 The fair open Campania of even, clear, unintricated designs. Unintriguing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1755 Monitor No. 9. I. 72 The plain, disinterested, unintriguing man. 1771 H. Walpole Vertue's Anecd. Paint. I. 15 In unthinking, a modest unintriguing man.

Unintrodu·ced, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1743 Young Nt. Th. v. 89 Think not un-introduc'd I force d my way. 1813 Examiner 19 Apr. 250/1 The romping, unguishly, unintroduced girl of seventeen. 1897 Mary Kingsley W. Africa 6 When I have arrived, in a steamer or canoe, unexpected, unintroduced, or turned up equally unheralded out of the bush.

Unintro·itive, a. (Un-1 7.) 1819 Coleridge in Lit. Rem. (1836) II. 239 And then again, still unintroitive, [Banquo] addresses the witches. Unintromitted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1563 Reg. Privy Council Scot. I. 246 To..keip the sanym [corn]..upon the ground of the saidis lands, unintromittit with be ather of the saidis parteis. Unintruding, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla III. 300 She is there almost every night; only being untruding, she is unnoticed. Unintuitive, a. (Un-1 7.) 1842 Sir W. Hamilton Diss. in Reid's Wks. 767 The uninituitive judgments.

Uninu·clear (yūni-), a. [Uni- 1.] Having, or characterized by, one nucleus.

1882 Vines tr. Sachs' Bot. 946 Treub..has observed the division of the nucleus..and finds that it takes place in the manner described. a 1890 Allbutt's Syst. Med. I. 72 In the boundary zone away from the cocci the uninuclear form [of leucocyte] predominated.

So Uninu·cleate, Uninu·cleated adjs.

1885 E. Ray Lankester in Encycl. Brit. XIX. 262/1 Young uninucleate individual which has emerged from the cyst within the Tadpole, and will now multiply its nuclei. 1898 Allbutt's Syst. Med. V. 636 There are present in the blood numerous large uninucleated cells.

Uninu·red, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

a 1708 J. Philips Fall of Chloe's Jordan 100 Protected mice The race exiguous, uninured to wet, Their mansions quit. a 1800 Cowper Odyss. (ed. 2) xxi. 182 Fatiguing, first, his hands Too delicate and uninured to toil. 1868 Alford Quebec Chapel Serm. III. 128 Uninured to the selfishness of this wicked world. 1880 Swinburne Stud. Shelley. 18 An incongruity..imperceptible to eyes uninured to the use of their spectacles.

Uninvadable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) a 1721 Ken Hymns Evang. Poet. Wks. 1721 I. 32 Spreading a glorious Evangelick Light, And uninvadable by ghostly Night. a 1806 Eliz. Carter in Mem. (1808) I. 36 My heart, which I thought so secure and so uninvadable.

Uninva·ded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1571–2 Reg. Privy Council Scot. II. 125 To be unhurt, unharmit, unmolestit invaditand in ony wayis persewit.] 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. II. § 7 They believed there was no part of their Civil Government uninvaded by them. 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) III. 165, I expect to be uninvaded in my retirements. 1769 Sir J. Reynolds Disc. ii. (1778) 36 Of this I shall speak with such latitude, as may leave the province of the professor uninvaded. 1830 Tennyson Kraken 3 His ancient, dreamless, uninvaded sleep The Kraken sleepeth. 1885 G. Crawfurd Woman's Reputation I, Our old England indeed, uninvaded by modern ideas.

Uninvaliated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1813 Monthly Mag. XXXV. 217 The fact remains uninvalidated. Uninveigled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1687 tr. Sallust (1692) 38 Nor did he become uninveigled by the Wine-very Tricks and Robbers.

Uninve·nted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1611 Beaum & Fl. King & No King iv. ad fin., If that happen Then I..shall pull a heap Of strange yet uninvented sin upon me. 1667 Milton P. L. vi. 470 Not uninvented that, which thou aright Believest so main to our success. 1680 Otway Orphan v, Rack me..with all your choicest torments,..and pains yet uninvented. 1754 [see Unimagined]. 1875 Jevons Money xxi. 283 It has grown spontaneously, uninvented, unauthorized by the legislature.

Uninventful, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1748 Hume Hum. Nat. III. iv. xviii. § 13 The harsh outline and..uninventful blankness of the design.

Uninve·ntive, a. (Un-1 7.)

1776 Mickle tr. Camoens' Lusiad Dissert. 164/1 A most servile uninventive imitation. 1800 Cowper Let. 28 Sept. 1789 Blair Lect. I. 349 Nature..appears, to his uninventive genius, exhausted by those who have gone before him. 1816 Q. Rev. XV. 71 One is of a dry and uninventive faculty, 1855 Milman Lat. Chr. xiv. VI. 44 The inert and uninventive disciple of the Western philosophy.

Hence Uninve·ntively (Webster, 1847), -ness.

1863 Sat. Rev. 14 March 335/2 The very grotesqueness and uninventiveness..which distinguished the illuminations of Tuesday.

Uninve·rted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1745 Young Nt. Th. viii. 1161 He follows nature (not like thee), and shews us An uninverted system of a man. 1865 J. Hullah Transition Period of Music 217 There are..no less than six perfect cadences, in the direct or uninverted form.

Uninve·sted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1802–12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) V. 218 A man..uninvested with any coercive power. 1816 Scott Old Mort. xxiii, Supposing the insurgents were to march onward and leave it [sc. a stronghold] uninvested. 1833 J. Burke (title), A Genealogical and Heraldic History of The Commoners..uninvested with Heritable Honours.

Uninve·stigable, a. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b.)

a 1697 Barrow Serm. Wks. 1716 III. 464 We (to whom God's judgments are inscrutable, and his ways uninvestigable). 1691 Ray Creation i. (1692) 2 The Number of them being uninvestigable by us. 1768–74 Tucker Lit. Nat. (1834) I. 582 Brought in the course of some time dependent upon one another, to us accidental and uninvestigable. 1858 H. Bushnell Serm. New Life 31 The manner of the fact is uninvestigable and mysterious. 1866 — Vicar. Sacr. iii. iv. 279 God is..., in some sense uninvestigable by us, both finite and subject.

Uninve·stigated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1816 Scott Bl. Dwarf iv, I am unwilling to leave a matter uninvestigated which [etc.]. 1862 R. Miller Elem. Chem., Org. (ed. 2) iii. § 4. 244 It yields a liquid..the nature of which, however, is at present uninvestigated. Uninve·stigating, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1802 Noble Wanderers I. 246 The secret of his heart was too visible to escape the uninvestigating eye.

Univi·dious, a. (Un-1 7.) 1822 Lamb Elia Letters of a Decay'd Beggars, Theirs were the only rates unividious in the levy. 1865 F. Oakeley Hist. Notes 3 Unpretending, unividious, and sufficient for the purpose. Univi·diously, adv. (Un-1 12.) 1698 Cudworth Intell. Syst. I. iii. 117 Intellectual Love..having an Infinite overflowing Fulness and Fecundity, dispenses it self Unividiously.

Univi·te, v. [Un-1 3 or Un-1 14.] trans. To cancel or omit the invitation of (a person).

1665 Pepys Diary 26 Nov., So I made them univite their guests. 1873 Mrs. Whitney Other Girls xviii, Without letting him answer, she turned..and sprang up the rugged stairway... But she had not univited him, after all.

Univi·ted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1632 Massinger Emperor East iv. v, Thou univited guest..! I charge thee, leave me! 1665 Boyle Occas. Reff. iv. xvii. 112 The great Advantage..of freing themselves from univited Companions. 1702 Vanbrugh False Friend iii, ii, That thought comes univited. Then, like an univited guest, let it be treated: Begone intruder. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla IV. 183 [There] he had spent the night, though univited by its agitated owner. 1840 Hood Up Rhine 241 Univited and unannounced, an unceremonious visitor stepped boldly into the room. 1882 Mayne Reid in N. York Tribune 21 June, All univited people would be looked upon as intruders.

Hence Univi·tedly adv.

1669 Earl Orrery Parthen. III. v. 12 Univitedly I came to participate in their Glory.

Univi·ting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1686 Plot Staffordsh. 300 That a man should thus long after such uninviting things. 1690 Boyle Chr. Virtuoso 1. 20 That such Unlikely Men should so Successfully preach so Uninviting a Doctrine. 1777 Robertson Hist. Amer. vi. (1778) II. 151 He found every where the same uninviting country. 1821 Lamb Elia 1. Old Benchers I. T., His look was uninviting. 1894 Miss. Dyan Man's Keeping (1899) 60 The outside looked formidable and uninviting.

Comb. 1880 Beale Slight Alim. 172 Half a dozen unripe and very uninviting-looking apples.

Uninvoked, ppl. a. (Un- 8.) 1718 Rowe tr. Lucan 1. 125 Let Phœbus dwell Still invoked in Cyrrha's mystick cell. 1809–14 Wordsw. Excurs. III. 753 The powers of song I left not uninvoked. 1849 Grote Greece II. xlvii. VI. 223 That the god would help them, invoked or uninvoked.

Uninvolved, ppl. a. (Un- 8.) 1799 T. Knox Lett. Yng. Nobleman. xxvii, 50 long as you preserve your own finances uninvolved. 1853 Ruskin Stones Ven. II. 207 Loveliness of simple design and grace of uninvolved proportion.

‖ Unio (yū·nio). Zool. Pl. unios (‖ uniones). [L. ūnio a single large pearl (Pliny). Cf. UNION *sb.*²] A genus of freshwater bivalves typical of the family Unionidæ; a mussel belonging to this or a related genus, esp. one yielding pearls; a river-mussel, pearl-mussel.

1824 Encycl. Brit. Suppl. V. 581/2 The second [family], Unioda [sic], will embrace Unio,..Anodonta, and Iridina. 1834 Griffith tr. Cuvier XII. 387 Pearls..are more especially produced by the thick bivalve shells, such as the unitoner. Ibid. 401 There is nothing to induce us to mention the Unio here, except [etc.]. 1851 S. P. Woodward Mollusca 41 Some of the unios thicken their umbones enormously. 1899 Nature 15 June 151/2 The washing out of loose pearls from the unios.

b. attrib. and Comb., as Unio-fisher, mollusc, -shaped; Unio-beds (see quot. 1888).

1861 P. P. Carpenter in Rep. Smithsonian Instit. 1860, 259 Unio-shaped shells. Ibid. 263 The musk-rats..being nature's great Unio-fishers. 1882 Proc. Boston. Nat. Club IX. 506 Birds, picking up the large Unio molluscs in rivers. 1888 Cassell's Encycl. Dict., Unio-beds,..certain beds in the Purbeck, characterized by the occurrence of species of Unio. 1897 Quart. Jrnl. Geol. Soc. Index 400/2 Unio-bed on Notowenga River (Canada).

Unio-ular, a. [See UNI- and OCULAR a., and cf. med.L. ūniocularis.] a. fig. Characterized by the use of one eye. b. Of or pertaining to, affecting, one eye. Cf. MONOCULAR a.

a. 1830 Edin. Rev. LI. 531 The results of this unilateral, uni-ocular mode of proceeding. b. 1890 Lancet 28 June 1416/1 In two [cases] there was occasional lateral nystagmus; one uniocular. a 1901 F. W. H. Myers Human Personality (1903) I. 479 Cases, where ciliary spasm..led to uniocular diplopia.

U·nioid, a. Zool. [f. Uni-o + -oid. Cf. Union-oid a.] Resembling or shaped like (that of) a unio.

1861 P. P. Carpenter in Rep. Smithsonian Instit. 1860, 268 Shells, with two Unioid teeth in each valve.

Union (yū·nion), *sb.*¹ Also 5–6 vnyon, 5–7 vnion. [a. F. union (12–13th c.), = Sp. union, Pg. união, It. unione], ad. L. ūnēōn-em, ūnio the number one, unity, uniting, etc., f. ūnus one.]

I. 1. The action of joining or uniting one thing to another or others, or two or more things together, so as to form one whole or complete body; the state or condition of being so joined or united; combination, conjunction: a. In non-physical sense or of abstract things.

Hypostatic union: see Hypostatic a. 1.

1432–50 tr. Higden (Rolls) V. 9 He ordeynede that water schoule be mixte with wyne in the chalice, to betoken the union of the churche un to Cristo. c 1450 Myrr. Our Ladye 208 Consequently are these wedlockes sensed into holye trees, wherof the route ys suche vnyon of tow harles. Ibid. 229 by whiche knyttynge..the godhed was vnyed vnto the manhed, and the very manhed vnto the godhed... And in this moste acceptable vnyon [etc.]. 1548 Stanbridge England 41 The vnyon and coniunctyon of the body and soule togyddur. 1560 tr. Fisher's Godly Treat. Prayer F 5 b, The very true and sincere delectation, whiche groweth by a certayne vnion and perfect agreement..of our soules with almyghtie God. 1627 Sir J. Finch in Parl. Hist. (1807) II. 224/2 This union of hearts, sir, is a greatness beyond that of the kingdom to which you are heir. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. II. xviii. 92 The strength of an Army [consisteth] in the union of their strength under one Command. 1667 Milton P. L. IX. 966 Adam, from whose dearе side I lonst me sprung, And gladly of our Union heare thee speak, One Heart, one Soul in both. 1798 Chambers Cycl. s. v. Hypostatical, The Union of two human Nature with the Divine. 1800 Med. Jrnl. IV. 334 By the union and investigation of several data, the truth may at last be discovered. 1841 Miall in Nonconf. I. 1 The union of church and state. 1873 Freeman Comp. Politics ii. 49 The union of Roman and Teutonic elements.

b. Of persons or countries with reference to joint action or policy. Cf. 3.

1608 W. Wilkes Sec. Memento for Magistrates 59 Compleat union is of better consequence to the furtherance of religion. 1687 A. Lovell tr. Thevenot's Trav. I. 78 The Janizaries swore the same Union with the Spahis. 1711 Dk. Marlborough in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 144, I have no other views then what tend to the firmest union with his Lordship. 1827 Sheridan Rev. Islam IX. xviii, The cold sneers of calumny were vain, The union of the free with discord's brand to stain.

c. In physical sense; spec. in Surg., the growing together of the parts of a broken bone, lips of a wound, etc., in the process of healing.

1832 H. Cooke[?] Exp. Instrum. Chirurg. 13 To hold the lips of the wound together till the union be perfected. 1704 J. Harris Lex. Techn. I. s. v. The Union of Atoms, or Particles which touch in a Plain: as in the Chrystallization of Salts, and other like Bodies. 1767 Gooch Treat. Wounds I. 132 The time generally allowed for the union of wounds. 1815 J. Smith Panorama Sci. & Art II. 341 This affinity or union, is always .. of a chemical nature, for it is attended with the grand characteristic of chemical union, viz. it destroys the identity of the ingredients. 1842 Loudon Suburban Hort. 287 To fit the scion to the stock in such a manner that the union of their inner barks..may be as close as possible. 1860 Tyndall Glac. I. vii. 54 The moraine..formed by the union of the lateral moraines.

d. With a and pl. An instance or occasion of this. (Rarely in physical sense, see (b).)

In some instances not clearly separable from 7.

1570 Levins Manip. 166 An Vnion, unio. c 1600 Shaks. Sonn. viii. 6 If the true concord of well tuned sounds, By vnions married, do offend thine eare. a 1623 Binning Serm. Wks. (1735) 8/2 There was an Union made already in his first Moulding. 1679 Smith Serm. 167 The same [object] luckily happing upon another [mind] of a Disposition ..framed for it, is..greedily clasped into the nearest Unions and Embraces. 1981 Cowper Charity 122 While providence enjoins to ev'ry soul An union with the vast terraqueous whole. 1827 J. Bradbury Trav. Amer. 331 A colony having an union of interest, and of course an union of action. 1871 Jowett Plato III. 363 There is a union of qualities in him such as I have never seen in any other.

(b) 1826 S. Cooper First Lines Surg. (ed. 5) 281 In some instances [of compound fracture], only a partial union follows. 1842 Loudon Suburban Hort. 281 Instances frequently occur of the bark of the union being placed out of contact with that of the stock, and a union nevertheless ensues.

e. Without article, in prec. sense.

† At union, in union, united.

c 1483 H. Baradoun in Pol., Rel. & L. Poems 289 Hertis ease & I be war at union. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 284 b, In that all sweteness and vnyon of loue and grace is signifyed. 1625 Bacon Ess., Friendship (Arb.) 173 For in Bodies, Union strengtheth and cherisheth any Naturall action; and on the other side it is of Minde. 1691 Norris Grat. & Soc. v. § 7. 79 This submission of the wills of all those men to the will of one man, or one Counsell, is then made, when each one of them obligeth himself by contract to every one of the rest..this is called union. 1675 R. Burthogge Cause Dei 39 The Soul in state of Union to the Body. 1738 R. Grey Meth. Hebrew p. v, The Line of Union called Maccaph. 1789 Belsham Ess. II. xii. 226 Persecution, said Mr. Fox, is a bond of union. 1820 tr. Lagrange's Chem. II. 114 Nitric solutions of mercury and silver..are themselves decomposed at the moment of union. 1847 Mrs. A. Kerr tr. Ranke's Hist. Servia 117 The league of independent chiefs ..was on the closest terms of union with both theire parties. 1849 Lever Con Cregan xi, While a sharp wound in my neck..had just begun that process called 'union'. a 1882 A. Barratt Phys. Metemphic (1883) p. xxv, The feeling of real invisible union among the spirits of all the universe.

f. Sexual conjunction; copulation, rare.

1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Univocal, Animals..produced by Univocal Generation, that is, by the sole Union or Copulation of a Male and Female of the same Species. 1799 Med. Jrnl. II. 391 A female rabbit..and..a buck..were allowed to caress each other whilst absolute union was prevented.

2. The uniting together of the different sections, parties, or individuals of a nation, people, or other body so as to produce general agreement or concord; the condition resulting from this; absence of dissension, discord, or difference in opinion or doctrine; unity.

c 1460 Brut II. 508 This Frederike..was long Emperoure, & differred for to be crowned at Rome because of pe Scisme; but after pat vnion was had, he was crowned with Emperial Diademe. c 1470 G. Ashby Dicta Philos. 703 That lyvng that maketh his Region To be obedient to his iuste lawe, That reigne peasibly in an vnyon. 1525 L.D. Berners Froiss. II. cccxxiii. 501 b/1 The vnyon of the churche I desyre, and I haue taken my payne therin. 1539 Cranmer in Merriman Life & Lett. (1902) II. 230 Ye shal..bring a very vnion ..bitwene all them there & conduce them to suche a knott as there shalbe perfite vnion amonges them without strife. 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. I. 30 The Union, Peace and Plenty of the Kingdom. 1683 Temple Mem. Wks. 1720 I. 480, I, that never had any thing so much at heart as the Union of my Country. 1848 Scott P. M. Perth xiii, Have I not thus to pay to God, who has restored union to my family? 1841 Borrow Zincali I. iii. 11. 271 However some of the Gitanos may complain that there is no longer union to be found amongst them, there is [etc.]. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. I. 160 They were so far from being disposed to purchase union by concession that they objected to concession chiefly because it tended to produce union.

b. Painting. Agreement or harmony in respect of colour, design, etc.

1704 J. Harris Lex. Techn. I, Union (a Term among Painters) is the mutual Agreement Vnioness and Sympathy of the Colours in a Piece of Painting. 1728 Chambers Cycl., Harmony,..in the Ordonnance,..signifies the Union, or Connection between the Figures, with Respect to the Subject of the Piece. 1770 Sir J. Reynolds Disc. iii. (1778) 83 A figure..though deviating from beauty, may still have a certain union of the various parts.

c. Horsem. (See quots.)

1753 Chambers's Cycl. Suppl. s.v. Unite, A horse is said to unite, or walk in union, when, in galloping, the hind quarters follow and keep time with the fore. 1884 R. L. Anderson Mod. Horsem. 120 That state of collection that we have styled the union. That is, the forces of the two extremities must be united as closely as is consistent with the maintenance of the pace.

3. a. Scots Law. The uniting into one tenantry of lands or tenements not lying contiguous. Charter or clause of union (see quot. 1765–8).

1593 Sc. Acts, Jas. V (1814) II. 246 Anent landis..quhilk ..ar anexit or vnit in ane haldinge or baronye pat nochtwithstanding he maist anexation or vnion [etc.]. 1548 Acc. Ld. High Treas. Scot. VIII. 117 The forfaltouris and unionis maid in the last parliament. 1578 Reg. Privy Council Scot. II. 693 Erectionis of baronis, unionis or burghis in barony. 1693 Stair Instit. II. ii. § 44. 221 The whole Lands lying contiguous are naturally Unite, and needs no Union. 1751 McDowall Inst. Lawe Scot. II. iii. I. 567 The union or erection into a barony of lands, lying in different shires. 1765–8 Erskine Inst. Law Scotl. II. iii. § 45 By a charter of union, i.e. by a charter in which the sovereign dispenses with the necessity of taking a separate seisin upon every discontiguous tenement. 1838 W. Bell Dict. Law Scot. 1020 The object of a charter, or clause of union.

b. Eccl. The uniting or combination of two or more churches or benefices into one. (Cf. Unition a.)

1529 Act 21 Hen. VIII, c. 13 § 12 If any person..procure ..any Licence or Licences, Union, Toleration or Dispensation, to receive and take any mo Benefices with Cure than is above limited. 1537 tr. Latimer's Serm. bef. Convoc. D j b, Some brought forth canonizations, some expectations, some pluralities and unions. 1545 Act 37 Hen. VIII, c. 21 A Unyon or Consolidacion of two Churches in one, or of a Churche and Chappell in one. 1607 Cowel Interpr., Union, ..is a combining or consolidated of two Churches in one, which is done by the consent of the Bishop, the Patron, and the Incumbent. 1695 Act 17 Chas. II, c. 3 § 3 The said Union shall take effect for every such Church or Chappell. 1713 E. Gibson Eccl. Law 920 By the union, the two churches are become so much one, that a second benefice may be taken. 1796 Peggie Anonym. (1809) 444 Consolidation, or the union of divers places in the person of one man, is a great obstacle to justice and equity. 1860 Act 23–24 Vict. c. 142 § 2 An Union of Two or more contiguous Benefices with one another.

4. The action of uniting, or the state or fact of being united, into one political body; esp. formation or incorporation into a single state, kingdom, or political entity, usually with one central legislature.

a. In general use.

1547 J. Harrison (title), An Exhortacion to the Scottes to Conforme themselfes to the ..godly Union betweene the two Realmes of England & Scotland. 1603 Bacon Briefe Discourse B ij, And..leaving violent Vnions [of countries]: wee will consider onelye naturall Vnions. 1672 Petty Pol. Anat. (1691) 32 Why was Union ever a Union between England and Wales? 1729 T. Innes Crit. Ess. (1879) 67 That the Picts continued in possession..till their union in one kingdom with the Scots. 1754 Franklin Plan of Union Wks. 1889 II. 335 The said commissioners, or an unanimous resolution: That a union of the colonies is absolutely necessary for their preservation. 1848 W. H. Kelly tr. L. Blanc's Hist. Ten Y. I. 268 To the Belgians France could offer, as the price of a fraternal union, the substitution [etc.]. 1885 Motley Dutch Rep. v. i. (1906) III. 19 Early in January, 1577, the celebrated 'Union of Brussels' was formed. 1888 Encycl. Brit. XXIII. 741/2 This success of the struggle for union gave the United States a date for the political existence of the nation.

b. Eng. Irist. The uniting of the English and Scottish crowns in 1603, or parliaments in 1707; or of the parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland, dating from 1 Jan. 1801. (With the and capital.)

(a) 1603 Bacon (title), A Briefe Discovrse, touching the Happie Vnion of..England, and Scotland. 1604 Proclam. Yacl. 1, 20 Oct., The blessed Union, or rather reuniting of.. England and Scotland, vnder one Imperial crowne. a 1700 Evelyn Diary 25 Feb. 1671, Came to visit me one of the Lords Commissioners of Scotland for the Union. 1707 Hearne Collect. (O. H. S.) II. 10 This was the beginning of the Union of England with Scotland. 1712 Z. Haig in J. Russell Haigs (1881) xii. 344 Prosperity to Scotland, and No Union! 1827 Hallam Const. Hist. xviii. II. 696 The union closes the story of the Scots countries. 1834 Burton Scot Abr. I. 121 Scotland did not fully recover from the ruin of that conflict until the Union made her secure.

(b) 1798 The Union (ed. 4) 15 As..the Prote-tants become the majority of our people upon the establishment of the Union. 1829 Scott Ivan. Gen. Pref., Miss Edgeworth..may be truly said to have done more towards completing the Union, than [etc.]. 1880 Encycl. Brit. XIII. 271 Carried in great measure by the same corrupt means as the constitution of '82 had been worked by, the Union earned no gratitude.

5. The joining of one person to another in matrimony; an instance or occasion of this, a marriage.

1595 Shaks. John II. iii. 446 This union shall do more than battrie can To our fast-closed gates. 1678 E. Cooke (title), Love's Triumph,—or, The Royal Union: A Tragedy. 1791 Johnson Rambler No. 167 ¶ 2 The happy event of a union in which caprice and selfishness had so little part. 1778 Miss Burney Evelina lxxix, He was himself of opinion, the sooner the union took place, the better. 1826 Miss Mitford in L'Estrange Life (1870) II. xi. 239 The immediate union of the Princess Constance..to Don Pedro. 1841 Thackeray Gt. Haggarty Diam. viii, Her grandfather had been at the first very much averse to our union. 1879 Farrar St. Paul II. 69 He pronounced against the voluntary dissolution of unions already existing between Pagans and Christians.

II. † 6. The quality or being one in number; oneness; the fact or condition of consisting of, involving, or being restricted to, one person or thing only. Obs.

In quots. 1548 and a 1564 with reference to the partaking of the Communion by the priest only.

a 1513 Fabyan Chron. vii. ccxliv. 286 An other eronyous opynyon concernynge the vnyon of the Trynytie. 1548 Geste Pr. Masse K viii, Thee priestes masse, whyche is rather an vnion then a communion. a 1564 Bucon Display. Popish Mass Wks. II. 50 Ye call it a Communion, which is a partaking of many together; but ye might right well call it an vnion. For no man eateth and drinketh of the bread and wyne but you alone. 1564 Harding Answ. Jewel 82 For every multitude..continueth one. And that wherof it is one, and is kepte in vnion or oneness-, it is necessary that it be one, elles [etc.]. 1652 Berlowes Theoph. viii. xxvii, Thus Holy, Holy, Holy's nam'd, to show A Union we in Union know.

† b. = Monad a. 1 b. Obs.—¹

1565 B. Cooke tr. Palingenius' Zodiac VII. U iii, As from the Union [L. monas] fyrst eche other number springs.

† c. A unique example. Obs.—¹

1657 J. WATTS Vind. Ch. Eng. 48 But an Union, one such text, I mean, in all the Bible.

7. That which is united or combined into one; a body formed by uniting one thing to another or others, or several things together; a combination or compound.

1660 JER. TAYLOR Worthy Communn. Introd. 10 My purpose is..to gather together into an union al these several portions of truth. 1696 STANHOPE Chr. Patterns (1710) 2 What is a man the better for entring into the sublime mysteries of the Trinity, and being able to dispute nicely upon that adorable Union? 1807 J. E. SMITH Phys. Bot. 212 Carbonic acid gas, (which was formerly called fixed air, and is an union of oxygen and carbon).

b. A number, group, or body of persons or states joined or associated together for some common purpose or action; an association, league, or society; in later use esp. = TRADE-UNION.

(a) 1660 JER. TAYLOR Doctor III. iv. rule x. § 11 He is not to be reckoned as a Brother, or a relative in our religious friendship and union. 1736 BUTLER Anal. I. iii. 83 To separate from their adversaries, and to form an union among themselves. 1762 FALCONER Shipwr. II. 409 [The] sagacious state-man..darts around his penetrating eyes, Where Dangers grow and hostile unions rise. 1832 GEN. P. THOMPSON Exerc. (1842) II. 236 Once more to the Political Unions,..don't endure it [sc. slavery]; but hold together like burrs. 1903 Science (N.Y.) 5 June 892/2 The International Union of the American Republics, popularly known as the Pan-American Union.

(b) 1833 2nd Rep. Factory Com. D 2. 39 Our spinners..said they had no fault to find...but the union obliged them to turn out. 1848 MRS. GASKELL Barton vii, Block-printers is going to strike; they'n gotten a bang-up Union, as won't let 'em be put upon. 1878 JEVONS Prim. Pol. Econ. 65 It is certain that the increase of wages is not confined to those trades which have unions.

c. spec. A number of states or provinces united together or incorporated into one legislative confederacy; a confederation or federation; esp. the United States of America.

Sometimes in American use restricted to the Northern States which adhered to the Union in contradistinction to the eleven Southern States whose attempted secession from it led to the Civil War of 1861–5.

1775 JEFFERSON Let. Writ. 1892 I. 401 So as to bring the Canadians into our Union. 1792 BELKNAP Hist. New Hampsh. III. 257 An important branch of the American union. 1817 J. BRADBURY Trav. Amer. 277 The separation of the States west of the Alleghanies from the Union. 1865 LOWELL Wks. (1890) V. 258 The South will come back to the Union. 1909 in R. H. Brand Union of S. Africa 142 The words 'the Union' shall be taken to mean the Union of South Africa as constituted under this Act.

d. A number of parishes united or incorporated together under one Board of Guardians for the administration of the poor laws; an area or subdistrict so formed and administered.

1834 Act 4–5 Will. IV, c. 76 § 26 Such Parishes shall thereupon be deemed a Union for such Purpose. 1837 MCCULLOCH Acc. Brit. Empire II. 639 The operation of Gilbert's Act in the unions formed under it. 1862 GLADSTONE Sp. in Times 29 Dec. 9/5 The bulk of the cotton manufacture was carried on in a region comprised within 27 Unions.

e. A textile fabric composed of two or more different materials woven together, esp. one containing cotton and linen, or cotton and some other material as wool, silk, or jute. Freq. pl., kinds or varieties of goods or fabrics so woven, union-cloths.

1844 G. DODD Textile Manuf. v. 167 A mixture of flax and cotton called 'union'. 1852 MAYHEW Lond. Labour I. 378/1 Then we had an Irish linen, an imitation, you know, a kind of 'Union', which we call double twist. 1893 Photogr. Ann. 284 Two or three yards of 'union', or white window blind material.

f. 1851 MAYHEW Lond. Labour I. 376/2 Linen of good quality used to be extensively hawked, but from 1840 to 1845, or later, the hawkers got to deal in an inferior quality, 'unions' (a mixture of linen and cotton) glazed and stiffened. 1879 Cassell's Techn. Educ. IV. 387/2 A real Scotch carpet is all wool, but fabrics similar in appearance are made with cotton warps and worsted wefts, in which case they are called 'unions'. 1890 Textile News 20 Oct. (List Manufacturers), Manufacturer of black and coloured unions.

8. Brewing. One of a series of casks or vats used in the Union or Burton system of cleansing beer.

1876 Encycl. Brit. IV. 275/2 When beer is cleansed..it is necessary to keep the casks or Unions full to the bung. 1897 W. J. SYKES Brewing 248 When a set of unions are cleansed, the swan-necks are first removed.

III. 9. That which unites or connects one thing to another; techn., a device for connecting the ends of pipes or tubes, or for attaching a pipe to some other part; a coupling, pipe-coupling.

1850 [see union joint in sense 13]. 1863 Appleby's Handbk. Mach. & Iron Work 59 Wrought-iron Wrenches for Hose Unions. 1882 Riddel & Co.'s Catal., Steam and Valve Cocks. Brass Unions. 1889 Daily News 11 Feb. 4/7 Makers of cocks, taps, unions, and bar fittings are fairly busy.

IV. 10. In elliptical senses. a. = UNION-FLAG or UNION-JACK, either as (a) a separate flag (also † Great union), or (b) as inserted in the upper inner canton of the ensign; freq. in phr. union down or downwards, indicating an inverted position, with the union as if in the lower inner canton, when the flag is hoisted or flown on a vessel as a signal of distress or mourning.

(a) 1769 FALCONER Dict. Marine (1780) s.v. Jack, In the British Navy the jack is..a small union flag..; but in merchant-ships this union is bordered with a red field. 1812 Ann. Reg., Gen. Hist. 120 The proud old British Union floated triumphantly over it. 1840 C. STUART Exped. Centr. Australia I. 20 Some young ladies of the colony..had worked a silken union to present to Mr. Eyre. 1865 N. & Q. 28 Feb. 156/1 His majesty is depicted stepping from a barge with the Union hoisted at the stern.

(b) 1804 Naval Chron. XII. 144 The colours..were hoisted Union downwards. 1830 CAMPBELL Dict. Mil. Sci. s.v. Colours, The Red Cross of St. George in a White Field, with the Union in the Upper Canton. 1888 Harper's Mag. Jan. 321/2 The American flag..was by mistake hoisted 'union down'.

b. Short for Union House, workhouse (sense 12).

1842 WEALE Bull. & Songs for People 16 We never built the unions Wherein they starve the poor. 1874 T. HARDY Far fr. Mad. Crowd. xxx, I wonder sometimes if I am doomed to die in the Union.

c. (With capital.) The name at various Universities (orig. at Oxford and Cambridge) of a general club and debating society usually open to all members, or all undergraduates, of the University; also, the buildings or offices of such.

Originally short for Union Society or Union Club. Also used attrib., as Union audience, rhetoric, speech.

1835 Rep. Committee Oxford Union Soc. 2 The Treasurer of the Union. 1853 THACKERAY Eng. Hum., Congreve (1858) 18 Before the passing of the Reform Bill, there existed at Cambridge a certain debating club, called the 'Union'. 1883 Oxford Univ. Mag. 24 Jan. 7/1 No more eloquent speech has been heard in the Union during the last three years. 1891 Cal. St. Andrewes Univ. 315 The Union for instituting a Students' Union in the University of St. Andrews. Ibid. 316 The general management of the Union.

V. Attrib. and comb., passing into adj.

11. a. In senses 4 b and 7 c, with the sense 'of or belonging to, promoting or advocating, adhering to or supporting (a particular) legislative union', as (a) Union arms, colours, -maker, parliament; esp. (b) in American use (see 7 c note), as Union banner, league, man, planter, etc.

(a) 1707 Lond. Gaz. No. 4374/1 On Two opposite Corners were the Union Arms. Ibid. The Norton Galley hoisted the Union Colours. 1771 SMOLLETT Humph. Cl. To Phillips 8 Aug., During a sitting of the union parliament [at Edinburgh, 1707]. 1811 Gen. Reg. & Orders of Army 13 The first Union Guidon, or Colour of Regiments, which is the Union Colour. 1846 A. AMOS Gt. Oyer of Poison. 4 The union-maker, King James.

(b) 1863 BRIGHT Sp. Amer. 26 Mar. 127 Not Union planters only, but Secession planters began to bring in the produce. 1863 HAWTHORNE Our Old Home (1883) I. 23 The latest is now a gallant general under the Union banner. 1872 DE VERE Americanisms 280 The Union-men..or Federals..fought for the Union against rebellion. Ibid. 289 Loyal Leagues, as well as Union Leagues, were formed all over the country.

b. In general and miscellaneous use, as union-band, canopy, vowel, etc.

1723 E. FENTON Mariamne III. vi, Such as good spirits are supposd to sing O'er saints, while death dissolves the union-band. 1785 [E. GRAVES] Eugenius II. xxxi. 188 A great many variegated roses..called union roses (as they unite the party distinctions of York and Lancaster). 1824 T. FENBY Mulberry Tree iii, The tree, Which love's union-canopy made. 1829 WHITNEY Gaudriel Cream. 78 All the simple vowels come to assume in certain cases the aspect of union-vowels, or insertions between root or stem and ending of inflection or of derivation.

c. In sense 7 b, as Union-jobber, -smashing vbl. sb.

1841 Penny Cycl. XXI. 411/2 The many dishonest abstractions of their [Pension Societies'] funds, of which the mere Union jobbers are so often guilty. 1897 Westm. Gaz. 30 Aug. 1/3 A general policy of union-smashing.

d. In sense 7 e, as union cloth, cord (braid), damask, diaper, goods, etc.; also (of garments), 'made of union cloth or fabric'.

1862 Catal. Internat. Exhib., Brit. II. No. 3995, Woollen and union cloths. 1867 Ure's Dict. Arts (ed. 6) III. 971 Union goods, cloths of a mixed character, as of flax and jute, or cotton and jute. 1868 Chambers' Encycl. X. 268/1 Many of the names used in the all-wool class are retained in this [sc. fabrics composed of wool and cotton], with the addition of the word 'union', as union merino, union shalloon, union damask, &c. 1888 CAULFEILD & SAWARD Dict. Needlework 7 Union cord, a round white cord, made for stay-laces,..composed of both linen and cotton thread. Ibid., Union Cord Braid, Union Diaper. 1896 Godey's Mag. Feb. 218/2 Union undergarments of silk or wool.

e. In senses 7 d, 10 b, as union boy, man.

1846 (title), The Union and Parish Officer's Pocket Almanac and Guide. 1859 J. H. STEGGALL Hist. Suffolk Man. 1. 29 I was worse than any union boy with his hair polled. 1871 'M. LEGRAND' Cambr. Freshm. 303 He's out o' the Union. ..The Union men break the stones on the roads.

12. Special combs.: union bow Archery, a bow made of two or more pieces united together; a backed or back bow (Cent. Dict. 1891); union-grass, one or other of the grasses belonging to the genus Uniola (ibid.); Union House, the poor-house or workhouse of a Poor Law union (cf. senses 7 d and 10 b, and Union workhouse); union-joint (see quots. and sense 9); union nut, (a) a nut used with a screw to unite one part to another; (b) the Australian timber-tree Bosistoa sapindiformis, or its wood; union pear (see quot.); union-pump (see quot.); union-room Brewing, the room containing the unions or cleansing vats; union-rustic, a British night-moth, Apamea connexa (Encycl. Dict. 1888); union screw (see quot. and union joint); † union suit, ? a set of mirrors; union system Brewing (see quots. and sense 8); Union workhouse, = Union House. See also UNION FLAG, JACK.

1849 ALA SMITH Chr. Tadpole civ, 'Anything new at the *Union House to-day, Mr. Mole?' 1893 Daily News 10 April 5/4 The Prince's inscription in the Dunmow Union House visitors' book. 1889 WEALE Dict. Terms 493 *'Union screws or joints,..the brackets for connecting the elastic bore-pipe of the tender to the feed-pipe of the [locomotive] engine. 1897 J. HOGG Microsc. I. ii. 107 A finer [adjustment] is secured by a well made union-joint. 1898 Civil Eng. & Arch. Jrnl. L. 123/1 It..is attached to a ferrule by a Union nut and screw, and can be as easily removed. 1889 MAIDEN Useful Pl. 387 Bosistoa sapindiformis, *Union Nut. 1731 MILLER Gard. Dict. 6 U, The *Union Pear; otherwise call'd Dr. Uvedale's St. Germain. This is a very large long Pear, of a deep green Colour. 1860 J. HOGG Jrnal Micr. 217. 1875 KNIGHT Dict. Mech. 2681/2 Union-pump,..one in which the engine and pump are united in the same frame. 1886 † BICKERDYKE Cur. Ale & Beer 339 The *union-room... [at Allsopp's] contains 1,424 unions, which can cleanse 230,688 gallons at one time. 1850 WEALE Dict. Terms 494 The feed-pipe is likewise attached to the lower end of the pump by a large *union screw. 1772 Lond. Gaz. No. 5214/3 All sorts of Coach Glasses, Chimney Glasses, Sconces, Dressing Glasses, *Union Suits, Dressing Boxes, swinging Glasses [etc.]. 1876 Encycl. Brit. IV. 275/2 There are three modes of cleansing—..2d, by running the beer into casks, and then allowing the yeast to work out through the bung holes; and 3d, on what is called the *Union, or Burton system, which is the second plan with some improvements. 1886 † BICKERDYKE Cur. Ale & Beer 333 When the fermentation has almost ceased, the beer is put into smaller vessels ..and the froth either works over the side or is skimmed off or, as in the 'union' system at Burton, works up through pipes. 1891 KINGSLEY Yeast xii, As he went on, talking wildly to himself, he passed the Union Workhouse. 1893 FAWCETT Pol. Econ. iv. iv. 581 The inmates of the union-workhouse are subject to certain restraints.

Hence U·nional a., of or pertaining to union or a union (esp. of countries); U·nioned a., joined in union; U·nioner U.S., an adherent of the Union during the American Civil War.

1889 Scott. Leader 18 Apr. 6/1 If that Unionist has destroyed both the national and unional sentiment in the Irish. 1905 Q. Rev. July 273 The Unional flag had been hauled down. 1787 J. BARLOW Union of Columbus VI. 191 Great Washington arose in view, And Unioned flags his stately steeds pursue. 1880 J. DURKEE Fool's Err. vii. 31 The old 'Unioner's report in regard to the doughty colonel.

U·nion, sb.[2] Now arch. Also 4 vniune. [ad. L. ūnion-em, ūnio UNIO: cf. UNION sb. 7.

So called (acc. to Pliny Nat. Hist. IX. XXXV. § 56) because no two are exactly alike.]

A pearl of large size, good quality, and great value, esp. one which is supposed to occur singly.

Freq. in 17th c., esp. in allusion to or echoes of the story related of Cleopatra: see Pliny loc. cit. § 59. The following early instance is prob. of AF. origin: c 1305 Lond. Cokayne 89 Per is saphir and vniune, Carbuncle and astiune.

1592 Soliman & Pers. II. i, Then they play, and when she hath lost her gold, Erastus pointed to her chaine, and then she said: I, were it Cleopatraes vniion. 1599 HAKLUYT Voy. I. 5 Precious unions and costly pyeces. 1625 HEYWOOD Hierarchy VII. 419 A Pendant Union to adorne her Eare, Rarer no Queene was ever seene to weare. 1694 MOTTEUX Rabelais IV. iv. 19 Between whose Septenary Links.. Rubies, Emeralds, and Unions were alternatively set in. a 1700 EVELYN Diary 21 Feb. 1645, The other Union, that Cleopatra was about to dissolve and drink up.

fig. a 1672 P. STERRY Poath. Wks. (c 1680) II. 227 Pearls are called Unions, because they are ever found alone: a Saint's Pearl is his Union for a contrary Reason, because he is never found alone in his Spiritual Being or Beauty.

b. attrib. with pearl. Also transf.

1656 BLOUNT Glossogr. s.v., Union Pearls..are the best sort of Pearl. [Hence in Phillips, Bailey, etc.] 1889 R. F. BURTON Arab. Nts. (1887) III. 61 This damsel, the mistress of moons, the union pearl.

† U·nion, v. Obs. rare. Also 5 unyon. [f. UNION sb.[1]] trans. To unite.

a 1470 HARDING Chron. cxlii. heading, The kynges tyyle to all his londes, briefely reported, with a mariage to union Scotlande and Englande. 1475 Bk. Noblesse (Roxb.) 23 The countee of Mayne by Mariage was unyoned to the erledom of Angew.

Union flag. [UNION sb.[1] 4 b, 7 c.] a. The national flag or ensign, formerly of Great Britain, in later use (from 1801) of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, formed by combining the crosses of St. George, St. Andrew, and St. Patrick, retaining the blue ground of the banner of St. Andrew. See UNION JACK, and UNION sb.[1] 10 a.

This flag was introduced to symbolize the union of the crowns of England and Scotland and was formed by surmounting the cross saltire of St. Andrew by the cross of St. George; the cross saltire of St. Patrick was added on the union of the parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland, when the whole flag was blazoned by Royal Proclamation (Lond. Gaz. 1 Jan. 1801), as follows: Azure, the Crosses saltires of St. Andrew and St. Patrick Quarterly per Saltire, counterchanged Argent and Gules; the latter fimbriated of the Second, surmounted by the Cross of St. George of the Third, fimbriated as the Saltire.

1634 in Rymer Fœdera (1732) XIX. 549/1 None shall from henceforth presume to carry the Union Flag in the main Top or other part of their Ships, that is Saint George his Cross and Saint Andrews Cross joined together,..but that the same Union Flag be still reserved as an Ornament proper for our own Ships, and Ships in our immediate Service and Pay, and none other. 1681 in English Hist. Rev. Jan. (1911) 50 [An article forbidding] privateers to wear our Union flagg and jack. 1696 Lond. Gaz. No. 3190/3 Leaving the Command of the Fleet with my Lord Berkeley, who..has put up the Union Flag on Board the Britannia. 1724 C. JOHNSON Hist. Pirates 153 One of them struck the Union Flag on the Top of the Castle. 1763 [see UNION 1 10 a]. 1829 MARRYAT F. Mildmay viii, A union flag is displayed at the mizen peak. 1844 Regul. & Ord. Army 48 The Union Flag or Jack being the distinctive flag or mark of an Admiral of the Fleet, when displayed at the main-top-gallant-mast-head. 1855 N. & Q. 11 March 208/2 The incorporation of the red saltier of St. Patrick into the Union Flag.

b. The flag of the federated colonies or provinces of the American Union.

1776 Pennsylv. Evem. Post 28 May 266/2 The Union Flag of the American States waved upon the Capitol.

Unionic (yūnĭ·nĭk), a. [f. UNION sb.[1] + -IC.] Of or pertaining to, characteristic of, a Union or University Union Society; frequenting or debating at the Union.

1855 Howsek. Words 30 June 521, I breakfasted with jovial undergraduates... I heard old talk... of Unionic speakers eloquent. 1865 Pall Mall G. 13 April 10/1 The characteristics of Unionic eloquence. 1884 J. PAYN Lit. Recoll. 54 In Mr. Lewis's classification of his fellow-students, it was that of 'the Unionic Cantab.'

Unionid (yū·nĭonid). Zool. [a. mod. L. Unionid-æ (see def.), f. L. unio UNIO: see -ID 3.] A member of the Unionidæ, a large family of bivalve mollusks typified by the genus Unio of freshwater mussels; a unio.

1861 P. P. CARPENTER in Rep. Smithsonian Instit. 1860, 263 The extreme forms of the Unionids.

Unio·niform, a. Zool. [i. mod.L. Unio UNIO: see -(I)FORM.] Belonging to or resembling the Unionidæ; unionoid.

1868 R. TATE App. to Woodward's Mollusca 71 Anthracosia differs from Unio, to which genus the majority of the Unioniform shells have been referred.

Unionism (yū·nyonĭzm). [f. UNION sb.[1] + -ISM.] The principle or policy of union; combination in union as a system of social organization; advocacy of this. Cf. TRADE(S)-UNIONISM.

1845 MILL in Newcomb's 173 The gravest objections against congregational unionism. 1869 J. SYMONS Trade Unionism 21 To the unionist himself, the results of Unionism are no less hurtful. 1884 Brit. Ann. & Comp. 67 The growth of unionism among farm labourers.

b. U.S. Advocacy of, attachment or adherence to, a legislative union between states.

1854 LOWELL McClellan or Lincoln? Pr. Wks. 1890 V. 157 The somewhat light Unionism of Mr. Pendleton. 1865 — Reconstruct. Ibid. 222 We do not mean to say that there is any very large amount of even latent Unionism in the South. 1883 American VI. 92 The obstinate Unionism of the mountaineer farmers.

c. Loyalty to or advocacy of the principles, views, or programme of the Unionist party of Great Britain and Ireland; the political tenets characteristic of a Unionist.

1886 Sat. Rev. 5 June 763/2 Unionism has to deal with an enemy perfectly unscrupulous. 1889 MRS. BUXTON in O'Brien Life Parnell (1898) I. 220 We talked a little about Home Rule and the future of Ireland—my Unionism getting very shaky.

Unionist (yū·nyonĭst), sb. and a. [f. as prec. + -IST. Cf. F. unioniste.]

A. sb. 1. An adherent of or believer in unionism as a political principle or system of organization; esp. one who advocates or supports the formation or maintenance of some particular legislative union.

Usually with initial capital in particularized sense.

1799 Monthly Rev. XXX. 337 [Duigenan] is particularly severe in his criticisms on Lord Minto, a Brother Unionist. 1851 GALLENGA Italy II Nothing... has been more fatal to the cause of Italian federation than a departure from the views of the Unionists. 1877 MAHAFFY & GILMAN Alexander's Empire xxx. 286 There was a large nationalist party ..violently opposed to the unionists,..constantly asserting the right of every Greek state to legislate for itself. 1890 HATTON By Order of Czar II. 1, [He] was above all things an Imperial Unionist, and would defend to the death the merest scrap of soil over which the flag had ever floated.

b. U.S. A supporter or advocate of the Federal Union of the United States of America; esp. one who during the Civil War of 1861–5 was opposed to Secession.

1830 D. WEBSTER 1st Sp. on Foot's Res. Wks. 1851 III. 259, I am a unionist, and, in this sense, a national republican. 1862 MOTLEY Corr. (1889) II. 94 The anti-slavery men became the Unionists, the slaveholders the Destructionists. 1883 American VII. 149 A Texas 'Unionist' is going to sue the United States for the value of his slaves.

c. British Politics. A member of the political party which advocated or supported maintenance of the parliamentary Union between Great Britain and Ireland; an opponent of Home Rule.

This party was formed in 1886 by the coalition of the Conservatives with those Liberals (Liberal Unionists: see LIBERAL n. 5) who were opposed to Gladstonian Home Rule. While the chief tenet of this party was the maintenance of the Union, its general policy and principles gradually became identified with those of the Conservative party.

1886 LD. R. CHURCHILL Sp. at Manch. 3 March, Do you not think that such a party might be formed which might combine all that is best of the politics of the Tory, the Whig, or the Liberal?..Might we not call it the party of the Union? Members of that party might be known as Unionists. 1886 in Pall Mall G. 6 July 14/1 The opinion ..that..the Liberal Unionists are coming to signal grief... The Unionists have, indeed, pulled the chestnuts out of the fire for Lord Salisbury. 1893 Times 25 Apr. 11/2 A representative company of British Unionists to meet the Unionists of Ireland.

2. A member of a trade-union; a TRADE-UNIONIST.

1834 John Bull 13 July 229/1 The cases on the Crown side were principally Unionists, charged with administering unlawful oaths. 1854 H. MILLER Sch. & Schm. xv. 327 The life of my friend was..pitched on a..lighter tone than that of most of his brother unionists. 1872 H. R. ESCOTT England I. 282 The charges of conspiracy and violence brought against unionists and unionism.

3. One who desires or advocates the union of churches or congregations. Cf. REUNIONIST.

1852 NEWLAND Lect. Tractar. 165 We are Tractarians or Unionists or whatever you may please to call us. 1866 G. TALBOT in E. Purcell Life A. T. de Lisle (1900) I. xv. 408, I think that the sympathy of the Unionists for the Greek Schism is a proof of want of sincerity. 1869 Union Review 321 The Unionist, whether he be a Roman or an Anglican.

B. attrib. passing into adj. 1. Of or pertaining to, advocating or supporting, a legislative union, esp. that between Great Britain and Ireland.

1816 SCOTT Bl. Dwarf xii, The Unionist courtiers, that have bought and sold old Scotland. 1848 DAUNT Recoll. O'Connell I. ii. 16, I spoke in reply to a Unionist effusion of Emerson Tennent's. 1863 DICEY Federal St. II. 187 The Atlantic Monthly..is..staunchly Unionist, and more or less anti-slavery. 1888 A. J. BALFOUR in Times 2 Oct. 10/1 The union of the Unionist party.

b. Of or belonging to the Unionists or Unionist Party. (Cf. A. 1 c.)

1886 Pall Mall G. 3 July 4/1 The utter failure of the Unionist attack..at Stockton. 1890 RIDER HAGGARD Beatrice xviii, He knew the head Unionist whip very well. 1897 H. TENNYSON Tennyson II. 412 The large Unionist meetings throughout Great Britain.

2. Of or belonging to trade-unionism or trade-unionists.

1879 H. SPENCER Data of Ethics xii. § 78. 211 The unionist principle that the better workers must not discredit the worse by exceeding them in efficiency. 1884 Pall Mall G. 1 Oct. 5/1 The success of the unionist movement.

Unioni·stic, a. [f. UNIONIST sb. + -IC.] Of or relating to, characteristic of, unionists; advocating, promoting, or favourable to union or unionism.

1860 WORCESTER (citing Schaff). 1867 LD. ACTON Lett. (1906) 346 The Bishop of Mentz..has written a pamphlet decidedly unionistic. 1882–3 Schaff's Encycl. Relig. Knowl. II. 1168 When unionistic measures of Buccer were being discussed. 1884 American VIII. 6 For this reason the simply unionistic feeling burned in the northwest.

U·nionite. Min. [Named by Silliman from its locality, Unionville, Pennsylvania.] = ZOISITE.

1849 B. SILLIMAN in Amer. Jrnl. Sci. & Arts Ser. II. VIII. 384 Unionite..in general appearance..somewhat resembles scapolite or spodumene. 1892 Ore's Circ. Sci., Geol., etc. 52 Antimonus Felspar, Soda Spodumene, Unionite.

Unionize (yū·nyonəiz), v. [f. UNION sb.[1] + -IZE.]

a. trans. To form into a union. rare[-1].

1841 R. CASTLER Fleet Papers I. No. 23. 182 The breaking up of the old local, domestic, family system of self-government, by unionizing and centralizing society.

b. intr. To bring under trade-union rules or principles; to cause (persons) to become members of a trade-union.

Freq. since c 1900. Hence (in journalistic use) Unionization, Unionized ppl. a., Unionizing vbl. sb.

1890 Columbus (Ohio) Dispatch 18 Nov., It has been decided by the Trades Council to take radical measures.. to unionize all work in the building trades. 1893 Liberty Review July 16 The servants have been unionised under the rules of the..Federation.

Union Jack, [f. UNION sb.[1] + JACK sb.[3]] Originally and properly, a small British union flag flown as the jack of a ship; in later and more general use extended to any size or adaptation of the union flag (even when not used as a jack), and regarded as the national ensign. See UNION FLAG a. and UNION sb.[1] 10 a.

Written either with capitals or small initials.

1674 Lond. Gaz. No. 934/1 To Charge..His Subjects..; That from henceforth they do not presume to wear His Majesties Jack (commonly called, The Union Jack) in any of their Ships or Vessels, without particular Warrant. 1694, 1702 Acts 6 & 8 Will. III. c. 18 § 1 Jan. 52 The Royal Union standard was hoisted on the Tower;..the Union Jack on the Parade. 1822 Admiralty Order in Lond. Gaz. No. 17871. 1893/1 We..authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist the Union Jack at the top-mast-head..; or at the fore-top-mast-head..; as a signal for a pilot. 1883 MRS. BISHOP Golden Chersonese 222 Everything was 'ship-shape',..a union jack over the desk, from which the BLUEY was dressed, and a tiger-skin [etc.].

b. A figure or representation of this. Also attrib.

1848 ALBERT SMITH Chr. Tadpole xxiv. 220 Quite unexpectedly they all produced union-jack pocket-handkerchiefs, at the same moment. 1856 MISS YONGE Daisy Chain I. xix, Harry used to write his name all over his—sec—and draw union-jacks on it. 1886 Pall Mall G. 3 July 4/1 In Sunderland the Liberals have all taken to wear Union Jacks in their buttonholes.

Hence (with reference to the use of the union jack as a national flag) Union Ja·ckery, Union Ja·ckist, Ja·ckite. nonce-words.

1886 Pall Mall G. 3 July 4/1 At Nottingham..the Tory party is locally known as the Union Jackists. 1896 Spectator 7 March 342 The national outbursts of 'Union-Jackery' in the courts and music-halls. 1901 Daily Chron. 2 Dec. 10/2 Men who no doubt call themselves patriotic Union-Jackites and Big Englanders.

U·nionoid, a. and sb. Zool. [f. mod.L. *Union-*UNIO.] a. adj. Of or belonging to the Unionidæ; unioniform. b. sb. A unionid (Cent. Dict 1891).

1879 H. A. NICHOLSON Palæont. (ed. 2) I. 492 Unionoid Bivalves, with thick shells.

Union pipes, sb. pl. [? a. Ir. piob uilleann, f. piob pipe + uilleann, gen. sing. of uille elbow.] A form of bagpipes in which the wind-bag is inflated by bellows worked by the elbow; Irish bagpipes.

1851–61 MAYHEW Lond. Labour III. 163/1 The union pipes are the old Irish pipes improved. 1877 R. BELL Early Ballads, etc. 441 We first heard it sung in Malhamdale, Yorkshire, by..an old Dales-minstrel, who accompanied himself on the union-pipes.

Unipa·rient, a. [See UNI- and PARIENT a.] = next 1.

1822–7 GOOD Study Med. (1829) V. 227 [These signs] belong as frequently to the uniparient as to the multiparient, and hence are unentitled to attention. 1859 Todd's Cycl. Anat. V. 560/2 In Man, although generally uniparient, two or more follicles may..become matured about the same time.

Uniparous (yūnĭ·pārəs), a. [i. mod.L. ūniparus (whence F. uniparе, It. uniparo, Sp. uniparo); see UNI- and -PAROUS.]

1. Bearing or producing one at a birth; characterized by this kind of parturition.

1646 SIR T. BROWNE Pseud. Ep. vi. vi. 298 For animals multifidous..there are but two that are uniparous, that is, Men and Elephants. 1662 PETTY Treat. Taxes & Contrib. xii. 58 'Tis also the second choice out of the young of multiparous Cattle taken in specie..or else a Composition in Money for the Uniparous. 1744 MONRO Compar. Anat. 37 Those of the uniparous Kind have them placed between the posterior Extremities. 1787 Phil. Trans. LXXVII. 358 The females of the human species, though most commonly uniparous. 1839–47 Todd's Cycl. Anat. III. 315 The oviducts are shorter..in the uniparous Kangaroo,..than in the multiparous Opossums. 1856 GRINDON Life iv. (1875) 41 Rousseau ingeniously urges..that woman is a uniparous animal. 1859 OWEN Lect. Classif. Mammalia 56 The mastodons, megatheria,..and diprotodons, are uniparous.

2. Bot. Of a cyme: Having only one axis or branch; developing a single axis at each branching.

1839 LINDLEY Introd. Bot. (ed. 3) 160 [An] axis of uniparous, that is one-pedunceled, cymes. 1878 M. T. MASTERS Henfrey's Bot. 78 The inflorescence is probably a uniparous scorpioid cyme. 1887 BENTLEY Man. Bot. (ed. 5) 215 The terms helicoid and scorpioid are thus used by us indifferently to indicate the same form of unilateral, monochasial, or uniparous cyme.

Unipartite (yūnĭpā·rtəit), a. Math. [See UNI- and PARTITE a.] Consisting of or involving a single part.

1870 CAYLEY Math. Papers (1893) VI. 464 The quantic is unipartite, bipartite, tripartite, etc., according as the number of sets (of variables) is one, two, three, etc. 1890 Nature 20 Feb. 380/2 In the theory of the single system [of equations] the conceptions and symbolism..are based upon the properties of single integral numbers and their partitions into single integral parts. In this sense the former theory may be regarded as being unipartite.

Uniped (yū·nĭped), sb. and a. Also -pede (-pēd). [i. UNI-+ L. ped-, pēs foot.]

A. sb. A person having only one foot (or leg); a one-footed creature.

1802 SOUTHEY Thalaba iv. 218 note, There is said to be a nation of one legged men, and one of these unipeds is represented in a print, lying on his back, under the shade of his own great foot. 1846 Blackw. Mag. LX. 227 To wake up ten minutes afterwards an unsuffering uniped. 1863 C. M. SMITH Dead Lock 248 In all dis-eases of the toes, the liabilities of the uniped are but as five to ten compared with those of his two-legged brethren.

fig. 1897 Contemp. Rev. Oct. 536 The greater sort will escape one-sidedness by inventing some outlet for themselves, but the average will present us with an endless variety of quaint queer unipeds.

B. adj. Having only one foot (or leg); one-footed.

1835 KIRBY Hab. & Inst. Anim. II. 125 [These] Molluscans ..are the only instance of a unipede structure in creation. 1866 R. CHAMBERS Ess. Ser. II. 206 An auctioneer..who.. sells off pots and pans, and small uniped tables.

Unipe·rsonal, a. [See UNI- and PERSONAL a. Cf. F. unipersonnel (in sense 2), Pg. unipessoal.]

1. Consisting of a single person or individual.

c 1810 COLERIDGE in Lit. Rem. (1838) III. 220 If there be a functionary of divine institution, synodical or unipersonal, who with the name of the 'Church' has the right [etc.].

b. Having, or existing as, one person.

Cf. TRI-PERSONAL a. and PERSON 7 a.

1869 Contemp. Rev. XII. 430 The God of the Bible is neither unipersonal nor tripersonal in that sense of person. 1901 R. C. MOBERLY Atonem. 8 Person. viii. 172 [Not] one of them [sc. analogies]..go far towards enabling uni-personal man to enter into the consciousness of Tri-personality.

2. Gram. Of a verb: = IMPERSONAL a. 1. rare.

1860 WORCESTER (citing Wells). [Hence in Webster (1864) and later Dicts.]

Hence Unipe·rsonalist, a believer in the unipersonality of the Deity (1846 Worcester, citing Faber); Unipersona·lity, existence in one person.

1859 J. MARTINEAU Ess. & Addr. (1891) II. 389 If we set up as our essential a doctrine, like that of the Unipersonality of God. 1884 — in Life (1902) II. viii. 70.

Unipe·talous, a. Bot. rare[-1]. [ad. mod.L. unipetal-us (whence F. unipétale): see UNI- and PETALOUS a.] (See quot.)

1849 J. H. Balfour Man. Bot. 178 A corolla rarely consists of one petal, and when this occurs..it depends on the abortion or non-development of others. Such a corolla is uni-petalous.., a term quite distinct from monopetalous.

Uniphonous, a. rare—[1]. [f. Uni- 1, after Mono-, Polyphonous adjs.] Producing only one kind of note.

1834 Westm. Rev. Nov. (Cassell's), That uniphonous instrument the drum.

Unipla'nar, a. [See Uni- and Planar a.]

1. Geom. Having or characterized by coincident planes. Uniplanar node (or point), a form of node or conical point in which the tangent cone has become a pair of coincident planes; a unode.

1866 Brande & Cox Dict. Sci., etc. II. 675 When this cone breaks up into two planes, the node is termed a biplanar node, and when these planes coincide, a uniplanar node. 1869 [see Uniplane]. 1889 Cent. Dict. s.v. Dyadic, Uniplanar diadic, a planar diadic in which the plane of the antecedents coincides with that of the consequents.

2. Mech. Of motion: Lying or taking place in, confined to, one plane; of or pertaining to such motion.

1852 Minchin (title), Uniplanar Kinematics of Solids and Fluids. Ibid. 1 By uniplanar motion, or one-plane motion, is understood in the following pages motion which takes place in one plane or parallel to one plane.

Uniplane, a. and sb. [Uni-.] a. adj. Forming or lying in one plane. b. sb. (See quot. 1869.)

1842 Civil Eng. & Arch. Journ. VI. 256/1 A pneumatic machine for casting, and a uniplane machine for composing. 1869 Cayley Math. Papers (1893) VI. 362 U..is a uniplanar node, where the quadric cone becomes a coincident plane-pair; say, the plane is the uniplane.

Uniplicate, a. rare—[1]. [f. Uni- 1, after Multiplicate a.] Having but one fold.

1840 Smart; and in later Dicts.

Unipo'lar, a. (and sb.). [See Uni- and Polar a. Cf. F. unipolaire.]

1. Electr. Produced by, proceeding from, one magnetic pole; exhibiting one kind of polarity.

1812 Sir H. Davy Chem. Philos. 168 There are substances that are imperfect conductors which are capable of receiving only one kind of electricity..and which M. Ehrman..has named unipolar bodies. 1872 J. C. Maxwell Electr. & Magn. II. 7 The property produced by magnetism in transparent bodies of twisting the plane of polarization of the incident light, is, like magnetism itself, a unipolar property. 1881 Nature XXIII. 616/1 To illustrate unipolar conductivity. Ibid. XXIV. 570 Whether it be not possible entirely to separate one from the other, and to produce what may be called a unipolar discharge. 1888 Rugoll. Brit. XXIII. 330/1 The so-called 'unipolar' Induction supposed to be due to the rotation of the earth.

b. Of apparatus: Having, or operating by means of, one magnetic pole. Also ellipt.

1876 Nature XIV. 263/2 A unipolar magnetic needle. Ibid. The space through which a subsidiary magnet must be moved in order to restore the unipolar to its original position. 1883 Daily News 10 Sept. 2/2 The remarkable machine of Messrs. Siemens and Halske, called the unipolar machine. 1884 Health Exhib. Catal. 79/2 A true unipolar continuous current dynamo.

2. Biol. Of nerve-cells: Having one pole or fibrous prolongation; connected to the nerve-fibre by a single fibrous process.

1859 Todd's Cycl. Anat. V. 436/2 Those [ganglionic corpuscles] from which one tube proceeds are termed unipolar. 1872 A. Flint Physiol. Man. V. 146 Unipolar cells exist in some of the lower orders of animals. 1880 Bastian Brain ii. 48 Unipolar nerve cells..are alleged to exist in the ganglia on the spinal nerves and elsewhere.

b. (See quot.)

1898 F. J. Bell tr. Gegenbaur's Comp. Anat. 507 If the rete remains broken up, then it is known as a diffuse, unipolar, or monocentric rete mirabile.

Hence Unipolar'ity, the condition or character of being unipolar. (Cf. F. unipolarité.) 1888 Philos. Mag. Ser. v. XXVI. 129 We do not believe that Ohm ever observed the phenomenon of unipolarity in strong sulphuric acid with [etc.].

Uni'porous, a. [Uni- 1. Cf. Polyporous a.] (See quot.)

1888 Dawson Geol. Hist. Plants 160 Wood-cells elsewhere called discigerous tissue, and to which I applied the terms uniporous and multiporous.

† Unipre'sence, Obs.—[1] [f. Uni- + Presence, after Omnipresence.] The fact, on the part of a number, of being present in one place. So † Unipre'sent a. Obs.—[1]

1619 Lushington Recant. Serm. (1659) 77 The unipresence, or local union of body; 'in one place', Ibid. 96 They were unanimous and unipresent.

Unique (yūnī'k), a. and sb. Also 7 unick(e, 7–8 unic. [a. F. unique († unic masc.), ad. L. ūnic-us (whence also Sp., Pg., It. unico) single, sole, alone of its kind, f. ūnus one. In early use also directly ad. L. ūnicus, and stressed on the first syllable.]

Regarded by Todd (1818) as 'an affected and useless term of modern times'.

A. adj. 1. Of which there is only one; one and no other; single, sole, solitary.

1602 Dolman La Primaud. Fr. Acad. (1618) III. 639 Engendring one eternitie, and by an alone vnique action never disturbed, his image full of understanding. c 1645 Howell Lett. II. xliv, He hath lost..his unic Son in the very flower of his age. 1677 Gale Crt. Gentiles iv. i. ii. 53 Divines, who make..right Reason the unic Criterion or Rule of moral Virtue.

1818 Todd, Unique, adj.,..sole;..without another of the same kind known to exist. 1861 Paley Æschylus, Prometh. (ed. 2) 39 The student will notice the unique example of στιχομυθία. 1873 Hamerton Intell. Life iii. 87 A man ..who made Latin scholarship his unique intellectual purpose. 1882 Farrar Early Chr. II. 476 St. John instantly leaves the subject..to which he has made this unique and passing allusion.

2. That is or forms the only one of its kind; having no like or equal; standing alone in comparison with others, freq. by reason of superior excellence; unequalled, unparalleled, unrivalled.

In this sense readopted from French at the end of the 18th c. and regarded as a foreign word down to the middle of the 19th, from which date it has been in very common use, with a tendency to take the wider meaning of 'uncommon, unusual, remarkable'.

The usage in the comparative and superlative, and with advs. as absolutely, most, quite, thoroughly, totally, etc., has been objected to as tautological.

1618 W. Barclay Well at King-horne A vij, This is a soueraigne and vnicke remedie for that disease in Women. 1794 J. Sullivan View Nat. I. 3 A concentrated, and an unique aggregation of almost all the wonders of the natural world. 1809 R. K. Porter Trav. Sk. Russia & Sweden (1813) I. xxv. 285 As it was thoroughly unique, I cannot forbear presenting you with so singular a curiosity. 1842 J. P. Collier Armin's Nest Ninn. Introd., A relic..not only unique in itself, but unprecedented in its kind. 1866 Lidden Bamp. Lect. v. (1867) 268 [Christ's] relationship to the Father is absolutely unique. 1871 R. Taylor Faust (1875) II. n. i. 84 A thing so totally unique The great collectors would go far to seek. 1885 Harper's Mag. April 703/1 When..these summer guests found themselves defrauded of their uniquest recreations.

b. Of persons.

1808 Foster Contrib. Eclectic Rev. (1844) I. 233 [Sir T. More] is a person so unique in the records of statesmen, that [etc.]. 1871 Blackie Four Phases 15 Such a unique mortal..no man can describe. 1885 Mabel Collins Prettiest Woman xi, He believed this woman whom he loved to be unique.

c. absol. with the: (see quots.).

1767 Phil. Trans. LVIII. 26 All these are examples of the unique; that is, of quantities in a state that is..exclusive of all others. 1849 C. Bronte Shirley xviii, She felt that Rose Yorke was a peculiar child—one of the unique.

† 3. Formed or consisting of one or a single thing. Obs.—[1] a 1631 Donne Lett. (1651) 163 A Mathematique point, which is the most indivisible and uniquething which art can present.

B. sb. 1. A thing of which there is only one example, copy, or specimen; esp., in early use, a coin or medal of this class.

1701 R. Thoresby Diary 1 June, My Lord showed me some unics and other valuable curiosities. 1730 A. Gordon Maffei's Amphith. 47 It..may be an Unic, for what we know as yet. 1774 Gentl. Mag. XLIV. 8 A coin, which I have reason to think is a Unic. 1826 Disraeli V. Grey ii. viii, Mr. Vivian Grey had promised his Lordship, who was a collector of medals, an unique which had never yet been heard of. 1872 O. W. Holmes Poet Breakf.-t. iii. 89 A unique, sir, and there is a pleasure in exclusive possession.

† b. Something of which only one is possessed by a person or persons. Obs. rare.

1783 H. Walpole Let. to C'tess Upper Ossory 20 June, Lady Pembroke having lent them a servant besides their own unique. 1826 Surr Winter in Lond. III. 170 This Belcher girls was not old; but being an unique, it had been..constantly in use.

2. A thing, fact, or circumstance which by reason of exceptional or special qualities stands alone and is without equal or parallel in its kind.

1768 Phil. Trans. LVIII. 215 When I presented this map to the Academy..it was looked upon as an Unique. 1781 Gentl. Mag. LI. 280/2 The dedication [of a volume of Sermons] being an unique in its kind. 1794 Paley Evid. ix. iii. ad fin., The propagation of Christianity..is an unique in the history of the species. 1835 Tait's Mag. II. 651 It is..an unique in English biography. 1838 De Quincey Lamb Wks. 1858 IX. 156/1 Of Lamb's writings..some were so memorably beautiful as to be uniques in their class. 1844 N. Brit. Rev. I. 124 A conflict, that stands out from all shadow of parallelism—a wild originality—a terrible unique.

b. A person of this class.

1758 Case of Authors Stated 14 He presumes, that he, this Unic, must therefore appear in the same stupendous Magnitude to every body else. 1782 Cowper Let. Nov., Wks. (1836) 121 He is a man much to my taste, and quite an unique in this country. 1802 Mrs. E. Parsons Myst. Visit IV. 145, I trust that he though very good, is not an unique. 1813 Examiner 22 Feb. 120/2 Those..charms of manner, which constitute an unique. 1866 Alger Solit. Nat. & Man v. 65 The peculiar endowment in which he so far surpasses others as to be an insulated unique.

Uni'quely, adv. [f. prec. + -ly 2.]

1. Exclusively, solely; only.

1820 T. Mitchell Aristoph. I. 13 It is a picture uniquely Greek, to have a person of his rank in life giving such a debtor and creditor account of his intellectual pleasures as Dicæopolis does. 1893 Saltus Mme. Sapphire 182 She had married him uniquely to go into society. 1893 Nation (N.Y.) 28 Sept. 240/1 That distinction he can still boast to be his uniquely.

b. Just alone; separately.

1885 Leudesdorf Cremona's Proj. Geom. 43 Therefore $D_1$ must coincide with $D'$, since the three points $A'B'C$ determine uniquely the fourth point which forms with them a harmonic range.

2. To a unique degree or extent; so as to be unique; singularly, especially, pre-eminently.

1846 Darwin in Life & Lett. (1887) I. 345, I sent you a uniquely laudatory epistle. 1881 H. W. Nicholson From Sword to Share vii. 41 The climate is simply and uniquely perfect. 1886 W. J. Tucker E. Europe 310 The uniquely-shaped and quaintly-coloured furniture.

Uni'queness. [f. as prec. + -ness.] The fact or condition of being unique or unequalled; unique quality or character; an instance of this; a unique fact or circumstance.

1820 Coleridge Lett., Conv. &c. I. 152 The contra-distinction between the Shakespearian and the Greek Drama, and its still remaining uniqueness. 1874 H. R. Reynolds John Bapt. i. § 1. 4 So a great man loses something of his sublimity and uniqueness as we come close to him. 1880 Bertha Thomas Violin-Player II. x. 231 The novelty, the uniqueness of the scene. 1897 D. W. Forrest Christ of Hist. & Exper. v. 205 The uniquenesses of Christ are manifold and indubitable.

Uni'quity. [Irreg. f. Unique a. + -ity, prob. after antiquity.] = prec. (Cf. Unicity 2.)

Also, in recent use (1917), = a unique book.

1789 H. Walpole Let. 20 July, As rarities, a collector would give ten times more for them: and uniquity will make them valued more than the charming poetry. 1793 — Let. 17 Sept., I lament that the summer is over; not because of its uniquity, but because you two made it so delightful to me. 1862 B. Taylor Home & Abr. Ser. II. 399 The originality, the uniquity, of the place. 1866 E. Kendall Month. Fools II. i. 16 The idea..is unique, and uniquity, if I may permit myself the expression, is what we must aim at. 1898 Atlantic Monthly LXXXII. 495/1 The lateness..of the bird's appearance, together with what a certain scholarly friend of mine would have called his 'uniquity'.

Unireme (yū'nirēm). [f. Uni- + L. rēm-us oar, after bi-, quadri-, trireme, etc.] An ancient vessel or galley having one bank of oars.

1699 J. Potter Antiq. Greece III. xiv. II. 135 [A ship] betwixt an Vnireme, and Bireme, consisting of a Bank, and a half. 1799 Clarnock in Naval Chron. I. 134 The Vnirenes ..had only one row of oars. 1900 Athenæum 18 Aug. 221/3 The thing shown is meant for a unireme.

Un-Irish, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1842 Lover Handy Andy ix, The youth endeavoured to be Irish in everything. 1854 Grace Greenwood Haps & Mishaps 108 An awkward effort at enjoyment and amusement, un-Irish and lamentable in the extreme. Un-Irishly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1830 Moore Mem. (1854) VI. 135 They wisely and un-Irishly chose the money.

† Uni'rked, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. (Un-[1] 8.)

1513 Douglas Æneid xiii. xi. 35 The Eneadanis all of his meuje Ithandly and onyrkyt luifit haue I. 1533 Bellenden Livy iv. xiv. (S. T. S.) II. 99 Horsmen..fresche and vnirkit of lauboure.

Uni'ron, v. (Un-[2] 4 and 4 b.)

1611 Florio, Disferrare, to vniron, to vnshoe a horse. Ibid., Sferrare, to vniron, to free or deliuer from out irons or bondes. 1862 Sala Captain Dangerous II. i. 18 Captain Handsell had me unironed.

† Uni'roned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode I. cviii. (1869) 57 A burdoun yrened weyth more than thilke that is vnyrened. 1788 Holcroft tr. Baron Trenck (1826) II. 91, I was thus left four days in peace, unironed. 1880 New Virgin. I. 57 Unironed shirts and coats.

Unirra'diated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1866 Symmons Life of Milton 544 (J.d.), A mind not unirradiated with the golden visions of fancy. 1816 Coleridge Lay Serm. (Bohn) 342 The understanding..unirradiated by the reason and the spirit. Unirrigated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1878 Browning Poets Croisic 83 Our Academic clodpoles must be dense Indeed to stand unirrigated still. 1883 Standard 31 Aug. 4/6 The unirrigated tracts between the head waters of the.. rivers. Unirritant, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1822–7 Good Study Med. (1829) V. 120 We should employ the unirritant tonics. Unirritated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1649 Eng. Monas. tr. Senault's Use Passions (1671) 83 Bulls..do little unirritated. 1793 T. Beddoes Lett. Darwin 71, I do not understand why in an irritable state of the body, the iris should be unirritated. Unirritatedly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1869 Browning Lett. Ser. II. (1907) I. 34 Yours unirritatedly, R. B.

Uni'rritating, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

Also unirritatingly (Webster, 1847).

1797 Abernethy Surg. Ess. 98 The abscess at last became ..unirritating to the constitution. 1859–47 Todd's Cycl. Anat. III. 613/2 The smooth and unirritating condition of the inner surface of the deserted shell. 1896 Mrs. Caffyn Quaker Grandmother 20 Sin is a chastener that conduces to unirritating niceness.

† Uniroo'ted, ppl. a. Obs. [f. Un-[1] 8 c + y-rooted, pa. pple. of Root v.[2] Cf. Unrooted ppl. a.] Not rooted out or eradicated.

1600 Tourneur Transf. Metam. lviii, Not hable to endure His heart should knowledge of such harme immure An houre, and th' wrong rest vnirooted out.

Uniserial (yūnisē'riăl), a. Chiefly Bot., Zool., etc. [See Uni- and Serial a.] Arranged in, consisting of, one series or row; characterized by this kind of form or arrangement.

1839 Proc. Berw. Nat. Club I. 198 Suckers uniserial. 1859 Todd's Cycl. Anat. V. 290/1 In those genera in which these processes form a single line the gills are said to be uniserial. 1872 H. A. Nicholson Palæont. 325 The teeth are conical and uniserial.

Uniseriate (yūnisē'riĕt), a. Bot. and Zool. [See Uni- and Seriate a.] = prec.

1846 Dana Zoöph. (1848) 215 With cellules interruptedly uniseriate, and occasionally bisériate 1872 H. C. Wood Fresh-w. Algæ 68 Cells uni-seriate. 1887 W. Phillips Brit. Discomycetes 243 Sporidia uniseriate.

Hence Unise'riately adv.

1848 Dana Zoo. 133 Upper margin uniseriately tuberculate.

Unisexual (yūnisĕ'ksiŭăl), a. [ad. mod.L. unisexual-is (F. unisexuel (1812), Pg. unisexual); see Uni- and Sexual a.]

1. Of one sex; having the essential generative or reproductive organs of one or other sex developed or present in individuals: a. Bot. Of flowers: In which either the stamens or pistils are absent or suppressed. Also, of plants: Characterized by flowers of this kind; = DICLINOUS a.

1802 R. HALL Elem. Bot. 193 Unisexual, ..having one sex. 1828 STARK Elem. Nat. Hist. II. 161 The last three classes [of plants]..have the flowers thus disposed, and are hence named unisexual. 1839 LINDLEY Sch. Bot. 16 In particular species the stamens are found in one flower, and the pistil in another...; such plants are called unisexual. 1844 S. THOMSON Wild Fl. 62 These unisexual blossoms being either the production of the same individual plant, or of separate individuals of the same species. 1872 OLIVER Elem. Bot. II. 169 Burnet Saxifrage, ..with..unisexual flowers.

Comb. 1877 Nature 26 April 548/1 A unisexual-flowering plant.

b. Zool. Of animals or their organs.

In Ent. of certain agamic broods of Aphides: consisting of the female sex only (Cent. Dict. 1891).

1830 R. KNOX Bélzard's Anat. 29 The organs of generation present all the varieties, unisexual, without copulation, hermaphroditic [etc.]. 1851 HULME tr. Moquin-Tandon II. 1. 47 In a great number of animals the sexes are separated and placed on distinct individuals: these are said to be unisexual. 1877 DARWIN Forms of Fl. Introd. 2 The males and females of ordinary unisexual animals.

2. Pertaining or restricted to one sex; U.S. esp. of colleges or schools.

1883 L. OLIPHANT Symphoneumiata 182 The relationship of person which would maintain in a painful activity the currents of the decaying unisexual layers of either frame. 1886 Century Mag. June 326/1 One final provincialism of the mind there is, which a unisexual college certainly never would have any power to eradicate. 1904 Daily Chron. 14 Oct. 6 The present unjust system of unisexual punishments.

Hence Unisexually adv.

1891 Cent. Dict. s.v., Animals unisexually developed. 1901 Nature 10 Jan. 255/1 Not that spontaneous variations are always inherited unisexually.

Unisexuality. Bot. and Zool. [f. prec. + -ITY.] The state or condition of being unisexual.

1830 LINDLEY Nat. Syst. Bot. 155 The unisexuality of the flowers of both genera. 1877 HUXLEY Anat. Inv. Anim. I. 67 There is some reason to suspect that unisexuality is the result of the abortion of the organs of the other sex, in males and females respectively. 1898 Pop. Sci. Monthly July 298 Asexuality passes through bisexuality into unisexuality.

Unitioate. Min. [UNI- 2.] (See quot. from Dana.) Also attrib.

1879 RUTLEY Stud. Rocks x. 140 In chemical composition the garnets are essentially unisilicates of different sesquioxides and protoxides. 1879 DANA Man. Min. (ed. 3) 242 In the Unisilicates, one molecule of silicon is combined with two of an element in the protoxide state...; or with two-thirds of a molecule in the sesquioxide state. Ibid., Among the species referred to the Unisilicates there are some that vary from the unisilicate ratio.

Unisoated. Ent. = UNI- 8.) 1886 Trnl. R. Microsc. Soc. VI. 47 The unisolated hyoid muscles of the frog.

Unison (yū'nisŏn, -zŏn), sb. and a. Also 6 unisonne, vnisone, unizon (vnisson), 7 unisone. [a. OF. unison (Oresme), later and mod. F. unisson (16th c.), or ad. late L. unison-us (whence It., Sp., and Pg. unisono (also as sb.), It. † unissono, Sp. unison) of the same sound as something else, f. L. uni- UNI- and sonus SOUND sb.[3]

The apparently early example in the York Mystery Plays xxv. 262 is probably a scribal error for 'vrysoune' (= orison).

A. sb. 1. Mus. and Acoustics. a. A sound or note of the same pitch as another; or loosely, a note taken as a starting-point from which intervals are reckoned. Now rare, or taken as transf. from b.

1574 F. KETT A. Le Roy's Instr. Lutes 7 You must..haue recourse to an other stryng, that maketh the vnisson with that. 1609 DOULAND Ornithoparcus' Microl. 17 An Vnison is..a Voyce so qualified, that it neither tendeth to depth nor to height. 1660 BOYLE New Experiments Phys. Mech. xii. A string tun'd (as Musicians speak..) to an Unison with it. 1694 HOLDER Harmony iv. 54 By Unison is meant, sometimes the Habitude or Ration of Equality of two Notes compared together, being of the very same Tune. Sometimes (as here) for the given single Note to which the Distance, or the Rations of other Intervals are compared. 1728 CHAMBERS Cycl. s.v. Interval, Unisons, 'tis plain, cannot possibly have any Variety. 1881 Nature XXIV. 358 When the higher note has reached a point about half-way between unison and the octave note.

transf. 1677 Phil. Trans. XVIII. 840 Not the whole of that other string doth thus tremble, but the several parts severally, according as they are Unisons to the whole.

fig. 1760–72 H. BROOKE Fool of Qual. (1792) I. 181 The muscles of Harry's expressive countenance, like an equally-tuned instrument, uttered unisons to every word he heard.

b. Identity in pitch of two or more sounds or notes; the agreement or consonance of the sounds of two or more bodies vibrating at equal rates; the relation of two notes of the same pitch reckoned as one of the musical 'intervals'.

1575 GASCOIGNE Weedes Wks. 1907 I. 381 At Musickes sacred sounde, my fansies eft begonne, In concordes, discordes, notes and cliffes, in tunes of unisonne. 1596 BAYNE Brief Interod. Skill of Song C. A concord is divided into an Vnison, Third, Fift, Sixt [etc.]. 1626 BACON Sylva § 103 The Diapason or Eight in Music is the sweetest Concord; insomuch as it is in effect an Vnison. 1694 [see a.]. 1728 CHAMBERS Cycl. s.v. Octave, The most simple Perception the Soul can have of true Sounds, is that of Unison. 1749 J. MASON Numbers in Poet. Comp. 21 Those [metrical] Feet..are in Proportion of the Unison in Musick. ..And they are said to answer to the Unison. 1868 GALLOWAY Mus. Gram. iii. 1. 50 The Unison,..although it cannot properly be reckoned an Interval, is always considered as such. 1873 BARISTER Music § 103 Two, or more, perfect 5ths, perfect 8ves, or perfect unisons, are forbidden between the same two parts. 1896 W. G. WOOLCOMBE Pract. Work Physics III. Pref., The nearest approach to unison between two musical notes.

c. A combination of melodies at the same pitch (or, loosely, one or more octaves apart) in different parts, i.e. performed by different voices or instruments. Also in fig. context.

In quot. 1730 used loosely for each of such melodies (in this case on different sets of strings of the same instrument: cf. unison string in 5).

[1724 Short Explic. For. Wds. in Mus. Bks., Unisono, a Unison...This word is also used when in Symphonies of Songs Two Violins both play the same Thing, or the Violin and Song, or the Bass and Song, &c.] 1730 in Abridgm. Specif. Patents, Music (1871) 2 A new invented harpsichord upon which (having only two sets of strings) may be performed either one or two unisons, or two unisons & one octave together. 1795 MASON Ch. Music i. 82 Every ear felt the stupendous effect both of unison and harmony. 1799 KOLLMANN Ess. Mus. Composition iii. 18 In Unisons, or passages where all instruments play the same melody, though in different Octaves. 1858 PUSEY Doctr. Real Presence 72 When the Holy Spirit..swept over the discordant strings of human tongues and thoughts..and blended all their varying notes into one holy unison of truth. 1869 OUSELEY Counterp. xiv. 83 When the number of parts exceeds four, unisons may be used.

d. In the phrase in (..) unison (in sense b or c).

1616 W. BROWNE Brit. Past. II. ii. 546 Not suffering her shrill waters, as they run, Tun'd with a whistling gale in unison. 1749 J. MASON Numbers in Poet. Comp. 21 Two Feet, which are in Length (supposing their respective Tensions and Thickness to be equal) being put in Motion, will be in Unison, or give exactly one and the same Sound. 1765 SYDENHAM Tr. Shaw's VII. xliii, The nymphs joined in unison, and their swains an octave below them. 1795 MASON Ch. Music iii. 208 What old Calvin meant to be sung in unison, they chose should be performed in counterpoint, or in four parts. 1856 MRS. C. CLARKE tr. Berlioz' Instrument. 32 To violoncellos..is ordinarily given the part of the double bass, which should be in the octave above or in unison. 1873 HALE In His Name vi. 58 As the three voices, in strict unison, closed the little song.

transf. 1888 CONRAD M. Pavent xxvii, The cry from the numberless boats..rose in wild unison up to the Tom-an-Lonach. 1876 HOLLAND Seven Oaks xi. 149 'Not at all,' was responded almost in unison.

e. elliptic. for 'unison string' (see 5).

1820 G. Mus. Mag. II. 306 He tried the octaves, and found them..all flat..; the unisons, generally speaking, were in tune. 1889 [see unison-tuning in 5].

2. A single unvaried tone; a monotone. ? Obs.

1609 DOULAND Ornithoparcus' Microl. 26 The prayers..are read in an Vnison. 1742 POPE Dunc. IV. 612 Last was the Nation's Sense, nor could be found, While the long solemn Unison [sc. a yawn] went round.

3. A union or combination of concordant sounds; a united and unanimous declaration or utterance.

1806 WORDSW. 'Loud is the Vale' 3 A mighty unison of streams! Of all her Voices, One! 1891 PALGRAVE Lyr. Poems 135 That cry has been heard By a nation's unison swelled.

4. fig. a. Something perfectly agreeing or consonant with another; an utterance or expression of perfect agreement or assent; something that responds sympathetically as a string tuned to a corresponding note. Now rare or Obs.

1650 BULWER Anthropomet. 63 A forehead which keeps its natural magnitude: one of the Unisons of the face. 1658 GURNALL Chr. in Arm. II. 205 Adam indeed had such a righteousnesse made to his hand, his heart and the Law were unisons. 1702 C. MATHER Magn. Chr. III. iii. (1852) 539 He thought that ministers and market-men were not unisons. 1796 ELIZA HAMILTON Lett. Hindoo Rajah (1811) II. 218 The tender sigh..in vibrating on the ears of Miss Ardent, seemed to touch some pleasant unison, that overspread her countenance with a smile. 1822 COLERIDGE in Lit. Rem. (1836) I. 375 To make the intellectual faith a fair analogon or unison of the vital faith.

b. Exact or perfect agreement, concord, or harmony; harmonious combination or union.

1654 WHITLOCK Zootomia 454 Physitians..are at Discord the best, but at Unison the Worst; for they do all so disagree [etc.]. 1674 PLAYFORD Skill Mus. A 5, Friendship the Vnison of well tun'd Hearts. 1744 THOMSON Summer (ed. 5) 1375 Social Friends, Attun'd to happy Unison of Souls,.. Now could I cease enjoy the falling Day. 1796 MRS. D'ARBLAY Camilla I. 4 This exemplary couple was bound to each other by the most perfect unison of character. 1819 KEATS Vis. Hyperion I. 418 Nor could my eyes And ears act with such unison of sense Which marries sweet sound with the grace of form. 1868 SEARS Athan. ix. 77 Thence life and health spread through our animal frames, restoring them to a unison with divine laws. 1871 FARRAR Wint. Hist. v. 183 That beautiful unison of noble manhood, stainless womanhood, joyous infancy, and uncontaminated youth.

† c. At unison (also at..unisons), = next. Obs.

1665 GLANVILL Scepsis Sci. xiii. 76 Reason and Faith are at perfect Unisons. 1772 Test Filial Duty II. 173 The sensations of friendship have not enough of fire in them, to warm the heart into that proper temperature, requisite to render it at unison with the delirium of lovers. Ibid. 238 Set all my affections at unison.

d. In unison, in agreement or harmony, concordant, consonant, harmonious. Freq. in unison with.

1780 COWPER Parrot 36 Each character in ev'ry part Sustain'd with so much grace and art, And both in unison. 1782 V. KNOX Ess. xxviii. ‡ 8 It is the more tranquil style which is most frequently in unison with our minds. 1825 JANE AUSTEN Emma xlii, It was all in unison; words, conduct, discretion and indiscretion told the same story. 1836 W. IRVING Astoria I. 287 A mode of redress perfectly in unison with the character of the man. 1860 PUSEY Min. Proph. 26 Dumb inanimate nature seems to rejoice and to be in unison with our sense of joy. 1879 FARRAR St. Paul I. 372 When such allies were in unison..it was easy to strike a deadly blow at the Nazarene.

5. attrib.: unison stop, (a) in an organ, a stop of the same pitch as the diapasons; (b) in a harpsichord (see quot. 1896); unison string, in a pianoforte or other instrument, a string tuned to the same pitch as another (or, loosely, to a pitch an octave higher); unison tune, a tune to be sung in unison, as distinct from harmony or 'parts'; unison-tuning, the tuning of strings (of a pianoforte, etc.) in unison.

1840 Penny Cycl. XVI. 493/1 Trumpet and Oboe stops, being what are called unison stops,..take their lengths from the open diapason. 1896 A. J. HIPKINS Pianoforte 122 Unison Stop, properly the second foundation register in a harpsichord; the shorter of the unison strings in a double keyboard one, and sounding on the lower keyboard only. 1685 BOYLE Effects Motion vii. 80 A certain impulse of Air, made by one of the *Unison-strings of a musical Instrument, may suffice to produce a visible motion in another. 1732 BERKELEY Alciphr. III. § 41 I feel an affection in my soul, like the trembling of one lute, upon striking the unison strings of another. 1896 [see unison stop above]. 1869 Pall Mall G. 7 July 12/2 Mr. John Goss, Mr. E. J. Hopkins, and Mr. J. Baptiste Calkin have composed *unison tunes for this volume. 1889 BRINSMEAD Hist. Pianoforte 186 The same plan as that for learning the *unison-tuning may be adopted for the octave, but care must be taken that the unison of the note is tuned afterwards.

B. adj. † 1. Sounding at once or together. Obs.—[1]

1582 STANYHURST Æneis VII. (Arb.) 73 Thus God Apollo cryed; but wee with an vnison outcrye..demanded, what place God Phœbus apointed.

† b. fig. United and consenting, as the pronouncement of a number of persons; expressing complete agreement; unanimous, concordant, consonant, harmonious. Obs.

1650 W. CHARLETON Paradoxes Prol. f. 4 b, By the unisone vote of the multitude. 1652 H. L'ESTRANGE Answ. Rhp. Worcester 51 Is the Church of Rome so unison, so all of a piece, as to afford no jarres? *a*1662 HEYLYN Laud II. (1671) 447 The first branch [of a Bill] was carried in the Negative by..an Unison-consent in the Lords House present. 1760 & GOLDSM. Cit. W. xxx, I only beg you'll endeavour to make your souls unison with mine.

† c. Concordant or consonant to something. Obs.

1710 R. WARD Life H. More 234 Some Circumstances..or Particulars of his Writings, are not so unison to my Slower Faculties. 1760–72 H. BROOKE Fool of Qual. (1792) V. 10 This doctrine sounded unison to the secret feelings of our young Englishman.

† d. Like-sounding; equivalent. Obs.—[1]

1759 STERNE Tr. Shandy I. xix, I'sstram!—Melancholy dissyllable of sound! which, to his ears, was unison to Nincompoop.

2. Mus. and Acoustics. Identical in pitch; singing, sounding, etc., in unison; unisonal, unisonous. Now rare or Obs.

1614 JACKSON Creed III. xviii. § 4 As a string, though untouched, and unable to begin motion of itself, will yet mise it selfe to an vnison voice. 1622 PEACHAM Compl. Gent. xi. 104 Two Lutes of equall size being laid vpon a Table, and tuned Vnison, or alike in..any..string; the one stricken, the other untouched shall answer it. 1652 MURPHY R. Ar. VII. 509 All sounds on Fret by String or Golden Wire Temper'd soft Tunings, intermixt with Voice Choral or Unison. 1694 HOLDER Harmony iv. 52 The Unison Concord..is no Space or Interval, but an Identity of Tune, as A. MALCOLM Treat. Mus. 580 When Two Voices sing together one Song, 'tis more agreeable that they be 8ve than unison with one another, in every Note. 1893 S. GER Musculi. & Percussion (ed. 4) I. iii. 69 A unison vibration, coviblation, or consonance of the wall is required to the production of tone.

Unisonal (yūni'sŏnăl), a. Mus. [i. prec. + -AL.] = UNISONOUS a. 1.

1728 R. NORTH Mem. Music (1846) 66 All was plain-song, that is counterpoint unisonall. 1865 Reader 19 Aug. 214 The unisonal female-voice choruses. 1888 Amer. Missionary Mar. 70 Their general style is recitative and chorus, though a few are pure solos or unisonal measures. 1898 Record 4 Nov. 1084/2 In spite of one's own loving reverence for unisonal singing.

Hence Uni'sonally adv., in unison.

1888 Standard 20 Feb., A passage of broken quavers..given out unisonally by the full orchestra. 1887 Ch. Times 4 March (Cassell's), Tenors and basses burst in unisonally.

Uni'sonance. rare. [ad. L. type unisonantia* (whence Sp. and Pg. unisonancia), f. med.L. unison-us: see UNISON.] Agreement or identity of sounds (see quots.).

1728 CHAMBERS Cycl. s.v. Concord, Unisonance, then, being the Relation of Equality between the Tunes of two Sounds, all Unisons are Concords, and in the first Degree. Ibid. s.v. Unison, What constitutes Unisonance, is the Equality of the Number of Vibrations of the two sonorous Bodies in equal Times. [Hence in Webster (1828–32), etc.]

Unisonant (yūni'sŏnănt), a. [f. L. uni- UNI- + sonant-, sonans (see SONANT a.), after dissonant; etc. Cf. F. unissonant.] Of the same pitch or sound; unisonal, unisonous. Also in fig. context.

1801 BUSBY Dict. Mus., Unisonus, or Unisonant, an epithet applied to those sounds which are..in unison with each other. 1834 MRS. SOMERVILLE Connex. Phys. Sci. xvii. (1836) 168 If two bottles be..tuned by filling them with such a quantity of water as will render them unisonant with two tuning-forks which differ in pitch. 1886 LINSKILL Heaven under Hill II. 10 The mystic, moving, unisonant harmony that was stirring and breaking upon her own soul.

†Unisone·ity. Obs.—[f. as next + -(E)ITY.] A state of agreement or concord; unanimity.

1663 WATERHOUSE Fortesc. Illustr. 414 The Lawes of Nations do affirm the nature of it [sc. marriage] to a Vniseonity, as appears in the Digest.

Unisonous (yū·nisŏnəs), a. [f. late L. unisonus (see UNISON) + -OUS.]

1. Mus. Of the same pitch for the different voices or instruments; composed, performed, or rendered in unison or in octaves, and not in parts; unisonal.

1781 WARTON Hist. Eng. Poetry III. 171 These apt notes [to sing the Psalms with] were about forty tunes, of one part only, and in one unisonous key. 1789 BURNEY Hist. Mus. III. 389 Nothing now but syllabic and unisonous psalmody was authorised in the Church. 1818 Blackw. Mag. III. 65 The Psalms being set to simple or unisonous melodies, to render them fit for public service. 1867 Contemp. Rev. IV. 190 Their deadness took the form of a drawling unisonous singing of the old tunes. 1894 Times 21 June 9/5 The player's left hand .. was audibly less at home than the right in the unisonous finale.

2. Exhibiting agreement, concord, or sameness of character or nature; concordant.

1812 SHELLEY Let. to Miss Hitchener 29 Jan., Minds unisonous in reason and feeling. 1851 GALLENGA Italy II. xii. 415 The patriots are uniform, methodical in their transactions, unisonous in their demands. 1858 GLADSTONE Homer I. 34 The voice of the Homeric poems is in this respect .. unisonous, .. and not multiform.

†Unisound. Obs. rare. [Alteration of UNISON sb: see UNI- and SOUND *sb.*3] A unison.

1763 Ann. Reg., Misc. 192/2 By dividing the musical notes into sharps, as nature directs, the unisound will fall on the seventh note. Ibid. 193/1 [The notes] i, f, s, d, are likewise unisounds to f, s, l, alike.

†Unsounding, ppl. a. Obs.—[See UNI-.] Having only one sound.

1620 H. FITZ-GEOFFERY Certain Elegies A 8 b, Fennor, with his Vnisounding Eare word.

Uni·ssued, ppl. a. (UN- 1 8.)

1869 10th & 11th Rep. Hist. Ad. SS. Commn. App. V. 57 He may be recompenced .. out of the pay of the said Sir James Midleton unissued. 1703 Lond. Gaz. No. 3890/3 Several of the Debentures .do remain still unissued. 1898 Daily News 12 Oct. 9/3 A large block of unissued shares.

Unit (yū·nit), sb. (and a.). Also 6–8 unite. [f. L. ūn-us one; the ending was probably suggested by digit and compositi(e.

Introduced by Dee, who thus draws attention to the form in his Math. Pref. (1570) 'iij marg., Note the worde, Vnit, to expresse the Greke Monas, and not Vnitie: as we haue all, commonly, till now, vsed.)

1. Math. A single magnitude or number regarded as an undivided whole and as the ultimate base of all number; spec. in Arithmetic, the least whole number; the numeral 'one', represented by the figure 1. Cf. UNITY 1 b.

a. 1570 DEE Math. Pref. 'iij, Number, we define, to be, a certayne Mathematicall Summe, of Vnits. And, an Vnit, is that thing Mathematicall, Indiuisible, by participation of some likeness of whose property, any thing, which is in deede, or is counted One, may resonably be called One. 1575 RECORDE Gr. Artes Y iij b, An Improper Fraction, .. that is to saye, a fraction in forme, which in deede is greater than an Vnit. 1654 J. EVES Exact Surveyor 2 In the ordinary use of this [Decimal] Chain, for measuring and plotting, you may take onely notice of Units and Primes. 1669 STURMY Mariner's Mag. VII. xxxiv. 51 The Characteristick of any Logarithme must consist of an Unit less than the given Number consisteth of Digits or Places. 1728 CHAMBERS Cycl. s.v. Number, Cardinal Numbers [are] those which express the Quantity of Units; as, 1, 2, &c. 1794 LUNN Doctr. Fractions 1 Decimals Depetends that begin at the same place, whether at Units, Primes, Seconds. 1832 HOOD Ode to J. Hume i, Units, Tens, Hundreds, Thousands, Millions. 1838 DE MORGAN Ess. Probab. 33 Write down as many numbers, reckoning downwards, as there are units in the number. 1872 Encycl. Brit. I. 327/1 [In arithmetical notation] the figure placed furthest to the right has the same significance as when it stands alone, i. e. it represents units.

b. 1588 A. KING tr. Canisius' Catech. i ij, Conipte .swa mony epactis as yzet is writes in ye golden nombre. 1597 BLUNDEVIL Exerc. (ed. 2) I. vii. 12 Such [numbers] as cannot bee diuided but that there will remaine some odde unite, those are called Primes. 1669 W. SIMPSON Hydrol. Chym. 226 The great variety that number seven doth produce by the various transposition of its unites. 1679 MOXON Math. Dict. 162 An Unite is the beginning of Number, and .. receiveth no division in Numbers, even as a Point in Magnitudes. 1726 LEONI Alberti's Archit. II. 89/1 If, as some affirm, the unite be no number, but only the source of all others.

†b. Without article: = UNITY 1 b. Obs.

1727 Phil. Trans. XXX. 628 The Logarithm of Unite is nothing; and .. the nearer any Number is to Unite, the nearer will its Logarithm be to 0. 1823 JEFFERSON Writ. (1830) IV. 364 In the proportion of a million at least to unit.

c. Any determinate quantity, dimension, or magnitude adopted as a basis or standard of measurement for other quantities of the same kind and in terms of which their magnitude is calculated or expressed.

A large number of special units adopted in technical and scientific use are recorded in some recent Dicts.

1738 CHAMBERS Cycl. s.v. Degree, Thus, a Degree, as being the integer or unite, is denoted by °.

1816 PLAYFAIR Nat. Phil. II. 209 Hitherto, the distance of the Sun from the Earth has served as the unit, by which we have measured all other distances in the planetary system. 1825 JEFFERSON Autobiog. Wks. 1859 I. 52 The necessity of establishing a standard of value with us, and of the adoption of a money Unit. 1854 RONALDS & RICHARDSON Chem. Technol. (ed. 2) I. 253 The loss of heat from these sources has been estimated..at about 7 units of heat per hour per square foot. 1869 NOAD Text Bk. Electricity 201 The unit of a current conveys a unit of electricity through the circuit in a unit of time. 1870 F. L. POPE Electric Tel. iii. (1872) 25 The ohm is a unit of resistance, in the same manner that an inch is a unit of length, or a pound a unit of weight. 1886 RUSKIN Præteria I. 323 Musical people..have not yet fixed their unit of time.

Comb. 1892 Nation (N.Y.) 15 Dec. 459/1 The hopeful earnestness with which Mr. Bellamy offers his unit-of-weight system as a panacea for the cure of all financial ills.

d. A substance adopted as a standard by which the specific gravity of various bodies is estimated.

1820 Chapters Phys. Sci. 169 As water is taken as the unit for solids and liquids, so is atmospheric air for gases. 1869 GIL Chem. for Sch. xxii. 271 Dalton..adopted it [sc. hydrogen] as the unit or standard of atomic weight.

e. (See quots. and REPEAT sb. 4 b.)

1858 R. N. WORNUM Anal. Ornament 18 Units of repetition, or repeats of irregular shapes, arranged diagonally. Ibid. 19 As it is in this case the group that is repeated, the group of figures becomes the pattern or unit of repetition.

2. A single individual or thing regarded as a member of a group or number of things or individuals, or discriminated from these as having a separate existence; one of the separate parts or members of which a complex whole or aggregate is composed or into which it may be analysed.

1642 H. MORE Song of Soul II. i. ii. 55 In number, measure, weight, he all things made; Each unite he dissevers by his Art. 1690 LOCKE Hum. Und. II. xxiii. § 1, 74 Which collective Ideas of several Substances thus put together, are so much each of them one single Idea, as that of a Man, or an Unite. 1716 M. DAVIES Athen. Brit. II. To Rdr. 13 Some few Despicable Unadditionable Units or Unitarians. 1729 HUME Hum. Nat. I. iii. ii, 'Tis evident, that existence in itself belongs only to unity, and is never applicable to number, but on account of the units, of which the number is composed. 1817 SCOTT Rob Roy xxxi, The unit of that life..was for ever withdrawn from the sum of human existence. 1856 MERIVALE Rom. Emp. xl. IV. 459 Our history becomes a review of the affairs of a vast unit, the aggregate of a multitude of smaller members. 1892 H. C. BASTIAN Begin. Life I. 216 Before a nucleus is evolved.., the simple living unit (plastide) is able to assimilate nutritive material and grow.

b. That division or section of a collective body or whole which is regarded as the lowest or least to have a distinctive existence; such a division or group of individuals considered as a basis of formation or administration.

1849 GROTE Greece II. xxviii. IV. 68 The village is a fraction, but the city is an unit. 1861 MAINE Anc. Law v. 126 The unit of ancient society was the Family. 1888 BRYCE Amer. Commw. II. 224 The county remained the practically important unit of local administration, the unit to which the various functions of government were aggregated.

c. In military or naval use.

1876 VOYLE & STEVENSON Milit. Dict. 446/1 In military organization, the term unit is applied to that single portion upon which any part of an army, regiment, &c. is formed. Thus a company is the unit of a regiment; a battery, that of a brigade of artillery. 1893 Infantry Drill p. xxiii, [A] Battalion [is] the unit of infantry. 1899 Times 14 Oct. 9 A waterproof bag which is left at the base..on a unit going into action.

3. attrib., passing into adj., with the general meaning 'of, pertaining or equivalent to, (that of) a unit; produced or caused by a unit; consisting of, containing, or forming a unit or units'.

A large number of special collocations, chiefly of a scientific or technical nature, are given in some recent Dicts.

a. In sense 1 c, chiefly in Electr., as unit coil, current, force, jar, measure, pole, etc.

1839 NOAD Electricity i. 31 A very useful little electrical instrument..for registering the exact quantity of electricity given to a Leyden jarial from the machine; it is called the unit jar. 1842 BRANDE Dict. Sci., Unit jar..announce[s] by its repeated discharges, which may be counted, the number of them which have passed into the larger jar. 1844 NOAD Electricity (ed. 2) 53 The value of the unit measure. 1866 R. M. FERGUSON Electr. 17 A magnetic needle of unit size and strength. 1867 NOAD Text Bk. Electricity 201 A circuit of unit resistance. Ibid., The unit current flowing through a conductor unit of length will exert the unit force on the unit pole at the unit distance. 1867 BRANDE & COX Dict. Sci., etc. III. 899/1 Unit coil,.. a standard measure used by electricians for expressing the amount of resistance experienced in a given electrical circuit. 1873 J. C. MAXWELL Electr. & Magn. II. 3 The unit-pole is a pole which points north, and is such that, when placed at unit distance from another unit-pole, it repels it with unit force. 1896 P. G. TAIT Rec. Adv. Phys. Sci. (ed. 2) xiv. 357 Unit force is..that force which, whatever be its source, produces unit momentum in unit of time. 1884 KNIGHT Dict. Mech. Suppl. 913/2 Unit and safety value, one exposing 1 square inch to the force of the steam.

b. In general use.

1896 R. G. MOULTON Lit. Study Bible xi. 258 These Unit Proverbs exhibit two varieties. 1897 Daily News 9 Feb. 3/4 Was the scheme to be organized on brigade, battalion, or unit basis? Ibid., The unit system of organization. 1898 Engineering Mag. XVI. 104 A plant of a certain size may be run by a unit-body of men. 1898 SIR W. CROOKES in Daily News 8 Sept. 6/1 The consumption of wheat per head of the population (unit consumption) was over 6 bushels per annum.

4. As adj. Having the distinct or individual existence of a unit; individual.

1870 J. H. NEWMAN Gram. Assent I. i. 7 All things in the exterior world are unit and individual;..the mind contemplates these unit realities as they exist. a 1881 A. BAIRNATT Phys. Metempiric (1883) 115 If the unit minds were parts or modes of this absolute mind.

Unit, variant of UNITE sb.

Unitable (yūnai·tăb'l), a. [f. UNIT-E v. + -ABLE.] That can be united; capable of union.

1653 H. MORE Antid. Ath. (1660) 151 The Plantal faculty of the Soul whereby she is unitable to this terrestrial body. 1659 — Immort. Soul III. xiv. 481 That Order of immaterial Creatures which we call Souls, vitally unitable with the Matter. 1678 CUDWORTH Intell. Syst. 565 Such Beings or Spirits Incorporeal..are Vitally Unitable to Bodies. 1707 Vulpone 22 The Offer of the Scots to Unite the Nations in such things as they are Unitable. 1854 OWEN in Ore's Circ. Sci., Org. Nat. I. 166 When fractured, the broken parts..are not unitable..from within.

Hence Unitabi·lity.

1863 tr. Dorner's Person of Christ III. 280 The real unitability of the divine and human.

†Uni·tage. Obs.—[f. as prec. + -AGE.] The action of uniting; union.

1641 Dial. Rattlehead & Roundk. 4 You can find no meanes to conjoyn an vnity? Rattleh. Only perversnesse in the vnitage of your circular opinions.

Unital (yū·nităl), a. [f. UNIT or UNIT-Y + -AL.] That unites; causing or producing unity or union; of the nature of a unit; unitary.

1860 W. J. C. MUIR Pagan or Chr. 82 The Ti have grandly predominates over the aisles, without there being any unital element common to both. 1882 J. B. STALLO Concepts & The. Mod. Physics 20 In nature there is a great unital, continuous and everlasting process of development. 1894 Forum March 34 To give to each one-tenth of its capital stock..a single director, is open to the objection that it prevents unital control.

Unitarian (yūnitē·riăn), sb. and a. [Partly, in theol. use, f. mod.L. unitari-us (1656: f. L. ūnitās UNITY) + -AN, partly f. UNITY-Y sb. + -arian. So F. unitarien a. and sb. Cf. UNITARY a.]

A. sb. 1. Theol. One who affirms the unipersonality of the Godhead, especially as opposed to an orthodox Trinitarian; spec. a member or adherent of a Christian religious body or sect holding this doctrine.

Usually with initial capital.

1687 [? S. NYE] Brief Hist. Unitarians 109 The Polonian Unitarians were..zealous.., the Unitarians of Transylvania were more moderate. Ibid. 117 The Unitarians, vulgarly called Socinians. 1697 STILLINGF. Disc. Trinity 22 Our Vnitarians own the Ebionites as their Predecessors. 1705 T. EMLYN Vind. Worship Christ 1/1 Mr. B. flatters himself upon this head, as tho he had quite baffled the Cause of the Unitarians. 1782 PRIESTLEY Corrupth. Chr. I. i. 8 Eusebius [had] prejudice against the unitarians of his own time. 1787 HAWKINS Life Johnson (ed 2) 233 In his religious principles he [Dr. E. Barker] professed himself an unitarian. 1813 J. ADAMS Wks. (1856) X. 50 The dissenters of all denominations in England, and, especially, the Unitarians, are cowed. 1837 HT. MARTINEAU Soc. Amer. III. 279 The Unitarians, the religious body with which I am best acquainted. 1889 Ch. Q. Rev. April 35 We may roughly state these three conceptions [of Christianity] as (1) the Unitarian, which conceives of Christ as an exalted human teacher merely; (2) the Protestant,.. (3) the Catholic.

b. In wider use, as applied to any non-Christian monotheist, esp. a Mohammedan.

1708 OCKLEY Saracens 229 Abu Obeidah sent Abdo'llah Ebn Kort with an Express to Omar..begging his Prayers and some fresh Recruits of Unitarians (a Title they glory in, reckoning themselves the only Asserters of the Unity of the Deity). 1788 GIBBON Decl. & F. lx. V. 1. His preachers ..called aloud on the unitarians, manfully to stand up against the Christian idolaters. 1819 W. J. FOX Lect. iv. Wks. 1865 I. 221 Five different classes of Unitarians, who are out of the pale of Christianity. 1909 G. K. CHESTERTON Orthodoxy viii. 249 The real Unitarians who with scimitar in hand have laid waste the world.

2. One who believes in or favours some theory or system based upon unity: a. Philos. (See quot. and MONIST). rare.

1836–7 SIR W. HAMILTON Metaph. xvi. (1859) L 205 The Realists or Substantialists are again divided into Dualists, and into Unitarians or Monists, according as they are, or are not, contented with the testimony of consciousness to the ultimate duplicity of subject and object in perception.

b. In miscellaneous uses.

1849 EMERSON Represent. Nights 27 The old men studied magic in the flower..And an omnipotence in chemistry, Preferring things to names, for these were new. Were unitarians of the united world. 1865 MANSFIELD Salts 254 A compound, which even by the unitarians, must be called a double salt. 1904 Brit. Med. Jrnl. 10 Sept. 572 In this toxin-antitoxin discussion there has been a tendency to ascribe to us the position of 'unitarians' in contradistinction to the 'pluralists'.

c. An advocate of national or political unity; one who supports the union of several states into one confederation under a central government.

1862 Times 9 April, Garibaldi..said all great Italians had been unitarians. 1865 Cornh. Mag. Aug. 249 As a unitarian and partisan of centralization he hurled anathemas at all autonomous cities and provinces. 1888–9 in Schaff's Encycl. Relig. Knowl. III. 2422/2 There is also a political party in Buenos Ayres..devoted to centralization in government, called Unitarians.

B. adj. 1. Theol. Of or pertaining to, connected with, the Unitarians or their doctrines; of the nature of, characteristic of, Unitarianism.

1687 [? S. NYE] Brief Hist. Unitarians 36 The Unitarian Doctrine has been reduced so low by the Persecutions of Rome [etc.]. 1691 W. NICHOLLS Answ. Naked Gospel 101 Whilst Faustus kept close in Italy, the Unitarian Cause was carried on by others. 1705 EMLYN (title), Vindication of the Worship of the Lord Jesus Christ on Unitarian Principles. 1782 Priestley Corrupt. Chr. I. 8 What could this be but the proper unitarian doctrine? 1812 M. Stuart Lett. to W. E. Channing 144 The younger preachers of Unitarian sentiments. 1824 Longr. in Life (1891) I. v. 52 Our little Unitarian Society at Bowdon. 1889 Cit. Q. Rev. April 35 The Unitarian conception of our Lord's Person and Office.

b. Of persons: Accepting, professing, or advocating the doctrines of Unitarianism; belonging to a religious body or sect of Unitarians.

1691 W. Nicholls Answ. Naked Gospel 96 The most remarkable of this sort of Unitarian Heretickes. † 1765 [W. Hopkins] Attempt title-p., A Friendly Dialogue between a common Unitarian Christian and an Athanasian. 1793 Kippis Biog. Brit. (ed. 2) V. 596 Dr. Bennet..laid himself open to the strictures both of Trinitarian and Unitarian Divines. 1815 W. J. Fox Serm. 38 The general character of Unitarian professors and converts. 1876 Fox Bourne Locke II. xii. 240 Thomas Firmin..the excellent unitarian merchant.

c. In wider use (see A. 1 b).

1780 Wesley Hymn, 'Sum of unclouded righteousness' iii, Stretch out thy arm, thou triune God, The Unitarian fiend expel, And chase his doctrine back to hell.

2. Of or pertaining to, involving, based or founded upon, characterized by, unity (in various senses); unitary: a. Philos. Monistic. rare.

1836-7 Sir W. Hamilton Metaph. xxiii. (1859) II. 78 He would..be forced to admit one or other of the unitarian conclusions of materialism or idealism.

b. Of systems, theories, etc.

1845 Lowell Lett. (1894) I. 102 My system is fully as unitarian as your own. 1878 Encycl. Brit. I. 463/2 These two theories, the one dualistic, the other unitarian, strangely foreshadow the discoveries of modern dynamics. 1893 19th Cent. Aug. 249 Under the unitarian system we no longer divide the molecule.

c. Advocating, promoting, or directed towards national unity, union, or centralization in government or administration.

1865 Morn. Star 10 Feb., The King of Unitarian Italy. 1877 Academy 10 Nov. 1/1 The unitarian movement of twenty years later differed..from the revolution which enthroned the triumvirate at Rome.

Unitarianism (yūnitēs·riănizm). [f. prec. + -ism. So F. unitarianisme.]

1. Theol. Belief in or affirmation of the unity of God; esp. the tenets, principles, or views of the Unitarians; Unitarian doctrine or beliefs.

1698 F. B. Modest Censure 22 The Missionary Fathers have not more ways..of gaining Converts in China,..than these men have of winning over people to Unitarianism. 1791 (title), Reasons for Unitarianism; or the Primitive Christian Doctrine...By a Welsh Freeholder. 1815 W. J. Fox Serm. 39 The success of Unitarianism speaks in its favour. 1874 Huxley in Sci. & Cult. (1881) 94 That hypothesis respecting the Divine nature which is termed Unitarianism by its friends and Socinianism by its foes. 1876 Gladstone in Contemp. Rev. June 17 Considerable changes seem to have taken place in the scheme of Unitarianism.

transf. 1824 Coleridge Table t. 1 Jan., The Turks have no church; religion and state are one; hence there is..no mutual support. This is the very essence of their Unitarianism.

2. a. Philos. = Monism 1. b. Any unitarian or unitary system or theory. 1891– in recent Dicts.

Unitarianize, v. [f. as prec. + -ize.] a. trans. To make Unitarian. b. intr. To become Unitarian; to adopt Unitarianism. Hence Unitarianized ppl. a.

1846 Worcester (citing Ec. Rev.). 1893 J. Martineau in Life (1900) II. 191 For its support it depends on a people long Unitarianised.

Unitarist. [f. Unitar-y + -ist.] An advocate of a unitary system of government; spec. a supporter of the unity of Italy.

Also, in recent use (1910), unitarism.

1862 Parthenon 26 July 398 Was Cavour, up to the time of the treaty of Villafranca, a Unitarist or Federalist? 1882 Contemp. Rev. Sept. 465 The Constitutional Monarchists of Italy are naturally Unitarists.

Unitary (yū·nitări), a. [f. Unit sb. or Unity + -ary 1. Cf. F. unitaire sb. and a., It. unitario sb., f. mod.L. unitari-us Unitarian.]

1. Crystallography. (See quot.)

1826 R. Jameson Char. Min. (ed. 2) 212 A crystal is named Unitary, when it experiences only a single decrement by one row.

2. Of or pertaining to, characterized by, based upon, or directed towards, unity.

1847 Tait's Mag. XIV. 560 The parcelled and the associative systems...With the latter the economies of unitary habitation..might be obtained. 1871 Lowe Study Wind. (1886) 227 The national and unitary tendencies of the people. 1893 Contemp. Rev. 799 The unitary movement in the new country [sc. Italy].

b. Philos. Of or pertaining to, proceeding from, involving, unity of being or existence. Also absol.

a 1842 Channing Perfect Life (1888) 64 Man loves the Universal, the Unchangeable, the Unitary. 1885 J. Martineau Types Eth. Th. I. 86 Every attempt at unitary deduction of a universe by predicamental logic. 1893 C. H. Upton Bases Relig. Belief 298 A unity of substance which ..connects every part with the unitary life of the whole.

3. Of the nature of a unit; having the separate existence or individual character of a unit. Of sounds: Simple, uncompounded.

1861 Lowell E Pluribus Unum Pr. Wks. 1890 V. 49 The United States are neither a German Confederation, but a unitary and indivisible nation. 1878 Whitney Life Lang. iv. 56 We have altered their original unitary sounds. 1882 Huxley in Nature XXIV. 345 An indivisible unitary archæus dominating..the parts of the organism.

b. Philos. Of being or personality.

1865 J. Grote Explor. Philos. I. 88 Whether..we are to be considered as having a locality distributable, or on the other hand concentrated and unitary, feeling self. 1886 Encycl. Brit. XXI. 397/1 Indirect proofs of a universe of pure and unitary Being. a 1901 F. W. H. Myers Human Personality (1903) I. p. xxvi, Each man is at once profoundly unitary and almost infinitely composite.

c. Serving as a unit of measurement or calculation.

1889 Sci. Amer. LX. 304/1 A wind pressure of 2,200 pounds for the same unitary distance is allowed for.

4. Of or pertaining to a unit or units; esp. in Chem., and spec. as denominating a theory or system in which the molecules of all bodies are regarded as units.

1865 Mansfield Salts 137 The unitary theory of the substitution of the two halves of the hydrogen of water. 1867 Bloxam Chem. Index 575 Unitary definitions, 256. 1880 Clerkmaxwell Watts' Atomic Theory 84 This was at that time—perhaps improperly—called the unitary system.

b. Of an alphabet, etc. Consisting or composed of single letters or symbols for each sound.

1874 Ellis Eng. Pronunciation IV. 1338 His 'unitary' arrangement. Ibid. 1339 Professor Whitney's Unitary Alphabet.

c. Arith. A modification of the 'rule of three,' by which, the value, extent, etc., of one unit being first determined, that of any number is found by multiplication.

1877 J. Hamblin Smith Arithmetic 164 The Unitary Method...is rapidly displacing the Rule of Three. 1908 Hall & Stevens School Arith. 135 The process is known as Reduction to the Unit, or the Unitary Method.

5. Forming a unit with something.

1868 Lowell Among my Bks. Sec. 1 Wks. 1890 III. 26 [Shakespeare] seems in some strange way unitary with human nature itself.

Hence Unitariness.

1865 J. Grote Moral Ideals (1876) 27 [Must not] the plant ..have..a sort of feeling to the extent of its unitariness of organization? [Also, in recent use, unitarily adv.]

Unite (yūnoit, yunoit), sb. Numism. Also unit. [i. pa. pple. of Unite v. Cf. Unity 2.

Named in allusion to the Union of the Crowns under James I, coins of the original issue bearing on the obverse the inscription Fecitque ex iis gentem unam (Ezek. xxxvii. 22). The b-form is prob. due to assimilation with Unit sb.]

An English gold coin first issued by James I in 1604, originally current at the value of 20 shillings, and raised in 1611 to 22 shillings. Cf. Broad sb. 4, Broad-piece, and Jacobus.

Different issues of this coin were denominated the laurel (Laurel sb. 4) and the sceptre (Sceptre sb. 3) after the distinguishing feature of each, and these terms were also used attrib. with unite.

a. 1604 Proclam. Coynes 16 Nov., One piece of Gold of the value of Twentie shillings sterling, to be called The Vnite, stamped on the one side with our Picture formerly vsed, with this Stile [etc.]. 1611 Proclam. Alteration Prices of Gold 23 Nov., The piece of Gold called the Vnite (to be current at xxij.s. 1612 R. Ricart Maire of Bristowe's Kal. (Camden) 61 In which purse were 200 vnites of gould, amounting to the summe of xlo li. 1726 S. M. Leake Numm Brit. Hist. 90 A Pound weight of Crown Gold 22 Carracts fine, and two Carracts Allay into 41 l, by Tale, to wit, into Unites at 20 s. 1763 [see Broad sb. 4]. 1898 Grueb. B. Rawlings Gilbert Priv. Coinage 77 A triple unite was also coined, but at the Oxford mint only.

b. 1736 Folkes Gold Coins 6, 2 ja. 1. Sovereign or Unites, vulgarly called Scepters. 1833 Humphreys Coin-Coll. Man. II. 471 The principal gold coins in the early part of the reign [of Charles I] were—the unit, or broad-piece (20 shillings), with its half and quarter.

† b. As the name proposed for certain silver coins (see quots.). Obs.

1691 Locke Lower. Interest Wks. 1714 II. 79 He proposes that his Silver Vnite..should go for 75 Pence. 1695 Lowndes Rep Ess. Amend. Silver Coins 62 One Piece which may be called the Sceptre or the Silver-Unite.

† Unite, pa. pple. and ppl. a. Obs. [ad. late L. ūnit-us (whence also It. unito, Sp. and Pg. unido, F. uni), pa. pple. of L. ūnīre: see the vb.] Combined or formed into one; conjoint, united. (Latterly Sc.)

1422 Yonge tr. Secreta Secret. 143 By lewte and trowthe and feyth the Pejill byth vnyette [sic], Citteis fulfilliz, and mayntenyd lordshuppis. 1460 Rolls of Parlt. V. 381/2 Londes and Tenementes..that were vnyte or annexed to the same Duchie. 1542 Hen. VIII Declar. Scots in Compil. Scot. 19 Two or mo of one estate might be rulers in one countrie vnite as this Isle is. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. IV 2 By the whiche mariage..the redde Rose was vnite and joyned with the white Rose. 1605 Play of Stukeley 1508 in Simpson Sch. Shakes. (1878) I. 219 That Spain and Portingale shall be unite. 1647 H. More Song of Soul iii. App. lxxviii, A cluster of small starres unite These Meteors some do deem. 1693 State Inst. ii. ii. § 18. 201 When Lands are rightly Unite or Erected in Baronies. 1721 Wodrow Corr. (1843) II. 595 The body of the ministers are joint and unite.

b. In attributive use.

1613 Heywood Silver Age iii. i, My charm, Which gods and devils gave unite consent To be infract. 1632 Lithgow Trans. iv. 133 [He] reduced all the Empire of Greece, to a vnite tranquillitie. 1675 R. Fleming Short Acc. Dorr. Rom. Ch. 2 A continual visibility of the Church, as an unite body.

Unite (yunoit), v. Also 5–6 unyte. [f. ūnīt-, ppl. stem of post-Aug. L. ūnīre, to join together, make one, f. ūnus one. Cf. Une v., Unt v.]

1. trans. To combine or join (one or more things) to or with another or others, to bring or put together (separate or divided things), so as to form one connected or contiguous whole; to form or incorporate into one body or mass; to make or cause to be one: a. In non-physical connexion or union.

In early examples used as pa. t. and pa. pple. active without final -d: cf. prec.

1432–50 tr. Higden (Rolls) VI. 289 Egberte prevaylynge in that batelle, unyte to his realme the realmes of the marches. 1513 Douglas Æneis x. Prol. 26 Set our natur God hes to hym vnyte. 1560 Daus tr. Sleidane's Comm. 16 That he take no counsel to vnite Thempire to his house and posterite. a 1650 Milton At a Solemn Music 27 Till God ere long To his celestial consort us unite, To live with him. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. II. xix. 96 Where the publique and private interest are most closely united. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. General, By retaining only those Qualities, and uniting them into one Idea, they have another, more general Idea. 1781 Gibbon Decl. & F. xxviii. III. 73 A wealthy and noble senator, who united the sacred characters of pontiff and augur, with the civil dignities of proconsul of Africa. 1825 Scott Betrothed xix, Before the fleurs-de-lis had united his troth with that of Eveline Berenger. 1839 Murchison Stiur. Syst. I. xxvi. 333, I attribute the discrepancy to my having united observations made on both flanks of the river. 1882 Miss. Pitman Mission L. Greece Pal. 174 The strongest wish of the Cretans is that they should be united to Greece.

absol. 1713 Blackmore Creation VII. 273 The mind..does distinguish here, and there unite.

refl. 1818 Scott Hrt. Midl. xviii, Here our story unites itself with that part of the narrative which [etc.].

b. In physical connexion or union.

In quot. 1602 in figurative context.

1597 Shaks. 2 Hen. IV, iv. i. 222 Our Peace will (like a broken Limbe united) Grow stronger. 1602 Marston Antonio's Rev. v. i, Be gratious, observation, to our scease, For now the plot unites his scattred limbes. a 1700 Evelyn Diary 23 May 1645, The whole Chapell..and roofe was full of precious stones united with the mouldings. 1738 Gray Tasso 61 The parent sun's warm powers..In one rich mass unite the precious store. 1788 Sir J. Reynolds Disc. (1789) 92 Much smoothness, and uniting the colours, is apt to produce heaviness. 1800 tr. Lagrange's Chem. II. 46 A salt which crystallizes in small needles united together. 1846 Brittan tr. Malgaigne's Man. Oper. Surg. 244 Sanson made his incision..and united the wound from before backwards. 1867 Pitt-Rivers Evol. Culture (1906) 67 A..breast-piece of armour..composed of seals' teeth, set like scales, and united with string.

refl. 1788 Lemprière Classical Dict. s.v. Cœlus, Saturn.. deprived his father of the organs of generation, as he was going to unite himself to Terra.

c. To combine or amalgamate into one body; to bring together or consolidate (an army).

1591 Shaks. 1 Hen. VI, iv. i. 164 Vnite Your Troopes of horsemen, with his Bands of foote. 1599 Haslewood Ibid. III. 69 The English and French, with forces and mindes vnited, sayled ouer into Africa. 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. VIII. § 153 All those forces..being united with Manchester. Ibid., The King..not believing that the enemy could be so soon united. 1802 James Milit. Dict. s.v. Battle, You should unite all your force, examine the advantage of the ground [etc.]. 1840 Thirlwall Greece VIII. 369 [If] the forces of Greece..had been united and well directed.

d. To join or clasp (hands), esp. in the marriage ceremony. (Cf. 2 b.)

1602 Shaks. Ham. III. iii. 170 Since..Hymen did our hands Vnite comutual, in most sacred Bands. 1817 Shelley Rev. Islam v. xlviii, Now unite Thine hand with mine. 1820 Scott Monast. xxxvii, A house of the village, where next day their hands were united by the Protestant preacher.

e. Horsem. To cause (a horse) to move with the hind- and fore-quarters in union or agreement. (Cf. 5 d, Union sb.[1] 2 c, and F. unir.)

1884 E. L. Anderson Mod. Horsem. 110 To unite a horse at a walk, the rider will press his legs against the sides of the animal, and, carrying back the forces of the forehand, prevent an increase of the speed by a corresponding operation of the hand.

2. To make one in feeling or thought; to cause to agree; to combine or join (persons) together in action or interest, or for some special purpose.

1547 J. Harrison Exhort. Scottes b iv b, Remember (I besech you..) how that by this calling of vs into this vnite, ..he woulde also haue & loyne vs in one religion. 1565 Cooper Thesaurus s.v. Vnitas, In unitatem venire, Plin., to be united:..to be no more at variance. 1593 Shaks. 2 Hen. VI, I. i. 23 If Simpathy of Loue vnite our thoughts. 1599 [see 1 c]. 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. VIII. § 84 A general who might unite all those northern counties in his service. 1649 Nicholas Papers (Camden) 155 The meanes to unite the hearters of all the sober Royalysts. 1709 Prideaux Lett. (Camden) 202 His interest with the northern protestants may be of great use to unite them with the Church of England. 1792 Cowper Odyss. xxiv. 567 Let mutual amity..Unite them, and let wealth and peace abound. 1817 Shelley Rev. Islam xii. xxiii, The fond and long embrace which did their hearts unite. 1829 Buckle Civ. I. xii. 661 Men of all tastes..were on this point united as by a common bond.

refl. 1594 Hooker Eccl. Pol. I. x. § 7 This was the cause of mens uniting themselues at the first in politicke societies. 1648 Milton Ps. lxxxiii. 19 Themselves against thee they unite And in firm union bind. 1706 Phillips (ed. Kersey) s.v. Province, Provinces..that made a firm Alliance..by which they united themselves, so as never to be divided.

b. To join (persons) in marriage. Also refl.

1728 Chambers Cycl., Marriage, a..Contract, by which a Man is join'd and united to a Woman. 1871 R. Ellis tr. Catullus lxiv. 21 Then did a father agree Peleus with Thetis unite him. 1882 Miss Braddon Mil. Royal II. vi. 119 She wants to see the two people she loves best on earth united.

3. Of persons (or things): To have, possess, or exhibit (qualities, etc.) in union or combination; to combine (features usually regarded as distinct).

1796 H. Humphrey tr. St.-Pierre's Stud. Nat. I. 52 We shall seek that [specific character] of each plant..init's grain, which, as being the principle, must unite every thing proper for it's expansion. 1798 Ferriar Illustr. Sterne, etc. ii. 38 A speciment of D'Aubigné's style, which unites the severe and the ludicrous. 1824 Encycl. Brit. Suppl. II. 111/1 Uniting in himself all the vices of..a Barbary despot. 1864 Bayce Holy Rom. Emp. xii. (1875) 195 The Emperor..was also the East Frankish King, uniting in himself, to use the legal phrase, two wholly distinct persons'. 1871 Freeman Norm. Conq. xviii. IV. 143 The sons of Ealdgyth united the blood of the two greatest houses in England.

4. intr. Of persons, personifications, states, etc.: To enter into association, alliance, combination; or union; to join together or with others for some common purpose; to combine in some action or to do something; to act in concert or agreement.

1613 Shaks. Hen. VIII. I. iii. 1 If you will now unite in your Complaints,..the Cardinall Cannot stand vnder them. 1670 Clarendon Hist. Reb. xiii. § 58 The Presbyterians of Lancashire..nobody imagined to be..unwilling to unite and join with the royal party. 1749 Fielding Tom Jones viii. xiv. All united at last, to drive out that king. 1787 Washington Lett. Writ. 1891 XI. 183 Is it best for the States to unite or not to unite? 1847 Mrs. A. Kerr tr. Ranke's Hist. Servia 22 Now it was necessary that all should unite in direct conflict against a common enemy. 1890 Retrospect Med. CII. 343 Teachers and text-books have all united in impressing upon us the necessity of the greatest care in handling tar.

b. Of hearts or minds: To become one in feeling or sentiment. poet. or rhet.

1766 Fordyce Serm. Yng. Wom. (1767) II. x. 101 With mind only can mind unite. 1781 Cowper Ep. Lady Austen 32 When minds, that never met before, Shall meet, unite, and part no more. 1817 Shelley Rev. Islam vi. xxxix, Few were the living hearts which could unite Like ours.

c. To join in marriage with another.

1755 Johnson, To Join, v.n.,..to unite with in marriage. 1866-7 Baring-Gould Curious Myths (1872) 216 A man..unites with a woman of the underground race.

5. To form one material whole or body; to become one; to be joined together, or to or with others; to combine physically; to coalesce; spec. in Chem., to combine by chemical affinity or attraction.

1667 Milton P.L. XII. 382 From my Loynes Thou shalt proceed, and from thy Womb the Son Of God most High; So God with man unites. 1690 Locke Hum. Und. II. xxiii. § 26 Let but a sharp cold come, and they unite, they consolidate, these little atoms cohere. 1776 Pope Iliad v. 375 Where to the hip the inserted thigh unites. 1794 R. P. Knight Landscape i. 194 To lead..the prying sight To where component parts may best unite. 1826 S. Cooper First Lines Surg. (ed. 2) 292 When not too severely contused, they will be found to live and unite to the surrounding parts. 1835 J. Duncan Beetles (Nat. Lib.) 213 There are two broad stripes..on each wing-case, which unite behind. 1871 A. Meadows Mann. Midwifery (ed. 2) 54 The tubes..sometimes remaining throughout single, but at other times dividing and uniting again.

(b) 1800 tr. Lagrange's Chem. I. 303 They form together a triple salt, ,which proves that they exercise a reciprocal attraction, in virtue of which they unite. 1807 T. Thomson Chem. (ed. 3) II. 103 In this way it [water] unites to lime. 1867 Bloxam Chem. i Chemical attraction is the force which causes different kinds of matter to unite, in order to form a new kind of matter.

b. Of naval or military forces, etc.: To form one combined or conjoint body.

a 1700 Evelyn Diary 5 May 1692, The Eastern wind so constantly blowing, gave our fleete time to unite. 1748 Anson's Voy. I. vii. 75 The time drew near, when the squadron would be separated never to unite again.

c. Of immaterial things or in non-physical connexion.

1795 in Cruise Digest (1818) III. 228 Their heirship is unitas juris: the whole body of the coheirs, however numerous, must unite to constitute the heir. 1809 Coleridge Friend 142 The nature of the Earth and the nature of the Mind unite to make the contrary impossible. 1822 Byron Vis. Judgem. lxvi, The next world; where unite All the costumes since Adam's.

d. Horsem. (See quot. and cf. 1 e above.)

1753 Chambers' Cycl. Suppl. s.v., A horse is said to unite, or walk in union, when, in galloping, the hind quarters follow and keep time with the fore.

Uni'ted, ppl. a. [f. prec.]

1. Put or joined together; combined, connected, made one. (Cf. also sense 4.)

1552 Huloet, Vnited, vnitus. 1663 Bp. Patrick Parab. Pilgr. xiii. They will teach those united hearts the greatest Love. 1671 Milton Samson 1110 [They] durst not with thir whole united powers In fight withstand me. 1706 Prior Ode to Queen xiii, Unmov'd the Two united Chiefs abide. 1796 Withering Brit. Plants (ed. 3) I. 340 Anthers 5, narrow, united. 1804 Gazetteer Scot. (1806) 541 The united streams of the Dochart and Lochy. 1839 T. Mitchell Frogs of Aristoph. p. xcviii, A poem at least of equal length with the Iliad and Odyssey united. 1866-6 Cayley Math. Papers (1893) VI. 9 If two points of a unicursal curve have an $(\alpha, \alpha')$ correspondence, the number of united points is $= \alpha + \alpha'$.

2. Of, belonging to, or produced by two or more persons, agents, or things in union or combination; conjoint, joint.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia II. xxvi, Their united rage was now growne..to a crossing one of another. 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. VIII. § 235 They could not..support the war any longer against the united power of the rebels. 1697 Dryden Virg., Georg. iv. 242 All, with united Force, combine to drive The lazy Drones from the laborious Hive. 1797 Mrs. Radcliffe Italian ix, With sudden strength, he burst from their united hold. 1820 R. Peel in Croker Papers (1884) I. 177 The united voice of King, Lords, and Commons. 1847 Mrs. A. Kerr tr. Ranke's Hist. Servia 257 The united consent of all Europe would have been the most desirable. 1856 Kane Arct. Expl. I. xxiii. 300 Our united estimate assigned to it an elevation of from 2500 to 3000 feet. 1871 Jowett Plato II. 174 Incapable of united action by reason of sedition.

b. Constituted or formed by, resulting from, the union of two or more parts or sections.

Freq. in the titles of churches, societies, etc., formed by the union or reunion of bodies or sections which had seceded or were formerly separate, e.g. United Free Church of Scotland, United Methodist Free Church, United Secession Church: cf. 4.

1697 Dryden Æneis IV. 145 Come common kingdom, one united line. 1833 Jas. Davidson Brit. & Rom. Rem. Axminster 25 Where, forming a junction with its fellow ['trackway'], the united road leads through the town. 1835 [T. Jackson] Man. Sects & Heresies 112 In 1829 the two bodies were rejoined under the name of the United Secession Church. 1847 Mrs. A. Kerr tr. Ranke's Hist. Servia 284 The united army took up its position close by the mouths of the Morawa.

c. Bot. Of a flower (see quot. 1829).

1807 J. E. Smith Phys. Bot. 306 In this genus the Pistil of the united flower scarcely produces seeds. 1829 T. Castle Introd. Bot. 92 When the stamens and pistils are both, as usual, in one flower, it is called perfect or united.

d. Horsem. (See Unite v. 1 e and 5 d.)

1884 E. L. Anderson Mod. Horsem. 139 When the horse will continue the united trot without the aid of the reins. Ibid., The horse will be practised in keeping the united form at the walk.

†3. Forming or conferring union. Obs.[-1]

1598 Shaks. Merry W. IV. vi. 51 That you'l procure the Vicar To stoop in me at Cheap: ..And in the lawfull name of marrying, To giue our hearts vnited ceremony.

4. Special collocations in the names of states, corporate bodies, or persons allied, associated, or joined together in a union or confederation.

United Brethren, the Moravians. United Colonies, † (a) the four colonies which formed the New England Confederation (see Confederation 2); (b) the thirteen North American colonies which revolted against Great Britain and formed the original Republic of N. America (see Union sb.[1] 3 c and 7 c, and cf. United States 1 b). United Greek, a member of the United Greek Church (see quot. 1869). a Uniat. United Irishman, a member of the Society of United Irishmen, a political association, originally formed to promote union between Protestants and Catholics, which became a separatist secret society and took part in organizing the rebellion of 1798. United Presbyterian: (see Presbyterian a. 1 c). United Provinces, the seven northern provinces of the Netherlands, allied together principally by the Union of Utrecht in 1579, and subsequently developing into the kingdom of Holland (cf. United States 1 a).

1586 Acts Privy Counc. (N. S.) 190 The knowen subjectes ..of the Unyted Provinces. 1617 Morysson Itin. III. 92 The States of the vnited Provinces. 1642 in Winthrop New Eng. (1826) II. 101 They..do..conclude that they all be..called by the name of the United Colonies of New England. 1677 W. Hubbard Narrative (1865) II. 252 The Commissioners of the United Colonyes. 1708 C. Mather Magnalia IV. iv. 177 It had not been so long before the Names of Presbyterian and Congregational, had been melted down into that One of United Brethren. 1775 Pennsylv. Even. Post 21 Dec. 587/1 Captain Coit, in an armed schooner of the United Colonies, lately chased a transport. 1777 R. Watson Philip I. xxiv. II. 406 Although this event gave great satisfaction to the people subject to the Spanish government, it was not likely to produce any change in the sentiments, or conduct of their neighbours in the United Provinces. 1791 in W. Tone Autobiog. (1826) I. 368 We have agreed to form an association to be called 'The Society of United Irishmen'. 1799 J. Adams Wks. (1854) IX. 4 He is doubtless a United Irishman. 1837 Lover Rory O'More I. x. 214 An extended palm which..exchanged with him the grip of the United Irishman. 1849 Rock Ch. of Fathers I. ii. 90 The United or orthodox Greeks. 1863 Chambers' Encycl. V. 88/1 The United Greek Church comprehends those Christians who, while they..observe the general discipline of the Greek Church,..are yet united with the Church of Rome. Ibid., The United Greeks.

b. United Kingdom, the kingdom of Great Britain, or esp. (after the union with Ireland in 1801) of Great Britain and Ireland, Abbrev. U.K.

1737 Gentl. Mag. VII. 609/1, I have more Reason to oppose it, than any Man in this House, nay perhaps than any Man in the United Kingdom. 1800 Act 39 & 40 Geo. III, c. 67. 359 The said Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland shall..be united into one Kingdom, by the name of The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. 1832 Act 2 & 3 Will. IV, c. 75 § 1 That part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, and..that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland.

c. United Irishism, the views or principles of the United Irishmen.

1800 W. Drennan in Microscope March 134 He fears that political and religious schism, that White-Boyism,..Catholicism, United-Irishism may..change into Patriotism. 1844 P. Hardwood Hist. Irish Rel. 120 Munster was..the only province of Ireland not deeply leavened with Defenderism or United Irishism.

Uni'tedly, adv. [f. United ppl. a. + -ly[2].] In a united manner; so as to be united; in union or combination, together; with agreement or concurrence of thought or action on the part of several.

1609 Florio Montaigne I. xxvii. 93 Our mindes haue iumped so vnitedly together. 1642 Lo. Digby Part. Sp. 9 Feb. 7 All the Vertue of this House, how unitedly soever collected. 1697 State Philindelph. Soc. 8 Though they meet..to implore the good Spirit of God Unitedly. 1760 tr. Busching's Syst. Geog. V. 491 Both unitedly pay eighty-six rixdollars. 1788 Triffler No. 26. 214 The various pleasures and inconveniences of which..we had unitedly participated. 1835 Fraser's Mag. XI. 494 Our possession of power, and our belief in the truth of our own religious professions, cannot, even when taken unitedly, justify us. 1865 Pusey Truth Eng. Ch. 6 To resist unitedly an inroad upon our common faith.

Uni'tedness. [f. as prec. + -ness.] The state or quality of being united; union.

1636 Drumm. of Hawth. Fam. Ep. Wks. (1711) 151 So harmonious an Vnitedness, as hath so long continued between us. 1652 Benlowes Theoph. VIII. xlv, Be ever-ever-ever bless'd, O Trine! Ever Unitedness divine! 1670 King in Spirit of Popery 37 Harmony and Unitedness in things. 1864 Pusey Lect. Daniel viii. 498 The assurance of a deathless unbroken unitedness with God. 1894 G. Griffith tr. Fouard's St. Paul xii. 296 An act of thanksgiving for the spirit of unitedness now restored among them.

United States.

1. The proper name or distinctive title of a confederacy, federation, or union of States.

In later use freq. construed as a singular.

a. The kingdom or republic of Holland, = the United Provinces (United ppl. a. 4). Also attrib. Now rare or Hist.

1617 Morysson Itin. III. 94 The Territory of Utrecht is also associated under the same United States. c 1622 Fletcher & Massinger Barnavelt v. iii, in Bullen O. Pl. II. 306 Do you hold the United States so tame to fears him? 1665 Manley Grotius' Law C. Wars 929 By the publick and private colloquies of the United States people. 1779 Hervey Nav. Hist. II. 268 The United States, overwhelmed with the expence of the war,..were extremely desirous of an accommodation.

b. The Republic of North America. Abbrev. U.S. or U.S.A. (Cf. State sb. 31 c, d, and United Colonies United ppl. a. 4 a.)

1781 J. Adams Fam. Lett. (1876) 403 You will never have peace while the Britons have a company of soldiers at liberty within the United States. 1868-8 in Bryce Amer. Commw. (1888) I. 569 The style of this Confederacy shall be, 'The United States of America'. 1812 Earl of Liverpool in Examiner 11 May 292/2 The United States had assumed a very warlike attitude. 1827 Dwight Trav. New Eng., etc. (1821) I. 18 The United States have been regarded by this class of men as fair game. 1888 Encycl. Brit. XXIII. 759/1 The United States..was anxious to establish what Great Britain was prepared to grant.

attrib. 1840 (title), United States Digest. 1843 Penny Cycl. XXVI. 13/2 The officers of the United States navy. 1875 Jevons Money xix. 246 The United States Government.

c. In other applications (see quots.).

1864 Chambers's Encycl. VI. 734 New Granada (since 1858 the official designation has been The Granadian Confederation, and since 1862, The United States of Colombia). 1890 Hazell's Annual 64/2 That the provinces of Brazil, united by federation, compose the United States of Brazil.

2. The form of English spoken in the United States of North America or regarded as distinctly American. To talk United States, to use strong language, to express oneself forcibly.

1891 E. Roper Track & Trail ix. 134 Most of the ladies spoke decided 'United States'; one was 'Dutch',..and one..had a decided British accent. 1898 Hamblen Gen. Manager's Story x. 134 I'll be makin' a preparing comments..I vowed to myself that I'd talk United States to him if I lost my job by it.

Hence United-States'tesian a., of or belonging to the United States of America; sb., an inhabitant or citizen of the United States.

Also United Statesman (1850), and, in recent use, United Statesser.

1892 N. & Q. 8th Ser. II. 146/2 To an outsider, say a Frenchman or a United-Statesian. 1897 Westm. Gaz. 26 Aug. 3/3 The secret of the American or rather United-Statesian race.

†Uni'tely, adv. Obs. [f. United ppl. a. + -ly[2].] Unitedly.

1602 Lo. Mountjoy Let. in Moryson Itin. (1617) II. 213 The Lyst of the Forces here in Ireland, being vnitely considered. 1614 Cornwallis in Gutch Coll. Curr. I. 164 That we might all unitely..cast ourselves at his Majesty's feet. 1677 Gale Crt. Gentiles IV. 247 Unitie..hath all numbers in it singularly and unitely.

†Uni'tement. Obs.[-1] [f. Unite v. + -ment.] The fact or condition of being united; union.

1631-2 N. Ferrar Story Eks. Little Gidding (1899) 169 The hope of better serving God and the firmer unitiment [sic] unto him.

†Uni'teness. Obs. [f. as prec. + -ness.] Unitedness.

1639 Lo. Digby, etc. Lett. conc. Relig. (1651) 132 Conformity and uniteness of minde. 1684 J. Kenwick in Biogr. Presbyt. (1827) II. 261 The Uniteness of my Heart unto you.

Uniter (ˈyuːnəɪtə). [f. Unite v. + -er[1].] Cf. Unitor and It. unitore.] One who or that which unites; a uniting agency or quality.

1587 Golding De Mornay vi. 79 The Vniter, and the thing Vnited. 1605 Bacon Adv. Learn. I. viii. § 1 Vniters of states and cities. 1633 T. Adams Exp. 2 Peter I. 7 Friendship is a great vniter. 1790 J. Boome Trans. Engr. 199 James..became the Happy Uniter of the two Crowns. 1794 Swift Drapier's Lett. iv, Money..hath..been the great uniter of a most divided people. 1796 Hervey Medit. Flower Garden 29 The Ocean is the grand Vehicle of Trade, and the Uniter of distant Nations. 1840 Carlyle Heroes iv, The Priest..presides over the worship of the people; is the Uniter of them with the Unseen Holy. 1852 Lynch Lect. Scattered (1872) 209 How could we love God the bereaver, if He were not the uniter also?

†Uni'terable, a. Obs.[-1] (Unˈ-) ? b.] That cannot be repeated. 1688 Sir T. Browne Chr. Mor. viii. § 23 To play away an uniterable life.

Uniting (yuːnaɪ·tɪŋ), vbl. sb. [f. UNITE v. + -ING 1.] The action of the verb; union; an instance or occasion of this.

1548 ELYOT, Unitas, vnitye, vnityng or ioygnyng of two thynges or mo together. 1559 Fabyan's Chron. 367/2 The vnitinge of the two houses of Yorke and Lancaster. 1581 T. ROGERS St. Aug. Proiers xvi. (1597) 66 That vnspeakable ..vniting together of thy Godhead and manhood in one person. 1613 CROOKE Body of Man 329 These vnitings are not alwayes after one manner. 1652 HOBBES Leviath. ii. xxii. 122 All uniting of strength by private men. 1712 J. JAMES tr. Le Blond's Gardening 172 Cavities or Stones.. hinders their uniting with the Ground. 1778 in Picton Liverp. Munic. Rec. (1886) II. 211 A Bill..for the uniting the kingdom of Ireland with this kingdom. 1841 LANE Arab. Nts. I. 125 The uniting of two persons in marriage.

attrib. 1713 BERKELEY in Guardian 5 Aug., That benevolent uniting instinct implanted in human nature. 1714 in Jrnl. Friends Hist. Soc. (1918) 29 Truth..broke through for our..comfort, see 'twas an Uniting time.

b. The place where two or more things unite or join. rare—1.

1708 R. MORRIS Ess. Anc. Archit. 8: The Joint is..apt to discover the Grains of each Wood at the uniting.

Uniting, ppl. a. [f. as prec.] That unites or joins.

a 1635 SIBBES Confer. Christ & Mary (1656) 92 That Spirit of God..is a uniting spirit. a 1653 BINNING Serm. Wks. (1735) 4/2 Christ is the uniting Principle. 1713 BLACKMORE Creation vi. 420 The sportive flood..with uniting tides.. wanton clasps the intercepted soil. 1817 SHELLEY Rev. Islam II. xlvi, Then..shall all the kinds Of evil, catch from our uniting minds That spark which must consume them. 1826 HENRY Elem. Chem. I. 192 When the uniting wire was perpendicularly opposite to the north pole of the suspended needle. 1895 Athenæum 6 July 8/3 A book of impressions without any uniting idea.

Hence Uni·tingly adv.

1728 R. MORRIS Ess. Anc. Archit. p. iv, Inroads daily made..unitingly conspire, to destroy..its Beauties.

Unition (yuːnɪ·ʃən). Also 6 unycion. [ad. late L. unitiōn-, unitio, n. of action f. L. unire: see UNITE v. Cf. OF. unition, unicion, It. unizione.] The action of uniting; the fact or condition of being united; union, conjunction, junction.

†a. Of ecclesiastical benefices. Obs.

1511–2 Act 3 Hen. VIII, c. 17 § 24 The appropriacion, unycion, or consolidacion of the same Parsonage..to the seid Abbot & Convent. 1564 PARKER Corr. (Parker Soc.) 224 This is to require you, if upon the understanding of the matter ye shall see cause to give out such an unition [of a benefice and a chapel], to grant it. 1787 HARRISON England II. i. (1877) I. 21 The vnition of two [livings] in one man.

†b. Of material substances or bodies. Obs.

1543 TRAHERON Vigo's Chirurg. III. i. vi. 93 The curation.. Is accomplished..by vnition, or coniunction of seperated or sundred partes. 1587 HARRISON Desc. Brit. in Holinshed Chron. I. 78/2 After whose vnition with the aforesaid water, they run on as one till they meet with the Clothie. 1613 M. RIDLEY Magn. Bodies 78 To cause these Magnetical bodies to..tume away, to the end that they may better.. dispose themselves to a conuenient and naturall vnition. c 1644 W. CHAMBERLAYNE Pharon. II. iii. 255 Death's large gripe did take Whole troops..; and in's march prevents The unition of unrulled regiments. 1669 Phil. Trans. XXI. 140 This Unition of Bones at their articulations. 1738 BRACKEN Farriery Improv. (1757) II. 244 Motion hinders Unition in Wounds.

c. Of abstract things, persons, etc., in non-physical or ideal union.

1584 Leycesters Commonw. 24 By this breach wyth Fraunce, we stand alone..wythout anie great vnition or friendship abrode. 1629 H. BURTON Truth's Triumph 106 That is the most singular..vnity, which consists not by vnition, but existence by eternity. a 1680 CUDWORTH Intellectual Sys. (1681) 174 The unition of Spirit with Matter. 1709 T. ROBINSON Vind. Mosaick Syst. 21 The Seminal Forms being by a vital Unition conjoined to their Material Vehicles or Bodies. 1733 WATTS Philos. Ess. III. (1734) 85 The Union or mutuer Unition of a particular Soul and particular Body. 1816 [see UNICITY]. 1872 W. H. GILLESPIE Argt. Being & Attrib. God iv. iii. (ed. 2) 159 The attributes, whose unition yields us this Holiness. 1873 R. GROSSET Holy Catholic Ch. xvi. 187 The ultimate unition and universal inclusiveness of the Church.

d. Of man and (to or with) the Deity. Now rare.

Sometimes distinguished from union (see quot. 1681).

1593 JACKSON Creed viii. 79 This part of the nature wounded..was first to bee perfectly cured, and throughly purified by personall unition to the Sonne of God. 1681 FLAVEL Method of Grace v. 94 There must be an unition before there can be a union with Christ. Unition is to be conceived efficiently as the work of God's spirit, joyning the believer to Christ; and union is to be conceived formally, the joyning itself of the persons together. 1778 J. BROWN Nat. & Rev. Relig. iii. 232 Christ..signified his unition of his people into one mystical body with himself. 1784 — Hist. Brit. Ch. (1823) I. 343 Their regeneration and spiritual unition to him. 1848 BAILEY Festus (ed. 2) 323 The summit-flower of all created life is its unition with Divinity.

Unitism. rare—1. [f. UNIT sb. + -ISM.] = MONISM I b.

1850 W. SMITH Conf. Faith v. in Thorndale (1857) 488 He [sc. Seckendorf] would coin the term Unitism as a simple opposite to the generally received Dualism.

Uniti·stic, a. [f. UNITY: see -IST and -IC.] Of or pertaining to, believing in, a theory of unity.

1888 T. K. CHEYNE in Yemis Q. Rev. Oct. 75 A unitistic critic. Ibid. 82 From a decided separatist [he] became a decided a maintainer of the unitistic view of the Book of Zechariah.

Unitive (yuːnɪtɪv), a. [ad. late L. unitīv-us (Quicherat), f. L. unit-, ppl. stem of unīre: see UNITE v. and -IVE. Cf. F. unitive, -if (15th c.), Sp., Pg., and It. unitivo.]

1. Having the property or effect of uniting; serving to unite or cause union; characterized by or involving union.

Freq. c 1645–c 1670, esp. in the writings of H. More.

1596 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 285 b, For loue..is unityue, that is to saye, it disposeth and draweth all thynges that it ruleth, to peace & vnite. 1647 H. MORE Song of Soul Notes 136/2 The unitive power of the Intellect. 1660 JER. TAYLOR Doctor ii. i. rule 1. § 33 That all laws which are commonly called Natural are most reasonable, they are perfective of Nature, unitive of Societies. 1678 CUDWORTH Intell. Syst. 162 The ground of magical fascination is one vital unitive principle in the universe.

a 1834 COLERIDGE in Lit. Rem. (1839) IV. 26 Christ, the head, and by his Spirit the bond, or unitive copula of all. 1845 J. H. NEWMAN Ess. Developm. 337 The very nature of a true philosophy relatively to other systems is to be polemical, eclectic, unitive. 1893 PATMORE Relig. Poetæ 99 Genius consists wholly in the possession of the divine faculty of synthetic or unitive apprehension.

†b. Of a person. Obs. rare—1.

1651 H. MORE Second Lash in Enthus. Tri., etc. (1656) 195 Thou art so unitive a soul, Phil.. that thou wouldst not stick to match chalk and cheese together.

c. Anat. Of fibres: (see quots.).

1875 HAYDEN Dis. Heart 31 Luton describes the fibres of the ventricles [of the heart] as common and proper. The former are the 'unitive' fibres of Gerdy. Ibid. 32 The posterior 'unitive' fibres pass from the posterior segments of the auriculo-ventricular zones..to the right edge of the heart.

2. Having the quality or attribute of uniting spiritually to the Deity.

a 1659 ROUS Heav. Univ. (1702) 160 Until that I shall arrive to the unitive union of the Father. 1675 O. WALKER Paraphr. St. Paul 94 The institution of the unitive vertue of the Sacrifices. 1825 PUSEY Doctrine of Real Presence 312 This unitive power [of the body of Christ under these species]..is not an action bringing (adductive of) the Body of Christ, nor simply unitive. 1855 BAILEY Mystic. etc. 58 That blessed secret, unitive and divine,..which us Ones with the Infinite. 1879 L. SHEPHERD tr. Gedemann's Liturg. Year I. 389 This unitive power of the Eucharist.

b. spec. in unitive life, way, etc., applied to the third and final stage of spiritual advancement.

1649 JER. TAYLOR Gt. Exemp. Disc. i. § 9 All the eminencies and spiritual riches of the unitive life. Ibid. Disc. iii. § 26 Concerning the very same thing which the old Divines call the unitive Way. 1687 NORRIS Coll. Misc. (1699) 341 Seraphic love, and this with Contemplation, makes up that which the Mystic Divines stile the Unitive way of Religion. 1716 M. DAVIES Athen. Brit. I. 237 The Purgative, Illuminative and Unitive Conditions of the Mind. 1749 LAVINGTON Enthus. Meth. & Papists (1754) 146 By the purgative and illuminating Way, she attains to the Unitive. 1829 Rev. Rev. & Cont. Misc. V. 318 The purgative, illuminative, and unitive stages of devotion. 1848 BAILEY Festus (ed. 3) 208 The soul..Lay lulled in glory, and in unitive Life with divinity. 1899 W. R. INGE Chr. Mysticism i. 10 Strictly, the unitive road (via) leads to the contemplative life (vita).

Hence Unitively adv.; Unitiveness.

1664 H. MORE Myst. Iniq. 322 The consideration of the collectiveness and unitiveness of..[these] types. 1678 CUDWORTH Intell. Syst. 307 Jupiter who contineth the Universe, and All things within himself, Vnitively and Intellectually. Ibid. 582 The First of these is sometimes said to be..'All things Vnitively,' The Second..'All things Intellectually.' 1812–20 COLERIDGE in Lit. Rem. (1838) III. 147 The corrupt will cannot..be unitively subordinated to the reason. 1865 NEALE Hymns Paradise 68 Whom, embracing unitively, Thou shalt love with perfect will.

Unitize, v. rare. [f. UNIT sb. + -IZE.] trans. To form into a unit; to unite or make one.

1849 [implied in next]. 1860 WORCESTER (citing Ch. Reg.). 1893 J. PULSFORD Loyalty to Christ II. 300 [Christ] is the head of every principality and power..to subdue all things to Himself, and to unitise highest and lowest.

So Unitized, Unitizing ppl. adjs.

1849 SHARS Regeneration iii. xii. (1859) 239 The governing and unitizing principle of all endeavour. 1873 Contemp. Rev. XXI. 269 The rapid immediate advance of unitized societies.

†Unitor. Obs.—1 [f. UNITE v. + -OR.] = UNITER.

1602 WARNER Albion's England XIV. 339 Seauenth Henry, the Vnitor of those Flowers that long disseuered.

Unitude. nonce-word. [f. UNI- or UNIT, after multitude: see -TUDE.] The character of being one.

1852 SPENCER Soc. Stat. 18 It hints that the first principle of a code for the right ruling of humanity in its state of multitude, is to be found in humanity in its state of unitude.

Unity 1 (yuːnɪti). Forms: 4–6 vnite, vnyte, 4–7 unite, 5–6 unyte; 4 vnitee, vnytee, 6 unitee; 5 vnytie, 6 unytie, 5–6 vnytye, vnityе, 5–7 vnitie, 6–7 unitie, vnity (7 vnitty), 7– unity. [a. AF. unite, OF. unite, uniteit (c 1200), F. unité (= Sp. unidad, Pg. unidade, It. unità), or ad. L. unitās, unitātis oneness, sameness, agreement, f. un-us one: see -ITY.]

I. 1. The fact, quality, or condition of being, comprising, or consisting of one in number; oneness, singleness. Freq. of the Deity, and in early use in the phr. in unity.

Used spec. in Philos. and Metaph. to express the negation of multiplicity of being or existence; individuality, identity (see Baldwin Dict. Philos. & Psychol.).

a 1300 Cursor M. 5142 Pis wandes takens persons thre, And an-fald godd in vnite. c 1325 Spec. Gy Warw. 49 Wild be fader, and wild be sone, And wild be holi gost in vnite. c 1380 WYCLIF Serm. Sel. Wks I. 383 Two passen fro unyte, 1398 TREVISA Barth. De P. R. XIX. cxvi. (1495) 921 The one and vnyte of nombre..: therby is fygure and lykneſſe of the vnyte of our lorde god. c 1532 DU WES Introd. Fr. in Palsgr. 1023 The blessed Trinitie thre persones in unite. 1594 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. I. ii. § 2 Our God is one, or rather very oneness, and meere unitie. 1606 SHAKS. Tr. & Cr. v. ii. 141 If there be rule in unitie it selfe, This is no shee. 1621 T. BEDFORD Sin unto Death 6 The singular number doth not always imply an individuall vnitie. 1690 LOCKE Hum. Unde. ii. vi. § 1 Amongst all the Ideas we have,..there is none more simple than that of Unity, or One. 1725 WATTS Logic (1736) 245 The Unity and Spirituality of the Godhead. 1766 BLACKSTONE Comm. II. 432 The notion of an unity of person between the husband and wife. 1844 KINGSLEY Lett. (1878) I. 117 Perfect unity in extreme multiplicity. 1864 BOWEN Logic ix. 292 A question often involves a real duplicity under a seeming unity. a 1881 A. BARRATT Phys. Metaephysic (1883) 216 A priori a spacial principle of unity seems as reasonable as a temporal.

b. Math. The condition of the unit or number one; the numeral one regarded abstractly as the basis of number in reckoning or calculation.

1570 BILLINGSLEY Euclid vii. i. 184 Vnitie is that, whereby euery thing that is, is sayd to be on. 1657 HOBBES Astrol Geom. 2 The excesse of the rising proportion above subtriple is the same which unity hath to the six times the number of termes after o. 1709–29 V. MANDEY Syst. Math., Arith. 6 Unity measures every number by the number itself; so 1 measures 7 by 7. 1831 BREWSTER Optics iv. 28 Take 1 part or unity from the same scale. 1869 J. H. SMITH Elem. Algebra 50 The quotient is unity when the Dividend and the Divisor are equal. 1882 WATSON & BURNSIDE Math. Th. Electr. & Magn. I. 232 Taking unity as the combining number for hydrogen.

c. A quantity, magnitude, or substance regarded as equivalent to the number one in calculation, measurement, or comparison.

1728 CHAMBERS Cycl., Measure, in Geometry, any certain Quantity assumed as one, or Unity, to which the Ratio of other Quantities is express'd. 1797 Encycl. Brit. (ed. 3) XVII. 659/1 The most convenient way..would be to consider the weight of the standard as unity. 1801 Monthly Rev. XXXV. 529 The ten millionth part of the..distance ..was taken as the unity of measure. 1816 PLAYFAIR Nat. Phil. II. 287 If the mass of Jupiter be supposed unity. 1836 BRANDE Chem. (ed. 4) 220 Others adopt oxygen as unity, in which case hydrogen becomes one-eighth of that unit. 1880 HALDEN Phys. Geog. iii. 38 If we call the Gulf Stream unity, we may form an approximate estimate of the other four systems of circulation.

2. An instance of this: †a. = UNIT sb. 1. Obs.

c 1425 Craft Nombryng (E. E. T. S.) 22 Reken ten for on vnite. Ibid. 28 Lete mony vnityes ben in þe nounbre þat comes of þe multiplicacioun of þe 2 digiltes. 1543 RECORDE Arith. 119 b, In that place of vnities dothe appere only 7. 1587 FLEMING Contin. Holinshed III. 1490/2 The residue..being multiplied by vnities, doe make vp the complet number of three score and twelue. 1630 WINGATE Arith. i. 1. 15 The Integers, or intire Vnities. 1669 STURMY Mariner's Mag. III. ii. 129 Because the Angle CAB is a Right Angle,..I therefore only put an Unity before the second Term. 1837 WHEWELL Hist. Induct. Sci. I. 250 His objections to geometry and arithmetic are founded on abstract evils concerning the nature of points, letters, unities.

b. One separate or single thing, quality, etc.; something which is complete or entire in itself, or is regarded as such.

1587 GOLDING De Mornay ii. 16 The foresayd most single and aloniy One, abyding still one in it selfe, bringeth fourth all the other vnities. 1598 MARSTON Sco. Villanie I. iv. (1599) 187 Sylenus now is old, I wonder, I, He doth not hate his triple vnenels..; He thinkes a vnlie were euer conuyent. 1600 EDMONDS Observ. Cæsar's Comm. 38 The life and strength of a multitude consisteth in vnities. 1681 Whole Duty Nations 7 He himself is the prime Unity and Universality. 1828 CARLYLE Misc. (1840) I. 40 Nature is one, of it is as an indivisible Unity. 1847 EMERSON Repr. Men, Swedenborg P 17 The unities of each organ are so many lights grains, homogeneous with their compound. 1889 MIVART Orig. Hum. Reason 46 They are apprehensions of abstract qualities grouped round a unity.

II. 3. The quality or condition of being one in mind, feeling, opinion, purpose, or action; harmonious combination together of the various parties or sections (of the Church, a state, etc.) into one body; concord or harmony amongst several persons or between two or more.

In the usage with a (an) the meaning tends to become concrete (see b.).

c 1325 Poem temp. Edw. II (Percy) xxii, Among men of religioun Is non unite. c 1380 WYCLIF Serm. Sel. Wks. II. 226 þis unite shulden men have bi þe lore of Jesus Crist, and þanne shulden þei be of o wille. c 1425 WYNTOUN Cron. IX. viii. 342 That tyme at Rokesburg..Was a treitis of vnyte Betuix þe Franche and Inglismen. 1450 CAPGRAVE Chron. (Rolls) 294 Be this mene was the unite of the Cherch lettid. 1560 DAUS tr. Sleidane's Comm. 123 The Germains within them selves shold..come to some vnitie & concord. 1590 GREENE Never too late (1600) 42 Vnitie is the essence of amitie. 1606 SHAKS. Tr. & Cr. i. iii. 100 The vnity and married calme of States. 1647 TRAPP Comm. Rom. xv. 6 (1656) 652 It is recorded to the high commendation of the Church of Scotland, that for this 90 years and upwards they have kept unity. 1738 WESLEY Ps. CXXXIII. i, When Brethren all in One agree: Who knows the Joys of Unity! 1776 PAINE Com. Sense 49 This not in numbers but in unity that our great strength lies. 1830 D'ISRAELI Chas. I, III. v. 62 Laud..contemplated establishing unity by uniformity. 1854 MILMAN Lat. Chr. iv. iv. II. 99 No sooner has Anglo-Saxon Britain become one (no doubt her religious unity must have contributed..to her national unity) than [etc.]. 1878 STUBBS Const. Hist. III. xviii. 221 The king's death at once broke up the unity of the Court.

(b) 1460 CAPGRAVE Chron. (Rolls) 120 Edgare..mad a very unite of all the vil. kyngdammes. a 1466 Hist. Coll. Cit. Lond. (Camden) 216 The same yere..the general counsile was endyd, and a unyte made in Hooly Chyrche, and oo pope chosyne. a 1500 Baldr's Chron. in Six Town Chron. (1911) 145 The king..and divers lordes..agreed and ther made a full unyte and peas betwene the dukes of york and somerset. 1577 HOLINSHED Chron. I. 286/2 Diuerse offers were made on both partes..for an vnitie to haue beene had betwixte the two Princes.

b. Freq. in adverbial phr. at or †in unity, in agreement, concord, or harmony; at one.

c 1374 CHAUCER Troylus III. 29 Ye holden regne and hous in vnite. 1390 GOWER Conf. III. 194 So schal I live in unite With every man. c 1430 LYDG. Lyke thyn Audience I, Yf yow wilt lyffe in peesse and vnite. c 1450 BURGH Sacrifice 1520 These Sustrys Cheyned in parfight vnyte, departe may not by natural resoun. 1535 COVERDALE Ps. cxxi, Ierusalem is buyided as a cite, that is at vnitie in it selfe. *a*1619 FOTHERBY Atheom. II. x. § 4 (1622) 308 An Vnity is always at vnitie with it selfe, and never varieth from it selfe. 1662 PLAYFORD Skill Mus. I. v. 18 To guide his Voyce in unity to the sound of the Instrument. 1672 BAXTER Holiness lxiv. 18 It plainly sheweth that they are very much at unity in the main. 1724 in Jrnl. Friends Hist. Soc. (1918) 27 Leaving our family and friends in great love and Unity. 1768 STERNE Sent. Journ., Dover, The old French officer would have set me at unity with myself. 1845 Q. Rev. XXXII. 369 No Italian city or state was at unity in itself. 1871 JOWETT Plato I. 56 The bad..are never at unity with one another or with themselves.

c. Agreement or accord between things.

1393 LANGL. P. Pl. C. IV. 338 As adiectif and substantyf vnite asken, Acordaunce in kynde, in cas and in numbre. Ibid. 308. 1593 SHAKS. Lucr. 1558 These contraries such unity do hold, Only to flatter fools and make them bold. 1611 — Wint. T. V. ii. 95 There is such vnitie in the proofes.

†d. Agreement or concurrence with something.

1760 J. WOOLMAN Journal vii. (1900) 146 Some Friends.. expressed their willingness to have it read; which being done, many expressed their unity with the proposal.

4. The fact of forming or being united into one body or whole; union (of two or more persons or things, or of one with another); rarely, physical union or connexion; † conjunction of two or more things.

1387 TREVISA Higden (Rolls) V. 9 By tokene þe onynge and þe unite of Crist and of holy chirche. 1472–3 Rolls of Parlt. VI. 23/1 Entierly desiryng..the unyte of the nobles and other his subgettes. 1489 CAXTON Gold. Leg. 255 b/2 The unyte and assemble of the fidelles of oure lord and of oure lady. 1505 ALLEN Defence Purg. xvii. 283 Which forme of argument serued the Arians against the consubstantiall vnitye of God the father, and his son our sauiour. 1598 TRAHERNE Cadeus on Cen. 76 Heaven was set a true image of our unitie with the Son of God. 1597 A. M. tr. Guillemeau's Fr. Chirurg. xi/2 The synnuish filamentes which have a vnitye and fasteninge with the Pericranium. 1612 TOURNEUR Ath. Trag. I. iii, The unitie of Families is a worke of loue and charitie. 1651 HOBBES Leviath. II. xvii. 87 This is more than consent, or concord; It is a reall Unitie of them all, in one and the same Person. 1796 BURKE Regic. Peace I. 43 In this unity and indivisibility of possession are sunk ten..wealthy provinces. 1801 HAMILTON Wks. (1886) VII. 186 They have approved the unity of the legislative power in one branch. 1871 R. W. DALE Communion. i. 23 That our Lord claimed for himself an unyuersal unity with the Father. 1880 J. CAIRD Philos. Relig. v. 157 The unity of subject and object..is implied in every act of thought.

†b. A meeting or assembly of people. Obs.—1 a 1470 HARDING Chron. CLXXXVII. ii, In cytees al he helde wel vnitees, Great iustes ay, and loyous tournements.

c. A body formed by union, esp. the Unity of the (Moravian) Brethren. In later quots. ellipt.

1780 LA TROBE tr. Crantz's Hist. Brethren 67 Twenty-four ministers of the Unity of the Brethren. Ibid. 353 Every actual member of the Unity that is desirous of taking the benefit of this act. 1814 WM. BROWN Hist. Propag. Christianity II. 124 This, by the synods of the Brethren's church, is vested solely in the Elders' Conference of the Unity. 1865 J. GILL Banished Count xxv. 262 The affairs of the Unity called the Count..to the Continent.

5. The quality of fact of being one body or whole, esp. as made up of two or more parts; an undivided whole, as distinct from its parts.

1390 GOWER Conf. I. 37 If a man were Mad al togedre of o matiere Without interruption, Ther scholde no corruption Engendre upon that unite. 1398 TREVISA Barth. De P. R. v. ii. (Bodl. MS.) Yf þe vertu is liette..þe vnyte & loynyng of alle þe body to falle). 1533 GAU Richly Pray (S.T.S.) 57 He is wonder man and wonder is spouse with the halie christine kirk in to ane body the quhilk vnite S. Paul ...callis ane greit halie secreit thing [etc.]. 1583 MELBANCKIE Philotimus F iv b, The conjunction of manye in an vniforme vnitie. 1823 SHELLEY Q. Mab iv. 144 Every grain is sentient both in unity and part. 1850 ROBERTSON Serm. Ser. III. iv. (1857) 57 In proportion as you rise from lower to higher life, the parts are more distinctly developed, while yet the unity becomes more entire. 1871 JOWETT Plato (ed. 2) V. 65 [Plato] does not insist, as in the Protagoras, on the unity of the virtues.

†6. The quality of being of one kind; uniformity of substance or appearance. Obs.

1638 JUNIUS Paint. Ancients 119 To vary the unitie of a stone by inserting such spots into the crust as were not by nature.

7. As a literary or artistic quality: a. Agreement of the various parts of which something is composed so as to form a whole which exhibits singleness of design or effect; combination or arrangement which produces this, or the effect so produced.

1712 ADDISON Spect. No. 267 ¶ 3 Aristotle himself allows, that Homer has nothing to boast of as to the Unity of his Fable. 1756 J. WARTON Ess. Pope I. iii. 101 Horace observed a strict method, and unity of design, in his epistle to the Pisones. 1783 BLAIR Lect. I. 216 The second quality of a well-arranged sentence, which I termed its Unity. 1808 L. MURRAY Eng. Gram. I. 430 But most of all, in a single sentence, is required the strictest unity. 1864 PUSEY Lect. Daniel I. 1 Amid apparent want of unity on the surface of the Book, there is a real unity in the whole, resting on the unity of the plan of the writer. 1874 R. TYRWHITT Sketch. Club 272 Unity in a picture is the sympathy of its groups or parts.

b. One or other of the three principles of the Aristotelian canon of dramatic composition as adopted and expanded by the French classical dramatists, according to which a play should consist of one main action, represented as occurring at one time (i.e. one day) and in one place. Also in loose application.

1668 DRYDEN Ess. Dram. Poesy Ess. (Ker) I. 38 The famous Rules, which the French call Des Trois Unites, or, the Three Unities, which ought to be observed in every regular play. [1668 SHEFFIELD (Dk. Buckhm.) Ess. Poetry 12 The Unites of Action, Time, and Place.] 1712 ADDISON Spect. No. 267 ¶ 2 Homer to preserve the Unity of his Action hastens into the Midst of Things. 1789 BEISHAW Eccl. I. ii. 18 The diction of these plays is lofty..the unities strictly preserved. 1816 SCOTT Old Mort. xxxvii, It is fortunate for tale-tellers that they are not tied down like theatrical writers to the unities of time and place. 1859 TROLLOPE Barchester xvi, Two years..; it is a terrible gap in a story, but in these days the unities are not much considered. 1878 O. W. HOLMES Motley iv. 24 A series of incidents..flung together with no more regard to the unities than [etc.].

transf. 1821 LAMB Elia I. Old Relations, Nature hath her unities, which not every critic can penetrate.

c. transf. (See quot.)

1861 WHYTE MELVILLE Good for Nothing xvi, Those functionaries in white hats and red waistcoats, who with singular attention to the unities, adopt the very colours of the Post-office Directory and Court Guide.

8. Freedom from or absence of diversity or variety; unvaried nature of (some quality or thing).

Not always clearly distinct from sense 1.

1802 PALEY Nat. Theol. xx. (1819) 314 What we have first to notice is unity of purpose under variety of expedients. 1824 MISS MITFORD in L'Estrange Life (1870) II. ix. 176 ['Our Village'] is..a series of sketches..with some story intermixed, and connected by unity of locality, and of purpose. 1841 MYERS Cath. Th. iii. § 48. 284 Amidst all this variety, what unity of spirit and of aim is there in the Bible! 1884 F. TEMPLE Relat. Relig. & Sci. vi. 164 The unity of plan..pervading any great class of animals..seems to point to unity of ancestry.

9. Singleness of aim, purpose, or action.

1836 HOR. SMITH Tin Trumpt. I. 5 There is a simplicity and unity in despotism which is not without its advantages. 1849 W. H. KELLY tr. L. Blanc's Hist. Ten Y. II. 176 The grand principle of unity in power. 1866 GEO. ELIOT F. Holt i, She had thought that the possession of this child would give unity to her life.

9. Law. (See quots.)

1607 COWELL Interpr., Vnitie of possession, ...in the Ciuill lawe, a loyst possession of two rights by seuerall titles. 1691 BLOUNT Law Dict. s.v. Possession, If the Lord purchase the Tenancy held by Heriot service, the Heriot is extinct by Unity of Possession. 1766 BLACKSTONE Comm. II. 180 The properties of a joint estate are distinct from it's unity, which is fourfold; the unity of interest, the unity of title, the unity of time, and the unity of possession. 1818 CRUISE Digest (ed. 2) III. 103 It was held clearly that this common was extinguished by the unity of possession. 1858 LD. ST. LEONARDS Handy-bk. Prop. Law xxv. 189 Unity of possession—that is, where the land and the right exercised over it are in the same person.

†Unity 2, obs. var. of or error for UNITE sb.

1604 in Rymer Fœdera (1715) XVI. 605/2 One Peece of Gold..to be called The Unitie. 1643 BAKER Chron., Jas. I, 147 Ordayning the peice called the Vnity..to bee currant now for two and twenty.

Univalent (yūnivālĕnt), a. Chem. [f. UNI- + L. valent-em, pr. pple. of valere to be worth.] Having a valency of one; having the combining power of one atom of hydrogen or other radical.

Also, in recent Dicts. (1891–), univalence, univalency.

1869 Eng. Mech. 19 Nov. 222/1 A univalent body can only join its single atom to a single atom of a univalent body. 1872 WATTS Dict. Chem. VI. 243 Chlorine is univalent in argentic chloride. 1893 19th Cent. Aug. 249 Each atom of potassium ..is univalent, and has the same valency as one atom of hydrogen.

Univalve (yū́nivelv), a. and sb. Nat. Hist. [See UNI- and VALVE sb.] Cf. F. univalve (1752), It. and Pg. univalve, It. and Sp. univalvo, mod.L. univalvis.]

A. adj. a. Conch. Of molluscs: Having a shell consisting of one valve.

1662 LOVELL Hist. Anim. & Min. A 7 b, Fishes, which..are, turbinate..bivalve..or univalve. 1752 J. HILL Hist. Anim. 115 The first [series of shellfish] containing those formed of only one piece; this I shall call the simple ones; others have called them univalve ones. 1774 Phil. Trans. LXV. 46 The smallest univalve or testaceous animal of any such kind. 1816 W. SMITH Strata Identif. 27 Bivalve shells [are] most common to the thick beds; univalve to the thin. 1851 G F. RICHARDSON Geol. viii. 230 When they have a shell it is thin, fragile, and univalve. 1872 W. S. SYMONDS Rec. Rocks vi. 181 A univalve collinal.

b. Ent. Having one valve.

Also in recent use in Zool. and Bot.

1826 SAMOUELLE Direct. Collect. 54 Proboscis [of Diptera] (rarely wanting) univalve.

B. sb. Conch. A univalve mollusc or shell.

1668 WILKINS Real Char. 129 Venus Shell..being of near affinity to the Univalvs. 1683 Phil. Trans. XIV. 507 Distinction of shells into Univalves, Bivalves, and Turbinated. 1755 Gentl. Mag. XXV. 32/2 When a shell, therefore, is found to be a Univalve. 1785 Phil. Trans. LXXV. 342 The univalves..have the intestine reflected back. 1832 LYELL Princ. Geol. II. 110 Aquatic univalves usually attach their eggs to leaves and sticks. 1854 KINGSLEY Lett. (1878) I. 411 The crevices of the highest rocks..have their peculiar little univalves. 1879 tr. Semper's Anim. Life 41 Animals.. as low in the scale as the Amphibia or Univalves.

Hence Univa'lved, Univa'lvular adjs., Bot. having or consisting of one valve.

Also, in recent Dicts. (1891–), univalvate.

1823 CRABB Technol. Dict., Univalved*,..one-valved; an epithet for a pericarp. 1837 A. GRAY First Less. Bot. (1866) 215 Univalved, a pod of only one piece after dehiscence. 1793 MARTYN Lang. Bot., Folliculus,..a follicle, a *univalvular pericarp. 1830 LINDLEY Nat. Syst. Bot. 294 Those species of Panicum whose outer flower is univalvular. 1849 BALFOUR Man. Bot. § 330 The perianth is divided into different pieces, which are denominated valves, the fruit being univalvular, bivalvular,..&c. according as there are one, two, or many valves.

Universal (yūnivḗrsăl), a. (adv.) and sb. Forms: a. 4–5 vni., 5 unyuersel, 4 universel (-uersele). β. 4–5 uny-, 5–6 vnyuersal, 5 -all, 4–7 vniuersal (5 -ale, -versale), 6–7 -all, vniversal (1, 5–6 universalle, 5 -uersalle, 6–7 universal(1; 4, 6– universal. See also VARESAL a. and VERSAL a. [a. OF. universel, universal (12–13th c.); F. universel, = It. universale, Sp. and Pg. universal); or ad. L. universāl-is (post-Aug.), f. universus: see UNIVERSE and -AL.] The sb. occurs in OF. universal (1372), in F. (17th c.) in pl. universaux universals (see B. 1), F. universel (16th c.) the universe, It. universale.

Early examples in verse exhibit stressing on the second or fourth syllable.]

A. adj. 1. Extending over, comprehending, or including the whole of something specified or implied; prevalent over all.

Contexts in which the reference is to the whole of a particular community are numerous, esp. in groups b and c.

Freq. the adj. develops a more or less specialized sense, as in universal grammar, root, succession; see also 14.

c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. v. pr. iv. (1868) 165 Resoun sumtimes ymaginacion and conseyuyng by an vniuersel lokynge þe commune space þat is in þe singuler peces. c 1386 — Pars. T. ¶ 292 His contricioun..shal been vniversal [Camb. MS. vnyuersel] and total, this is to seyn, a man shal be verray repentaunt for alle kiles synnes. 1390 GOWER Conf. III. 77 Ther felle wondres many on Of terremote universal. 1398 TREVISA Barth. de P. R. (W. de W. 1495) II. xii. 39 By an vnyuersal excellence the hygher angellis ben areryd aboue a subiection. 1555 EDEN Decades (Arb.) 45 Of the vniuersall carde and newe worlde. Ibid. 211 After my vniuersall description of the historie of the Indies. 1557 RECORDE Whetst. Re iij b, These rootes therefore bee called vniuersalle rootes, because thei are the rootes..of the whole compounde nomber. 1597 BLUNDEVIL Exerc. III. 1. xv. (ed. 2) 150 The Moone..cannot shadow all the Earth, and therefore the Eclipse of the Sunne cannot be vniuersall. 1630 J. TAYLOR (Water P.) Jack a Lent Wks. 118/1 The knauery of the Baker is vniuersal, in Asia, Europa, Afrike, and America. 1647 CLARENDON Hist. Reb. I. § 32 The loudest and most universal rejoycing over the whole Kingdom. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis VIII. 194 What further can say thee The victor troops from universal sway? 1736 BUTLER Anal. II. vi, As neither the iewish nor christian Revelation have been universal. 1752 HARRIS Hermes Wks. (1841) 120 How few, then, must be those who know grammar universal; that grammar which..only respects those principles that are essential to them all? 1765–8 ERSKINE Inst. Law Scot. III. viii. § 1 This kind of succession is called universal; and may be defined, the right of an heir or executor to enter upon the estate which belonged to a person deceased at the time of his death. 1784 COWPER Task IV. 204 The slope of faces.. Relax'd into an universal grin. 1822 BYRON Vis. Judgem. xxvii, The gate flew Asunder, and the flashing of its hinges Flung over space an universal hue Of many-colour'd flame. 1860 TYNDALL Glac. II. i. 226 This is now the universal belief. 1891 FARRAR Darkn. & Dawn xxiv, The day was kept as a universal holiday.

b. Affecting or involving the whole of something specified or implied; spec. in Path. (see quot. 1876).

c 1412 HOCCLEVE De Reg. Princ. 2295 Gretter cheerte He hadde of the proffit vniuersel Than of hym self. a 1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula, etc. 64 Without dout it schal cure peritely, vniuersalle purgacions goyng afore. a 1475 ASHBY Active Policy 772 The vniuersal And the comyn wele of this Region. 1542 BOORDE Dietary xxxvi. (1870) 297 They the whiche haue the Palysy, vnyuersall or pertyculer, must beware of anger. 1560 DAUS tr. Sleidane's Comm. 108 The Emperour doth establyshe a vniuersall peace throughout Germany. 1611 SHAKS. Wint. T. v. ii. 100 If all the world could haue seen't, the Woe had beene vniuersall. 1656 BARL MONM. tr. Boccalini's Advts. fr. Parnass. II. vi. (1674) 140 In Germany, and in universal concerns, there appears but one only Commonwealth..but many in particulars. 1697 DRYDEN Virg. Georg. III. 829 At length [Tisiphone] strikes an Universal Blow; For Death at once whole Herds of Cattle go. 1724 FORE Ess. Mass IV. 114 God sends not ill; if rightly understood, Or partial Ill is universal Good. 1754 SHERLOCK Disc. (1759) I. 12 Are you alone exempt from this common, this universal Blindness? 1846 DISRAELI V. Grey VI. i, The battle was general, the overthrow universal. 1876 DUHRING Dis. Skin 52 When an eruption involves the whole surface, it is said to be universal. 1878 BROWNING La Saisiaz 44 What a preferable state were universal happiness!

c. Proceeding from the whole body or number; committed, given, made, etc., by all without exception of the persons to whom there is reference or allusion.

1586 DAY Eng. Secretary II. (1625) 41 The vniuersall sentence of the whole board. 1611 CORYAT Crudities 627 The vniuersall suffrage of all the learned. 1663 BP. PATRICK

Parsch. Pilgr. xxxviii, His title and claim unto our universal obedience. 1687 A. Lovell tr. Thevenot's Trav. ii. 39 Baron...discharged that Office [of Consul] with honour and universal Approbation. 1701 Swift Contests Nobles & Comm. v. For a house of commons to lose the universal favour of the numbers they represent. 1800 Cowper Odyss. (ed. 2) xxiv. 598 Forefathers, whose exploits Have shared so long, such universal praise. 1844 H. H. Wilson Brit. India III. 432 An almost universal insurrection of the Hills. 1871 Freeman Norm. Conq. (ed. 2) vii. IV. 91 The English visitors were the objects of universal attention, of universal admiration. 1871 Jowett Plato II. 185 The universal voice of mankind is saying that [etc.].

†d. Applied to the whole body. Obs.[-1]

1725 Fam. Dict. s.v. Fomentation, A Bath is universal, and therefore never made use of to Horses, because of their large Size.

2. Qualifying (in senses 1 and 1 a) agent-nouns, personal designations, or titles; freq. in universal bishop, esp. (now Hist.) as a title assumed by or given to some of the Popes.

c 1380 Antecrist in Todd Three Treat. Wycliff 118 Oo bischop hat wole be clepid vnyuersal bischop. 1483 Caxton Cato a j b, God is the vnyuersel comnaunder of alle our production. 1552 Abp. Hamilton Catech. (1884) 38 The universal Lord of all this world. 1582 T. Wilcox] B. de Loque's Disc. Ch. 73 Saint Peter was not an vniuersall Apostle, nor a soueraigne and high bishoppe ouer all the Churche. 1606 Shaks. Ant. & Cl. iii. xiii, 71 To heare frome me had...put your Father's Pitcher vnto the vniuersal Landlord [sc. Julius Cæsar]. 1632 Lithgow Trav. x. 474 Boniface the third obtained of Phocas...to be called vniuersall Bishop. 1657 Milton P. L. iii. 317 Here shalt [thou] Keepe Both God and Man, ...Anointed vniuersal King. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Oecumenical, Supposing the Title Oecumenic to imply Universal Bishop, or Bishop of all the World. 1784 Cowper Task vi. 449 The universal Father's love. 1818 Shelley Rosner's Hymn to Earth 1 O universal Mother, who dost keep From everlasting thy foundations deep! 1876 Freeman Norm. Conq. xxiv. V. 391 He became universal landlord, but he did not cease to be universal ruler.

b. In legal use (spec. in Scots Law): Of or in respect of the whole estate or property.

1669 in W. M. Morison Dict. Decis. (1807) 16167 His executor and universal legatar. 1702 London Gazette No. 3806. 6 His Majesty has...appointed the Prince of Frise to be his Universal Heir. 1756-8 Erskine Inst. Law Scot. iii. ix. § 6 Where a settlement is made by the deceased of the whole or the universitas of his moveable estate, the person gratified is called universal legatee. 1790 in Notme Peerage Evidence (1829) 99 The said Mary Mercer to be my sole executor and universal intromitter.

c. Scots Law. Succeeding to an estate by a universal, as distinct from a singular, title.

1681 Stair Inst. xxvi. 92 Heirs in Law are called Universal Successors,...[because] they do wholly represent the defunct. 1838 Bell Dict. Law Scot. 951 In this sense the two terms of singular successor and universal successor are opposed to each other.

3. Of or pertaining to the universe in general or all things in it; existing or occurring everywhere or in all things; occas., of or belonging to all nature. Chiefly poet. or rhet.

1390 Gower Conf. II. 91 Vit withouten eny forme Was that matere universal, Which hihte ylem. 1637 Milton Lycidas 60 Her inchanting son Whom Universal nature did lament. 1643 Swan Spec. Mundi (ed. 2) 213 These things...are but in particular seas,...where a generall and universall cause may be more hindered. 1732 Bolingbroke Let. to Swift 2 Aug., The first epistle, which considers man...relatively to the whole system of universal being. 1738 Gray Prospertius II. v. 18 That first, eternal, universal Cause. 1819 Shelley Peter Bell Jr. v. 1 Of the universal sky. 1823 S. Rogers Italy, St. Mark's Place 165 Subtile, invisible, And universal as the air. 1848 R. I. Wilberforce Doctr. Incarnation xi. (1852) 267 The Universal Mind which pervades all things.

b. poet. as an epithet of Pan.

1667 Milton P. L. iv. 266 While Universal Pan Knit with the Graces and the Hours in dance Led on th' Eternal Spring. 1809 Wordsw. 'O ye the wilds earth' 3 A Godhead, like the universal Pan. 1820 Shelley Witch Atlas ix, And universal Pan, 'tis said, was there.

c. Of language, etc.: Adopted, (intended to be) used, understood, etc., everywhere or by all nations; freq. = Latin.

1652 Urquhart Jewel 24 Bringing all these words wichin the systeme of a Language, which...may...be intituled The Universal Tongue. 1663 — Logopandecteisia 73 So can there be no Universal Language but this I am about to divulge unto the world. Ibid., The Universal Alphabet therefore must be first conceived. 1668 Wilkins Real Char. 13 A Real universal Character. 1756 Mag. Camberwood in Coltness Collect. 131 The universall language so much wished for. 1793 Martyn Lang. Bot. Pref. p. xiii, The advantage which is derived from speaking and writing one universal language. 1818 Hazlitt Eng. Poets 1 Poetry is the universal language which the heart holds with nature and itself. 1836 (title), Universal Character; or, Manner of Writing intelligible to the Inhabitants of every Country. 1885, 1890 [see Volapük].

d. Mil. Of stores: (see quot.).

1876 Voyle & Stevenson Milit. Dict. 446/2 Universal.. is applied to certain stores of a general pattern, such as the saddlery and harness now in use in the army.

†4. Not going into details or particulars; general. Obs.[-1] c 1450 Lanfranc's Cirurg. 3 (MS. Addit.), Chap. j of broken bonys an vniuersel word.

†5. a. Of a council: General, ecumenical (see Council 2). Obs. rare.

1432-50 tr. Higden (Rolls) V. 241 A cownsayle vniuersalle of vj^c and xxxi^ti bischoppes hade at Calcedonia.

†b. Made up of, inclusive of, all. Obs.[-1]

1589 T. Washington tr. Nicholay's Voy. ii. vi. 36 Many fair fountaines, which after a long...course do come altogether into an vniuersall flood [F^r. en vniuersel fleuve].

†6. Of persons: Preserving the same attitude to all. Obs.[-1] c 1450 in Aungier Syon (1840) 269 The presidente..owethe to be vniuersal to alle and not parcial.

7. Of the church: Of, belonging to, or including all persons; consisting of the whole body of Christians; = Catholic a. 5.

1483 Caxton Cato b ij, Our moder chyrche vnyuersall. 1509 Paternoster, Ave & Creed (W. de W.) a iij, I trowe in y^e holy goost, holy chirche Vnyversall [etc.]. 1552 Abp. Hamilton Catech. (1884) 3 The haly spreit quhilk is ane daily techeour and governour of the hail universal kirk. 1620 T. Granger Div. Logike 227 Euen the vniuersall Church may erre. 1645 Ussher Body Div. (1657) 187 The Catholick Church, that is, God's whole or universall Assembly. 1663-70 South Serm. (1725) IV. 281 The Universal Christian Church. 1807 J. Crook (title), The Universal Church; an Essay on Nature, as the Universal Basis of Truth, Perfection, and Salvation. 1893 Liddon, etc. Life Pusey I. 417 The Ancient Fathers...bring the thought of particular Churches into community with the thought of the Universal Church when outwardly united.

8. Constituting or forming, existing or regarded as, a complete whole; entire, whole. a. Of the world, earth, etc.

Common in 16th c.; now somewhat rare. See Vansal a. 1.

1470-85 Malory Arthur v. i. 160 That noble empyre whiche dwynyth vpon the vnyversal world. 1480 Caxton Myrr. Prol. 4 b, The situacion...of the firmament, and how the vnyversal erthe langeth in the mydde of the same. 1513 Douglas Æneid vii. xii. 20 By his power mydlit is our all This meikle body clepit vniuersall. 1527 R. Thorne in Hakluyt Voy. (1589) 259 The Card, though little, conteineth the vniuersall world. 1649 Quarles Virgin Widow ii. 1, 'Twas for nothing in the universal world but for killing a rich Patient. 1667 Milton P. L. v. 154 Thine this universal Frame, Thus wondrous fair. [Hence in Blackmore Creation v. 657, Cowper Retirement 90.] Ibid. vii. 257 With joy and shout The hollow Universal Orb they fill'd. 1823 W. Faux Mem. Days 212, I would live no where else in all the universal world. 1859 Darwin in Life & Lett. (1887) II. 265 Nature is not what the universal world says.

b. In general use.

1500 Atkynson tr. De Imitatione iv. xviii. (1893) 282 All the vniuersall people prayse the. 1559 W. Cunningham Cosmogr. Prol. 48 At middle day through the vniuersal yere. 1589 T. Washington tr. Nicholay's Voy. iii. iii. 73 b, Their order vniuersall is distributed in tenths. 1603 Daniel Def. Ryme G 3 b, Euery Rymer in this vniuersall Iland. 1612 S. Daniel Trim. 113 Neither cement nor wood was imploied throughout the vniuersall fabricke. 1667 Milton P. L. i. 541 The universal Host upsent A shout that tore Hells Concave. 1830-1860 in Thornton Amer. Gloss. (1912) s.v., The Universal Yankee nation. 1871 Blackie Four Phases I. 27 The political importance..had been blazoned forth before universal Greece.

9. Of persons: Instructed or learned in all or many subjects; having an extensive knowledge or experience; widely accomplished; interested in or devoted to a great variety of subjects; having a wide range of interests or activities. Also of the mind or disposition.

1520 Caxton's Chron. Eng. iv. 32 b/a He [Adrian] was an vnyuersall man, most in all sciences. 1540 J. Heywood Four P. P. B ij, Why be ye so vniuersall, That ye can do what so euer ye shall. 1631 Weever Anc. Funeral Mon. 383 One William West, a Canon of Saint Pauls...a good companion, a man vniuersally affable, and curteous. 1700 Dryden Pref. to Troylus & Cress. ad fin., Shakespeare had an universal mind. a 1700 Evelyn Diary 5 Mar. 1673, This gentleman is a very excellent and universal scholar. Ibid. 29 July 1690, I never knew man of a more universal and generous spirit. a 1715 Burnet Own Time II. x. (1897) I. 427 He was ...very universal in all other learning. 1749 Smollett Gil Blas xi. v, He sets up for an universal man, because he has a small tincture of every science. 1829 Lytton Devereux ii. vi, Don Saltero is a universal genius. 1833 Coleridge Table-t. 17 Feb., Shakspeare is universal, and in fact has no manner. 1841 D'Israeli Amen. Lit. III. 178 With a universal mind Rawleigh was eager after universal knowledge.

b. Not limited or restricted to any particular branch or class of work, etc. † Attorney universal, an Attorney-General. Obs. Universal maid, a maid of all work, a general servant.

1637 J. Bastwick (title), The Answer...to the Information of sir John Bancks, Knight, Attorney universall. 1770 R. Weston (title), The Universal Botanist and Nurseryman, etc. 1840 Thackeray Shabby-genteel Story iii, She had been in the kitchen helping Becky, the universal maid.

c. Embracing or covering all (or a great variety of) subjects, branches of knowledge, etc.

1658 K. Baker tr. Balzac's Lett. (vol. II) 99 His knowledge is so universal, and comprehends such an infinite number of things that cannot touch upon any point where he is not ready for you. 1688-9 (title), The Universal Intelligence. 1690 Locke Hum. Und. iv. iii. § 28 For wherever we find that, we are utterly uncapable of universal and certain Knowledge. 1786 (title), The Fashionable Magazine,...being a Compleat Universal Repository of Taste, Elegance, and Novelty for both Sexes. 1821 A. Jamieson (title), Universal Science, or the Cabinet of Nature and Art. 1841 [see sense 9]. 1861-5 (title), Beeton's Dictionary of Universal Information. 1882-4 (title), Universal Instructor; or, Self-Culture for All.

†10. With pl. sbs. All, every one, regarded collectively as a body or whole. Obs. rare.

1530-1 Act 21 Hen. VIII, c. 14 His lyberall and free habytations resortes and passages to and fro the vniuersall places of this realme. 1562 Homilies II. The Sacrament II. 458 b, Wherfore, let vs all vniuersall and singuler, beholde our owne maners and lyues, to amend them.

11. Logic. Applicable to, extending or relating to, involving, the whole of a class or genus, or all the individuals or species forming it; spec. of a proposition: Predicable of each of the things denoted by the subject. Opposed to particular.

1551 T. Wilson Logike G viii, The first proposition must be vniuersall ouer, or elis it is not good. 1666 Boyle Cav. Life 124 That sense is busied about things particular, and...only things vniuersall are knowne. 1650 Hobbes Hum. Nat. v. 50 The appellations that be universal, and common to many things, are not always given to all the particulars. 1697 tr. Burgersdicius' Logic i. xvii. 66 Cause efficient is divided into universal and particular. Universal is that which concurs with other causes. 1725 Watts Logic (1726) 56 This sort of universal Ideas, which may either be considered as a Genus, or a Species, is call'd Subaltern. Ibid. 147 An universal Proposition is when the Subject is taken according to the whole of its Extension. 1842 Abp. Thomson Laws Th. 64 As to Quantity, judgments are either Universal, Particular, or Singular. 1885 J. Martineau Types Eth. Th. I. i. ii. § 8. 201 What is there 'universal' in this geometrical equation?

b. Applicable to, operative or valid in, all cases. Of a law or rule (cf. General a. 5 b).

1583 Melbancke Philotimus R j b, Yet the vniuersallest Axiomes haue their cautions. 1651 Hobbes Leviathan II. xxvi. 148 Naturall Lawes being Eternall, and Universall, are all Divine. 1667 Sprat Hist. R. Soc. 247 A universal Standard, or measure of Magnitudes, for help of a Pendulum. 1687 P. Ayres Lyric Poems (1906) 309 This Universal Remedy, To hope and live. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. General, A General Rule, q. d. an universal Rule. 1747 Wesley Prim. Physick (1760) p. xxvii, It comes the nearest an Universal Medecine. 1839 Dickens Nickleby ix, As there is no reason to suppose that she was a solitary exception to a universal rule. 1884 tr. Lotze's Metaph. 117 The validity of Universal laws. 1890 R. Bosanquet Col. Reformer (1891) 317 Compelled to employ that only universal solvent, a cash payment.

†12. Of motion or action: Constant, continual, perpetual. Obs. rare.

1588 Shaks. L. L. L. iv. iii. 305 Why, vniuersall plodding poysons vp The nimble spirits in the arteries. 1604 E. G[rimstone] D'Acosta's Hist. Indies III. vi. 137 [The comet] mooved daily with an vniversal motion, from East to Weast.

13. Of implements, machines or their parts, etc.: Adjustable to all conditions or requirements; not restricted to one fixed type of operation, but capable of variety of work; adapted to various purposes, sizes, forms, etc.

Freq. universal joint, a joint or coupling which permits of free movement in any direction of the parts joined, spec. one which does this in such a way that one of the connected parts conveys rotary action to the other.

A number of other instances in purely technical use are recorded in Knight's Dict. Mech. (1875) and Suppl. (1884), and recent Dicts. (1891–).

1676 Hooke Helioscopes 14 The Universal Joynt for all these manner of operations. 1688 Holme Armoury III. 373 Pendant Dials...commonly called Equinoctial or Universal Dials, are most used by Sea-Men and Travellers. 1700 Moxon Mech. Instr. s.v., [The] Universal Equinoctial Dial ...finds the Latitude and Hour of the day and most propositions on the Globe. 1815 J. Smith Panorama Sci. & Art I. 111 The stop and fence of the universal plane. 1825 J. Nicholson Operat. Mechanic 324 On the end, n, of the spindle P,...is screwed occasionally an universal chuck for holding any kind of work which is to be turned. 1829 Nat. Philos., Mechanics iv. xiii. 62 (L. D. K.), Hooke's universal joint is a very simple and effectual method of transferring rotation from one axis to another. 1881 Raymond Mining Glossy., Universal train, a roll train having adjustable horizontal and vertical rolls, so as to produce sections of various sizes. 1888 Jacobi Printers' Vocab., Universal machine, a jobbing platen machine—for steam or treadle.

14. Special collocations: universal arithmetic, † mathematics, algebra; universal suffrage, a suffrage extending to the whole of a community, esp. one in virtue of which all male persons over twenty-one years of age, except lunatics, aliens, and criminals, have the right to vote for representatives to a legislative (usually parliamentary) assembly; hence universal suffragist; universal umbel (see quot.).

1720 Rapheon, etc. (title), *Universal Arithmetick: or, a Treatise of Arithmetick, Composition and Resolution. Translated from the Latin [of Newton's Arithmetica Universalis (1707)]. 1826 Encycl. Metrop. (1845) I. 524/2 The title Universal Arithmetic very inadequately expresses the nature, objects, and extent of this department of Analysis. 1673 J. Kersey Algebra b 3, The learned Works of which [they]...proclaim their rare Talents in *Universal Mathematicks. 1752 (title), The Elements of Universal Mathematics, or Algebra; to which is added, a Specimen of a Commentary on Sir Isaac Newton's Universal Arithmetic. 1706 De Foe Jure Div. v. 3 The Land divided, Right to rule divides, And *universal Suffrage then provides. 1798 [see suffrage 10 b]. 1877 Cosmos Pol. Reg. CXXII. 226 That, as to Universal Suffrage, you cannot help calling it universal impracticability. 1887 D. P[usey] Rise Australia, etc. 69 Even absolutism with its attendant evils would...be preferable to universal suffrage. 1892 Nineteen. Mag. XII. 156 If they come back *Universal Suffragists. 1834 Mag. Edgeworth Helen xxxv, It is curious that...Louisa Castlefort, should be obliged...to...turn ultra liberale, or an universal suffragist. 1760 J. Lee Introd. Bot. i. viii (1765) 17 The Umbel that bears the Umbellula on its Footstalks, is called an *universal Umbel.

15. Quasi-adv. a. Universally; in all places. b. With universal power. rare.

1524 in Acta Parlt. Scotl. (1875) XII. 40/2 Pat Justice

Airis be halden universale throu oute be Ralme. 1759 MASON Caractacus 86 What, if Cæsar aims To lord it universal o'er the world.

16. absol. with the. a. The whole of, all of (something expressed or implied); spec. in Logic and Philos., the whole class or genus, as distinct from the individuals comprising it.

c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. v. pr. iv. (1868) 165 For resoun is she bat diffiniseb be vniuersal of hir conseiu. 1531 Dial. 1551 T. WILSON Logike I i b, From the vniuersall to the particular, the argument goeth well. 1818 COLERIDGE Friend (ed. 2) I. 269 The ideas of the Necessary and the Universal. 1865 MOZLEY Miracs. ii. 46 The universal as a law and the universal as a proposition are wholly distinct. 1871 JOWETT Plato I. 265 Tell me what virtue is in the universal.

†b. By or in the universal, in respect of, or with reference to, the whole class; in general terms; generally. Obs.

1552 LATIMER Serm. (1562) 127 Suche a maner of speakyng is vsed in the scripture, to speake by vniuersall: meaning a great numbre, but yet not all: only those that be gilitie. 1628 SPENCER Logick 206 Both of these distinct formes are one, and the same thing in the generall, or vniversall.

†c. The whole community; the people in general. Obs.

1676 in Brent's Counc. Trent p. lxx, Which hath produced ..a most intense desire of the conservation of their good Servant, and in the universal a more glorious fame to see.. so singular a favour.

†17. In universal: a. As a body or whole; collectively. b. In respect of every thing or part; entirely, wholly. Obs.

1387–8 T. USK Test. Love II. xiii. (Skeat) I. 70 At the ginninge of the worlde, every thing by him-selfe was good; and in universal they weren right good. 1615 in Buccleuch MSS. (Hist. MSS. Comm.) I. 168 The Spaniard intercepteth Trade to the East Indies in universal, and the Hollanders but to a part.

B. sb. 1. Logic and Philos. That which is predicated or asserted of all the individuals or species of a class or genus, or of many things which are regarded as forming a class; an abstract or general concept regarded either as having an absolute, mental, or nominal existence; a universal proposition; a general term, notion, or idea. Chiefly in pl. and opposed to particulars or singulars.

In mediæval Scholastic philosophy the nature of universals gave rise to the great controversy which resulted in the division of the Schoolmen into Realists, Nominalists, and Conceptualists, according to their respective theories.

sing. 1553 EDEN Treat. New Ind. (Arb.) 9 A perticuler proueth no vniversall. 1692 BENTLEY Boyle Lect. i. 141 It is merely a notional and imaginary thing, an abstract universal, which is properly nothing, a conception of our own making. 1697 tr. Burgersdicius' Logic i. 1. 3 A universal is that which is apt to be predicated of many things, as man, horse, plant, &c. 1728 CHAMBERS Cycl. s.v. Predicable, Thus Animal is an Universal, with regard to Man and Beast. 1751 Phil. Trans. XLVII. 314 The business of natural philosophy is..to note down facts,..and..to collect their proper universal, by a fair..induction. Ibid. A new collection of constant and similar facts affords an higher universal.

pl. 1605 BYNESKETT Cit. Life 124 As the hand is apt to take hold of all instruments; so is this power or facultie apt to apprehend the formes of all things, from whence grow the vniversals. a 1676 HALE Prim. Orig. Man. (1677) 28 For Universals are but Notions and Entia Rationis. 1725 WATTS Logic (1726) 56 Some these Universals are Genus's, if compared with less common Natures. 1794 BURKE On Petition of Unitarians Wks. 1842 II. 474 No rational man ever did govern himself, by abstractions and universals. 1837 HALLAM Hist. Lit. I. iii. 58 The long controversies between the Realists and Nominalists concerning the nature of universals. 1860 ABP. THOMSON Laws Th. (ed. 5) § 62 Universals..or those general properties which many things share alike, and which are acquired by the mind only by abstracting from the things that exhibit them. 1889 MIVART Orig. Hum. Reason 43 General ideas, or 'universals', only arise in our mind after we have experienced corresponding groups of sense-impressions.

†b. pl. Items of general information or news.

1650 HOWELL Lett. III. 3 This Letter runs upon Universalls, because I know your Lordship hath..a spacious understanding, which comprehends the whole world.

†c. Abstract magnitude or volume. Obs.

1674 N. FAIREAX Bulk & Selv. 66 Universal, or boak, as taken in the Mathematicks.

2. That which is universal; esp. one who or that which is universally powerful, potent, current, etc.

1556 OLDE Antichrist 49 For that cause this honour ought to be graunted to the bishop of Constantinople, that he maye be called the universall of all prelates and the bishop of bishoppes. 1709 MRS. MANLEY Secret Mem. (1720) III. 122 Omnipotent Gold has a Power so extensive, that we presume we are not guilty of Hyperbole..in representing it, as the grand Universal. 1855 MILMAN Lat. Chr. XIV. vii. VI. 528 The primitive word for 'father' is so nearly an universal, that [etc.].

†3. The universe. Obs. (common 1600–1625).

1569 J. SANFORD tr. Agrippa's Van. Artes 65 b, It is no lesse folie to saye that, in the universall, is but one worlde alone. 1591 SPARRY tr. Cattina's Commentie 23 So the Earth ..resteth in the middle of the whole vniuersall. 1613 CHAPMAN Rev. Bussy d'Ambois III. iv. 72 Hee that striues t'inuert The Vniuersals course with his poore way. 1628 FELTHAM Resolves II. lviii. 118 There is a secret chaine in Nature, which drawes the Vniversall to revenge a vice.

†4. A medicament or remedy affecting the whole body or system. Obs.

1656 J. SMITH Pract. Physick 119 Gallen commends a Bath after Universals. 1694 SALMON Rate's Dispens. Pref. A 4 b, Russel's Powder,..that Fam'd Universal, which for these twenty-five Years last past has obtain'd a general Reputation..in a manner through the whole World. Ibid. I. xvii. 793/2 If it be used for a Gonorrhœa,..Universals ought to be premised, that the Body may be cleansed as much as may be.

‖ Universa·lia, sb. pl. ? Obs. [L., neut. pl. of universālis: see prec.] An official letter or proclamation issued by one in authority to all the states or nobles of Poland, esp. one convening the national diet. Also error, as sing. (quot. 1772).

1708 Lond. Gaz. No. 4429/7 The Grand General has..published his Universalia, to exhort the Confederate Estates to continue firm in their Adherence to each other. 1763 Brit. Mag. IV. 551 The Primate..dispatches his universalia to the several provinces. 1772 Hereford Merc. Suppl. 18 Sept. 4/1 General Haddick is going to publish an Universalia.

Universa·lian, a. rare. [f. UNIVERSAL a. + -IAN.] Universalist, universalistic.

1853 E. G. HOLLAND Mem. J. Badger xi. (1854) 205 [Calvinism's] bold premises were the foundation of the plea of its opposite extreme,—the Universalian statement.

Universalism. [f. as prec. Cf. F. universalisme.]

1. The fact or quality of being concerned with or interested in all or a great variety of subjects; universality of knowledge.

c 1827 COLERIDGE in Blackw. Mag. (1882) CXXXI. 119 The all-meaningness and thin-blown bladdery universalisms of the lecture-room. 1828 Fraser's Mag. LIV. 732 The full-blown facility of modern universalism. 1877 MOZLEY Crit. Misc. Ser. II. 247 That weak kind of universalism which nullifies some otherwise good men.

2. Theol. The beliefs or special views held by the Universalists; the doctrine of universal salvation or redemption.

1805 J. SPAULDING (title), Universalism Confounds and Destroys Itself. 1840 G. S. FABER Christ's Disc. Capernaum 224 A tremendously wide and long enduring Apostasy..is.. rhetorically spoken of in terms which literally import Universalism. 1864 J. DONALDSON Crit. Hist. Chr. Lit. & Doctr. I. 37 Heathen Christianity..proclaimed all men alike in God's sight. Paul was the preacher of this universalism. 1871 MOZLEY Univ. Serm. v. (1876) 112 The waves of universalism..cannot possibly shake the seat of distributed power and government.

3. The fact or condition of being universal in character or scope; universality.

1840 T. GORDON tr. Menzel's Germ. Lit. III. 288 Poetical Universalism.—Herder. 1882 Athenæum 14 Oct. 490/1 It is, indeed, somewhat doubtful whether the religion of Rome did not approach universalism almost as much as Islam. 1883 FAIRBAIRN City of God III. i. 230 This is..the universalism of Jesus Himself...He belongs to humanity, not to Israel. Ibid. 240 The universalism of the person has its counterpart in the universalism of the words.

Universalist, sb. and a. [f. as prec. + -IST. Cf. F. universaliste, G. universalist.]

A. sb. 1. Theol. One who believes or maintains the doctrine that redemption or election is extended to the whole of mankind and not confined to a part of it; spec. in U.S., a member of a sect or Church holding this doctrine.

1626 tr. Parallel A ij, The error of the Vniuersalists is too vniuersally dispred. 1648 O. HOWE (title), The Vniversalist examined and convicted, destitute of plaine Sayings of Scripture. 1684 BURNET Tract. I. (1750) 58 Some deserters both in Geneva and Switzerland, who denied the Imputation of Adam's Sin, and asserted the Universality of Christ's Death, together with a sufficient Grace given to all Men..These same to be called Universalists. 1728 CHAMBERS Cycl. s.v. The Arminians are particularly denominated Universalists. 1773 WESLEY Wks. (1872) X. 425 Bishop Ridley, Hooper, and Latimer..were firm Universalists. 1805 J. SPAULDING Universalism 15 These Universalists pretend to be the foremost in extolling the grace of God. 1853 BP. S. WILBERFORCE Let. in Life (1881) II. 271 That you therefore do.. revive the old doctrine of the Universalists. 1861 Contrib. Eccl. Hist. Connecticut 278 Attempts..to gather a congregation of Universalists for public worship.

†2. A believer in or maintainer of the universality of the Roman Catholic Church. Obs.—1

1544 FEATLY Roma Ruens 29 To this poynt I earnestly desire particular satisfaction, which I have not yet received from any Roman Catholike, or universalist (as they would be called).

3. One who in respect of a specified thing acts with universality or uniformity. rare.

1677 GILPIN Demonol. III. xx. 272 A true Christian should be a perfect Universalist, he should be universally against all Sin, and universally for All Duty.

†4. One who uses universals or universal propositions. Obs.—1

1680 BAXTER Answ. Stillingfl. Pref. A 3 Universalists, that can prove me to be an Ass, because I am an Animal.

5. One who is supposed to have, or pretends to, a knowledge of all things; a person who is devoted to many subjects or sciences, as opposed to a specialist; a universal scholar.

1713 BENTLEY Freethinking III. 12 A modern Free-thinker is an Universalist in Speculation; any Proposition whatsoever he's ready to decide. 1800 in Spirit Pub. Trnls. IV. 754 All subjects were alike to this universalist. 1830 S. H. CASSAN Bps. Bath & Wells II. 172 He was an Universalist in the best sense of the word; and not a smatterer in various sciences. 1881 Nature XXIV. 326 The gold of a universalist is apt to shrink down into dross when tested in the crucible of a specialist.

B. One who has many occupations, interests, etc.

1801 Sporting Mag. XVIII. 104 You'll find I'm an universalist; i.e. a Professor of all trades.

6. One who regards something as a whole and not from one particular point of view.

1892 E. C. STEDMAN Nat. Poetry iv. 142 The best critic, then, is the universalist, who sees the excellence of either phase of expression according as it is natural to one's race and period.

B. adj. Universalistic.

1819 Universalist Mag. 21 Aug. 32/3 Pastor of the First Independent Church of Christ, called Universalist, in Philadelphia. 1829 ALLIBONE Dict. Eng. Lit. I. 109 Ballou, Rev. Hosea,..a prominent Universalist minister. 1877 J. E. CARPENTER tr. Tiele's Hist. Relig. 89 The universalist monotheism of the Gospel, which has entirely broken down the bounds of nationality.

Universali·stic, a. [f. prec. + -IC.]

1. Theol. Of or pertaining to, characteristic of, Universalism or the Universalists.

1847 R. W. HAMILTON Rewards & Punishm. vii. 389 A strong defence of the universalistic doctrine. 1887 E. JOHNSON Antinus Mater 219 The Gnostics, sharing the universalistic aspirations of the time.

2. Of, pertaining or extending to, including or affecting, the whole of something, esp. the whole of mankind; inclined to be universal in scope or character. Also transf.

Universalistic Hedonism, Utilitarianism.

1872 Contemp. Rev. XIX. 664 A..syncretion of Egoistic and Universalistic Hedonism. 1878 MORLEY Diderot II. 297 Holbach is a universalistic and not an egoistic Hedonist. 1882 Athenæum 11 Feb. 184/1 The universalistic tendencies of the great empires. 1886 Encycl. Brit. XX. 370/1 Universalistic religious communities: Islām, Buddhism, Christianity.

Universality (yūnivərsæ·lĭtĭ). [a. F. universalité, OF. universaliteit (14th c.); = It. universalità, Sp. -idad, Pg. -idade), or ad. late L. universālitās (Boethius), f. L. universālis: see UNIVERSAL a. and -ITY.]

1. The fact or quality of extending over, existing in, or belonging to the whole (of something expressed in or implied by the context); esp. extension, occurrence, prevalence, or diffusion throughout the whole world, everywhere, or in all things.

c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. v. pr. v. (1868) 169 Pat is..bat resoun loke]> and comprehendib by resoun of vniuersalite [L. in ratione universitatis], bobe bat bat is sensible and bat bat is ymaginable. 1587 GOLDING De Mornay 351 All men knowe, that cheefly Auerrhoes vrgeth the eternitie of the World, and the vniuersalitie of one onely Mynd. 1589 PUTTENHAM Eng. Poesie I. ix. (Arb.) 38 The Nobilitie and dignitie of the Art considered aswell by vniuersalitie as antiquitie. 1624 H. MASON Art of Lying ii. 25 Persons claimeth..Universality, Antiquity, and Consent, for this..vpstart fancie of their owne. 1686 Cadenus & Vanessa (Maitl. Cl.) I. 168 The French language, being, because of its universalitie, so very necessarie for converse. 1707 MORTIMER Husb. 501 The Planting of Fruit-Trees;..and the Advantages of it, which consist.. in the Universality of it, there being hardly any Soil, but one sort..or other may be raised on them. 1760–72 H. BROOKE Fool of Qual. (1809) IV. 78 God..cannot depart from..that universality of essence, by and in which alone all essences subsist. 1811 PINKERTON Petrarch p. xxcvi, Experiments more and more evince the universality of iron. 1879 FARRAR St. Paul II. 266 He has shown the universality of guilt, and the universality of grace.

b. Of a church or religion, esp. Roman Catholicism: Extension to the whole world or all men.

Freq. in coth. phrase one or Obs.

? 1559 A. P. tr. Vincent of Lirins' Golden Treatise (title-p.), The antiquitie, and vniuersalitie, of the Catholicke Religion. 1574 WHITGIFT Def. Answ. II. 106 This strengthneth the Faithes vniuersalitie. 1668 WILKINS Gassendi's Astron. 1 Vniuersalitie and multitude, is no good rule to know the right church..by. 1691 SIR T. P. BLOUNT Ess. 90 That thing call'd Universality, is so slight an Evidence of Truth, that even Truth itself is asham'd of it. 1728 CHAMBERS Cycl. s.v., The Catholicks assert the Universality of their Church, both as to Time, and Persons. 1730 J. DENNE (title), Want of Universality no just Objection to the Truth of the Christian Religion. 1874 GREEN Short Hist. ix. § 1 He dismissed with contempt the accepted test of universality.

†c. Of persons with reference to power or authority (see UNIVERSAL a. 2). Obs.

1620 T. GRANGER Div. Logike 228 Gregory pronounced the same of Iohn Patriarch of constantinople affecting vniuersalitie. 1661 MORGAN Sph. Gentry III. vii. 67 The pope, who hath usurped the Universality, will have his triple Crown, to signifie his dominion over the Universe.

2. The fact or quality of extending or applying to, affecting or prevailing among, all the members of a class of persons or things; relation to or inclusion of all individuals, cases, or instances.

1577 HARRISON England II. xix. (1877) I. 307 If a man may presentlie give a gheese at the vniuersalitie of this euill. 1634 T. Norton's Calvin's Inst. Table of Contents, The universality of the promises of salvation maketh nothing against the doctrine of the predestination of the reprobate. 1695 J. EDWARDS Perfect. Script. 542 The universality of the slaughter. 1764 HARMER Observ. ii. § 17. 75 The cries of the Arabs are with great universality black. 1772 SIR J. REYNOLDS Disc. iv. (1778) 113 He might have seen it in an instance or two; and he mistook accident for universality. 1829 GEN. P. THOMPSON Exerc. (1842) I. 132 Closely connected with the universality of suffrage, is the opportunity of its frequent exercise. 1873 HOLLAND A. Bonnie. ix. 162 The universality of the influence which they (sc. religious revivals) exert during the time of their highest activity.

b. Of laws, etc., esp. with reference to validity.

1712 BERKELEY Pass. Obed. Wks. 1871 III. 238 The universality of this mathematical rule. 1747 Gentl. Mag. 220/2 That we are not sure of the universality of this law. 1855 BREWSTER Newton I. xiii. 381 Every new comet, every new planet,..proclaims the universality of Newton's philosophy. 1874 CARPENTER Ment. Phys. II. xvi. 634 The universality of the Law of Gravitation.

† 3. The study or contemplation of things from a general point of view. Obs. rare.

1605 BACON Adv. Learn. I. v. § 5 Another error..is, that after the distribution of particular arts and sciences, men have abandoned vniversalitie, or Philosophia prima. Ibid. II. To the King § 6 If any man think philosophy and universality to be idle studies, he doth not consider that all professions are from thence served and supplied.

4. The quality or character of extending to or comprehending all or (more usually) a great variety of subjects; unbounded or very great versatility of (mind, genius, etc.).

1765 H. WALPOLE Vertue's Anecd. Paint. III. 11 The following [pictures] by Streater .. show the universality of his talent. 1818-9 LADY MORGAN Autobiog. (1859) 203 His gigantic labours..indicate the universality of the highest order of mind. 1844 MISS MITFORD Village Ser. I. 17 A man..of that peculiar universality of genius which forms..a handy fellow. 1871 M. LEONARD Camb. Freshm. 112 The universality of my friend's mind.

b. Capacity for, knowledge of, interest in, all or many things or pursuits; width or extensiveness of understanding, knowledge, or sympathy.

1831 CARLYLE Sart. Res. II. iv, Whereby..the vague universality of a Man shall find himself ready-moulded into a specific Human. 1852 HAWTHORNE Twice-told Note-bks. (1879) I. 375 Perhaps there may be a universality in his face. 1896 R. A. VAUGHAN Mystics I. 7 One quality in Gower I have always especially liked,—his universality. 1862 Macm. Mag. 240 The universality of the heart, which enables them to feel for, and make allowances for all. 1900 E. HOLMES What is Poetry? 65 Universality, not individuality, is of the essence of the poet's genius.

c. The fact of knowing everybody or a large number of persons; extensiveness of (acquaintance).

1792 PAINE Rights of Man 89 By the universality of his acquaintance. 1838 TICKNOR in Life, etc. (1876) II. ix. 182 He added, that he himself had never seen him so as to know him..; a curious fact, considering Roger's own universality.

II. 5. The entire or whole body or number, the whole, of the people, a nation, mankind, etc., regarded collectively; also, the bulk or mass of the people. Now arch. (Cf. UNIVERSITY 2.)

1561 T. NORTON Calvin's Inst. I. 7 Shall the whole vniversalitie of the world be without this prerogatiue? 1588 Copy of a Letter in Harl. Misc. (1809) II. 82 The universality of the people through the realm. 1655 Theophania 77 The vast frame of the world may be shaken, and the universality of nature suffer a change. 1673 Essex Papers (Camden) I. 65 Yᵉ Universality of their Clergie,..& all their Merchants. 1681 H. MORE Apocal. Apoc. 163 One mighty City.. consisting of the Universality of Cities considered as one. 1709 STRYPE Ann. Reformation II. 72 So averse did the universality of the nation stand against popery. 1737 L. CLARKE Hist. Bible VI. 356/1 Innumerable Acclamations.. by the Universality of the People. 1874 GREEN Short Hist. iv. § 5. 203 The consent of the prelates, earls, barons, and universality of the realm.

† b. The whole world; the universe. Obs. rare.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. x, What made of furie can ever so enwrage any conceipte, as to see our mortall..selves to have a reason, and that this universalitie (whereof we are but the leat pieces) should be utterly devolde thereof? 1593 Q. ELIZ. Boeth. III. pr. xii. 72 The God was he that rule the vniuersalitie by the raynes of goodnes.

† c. The whole people or state; the people in general. Obs.

1614 RALEIGH Hist. World v. iii. 496 The Common happinesse of the vniuersalitie. 1644 [H. PARKER] Jus Populi 18 The Parliament differs many wayes from the rude bulk of the universality. 1675 Machiavelli's Prince xvi. Exorbitant mercy has an ill effect upon the whole universality.

† d. The whole subject; a matter or subject regarded generally or as a whole. Obs.—¹

1726 LEONI Alberti's Archit. II. 5/1, I shall speak first of those wherein this particular Art is most concerned; and as for the others, which relate to the universality, they shall serve by way of epilogue.

6. pl. Something which extends to all the members of a class; a general statement or description, a generality. Obs.

a 1591 H. SMITH Sinful Man (1592) A 5 To the Heathen hee shewed vniuersalities and antiquities. 1608 D. [TUVIL] Esay Pol. & Mor. 9 Simple men; who..beeing vnable to indge, or conceiue of vniuersalities, suffer themselues..to be wholly guided by their externall sense. 1629 H. BURTON Truth's Triumph 210 The deceitful men hath to walke in vniuersalities or generalities. 1647 JER. TAYLOR Lib. Proph. ix. 162 If you can..determine those great questions which consist much in universalities, then also you may determine the particulars.

† b. A universal medicine or remedy; a panacea. Obs.—¹

1756 TOLDERVY Hist. 2 Orphans IV. 126 Men who..poyson you with universalities, medicines that are generally ineffectual, and of whose formations they are quite unacquainted.

† 7. A collective whole or body, as distinct from one of the parts of which it is composed. (Cf. §.)

1622 BEXTON Strange News C 3 b, Neare the chiefe Citie of Nullibi, in an vniuersalitie, in stead of an Vniuersitie,.. there was a deepe student in the secrets of Nature. 1642 View Priest. Book inst. Observat. 8 Kingdome or Regnum denotes an universalitie or body collected. [1875 POSTE Gaius II. com. (ed. 2) 290 As single things can be bequeathed, so can a universality.]

† 8. Something which exists everywhere or in all things; a universal being. Obs.—¹

1681 Whole Duty Nations 7 He himself is the prime Unity and Universality.

Universaliza·tion. [f. next + -ATION.] The action of the verb; the act or process of becoming universal.

1798 Monthly Rev. XXVI. 538 A language already so general must, for that very reason, tend to universalization. 1840 G. S. FABER Christ's Disc. Capernaum 225 [A] sentence, which..would have changed this Apparent Universalization into Real Generalization. 1886 W. GRAHAM Social Problem 13 A universalisation of the practice [of striking] over the entire field of labour.

Universalize (yūnĭvē·rsălēiz), v. [f. UNIVERSAL a. + -IZE. Cf. F. universaliser, It. -izzare, Pg. -izar.]

1. trans. To make or render universal; to give a universal character to; to extend to all the members of a class; to apply or appropriate to a class of things, as distinct from the individuals composing it.

1642 H. MORE Song of Soul II. ii. iii. 7 Can souls that be thus universalis'd, Begot into the life of God e're dy? 1654 — Apology 552, I do not speak of the English Church, but of..the Reformed Churches in General—so Universalized were my thoughts in that Meditation. 1840 L. HUNT Seer 73/1 Their ideal of a face, let them try to universalise it as they can, is a French one. 1855 MILMAN Lat. Chr. XIV. III. VI. 463 The conception by the senses is confused, ..till abstracted, analysed, and once universalised and individualised by the intelligence. 1876 L. STEPHEN Eng. Th. 18th C. I. 323 We must, then, universalize our terms.

absol. a 1833 ROBERTSON Lect. II. (1868) 185 It is thus that the pure, the great and virtuous. 1871 FRASER Life Berkeley iii. 77 We cannot even perceive without universalizing.

† 2. To imbue with general (in contrast to specific) properties. Obs.—¹

1676 Princ. Chymists Lond. 59 Salts distilled from the Soots of Chymnies, arising from different Woods, notwithstanding their Alteration by the Ambient Air, and their being (by that Medium) in some measure Universalized.

3. To make of universal application; to bring into universal use.

1809 Crit. Rev. XVI. 499 He must universalize in his empire the given religion which he prefers. 1829 BENTHAM Justice & Codif. Peril. 104 In the case of civil business this source of misdecision is purposely established and universalised. 1845 MAURICE Mor. Philos. in Encycl. Metrop. II. 603/1 To universalize the system of Plato. 1891 [F. C. S. SCHILLER] Riddles Sphinx 183 If the law of evolution could be really and completely universalized.

b. To extend or spread over the whole expanse.

1813 JEFFERSON Writ. (1830) IV. 186 To complete and universalize the desolation of the globe. 1875 W. R. GREG Misc. Ess. vi. (1881) 144 Our sewerage system shall be universalized and perfected.

Hence Universalized ppl. a.; Universalizing vbl. sb. and ppl. a. Also Universalizer, one who makes universal.

1651 H. MORE Second Lash in Enthus. Trl., etc. (1656) 279 A free divine vniversalized spirit is worth all. 1691 NORRIS Pract. Disc. 64 The unselfish universalized nature of God. 1871 R. H. HUTTON Ess. I. 169 The fourth gospel is essentially a universalised Judaism. 1895 W. M. RAMSAY St. Paul xvi. § 3. 375 A distinct step towards the Universalised Church. 1823 E. G. HOLLAND Mem. J. Badger xviii. (1854) 372 The active theological minds..may fall under two general classifications which..we may call the centralizers and universalizers. 1811 BENTHAM Panoph. Cont. Wks. 1843 XI. 161 An engine for the *universalizing of Protestantism. 1891 [F. C. S. SCHILLER] Riddles Sphinx 183 The first case will evidently not bear universalizing. 1836 G. S. FABER Prim. Doctr. Election II. iii. 306 The attentive reader..will readily perceive their palpably *universalizing tenor. 1851 Fraser's Mag. XLIII. 150 A kind of vagabondizing, universalizing philanthropy.

† Universaller. Obs.—¹ [f. UNIVERSAL a. + -ER 1.] One who believes that something is universal; a universalist.

1646 W. FENNER Hid. Manna (1652) 44 Thou that are an Vniversaller of Grace.

Universally (yūnĭvē·rsălĭ), adv. Also 4 vniuersalliche, 5 vniuerselly, 6 -allye, -allie. [f. as prec. + -LY 2.] In a universal manner.

1. In every case or instance.

1398 TREVISA Barth. De P. R. XVI. li. (Bodl. MS.), Grauel ..also..hab vniuersaliche kinde of druynge and of clensinge. 1530 PALSGR. Introd. p. xvii, That thyng happeneth in the soundyng of thre of theyr vowelles commonly, and that not vniuersally, but onely so often as [etc.]. 1544 Exhort. in Prin. Prayers (1851) 565 Vniuersally in all our affairs, whatsoever shall befall unto us. 1613 PURCHAS Pilgrimage (1614) 130 The fat and blood being vniuersally forbidden them for food. 1625 N. CARPENTER Geogr. Del. I. iii. 66 This proportion is not to be taken vniuersally, but commonly for the most part. 1755 MAGENS Insurances II. 189 All Insurances on expected Gains [etc.], are universally forbid. 1781 GIBBON Decl. & F. xxxviii. (1787) III. 588 Under the empire of Charlemagne, murder was universally punished with death. 1869 COLERIDGE Friend 28 Such a Rule, if it were universally established, would encourage the assassin. 1871 MOZLEY Univ. Serm. vi. (1876) 122 It would not be true..to say that use was universally accompanied by beauty.

2. So as to include every individual or group or number; without exception of any.

c 1412 HOCCLEVE De Reg. Prince. 2454, I wolde that the hye degree Of Chiualrie vniuersally Hare vp his hede. 1496 Act 12 Hen. VII, c. 6 Wollen Clothe..by making wherof the power peppll have moste universally their living. 1561 T. NORTON Calvin's Inst. III. 210 Not one or two of them, but all the Scholemen vniuersallye. 1590 GREENE Never too late (1600) 9 Women are vniuersally suata necessaria, whersoever they be eyther bred or brought vp. 1618 BOLTON Plagris (1636) 141 Spaine never had a disposition to rise universally against me. 1662 STILLINGFL. Orig. Sacra III. i. § 11 It is hardly conceivable, how mankind should universally agree in some common sentiments. 1709 STEELE Tatler No. 46 P 1 The Zealots..fell universally into this Emperor's Policies. 1798 S. & HT. LEE Canterb. T. II. 133 A splendid entertainment, to which the English strangers were universally invited. 1847 G. HARRIS Life Ld. Hardwicke II. 33 The whole nation was universally against it. 1869 TOZER Highl. Turkey II. 308 They are almost universally malevolent.

3. With extension to every part of a definite whole; in every part or place; everywhere.

c 1430 HOCCLEVE Min. Poems 46 The sonne, of whom hir light Shee [sc the moon] takith, & it vniuersally Yeueth vn-to the world whan it is nyght. 1577 HOLINSHED Chron. II. 562/1 Murreyn of cattel beganne..so vniuersally in all places, that no towne nor village escaped free. 1664 H. MORE Myst. Inig. xvi. 58 Which implies that the Church has a right..to be universally spred over the face of the Earth. 1674 H. POWER Exp. Philos. I. 61 They are universally diffused throughout all Bodies in the World. 1750 tr. Leonardus' Mirr. Stones p. ix, An age when Superstition universally prevailed. 1796 H. HUNTER tr. St.-Pierre's Stud. Nat. V. 128 The opinion..is universally propagated over all the Nations. 1846 J. Baxter's Libr. Pract. Agric. (ed. 4) I. 15 It is an element universally present in nature. 1872 C. DAVIES Metric Syst. III. 275 We have universally the Winchester bushel. 1872 RAYMOND Statist. Mines & Mining 15 Universally distributed through the vein.

† 4. So as to affect the whole or every part of something expressed or implied; all over. Obs.

c 1485 Digby Myst. (1882) iv. 1357 He suffered patiently.. To be woundid vniuersally with scowrges, nayles, & spere. 1580 BLUNDEVIL Horsemanship III. 72 If he be vexed with an ague, or with anie other disease, vniuersallie hurting his bodie. 1734 tr. Rollin's Anc. Hist. (1827) IX. 154 The whole city continued universally in flames. 1758 J. S. Le Dran's Observ. Surg. (1771) 58 The Child seemed to be universally swelled. 1793 Minstrel II. 159 The storm .. universally chilled her frame. 1805 EMILY CLARK Banks of Dowry II. 280 She trembled so universally, that Lucy gave her some water to drink.

† b. Inclusively, all together. Obs.—¹

1673 CAVE Prim. Chr. III. i. 221 Himself, family, and house [were] universally burnt to ashes.

5. Logic and Meteoph. In relation to all the members of a class or genus; in the manner of a universal proposition or concept (see UNIVERSAL a. 11).

1551 T. WILSON Logike G vi b, The argument is euermore made from the generall, to the lyuyde vniuersally. 1620 T. GRANGER Div. Logike II. vi, The predicate is in the Subiect vniuersally, that is, in euery subiect of the same kind. 1678 CUDWORTH Intell. Syst. 67 The Essences of singular Bodies ..being Abstracted from those Bodies themselves, are consider'd Universally. 1697 tr. Burgersdicius' Logic I. xxxi. 122 The enunciation universally first is only that in which the predicate agrees or conveues with the subject. 1725 WATTS Logic II. ii. (1726) 152 Mankind..generally have an Inclination to magnify their Ideas, and to talk roundly and universally concerning any thing they speak of. 1825 WHATELY Logic in Encycl. Metrop. (1845) I. 200/1 The term 'necessary to life' is affirmed of food, but not universally; for it is not said of every kind of food.

b. In relation to, in respect of, all the things or subjects of the same class or kind.

1660 BOYLE New Exp. Phys. Mech. Pref. p. xiii, Being almost universally a Linguist. 1741 KAMES Decis. Crt. Sess. 1730-32 (1799) 37 The defender's possession of the estate subjected him universally to the predecessor's debts.

6. With respect to every individual of a class; by, among, to, etc., all the persons concerned.

1647 CLARENDON Hist. Reb. II. § 51 Which was a design willingly heard, and universally grateful. 1667 MILTON P. L. II. 542 Thy Celestial Beauties.., more best beheld Where universally admir'd. 1726 SWIFT Gulliver II. vii, I could not avoid reflecting how universally this talent was spread, of drawing lectures in morality..from the quarrels we raise with nature. 1765 Museum Rust. IV. 344 Rye is generally (nay universally, I think) allowed to be a better bearer than wheat. 1804 Med. Jrnl. XII. 397 As to my third assertion, its truth is so universally known, that all proof is unnecessary. 1838 DE MORGAN Ess. Probab. 167 These tables..are almost universally used by the assurance offices. 1875 W. S. HAYWARD Love agst. World 5 He was universally respected in the county.

7. With adjs. or pa. pples. (Sometimes hyphened.)

1656 COWLEY Preface of Pindar Notes iv, The fabulous, but universally received Tradition. 1693 OWEN Intoxicating Sin v. (1732) 43 The constant keeping of the Soul in an universally holy Frame. a 1700 EVELYN Diary 13 July 1654, We all din'd at that..universally-curious Dr. Wilkin's. 1828 COBBETT Pol. Reg. XXIII. 1 The chief cause of this universally evil effect. 1829 DUNKIN Midn. Sky 8 The universally-known seven stars in Ursa Major. 1890 Science-Gossip XXVI. 30/1 The universally received opinion.

Universalness. [f. as prec. + -NESS.] The quality of being universal; universality.

1561 T. NORTON Calvin's Instit. III. 310 The vniuersalnesse of yᵉ promise. 1587 GOLDING De Mornay Pref. xxx, The vniuersalnesse of this consent. 1642 H. MORE Song of Soul II. i. ii. 46 They'll object Gainst th' vniuersalnesse of this clear notion. a 1680 CHILLINGW. Antith. Conf. (1834) I. 56 The universalness of his knowledge. 1880 SCHAFF Person of Christ 138 The universalness of his character and mission. 1888 Longm. Mag. July 255 The apparent universalness of what is presented to them quantity.

† Universalty. Obs.—¹ [f. UNIVERSAL a. + -TY 1.] Universality.

1567 MAPLET Gr. Forest 29 Not onely intending an Aegemonie which we onely promised and is but the chiefest part, but an vniuersalitie which is ye whole.

Universa·nimous, a. nonce-wd. [Irreg. f. L. universus as universal + animus mind.] Universally or completely unanimous.

1864 LOWELL Biglow P. Ser. II. ii. P 2 Though the learned are not agreed as to the particular dialect employed by Theocritus, they are universaliter...as to its rusticity.

Universa·rian. rare—1. [Cf. next and -ARIAN.] One who belongs to the universe in respect of knowledge (see quot.).

1880 Times (weekly ed.) 16 April, If a mind open to new ideas, no matter whence they come, is to be termed 'cosmopolite', then every thinking being must be a universarian.

Univer·sary, sb. and a. rare. [f. L. universus UNIVERSAL a. or universum UNIVERSE sb.]

† A. sb. The whole body or number of something. Obs.—1 a 1604 HANMER Chron. Ireland (1633) 205 He injoyned the collegiate Vicars of Kilkenny to celebrate the universary and anniversary of the reverend fathers his predecessors.

B. adj. Of or pertaining to, open to, all.

1816 in N. & Q. 9th Ser. XII. (1903) 368/2 This first Stone of the Royal Universary Infirmary for Children.

Universe (y·nivœs). Also 5 vniuerse, 6 -uers, 7 univers. [a. F. univers (12th c.; = Sp., Pg., It. universo), ad. L. universum sb., the whole world, orig. neut. sing. of universus all taken collectively, universal, f. unus UNI- and versus, pa. pple. of vertĕre to turn.]

† 1. In universe, universally, of universal application. Obs.—1 c 1374 CHAUCER Troylus III. 36 Ye folk a lawe han sette in vniuerse; And pis know I by hem pat loueres be, þat whoso stryueth with pow hath þe worse.

2. The whole of created or existing things regarded collectively; all things (including the earth, the heavens, and all the phenomena of space) considered as constituting a systematic whole, esp. as created or existing by Divine power; the whole world or creation; the cosmos.

1589 PUTTENHAM Eng. Poesie II. xi. (Arb.) 111 The Roundell or spheare...for his ample capacitie doth resemble the world or vniuers. 1596 SPENSER Hymn Heav. Beauty 31 Looke on the frame Of this wyde vniuerse, and therein read The endlesse kinds of creatures. 1611 B. JONSON Catiline I. i, O for a clap of thunder now, as loud As to be heard throughout the universe, To tell the world the fact. 1656 COWLEY Davideis I. 800 Dull Earth with vnwry'd weight did downwards pierce To the fixt Navel of the Universe. 1738 SWIFT Pol. Conversat. 69, I won'dn't touch a Man's Flesh for the Universe. 1796 H. HUNTER tr. St.-Pierre's Stud. Nat. I. 9 That active power of Nature which fills the Universe. 1817 BYRON Manfred II. ii. 111 She had...The quest of hidden knowledge, and a mind To comprehend the universe. 1843 Penny Cycl. XXVI. 18/1 Theory of the Universe,.. what is known of the general arrangement of planets, stars, etc. and of their connexion with one another. 1871 MORLEY Carlyle in Crit. Misc. Ser. I. 216 The same sense of the puniness of man in the centre of a cruel and frowning universe.

b. With a and pl. Also cons. of (something).

1667 MILTON P. L. II. 622 A Universe of death, which God by curse Created evil. 1805 WORDSW. Prelude XIV. 160 To..substitute a universe of death For that which moves with light and life informed. 1837 CARLYLE Fr. Rev. I. I. ii, To Newton and to Newton's Dog Diamond, what a different pair of Universes! 1891 MOZLEY Miracs. (ed. 2) Pref. p. xxvi, These two schools of minds live indeed in different universes.

c. transf. and fig.

Less universe (quot. 1674)=MICROCOSM I.

1674 MILTON P. R. IV. 459 As..harmless, if not wholsom, as a sneeze To man less universe. 1728 CHAMBERS Cycl. s.v. University, They are call'd Universities, or Universal Schools, by reason the four Faculties are supposed to make the World or Universe of Study. 1821 SHELLEY Adonais 283 Into the hole? of I care Yours Universe. 1847 J. KIRK Cloud Dispelled iv. 67 His conduct is false, and will be denounced as such by the universe of mind. a 1854 H. REED Lect. Brit. Poets II. (1857) 62 To trace the associations between the universe of sense and the spiritual life within us. 1871 E. F. HURR Ad. Fidem xv. 299 A universe of light and color—a universe of sound.

d. Universe of discourse: (see quot. 1896).

1881 J. VENN Symbo. le Logic vi. 128 We must be supposed to know the nature and limits of the universe of discourse with which we are concerned...[I we are talking of ordinary phenomena we must know whether we refer to them without limit of time and space. 1896 L. CARROLL' Symbolic Logic I. II. iii. 14 The Genus, of which [the] Terms [of a Proposition] are Species, is called the 'Universe of Discourse'.

3. The world or earth, esp. as the place of abode of mankind or as the scene of human activities.

1630 R. Johnson's Kingd. & Commw. 134 Such a bridge, that wi hout exception, it may worthily be accounted the admiraBlest Monument, and firmest erected Colloseum (in that Stude) of all the Vniverse. 1689 T. BROWN Saints in Uproar Wks. 1720 I. 89 No People in the Universe know better. 1704 (title), The Present State of the Universe. 1765 BLACKSTONE Comm. I. 6 A land, perhaps the only one in the universe, in which political or civil liberty is the very end and scope of the constitution. 1791 HAMPSON Mem. J. Wesley III. 96 [Wesley] took the universe for his parish. 1820 SHELLEY Prometh. Unb. IV. 3:9 Who all our green and azure universe Threatenedst to muffle round with black destruction.

b. transf. The inhabitants of the earth; mankind in general.

1742 Johnson's Debates (1787) II. 222 The decline of that power which has so long intimidated the universe. Ibid. 230 That wisdom...which...the greatest part of the universe will remember with gratitude. 1774 GOLDSM. Retal. 32 Here lies our good Edmund,...Who, born for the universe, ...to party gave up what was meant for mankind. 1843 CARLYLE Past & Pr. III. viii, 'Go to,...thou shalt pay due debt!' shouts the Universe to them.

Hence U·niverseful, as many or as much as the universe will hold.

1891 J. ORR Chr. View of God & World (1893) 374 A whole universeful of other spiritual beings.

Universitarian (y·nivœsitē·riăn), a. [f. as next + -arian.] Of or pertaining to, characteristic of, obtaining in, a university.

1834 F. MAHONY in Fraser's Mag. X. 327/1 Awfully ludicrous were the dying convulsions of the old universitarian system. 1858 Alma Matres 44 No wars between privileges collegiate and universitarianism. 1872 MRS. OLIPHANT Mem. Montalembert II. 44 The desire that this universitarian teaching should be above reproach.

Hence Universita·rianism, the educational method or system characteristic of or prevailing in a university; advocacy of or preference for this.

1889 Jrnl. Educ. 2 Sept. 470/1 At the risk of being accused of classicism, or universitarianism, I must confess that I do believe in a certain amount of classical work.

Univer·sitary, a. rare. [f. UNIVERSIT-Y + -ARY 1. Cf. F. universitaire (1835).] Of the nature of, having the character of, a university.

1889 Cath. News. 26 Oct. 5 The half-ecclesiastical, half-universitary French College of Tunis.

‖ Univer·sitas. Scots Law. [L.: see next.] The whole (of an estate or inheritance).

1765-8 [see UNIVERSAL a. 2 b]. 1838 W. BELL Dict. Law Scot. 467 Things, in their nature heritable, may become moveable by being made part of a moveable universitas. 1888 LD. MACNAGHTEN in Law Rep. App. Cas. XIII. 383 The legacies are to be paid out of the universitas of the testator's estate.

University (y·nivœ·rsĭti), sb. Forms: 6 vniuersite, 5 -versite, 5-6 -uersitee, 4-5 vnyuersite(e, 5-6 -uersyte(e; 5-7 vniuersitie (6 Sc. wni-), 6 -tye, vnyuersytye, -tie, 7 vniuersity, -versity, 6-7 universitie, 7- University. See also VARSITY, VERSITY. [a. AF. université, universeté, univercyté, OF. universitet, universitei, université (13th c.; mod.F. université, = Pr. universitat, It. università, Sp. universidad, Pg. -idade; also in sense 1 MDu. universiteit, MDu. and Du. universiteit, MG., MLG. universitēte, MHG. universitēt, G. universität, Dan., Sw. universitet) :—L. universitāt-, universitās, (1) the whole, entire number, universe, (2) in later and mediæval Latin (chiefly in legal use), a society, company, corporation, or community regarded collectively; f. L. universus (see UNIVERSE).]

I. 1. The whole body of teachers and scholars engaged, at a particular place, in giving and receiving instruction in the higher branches of learning; such persons associated together as a society or corporate body, with a definite organization and acknowledged powers and privileges (esp. that of conferring degrees), and forming an institution for the promotion of education in the higher or more important branches of learning; also, the colleges, buildings, etc., belonging to such a body.

Sometimes, especially in former use, synonymous with college: see COLLEGE sb. 4 c.

c 1300 St. Edmund in A. Eng. Leg. I. 438/256 So þat he bigan at Oxenford of diuinite, So noble alosed per nas non in al þe vniuersite. Ibid. 439/278 He bigan so deope despuit of þe trinite, þat gret wonder me hadde þurf al þe vniuersite. c 1384 J. WYCLIF Wks. (1880) 257 Hebeme mentis lawis and worldly clerkis statutis ben red in vnyuersitees. c 1400 Rom. Rose 6769 At Parys...he had...The accorde of the vniuersite, And of the puple as semeth me. c 1445- (see COLLEGE sb. 4). c 1450 Godstow Reg. 438 The house...that Robert of Staunton held of the vnyuersite of Oxenford. 1509 FISHER Funeral Serm. C'less Richmond Wks. (1876) 301 The studyentes of bothe the vnyuersytees. 1579 W. WILKINSON Confut. Faun. Love 40 They labour to put out the eyes of this land (the Vniuersitys I meane). 1644 MILTON Educ. 3 This place should be at once both School and University. 1651 LAMPLUGH in Extr. St. Papers Friends Ser. II. (1911) 126 University, Town and Country are for more active and vigilant then before. 1702 ROTTERELL Brief Rel. (1857) V. 145 A patent...for founding an university..., to be called king Williams university. 1725 BAILEY Erasm. Colloq. (1733) 259 Are you going to Louvain to see the University? 1785 J. ADAMS Wks. (1854) X. 230 He is anxious to study some time at your university [=Harvard College] before he begins the study of law. 1840 CARLYLE Heroes V. (1858) 305 Universities are a notable, respectable product of the modern ages. 1856 STANLEY Sinai & Pal. x. 364 The great Jewish university which rendered Tiberias for three centuries the metropolis of the race. 1868 M. PATTISON Academ. Org. 46 The university of the chancellor, masters, and scholars, is one corporation, and each of the colleges distinct and independent societies.

b. fig. and transf.

1595 Locrine III. iii, I think you were broght vp in the vniuersitie of bridewell; you haue your rhetorick so ready at your toongs end. 1607 HIERON Wks. I. 326 To be admitted into that great vniuersitie, where He, which is the doctour of the chaire, Christ Iesus, will [etc.]. 1615 (title), A Catalogue or Table of all the Arts and Sciences read and taught in this University of London. 1652 BENLOWES Theoph. II. xiii, Man, ..by infusion wise;...Chancllor install'd of Eden's University. c 1852 J. GIBSON in Blog. (1921) iii. 28 He looked upon Rome as the great University of Sculpture. 1863 MISS BRADDON Aurora Floyd xxxi, In the London universities of crime. 1890 'R. BOLDERWOOD' Col. Reformer (1891) 215 None of these young gentlemen was absolutely necessary at that ovine university [=a sheep-station.]

† 2. The whole body, aggregate, or number of creatures, persons, things, etc.; = UNIVERSALITY 5.

1382 WYCLIF Tobit viii. 19 That the vnyuersite of Jentilis knowe, for thou art God alone in al erthe. ? 1400 QUIXLEY in Yorksh. Archæol. Jrnl. (1908) XX. 50 To al þe worldes vniversitie This balade be ensample and myrrour. c 1449 PECOCK Repr. II. xvi. 243 In al the hool vnyuersite of thingis and of beingis. 1494 Hylton's Scale Perf. II. xlvi. (W. de W.), Al thise gracious knowynges feild in a scuile of the vnyuersitee of al creatures. c 1530 MORE Picus Wks. 18/2 If any part of the whole vniuersitye of creatures were destroyed. 1563 MAN Musculus' Commonpl. 29 b, All that compasse of the whole vniuersitie of thinges and times. 1581 W. FULKE in Confer. III. (1584) O iv b, The vniuersitie of faithfull doeth pray. 1604 T. WRIGHT Passions VI. 304 The vniversity of Beastes, foules, and fish. 1659 H. THORNDIKE Wks. (1846) II. 483 If in all Scripture...a Church signify the university of Christians. 1677 GALE Crt. Gentiles IV. 180 The Communitie or Universitie of the Multitude. [1862 G. LONG tr. Th. M. Aurelius Anton. p. lxxvi, The gods will do whatever is best and consistent with the university of things.]

fig. 1382 WYCLIF Jac. iii. 6 Oure tunge is fijr, the vniuersitie of wickidnesse [L. universitas iniquitatis]. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W., 1531) 56 b, Ye tonge is but a small thynge, ...but it is (sayth the sayd apostle) the vniuersitie of all euyls.

† b. Without cons. The whole of something; all things, etc.; universal nature. Obs.

c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. v. pr. iv. (1868) 265 þe eye of intelligence is heyger for it sourmounteþ þe environynge of þe vniuersite and lookeþ ouer þat by pure subiliite of ingnit. 1382 WYCLIF 2 Maccc. xiv. 38 Thou, Lord of vnyuersitee, yr of alle creatures. 1387-8 T. USK Test. Love. I. ix. (Skeat) I. 46 Man is mad of al the foure elementes. Al universitee is reioened in him alone. 1432-50 tr. Higden (Rolls) II. 205 For God knowethe how euery thinge is ordeined for to create, and how he scholde dispose the pulcritude of the vniversite in hit. 1502 Ord. Crysten Men (W. de W. 1506) I. iv. D iij, By the nombre of seuen...vnyuersyte to vs is sygnyfyed. 1610 HEALEY St. Aug. Citie of God 314 Where euer they live, they may finde a god the governor and father of all university.

† c. The universe; = UNIVERSALITY 5 b. Obs.

1494 Hylton's Scale Perf. II. xlvi. (W. de W.), Our lorde Jhesu maker & keper of al this fayre vnyuersitee. 1591 SYLVESTER Du Bartas I. i. (1641) 5/1 In Six dayes [God] formed...All things contain'd in th' Universitie. 1598 T. BASTARD Chrestoleros (1880) 6 Man is a little world and beares the face And phrase of the Vniuersitie. a 1619 FOTHERBY Atheom. II. x. § 1 (1622) 299 This Vnity: which they make the onely cause of the whole vniuersity. 1642 H. MORE Song of Soul I. ii. 13 Physis is the great womb From whence all things in th' University Xclad in divers forms do gaily bloom.

† d. The whole people; = UNIVERSALITY 5 c.

1677 GALE Crt. Gentiles III. i. v. 181 That the first invention ...of Laws may be committed to prudent men; and yet the... confirmation of them appertain to the universitie or common multitude.

e. Law. (See quot. 1832.)

1832 AUSTIN Jurisprudence II. p. xlii, Such universities of rights and duties (or such complex aggregates of rights and duties) as arise by universal succession. 1861 MAINE Anc. Law 178 Without this fact there is no university of rights and duties.

† 3. Your university, the collective whole of the members of a body, group, or company of persons specifically addressed in some formal or official document. Also pl. in Sc. use. Obs.

Chiefly in renderings of the common phrase Noverit universitas vestra.

c 1400 Brut cli. 163 To alle Cristen peple..Iohn, by the grace of God, kyng of Engeland, gretyng to your vniuersite. 1478 Mem. de Mores (Bann. Cl.) 539 Wit youre vniuersite þat [etc.]. 1500 Cartular. St. Nicholas Aberdon. (New Spald. Cl.) I. 76 Till all and ande sindry...gretinge in gode euirlesting. 3oure vniuersiteis sall wit wes...till hafe remeuit [etc.]. 1543 Treat. Abp. Cantrbury I. 161 Knowe your vniuersitie, that I..do make my last will of certayne my landes. c 1596 in Abstr. Protocols Town Clerks of Glasgow (1897) V. Pref. 16 To all and sindry..gretyng... Wittis your vniuersiteis that [etc.]

† 4. a. A body or company of persons associated together for some purpose. Obs.—1

1497 CAXTON Recuyell (Sommer) 617 Hit is leefful ‖ a]t an vnyuersite answere not alway to one leaffull.

† b. A body or class of persons regarded collectively; esp. an aggregate of persons forming a corporate body or society, a corporation. Obs.

1607 COWELL Interpr., Vniversitie, is by the Ciuill lawe any bodie politicke, or corporation. 1643 PRYNNE Sec. Power Parl. App. 159 Although things doe die, the people in the mean time (as niether any other Universitie) never dyeth. 1678 SIR G. MACKENZIE Crim. Laws Scot. I. i. § 7 (1699) 11 A collective Body of People, or university, such as a Burgh Corporation. [1791 MORRIS Insurances II. 40 The Prior and Consuls..of the University of the Shippers and Merchants..of this City of Seville. 1776 A. SMITH W. N. I. x. I. 148 All such incorporations [of trades] were antiently called universities. Ibid., The university of smiths, the university of tailors, &c. 1843 Penny Cycl. XXVI. 22/2 The universities or corporate bodies at Rome.]

II. † 5. Extension to the whole (of something); = UNIVERSALITY 1. Obs. rare.

1553 ASCHAM in Lett. Lit. Mem. (Camden) 18 My trust is yet will not judge me unconstant, for this universitie in choice of my living. 1677 GALE Crt. Gentiles III. ii. 270 Al perfection importes some kind of universitie. Ibid. 277 Now God having the whole of essence in himself must necessarily have an universitie of perfection.

III. attrib. and Comb. (in sense 1).

6. a. Simple attrib., passing into adj. use (rarely with hyphen): Of, pertaining or belonging to, characteristic of, prevailing or obtained at, a University or Universities, as University course, court, education, learning, lecture, library, etc.

1379 Rolls of Parlt. III. 69/2 Son College appellez Mokel

Universite Hall en Oxenford. 1589 R. Harvey Pl. Perc. (1590) 17 He will..praise him, that he is not infected with.. Vniuersitie learning. 1602 2nd Pt. Return Parnass. IV. v. 1206 Few of the university pen plaies well. 1606 Dekker News fr. Hell F 3 b, This Homere, that hath laine sick seueteen yeers together of the Vniuersitie plague, (watching and want). a 1628 F. Greville Sidney (1652) 109 Lest.. she might be constrained to..labour the compassing of disorderly ends, by a Mechanicall kinde of University Canvasse. a 1700 Evelyn Diary 5 Mar. 1673, University lectures and erudition. 1708 J. Chamberlayne St. Gt. Brit. I. III. (1710) 302 [The] University Library [Cambridge]. 1726 R. Newton (title), University Education; or, an Explication and Amendment of the Statute which [etc.]. 1783 Encycl. Brit. (ed. 2) X. 8353/2 The jurisdiction of the university-courts in criminal matters. 1868 Rep. U.S. Commissioner Agric. (1869) 140 Students enter upon the university course with a certain preparation. 1871 J. Place (title), University Tests, and their Abolition, Considered in a Letter [etc.]. 1875 Rashdall Univ. of Europe II. II. 395 Another essential qualification for a University town..is facility of access.

b. That is (or has been) a member of a University; educated or studying at a University, as University chum, man, etc.

1580 Spenser Three Proper Lett. Wks. (1912) 610/1 Some learned, and well aduized Vniuersitie man. 1641 R. Brooke Eng. Episc. II. vii. 111 They thinke the wayes of Gods Spirit are free, and not tied to a Vniuersity man. 1706 Phillips (ed. Kersey), Servitor, ..a poor University-Scholar that attends others for his Maintenance. 1755 Man No. 13. 4 An university chum of mine. 1868 M. Pattison Academ. Orgs. 2 Even University men themselves betray..an impression that something should be done.

c. With the names of officials, etc., attached to or connected with a University, as University auditor, lecturer, librarian, orator (see Orator 5), preacher, register, etc.

1589 Nashe in Greene Menaphon (1610) A iv b, That royall erection of Trinitie College, which the Vniuersity Orator.. aptly termed Colonia deducta. 1614 J. Chamberlain in Cri. & Times Jas. I (1848) I. 305 The University Orator, Nethersole,..is taxed for calling the prince Jacobissime Carole. 1651 Milton Eikon. (title), Or the Vniversity Carrier who sicken'd in the time of his vocancy. a 1700 Evelyn Diary 10 July 1669, The Terræfilius (the Vniuersitie Buffoone). 1708 J. Chamberlayne St. Gt. Brit. I. III. (1710) 298 The Custos Archivorum, or University-Register. 1800 Cambr. Univ. Cal. 6 University Officers [include] Chancellor, ..High Steward,..Vice-Chancellor [etc.]. 1882 Addenda Corpus Stat. Univ. Oxon. 882/2 The University Auditor appointed under the provisions of the Statute. 1892 Glasgow Univ. Calendar 19 Lecturers, Demonstrators, or University Assistants.

d. With part. pres., chiefly in locative combs., as University-bred, -taught, -trained; -going adjs.

1846 Ld. Campbell Chancellors cxxi. (1857) VI. 2 The common-place progress of a high-born, university-bred barrister. 1879 J. C. Morison Gibbon 11 The two greatest historians..were not university-bred men. 1898 Edin. Rev. Jan. 121 The university-going class among the Roman Catholic community.

7. Special combs., as University cap, the academical cap worn by the members of a University, a square cap or 'mortar-board'; University chair, the chair or office of a University professor; University Chest, at Oxford and Cambridge, the funds of the University, or the office which receives and administers these; University extension: (see Extension 9 g); University sermon, a sermon preached before the members of a University, usually by a specially nominated or appointed person.

1772 Nugent Hist. Fr. Gerund. I. 73 Heads stuck in *university-caps. 1831 Carlyle Sart. Res. III. x. They sometimes invert the hat, and wear it brim uppermost, like a University-cap. 1883 N. & Q. 15 Dec. 469/1 The University or 'Teacher' Cap. 1711 Shaftesb. Charac. III. 287 He finds these Subjects..appropriated to the School, the *University-Chair, or Pulpit. 1717 E. Miller Acc. Univ. Camb. 177 Neither the Vice-chancellor..,or the *University Chest, get one Farthing of Money by it. 1890 Addenda Corpus Stat. Univ. Oxon. II. 800 The Curators of the University Chest. 1827 Oxford Guide 56 In the Long Vacation there are no *University sermons.

Hence †Univer·sity v., to provide or endow with a University; Univer·sityless a., having no University; Univer·sityship, the state or condition of being a University; status as a University.

1682 Loyal Satisfact in Somers Tracts (1812) VII. 69 Pembroke may be visited, and Manchester *universitied. 1656 Fuller Hist. Camb. 21 As for Scotland, it was *Universityless till [etc.]. Ibid. 35 The *University-ship of Cambridge is to be accounted from her original constitution.

† Univocacy. Obs.—[f. post-cl. L. univoc-us (see next) + -acy.] Univocal quality; oneness or sameness of character.

1658 Sir T. Browne Gard. Cyrus 135 The Æquivocall production of things under undiscerned principles, makes a large part of generation, though they seem to hold a wide univocacy in their set and certain Originals.

Univocal (yuːnivŏkăl), a. and sb. Also 6 vnyvocal (le. f. post-cl. L. univoc-us having one meaning (f. L. uni- Uni- + vŏc-, vŏx Voice sb.) + -al. So It., Sp., Pg. unívoco, F. univoque (see Univoque).]

A. adj. 1. † a. Of symptoms, signs, etc.: Indicative of, signifying, or denoting one thing; certain or unmistakable in significance. Chiefly Med. Obs.

1542 Copland Guydon's Quest. Chirurg. Q iij b, Fyrste than in procedynge..to the knowlege of the vnyuocal sygnes. Ibid., The sygnes of leprey aswel equyuocalles as vnyuocalles. 1706 Phillips (ed. Kersey), Univocal Signs (in Surgery) are certain Accidents or Signs of the Fracture of the Scull,..distinguish'd from others termed Equivocal. 1738 Warburton Div. Legat. I. 5 No less illustrious, but more univocal Marks of Truth, that God hath been pleased to impress upon his Dispensations. 1783 Pott Chirurg. Wks. II. 405 Though this be one symptom,..yet it is not an univocal or infallible one.

b. Of terms, etc.: Having only one proper meaning or signification; admitting or capable of a single interpretation or explanation; of which the meaning is unmistakable; unambiguous.

Opposed to Equivocal a. 2. Now esp. in Logic.

1656 [? J. Sergeant] tr. T. White's Peripat. Inst. 285 The same name would signifie God and a Creature, in the same signification, and would be univocal. 1661 Morgan Sph. Genius I. vi. 88 The crown and horn are in the sacred scripture univocal expressions of glory and dignity. 1671 Baxter Holiness xxviii. 9 It is but Analogically called either Holiness or Morality, and not in a proper or univocal sense. 1724 Watts Logic I. iv. § 6 Univocal words are such as signify but one idea, or at least but one sort of thing. 1774 Reid Aristotle's Logic I. § 3. 4 An explication of what is meant by univocal words, what by equivocal. 1843 Mill Logic I. ii. 8 The terms used, be univocal, or applied uniformly with respect to all things of which it can be predicated in the same sense. 1865 Grote Plato I. xvii. 500 The different significations of the same word: the univocal and the equivocal. 1890 Tablet 31 May 848 Declaring in terms which are simply univocal [etc.].

† c. Mus. (See quot.) Obs. rare—0.

1801 Busby Dict. Mus., Univocal, the epithet applied by Ptolemy to the octave and its replicates. [Hence in some later Dicts.]

† 2. Uniform, homogeneous; not exhibiting variation or deviation; confined to one kind or nature.

Freq. in the latter half of the 17th c., esp. in the writings of Jeremy Taylor; in some instances it is difficult to determine the precise sense.

1652 [Jer. Taylor] Body of Man 28 A dead or mortified part.. may not be called a part but equiuocally, because it hath not an vniuocall forme with the whole. 1647 Jer. Taylor Lib. Proph. xiii. 201 When the actions and persuasions of a sect ..are equivocall. 1662 Serm. for Year I. xx. 255 The joyes of religion are not univocal but productive of ..preternatural pleasures. 1668 J. Chandler Van Helmont's Oriat. 156 So, from the univocal, simple, and homogeneall immortall minde, issue forth many properties and inclinations of men badly be fetched. 1727 Warburton Tracts (1789) 87 But Truth..is of much cooler Contemplation; as paying its Court to the Understanding only, by affording a regular View of its simple univocal Original.

† 3. Of or belonging to, characteristic of, things of the same name or species; esp. in univocal generation, normal or regular generation between male and female members of the same species. Obs.

1638 Jackson Creed IX. viii. § 3 He which is as truly the Son of God..must needs be as absolutely eternal as the Deity..otherwise the generation should be equivocal and imperfect, not univocal. 1660 R. Coke Justice Vind. 6 Creatures..generated and produced from univocal generation or production, that is, from the coition of male and female of the same species. 1708 Brit. Apollo No. 2. 2/1 Generation is Univocal: That is, a Species can be no otherwise naturally formed than by a seminal Production. 1748 Phil. Trans. XLV. 656 Thus do these Principles..never deviate further than is consistent with univocal Generation. 1822 J. Fleming Philos. Zool. I. 23 A process which is termed Univocal or Regular Generation.

† b. Of actions, causes, etc. Obs.

a 1640 J. Ball Answ. to Can (1642) I. 132 That which is spoken of causes univocall, necessary and proper. 1669 Flavel Heath. Spiritual viii. 76 Grace in it self .. cannot be the proper univocal cause of any evil effect. 1697 tr. Burgersdicius' Logic I. viii. 27 Action univocal is that by which the action produces an effect of its own species; action equivocal, of a different.

† 4. Made, uttered, etc., with or as if with one voice. Of consent, etc.: Unanimous. Obs.

1615 J. Stephens Satyr. Ess. 242 Hee..is never free of the Company..till hee hath drunke out his Apprentise-hood among the grand Masters; and then with an vniuocall consent, hee may commend his Wayes. a 1734 North Lives III. 114 They bellowed and roared with univocal noise, not only in the city but all over England. a 1734—Examn. III. vii. § 61 (1740) 548 It was their univocal Declaration, that [etc.].

B. sb. A univocal term or word.

1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v., Univocals..are defined by Aristotle to be those Things whose Name is common, and the Reason corresponding to the Name..the same. 1788 T. Taylor Proclus I. p. ii. If infinite men, horses, and a multitude of other univocals, are produced in an infinite time. 1822-7 Good's Study Med. (1829) I. 407 Regius, arquatus, aurigo, are not indeed univocals, but very clearly equivalents.

Uni·vocally, adv. [f. prec. + -ly 2.]

1. So as to mean only one thing or species; in one and the same sense; with one meaning or signification; hence, unmistakably, unambiguously.

1593 T. Bell Motives Romish Faith (1605) 110 If matrimony be a sacrament properly and vnivocally so called. 1626 J. Jackson Creed VIII. viii. § 2 The generall definition..of a servant is univocally the same, (1) in legall servants, (2) in servants to sin [etc.]. 1638 Chillingw. Relig. Prot. I. vi. § 42. 363 You have not set down cleerely and univocally what you mean by it. 1677 Gale Crt. Gentiles III. iii. 248 That nothing can predicate univocally of God and the Creature is most evident. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Predicable, A Predicable is a Nature which may be predicated univocally of all things to which it is common. c 1790 Reid Lett. Wks. 1846 I. 75/2 The same word may be applied to different things in three ways:..Univocally, when the things are species of the same genus [etc.]. 1842 Sir W. Hamilton in Reid's Wks. (1846) I. 205 2 If the names..were to be employed univocally—i.e., to denote always things the same or similar. 1874 Contemp. Rev. XXIV. 788 As if every tyro in theology did not know that not even 'being' could be predicated univocally of God and of any creature.

† 2. By members of the same species; regularly, normally. (Cf. Univocal a. 3.) Obs.

a 1676 Hale Prim. Orig. Man. II. ix. (1677) 207 Animals which are perfect and univocally generated. 1704 Ray Creation (ed. 4) II. 372 All Creatures are generated Univocally by Parents of their own kind. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Equivocation, The Moderns..hold that all Animals, nay and Vegetables too, are Univocally produced.

3. With one voice; unanimously.

1672 J. Webster Metallogr. xviii. 255 Therefore the.. Secretaries of this Philosophy do univocally testifie, that [etc.]. 1824 Temple Bar Mag. VI. 171 All bellowed out univocally that the sole object..was to drive dull care away.

† Uni·vocalness. Obs.—1 [-ness.] = Univocation.

1657 J. Sergeant Solid Philos. 26 The Univocalness which I assert to the word (Cognition) and (Notion) is such a one as is taken from their Radix (Nosco).

† Uni·vocate, a. Obs.—1 [i. post-cl. L. univocus Univocal a.; see -ate 2.] Of one sound or pronunciation.

1432-50 tr. Higden (Rolls) II. 161 The langage of Normaunes is oon and vniuocate [L. uniuoci] allemoste amonge theyme [sc. Englishmen] alle.

† Univocation. Obs. rare. [ad. late L. univocātion-, univocātio (Quicherat), noun of action f. univocāre* (see Univocal a.). Cf. F. univocation, Sp. univocacion, Pg. univocação, It. univocazione.] Oneness or identity of name or meaning.

a 1610 G. Fletcher Israel Redivac (1677) 13 This univocation of Tartar Cities with those of Israel..doth plainly shew that the Israelitish People have been there. 1693 South Animadv. Sherlock's Ilk. (ed. 2) 242 Since no one Thing can agree both to God and the Creature, by a perfect Univocation. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v., The School-men have long disputed about the Univocation of Being.

Univo·ltine, sb. and a. [ad. F. univoltin, -tain, f. uni- Uni- + It. volta turn, time.] a. sb. One of a breed of silkworms which produces a single brood in a year. b. adj. Having but one brood each year.

1874 J. Groghegan Parl. Rep. Silk in India 118 That this insect [sc. a silkworm] has quite changed its period of existence..,and from a multivoltine become a univoltine [sic]. 1883 G. Watt Econ. Prod. India III. 66 In Upper India and in Kashmir the univoltine worms are those usually reared. 1892 Chambers's Encycl. IX. 453/1 The B.(mbyx.) mori is univoltine or annual.

† Univoque, a. Obs.—1 In 6 vnyuoke. [a. F. univoque; see Univocal a.] = Univocal a. 1 a.

1541 R. Copland Guydon's Quest. Chirurg. Q ij, They.. shulde ryght dylygently beholde theym & consider the vnyuoke sygnes and equyuokes also. And nat for one onely token gyue theyr sentences, but by many conuenaunces, and specyally vnyuokes.

† Uniwares, adv. Obs. In 4 vn-, onywar, oniwar. [Un-1 II b and 7: cf. Unaware and Unware.] Unaware, unawares; esp. in phr. on uniware = at unaware(s).

1297 R. Glouc. (Rolls) 1966-7 Þis prince al an onywar [v.r. al vn ywar, al in on oniwar] toward hom dronc. Hit come ayen him onywar [v.r. on oniwar] & slowen him al vor nost. Ibid. 2927, 3261, 3501, 4328, etc.

† Uniwa·res, adv. Obs.—1 In 3 unjewares. [f. as prec. + -s. Cf. Unawares, Unwares.] Unawares.

a 1200 Vices & Virtues 19 Spede8 þa zwa, forðan þurne ænddai neiþen.), and cumð unjewares al zwa þief be nihte.

† Unjacobitize, v. [Un-3 6 c.] trans. To detach from the Jacobite cause. 1719 Ozell tr. Misson's Mem. 138 Now their Castles in the Air being overturn'd, they begin to be Unjacobitiz'd.

Unja·ded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1779 J. Moore View Soc. Fr. (1789) I. iii. 23 My head undisturbed with wine, and my spirits unjaded by play. 1876 Miss Yonge Womankind xix, The freshness of her unjaded mind. 1880 J. Nichol Byron 71 A public taste as yet unjaded by..imaginative descriptions of foreign scenery.

Unja·gged, a. (Un-1 9) 1728 Bradley Dict. Bot. s.v. Jacobæa, This unjagged Ragwort hath..Leaves lying next the Root, not jagged or divided as it. Unjaffed, pa. ppl. (Un-3 3.) 1639 J. Taylor (Water P.) World's Eighth Wonder Wks. II. 62 For Eolus..With winds vnlayled came at vnawares, And greenefaced Neptune with defiance dares.

Unja·rring, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1624 T. Adams The Temple 31 God who..hath put vs in the right & vniarring harmony of truth. 1651 H. L'Estrange Answ. Mrq. Worcester 52 A grave Author hath cull'd out..303 oppositions amongst the Marquis his unjarring Catholiques. 1880 S. Lanier Poems (1884) 8 The wave-serrate sea-rim sinks unjarring, unreeling.

Unjau·ndiced, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1792 Cowper Lines to Darwin v, But we..Can gaze on even Darwin's wit With an unjaundic'd eye. 1804 Collins Scriptscrap. 161 Men of Merit and Sense..Behold in Promotion with unjaundic'd Eyes. 1879 Mallock Is Life Worth Living? 19 To the unjaundiced eye nothing is more clear than that happiness [etc.]. Unjau·nty, a. [Un-1 7.] †Ungenteel. 1671 Mrs. Behn Forc'd Marriage II. ii, "Tis the most unjanty humour that ever I saw; I, I, he is my rival. 1687 Settle Refl. Dryden 41 It being something Drydenish, Illnatured and unjauntee.., to fair well, and cry Mastmost, especially to a Husbands face.

Unjea·lous, a. (Un-1 7.)

Also, in recent use, unjealously adv.
1673 Clarendon Relig. & Policy x. (1812) II. 706 The gentle and unjealous temper of the King. 1789 E. Darwin Bot. Gard. II. 8 And three unjealous husbands wed the dame. 1824 Miss Mitford Village Ser. 1. 122 A pure and unjealous delight that made her own happiness. 1840 L. Hunt Autobiog. II. x. 23 The poet, though not unjealous of his dignity. 1876 S. Lanier Poems, Clover 2 My large unjealous Loves.

Unjea·lousness, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1710 T. Blackwell Schous Sacra Pref. p. ii, Incorporating himself with an unjealoused Creature.

Unje·sting, ppl. a. (Un-[2] 10.) 1885 Ruskin Pleas. Eng. 103 The unjesting Lombards. 1894 Athenæum 23 June 802/1 Until one longs for a dull, unjesting page or two. †Unje·suited, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 8.] Not influenced by Jesuits. 1659 Gauden Tears Ch. iii. xxiv. 346 If the unjesuited Papists could have found in their hearts.. to apply to that Reformation of Religion [etc.]. 1716 M. Davies Athen. Brit. II. Dissens 8 The said Servant left most of the Estate to the Un-Jesuited Knight's Lady.

Unjew·ish, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1822 Monthly Mag. LIII. 125 No other Protestant nation..keeps the sabbath in so unjewish and unscriptural a manner. 1892 Zangwill Child'r. Ghetto I. 208 Keeping a dog is an un-Jewish trait.

Unjo·bed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Not reproved. 1732 J. Whaley Poems 165, I with grovling Furlo bless'd Unjob'd can Sport and Play. Unjo·ggling, ppl. a. (Un-[2] 10.) 1748 A. Hill. in Mrs. Barbauld Life Richardson (1804) I. 129 The unjogging slide of something..that paces their lame understanding smoothly on.

Unjoi·n, v. Now rare. [Un-[2] 3.]
1. trans. To detach from being joined; to disjoin, sever, separate.
1340 Ayenb. 107 He him nestnep zuo fine god het no bing ne may him to parti ne onioyni. c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. v. pr. iii. (1868) 159 It byhouep..hat pe lynage of mankynde.. ben departed and vnioyned from hys welle and faylen of hys bygynnynge. 1400 Destr. Troy 939 Jason..gyrd of his hede, Vnioynis the lymme..hat were to-gedir. 1598 Elyot, Disiungo, to vnioyne, to separate. 1583 Golding Calvin on Deut. xxi. 127 Euen by vnioyning the thinges that God had ioyned. 1603 J. Davies (Heref.) Microcosmos 107 It glues together states, that Warres vnioin'd. 1898 T. Hardy Ret. Native I. iii, When folks are just married 'tis as well to look glad o't, since looking sorry won't unjoin 'em.
b. intr. To become unjointed or detached.
a 1533 Ld. Berners Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. (1536) T iv, My sinewes dry..: the ioyntes vnioyne asonder, and mi spirites are troubled.
2. trans. To separate the parts of; to take apart. Also fig., to undo.
1340–70 Alisaunder 204 Stones stirred they bo & stightlich layde On hur engines full gist to ungone [read unjoine] pe walles. 1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. xviii. 258 But bestes rise to lyue,..conforte al his kynne.., And al pe iuwen ioye vnioignen & vnlouken. c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode ii. cxlviii. (1869) 235 In Iacob and Esau thou hast seyn the figure: I sawede hem and vnioyned hem, pe.
†3. intr. To rejoin, make answer. Obs. c 1400 Destr. Troy 824 Than Jason vnioynid to the gentill speche:—Lord, and it like you, longe am I here!
Hence Unjoi·ning vbl. sb.
1589 Puttenham Eng. Poesie III. xi. (Arb.) 173 This alteration is sometimes by..vnyninge or vnioyning of syllables. 1598 Florio, Diuulsione, a diuulsion, vnioyning, cutting.

Unjoined, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
1538 Elyot, Incompactum, vnioyned, or yll ioyned. 1595 Daniel Civ. Wars II. xci, Nor my teares without thine are fillie teares, For thus vnioyn'd, sorrow but halfe appeares. a 1600 Hooker Eccl. Pol. VII. xxi. § 2 In respect of them, who being as yet unjoined unto this conspiracy, may be haply somewhat stayed. 1615 Markham Eng. Housewife II. iv. 111 Gather the butter together into one intire lumpe and body, leaving no peeces thereof seuerall or vnioyned.

Unjoint, v. [Un-[2] 3.]
1. trans. To sever the joints of; to disjoint, to dislocate.
1390 Gower Conf. II. 10, I wolde I were unjointed Of every lime. a 1547 Surrey in Tottell's Misc. (Arb.) 17 Vnhappy hand, it had been happy time for me, If..vnjointed hadst thou be. 1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. II. 115 Like to the partes of a house vnioynted and fallen downe. 1579 Spenser Sheph. Cal. Mar. 52 Thilke same vnhappye Ewe..vnjointed both her bones. 1622 Holland Ammian. Marcell. 161 This old Ram, being unjointed and taken in pieces, for easier carriage. 1646 Fuller Wounded Conse. 101 In case his Leg be set, he flings, flounces, and flies out, unjointing it again. 1723 Pres. St. Review I. 63 The Houses..are wholly made of Timber notched in on the four Corners, which they can unjoint in a few Hours. 1762 Phil. Trans. LII. 509 Hence it proceeded up the nave..to the pulpit, which it unjointed. 1898 W. Carlyon Parva Ballads (1899) 8, The mechanic Had well-nigh unjointed the stove-pipe. 1903 A. Adams Log Cowboy xi, The steer's leg had been unjointed in swinging him around.
†b. To carve (spec. a curlew or bittern). Obs. c 1450 Horn, Sheth & C. (Roxb.) 33 A curlew unjointed. 1508 W. de Worde Bk. Keruynge B j b, Vnioint that bytture. [Hence in later works.] 1821 G. Lamb Catullus I. 139 Let me see a fowl unjointed, When your table next is spread.
2. fig. To sever, separate, disunite.
1561 Norton & Sackhv. Gorboduc II. i, Loche chaunge of course vnjoynts the whole estate. 1577 Hanmer Anc. Eccl. Hist. 239 In as much as the subtletye of sophisters, fonde quirckes,..seuered also, and as it were vnioynted the members of Christ. 1612 Donne Pregry. Soule, and Annim. 133 None can these lines or quantities unjoyn, And say this is a line, or this a point. 1624 Middleton Game at Chess IV. ii, Hast thou..Vnjointed the fair frame of peace? 1671 Milton Samson 177, I hear the sound of words, thir sense the air Dissolves unjointed e're it reach my ear.
3. intr. To come asunder.
1826 Acc. Loss Wesleyan Missionaries (ed. 2) 18 The wreck began to unjoint.
Hence Unjoi·nted (also 6 vnioynte) ppl. a.
1541 R. Copland Guydon's Quest. Chirurg. I. iv b, To stay and conprysme the places dissolued, and confort the natural heate of the membre vnioynte. 1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. I. 34 In a ruine they sought for an vpright building, and for strong ioyntes in an vnioynted ouerthrow. 1591 Florio and Frutlet 129 Shee is some what crooke backt, shee hath one shoulder vnioynted. 1614 Raleigh Hist. World Pref. A 3, The unjointed and scattered frame of our English affaires.

Unjoi·nted, a. [Un-[1] 9.]
1. fig. Lacking due connexion or cohesion; unconnected, incoherent.
1588 Francke Lauriers Log. Ded. ¶ 4 Neyther himselfe can well understand his unjointed discourse, nor the hearers conceave his uncoherent jangling. 1596 Shaks. 1 Hen. IV, I. iii. 65 This bald, unjointed Chat of his. a 1610 Healey tr. Theophrastus (1636) 37 Their tedious unjointed tales. 1689 Reflect. Hind & Panther 35 To renew the old way of fighting with Sand-bags, the true Emblem of his unjointed, incoherent Stuff.
2. Not furnished with, or connected by, joints.
1681 Grew Museum I. II. 261 Upon his Shoulders he hath two immovable or unjointed Horns. 1774 Phil. Trans. LXV. 7 The columns..are of the simple, or unjointed species. 1826 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. III. 520 A short, tapering, unjointed bristle. 1894 Owen in Orr's Circ. Sci., Org. Nat. I. 283 They may be simple, unjointed, firm, bony spines. 1877 Huxley Anat. Inv. Anim. vii. 399 Two minute unjointed styles.

Unjoi·nting, vbl. sb. [f. Unjoint v.] The action of disjointing or dislocating.
1598 Florio, Dislogatione, an vniointing of any lim or joint. 1603 — Montaigne II. xxxi. 410 These spraines, and vnjoyntings of lims. 1611 Fuller Holy War v. xxx. 284 The cause, first of the unjointing, and then of the final ruine..of many worthy States.
Unjoi·ntly, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1792-3 Spirit Public Jrnls. (1799) I. 419 In dusty schools forsworn, Amongst..books unjoilly. 1896 Wherwell in Life (1881) 458, I look at this prospect with horror. Besides, the mere sitting so long will be 'awfully unjoilly'. Unjoi·nted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1777 Sheridan Trip Scarb. Prol., The crazed glutton snores, unjointed, home. Unjo·stled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1832 Scott Ct. Rob. ix, Do you feel that I have not left you unjostled by my advance to these squadrons of yours? Unjour·nalized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 a.) 1843 Moore Mem. (1876) VII. 259 Much of late has been left unjournalised by me. †Unjou·rneyed, ppl. a. Sc. Obs.† [Un-[1] + Journey v. 6.] Not adjourned. 1542 in Original Pap. Scotlie (1854) II. 1. 310 [To go and come to the King] unarrestit, vnjournit, vncalit, vnpynnit, vnlouit. Unjo·vially, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1607 Middleton Phœnix II. ii, Lady—what, so unjovially departed? Unjoy·ed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1837 Yelland Vestal, etc. 74 And joy'st thou in..the joys unjoy'd? the griefs ungrieved?

Unjoyful, a. (Un-[1] 7.)
1340–70 Alisaunder 1161 Menne..wer..By lustes unioyful iugged too death. c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. II. pr. v. (1868) 47 Certys pilke pinges..shullen ben vnioyeful to pe. 1799 Steele Tatler No. 16 P 2 This unjoyful Set of People, who are always Enemies to those in Possession of the good Opinion of the Company. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. III. I. viii, A squalid unjoyful Figure. 1868 Lynch Rivulet cli. II, Not with unjoyful care Nor with unpraiseful prayer We live below.
Unjoy·fully, adv. (Un-[1] 11; cf. prec.)
1553 Bale Vocacyon Pref. 4 By his Regall power..was I.. conf rmed and not all vnioyfully receiued of ye people. 1832 James Phil. Augustus III. iii, There were but two beings ..to whom that peal sounded unjoyfully.
Unjoy·ous, a. (Un-[1] 7.)
Also, in recent use (1891–), unjoyously adv.
1645 Milton Tetrach. 62 It must needs bee both unjoyous and uninstructive to any purceaving person so detaine. 1712 Steele Spect. No. 405 P 8 The wat'ry Length of these unjoyous Moors. 1797 Monthly Mag. III. 536/2 The aspect of the new moon was only unjoyous to those who owed money. 1842 Lytton Devereux II. ii, A coarse, yet not unjoyous, spirit of reckless debauchery. 1887 Hawthorne Engl. Note-bks. (1870) II. 216 All looking unjoyous, and as if they had no home nor parents' love.
Unju·dge, v. [Un-[2] 6 b.] trans. To deprive of the office of judge.
1633 T. Adams Exp. 2 Peter ii. 9 If he be not at leisure to do this, it is time to unjudge him.
Unju·dged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
1647 Hexham I, Vnjudged, ongeoordeelt. 1709 Shaftess. Charact. (1711) II. 424 Never can the Form be of real force where it is unconsulted, unjudg'd or, phaps, condem'd. 1728 Prior Solomon II. 722 Causes unjudg'd disgrace the loaded File. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. I. v. ix, The morning has worn itself into noon: and he is still unjudged! 1889 Gem. P. Thompson Life I. xxxvii. 87 The American colonel who is claiming his millions of dollars..for some unjudged complaint.
Unju·dge-like, a. (Un-[1] 7 c.) 1644 Milton Divorce II. xi. (ed. 2) 53 What more un-Judge-like, more un-Magistrate-like, and in warre more un-commande-like? 1792 Wolcot (P. Pindar) Ode Ld. Lonsdale 114 While Erskine..Tears to un-judgelike grins, the hanging Graces. Unju·dging, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1679 J. Goodman Penit. Pard. I. iii. (1713) 65 Those strong, but unjudging faculties,..have an inclination to such things. 1712 Blackmore Creation III. 644 You may..with a different cant the unjudging ear amuse. Unjudi·cial, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1678 Cudworth Intell. Syst. 897 These Sovereign Legislative Powers, may be said to be Absolute also,..as being..Un-Judicable or Un-Censurable by any Humane Court.
Unjudi·cial, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.)
1599 Warn. Fatal Warr. I. 34 You have..Some odd ends of old jests scrap'd up together, To tickle shallow unjudicial ears. 1867 Sal. Rev. 6 Apr. 436/2 A vigour which almost reaches vehemence, but which is never unscholarlike or unjudicial. 1894 Daily News 15 June 5/3 Infusing into it a very unjudicial amount of sentiment and passion.
Unjudi·cially, adv. (Un-[1] 11, 5 b; cf. prec.)
a 1628 F. Grevil Sidney xv. (1652) 198 Not truly active, but rather passive vaine, to imprison and release unjudicially. 1884 Spectator 16 Feb. 210/2 Afraid of having the law which they have interpreted so passionately and unjudicially, reviewed in a really judicial spirit.

Unjudicious, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.)
1614 Sylvester Bethulia's Rescue III. 459 O I unjudicious Judges, will you thus Give Law to God? a 1624 Br. M. Smith Serm. (1632) 72 Feare not vniudicious and impudent indgement of the multitude. a 1674 Milton Hist. Eng. III. Wks. 1851 V. 100 Prosperous to win a field; but to know the end and reason of winning, unjudicious and unwise. 1725 Fam. Dict. s.v. Lucatellus, The Sanders is a very unjudicious Ingredient, since it cannot answer any End as a Balsamick. 1776 Mickle tr. Camoens' Lusiad 129 note, An unjudicious mixture of sacred and profane mythology and history.
Unjui·ced, ppl. a. [Un-[2] 4, 8.] Deprived of juice; squeezed out. a 1652 Brome City Wit iv. i, Every man lov'd his Fortune, squeez'd it, and when it was unjuic'd, farewell kind heart. Unjui·cy, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1712 Blackmore Creation VII. 418 From unjuicy limbs without a root.. leafy branches shoot. Unjui·nkable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1886 Horse & Hound 4 Dec. 742 A fine fox..ran..by the side of the unjumpable bottom.
Unju·st, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b; cf. Du. onjuist.]
1. a. Of persons: Not acting justly or fairly; not observing the principles of justice and fair dealing. Also const. to.
1382 Wyclif Heb. vi. 10 Sothli God is not vniust, that he forgete youre workis. 1549 Cheke Hurt Sedit. (1569) D iij b, Shall they be thought not vniust, who..misvse and waste the same vngodlye? 1568 Grafton Chron. II. 400 An vniust and vnprofitable Prince. 1603 Shaks. Meas. for M. v. 1. 302 The Duke's vniust, Thus to retort your manifest Appeale. 1664 in Vernay Mem. (1907) 66 I pray God You would bee very unjust to your sonne. 1729 Butler Serm. Wks. 1874 II. 16 [Men] are as often unjust to themselves as to others. 1782 Cowper Expost. 56 He saw his people..avaricious, arrogant, unjust. 1841 Lane Arab. Nights I. 74 In the beginning of his reign [he was] an unjust monarch. 1876 J. Parker Paraci. II. xix. 354 To compare the universal with the limited is to be unjust to the.
absol. 1382 Wyclif 1 Pet. iii. 18 Crist oonys dyede for oure synnes, he iust for vniuste. 1593 Shaks. Lucrece 285 Foul hope and..fond mistrust; Both which are restless to the unjust, So cross him [etc.]. 1667 Milton P. L. XI. 455 Th' unjust the just hath slain, For envie. 1781 Cowper Retirement 268 Cry to the proud, the cruel, and unjust. 1847 Emerson Repr. Men, Plato, False opinion respecting the just and unjust.
b. Of actions, etc.: Not in accordance with justice or fairness.
c 1400 Destr. Troy 12965 This Forenses,..prayet, pat he might ryde..To loyne with Engest for his vniust werkes. 1549 Compl. Scot. 2 [They] intendit ane oniust veyr..contrar our realme. a 1586 Sidney Arcr. & Stella v. x, I lay then to thy charge vniuste tyrannie. 1612 Bible Prov. xxviii. 8 By vsurie and vniust gaine. 1697 Dryden Virg. Past. I. 93 Are we condemned by fate's injust decree, No more..our homes to see? 1906 Kames Princ. Equity (1767) 6 An action that we ought not to do is termed unjust; and the omission of what we ought to do is also termed unjust. 1858 J. B. Norton Topics 136 Every case of annexation has been most manifestly unjust. 1890 Retrospect Med. CII. 299 It would be injust not to refer..to the excellent results obtained by Pawlik and Byrne.
absol. 1659 Rushworth Hist. Coll. I. Ep. Ded., The Law ..puts a Difference betwixt Good and Evil, betwixt Just and Unjust. 1733 Pope Ess. Man III. 269 So drives Self-love, thro' just and thro' unjust, To one Man's pow'r.
2. Not upright or free from wrong-doing; faithless, dishonest. Also const. of or to. Now rare.
c 1500 Communycacyon (W. de W.) B ij, But lorde though I haue ben vniuste..I hope to rube awaye the ruste With repentaunce and grace of the. 1526 Tyndale Luke xvi. 8 The lorde commended the uniust stewarde because he had done wysly. a 1593 Marlowe Massacre Paris II. v. 686 Thou trothles and vniust, what lines are these? 1603 Knolles Hist. Turks (1621) 958 Their king accounted vniust of his word; who [etc.]. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. I. xv. 71 When a Covenant is made, then to break it is Iniust. 1766 Goldsm. Vicar xxxi, Else nothing could have ever made me unjust to my promise. 1887 Trollope Barchester T. xxxix, Mr. Plomacy was not quite happy in his mind, for he thought of the unjust steward.
†3. Improper; incorrect. Obs.
a 1533 Ld. Berners Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. (1546) Q v b, They..leaue the true trayne, and take vniuste illeuiase. 1586 A. Day Eng. Secretary II. (1625) 98 Would they not thinke you, straight proclaime against vs the vniust name of Christians. 1613 Purchas Pilgrimage II. viii. 143 Beda giueth an vniust interpretation of their name. 1723 Steele Guard. No. 17 P 1 The unjust taste they have who affect that way of pleasure.
†4. Irregular; inexact; inaccurate. Obs.
1602 J. Davies (Heref.) Mirum in Modum Wks. (Grosart) I. 22/2 The Sea through vaines and Arteries of the Earth, Creeps through her Corpes, ..And then returnes with windings most vniust. 1612 W. Colson Gen. Tresury 246 Because of the vniust fractions in the said table..the said proofe will be found somewhat vniust, but tollerable.

Unjustice. [Un-[1] 7, 5 b.]
1. = Injustice. Obs. exc. Sc.
1552 Monk Confut. Tindale Wks. 579/2 An occasion to leye weight of their iust damnacion, to the vniustice of gods eternal ordinaunce. 1569 Underdown Ovid's Invect. Ibis E iiij, Pausanias therefore much moued with the kings vniustice,..sleawe hym. 1626 R. Harris Heschiah's Recovery (1630) 4 He intimated that Ingratitude was a kinde of vniustice. 1687 Stanley Hist. Philos. (ed. 2) xiii. 933/1 His injust deeds will come to the ears of the avengers of Unjustice. 1704 J. Gibbs Serr. Divine Treat. (ed. 3) 103 All the Inficelity and Unjustice of Unbelievers. 1871 W. Alexander Johnny Gibb xvii, To dee 'im nae oonjustice, we sall suppose that he only deliver't the laird's orders.
†2. (See quot. and Justice sb 8.) Obs.[1] a 1661 Fuller Worthies, Essex I. (1662) 323 Rose Allin.., who being in her Calling,..was intercepted by Justice, or rather un-justice Tyrrell, who with a Candle most cruelly burnt her wrists.

Unju·stifiable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.)

In very frequent use from c 1760.

1641 Clarendon Hist. Reb. I. § 117 Their unjustifiable designs and pretences. 1674 Essex Papers (Camden) 262 Being resolved never to doe any Thing unjustifyable. 1716 Hearne Collect. (O. H. S.) V. 304 An intolerable and unjustifyable Injury. 1748 Hartley Observ. Man II. ii. § 34. 171 They did nothing unjustifiable. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. vii. II. 178 That even . Russell had gone to unjustifiable lengths against the prerogative. 1879 Froude Caesars Cousin Henry xi, They had been hard words—quite unjustifiable unless [etc.].

Hence Unju·stifiableness.

1653 Hanton Exp. Jonnes ii. 24 The unjustifiableness of that faith which is without works. 1798 R. Morris Ess. Anc. Archit. 91 The Unjustifiableness of Proceedings of this nature. 1745 J. Marchant Expos. Gen. xix. 66/2 The Unjustifiableness of the Means discreates the Means. 1883 Ruskin Stones Ven. III. i. § 14. 9 In proportion to the unjustifiableness of its introduction, was the extravagance of the form it assumed.

Unju·stifiably, adv. (Un-[1] 11.)

[1795 Johnson.] 1798 Skrine Serm. 5 Nov. (1771) 351 Centering the legal Constitution of our Government, because they, who rebel against it, behave unjustifiably. 1796 Morse Amer. Geog. I. 116 That part of Florida which they had cruelly and unjustifiably seized three years before. 1848 James X. Marston Tell xvi, That liberty of which they have been most unjustifiably deprived. 1883 Ruskin in Westm. Gaz. 8 Aug., Myfriends flatter me unkindly and unjustifiably.

Unju·stified, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

†1. Not brought to justice; not punished or executed. Obs.

c 1290 Hampole Pr. Conse. 5871 At þat day..loverds alswa [shall give account] of þair meisne þe whilk þai lete unusryfyed be. 1564 Reg. Privy Council Scot. I. 306 He wald hair sauffit the sone of ane theif, being his tennent, unjustifiit, allegaand [him]..to be hanginawin. 1596 Dalrymple Leslie's Hist. Scot. II. 202 Gif it be wonn, nocht ane in the castel, except the king sal chair vnlustifiet.

2. Not brought into a state of justification.

1652 Baxter Inf. Bapt. 308 If they have not Fus in re, then they are still unpardoned and unjustified. 1661 Papers After. Prayer-bk. 104 Those that by living in open sin, do shew themselves to be unjustified. 1701 Beverley Glory of Grace 51 Let him be Unjustified still. 1828 Webster (J. M. Mason).

b. Not cleared from a charge or imputation.

1678 Dryden All for Love iv. iv, I go Unjustifi'd, for ever from your sight.

3. Not made exact or accurate.

1671-2 T. Marshall in Hart Notes Cent. Typogr. Oxf. 166, I have examined y⁴ unjustified Paragon Greek matrices.

4. Not proved to be right or proper; unwarranted. In frequent use from c 1885.

1685 Boyle Eng. Notion Nat. iv. 97 The boldness of these unjustified paradoxes. 1849 Cobden Speeches 27, I hope I may not be considered as unjustified by precedent. 1885 Law Times 23 May 62/1 The plaintiff's conduct..was unjustified.

Unju·stify, v. (Un-[2] 6 a.) 1646 Hammond Tracts 131 In the same proportion that any such act of sin doth unjustify, it doth unsanctify also. 1654 Warren Unbelievers 250 No following sin shall unjustifie him.

Unju·stly, adv. (Un-[1] 11, 5 b.)

1. In an unjust manner; contrary to the principles of justice.

1384 Wycliff 1 Pet. ii. 19 If for conscience of God ony man suffrith sorewes,..suffringe vnjustly. 1529 More Suppl. Souls Wks. 291/1 He concludeth..who that lustye punishe a priest by the temporal law, is vnjustly troubled agayn in the spirituall law. a 1557 in Tottel's Miscel. (Arb.) 142 Rise lieth vnhappy Harpelus,..By Phillida vnhappy thus Murdred with false disdaine. 1604 Rowlands Looke to it 8 Suff'ring the Just unjustly be oppriest. 1652 Hobbes Leviath. II. xxii. 221 It is evident enough, that they have done unjustly. 1722 Wollaston Relig. Nat. vi. (1724) 138 Even the desire of obtaining any thing unjustly is evil. 1783 Hailes Antiq. Chr. Ch. iv. 79 Rutilius..was unjustly banished. 1880 Pusey Min. Proph. 314 To judge unjustly, absolving the guilty, condemning the innocent. 1891 Farrar Darkn. & Dawn xxvi, Unjustly suspected of a disloyal intention.

†2. Improperly; incorrectly. Obs.

1612 Selden Illustr. Drayton's Poly-olb. iv. 73 This account..White of Basingstoke (although ayming to be accurat) unjustly follows. 1656 Phil. Trans. CLIX. 222 Whose upper surface is strictly a horizontal plane, and not convex,..as is always, tho' very unjustly, painted.

Unju·stness. (Un-[1] 12.) Injustice.

1649 Pecock Repr. I. xviii. 106 The vnlustnes of iuging which is 3ouun upon me y knowe better than the vnlustnes of iuginge doon vpon others. 1586 A. Day Eng. Secretary I. (1625) 67 The indignity, vnjustnesse, wickednesse,..that thereof ensueth. 1591 Crompton Mansion of Magnan. L 1b, The vnlustnesse of this man to his Lord. 1622 Mabbe tr. Aleman's Guzman d'Alf. II. 9 He shall therein..giue me iust cause to suspect the vnlustnesse of his intent. 1670 Pery Truth Rescued 80 The Unreasonableness and Unjustness of such Arbitrary Proceedings. 1797 Mas Griffith Lett. Hen. & Frances (1767) I. 48, I interdict you..from the unjustness of any satyr against our sex. 1879 C. Geikie Eng. Reform. xix. 339 The injustness of a wholesale confiscation. 1889 L. Oliphant Episodes 211 The injustness of my suspicions.

†Unk, pron. Obs. In 3 uno (Orm. unnc), unke, (OE. unc, dat. and acc. of wit we two, = NFris. ink, onk, OS. unc; Goth. ugkis (also acc. ugk); ON. okkr.) Us two, both of us.

c 1200 Ormin Ded. 27 Unnc birþ þahe þannkenn Crist þatt it is brohht till ende. c 1205 Lay. 3260 For þi hit is betere bi-twinen unke seoluen to-delen and to-dihten þis kine-lond mid rihte. a 1225 Leg. Kath. 1515 Swa þe cnotte is icunut bituhhen unc twinen. a 1275 Prov. Alfred 583 Mine dæjis arren nei done, and we sulen unc to-delen.

Unkaimed, -kamed: see Uncombed.

Unkard(ness, dial. varr. Unked(ness.

Cf. unkward in Skinner (1671) s.v., and dial. unkert.

1727 Bailey (vol. II), Unkardness, Sainiariness, Loathsomeness. 1787 Grose Prov. Gloss., Unkard, awkward. 1788 W. H. Marshall Yorksh. II. Gloss. s.v., A servant is unkard on his first going to a fresh servitude. 1855-91 in Whitby and Gloucester glossaries.

Unkeared, obs. Variant of Unkembed.

1600 J. Lane Tom Tel Troth 369 Pyning Enuie..With.. withered face, and with vnkeamed haire. 1697 View Penal Laws 260, 2000 Tods of unkeamed Wool.

U·nked, u·nkid, a. Now dial. Forms: a. 4–5 vnkid (4 -kidd, 5 -kidde), vnkyd (4 -kydd, 6 -kydde), vnkud, 8–9 unkid. β. 4 vnkede, 5– unked, 8–9 unked. [ME. un-kidd, f. Un-[1] + pa. pple. of Kithe v. Cf. Uncos, Uncouth, Unkard, Unketh, and Unquod adjs.]

1. Not made known or revealed; unknown, unfamiliar, strange.

a 1300 Cursor M. 6920 He-self has berid him and hidd In a priue sted vn-kydd. c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xxxi. (Eugenia) 90 Oure treuth to þaim wes vnkid. a 1400 R. Gloucester's Chron. (Rolls) 7247 þe kings were of engeland of vnkuide [MS. C. vnkeede] kynne. c 1465 Engl. Chron. (Camden, 1856) 2 Not onli for deuocion, but also forto se the newe and unkid solennite. 1540 Hyrde tr. Vives' Instr. Chr. Wom. (1541) 47 The women were taken with an unked kynd of frauncy. 1583 Abstract of Acts, Canons, etc. temp. Q. Eliz. 70 A disposition..must not minister after any vnked maner, but [etc.]. 1825 Brockett N. C. Words, Unket, Unkid, strange, unusual. 1894-6 in Northumb. and Warw. glossaries.

2. Awkward or troublesome through being unfamiliar or unknown.

1634 C. Butler Eng. Gram. Pref., So powerful is the tyrant custom..that..this little change..will seem to some harsh and unked at the first. 1810 S. Green Reformist I. 89, I, who never has handled a needle, will make but an unked Petticoat. 1825 Miss Pilkington Celebrity I. 131 It is but an unked kind of way for a stranger to find.

b. Causing awkwardness or unpleasantness.

1860 Hughes T. Brown at Oxf. xviii, I hopes as you don't think I be any ways unked 'bout this here quite-singin'.

3. Unfamiliarly lone or dreary; lonely, dismal, forbiddingly dull.

1796 Phillips (ed. Kersey), Unked,..Solitary, Lonely. 1797 Hearne Diary 11 Nov., W[hilb] way (a strangely unked, solitary walk) I had never went..before. 1790 Cowper Let. to Mrs. Throckmorton 21 Mar., Weston is sadly unked without you. 1825 Jennings Observ. Dial. W. Eng. 148 Late at night a rewd sieog All droo a unket road. 1869 Blackmore Lorna D. xiii, The place was unkid and lonesome, and the rolling clouds very desolate.

b. Of persons: Feeling lonely, dull, or depressed.

1760 Miss Talbot Let. to Mrs. E. Carter 8 May, Mr. Okey gone to his apprenticeship, and I a little unkid for want of my scholar. 1795 H. Walpole Let. to Miss Berry 2 Sept., I am very unked without you. 1854 Miss Baker Northampt. Gloss. s.v., Old people suffering from the loss of friends will frequently say they feel very unkid.

4. Disagreeable, unpleasant, unnatural, eerie.

1800 Gentl. Mag. Feb. 107 [In Oxon.] every thing that is unfortunate, or unlucky, or not as it could be wished, is unked. 1864 Chr. G. Rossetti Jessie Cameron v, By her hut..they would not pass at night, lest they should hear an unked strain Or see an unked sight. 1884 Standard 6 Sept. 2/1 The..lapping of the waters evoke[s] a weird feeling that is somewhat, as the West Country people called it, unked.

Hence U·nkedness. rare.

1796 Colonel Montgomerie Merchiemont I. 232 The unketness of the place. 1838 Lady Lyttelton Lett. (1873) 235, I..had a wretched unkedness of a morning at the Inn. 1905 Eng. Dial. Dict. s.v.

Unked: see Uncked a. Obs.

Unkee·led, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1. Not sailed upon; not traversed by ships.

1807 J. Barlow Columb. I. 326 Their waves unkeel'd, their havens unexplored.

2. Not furnished with a keel.

a 1844 Campbell Napoleon & Brit. Sailor 35 A wherry.. uncompass'd, and unkeel'd. 1870 Hooker Stud. Flora (1884) 282 The glutinous unkeeled sepals.

Unke·mbed, ppl. a. Now rare. Forms: a. 4, 6–7 vnkemd (7 unkem'd), 5 vnkemmyde, 6 Sc. vnkemmit, 6–7 vnkemmed (9 un-). β. 5 vnkembyd, 6 -keembd, 7 -kembed, -kemb'd, -kembd. [Un-[1] 8. Cf. ON. ókembár, MHG. ungekembet.] Uncombed, unkempt.

1390 Gower Conf. III. 260 Hire her hangende unkemd aboute. 1483 Cath. Angl. 202/1 Vn kembyd, incomptus, impexus. 1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 80 b, He brought them forth vnkembed & vnpiked, without cotes. 1565 Golding Ovid's Met. I. (1590) 16 Hir haire unkemd about hir necke downe flaring. 1607 May Lucan vi. 585 Laden she is with long vnkemmed haires. 1693 Dryden Juvenal iii. 127 His unkeembed, and horrid Locks. 1697 View Penal Laws 267, 1000 Tods of unkemb'd Wool. 1824 Carr Craven Gloss., Unkemmed, [1828 Unkemb'd,] uncombed. 1860 Kay-Shuttleworth Scarsdale I. 28 Ungroomed, and unkemmed strings of 'gals'.

fig. 1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades I. 13/1 In these plaine and simple, not darke and vnkemmed bookes, is comprehended the full doctrine of godlynes.

Unke·mpt, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b: cf. prec. and older Flem. ongekempt.]

1. Of hair, etc.: Uncombed.

1742 Shenstone Schoolmistr. ii, Oft-times [they]..For Hair unkempt..are sorely shent. 1825 Ld. Cockburn Mem. (1856) 268 The bar in the throat,..the unkempt locks. 1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. III. x, It is forever indispensable for a man to fight: now with Necessity,..tangled Forests, unkempt Cotton.

b. Having the hair uncombed or dishevelled.

1748 Thomson Cast. Indol. I. lxi, Unkempt, and rough, of squalid face and mien. 1812 Byron Ch. Har. I. xvii, I though shent with Egypt's plague, unkempt, unwashed. 1877 Black Green Past. xiv, Tall, uncouth, unkempt fellows.. seated on a bench smoking.

transf. 1864 Miss Braddon Doctor's Wife i, The horse had a rakish, unkempt look about the head and mane.

c. Neglected; not cared for; untrimmed; rough.

1867 D. G. Mitchell Rural Stud. I A wild, unkempt, slatternly farm. 1879 Dixon Windsor II. xx. 207 Their filthy habits and unkempt attire.

fig. 1861 J. Brown Horæ Subs. Ser. II. 370 In that formidable and unkempt nature..by the delicacy..of a gentleman.

†2. fig. Of language: Inelegant, unrefined; rude. (Cf. Incompt a., Uncombed ppl. a. 2.) Obs.

1579 Spenser Sheph. Cal. Nov. 51 To well I wote..howe my rymes bene rugged and vnkempt. 1590 — F. Q. III. x. 29 Thy offres base I greatly loth, And eke thy words vncourteous and vnkempt. 1606 N. Baxter Widowes Teares D 2 Our Spokes beene blunt,..Vnable in Mysteries to know the sooth; Vnkempt, vnpolished, ignorant, lewde.

Hence Unke·mptness.

1896 World V. 16 Untidiness and unkemptness [of a garden]. 1900 Scribner's Mag. Sept. 297/2 The foul unkemptness of the natives.

Unke·nned, ppl. a. Chiefly Sc. and north. Now arch. or dial. [Un-[1] 8. Cf. NFris. ünkänd, Norw. ukjend, Da. ukendt, Sw. okänd, Du. ongekend. See also Unkent ppl. a.]

1. Unknown; strange.

a 1300 Cursor M. 28474 Wit womman knaun and vnkend. c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xvi. (Magdalene) 891, I ame scho.. þat here þe tiresty vintir ay til al men haas vnkennyt bene. c 1400 tr. Secreta Secret., Gov. Lordsh. 84, I aiugyd þat þey [sc. secrets] sholde noght be vnkennyd to þy worthy mygtynesse. a 1440 Sir Eglam. 843 A grype .. Hur yonge sone awey..bare Vn-to a cuntre unkende. c 1475 Rauf Coil-year 247, I am wonder wa to cum quhair I am vnkend. 1535 Stewart Cron. Scot. (Rolls) II. 115 Quhat movit thame it is wnkend to me. 1592 Sylvester Du Bartas I. iii. 1160 Let me..among the Great unkend, My most dear days in the Calm Country end. 1632 J. Hayward tr. Biondi's Eromena 193 Both of us altogether unkend and quite forgotten. 1721 Ramsay Keitha 37 Ye unkend pow'rs wha water haunt or air. 1785 Burns To W. Simpson, She lay like some unkend-of isle. 1824 Scott Waav. xxiii, For the trouble which he had..to an unkenn'd degree.

2. Undescried, unperceived; unexplored.

1592 Daniel Compl. Rosamond 422 Witnesse the world, wherein is nothing rifer, Then miseries vnken'd before they come. a 1680 Butler Econ. (1759) I. 417 No Ship in this Day time, can pass unken'd. 1747 [G. Ridley] Psyche xxiv. in Museum III. 88 Unken'd of her, he raught the embroider'd Bank. 1890 M. Prince Palomide 25 Deep in trackless, unkenned ways.

Hence Unke·nnedness.

1896 Flora A. Steel Face of Waters I. vi, There was a strange unkennedness about their would-be familiarity.

Unke·nnel, v. (Un-[2] 5.)

1. trans. To dislodge (a fox) from its hole; to start. Also in fig. context, and absol.

1576 Turberv. Venerie 100 An Hart or a Bucke is flayed, ..an Hare started, and a Fox vnkennelled. 1598 Shakes. Merry W. III. iii. 172 Ascend my Chambers..: He warrant we'e vnkennell the Fox. 1632 B. Jonson Magn. Lady I. i, Your fox there, Unkennell'd with a choleric, ghastly aspect, ..Would run their fears to your Noie Wheiter. 1695 C. Nesse Antichrist 105 The great fox that hath so long spoild the vines of Christs vineyard shall be unkennell'd. 1703 (title), The Fox with his Fire-Brand unkennell'd and Disnar'd. 1733 Foote Eng. in Paris I. i, Did I tell you that a Chaise she carry'd me last Christmas Eve? We unkennel'd at —. 1825 Eng. Life I. 216 We unkennelled Reynard capitally. 1852 Miss Yonge Cameos I. xxvii. 221 Vowing he would unkennel the young fox..: John sent his troops into Scotland.

b. intr. To come out of a hole or lair.

c 1760 in T. C. Croker Pop. Songs Irel. (1839) 223 Ten minutes past nine was the time o' the day, When Reynard unkennelled. c 1820 S. Rogers Italy, Banditti 59 He comes slowly forth, Unkennelling.

2. fig. To force or drive out from a place or position; to dislodge; to bring to light.

1612 Webster White Devil v. i, I'le unkennell one example more for thee. 1630 J. Taylor (Water P.) Jack a Lent Wks. (1630) 116/2 The wet Fishmongers..vnkennell the salt Eeles from their brinie Amiuscadoes. 1670 Cotton Espernon I. iv. 149 Hunting, and every where unkennelling the Savoyards,..who had possess'd themselves of most of the best Cities of Provence. 1743 Young Nt. Th. v. 969 A precious pack of vouaries Unkennell'd from the prisons. 1749 Fielding Tom Jones xv. v, Where is she? I'll unkennel her this instant. Shew me her chamber. 1809 Southey Lett. (1856) II. 131, I am in want of the 'Annual Letters from Paraguay'..by that time, if they are in England, I may hope to unkennel them. 1818 Moore Fudge Fam. Paris vi. 25 Lucky the dog that first unkennels Traitors and Luddites now-a-days. 1839 Times 10 June, It is their interest to unkennel this knavery.

refl. 1602 Shakes. Ham. III. ii. 86 If his conscience gall Do not it selfe vnkennell in one speech, It is a damned Ghost that we haue scene.

3. To let (hounds) out of a kennel. Also fig. and in fig. context.

1607 Dekker Wh. Babylon C 4, Shee shall bee torne, Euen loyne from loyne: to haue her baited well, ..wee will vnkennell hell. 1628 Wither Brit. Rememb. Pref. 157, I can unkennell such an eager packe Of deep-mouth'd Hounds. 1840 Knightley Hist. Roman Empire I. iii. 63 The baleful pack of informers was unkenneled, and their victims..were hunted to death. 1861 Dixon Pers. Hist. Bacon vi. § 1 Blount..unkennels..a pack of needy ruffians eager for any service.

Hence Unke·nnelled ppl. a.[1]; Unke·nnelling vbl. sb.

1589 Warner Alb. Eng. vi. xxxiii. 144 Like vnkenneld Cerberus the crooked Tyrant swore. a 1653 G. Daniel Idyll., Landskip 7 Vnkennelld Fury (deep-mouth'd) rings Liberty lodg'd; and Chaos d is quite away. 1689 Dryden Hind & P. i. 152 Thou first Apostate to Divinity, Unkennel'd range in thy Polonian Plains. 1700 S. Parker Six Philos. Ess. 48 The poor unkennell'd Fryars .. are ready to bear me out in my Assertion. 1620 J. B. (title), A Toile for Two-legged Foxes, wherein their noisome properties, their hunting and *vnkenelling,..is liuelie discouered. 1620 and Pt. Return Parnass. ii. v. 829 What sir, do you meane at the vnkennelling, vntapezing, or earthing of the Fox?

Unke·nnelled, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[1] 8.] Not provided with a kennel.

1838 Eliza Cook Old Pincher ix, Unkennelled and chainless, yet truly he served.

Unke·nning, ppl. a. Sc. rare. [Un-[1] 10.] Unknowing, ignorant.

c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xl. (Ninian) 98 Fore scome it ware gret to se þe thechure [=teacher] suld vnkennand he. 1788 J. Macaulay Poems 130 Unkenning how to carp or mourn, Their joy to spoil.

Unke·nt, ppl. a. Chiefly north. and Sc. [Un-[1] 8 b.]

†1. Undirected, untaught. Obs.—

1570 Levins Manip. 67 Vnkent, untaught, incorrectus.

2. Unknown. (Cf. Unkenned ppl. a. 1.)

1579 Spenser Sheph. Cal. 70 his Bk. i, Goe little booke: thy selfe present, As child whose parent is vnkent. 1613 W. Browne Brit. Past. i. 1, I..sought [not] for boy... But as a Swaine unkent fed on the plaines. 1647 Trapp Comm. i John iii. 1 Princes unknown are unrespected; Unkent, unkist, as the Northern Proverb hath it. 1790 A. Shirrefs Poems 174 Unkent to a', a' the night I bade the cruel place adieu. 1807– in dialect use (Eng. Dial. Dict.).

Unke·pt, ppl. a. Also 4 north. unkepide, 5 (Sc. 6) unkepit; etc. [Un-[1] 8, 8 b.]

1. Not attended to; not tended or looked after; neglected.

c 1340 Hampole Prose Tr. 28 If þou..latis þame [sc. the feet] spill for defaute of kepynge—unarayede, unkepide, and noghte tente to a sure þam angnie for to be þanne plesse Hym noghte. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. xii. 57 Lond vnkept and insolent. c 1450 St. Cuthbert (Surtees) 514 Sho hir childe saw vnkepyd, And wante þat he was wonte to haue. 1469 Cal. Anc. Rec. Dublin (1889) 336 That they goo to noon other labore and lewes the gye rope unkepit. 1600 Shaks. A. Y. L. i. i. 9 He keepes me rustically at home, or (to speak more properly) staies me heere at home vnkept. 1611 Florio, Incuriosito, vnkept, not looked vnto.

b. Unguarded, undefended.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 1085 The kyng had no knawlache..Of the folke so furse,.. For-þi vnkeppit were þe costes all þe kythe ouer. 1611 Florio, Suaduta, open, vnkept, free for all men.

2. Not observed or obeyed; disregarded.

c 1380 Wyclif Wks. (1880) 38 Certis þei..maken hem..to leue holy writt vnstudied, vnknoud & vnkept. c 1440 Jacob's Well 154 He..is forswoorn, for truthe vnkept & othe brokyn al on. 1513 Douglas Aeneid iv. ix. 1 Quhare gentilnesse is the trew cunnand. 1594 Hooker Eccl. Pol. iv. xiv, § 5 Many things generally kept heretofore, are now .. vnkept and abolished euerywhere. 1623 Sanderson Serm. (1632) 197 Lawes..are farre better vnmade, then vnkept.

3. Not stored up.

1842 Tennyson Will Waterproof 97 Whether the vintage, yet unkept, Had relish fiery-new.

†Unker, pron. Obs. [OE. uncer (gen. of wit we two), = OHG. unker, uncher, OS. unkero, Goth. ugkara, ON. okkarr (Icel. okkar).] Of us two.

In quot. a 1300 apparently for inker [of you two].

c 1205 Lay. 25665 And wlaþe unker þe geð blake:.. beo þu hi ælche londe iqueþe for ane sconde. a 1250 Owl & Night. 151 Hwy neiln fleon into [þe] bare And schewi hweþer unker beo Of brihtur hewe of fayrur bleo. a 1300 Tristrem 882 Roberd! William! hware ar ye? Gripeth eyþer unker a god ere.

†Unker, poss. a. Obs. [OE. uncer (cf. prec.), = OS. unka, ON. okkarr.] Belonging to us two.

c 1200 Ormin Ded. 80 Þess shulenn lætenn hæþelig Off unkerr swinnc, leof brohperr. c 1205 Lay. 8891 Iæst ich habbe þe..al þet þu hi-hebbe unker ilæsten hæþelig Off unkerr swinc. a 1300 Ah hit wes vnker uoreward..Þat we [sic].

Unke·rchiefed, a. (Un-[1] 9.) [1575 Ash.] 1581 Cooper Truth 137 With bony and unkerchief'd neck. 1812 Cary Dante, Purg. xxviii. 95 [Lest] The unslushing dames, bare Unkerchief'd bosoms to the common gaze. a 1851 Moir Poems, Highl. Ret. xi, Before him she reclined In half unkerchief'd loveliness. Unke·rnelled, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1673 Br. S. Parker Reproof Rch. Transp. 189 An empty and unkernel'd shell. 1827 Pollok Course T. ix. 972 Nor failed [Satan] to misad vise his . faith, by false unkerneled promises.

Unkert, Unket, dial. varr. Unkard, Unked a.

†Unketh, a. Obs. Also 3–4 onkeþ, 4–5 unkythe. [var. ME. uncoth: see Uncouth a. and cf. Unked.] Unknown, strange.

a 1275 Prov. Ælfred 535 in O. E. Misc. 133 Elde cumuð to tune, mid fele unkeþe ðinge. 1297 R. Glouc. (Rolls) 6758 Mid lute onekeþ folc to engeloned he drou. c 1400 Destr. Troy 3325 Weikenes of wemen may not wele stryve, ..And nomely in an unkythe lond nedys hom so. c 1510 Lytell Geste Robyn Hode 24 (W. de W.), To dive I have no lust, Till I have some bold Baron, Or some unketh guest. 1577 Holinshed Chron., Hist. Scotland I. 297/1 Many strange wonders and vnketh sights were seene in the dayes of this Alexander the thyrde.

Hence † Unketheness. Obs.

1564 Haward tr. Eutropius x. 108 This unkethenesse of passinge greate good fortune, and successe in his affairs.

Unkeuer, v. obs. variants of Uncover v.

Unke·vel, v. [Un-[2] 4 b.] trans. To ungag.

c 1300 Havelok 601 He stirten þoke up to the knaue,.. Vnkeueleden him, and swiþe unbounden.

Unkey, v. (Un-[2] 4; cf. Key v.)

1751 Labelye Westm. Bridge 22 Upon unkeying any one of the Arches the whole bridge would fall. 1848 Spearman Brit. Gunner (ed. 2) 183 [No 3] keys and unkeys the left hand cap-square of the gun-carriage. 1840 Civil Eng. & Arch. Jrnl. III. 402/1 The labour of removing the wheels from the axles, which in the keying and unkeying is known to be very troublesome. 1869 F. A. Griffiths Artill. Man. (ed. 8) 179 No. 1 attends to the pawls and commands, keys, and unkeys keep chain.

Unkicked, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1732 Lady Mary Montagu & Ld. Hervey Verses to Pope 69 If..Unwhipt, unblanketed, unkick'd, unslain, That wretched little carcase you retain.

Unkid, var. of Unked a.

Unkillabi·lity. (Un-[1] 12; cf. next.) 1835 Lady Lytton Diary in L. Devey Life (1897) 102 My nature must be a happy mixture of asbestos, caoutchouc, and feline unkillability.

Unki·llable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1878 P. Bayne Purit. Rev. x. 409 Of all the unkillable lies..this is perhaps the most toughly immortal. 1883 Daily News 14 July 2/1 The chickens are so hardy as to be unkillable by the ordinary diseases.

Unki·lled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1535 Stewart Cron. Scot. (Rolls) I. 56 All his men..That levand war on lyfe that tyme vnkeild. 1547 Homilies i. Obedience i. 21 b, Take away Kynges, Princes, Rulers, .. no man shall slepe in his awne house or bed vnkylled. 1608 Yorksh. Trag. i. ix. 215, I repent now that one is left unkill'd; my Brat at nurse. 1662 Hibbert Body Divinity 1. 397 If he see a snake unkilled, he fears a mischief. 1707 Montague Hush. 4 Leave Wolves, Weels or Turfs of Grass unkilled or unbroke with your Harrows. 1802 H. Martin Helen of Glenross I. 146 Scream ladies; for our pistols are fired, and we unkilled. 1842 Thackeray Sultan Stork Wks. 1898 V. 232 One of the latter did there remain any unkilled (if I may coin such a word). 1901 G. Douglas Ho.w. Green Shutters 264, I have let him get away unkilled.

Unki·lling, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1651 W. Jane Eikon Aklastos 171 The instruments of Rebellis are harmles, and vnkilling.

Unki·ned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1658 tr. Porta's Nat. Magic vi. vii. 183 Fill an earthen pot with unkill'd lime. 1890 Gest. Boothi Darkest England Pref, If the bricks were to be unkilned clay.

Unki·nd, a. (Un-[1] 7. Cf. OE. uncynde, ungecynde (ME. unicunde Un-[1] 3), Norw. ukyndt.]

†1. Strange, foreign. Obs.

c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 2302 Iosep..hem..taste wel, And hu he sulden hem best leden, Quene he comen in vnkinde þeden. 1297 R. Glouc. (Rolls) 7247 Yor þre kinges were of engeloned of vnkinde lede. [tr. vnkynde] sede. a 1400 Northern Passion 1554 (Camb. MS.), A vnkynd man sone gan þai mete.

2. a. Of the weather or climate: Not mild or pleasant; ungenial. Now dial. or arch.

a 1300 Freag. Pop. Sci. (Wright) 168 He ne mai nevere thanne come hote the weder uncunde beo. c 1325 Poem temp. Edw. II (Percy Soc.) lxxvi, Wederyng..Cold & unkynde. c 1330 R. Brunne Chron. Wace (Rolls) 16541 Al þe folk wyþ tempest vnkynde Were slayn. 1580 Lyly Euphues (Arb.) 265 So vnkinde a yeare it hath beene in Englland, that [etc.]. 1733 Tull Horse-Hoeing Husb. xii. 145 Formerable Years will cure the Smut, as unkind ones will cause it. 1775 Johnson West. Isl. Wks. X. 488 The climate is unkind and the ground penurious. 1875 C. Marshall Gardening (ed. 5) xviii. 294 A fourth bed..would be a greater advantage as to size, especially if the weather is unkind. 1876, 1881 in Surrey and Radnor glossaries (s.v. Kind).

†b. Physically unnatural; contrary to the usual course of nature. Obs.

1434 Cons. Lest Ble. 181 Yif þat he neclignent & mysrule his Iron, that he wirkithe, be onkynd hetes or elles in oder maner. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 365/2 On-kynyd, or nowȝt after owns of kynde, innaturalis. 1546 Phare Bk. Children (1553) X ij b, A sweranne medyynne Iron, hotte and scaldynge, and all vnkynde heates. 1600 Holland Pliny II. 167 They doe quench and allay thirst, and coole unkind heat. 1603 J. Davies (Heref.) Microcosmos 53 That by their service that fire might not wake, Which vnkinde coldnesse else might overlade.

c. Naturally bad or hurtful; unfavourable or unsuitable; untoward. Also const. for or to. Now dial. (esp. of soil).

c 1425 Lydgate Assem. Gods 1023 Sensualyte..sewe the felde with hys vnkynde seede. c 1450 Lovelich Grail xxxvi. 595 That beste wolde..ony man quelle that there-offen ete, It is so vnkynde, þat it doeth so hot. 1541 R. Copland Galyen's Terap. 2 A iv b, Whiche is..commune to the curatyons of vnkynde humoures. 1609 C. Butler Fem. Mon. ii. B 8 b, The East-wind being cold..is verie vnkind for Bees. 1688 W. Hewet Ess. to Peppr 13 Mary, A very unfortunate and unkinde disaster. 1762 Mills Pract. Husb. I. 79 The blue, white, and red clay, if strong, are all unkind. 1767 A. Young Farmer's Lett. to People 16 The constitutions..of several countries in Europe, which are unkind to the cultivation of the earth. 1877– in dialect glossaries, etc. (Eng. Dial. Dict.). 1879 Miss Jackson Shropshire Word-bk. 169 Gall., a stiff, wet, 'unkind' place in plough-land.

d. Of animals: Not thriving or naturally tending to do so. Now dial.

1824 G. Hanger To all Sportsmen 13 Whenever a horse looks unkind in his coat. 1834 Southey Doctor cxliv, If ever he attempts to fatten an unkind beast.

e. dial. (See quot.)

1866 Brogden Linc. Gloss. 216 Unkind, rough or crooked. These sides are very unkind.

†3. a. Lacking in natural gratitude or willingness to acknowledge benefits; ungrateful. Obs.

c 1290 S. Eng. Leg. I. 204/156 ȝwane þov hast bope bodi and soule ȝyuen us þi þine liue, Saunt falle we ne beoth nout so onkyunde þat we is nelleo seide þe blue. 1338 R. Brunne Chron. (1810) 62 Malcolme..ȝit on Inglond ran, Þe kyng had him auanced, he was an vnkynd man. 1377 Langl. P. Pl B. v. 437 ȝif any man..helpeth me at nede, I am vnkynde ayein his curteisye. 1422 Yonge tr. Secreta Secret. 205 He is an onkyndeman that denyeth hym to haue recevid a good dede. c 1450 Mirk's Festial 26 þat seho was vnkynde hym þat suffred so moche for hur. 1509 Barclay Ship of Fools (1570) 85 These wikinde caytiues will scarcely him honour. 1576 Lambarde Peramb. Kent 276 Whiche..insetisiable benefites..if any man..acknowledge not, he is to to vnkinde. 1649 J. Taylor (Water P.) Western Voy. 6 The Redeemer of unkinde mankinde.

absol. 1382 Wyclif Wisd. xvi. 29 The hope of the vnkinde as cold ȝis shal flowen. 1526 Tindale Luke vi. 35 He is kynde vnto the vnkynde.

†b. Lacking in filial affection or respect; undutiful. Obs.

a 1300 Cursor M. 28270 Vn-kynd i was..Gayn fader & moder. 1303 R. Brunne Handl. Synne 1072 ȝyf þou euer ..On fadyr or modyr leydest þyn hand,..swyche a chylde ys kalled vnkyndde. 1380 Lay Folks Catech. (Lamb. MS.) 170 Vnkende men..þiȝe not here eldrys as þey schuld do. 1595 Daniel Civ. Wars i. lxxxix, O I whither dost thou tend my vnkind sonne? What mischiefe dost thou go about to bring To..Thy mother country?

†c. Devoid of natural goodness; vile, bad, wicked, villainous. Obs.

1297 R. Glouc. (Rolls) 2379 Þere he kudde wat he was vnkunde ssrewe & quoynte. 13.. Guy Warw. (A.) 4382 Þou me hast bitreyd,..Þou fel treytour, vnkinde blod. 1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. v. 275 Vnkynde and an vnkynde creature! I wan þe nouste assoulle, Til þow made restituucion. 1439–40 Lydg. Bochas viii. xxv. (1494) E iij b/2, Late men beware euer of vnkynde blode. c 1460 Towneley Myst. xxiv. 192 Then noȝ vs nomore of this vnkynd, yus carles wykynde, who bad you call me? 1529 S. Fish Supplic. Beggers (1871) 4 Let vs then compare the nombre of this vnkind idell sort, vnto the nombre of the laye people. 1590 Spenser F. Q. iii. i. 40 For loyal love of euer shamefull and vnkind, Yet did possesse their horrible intent. 1602 And Pt. Return fr. Parnass. iv. ii. 1705 Thou slimie sprighted vnkinde Saracen.

†d. Of a worse kind; degenerate. Obs.

1340 Ayenb. 188 þe zone ssel by ylich þe uader oher he is onkynde be zayne prence. 1387 Trevisa tr. Higden's De P. R. xii. xxvi. (Tollem. MS.), þe lenger he lyueþ he more he scheweþ þat his owen kynde is unkynde. 14.. Voc. in Wr.-Wülcker 577/41 Degenere, vnkynde. 1483 Cath. Angl. 203/1 To be vn Kynde, or to go oute of kynde, degenerare.

† e. Uncharitable, ungenerous. Obs.

1303 R. Brunne Handl. Synne 6788 For ful comuly shalt ȝou fynde Ofte ryche men vnkynde. 1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. x. 29 ȝilke þat god moste gyueth, leste good ȝei deleth, And moste vnkynde to hem þat conune þat moste catel weldeth. Ibid. xi. 206 Euery man helpe other,..And be we nouste vnkynde of owre catel ne of owre kunnynge neyther.

†4. Of actions: Contrary to nature, unnatural, esp. unnaturally bad or wicked. Obs.

c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 449 Bigamie is unkinde þing, On engleis tale, iwie-wifing. 1297 R. Glouc. (Rolls) 829 Many Kinges men of þis lond mid þing leir luide also, Yor þe vnkunde (v.r. vnkynde] suikedom þat is doȝtren adde ido. c 1320 Sir Tristr. 2758 Vnkinde were ous to kis As kenne. 1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. xiii. 356 Þorw couetyse and vnkynde desyryng. c 1480 Henryson Fables, Trial of Fox 809 Ȝf I Couetice, vnkynd and venemous. 1592 Greene Philomela Wks. (Grosart) XI. 121 If such vnlawfull lust, such vnkinde desires,..procures so great losse. 1656 Sylvester Du Bartas tr. iv. i. 7 Vnkinde ȝea 2 Cowardly reasons,..Vnkinde Rebellion. 1656 Cowley Davideis iii. 204 Their 100 much Wealth, vast, and unkind does grow.

†5. Unnaturally cruel, severe, or hostile. Obs.

1340–70 Alex. & Dind. 540 Vn-kinde ȝife ȝe ȝou to kille ȝour children. a 1375 Joseph of Arim. 242 If ȝe kude hewer of heore fadres bi-fore þat he fond vn-kyunde. c 1400 Brut 245 Wiþ sir Andrew of Herkela, þat is called þe vnkynde cuit-puttere. c 1440 Gesta Rom. lxvii. 306 (Harl. MS.), My fadir is so vnkynde, þat he woll not pay my raunsom for me. 1513 Douglas Æneid i. i. 44 Full deip ingravin in hir breist vnkynd [was] The jugement of Paris. 1635 R. Johnson Hist. Tom a Lincolne (1858) 117 Making thyselfe unkinde and monstrous in murthering of thy mother. 1659 Hammond On Ps. cxxxvii. 7 When our unkind neighbours the Edumeans were so forward to joyne their hands with our enemies.

6. Lacking in kindness or kindly feeling; acting harshly or ungently to others. Also absol.

1362 Langl. P. Pl. A. i. 166 Beo no men hardore þen þei,.. Vn-kuynde to heore kun and to alle cristene. 1393 Ibid. C. xxx. 216 Beo vnkynde to þyn emcrystene, and..The holygost huyreþ be nat. 1509 Fisher Funeral Serm. Cless Richmond Wks. (1876) 307 Were not thee an vnkinde & vngentyl moder? 1523 Fetzherb. Husb. § 11 His neyghbours be vnkynde, if they wyll not lende this yonge housbande parte of this sede. a 1550 in Early XVI Cent. Lyrics lxv. 71 The turtle doue in her nest doues her sec. 1602 Shaks. Ham. iii. i. 101 To the Noble minde, Rich gifts wax poore, when giuers proue vnkinde. 1645 in Verney Mem. (1904) I. 422 Censured by the world to be the most unkind and unnatural brother. 1675 Davenant Average. i. 1, 428 That Man..Has been to you unkind, to me unjust. 1738 Wesley Ps. v. iii, The Hearts unkind, and Hearts untrue, Are both abhor'd by Thee. 1796 Mrs. J. West Gaith's Story II. 169 She tried to recal the dear unkind by tears, and soft complaints. 1820 Shelley Hymn Mercury iii, What mean you to do With me, you unkind God?

transf. 1802 Wordsw. 'Bright Flower' 15 Thou wouldst teach him how to find.. A hope for times that are unkind. 1875 Morris Æneid xii. 144 Thee only..I love of all who e'er have come Into the unkind bed of Joye from out a Latin home. 1888 R. Bridges Eros & Psyche Apr. xxiv, Ascending many a mile Over the long brown slopes and crags unkind.

b. Of actions, speech, etc.: Characterized by want of kindness.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 1452 What myschefe befell, þere no cause was to ken but vnkynd wordes. c 1586 C'tess Pembroke Ps. (1823) lv. iii, Then I would have borne with patient cheere An unkind part from whom I know unkind. 1596 Spenser F. Q. vi. xi. 24 In charge of one,..who with vnkind disdaine..her did much molest. 1602 Shaks. Jul. C. iii. iii. 187 This was the most vnkindest cut of all. 1647

Unkindfully, adv. Obs. (Un-¹ 1.) c 1300 Communyeasyon (W. de W.) C 3, Without cause ofte thou arte wrothe Unky fredmes unkyndfully.

† Unkindhead. Obs. [f. UNKIND a.] Unnatural conduct; ingratitude; baseness.

1297 R. GLOUC. (Rolls) 765 Pis leir..plainede of þe unkindhede [var. vnkuinde-, vnkyndehede] of is doster gonorille. Ibid. 2392, etc. 1303 R. BRUNNE Handl. Synne 5093 Yn sum man, vnkyndehede ys so mikle Pat [etc.]. Ibid. 6508 Parfore..spende weyl þyn owne þyng, þat þou fal nat yn auarye: Of vnkyndhede hyt cumb, þat vyce.

Unkindhearted, a. (Un-¹ 9.) 1759 STERNE Tr. Shandy I. x. He was not an unkind-hearted man, and every case was more pressing..than the last.

Unkindled, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

a 1513 FABYAN Chron. VII. 648 In this yere began a grudge to growe..., but it was keepp vnkyndelyd duryng ye lyfe of ye duke. 1533 COVERDALE Job xx. 26 An vnkyndled fyre shal consume him. 1717 POPE Iliad XI. 239 The unkindled lightning in his hand he (sc. Jove) took. 1742 YOUNG Nt. Th. I. 121 They live! they greatly live a life on earth Unkind'led, unconceiv'd. 1809 COLERIDGE Friend 161 My feelings ..and imagination did not remain unkindled in this general conflagration. 1865 DICKENS Mut. Fr. I. xiii, The unkindled lamp stood on the table.

Hence Unkindledness.

1869 ABP. BENSON in Life (1901) 116 The yellow wax lights on the Altar stood in their irrational, legal, unkindledness.

Unkindliness. (Un-¹ 12; cf. UNKINDLY a.) c 1470 HENRY Wallace IX. 347 We fand name in that art, That proffyt wa sic wykydyness. 1589 GOLDING De Mornay xvii. 308 His wrath..cannot bee kindled against nature..., but against the faultinesse and vnkindlynesse that are in nature. 1647 HAKEWILL Apol. II. § 3. 133 The vnkindliness of this weather was the fruites. 1658 H. MORE Div. Dial. II. ix. 223 The..unkindliness of the Season. 1763 MILLS Pract. Husb. I. 206 The uncommon..unkindliness of the soil. 1797 LAMB Let. to Coleridge 7 Apr., Cloud from the imputation of unkindliness (a word, by which I mean the diminutive of unkindness). 1829 TENNYSON Merlin & V. 735 Kill'd with inutterable unkindliness.

Unkindling, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10.) 1828 MILMAN Samor II. 108 A summer meteor..Waning into the dull unkindling air.

Unkindly, a. [repr. OE. unġecyndelīc, or in later use f. Un-¹ 7 + KINDLY a.]

† 1. a. Morally unnatural; unnaturally wicked or vile. Obs.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 116 Vor hondlunge, oðer eni velunge bitweone mon & ancre is..unkundelich pincg. a 1300 Cursor M. 27966 Vnkindli sin and sodomite, Austin cals al sulik delite. 1418 26 Pol. Poems xiv. 89 Vnkydely spyng and shameles haunted. a 1450 Knt. de la Tour (1868) 102 The deuell slow all, for as moche as they vsed unkindely werke. 1590 SPENSER F. Q. II. x. 9 Their owne mother..gan abhorre her bloods vnkindly crime. 1612 SYLVESTER Little Bartas 905 Besides th' unkindly slaughter Of his owne Selfe, by his owne Sons soon after.

† b. Unnatural in respect of relations or dealings with others. Obs.

1456–79 in Acta Parlt. Scotl. (1875) XII. 27/1 Thynkand it onkyndie tyll thole anie dominacitione of lardschipe of sie ane man. a 1513 FABYAN Chron. VII. 642 After this vnkyndly warre had duryd by the space of vi. monethes. 1591 Troub. Raigne K. John (1611) 68 Vnkindly rage, more rough than northern wind, To clip the beauti d of so sweete a flower! 1605 SYLVESTER Du Bartas, Sonn. Late Peace iv, War's unkindly quarrels. 1647 N. WARD Simple Cobler 15 How unseasonable and unkindely it is, to interturbe the State and Church with these Anabelistish onsets.

† 2. Unnatural in respect of physical qualities or actions. Obs.

a 1300 in E. E. P. (1862) 10/104 Þe þing þat bodi no flessa nap non, vnkundelich þing ded sal don. c 1375 Cursor M. 26253 (Fairf.), þe man þat mengis wiþ vnkindell best his flesche luste to fulfille. 1390 GOWER Conf. I. 264 Thilke unkendell peines Thurgh whiche Envie is fyred ay. a 1500 Flower & Leaf 413 Salades, which they made hem ete, For to refresh their great unkindly hete. 1555 WATERMAN Fardle Facions 24 Lest thereby the vnkindlie couplings against kinde, passe also at lengthe vnto men. 1611 GUILLIM Heraldry III. xxv. 179 The shape of the Leopard bewraieth his vnkindly birth. 1639 T. DE GREY Expert Farrier II. xxi. (1656) 068 Unkindly and unnatural heats given him by most violent and intemperate riding.

b. Of weather, soil, etc.: Unnaturally bleak or cold; unfavourable to growth or comfort; inclement.

14.. in Thundall's Vis. (1843) 154 Mych of oure welth hase wasted awey With grete darthe..And unkyndle wedurs. 1535 W. STEWART Cron. Scot. (Rolls) III. 43 In..Hungar and cald, and wnkyndlie distres. 1579 SPENSER Sheph. Cal. Jan. 26 My life bloud friesing with vnkindly cold. 1652 GAULE Magastrom. 339 We had not a more unkindly summer, for many years in respect of extraordinary cold. a 1684 LEIGHTON Wks. (1835) I. 109 A tender plant in a strange unkindly soil. 1763 MILLS Pract. Husb. I. 288 The land continued unkindly and sour. 1775 Phil. Trans. LXVI. 282 The summers are often so unkindly, that their wheat is blighted while in ear. 1890 ROBERTSON Serm. Ser. III. iii. (1897) 36 The unkindly climate of their birth. a 1854 HAWTHORNE Amer. Note-bks. (1868) I. 282 Besides the bleak, unkindly air.

c. Not answering to its (or their) proper kind; not properly conditioned, developed, or thriving. Now dial. or arch.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 8543 Ho was vnkyndly to knaw of hir kyd frendis, So disheryt of face & tehill of hew. 1587 GOLDING De Mornay xvii. 313 In vs only there is such an vnkindly and Bastardly Nature, that [etc.]. 1601 HOLLAND Pliny I. 225 Kine, Bulls, and Oxen are not to be despised as unkindly, although they looke but ilfavouredly. 1616 BACON Inscritne agst. Treason Wks. (Grosart) I. 4/1 [To] make theyr bread, of an vnkindly Branne; which seeming Wheate, is but a Heilish weede, sown by the Devill. 1790 Trans. Soc. Arts VIII. 32 [These] Peas..ripen later, and become so unkindly that the pods..never fill. c 1813 MRS. SHERWOOD Stories Ch. Catech. xxxiv. 357 Lopping off..a dead leaf, or unkindly branch. 1887–8 in Cheshire and Somerset glossaries (applied to plants or animals).

† d. Prejudicial to health; not developing in a natural healthy manner. Obs.

a 1652 DAUNCE OF HAWTE Hist. Jas. V, Wks. (1711) 114 He was troubled by an unkindly Medicine. 1667 MILTON P. L. IX. 1050 Grosser sleep Bred of unkindly fumes. 1797 UNDERWOOD Disorders Childhood II. 127 An oozing of blood from the part, after an unkindly separation of the cord. 1822–7 GOOD Study Med. (1829) IV. 99 The exciting causes [of madness]..are..unkindly child-bed [etc.]. Ibid. V. 583 It [sc. opium] proved a cordial to him through the whole of this tedious affection, without a sluggie unkindly concomitant.

† 3. Not of the same kind; strange. Obs.

1560 ROLLAND Seven Sages 23 Vnkyndlie Captanes ourthrawis And common welth doun drawis. 1591 SYLVESTER Du Bartas I. v. 765 Th' infamous Bird that layes His Bastard Egges within the nests of other, To have them hatcht by an unkindly Mother.

† 4. a. Lacking natural affection. b. Cruel, malicious. Obs.

1590 SPENSER F. Q. I. i. 26 To see th' vnkindly Impes.. Dreoure their dam. 1591 — Teares Muses 15 Her loued Twinnes..whom her vnkindly foes The fatall Sisters, did for spight destroy.

5. Devoid of kindness; unkind.

1805–6 CARY Dante, Inf. XXI. 97, I to my leader's side adhered, mine eyes..bent On their unkindly visage. 1827 SCOTT Woodst. xxi, Hs was conscious of unkindly, if not hostile, feelings towards his old companion. 1862 LYTTON Str. Story 132 That gentle heart could not bear one unkindlier shade between itself and what it loved.

Unkindly, adv. [repr. OE. unġecyndelīce, or in later use f. Un-¹ 11 + KINDLY adv.]

† 1. a. With unnatural immorality or impropriety. Obs.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 50 Ne of tollinde lokunges, ne lates, þæt summe..wellawei! unkundeliche makiðð. a 1300 Cursor M. 28495 Wit womman seke vinquile haue I And vnkyndeli don þat dede. a 1387 CHAUCER Parlement's T. 285 Lo how þat dronken loth vnkyndely Lay by his doughtres two vnwittyngly. c 1400 Destr. Troy 13820 Now full hard..is þi hegh lust, þat þou coueits vnkyndly to couple with me. 1579 [see Hardeep D. auth.]. 1602 WARNER Alb. Eng. XIII. LXVII. 315 Vnkindly though Nature it is defaced so in some, As that by often sinning Sinne an habette doth become.

† b. With unnatural enmity, harshness, or cruelty. Obs.

c 1300 Beket (Percy Soc.) 1540 The Kyng..sende him word that him thoȝte..That li wolde him so moche misdo uncundeliche and wou. 1535 COVERDALE 2 Macc. xv. 2 O do not so cruelly and vnkyndly [1611 barbarously], but halowe ye Sabbath daye. 1547 J. HARINSON Exhort. Scottes B j b, That you..should thus vnkindly, vnnaturally, and vnchristenly bathe youre swoordes in eche others blode. 1598 SYLVESTER Du Bartas II. i. IV. Handy-crafts 7 Envious Cain His (better) Brother doth vnkindly brain. 1605 Ibid. III. iv. Captives 833 Lo there, another valiant Champion.. His onely Daughter doth unkindly kill.

† c. Contrary to right feeling or conduct; improperly; ungratefully. Obs.

1380 Lay Folk's Catech. (L.) 952 [To] be euer yt..for he hab greuyd god so vnkendely. 1393 LANGL. P. Pl. C. IV. 264 Vnkyndely þow, conscience, consaileddest hym bennes, To lete so hus lordshup for a lytel moneye. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 365/2 On-kyndely yn herte, ingratanter, acaride. 1470–1 Rolls of Parlt. VI. 233/1 Unnaturelly, unkyndly and truly entendyng his destruccion. 1560 Gude & Godlie B. (S.T.S.) 65 Lat nocht my hart vnkyndlie depart, From the rycht lufe of thy mercie. 1588 SHAKS. Titus V. iii. 104 Lastly, [I was] my selfe vnkindly banished.

† 2. Unsuitably. Obs. rare.

c 1300 Havelok 1290 Godebeweʒ..wende she were bi-swike, þat she were yeuen un-kyndelike. 1362 LANGL. P. Pl. A. x. 177 Summe..For Couetise of Catel vnkyuendeliche beoþ maried.

† b. Contrary to the usual course of nature; at variance with natural conditions. Obs.

1390 GOWER Conf. I. 292 Unkindeliche he was transformed, That he which erst a man was formed Into a womman was forschaw. 1400 LYDG. De Guil. Pilgr. 3530 But ye wolden ..Tourne vnkyndely my wyn In-to blood, folk for to drynke. 1541 R. COPLAND Galyen's Terap. 2 B j, There must be had delyberacyon, to knowe yf all the party dyscoloured and hardened vnkyndly might be cut. 1615 W. LAWSON Country Housew. Gard. (1626) 8 Who did euer know a tree so vnkindly splat, come to age? 1667 MILTON P. L. III. 456 All th' unaccomplisht works of Natures hand, Abortive, monstrous, or unkindly mixt, dest bitter. 1703 ROWE Fair Penit. I. i, You mourn unkindly by your self, And rob me of my Partnership of Sadness. 1766 Compl. Farmer s.v. Malt, The malt..appears shrivelled, and often is unkindly hard.

c. Badly, unsuccessfully.

1763 MILLS Pract. Husb. III. 128 Kiln-drying is apt to make wheat grind unkindly. 1812 Self Instructor 516 Umber is..very greasy, and mixes unkindly with watercolours. 1887 Daily News 21 July 5/4 Fanfare remained a staunch favourite to the end. Here, however, he ran very unkindly.

3. In an unkind or unkindly manner; with marked want of kindness.

c 1384 CHAUCER H. Fame I. 205 How he betrayed hir allas, And lefte hir ful vnkyndely. 14.. Sir Beues (C.) 1448 That he tolde me not, when he went, Iwysse, he dud vnkyndely, verament. c 1489 CAXTON Sonnes of Aymon xvii. 397 The which Reynawde kepeth..for his prysoner not vnkyndely. 1590 SHAKS. Mids. N. III. ii. 183 But why unkindly didst thou leaue me so? 1603 KNOLLES Hist. Turks (1621) 114 Vnkindly to cast him off that had so honorably vsed him in like extremitie. 1695 LD. PRESTON Boeth. II. 53 She hath looked unkindly upon thee. 1768 STERNE Sent. Journ., Snuff-box, I treated him most unkindly; and from no provocations. 1828 SCOTT F. M. Perth x, You will not deal so unkindly with us, cousin,' replied the gentle Monarch. 1889 B. WHITBY Awakening Mary Fenwick II. 45 Don't haul me over the coals so unkindly.

Comb. 1605 SYLVESTER Du Bartas II. iii. II. Fathers 480 Among them all..you shall not finde Such an example, where (unkindly-kinde) Father and Son so mutually agree. a 1699 J. BEAUMONT Psyche XII. v, Nor could unkindly-courteous He resist The hugging of his Spouse's seeming Friend.

4. With dissatisfaction or resentment.

Freq. in the phrase to take (...) unkindly.

1562 GRESHAM in Burgon Life (1839) I. 448 Assewring yow, I doo take it very unkindelye at your handes. 1607 SHAKS. Timon III. vi. 39 I hope it remaines not vnkindely with your Lordship, that I return'd you an empty Messenger. 1635 Argt. Pastoral of Florimene 6 Florimene desires Dorine not to take it unkindly, if [etc.]. 1725 DE FOE Voy. round World (1840) 91 Nothing to be had but for ready money; which our men took so unkindly..that [etc.]. 1771 Junius Lett. I. (1788) 270 The only letter I ever addressed to the King was..unkindly received.

Unkindness. [Un-¹ 12.]

† 1. Unnatural conduct; absence of natural affection or consideration for others. Obs.

a 1300 Cursor M. 13018 Pis herod..vnkendnes kidd ful ȝif. He left his broper philip his wif. 1362 LANGL. P. Pl. A. III. 280 Vnkyndenesse is Comaundour and kuyndenesse is Banesch. 1380 Lay Folks Catech. (L.) 938 Yf he kepe hem [sc. the commandments] not he doþ to god more vnkendnesse þan ony broper may do to anoþer. c 1400 Rerg. 1354 He cursid his grete vnkyndnes To foreȝit his modir. 1477 Rolls of Parlt. VI. 173/1 The great offences, unkyndnese and myshebavyngs, that..Nevell hath done. a 1513 FABYAN Chron. I. xv. (1811) 15 The vnkyndnesse of his ii. doughters, consyderynge theyr wordes to hym before spoken and sworne. 1570 Homilies II. Wilful Rebellion 1. (1640) 282 So farre doth their unkindnesse, unnaturalnesse, wickednesse, excede anything..that can be seene.

† b. Unchastitabness; niggardliness. Obs.

1377 LANGL. P. Pl. B. XVII. 263 Dlues deyed dampned for his vnkyndenesse Of his mete & his moneye to men that it neded.

† 2. Ingratitude, unthankfulness. Obs.

1340 HAMPOLE Pr. Conse. 5587 Agayne þam sal Crist allege sonye,..And reiseye his bonnes, And sal to reprove þam of þair unkyndenes. 1380 Lay Folks Catech. (L.) 946 Yf we with-stond þat lord þat made vs..we do be most vnkendenesse þat may be wroȝt. c 1450 Mirk's Festial 123 Sayne Barnard yn Cristys person makeyt gret weymentacyon for þe vnkyndnesse þat he sethe yn men. 1483 CAXTON Gold. Leg. 362/2 We receyue dayly many bienfaites of this cyte and it sholde be a grete unkyndnesse to us yf we scoured it not in this grete neds. 1531 ELYOT Gov. II. xiii, The moste damnable vice..is ingratitude, commenly called unkyndnesse. 1585 ABP. SANDYS Serm. 189 After that God had thus set forth his great goodnesse towardes them, hee chargeth them with their great vnkindnesse towards him. 1605 SHAKS. Lear III. ii. 20, I taxe not you, you Elements with vnkindnesse. I neuer gaue you Kingdome, call'd you Children.

† b. A flock (of ravens). Obs.[-9]

c 1440 in Trans. Philol. Soc. 1907–10, 111. 52 Vnkyndenys of rauynnys. 1486 Bk. St. Albans f vj.

3. The fact of being unkind; unkind action or treatment.

c 1374 CHAUCER Anel. & Arc. 292 My self I mourdre with my prevy thoght For sorowe and routhe of your vn-kyndnesse. 1390 GOWER Conf. III. 293 This Emperour at thilke time he tolde Hath herd, and thilke unkindenesse He seide he wolde himself redresse. c 1491 Chast. Goddes Chyld. 12 Trouth fynde they nowhere but wronges detracyons and unkyndnesses. 1535 COVERDALE 2 Macc. xiv. 30 Nicanor thus beus sawe that Nicanor beganne to be churlish vnto him.. he perceaued that soch vnkyndnes came not of good. 1594 R. WILSON Coblers Proph. III. iii, Know you not, vnkindnes kills a woman? 1621 J. TAYLOR (Water) Unmat. Father Wks. (1630) 136/2 Ruing his vnkindnesse to his Wife. 1651 HOBBES Leviath. I. vi. 27 Some Weep for the losse of Friends; Others for their unkindnesse. 1742 GRAY Eton 76 The stings of falshood and disdain! Pity, And hard Unkindness' alter'd eye. 1784 COWPER Task VI. 627 Attachment. proof alike Against unkindness, absence, and neglect. 1825 SCOTT Talism. XX, Eloquent in urging her own defence, the Queen was far more so in pressing upon Richard the charge of unkindness. 1882 OUIDA Marenma I. 69 Joconda feared no scorn and unkindness on the score of her birth.

b. An instance of this; an unkind action.

1509 in Hen. Ferne VII (Rolls) 266 The whiche the kynge ..takthe for a grete onkyndnes. 1555 BRADFORD Lett. in Foxe A. & M. (1583) 1661/1 All those vnkyndnesses, rudenes, &c., wherefor you accuse your selfe. 1606 SHAKS. Ant. & Cl. I. ii. 138 Why then we kill all our Women. We see how mortall an vnkindnesse is to them. 1660 Trial Regic. 132 I hope he will think it no unkindnesse in me. 1809–14 WORDSW. Excurs. VI. 776 Her uncharitable acts, I trust, And harsh unkindnesse are all forgiven. 1860 EMILY EDEN Semi-attached Couple xiii, A series of small unkindnesses is very offensive indeed.

4. Unkindly feeling; ill-will, enmity, hostility.

Now rare or Obs.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 144 With a course of vnkyndnes he caste in his thoghte, The freike vpon faire wise ferke out of lyue. 1465 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. V. 302 The tyme of thar unkyndnesse other warre with the citie. 1562 Child. Marr. 203 By which did growe an vnkindnes betwene them. 1588 Marprel. Epist. (Arb.) 58 Because the gamesters..wan all his monie at trey trip [he] tooke such vnkindenes at the alehouse that [etc.]. 1624 CAPT. SMITH Virginia III. 52 This bred some vnkindnesse between our two Captaines. 1658 JER. TAYLOR Let. in 14th Rep. Hist.

MSS. Comm. App. V. 5 If ever you have ..heard of any overtures of unkindnesse betweene them. a 1700 EVELYN Diary 24 Apr. 1692, Unkindness betweene the Queene and her sister. 1823 SCOTT Quentin D. vii, I will bestow another to wash away unkindness. 1825 — Betrothed xviii, He died when we were in unkindness with each other.

†5. Unnatural character or quality. Obs.

1590 Ord. Cyprus Hen (W. de W. 1506) l. vii. F iv b, By this article we sholde knowe the mysery & ryghte unkyndenesse of humayne condycyon. a 1513 FABYAN Chron. v. cxxiv. 104 When the Embassade..had shewyd ye vnkyndnesse of this warre with the leopardyes that myght ensue of ye same.

Unkindred, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1700 STEPHEN Hymn to Sun x, in Rowe Amb. Step-Mother III. ii, Conscious of superior birth [II] Despises this unkindred earth. 1804 EUGENIA DE ACTON Tale without Title III. 15, Their souls, unkindred, can never understand our language. 1865 Spectator 14 Jan. 42 Not quite unkindred to this fact is the other. †Unkindredly, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa (1811) VI. 381 Wilful and implacable..set of wretches are those of her unkindredly kin. †Unkindship. Obs. (UN-[1] 12.) Unkindness. 1390 GOWER Conf. I. 263 As he which thurgh unkindschipe Envieth every felaschipe.

Unki'ng, v. [UN-[2] 6 b. Cf. MDu. ontconingen, Du. ontkoningen, G. entkönigen.]

1. trans. To deprive of the position of king; to depose from sovereignty. (Common in 17th c.)

1593 Paradise Dainty Devices L ij, Such toile do thei sustain, That often tymes of God thei wishe, to be unkyngde again. 1602 MARSTON Ant. & Mel. iv, That very word Unkings me quite, makes me vile passions slave. 1684 E. PELLING Serm., 30 Jan. 20 They may crown them or unking them as they think fit. 1711 Pol. Ballads (1860) II. 100 These men do design To un-king the Queen and keep out the Right Line. 1874 COWPER in Hayley Life (1809) II. 158 Government therefore is bound to interfere, and to un-king these tyrants. 1875 Q. Rev. XIII. 489 Having .. escaped unhanged when they were unkinged, they started up again to perform the part of princes in the new revolutionary drama. 1890 LOWELL Study Windows (1892) 206 Some passion which the churchyard smothered while the Stuarts were yet unkinged.

fig. 1658 SICKLING Aglaura I. i, There was with me fresh Rebellion, And reason was almost unking'd again. 1731 Gentl. Mag. I. 168 The comic muse Unkings your Cupid, or obstructs his views. 1818 MILMAN Samor v. 463 Thou.. hast unking'd Thy stately soul within the wreathing arms Of that fair Saxon.

absol. 1644 MAXWELL Prerog. Chr. Kings 3 [That] the Pope .. by this indirect power..may King and unking at his pleasure. 1646 BR. MAXWELL Burd. Issach. 18 Every individual Person is..to punish, to dethrone, to un-King, to kill, &c.

b. refl. To divest (oneself) of royal status or character; to abdicate.

1647 N. WARD Simple Cobler 54, I would honour their very heeles, that would..teach me..to king it better, when they saw me unkinge myselfe and kingdome. 1689 Advantages of Present Settlement 22 If a king..ruine his people..he so far Unkings himself. 1700 J. TYRRELL Hist. Eng. II. 794 [King John] thereby..Unking'd himself. 1859 J. MARSHALL Hist. Scotl. Reed. & Cov. Affairs 290 Charles's concessions had been in vain. He had unkinged himself.

2. To deprive (a country) of a king.

1647 Old Ballads (Percy Soc.) 86 They may thus..Un-king our state, un-church us too. 1820 BYRON Mar. Fal. v. I. 47 A wife's dishonour unking'd Rome for ever. 1883 Harper's Mag. June 139/2 An empire, unkinged to-night, sees to-morrow a new king.

Unki'ngdomed, ppl. a. (UN-[2] 8.) 1611 SPEED Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. vi. 463 Hee was not unking'd, though unkingdom'd. Unki'ngly, adv. (UN-[1] 11. Cf. UNKING v.] Deprived of the position or authority of king; deposed from kingship. Also absol.

1593 SHAKS. Rich. II, iv. i. 220 God saue King Henry, vn-King'd Richard sayes. 1611 [see prec.]. 1818 MILMAN Samor xi. 296 Then gaz'd the unking'd, then cried out the fallen. 1837 CARLYLE Fr. Rev. I. ii. V, There must thou enter, naked, all unking'd. 1845 FORD Handbk. Spain II. 947 Ferdinand..dismissed...a prisoner and unkinged.

Unki'nged, ppl. a.[2] (UN-[2] 8.) Not raised to the dignity of king. 1845 BAILEY Mystic, Spir. Leg. 82 Fair thorn, as yet unkinged, Unsanctified by woes of brow divine.

Unki'nger. [f. UNKING v.] One who deposes a king. 1656 S. H. Gold. Law 24 It unking'd him, and King'd his unkingers in point of Power. Unki'ngkite, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1611 SHAKS. Cymb. III. v. 7 For our state To shew less Bouer-aignty then they, must needs Appeare vn-Kinglike. 1892 TENNYSON Akbar's Dream 60 To drive A people from their ancient fold of Faith, And wall them up perforce in mine—unwise, Unkinglike.

Unki'ngly, a. (UN-[1] 7. Cf. ON. ókonungligr.] 1. Unbecoming to a king; not in accordance with the position or character of a king.

1600 HEYWOOD 2nd Pt. Edw. IV, Wks. 1874 I. 100 Edward of England, these are unkingly words. 1658 OSBORNE Q. Eliz. 12 An Art lost in these latter times, or thought unkingly. a 1661 HOLYDAY Persius (1673) 30 When cruel lust..moves..fierce kings To act unworthy and unkingly things. 1702 ROWE Tamerl. I. i, With most un-kingly baseness, H[e] has ta'en the advantage of their absent arms. 1765 BURKE Tracts on Popery Laws Wks. 1812 V. 250 [Louis XIV] had recourse..to an unkingly denial of the fact which made against him. 1853 TRENCH Proverbs 41 He was about, in somewhat unsoldierly and unkingly fashion, immediately to retire. 1880 SHOEMOUSE T. Inglesant xii, To introduce Popery..by ways the most unkingly and perfidious.

2. Unlike a king.

1718 POPE Iliad XIV. 90 What shameful words (unkingly as thou art) Fall from that trembling tongue and timorous heart?

Unki'ngly, adv. (UN-[1] 11. Cf. ON. ókonungliga, MHG. unkünecliche.] In an unkingly manner; unlike a king.

1412–20 LYDG. Chron. Troy I. 3770 He vnkyngly of verray malys sount Ageynes vs firste occasioun. 1579 STUBBES Gaping Gulf C 5 Kychard [II]..fell amourous most vnkindlye and vnkingly with a french girle but eyght yeares of age.

†Unki'ngship. Obs.[1] (UN-[1] 12.) a 1700 EVELYN Diary 30 May 1649. Un-kingship was proclaim'd, and his Majesty's statues thrown down.

Unki'nklike, a. (UN-[1] 7 c.) 1869 BLACKMORE Lorna D. xi, It would be a sad and unkinklike thing for you to despise our dwelling-house. †Unki'nsman. Obs.[1] (UN-[1] 12.) 1600 HOLLAND Dr. Barzac. iv. Trophets 1216 With an un-kinsman's kisse (un-loving Lover) The Brother shall his Sister's shame discover.

Unkirsened, ppl. a. dial. [UN-[1] 8.] Unchristened. a 1779 GRAHAM Writings (1883) II. 136 A cock, a cock, or some unkirsen'd creature. 1824 J. TELFER Border Ball. 65 It was unkirsen'd blood. 1873–in Eng. Dial. Dict. s.v.

Unki'ss, v. (UN-[2] 3.)

1562 A. BROOKE Romeus & Jul. 843 A thousand times she kist, and him vnkist agayne. 1593 SHAKS. Rich. II, v. i. 74 Let me vnkisse the Oath 'twixt thee, and me. 1634 FORD Perk. Warbeck v. iii, That man, that shall vnkisse This sacred print next. 1653 W. HEMINGS Fatal Contract III. ii. With this kiss..Unkiss the kiss that seal'd it on thy lips.

Unki'ssed, ppl. a. Also 4–7 unkist, etc. (UN-[1] 8. Cf. Du. ongekust, Sw. okysst.] Not kissed; without being kissed.

1390 GOWER Conf. II. 92 Ofte he goth to bedde unkist. a 1400 Hymns Virg. (1867) 80 We schulen go vnkist bofe at be-fore & be-gate. 1534 WYATT Wher should I mye? 28 And thus berrede, Or that I wore Farewell, unkiste! a 1592 GREENE Jac. IV, i. ii, I cannot abide a full cup unkissed. 1852 WHITTIER April 11 Round the boles of the pine-wood the ground-laurel creeps, Unkissed of the sunshine. 1891 MORRIS Earthly Par. III. iv. 53 She sighed as those sweet sounds did fall From her unkissed lips.

†b. In the phrase unknowst (unknowe or uncouth), unkissed. Obs.

1374 CHAUCER Troylus i. 809 Vnknowe vnkyst and lost [at vn-sought]. 1401 Pol. Poems (Rolls) I. 369 On old Englis it is said, unkissid is unknown. 1562 J. HEYWOOD Prov. & Epigr. (1867) 148 Unknown vnkist, and beyng knowen I weene, Thou art neuer kist, where thou mayst be seene. 1579 K. Dod. to Spenser Shep. Cal. 8 The new Poete, who for that he is vncouthe (as said Chaucer) is vnkist, and vnknown to most men, is regarded but of few. c 1592 NASHE Mar-Martine xxii, Thou cayttif kerne, vncouth thou art, vnkist thou art, thou eke sal bee. 1593 SHAKS. Venus & Adonis Immed. Addr. 119. I would gladly see and know, by what warrant I on Earth so vncouth and therefore vnkist,..can say unto them, Holy Peter, blessed Paul, pray for mee. a 1629 AUTHOR Lives (1898) II. 254 He..ransack'd the MSS. of the church of Hereford (there were a great many that lay uncouth and unkiss'd). [1897 V. HUNT (title), Unkist, Unkind.]

†Unki'the, v. Obs.[1] (UN-[2] 3.] intr. To disappear, vanish. a 1300 Cursor M. 11438 Fra pai come pai als suith, Þe stern it hid and can vnkyth. Unkna've, v. (UN-[2] 6 b.) 1746 W. HORSLEY Foot (1748) II. 9 By pursuing their Master's Instructions, [they] make to their Business to unknave him. Unknea'd, adj. (UN-[1] 8.) c 1400 T. CHESTER Elegy Death Donne 4 Why yet dare we not trust Though with unkneaded dowe-bakt prose thy dust. Unkne'led, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) a 1770 CHATTERTON Battle Hastings II. 556 Anlaf sowed unhelled bover'd over the bloude. 1818 BYRON Ch. Har. iv. clxxix, Without a grave, unknell'd, uncoffin'd, and unknown.

Unknight, v. (UN-[2] 6 b.] trans. To divest of knighthood; to depose from the rank of knight. Hence Unki'nghting vbl. sb.

1623 in Birch Crt. & Times Chas. I (1848) II. 439 Francis Mitchell, that was unknighted the last parliament. a 1661 FULLER Worthies, Yorks. III. (1662) 207 Another author unknighteth him, allowing him only a plain Esquire. 1844 P. Parley's Ann. V. 251 The St. George, I will unknight then. 1896 DOWDEN Knights xxx. 489 Knights, irregularly made so, were unknighted with little ceremony. ibid. 490 There are fewer examples of unknighting in this country than in France.

Unknighted, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.] Not raised to the rank of knight; not invested with knighthood.

1631 in Birch Crt. & Times Chas. I (1848) II. 99 Ere long they will bring all the unknighted lords into play. a 1661 FULLER Worthies, Camb. I. (1662) 168 Indeed, I..cannot believe that he was Un-knighted so long. 1892 Verney Mem. I. 201 Mr. Badnage, remained unknighted.

Unknightlike, adv. (UN-[1] 7 c.) 1872 TENNYSON Gareth & Lynette 1102 Forth that other sprang, And, all unknightlike, writhed his wiry arms Around him.

Unknightly, a. (UN-[1] 7.)

1. Not appropriate to a knight or to knighthood. c 1412 HOCCLEVE De Reg. Princ. 2286 Of suche vnknyghtly trikkes he nat roghte. 1443 JAS. I Kingis Q. lv, The cruelnesse of that vnknyghtly dede. 1586 FERNE Blaz. Gentry 161 Lewes..had so vnknightlye a regarde..of Armes, that [etc.]. 1611 GUILLIM Heraldry ii. vi. 56 Base and vnknightly actions and qualities, deserue a base and vnknightly chastisement. 1664 BUTLER Hud. II. i, 832, I here..free you from th' Vnknightly Jail. 1704 D'URFEY Tales, Abradatus & P. i. 12 The dire reward that did belong To him that Acted such unknightly wrong. 1898 SCOTT P. M. Perth viii, The unknightly advantage which yonder rascal had taken of his stumbling horse. 1860 GEN. P. THOMPSON Audi Alt. Part. III. cxlii. 123 A foreign force, threatening to invade, unless unknightly and degrading terms were complied with.

2. Unlike a knight; not having the qualities of a knight.

1596 SPENSER F. Q. vi. iii. 35 Vnknightly Knight,..Loe I defie thee. 1813 BYRON Ch. Har. Pref., Add., It has been stated, that..he is very unknightly, as the times of the Knights were times of Love, Honour, and so forth. 1842 TENNYSON Morte d'Arth. 120 Ah,..untrue, Unknightly, traitor-hearted!

Unknightly, adv. (UN-[1] 11.] In an unknightly manner.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. xviii, They helde playe against the rest, though the two brothers unknightly helped them.

1859 TENNYSON Geraint & Enid 723 The brute Earl..unknightly with flat hand, however lightly, smote her on the cheek.

Unknit, v. [OE. uncnyttian (UN-[2] 4 b).]

1. trans. To untie or undo (a knot or something tied).

c 1000 Ags. Gosp. Luke iii. 16 Þæs ic ne eom wyrþe þæt ic þys sceo-þwancg unc̄nytte. c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 137 Ich nam noht ne forðon wurðe þat ich un-cnutte his sho þuong. 1387 TREVISA Higden (Rolls) II. 43 So þat þe more wynd he wol haue, he wil vnknitte his knotte. c 1430 Syr Gener. (Roxb.) 7001 Hir kerchef lift vp wold he Hir visage there forto see; Tho thoght he hir kerchefe to vnknyt. 1530 PALSGR. 768/1 Vnknyt my gyrdell, I praye you. 1547 in Leland's Collect. (1774) IV. 322 Then tooke he the said Rope, and..tyed himselfe by the Right Legg..and after ..unknet the Knot, and came downe again. 1615 G. SANDYS Travs. 66 Tying on her silken buskins with knots easily not vnknit. 1675 HOBBES Odyssey (1677) 149 Blinde me you must uprigh; both hand and foot, And so as I may not the knot uknit.

b. In figurative contexts (with knot or bond).

a 1225 Leg. Kath. 1150 Ich habbe uncnut summe of þeos cnotti þat cnotten. c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. v. pr. iii. (1868) 154 Þat som men weenen þat þei mowen assoilen & vnknytten þe knot of þis questioun. 1387–8 T. USK Test. Love III. vii. (Skeat) I. 129 Thilke falsheed..hath unknit the bond of understanding resan betweene vs twaine. c 1440 LYDG. Reson & Sens. 3202 Wher so as her [sc. Venus's] sort was set, The knot never was vnknet. c 1450 Life St. Kath. (1884) 44, I haue spoused me to hym in a bonde þat neuer schal be vnknytte. 1561 NORTON & SACKV. Gorboduc iv. ii, Whan thus I sawe the knot of loue vnknitte. 1596 SHAKS. 1 Hen. IV, v. i. 25 Will you against vnknit This churlish knot of all-abhorred Warre? 1890 W. R. WILLIAMS Religious Progress v. (1894) 82 Demoralization that unknits the bonds of obligation.

†c. To undigest (oneself). Obs.[1]

a 1500 in Three 15th Cent. Chron. (Camden) 111 Ther he shall unknytte hym, and his swerde..shall offer to God and to Holy Churche moste meedy.

d. To disjoint, disunite; to unclasp. rare.

1580 HOLLYBAND Treas. Fr. Tong s.v. Desnouer, To vnknitte a bone, to put out of ioynte. 1582 STANYHURST Æneis II. (Arb.) 58 Thee ioynctures vnknit, with an horribil hurring Pat fals thee turet. 1726 LEONI Alberti's Archit. I. 15 Rain..loosens and unknits all the Nerves of the Building. 1856 RUSKIN Mod. Paint. III. iv. xviii. Conch. 339 If again petty jealousies..prevail to unknit their hands from the armoured grasp.

e. To smooth out. rare[—1].

1596 SHAKS. Tam. Shr. v. ii. 136 Fie, fie, vnknit that threatning vnkinde brow.

2. fig. a. To disperse, dissolve, undo, destroy; to relax or weaken. Also absol.

1377 LANGL. P. Pl. B. xviii. 223 So god..suffred to be solde to see þe sorwe of deyinge, The which vnknitteth al kure & consyngne is of reste. c 1412 HOCCLEVE De Reg. Princ. 2564 Al-thogh a kyng haue habundance of myght In his land, at his list knyttе & vnknyttе. a 1500 Ragman Roll 151 in Hazl. E. P. P. I. 76 Weyr he vnknytte, al this worldes rychesse Ne weyghe noghte yow tw knyttyr in feir. 1552 T. WILSON Logike 3 Logike is bound..to knit true arguments and unknit false. 1592 LYLY Gallathea III. i, I feele my thoughts vnknit. 1642 CHAS. I Let. to both Hs. Parl. 7 Ambitious spirits, that may disjoint and unknit his Majesty and this House. 1655 VAUGHAN Silex Scint., Match ii, Shut out all distractions That may unknit My heart. c 1837 WORDSW. 'Ah why' 5 Where for ages they have lain ..With life's best sinews more and more unknit.

b. To separate, sever, detach.

1388 WYCLIF Job vi. 17 Thei clenbiden be vnknyt fro her place. a 1395 HYLTON Scala Perf. i. xii. (MS. Bodl. 592), is spirit wole vnknyttе and vndo ih'u fro þe soule: & perfeccte it is not of god. c 1412 HOCCLEVE De Reg. Princ. 1658 Panne is to hem an helle hire marīage, Panne þei desyren for to be vnknyt.

3. intr. To become unknit, in various senses.

1574 HELLOWES Guevara's Fam. Ep. (1577) 187 It is a sore that neuer openeth, and a bonde that neuer vnknitteth. 1609 C. BUTLER Fem. Mon. v. F 3 b, Then may you bid them farewel: for presentlie they begin to vnknit, and to be gone. 1697 Gen. Venice 6 The private Magistrates are as it were the Nerves and Bones..and the Council of Ten are the ligaments, binding the parts from unknitting. 1748 THOMSON Cast. Indol. I. xxiii, For whomsoe'er the villain takes in hand, Their joints unknit, their sinews melt apace. 1870 Pall Mall G. 20 Nov. 2/1 The old lady's eyebrows unknit, and wintry smiles break from the grey eyes.

Hence Unki'nting vbl. sb.

1382 WYCLIF Nahum ii. 10 Herte feylynge, and vnknyttynge of smale knees. 1545 Act 37 Hen. VIII, c. 21 § 8 Without any dissolution, vnclosinge, vnknittinge, or repeale of them. 1611 COTGR. Desnouement, an vnlying, vnknitting, vnbinding (of knots).

Unki'nt, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8 b.] Not knit together or closely united.

1607 MARKHAM Cavel. I. xviii. 73 His ioynts being tender and vnknit. a 1625 FLETCHER Fair Maid of Inn III. i, The petty brawls..shall, like tender unknit joynts, fasten again together of themselves. 1809–14 WORDSW. Excurs. III. 914 Let us..Leave this unknit Republic to the scourge Of her own passions. 1860 MOTLEY Netherl. vii. (1868) I. 465 A loose, disordered and unknit state needs no shaking, but propping.

Unkni'ting, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.) 1587 GOLDING De Mornay x. 165 [Aristotle] sayth that the knitting parts, .. the bones, the skin, the sinewes,..may be made of the mixing together of the elements, and that the vnknitting parts, as the Head, the Leg, the Arme,..cannot. Unkno'ck, v. (UN-[2] 3.) 1680 MOXON Mech. Exerc. xii. 203 Its Office is to knock and unknock the Wedge in the Puppets.

Unkno't, v. (UN-[2] 3. Cf. G. entknoten.)

1598 FLORIO, Sgroppare, to vntie, to vnknot. 1623 COCKERAM II, Not to be vnknotted, inenodable. 1866 MISS A. CARY Ball. & Lyrics 54, I saw my Charley The..shawl from his neck Uiknot, with a quick, wise cunning. 1891 Daily News 8 July 4/8 The man..who hoards string, unknotting it..from parcels.

ref. 1882 Daily News 27 Nov. 2/8 This remarkable worm ..has the power of unknotting himself.

Unknotted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1642 H. More Song of Soul To Rdr., All homogeneall, simple, single,..unknotted, uncoacted. 1744 Mrs. Delany Life & Corr. (1861) II. 291 You ask me how many pounds of thread I have got for you; do you mean knotted or unknotted? 1756 Dyer Fleece III. 58 Even, unknotted, twine will praise your skill. 1892 Yeats C'tess Kathleen III. 52 The green things love unknotted hearts and minds.

Unknotty, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. x. (1626) 198 Vnknottie Firre, the solace-shading Planes, Rough Chesnuts. 1622 Mabbe tr. Aleman's Gusman d'Alf. II. 348 The wool of the Mattresse..[was] kept vnknotty, and soft.

†Unknow, v.[1] [Un-[2] 14.]

1. trans. Not to know (something); to fail to recognize or perceive. Also absol.

c 1380 Wyclif Serm. Sel. Wks. I. 160 þou art maister in Israel, and 3it þou unknowist þes þingis. 1382—1 Cor. xiv. 38 If ony man vnknowith, he schal be vnknowen. c 1400 Apol. Loll. 67 Poo bat vnknowen be rijchteuis of God. c 1532 Du Wes Introd. Fr. in Palsgr. 942 To unknowe, descognoistre. 1646 Sir T. Browne Pseud. Ep. 4, I hardly beleeve, he hath from elder times unknowne the verticity of the loadstone. 1709 Mrs. Manley Secret Mem. (1720) III. 252 [He] is obliged to turn his Eyes, as if to unknow, or at least must take no notice of it here. 1872 Swinburne Bertha 19 Love or unlove me, Unknow me or know.

†2. To be ignorant that, etc. Also intr. with of.

1382 Wyclif 1 Cor. x. 1, I nyle þou for to vnknowe, for [1388 thaj] alle oure fadris weren vndir cloude. [Also 1 Kings xxii. 3, Rom. i. 13.] a 1400 Pauline Ep. (Powell) 2 Cor. I. 8 We wil not þou to vnknowe, þrisperc, of oure tribulacyoun. 1709 Mrs. Manley Secret Mem. (1720) II. 28 Sure these seem to unknow that there is a certain Portion of Misery.. allotted to all Men.

Unknow, v.[2] [Un-[2] 3.] trans. To cease to know, to forget (what one has known). Also absol.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia II. vi, She..rather wished to unknowe what she knewe, then to burden her hart with more hopeles knowledge. 1692 S. Ward Happiness of Practice 31 Such..shall soone vnknow that which they know [to be good]. 1697 J. Sergeant Solid Philos. b 2, His Method of Unknowing all that Nature had taught him. 1782 Paine Let. Abbé Raynal (1791) 50 There is no possibility..of the mind unknowing any thing it already knows. 1859 I. Taylor Logic in Theol. 270 Unless I might unknow what I have come to know. 1862 J. Grote Exam. Philos. 1. 243 We have got to unsee and unknow much further back than this, if [etc.].

Unknow, variant of Unknowe ppl. a. Obs.

Unknowability. (Un-[1] 12 ; cf. next.) 1863 Mill Lett. (1910) I. 292 The doctrine of unknowability. 1871 R. H. Hutton Ess. I. 28 The unknowability of the primal Cause.

Unknowable, a. and sb. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. III. met. vii. (1886) 47 Liggeth thanne stille al owtrely vnknowable, ne fame ne maketh yow nat knowe. 1456 Sir G. Hay Dk. Knighthood Wks. (S.T.S.) II. 16 Þe quhilks ar unknawable till..unworthy personis. 1653 H. More Antid. Ath. I. iv. § 3 He is a very Novice in Speculation that does not acknowledge that to be unknowable. 1678 Cudworth Intell. System I. § 31. 471 There is something of God Vnknowable and Incomprehensible by all Mortals. 1740 Cheyne Regimen 35 If we dropt both substances, as unknown and unknowable Things at present. 1754 Edwards Freed. Will (1841) 127 Where be any Truth which is absolutely without Evidence, that Truth is absolutely unknowable. 1818 F. Hall Trav. Canada & U.S. 28 Indeed privacy..seems quite unknown, and unknowable to the Americans. 1873 Mozley Rousseau I. 90 Men..will be thankful not to waste life in guessing evil about unknowable trifles.

b. absol. (with the). That which cannot be known. (Common from c 1860.)

1823 Monthly Rev. CI. 447 Here, again, the author professes to know the unknowable. 1867 Lewes Hist. Philos. I. p. cxv, We always hope that the Unknown is not also the Unknowable.

c. As sb. An unknowable; the unknowable.

1725 Watts Logic I. vi. § 1 To distinguish well between Knowables and Unknowables. 1872—Philos. Ess. I. xii, In every Age..there will be some Unknowables and Insolvables. 1874 B. P. Browne Philos. H. Spencer ii. 41 (Stand.), Mr. Spencer's argument proves an unexplainable, not an unknowable.

Hence Unknowableness.

1664 N. Ingelo Bentiv. & Ur. II. vi. 367 The unknowableness of the manner of this Union. 1697 J. Sergeant Solid Philos. 301 The Unknowableness of Real Essences. 1856 Ruskin Mod. Paint. IV. 8 t The great religious painters rejoiced in that kind of unknowableness. 1886 Jane Lee Faust p. xxxiii, The unknowableness of the nature of things.

†Unknowe (also 5–6 -know, 6 Sc. -knaw), obs. variants of Unknown ppl. a.

For the phrase unknowe, unkissed, see Unkissed ppl. a.

1340–70 Alex. & Dind. 382 We bolden hit a verin ..Among be men of our march mercy vnknowe. c 1350 Lybeaus Disc. 71 Than may ye wete a rowe, 'The fayre vnknowe', Seres so hatte he. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) I. 87 Pan were þe Parthi as it were ..vnknowe amonge men of þe eye londes. 1430–40 Lydg. Bochas viii. xiv. (1558) 0 b, A knight vnknowe angelyke of vysage. c 1440 Gesta Rom. I. 2 (Harl. MS.), Pat she euer pursued for my deth, pat is vnknowe to me. 1513 Douglas Æneid vi. iii. 52 Vnkyne, na kynd of pane may rise Vnknaw to me.

So †Unknowed ppl. a. Obs.

c 1380 Sir Ferumb. 3847 If þar comeb any vnknowed man. c 1386 See Unkeny ppl. a. 2.

†Unknowing, vbl. sb. [Un-[1] 13.] Ignorance.

1340 Hampole Pr. Conc. 194 In mykines of unknawyng þai gang. Ibid. 5747 Ne mene þou noght Of my freyle unknawynges of thoght. c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. I. 159 So Nichodeme..for þis unknowinge..axide þis questioun. c 1449 Pecock Repr. I. xvi. 89 Þe vnhauyng and the vnknowing of this..consideracioun. c 1450 Lovelich Grail iii. 775 That I haue don be vnknowynge, Of forzeyenesse I preye you. 1556 Olde Antichrist 127 b, What other thing shal we cal this, but the most grosse unknowing of God?

Unknowing, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 10, 5 d.]

1. Not knowing; not possessed of knowledge; uninformed, ignorant.

c 1315 Shoreham v. 148 Al one-knowynge þaj hy were, Hy makede loye. 1386 Rolls of Parlt. III. 225/2 Owre lyge Lordes commandement to sayne and unknowing men. 1425 Misyn Fire of Love 48 Bot þies ar vnknawand, for vertew of contemplatife þai knaw not. 1538 G. Browne in Ware Hist. Coll. (1681) 3 The People of this Nation be zealous, yet blind and unknowing. 1612–3 C. Brooke Elegy Poems (1892) 175 Those baser mindes, vnknowing, sensuall, rude. 1649 Br. Hall Cases Consc. vi. (1654) 45 The matter may be intricated by passing through many perhaps unknowing hands. 1785 Pope Odyss. xx. 56 Man on frail unknowing man relies. 1760–72 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1809) IV. 27 My..child..is unexperienced in the world, quite unknowing and unknown. 1845 Hirst Conv. Mammoth, etc. 89 Winds that pilfer from unknowing flowers Their balmy breaths. 1872 H. Macmillan True Vine vi. 249 It..does what it does in simple, perfect, unknowing dependence upon the will of God.

absol. 1718 J. Chamberlayne Nieuwentijdt's Relig. Philos. p. xx, [They] pass amongst the Unknowing for great Mathematicians. 1833 Disraeli Cont. Flem. I. i, Our instructors are the unknowing and the dead. 1876 Nature 2 Nov. 17/1 Undeed, works..may be palmed off on the unknowing as the genuine product of the current year.

2. Without knowledge, ignorant, of something.

In frequent use from c 1700.

a 1300 Cursor M. 28323 O godds godes..haue i ben vnknauand. a 1400 Ed. Poems 149 all þise lyes..Shall þye, vnknowyng of her day. a 1450 Knt. de la Tour (1868) 159 That is gret pite..to be vncunnynge and vnknowynge of hym self. 1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 16 The residue wer vnknowyng of his thyng. 1692 Wood Ath. Oxon. I. 587 [He was] simple, and unknowing of matters of State. 1748 Richardson Pamela II. 270 She had found out a Match for me,..and had..brought me into the Lady's Company, unknowing of her Design. 1844 [see 2 c]. 1869 Freeman Norm. Conq. III. xii. 242 He laid his hand on the chest, while still unknowing of all that was in it.

b. With direct object.

1382 Wyclif Gal. iv. 8 Sæ, vnknowynge God, seruyden to hem þat weren not godis. 1460 Capgrave Chron. 120 Sche went onknowyng hir tyme fro Seynt Petirs onto Lateran. c 1500 Melusine v. 27 He..rode apas vnknowing the way. 1760–4 Goldsm. Cit. W. xxii, Mankind wanders, unknowing his way, from morning till evening. 1830 Tennyson Grasshopper i. 16 Unknowing fear, Undreading loss, A gallant cavalier. 1847 T. D'Arcy McGee Art blackburragh p. x, When, unknowing facts, they [sc. historians] lay down suppositions in their place.

c. With objective clause.

c 1425 St. Elizabeth in Anglia VIII. 147 Not vnknowynge þat oure lorde couerde þe naked of oure firste faderand moder after hir falle. c 1465 Eng. Chron. (Camden, 1856) 62 Unknowyng the said peple wherfore it was. 1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 182 b, Than dot not unknowyng that we are now conquerours. 1697 Dryden Æneis vi. 236 Æneas went Sad from the cave,..Unknowing whom the sacred Sibyl meant. 1818 Cruikshank Comic Annuals (1871) III. 1, They were all working for my..unknowing that they did so. 1820 Scott Monast. xxv, Driven by calamity, and unknowing where my course is bound. 1844 Kinglake Eothen xii, Unknowing of all geography, unknowing where he was, or whither he might go.

d. With inf. (alone or preceded by how, etc.).

1666 Dryden Ann. Mirab. xcvi, The Kingly beast..slowly moves, unknowing to give place. 1697—Virg. Georg. iv. 126 Unknowing how to fly, And abstained to bent to win or dye. 1727 Life of Bath 7, 200 I was not surpri'd, unknowing what to say, Thou damn thy self. 1746 Francis tr. Horace, Art of Poetry 51 In one grand Whole unknowing to unite Those different Parts. 1771 Goldsm. Hist. Eng. II. 204 Unknowing whether to ascribe these misfortunes to ..sorcery, or to a celestial influence. 1801 Southey Thalaba v. 170 Unknowing whitherward to bend his way, He stood. 1852 J. Hogg Confess. Sinner, Quebec 46 The huge animal.. seemed unknowing which way to run.

†3. In absolute construction. Obs.

1151 Paston Lett. I. 198 He thought that ye and James Gresham had do it un malyce,..your moders unknowyng. 1483 Vulgaria ab Terentio 96 Hic hyde not fro me that.. oure doo, unknowynge theire faders. c 1500 Melusine xxiv, 171 They came & lodged them a leghe nygh to the Calyphes oost, vnknowyng the paynemes of it.

4. As quasi-adv. = Unknowingly adv.

1382 Wyclif Acts xvii. 23 Therfore which thing ȝe vnknowynge worschipen, this thing I schewe to ȝou. 1470–85 Malory Arthur x. lxxix. 554 There ȝey Tristram vnknowyng smote doune kyng Arthur. 1721 Ambrose Terrœ Fil. (1726) 101 See..what mischiefs ye might do unknowing. 1743 Fearne tr. Hor., Epist. i. iii. 6 Have I swallow'd the gore of a viper unknowing? 1892 Kingsley Andromeda 250 From afar, unknowing, I marked thee.

5. Unknown to (a person). Chiefly in absolute const., = without the knowledge of. Obs. exc. dial.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 11328, I..neuer comynd in þis case vnknowing to you. 1462 Paston Lett. II. 129 It is not on knowyng to you that [etc.]. 1513 Bradshaw St. Werburge I. 2677 A seruaunt..pryuely hydde it,..Vnknowynge to Werburge. 1577 Grange Golden Aphrod. I iv b, He..sodenly departed (vnknowing to the Ladies). 1637 Collins Def. Ep. Eliz (1638) 302 When he prayed for his children, vnknowing to them. 1643 E. Symmons Legal Subjects Belief Ep. Ded., Unknowing, I beleeve, to them in particular, some others did intend [etc.]. 1886–91 in Somerset and Devon glossaries.

Hence Unknowingness.

1493 Festivall 29 b/1 Vnknowyngnesse shalle not excuse you at ye day of dome. 1872 H. Bushnell Serm. Living Subj. 221 The unknowingness, the innocence, the sweet simplicity of childhood.

Unknowingly, adv. [Un-[1] 11 : cf. prec.] Without knowledge, ignorantly; unintentionally. Also const. to (a person).

1340 Ayenb. 175 Huanne me zeneȝeþ wytindeliche, me zeneȝeþ more yno3 þanne oukneȝ wytindliche. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 366/2 On-knowyngly, ignoranter. a 1500 Ratis Raving l. 904 Better to be styll Than say vnknawandly thar tyll. 1641 Sir E. Dering Sp. on Relig. 22 Nov. 70, I speake it not unknowingly. 1697 Dryden's Virg. Past. Preface (1721) I. 97 The Roman Historian..falls, unknowingly, into a Verse not unworthy Virgil himself. 1709 Shaftesb. Charac. (1711) II. 89 An Eye..fails not to shut together, of its own accord, unknowingly to us. c 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 595 Made unknowingly to work out the advantage of fellow-creatures, whereof we have not the least knowledge. 1807 Wordsw. White Doe II. 100 Leaning on a lance Which he had grasped unknowingly. 1872 Freeman Hist. Ess. Ser. I. iii. 213 Nations and parties learn to shape themselves unknowingly.

†Unknowledge. Obs. [Un-[1] 12.]

1. Unacknowledgement.

a 1300 Cursor M. 27833 O conaitise..cums..fals wittnesing, Vnknawledge, mandis, and of lesing.

2. Absence or want of knowledge; ignorance.

Your unknowledge, unknown to you.

c 1450 Cov. Myst. (Shaks. Soc.) 122 For unknowlage he is desesyd. 1470 Paston Lett. II. 393, I have betyn the mater for yow, your unknowledch, as I told hyr. 1483 St. Alex. Fest. II (1824) 111. 166 At thay were not excuse blame of the vnknawlege of thir artichis. 1593 Nashe Christ's T. F ij b, Your pretence of vnknowledge or ignorance.

†Unknowledged, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Unacknowledged.

c 1445 Pecock Donet 96 Þat no synne be left bihinde for vnknowledd and vnknowlechid. 1598 Biucedorus v. ii. 104 Condemne not..My rude behaviour, so compeld by Nature, That manners stood vnknowledged. 1603 B. Jonson The Satyr Wks. (Ridg.) 237/2 For which loue I to H. Henry, Of him unknowledg'd, or unseen, We prepared this compliment.

†Unknowledging. Obs. [Un-[1] 12.] Ignorance. Unknowledging to, without the knowledge of.

1357 Lay Folks Catech. 73 Nane sal excuse tham Thurgh unknalechyng for to kun tham. c 1530 in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. III. 229 The said Jean..unknowledging to..the surveyor of Hampton Corte,..hathe..dygyd appe by the roots xxxv. of my..fieyrest elmes.

Unknown, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 b. Cf. OE. ungecnawen.]

A. adj. 1. Not known; strange, unfamiliar; a. Of places.

13.. Cursor M. 1170 (Gött.), I sal be fiemed for mi sinne, In vnknaun land to duell inne. 13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 1679 He..carfully is out-kast to contre vnknawen. a 1440 Sir Iglam. 917 As sche were of an unknown londe. 1586 T. B. La Primaud. Fr. Acad. i. 71 As if he should undertake to..walke through unknown places without a guide. 1698 in Verney Mem. (1907) I. 90 Some unknown place in the world. 1697 Dryden Virg. Georg. III. 532 So vast a Space Of Wilds unknown..Allures their Eyes. 1790 Cowper Odyss. xxiv. 344 The fishes of the unknown deep. 1844 H. H. Wilson Brit. India II. 402 The armies..beheld countries previously unknown. 1853 M. Arnold Scholar Gypsy xiv, Where o'er thy unknown grave..white flowering nettles wave.

b. Of persons.

For the phrase unknown, unkissed, see Unkissed.

13.. Cursor M. 12131 (Gött.), Ani man, vnknauen or cuth. 1382 Wyclif 1 Cor. xiv. 38 Forsothe if ony man vnknowith, he schal be vnknowen [Vulg. ignorabitur]. c 1386 Chaucer Friar's T. 79, I am vnknowen as I am outcome. c 1440 Alph. Tales 175 Ane vnknowen man sittand on a hors. c 1449 Pecock Repr. 53 He schal be vnknown of God forto be eny of hise. 1526 Tyndale Acts xvii. 23, I founde an aulter where in was written : vnto the vnknowen god. 1556 Eden Decades (Arb.) 49 It had byn better for hym to haue byn obscure and vnknown. 1622 J. Taylor (Water P.) Sir G. Nonsence To Nobody, The narration of the Vnknowne Knight. 1696 Rav Corr. (1848) 123 An unknown person, who sent me a letter without a name. 1718 Free-thinker No. 4, 25 The Discourse..turned upon the Unknown Fair. 1797 S. & H. Lee Canterb. T. (1799) I. 364 To Lothaire the lord of St. Aubert was personally unknown. 1846 Mrs. A. Marsh Father Darcy II. x. 164 Mr. Keyes..was a man quite unknown about town. 1885 'Mrs. Alexander' At Bay iv, Unknown, doubtful Americans, neither rich nor highly-placed are beyond the pale.

c. Of things or facts.

Unknown quantity, orig. a term of algebra (see quots. 1676, 1728, and cf. Quantity 12); also fig. in figurative use.

c 1330 R. Brunne Chron. Wace (Rolls) 2757 [They] caste her armes of, þe vnknowen, And armede hem eft wyþ here owen. c 1374 Chaucer Former Age 6 Onknowyn was þe quyerne and ek the welle. c 1450 Myrr. our Ladye 158 Then oure lady..was sturred in her harte wyth vnspecable & vnknown gladnesse. 1509 Fisher Wks. (1876) 297 It is to vnknowne how studyously she procured Iustyce to be admynystred. 1568 Grafton Chron. II. 180 A man of vnknown or low birth. 1622 S. Ward Life of Faith (1627) 51 Death is the knownest and vnknownest thing in the world. 1669 Sturmy Mariner's Mag. iv. 1. 138 Many times the Ship is carried away by unknown Currents. 1676 Glanvill Ess. iii. 15 The degree of Composition in the unknown Quantity of the Æquation. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Equation, The Root of an Equation, is the Value of the unknown Quantity in the Equation. a 1768 Secker Serm. (1770) IV. xviii. 387 Their having a real, though unknown, Subserviency to valuable Ends. 1827 Faraday Chem. Manip. xv. 389 As the whole volume of gas introduced is unknown, and the specific gravity is as yet unknown. 1885 'Mrs. Alexander' At Bay vi, For some reasons unknown very little was said of the occurrence in the newspapers.

d. Const. to (into, †till) or † of (= by).

1340 Hampole Pr. Conc. 7694 Na thyng..tyll him unknawen es. 1399 Langl. Rich. Redeles III. 263 It is not vnknown to kuinnynge leodis. 1486 Paston Lett. III. 328

What pleasur ye maie do to the Kings Grace..Is not to you unknown. 1578 Lyte Dodoens 5 Strange herbes, vnknown of the common people. 1600 C. Percy in Shakesp. Cent. of Praise 38 Anything..that may bee unknown unto you. 1670 Pettus Fodinæ Reg. 11 That Mine, which was afterward discovered, in that Countie (as yet unknown to the Societie). 1738 Gay Propertius III. 65 Happy the youth, and not unknown to Fame. 1823 H. J. Brooke Introd. Crystallogr. 231 A crystal whose primary form is unknown to us. 1866 Geo. Eliot R. Holt Introd. 16 These things are often unknown to the world.

e. With of. (Cf. Know v. 18 b.)

1606 G. Woodcock Lives Emperors in Hist. Iustine G g 2 When nature did hatch such euills as were vnknowne of to the whole world. 1829 Mary Howitt Boy of Southern Isle I. xx, Some unknown-of isle. 1884 Pusey Lect. Daniel ii. 94 It is..one strange, unknown-of, God, whom he shall recognise.

2. In absolute cons.: Without it being known (to one), without the knowledge of (some one).

1590 Gower Conf. II. 169 Diane his dowhter he begat Unknowen of his wif Juno. 1423 Jas. I Kingis Q. xlv, Bewailling myn infortune,.. Vnknawin how or quhat was best to doon. c 1450 Mirk's Festial 207 Scho..was per pryste pere vnknowen of all men wythout mete ohir drynke. 1483 Caxton G. de la Tour I j, Two prestes unknowen of her cam wher as she was alone. 1523 Ld. Berners Froiss. I. 74 The kyng..was ther unknowen of his enemmyes. 1590 Shaks. Com. Errors iv. ii. 28 Thus he unknown to me should be in debt. 1666 — Ant. & Cl. iv. vii. 84 Being done unknownne, I should haue found it afterwards well done. 1672 Wiseman Wounds i. viii. 74 The Patient, unknown to me, pursued his Intention. 1761 Mrs. F. Sheridan Sidney Bidulph III. 106 He stole, unknown to anybody, on board a ship. 1820 Keats Isabella xi, All close they met,..Unknown of any, free from whispering tale. 1823 Southey Hist. Peninsr. War I. 77 An agent..was employed to negociate it unknown to the Spanish embassador. 1898 Merriman' Roden's Corner iii, The terrible distress..going on unknown to us in our very midst.

†3. a. Ignorant (of), unskilled in. Obs.

a 1300 Cursor M. 11809 Pis herodes..(was) O carles costes al til vnknain. c 1450 Rep. Celestyne 127 Sen ellis thow art vnknawin, To man me Lord of my awin. 1653 W. Ramesey Astrol. Restored 3 We see thereby the folly of such..gain-sayers of what they are altogether unknown in.

†b. Not recognizing, owning, acknowledging, or confessing. Obs.

a 1300 Cursor M. 18796 Of vn-man-hede es it draun, To be again god dede vn-knaun. Ibid. 28288 Ic ha made vous oft vn-right, And halden pam after my might, Pe gode vous ic am vn-knaun. c 1375 Ibid. 26656 (Fairf.), Pat is pou art vnknawen of ani man yunis bot pine awen.

B. sb. 1. An unknown person: a. With the.

The Great Unknown (quot. 1825), the author of the Waverley Novels.

1597 in Salusbury & Chester Poems (1914) 79 To the Honorable minded vnknowne, the Name-lesse wisheth..perpetuall happines. 1652 Loveday Hymen's Preludia 8 The faire Unknowne found enough in his Noble looks to claime respect. 1711 Watts Hymn, 'Who dares' iv, When shall we see the Great Unknown, And in his presence stand! 1774 Trinket 70 The charming unknown turned his eyes on me. 1825 R. Wilson Sh. Hist. Hawick 51 The powerfully superior mind of the Great Unknown. 1834 Dickens Sk. Boz, Boarding-ho. 1 The great unknown, who condescends to play the 'swell' in the pantomime.

b. With an, this, etc., or pl.

1611 Shaks. Cymb. iv. iv. 43, I am asham'd To looke vpon the holy Sunne,..remaining So long a poore vnknowne. 1686 tr. Agiatis or Love 7 Thus the Lacedemonians 77 To unite her self to that Unknown, whom she prefers before me. 1709 Mrs. Manley Secret Mem. (1720) IV. 140 I'vl run after the Cant of a Letter from an unknown again. a 1774 Goldsm. tr. Scarron's Comic Romance (1775) II. 160 He immediately recollected his unknown by her person. 1830 W. Irving Wolfert's R. (1855) 45, I have only to find out this amiable Unknown, to wed her, and be happy! 1902 Ellis Banks Newspaper Girl 214 Looking at the bodies of the unfortunate unknowns.

2. a. With the: That which is unknown.

1656 Stanley Hist. Philos. viii. (1687) 433/2 From which proceedeth Opinion..to the false and unknown. 1759 B. Poughius Death 300 When my Soul starting from the dark unknown Casts back a wishful look. 1816 Chalmers Lect. in Life (1851) II. 65 Running into the dark unknown of legal perplexities. 1875 T. Hardy Ethelberta xxxv, Losing the indefinite interest of the unknown, it acquired the charm of a riddle.

b. An unknown state or condition.

1837 Carlyle Fr. Revol. I. iv. i, A new omnipotent Unknown of Democracy was coming into being.

3. Math. An unknown quantity

1817 H. T. Colebrooke Algebra, etc. 63 The demonstration is by resolution of a quadratic equation involving several unknown. 1890 A. Marshall Princ. Economics p. xi, His equations are neither more nor less in number than his unknowns.

†Unknown, ppl. a.[2] Obs.[—] [var. of unaknown: see Acknow v. 4 d.] In a state of acknowledgement or confession.

a 1300 Cursor M. 26094 Pe to per pont es scrift o muth To mak to preistes vr costes cuth; Of al vr plight to be vnknaun, Wit will to bete þat we ha vnlaun.

Unknowingly, adv. [f. Unknown *ppl.a.*1] In an unknown manner; mysteriously.

1611 Florio, Inconsoclutamente, vnknowingly. 1644 Quarles Sheph. Orac. vi, Just then it open'd; and th' enclosed Grain Unknowingly vanisht; and then, clos'd again.

Unknowingness. [f. Unknown a.] The quality of being unknown.

1619 W. Sclater Exp. 1 Thess. (1630) 398 The vnknownenesse, and suddennesse of Christs comming. 1675 tr. Camden's Hist. Eliz. (ed. 3) II. 252 They stood in no Fear at all of Pirates, by reason of..the Unknownness of that Sea. 1854 N. Hawthorne S. Felton (1883) 383 Soon they would all drop away,..all leaving him in blessed unknownness to enjoy new temporary relations. 1899 Outlook 15 Apr. 364/2 Her studies..appeal by the very unknownness to English readers.

Unknownst, dial. var. (see -st) of Unknown ppl. a. 2 (c).

1837 Lover Handy Andy iii, By the powers! I'll pop in a hall unknownst to him. 1887 Hall Caine Deemster xxiii, It'll be unknownst to the law as we are..innocent.

Unko, var. Unco a. Unkunning, -yng, varr. Uncunning Obs. Unkward: see Unkard a.

Unkyt, ME. var. Uncut.

Unla·belled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1844 Kinglake Eothen xii. 175 A little while you are free, and unlabelled, like the ground that you compass; but Civilization is coming. 1890 W. J. Gordon Foundry 166 The reels are turned over, and their unlabelled ends exposed.

Unla·biate, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1835-6 Todd's Cycl. Anat. I. 265/2 Two unlabiate and edentate mandibles.

Unlaborious, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1644 Milton Areop. (Arb.) 54 The Parlament, whose command perhaps made all things seem easie and unlaborious to them. 1750 Mrs. Carter Johnson's Rambler No. 44 ¶ 7 Does he (sc. Religion) lead her votaries through flowery paths, and bid them pass an unlaborious life? 1809 Edin. Rev. XIV. 4 The simple and unlaborious plenty which reigned among the scattered inhabitants. 1863 Ld. Lytton King Amasis I. 260 Those wandering but not unlaborious days.

Hence Unlaborriousness.

1642 J. Caryl Whs. of Ephesus Expl. 21 Unlaboriousnesse..is the buriall of our workes.

Unla·boured, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

†1. Not cultivated by study. Obs.

c 1450 Burgh Secrees 1516 These Sevene Sustryn..The nyne musys blame shal in maneere, That they vnlabouryd stant on my peere.

2. Of land: Unworked, untilled, uncultivated.

1473 Reg. Cupar Abbey I. 201 Gif thar be ony..that leis ony his land..onlaboryt. a 1513 Fabyan Chron. vii. ccxix. 241 He destroyed the lande..in suche wyse, that ,be, yeres after..the lande laye vnlabored and vntyllede. 1586 T. B. La Primaud. Fr. Acad. i. 166 Good ground becommeth unfruitfull,..the more it is left unlaboured. 1684 T. Burnet Theory Earth I. 243 Seeing it..had a soil so fruitful, a new unlabored soil. 1708 J. Philips Cider I. 115 Let the Ground Not lye unlabour'd. 1804 Europ. Mag. XLV, 60/2 Gallia mourns..Unpeopled cities, and unlabour'd plains.

3. Not obtained or brought about by labour; esp. attained or accomplished in an easy or natural manner; spontaneous.

1632 Sir W. Cornwallis Disc. Seneca L 16 b, When goodnes was vnlabored excellency. 1697 Dryden Virg. Past. iv. 33 Unlabour'd Harvests shall the Fields adorn. 1797 Monthly Mag. III. 538 Of the translation itself we shall only observe, that it is natural and unlabored. 1853 Ruskin Stones Ven. II. viii. 169 Their perfect, pure, unlabored naturalism. 1882 Homiletic Monthly July 599 Such inspirational and unlabored success was built on a firm basis of general study.

†4. Left unapproached or uninfluenced. Obs.[—]

1644 Milton Ref. (1851) IV. 147 The judge at Chester (altogether unknown to me and unlaboured by me) did say [etc.].

5. Not subjected to, free from, labour.

1598 Grenewey Tacitus, Descr. Germanie ii. 26 Horses, which are..maintained in those woods..; white, vnbacked, or vnlabored. 1798 Beattie Judgm. Paris 514 The bower of bliss..be thine, Unlabour'd ease, and leisure's careless dream.

Unla·bouring, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

1619 Sir J. Semple Sacrilege Hanzled 57 Paul had..onely to lustilie, that he and Barnabas might live vnlabouring, as well as other Apostles. 1791 Cowper Odyss. XXI. 488 A hard Unlabouring strains the chord to a new lyre. 1795 Coleridge To Pat. Cottle 28 Ere aught of perilous ascent you meet, A mead of mildest charm delays th' unlabouring feet. 1810 T. L. Peacock Genius of Thames 77 Where Lechlade sees thy current strong First waft the unlaboring bark along.

Unla·ce, v. [Un-[2] 3.]

1. trans. To undo the lace or laces of (a piece of armour, clothing, etc.); to unfasten, or loosen in this manner.

13.. Coer de L. 5171 A knyght hys armes gan unlace. 1388 Wyclif Matth. 3 Y am not worthi to..unlace his schoone. c 1400 Beryn 2426 He vnlacyd his mantell. 1470-85 Malory Arthur I. xxiii. 69 He vnlaced his helme and gate hym wynde. 1500 C'tess Pembroke Antonie 1593 His attire he vnlaces, and cast it of. 1622 C. B. Strvlvtell Mirr. Idolatrie 129 His Purple Coat he'gins for to Unlace. c 1656 Prior Love Disarmed 12 Her Boddice half way She unlac'd. 1737 Swift Poems, Nymph going to Bed 24 The lovely goddess Unlaces next her steel-rib'd bodice. a 1861 T. Woolner My Beautiful Lady, Night x, I wonder whether She now her braided opulent hair unlace. 1885 Law Rep. 15 Q.B.D. 360 The belts..could be removed from the shafting altogether by being unlaced or unbuckled. 1888 J. Payn Myst. Mirbridge viii, She instantly busied herself..in unlacing her boots.

b. In fig. context, or transf.

c 1400 Beryn 67 [He] pryuellich vnlasid his both eyen lidde, And lokyd wel aboute. a 1734 Hoccleve Min. Poems 224/231 The feruence Of Ione..Was qweynt, & loues knotte was vnlaced. 1593 G. Harvey Pierce's Super. 69 Thou mightest haue known what pan Vnbutton thy vanity, and Vnlace thy folly. c 1699 J. Beaumont Psyche xvi. xvii, Unlace my nerves, and try My finest tenderest membranes to unpin.

c. Naut. (See quot. 1769.) Also absol.

1669 Sturmy Mariner's Mag. 1 ii. 16 The Wind blows a fresh Gale.. Unlease your Bonnets. 1769 Falconer Dict. Marine (1780), Délacer la bonnette, to unlace or take off the bonnet from the foot of a sail. 1777 Cook Second Voyage III. ii. II. 18 [To] unlace that part of the sail from the yard which is between the tack and mast-head. 1886 R. C. Leslie Sea-painter's Log iii. 41 With bonnet-pieces..made to unlace instead of reef.

2. To free or relieve (a person, the body, etc.) by undoing a lace or laces. Also refl. and absol.

c 1350 Will. Paterne 3200 Þe quen kaust a knif & komli hire-selue william & his worþi fere swiftil vn-laced out of þe hidous hidus. a 1400 Sir Perc. 786 Gawayne doun lyghte, Unlacede the rede knyghte. c 1440 York Myst. xxxi. 42 My lorde, vn-lase you to my, Herode schall none pine for to crye. a 1524 W. Cornysh in Early XVI Cent. Lyrics lxii. 45 Ther wyth reuyused sche, and her smalle wast ful fast vnlast. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia II. xii, She lay for dead, till I helpt with vnlasing her. 1648 Herrick Hesper. (title), Upon Julia's unlacing her self. c 1680 Roxb. Ball. (1891) VII. 459 Do no less, then undress, and unlace, all a-pace. 1732 Gent. Dict. S.v. Swoon, To make him lie on his Back, to unbutton or unlace. 1889 Spectator 9 Nov. 693/2 Showin' their tongues Or unlacin' their lungs, For divle one symptom the docther disparages.

transf. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. VII. 26 If al the lond attonys rody grete, Enclyne, and thonke vnlased so sy hete.. 1762 Sterne Tr. Shandy vi, As if he had snatched the occasion of unlacing himself with a few more frolicsome strokes at vice, than the straitness of the pulpit allowed.

†3. To cut up or carve (in later use spec. a rabbit); to cut off in carving. Obs.

13.. Gaw. & Gr. Knt. 1606 A wyse þat was wys vpon wod craftez, To vnlace his bor luffly bigynnez. c 1460 J. Russell Bk. Nurture 410 Furst, vn-lace þe whynges, þe legges pan in sight. c 1486 Bk. St. Albans F vij b, A Cony vnlaceddle. 1508 W. de Worde Bk. Carving A j b, Vnlace that cony. 1618 Breton Court & Country Wks. (Grosart) II. 13/1 A Trencher must not be laid, nor a..Capon carued, nor a Rabbet vnlaced out of order. a 1661 Holyday Juvenal (1673) 78 'Tis no small difference, with what gesture men Of art vnlace a hare and spoil a hen. 1687 J. Shirley Accomp. Ladies Rich Closet Rarities 52 In unlacing a Coney, Turn the belly upwards, cutting the belly-pieces from the kidneys. 1771 Mrs. Haywood New Present for Maid 269 To unlace a Rabbit.

†4. To disentangle, unravel. Obs.[—]

c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. III. pr. xii. (1868) 105 Scornest þou me..þat hast so woven me wiþ þi resouns, þe house of didalus so entrelaced, þat it is vnable to hen vnlaced.

†5. fig. a. To undo or destroy; to deprive of something. Obs.

c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 2456 Of his honour, vntrouthe a knyght vnlaceth. Ibid. 3652 Dignite had ben vnlaced And vngirt of honour. 1577 Grange Golden Aphrod., etc. Q j b, Milesian vnpeaceables, your spirits mean to vnlace, And as Lucrecia did, my lyfe for to vnlace. 1604 Shaks. Oth. II. iii. 194 What's the matter That you vnlace your reputation thus.

†b. To disclose, reveal. Obs.

1567 Painter Pal. Pleas. II. xiii. (1890) II. 301, I purpose, then, to vnlace the dissolute lyues of these Mirouse Dames. 1577 Grange Golden Aphrod., etc. R iv b, Wherefore if my penne were able, well might I here vnlace my loyaltie. 1588 Stanhurst Æneis Dedic. (Arb.) 7 Yt may bee..I shal bee occasioned..too vnlace more of theese mysteries.

†c. To relax or loosen; to set free. Obs.

1610 G. Fletcher Christ's Trl. II. xlii, An intire embrace That no satietie can ere unlace. 1639 Fuller Holy War iv. iv. 48 These Hospitallers afterwards getting wealth, unlaced themselves from the strictnesse of their first Institution.

6. To strip of lace.

1598 Florio, Disfrangiare, to vnfringe, to vnlace.

Unla·ced, ppl. a. [f. prec. or Un-[1] 8.]

1. a. Having a lace or laces undone or slackened.

b. Not laced; with lace(s) unfastened.

1447 Bokenham Seynjys (Roxb.) 277 Whan the gospel shulde be Red..eeuery wyf lyeth vnlaced, Pan lyeth pay vnlaced. a 1529 Skelton E. Rummyng 133 Some wenches come vnlased, Some huswyues come vnbrased. 1582 Stanhurst Æneis IV. (Arb.) 113 Her self..standing neere the hallowd altars, Naked in her vnlaced cloth, with trock vnbraced aparraiyd. 1601 Holland Pliny II. 308 Women..with their haire hanging loose about their eares, vngirt, vnlaced, and vnbraced. 1827 Pollok Course T. VIII. 91 Unscutcheoned all,..Unlaced, uncoronetted, unsceptred. 1877 Figaro Training 79, I had never..been suffered to remain unlaced one instant longer than was absolutely necessary.

†2. Cut up, carved. Obs.[—]

1620 2nd Pt. Return Parnass. iv. l. 2326 Sometimes a messe of stewed broth will do well, and an vnlac'd Rabbet is best of all.

Unlach, obs. Sc. variant of Unlaw.

†Unla·ckable, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7 b.] Indispensable. c 1449 Pecock Repr. i. ix. 44 Thilk leernyng..is necessarie and vnlackable to Cristen men. †Unla·ckably, adv. Obs. [Un-[1] 17.] Indispensably. 1449 Pecock Repr. i. vii. 25 Ellis he were not vnlackeabil necessarie to Cristen men.

Unla·ckeyed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1784 Cowper Task II. 652 To her who, frugal only that her thrift May feed excesses she can ill afford, Is hackney'd home unlacqueyed. Unla·cqueed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash, Unlackered, not lackered.] 1833 Carlyle Misc. (1872) V. 124 The bow of brass, behold how it has got all unlacqueered.

Unla·de, v. [Un-[2] 4. Cf. OE. onhladan, OHG. intladen, MHG., MLG., G. entladen, MDu. and Du. ontladen.] To unload.

1. trans. To take a load off (a horse, cart, etc.).

1398 Trevisa Bartk. De P. R. xviii. xxviii. (Bodl. MS.), Þei leyeþ..þe stikkes and wood bitwene his legges and þies and drawiþ hem home..and vnladeþ and discharge þ hym panne. c 1489 Caxton Sonnes of Aymon iii. 103 Thenne they vnladed their somers & theyr cartes. 1494 Cov. Leet Bk. 537 To drive his Cart laden with Otes into pe Croschepyng & there to vnlade the seid Cart. 1622 Fletcher Span. Curr. ii. i, I have the mony ready, and I am weary...Pray ye Sir, unlade me. 1658 Congreve Mourn. Bride Alcazir 6 Thither, let all th' industrious Bees repair, Unlade their Thighs, and leave their Honey there. 1760-72 H. Brooke Fool of Quat. (1809) III. 64 Some arose, and unladed two asses of the creels..they carried.

fig. a 1592 T. WATSON Teares of Fancie xlii, Vnlade me of the burthen...emulous fates...Haue heapt vpon me.

b. To take the cargo out of (a ship). Also in fig. context.

c 1489 CAXTON Sonnes of Aymon 325 As they vnladed the ship. 1555 EDEN Decades (Arb.) 240 The port...isso..commodious to defraight or vnlade shyppes, as [etc.]. 1586 B. YOUNG Guazzo's Civ. Conv. iv. 19 b If you thinke..your stomacke will not serue you to vnlade all the ship, let me helpe you. 1642 MILTON Apol. Smect. 36 He must cut out large docks and creeks into his text to vnlade the foolish frigate of his vnseasonable autorities. 1693 Lond. Gaz. No. 2838/2 They are now Vnlading her, but the Goods are very much Damnified. 1781 GIBBON Decl. & F. xxiv. (1787) II. 443 Fourscore vessels were gradually unladen. 1864 TENNYSON En. Ard. 822 He..help'd At lading and vnlading the tall barks. 1871 KINGSLEY At Last ii, Along the beach a market...with canoes drawn up to be unladen.

refl. 1666 DRYDEN Annu. Mirab. cccv, The vent'rous Merchant..Shall here unlade him, and depart no more. 1850 GEO. ELIOT Mill on Floss i. xii, Where the black ships unlade themselves of their burthens.

c. To unburthen or relieve by the removal or discharge of something. Chiefly fig. and const. of.

1581 J. BELL Haddon's Answ. Osor. 265 b, To unlade you of some cholericke humours. c 1600 CHAPMAN Theophan. & Cl. (1683) 127 Cattel gan to low Homewards t'unlade their milky bags. 1688 Pulpit-Sayings 29 When a Man unlades himself of all his Sins. 1790 ROWE Fair Penit. i. 1, Let me unlade my Breast. 1808 WORDSW. DUNTON Aylesfo VII. iii, Unlading the mind of the trash previously called knowledge.

2. To discharge (a cargo, etc.) from a ship.

1427-8 Rec. St. Mary at Hill 68 For cariage of ij lode fro Cambregges key, ladyng & vnladyng, xiiij d. 1542-3 Act 34 & 35 Hen. VIII, c. 8 § 4 The persons..doe caste or vnlade out of any..ship..Balast rubbishe gravell or any other wracke. 1590 WEBBE Trav. (Arb.) 19 We vnladed our bourden at Naire. 1612 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. V. 467 Goodes to be vnladen and brought, vnladen on Sunday in June 9a/1 All cargoes must be unladed between sunrise and sunset.

b. To discharge or get rid of; to put off or lay down (a burden, etc.); to unpack or bring forth. Chiefly fig.

1591 SPENSER Daphn. lxx, There will I..the huge burden of my cares vnlade. 1599 CHAPMAN Humorous Days Mirth F 4 b, Forth and vnlade the poyson of thy tongue. 1639 J. SHIRLEY Maid's Rev. ii. 1 D 3, Ere you let fall words of welcome, Let me unlade a treasuresin your eare. 1822 CRABBE Tales, Arabella 283 When all inquiries had been duly made, Came the kind friend her burthen to unlade. 1822 LAMB Elia i. Imperfect Sympathies, He..unlades his stock of ideas in perfect order.

3. absol. To discharge a cargo or cargoes.

1547 Privy Council Acts (1890) II. 466 If he unladed there, he might cary the vytayles a good way after by the river. 1568 GRAFTON Chron. II. 567 The ships..were forced to vnlade at Dover. 1666 Lond. Gaz. 69/4 A large Ketch..is likewise arrived with Deales, and is to unlade in this Harbor. 1774 E. JACOB Faversham 15 Where the great Vessels used to unlade. 1796 MORSE Amer. Geogr. II. 24 Large ships may..lade and unlade close to the warehouses. 1863 SUSAN WARNER Old Helmet xxxv, At Tonga she was detained a week and more, unlading and taking in stores. 1879 FARRAR St. Paul II. 405 The wharfs where the barges..were accustomed to unlade.

b. To discharge a burden, contents, etc. Also fig.

1629 MASSINGER Picture iv. ii, You may safer run vpon The mouth of a cannon, when it is vnlading. 1917 BULLOCK Wom. a Riddle i. i, What adventure is this you are so full of? come, unlade, unlade. 1862 GOURMONT Pens. Relig. xii. viii, (1893) 226 While caravans were unlading or making up their complement of passengers.

†4. trans. To discharge (a fire-arm). Inquot. fig.

1649 G. DANIEL Trinarch., Rich. II, cxxliii, T'has overcharg'd & yet vnwilling to Vnlade Himselfe by the first Match that came.

Hence Unla·ding ppl. a.

1607 CHAPMAN Bussy d'Ambois III. ii. 38 I'll..so thump his liver, That, like a huge unlading Argosy, He shall confess all.

Unla·den, ppl. a. [UN-1 8 b.] Unloaded.

†1802 FORSTER Arabian Nights (1839) 393/1, I was returning from Balsora with my camels unladen, which I had conducted thither with goods to be embarked for India. 1820 SHELLEY Witch A. lxviii, The wizard-maiden..with an eye serene and heart unladen. 1849 EASTWICK Dry Leaves 70 Send no camels unladen, if you have wherewith to lade them.

Unla·ding, vbl. sb. [i. UNLADE v.] The action of unloading or discharging.

1428-9 Rec. St. Mary at Hill 70 Also paid..for pe caryage & ladyng & vnladyng, ix d. 1627 J. TAYLOR (Water P.) Navy of Land Ships Wks. (1630) 82/1 The often returnes, lacing and vnlading of this ship. 1691 Lond. Gaz. No. 2656/2 That no such..Vessel shall be above Ten days in Vnlading. 1726 LEONI Alberti's Archit. I. 75 b, For the more easy unlading of the Shipping. 1818 Sporting Mag. II. 161 Hogarth has already given the picture of the unlading of a stage coach. 1849 EASTWICK Dry Leaves 210 Affording great facilities for the unlading or shipment of cargoes.

b. attrib., as unlading place, port, time.

1561 FLORIO, Sbarco..[An] vnlading place for ships. 1681 Cal. Treas. Bks. v The books of the unlading port. 1755 MAGENS Insurances I. 48 The customary unlading Places in that Port. 1884 J. PARKER Apost. Life III. 67 We must have landing places, and unlading times...in life.

Unla·dyned, ppl. a. (UN-2 6 c.) 1612 N. FIELD Wom. a Weathercock v. ii, Know That I am married to this gentleman..What ease I find being unladified!

Unla·dylike, a. (UN-1 7 c.)

1824 MISS MITFORD Village Ser. I. 229 A very discreditable and unladylike partiality, of which I am quite ashamed. 1856 WHYTE-MELVILLE Kate Coventry v. 4 She said it was improper and unladylike, and even unfeminine.

Unlage, obs. variant of UNLAW.

Unlai·d, ppl. a. and sb. [UN-1 8 b. Cf. ON. ólagðr; also Du. ongelegd, G. ungelegt (of eggs).]

1. Not laid, placed, or set.

1468-9 Paston Lett. Suppl. (1901) 124 The lenger that it [sc. the roof-tile] lythe unleyd the wers it wyll be. 1579 LYNDE Hamlh. 197 Vnlayd, non positus. 1597 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. v. lvi. § 3 The first foundation of the world being as yet vnlayd. 1656 OSBORNE Adv. Son Lett., Wks. 1722 I. B 5, The severest Curse remaining in the custody of Fortune, yet unlaid upon me. 1872 Daily News 12 Aug., The spot where the final stone of the great structure yet hung unlaid.

b. † Laid out (as a corpse); laid in the grave.

c 1635 B. JONSON Underwoods, Petition Chan. I, Parts of me they judg'd decay'd; But we last out still unlay'd.

c. Of a hedge: (see LAY v.[1] 6 b).

1868 Rep. U.S. Commissioner Agric. (1869) 255 If..the shoots are cut toward the bottom growth of the wood as downward in an unlaid one, or against the leaning direction of the layers in a laid hedge.

2. Of spirits: Not laid by exorcism.

1611 SHAKS. Cymb. iv. ii. 278 Guid. Ghost vnlaid forbeare thee. Arui. Nothing lift come neere thee. 1634 MILTON Comus 434 No power in this ghost, wonted to haunt Plaies, or graues, or sorrowful vnlaid ghost,..Hath hurtfull power o're true virginity. 1780 BURKE Econ. Reform Wks. III. 207 Ghosts of unlaid accountants, haunt the houses. 1806 MOORE Epist. VIII. i, Pagan spirits, by the Pope unlaid. 1832 WORDSW. 'The forest hige' 11 The feudal Warrior-chief, a Ghost unlaid, Hath still his castle. 1888 (title), Unlaid Ghost: a Study in Metempsychosis.

3. Not laid open, out, etc.

1608 SHAKES. Per. I. ii. 89 How many worthy princes' bloods were shed, To keep his bed of blackness unlaid ope. 1674 N. FAIRFAX Bulk & Selv. 62 Though they be unlaid out in themselves, they may be laid out by body laid in.

4. Not covered or plated with something.

1648 HERRICK Hesp. 111, Ungeldschek, Vnlaid with plates of Lettine.

5. In technical uses, e.g. of a rope (see LAY v. 37), of paper (see LAID ppl. a.), etc.

In recent dicts.

6. sb. A blanket made from untarred wool. Sc.

a 1869 J. YOUNGER Autobiog. (1881) iv. 38 He rolled up his pipes, bag and all, in the blankets above him ...—which bag imparted the tobacco-flavour again to her best white unlaids.

Unlame, a. [UN-1 7.] † Wholly free. a 1300 Cursor M. 21045 [John] was o lust vn-lame. Unla·med, ppl. a. (UN-1 8. Cf. MLG. ungelemt). c 1470 Gol. & Gaw. 442 Sauand my seruyssey fra vnbeclouing, And my lordschip vn-lamyt, withouth legiance. 1839 CARLYLE Chartism iii. (1840) 23 His unlamed right-hand,..is not this defined to be 'the sceptre of our Planet'?

Unlamented, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1595 DANIEL Civ. Wars I. xx, A tyrant loth'd,..Poysoned he dies, disgrac'd, and vnlamented. 1625 MASSINGER Rom. Actor v. ii, Such as governed only by their will,..unlamented fall. 1647 CLARENDON Hist. Reb. i. § 115 He died lamented by any, little by mentioned by most. 1777 POPE Elegy Unfort. Lady 43 Thus unlamented pass the proud away. 1818 SHELLEY Rosal. & Helen 231, I watched..My husband's unlamented tomb. 1896 Pop. Sci. Yrnl. L. 277 The old systems that lie unlamented in their graves.

Unlampoo·ned, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1828 SOUTHEY To A. Cunningham 36 Extend those laws Till every chimney its own smoke consume, And give thenceforth thy dinners unlampoon'd. Unla·nced, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1593 G. HARVEY Pierce's Super. 26 Where..the filthiest corruption of abhominable villany [may] passe vnlanced. 1643 FULLER Serm. 27 May. 7 Sometimes Chirurgions leave their cures unlanc't [sic].

†Unland, sb. Sc. Obs. [UN-1 12. Cf. OE. unland, ON. óland, WFris. onlân, unlân, MDu. onlant (Du. onland), MLG. unlant, LG. and G. unland.] Unarable land.

1573-4 Reg. Mag. Sig. Scot. 577/2 Terras arabiles lie corneland, terras non arabiles lie unland. 1611 Ibid. 250/2 Cum..pasca, pratis, wardis (lie unland seu tedderingis) et silvis apud idem.

Unla·nd, v. [UN-2 4.] trans. To deprive of land.

a 1662 FULLER Worthies, Monmouth. IV. (1662) 51 But one Bishop..more unlanded Llandaff in one, than all his Predecessors endowed it in four hundred years.

Unla·nded, a. [UN-1 9.] Not possessed of land.

1488 Sc. Acts, Jas. IV (1814) II. 207/2 The gudis movabill belanging to the pure vnlandit folkis. 1530 Extr. Aberd. Reg. (1844) I. 238 Ile gentilman landit Ile lib., Ilk gentilman vnlandit Ile marks. 1581 MULCASTER Positions xxxix. 299 Either rich or poore: landed or vnlanded. 1633 FORD Love's Sacr. IV. i, The sallow-colour'd brat Of some unlanded bankrupt. 1668 SEDLEY Mulberry Gard. III. ii, Give your estate where you will, so you will but settle your affection upon me,..and the like artillery of unlanded lovers. 1884 Pall Mall G. 2 April 2/2 The rights of the unlanded millions.

Unla·ndmarked, a. (UN-1 9.) 1870 LOWELL Among my Bks. Ser. I. 224 The unlandmarked deep of speculation.

Unla·nguaged, a. [UN-1 9.]

1. Not gifted with speech.

1654 DAVENANT in Earl Monm. Bentivoglio's Warrs Flanders 5 b, The ceaseless nature of your Kindness then, Still ready to inform un-language'd Men, Deserves less Praise [etc.]. 1860 H. BUSHNELL God in Christ i. 12 There is no difficulty in perceiving how our two unlanguaged men will proceed.

2. Not expressed in articulate speech.

1846-8 LOWELL Biglow P. Ser. I. ii. Introd. Let,..the unlanguaged prattlings of infants. 1860 FABER Bethlehem 200 To what numberless unlanguaged and unsung Magnificats do not all this give rise.

Una·lterned, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1826 LAMB Elia II. Pop. palaeics xv, It has a sombre cast,..derived from the tradition of those unlantern'd nights.

Unla·p, v. Now rare. [UN-2 4.]

1. trans. To uncover by withdrawing a cloth or the like. Also refl. and fig.

13..E. E. Allit. P. A. 214 As schorne golde schyr her fax pesne schon. On schyldeez pat leghe vnlapped lyste. c 1440 York Myst. xxx. 256 Vnlappe yow belyve wher ye lye. 1656 BAXTER Reformed Pastor 269 If a cripple do but unlap his sores. 1664 MRS. HUTCHINSON Mem. Col. Hutchinson (1806) 441 Satisfied with this, they did not unlap the body. 1809 MAR. EDGEWORTH Manœuvring xv, The influence of her..prettiness, joined to the power of my mother's irresistible address, have almost tripped me in slyness... But ..I unlapped myself. 1886- in dial. glossaries, etc. (Yks., Lancs., Chesh.).

2. To unfold; to spread open. Also intr.

a 1400-50 Alexander 1932 Pire princes, sone as he pistill was put pam in hand,..Vn-lappis liptly be lefe & be line redes. 1501 DOUGLAS Pal. Hon. Prol. 37 The dasy and the marygold vnlappit, Quhilks al the nicht lay with their leuis happit. 1586 W. TRAVERS Suppltic. Privy Council (1612) 23 Tapestrie which..being vnlapt and laid open, showeth plainely to the eye all the worke that is in it.

3. To detach in a strip or flap.

1834-6 Encycl. Metrop. (1845) VIII. 103/2 A curve traced by the extremity of the thread FC, unlapped from the circumference. Ibid., Let the acting face of the tooth b be formed by unlapping a thread from its circumference.

Hence Unla·pping vbl. sb.

1839 UREE Dict. Arts, etc. 233 In the course of the lapping and unlapping of such a length of webs.

Unlapsed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1668 H. MORE Div. Dial. IV. vii. 26 His Dominion..over Angels, whether lapsed or unlapsed. 1740 CHEYNE Regimen 207 Unlapsed, tried and purified angelical Hierarchies. Unla·rded, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1748 CHESTERF. Lett. 20 Feb., Speak the language, purely, and unlarded with any other. Unla·rge, a. [UN-1 7.] † Not generous in giving. 1483 Cath. Angl. 208/2 Vn Large, illiberalis. Unlaso·rious, a. (UN-1 7.) 1593 NASHE Strange News E 3 There is no other unlasciuious vse or end of poetry but to..magnifie vertue.

Unla·sh, v. [UN-2 4 b.]

1. trans. To detach or release by undoing a lashing.

1748 SMOLLETT R. Random xxvi, Our hammocks..were immediately unlashed. 1850 R. G. CUMMING Hunter's Life S. Afr. (1902) 102/2 Returning to the waggons, I commenced to unlash from the side of one of them a shovel. 1862 Catal. Internat. Exhib. II. No. 2659, Improved systems of unlashing..ships' boats. 1879 FARRAR St. Paul IX. xiiii. II. 379 They began to unlash the boat and lower her into the sea.

2. To undo or untie (a lashing).

1853 SIR H. DOUGLAS Milit. Bridges (ed. 3) 67 Nos. 1 and 3 unlash the [Pontoon] Lashings. 1870 Milit. Engineering 347 At the word Unlash, each man stoops down, and casts off the lashing in front of him.

Unla·shed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) Not scourged. 1761 CHURCHILL Rosciad 500 Actors, unlash'd themselves, may lash mankind. † Unlast v. Obs. [UN-1 14.] intr. To land to last. (A misunderstanding of L. indurare.) a 1300 E. E. Psalter lxxxix. 6 It wites als gresse areli at dai;..At euen doun es it broght, Un-lastes, and welkes, and gus to noght.

Unla·sting, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

1585 ABP. SANDYS Serm. lx. 146 Mans life is as vnlasting as a flower. 1790 A. WILSON Epist. to A. Clarke Poet. Wks. (1846) 48 Struggling hard for base unlasting peif.

Unla·tch, v. [UN-2 3.]

1. trans. To undo the latch or catch of (a door, etc.); to unfasten in this way.

1602 H. MORE Song of Soul I. iv. 6 Then stiller whispering winds dark visions unlatch. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis vi. 704 Mean time my worthy wife..The door unlatch'd. 1822 BYRON Werner IV. i. 434 Who..Unlatch'd the door of death for thee. 1893 MISS HOUGHTON Nimpo I. 54 Unlatching the gate in the fence. 1890 Anthony's Photogr. Bull. III. 200 The bellows is closed up, it is now allowed to fall open, when unlatched, by a catch on the side and top.

b. intr. To become, or admit of being, thus unfastened.

1891 B. TAYLOR Faust (1895) I. i. 12 The gate of gold no more unlatches. 1875 BLACKMORE A. Lorraine xviii, The gate at this end unlatches.

2. trans. To unlace (shoes). Cf. LATCHET 1 c.

1880 L. WALLACE Ben-Hur 255 Another unlatched Ben-Hur's Roman shoes.

Unlatched, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) Not fastened by a latch. 1888 Daily News 5 Dec. 7/5 An unlatched window. 1901 Munsey's Mag. XXV. 435/1 [He] had left the flat door unlatched. † Unla·ted, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [UN-1 8.] Undisciplined. a 1449 in Bower Fordun's Scotichron. (1759) II. 376 The unlatit woman the licht man will lait. Unla·thed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1854 H. MILLER Sch. & Schm. (1858) 44 A mud floor below, and an unlathed roof above. † Un-La·tin, a. (UN-1 7.) 1—1 next. 1695 T. TULLY Let. to Baxter 2 Only I beg your leave to English it for the sake of your un-latine Readers. † Unla·tined, a. Obs. [UN-1 9.] Not acquainted with Latin. 1550 HARINGTON tr. Cicero's Bk. Friendship (1562) Pref. A iij b, How so euer it [sc. this translation] shall pyke lyked of the learned, I hope it shalbe allowed of the vnlatined. 1570 DEE Math. Pref. A ij b, Being vnlatined people, and not Vniuersitie Scholers. Unla·tinize, v. (UN-2 6 c.) 1836 Penny Cycl. V. 325 Published..by Conrad Aslacus (we cannot unlatinize Gassendi's name). 1847 DE MORGAN Arith. Bks. p. viii, Why the unlatinizing process should..be practised by the learned only. Unla·ticed, ppl. a. (UN-2 8.) 1820 SCOTT Abbot ix, An unlaticed aperture gave him the view of the demolished garden.

Unlauch, obs. Sc. form of Unlaw.

Unlau·dable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b. Cf. Illaudable.] 1559 Thomas Ital. Dict. Disprezevole, shamefull or vnlaudable. 1673 Ladyʼs Call. ii. i. § 12 Some very unlaudable qualities of a woman. 1826 Q. Rev. XXXIV. 451 Playing small games,..an innocent and not unlaudable pastime.

Hence Unlau·dableness.

1744 [Garrick] Essay on Actin. 26 A farther Confirmation of the Unlaudableness of such Proceedings.

Unlau·gh, v. (Un-[1] 3.) 1532 More Confut. Tindale Wks. 684/2 Tindall must of reason gyue vs leaue to laugh at hys proude inuented folye. And I shall find hym fower sturties..that at what tyme hereafter he prouoke himselfe a true prophete, I shall vppon reasonable warning onlaughe agayn it al. 1637 J. Williams Holy Treble 153 You must unlaugh again this foolish Laughter. †Unlau·ght, ppl. a. Obs.—[1] [Un-[1] 8 b+laght, obs. pp. pole. of Latch v.] Tinseized, untaken. c 1400 Destr. Troy 3237 The Troiens.. Leite noght vnlaught bat lykyng was in.

†Unlau·ghter-mild, a. Obs.—[1] [Un-[1] 7: cf. ON. hlátr-mildr, Da. latermild, prone to laugh.] Not given to laughter or mirth.

a 1300 Cursor M. 3983 Had he noght rested bot a thrau, O maidens sagh he cum on raw; Pe formast was vnlaghter milde, Hir semed na wight to be wilde.

Unlauncelmed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1810 Byron Occas. P., Nurse's Dole 3 The good ship Argo..still unlaunch'd from Gretton dock. 1863 P. Barry Rockwood Econ. 128 To allow the unlaunched ship to remain and rot.

Unlau·relled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1812 Byron Ch. Har. i. xci, Thus unlaurel'd to descend in vain, By all forgotten. 1866 Merivale Rome. xxxvi. V. 63 The Mamertani.. had kept Tiberius himself at bay, and sent him back unlaurelled across the Danube. Unla·ving, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1834 Lytton Pompeii i. vii, Those who took only the cold bath..withdrew into that graceful..building..to shame the unlaving posterity of the south. Unla·vish, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1728 Thomson Spring 733 Unlavish Wisdom never works in vain. Unla·vished, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1743 Shenstone Elegies xix. 22 He blam'd..My time, unlavish'd in pursuit of pow'r.

U·nlaw, sb. [OE. unlagu (Un-[1] 12), = ON. ólög (pl.), Icel. ólög, Norw. ulag, Sw. olog, MDa. ulog (Da. ulov).]

1. Illegal action; illegality.

After the early 14th cent. only in occasional Sc. use, but revived by recent writers.

1008 Laws Ethelred (Lieberm.) I. 296 Þæt man rihta læne up-arære & ælce unlaga georne afylle. a 1200 in Kemble Cod. Dipl. IV. 195 Ich nelle suððen þat man hym eny unlawe beode. 1297 R. Glouc. (Rolls) 9705 Suþ..eni man made is pel, suf me dude him vnlawe. a 1300 Cursor M. 10136 þe lauerd þat bidd þe man wit-stand, Vnlau it es to tell in land. 1303 R. Brunne Handl. Synne 8795 Syþ þou dedyst euer þat vnlawe, A man oure of holy cherche to drawe. 1328 Sc. Act. Parlt. (1844) I. 471 Forth & wan wynnyng quod dicitur wrang et unlaw. 14.. Ibid. 347/2 Bot þai hald na court of lyfe and lym bot of iniur and vnreson þat is to say wrang and vnlaw. 1609 Skene Reg. Maj., Stat. Robt. I, 23 Sa lang as he or his predecessour defends tort and non reason, that is, wrang and vnlach (that is to haue done na iniurie, nor vnreason against the Law).

1872 Freeman Norm. Conq. xxi. IV. 620 This state of things was what our fathers called unlaw. 1896 Ibid. xxii. V. 52. 1881 Pusey (title), Unlaw in Judgements of the Judicial Committee of Privy Council. 1883 Br. E. H. Browne Serm. Reading Congress 15 The conflict between law and unlaw, between Christianity and irreligion.

†b. An evil custom or habit. Obs.—[1]

a 1225 Juliana 72 Bireowse3 ower sunnen,..leaue3 ower unlahen.

†2. Sc. A fine or amercement; a penalty. Obs.

1424 Sc. Acts, Jas. I (1814) II. 5/1 Quha sa euer be continckit..he sall pay xl. s. for þe vnlawe. 1459 in Laing Charters (1899) 37 Sowtyr and vnlawe, amerciamentis and all vther fautis. 1496 Acta Dom. Conc. II. 2 Ane unlaw of xl s. 1541 Rec. Elgin (1903) I. 65 The baxstaris for thair falt salbe punist..with viii s. of vnlaw. 1613 in Northern N. & Q. I. 74 Under the payne of ane vnlaw of ane pound Fleymis. 1678 Sir G. Mackenzie Crim. Laws Scot. I. xix. § 15 The Unlaw to be ten Pound. 1732 J. Louthian Form of Process 273 Fines, Amerciaments, or Unlaws inflicted upon Offenders,..sometimes ordained wholly to be paid to the King. 1767 in Craig & Laing Hawick Tradition (1898) 243 [He] is not worth the King's unlaw, being on the Parish Roll or Poors List.

†Unlaw, v. [E. proc., or Un-[2] 3, 7.]

†1. trans. (also absol.) To fine, amerce. Sc. Obs.

14.. in Sc. Acts Parlt. (1844) I. 710/2 Item..to his [sc. the justice's] clerk for þai man vnlawit or sald, ij s. 1491 [see the vbl. sb.]. 1508 Reg. Privy Seal Scott. I. 244/2 That nane of 30w presume to call, gef sentence, unlaw..the said Johnne. 1564 Reg. Privy Council Scot. I. 307 [He] wes unlawit in the soum..of ane thowsand marks. 1613 in R. M. Fergusson A. Hume (1899) 199 The counsall ..have..unlawit the said Adam..for his said offence. 1678 Sir G. Mackenzie Crim. Laws Scot. II. xiii. § 3 A Barron may unlaw for Absence, for ten Pounds. 1710 in J. J. Vernon Parr. & Kirk Hawick (1900) 203 [They] were each of them..fyned and unlawed in egregious rytotts. 1732 J. Louthian Form of Process 297 The several Sheriff Deputes,..if any be absent,..are unlawed in 100 Merks each.

†b. intr. To pay a fine. Obs.—[1]

1692 in W. Hector Judic. Rec. Renfrew (1876) 54 Ilk ane o'them ought to unlaw to the Pror.-Fiscal.

2. trans. To annul (a law). Also refl. rare.

1644 Milton Areop. (Arb.) 76 That also..no law can possibly permit, that intends not to unlaw it self. 1654 Cromwell Sp. 12 Sept. (Carlyle), Of what assurance is a Law to prevent so great an evil, if it lie in the same Legislature to unlaw it again?

Hence Unlaw·ing vbl. sb.

1491 Acta Dom. Audit. (1839) 164/1 þe vnlawing of þe said alexr. blare. 1511 Reg. Privy Seal Scott. I. 351/2 That thai desist..fra all..unlawing, forfaltin and proceding agains the said David. 1651 N. Bacon Disc. Govt. Eng. II. xxvii. 213 The King hath a power of Lawing, and Unlawing in Christs kingdome.

Unlawed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. (See Law v. 3, Expeditate v.)

1598 Manwood Laws Forest xvi. 92 The owners..are to be amerced 3*s.* for the keeping of such Dogges vnlawed. 1659 Termes de la Ley 163 b/2 A privilege to keep Dogges within the Forrest unlawed without punishment. 1685 Bray First. Eng. App. 142 (tr. Charter of Forests), He whose Dog at such time shall be found unlawed. 1913 Contemp. Rev. Oct. 560 It was considered a great honour to be allowed to keep unlawed dogs for pleasure of the chase.

2. Exempt from law.

1880 Mem. J. Legge 291 Miracle is not an unlawed interference.

Unlaw·ful, a. and adv. [Un-[1] 7, 11 b.]

1. Contrary to law; prohibited by law; illegal.

a 1300 Cursor M. 29516 þat cursing tald vn-laghful es þat ordynes sutes right-wisnes O legh. 1398 Trevisa Bartholde. De P. R. ix. xxvi. (Bodl. MS.), It was holde vnlawefulle to goo more wey one þe seturdaie. c 1430 Syr Gener. (Roxb.) 9024 Here ye thes vnlawful reasouns Mi lord the Soudon seith vs warnyd. 1475 Cov. Leet Bk. 418 Vnlawfull & hurtfull ordenaunces made by the seid dyers. Ibid., Vnlawfull othes and wrytynges. 1515 in W. H. Turner Select. Rec. Oxford (1886) 13 William Flemynge usith ..unlawfull mesures, that is to seyn, an unlawfull yerde. 1581 [see next]. a 1613 Overbury A Wife, etc. (1614) B 4 b, Some lawfull things to be annoyded are, when they occasion of vnlawfull be. 1652 Needham tr. Selden's Mare Cl. 449 Anie other prohibited places and unlawful Ports whatsoever, in the Kingdoms of Denmark, Sweden, and Norway. 1667-8 Marvell Corr. Wks. (Grosart) II. 239 The unlawfull meetings of Papists and Non-conformists. 1805 Southey Madoc in W. xv. 131 Becket did excommunicate thy sire For his unlawful marriage. 1891 Farrar Darkn. & Dawn liv. A fresh edict..which declared Christianity to be an unlawful religion.

b. Unlawful assembly : (see quots. 1581, 1841). 1481 Rolls of Parlt. VI. 287/2 Maintenance, Imbracerie, Riotts, or unlawfull Assemblie. 1549 Act Edw. IV, c. 5 (heading). An Acte for the punyshment of Unlawfull Assemblyes. 1581 Lambarde Eiren. I. xix. 175 An Vnlawful Assembly is, ye company of three persons (or more) gathered togither to doe..an vnlawfull acte. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. II. xxii. 123 It is not a set number that makes the Assembly Unlawfull, but such a number [etc.]. 1654 Act 16 Chas. II, c. iv. § 8 Any person who shall..suffer any such Convention, or unlawfull Assembly or Meeteing aforesaid to be held in his or her House. 1714 Act Geo. I, c. 5. § Any such unlawful, riotous, and tumultuous Assembly. 1842 Penny Cycl. XX. 17/1 It is an unlawful assembly when great numbers of people meet together with such circumstances of behaviour as to raise the fears of their fellow-subjects, and to endanger the public peace.

c. Of offspring: Illegitimate.

1666 Sparks Ant. & Cl. III. vii. 7 All the unlawfull issue, that their Lust Since then hath made betweene them. 1833 Disraeli Cont. Fiam. I. i, The unlawful children of ignorance and expediency.

2. Not permissible; contrary to moral standards or spiritual principles.

c 1495 Knight Taxes 120 (Ritson), The knight..Which with your lady was talkinge Of love unlawfull pryvely. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 45 They profyte moche in ye refreynynge..of vnlawfull pleasures. 1590 Shaks. Com. Err. II. i. 96 Hath not this eye Stray'd his affection in vnlawfull loue? 1601 — All's Well III. v. 73 May be the amorous Count solicites her In the vnlawfull purpose. 1641 J. Jackson True Evang. T. III. 206 That Anabaptistical tenet..that all wares were strictly vnlawfull under the Gospel. 1751 Johnson Rambler No. 178 ¶ 4 The allurements of unlawful pleasure. 1827 Lytton Falkland 81 How fearful, how selfish, how degrading, is unlawful love! 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. viii. II. 244 He cannot be accused of having deviated from the path of right in search..of unlawful pleasure.

3. Of persons: Not obeying the law; acting or ruling illegally.

1429 Rolls of Parlt. IV. 344/1 Unlawful hunters of Deresies, Parkes or Warennes. †1536 Anne Boleyn Harl. Misc. (1809) III. 62 Mine offence being so lawfully proved, your Grace is at liberty..to execute worthy punisiment on me as an unlawful wife. 1582 Satir. Poems Reform. xliv. 219 Moyses forbad you to gisse the nichbouris wyf the vnlawfull husbandis cumpanie. 1603 Shaks. Meas. for M. iv. ii. 26, I haue beene an vnlawfull bawd. 1643 Prynne Sov. Power Parl. 1 (ed. 2) 49 These Lawes..are the Acts of the..Commons themselves, which are lawfull; not of the usurping King, who is unlawfull. 1859 Dickens T. Two Cities ii. i, The unlawful opener of a letter was put to death.

4. Contrary to rule; irregular.

1795 T. Cooke Tales, etc. 208 The same Word in the Greek and Latin likewise has unlawful Degrees of Comparison. 1836 J. R. Major Guide Grk. Treg. 117 In Iambic verse it is unlawful to divide the anapæst between two words.

†5. As adv. = next. Obs.

1477 in Surtees Misc. (1890) 27 William Bacon holdes ij dogges unlawfull.

Unlaw·fully, adv. [Un-[1] 11.]

1. In an unlawful manner; illegally.

a 1310 in Wright Lyric P. xvi, 53 That he wolde..Me lede to my lyves ende, unlahfulliche in lyhte. 1393 Langl. P. Pl. C. iv. 290 As he sauter shewep by suche as 3euen mede, þat vnlawfulliche lyuen, hauen large honden. 1481 Rolls of Parlt. IV. 57/1 The processe of myn outelawery was unlawfully made. 1456 Sir G. Haye Law Arms (S.T.S.) 134 Injure or violence unlaufully usurpit. 1549 Cheke Hort Scrift. (1569) D iij b, If their goodes..shall vnlawfully and vnorderly..be spoyled. 1653 Urquhart's Logopandecteision H iij b, Unlawfully-acquired goods. 1685 Baxter Paraphr. N. T., Mark i. 44 The unlawfully called and bad priests. 1710 Act 9 Anne c. 16 If any Person..shall unlawfully attempt to kill, or shall unlawfully assault..one of the most Honourable Privy Council. 1824 Mackintosh Sp. Ho. Comm. 1 June, Wks. 1846 III. 401 Whether a British subject has been lawfully or unlawfully condemned to death. 1844 Kinglake Eothen xxv. 1 The Mahometan authorities..were conscious of having acted unlawfully.

2. Illegitimately.

1552 Elyot, Illegitimi, vnlaufully begotten, bastardes. 1596 Dalrymple tr. Leslie's Hist. Scot. (S.T.S.) I. 132 Albit Bastardis, or vnlawfullie gotten and borne. 1603 Shaks. Meas. for M. iii. i. 196 Rather..then my sonne should be vnlawfullie borne. 1711 Addison Spect. No. 203 What Part I, being unlawfully born, may claim of the Man's Affection who begot me. 1755 Johnson, Illegitimate, unlawfully begotten; not begotten in wedlock.

Unlaw·fulness. [Un-[1] 12.]

†1. Unlawful (or disloyal) conduct. Obs.

c 1500 Melusine i. 24 Ye ne oughte to retche ne care more of the vnlawfulness [F. deslauté] & falshed of cure fader. 1532 Tindale Exp. 1 John (1537) 53 That the Lordyshe caileth here vnrygthteousnesse the Greke called Anomia, vnlawfulnesse or breakynge yᵉ lawe. 1613 Purchas Pilgrimage (1614) 98 ¶ he Formall part of sinne, being nothing else but a deformitie..and vnlawfulnesse in our naturall condition.

2. The quality of being unlawful; illegality.

1593 Sidney's Arcadia III. (1922) II. 48 Now that love.. had awaked her spirits, and perchance the very unlawfulness of it had a little blowne the coale. 1631 Gouge God's Arrows I. § 18. 25 That shewes the frailty of the person, not the unlawfulnesse of the action. 1673 S. Dugard (title), Marriages of Consin Germans, Vindicated from the Censures of Unlawfulnesse and Inexpediency. 1720 Wodrow Corr. (1843) II. 522 The treatise I sent you of the Unlawfulness of Limited Episcopacy is answered. a 1779 Warburton Alliance II. Wks. 1788 IV. 290 The unlawfulness of tithes,.. the unlawfulness of Pluralities. 1824 Mackintosh Sp. Ho. Comm. 1 June, Wks. 1846 III. 415 The unlawfulness and nullity of the proceedings. 1874 Motley Barneveld II. xviii. 86 Doctors ever wanting to prove the unlawfulness of law which interferes with the purposes of a despot.

b. Illegitimacy. (Todd, 1818.)

Unlaw·learned, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1810 Bentham Offic. Apt. Maximized, Def. Econ. (1830) 23 To a plain and unlaw-learned understanding, they cannot both be good. Unlaw·like, a. (Un-[1] 7 c.) 1649 Milton Eikon. vi. 53 A remedy so slender and unlawlike.

Unlawly, adv.: see Un-[1] 3.

†Unlaw·ty. Sc. Obs. [Un-[1] 12.] Disloyalty, unfaithfulness. 1456 Sir G. Haye Law Arms (S.T.S.) 172 Of this wrechit disobeysance cummys untreuth and unlautee. 1568 in Bannatyne MS. (Hunterian Cl. 1896) 30 Go follow thame, quha list vnlawty leir. Unlaw·yered, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1602 Middleton Phœnix iv. i, One quiet, suffering, and unlawyer'd man. Unlaw·yer-like, a. (Un-[1] 7 c.) 1874 Jessel Cases J. Gwynne I. iii. 24 Nor were these talents not marred by those unlawyer-like attributes. †Unlay, sb. Sc. Obs. [Un-[1] 12 + Lay sb.] = Unlaw sb. 2. 1503 Sc. Acts, Jas. IV (1814) II. 240/2 At þat be ane punt of dittay in tyme to cum, and at þe vnlay þerof be x li. Ibid., Item, as anent þe vnlay of þe grene wod.

Unlay·, v. [Un-[2] 3.] trans. To untwist (a rope) into separate strands.

1726 Shelvocke Voy. round World 436 Till we could unlay our best cable to make more. 1748 Anson's Voy. II. ii. 135 We were..obliged to unlay a cable to work into running rigging. 1831 Jane Porter Sir E. Seaward's Narr. I. 123, I also took thence a piece of rope, which I unlaid. c 1860 H. Stuart Seaman's Catech. 28 Unlay the other two strands.

Unlayho·idable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1860 W. W. Reade Liberty Hall I. xv. 304 The Proctor caught Maidlow..in one of those trivial unlayholidable offences. Unlea·ched, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1847 Webster s.v. Unled seine. 1884 L. F. Allen New Amer. Farm Bk. 81 Eight bushels of unleached wood ashes. 1898 Trnl. Sch. Geog. (U. S.) Oct. 288 Unleacht samples of many rocks.

Unlead, dial.: see Unleide a.

Unlea·d, v. [Un-[2] 4 + Lead sb.] trans. To divest or strip of lead.

1591 Percivall Sp. Dict., Destlomado, lively, vnleaded. 1611 Florio, Spiombare, to vnleade. a 1661 Fuller Worthies, Norwich II. (1662) 275 A very fair structure, but lately vnleaded, and new covered with tiles. 1801 Carter Cathedral Ch. Durham 5 The Galilee was unleaded, and its demolition was decreed.

Unlea·ded, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not weighted, covered, or furnished with lead.

1611 in Essex Rev. XV. 47 The church is unleaded and unslinged. 1648 Hexham II. Ongeloot, Vnleaded, or Vnplumbd. 1799 Wstm. Gaz. 28 Aug. 2/2 The motion of the death-curtain, hanging free and unleaded from its headrope, would be inconceivably graceful.

2. Printing. Not spaced with leads; 'solid'.

1902 Westm. Gaz. 23 May 7/1 Tucked away in an unleaded telegram..is an item which may possess some significance.

Unlea·f v. [Un-[2] 4.] trans.=Unleave v. 1598 Florio, Sfogliare,..to vnleafe. 1611 Cotgr., Desparper, to vnleafe, ..pull the leaues off a Vine, &c. 1811 H. G. Knight Thyrsis 40 Stern Winter..Unleafs the forest, and unchains the wind. Unlea·fed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1848 Lowell Vision of Sir Launfal II. Prelude 7 The chill wind ..carried a shiver..From the unleafed boughs and pastures bare. †Unlea·gue, v. Obs.[1] (Un-[2] 3.) 1624 Howell Lett. (1650) II. 107 Monsieur dela Chatre ligu'd you, let him then unligue [F. desligue] you. †Unlea·guer, v. Obs.[1] [Un-[2] 3.] trans. To cause (an army or leader) to abandon an investment. 1592 Greene Conny Catch. II. 24, Though I cannot as he (sc. Scævola)..attempt to vnleager Porsenna; yet [etc.]. Unleak·able, a. (Un-[1] 7 c.) 1902 C. Baker's Calal. Microscopes, etc. 34 A Solid [Glass] Trough..practically unleakable.

Unlea·l, a. Now arch. [Un-[1] 7.] Unfaithful, disloyal, dishonest, false.

a 1300 Cursor M. 13173 Wit him-self he wex ful wrath,.. þat men suld hald him for vn-lele. Ibid. 25167 Vr prairer es vn-lele And askes gains vr saul hele. c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints vii. (Jacob) 456 Sa þat na lele man suld forfare amange vnlele þat wekit ware. 1393 Langl. P. Pl. C. xxv. 69 Bote louye and lene þe leelle and be vnleelle. c 1430 in Pol., Rel., & L. Poems (1903) 203 þou lyuest a letcherous lijf vnleel. 1456 Sir G. Hayle Law Arms (S.T.S.) 30 Untrewe and unleel to their Soveraynis lordis. 1548 Lyndesay Dreme 313 Sum part thair was of vnleill Lauboraris. c 1560 A. Scott Poems (S.T.S.) xxiii. 25 Hir fengeit wordis fals,...And als the luik vnleill. Of hir bricht fair eine twane. 1848 Lytton Harold i. i. Words so unleal and foul. Ibid. 2014 v. I hold it..disgrace to barter words with a knight unleal.

†Unlea'n, a. Obs.[1] (Un-[1] 7.) c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. i. 96 But se thyn ayer be fair, and lond vnlene.

Unlea'red, ppl. a. Obs. exc. dial. [OE. unlæred (Un-[1] b), = ON. ólærðr (Icel. ólærðr, MSw. olärdher, Sw. olärd, Da. ulærd). Cf. OE. ungelæred, MDu. ongeleert, etc.] Unlearned, untaught; ignorant.

c 1200 Ormin 17117 Þatt dob uss tunnderstanndenn wel Þatt he wass þet unnlæredd Off þatt. a 1300 Cursor M. 13884 Qua herd euer man sua spell, Man vnlerd o boken lare. 1340 Hampole Pr. C. 5947 Þam þat er unlered men. 1390 Gower Conf. I. 111 Suche as blode of trowthe unliered. a 1425 Cursor M. 22454 (Trin.). Hidur is good þat þet drawe... And here wel þat I shal sey þat he wende not vnlered awey. 1552 Abp. Hamilton Catech. (1884) 26 Thai that nr..vnleirit in haly writ. 1876 Whitby Gloss. 206 Unlared, or Unlel'd, unlearned.

Unlea'rn, v. [Un-[2] 3. Cf. MDu. ont-, onleren, older Fl. onleeren, MLG. and G. entlernen.]

1. trans. To discard from knowledge or memory; to give up knowledge of (something).

In very frequent use from c 1630.

c 1450 tr. De Imitatione i. xi. 12 Withstonde hyne inclination & unlerne evel custom. 1547 Bale Mor. Plays. (1551) N iij, The best kynde of learnynge is to vnlearne our euyls. 1575 Vautroullier Luther on Ep. Gal. 288 It is to vs no lesse labour to vnlearne and forget the same. 1612 Bensley Lat. Lib. (1909) 7 Those things which are hurtfull, ..they must bee taught to vnlearne againe. 1686 W. de Britaine Hum. Prud. i. 2 The most necessary learning for mans life, is to unlearn that which is nought and vain. 1779 Mirror No. 19, As they have learned many foreign, so have they unlearned some of the..best understood home phrases. 1813 Shelley Q. Mab iii. 6 Thou hast given A boon which I will not resign, and taught A lesson not to be unlearned. 1856 Froude Hist. Rome. Emp. xxviii. 363 The habits of centuries were not to be unlearnt in a few years.

b. absol., or constr. with inf.

1530 Palsgr. 768/2 It is a payne to lerne thynges, but a man may unlerne by goyng a huntyng. 1584 Lyly Campaspe ii. ii, Alex. How shall I learn to be content? Diog. Vnlearn to couet. 1632 P. Fletcher Piscatory Eclog. iii. xii, How canst unlearn by learning to forget it? 1649 F. Roberts Clavis Bibl. 351 In these I learn to shun sin, I unlearn to blush at repentance for sinnes. 1799 Monthly Rev. XXX. 120 According to an axiom founded on daily experience, to unlearn and forget are very difficult. 1823 Monthly Mag. LVI. 225 It is, long since the Romans have unlearned to conquer. 1868 Lowell, Parting of the Ways 59 That way lies Youth, and Wisdom,..For only by unlearning Wisdom comes.

2. To unteach.

1664 Power Exp. Philos. Pref. 7 [The microscope] wil ocularly evince and unlearn them their opinions. 1802–12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) V. 495 Legal learning ..can never have unlearnt a man the difference between three and one and a half. 1863 Susan Warner Old Helmet v. I must unlearn you a little your kindness. 1893 Harper's Mag. Dec. 61/2 He's jest said what I've been a-learnin' im ...But he's got to be unlearned.

Hence Unlea'rning vbl. sb.

1713 Swift Englishm. No. 2, 46 Art is only the unlearning of what is unnatural. 1873 E. H. Thompson Baron de Feuvy ii. 43 A school for the unlearning of every Christian..feeling of compassion.

Unlearnabi'lity. (Un-[1] 22.) 1777 H. Walpole Corr. (1846) V. 473 The pleasure of correcting my awkwardness and unlearnability. Unlea'rnable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1846 Worcester (citing Ed. Rev.).

Unlea'rned, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8. Cf. Unlearned ppl. a. and OHG. ungelirnêt (MHG. -lernet, -lehrnt, G. -lernt).]

1. Not possessed of learning; uninstructed; untaught; ignorant.

c 1440 Maundev. (1839) xviii. 184 How it semethe to symple men unlerned, that [etc.]. c 1440 Wycliffite Bible (1850) I. 67/2 Bothe of the lerned man and vnlerned. 14.. Lat. & Eng. Prov. (MS. Douce 52) fol. 27 Better is a chylde vnlerne þen vnlerned. 1537 in Surtees Wills (Camden) 231 Because I am vnlerned, and know not the scripture. 1582 N. T. (Rhem.) Luke x. 21 margin, The humble vnlearned Catholike knoweth Christ better than the proud learned Heretike. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. ii. xxix. 165 These three opinions..proceeded chiefly from the tongues, and pens of unlearned Divines. 1699 Bentley Phal. 332 Andronicus's name was prefix'd to it by a Modern and a very Unlearned Hand. 1765 Museum Rust. IV. 250, I will now..give a free translation of it for the sake of your unlearned readers. 1854 Whittier Maud Muller 79 She wedded a man unlearned and poor. 1875 Jowett Plato (ed. 2) I. 298 But if you were not wise you were unlearned.

b. spec. (See quots.)

1643 Baker Chron. (1659) 226 Another Parliament.., named the unlearned Parliament, either for the unlearnedness of the persons, or for their malice to learned men. 1898 Stubbs Const. Hist. III. xxx. 401 The year 1404, when Henry IV stirred up strife by excluding lawyers from his 'unlearned parliament' [at Coventry].

2. absol. Those who have no learning.

c 1500 Babees Bk., etc. (1868) 23/126 In þi dyach sette not þi spoone...so vnlernyd don. 1549 Olde Erasm. Par. Ephesians Prol. to Rec. C ij, To seke the edification of the playne vnlearned. 1578 Bible (Geneva) Pref. to Christian Reader, I haue so done for the vnlearneds sake. 1656 Stanley Hist. Philos. v. 50 He useth variety of names, that his work may not easily be understood by the unlearned. 1712 Addison Spect. No. 487 ¶ 4 An Account of the Works of the Unlearned. 1746 Francis tr. Horace, Art of Poetry 644 With all the Horrours of a desperate Muse The Learned and Unlearned he pursues. 1886 Forth. Rev. Oct. 508 We must acknowledge, too, that experts know better than the unlearned.

3. Not skilled or versed in something.

1565 Cooper Thesaurus s.v. Rudis, Vnlearned in the Greeke tongue. c 1600 Shakes. Cymb. cxxxviii, Some vntutered youth, Vnlearned in the worlds false subtilties. 1607 — Timon iv. iii. 56, I know thee well: But in thy Fortunes am vnlearn'd, and strange. 1725 Pope Odyss. ix. 130 Unlearn'd in all th' industrious arts of toil. 1833 Tennyson To J. S. v, Alas! In grief I am not all unlearn'd. 1885 'Mrs. Alexander' At Bay viii, Unlearned in the world's lore which was so familiar to himself!

4. Characterized by want of learning; pertaining to the unlearned class.

1526 Tindale 2 Tim. ii. 23 Foolishe and vnlearned questions. 1589 Marprel. Epist. D ij b, His booke is a carnall and vnlearned booke. 1604 Herring Def. Caveat (title-p.), That vnlearned and dangerous opinion. c 1657 Cowley Ode Dr. Harvey v, A bad'rous Wars unleasned Rage. 1785 Burke Sp. Nabob Arcot Wks. IV. 316 The unlearned and vulgar passion of admiration. 1844 Stanley Arnold (1858) II. 146 An unlearned familiarity with the Scriptures. 1878 Whitney Life Lang. x. 187 The unlearned speech of the lower orders.

5. Not acquired by learning. (Cf. Unlearnt.)

1534 Ld. Berners Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. (1546) C v, That there shuld be nothyng vnlerned of hym, he abouse all sciences seete his mynd to Cosmography. 1607 Markham Cavel. iii. i. 4 My first Arte were better vnlearned then for want of this latter to doe euill by misimployment. 1612 Shakes. Cymb. iv. ii. 178 'Tis wonder That an inuisible instinct should frame them To Royalty vnlearn'd, Honor vntaught. 1644 Milton Educ. 3 Mispending our prime youth..in learning meere words or such things chiefly, as were better unlearnt.

Unlea'rnedly, adv. (Un-[1] 11; cf. prec.)

1532 More Confut. Barnes viii. Wks. 786/2 He shall speake very vnlernedly. 1598 Lyte Dodoens v. lxvi. 631 It is fondly and vnlearnedly named in Englishe, Dittany. 1651 Baxter Inf. Bapt. 239 Some..unlearnedly and boldly scold about..unprofitable matters. 1689 W. A. Heard's Account Exorcisms 8 He very unlearnedly clogs the Definition of a Dispensing Power. 1834 Beckford Italy II. 206 He..entered minutely and not unlearnedly into the ancient jurisprudence..of his country.

Unlea'rnedness. [Un-[1] 12.] The condition of being unlearned; want of learning; ignorance.

1562 Turner Baths 1 b, The vnlearnednes..of the Physicines. 1581 W. Clarke in Confer. iv. (1584) F ij, The errour and vnlearnednesse of your distinction appeareth. 1643 [see Unlearned 1 b]. 1674 W. Allen Danger Anthus. 18 Your Leaders manifest a strange degree of Vnlearnedness in the things of the Gospel, when [etc.]. 1721 Bailey, *Illiteraten*ness, Unlearnedness.

Unlea'rnt, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 b.] = Unlearned 5.

1899 Farrar Christ. I. v. I. 97 The evidence that the gift of unlearnt languages was designed to help the Apostles in their future preaching.

Unlea'sed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] a. Not held or let on lease. b. Not having a lease.

1716 Lond. Gaz. No. 5467/3 Lands unleased. 1801 Rev. monv. Mag. Apr. 143 Landholds..compelling their unleased tenantry to sell below market-price. 1906 Daily Chron. 30 Aug. 3/3 The proceeds derived from ordinary Crown lands unsold or unleased.

Unlea'sh, v. [Un-[2] 4 b.] trans. To free from a leash; to set free in order to pursue or attack. Chiefly fig.

1671 Philips Pal. Pyr. 13 To unleash, ..to let go the dogs after the Game. 1821 Shelley Hellas 357 Like beasts When earthquake is unleashed. 1854 J. S. C. Abbott Napoleon (1855) I. xxvii. 418 The bloodhounds of war were unleashed and let loose. 1868 Dean Alford Gr. Test. Jas. Gipsy 48 With power to check all rage until it should Too ordered force, unleashed on chosen prey.

Unlea'st, a. rare[1]. (Un-[1] 7.) c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. i. 48 Another crak vnlest is: Fro floor to floor to chasse bit ofte, his fest is. †Unlea'st, obs. var. unlest Unless adv. 1574 J. Dee in Lett. Lit. Men (Camden) 34 Vnleast your honor had putte your helping hand. 1601 Yarrington Two Lamentat. Trag. III. ii. in Bullen O. Pl. IV, I nam'd not God, unleast there with an oathe.

Unlea've, v. [Un-[2] 4; cf. Unleaf v.] trans. To strip of leaves. Hence Unlea'ving vbl. sb.

1589 Puttenham Eng. Poesie III. xxv. (Arb.) 309 The good gardiner..vnleaues his boughes to let in the sunne. 1598 Sylvester Du Bartas ii. 1. iv Tamire-vraffe 1360 Sunleased they do the far-spread Gourd unleave. 1611 Cotgr. Effueillement, an vnleaving. 1648 Hexham II, Ontbladeren, to Vnleave, or, to Take away the Leaves.

Unlea'ved, ppl. a.[1] [Cf. prec.] Stripped of leaves.

1598 Sylvester Du Bartas ii. 1. i. Eden 122 Amorous Myrtles and immortall Bays Never unleaved. 1610 G. Fletcher Christ's Vict. ii, lix. Ode 25 See, see the flowers ..How they all unleaved die. 1624 Heywood Gunaik. iv. 171 Behold how this bitter tree unleaved looketh. 1890 Rossetti Poems, Ho. Life v, Nor quite unleaved [is] our singlers grove.

Unlea'ved, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[1] 8.] Not furnished with leaves.

1501 Douglas Pal. Hon. i. iii, Muskane treis..., Combust, barrant, unbloscand and vnleif. 1770 Langhorne Plutarch III. 38 Unleav'd, unhonour'd e'en with bark, See this sad tree, the gibbet of Alcæus!

Unlea'vened, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1530 Tindale Exod. xii. 17 See that ye kepe you to vnleuened [1526 bread. 1594 Hooker Eccl. Politie iv. § 10 The vse of vnleauened bread in that sacrament. 1611 Bible Exod. xii. 39 They baked vnleauened cakes of the dough. — Lev. ii. 4 Vnleauened wafers. 1702 L'Estrange Josephus iii. vi. 64 Twelve Loaves of Unleavened Bread. 1737 Challoner Cath. Chr. Instr. (1753) 59 Unleavened Bread is an Emblem or Symbol of Sincerity and Truth. 1822–7 Good Study Med. (1829) I. 122 Toasted bread, and unleavened biscuits. 1867 Lady Herbert Cradle L. vii. 197 Soft unleavened cakes and some excellent coffee,..completed our repast.

absol. c 1550 Cheke Matt. xxvi. 17 Ye first dai of ye vnleuened cam yn disciplis to Jesus.

fig. 1611 Bible 1 Cor. v. 7 Purge out therefore the olde leauen, that ye may be a new lumpe, as ye are vnleauened. 1814 Byron Lara ii. iv, Now rose the unleaven'd hatred of his heart. 1829 Lytton Disowned xiv, He is..giving the very goods..to that..starving stripling! No, Warner, no! even this mass is not unleavened.

Unle'ctured, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Not lectured to or upon.

1393 G. Harvey Pierce's Super. 190 [He] is a prowd man, if he contemne expert artisans,..howsoeuer Vnlectured in Schooles, or Vnlettered in bookes. 1743 Young Nt. Th. v. 513 Hast thou ever..study'd the philosophy of tears? (A science, yet, unlectur'd in our schools!).

Unle'd, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 b. Cf. ON. áleiddr.]

1. Not led; unconducted, unguided.

1615 G. Sandys Trav. 66, I haue seene but few go away vnled from the Embassadors table. 1693 Dryden Ovid's Met. xiii. Acis & Gal. 52 Here on the midst he sate; his Flocks, unled, Their Shepherd follow'd. 1738 Monthly Rev. 509 Already reckoning captives yet unled. 1817 Jefferson Writ. (1830) IV. 305 The people [were] not only unled by their leaders, but in opposition to them. 1889 Tennyson Geraint & Enid 227 His gentle charger following him unled.

2. dial. Of a crop: Not carried in.

1569 Richmond Wills (Surtees) 219 Tathe ledd and unledd.

3. Sc. Not carried out or prosecuted.

1586 in Bk. Univ. Kirk Scotl. (1839) 298 We hold the said proces and sentence as unled, undecydit or pronounced.

†Unle'de, sb.[1] Obs. [Un-[1] 4 b + Lede 3.] A foreign or hostile people.

c 1205 Lay. 4982 Heo comen to his neode to driuen vt þa vnleoden. a 1300 Cursor M. 7641 Wit þat vnled [v.rr. unleode, folke] son dauid mete, And wighti wan o pam his dete.

†Unlede, a. and sb.[2] Forms: 1 unlēode, 3 vnlede (-leode), oun-, 4 onlede; 7 unled, -lead, 9 unlete. [OE. unlēod, e (Un-[1] 7), = Goth. unliuds (or unliēps) poor.]

1. adj. Unhappy, miserable; wicked, evil; dreadful.

a 1250 Owl & Night. 976 Solde euch mon wonie & grede, Riht suich hi weren unlede. c 1275 Sinners Beware 72 in O.E. Misc. 74 To donne he beoþ swete. Ey vs is eþ-gete Helle þat is vnlede. c 1315 Shoreham 1. 588 Ounde and werbe and couetynge, bleuhe and lestes on-lede. a 1400 St. Alexius (Trin.) 333 Ofte by him bete and burste, þo vnlede fode.

2. sb. A vile or detestable person or thing.

c 1325 Shoreham iv. 235 þe ferste pryns hys prede, þat ledeþ pane flok, þat of alle o-pere onlede hys rode and eke stoke. 1677 Nicolson in Trans. Royal Soc. Lit. (1870) IX. 321 Unlead, outlaw. 1691 Ray N. C. Words 138 Unleed or Unlead, ..any crawling venomous creature; as a Toad, etc. It's sometimes ascribed to Man, and there it denotes a sly wicked fellow, ..the very pest of Society. 1829 Brockett N. C. Gloss. (ed. 2) 315 Unletes, displacers or destroyers of the farmer's produce.

†Unleefu'l, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7.] Not permissible or allowable; illicit.

c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. v. pr. iii. (1868) 254 þe whiche pinge to trowen on god I deme it felonie and vnleieful. c 1386 — Pars. T. P 593 The wounde shal nat departe from his hous whil he yseth swich vnleieful [v.rr. vnlefiul, vnlefiul] swerynge. 1449 (see next). c 1491 Chaut. Goddes Cryd. 25 Her rest was full short by cause it was..unlefull. 1529 More Dyalogue i. Wks. 157/2 The thinges nowe forbeden vs, and therfore to vs vnlefiul. 1547 Boorde Brev. Health xxvii. 26 b, Desyre to eate rawe and unlefull thynges, as women with chylde doth. 1567 Reg. Privy Council Scot. i. 524 That pretendit and unlefull mariage.

Hence †Unleefu'lness. Obs.

1382 Wyclif Wisd. xiv. 8 The maumet..is cursid,..and he that made it, for he forsoothe wroge vnleefulnesse. c 1449 Pecock Repr. ii. 1. 136 Ech such doable thing..is in it sill neither leefil neither vnleefil, in eny of the ij. now seid maners of propre taking leefulnes and vnleefulnes. c 1475 Cath. Angl. 410/1 (A.), To do Vnlefulnesse, illicitebrare.

†Unleefully, adv. Obs. [Un-[1] 11: cf. prec.] Illicitly; improperly.

c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints x. (Matthew) 384 How dar þu þane ..fra þi lorde tak hyre to þe, vnlefully to wedyte be? 1386 Rolls of Parlt. III. 226/1 Any..wronge suggestion, by which some lige Lorde hadde the unleefullich enfourmed. c 1400 Apol. Loll. 170 Al bi power of bischops name þat þei chalang unlefuly to hem wiþ out þe kirk. 1456 Sir G. Hayle Law Arms (S.T.S.) 288 He suld nocht..unlefully trete him.

†Unleeped, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [Un-[1] 8 + leep to boil slightly.] Uncooked, raw.

a 1568 in Bannatyne MS. (Hunter Cl.) 385/4 Ane grit gyre cutting. Thai levit vpoun christiane menis flesche and rewth heidis vnleipit.

†Unlee'sable, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7 b.] Incapable of being lost. 1647 Trapp Comm. Matt. vii. 26 Saving grace is unleesable, though it may be impaired in the degrees.

†Unlee'se, v. Obs. rare. [OE. un-, onlesan (= MHG. entlæsen, MG. entlösen, MLG. entlesen, G. entlösen): see Un-[2] 9 and Leese v.[2] trans. To unfasten, undo, open.

1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. Prol. 213 Seriauntz..nouȝt for loue of owre lorde vnlese here lippes onis.

Unlee'some, a. Sc. [Un-[1] 7.] = Unleeful a.

c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints x. (Matthew) 20 Lewy, þat as a tollare bare wes sate, Vnlesume wynnynge for to get. 1500–20 Dunbar Poems xvii. 16 Thir merchantis takis vnlesum win. 1552 Lyndesay Monarche 5104 And sum, for thare vnleifsum actis, Ar rent and rewin apone the ractis. 1600 HAMILTON in Cath. Tractates (S.T.S.) 235 How mony young wemen..hes murtherit the fruict of thairauin wombes, some be vnlisome drinkis. 1864 LATTO Tam. Bodkin x. 92 The loons that had received the unleisum stoutherie. Ibid. xvii. 170 The unleisome possession o' the game.

So Unlee·somely adv. † Obs.

c 1400 Sc. Trefton War n. 1103 [To] lat of hyr virgynite The closoures vnlefsomely [L. illicite] To be broken. 1528 LYNDESAY Dreme 230 Vnleifsumlie thay vsit properitie. a 1598 LINDESAY (Pitscottie) Chron. Scot. (S.T.S.) II. 207 Putting hand in the quenis grace vnlesomelie..but athir law or ressoune.

Unlee·ze, v. dial. [Un-3 + leeze to arrange (threads).] trans. To unravel. 1889 H. JOHNSTON Glenluchie iv, The hank she had left me to unleeze was truly a tangled one.

Unle·fit, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b). c 1621 CHAPMAN Iliad II. 615 Yet were his men unlefit Without a chief. 1634 FORD Perk. Warbeck v. iii, Yourfather..Would blush on your behalf, and wish his country Unlefit. 1659 Nicholas Papers (Camden) IV. 179 All malladies and gouies vnlefit belyinde at Bathe.

Unle·g, v. (Un-2 4). 1598 FLORIO, Sgambare, to vnleg. 1654 GAYTON Pleas. Notes III. v. 100 That is to say, with three hard words, un-mule, un-leg and un-able, Alanso Lopez. Unle·gated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1598 Wills & Inv. N. C. (Surtees, 1835) 149, I will that my said sonne.. shall have..of my goods..on hundreth pounds and the rest vnlegased to be parted betwix barlaure and hym. 1846 WORCESTER (citing Q. Rev.). Unle·gal, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b). 1643 PRYNNE Open. Gt. Seal 29 The unlegall wilfull absence of the..Lord Keeper from the Parliament. a 1810 TANNAHILL Poems (1846) 68 Selfish, mean, unlegal deeds. 1899 Westm. Gaz. 10 July 3/1 The illegal—or let us say the unlegal—interference of the English Government.

Unle·galized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1830 BENTHAM Offic. Apt. Maximized, Further Extr. Const. Codex (1830) 32 Accustomed, though unlegalized profit in every shape. 1862 FROUDE Hist. Eng. VI. 267 He hated lies—legalized or unlegalized. Unle·gally, adv. (Un-1 11.) 1888 Pall Mall G. 3 April 3/1 If such a delicate matter as extradition were left to be dealt with unlegally.

Unle·gate, v. [Un-2 6 b.] trans. To deprive of the office of legate.

a 1548 HALL Chron., Hen. VI, 111 Sone after, the bishop of Rome..vnlegated hym, and set another in his stede. 1652 N. BACON Disc. Govt. Eng. II. xvii. 150 The Cardinall is Un-Legated, and that Power conferred upon the Arch-Bishop of Canterbury.

†Unlegated, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 8.] Not left by will. 1562-3 N. C. Wills (Surtees) II. 38 My goodes vnlegated I doe give to my brother. Unlegged, a. (Un-1 9.) 1608 TOPSELL Serpents 600 This monster..a man nor dragon is.., But man unlegged, and snake unheaded. † Unle·gible, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.] Illegible. 1611 SPEED Hist. Gt. Brit. x. I. § 37. 890/2 The letter was..somewhat vnlegible. 1655 EARL ORRERY Parthen. I. v. 150 Perceiving my joy in my Face, it inflam'd his to such a degree, that for a good while his choller was unleagible in any thing else. 1671 WOOD Life (O.H.S.) II. 226 The base and unlegible hand of the translator. † Unle·gislative, a. (Un-1 7.) 1792 BENTHAM Panopt. II. Postscr. 165 More unlegislative minutiness, more unthrifty fixation. † Unlegi·timate, a. Obs. [Un-1 7, 5 b.] Illegitimate. 1655 EARL ORRERY Parthen. I. vii. 240 She persever'd in a Passion which tended to..a more unlegitimate end. † Unlegi·timate, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 8 b.] Not legitimated. 1516 Reg. Mag. Sig. Scot. 23/2 Borne bastard and unlegitimate be ony mariage. † Unlegi·timate, v. Obs. [Un-2 6 a.] trans. To make illegitimate. 1606 MARSTON Parasit. II. C 4 b, I will vnlegitimate the issue.

Unlei·sured, a. (Un-1 9.)

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia II. xxv, But her vnleasured thoughtes ran not ouer the ten first wordes. 1644 MILTON Areop. (Arb.) 56 Unless he carry all his considerat diligence..to the hasty view of an unleasur'd licencer.

Hence Unlei·suredness.

1661 BOYLE Style of Script. To Rdr., The Unleisuredness, and Reliish of the Unseriousness of the Wandering Author.

† Unle·ke, a. Obs. [Un-3 3 + like (cf. leke, ME. pa. t. of LOUK v.).] trans. To unlock (a door). c 1380 Sir Ferumbras 1264 Florippe hure drow to anoper part, & þar an dore unlekes þar drow to be putte ward, & doun in the pyt sche strekes. † Unle·ngth. Obs. [Un-1 3, 12.] Shortness. a 1250 Owl & Night. 752 Hwy atwitestu me wyne vnstrengde & myne vngrete & myn vnlengde. Unle·nt, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.) [1775 ASH.] 1889 Daily News 11 June 5/1 Much depends..upon the amount of the unlent surplus of money.

Unlered: see UNLEARED ppl. a.

Unless (ŏnles'), prep. phr., prep., conj., and sb. Forms: α, 5 of lasse, oo lesse, o less, oless (e, Sc. oles, 9 Sc. aless. β, 5 vpon less. γ, 5 in lasse, yn las, 5 in less (9 dial. inless), 6 inlesse. δ, 5 on lasse, 5–6 onlesse, 6 oon-, oneles, -leȝ, 5–7 onles, 9 dial. onless. ε, 5 vnlasse, 6–7 vn-, unlesse, 6 vnles, 6– unless. [f. LESS a. 7, with the preps. of, in, upon, and on; the last of these by want of stress has been assimilated in form to the prefix UN-1. Cf. LESS conj., also UNLEAST, UNLEST.]

† 1. prep. phr. On a less or lower condition, requirement, footing, etc., than (what is specified).

With preceding negative, expressed or implied.

c 1400 MAUNDEV. (1919) xxi. 122 But pat may not be vpon less þan wee mowe falle toward heuene. Ibid. (Roxb.) xxv. 118 [see LESS a. 7 c]. 1475 Rolls of Parlt. VI. 127/1 His Land, which many persones..fere to take.., oelse then they myght be made verrey sure of payment. a 1500 in C. Trice-Martin Chaunc. Proc. 15th C. (1904) 5 Robert wil not suffre hym to be laten to baile on lase than he will make..a generall acquytaunce.

2. Except, if.. not: † a. With retention of than (cf. prec.), but without a negative. Obs.

1431 Acts Privy Counc. IV. 96 It shulde be entendede unto, namely, olesse þan þt men can se..þe meenes ..of ferjer conduyt of þe werre. c 1449 PECOCK Repr. III. xvi. 385 Alle hise successouris ben..excludid for euer, in lasse thanne the same good be 3ouun asen. 1467 in Eng. Gilds (1870) 408 Vppon peyn of euery man so failynge, vnlesse then he haue a sufficient depute, of xl. d. 1530 TINDALE Gen. Prol. Use Script. A v, Inlesse then we entend to be ydle disputers, and braulers aboute vayne wordes.

† b. Followed by that. Obs.

1440 in Wars Eng. in France (1864) II. 458 The kyng conceyueth wele that onlesse that it like him so to tendre the said due he fetc.] 1492-85 Rolls Parliament v. 497 Onlesse that our kyng haue more chyualry,..he shal be ouercome. 1529 WOLSEY in Cavendish Life (1825) II. 261 Onles that yow..do helpe & releve me therin. 1534 in Leadam Star Cham. (Selden Soc.) II. 212 [They] cowde not..sell so mycho..onelez that they wold sell so ressonable a pennyworthe. 1595 SPENSER F. Q. VI. iii. 39 Ne would I gladly combate with mine host,..Vnlesse that I were thereunto enforced.

c. With omission of conjunction before the subordinate clause, and thus passing into conj. (Cf. 4.)

1509 FISHER Serm. Wks. (1876) 277 There is no man.. onless he be in reuelacyon that kneweth certaynly [etc.]. 1542 Laus. & Piteous Treat. in Harl. Misc. (1745) I. 305/2 It was a very daungerous and leopardyne things, ..inlesse they had been..yrrued by longe Suffryngne. 1563 Mirr. Mag., Blacksmith lxviii, For one [talent] is to much, onles it be well spent. 1607 in Eng. Gilds (1870) 442 Marryage p[ro]mises..wold not remoue her hallsacion onles she might haue a way..to pase [etc.]. 1652 STILLINGFL. Orig. Sacra II. iii. § 5 Will God condemn them for that, which it was impossible they should have, unless God gave it them? 1710 SWIFT Jrnl. to Stella 8 Oct., I was at a loss to-day for a dinner, unless I would have gone a great way. 1752 YOUNG Brothers I. i, Dominion, and the princess, both are lost, Unless you gain the king. 1820 SOUTHEY Wesley II. 211 No person was admitted to this rank, unless he were thought competent by the preachers of the circuit. 1897 RUSKIN Fors Clav. LXXX. VII. 234, I am never angry with anybody unless they deserve it.

d. Followed by a prepositional or participial clause without verb, or by when, where, etc.

1548-9 (Mar.) Bh. Com. Prayer, Offices, Bapt. Ho., [The] the people..defer not the Baptisme of infantes.. onlesse vp on a greate & reasonable cause. 1610 FLETCHER Faithful Sheph. v. v, [Let] not wine, Unless in sacrifice, or rites divine, Be ever known of Shepherd. 1681 DRYDEN Ab. & Achit. I. 590 Nor ever was he known..[to] Curse, unless against the Government. 1721 BRADLEY Philos. Acc. Wks. Nat. 77 We had no Frost or Snow..unless in the most Inland Parts. 1749 FIELDING Tom Jones xvii. I. 89 Jones passed above Twenty-four melancholy hours by himself, unless when relieved by the company of Partridge. 1789 CHARLOTTE SMITH Ethelinde (1824) II. 147 But I dare not shew them, unless to you. 1818 SCOTT Rob Roy iv, A beautiful horse, jet black, unless where he was flecked by spots of.. foam. 1897 MARY KINGSLEY W. Africa 439 They never wear clothes unless compelled to.

3. prep. a. Except, but.

1532-2 Act 23 Hen. VIII, c. 1 That no suertye be taken onles suche as maye dyspende..yerly..xxvi.s. viii.d. 1563 HILL Art Garden. II. lxiv. (1574) 132 The flowres..ought then to be gathered..vnlesse the Lilly..and Rose. 1600 HEYWOOD If you know not me Wks. 1874 I. 205 All forbeare like Bees, vnlesse the Princess. 1683 D. A. Art Converse 117 They say nothing unless a meer yes sir or no Madam. 1709 T. ROBINSON Nat. Hist. Westmoreld. viii. 53 Inconsistent..with the Nature of Lead, Copper, Coal, or any other Mineral, unless Iron. 1795 MOSES Amer. Geog. II. 33 Unless the Swedish part..the Laplanders can be said to be under no regular government. 1886 Pall Mall G. 4 Aug. 1/2 He did not believe that he would ever obtain anything, unless a species of elevated poor-law system of government.

† b. Without; but. Obs.

1536 St. Papers Hen. VIII (1830) I. 469 Soo that, unles the most infinite mercy of God, both bodyes and soules should perishe together. 1796 Mss. J. West Gossip's Story I. 190 You instilled into my infant soul principles, which, unless my own fault, must insure my present and future happiness.

† 4. conj. a. Lest. Obs.

1508 FISHER 7 Penit. Ps. cii. Wks. (1876) 142, I fere .. oneles I shall fall agayne amonge those theues. 1543 BECON Invect. agst. Swearing E iiij b, I feare vnlesse we shall be redy..to runne hedlong into hell fyre. a 1598 GERARDE Aphorisms I. i, Presume not, villaine, further for to go, Vnles you do at length the same repent.

† b. But that. Obs.[—1]

1608 in Harl. Misc. (1744) I. 18 A Flea shall not frisk forth, unless they comment upon her.

5. sb. An utterance or instance of the word; a reservation, proviso.

1861 DICKENS in Pall Mall G. 24 Sept. (1891) 3/2 Let us have no unlesses, sir. 1904 HICHENS Woman with Fan vii, There's very often an unless hanging about, like a man at a street corner.

Unle·ssened, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1736 BUTLER Anal. I. i. 21 This active power..remains unlessened. 1842 J. B. FRASER Ailes Neemroo II. 99 His uneasiness remained unlessened and unaltered. 1892 C. M. Yg. Mitford's Lett. & Remin. 163 His love for me remained unlessened.

Unlessoned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

c 1550 WALKER Dice-Play D v b, Pety figgers, and vnlessoned laddes. 1596 SHAKS. Merch. V. III. iii. 167 An vnlessoned girle, vnschool'd, vnpractiz'd. 1807 J. BARLOW Columb. v. 573 To Fame's hard school the warm disciples came, To hail sage Liberty's unlesson'd love. 1889a Century Mag. XXIV. 658/1 That unlessoned insight which comes of loving them.

† Unle·st, obs. var. UNLESS. (Cf. UNLEAST.)

1535 in Lett. Suppress. Monast. (Camden) 91 The dean wolde not resign unto hym, unleste he wolde leffe hym other possessions. 1583 STUBBES Anat. Abus. II. C 8 b, May subjects ..rise against their prince? No, at no hand, vnlest they will purchase to themselves eternall damnation. 1599 THYNNE Animadv. (1875) 29 Difference of armes semethe a difference of famelyes, vnleste you canne prove that.. they altered their armes vppone somme luste occasione.

Unle·t, ppl. a. Also 5 unlate, 6 unletton. (Un-1 8 b; cf. LET ppl. a.) 1453 Paston Lett. Suppl. (1901) 49, I know not oon rode unlate, but alle occupied to your preyinghte. 1537 in Lett. Suppress. Monast. (Camden) 163 The house..wiche was unlet at the tyme of owre repare thether. 1545 Act 37 Hen. VIII, c. 12 § 16 Hawles of Crafte..,soo long as they be keapte unletton. 1769 GRAY in Corr. G. & Nicholls I. (1843) 93, I believe all that are unlet will be cheap as the time approaches. 1866 GEO. ELIOT F. Holt ii, Having three farms unlet. 1885 Law Times 28 Mar. 384/2 In the present day, when unlet land is becoming so common.

Unle·ttable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

In frequent use from c 1895.

1882a Ch. Times XX. 21, I fear to find myself with a[n]..unlettable gleba on my hands. 1893 DR. ARGYLL Unseen Found. Soc. x. 305 Farms which have been unlettable.

† Unle·tted, ppl. a. [Un-1 8. Cf. ML G. ungeletted, etc.] Unhindered.

a 1500 Chaucer's Dreme 1831 A bird song full low and softely..Unletted of every wight. a 1553 BECON Jewel of Joy Wks. 1564 II. 55 The holye scripture requireth of us..an vnletted perseuerance in the way of Godliness.

† Unle·tten, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [Un-1 8 b.] Not let or allowed.

1574 Sc. Acts Jas. VI (1814) III. 87 That all..vagabounds ..be committit in ward in the commoun presoun;..thair to be kept vnlettin to libertie,..quhill thay [etc.].

Unle·ttered, a. [Un-1 9. Cf. MDu. ongeletteret, Du. ongeletterd.]

1. Not instructed in letters; not possessed of book-learning.

c 1340 HAMPOLE Prose Tr. 32 Anoper mane..unletterede may noght so redyly hafe at his hand Holy Writt. 1387 TREVISA Higden (Rolls) VII. 181 A man forsobe..þat was unlettred, but full myghtiy in money. c 1440 Alph. Tales 468 When ȝe abbot þambe was vnlettered, he went vnto a man þat was letteret [etc.]. 1544 LELAND N. Y. Gift in Itin. (1768) I. p. xix, The Italians..counte..al other nations to be barbarus and onletterid saving their owne. 1593 [see UNLETTERED ppl. a.]. 1624 CAPTAIN SMITH Transylvania 156 As children or unlettered persons, when they looke on bookes, know not the power of the letter. 1642 MILTON Apol. Smect. 36 Such a lost construction, as no man either letter'd or unletter'd will be able to make out by any Grammar. 1700 Physick (1762) p. xxiv, Easy to be applied by plain unlettered Men. 1782 COWPER Conversat. 12 As alphabets in ivory employ..the yet unletter'd boy. 1817 CHALMERS Disc. Chr. Revel. ii. 56 Men of an ordinary and unlettered peasant. 1867 AUGUSTA WILSON Vashti xxv, Sturdy but unlettered mechanics.

absol. 1751 JOHNSON Rambler No. 180 P 2 The unlettered and unenlightened. 1812 G. CHALMERS Dom. Econ. Gt. Brit. Pref. 14 That the learned are sometimes too confident, and the unlettered always too credulous. 1861 STANLEY East. Ch. viii. (1869) 273 Sacred pictures..are the Bibles of the unlettered.

b. Pertaining to, characterized by, ignorance of letters.

1588 SHAKS. L. L. L. IV. iii. 18 After his ..vnpolished, vneducated,..or rather, vnlettered..fashion. 1697 COLLIER Ess. Mor. Subj. II. (1703) 99 Books..give a more universal insight into things, than can be learned from unlettered observation. 1763 J. BROWN Poetry & Music iv. 36 Savages ..in their present unlettered State of Ignorance and Simplicity. 1867 G. CHALMERS Caledonia I. iii. vii. 493 An upright stone still forms the unlettered memorial of his odious end. 1820 HAZLITT Lect. Dram. Lit. 186 They were learned men in an unlettered age. a 1864 HAWTHORNE Amer. Note-bks. (1879) I. 142 His conversation has much strong, unlettered sense.

2. Not expressed in, or marked with, letters.

1633 P. FLETCHER Poet. Misc., Aeclepiads 1 Unletter'd Word, which never eare could heare. 1782 [T. MAUDE] Verbeia 37 This unlettered tomb is in a mutilated state.

Hence † Unlettredly adv., † Unlettredness.

c 1440 Promp. Parv. 366/2 On-lettersydly, illiterate. 1653 E. WATERHOUSE Apol. Learn. 120 Ignorance and unlettered-nesse ill becomes any man who bears the Image of God. 1890 BR. HOBHOUSE Churches. Acc. (Somerset) p. xxiii, The entire unlettredness of the communicants.

Unleueful, variant of UNLEREFUL a. Obs.

† Unlevable, a. Obs. [Un-1 7 b.] Unbelieving, incredulous. 1382 WYCLIF Ecclus. xvi. 29 He thou not vnleuable to the wrd of hym. 14.. Voc. in Wr.-Wülcker 589/23 Incredulus, vnleifable. † Unleveful, a. Obs.[—1] [Un-1 7: cf. UNBELIEFFUL a. and OE. unġeléafful.] = prec. 1382 WYCLIF Ecclus. xxiii. 33 In the lawe of the hegest she was vnleueful.

Unlevel, a. (Un-1 7; cf. ILLEVEL a.) 1571 DIGGES Pantom. I. xii. D iij b, How vneuen or vnleuell so euer the ground bee. 1644 QUARLES Sheph. Orac. iii, All things were unlevell, And rude disorder crept into our State. 1683 MOXON Mech. Exerc., Printing xxiv. 338 The small un-level lying of every Sheet..makes each Sheet incline to the lowest side of the Heap. 1771 Ann. Reg., Usef. Projects 109/2 That unlevel pastures may be ploughed down without any injury. 1817-8 COBBETT Rural. U. S. (1820) 286 A place situated..upon high and unlevel lands. 1873 E. SPON Workshop Receipts Ser. I. 36/2 Should the cloth have got unlevel.

Unle·vel, v. [Un-2 6 a.] trans. To make uneven; to divest of levelness.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. xi, [The] place..was so plaine, as there was scarcely any bush, or hillock, either to unlevell, or shadowe it. 1624 QUARLES Div. Poems, Job xix. 10 His Lunatick affections doe vnleuell, What Heauen created by iust Waight and Measure. 1648 HERRICK Hesper., To the Fever 8 Come then not near the meat Filme so finely spent, Where no one piece is yet unlevelled. 1703 [R. NEVE] City & C. Purchaser 189 There are as many places that seem to be unlevel'd, as there are level'd. 1834 SOUTHEY Doctor xivi. (1862) 109 In 1723 the church floor and church-yard, which had both been unlevelled by Death's levelling course, were levelled anew.

Unle·velled, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Not made level; not reduced to a level condition.

1622 Drayton Poly-olb. xxiii. 184 Where Cheshire .. with Lancashire doth lie Along th' unlevel'd shores. 1730 Pickell Kensington Garden 30 Where all unlevel'd the gay Garden lies. 1854 Dora Greenwood Haps & Mishaps Your Eur. 30 The grandeur of its yet unlevelled walls and towers.

†Unleventhe, obs. variant of Eleventh a.

13.. Cœur de L. 2455 The unleventhe day they sayiyd in tempest.

Unle·vied, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1450 Rolls of Parlt. V, 211/2 The Subsidie..is yit unlevied and unpaiied. 1540 Act 32 Hen. VIII, c. 5 The residue of the said dett.. remayning unlevied or unrecevyd by the said former execution. 1756 Lanc. Wills (Chetham Soc. 1884) 31 Fyve hundrethe marks.. or so muche therof as shalbe then unlevyed. 1634 Jr. Act 10 Chas. I, Sess. III. c. 7 § 2 [quot. 1540]. 1864 Morn. Star 2 Feb., Arrears of unlevied poor rates.

Unle·vigated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1768 R. Dossie Elaboratory 290 The cinnabar should be procured..in an unlevigated state. † Unle·ving, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 10.] Unbelieving. a 1300 Cursor M. 20834 Be pointis bat all wide war spred,..til our lagh be vnleuand leid. 1382 Wyclif Isaiah xxi. 1 [He] that vnleueuende [1388 vnfeithful] is, vnfeithfully doth.

†Unlew·ty. Obs. [Un-1 12.] Disloyalty.

a 1300 Cursor M. 7135 Pat was mikel vnleute, To tell hir husband priuete. 13.. Gaw. & Gr. Knt. 2499 Pat he last for his vnleute at be leodes hondes, for blame. 1456 Sir G. Have Law Armis (S.T.S.) 25 The third part of the sternis was obumbrit with mirkes of unleautee. a 1470 Harding Chron. cxiii. xiv, Through theyr vnlewtee [the Scots] Crowned Gilryke a Dane.

Unli·able, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1604 Quarles Div. Poems, Job xvi. 32 How can I.., Vnliable to danger, flatter any? 1664 H. More Myst. Iniq. Pref. 1 margin, This Idea..is..unliable to any uncivil construction. 1679 Puller Moderat. Ch. Eng. v. 88 No where judging of them as unliable to error. 1770 Norris Chr. Prud. vii. 297 Things that..are not so unliable to Disorder and abuse.

Unli·bbed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1697 Tossell Four of Beasts 34 They vse to gelde them in March, afterward being well nourished, they [sc. gelded horses] are no lesse strong..then other vnlibbed. Unli·beral, a. rare—0. (Un-1 7.) 1570 Levins Manip. 54 Vnliberall, illiberalis. 1622 Florio, Inliberale, vnliberall, sparing. Unli·beralized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 a. c.) 1 Williams Mem. W. Hastings 40 Are there any so unliberalized as to insist, that..the calumniated should only be allowed a passport to Peace from Death? Unli·berated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1832 Penny Cycl. VIII. 411/1 The removal of pressure upon the nerves, produced by the advancing and unliberated tooth. 1865 Reader 14 Oct. 430/2 The irregular weapons of a still unliberated press. Unli·bidinous, a. (Un-1 7.) 1667 Milton P. L. v. 449 But in those hearts Love unlibidinous reign'd.

Uni·censed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Of persons, etc.: a. Not authorized by a formal license to carry on some occupation, industry, etc.

1634 in 10*th Rep. Hist. MSS. Commission* App. IV. 428, 100 unlicensed alehouses. 1643 [see a 2]. 1746 Francis tr. Horace, Epist. II. i. 154 A downfall first ingulfs unlicens'd Doctors fear. 1845 McCulloch Taxation ii. x, A fine..rigorously exacted from unlicensed dealers. 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xx. IV. 417 With great difficulty and after long search the most important of all the unlicensed presses was discovered.

b. Not furnished with authority, sanction, or formal permission to do something.

1608 Shaks. Per. I. iii. 27 Why, as it were unlicens'd of your loves, He would depart, I'll give some light unto you. 1685 Baxter Paraphr. N. T. To Rdr. A 3 b, The Papists restraint of the Laity unlicensed, from reading it translated in a known Tongue. 1745 Pope Odyss. xiii. 175 To wave the thoughtless self-confiding train No more unlicens'd thus to brave the main. 1795 Southey Joan of Arc IV. 414 Did she upon thy parting steps bestow Her free-will blessing, or has sent forth..unlicensed and unblest?

2. a. Of books, etc.: Published without licence.

1643 Order in Milton's Areop. (Arb.) 27 All unlicensed Printing Presses, and all Presses any way imployed in the printing of scandalous or unlicensed Papers. 1644 Milton Areop. (Arb.) 53 All scandalous and unlicenc't books. 1647 (title), An Ordinance against unlicensed or scandalous Pamphlets.

b. Not authorized or sanctioned.

1649 Jer. Taylor Apol. Liturgy § 135 Many such cases will concur in unlicensed prayers. a 1794 T. Brown Dial. Devil, Reas. Oathis Wks. 1720 IV. 284 Is any..of the good People of Doctors Commons [turned] to unlicens'd Marriages? 1728 Pope Dunciad IV. 228 For Attic Phrase In Plato let them seek, I poach in Plato for unlicens'd Greek. 1819 Scott Leg. Montrose Introd., No less would our sexton.. have held it an unlicensed intrusion. 1856 Froude Hist. Eng. II. 193 The clergy had promised to abstain..from unlicensed legislation.

3. Free from requiring a licence.

1644 Milton (title), Areopagitica: a Speech..For the Liberty of Vnlicenc'd Printing, To the Parlament of England. 1863 H. Cox Instit. I. ix. 146 This Act was kept in force..until, 1695, it expired. The liberty of unlicensed printing dates from that period.

4. Unregulated, lawless. rare—1.

1828 Tytler Hist. Scot. I. 183 This prelate..with much personal risk, owing to the unlicensed state of the country..travelled with his suit..as far as Kirkcudbright.

Unlicentious, ppl. a. (Un-1 7.) 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 415 The exercise of sober, unlicentious freedom of thought. Unlicensed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1843 Ruskin Mod. Painth. I. 239 Unlicensed, dead, desolated rock. Unlickable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1845 [Isabell] Sybil v. vii, One of the most unlicked and unlickable cubs that ever entered society.

Uni·cked, ppl. a. [Un-1 8. Cf. Du. ongelikt, G. ungelecht.]

1. Not licked into shape. (See Lick v. 4.) Chiefly fig., esp. with cub (or whelp).

1593 Shaks. 3 Hen. VI, iii. ii. 161 Like to...an vn-lick'd Bear-whelpe, That carryes no impression like the Dammie. c 1618 Monyson Itin. iv. (1903) 1 Being drawne to the writing here of..out of a naturall affection to give all the members to this my unlicked whelpe. 1687 Dryden Hind & P. I. 36 The bloody Bear, an Independent beast, Unlick'd to form, in groans the Kirk attest. 1687 [see Cub sb. 3]. 1728 Warn. & Cib. Prov. Hush. ii. i, The Son is an unlick'd Whelp, about sixteen. † 1795 Coleridge After a Walk bef. Supper 30 A little ape with huge she-bear.. An unlicked cub, mere this one-the other Author. An antic huge. 1845 [see prec.]. 1871 Besant & Rice Ready-money Mort. x, You know, Polly, what an unlicked cub I was when I married you.

b. fig. Not reduced to form or order; uninished, unpolished, rude or crude.

1667 Boyle Style of Script. 283 Confus'd Notions, and Abortive or Unlick'd Conceptions. 1682 Dryden Abs. & Achit. ii. 502 But thou in Clumsy verse, unlick't, unpointed, Hast shamefully defil'd the Lord's Anointed. 1758 Wesley Wks. (1872) II. 457, I rode back..to put the society there (an unlicked lump) into some form. 1773 Mme. D'Arblay Early Diary Oct., I saw..the appearance of unlicked nature in all his motions. 1835 Lamb Elia ii. Pref., My late friend's writings..are..a sort of unlicked, incondite things.

2. Not licked.

1861 L. I. Noble Iceberge 296 Poor Pussy,..a creature of backbone and ribs, conted with fur unlicked and scorched. 1895 R. W. Chambers King in Yellow, Str. Four Winds, [The cat's] pink tongue travelled over every unlicked spot of [of] the saucer.

Unli·d, v. Also 3 unlide. [Un-2 4. Cf. OE. unhlidian] trans. To remove the lid from; to uncover.

a 1250 Ancr. R. 58 note (Trin. MS.), Pe dom is ful grure. ful & strong o pa pet uilden ham pe put. 1693 R. Lyde Rekeldes a Ship 17, I answered, alle shoes, for I don't want your help, and then they..unlid the Scuttle and went down. 1821 Clare Vill. Minstr. I. 116 The pitmen often..'neath many a loosen'd block, Unlid coffins in the rock. 1893 C. Brown Villette xiii, Not a paper but was glanced over, not a little box but was unlidded.

Uni·dded, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Not furnished or covered with a lid.

1819 Keats Song Four Faeries 86 My bare unlidded eyes. 1868 Browning Ring & Bk. III. 1366 If, with the middle blaze of noon Above, The unlidded eye of God awake. 1892 Mary Kingsley W. Africa 208 These pots..are unglazed, unlidded bowls.

†Unlief, a. Obs. [OE. unléof (Un-1 7), = MDu. (Du.) onlief, OHG. unliup, unleub, MHG. unliep (G. unlieb), ON. ólýfr, Goth. unliubs.] Not dear or valued; disliked, distasteful, unpleasant.

c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 189 Þe lichame..and þe gost.. fliten and winnen bitween hem, þat al þat is on unlief and unqueme, hit is þat oþer quieme. c 1400 Destr. Troy 2949 Therfore saintes to seche and to sere halowes,..it ledis vnto laithnes and vnleife werkes. 1430–40 Lydg. Bochas I. i. (1544) 4 Theyr..unware mischief..It was to them ful smooth and unlefe. 1a 1500 Chester Pl. (Shaks. Soc.) I. 42 To all men thou shalbe unleife,..And over all sette at naughte. 1513 Douglas Æneid xii. xiii. 48 Sustenand thus..every stress, baith lowe and unleif. a 1595 Sir T. Challoner tr. Erasmus's Nuga Ant. (1804) II. 379 Nat so unleef, that I should wysh To be thy Trojan wyfe.

Unlifeli·ke, a. (Un-1 7 c.) 1818 Hogg Brownie of Bodsbeck II. iv. 73, I see the dead are living, and no that unlifelike, as a body may say. 1881 Athenæum 19 Nov. 664/3 The Highland characters of his present story are not unlifelike. Unlifitable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) [1775 Ash.] 1818 Art Preserv. Food 5 Such a quantity of sufficient importance to form the basis of a huge unlifitable quarto. 1854 Ferrier Inst. Metaph. 59 Suppose he were to call the latter the unlifitable, the imponderable without any qualification. Unlifted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1815 Byron Destr. Sennacherib v, The tents were all silent,..The lances unlifted. 1828 Ainger Lamb v. 94 The cloud of domestic anxiety was still unlifted. Unlifting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1845 Mrs. Norton Child of Islands 131 Veiling dear eyes..With an unlifting veil. Unli·gable, a. rare—1. (Un-1 7 b.) Incapable of being bound. 1653 R. Baillie Dissuas. Vind. (1655) 70 Remember what you assert of unligable Proteus.

Unli·ght, a.[1] [Un-1 7 + Light a.[1] Cf. ON. ólétr (Mdw. ólíttr), MHG. unlîhte.] Not light (in weight or feeling); heavy.

c 1320 Sir Tristr. 2110 Ich wil ton hit lod vnlitt. Ibid. 1939 A lance vn-lijt. c 1440 Promptom 472 He., takith hys leue with hert vnlyght. 1480–1 J. Watton Spec. Xristiani 46 A temple..With walles and pylers here onlyght.

Unli·ght, a.[2] rare—0. (Un-1 7 + Light a.[2]) Not bright or clear; dark, obscure. 1570 Levins Manip. 119 Vnlight, obscurus.

Unli·ght, v. Now s.v. dial. [Un-2 9. Cf. dial. onlight (1825–).] intr. To alight, dismount.

1623 Cockeram 1, Degresse, to vnlight from a Horse. 1796 Mrs. M. Robinson Angelina II. 174 I'm sure you hadn't one companion when you unlighted. 1847 Halliwell. 1886– in Glouc., Som., and Devon glossaries, etc.

†Unlight, ppl. a.[1] Obs.—1 [Un-1 8 + Light v.[1] 6.] Not dismounted. c 1400 Destr. Troy 9446 He raghte to the reynes of pe riche qweene,..And led hit vnlight into a large halle. † Unlight, ppl. a.[2] Obs. [Un-1 8 b.] = next 1. a 1300 Three 15th Cent. Chrom. (Camden) 104 The torches unlight met hym at the steyre foote,..and so went byfore hym unlyght to the chirche. 1591 Sylvester Du Bartas I. ii. 670 As lighted Candles doe th' unlight inflame.

Unlighted, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not lighted; not set on fire; unkindled.

1629 Ad Populum Phaleræ ii. Ask him but whence unlighted Candles came? 1798 Percy Solomon III. 768 The sacred Wood, which on the Altar lay, Untouch'd, unlighted glows. 1863 Thornbury True as Steel III. 16 The cannon-fire, rising, unlighted linstock in hand. 1889 D. C. Murray Hearts xxxiv, With his unlighted pipe between his teeth.

2. Not lighted up or illuminated; not furnished with light. Also fig.

[1775 Ash, Unlighted,..not directed by light.] 1825 T. Hook Sayings Ser. II. III. 102 The countenance of..Fanny, was the only one unlighted by smiles and happiness. 1855 Aytoun Ballad Lend. it. 213 Ye..gave me nine unlighted realms to rule. 1886 C. E. Pascoe London of To-day (ed. 3) 254 A cell..unlighted except by the door.

Unlightened, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

† 1. Unenlightened. Obs.

1581 Golding De Mornay xxii. 389 Princes vnlightened by God, are so desirous of vainglorie. 1627 Hakewill Apol. 35 Onely this part of [Christendom]..remaines..vnlightened, in the darkenes of ignorance.

2. Not lighted up; unbrightened; † unlighted.

1637–50 Row Hist. Kirk (Maitland Cl.) I. 119 A glorious altar sett vp, with..two unlightned candles, and two basins. 1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharonnida III. ii. 19 Whilst she did remain Unlightened with a beam of comfort. 1852 Baxter Festus (ed. 4) 42 Souls seem to live, Whose hearts are like those unlightened stars Of the first darkness. 1896 Westm. Gaz. 2 May 2/2 Sombre gloom, unlightened save for the red staves of the inverted halberds.

Unlightsome, a. (Un-1 7.)

1592 R. D. Hypnerotomachia 17 This dark vnlightsome place. 1594 Chapman Shadow of Night 30 When vnlightsome, vast, and indigest, The formelesse matter of this world did lye. 1667 Milton P. L. VII. 355 Of Celestial Bodies first the Sun A mightie Sphere he fram'd, unlightsom first. 1686 J. [Sergeant] Hist. Monast. Convent. 167 The place of Election is very unlightsom, as having but a few Lights.

Unligni·fied, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1875 Bennett & Dyer tr. Sachs' Bot. 100 An unlignified gelatinous thickening-mass. 1878 Masters Jeffrey's Elem. Bot. (ed. 3) 114 The cell walls consist of unlignified cellulose.

Unli·ke, a. and sb. Forms: 3–4 un-, vnlich, 4 -liche (-lichy, 5 onliche), -leche; 3 unnlic, 4 vnlic, -lijc, 4–5 vnlyk, 5–6 vnlyke (6 -leke), 3- unlike. [ME. unlîch(e, unlîk(e (Un-1 7), corresponding to OE. ungelic Unlîche a. Cf. Ofris. (NFris.) unlik, obs. Du. onlijk, MLG. (LG.) unlîk, ON. ólíkr (Icel. ólíkur, Msw. olîker, olika, Sw. olik, olika, MDa. ulig, uligr, Da. and Norw. ulig, Norw. ulik.]

1. Not like or resembling, different from, dissimilar to (some other person or thing).

c 1200 Ormin 16859 Forr all þatt folc let tatt he was Unnlic all operr lede. a 1225 Juliana 14 Ich am iweddet to an.. þe is unlich hiim. 1390 Gower Conf. III. 64 He was unlich alle othre there. 1553 Ascham Germany P 4 He thought it his most honor to be vnlykest such for his gentlenes, which were mislliked..for their cruelnie. 1596 Shaks. Merch. V. ii. 56 How much [thou art] vnlike my hopes and my deseruings? 1634 Sir T. Herbert Trav. 183 The Banian[s] giues a most delicious..relish, not much vnlike our choicest Pears. 1676 Glanvill Ess. vi. 30 Those, whose Genius and Ways are so unlike him. 1725 Pope Odyss. ix. 221 A form enormous! Far unlike the race Of human birth, in stature. 1750 tr. Leonardus' Mirr. Stones 112 Some jaspers are not much unlike red porphyry. 1829 Jas. Mill Hum. Mind (1869) II. 252 As unlike to any of those..as the sensation of white is unlike to any of the sensations of primatic colours. 1875 Jowett Plato (ed. 2) I. 401 The philosopher has notions of good and evil unlike those of other men.

b. Const. to; also (quot. 1873) from.

1340–70 Alex. & Dind. 271 Oure lif & oure lawe vnlich is to yours. c 1400 Rom. Rose 6356 Vnlyk is my wood to my dede. c 1450 Myrr. our Ladye 224 How vnlyke worldely worshyp is vnto gostly loye. 1531 Elyot Gov. II. xiv, This maner of flatery is moste unlyke to that whiche is commonly used. 1556 Golde Antichrist 116 b, Two heades.., farre unlyke the one to the other. 1670 Baxter Cure Ch. Div. 238 You would shew yourselves much..unliker to Satan the accuser. 1825 Scott Betrothed xiv, Their very saints are unlike to the saints of any Christian country. 1873 Patek Stud. Hist. Renaiss. 80 They were of a spirit as unlike as possible from that of Lorenzo. 1876 Gladstone Glean. (1879) II. 271 He was very unlike to any other man.

2. Not like each other; different, dissimilar.

c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 1726 Þoȝ him boren ȝes ones blos Vnlike manige and likeles. c 1280 Auchinleck 116 b, Twoi Treat. Wycif (1851) 150 Loke Cristis coporde, and hers; and þei ben ful unlichy. 1565 Stapleton tr. Bede's Hist. Ch. Engl. 25b, The parties there we farre vnleke of condition. 1605 Bacon Adv. Learn. II. viii. § 10 The vnlikeness in the worlde; the one being fierce..; the other simple. 1642 Milton Ch. Govt. I. iv. 13 There can be no possible imitation of Lording over their brethren in regard of their persons altogether unlike. 1901 J. Harris Lex. Techn. I. xxv, Unlike Quantities and Signs in Algebra. 1897 Crabbe Par. Reg. II. 283 How fair these names, how much unlike they look. 1842 Francis Dict. Arts, Unlike quantities, in algebra, are such as are expressed by different letters, or different roots or powers of the same letter. 1889 Gerton Memory's Harbh. 125 We may take together two other Judges,..as unlike as the bear and the innate gentleman.

absol. 1831 Carlyle Sart. Res. II. v, This approximation of the Like and Unlike. Ibid., In this case of the Like-Unlike.

b. sb. pl. Dissimilar things or persons.

1612 W. Sclater Sick Souls Salve 1 He amplifies it in a comparison of unlikes. a 1626 — Comm. Malachy (1650) 66 It is handled in a plenary comparison of unlikes. 1897 J. Pulsford Quiet Hours 43 Like can reach like, and act upon it, in a way that unlikes cannot.

3. † a. Differing from others of the kind; incomparable; unusual. Obs.

1390 Gower Conf. II. 275 Bot certes such usure unlike It falleth more unto the riche. 14.. R. Gloucester's Chron. (MS. Digby 205) fol. 56 He was in his lyue euer ryȝt ryche Of richesse before al oper he was vnliche.

b. Differing from, dissimilar to, the thing or person in question. Also absol.

c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. iv. vii. (1868) 98 Ne it ne is nat an vnlyke miracle to hem þat ne knowen it nat. 1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 5 Nor a muche vnlyke aunswere dyd Wylliam, late archebishop of Canterbury, .. gyue vnto me. 1595 Daniel Civ. Wars lxxii, He saw prepard, against his side, Both vnlike fortune, and vnequall force. 1667 Milton P. L. vi. 517 Part hidd'n veins diggd up (nor hath this Earth Entrails unlike) of Mineral and Stone. 1847 Helps Friends in C. Ser. I. I. lx. 166 Not only like likes like, but unlike likes unlike. 1865 Swinburne Atalanta 620 A god Faultless; whom I that love not, being unlike, Fear, and give honour. 1877 E. R. Conder Bas. Faith ii. 81 Awaiting the presence of unlike atoms to call them forth in turn.

c. sb. A person differing from another or others.

13.. Sir Beues (A.) 1099 Her is..min vnliche, Brademond king, þat is so riche. [Cf. Unliche sb.] 1875 Jowett Plato (ed. 2) II. I. 219 This just does not desire more than his like but more than his unlike. 1896 Pop. Sci. Monthly Feb. 494 As long as it remains a stranger and an unlike.

4. Presenting points of difference or dissimilarity; not uniform or even; unequal.

c 1375 Cursor M. 7917 (Fairf.), her was wonande þat was vnlike þi men a poiuer and a richer man. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) VI. 289 Pere was unleche noumbre of array of knystes, for ayenst an hondred .. come a bowsand. 1535 Coverdale Eccles. xxvi. 7 Whan an vnlike pare of oxen yut draue together. c 1550 H. Lloyd Treasury of Health b 5 If the water do appeare vnlike of substance. 1642 J. Eaton Honey-c. Free Justif. 261 That unlike likenesse betweene Adam and Christ, which the Apostle speaks of, Rom. 5. 1645 Milton Tetrach. 9 Where the different sexe in most resembling unlikenes, and most unlike resemblance, cannot but please best.

5. Unlikely, improbable. Now dial. or arch.

a. With subordinate clause.

c 1400 Destr. Troy. 565 The perlouse pointtes þat passe you behoues, Hit is vnlike ayt lede with his liffe pas. 1400–10 Clanvowe Cuckow & Nightj. iv. Hit is vnlyk for to be That eny herte shulde slepy be [etc.]. 1535 Cromwell in Merriman Life & Lett. (1902) I. 413 It is not vnlike but that the saide Duke hathe ben deceyued. 1577 Hamner Eccl. Hist. (1663) 235 Neither is it unlike, but that these circumstances might be. 1610 Healey St. Aug. Citie of God, Vives' Comm. VIII. xi. 317 It is vnlike that so sharpe a wit..found not the difference and multitude of things. 1792 T. Irons Crit. Essay (1879) 29 In process of time .. it is not unlike there might come..new colonies from Spain. 1795 Southey Joan of Arc III. 401 Whether so [it is] not unlike Heaven might vouchsafe its gracious miracle. a 1905 in Eng. Dial. Dict. (Yks., Warw.).

b. With inf.

1400–20 [see a]. 1538 Henry VIII in Wyatt's Wks. (1816) II. 498 Unjust..demands, and unlike to proceed out of a willing heart to conclude. 1584 R. Scot Discov. Witchcr. III. xviii. 54 Being through age unlike to live one whole yeare. 1646 in Rushw. Hist. Coll. (1659) I. 286 He thought the Match very unlike to be effected. 1655 Earl Orrery Parthen. I. I. 26 This Arabian was not altogether unlike to escape unpunished. 1664 Boyle Occas. Reft. I. III. 168 Blessings, that I do not so much desire for myself, and which consequently I am very unlike particularly to acknowledge.

† c. Without likelihood of something. Obs.—[1]

1559 Mirr. Mag., Fall R. Tresilian xiv, Thus all went to wracke vnlyke of remedie.

Unlike, adv. Forms: 4–5 vnliche, 4 onlyche; 4–7 vnlike (5 -lyk, 6 -lyke), 7, 9 unlike. [Un-1 11 b. Cf. Unliche adv.]

† 1. a. Unevenly, unequally; in a higher or lower degree. Obs.

a 1300 Fragm. Semen Sint 55 in E.E.P. (1862) 20 Worldis wel falliß vnliche, and not euch man liich. 1390 Gower Conf. III. 89 Theologie in such a wise Of hih science and hih aprise Above alle othre stant unlike. c 1425 Wyntoun Cron. VIII. xvi. 2594 Na man..euer coup tell..A maire commendable memore, As þai did of þis pure kinrik, in þat batall bodin vnlike.

† b. Incomparably. Obs.

14.. R. Gloucester's Chron. (MS. Digby 205) fol. 19 b, Cloten hadde most rijte to þis kyngeryche But þe opere were stronger & rycher vnliche [var. onlyche]. c 1425 Cursor M. 5325 (Trin.) Ne kyng lete write lettres þare to gider alle..þe beste in þat londe vnliche.

2. † a. Differently, diversely. Also const. to.

1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 5 Whiche the Romayns vsed, but vnlyke to vs. 1552 Huloet, Vnlyke or in a diuers fashion, dissimiliter. 1595 in Cath. Rec. Soc. Publ. V. 330 Some tyme ye pleaseth God to reveale his wille..by dreames, as He did to Joseph, Pharo, and others, and here not unlike to His designed martyr.

b. In a manner differing from (that of a specified person).

1593 Shaks. 2 Hen. VI, I. i. 189 Oft haue I seene the haughty Cardinall..demeane himselfe Vnlike the Ruler of a Common-weale. 1619 Sir A. Gorges tr. Bacon's De Sap. Vet. 82 This Loue..directing his pace..by that which it perceaues nearest, not vnlike blind men that goe by feeling. 1634 Sir T. Herbert Trans. 24 A little haire before, bauld else-where, not vnlike occasion. 1818 Scott Br. Lamm. xxi, The Master has treated me unlike a gentleman. 1841 W. Spalding Italy & It. Isl. II. 387 They stand apart from all the others, because, unlike these, they applied [etc.].

† 3. Improbably; unlikely. Obs.

a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. V, 67 b, Some say that he was therto stirred..by the dolphyn (and not vnlike). 1596 Spenser F. Q. v. v. 38 And, though (vnlike) they should for euer blaspheme, Yet in my truthes assurance I rest fixed fast.

† Unlike, v.[1] Obs. rare. [Un-1 14.] a. intr. To become displeased. b. trans. To displease.

c 1275 Lay. 3266 Leir king was wel ipaid and eft onlikede, c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. II. 267 He haþ sorwe of þe synne, þi resoun þat it unlikiß God.

Unli·ke, v.[2] rare. [Un-2 7.] intr. To give up liking; to cease to like.

1761 Mrs. F. Sheridan Sidney Bidulph I. 183 My heart is not in a disposition to love..I cannot compel it to like and unlike, and like anew at pleasure.

Unli·keable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1842 L. Hunt Seer II. (1864) 1 Without trying to conceal my unlikeable from its inferiority. 1888 Athenæum 31 March 396/1 There are touches about her that..make her unlikeable.

Unli·ked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 8 c.)

1561 B. Goodge Pedingenius' Zodiac Life I. A j b, Not worse vnliked now shall I be, yf thaut thou wylt me blesse. 1620 Br. Hall Hon. Marr. Clergy I. xxvii. (1628) 769 That more vnliked epistle which Ignatius wrote to Saint John. 1641 (title), An Aprovd Answer to the partiall and unlike of Lord Digbies Speech to the Bill of Attainder.

Unli·kelihood. [Un-1 12. Cf. Unlikely a., and MDa. uligelighed.]

† 1. Unlikeness, dissimilarity, discrepancy. Obs.

1483 Caxton Gold. Leg. 273/1, I fond myself right fer fro the in a Regyon of vnlykelyhode [L. dissimilitudinis]. 1550 Thomas Ital. Dict., Disguaugliantza, vnseemelinesse, vnlikelyhoode, or thing that is betweene two things compariedd or lying to an other. 1564 Brief Exam. 20 b, Euery man..may see a great vnlikelyhood betwixt those tymes and ours. 1613 Purchas Pilgrimage (1614) 573 By which likenesse in name great confusion and vnlikelihoods haue happened in Histories.

2. The state or fact of being unlikely; improbability.

1548 Udall, etc. Erasm. Par. John xix. 109 So muche vnlikelyhoode was it, that the felowship of punishement should defyle hym. 1598 R. Bernard tr. Terence, Andria II. ii. Hauing gathered by mardie signes and coniectures the vnlikelihood of the marriage. 1646 Earl Monm. tr. Biondi's Civil Wars IX. 199 By the Vnlikelyhood and Impossibility that he should escape the hands of a Crafty Vncle. 1695 J. Edwards Perfect. Script. 238 There was no vnlikelihood of the thing. 1767 Mrs. Delany Life & Corr. Ser. II. (1862) I. 116 Knowing the vnlikelihood of your being to return to us. 1794 Paley Evid. II. viii, The extreme vnlikelihood that such men should engage in such a measure. 1860 Miss Yonge Stokesley Secr. xii, The exceeding unlikelihood of a girl like Elizabeth committing .. a theft. 1877 Freeman Norm. Conq. I. vi. 462 Statements which have no inherent unlikelihood in them.

b. With a and pl. An improbable occurrence, fact, statement, etc.

a 1550 Leland Itin. (1769) II. 35 Duyers Brethren dyed.., and by a great vnlykelihod al the Landes descendid to.. the Yonggest of the Brethren. 1561 Daus tr. Bullinger on Apoc. (1573) 4, I will shew the lykelyhodes and the vnlykelyhodes. 1647 Jer. Taylor Lib. Proph. ii. 41 The rarest mixture .. of unlikelihoods that I have observed. 1682 Luttrell Brief Rel. (1857) I. 188 By the several contradictions and unlikelihoods in his evidence. 1738 G. Lillo Marina III. ii, What strange unlikelihood assaults my mind! 1814 Southey Roderick XII. 14, I will believe that we have days in store Of hope,..Yea, maugre all unlikelihoods,..of peace. 1862 Lewes Barrington xv, He hesitated how to measure an unlikelihood.

Unli·keliness. [Un-1 12. Cf. prec. and next.]

† 1. Unsuitableness. Obs.

c 1374 Chaucer Troylus I. 16 For I þat god of loues seruantz serue Ne dar to loue for myn vnlikiynesse.

† 2. Unseemliness, unbecomingness. Obs.

1496 Act Parl. Scot. (S.T.S.) 199 Nevertheles and he saw..him mak grete repaire till his hous, and unlyklynes, he mycht mak him..exhortaciuo to nocht mak sik unlikly repaire. 1689 H. More Paralip. Prophet. xxxiv. 96 What unlikeliness or indecorum is it, that Proclamation be made who he is, that shall..[open] the Book?

† 3. Dissimilarity, discrepancy. Obs.

1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. II. 143 It shall be sufficient that we wey the wordes of one of them, to attain the meaning of them both. Albeit, there is some vnlikelinesse betwene them. 1604 T. Wright Passions v. iv. 189 Likelinesse or vnlikelinesse are also relatives, and consequently belong to this same predicament. c 1620 Br. Hall Contempl., N. T. II. ii, Neither was there more unlikeliness in their disposition and carriage, than similitude in their function. 1730 Bailey (fol.), Dissimilitude, unlikeliness.

4. Unlikelihood, improbability.

1614 Raleigh Hist. World III. vii. § 4. 82 Whether Themistocles perceiued much vnlikelinesse of good successe [etc.]. 1690 Locke Human Understanding IV. xv. § 2. 332 There being degrees herein, from the very neighbourhood of Certainty and Evidence, quite down to Improbability and Unlikeliness. 1841 Gen. P. Thompson Exerc. (1842) VI. 16 The unlikeliness that he should get what he asked for. 1881 Saintsbury Dryden 72 The unlikeliness of his ever having been a very fervent Roundhead.

Unli·kely, a. (and sb.). [Un-1 7. Cf. ON. illiklíger (Icel. ólíklegur, MSw. olikleker, Sw. olikliig, MDa. uligelig, Norw. ulikleg).]

1. Not likely to occur or come to pass; improbable in respect of occurrence.

1375 Barbour Bruce IX. 670 He oft fall vnlikly thing Brocht vnto well to full good ending. 1488 Cely Papers (Camden) 169 They of Bruges sayth all schall be well schortly but hytt ys onlyckly. 1513 Douglas Æneid XI. viii. 170 Tyme..Reducit hes full mony onlikly thyng To fall vnlikly þan was their begynning. a 1533 Ld. Berners Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. xxxvi. (1536) R ii, The more yll they vyet, the more vnlykely is the redres therof agayn. c 1580 Bugbears 1 ii. 121 Why is it a thing vnpossible or vnlikelie that spirites vill dwell within gold? 1642 D. Rogers Naaman 200 Thus Papists conceiue it an unlikelyer thing, that [etc.]. 1692 Bentley Boyle Lect. 218 Which makes it ..more improbable, that they should interfere..even in the last and unlikeliest instance. 1861 Paley Æschylus (ed. 2) Suppliices 979 note, However, κἄωρα is an unlikely crasis.

b. Not likely to be true or correct; improbable in respect of fact.

1592 Shaks. Ven. & Ad. 989 The one doth flatter thee in thoughts unlikely, In likely thoughts the other kills thee quickly. 1613 Purchas Pilgrimage (1614) 595 Josephus and Eusebius thinke them to bee the Israelites, which is vnlikely. 1673 Dryden Marr. à la Mode III. i, They tell, for news, such unlikely stories! 1712 J. James tr. La Blond's Gardening 141 An Opinion very unlikely to believe Trees have their Male and Female. 1780 Mirror No. 73, If this..be the effect of habit, which is not unlikely. 1871 Freeman Norm. Conq. IV. xviii. 231 The presence of Matilda..at such a time is in itself unlikely.

c. Not likely, in various implications.

1535 Coverdale Ecclus. xi. 6 Many tyrauntes haue bene fayne to syt downe vpon the earth, & ye vnlickly hath wone ye crowne. 1593 Sidney's Arcadia IV. P 1 That by unlikeliest meanes greatest matters may come to conclusion. 1622 Donne Serm. 25 A farre vnlikelier sort of people, then any of these. 1656 Cowley Davideis IV. 828 Nor would ill Fate that mean me to surprise, Come death'd in so unlikely a Disguise. 1694 Atterbury Serm. Isaiah lx. 22 14 This .. was an Unlikely way of gaining Proselytes. 1749 Lavington Enthus. Meth. & Papists II. (1754) 129 He cures Diseases..with unlikely Remedies. 1771 G. White Selborne lxi, A succession [of swifts] still haunts the same unlikely roofs. 1847 C. Bronte J. Eyre xxxiv, A poor lad was come, at that unlikely time, to fetch Mr. Rivers. 1855 A. J. Morris Words for Poor 5 If God is in the habit of employing unlikely instruments. 1898 † Merriman' Roden's Corner ii, Cases where brilliant men have failed and unlikely ones have covered themselves with..glory.

Comb. 1898 Farr Spir. Confer. (1890) 137 Those vices of which the unlikeliest-looking souls are often the likeliest to be guilty.

d. sb. An unlikely person.

1867 Latham Black & White 98 He goes round with his.. papers, dealing out to each passenger liberal or unlikely (because the unlikelies would be offended if omitted).

2. With complement: a. With to and inf. (active or passive).

1395 Purvey Remonstr. (1851) 84 The noueltees of this Innocent ben vnlicli to be sothe. 1412–20 Lydg. Chron. Troy IV. 9 Vnlikly [it was] euere vs to han had victorie. c 1450 Mirk's Festial 140 Iesu, whan he se strangest eyte yt all be world, and vnlykly forto haue ben wonon. 1611 Florio, Inaccadeuole, vnlikely to chance or befall. 1658 Osborne Adv. Son Wks. (1673) 122 The not unlikeliest to know Truth. 1711 Steele Spect. No. 143 P 1 It will be much more unlikely for us to be well-pleased. 1764 Museum Rust. IV. 12 Salt-peire Bay, which is not unlikely to have been so denominated from salt-petre there. 1842 Loudon Suburban Hort. 377 They are the most unlikely to become fruit-buds. 1890 'R. Boldrewood' Col. Reformer (1891) 216 He was as unlikely as Grahame to take..to the improvement of the common people.

b. With that and clause.

1412–20 Lydg. Chron. Troy IV. 3243 For now, allas! vnlikly is þat we Shal euere wynne..þis cite. 1722 Wollaston Relig. Nat. v. (1724) 82 Make him understand how unlikely a thing it is, that they should be placed there only to adorn..a canopy over our heads. 1852 Ord's Circ. Sci., Inorg. Nat. 226 It is not unlikely that the gas thus formed occupies the place of water. 1884 Thompson Tumours of Bladder 55 It is not unlikely that some of these may be congenital.

† 3. Unsuitable, unsuited; not fit or proper. Obs.

c 1386 Chaucer Merch. T. 936 That when I considere youre beautee, And ther with al the vnlikly elde of me, I may nat certes..Forbere to been out of youre compaignye. c 1440 Capgrave Life St. Kath. III. 782 His cloths in his woordis arn ful onlykly. 1470–85 Malory Arthur II. viii. 84 Thou art a boystous man and an vnlykely to telle of suche dedes. 1571 Southampton Court Leet Rec. (1905) I. 77 Such as are..unlykelye and unmeete men to serve for that poorpose. 1588 Nottingham Rec. IV. 221 Yt ys an onlykelye house for suche one to dwelle there.

b. Unseemly, unbecoming; not acceptable or agreeable; objectionable, distasteful. Obs. exc. dial.

1456 [see Unlikeliness 2]. c 1470 Henry Wallace II. 263 On a cleur wallyd thai lion cast. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia II. (1912) 153 For a very unlikely envie she hath stumbled upon, against the Princesses .. beautie. 1590 Serpent of Devit. B j/a The most unlikely person and the most wretch that in any countyre might be found. 1728 Ramsay Gentle Sheph. I. i. 24 Yet I am tall, and as weel built as thee, Nor mair unlikely to a lass's eye. 1889 N. W. Linc. Gloss. 586 Unlikely, bad, displeasing.

† c. Unpromising; poor in quality or condition. 1560 Rolland Seven Sages 46 This auld tre .. fra the young takis all substance and air; .. Sa the young plant is sa vnlikie maid. a 1648 Ld. Herbert Hen. VIII (1683) 322 That Forests..should be driven once in the year, and unlikely Kits in them to be killed.

Unli·kely, adv. [Un-1 11: cf. prec. and MSw. olikliika.] Improbably.

c 1449 Pecock Repr. III. xiii. 362 The oon bifore seid epistle putt and ascryued vnlikeli to Constantyn. 1641 Milton Ch. Govt. I. vii. 40 [He] may fall not unlikely sometimes, into an uncouth opinion. 1778 Pope Lett. (1737) I. 246 The pleasures..must undoubtedly be of a nobler kind, and (not unlikely) may proceed from the discoveries each shall communicate to another, of God and of nature. 1830 Southey in Corr. w. C. Bowles (1881) 199 This provides also (most unlikely) in case of his half-continence again becoming whole-craziness. 1867 Freeman Norm. Conq. I. v. 298 The church .. may, not unlikely, have been raised.. to commemorate the event.

† Unli·ken, v. Obs. [Un-1 6 a. OE. onlíkian,] trans. To disemble. 1382 Wyclif 1 Kings xiv. 5 Whanne she was comen yn, and hadde vnlikened hire silf to be that she was. Unli·keable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1845 Bailey Festus (ed. 2) 46 The earth .. Is not so like the unlikeable One as thou.

Unli·keness. [Un-1 12.]

† 1. Strangeness. Obs.

c 1230 Hali Meid. 13, I þis world þat is icleopet lond of unlicnesse. a 1380 St. Augustin 224 in Horstm. Altengl. Leg. (1878) 65/2, I fond fro þe þat ler I was, As in a kyngdam of vnlikenes.

2. The quality of being unlike; want of likeness or resemblance; dissimilarity.

c 1386 WYCLIF Serm. Sel. Wks. II. 227 For noo drede lickenesse of bre|eren causip love among hem, and unlikenesse is cause of discord. 1390 TREVISA Bartth. De P. P. xi. xii. (1495) c j/1 No violence of tyrannye bendyth theym to oppresse . . the nether angelis. Therfore Denys sayth that they vse theyr lordshypp wyth vnlykenesse of tyrannye. 1533 MORE Debell. Salem Wks. (1557) 1 Supernum. No. 1. 2/1 We meet with some Characters of Unlikeness in this Similitude. 1772 WESLEY Jrnl. 11 Feb. (1827) III. 440 For . . unlikeness to all the world beside, . the writer is without a rival! 1846 TRENCH Mirac. xxv. (1862) 359 There are . . points of unlikeness in the two miracles. 1853 KINGSLEY Hypatia xxi. It was . strange in its utter unlikeness to any teaching . which he had ever heard before. 1875 WHITNEY Life Lange iv. 74 We have of course a way in which this likeness in unlikeness can be brought about.

b. With a and pl. An instance of dissimilarity or want of resemblance.

1662 SOUTH Serm. (1679) 116 As great an unlikeness, as between St. Pauls a Cathedral, and St. Pauls a Stable. 1667 Phil. Trans. II. 611 These two unlikenesses I mention together. 1718 Freethinker No. 155 (1739) 240 Such Unlikenesses as, by their Subtility, escape the Observation of Judgments less acute. 1746 W. HORSLEY Fool (1748) I. 33 They are the Bear and the Belle; and, if I may be understood in thus speaking, are a similar Unlikeness. 1828 SOUTHEY Epist. to A. Cunningham 370, I recognise all these unlikenesses, Spurious abominations though they be. 1879 SIR G. CAMPBELL Black & White 27 The likenesses are much more numerous and much more prominent than the unlikenesses.

3. A bad or poor likeness.

1729 T. COOKE Tales, &c. 127 His ample Shield..On which th' Unlikeness of the Dwarfs appears. 1843 LONGF. Life (1891) II. 4 In the next number is an un-likeness of me, . in a morning-gown.

†Unli·kening, ppl. a. Obs.[1] [UN-[1] 10.] Differing. c 1450 Piers Pl. Crede 17 cxxxii. (1869) 70 These bon thinges gretliche unliknynge and discordinge.

Unli·king, vbl. sb. [UN-[1] 13.] Want of liking; dislike; + dissatisfaction.

1398 TREVISA Barth. De P. P. v. xxxvi. (Bodl. MS.), Pe making of he hert..is be..wel of meinyng and liking [and] of alle vnliking. c 1400 Gest's Horale in Curtor pl. App. iv. 242 Quen you has of þi þing porou hap vnliking..behalde bou on oper men. 1876 MRS. WHITNEY Sights & Ins. II. xxiii. 272 A gradual liking that was at first almost unliking. 1886 D. C. MURRAY First Person Sing. xxv, Angela had..a genuine unliking for O'Rourke.

†Unli·king, ppl. a. Obs. [UN-[1] 10.] Unpleasant, disagreeable.

1393 LANGL. P. Pl. C. VIII. 23 Ich hadde leuere..lacke mete, and lykne hem in vnlykynge maneres, pan al bat euere Marcat hadde. a 1450 R. CHESTER Lovelich Merlin (W. de W. 1496) XII. v. 213/2 Yf one corde..in the harpe be broke... all the songe..shall be unlykynge to all that here it. 1 a 1500 Chester Pl. (Shaks. Soc.) I. 83 Lorde, I muste doe thy bydding. Though yt be to me unliking. c 1500 SKELTON Magnyf. 1958, I am lowsy and vnlykynge and full of scurffe. 1570 LEVINS Manip. 137 Vnliking, displicitus.

Unlimb, v. [UN-[2] 4.] trans. To dismember. 1594 MOTTRUX Rabelais IV. iii. 208 Batter 'em, burst 'em, quarter 'em, unlimb 'em, . these wicked Heretics. 1869 J. CONNINGTON Horace, Sat. (1874) 17 Still The bard remains, unlimb him as you will. Unlimber, a. (UN-[1] 7.) a 1639 WOTTON Charac. P. di Medici in Relig. (1651) 364 To which temper more septentrional unlimber Nations have not yet bent themselves.

Unli·mber, v. [UN-[2] 5.]

1. Mil. To free (a gun) from the limber, by detaching and withdrawing this, preparatory to bringing the gun into action.

1828 JAMES Milit. Dict. s.v. Limber, A two-wheel carriage ..taken off..; which is called unlimbering the guns. 1839 F. A. GRIFFITHS Artill. Man. 93 Square can only be formed when..both guns and waggons are unlimbered. 1879 C. R. LOW Prof. General A Abbott ii. 146 Abbott..unlimbered the 24-pounder howitzer.

fig. 1864 TREVELYAN Compet. Wallah (1866) 272 Then are the' English name', and 'the' development of the resources of India', unlimbered, and trundled out to overawe the.. magistrates.

b. absol. To perform the operation of detaching and withdrawing the limber.

1828 SPEARMAN Brit. Gunner (ed. 2) 177 Unlimbering or Coming into Action. 1875 CLERY Min. Tact. xi. 136 A battery . . unlimbers and came into action.

transf. 1888 Harper's Mag. Sept. 555/1 A travelling band which [was]..in the second-class car, and which good-naturedly unlimbered at the stations.

2. To detach and withdraw the front-wheels of (a boat-carriage).

1853 DOUGLAS Milit. Bridges (ed. 3) 92 To launch the bateau, the carriage is placed with the pole towards the river, and unlimbered; by this means an inclined plane is formed.

Unlime, v. [UN-[2] 3. Cf. Flem. onlijmen (deglutinare,' (Kilian), G. entleimen.]

+ 1. trans. To detach, disserver. Obs.[-1]

1175 Ancr. R. 256 Þet he wot fil wel ‡ & for þi he is umbe-ȝiote unlimed on mid-weȝhne. [1648 HERRICK in Oberlinnen, to Vogius, or to Valiant.]

2. To free (dressed hides) from lime.

1885 Harper's Mag. Jan. 275/2 This washing in warm water is a preparation for 'drenching', the first process of unliming. 1888 Pop. Sci. Monthly Dec. 287 The process of unliming hides and skins.

Unli·med, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8. Cf. Du. ongelijmd, G. ungeleimt.]

1. Not smeared or clogged with bird-lime. In quots. fig.

1622 S. WARD Christ All in All (1627) 36 Christ, whom hee longed to bee with, and would now with vnlimed and vnentangled wings flye vnto. a 1650 STERRY Freed. Will (1675) 137 It keeps these wings vnlimed..by the filth or guilt of fleshly lusts.

2. Not dressed or treated with lime.

1756 F. HOME Exper. Bleaching 215 This makes limed cloth easily distinguishable from unlimed. 1801 Farmer's Mag. Nov. 478 As the grain must have lain in the ground for two years, and none was observed in the unlimed part.

Unli·mitable, a. [UN-[1] 7 b, 5 b.] Incapable of being limited; illimitable.

In frequent use from c 1610 to c 1650.

1604 MARSTON Malcontent i. vi, O vnlimitable impudence! 1690 LOCKE Govt. i. ii. (1694) 9 An Absolute, Arbitrary, Unlimited, and Unlimitable Power. 1716 M. DAVIES Athen. Brit. II. Diss. Dryden 33 In talking so much..of other People's unlimitable Liberty of Thinking and Worshipping.

Unli·mited, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.]

1. Not limited or restricted in amount, extent, or degree: a. Of power or authority, a rule, etc.

c 1445 PECOCK Donet 129 Which gouernaunce in it silf is vnlimited and vnassigned to eny special tyme. a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. i. (1912) 355 It must be an unlimited Monarchy. Ibid. xx. 472, I know thy power is not unlimited. 1644 HUNTON Vind. Treat. Monarchy v. 45 That the Power of the Monarch in this Frame is not unlimited. 1690 [see prec.]. 1717 LADY M. W. MONTAGU Let. to C'tess of Bristol 1 April, The unlimited power of these fellows. 1777 COOK Third Voyage II. xii. (1784) I. 406 The power of the king is unlimited. a 1850 CALHOUN Wks. (1874) III. 234 Money is not only the sinew of war, but of politics, over which, it exercises almost unlimited control. Ibid. VI. 133 A government of unlimited powers.

b. In other applications.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. iv. (1912) 371 All such, whom .. youth-like minides did fill with unlimited desires. 1608 MARSTON Antonio's Rev. iii. ii, The curse of Heaven rains In plagues unlimited through all his dales. 1647 CLARENDON Hist. Reb. I. § 18 The expences of the Court..[were] vast, and unlimited by the old good rules of economy. a 1704 T. BROWN Letters Dunkerm. Wks. 1730 I. 35 Their highest excellency consists in having their will unlimited by any superior power. 1782 PRIESTLEY Corrupt. Chr. I. ii. 158 The absolute and unlimited declarations of the divine mercy. 1846 MRS. MARSH Father Darcy II. 249 My confidence in his talents and energy is unlimited. 1878 JEVONS Prim. Pol. Econ. 19 We never want an unlimited quantity of anything. transf. 1837 CARLYLE Fr. Rev. III. ii. vi, So violent..are the Unlimited Patriots and the Unlimited.

2. Not limited in number.

1665 SIR T. HERBERT Trav. (1677) 308 Four Wives the Law tolerates, Concubines are unlimited.

3. Math. (See quots.)

1704 J. HARRIS Lex. Techn. I. s.v., Unlimited Problem.. is such a Problem in Mathematicks, as is capable of Infinite Solutions. 1843 Penny Cycl. XXVI. 31/1 Unlimited,..is frequently used by mathematical writers, in the same manner as indefinite, to avoid the entrance of the word infinite. It is also used to describe a problem which may have an infinite number of answers, and which is called an unlimited problem.

Unli·mitedly, adv. [UN-[1] 11: cf. prec.] Without limitation.

1611 FLORIO Montaignes Essays III. xiii. 1 Infinitely, vnlimitedly. a 1659 W. WHATELEY Prototypes II. xxvi. (1640) 81 It is an easie thing for inferiours to obey their Governours..a little too unlimitedly. a 1680 CORBET Non-conf. Plea (1685) 19 The said promise must be understood either unlimitedly, or with limitation. a 1716 BLACKALL Offer. (1723) V. 226 If this had been express'd as universally and unlimitedly. 1796 BURNEY Mem. Metastasio I. 238 A great..prince, who designs to be so unlimitedly my protector. 1836 New Monthly Mag. XLVIII. 409 His Grace is unlimitedly hospitable. 1891 MEREDITH One of our Conq. III. xix. 172 He feels the publishers pouring their gallons through it unlimitedly.

Unli·mitedness. [UN-[1] 12.] The fact of being unlimited; absence of limitation.

1641 FALKLAND in Marriott Life & Times (1908) 204 This unlimitedness and independence is onely in spiritual things. a 1664 M. FRANK Serm. (1672) 42 The unlimitedness of His power. 1710 A. B. Answ. to Argts. in Bp. Orford's Sp. Resistance 13 The unlimitedness of our Obedience. 1796 LAMB Lett. (1888) I. 41 Omnipresence is an attribute the very essence of which is unlimitedness. 1904 A. C. FRASER Biog. Philos. ii. 60 It was impossible to believe either space or time limited: it was equally impossible to understand their unlimitedness.

Unli·ne, v.[1] [UN-[2] 4.]

1. trans. To divest (a garment, etc.) of lining.

1606 J. DAVIES (Heref.) Bien Venu Wks. (Grosart) I. 6/2 Two Kings thus met, make Kingdomes richly thrive, Though it vnlines their Purse with wearing much. 1611 COTGR., Desdoubler, to vnlyne; or take the lynings out of a garment.

2. intr. To separate as a lining.

1848 LINDLEY Introd. Bot. (ed. 4) I. 237 They all pass out of each other (dehiscentem); they all unline.

Unli·ne, v.[2] [UN-[2] 4 b + LINE v.[2]]

1598 MARSTON Sco. Villanie I. iv, To morrow doth Luxurie promise me, He will vnline himselfe from bitchery.

Unli·neal, a. (UN-[1] 7.)

1593 NASHE Strange News H 4, The vnlineal vsurper of iudgement from all his true owners. 1605 SHAKS. Macb. III. i. 63 They..put a barren Scepter in my Gripe, Thence to be wrench't with an vnlineall Hand. 1832 [R. CATTERMOLE] Beckett, etc. 170 The Men of England . . Spoil her last Despot wrung The sceptre, . . to grace A wiser nor unlineal race. 1884 N. & Q. 6 Oct. 264 The ancient manor house.. has long since passed into unlineal hands.

Unli·ned, ppl. a.[1] [UN-[1] 8 + LINE v.[1]] Not furnished with a lining.

In very frequent use from c 1890.

1541 in Test. Ebor. (Surtees) VI. 4 My unlynded gowne. a 1599 SPENSER F. Q. VII. vii. 29 Dight In a thin silken cassock coloured greene, That was vnlyned all. 1630 J. TAYLOR (Water P.) Trans. Wks. III. 89/1 The men, are clad in thin buckeram, vnlined. 1655 tr. Sorel's Com. Hist. Francion XI. 19 Although it was not unfashionable to have a Cloak unlined as was theirs. 1861 Eng. Wom. Dom. Mag. III. 118/2 Stiff muslin petticoats, are very suitable for wearing with..unlined silk dresses. 1878 MARCH. DUFFERIN Canad. Jrnl. (1891) 408 Our A.D.C.'s unlined suit of tussore silk.

Unli·ned, ppl. a.[2] [UN-[1] 8 + LINE v.[2] Cf. Du. ongelijnd.] Not marked with lines.

1865 MRS. WHITNEY Gayworthys I. 6 Round fair face, unlined by any perplexity. 1885 WHITTIER Pr. Wks. (1889) II. 316 The faces represented are not so unlined and ruddy.

Unli·ngering, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.) 1849 DE QUINCEY English Mail Coach Wks. 1862 I V. 322 By the word 'sudden' (Caesar) means 'unlingering.' 1887 BOWEN Æneid I. 655 Armed with his royal mission the chief unlingering speeds.

Unli·ning, vbl. sb. [UN-[1] 13.] (See quots.)

1848 LINDLEY Introd. Bot. (ed. 4) I. 332 Here we have a succession of true unlinings; but in Crucifers..the large stamens offer an example of simple unlining in the full meaning of the word, since they present a separation into two parts only. 1862 M. C. COOKE Man. Bot. Terms 87 Unlining, a separation of parts originally united.

Unli·nk, v. [UN-[2] 4 b.]

1. trans. a. To undo the links of (a chain, etc.).

Also refl., fig., and in fig. context.

1600 SHAKS. A. Y. L. III. iii. 112 About his necke A greene and guilded snake had wreath'd it selfe..: but sodainly Seeing Orlando, it vnlink'd it selfe. 1635 QUARLES Embl. v. ix. 7 I cannot mount till thou unlink my chaine. a 1670 RUST Disc. Truth (1682) 126 It will unlink and break that chain and method of Gods Decrees. 1822–56 DE QUINCEY Confess. (1862) 154 Those fatally tortuous paths of which the windings can never be unlinked. 1890 TALMAGE From Manger to Throne 529 The chain of the most tremendous natural law is unlinked.

b. To detach, set free, by undoing or unfastening a link or chain. Also refl., absol., and fig.

1655 R. CRAB in Harl. Misc. (1809) IV. 483 Those that will not unlink themselves from the world. c 1680 CHARNOCK Attrib. God (1834) II. 395 He doth, transeunter, those actions, that unlink the mutual assistance between man and man. 1688 R. HOLME Armoury III. xix. (Roxb.) 153/1 March to your horses. Vnlink your horses, Fasten your links. 1796 Instr. & Reg. Cavalry (1813) 235 The men move up to their horses, and unlink. Ibid., Unlink Horses! 1802 J. BAILLIE 2nd Pt. Ethwald IV. iii, (Stage direction. The chiefs instantly let go hands...) Her. Ha! have I then so suddenly unlink'd you? 1849 H. MAYO Pop. Superst. (1851) 79 The attention..is unlinked from the other faculties.

2. intr. To lose connexion; to part; to become relaxed.

1641 MILTON Ch. Govt. I. v. 15 To make a King a type, we say is an abusive and unskilful speech...Therefore your typical chaine of King and Priest must unlink. 1786 W. GILPIN in Mrs. Delany's Life & Corr. (1862) III. 372 We travelled amicably, arm in arm..we had not one occasion to unlink. 1806 H. SIDDONS Maid, Wife, & Widow III. 44 He felt her arms unlink, and saw that a convulsive fit had put an end to all her recollections.

Unli·nked, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.] Not linked, connected, or united.

1813 SHELLEY Q. Mab VI. 170 Whilst, to the eye of shipwrecked mariner,..All seems unlinked contingency and chance. a 1867 R. A. VAUGHAN Hyatics (1860) II. viii. 31 So his life is a series of starts; his actions..unlinked, unharmonized.

Unli·quefied, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1705 ADDISON Italy 237 These huge unwieldy Lumps [of lava]..remain'd in the melted Matter rigid and unliquefy'd. 1897 SPENCER Progress (1864) 285 Yet the gas remained unliquified!

Unli·quid, a. [UN-[1] 7.]

1. (See LIQUID a. 1.)

1547 BOORDE Brev. Health cxcvi. 68 b, Take gargarices lyquide and unliquyd. 1621 COTGR. s.v. Pot, Small vessels wherein, liquors, and sometimes vnliquid things, are kept.

2. (See LIQUID a. 6.)

1818 COLEBROOKE Obligations 195 Though evidently due, it is unliquid, so long as the precise amount of it is unascertained. 1865 CARLYLE Frederk. Gt. VI. vi. (1873) II. 188 [She] had left considerable properties, . . in land rather than in unliquid state, not so much as her Will was to be had.

Unli·quidate, a. (UN-[1] 7.) = next. 1818 COLEBROOKE Obligations 194 Unliquidate damages for non-performance of an agreement.

Unli·quidated, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.]

1. Not cleared off or paid.

1765 Ann. Reg., Chron. 155/1 They will likewise forfeit all pretensions on their unliquidated papers. 1788 COWPER Let. Wks. 1837 XV. 206 The accounts of a large estate unliquidated many years. 1822 G. CHALMERS Dom. Econ. Gt. Brit. 180 Every war leaves many unliquidated claims. 1883 Fortn. Rev. July 104 There will still remain a considerable debt unliquidated.

2. Not made clear or distinct; indefinite.

1780 BENTHAM Princ. Legisl. iii. 8 10 The best ideas..of such pains..are altogether unliquidated in point of quality. 1828 — Ch. Eng., Catech. Exam. 254 An unliquidated number of instances.

Unliquidating, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.) 1824 BYRON Juan XVI. xcix, The Sinking Fund's unfathomable sea, That most unliquidating liquid, leaves The debt unsunk. Unli·quored, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1642 MILTON Apol. Smect. 10, I doubt me whether the very soberness of such a one, like an unlicour'd Silenus, were not stark drunk. a 1658 Cleveland Inaugd. Trent 60 We whose unliquor'd Hides will turn no wet.

†Unlisible, a. Obs.—[Un-[1] ?.] Unlawful. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Prince. 3357 Hir spiritis benigne..Thoghten nat craft vnlusty and aleige, And forbaar it; pei knewe it vnlisible [v.r. vnlesible].

Unlist, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1793 Pearce Hartford Bridge II. iii, I told him a bargan was a bargan, and that I desfied him to unlist me! Unlisted, ppl. a. [Un-[2] 8.] Not placed on a list. 1644 Gold appearing for Parl. 5 (D.), The names of many are yet unlisted. 1900 Daily Chron. 28 Apr. 4/4 Some of the most important security-lists..are 'unlisted,' and therefore not dealt in on the Stock Exchange.

Unlistened, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 8 c.) 1787 Burns Death K. Dundas 31 Hark, injur'd Want recounts th' unlisten'd tale! 1793 Wordsw. Descr. Sketches 119 The thicker, where th' unlisten'd stock-dove coos. 1864 Pusey Lect. Daniel III. 109 Noah was the unlistened-to preacher of righteousness during those 120 years. 1878 Mrs. Whitney Sights & Ins. II. 104 One..knows by some fine, unlistened sound,..the nearness of a large body to the touch.

Unlistening, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1736 Thomson Liberty IV. 45 Unlistening, barbarous Force, to whom the sword is reason, honour, law. 1823 Pearce Troubadour I. 215 Brought back from their unlistening sleep. 1839 Carlyle Chartism v, Unlistening multitudes see not but think it is all right. 1897 Outing XXX. 450/2 Little Jesse talked away unlistening ears.

Unlisty, a. ? Obs. [Un-[1] ?. Cf. OHG. unlistig, -ik, and Yorks. dialect unlisting.] Indisposed to action; inert; listless.

c 1425 Orolog. Sapient. I. in Anglia X 334/21 Þe wreechede sowle sodeynye is chaungete, and is made as seke & vnlistye. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 366/1 On-lysty, or lystles, deses. 1597 Guistard & Sismond C 3, He waxed vnlisty and also somnolent. a 1894 in Northumberland Gloss. 756 Unlisty, listless.

Unlit, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) 1858 M. Arnold Youth of Nature 102 The vastness,..the gloom Of the unlit gulf of himself. 1865 Browning Statue & Bust 247 The unlit lamp and the ungirt loin. Unliteral, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1851 G. S. Faber Many Mansions 368 The completely unliteral freedom of the Latin Vulgate. 1857 E. FitzGerald Lett. (1889) I. 249 Not only..unliter.. but I doubt unorietnal, in its form and Expression. Unliterally, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1737 Gentl. Mag. VII. 13/2 As A. P. has..unliterally and ungrammatically translated. Unliteralness. (Un-[1] 12.) 1898 Newman in Liddon Life Pusey (1893) I. xvii. 422, I..do not like diffusive translations; unliteralness is no more diffusive than the contrary.

Unliterary, a. (Un-[1] 7.) In frequent use from c 1880.

1820 Lamb Austral. Poetry Wks. 1908 I. 251 To go and administer tedious justice in inauspicious unliterary Thiefland. 1868 Hook in Stephens Life (1878) II. 482 Here we are very unliterary. 1885 Howells Silas Lapham (1891) I. 235 Her talk was very unliterary.

†Unliterate, a. [Un-[1] 7, 5 b.] Illiterate. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. IV, 11 These monasticall persones, lerned and vnliterate. 1688 W. Scot Hist. Fam. Scot p. v, An unliterate Souldier. Unlitten, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) 1875 Myers Poems 106 Unlitten dawn of day. Unlittered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1762 Miss Talbot Lett. (1809) III. 10 Comfort yourself when you sit in your littered room, that..you can sit in it with an unlittered mind. 1855 Singleton Virgil I. 199 He..persevering lies mid flinty stones On an unlittered couch.

†Unlitle, a. Obs. [OE. unlýtel (Un-[1] ?); ON. úlitill.] Not little.

c 1200 Ormin 726 Þat wass till all be childess kinn Wurrþshipe, & tatt unnlitell. Ibid. 16065, I þe sjlle forr þiss mahht Þe mikell & unnlitell.

Unliturgical, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1858 Sprott Book Com. Order p. lxii, Sentiments..more unliturgical than those of the reformers. Unliturgize, v. (Un-[2] 6 a.) 1659 Gauden Trans Ch. IV. xxii. 609 These were..to Directorize, to Unliturgize, to Catechize, their Brethren.

Unlive, v. [Un-[2] 3, 4.]

†1. trans. To deprive of life. Obs.

1593 Shaks. Lucr. 1734 If in the child the father's image lies, Where shall I live now Lucrece is unlived? c 1600 Chalkhill Thealma & Cl. 131 Happy had it been, if my mern fate Had..unliv'd at thee. 1626 Quarles Div. Poems, Esther Introd., These braue Ioynt-tenants that suruiu'd To see a little world of men vnliu'd. 1635 [Glapthorne] Lady Mother v. ii. in Bullen O. Pl. (1883) II. 288 But..suppose he did unlive Thurston to-day, Shall the Burlesque Lestrange's Quevedo 244 A Plot that may himself unlive.

2. To reverse, undo, or annul (past life or experience.)

1614 Br. Hall Char. Virtues & Vices I. 249 As if he desired to vnliue his youth. 1661 Glanvill Van. Dogm. 72 We must unlive our former lives. 1688 Norris Love II. 1. 68 To unravel the prejudices of our youth, and..unlive our former life. a 1716 South Serm. (1744) VII. v. 92 Many entertain principles which they defy by their practices, and unlive all that they have believed. 1850 S. Dobell Roman vii, Years are unlived! 1879 Churchman I. 16 Not in our power is it to unlive the past.

Hence Unliving vbl. sb.

1599 Nashe Lenten Stuffe K iv b, Nor lieest thou [= a herring] by the vnliuing or euiscerating of others, as most fishes do.

Unliv(e)able, a. [Un-[1] 7 b.]

1. That cannot be lived.

1869 E. Hatch in Mem. (1890) 48 Stoicism did but show them how to live an unliveable life.

2. Incapable of being lived in. Also with in.

1898 E. F. Benson Money Market II, He saw no reason for making his own rooms unlivable-in. 1899 Contemp. Rev. Dec. 848 Rural theft makes parts of Sardinia unlivable.

Unlived, ppl. a.[1] (Un-[2] 8.) Deprived of life. 1642 H. More Song of Soul II. i. 15 The hidden might And root of motion, unliv'd, unseen'd they leave In their vain thoughts.

Unlived, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[1] 8.] Not really or fully lived. 1867 J. Thomson Two Lovers (1881) 116 He loathed his unlived life, his unspent force.

†Unlively, a. (Un-[1] 7. Cf. ON. úlifligr.] †1. Unliving, lifeless. Obs.—[1]

1563 Man Musculus' Commonpl. 43 b, What honor is that to God..to worshippe the dead and unlively shapes as Gods.

2. Not lively, animated, or bright; dull.

1608 Willet Hexapla Exod. 340 Dead and vnliuely colours. 1655 G. Sandys Trans. 114 These Iewels, seeme lame..and vnliuely counterfets. 1723 Gay in Lett. C'tess Suffolk (1824) I. 120 This is no unlively picture of a damsel who might please. 1866 Athenæum No. 1999, 235/1 Their hopes are not unlively. 1894 Daily News 27 July 5/3 This list was considerably thinned before the long, unlively debate concluded.

Hence Unliveliness.

1643 Milton Divorce I. 8 All the unlivelines and naturall sloth wherin it is usually nutt for conversacion.

Unlively, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1641 Lb. Digby Parl. Sp. 9 Feb. 14 As dully, as faintly, as unlively, as in Language there Actions..have been expressed.

Unliver, v. ? Obs. [Un-[2] 9 + Liver 2.] trans. To discharge (a ship or cargo). Also absol.

1637 in Foster Eng. Factories India (1912) 10 Haveing unlivered our ship. 1638 Ibid. 54 Begann to univer. 1805 Sir C. Robinson Admiralty Rep. VI. 232 That notice was given to the master..; before the whole cargo was unlivered.

Unliverded, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1823 H. Raveux Lucubrations 303 A train of liveried and unliveried domestics.

Unlivery. Law. [Cf. prec. and Livery sb. 6.] Discharge of a ship or cargo. (Cf. quot. 1867.)

1805 Sir C. Robinson Admiralty Rep. VI. 232 A commission of unlivery was taken out by the captor on the same day. 1811 Sir W. Scott Dodson's Rep. I. 50 Charges attending the execution of the commission of unlivery and appraisement. 1867 Smyth Sailor's Word-bk. 707 Expenses of unlivery and appraisement are a charge in the first instance against the captors of a prize, to be afterwards apportioned by them ratably against the cargo.

Unliving, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 10. Cf. OE. untifgende and unlibbende, OHG. unlibende, MDu. onlevende, MSw. olivande.] Not living or alive; lifeless.

1561 t. Calvin's 4 Serm. Idol. I. B ij b, An vnliuing creature. 1594 Southwell M. Magd. 1 Second T. 68 Her heart (seemed but) the cophin of an vnliuing soule. 1611 Florio, Inuiuente, vnliuing. 1741 in Richardson Pamela I. p. xxxvii. Sweet Pamela!..Thou dear, unliving, yet immortal, Shade! 1899 Campbell Cert. Hymn. II. ii, Past those settlers' haunts the eye might roam, Where earth's unliving silence all would seem. 1855 M. Arnold Balder Dead III. 399 Entreat All living and unliving things to weep For Balder.

Unload, v. [Un-[2] 3. Cf. Unlade 2.]

1. trans. To take off, remove (something carried or conveyed); to discharge (a cargo).

1523 Fitzherbert Husb. § 29 Benes..lounden..are the more redyer to lode and vnlode. 1600-1 in Willis & Clark Cambridge (1886) II. 483 Payd to diuerse labourers for..vnloadinge great tymber. 1643 Baker Chron., Eliz. 91 The wealth of an East-Indian Caraque was lately unloden. 1722 De Foe Plague (1756) 175 The Man caus'd the Goods to be unloaden and lay'd at the Door. 1817 J. Scott Paris Revisit. (ed. 4) 31 The canal here..admitting large vessels to..unload their cargoes. 1862 Macm. Mag. VI. 226/2 One..green brig,..was unloading shaddocks from Naxos.

b. fig. To discharge, give vent to (feelings); to communicate or transfer to another.

1593 Shaks. 2 Hen. VI, I. i. 76 To you Duke Humfrey must unload his greefe. a 1656 Hales Gold. Rem. (1688) 159 An Excuse to unlode your faults upon the Diuell. 1697 Dryden Æneis XII. 1165 Reclined upon my breast, thy grief unload. 1775 Smollett Quixote II. 296 Now..you may unwrip, and unload, all that lies on your sorrowful heart. 1816 Scott Antiq. xxii, He unloaded his discontent in such grumblings.

c. To discharge or pour (a liquid). rare.

1603 Drayton Bar. Wars VI. xxiv, When som brook.. By swelling waters..shouldreth downe his mownd, And from his course doth quite himselfe vnload. c 1690 Kinson Surv. Devon § 42 The river Tale..unloadeth itself into the river Otter. 1891 A. Welcker Wild West 68 He unloaded the other bottle of gin into himself.

2. absol. To perform the operation of unloading.

1589 Flemmg Contin. Holinshed III. 1544/2 Sheriffes pulled downe the courts as soone as they came to the place where it was needfull to vnlode. 1614 Gorges Lucan VII. 269 Those streames..spread their springes abroade, And in Timoras flood vnlode. 1635 J. Taylor (Water P.) Very Old Man B 2, The Harrow, Mattock,..Goad, And Whip, and how to Load, and to Vnload. 1710 Swift Poems, Atlas 6 The pedlar overpress'd Unloads upon a stall to rest. 1855 Poultry Chron. I. 500 One of the company's collecting-carts had just arrived, and was unloading.

fig. 1885 Howells Silas Lapham (1891) I. 83, I was loaded up with a partner that..couldn't do anything, and I unloaded; that's all.

b. Naut. Of vessels: To discharge cargo.

1799 Hull Advertiser 4 May 2/2 The Wasp has come into Leith harbour to unload. 1865 Milton & W. B. Cheadle N.-W. Passage vi, Whilst it (sc. a barge) was unloading.

3. trans. (and refl.). To free, relieve, or divest of a load or burden; to clear of something heavy or bulky.

1591 H. Smith Exam. Vsurie 3 When hee hath loden himselfe like a cart, he shall be vnloden like a cart againe. 1648 T. Gage West Ind. xvii. 114 The Indians helped one another to unload and load the mule. 1697 Dryden Virg. Georg. II. 554 Besides thy daily pain T' unload the Branches, or the Leaves to thin. 1751 Labelye Westm. Bridge 81 The Commissioners..moved the Board..to unload the said Pier. 1828 Stark Elem. Nat. Hist. I. 145 He is trained to lie down when he receives his load and to be unloaded. 1894 S. Fisher Holiday Stories (1900) 28 Unload yourself and pull up a chair.

b. To relieve by evacuation. Chiefly Med.

1653 J. Taylor (Water P.) Cert. Trav. Uncert. Journ. 21 If to unloade your Bellies, Nature drive you. 1764 Grainger Sugar Cane IV. 124 With sempre vive Unload their bowels. 1822 Good Study Med. III. 437 Brisk purging..unloads the infarcted viscera. 1875 H. C. Wood Therap. (1879) 442, Tartar emetic is rarely used simply to unload the stomach.

c. To relieve (the heart, etc.) by utterance.

1720 Miss Vanhomrigh in Swift's Lett. (1766) II. 289, I must..unload my heart, and tell you all its griefs. 1808 Scott Marmion IV. xviii, By that strong emotion press'd, Which prompts us to unload our breast, Even when discovery's pain. 1816 J. Wilson City of Plague I. iii. 40 If thou cam'st hither to unload thy soul, Kneel down.

d. To relieve (one) of something burdensome.

a 1721 Sheffield (Dk. Buckhm.) Wks. (1723) II. 207 Antony..having a secret satisfaction in being unloaded of such a friend; who was..sometimes troublesome. 1776 Ann. Reg., Char. 49/2 When America is better peopled..the plains unloaded of their vast forests and cultivated. 1902 Westm. Gaz. 15 Oct. 1/2 A very sagacious tendency to unload himself of mansions rather than to take on new ones.

4. To discharge the cargo from (a vessel).

1599 E. Wright Voy. Earl Cumbld. 19 in Cert. Err. Navig., Thre of the greatest..were vnloden of their merchandise. 1671 New Jersey Archives (1880) I. 68 Wiliam a certain Vessell or Ship hath..bine unloaden & loaden contrary to an Act of Parliament. 1748 Anson's Voy. II. v. 173 To assist him in unloading the Sloop. 1836 W. Irving Astoria II. 197 Here it was necessary to unload the canoes. 1884 W. H. White M. Rutherford's Deliv. iii, 'Guffy'..got drunk, unloaded barges [etc.].

5. † a. To discharge, fire off (artillery, etc.). Obs.

1625 Massinger New Way v. i, [I can now] Unload my great artillery, and shake..the walls. 1712 Blackmore Creation IV. 444 The powder which destructive guns explode, And by its force their bulky mounds unload. 1755 Johnson, Discharge,..to unload a gun.

b. To withdraw the charge from (a fire-arm, cartridge, etc.).

1709 Steele Tatler No. 82 ¶ 8 A British soldier with his knee he had unloaded the Night before. 1734 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 192 His instructions..concerning unloading the Artillery. 1855 Kingsley Westw. Ho! xxi, 'You took care to fool the powder?' 'Ay, ay, sir, and to unload the ordnance too.'

6. Stock Exchange. To get rid of, dispose of, sell out (stock, etc.).

1876 'E. Pinto' Ye outside Fools! 359 Bulls rush in to aid their philanthropic game of Unloading, as we term it, their expensive wares. 1893 Nation (N.Y.) 21 Sept. 204/2 The American passion for speculation—that is, for getting hold of something to be unloaded rapidly on somebody else.

absol. 1888 Daily News 16 Feb. 6/2 New York..' Bears', selling freely, and 'bulls' unloading, combined to depress values.

Hence Unloader, one who or that which unloads.

1611 Florio, Scaricatore, a discharger, an vnloder. 1880 J. W. Hill Guide Agric. Implements 469 An efficient Sack Lifter, Loader, Unloader, and Shooter. 1898 Allbutt's Syst. Med. V. 24 As in the case of unloaders of grain-ships.

Unloaded, ppl. a.[1] (Un-[1] 8.)

1648 Herrick H. Ungeladen, Vnloaded. 1753 Stewart's Trial 273 The unloaded gun. 1800 Asiat. Ann. Reg., Misc. Tr. 245/1 Water..sufficient to give passage to large unloaded boats. 1840 Civil Eng. & Arch. Jrnl. III. 89/2 This..would only be what M. Fanshour properly calls the 'unloaded friction'. 1872 'M. Legrand' Cambr. Freshm. 181 Shooting with unloaded pistols. 1899 Allbutt's Syst. Med. VIII. 11 Holding out the poker or even the unloaded hand at arm's length.

transf. 1890 'R. Boldrewood' Miner's Right (1899) 83 You're armed, of course?' I touched my left hip significantly...'Too long in the country to travel unloaded.'

Unloaded, ppl. a.[2] (f. Unload v.) 1807 J. Barlow Columb. IV. 367 As from unloaded waves, the rising sand Swell'd into light. †Unloaden, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 8 b.] = Unloaded ppl. a.[1] 1599 Hakluyt Voy. II. 132 No man will iudge their fare good, or their bodies vnloden of stripes.

Unloaden, v. Obs. exc. dial. [Un-[2] 3.] trans. = Unload v.

1567 Drant Horace, Ep. xiii. E iij, If that my booke be burthenouse, shift the of it be tyme, Least thou asslyke vnloden the with greater note of cryme. 1663 Br. Patrick Parab. Pilgr. xxxi, They could not unladen themselves of the passions which they felt in their hearts.

Unloading, vbl. sb. [f. Unload v.] The action of the verb, in various senses.

a 1522 W. Lily Gram. (1549) D iij b, Verbes of..lodyng or vnlodyng, will haue an ablatiue case. 1587 Fleming Contin. Holinshed II. 1544/2 To loose..the tackle of euery court immediatlie before the vnloding or sheluing thereof. 1612 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. V. 467 The unloadeing or bringeing in of any..merchandize. 1748 Anson's Voy. II. xiii. 269 We completed the unloading of the Carmelo. 1829 Livrpool Jrnl. Commerce xvi, The wallet of diurnal anecdote was full, and craved unloading. 1868 Garrod Mat. Med. 309 Purgatives..cause..an unloading of the large and small intestines.

attrib. 1795 Marine Insurances I. 46 The usual unloading Place on the Wesser. 1875 Knight Dict. Mech. 2683/1 Unloading machine, an apparatus for removing freight from boats, cars, or wagons.

Unloath, a. (Un-[1] 7.) a 1890 Rossetti Dante & Circle I. (1874) 190 To mine arms I took her tenderly: With no rebuke the beauty laughed unloth. Unloathfulness. (Un-[1] 12.) a 1470 H. Parker Direct & Pauper (Pynson, 1493) VI. xx, Sweete Iesu cryste what is thy gyft That thou thus for me arte spyt, flouse of vnlothfulnes? Unloathingly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1836 E. Howard R. Rasefer xlix, My mind looked not unloathingly on..suicide. Unloathly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1844 Mrs. Browning Drama of Exile 2079 Softly and unlothly..We will draw you soothly Toward the Heavenly people.

Unloathsome, a. (Un-1 7.)
In quote 1583 misused for 'loathsome' (Un-1 13).
c1440 Promp. Parv. 366/1 On-lotheusm. 1583 Melbancke Philotimus H j, Shee had not neede to sleepe, that wakes a quicke corse, lest her beaule drowsines breede vnlothsome dreames, or sodeyne startinge affright her sleaping. 1611 Florio, Inschiuso, vncoy, vnciuil, vnlouthsome.

Unlocalizable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1868 Spencer Princ. Psychol. (1872) I. 253 Unlocalizable feelings.

Unlocalized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1823 Lamb Elia II. Sydney's Sonn., They are not rich in words only, in vague and unlocalized feelings. 1881 Dale Barn Stud. Life Christ xii. 211 The incident could find a place in his history only as unlocalized.

Unlocally, adv. (Un-1 11.) 1602 Warner Alb. Eng. xiii. lxxvii. 321 Superessential Being, Selfe-suffisiing, .. Locall vnlocally, neere, Superabstantiall.

Unlocated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1776 Jefferson Writ. (ed. Ford) II. 80 The idea of Congress selling out unlocated lands has been sometimes dropped. 1828-32 Webster, Unlocated, not placed; not fixed in a place. 2. In America, unlocated lands are such new and wild lands as have not been..designated by marks, limits or boundaries. 1876 Bancroft Hist. U.S. III. xlviii. 346 The duties on trade and the unlocated lands. 1902 Academy 23 Aug. 200/2 He was coo-eeing to some party of unlocated climbers in the cloud-enveloped heights.

Unlock, v. [Un-2 3: cf. Unlouk v.]
1. trans. To undo the lock of (a door, chest, etc.) by turning the key; to make capable of opening by this means. Also in fig. context.
c1400 Langland's P. Pl. B. xii. 172 (Wright), Which is the cofre of Cristes tresor And clerkes kepe the keyes, To unloken it at hir likyng. 14.. Sir Beues (M.) 4170, I rede, that ye on-lok the yate. 1426 Lydg. De Guil. Pilgr. 23934, I cam after ..and she gan vnlokke a chest. 1530 Palsgr. 268/2, I unlocke a dore or a coffer. 1560 Daus tr. Sleidane's Comm. 327 Yet hath he keyes wherwith to unlock ye same [sc. city-gates]. 1612 Donne Progr. Soule, and Anniv. 156 Yet Death must usher, and unlocke the doore. 1690 Beilby Holder, Treasury of Drugs Unlock'd. 1734 Gray Progr. Poesy 92 This can unlock the gates of Joy. 1794 Mrs. Radcliffe Myst. Udolpho xxvi, That leads to the inner court, unlocks the door to unlock. 1812 Byron Ch. Harol. xviii, 'Tis the hard ..Who to the world-struck world unlock'd Elysium's gates. 1847 Brontë J. Eyre xvii, I knelt down at and unlocked a trunk.
absol. 1768 Foote Devil I. Wks. 1799 III. 247 Unlock, Mrs. Mink! your minion is discovered.
2. To set free by unfolding a lock; chiefly fig., to allow to flow or come forth; to make open to all.
c1400 Gamelyn 417 He vnlokked gamelyn both hondes and feete. c1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 1047 Sone, if eght in pin herte elles be loke, Vnlokke it blyne! com of; what seist hou? 1697 Dryden Virg. Georg. ii. 245 For then my tuneful accents will I raise,..Once more unlock for then the sacred Spring. 1708 Philips Cyder ii. 60 When the kind early Dew Unlocks th' embosom'd Odors. a1764 Lloyd Shakespeare Poet. Wks. 1774 I. 79 Translation had unlock'd the store, And spread abroad the Grecian lore. 1820 Shelley Prometh. Unb. III. i. 74 Let hell unlock Its mounded oceans of tempestuous fire. 1884 Times (weekly ed.) 19 Sept. 6/1 Capital, whether public or private, is so very hard to unlock.
b. To give or obtain access to; to bring to light; to display.
1593 Shaks. Lucrece 16 He the night before .. Vnlockt the treasure of his happie state. 1596 — Merch. V. ii. lx. 52 Giue me a key for this, And instantly vnlocke my fortunes here. 1649 Jer. Taylor Gt. Exemp. ii. xii. 46 Jesus unlock't the secrets of her heart, and let in his grace. 1722 Wollaston Relig. Nat. v. 101 The future actions of free agents are at once all unlocked, and exposed to his view. 1809-14 Wordsw. Excurs. iv. 570 These hoards of truth you can unlock at will.
3. fig. To cause to open or unclose.
1593 Tindale Exp. 1 John (1537) 5 The doctryne..is the keye, that ..locketh and unlocketh the conscience of all synners. 1634 Milton Comus 892 She can unlock The clasping charm, and thaw the numming spell. 1662 J. Davies tr. Olearius' Voy. Ambass. 214 The small Presents ..unlock'd the man's breast, and drew out the whole secret. 1792 Wordsw. Descrip. Sketches 627 Mournful measures.. Unlocking bleeding Thoug'ht's 'memorial cell'. 1822 Byron Werner i. 1. 306 Wine he shall have; if that unlock him not, I shall not sleep. 1859 Geo. Eliot A. Dedz xiv, I know you have a key to unlock hearts.
b. To explain, provide a key to (something obscure).
1636 K. Long tr. Barclay (title-p.), Argenis, or the Loves of Polyarchus and Argenis..with a Key Prefixed to vnlock the whole Story. 1659 Jer. Burnet Theory Earth iii. 21 Such a key as this, that does so easily unlock this hard passage, and makes it intelligible. 1879 S. C. Bartlett Egypt to Pal. iii. 51 To unlock and read a tongue of which..not even the nature of the language was known.
4. To open, or cause to open, by physical action; to cause to separate or part.
c1586 C'tess Pembroke Ps. (1823) lii. vii, Unlock my lipps, shut up with sinnfull shame. 1637 Cowley Sylva, Verses on Virgin, The breath gives sparing kisses, nor with power Unlocks the Virgin bosome of the Flower. 1694 Salmon Bate's Dispens. 260/1 That sulphurous Tincture is better able to unlock, or open the Bodies of the Ingredients. 1707 Mortimer Husb. 56 [Clay-lands] hardning with the Sun and Wind, till they are unlocked by industry. 1775 Sheridan Rivals iv. ii, Unlock your jaws, sirrah. 1820 J. Baillie and Pt. Ethwald ii. v, A brawny ruffian, whose firm clenched gripe No struggles can unlock. 1866 Lyndall Giac. i. x. 65 The discharge seemed to unlock the clouds above us.
b. To undo or unfasten by some mechanical operation, or by force.
1606 Shaks. Tr. & Cr. v. vi. 29, I like thy armour well, Ile frush it and vnlocke the riuets all. 1683 Moxon Mech. Exerc., Printing xxii. § 16 He must Vn-lock and Loosen the Form. 1704 J. Harris Lex. Techn., Detents, in a Clock, are those stops, which ..lock and unlock the Clock in striking. 1757 W. Wilkie Epigon. ii. 43 The hero .. His mail unclasp'd; and loos'd the golden chains. 1847 Infantry Man. (1854) 109 The sword is ..unlocked by the thumb and forefinger. 1892 A. Oldfield Man. Typog. viii, Some compositors seem to drive up quoins as if they thought the form would never have to be unlocked again.
c. To free from being fixed or immovable.
1735 Arbuthnot Aliments 97 The Power of a Lixivium.. to unlock the Salts that are entangled in the viscid Juices. 1798 Wordsw. Anecd. for Fathers 53 Then did the boy his tongue unlock. 1819 Scott Noble Mariner xxxii, Nor golden meed nor garment gay, unlocks his heavy tongue. 1902 Brit. Med. Jrnl. 12 Apr. 879 At first he could unlock the knee easily.
5. intr. To become unlocked.
1470-85 Malory Arthur xi. l. 571 When he came to the chamber .. the dores of tyron vnlocked and vnbolted. 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) IV. 396, I heard her lady's door ..unbar, unbolt, unlock, and open. 1804 Europ. Mag. XLV. 75/1 They had but just time to make this arrangement, when the door unlocked.
Hence Unlo·cked ppl. a.[1]; Unlocker.
1649 tr. Warn. Jac. Beem xxv. 17 Onely the holy spirit is the opener and unlocker. 1890 'R. Boldrewood' Col. Reformer (1891) 399 Once more the unlocked earth receives the plough.

Unlocked, ppl. a.[2] [Un-1 8, 8 c. Cf. ON. ulokaðr.] Not locked (up).
1603 Holland Plutarch's Mor. 165 Letting all by unfortified, unbard, and unlocke. a1746 Tickell Fragm. on Humility 130 Unlock'd in covers let her freely run To range thy courts. 1813 Scott Trierm. iii. xviii, Unbarr'd, unlock'd, unwatch'd, a port Led to the Castle's outer court. 1858 Mrs. Carlyle Lett. (1883) II. 366 The only drawer which is unlocked. 1887 S. Cumberland Queen's Highway, etc. 63 The unlocked-up land does not appear to tempt the independent purchaser.

Unlocking, vbl. sb. [f. Unlock v.] The action of the verb, in various senses.
[1979 Boyer Dict. Royal 11, Unlocking, ouverture, Faction d'une Place.] 1829 J. Nicholson Operat. Mechanic 599 The scape-wheel teeth ..[being] under-cut for the purpose of avoiding friction ..and for safe unlocking. 1890 Retrospect Med. CII. 128 The sudden unlocking of abnormal metabolic processes.
attrib. 1850 Chubb Locks & Keys 25 An unlocking notch in the outer edge of the slider. 1884 F. J. Britten Watch & Clockm. 276 Unlocking Resistance ..[is] the resistance opposed to unlocking..by the draw of the locking faces.

Unlocomotive, a. (Un-1 7.)
1828 Scott in Lockhart Life (1839) VII. 154, I am getting very unlocomotive. 1863 Ld. Lytton King of Amasis I. 206 Where these ponderous locomotives of an unlocomotive age used to lurk harmless.

Unlodge, v. [Un-2 5, 7.]
1. trans. To dislodge; to drive out of a lodging or resting-place.
1560 Whitehorne Ord. Souldiours (1588) 36 b, He vnlodge th thee, and thou arte constrained to issue out of thy fortresse. 1596 Turberv. Venerie 37 When the houndes haue unlodged the harte. 1672 T. Venn Milit. Observ. 181 The Ensigne hath .. a Guard ever about it,..neither is it to be disimbogued, or unlodged, without a special Guard. 1703 S. Parker tr. Eusebius' Eccl. Hist. vi. 96 The Gentiles in Asia were unlodg'd him from House to House. 1796 Hist. Ned Evans I. 9 Groping into the kitchen, [he] discovered Molly in her covert, whom he quickly unlodged.
2. intr. To leave one's lodging.
1560 Whitehorne Ord. Souldiours (1588) 36 b, Thou shalt be constrained to some necessitie to vnlodge, and come to fight the field. 1608 D. T[uvill] Ess. Pol. & Mor. 19 Being constrained one day to vnlodge somwhat in hast, and to leave a certaine sick friend.

Unlodged, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1634 T. Carew Calum Brit. 10 Now that those heavenly Mansions are to be voyd, you that shall hereafter be found unlodged, will become inexcusable. Unlo·fty, a. (Un-1 7.) 1790 Anna Seward Lett. (1811) II. 384 [I hesy] were their dark hair in reverse curls upon their naturally unlofty foreheads. 1869 Temple Bar Mag. July 458 Tennyson's feminine, unlofty way of looking at things. Unlo·gic. (Un-1 12.) 1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. iii. v, The most Conservative English People,.. is driven alike by its Logic and its Unlogic ..to be wholly a Reforming People.

Unlogical, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) Illogical. a1661 Fuller Worthies, Kent ii. (1662) 65 All heartily laughed at his unlogical Reason. 1710-1 Lett. fr. Mist's Jrnl. (1720) I. 13, I thus spare and unlogical Writer. 1748 Richardson Clarissa II. 40 An un-learned, un-logical girl. 1829 Scott Jrnl. 27 Jan., If [my reflections]..are unlogical. 1867 Atwater Logic 189 Unlogical is counterfeit thought.

†Unloke, pst. tpl. Obs.[-1] [Un-1 8 b + loke, p.p. of Louk v.] Unfastened. c1400 Gamelyn 438 Þou shalt stond vp by the post as þou were hond fast, And I schal leue hem [sc. the fetters] vn-loke þat away þou may hem cast.

Unloned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 c.) 1849 C. Bronte Shirley xviii, A gentle human form, ..unloved, but not unloned-for. Unlook'd, v. (Un-2 3.) 1748 Richardson Clarissa V. 135 He..now turn'd his eyes towards me, then from me, as if he would unlook his own looks.

Unlooked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 8 c.)
1. † a. Not attended to; neglected. Obs.
a1300 St. Gregory 1061 in Archiv. Stud. new. Spr. LVII. 70 Se witeþ wel hit may nout longe holye churche vnloked be.
b. Not looked at, on, to, etc.; unregarded, unheeded, unexamined.
1563 Nowel Serm. bef. Queen (1853) 226 Such errors or heresy ought not..to be unlooked unto. 1587 W. S. Compend. or Briefe Exam. 3 Theyr husbandry unlooke to at home. 1615 G. Sandys Trav. Ded., Leaving no securitie saue..vnlookt on peuentie. 1634 C. Wase Gratius' Cyneget, Pref. 7 The occasion that a polite and classical Poet .. should have been so long unlook'd into,..and unsought for in our Land. 1836 R. A. Vaughan Mystics I. 214 The wares lay unlooked at and untouched.
2. Not looked for; unexpected, unanticipated. (In predicative use sometimes quasi-adv.)
1535 Coverdale Wisd. xi. 7 Thou gauest vnto thine awne a plenteous water vnloked for. 1544 Betham Precepts War ii. xii. K viij b, When they be wythout watch,..then sodaynly, and vnloked for, rushe vpon them. 1615 G. Sandys Trav. 122 The vnlookt-for assault of Achillas. 1672 T. Venn Milit. Observ. 192 He shall see them [sc. sentinels] changed at due time, and shall now and then visit them unlook'd for. 1725 Pope Odyss. xxii. 164 Oh cust event! and oh unlook'd-for aid! 1837 J. D. Lang New S. Wales I. p. v, The causes..producing so unlooked-for and so unfortunate a result. 1878 Bosw. Smith Carthage 30 Elated by an unlooked-for victory.
† b. Without prep., = prec. Obs.
1553 T. Wilson Rhet. 74 Thei..shal bee able to abashe a rigthe worthy man,..through the sodein quip & vnloked frumpe geuen. 1594 Shaks. Rich. III, i. iii. 214 God, I pray him, That none of you may live his natural age, But by some vnlook'd accident cut off. 1618 J. Taylor (Water P.) Penniless Pilg. C 2 b, This vnlook'd pleasure, was to me such pleasure, That [etc.].
Hence Unloo·kedness. rare[-1].
a1586 Sidney Arcadia iii. xvi, The unlookednesse of his comming.

Unloo·p, v. (Un-2 3, 4 b.) 1599 Nashe Lenten Stuffe G iij, Which made her at breake of day ..to vnloope her luker of casement. 1840 Browning Sordello iii. 759 Slouch bonnet, unloop mantle, careless go Alone..Through Venice.
Unloo·ped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1716 Gay Trivia i. 197 While you with hat unloop'd, the fury dread Of spouts high streaming. 1850 Allingham Poems, Pilot's Dau. ii, [Locks] unbraided, and unloop'd. 1855 Browning Saul iii. 4 The tent was unloaped.

Unloosable, a. [Un-1 7 b.] Incapable of being loosened.
a1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula 29 Bounden wiþ two knottis or þre vnlouseable. c1550 Coverdale Wrisful Lessons (1592) O iij, [He] doth ensnare himself with vnlowsable bands. a1564 Becon Art. Chr. Relig. Wks. 1564 II. 128 The simbole..of that vnloseable bargaine, whiche they call the Communion.
Unloo·sably, adv. (Un-1 11.) † Indissoluble. c1445 Pecock Donet 214 More wo is to me þat þei ben vnlosabli lettid..from þe laboure of meditacioun.

Unloose, v. (Un-2 9. Cf. Unlesse v.)
1. trans. To relax, slacken the tension or firmness of (some part of the body, one's grasp or hold, etc.).
1362 Langl. P. Pl. A. Prol. 87 Seriaunts..Not for loue of yw lord vnloseþ heore lippes ones. 1377 Ibid. B. xvii. 139 þe fader was fyrst, as a fyst with o fynger foldynge, Tyl hym loued and lest to vnlosen his fynger. 1545 Raynald Byrth Mankynde 85 By that the body is opened, vnlosed, and resolued. 1564 Child-Marringes 200 And so, vnlosinge hundes, they kissed. 1606 Shaks. Tr. & Cr. III. iii. 223 The weake wanton Cupid Shall from your necke vnloose his amorous fould. 1661 Childrey Brit. Baconica 143 The Salmon..takes his tail in his mouth, and with all his force vnloosing his circle on a sudden, he mounteth up. 1797 Gay Begg. Op. i. xiii, My hand, my heart,..is so riveted to thine that I cannot unloose my hold. 1799 Mrs. A. M. Johnson Monmouth III. 152 Her hands were clasped about his neck, which could not be unloosed without the greatest violence. 1834 L. Ritchie Wand. by Seine 35 He found it impossible to unloose her arms from his neck. 1853 Miss Yonge Heir of Redclyffe xii, Saying 'Good night...,' she unloosed her embrace.
fig. 1757 Mrs. Griffith Lett. Henry & Frances (1767) II. 47 Providence has wisely ordered, that disappointments.. should, by degrees, unloose the hold we take of this dim spot.
2. To set free from bonds, harness, etc.; to release from confinement. Also fig. and refl.
1393 Langl. P. Pl. C. ii. 108 Þat is þe lok of loue þat vnloseþ grace [B. i. 200 lateth ouer my grace]. a1400 in Engl. Studies XXXII. 19 Þou, lady, vnlose me of þo bondes þat I wrot with myn owyn hondes. 1512 Colet Serm. Convoc. L iij, Vnloose your selfe frome the worldly bondage. 1593 Shaks. 2 Hen. VI, v. i. 82 Then Yorke vnloose thy long imprisoned thoughts. 1655 tr. Sorel's Com. Hist. Francion iii. 67 After she had unloosed and well washed me. 1664 Jer. Taylor Discuss. Popery i. iii. § 1. 159 You can as well be dispenc'd with for that Perjury ..the other; and you cannot be tied so fast, but the Pope can unloose you. a1711 Ken Psyche Poet. Wks. 1721 IV. 299 The Soul.. seem'd from Flesh unloos'd To..spatiate unconfin'd. 1777 Sheridan Trip Scarb. v. ii, Unloose my lord there, you scoundrel! 1856 Kane Arct. Expl. I. xxiii. 288 They were obliged to unloose the dogs and drive them forward alone. 1872 Holland Marb. Proph. 10 [To] unloose a soul from purgatorial bonds.
absol. 1851 Ht. Martineau Hist. Peace (1858) 144/1 The function of that new spirit was not to bind but to unloose.
b. To set free or action; to bring into play.
1735 Thomson Liberty ii. 59 When mysterious Superstition came,..Then tyrant Power the righteous scourge unloos'd. 1848 Lytton Pelham II. iv, How wonderfully..your city dignities unloose the tongue. 1851 Scott Cast. Dang. v, Having unloosed his repartee to this extent.
3. To undo, untie, unfasten (a knot, belt, band, bundle, etc.). Also in fig. context.
1526 Tindale Luke iii. 16 Whose shue latchet I am not worthy to vnloose. 1551 T. Wilson Logike P v, To confute, is nothyng els but..to vnloose by reason, thynges knit together by craft. 1577 Googe tr. Heresbach's Husb. 39 Then the bundels vnloosed and dryed in the Sunne, are beaten with beetles. 1608 D. Price Cler. Warre 2 The Æniigma is disclosed, the knot vnloosed. 1669 Earl Orrery Parthen. iii. vii. 200 The Gallies..grappled so strongly, that nothing but Victory was able to unloose them. 1760 Sterne Tr. Shandy iii. vii, Dr. Slop must have had three fifths of Job's patience..to have unloosed them [sc. knots]. 1765 Blackstone Comm. I. 358 To unloose those bands, by which he is connected to his natural prince. 1822 Scott Kenilw. xxxviii, There are other means of disengaging such ties, without unloosing the cords of life. 1847 F. W. Newman Hist. Hebrew Monarchy viii. 272 To unloose the covering from his loins. 1860 Tyndall Glac. i. xxii. 155, I now unloosed my scrip.

fig. 1668 H. More Div. Dial. I. 93 These Experiments indeed strike very strongly on the..senses, but there is a subtile Reason that presently unlooses and takes off 1710 R. Ward Life H. More 116 Nothing can unloose the Sophistries of the selfish Animal Life, but [etc.]. 1820 Shelley Prometh. Unb. II. iii. 96 The Eternal..Must unloose..The snake-like Doom coiled underneath his throne By that alone.

4. To detach, so as to get rid of or remove.

a 1470 H. Parker Dives & Pauper (W. de W. 1496) vi. Int. 26/1 Unloose soo thy richesses from the, that [etc.]. 1555 Eden Decades W. Ind. (Arb.) 214 At which tyme they vnlose the stones, & eyse yope at their pleasure. 1599 Shaks. Lucr. 136 That which they possess They scatter and unloose it from their bond. 1748 Hervey Medit. (ed. 4) I. 214 Those beneficient Hands, which were ..stretched out to unloose the heavy Burthens.

5. intr. To become loose or unfastened. rare.

1594 Carew Huarte's Exam. Wits 321 The creature easily vnlooseth, because the same was moist and watry. 1697 Collier Ess. Mor. Subj. i. 143 Without this Virtue, the publick Union must unloose.

Hence Unloo·ser; Unloo·sing vbl. sb.

1860 Miss Mulock Domest. Stories (1862) 152 Thus let us think of thee, O Death; gentle ·unlooser of life's burthen. 1611 Florio, Disligamenti, ·vnloosings, vnbindings. 1831 A. W. Fonblanque Eng. under ? Administr. (1837) II. 80 The unloosing of Anti-Christ and Satan. 1866 J. H. Newman Lett. to Pusey 37 The knot of Eve's disobedience received its unloosing through the obedience of Mary.

Unloo·sed, ppl. a.[1] [f. prec.] Made loose, relaxed; let loose.

1382 Wyclif Rechev. xxv. 32 Feble hondis and vnloosid knees. 1552 Huloet, Vnlowsed, discinctus. 1839 Darwin Voy. Nat. xxi. 603 The strife of the unlosed elements. 1884 Pall Mall G. 6 May 1/1 Air around him rages the unloosed flood of Moslem fanaticism.

Unloo·sed, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[1] 8.] Not loosened.

c 1430 Vork Mesnio. Bk. (Surtees, 1912) I. 194 Pro la vaumpedyng xij purium ocrearum lowsed a retro, xiij d. ob..Et pro xij pariibus unlowsed retro x d. ob. 1435 Misyn Fire of Love 91 þe knot vnlousyd of drawynge frenschyp sal comforth heuynes of bodily sondyryngge.

Unloo·sen, v. [Un-[2] 9.] trans. = Unloose v.

c 1450 Cov. Myst. (Shaks. Soc.) 252 There xul 3e ffyndyn.. An asse tyed..Vnlosne þat asse, and bryngge it to me. 1586 D. Rowland Lazarillo ii. (1576) M 6, A Coffer fastened about my foot, which..was tied to a great Chest..which though I could, I would not unloosen. 1610 Markham Masterp. ii. xlix. 294 Forget not..to vnloosen the list and to take it away. 1650 Earl Monm. tr. Senault's Man Sec. Guilty 335 God..would..teach us that accidents might be unloosened from their substance. 1782 V. Knox Ess. ii. I. 11 Fix them [sc. religious principles] deeply in your bosom, and let them go with you unloosened and unaltered to the grave. c 1845 J. T. Goodsir in Ch. Scot. Pulpit I. 248 Whose power..unloosened the dumb tongue of conscience. 1863 P. Barry Dockyard Econ. 189 Ankle chains..riveted together,..never to be unloosened night nor day.

Hence Unloo·sening vbl. sb.

1867 E. S. Purcell in Ess. Relig. & Lit. Ser. ii. 476 Everything tends..to the unloosening of all bonds between society and the Church.

Unloo·sing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1593 Q. Eliz. Boeth. iii. met. ii. 46 Nature ..strains with vnlousing Knot [L. irresoluto nexu] cele thing.

Unlo·pped, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1573 Tusser Husb. (1878) 78 In lopping,..for feare of mishap, one bough stay vnlopped, to cherish the sap. 1620 Brinsley tr. Virgil 54 The hills vnlopt lift vp their voices with ioy. 1683 J. Reid Scots Gard. (1907) 120 Forrest-trees ..with high bodies, and unlopt heads. a 1722 Lisle Husb. (1757) 359 [Those [trees] to be had planted with their heads unlopped. 1849 James Woodman vii, The dry unlopped shoots, and withered leaves. 1853 M. Arnold Sohrab & Rustum 409 An unlopp'd trunk it was, and huge.

Unlo·rd, v. [Un-[2] 6 b.] trans. (and refl.) To deprive of the rank of lord.

1572 in Nal Hist. Purit. (1792) I. 288 Because..we would have Bishops unlorded. 1648 Pennyn Plea for Lords i The treasonable..designe..to..unlord the Lords. 1669 Sheldon Well. Royal Shepherdess iii. i, Those wild desires, That made me..then Unlord my Confident. 1714 Atterbury in Beeching Life ix. (1909) 261 Finishing the Work of Reverend Bench with such Members as few Churchmen will pity or regret, when they shall be unlorded. 1828 Caroline Fox Scriptture Reader's Guide ii. 20 He would incline to unlord himself again, and return to his companions in the cellar. 1875 Tennyson Q. Mary iv. ii, We had to dis-archbishop and unlord, And make you simple Cranmer once again.

fig. 1656 S. Winter Serm. 42 The Papists..make void and unlord the second commandment. 1662 Gurnall Chr. in Arm. iii. xviii. 171 Ye have made void..the Commandment ..ἠκυρώσατε, you have unlorded it.

Hence Unlo·rding vbl. sb.

1649 Milton Eikon. vi. 52 The unlording of Bishops, and expelling them the House.

Unlo·rded, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not having the rank of a lord.

1641 Milton Reform. i. 22 He that will mould a modern Bishop into a primitive, must yeeld him to be elected by the popular voyce, undiocest, unrevenu'd, unlorded. 1808 Bentham Sc. Reform. 43 For doing Sheriff's work, we should be reduced to men as yet unlorded.

2. Not owned by, or subject to, a lord.

1803 Moore To Miss Moore 54 While Peace..Walks o'er the free unlorded soil.

Unlo·rdly, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1575 Churchyard Chippes 40 b, The discourage and infamye of this vnlordly enterprye. 1626 Middleton Any-thing for Quiet Life v. i, The lord Beaufort's most unlordly breach Of promise to him. 1641 Milton Reform. ii. 36 The Pastorlike and Apostolick imitation of meeke and unlordly Discipline. 1832 L. Hunt Gentle Armour ii. 9 A knight unknown, Who..to mortal fight defies Three lordly knights for most unlordly calumnies.

Unlo·rdly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.)

? a 1400 Morte Arth. 1267 Saise to syr Lucius, to vn-lordly he wyrkes, Thus letherly agaynes law to lede my pople.

Unlo·sable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1647 Trapp Comm. Rev. iii. 11 Not that crown of eternall life (for that is unloosable). 1662 Boyle Examen ii. 11 For they think Motion..an unloosable Property, congenit to Matter. 1690 C. Nesse O. & N. Test. I. 272 Special saving grace..is certainly unloosable. 1882 Lit. World (U.S.A.) 14 Jan. 15 It keeps them clean, smooth, in order,..unloosable.

†Unlossed, ppl. a. Sc. Obs.—[1] [Un-[1] 8 + Loss v.] Not unloaded; undischarged.

1580 Reg. Privy Council Scot. III. 331 Merchandis that preissis the said schip to transport thair lynt..unlossit furth of the reaime.

Unlo·st, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.)

1513 Douglas Æneid v. ii. 80 Allace I was it nocht lesfull, thow vnlost, The boundis of Itail..to haue socht. 1612 R. Daborne Chr. turn'd Turke 2 Heer's 400 Crowns vnlost yet. 1624 Quarles Div. Poems, Job xvi. 10 It is an influence..Lost by death. 1746 Young Nt. Th. ix. 1071 An Eden, this ! a Paradise unlost ! 1818 Coleebrooke Obligations 88 An assurance of a ship lost or unlost. 1892 Ld. Lytton King Poppy Epil. 57 A few illusions that, unlost, endure.

Unlo·tted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1758 J. Blake Mar. Syst. 25 Unless he finds another unlotted man to serve for him.

†Unlou·k, v. Obs. [OE. unlúcan, onlúcan (Un-[2] 3), = WFris. ont-, ontluke, OS. antlûkan (MDu. ontluken, Du. ontluiken, MLG. entluken), OHG. antlûhhan, in(t)luchan (MHG. entlûchen).]

1. trans. To undo or open (a gate, door, etc.) to unlock.

c 1200 Rule of Chrodegang x, Þæt he preosta gatu .. alyf. edum tidum luce & unluce. c 1175 Lamb. Hom. 127 Þet is þet loc þe deofel ne con unlucan. c 1275 Pains Hell 9 in O. E. Misc. 147 Hwo hauep helle dure vnloke Þat þu ert of pyne broke. 13.. Sir Degar (A.) 158 Hii vn-lek þe yate at þe frome. 1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. xii. 112 Clerkes keepe þe keyes, To vnlouken it at her lykynge. c 1420 Chron. Vilod. 4510 When all þe yates of þe castell weron unloke.

absol. 1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. xviii. 313 Efte þe lizte bad vnlouke, & Lucifer answered, What lorde artow?

transf. 1390 Gower Conf. I. 293 So that his lippes ben unloke And his corage is al tobroke. c 1450 Cov. Myst. (Shaks. Soc.) 28 Oure illescly eyn byn al vnlokyn, Nakyd for synne ouresyl we se.

2. fig. a. To unfold, expound, declare.

13.. K. Alis. 69 (Laud MS.), Ac whi ich habbe hem þus vnleke, 3ee shullen me after her speke. c 1325 Shoreham i. 1924 Nou ich wolle onde þys eft by þe way of wytsyles; ..Nou testlich schel ich on-louke þys. 1390 Gower Conf. I. 28 That swevene hath Daniel unloke.

b. To evolve or extract.

c 1320 Cast. Love 77 [Who] con þat muchel of luitel unlouken, ..Alle poynres he fynde may Of vre be-leue.

c. To disclose, destroy.

1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. xviii. 255 But þeasus rise to lyue,.. And conforte al his kynne, ..And al þe iuwen loye vnloignen & vnlouken.

d. To set free, make open way for.

14.. Langland's P. Pl. C. ii. 198 Þat is þe lok of loue þat vnlosep [MS. F. vnlowketh] grace.

3. intr. To open; to go asunder.

c 1325 Shoreham v. 178 Ine fiom iordanes syche He was ycrysmed, þe heuene onleake. c 1350 Lybeaus Disc. 1816 That deys began to schake, ..The rof abone unlek, ..As hyt wolde asunder.

Unlo·vable, unlo·veable, a.[1] (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1570 Levins Manip. 4 Vnloueable, inamicabilis. 1858 Carlyle Fredk. Gt. iv. viii. I. 465 His masters, though rigorous, were not unlovable to him. 1894 Ld. Wolseley Life Marlborough I. 173 An essentially worldly and unlovable woman.

†Unlo·v(e)able, a[2] Obs. [Un-[1] 7 b.] Not to be praised or commended. c 1450 Holland Howlat 90 The Sparrowe ..Loved in lichtyng, laith, vnloveable. Ibid. 917 With vnloveable laitis nocht till allow.

Unlo·ve, sb. [Un-[1] 12.] Absence of love.

1611 Florio, Disamore, the contrary of loue, vnloue, hate. 1866 Posey Mtn. Proph. 541 He now forbids every sort of unlove. 1870 — Truth. Eng. Ch. 58 Souls purified..from passion..and all unlove. Ibid. 65.

Unlo·ve, v. [Un-[2] 3.] trans. To cease to love (a person, etc.).

Sometimes possibly 'not to love'; see Un-[1] 14.

c 1374 Chaucer Troylus v. 1698, I ne kan..withinne myn herte fynde To vnloueu you ever. 1575 Peterson tr. Della Casa's Galateo 8 Vnough to cause men,..if they did loue vs, to vnloue vs again. 1640 Fuller Joseph's Coat 122 How then shall I unlove the world, which hath been my bosome ..Darling so long? 1712 Steele Spect. No. 310 P 1 They bid me love him, and I cannot unlove him. 1847 C Bronte J. Eyre xviii, I have told you..that I had learnt to love Mr. Rochester: I could not unlove him now. 1895 Bromwich in a Balcony 52 Remember, I..Would..Do all but just unlove him.

absol. 1561 T. Hoby tr. Castiglione's Courtyer ii. (1577) H iv, More apt to brawling and chyding,..that love and vnloue al at a time. 1635 J. Hayward tr. Bonnet's Batch'd Virg. 10 If we returne not to our first state of freedome, and unlove againe. 1859 Mrs. Stowe Minister's Wooing xxv, We never know how we love till we try to unlove. 1882 Emma J. Worboise Diess xv, I am sure one cannot unlove, just because one's esteem is lessened !

Unlo·ved, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not loved; not held in affection; unrequited with love.

a 1395 Hylton Scala Perf. ii. xiv. (MS. Bodl. 592), Vnresonabli be werkip þi loue not be soureeyn good ..vnsought & vnloued. 14.. in Rel. Ant. I. 71 Wo worth love unlovyd ! 1593 Hawes Examp. Virt. i. xcv, Loue neuer vnloued for that is payne. 1590 Shaks. Mids. N. iii. ii. 234 Miserable most, to loue vnloued ! 1634 Milton Comus 153 Vnloued and unlov'd race, the fruits of a delusive marriage. 1671 Mrs. Behn Fore'd Marriage v. iii, The embraces of an unlov'd maid. a 1718 Parnell Hesiod 253 Here Hesiod lies : Unlov'd, unloving, was his fate to bleed. 1821 Scott To Night iii, Lingering like an unloved guest. 1891 Farrar Darkn. & Dawn xviii, The void of an unloved heart.

2. Not pursued or felt as love.

1606 Shaks. Ant. & Cl. iii. vi. 53 You..haue preuented The ostentation of our loue; which left vnshewne, Is often left vnlou'd.

Unlo·veliness. (Un-[1] 12; cf. next.)

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia ii. xv, The old man..followed his suite with..each thing..that might help to compensate his owne unlouelinesse. 1628 Prynne (title), The Vnloueliness of Love-Lockes. 1682 Flavel Meth. Grace xii. 250 [It] excludes all unloveliness and distastefulness from Jesus. 1873 M. Arnold Lit. & Dogma ix. 298 Pulverising alike the historic churches in their beauty and the dissolving sects in their unloveliness. 1892 Welsh Rev. I. 754 This incarnation of ingratitude and unloveliness.

Unlo·vely, a. [Un-[1] 7.]

1. Not evoking feelings of love or affection; unattractive, unpleasant, repellent.

1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. xii. 244 For þe pekok..is..vnlouelich of fetesne. Ibid. xv. 113 Sorwe wordes..aren ful vnlouelich. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia iii. xii, Both [were] wearie of so unlovely embracements. 1670 Baxter Cure Ch. Div. Pref. ii. § 6 They are agreed in the assumption, that their neighbour is unlovely. 1742 Young Nt. Th. iii. 403 By passionately loving life, we make Lov'd life unlovely. 1817 [W. Belge] Sexagenarian i. 35 This unlovely branch of writing [sc. satire]. 1889 Times 3 Dec. 9/3 This very unlovely quarrel.

2. Unattractive or unpleasing in appearance; unhandsome; ugly.

1393 Langl. P. Pl. C. xx. 262 Ac let hure be vnlouelieche, vnfoysom a bedde [etc.]. c 1450 Lovelich Merlin 6447 A ful old man..that onlovely was of face & lere. 1513 Douglas Æneid vi. vii. 33 The woful pale, with wattir vnluffly. 1598 R. Haydocke tr. Lomazzo ii. 133 A discontented woman..will seeme yl-fauored and vnlouely. 1647 Torshell Designe disp. Bible 7 He that looks upon an unlovely thing, with the eye of love, thinks it lovely. 1734 Thomson Liberty iv. 6 Unlovely forms Of little pomp. 1820 Shelley Sensit. Pl. ii. 42 Gnawing worms, And things of obscene and unlovely forms. 1895 P. Hemingway Out of Egypt ii. 156 The town of Port Said is unlovely.

†Unlo·vely, adv. Obs. (Un-[1] 11; cf. prec.)

1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. v. 363 Is non so hungri hounde.. Durst. laye of þe leuynges, so vnlouely þei smauyte. 14.. Langland's P. Pl. C. xi. 271 (Camb. Univ. MS.), Þei lyue here vtl vnlouely til deth hem departe. 1613 Purchas Pilgrimage (1614) 607 The father maketh hatefull loue to the daughter, and the brother is vnlouely louing to the sister.

Unlo·verlike, a. (Un-[1] 7 c.)

1797 Jane Austen Sense & Sens. xxxix, Shocked at so unlover-like a speech. 1830 Miss Mitford Village Ser. iv. 19 This unlover-like parting occurred..one fine afternoon. 1893 K. Simpson Yorksh. Stories 278 Oliver had been cold and unloverlike during the last three weeks.

Unlo·vesome, a. (adv.). Obs. or Sc. (Un-[1] 7.)

13.. K. Alis. 6425 The face of hem is playn, and hard,.. Unlossom is hur kynrede. 1393 [see Unlovely a. 2]. c 1420 Chron. Vilod. 4333 He was an vnlofsom page. 1513 Douglas Æneid viii. Prol. 119 With a luik vnlofsom he lent me sik wordis. 1721, 1813–23 in Sc. glossaries, etc. (in forms unlussum, unlo'e, unluesome).

†b. As adv.

c 1480 Henryson Bludy Serk 61 Vnlsum was his likame dicht, His sarke was all bludy.

Unloving, vbl. sb. (Un-[1] 12.) a 1533 Ld. Berners Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. (1546) Nn viij b, The vnlouyng of women, and the vnkyndnesse of men, which are vices committed of malyce.

Unlo·ving, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10, 5 d.)

1529 More Suppl. Soule Wks. 326/2 In holye scripture yē father is not accompted for vnlouing and cruel, that beateth his childe. 1597 Salusbury Poems (1914) 75, I loue, inforst by loues vnloving charmes, My loue is pure. 1645 Milton Tetrach. 4 To lead a wearisom life of unloving and unquiet conversation with one who neither affects nor is affected. a 1718 [see Unloved 1]. 1757 Mrs. Griffith Lett. Henry & Frances (1767) III. 38 The cool, unloving stoic Tenets, that..are sure to risk nothing for their Friends. 1840 Hawthorne Sorcerer's Bride 190 Love shows you still, Which thus you can Love, tho' unloving all conceived by man. 1868 Miss Yonge Cameos (1877) i. xiv. 116 It was an unloving marriage; but he was much respected and beloved.

Unlo·ingly, adv. (Un-[1] 11; cf. prec.)

1522 in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. ii. I. 129 Thowe..the Kings Grace [be]..unlowingli con sum partise served. 1583 Babington Commandm. (1590) 264 Vnaduisedly, & I feare vnloingly we speake what wee list. 1866 B. North Ourselves 3 If I seem..to speak unlovingly.

Unlo·vingness. (Un-[1] 12; cf. prec.)

1598 Florio, Discorsevolezza, vnkindnes, vnloingness. a 1639 W. Whateley Prototypes i. xix. (1640) 193 A kind of heate and unlovingnesse against the doer of them. a 1652 Brome Jug. Moor ii. iii, Unlovingness of nature, Forgetfulness of blood. 1840 L. Hunt Sonn's 89/2 To continue to love every thing which unlovingness has not had a hand in altering. 1868 Pusey Serm. Phariseism 7 His lack of humility engendered his unlovingness.

Unloyal, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1594 in Liturgy. Serv. Q. Eliz. (1847) 651 Her most unloyal, desperate, and rebellious Subjects. 1600 Holland Livy iv. xxvi. 322 The Romaines found all unloyall unto them. 1741 S. A. Laval Hist. Reform. IV. viii. 992 Any undutiful or unloyal Word.

Unloy·alty. (Un-[1] 12.) 1560 Daus tr. Sleidane's Comm. 311 What ende..doe you loke of this obstinacy and vnloy-aultie? Unlu·bricated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8). [1775 Ash.] 1879 Cassell's Techn. Educ. I. 66 The tallow melted, leaving the rifle unlubricated. Unlu·cent, a. (Un-[1] 7). 1819 Keats Song Four Fairies 61 Before the stains Of the mountain soil they take, And thee too unlucent make. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. II. v. iii. A combustion most fierce, but unlucent. Unlu·cid, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1848 Carlyle Proth. Gl. VII. ix. II. 287 Rebuke which can still be read in growling, unlucid phraseology.

Unluc·ck. (Un-[1] 12. Cf. WFris. onlok, únlok, M.LG. unluche, LG. unlûk, ON. úlukka, etc. ; and Wanluck.)

[The following early instance is of foreign origin :—1556 Aurelio & Isabell N 7, The fortune that unto her enemys makes to seake the onlockes.]

1838 Cruikshank's Comic Almanack I. 142 Last Friday was a notable instance of my unluck. 1891 Atkinson Moorland Parr. 94 That bad news generally...might have something to do with the unluck of his stock.

† Unluckful, a. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 7.) Bringing ill-luck. 1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 338 Why settest thou thy delite in three the most vnluckful beastes of ye worlde?

Unluckily, adv. [Un-[1] 11. Cf. ON. úlukkuliga.]

1. Unfortunately, unhappily.

Usually in parenthetic or loose construction.

1530 Palsgr. 840/2 Onluckely, de grant malheur. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia III. ii, Blind Fortune hating sharpe-sighted inventions, made them also be killed. 1638 Sir T. Herbert Trav. (ed. 2) 92 Darab..most unluckily denyes, and goes on to levy men to support the rebellion. 1673 [R. Leigh] Transp. Reh. 128 Unluckily..there has happen'd a prodigious conjunction. 1766 Goldsm. Vicar xxviii, Unluckily all our money had been laid out..in provisions. 1828 J. Neal Brn. Jonathan III. 404 Unluckily for him, the order for pursuit was given too early. 1872 Freeman Norm. Conq. IV. xvii. 74 Of the state of things..we unluckily hear nothing.

b. With verbs of happening, succeeding, etc.

c 1550 Vertuous Scholehous H 6 b, Man feareth that it [sc. matrimony] mycht succede vnluckely. 1598 Shaks. Rom. & Jul. III. iv. 1 Things have falne out, vnluckily. 1607—Timon III. iii. 5 How vnluckily it happned, that [etc.] 1711 Swift Let. to Abp. King 8 Mar., Nothing could happen so unluckily...as Mr. Harley's death. 1819 Shelley Cenci v. 1. 22 It had turned out unluckily.

† 2. Unsuccessfully, badly. Obs. rare.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia I. xvi, Urania, whom a rich knight ..had unluckely defended. 1638 Junius Paint. Ancients 305 A certain Painter,..who painted cockes most unluckily, gave his boy great charge, to chase the true cockes away from his picture. 1665 Boyle Occas. Reff. iv. xx, Many of those young Ladies..are so unluckily Bred,..that [etc.]

Unlu·ckiness. [Un-[1] 12 : cf. next.]

1. Want of luck ; unlucky character or fortune.

1561 T. Hoby tr. Castiglione's Courtyer iv. U vij b, You haue better declared the vnluckinesse of yonge men, then the happynesse of olde menn. 1638 Sir T. Herbert Trav. (ed. 2) 227 Black..they call..a type of hell, and unluckinesse. 1673 Kirkman Unlucky Citizen A 5 b, Although I had been unlucky, yet I my own self caused that unluckyness. 1734 Mrs. Delany Life & Corr. (1861) I. 452 A piece of unluckiness of yours which has disappointed and mortified me. 1835 Wilson's Tales Borders I. 65/2 The luckiness or unluckiness of a First Foot. 1897 E. W. B. Nicholson Gokpie 69 A belief in the unluckiness of Friday.

2. Tendency to mischief.

1760–72 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1809) I. 163 Ned.. would not willingly have exchanged his unluckiness for the heirship of an estate. Ibid. 171 Not natural unluckiness.

† Unluckly, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7. Cf. Sw. olyckslig, Da. ulykkelig, Norw. ulukkeleg; MHG. unge-, G. unglücklich.] = Unlucky a.

1585 Greene Planetom. B r b, A pesuish Parent, whose celestial (but infortunate) impression ioyned with a perpetuall vnluckly irradiation, breedeth both in mens mindes and bodies..hapless passions. 1600 Hakluyt Voy. III. 328 The end of their interprise became vnluckly and vnfortunate. 1678 Moxon Mech. Exerc. iv. 73 A negligent or unluckly knock with the Mallet.

Unluckly, a. [Un-[1] 7. Cf. WFris. on-, únlokkich, M.LG. unluckich.]

1. Having an unfortunate character or issue ; marked by misfortune or failure.

1530 Palsgr. 328/2 Unluckye, meschant. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. VI, 138 b, Accomptyng to hym their euil chaunce & vnluckey fortune. 1563 Mirr. Mag., Somerset xxxi, My life I lost in that vnlucky place. 1588 Shaks. Tit. A. II. iii, 251 Brought hither in a most vnlucky hour. 1609 Rowlands Dr. Merrie-man (1627) C 2 b, One..brake his Arme, And did complaine vnto a Friend Of his vnlucky harme. 1676 Hobbes Iliad I. 200 To put an end to this unlucky strife. 1712 Addison Spect. No. 377/4 This unlucky Accident happened to me in a Company of Ladies. 1829 Lytton Disowned 79 It was the unluckiest step we ever made to admit him into the bosom of our family. 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xvii. III. 172 The year which was closing had certainly been unlucky.

2. Boding or involving misfortune ; ill-omened, inauspicious.

a 1547 Surrey Æneid II. 1026 Th' vnlucky figure of Creusas ghost. 1568 Grafton Chron. II. 382 The Scottes.. thought John an vnluckie name for a King. 1637 Morison Itin. I. 61 The King and the Queen,..while sometimes they thought Munday, sometimes Friday, to be vnlucky daies, had lost many faire winds. 1686 tr. Chardin's Trav. Persia 19 Nor do I know what unlucky star brought him to Constantinople. 1700 Rowe Amb. Step-Moth. III. i, Why do you urge my Father's fatal Power To curse you with a sad unlucky Bride. 1843 Prescott Mexico (1850) I. 105 On the arrival of the five 'unlucky' days, they abandoned themselves to despair.

3. Having ill-luck ; meeting with misfortune or mishap.

1552 Huloet, Vnluckye, to be, or haue yll lucke, exauspicor. 1560 Daus tr. Sleidane's Comm. 29 b, You musie haue respecte also that this newe Empire..be not made vnlucky and vnfortunate. 1627 J. Taylor (Water P.) Navy of Land Ships Wks. (1630) 79/1 Some Ships..are so vnlucky, that they neuer make a good voyage. 1673 S'too him Bayes 4 Thou are the unluckyest disputant in the world. 1707 Crabbe Par. Reg. I. 705 The unlucky peasant heard the stranger's cry. 1896 Howells Impressions & Exp. 239 A pair of grim old ladies, who..lived..aloof from their unluckier sister.

4. Bringing ill-luck ; causing mishap or harm ; mischievous, malicious.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia I. xi, By an vnluckye blow the poore Philoxenus fell dead at his feete. 1598 R. Bernard tr. Terence, Phormio II. ii, Are you vnluckie varlet so ready to doe euerie thing against me? 1712 Addison Spect. No. 343 ¶ 9 An unlucky Cock-Sparrow that..had before made great depredations upon our Commonwealth. 1727 [Dorrington] Philip Quarll (1816) 72 These unlucky instruments, which were intended for destruction, shall be employed for..preservation. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 571 Schoolmasters may not be displeased at unlucky tricks played by their lads. 1875– in many dialect glossaries (Eng. Dial. Dict.).

b. Of a horse : Bad-tempered, vicious.

1707 Mortimer Husb. 151 If he [sc. the stallion] be unlucky and mad.

5. Of an unfortunate or regrettable nature ; not entitled to commendation.

1629 Feltham Resolves II. 1. 146 In some vnlucky dispositions, there is such an enuious kinde of Pride. 1672 tr. Charente's Let. Customs Mauritania 18 There would be much greater [plenty], if it was not for the unlucky custom of those people to bury their Gold. 1746 Francis tr. Horace, Epist. I. i. 17 If some unlucky Barber notch my Hair. 1815 Scott Guy M., I, Mannering resolved..to halt for the night ..unless he could procure a guide to this unlucky village of Kippletringan.

Unlucrative, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1771–2 Ess. fr. Batchelor (1773) II. 135 An unlucrative and perillous profession. 1839 Carlyle Chartism viii, The unlucrative fishing of amber-gris. † Unludde. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 4 b + Ludde.) Cf. ON. úhlíð.] An unpleasant noise. a 1225 Prov. Alfred 189 in O. E. Misc. 138 He wole maken fule luden ; he wole grennen, ..and hewere [=ever] faren mid vnluden. Unlu·ll, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1743 Humours of Whist 40 They love Opera's, say they, because they lull the Passions..; and yet..afterwards they fall to gaming, and very often pay for unlulling them again.

Unlu·minous, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1773 Gentl. Mag. XLIII. 238 Hell's unluminous domains. 1839 Carlyle Fr. Rev. II. v. iii, A tragical combustion, long smoking and smouldering unluminous. 1872 Howells Wedd. Journ. v, The dense unluminous shadows of the moonshine.

† Unlust, sb. Obs. [OE. unlust (Un-[1] 12), = MDu. (Du.) onlust, MLG. unlust, OHG., MHG., G. unlust (Sw. olust), Goth. unlustu-s disinclination, displeasure, dislike. Cf. also ON. ólyst (Da. ulyst).]

1. Absence of pleasure ; distress, weariness.

a 1000 Sal. & Saturn 268 (Gr.), Se fugel..wylleð hine on ðam wíte, wunde unlustum. c 1440 Jacob's Well 116 No lyif of swete desiryyng nye gostly gladnesse is in þou, but dedly heuynes, & angwysch, & vnlust.

2. Want of appetite ; nausea.

c 1000 Sax. Leechd. II. 158 Lacedomas wib unluste & wiðerne þe magan wel. a 1400 Med. Metrical Medd. 35 ðí wat mete se þi make holecriche underfeó ; þat is, wiš unlust. 1561 Hollybush Hom. Apoth. 22 In all hys meates lette a little saffron be put ; but it causeth vnluste in the stomacke.

3. Disinclination to be active or bestir oneself ; slothfulness, laziness, idleness.

c 1000 Ælfric Hom. II. 556 He þolaš neadunge þeostra þurh wreccan, se þe ne luste forðær his unlustes þeostra. c 1200 Ormin 2623 Forr unnlusst & forswundenneššc Iss Drihhtin swiþe unncweme. a 1300 Body & Soul in Megh's Poems (Camden) 336 Gloterie and lecherie, pride and wicke coveytise, And in unlust for to lye. c 1386 Chaucer Pers. T. ¶ 680 He dooth all thyng..with ydelnesse and vnlust. a 1470 H. Parker Dives & Pauper (W. de W. 1496) vii. xxiii. 311/2 Goodes of holy chirche..ben gyuen to helpe of the poore..not to selle them seyn to ryche men to mayntenen them in unlust & in bodely ease.

b. Disinclination (for something). Const. of, to (with inf.), towards.

1399 Gower Conf. III. 297 For unlust of that aventure Ther was noman which tok tonsure. 1530 Tindale Prol. Epist. Romans A ij b, We fynde in oure selves vnlust and tediousnes to do good. 1535 Coverdale Isaiah xliii. 22 Thou haddest an vnlust towarde me, o Israel.

4. Evil desire or inclination. (Un- 4 b.)

a 1225 Ancr. R. 288 (MS. B), Hwon þe heorte draheð to hire unlust [P. a son mal desir].

5. Unpleasantness, repulsiveness.

a 1529 Skelton El. Rummyng 148 Theyr tresses untrust, All full of vnlust.

† Unlust, v. Obs. (Un-[2] 6 b.) 1683 Argt. for Union 38 It sounded more decently..to pray in the Churches words,.. then to use those of an eminent Dissenter, Lord un-lust us.

† Unlusthead. Obs. [Un-[1] 12.] = Unlust sb. 3. 1340 Ayenb. 31 þet uerbe heaued..is onlusthede. Ibid. 163 þe zenne of sleawbe and of onlosthede.

† Unlustily, adv. Obs. [Un-[1] 11. Cf. MHG. unlustsiechtheit, MDa. onlustelije, MSw. olustelika.] Slothfully, idly ; weakly ; unwillingly.

c 1350 Song of Mercy 143 in E. E. P. (1862) 122 Vnlustily vr lyf we lede. a 1470 Tiptoft Tulle on Friendsh. (Caxton, 1481) b iv, That is the cause..that they that be right wys ben moest sory for the thynges whiche be doen unrihtwisly and they that ben strange for thynges doen unlustely. 1598 Florio, Snogitatamente,..sadly, vnlustily, without taste.

† Unlustiness. Obs. [Un-[1] 12 ; see Unlusty.]

1. Lack of health and strength ; physical weakness or debility. Obs.

1486 Bk. St. Albans, Hawking b vi b, A medecyne that an hawke shall not lie in mew for vnlustynesse. 1547 Boorde Brev. Health xlix. 15 (Gaping) doth come of vnlustines or els for lake of sleye. 1596 Barough Meth. Physick viii. 470 When..the weariness or the vnlustiness of the sinewes is to bee assuaged. 1620 Venner Via Recta Introd. 4 Vnlustinesse of the limmes.

2. Lack of cheerfulness or readiness ; dullness ; disinclination.

a 1470 H. Parker Dives & Pauper (W. de W. 1496) i. lix. 101/2 Melodye was ordeyned to holy chirche..to put awaye heynynesse & vnlustynesse. 1504 Orchard of Syrye Mon (W. de W. 1506) iv. xxx. 250 By unlustynes in dyffayynge without desyre to do well. 1583 Golding Calvin on Deut. x. 54 Wee see what vnlustinesse is in vs when God commaundith vs any thing.

Unlu·strous, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1709 Rowe Shakspere's Cymb. I. vii. 127 An Eye, Base and unlustrious [sic; 1623 illustrious] as the smoaky Light That's fed with stinking Tallow. 1790 Anna Seward Lett. (1811) II. 378 How dim and unlustrous is Mr. Merry's muse ! 1863 W. Lancaster Praeterita 70 Sweet unlustrous eyes.

Unlu·sty, a. Obs. exc. dial. [Un-[1] 7. Cf. MDu. onlustich (Du. onlustig), MLG. unlustich, MHG. unlustic (G. unlustig), ON. úlystugr, older Da. ulystig, MSw. olustogher (Sw. olustig).]

1. Indisposed to activity or exertion ; slothful, lazy ; dull, listless. Also const. to with inf.

c 1230 Hali Meid. 43 And te oðre þat halden ham vnforgult & cleane, beon ase sikere unlustie & wlecche, luteh i goles þuie wiðuten such feole þe hali gast. a 1240 Lofsong in O. E. Hom. I. 205 Touel spac and slow to godd, semeleas and unlusti. 1340 Ayenb. 170 To þe sleauolne and to þe onlosti pet byeþ slacke to godes service. 1390 Gower Conf. I. 203 Thus his yonge unlusti lif he dryveth forth. c 1450 Mankind 538 in Macro Plays 20 Thys londe ys so harde, yt makyth vn-lusty & yrke. 1504 C'tess Richmond tr. De Imitatione IV. xii. (1893) 276 If thou haue nat that grace whan thou woldest but feie hy selfe dryye and vnlusty. 1519 Horman Vulg. 48 My mynde..when it is cloudy wether.. is vnlusty. 1560 Pilkington Exp. Aggeus B vi marg., Eate not so that it make ye vnlustie to serue God. 1627 Hieron Wks. (1620) II. 273 Lazie, lusty, fresh out in a kinde of dull, and heauy, and vnlusty manner with them [sc. holy seruice].

b. dial. ' Unwieldy ; very tat.'

1881–2 in Cornwall glossaries.

2. Lacking in bodily vigour ; deficient in health and strength ; weak, feeble.

1400–10 Clanvowe Cuckoo & Nightingale viii, Though I be old and vnlusty. 1577 B. Google Heresbach's Husb. 127 The Cowe should..haue but short pasture, and the Bull his belly full : so shall neyther she be too fat, nor he vnlusty. a 1624 Dr. Smith Serm. (1632) 249 Infants..borne lame or vnlusty.

3. Of land : Not in good heart.

1573–80 Tusser Husb. (1878) 50 If land be vnlustie, the crop is not great.

3. Having an unattractive or ill-favoured look.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 8035 All was wan the weghe.., With lamentacion & langour vnlusty to see. 1430–40 Lydg. Bochas I. ii. (1554) 2 b, By..great labours, They were vnlusty and ugly of their cheres. a 1529 Skelton P. Sparowe 915 His gummes rusty Are full vnlusty.

4. Undesirable, objectionable, unpleasant.

c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Prince. 3519 Thoses hadde gret cause hem to venge, But hir spiritis, pestilent & loghthen pat craft vnlusty and alenge. c 1445 Pecock Donet 24 Forto pus do and procede..wolde be ouer longe and tediose and vnlusty to be heeiers.

Unlute, v. [Un-[2] 4.] trans. To remove the lute from (a vessel, etc.).

1661 Boyle Sceptical Chym. I. 68 Upon the unluting the vessels, it infected the Room with a scarce supportable stink. 1662 Merrett tr. Neri's Art of Glass lxxiii, Unlute the Chrysibles. 1758 Reid tr. Macquer's Chym. i. 226 Let the vessels cool, unlute them. 1839 Ure Dict. Arts 10 The adopter tube is then unluted, and is slid into its junction pipe.

Unlu·ted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1663 Boyle Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. II. App. 318 A calcining pot unluted. 1877 Teale Dangers to Health Pl. v, Unluted joints leaking under the floor. Unluxuri·an, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1792 Historical Rev. VIII. 43 A fruitful, yet unluxuriant and agreeable Imagination. 1805 Wordsw. Prelude VIII. 161 The unluxuriant produce of a life Intent on little but substantial needs.

Unluxu·rious, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1700 Philips Pastorals i. 7 In unluxurious times of yore. 1795 Coleridge Plot Discov. 50 The enlightened and unluxurious ancients. 1853 Miss Yonge Heir of Redclyffe xxiii, Unpretending, unluxurious charks. 1868 W. R. Greg Lit. & Soc. Judgm. 357 A comparatively humble and unluxurious home.

Unlycanthropize, v. (Un-[2] 6 c ; cf. Lycanthrope.) 1660 Howell Parly of Beasts 114 She is ready to unlycanthropize you from this Wolfish shape to your former condition. Unly·rical, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1839 Mill Disc. & Disc. (1859) I. 81 The genius of Wordsworth is essentially unlyrical. Unly·rically, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1891 Athenæum 3 Oct. 445/2 The assemblage of trochee words..keeps the rhythm unlyrically staccato.

Unmacadamized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1840 Hood Kilmansegg, Accident xvi, So she gathered the awful sense Of the street in its past unmacadamiz'd tense. 1852 Smedley L. Arundel xxxii. 238 Flinty hearts, unmacadamised by the smallest grain of pity. 1879 E. Walford Londonians I. 40 Along roads rugged, rutty, and un-macadamized.

Unma·ckly, a. and adv. north. dial. [Un-[1] 7, 11 : see Mack a. and Mackly adv.] Unshapely ; ill-favoured (ly).

† a 1600 Sir Cawline xxx. (Percy Folio MS.), Vpon his squier [=neck] fiue heads he bare, Vnmackley made was hee. 1881–76 in northern glossaries.

†Unma·culat, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [Un-[1] 8 b, 5 b.] Immaculate. 1532 Dunbar Poems. Scot. (Rolls) II. 158 His awin ladie vnmaculat and clene. 1607 Melrose Regality Rec. (1914) 35 The judge..ordanis him to redelyver..the said obligatioun unmaculat, uncuttit. Unma'd, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1570 FOXE A. & M. (ed. 2) II. 2134/1 Old and yong, blind and lame, maddie and vnmadde. 1694 ECHARD Plautus 61 She's th' only unmad Person o' my Family. Unma·dened, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1797 COLERIDGE Osorio III. i. 22 What sense unmadden'd, might bear up against The rushing of your congregated wines? 1868 E. R. SILL Poems, Hermitage xx, Unmaddened by the babble of vain men.

Unma·de, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 b, 5 d.]

1. Not (yet) made, in senses of the verb.

*c*1250 Gen. & Ex. 671 Babel, þat tur, bi-lef un-mad. 1375 BARBOUR Bruce IV. 628 His ancheis to leif the Eyre vnmaid. *c*1400 Pilgr. Sowle (Caxton, 1483) v. 1. 74 God .. maketh as many werkes as better ben made than vnmade. *c*1489 CAXTON Sonnes of Aymon xx. 445 Thys cave sheweth not that it hathe be vnmade this hundred yeres passed. 1508 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 81 Whiche..lefte the lettre .O. that he was in makynge halfe vnmade. 1592 SHAKS. Rom. & Jul. III. iii. 70 Taking the measure of an vnmade graue. 1623 SANDERSON Serm. (1689) 131 Lawes..are farre better vnmade, then vnkept. 1680 SIR J. FOULIS Acc. Bk. (S.H.S.) 165 To [blank] davison for 4 dus[e] unmade pens. 1704 Lond. Gaz. No. 3981/4 With new fine Holland Shifts and Hankerchiefs unmade. 1731 Wodrow Corr. (1843) II. 139 Whatever of cloth, made or unmade, linen yarn or woollen. 1807 CRABBE Parr. Reg. III. 180, I die,..My mind unsettled, and my will unmade. 1828 Lights & Shades I. 286 A half-clothed mother seated on the corner of an unmade bed. 1885 C. E. PASCOE Lond. of To-day 315 The plain unmade satin scarf.

b. spec Untrained. (Cf. MADE ppl. a. 6.)

1856 H. DIXON Post & Paddock I. 4 The largest market in the world for unmade hunters and carriage-horses.

2. Existing without having been made; uncreated but existent.

*c*1350 Athanasian Creed in MS. Bodl. 425 fol. 69 b, Bot on unmade and on mikel is he. 1434 MISYN Mending Life 122 O swelt light..þat is my makar vn-made, list þe face ..of my Iuward eyn with derenes vn-made. *c*1449 PECOCK Repr. II. xvi. 242 Thei..holden that al the bodiliheed..was vnmaad, and was euer without bigynnyng of tyme. 1563 MAN Musculus' Commonpl. 373, I doe fynde generally two Natures, one made, the other made. Wee call that vnmade (non factam), whiche belongeth onto God. 1598 CUDWORTH Intell. Syst. Pref., The Latter asserted an Unmade Mind, whereas the Former Generated all Mind..out of those Qualified Atoms. 1682 MONRO Hierocles Pref. 23 Unmade, Self-existent, independent Deities. 1720 WATERLAND Eight Serm. 239 If He existed before anything was made, He must..be unmade, and therefore eternal. 1827 POLLOK Course T. VI. 690 Maker, Upholder, Governor of all! Thyself unmade, ungoverned, unupheld! 1888 Congregat. Year bk. 93 His world is a world without design, atoms are the unmade makers of all things.

3. † a. Sc. (with complement). Obs.

1456 [see UNA[1] 5 d (6).] 1566 DALRYMPLE tr. Leslie's Hist. Scot. (S.T.S.) II. 46 Quhat chancet on Pasche day..suld not be vnmaid mentioune of.

b. With adys. Not made out, up, etc.

1600 HAKLUYT Voy. III. 87 A Pinnesse..which was caryed in pieces, and vnmade vp. *a*1632 DONNE Elegy XV. 97 Countless multitudes Of formlessness curses, projects vnmade vp. a 1680 BUTLER Charac., Pedant (1908) 136 He wears his little Learning, unmade-up, puts it on, before it was half finished. 1707 MORTIMER Husb. 379 Where the rows and brush lie longer unbound or unmade up. 1833 LAMB Let. to Cary in Final Mem. viii, I think we scarce left anything unmadeout.

† Unma·ggled, ppl. a. Obs.[-1] (Un-[1] 8.) Unmangled. *c*1470 Gol & Gaw. 720 Wes nane forssy on fold, that wes fechtand. Wannaglit fald, unmaglit and wonder.

Unma·gic, v. [Un-[2] 6.] trans. To disenchant. 1650 H. MORE Observ. in Entiusa. Tri., etc. (1656) I. 2 b, Poor Galen's Antichrist, though one Purge of his Might so unmagick thee as make thee wise. Unma·gnanimate, v. (Un-[2] 6 b.) 1649 MILTON Tenure Kings (ed. 2) 55 If this Parlament..might..take all power..out of his hand, which in effect is to unmagistrate him. Unma·gistrate-like, a. (Un-[1] 7 c.) 1644 MILTON Divorce (ed. 2) II. xi. 53 What more un-Judge-like, more un-Magistrate-like, and in warre more un-commander-like? Unmagna·nimous, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1856 DE QUINCEY Confess. Wks. I. 206 note, A man so unmagnanimous as Napoleon. 1877 OWEN Wellesley's Desp. p. xl, The indirect and unmagnanimous revenge ..galled him to the quick.

Unmagne·tic, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1805 Phil. Trans. XCV. 283 Such substances as may be sublimed with facility, will gradually quit the oxide,..leaving it unmagnetic, as at first. 1844 NOAD Electricity (ed. 2) 425 An unmagnetic needle, placed within a close helix, formed by the wire of the circuit. 1860 O. W. HOLMES Prof. Breakf.-t. i, A new clean unmagnetic word.

Unmagne·tical, a. [Un-[1] 7.] = prec. 1815 J. SMITH Panorama Sci. & Art II. 177 If an unmagnetical bar be struck with a hammer. 1832 Nat. Philos., Magnetism iv. 34 (L.U.K.), Unmagnetical iron or steel. Unmagnetized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1834 MRS. SOMERVILLE Connex. Phys. Sci. xxix. (1836) 321 An unmagnetised iron bar. 1873 J. C. MAXWELL Electr. & Magn. III. vi. II. 76 In the unmagnetised state of ordinary iron. Unma·gnify, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1747 E. POSTON Prattler I. 38 Whenever we think..that we understand the Nature and Ways of God, what do we in Reality, but unmagnify him, or..disroble him of his Honour and Glory? † Unma·ll. Obs.-[1] (Un-[1] 12.) One not possessed of any power or means. a 1300 Prov. Hendyng in Rel. Ant. I. 114 Moni mon mid a luted ahte ȝeweth is dohter an un-mahte, Ant lutel is the betre. Unmai·d, v. (Un-[2] 6 b.) 1598 N. WRITING Albina & Belisana 259 Is't not said Spirits have power a damsel to unmaid? † Unmai·den, sb. Obs.-[1] (Un-[1] 12.) a 1380 Langland's P. Pl. A. x. 193 (Vernon MS.), Bote Maydens and vn-Maydens clene ow saue.

Unmai·den, v. [Un-[2] 6 b. Cf. Du. ontmaagden, G. entmädden.] trans. To deprive of maidenhood; to deflower.

1579 NORTHBROOKE Dicing 68 b, Through this dauncing many maidens haue beene vnmaidened. 1612 DRAYTON Poly-olb. vii. 47 Least by the Sylvans, She might unmaiden goe unto her soveraigne flood. 1660 J. S. Andromana II. v, Sturdy Hercules, When he unmaiden'd fifty in one night. a 1693 Urquhart's Rabelais III. xlii. (1694) 96 He unmaiden'd his Sister Jano. [1876 Whitby Gloss., Unmaiden'd, married.]

refl. 1592 WARNER Alb. Eng. VIII. xlii. 179 Think not Lord Cliffords daughter will vn-maiden her for pay.

Unma·ndening vbl. sb.

a 1693 Urquhart's Rabelais III. vi 58 The unmandening or depucelating of a hundred Virgins.

Unmai·denlike, a. (Un-[1] 7 c.) 1876 SWINBURNE Erechtheus 364 Not moved of mine own will, Unmaidenlike.

Unmai·denly, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1634 BP. HALL Contempl., N. T. IV. iv, [These] wanton gesticulations of a virgin..could be no other than riggish and unmaidenly. 1848 SCOTT F. M. Perth XXV, Such tokens of intimacy..are uncomely and unmaidenly. 1848 MRS. GASKELL Mary Barton xv, The whisperings of her womanly nature..caused her to shrink from any unmaidenly action. 1866 G. MACDONALD Ann. Q. Neighb. xxxii, At least do not put your character in question by going in this unmaidenly fashion.

Hence Unmai·denliness.

1874 Fortn. Rev. Feb. 239 What the poet thinks of the unmaidenliness of Lynette. 1879 MEREDITH Egoist xxi, You, father! you have driven me to unmaidenliness.

Unmai·l, v. [Un-[2] 4. Cf. MDu. ontmaelgeren, -maillieren.] trans. To break or detach the links of (a mail-coat).

? a 1412 LYDG. Troy Merch. 668 How many a man hath Fortune assayled..Her habirlowys of steel also vnmayled. *c*1489 CAXTON Sonnes of Aymon III. 79 Ye sholde haue seen ..many a goode haubergen vnmayled. 1612 COTGR., Desmaillé, vnmailed; vnlinked; vnclosse..as a coat of maile.

Hence Unmai·ling vbl. sb.

1591 PERCIVALL, Desmaillادura, vnmailing. 1611 COTGR., Desmaillure, an vnmailing; an vndoing..of maile.

Unmai·lable, a. U. S. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1875 U. S. Official Post Guide 4 (Hingel), Such matter must be forwarded to the Dead Letters Office, marked as 'unmailable.' Unmai·led, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Not covered or protected by mail. 1808 Ann. Rev. IV. 562 The brother of Biorn with his mail; Herbert unmailed. 1897 WORDSW. White Doe I. 765 With breast unmailed, unweaponed hand. Unmai·nable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1565 GOLDING Ovid's Met. XII. (1587) 155 When Ceny had sufficiently glutted given Latreus leaue too smyght His spight yet so cannot her all throw downe, But thut vnmainable Statue..Yet lurkes vnmayn'd within her weeping walles. 1715 POPE Iliad Pref. E 2, It is the first grand Duty of an Interpreter to give his Author entire and unmain'd. c 1810 J. BAILLIE 2nd Part Ethwald I. ii, Standing erect, Unmain'd and vigorous.

† Unmai·n. Obs.-[1] (Un-[1] 12. Cf. OHG. unmagen, ON. ómegin, ómegn (Icel. ómegin, MSw. omäghin, Norw. dial. umegje, umeie); also OE. unmægness.] Want of strength.

1338 R. BRUNNE Chron. (1810) 55 Pof I had stombled þorgh myn vnmayn, He suld haf..reised me agayn.

Unmaintai·nable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1625 DONNE Serm. 657 They have bound themselves not to recede from those doctrines, how unmaintainable soever they be in themselves. 1701 NORRIS Ideal World I. vi. 352 The defence of so desperate and unmaintainable a breach. a 1832 BENTHAM Levelling Syst. Wks. 1843 I. 562 The good expected..would be altogether unmainable—at least unmaintainable for two instants together. 1853 GROTE Greece XI. 499 That the festivals..were unmaintainable during such a war. 1883 Lew Times 22 Dec. 135/1 The society..was an illegal society..and the action was consequently unmaintainable.

Unmaintai·ned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1691 BAXTER Nat. Ch. xv. 72 A Life of unmaintained poverty, and censure. 1885 Pall Mall G. 1 July 6/2 Hence we have prime unnoticed, discipline unmaintained. Unma·kable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1674 GREW Disc. Mixture III. § 13 No Principle is made by the fire: all Principles being unalterable; and therefore unmakable. 1701 — Cosm. Sacr. I. iii. 13.

Unma·ke, v. (Un-[2] 3. Cf. MDu. (Du.) ontmaken, OHG. in(t)mahhôn (G. entmachen).]

1. trans. To reverse or undo the making of (some thing or object); to reduce again to an unmade condition.

1426 LYDG. De Guil. Pilgr. 11270 He made [nets], & hem vnmade ageyn. *c*1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode I. lxiii. (1869) 38 It is a iewell that was..mad..of my fader with oute smytinge of strok..For noyse and strokes maken it nouht, but robrekem it and vnmaken it. 1641 MILTON Ch. Gov. vi, So that Prelaty..must be forc't to dissolve and unmake her own pyramidal figure. 1690 T. BURNET Theory Earth II. 132 God does not make or unmake things, to try experiments. 1750 JOHNSON Rambler No. 7 ¶ 11 She compels them to alter their work, then to unmake it. 1857 EMERSON Ode to Beauty 99 Dread Power!..If God thou be, Unmake me quite, or give thyself to me. 1868 MORRIS Earthly Par. (1870) I. 1, And now thou knowest in how short a space The God that made the world can unmake thee.

absol. 1426 LYDG. De Guil. Pilgr. 11416 And thogh that I make & vnmake, Blame me nat. 1821 BYRON Cain I. i. 142 But, if he made us—he cannot unmake.

b. With immaterial object.

1377 LANGL. P. Pl. B. xv. 236 Matrimoigne for moyne [they] maken & vnmaken. 1513 DOUGLAS Æneid VI. IX. 199 Sum vtheris..That lawis maid and vnmaid, as thain list. a 1536 TINDALE in Marbeck Bk. of Notes (1581) 746 Who can suffer them..for their owne profites, to make and vnmake lawes..? 1639 FULLER Holy War II. xvii. 67 God will not unmake his miracles by making them common. 1802–12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) V. 266 When a statute..has been unmade by the authority that made it. 1822 BYRON Juan VI. IX, In perfect innocence she then unmade Her toilet, which cost little. 1860 GEN. P. THOMPSON Audi Alt. Part. III. cxxiv. 77 The study of what has made and unmade military successes.

absol. 1604 SHAKS. Oth. II. iii. 352 His Soule is so enfetter'd to her Loue, That she may make, vnmake, do what she list. 1848 BAILEY Festus (ed. 3) 17 Then comes the feeling which unmakes, undoes. 1876 MRS. WHITNEY Sights & Ins. II. 402 Perhaps the very first thing we see that wisdom do, is to unmake and separate, and seem to break and mix yet more.

2. a. To deprive of a particular rank or station; to depose.

1554 BALE Declar. Bonner's Articles xix. 68 He is wonte to make kinges, and to vnmake them again at his pleasure. 1567 JEWEL Def. Apol. 418 Saieinge withal, Hee had Power to make Emperours, and to vnmake them. 1651 N. BACON Disc. Govt. Eng. II. xiv. 129 An English King hath power ..to make and unmake Members [of Parliament] as he shal please. 1670 G. H. Hist. Cardinals I. III. 70 They made and unmade Popes at their pleasure. 1736 THOMSON Liberty IV. 879 He mark'd the Barons of excessive sway, At pleasure making and unmaking kings. 1808 MITFORD Hist. Greece IV. 353 He made and unmade there what kings he pleased. 1894 LD. WOLSELEY Life Marlborough I. 178 Her authority was such, that she could make and unmake ministers.

b. To deprive of a certain character or quality; to alter in nature. Also with compl.

1616 B. JONSON Epigr. lv, At once thou mak'st me happie, and vnmak'st. 1669 DRYDEN Tyrannic Love III. i, You are so pure—That in the act 'twou'd change the impiety. Heaven would unmake it sin! 1709 Tatler No. 66 ¶ 4 To make our Patient any Thing better, we must unmake him what he is. 1712 SHAFTESB. Charac. (1711) I. 328 That which we fondly make our Idol one time, we may as readily un-make again or another. 1856 MRS. BROWNING Aur. Leigh IX. 200, I take her as God made her, and as men Must fail to unmake her. 1882 HAWTHORNE Pr. & Ly. Note-bks. (1871) II. 8 Her modest attitude..is partly what unmakes her as the heathen Goddess, and softens her into woman.

3. fig. To undo; to ruin or destroy; to bring to nothing.

1602 SHAKS. Mach. I. vii. 54 They haue made themselues, and that their fitnesse now Do's vnmake you. 1652 BENLOWES Theoph. III. lxxxix, Sure, Thou to guilt, Which would unmake thy creatures, wilt Be just. 1674 N. FAIRFAX Bulk & Selv. 126 Unmake your wisdom, to contrive so, that it might have better been contrived, is to unmake its boundlesness. 1867 FELTON Anc. & Mod. Gr. II. i. 264 If the great powers are going to make a permanent European state out of Turkey, they must unmake the Turk. 1870 EMERSON Soc. & Solit. vii. 135 The machine unmakes the man.

4. To annul a decision of (the mind).

1897 MARY KINGSLEY W. Africa 4 When you have made up your mind to go to West Africa the very best thing you can do is to get it unmade again.

Hence Unma·king vbl. sb.

1591 PERCIVALL, Deshaismiento, vndooing, vnmaking. a 1676 HALE Prim. Orig. Man. III. i. (1677) 254 Though he seems to admit Eternal Vicissitudes of Making and Unmaking, and Restitutions of the inferior World. 1897 H. BUSHNELL Moral Uses Dark Th. 28 A general unmaking of the world by transgression. 1871 SMILES Character xi. 324, A wife may be the making or the unmaking of the best of men.

Unma·ker. [Un-[1] 12, or f. prec.] One who unmakes.

c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode III. xvii. (1869) 144 This hand is an vnmakere of howses. 1684 BAXTER Pur. Congrog. 40 The Magistrate may command men how to do their office-work, and yet neither be the maker nor unmaker of the office. 1862 MRS. CROSLAND Mrs. Blake II. 47 That the soldier is rather an 'unmaker' and instrument of destruction than anything else. 1893 W. WATSON Lachrymæ Mus. 26 Unmaker of all, and reviver, The Lord of Death.

Unmali·cious, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1649 JER. TAYLOR Gt. Exemp. II. viii. 68 An unconfirmed, unresolved, unmalicious habite. 1663 COWLEY Verses, Cole Cowley's Book 19 Was wheat or meat in Heaven but to an unmalicious Sinner given. 1795 T. WRIGHT Autobiog. (1864) 77 The sudden little unmalicious quarrel. 1866–7 CARLYLE E. Irving in Reminis. (1881) I. 145 A most quizzing, merry, entertaining, guileless, and unmalicious man. 1886 RUSKIN Praeterita I. 382 His subtle, unmalicious sarcasm.

Unmali·gnant, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1841 L. HUNT Seer (1864) 47 Nature has a beautiful way of reconciling all necessities that are unmalignant. Unmalleabi·lity. (Un-[1] 12; cf. next.) 1828–32 WEBSTER. 1895 MANN Hist. Inst. II. 62 The great unmalleability of all bodies of law. 1887 RUSKIN Praeterita II. i. 13 The density and unmalleability of the world.

Unma·lleable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1609 G. BENSON Coffee 7 Mar. 55 Be persuaded, let not your hearts be vnmaleable. 1665 J. SPENCER Prodigies (ed. 2) 341 To grow (like Iron often heated and quench'd) churlish and unmalleable by the hammer of the Divine threatnings. 1779 JOHNSON L. P., Dryden Wks. II. 395 After this he did not often bring upon his anvil such stubborn and unmalleable thoughts. 1795 Phil. Trans. LXXXV. 341 Hard unmalleable iron. 1838 HAWTHORNE Amer. Note-bks. (1883) 166 A man of unmalleable nature. 1890 Spectator 19 July 79/2 The large masses of rather unmalleable human material which he contrives to collect together.

Hence Unma·lleableness.

1644 R. CHALPONT Serm. 10 May 8 The hardnesse and unmalleablenesse of heart.

Unma·ltable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1778 [W. H. MARSHALL] Minutes Agric., Digest 43 To feed cart-horses on unmaltable barley.

Unma·lted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1652 R. CHILD in Hartlib's Legacy (1655) 141 Beer may be made of Wheat, Barley, Pease, &c. unmalted. 1707 Mortimer Husb. 267 The part of the Corn which it passeth not, will remain unmalted, the rest will be perfect Malt. 1790 Lucombe Eng. Gazetteer I. p. xviii, Thirty-four millions of bushels of barley unmalted, 1830 M. Donovan Dom. Econ. I. 143 The comparative analyses of malted and unmalted barley. 1884 Law Rep. 27 Chanc. Div. 497 The gelatinization or conversion of unmalted grain.

Unman, sb. rare. [Un-[1] 12, 4 b. Cf. OE. unmann, Du. onman, M.LG., MHG. unman.] a. One below the status of a man. b. A monster.

a 1400 Minor Poems fr. Vernon MS. 356/295 Pou seldest I scholde ben holden an vn-mon. a 1642 in Fox Borealis C r b (Old adage), Waters shall waxe, and Woods shall waine, And unman shall be Man, and Man shall be naine. 1879 G. Macdonald Sir Gibbie xxi. He was on the wild hill, with miles on miles of cover! Here the unman could not catch him.

Unman, v. [Un-[2] 6 b. Cf. MDu. (Du.) ontmannen, MHG. (G.) entmannen.]

1. trans. To deprive of the attributes of a man; to remove from the category of men.

1598 Marston Sco. Villanie ii. vii. (1599) 204 Why, sower Satyrst, Canst thou vnman him? here I dare insist And soothly say, he is a perfect sotte. 1641 Tucker Balm of G. 40 It is..the cruell man (saith Solomon) that troubles his owne flesh; nay the Apostle un-manneth him that hates it. 1681 Baxter Acc. Sterlicke vi. 212 Every Humanist thut uneth..gawdy fashions, is not thereby unchristened, unchurched, or unman'd. 1711 G. Hickes Two Treat. Chr. Priesth. (ed. 3) I. p. cxx, We cannot suppose that infinite Goodness would bind us..to such strict unalterable Duties, as unman us in this World. 1751 R. Smart in Rem. (1890) 89 The first [Bibion] ungods him; the other [Marcion] unmans him. 1884 Browning Ferishtah, Family 77, I may put forth angel's plumage, once unmanned, but not before.

2. To reduce below the level of man; to degrade, brutalize. Also refl.

1637 A. Stafford Vind. Fem. Glory (1860) p. xxii, Hee that is not tender..unmanneth himselfe, and is but best a Monster, in humane shape. 1660 tr. Amyraldus' Treat. conc. Relig. i. vii. 106 They whom barbarisme ha's unman'd in all other things. 1701 W. Wotton Hist. Rome 246 Habits of Vice unman Men's minds.

3. To deprive of manly courage or fortitude; to make weak or effeminate.

c 1600 Chalkhill Thealma & Clearchus 846 They heard they had unman'd themselves by ease. 1604 Shaks. Meas. iv. iv. 23 Wind? quite unman'd quite mad? Shame. a 1628 F. Greville Poems, Hum. Learn. xiii, Engines that did un-man the minds of men. 1673 Hickeringill Greg. F. Greph. 318 Impressions of fear that mollifie and unman vulgar and narrow spirits. 1713 Addison Drummer iii. 1, That dear Woman! the sight of her unmans me. 1736 A. Hill Zaara v. 1. 64 Tears! .The first which ever yet unman'd my Eyes! 1780 Mirror No. 90, This blow, forsaitime, unmanned me quite. 1847 Parsons Poems I. 441 For a moment the overwhelming conviction of it unmanned him. 1883 Manch. Exam. 24 Nov. 5/2 Thirty or forty years of such treatment is enough to unman any people.

absol. 1811 Byron Bulbaccia vi, And women's tears, produced at will, Deceive in life, unman in death.

4. To divest of the character of a grown man. Also intr. (for refl.).

1672 Penn Spir. Truth Vind. 23 As he is unmanned, that is, again become a little Child. 1889 Harper's Mag. Jan. 299/2 But find where children haunt, and there unman And with them laugh and play.

5. To deprive of virility; to emasculate.

1684-9 A. G. in Pachacuti's Morals (1718) IV. 354 Because the Samians had saved their Lives from the Greeks from being unman'd [tr. 1603 from evitation]. 1889 E. Clodd Myths & Dreams 36 Grea..provided Cronus..with an iron sickle, wherewith he unmanned Uranus.

6. To denude (a vessel or fleet) of men.

1687 Miège Gt. Pr. Dict. 1. 1. To unman a Ship, dégarnir un Vaisseau. 1696 in London Gaz. No. 3250/1 After the Fleet has been Manned, it hath been in a great Measure Unmanned again by Desertion. 1796 Nelson in Nicolas Disp. (1846) VII. p. xxxiv, If the Admiral had small Vessels, he could not venture to unman his Fleet.

7. fig. To deprive (oneself) of something.

1694 R. Franck North. Mem. Ded. p. xv, Let me admonish the more Ingenious Artist to be mindful of Experience, lest perad ventur he slide into the slippery Tract of an Author, so unman himself of practical Demonstration.

Hence Unmanning vbl. sb. and ppl. a.

1610 Healey St. Aug. Citie of God vii. xxiv. 285 Here they feare not the vn-manning of them-selues. 1644 Milton Areop. Gr. 1. 1, I never saw abundance, I saw any crime of that unmanning nature. 1831 Coleridge Table-t. 12 Sept., The most wretched and unmanning reluctance and shrinking from action. 1886 Stevenson Dr. Jekyll 58 A place for sufferings and terror so unmanning.

Unmanacle, v [Un-[2] 4 b.] trans. To free from manacles. Also fig.

1582 Stanyhurst Æneis ii. (Arb.) 48 This sayd, my yoncker .. Too stara vp mouutting both his hands vnmanacled [L. exstinxitque], answer'd. c 1620 Donne Serm. (1640) 601 We shall see the Church emancipated, enfranchised, unfettered, unmanacled. 1638 Mayne Lucian (1664) 24 Stretch forth thy right hand: unmanacle him Vulcan, and nail him. 1833 Tennyson Two Voices 236 This anguish fleeting hence, Unmanacled from bonds of sense. 1866 Neale Sequences & Hymns 159 While..they unmanacled cold hands and numbed feet. 1889 G. Smith St. Paul at Sea ii, Caesar and slave alike must be Unmanacled by me.

Hence Unmanacling vbl. sb.

1635 A. Stafford Fem. Glory 208 That Death to the just is no other than..the unmanacling of the Soule.

Unmanacled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1726 C. Pitt Vida's Art of Poetry iii. 63 The lurking faults and errors you may see, When the words run unmanacled and free. 1781 Cowper Table-t. 380 Language, as warm As ecstasy, unmanacled by form. 1805 Southey Madoc in W. v. 28 Thus their limbs Unmanacled display'd the truest forms Of strength and beauty. a 1862 Poe Lake of Breath Wks. 1864 IV. 308 His extreme infirmity..had obtained him the privilege of remaining unmanacled.

Unmanageable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b.]

1. Incapable of being governed or controlled: a. Of persons or their dispositions.

1632 B. Jonson Magn. Lady i. 1, My humour being as stubborn as the rest, And as unmanageable. 1665 Glanvill Def. Van. Dogm. p. x, They..are rendred unmanageable by any Authority but that of Absolute Dominion. 1728 Morgan Algiers II. v. 316 That tough, lofty, unmanageable Monarch [sc. Henry VII]. 1791 Bentham Panoph. i. 29 As to safe custody and good order, four [prisoners] is not such a number as can well be deemed unmanageable. 1804 Abernethy Surg. Obs. 186 During the greater part of the delirium he had been very unmanageable. 1887 Spectator 25 June 854/2 The rise of soldiers who might be unmanageable or too successful.

b. Of animals. (Also in fig. context.)

1698 Mrs. Behn Sir P. Fancy i. 1, [The fops] of the Town are the most unmanageable beasts in nature. 1681 R. L'Estrange Tully's Offices 45 Horses..grown Fierce, and Unmanageable, by being chaf'd. 1712 Waterland Serm. Wks. 1823 VIII. 383 When they grow impatient of the curb..they do but show..how much more unruly and unmanageable they had been without it. 1823 Scott Quentin D. ix, Each fresh gambade of his unmanageable horse. 1855 Poultry Chron. II. 611/2 She [sc. a hen] was rather conceited, unmanageable, and very touchy about interference. 1878 Bosw. Smith Carthage 314 The elephants..became unmanageable.

c. Of things.

1794 Paley Evid. i. ii. ii. § 3 Convulsions..are amongst the..most uncertain and unmanageable applications to the human frame. 1898 [Merriman] Roden's Corner xxi, When human affairs suddenly appear to become unmanageable.

2. Incapable of being properly or conveniently handled or manipulated.

1658 Phillips, Innanitly,..such a hugeness as renders a thing unmanageable. 1779 Phil. Trans. LXIX. 422 It required an index of an unmanageable length. 1805 in Nicolas Disp. Nelson (1846) VII. 166 So that the Ship was entirely unmanageable. 1824 J. Flint A. Amer. 75 Travellers..ought not to adopt large boxes, which..are comparatively unmanageable on every occasion. 1885 Manch. Exam. 17 Jan. 5/4 A great, awkward, unmanageable goods train.

transf. 1829 Scott Two Drovers i, The hill rung with the discordant attempts of the Saxon upon the unmanageable monosyllable. 1835 Poultry Chron. III. 325/1 Irish [coats] are unmanageable and comparatively neglected.

Hence Unmanageably adv.

1805 Foster Ess. (1806) I. 185 If even one of the four [horses] were unmanageably perverse, while the three were obedient. 1860 Froude Hist. Eng. VI. 329 Meantime, Philip..was becoming unmanageably impatient.

Unmanageableness. (Un-[1] 12, or f. prec.)

Also, in recent use, unmanageability.

1664 Ingelo Bentiv. & Ur. vi. 182 The unmanageableness of their Horses. 1701 Collier M. Anton. (1720) II Their unmanageableness ruins their health. 1748 Richardson Clarissa VII. 244 Thy servant gives me a dreadful account of thy raving unmanageableness. 1862 A. Meadows Man. Midwifery 239 Instead of a state of stupor, there is a restless unmanageableness approaching to maniacal excitement. 1877 [R. Ellis] De Quincey I. 42 Inveterate unmanageableness, under home supervision and French tutors.

Unmanaged, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not controlled or regulated.

1603 Drayton Bar. Wars i. 1, A strong nation, whose unmanag'd might (then their natural Soueraigne did diuide) 1646 Hawood Lucrece 22 Mounted on an unmanaged or tender-mouth'd horse. 1673 O. Walker Educ. ii. 22 Indiscreet, impertinent, unmanaged servants. 1746 Francis tr. Hor., Sat. II. ii. 11 Pursue the Chace: th' unmanaged Courser rein. 1848 T. Aird Christian Bride iii. vi, The abandoned chariots with unmanaged steeds Roll mad about.

b. Of language: Unrestrained, outspoken.

1771 Burke Corr. (1844) I. 323 Your lordship's criminal accusations, so heavy in the matter and unmanaged in the epithets. 1791 — Th. French Aff. Wks. VII. 63 The Prussian ministers in foreign courts have..talked the most democratick language with regard to France, and in the most unmanaged terms.

† 2. Uncultivated, uncultivated. Obs.[-1]

1634 W. Wood New Eng. Prosp. (1865) 52 The folly..of such as would venture into so rude and unmanaged a country, without.. much provisions.

Unmanaged a. (Un-[1] a.) 1838 Carlyle French R. III. xix. I. 368 He..suffered a good deal..; not at all in a dishonest or unmanful manner.

Unmanfully, adv. (Un-[1] 11.)

c 1400 Destr. Troy 10426 heading, Menon þe Kyng, by Achilles treacherie slayn. 1664 Eitwhisch Lucw in Ind i. iii, Now have I most unmanfully fallen foul upon some Woman. 1670 Milton Hist. Eng. vi. 305 They dy'd not unmanfully,..turning oft upon thir Enemies. 1712 Steele Spect. No. 232 P 2 When a Poor-spirited Creature..bemoaned himself unmanfully, he rebuked him. [1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. iii. ii, It was the terror..of doing..unvirtuously, which was their word for unmanfully.]

Unmangled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

For correct reading in Gal. & Gosw. 720, see Unmaggled.

1557 Cheke in T. Hoby Castiglione's Courtyer (1561) 235 Our own tung shold be written cleane and pure, vomixt and vnmangled with borowing of other tunges. 1587 Holinshed Hist. Eng. (ed. 2) III. 998/2 From whome Grafton hath deriued his words; sense for sense vnmangled (as he found the same written). 1885 Meredith Diana i, Let her escape unmangled, it will pass in the record that she did once publicly run.

† Unmanhead. Obs. [Un-[1] 12. Cf. OHG. unmanheit, MHG. unmanheit.] Unmanliness; unmanly conduct.

a 1300 Cursor M. 18795 Naman es he dos na man-hede, And of vn-man-hede es it draun, To be again god dede vn-kniun. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) V. 257 [The Romans] chargede þe Britouns to leve of vnmanhede. c 1400 Maundev. (Roxb.) xxxii. 145 It ware grete harme and greie vnmannhede to grete swiik folk.

†Unmanhood. Obs.[-1] (Un-[1] 12.) c 1374 Chaucer Troylus i. 824 Sothe hym seyde pandarus, þat for to slen hym self myghte he nat wynne But bothe doon vn-manhode and a synne. †Unmanifiable, a. Obs.[-1] (Un-[1] 9 b.) Unmanageable. a 1628 Raleigh Lett. (1651) 127 The lesser [ship]..is yare, whereas the greater is slow, unmanyable, and ever full of encumber.

Unmanifest, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1535 W. Stewart Cron. Scot. (Rolls) III. 555 Trowand sic thing vnmanifest. 1687 Stanley Hist. Philos. (ed. 2) xii. 782/1 It is therefore unmanifest, whether it really hath these qualities. 1760 Law Spir. Prayer ii. 49 Nature..is the manifestation of all that in God, which was before unmanifest. 1864 Jean Ingelow Poems 22 Like the dead to sight unmanifest, They are, and they are not.

Unmanifested, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1683 Tryon Way to Health 432 [In] all things and Creatures, in which the divine Principle does predominate, the poysonous wrathful Tree of Life lies hid and unmanifested. 1856 R. A. Vaughan Mystics II. viii. viii. 84 The divine One, the unmanifested Subject, seeking an object. 1871 R. H. Hutton Theol. Ess. I. 112 We yet have..an inextinguishable faith in His perfection even as unmanifested.

†Unmanikled, obs. Sc. f. Unmanacled. 1729 Ramsay Sec. Answ. to Somerville 22 My muse..loves..to frisk.. Unmanikl'd, o'er poetic ground.

Unmanlike, a. and adv. [Un-[1] 7 c, II b.]

1. Below the level of manly conduct towards others; brutally harsh or cruel; inhuman.

1579 J. Stubbs Gaping Gulf E vij, That barbarous vnmanlike, and treasonable victory vpon the noble Admirall. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia i. xii, The unman-like cruelty of mankind. 1633 Ford 'Tis Pity iv. iii, And wud you..kill her in your rage too? 'twere most vn-manlike.

2. Inappropriate to a man or men.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia ii. xviii, It was the voice of a man, though it were a verie unmanlike voice. 1638 Mayne Lucian (1664) A 4 Rude, un-manlike Raylings; which concluded in a Civil Warre. 1660 J. Pierce Inq. N. Gen. vi. § 20, 122 As if he were proud of such an unmanlike tergiversation.

3. = Unmanly a.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia ii. xviii, Never was there man that could..with a more unmanlike braverie use his tongue to her disgrace. 1619 A. Newman Thom. Fis. (1820) 2 He with vnmanlike Curiousnesse was dect. 1692 Washington tr. Milton's Def. Pop. viii, 'Tis most justly so ordered..that you your self should live in a scandalous most unmanlike slavery at home.

4. Unnaturally licentious or debasing.

1752 Fielding Amelia i. iv, Having got possession of a man who was committed for certain unmanlike practices, not fit to be named.

5. adv. In a manner unlike that of a man.

1612 Heywood Gold. Age i. i, Their God-like Issue thrive, Whilst I vn-man-like must destroy my babes. 1881 D. C. Murray Joseph's Coat xxvii, [He] snuffled unmanlike through his tears.

Unmanlily, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1795 Mary Wollstonecr. Lett. to Imlay 10 Feb., Yesterday he very unmanlily exulted over me.

Unmanliness. (Un-[1] 12, or f. next.)

1603 Holland Plutarch's Mor. 93 Temperance was thought to be a sloke of effeminate unmanlinesse. 1675 Charac. Town-Gallant (Hindley) II. 5 Impudence he calls Buon Assurance, and unmanliness, the Genteel Negligence. 1788 Wilkins Bhagvat ii. 28 Yield not thus to unmanliness. 1846 Kingsley Yeast ii, You and yours make piety a synonym for unmanliness. 1861 Mill Rep. Govt. iii. 79 We rightly ascribe this sort of contentment to mere unmanliness and want of spirit.

Unmanly, a. (Un-[1] 7. Cf. MDu. onmanlijc (Du. -lijk), MHG. unman-, unmenlich (G. unmännlich), ON. ómannlig-r (MSw. omanliker).]

1. Dishonourable or degrading to a man.

c 1475 Cath. Angl. 207/1 Unmanly, Inhumanus. 1593 Shaks. 3 Hen. VI i. 1. 266 Be thou a prey vnto the House of Yorke..for this vnmanly deed. 1603 Dekker Wonderfull Yeare Wks. (Grosart) I. 108 Now..thou..basely descendest into brutishness & vnmanly passions. 1657 Devices Æneis ii. 810 Why this unmanly rage? 1706 Clarke Attrib. (ed. 2) 10 All mocking and scoffing at Religion..is the most unmanly and unreasonable thing in the World. 1782 Miss Burney Cecilia v. vii, [To] be guilty of..unmanly cruelty. 1817 Coleridge Zapolya i. i. 1 Your unmanly..Offer'd gross insults, in unmanly sort, To our village maidens. 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xiii. III. 310 Hatred, which showed itself by unmanly outrages to defenceless captives.

2. Not manly; unbefitting (or unlike) a man in respect of fortitude or energy; weak-tempered, effeminate.

a 1547 Surrey Æneid iv. 276 That Paris now, with his unmanly sorte, With mitred hats..His rape enjoyth. 1565 Cooper Thesaurus s.v. Infractus, A softe and vnmanly fourme of speakyng. 1602 Shaks. Ham. i. iii. 94 'Tis vnmanly greefe, It shewes a will most incorrect to Heauen. 1682 Flavel Fear Ded., An unmanly and unchristian faintness. 1743 Francis tr. Hor., Odes v. x. 17 Thy vile, unmanly wailings. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla IV. 122 An unmanly fop. 1812 Byron Ch. Har. i. xii, Others sate and wept, And to the reckless gales unmanly moaning bore. 1835 Thirlwall Greece I. 339 Unmanly and pernicious luxury.

Unmanly, adv. Now rare. (Un-[1] 11. Cf. Du. onmanlijk, ON. ómannliga (MSw. omanlika).]

1. Dishonourably; treacherously.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 13785 [A] kynge, By the myrmydons vnmonly murtherit to dethe. c 1405 Eng. Chron. (Camden, 1856) 50 He was traitorly and vnmanli slayn, and cast in to a pit. 1626 R. Perkes Three to One B 3, Some of our Men were vnfortunately and vnmanly surprised.

2. Inhumanely; with unmanly cruelty or unkindness.

c 1475 Cath. Angl. 227/2 Vn-Manly, inhumaniter. 1594 Selimus 1513 Shall he thus unmanly be misus'd? 1658 Cleveland Rustic Ramp. Wks. (1687) 464 A Dominion so unmanly cruel. 1673 Higginson Greg. P. Gregy. 46 If he had not so unmanly..play'd upon the dead. 1717 Mrs. Centlivre Cruel Gift iv, Unmanly dost thou urge my Father's faults. 1824 T. Fenby Last Sad Scene viii, This was all for him who hath, Untimely and unmanly, left me.

3. With unmanly weakness.

1579-80 North Plutarch (1595) 908 So he tooke his banishment vnmanly. 1603 Holland Plutarch's Mor. 61 We ought not to heare the reprehensions..of Philosophers recklessly..,nor yet unmanly.

Unma'nned, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not furnished with men (cf. Man v. 1).

1544 Betham Precepts War ii. li. L iij, That he leaue not his campe vndefenced and vnmanned. 1592 Kyd Sp. Trag. iv, iv, 211 Set me with him—Vpon the maine mast of a.. ship vnmanned. 1670 Milton Hist. Eng. i. 5 Not put to death, but turn'd out to Sea in a Ship unman'd. 1726 Pope Iliad xxii, 469 See, if already their deserted towers Are left unman'd. 1830 Marryat King's Own xlvi, One of the unmanned oars. 1844 Kinglake Eothen vi, Four of the craft..had been left unmanned. 1895 Mrs. Stocks Three Months in France 230 The phantom ship, sail-less, rudderless, and unmanned.

fig. 1620 Marston Antonio's Rev. i. v, Native heate So prodigally flow'd t' extreme parts, That inner citadell was left unmand. 1675 Dryden Aurenga. iv. i, To guard that Breach [I] did all my Forces guide And left unmann'd the quiet Senses side.

2. a. Devoid of a man; empty.

1602 Warner Alb. Eng. xii. lxix. 291 At first she feares, but lastly findes the Armior was vn-man'd.

b. Unsupported by men; unassisted.

c 1620 [Fletcher & Mass.] Trag. Barnavelt iv. i. in Bullen O. Pl. (1883) II. 271 Make haste, he is yet unmand: we may come time enough To enter with him. 1642 Fuller Holy & Prof. St. Pref. § 5 Nor let it render the modestie of this book suspected, because it presumes to appear in company unmann'd by any Patron.

c. Unoccupied by men; unpeopled.

1680 C. Nesse Church Hist. 230 They left it [sc. the land] unmann'd thrice in the year. 1764 Goldsm. Trav. 142 Nought remain'd..But towns unman'd, and lords without a slave.

3. Not trained or broken in; spec. of a hawk.

1594 Shaks. Rom. & Jul. iii. ii. 14 Come civill night,..Hood my vnmann'd blood bayting in my cheekes, With thy Blacke mantle. 1611 Cotgr. s.v. Acheter, Buy a house made, and a wife vnmand. 1623 J. Taylor (Water P.) Discov. by Sea Wks. (1630) 28/2 Like a wild Kestrell or vnmand Hawke. c 1657 B. Jonson Sad Sheph. iii. iii, No colt is so unbroken, Or hawk yet half so haggard or unmann'd.

Unma'nned, ppl. a.[2] [f. Unman v.] Deprived of courage; made weak or timid.

1604 P. Bragge Disc. Parables ix. 317 Imaginary dangers terrifie their unmanned souls.

Unman'ner, v. rare[-1]. (Un-[3] 6 b.). 1632-8 Daniel Coll. Hist. Eng. Wks. (Grosart) V. 140 Those softnings of Luxury and Idlenesse which vnmanners them.

Unma'nnered, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

†1. Not duly regulated or moderated. Obs.[-1]

1435 Misyn Fire of Love 94 Lufe forsoth of kynsmen, if it be vn-manerd, fleschly affeccione it is cald [=called]..and if it be manerd, kyndely it is calde.

2. Of persons: Not possessed of good manners; unmannerly, rude.

1594 Shaks. Rich. III, i. iii, 39 Vnmanner'd Dogge, Stand's thou when I commaund. 1610 Fletcher Faithf. Sheph. ii. i, I fear I am too much unmanner'd, far too rude. 1693 Dryden Juvenal vi. 52 Who Pray'r can bend her, no Excuse appease. Th' unmanner'd Malefactor is arraign'd. 1745 J. Mason Self-Knowl. i. ix, He is not only ignorant and unmanner'd, but unstuffeably vain. 1824 Scott St. Ronan's xxxi, This awkward, ill-dressed, unmannered dowdy. 1879 Meredith Egoist xix, He knew scholars to be an unmannered species.

transf. 1824 S. Dobell Balder i. 5 Thou grim wall, Hemming her in with thine unmannered rock.

3. of conduct: Characterized by want of manners.

1760-72 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1809) IV. 103 He gazed at Louisa with..an unmannered intensness. 1772 Ess. Fr. Butchelor (1773) II. 146 His superior abilities..were never exerted with unmannered insolence. 1836 Lyra Apost. 27 A ready prey, as though in absent mood They calmly move, nor hear the unmannered mirth. 1871 B. Taylor Faust (1875) II. iii. 176 In most unmannered anger ye Have conjured hither pictures of the shapes of dread.

4. Free from artificial manners.

1813 Lamb Reynolds Wks. 1908 I. 190 The plain unmannered old Nobility of the..Plays of Shakspeare.

Hence Unma'nneredly adv.

1894 Kipling in My First Bk. 92 All my verses..came without invitation, unmanneredly, in the nature of things.

†Unma'nneredly, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7.] Unmannerly. 1792 W. Roberts Looker-On iv. 30 In flying from two unmannereedly catchpoles, you ran full against me. Ibid. xxx. 238 In your unmannereedly haste to interrupt us.

Unma'nnerliness. [f. next.] The condition or fact of being unmannerly.

1580 Hollyband Treas. Fr. Tong, Incivilité. vnmanerlines, vncurtesie. 1598 Hakluyt Voy. I. 586 Moreouer he noteth much vnmanerlinesse of eating and drinking at bankets. c 1629 Donne Serm. Wks. 1839 V. 16 It were unmanerliness to hold you longer in the Entry. 1647 H. More Song of Soul Ded. A 2 b, What a piece of Unmannerlinesse and Incivility it would be held to seem wiser then them. 1699 Locke Educ. (ed. 4) 163 A sort of Unmannerliness very apt to grow up with young People. c 1782 Bp. Newton Wks. II. 681 The unmannerliness and unruliness of some of his subjects.

Unma'nnerly, a. [Un-[1] 7. Cf. WFris. ûn-onmeneerlijk, MDu. onmanierlijc, G. unmanierlich; Da. umanerlig, Sw. omanerlig.]

1. Of persons: Devoid of manners; impolite; behaving rudely or discourteously.

1388 Wyclif Rom. i. 31 Thei be..vnwise, vnmanerli, withouten loue. 1575 R. B. Appius & Virg. in Hazl. Dodsley IV. 122 Have ye heard such an unmannerly villain? 1591 Shaks. Two Gent. iii. i. 393 An vnmannerly slue, that will thrust himselfe into secrets. a 1616 Beaum. & Fl. Wit at Sev. Weapons iv. i, Fall back,..you unmannerly puppy. 1653 R. Sanders Physiogn. 58 A rustick, unmannerly, dull person. 1730 Fielding Rape upon Rape iv. iv, The Fright which that unmannerly Friend of yours occasioned. 1833 Ht. Martineau Brooke Farm ii. 29 Billy was not fit to go into a gentleman's family, he was so unmannerly. 1885[1] Mrs. Alexander Valerie's Fate iv, I fear you must think me very unmannerly, very rude.

transf. 1827 Pollok Course T. iii. 570 Comets rude, That should unmannerly and lawless drive Athwart the path of Earth.

2. Of actions, conduct, speech, etc.: Showing want of manners.

c 1425 in Anglia VIII. 139 Vnsem and vnmanerly berynge of body. Ibid. 194 I wole make an ende of myn vnmanerly wordes. c 1510 More Pieus Wks. 15/1 The company of the court, (as it is their vnmanerly manor) descanted thereof. 1582 J. Bell Haddon's Answ. Osor. 262 b, If there were any reason in all these your unmanerly taunts. 1617 Woodall Surg. Mate Pref. (1639) B, Comparisons being odious and unmannerly amongst good men. 1699 Bentley Phal. 122 Breaking his unmanerly jests upon his own mistakes. 1722 De Foe Relig. Courtsh. i. i. (1840) 29 That's the unmannerliest thing in the World. 1756 Washington Let. to Dinwiddie 24 Nov., I am very sorry any expression in my letter should be deemed unmannerly. 1846 French Mirac. xxx. 425 These ill-timed and unmannerly clamors. 1884 Manch. Exam. 27 Nov. 5/2 The opposition to Mr. Caine was singularly unmannerly.

Unma'nnerly, adv. [Un-[1] 11.]

1. In an unmannerly fashion; with lack of good manners; impolitely.

13.. Gaw. & Gr. Knt. 2339 Be not so gryndel; No mon here vn-manerly be mys-boden habbe[z]. 1460 Capgrave Chron. (Rolls) 145 Thei..treted the ladies onmanerly. 1509 Barclay Ship of Folys (1570) 192 In praying thou bokest vnmanerly, Spurning vnto prayers vndeuoutly. 1594 Carew Huarte's Exam. Wits 210 If..so they should deliuer vs their opinion..we would hold them importunate and vnmannerly brought vp. 1625 K. Long tr. Barclay's Argenis v. xviii. 394 He, out of good manners, cause to depart..that the King might not be vnmannerly left alone in the midst of the roome. 1682 C. Irvine Hist. Scot. Nomencl. Ded. "ij b, They would easily excuse him..that must, with the crowd, unmannerly approach your Highness. 1832 J. J. Blunt Reform. in Eng. 209 The Reformers..did not unmannerly reject those Offices of the Church. 1859 Tennyson Guinevere 314 I I seem To vex an ear too sad to listen to me, Unmanerly, with prattling.

†2. Improperly, immoderately. Obs.[-1]

1435 Misyn Fire of Love 53 Fraward men þer ar, þat þer wyllis for þer bewte vnmanerly lufys.

Unmanning, vbl. sb. and ppl. a.: see Unman v.

Unma'nntish, a. (Un-[1] 7.) a 1894 Stevenson St. Ives iii, There was something wild and unmannish in his smile.

Unma'ntle, v. [Un-[2] 4, 7. Cf. Du. onmantelen, G. entmantlen, -mäntlen.]

1. trans. To divest of a mantle or covering.

1598 Florio, Smantellare, to vnmantle, to vncloke. c 1645 Howell Lett. (1650) I. 26 They unmantled him of a new plush cloke. 1745 H. Walpole Lett. (1846) II. 86 The newborn babe was shown in a..cradle..under a canopy; the governess advanced to unmantle it. a 1800 Cowper Odyss. (ed. 2) x. 215 Obedient from the ground, Their folded brows unmantling, all arose, And with admiring eyes..the stag survey'd. 1822 Scott Kenilw. vii, The Earl..affected to resist when she strove to take his cloak from him. 'Nay,' she said, 'but I will unmantle you'.

fig. 1660 C. Southaick Famos Genius (1863) 23 Not to unmantle self and sobility, But the true Portraiture of honesty.

2. intr. To take off one's mantle.

1822 A. Cunningham Tradit. Tales I. 239 Unmantling as she spoke, [she] turned back to the Towers of Haddon the fairest face that ever left them.

2. trans. To dismantle, unfurnish.

1828 Scott Tapestried Chamber xii Hin., Lord Woodville [went] to command the Tapestried Chamber to be unmantled, and the door built up.

Unma'ntled, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Not mantled or covered.

[1775 Ash.] 1800 Campbell Ode to Winter iii, Shuddering Waits I unmantled bed. 1818 Byron Ch. Har. iv. cxlviii, Her unmantled neck, and bosom white and bare.

†Unma'nuable, a. Obs.[1] (Un-[1] 7 b.) Unmanageable. 1633 T. James Voy. 116 Our sailes froze in lumps to the yards, vnmanuable. Unmanufa'cturable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1784 Phil. Trans. LXXIV. 468 Whence it should seem, that neither..tend much to render gold unmanufacturable.

Unmanufa'ctured, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1796 Morse Amer. Geog. II. 608 Unmanufactured as well as prepared flax. 1841 W. Spalding Italy & It. Isl. III. 385 There are exported, in the unmanufactured state, about 5,508,000 lbs. 1879 Cassell's Techn. Educ. II. 114 Unmanufactured cork is admitted into England duty free.

Unmanumi'tted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1661 Hickeringill Jamaica 30 The Petticoat Sex (through the rigour of their masters unmanumitted). 1880 Muirhead Gaius Dig. 340 Women who had been remancipated..but were still unmanumitted. Unmanu'rable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) †Uncultivable. 1610 Holland Camden's Brit. I. 799 [Land] rough and as it were unmanurable. 1797 Sloane Jamaica I. p. vii, The quantity of Acres are..: Manurable 6,100,000; Unmanurable 100,000.

Unmanu'red, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

†1. Of land: Uncultivated, untilled. Obs.

In frequent use from c 1500 to c 1640.

1570 Foxe A. & M. (ed. 2) I. 222/2 The prouince lay waste and vnmanured. 1578 Lyte Dodoens 257 All rough and vnmanured places. 1632 W. Lithgow Trav. iii. 85, I could not find a foote of ground vnmanured. c 1635 Dryden Let. to F. Dennis 7 4 It looks like a vast tract of land newly discover'd: the soil is wonderfully fruitful, but unmanur'd. 1721 Ramsay Prospect of Plenty 220 To let braid tracts of land lie unmanur'd.

b. fig. or in fig. contexts.

1594 Selimus 382 It argueth an unmanured wit. a 1631 Donne Heroical Epist. 36 Thy body is a natural Paradise, In whose selfe, unmanur'd, all pleasure lies. 1663 Cowley On Virgil's Georgics ii, "I were shame, if in these A Spirit so rich..Should unmanur'd, or barren lye. 1700 T. Brown Amusem. Ser. & Com. 69 Gallantry..which was formerly so well Cultivated,..is at present Desolate, Unmanur'd and Abandoned!

2. Not supplied with manure.

[1828-32 Webster.] 1849 Johnston Exp. Agric. 105 The unmanured [crop] might have ripened its seed while the manured was still growing. 1868 Rep. U.S. Commissioner Agric. (1869) 419 The average product of unmanured American soil.

Unma'pped, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1805 Ann. Rev. III. 13 Both travellers have..rivers unmapped to navigate. 1837 Thoreau Maine W., (1869) 87 The country is virtually unexplored. 1876 Geo. Eliot Dan. Der. III. xxiv, There is a great deal of unmapped country within us.

Unma'rching, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. II. v. vii, To all which our poor Legislative, tied up by an unmarching Constitution, can oppose nothing. Unma'ritime, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1817 G. S. Faber Eight Dissert. (1845) II. 230 The thoroughly unmaritime Empire of Rome.

Unma'rked, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8. Cf. UN. ûmarkeðr; also ON. ómerkir (MSw. omärkier, Sw. omärkt, older Da. umærket.)]

1. Having received no mark or impress; left without a mark.

14.. Sir Beues (M.) 160/3211 None went vnmarked away, That Beuys hyt wyth Morglay. 1480 City Pageants (Camden) 53, [1093] felles qwherof be iiij*e* xlvj Cottysswolde onmarkyd; and the rembnant, be mynd wyl an V. mark. 1548 Lindesay Chron. Scot. (S.T.S.) II. 320 Naue wald resawe thame [sc. pennies] nathir marcat nor onmarcat. 1651 Baxter Inf. Bapt. 199 You may know such a man's Flock of Sheep by the marks; when yet perhaps some may be unmarkt. 1705 Lond. Gaz. No. 4104/4 Stoln..,2 Sweet-meat Spoons, forked, unmarked. c 1790 Imison Sch. Arts II. 762 That the magnet..may rest with its marked end on the unmarked end of A. 1872 M. S. de Vere Americanisms 211 The name of Maverick, used in Texas to designate an unmarked yearling.

Comb. 1895 Daily News 25 Mar. 8/6 The attempt to unlie the unmarked iron firms has not been abandoned.

b. Not marked off or out, not distinguished or characterized (by something).

1825 Monthly Rev. I.XXVI. 455 Virgil's characters are mostly cold, unmarked, and not attaching. 1824 Scott St. Ronan's xi, Men..whose spirit and courage lie hidden..under an unmarked or a plain exterior. 1858 Farnar Early Chr. II. 482 Compositions so short..and so unmarked by special features.

2. Unnoticed, unobserved.

1533 More Debell. Salem Wks. 1026/2 Here was himselfe faine..to begyle the reader vpon the readyng to the place, and make hym passe ouer his faute for the while vnmarked. 1583 Babington Commandmt. (1590) 251 Sathan breedeth by his vnmarked creeping into our affections a misliking of such a man or woman. 1608 Sir S. D'Ewes Jrnl. (1783) 42 Hee passed quietlie vnmarked..out of the saied hall. 1667 Milton P. L. x. 441 He through the midst unmarkt..past. 1744 Akenside Pleas. Imagn. ii. 184 Off the hours From morn to eve have stol'n unmark'd away. 1821 Scott Kenilw. xiii, Like one who has suddenly recognized some mighty hero..in the person of an unknown and unmarked stranger. 1850 Tennyson In Mem. xcviii, Let her great Danube rolling fair Enwind her tales, unmark'd of me.

Unmarketable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

Hence, in recent use, unmarketability, -ableness.

1654 in Manchester Crt. Leet Rec. (1887) IV. 112 Roger Royle of Eccles for selling vnmarketable Beefe. 1776 Ann. Reg., Chron. 139/2 A parcel of hops, badly cured, and, on that account, unmarketable. 1800 G. G. Stonehewer Portentous Globe 33 Their trade would be rendered unprofitable—their shares unmarketable. 1861 Geo. Eliot Silas M. iv, His own ill-favoured person, which was unmarketable, escaped without injury. 1885 Sir W. V. Field in Law Times' Rep. LII. 654/1 So as to render the property unmarketable.

Unma'rred, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

c 1200 St. Marher. 10 þe edle meiden allunge unmerred wiðinnen eurcuuth weom wendle out of his wombe. 13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 867 Maydenez vnmard for alle men þette. [c 1470 Gol. & Gaw. 720 Wes nane..Wymaglit and marrit.] 1596 Spenser F. Q. vi. x. 7 His silver waues did softly tumble downe, Vnmard with ragged mosse or filthy mud. 1744 Young Nt. Th. vii. 301 Their good is good entire, unmixt, unmar'd. 1842 Pollok Course T. vii. 585 Unmarred, unfaded work of Deity. 1871 Sir F. Palgrave Norm. & Eng. I. 473 The spirit and talent which, unmarred by fate, might [etc.]. 1871 Macduff Mem. Patmos xix. 263 In the fellowship of unmarred and unbroken communion.

Unma'rriable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 177 b, Cleopatra..beeyng yet a young damysell vnmariable. 1611 Cotgr., Immariable, vnmarriable. 1643 Milton Divorce 36 Parted from each other, as two persons unconjunctive, and unmariable together.

Unma'rriageable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

[1775 Ash.] 1787 W. Thomson tr. A. Cunningham's Hist. Gt. Brit. I. 121 Their women are seldom married young; and are indeed long unmarriageable. 1841 Emerson Method Nature (1844) 14 He was hurled into being as..the mediator betwixt two else unmarriageable facts. 1866 S. Dobell Lyrics War Time, German Legion, I could kneel down by thee, And o'er thy chill unmarriageable rest Cry [etc.].

Unma·rried, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Of persons: Not married; unwedded.

1297 R. Glouc. (Rolls) 237 Pe gode cordeile vnmaried was so. c 1400 Maundev. (1839) xix. 265 Women that ben unmaryed, thei han Tokenes on hire Hedes. a 1450 Lovelich Grail lv. 50 Wedded weren..Alle his bretheryn except on..that the was vnmaryed. 1491 Act 7 Hen. VII, c. 20 § 16 Elizabeth the unmaryed Queene. 1542 Rauns Wks. (1573) 564/2 This thing dyd Paphnutius, though that hee hym selfe was vnmaryed. 1591 Knaresb. Wills (Surtees) I. 287 All my children bothe maryed and unmaried. 1607-12 Bacon Ess., Marriage & Single Life (1862) 266 Unmarried men are best Friendes. 1653 H. Cogan Dial. Sic. iv. xxii. 152 He lived all his life time unmarried. 1728 Young Love Fame vi. 79 Unmarry'd Abra puts on formal airs. 1779 Mirror No. 12, The two eldest of my unmarried sisters. 1824 Wellington Let. to Miss Y. 24 Oct., The Duke is not in the habit of visiting young unmarried ladies. 1875 Ruskin Fors Clav. V. ivi. 235 Every unmarried woman should have enough left her by her father to keep herself, and a pet dog.

transf. 1611 Shaks. Wint. T. iv. iv. 123 Pale Primeroses, That dye vnmarri-d, ere they can behold Bright Phœbus in his strength. 1771 Encycl. Brit. I. 651/2 [The insect] flies from flower to flower till it arrives at the unmarried female.

b. absol. and as sb.

1557 N. T. (Geneva) 1 Cor. vii. 8, I say vnto the vnmarried, and widowes, it is good [etc.]. 1619 Fletcher Knt. Malta v. 1, Husband, Wife, There is some holy mystery in those names That sure the unmarried cannot understand. 1728 Eliza Heywood tr. Mme. de Gomez's Belle A. (1732) II. 147 Neither did the Night want its Charms both to the married and the unmarried. 1819 Metropolis I. 72 We had a very bad turn out of British females, young dowagers and elderly unmarrieds. 1871 A. Meadows Man. Midwifery (ed. 2) ii. 59 In the case of the unmarried, he may..cast a slur upon a spotless character.

2. Lived free from marriage.

1548 Hexham II, Een eenlooven Staet, an Unmarried State. 1747 Francis tr. Horace, Epist. I. i. 125 How happy then is an unmarried Life! 1755 Johnson, Celibacy, single life; unmarried state.

Unma·rry, v. [Un-[2] 3, 7.]

1 trans. (and refl.). To dissolve the marriage of; to free from the marriage-tie; to divorce.

1530 Palsgr. 768/2, I can unmary my selfe by ronnyng away. 1588 Parke tr. Mendoza's Hist. China 401 He doth vnmarry them, and setteth her at liberte that she may marry with another. 1630 Shirley Gamester iv. 1, I do unmarry you!..I would were a parson to unmarry us! 1680 Baxter Aussn. Stillingfl. xii. 20 As he that marrieth Persons may not..unmarry them again, save for Adultery. 1760-72 H. Brooke Fool of Quality (1809) II. 93 If he dares not first unmarry himself, I will never see him any more. 1857 Dickens Dorrit ii. viii, They are fast married, and can't be unmarried. 1881 Besant & Rice Chapl. of Fleet II. 177 Nothing can unmarry you now.

absol. 1708 O. Dykes Eng. Prov. & Ref. 7 In fine, an After-Thought cannot unmarry; it cannot set a broken Leg.

b. To put away, to divorce (a wife).

1645 Milton Tetrach. 49 Is it imaginable there should bee among these..a law giving permission to unmarry a wife and marry a least? 1797 Mrs. A. M. Bennett Beggar Girl (1813) III. 177 Though he did not live with her, he could not unmarry her.

2. intr. To free oneself from marriage.

1633 J. Hayward tr. Biondi's Bonishal Virg. 172 Having left her father, and unmarried and remarried against at her pleasure. 1652 J. Wright tr. Camus' Nat. Paradox x. 244 I marry without injoying my wife, I unmary, I marry again. 1765 in Phil. Lett. L. Hardwicke (1892) I. 172 We are unmarrying among the great; the Duke of Grafton's divorce was finished this morning. 1839 J. Rogers Antipaphpr. xvi. § 3. 332 Thus people may neither marry nor unmarry without priority obtaining permission from the priesthood. 1895 How to get Married 86 Actors marry and unmarry ad libitum in a disgraceful way.

Unma·rrying, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1846 H. G. Robinson Odes of Horace ii. xv, The unmarrying [L. caelebs] plain [will] o'erwhelm Shortly with its growth the elm. 1848 Lady Lyttelton Corr. (1912) 385 An unmarrying old young lady.

Unma·rshalled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1767 Lewis Statius xii. 306 So Ty Plain To Combat sends a rude, unmarshall'd Train. Unmar·tial, a. (Un-[1] 7) 1611 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. vi. xxii. § 4. 109 [They] consumed their times in banqueting, and vnmartiall disports. 1797 Monthly Mag. III. 206 The effect of the whole is so dry and unmartial as to do little credit to the musical taste of Louis the XVIth. 1880 L. Wallace Ben-Hur 520 This most unmartial figure.

†Unmar·tial, v. Obs.—[1] (Un-[2] 6 a.) 1654 Gayton Pleas. Notes iv. ii. 180 To unmartial a whole man, and leave him without steel or iron upon him, is, as if you should pare the nailes of a Lyon. Unma·rtyr, v. (Un-[2] 6 b.) 1646 Prynne Canterb. Doome Ep. Ded. a 2, The setting forth of this History of his Martyrdom, will soon Unmartyr, Unsaint, Uncrown this Arch-Imposter. 1665 Fuller Ch. Hist. II. iv § 36 Scotus..was made a Martyr after his Death..But since Baronius hath unmartyred him.

Unmartyred, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

c 1580 Munday New Sundry Examples (Shaks. Soc.) 88 Beaten..so that from the crown of the hed to the soles of the feet, was left no member unmartired. a 1633 W. Austin Medit. (1635) 112 They..left not a peece of him unmartyred, till they had killed him. 1908 Rider Haggard Ghost Kings i. 7 Should he return..not only unmartyred but a palpable failure..?

Unma·rvellous, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1790 Wolcot (P. Pindar) Old Pez. Bence iv, Thy soul delights in wonder, pomp, and bustle; Mine in th' unmarvellous and placid scene. 1825 Maurice Learn. & Work. iv. 107 This Hope..may..shrink into a very obvious, intelligible, unmarvellous quality.

†Unma·sculate, v. Obs.—[1] (Un-[2] 3.) trans. To emasculate. 1639 Fuller Holy War 255 The sinnes of the South unmasculate Northern bodies.

Unma·sculine, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1644 Milton Tenure Kings 5 The unmasculine Rhetorick of any puling Priest or Chaplain. 1829 Lamb Lett. (1886) II. 304 My whole heart is faint, and my whole head is sick ..at this damned canting, unmasculine age!

Unma·sk, v. [Un-[2] 4, 7. Cf. Du. ont-, G. entmasken.]

1 trans. To free (the face) from a mask or vizard; to remove a mask or covering from. Also in fig. context.

1602 Shaks. Ham. I. iii. 37 The chariest Maid is Prodigall enough, If she vnmaske her beauty to the Moone. 1626 T. [H(awkins)] Caussin's Holy Crt. 134 An heresy discouered, is a face unmasked, take away the vizard, you disarme her. 1665 Sir T. Herbert Trans. (1677) 54 The Bridge..was.. full of Women..many of which..in a fair deportment unmasqued their faces. 1728 Eliza Heywood tr. Mme. de Gomez's Belle A. (1732) II. 24 The Demand I am about to make..is to follow my Example, and immediately be all unmask'd. 1841 Emerson Lect. on Times (1844) 72 To-day is a king in disguise..Let us unmask the king as he passes. 1876 J. Saunders Lion in Path xxxvii, We must unmask you, pretty Mistress Preston.

refl. 1825 Scott Talism. x, Putting his hand to his chin, and withdrawing it with the action of one who unmasks himself.

b. To remove like a mask.

1624 G. Raleigh in Farr Sel. P. Sax. I (1847) 242 Our tender muse hath labored as she could; Her sable vaile she must of force unmaske.

2. fig. To divest of a specious appearance or show; to disclose the true character of; to bring into the light; to make plain or obvious.

1593 Shaks. Lucr. 1602 Vnmaske..this moodie heauinesse, And tell thy griefe. 1612 Speed Theat. Gt. Brit. I. xiii. 81/2 Since the time God hath vnmasked the errors of those times by the truth of his word. 1646 Gataker Mistake Removed 39 Which yet the whole drift of his discours will easily unmaske. 1672 Williams Pract. Relig. 44 The..doth by degrees discover & unmask the fallacy of ungrounded persuasions. 1704 Norris Ideal World II. iii. 257 Could we but unmask nature, and strip it of all those false ornaments wherewith our prejudiced imagination has clothed it. 1798 Monthly Mag. VI. 592 In unmasking the popular heathenism, and in revealing the immortality of the soul. 1844 Thirlwall Greece VIII. 241 The accuser..unmasked their conspiracy with Apelles. 1880 Mozley Univ. Serm. ii. (1892) 43 That judicial mission who was to unmask false goodness.

b. With personal object. Also refl.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia ii. xxiii, Zelmane thought-sicke, unmaskes her selfe. 1640 Sir W. Mure Counter-Buff 125 Now thy pulse..I must unmoyne..Then unmaske thy unmasked vn hypocrite. 1668 Temple Let. to Ld. Arlington Wks. 1720 II. 97 They must now suddenly unmask themselves in one way or other, no farther Pretences being left. 1718 Freethinker No. 32. 110 The Person..lives under a perpetual Apprehension of being unmasked. 1797 Mrs. Radcliffe Italian ix, 'The hypocrite!' said he to himself ..; 'but I will unmask him'. 1819 Crabbe T. of Hall xii. 296 No sooner was it (sc. her hand in marriage) ask'd Than she the lovely Jezebel unmask'd. 1872 Morley Voltaire i. 4 Christian charity feels constrained to unmask a demon from the depths of the pit.

3. absol. To take off one's mask.

context (quot. 1683).

1602 Shaks. Meas. for M. v. i. 206 My husband bids me, now I will vnmaske, This is that face..Which once [etc.]. 1612 Chapman May-Day v. 74 Quint. O no, you must not vnmaske. Innoc. No, no, He kisse her with my maske and all. 1683 Kennett Erasm. on Folly 2 At the first sight of me, you all vnmasque, and appear in more lively colours. 1728 Fielding Lov. in Sev. Masques iv. iii, Unmasque then. If I come our face no better than your Principles, Madam; I will immediately take my Leave of both. 1756 tr. Keysler's Trav. I. 340 A female bed-fellow, who never unmasks till she comes into the bed-chamber. 1818 Lady Morgan Autobiog. (1859) 299, I was obliged to unmask from the heat, and soon got a crowd about me.

b. fig. To display one's true character.

1622 Bacon Julius Cæsar Mor. & Hist. Wks. (Bohn) 502 Though this was ever his scheme, and at last put in execution, yet he did not unmask. 1745 Young Nt. Th. VIII. 214 Their treach'rous blessings, at the day of need, Like other faithless friends, unmask, and sting.

4. trans. Mil. a. To reveal the presence of (a gun or battery) by opening fire.

1747 Gentl. Mag. 450 The besieged unmask'd 4 batteries. 1812 Examiner 31 Aug. 549/2 He unmasked a battery of forty pieces of cannon. 1884 Manch. Exam. 9 Sept. 8/4 The Chinese, unmasking a mountain gun, fired on the Bayard.

b. To make patent; to show plainly.

1816 Sir H. Douglas Milit. Bridges iv. 120 The other divisions..hastened their march as soon as the movement was unmasked. 1879 Low Afghan War 100 With a view of making the Afghan government..unmask his force.

5. intr. To emerge into view.

1858 Merc. Marine Mag. V. 227 Two Obelisks..on the strand..will..unmask.

Hence Unma·sking ppl. a.

1807 J. Barlow Columb. vi. 568 Gates guides the onset.. And tells the unmasking batteries when to roar.

Unma·sked, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1590 Greene Never too late (1600) 14 The maids in Rome durst not looke at Venus Temple till they were thirtie, nor went they vnmasked till they were married. 1628 Feltham Resolves II. viii. 18 Diseased eyes indure not an vnmasked Sunne. 1656 H. R. Mythomystes. A 3, To lay downe a naked & vnmasked Truth. 1679 in Lond. Gaz. No. 1406/1 The unmasked Boldness of such as durst openly..assemble themselves together, to Kill..the Primate. 1740 H. Walpole Corr. (1820) I. 45, I have found a little unmasqued moment to write to you. 1784 Cowper Task ii. 695 They..in th' end, disclose a face That would have shock'd credulity herself, Unmask'd. 1812 Scott Don Roderick ix. xii, He saw her hideous face, and loved the fiend unmask'd. 1895 Pusey Doctr. Real Presence 717 An universal suppression of the truths..and the unmasked substitution of falsehood.

Unma·sker. [f. Unmask v.] One who unmasks.

1644 Milton Areop. 7 The great unmasker of the Trentine Counsel. 1697 Locke and Trend. Reason. Chr. 183 The Unmasker smarily convinces me of no small Blunder in these words. 1833 Carlyle Misc. (1872) IV. 404 'Far from being modest,' says this Unmasker, 'he brags beyond expression'. 1850 L. Hunt Autobiog. v. 98 [They] stood side by side in my imagination as unmaskers of venerable appearance. 1884 Manch. Exam. 9 May 5/5 The first unmasker of the forgery.

Unma·sking, vbl. sb. [f. as prec.] The action of divesting of a mask. Chiefly fig.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia iii. xxiii, Her unmasking of Cecropias fruitlesse sophistrie. 1622 J. H(all) (title), The Unmasking of the Politique Atheist. 1642 Milton Reform. i. 8 The unmasking of Hypocrites. 1741 Richardson Pamela IV. 233 Because of her Freedoms when mask'd; her Unmasking, and her Handkerchief. 1861 Trench Comm. Ep. Churches Asia 87 An unmasking of them that said they were Apostles and were not. 1895 Athenæum 17 Aug. 218/3 Mr. Meredith's pitiless unmaskings of folly.

Unma·ssacred, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1608-9 Middleton Widow iii. i, Would you let him escape unmassacred? Unma·ssed, ppl. a. (Un-[2] 6 b, 8.) 1847 Athenæum April 393/2 The inside..of the building..is minutely decorated everywhere, but certainly is not dismembered or unmassed anywhere. Unma·sking, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1665 Sir G. Mackenzie Moral Essay 52 So unmassie a reputation, that we it is hammered out [etc.].

Unma·st, v. [Un-[2] 4. Cf. Du. ont-, G. entmasten.] trans. To divest of a mast.

1611 Florio, Disarborrire..to unmast a ship. 1668 Lond. Gaz. No. 298/1 The same Tempest..unmasting several others [sc. ships]. 1698 T. Froger Voy. 17 We also began to unmast the Fruitful Pink to turn it into a Bomb-Galley.

Unma·sted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1804 J. Larwood Gun Boat 9 An unrigged, unmasted, unpoudomanced existence. Unma·ster, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1593-4 Sylvester Profit Imprisonm. Wks. (Grosart) II. 56/2 Small the honour is to be acknowledg'd King And Monark of the World, one's self un-mastring.

Unma·sterable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1617 Daniel Coll. Hist. Eng. (1626) 114 By this violence, thinking to quale the heart of a most vnmaisterable King. 1625 Jackson Creed v. xxxv. § 6 An unexpected instinct or unmasterable impulsion. 1648 Sir T. Browne Pseud. Ep. iv. ii. 201 The Factor whereof may discover it self by sweat ..., as being unmasterable by the naturall heat of man.

Unma·stered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1561 Norton & Sackv. Gorboduc ii. 8, Great is the danger of vnmastered might. 1593 Sidney's Arcadia iv. Wks. 1922 II. 107 The unmastered verse of Pyocles. 1602 Shaks. Ham. I. iii. 32 If with too credent eare you list his Songs;.. or your chast Treasure open To his vnmastred importunity. 1700 Dryden Sp. Afar, etc. 505 He..cannot his unmastered Grief sustain, But yields to Rage. 1793 Monitor II. 194 To appropriate to her own use these evidently unmastered treasures. 1800 Coleridge Piccolom. iv. vii, Nature..like the emancipated force of fire, Unmastered scorches..Their fine-spun webs. 1830 Bryant Hist. V. 145 Lest, taking flight, they range Unmastered when they hear thy voice no more.

†Unma·sterly, adv. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 11.) Without being supervised. 1684 H. More Answer Pref. b 4 b, To act at pleasure, prosperously, freely and unmasterly. Unma·sticated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1815 J. Smith Panorama Sci. & Art II. 643 The unmasticated part contributes nothing to their nourishment. 1896 Allbutt's Syst. Med. I. 396 Masses of unmasticated food. †Unma·tcheless, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1570 Levins Manip. 38 Vnmatche, inequalis.

Unma·tchable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b.]

1. Incapable of being matched or equalled; incomparable, matchless. Also const. by.

In very common use from c 1590 to c 1660.

1544 Betham Precepts War i. lxxxix. E vj, The renoume of that capitayne..is vnmatchedable. 1589 A. Day Daphnis & Chloe (1890) 16 Loue, the..Soueraigne of their vnmatchable bewties. 1649 Baxter Saint's R. ii. v. § 3. 218 Those divine unmatchable Psalms. 1683 Brit. Spec. 277 With unmatchable Valor, and Extraordinary Hazard of Their Princely Person. c 1799 Villario iii. 111, In a New Brit. Theatre II. 165 It is the mind that is unmatchable By aught on earth. 1856 Ruskin Mod. Paint. IV. v. xvii. § 51 Of such landscape..he has expressed the power in a central and unmatchable way. 1881 Tennyson Cup i. i, The brows and eyes Of Venus; face and form unmatchable!

b. Incapable of being compared to others.

1611 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. vi. 43 These Britaines, although ..vnmatchable to them in educated civility, yet [etc.].

c. To which nothing properly matching can be found. (See Match v. 9 b.)

1809 Sir G. Jackson in Diaries & Lett. (1873) I. 3 A scrap of riband..unmatchable in Bath. 1852 Miss Sewell Experience of Life xiv. (1858) 95 I was especially directed to match some unmatchable silk.

2. Incapable of being matched together.

1643 Milton Divorce 18 He forbids all unmatchable and unmingling natures to concert. 1645— Tetrach. 48 His law tells us he joynes not unmachable things.

Hence Unma·tchableness.

1647 Br. Hall Epist. iv. ii. 340 In the presumption of his vnmatchablenesse. 1676 Doctrine of Devils 162 The Unmatchableness of his Antagonist being considered.

Unma·tchably, adv. (f. prec., or Un-[1] 11.)

1603 Lo. Herbert Corr. in Life (1886) 335 As knowing that his worthy disposition that begat it of himself, will continue it as undeservedly as he did unmatchably enter into it. 1609 W. M. Man in Moon G 2 b, Seeing therefore it is such an inestimable iewell, how warily are you to keep it?..so vnmatchably adified, how much are you to make of it? 1882 Harper's Mag. LXV. 548 The unmatchably pale bright yellow-white of the grain fields.

Unma·tched, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1. Not matched or equalled; matchless; unrivalled.

1581 SIDNEY Apol. Poetrie (Arb.) 26 Though we get not so vnmatched a praise as the Ettimologie of his names wil grant. 1621 G. SANDYS Ovid's Met. VI. (1626) 109 Antigone, who strone For vnmatcht beautie with the wife of Ione. 1637 J. RUTTER 1st Pt. Cid v. iii. 27 It were better that his unmatch'd valour should get him victory. 1678 DRYDEN All for Love IV. i. Your unmatch'd desert. 1780 BURKE Sp. Bristol Wks. 1792 II. 313 Refusing to commit this act of unmatched turpitude. 1812 COBBE Symbols, Picturesque xxiv. 89 Shakespeare, immortal Bard sublime! Unmatch'd within the realms of time! a 1845 HOOD Lamia I. 40 Let such an unmatched vision still shine on. 1878 SYMONDS Sonn. M. Angelo liv, Nay, now nor the unmatched phœnix lives anew, Unless she burn.

absol. 1632 R. ALLEN in Lithgow Trav. B 3 b, This thy second Pilgrimage of Minde,..in Methode, Phrase, and Stile, May matched this mate unmatched in this ile.

b. Const. by; at, for, in, or of.

1592 DANIEL Compl. Rosamond xxiv, Vnmatch'd by sword, [he] was vanquisht by a glaunce. 1602 WARNER Alb. Eng. XII. lxxiii. 304 Fertile grounds, vnmatch't for fruits. 1700 ROWE Amb. Step-Moth. II. ii, Long time unmatcht in War the Hero shone. 1789 BURNS Whistle iv, Unmatch'd at the bottle, unconquer'd in war. 1810 SCOTT Lady of L. I. vii, Two dogs..Unmatch'd for courage. 1868 MORRIS Earthly Pars. I. ii. 629 This is the man, unmatched of heart and limb.

2. Not provided with something equal or alike.

1645 MILTON Tetrach. 19 When love findes it self utterly unmatcht, and justly vanishes. 1824 GALT Rothelan III. 139 A mean abode,..with old-fashioned unmatched chairs.

Hence Unmatchedness, n.

c 1611 CHAPMAN Iliad Pref. A 3 b, His cleare vnmatchednesse in all manner of learning.

† Unmatchless, a. Obs.—1 [UN-1 5 a.] Unmatchable, matchless. 1657 F. COCKIN Div. Blossomes 49 Those rare unmatchlesse sweets.

Unmate, early ME. variant of UNMEET a.

Unmate, v. (UN-1 3.) 1891 C. E. NORTON Dante's Hell xxx. 164 The heavy hydropsy which..so unmates the members that the face corresponds not with the belly.

Unmated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1614 GORGES Lucan II. 53 Nothing at all these horrid facis Sylla's vnmated minde di-tracts. 1633 FORD 'Tis Pity v. i, Here like a Turtle, (mew'd vp in a Cage,) Vnmated, I conuerse with Ayre and walls. 1850 BLACKIE Æschylus II. 256 She in unmated grief to moan Is left alone. 1891 Anthony's Photogr. Bull. IV. 380 To immortalize the smiling eyes, which in repose are..unmated.

Unmaterial, a. (UN-1 7, 5 b.] Immaterial. 1398 TREVISA Barth. De P. R. (1495) II. ii. 27 In somoche he is the more perfyte in contemplacyon of spirytuell and vnmaterial thynges. 1587 GOLDING De Mornay xiv. 239 An vnmaterial substance, which hath being of it selfe. 1599 DANIEL Musoph. 940 Should we this ornament of glory then, As th' vnmaterial fruits of shades, neglect. 1602 WARNER Alb. Eng. XIII. lxxix. 326 Vnpassive, vnmaterill, vncompounded, Infinite. 1883 ROSSETTI in Athenæum 15 Dec. 776/2 The scholar who constantly lives an inward and unmaterial life.

Unmaterial, a. (UN-1 7.)

1821 SHELLEY Epipsych. 28 Thy panting, wounded breast Stains with dear blood its unmaterial nest! 1885 tr. A. Monad's Life & Lett. 17 You only wished to try me, and not seriously to give me such unmaternal advice.

Unmathematical, a. (UN-1 7.)

1720 PATON in Q. Rev. Jan. (1913) 215 All the cross unmathematical devils upon earth first put it together. 1784 R. BAGE Barham Downs I. 230 One unmathematical passion however, Avarice,..had got fast hold of me. 1804-6 SYD. SMITH Mor. Philos. (1850) 395 Any immoral, irreligious or unmathematical track of life.

Unmathematically, adv. (UN-1 11.) 1644 in Halliwell Lett. Sci. Soci. 80 Mr. Warner's papers..are..most unmathematically divided between the sequestrators and creditors. Unmathing, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1892 M. ARNOLD To Marguerite 32 Or, if not quite alone, yet they Which touch thee are unmating things.

Unmatriculated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1644 MILTON Educ. 2 Instead of beginning with Arts most easie, .. they present their young unmatriculated novices at first comming with the most intellective abstractions of Logick and metaphysicks. 1884 Manch. Exam. 27 Nov. 5/4 Matriculated and unmatriculated students.

Unmatronal, a. (UN-1 7.) 1878 R. Buchanan's Detections F iij b, Within witt. Dayis, scho finischit that unmatrimonialt Matrimonie. Unmatronlike, a. (UN-1 7 c.) 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa V. 256 The behaviour of the unmatron-like jilt, whom thou brought'st to betray me.

† Unmattered, a. Obs.—1 [UN-1 3.] Immaterial. 1645 J. HALL Poems I. 30 Let men desire, like those above Unmatter'd forms, wee'l onely love. Unmatured, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1741 W. WHITEHEAD Danger of Writing Verse 23 That, unmatur'd by years, My easy numbers plead'd your partial ears. 1836 F. MAHONY Rel. Father Prout (1859) 374 Whatever might have been crude and unmatured in his juvenile lucubrations. † Unmaw, v. Obs.—1 [UN-3.] trans. To empty of knowledge. 1692 M. AUBRE Celestina xvii. 175 With my..inticing termes,..I will quite unmaw him, and draw from him all that hee..knowes. † Unmawe, a. Obs. rare. In 4 on-, oun- [OE. unmæga a poor or helpless person.] Helpless. c 1380 Sir Ferumb. 2658 He hew of heudes, armes, & haunde of þe Sarasyns þat were on-mawe. Ibid. 2766 Hwich he Sarazyns þat were ounmawe angryde in enery syde. Unmaze, v. [UN-3 5.] trans. To free from amazement or confusion. 1647 R. STAPYLTON Juvenal 149 This new man Tully..Set guards, where e're the line of danger ran, Unmaz'd us, and took pains for all the town.

Unmean'ing, ppl. a. [UN-1 10.]

1. a. Of features, etc.: Expressionless, vacant, unintelligent.

1704 STEELE Lying Lover III. i, Poor stupid insipid Lady Fad,..with that unmeaning Face of hers. 1760 DODD Hymn Good-Nat. Poems (1767) 3 Daughter of Folly; whose unmeaning front Wears the soft simper of perpetual smiles! 1884 SCOTT Guy M. ix, Bertram turned a stupified and unmeaning eye on the messenger. 1836 KINGSLEY Lett. (1878) I. 34 The old man spoke in his dreams and muttered with unmeaning visage and fixed eye.

b. Of persons: Having no serious aim or purpose.

1746 ELIZA HEYWOOD Female Spect. No. 24 (1748) IV. 305 Being a fool, [she] was thoughtless, giddy, and unmeaning. 1812 MISS MITFORD in L'Estrange Life (1870) I. 172 Pensie to be them, sweet simpletons! as unmeaning..as their own dinner-bells. 1846 MRS. GORE Eng. Char. I. 40 The vapid, unmeaning, unconnected Lady P—.

2. Having no meaning or significance; meaningless: a. Of actions, conduct, etc.

1728 ELIZA HEYWOOD tr. Mme. de Gomez's Belle A. (1732) II. 228 Turning the Effect of his Admiration into the Appearance of an unmeaning Gallantry. 1776 MICKLE Camoen's Lusiad p. lxxvii, Unmeaning slaughter..comprise[s] the whole history of his regency. 1829 H. HOOK Sayings Ser. II. III. 320 Full of primace, affectation, and unmeaning levity. 1869 J. MARTINEAU Ess. II. 229 The tendency..is not an unmeaning accident.

b. Of words, utterances, etc.

1709 POPE Essay on Criticism 555 At the..only couplet fraught With some unmeaning thing they call a thought. 1727 BOYER Dict. Royal tr. s.v., Unmeaning Words. 1772 T. PERCIVAL Ess. (1777) I. 6 [They] conceal their own ignorance..by unmeaning terms and pompous phrases. 1855 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. XV. III. 559 That several neighbouring nations..thought this most unmeaning of all names worth borrowing. 1875 FORTNUM Maiolica xci. 109 The unmeaning designs of the Oriental porcelain.

absol. 1870 DISRAELI Lothair lxxvii, I do not believe in the unmeaning.

3. Uttering nothing significant.

1743 W. WHITEHEAD Eh. Ann Boleyn 90 Each distant Hint that hung On broken Sounds of an unmeaning Tongue.

Unmeaningly, adv. (UN-1 11; cf. prec.) 1775 ASH, Nonsensically, unmeaningly, foolishly. 1808 Sketches of Character (1813) I. 133 Look at the soft soul—how unmeaningly the stares at the Band. 1870 LOWELL Among Wind., Gt. Publ. Char., Those threads of gossamer, the nearest approach to nothing unmeaningly prolonged. Unmeaningness. (UN-1 12.) 1796 MME. D'ARBLAY Cecilia II. 2 She perceived her two little sprigs..under the feet of Indiana, who with apparent unmeaningness..had trampled upon them both. 1825 COLERIDGE Aids Refl. 391 The utter emptiness and unmeaningness of the vaunted Mechanico-corpuscular Philosophy. 1864 PUSEY Lect. Daniel iv. 189 The unmeaningness, which they have brought into the prophecy, cannot be its meaning.

Unmean'nt, ppl. a. [UN-1 8 b.] Not meant or intended.

a 1634 CHAPMAN Revenge for Honour v. ii, Howere you're pleas'd to excuse me..this impertinent, unmeant dis-courses, I cannot..give them the least credit. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis x. 561 The flying Spear was after Ilus sent, But Rhœtus hapen'd on a Death unmeant. 1738 G. LILLO Marina ii. 1, I who cou'd not bear The unmeant rivalship of sweet Marina. 1820 SHELLEY Prometh. Unb. III. iv. 151 That..holow talk Which makes the heart..question that unmeant hypocrisy. 1891 E. KINGLAKE Australian at Home 17 Is the short sighted gentleman..on whom the ball finds its unmeant mark as a rule.

b. Const. by and with complement.

c 1700 CONGREVE To Cynthia Wks. 1730 II. 291 Curse on that Word so ready to be spoke, For through my Lips, unmeant by me, it broke. 1745 YOUNG Nt. Th. VIII. 880 Can man..strike out A self-wrought happiness unmeant by him Who made us? 1848 BAILEY Festus (ed. 3) 211 These mysteries Unmeant by Heaven to be cleared up on earth.

Unmea'surable, a., sb., and adv. † Obs. [UN-1 7 b, 5 b, 12, and 11 b.]

1. Incapable of being measured on account of great size, extent, or amount; immense, vast: a. Of material things, dimensions, time, etc.

c 1385 CHAUCER Man of Lawe's T. 934 O Golias, vnmesurable of lengthe. 1513 DOUGLAS Æneid vi. vi. 71 Cerberus, ..Vnmesurable in his cave quhar he lay. a 1542 WYATT in Tottel's Misc. (Arb.) 70 Lyke unto these vnmesurable mountaines, So is my painefull life, the burden of yre. 1588 T. WASHINGTON tr. Nicholay's Voy. II. iii. 33 The walles..are made of grauen stone..of length and bignesse vnmeasurable. 1610 HEALEY St. Aug. Citie of God III. xxxi. 152 A most large and vnmeasurable cloud. 1692 M. AUBRE Teract. Disc. 243 Truth and Falshood..are removed from each other by an unmeasurable distance. 1754 EDWARDS Freed. Will iv. viii. 240 Unlimited and Unmeasurable Periods of Time. 1774 J. BEVANT Hydrol. I. 398 The lower..was of an unmeasurable height.

b. Of actions, qualities, feelings, etc.

1377 LANGL. P. Pl. B. xv. 69 (W.), Ye moeven maeters unmesurable (m.rr. vn-, imesurables) To tellen of the Trinite. c 1450 Merlin xx. 329 He..yaf him soche a stroke with the brasen betell so vn-mesurable, that [etc.]. 1542 BECON News Heaven H iij b, Your joy can not be expressed, your gladnes is vnmesurable. 1588 in Harl. Misc. (1808) I. 145 An unmeasurable deep despair. 1648 SANDERSON Serm., Ad Aul. (1681) II. 242 We..shall have an unmeasurable reward..for the good we have done. a 1677 BARROW Serm. Wks. 1716 I. 345 He did by unmeasurable communications of divine virtue assist his humanity. c 1690 WATTS Hymns, Canon, dearest Lord ii, The Heighth, and Breadth, and Length, Of thine unmeasurable Grace. 1760-72 H. BROOKE Fool of Qual. (1809) II. 120 This..parade of sanctity gave him..unmeasurable credit.

c. Used with reference to God.

1535 COVERDALE Baruch iii. 25 Greate is he,..hye and vnmeasurable. 1551 VERON Godly Saiynge E viii, Touchinge his godheade, and vnmeasurable substance. 1581 MARBECK Bk. of Notes 126 The same one man is locall as touching his manhood, which is also God unmeasurable from the Father.

2. Immoderate, inordinate, unbounded: a. Of persons (or other agents).

1388 WYCLIF Prov. xv. 4 The tunge which is vnmesurable, scilal defoule the spirit. c 1400 Piler. Sowle (Caxton, 1483) iii. ix. 55 These haue ben so vnmesurable in their expensys. c 1450 Mirour Saluacioun 3936 Nabal..made to hym kyng Daud his vnmesurable enemy. c 1520 BARCLAY Jugurth xxvii. 37 b, Their myndes were greatly immoderate and vnmeasurable in their desyre to ouercome thestates. 1597 BRETON Auspicante Jehoua Wks. (Grosart) II. 6/2 So great and vnmeasurable a sinner. 1620 J. MAXWELL tr. Herodian 155 An vnmeasurable Louer of Money. 1667 SOUTH Serm. (1697) 32 He..shall find [sin]..an Unmeasurable Exactor.

b. Of desires or the gratification of these.

c 1386 CHAUCER Pars. T. ¶ 818 Glotonye is vnmesurable Appetit to ete or to drynke. 1388 WYCLIF 1 Pet. iv. 3 Whiche walkiden..in wyche drinking of wyn, in vnmesurable etyngis and drynkyngis. 1422 YONGE tr. Secreta Secrett. 194 Hit is dedly syn whan that concupiscens is so vnmesurable that [etc.]. 1482 Monk of Evesham xxi. (Arb.) 49 Y was..ageyne bonde yn to luste and custome of the same sinne, that was yn nature owne omesurabylle taking and appetite. 1583 BABINGTON Commandm. 176 So euil an example of vnmeasurable sotting in bed. 1594 T. B. La Primaud. Fr. Acad. II. 269 Other carnall pleasures..especially when they are excessiue and vnmeasurable. a 1648 LD. HERBERT Hen. VIII (1683) 220 His Cardinal['s]..vnmeasurable Ambition and Covetousness. 1788 JEFFERSON Writ. (1859) II. 371 The unmeasurable ambition of the Emperor.

c. In miscellaneous applications.

c 1425 in Anglia VIII. 130/11 Vnmesurabil laghter or vnsem and vnmanerly beryngge of body. 1451 Rolls of Parlt. V. 493/2 The inordynat and unmesurable Enditementz and Presentementz..of Felonye. 1535 COVERDALE Ecclus. xxxvii. 30 Glotony consumeth at the last to an vnmeasurable heate. 1592 TIMME Ten Eng. Lepers H Through unmeasurable abstinence, the moysture of the bodie is dried up. 1638 PENKETHMAN Artach. K j, Great Tempests, immeasurable Winds and Raines. 1654 TRAPP Lect. to Ld. Treas. Wks. 1720 II. 311 The unmeasurable Burden of their Taxes. 1709 SWIFT Adv. Relig. Wks. 1755 II. i. 97 The lustre of that most noble family..which the unmeasurable profusion of ancestors..had too much eclipsed.

3. Not admitting of measurement; immensurable.

1652 Zeal Examined Add. § 9. 40 Which rendered the true Church unmeasurable by any outward Formes. 1714 Barrow's Euclid Pref. p. ii, Both measurable and unmeasurable Magnitudes.

b. sb. An immensurable thing.

1652 BENLOWES Theoph. v. lxxxvi, Can measures such Unmeasurables hold? Can time Infinity unfold?

4. adv. = UNMEASURABLY adv.

c 1440 Alph. Tales 343 When he saw any yong monk lagh vnmesurable. c 1445 PECOCK Donet 85 God is..vnmesurable greet in goostly greetnes. 1596 T. B. La Primaud. Fr. Acad. I. 672 So that great heede is to be taken, that none grow to be unmeasurable great. 1650 BULWER Anthropomet. 202 An huge unmeasurable great Ring.

Hence † Unmea'surableness. Obs.

1533 FRITH Book Amos, Mord's Lett. H ij, Shewynge the vnmeasurablenes of his Godhead. 1571 GOLDING Calvin on Ps. xxxix. 3 To give himself the brydle to anye unmeasurablenesse of greefe. 1634 T. JOHNSON Parey's Chirurg. Wks. XXI. i. 776 The unmeasurablenesse of the manifest-qualities whereof they [sc. poisons] consist. 1656 JEANES Pulm. Christ 204 The unmeasurablenesse of his affection unto us. 1724 WELTON Chr. Faith & Pract. 185 His judgments are as the great deep for their obscurity and unmeasurableness.

Unmea'surably, adv. [UN-1 11.]

† 1. Without measure or moderation; immoderately, unrestrainedly. Obs.

a 1420 Wycliffite Bible Ecclus. xi. 10 margin, If thou suest, in sekinge richessis vnmesurably, thou schalt not take. c 1450 Lett. de la Tour 53 Other ye that be..dronken vnmesurably like wolues. 1542-5 BRINKLOW Lament. 9 b, Ye abuse your riches,..for ye spende vnmeasurably. 1561 HOLLYBUSH Hom. Apoth. 40 Eating and drinking vnmeasurably. 1631 ANCHORAN Conquest Tongue 190 To laugh aloud and vnmeasurably. 1679 Hist. Jetzer 17 He..frets and fumes vnmeasurably. a 1693 LUDLOW Mem. (1698) II. 624 The Court..grew vnmeasurably insolent. 1722 WOLLASTON Relig. Nat. v. xviii. (1742) 121 Opposite parties make a merit of blackening their adversaries..undeservedly and unmeasurably.

2. To an immeasurable extent or degree; excessively, extremely.

1513 Henry V (1911) 132 Famyne..vnmeasurably raigned amongest them. c 1520 LD. BERNERS Arth. Lyt. Bryt. (1534) 336 Hys spere..was so long & byg so vnmesurably, y[e] [etc.]. 1624 BP. HALL Peace Maker in Var. Treat. (1627) 538 Grace sensibly imperfect, zime vnmeasurably sinfull. a 1650 RUST Dict. Theol. (1682) 60 A Soul unmeasurably breathing after the Embraces of Truth. 1704 NORRIS Ideal World II. xii. 510 'Tis not to be imagined..how unmeasurably the powers of that soul must needs be illuminated. a 1797 H. WALPOLE Hem. Geo. II (1847) I. vi. 186 He was ..unmeasurably obstinate. 1828 LD. GRENVILLE Sink. Fund 1 Unmeasurably more beneficial to mankind, are those qualities. 1866 ARNY Pop. Astron. 1 37 That the distance..is unmeasurably small, compared with the distances of the stars.

† Unmea'surate, a. Obs. [UN-1 7.] = UNMEASURED ppl. a. (Cf. IMMENSURATE a.) 1557 Primer, Crede, Eisen as there be not thre vncreat nor thre vnmesurate, but one vncreat and one vnmesurate.

Unmea'sure. [UN-1 12.]

† 1. Lack of measure; excess. Obs.

a 1300 Cursor M. 15543 Til vnmesur mismai yow nought. c 1440 Jacob's Well 303 So wast hath manye expensys and costys in vnmesure & werkys, hereyn wyll nuns fruyte. 1598 FLORIO, Dismisura, an vnmeasure, out of measure.

2. An improper or illegal measure.

1820 BENTHAM Lib. Press Wks. 1843 II. 283/2 The last, though not the least, of all their fears is—lest unmeasures, which..have already been taken..for the extinction of all power of controul [etc.].

Unmea'sured, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not limited or known by measurement; immense in size, extent, or amount.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. x. iv. (Bodl. MS.), Fuyre.. is icleped vnmesured, for his vertu..encresep wipoute ende. 1585 T. Washington tr. Nicholay's Voy. ii. iii. 33 The stature of a woman..of bignes vnmeasured. c 1621 Chapman Iliad ix. 78 So from the ships and tents the army's store Troop'd to these princes..along th' unmeasur'd shore. 1646 Crashaw Sospetto d'Herode xxii, That the unmeasur'd God so low should sinke, As Pris'ner in a few poore Rags to lye. 1718 Prior Solomon i. 645 This single snare Sky.. With Stars unnumber'd, and unmeasur'd Light. 1794 R. J. Sullivan View Nat. I. 320 Of an unmeasured fluid, we can only reason by conjecture. 1820 Scott Lady of Lake ii. xxxi, When..Such starlier dust his glance below, And saw unmeasured depth around. 1870 Morris Earthly Par. III. iv. 2 Pale stars..make heaven so vast That earth..Seems shrunken 'neath the grey unmeasured height.

absol. 1844 Mrs. Browning Drama of Exile 1710 As the thunder roars deep in the Unmeasured.

b. Of feelings, qualities, etc.

1435 Misyn Fire of Love 6 In þe flaume vnmesurde of luſe. c 1450 Mirour Saluacioun 3008 Gods vnmesured bountee. 1618 in Foster Eng. Factories Ind. (1906) I. 229 I have sproven..with their tricks of unmeasured greatenes. 1692 Prior Ode Imit. Hor. iii, Distracted Lewis can descry Only a long unmeasur'd Ruin nigh. 1793 Smeaton Eddystone L. § 179 The unmeasured violence of the sea. 1856 Froude Hist. Eng. I. 116 Wolsey..combined practical sagacity with an unmeasured power of hoping. 1864 Skeat Uhland's Poems 151 All men are rivals in unmeasured wo.

2. Not doled out by measure, rare—1.

1667 Milton P. L. v. 399 Our Neighbour, from whom All perfect good unmeasur'd out, descends.

3. Not subjected to measure; not composed of measured syllables.

1715 Pope Iliad iv. 208 Unmix'd, unmeasured, are thy goblets crown'd. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Poetry, These, in a Discourse that has no poetical Feet or Measures, do yet ..make it a kind of unmeasured Poetry. 1808 L. Murray Gram. I. 84 In regard to unmeasured quantities and qualities, the degrees of more and less..may be expressed intelligibly. a 1822 Shelley Def. Poetry, (1840) 9 It is necessary..to determine the distinction between measured and unmeasured language. 1863 Hawthorne Our Old Home II. 175 His delightful prose, his unmeasured poetry.

4. Immoderate, unrestrained.

1820 Hazlitt Lect. Dram. Lit. 106 His pride and unmeasured pretensions. 1839 Hallam Hist. Lit. II. 267 The unmeasured eulogies he bestows upon him. 1884 Jebb in Fortn. Rev. 1 Apr. 494 The habitual use of unmeasured language [in criticism].

Hence Unmea'suredly adv., -edness.

1435 Misyn Fire of Love 75 No mareyayle þof I..vnmesurdnes of þat endles swetnes to zow may not opyn. 1602 Marston Ant. & Mel. III. Wks. 1856 I. 43 This vengeance.. will lengthen out My daies unmeasuredly. 1864 G. Gilfillan in Lett. & Ymls. (1892) 373, I intend considering..the energy—the unmeasuredness—of their life.

†Unmea'surely. a. and adv. Obs. (Un-[1] 7, 11.) a 1300 Cursor M. 27047 Quen þai vn-mesurli ar radd Efter rising to fall egain. 1513 Douglas Æneid xii. xii. 33 Twa of sik statur, onmysurly of hulth. Unmecha'nic, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1687 Death's Vision vii, Magnetic Virtues, Which Unmechanic seem'd and sprung from Laws Of some strange Foreign System. 1789 (see Unmetaphysic a.). 1800 Coleridge in C. K. Paul W. Godwin (1876) II. i. 3 His taste acts so as to appear like the unmechanical sensibility of an instinct.

Unmecha'nical, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1674 Boyle Grounds Corpusc. Philos. 13 The like unmechanical principles and agents. 1693 Phil. Trans. XVII. 660 Deep Pools, which could never have been searched by these unmechanical Engines. c 1704 C. Adams Lat. & Eng. Philos. III, xxiv. 21 It is absurd in philosophers to use unmechanical principles, where mechanical ones will answer the purpose. 1845 J. Nicholson Operat. Mechanic 568 This unmechanical and desultory mode of operation. 1845 Ford Handbk. Spain II. 853 The unmechanical Spaniards still work their mines..as the..Iberians did. 1865 Mrs. Whitney Gayworthys xxvii, Unscrupulous, even doubting thoughts, they might be; yet real, unmechanical.

Unmecha'nically, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1833 G. S. Faber Recapit. Apostasy 80 It does not therefore follow, that one of the two names is incapable of producing that number, when calculated unmechanically or with wisdom. Unme'chanize, v. (Un-[2] 6 c.) 1687 Death's Vision ii, When these soft Bellows [sc. the lungs] too, Shall all Unmechanize'd, and all Unactive grow. 1760 Sterne Tr. Shandy iv. xix, What one misfortune or disaster is the book of embryotic evils, that could unmechanize thy frame,..has not fallen upon thy head! Unme'chanized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1802 Paley Nat. Theol. ii. § 4 If nothing had been before us but an unorganized, unmechanized substance, without mark or indication of contrivance.

Unme'ddled, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

†1. Unmixed. Obs.

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. II. 320 Love of Crist is not, but sif it be clere, unmeddlid wip errours. c 1449 Pecock Repr. I. x. 49 Riten as gramer and dyuynyte ben ij. dyuerse ..kunnynglis, and therfore ben vnmeddlid. 1555 Watreman Fardle Facions ii. iv. I ij, The wisedome, and vnmedled puritie of Language. 1595 Southwell Poems, 'Times goe by Turnes,' Unmeddled joyes here to no man befall.

2. Not meddled or interfered with. Also without prep.

1535 Coverdale Judith xii. 11 That a woman shulde so laugh a man to scorne, that she were come from him vnmedled withall. 1573 Reg. Privy Council Scot. III. 202 [The corn] to remayne vnmeddlit vpon the cry. 1602 Carew Cornwall 105 [The flood-gate] is opened and closed for sixe dayes in the whole, continuing..other ten dayes vnmedled withall. 1641 Best Farm. Bks. (Surtees) 68 Yow are to lette the water in the tubbe stande all night vnmedled with. 1690 W. Walker Idiomat. Anglo-Lat. 269 He left it as he found it,—untouchtt; unmedled withall. 1884 Sir C. Bowen in Law Times Rep. LI. 518/2 To have the enjoyment of his goods and chattels unmedled with by others. 1898 Wide World Mag. Oct. 90/2 This might be long unmeddled with by the common crowd of the deeps.

Unme'ddlesome, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1852 Davies & Vaughan Republic Plato viii. 550 He hears the quiet and unmeddlesome called simpletons. 1863 W. Cory Lett. & Ymls. (1897) 59 Goodford is iconic, prudent, Unmeddlesome.

Unme'ddling, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

1763 Chesterf. Lett. (1774) II. 486 She is..a tender mother; and an unmeddling Queen. 1774 J. Collier' Mus. Trans. App. 4 A contented, unmeddling man. 1793 Jefferson Writ. (1859) IV. 16 Unmeddling with the affairs of other nations, we [etc.].

Hence Unme'ddlingly (Webster, 1847), -ness.

a 1656 Br. Hall Serm. 1 Pet. i. 17 Rem. Wks. (1660) 202 Here must be an ἀπραγμοσύνη, an unmeddlingness with these worldly concernments.

Unme'diated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1839 Lieber Man. Pol. Ethics I. 358 Wherever all power that can be obtained, is undivided, unmedified and un-mediatised.

Unme'dical, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1809 Malkin Gil Blas ix. viii, P 7 Fancying in his unmedical head that physicians cured fevers. 1840 Dickens Sh. Loving Couples 34 The medical gentleman..was observed to laugh and wink, and look as unmedical as might be. 1888 E. W. Benson in Life Dean Lake (1901) 293 All his habits are so vigorous and unmedical that he is most difficult, even for doctors.

Unme'dicative, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1836 Carlyle in Froude Life in London (1884) I. 84 London has been like a course of mercury to body and mind; hard enough, but not unmedicative.

Unme'dicinable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.]

1. Incurable.

1575 Gascoigne Glasse of Govt. v. iii, The misgovernment of a mans children..is unto the wysest mynde an unmedicinable sworde. 1 Hewyson Genesis iii. 160 To give date unto..thy violent and unmedicinable torture.

b. Refusing medical treatment.

c 1611 Chapman Iliad xvi. 24 But these [chiefs]..physicians can receive, Thou yet unmed'cinable still, though thy wound all endure.

2. Incapable of effecting a cure.

1606 Chapman Gent. Usher iv. ii, Away with this unmedicinable balme Of worded breath. 1614 Latham Falconry 116 As it is a thing very medicinable,..being rightly given; so also, it is as unmedicinable and hurtfull if..otherwise used.

Unme'ditated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1624 Heywood Gunaik. i. 45 [They] left nothing unmeditated that might stirre up men to the adoration of the divine powers. 1667 Milton P. L. v. 149 To praise Thir Maker, in fit strains pronunc'd or sung Unmeditated. 1790 Paley Horæ Paul. vii. § 5 The intimations upon the subject preserve among themselves..a consistency certainly unmeditated. a 1797 H. Walpole Mem. Geo. II (1847) I. vi. 171 His wit..was constant and unmeditated.

Unme'ditative, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1842 G. S. Faber Prov. Lett. (1844) I. 229 This sentence reads well: and, with the unmeditative, will probably tell well. 1866 Carlyle Reminn. (1881) II. 330 A man..given to meditation, and much contemptuous of the unmeditative world. †Unmedi'tful, a. Obs. (Un-[1] 7.) Undeserving of reward. c 1400 Cursor M. 28772 (Cott. Galba), Eis vnmedeful es þe dede, And makes to þe doer no mede. 1425 Misyn Fire of Love 93 Ja trespas þat I berfore þat sayd I at all owr dedys wardle or vtward ar meydfull or vnmedefull. †Unme'dy, a. (Un-[1] 7.) Unrewarded. a 1300 Cursor M. 28772 Elles vnmedi sal it be, Scathel and wrangwise ais to be.

Unmee'k, a. [Un-[1] 7. Cf. ON. umjúk-r.]

1. Not meek or gentle; †unkind, harsh, cruel.

c 1200 Ormin 9880 Hæþenndom..Iss harrd & starrc all alise stan, Unmeoc & all unmilde. a 1300 Cursor M. 14616 Wit þau vn-meke þar was he mett, And son wit þam he was vnsett. Ta 1366 Chaucer Rom. Rose 590 And she to me was noughtt vnmeke, Ne of hir answer daungerous. c 1374 – Boeth. iv. met. vii. (1896) 115 He..as it is sayd hath put an vnmeke lord [as] foddre to his crwel hors. c 1449 Pecock Repr. I. xvii. 56 The gifte which he wol zeue into the reesoun or vndirstanding of vnmeke men. 1483 Cath. Angl. 233/1 Vn Meke, vbi felle. 1509 Barclay Ship of Folys 8 Do nat Poetis reyvle, all suche as ar vnmeke, Prowde, Couetous! 1595 W. I. Two Disc. P. Guicciardin A j b, Old doates, young maids,..Daunsing their roundes with Sathans dam vnmeeke. a 1653 Binning Serm. (1845) 527 An unmeek spirit..troubles itself and annoys others. 1819 Keats Ode Indolence iii, The last, whom I love more, the more of blame Is heap'd upon her, maiden most unmeek.

†2. Unsupple, stiff. Obs.—

a 1275 Prov. Alfred 538 Elde..makit him wel vnmeke, & binimit him is mizte.

Unmee'kened, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1612 T. Taylor Comm. Titus iii. 3 Rude, and by an vnmeekened and vnsubdued stomacke, [to] hurt both themselues and others. Unmee'kly, adv. (Un-[1] 11. Cf. ON. umjúkliga.) c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. II. 44 þat he speke neiper unmekeli to terre men for to fiste, ne [etc.]. a 1400 Cursor M. 27763 (Cott. Galba), Sleyth oft samnes sorow strang, And þat vnmekely lastand lang.

Unmee'kness. (Un-[1] 12.)

c 1440 Jacob's Well 266 Whil vnmekenesse is in þin herte, þt faryth as he see. 1509 Barclay Ship of Folys 198 b, This raueynyng sort, He hyre vnmekenesse, Wyll of maketh bare. 1828 E. Irving Last Days 255 Unwillingness to obey, or unmeekness or ungentleness in obedience.

Unmee't, a. [OE. unmēte (Un-[1] + Meet a.). Cf. OHG. unmāzi (MHG. unmāze, unmēse) and Unmeter a.]

†1. a. Immoderate or excessive in amount. Obs.

c 1300 tr. Bede's Hist. v. xii. (1890) 422 Ond ealle..mid unmete ege geslegene wæron & utfugon. c 1175 Lamb. Hom. 103 Sifennesse..maceð þan men muchele untrumnesse and to deþe bringeð mid unmete drunche. c 1200 Vices & Virtues 19 Þar is chiuering of toðen for ðe unmate chele. a 1300 Cursor M. 23035 þat dredines nal be sua vn-mete, þat it mai all sil plightes bete. a 1320 in Wright Lyric P. iv. 23 This wilde wille went a-wai, with mone and mournyng muchel un-mete.

†b. Excessive in size; immense, huge. Obs.

c 900 tr. Bæda's Hist. v. xiii. (1890) 458 Þa teah he forð bos..unmetre micelnisse. a 1300 Cursor M. 16566 For to ber it [sc. a tree] vte o þe kirk þai fand it ful vn-mete. 13.. Gaw. & Gr. Knt. 208 He hade..an ax in his oþer [hand], a hoge hyn was brought, And a schaft unmete. a 1400–50 Alexander 143 þen metis he furthe to Messadon full vn-mete gatis. 14.. Sir Beves (C.) 2537 Ascopard hys staffe onmeete Smot after hym a strok gret. c 1475 Partenay 5775 Hys panche as a pipe hug and comerous;..Off hir unmete hugeynesse is gret meruaill.

†2. Unequal; unevenly matched. Obs.

a 1300 Cursor M. 9362 Ais rose and thron ar tua vnmete; And tuiss þam fair a-cord es nan. 13.. E. E. Allit. P. A. 759 My makelez lambe..Me chet to hys make, al-þag vnmete Sum tyme semed þat assemble. 1390 Gower Conf. II. 121 Thou wost nothing of my desese, Hou thou and I be now unmete. c 1400 Destr. Troy 1324 But vnmete was the the Macche at þe mene tyme: The Grekes wan a gyym [etc.]. 1513 Douglas Æneid ii. xi. 76 Litle Iulus..With wnmeit paiss his fader fast followand. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. V, 76 b, Their numbre was but small..and far vnmete to compare with halfe the power of his puissaunt armie. 1563 Birr. Mag. Inductt. xxviii, We passed on with steppes and pace vnmete. Pr 1760 in Child Ballads IV. 265/1 Four he killd and five did wound, That was an unmeet marrow!

†b. Lacking in equality; inferior. Obs. rare.

1390 Gower Conf. III. 260 Sche, thoughte hir selfe unmete And the lest worth of wommen alle. a 1547 Surrey in Tottel's Misc. (Arb.) 219 He bowed at her feete, In humble wise as who sould say: I am to farre vnmete.

†c. Superior. Obs. rare.

1390 Gower Conf. I. 163 This Galathee..Above alle othre was unmete Of beaute. Ibid. II. 199 The thridde maister scholde mete, Which, as thei seiden, was unmete Above hem alle, and couthe moot.

†d. As adv. Unequally. Obs.—1

1515 Scottish Field 188 in Chetham Misc. (1856) II, They were numbered nyne hundreth,..And they were x thousand ..upon the other partie; Full unmete were they matched.

†3. Not closely united; remote. Obs.

1390 Gower Conf. I. 316 Pro merci thei ben al unmeete, And thus ben thei the worste of alle Of hem whiche unto wratthe faile. a 1500 Flower & Leaf 17 As I lay in my bed, sleep ful unmete Was unto me.

4. Unfitting, unsuitable, unbecoming, improper.

Common c 1535–1675, and in 1901 rare.

a 1529 Skelton Replyc. 49 With baudy wordes vnmete Your tonges were to flete. a 1602 W. Perkins Cases Conse. (1619) 6 Inconuenience is when the thing or action is done in vnmeete circumstances. 1649 tr. Hall Cases Consc. iv. vi. 450 Such a marriage is very vnmeet. 1675 Hobbes Odyss. 27 While they contending were with words vnmeet. 1790 Cowper Iliad i. 145 It were much unmeet that I alone.. should want due recompense. 1824 Scott Lord of Isles v. vii, With inaccustom'd ears, the language much unmeet he hears. 1850 Neale Med. Hymns (1867) 138 It is not for man's devices Here to pry with gaze unmeet. 1885–94 R. Bridges Eros & Psyche June xxiv, [There] were noises at the door. Such as..Psyche's most unmeet to hear.

b. Const. for, or to with inf. (Cf. next.)

1541 Act 33 Hen. VIII, c. 21 § 7 Soo allso were it unmete and daungerous to the suretye of our..Kynge..to be construed by any lawe [etc.]. 1555 Harpsfield Divorce Hen. VIII (Camden) 79 It seasoth to be vnmeet for..these learned men. 1583 Stubbes Anat. Abus. II. D 6, It is very vnmeete to feede forren nations, and our owne country famish at home. a 1683 Owen Two Disc. Holy Spirit (1693) 54 That which some propose as unmeet for him, and beneath his Glory. a 1703 Burnitt On N. T. Mark iv. a Christ thought..a ship no unmeet place to preach in. 1807 Wordsw. White Doe i. 372 Why mention thoughts unmeet to be spoken Or composed and sweet I ofer G. MacDonald Poems 48 Trailing loose their white attire For the sapphire-floor unmeet. 1868 Morris Earthly Par. I. i. 253 He rose and spoke in humble words, unmeet For a great King.

5. Unfit or unsuited for some end or purpose; incompetent: a. With for.

c 1520 Skelton Why nat to Courte 32 Age is a page For the courte full vnmete. 1577 B. Googe Heresbach's Husb. iii, 126 b, The olde that be barraine, or vnmeete for breeding. 1646 Cosin Serm. Dignity Chivalry § 2 They were too meane and unmeet persons for a function so high. 1647 N. Bacon Disc. Govt. Eng. i. xlvii. 129 The more Baron, the lesse Bishop, and more unmeet for the service of Rome. 1676 Row Contn. Blair's Autobiog. xi. (1848) 326 Mr. Blair was now infirm and unmeet for travel. 1855 Tennyson Maud i. iv. x, Ah Maud, you milkwhite fawn, you are all unmeet for a wife. 1863 Conington tr. Hor., Odes ii. xix. 27 [They] Deem'd thee belike for war's rough game Unmeet.

b. With †to (prep.), or to with inf.

a 1513 Fabyan Chron. v. cxl. 125 They chase a man of lowe byrth & vnmete to that rome. 1532 Sir T. More Lett. Impugn. Y. Proth liv, Fryth is an vnmete mayster to teche vs what we shold praye. 1535 Coverdale Ps. l. 16 For so moch as they are..dishobedient, and vnmete to all good workes. 1600 Holland Livy 596 They supposed, that they would..bee farre unmeet to contrive a conspiracie. 1642 H. More Mim. Poems Wks. (Grosart) 171 Such surface skill's Unmeet to measure the profounder quill. 1670 Baxter Cure Ch. Div. 372 In those cases where violent restraint..is necessary, the Pastor is the unmeetest person to meddle in it. 1808 Scott Marm. vi. xiii, To each one whom he lists, howe'er Unmeet to be the owner's peer. 1846 Keble Lyra Innoc. 235 Behold me, Lord, a worthless Gibeonite, Unmeet to bear one burthen in thy sight.

c. Without const.

1535 Coverdale Job xxxvii. 19 Teach vs what we shal saye vnto him, for we are vnmete because of darckness.

1557 Act 4 & 5 Phil. & Mary c. 3 § 2 The same Disability ..notwithstanding, the same unable and unmeet Persons .. have also been released. 1598 GRENEWEY Tacitus, Ann. XIII. vi. 187 Neither did that [practice] long continue, because the lot fell oft vpon the vnmeetest. 1706 PRIOR Ode to Queen XXXV, That Muse deserves ... the lowest Place; Who tho' unmeet, yet touch'd the trembling String. 1825 SCOTT Betrothed xii, He were rather an unmeet counsellor in that which we now treat of. 1844 18. WILLIAMS Baptistery III. ii, Then like the Leper stand and pray aloof,—Like the Centurion deem thyself unmeet.

Unmee·table, a. (UN-[1] 7 b.) 1837 T. HOOK Jack Brag i, As light of darkness, fire of water, or any other two unmeetable opposites.

† Unmee·tly, a. Obs. rare. [UN-[1] 7. Cf. OE. unmētlic, OHG. (MHG.) unmāzlich.]

1. = UNMEET a. 1 b.

a 1400-50 Alexander 321 A mouthe as a mastis hunde, vnmetely to shaw.

2. = UNMEET a. 4.

1534 MORE Treat. Passion Wks. 1316/1 Peter..thought it in hys mynde vnmetely that hys lorde and mayster shoulde weshe his feete.

Unmee·tly, adv. [UN-[1] 11. Cf. prec., and ON. umātaliga, OHG. unmāzlīche (MHG. unmǣzlīche).]

† 1. Immoderately, excessively. Obs.—[1] a 1300 Cursor M. 27763 O suernes cums care to strang And pat vnmetele lastand lang.

2. Unfitly, unbecomingly.

1596 SPENSER F. Q. VI. vi. 16 A faire Mayden ..Vpon a mangy iade vnmeetely set. 1611 COTGR., Indiūement, .. vnmeetly, vnfitly. 1826 SCOTT Woodst. xxviii, A benevolent smile ..accorded not unmeetly with his glistening eyes. 1854 NEALE Seatonian Poems 108 Tell, nor unrashly nor unmeetly, how God came from Teman.

Unmee·tness. [f. UNMEET a. Cf. OE. unmētness immenseness.] Unfitness, unsuitableness.

1573 BARET Alv. F 796 Unaptnesse or vnmeetenes, .. inepitia. 1586 W. WEBB Eng. Poetrie (Arb.) 88 In a Satyr greate heede is to be taken ..of the vnmeetnesse or incongruenience of the matter. 1633 BP. HALL Hard Texts 228 As there is a disproportion in the legges of a lame man,..so there is much unmeetness in a fooles paralne. 1645 MILTON Tetrach. 66 A perpetual unmeetnes and unwillingnesse to all the duties of helpe. a 1683 OWEN True Nat. Gosp. Ch. (1683) 164 The unmeetness of the People to be lead under this Spiritual Rule. 1827 Q. Rev. XXXVI. 56 The unmeetness of the parties being a satisfactory ground of divorce. 1868 WHITTIER Among the Hills 312 Love has naught to do With meetness or unmeetness.

Unme·llow, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1587 Generous Attachment IV. 172 You..shall proclaim the unsavoury news; pert unmellow children shall bear it about. 1863 W. LANCASTER Praeterita 44 Gray the mask Of twilight, and the bleak unmellow speed Of blindness on the visage of fresh hills.

Unme·llowed, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

1573 GASCOIGNE Hearbes Wks. 1907 I, 397 The brall Which raging youth ..Did whilome breede in mine unmellowed brayne. 1591 LYLY Endym. III. i, Whose vnmellowed conceits promise ripe counsell. 1607 ROWLANDS Fam. Hist. 7 In Nature's green unmellowed years Cupid tormented Guy. 1743 FRANCIS tr. Hor., Odes II. v. 72 The crude, unmellow'd grape. 1781 COWPER Truth 492 If the youth, unmellow'd yet by time, Bore on his branch .. Fruits of a blighted size. 1829 LYTTON Devereux III. v, These rare scents that make an Araby of this unmellowed clime. 1841 GRESLEY For. Arden xv. 167 They drew near to the ruins, unmellowed by age.

Unmelo·dic, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1849 Edin. Rev. July 54 In primitive music we find a preponderance of those ordinary intervals which characterise speech, and which are unmelodic.

Unmelo·dious, a. (UN-[1] 7.)

1665 SIR T. HERBERT Trav. (1677) 175 The unmelodious noise of the braying mules. 1748 THOMSON Castl. Indol. II. lxxxi, Of barking dogs the bitter throng Makes them renew their unmelodious moan. 1777 POTTER Æschylus, Persians 512 Rude strains, that unmelodious flow. 1868 SCOTT Marm. VI. Introd., If unmelodious was the song, It was a hearty note. 1871 DARWIN Desc. Man II. xiii. II. 55 Even the unmelodious sparrow has learnt to sing like a linnet.

So Unmelo·diously adv., -ness (Webster, 1847).

1846 WORCESTER (citing Dr. Allen). 1868 CARLYLE Frederk. Gt. V. i. I. 599 An English Parliament jaugling and debating unmelodiously. 1867 MORRIS Jason IV. 102 Nor toiled the heroes unmelodiously.

Unme·lodized, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1771 LANGHORNE Fables Flora xi. 22 Unlike to living sounds it came, Unmix'd, unmelodis'd with breath. † Unme·lly, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 b.) = next. a 1642 SUCKLING Fragm. Aurea (1646) 29 The other fair hand ..whose perfect white .. shew'd like unmelt snow unto the sight.

Unme·lted, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

1549 Compl. Scot. vi. 59 The snaw..remanis langar onmeltit, be rason that it fallis aye in cald vedthir. 1611 SPEED Theat. Gt. Brit. 111/1 The snow..lasteth long vnmelted vnder those..high hills. 1657 G. THORNLEY Dophnis & Chloe 114 The snow lay unmelted. 1713 SALMON Bate's Dispens. (ed. 4) 438/2 Unmelted Antimony in fine Pouder. 1796 KIRWAN Elem. Min. (ed. 2) I. 448 It is found..on gneiss unaltered, on sandstone unmelted. 1833-4 J. PHILLIPS Geol. in Encycl. Metrop. (18.8) VI. 738/1 The houses..which have been enveloped in liquid lava, remained unmelted by it. 1892 M. DODS Geogr. John II. xiv. 223 A lens of ice will.. itself unmelted..fire the tinder to which it transmits its rays.

Unme·lting, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.)

1743 FRANCIS tr. Hor., Odes I. v. 5 Nor on Armenia's frozen Plain The loitring Snow unmelting lies. 1798 Monthly Mag. V. 208 To pun pale zone Where drifts the unmelting snow. 1856 E. RIDLEY in Chron. Rev. XI. 271/2 Parched by cruel suns, Or pelted by snows unmelting.

† Unme·mber, v. [UN-[2] 4.] trans. To deprive of membership. Also Unme·mbering vbl. sb.

a 1658 DURHAM Comm. Revelation II. iii. (1680) 73 This unmembering or unchurching of a Person. 1683 T. HUNT Def. Charter Lond. 41 Every mans particular consent was necessary to make him a member of any society, and so it is to unmember him. 1847 WEBSTER.

Unme·morable, a. (UN-[1] 7 b. 5 b.)

1598 FLORIO, Immemorable, vnmemorable, not worth the remembrance, forgetfull. 1607 TOPSELL Fourf. Beasts 142 Such was the vnmemorable vanity of the Heathens in theyr goddes and sacrifices. 1858 CARLYLE Frederk. Gt. V. iii. I. 559 If a few things memorable are to be remembered, millions of things unmemorable must first be..forgotten! 1885 DIXON Hist. Ch. Eng. III. 229 I, not unmemorable dust. absol. 1879 F. HARRISON Choice of Bks. i. (1886) 9 The memoirs of the unmemorable, and lives of those who never really lived at all.

Unmemorial, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1830 JAMES De L'Orme xi, The mountains..in the same..forms that they had presented unmemoried centuries ago. 1879 R. BRIDGES Shorter Poems II. (1912) 269, Flowers that fade, Within whose magic tents Rich hues have marriage made With sweet unmemoried scents.

Unme·nased, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1821 BYRON Sardanap. I. ii. 640 Here we are still unmenaced. 1837 LYTTON Athens I. 212 When Sparta was unmenaced he was lukewarm.

Unme·ndable, a. (UN-[1] 7 b.)

1584 MELVILLE in Cal. St. Papers (1915) VII. 175, I assured hym..matters wer able to fall out to her unmendable mis-contentement. 1760 MRS. F. SHERIDAN Sidney Biddulph bk. I (1795) V. 178 The wheel was unmendable. 1822 T. G. WAINEWRIGHT Ess. & Crit. (1880) 281 An unmendable slit. 1885 [J. R. LEIFCHILD] Cornwall 76 That vase,..which one puff of wind..would dash down into innumerable and unmendable fragments! 1897 M. ARNOLD Last Ess. Pref. p. xii, They dream of patching up things unmendable.

Unmended, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1880 West Cornwall Gloss. 62 Vender,..a large basket for holding unmended linen. 1888 MISS BRADDON Fatal Three I. iv, The wardrobe-woman left her clothes unmended.

† Unme·nged, ppl. a. Obs. [UN-[1] 8 + MENG v. Cf. OE. un(ge)menged, MDu. on-, MHG. ungemenget, etc., older Da. umængt.] Unmixed.

1562 TURNER Baths 6 They drink..excessively wyne, and that unmenged.

Unme·nseful, a. Sc. and dial. (UN-[1] 7.)

1801 Marvellous Love-Story II. 31 Hauld your tongue, ye unmenseful brute! 1828- in dialect glossaries, etc. (Sc., Yks., Lancs., Linc.). 1898 LD. E. HAMILTON Mawkin xx. 268 'The daft unmenseful things!'

Unmensurable, a. = next UN-[2] 2.

Unmesurable, a. (UN-[1] 7 b.) 1513 DOUGLAS Æneid X. Prol. 93 Consider quhou he [sc. God] is onmesurabyll; Him, as he is, to knaw thout art nocht abyll. 1683 CAVE Ecclesiastici, Athanasius 4 This he cryes out vpon as..an unmeasurable endless. Unmentionability. [UN-[1] 12.] = next b. 1840 New Monthly Mag. LX. 373 One whose unmentionabilities are not worth a thought.

Unme·ntionable, a. and sb. (UN-[1] 7 b.)

1832 CARLYLE Fr. Rev. I. i. III. The..whole posthumous hope of Jesuitism now hangs by the apron of this same unmentionable Woman. 1852 MRS. STOWE Uncle Tom's C. xiii, Rows of shining tin, suggestive of unmentionable good things to the appetite. 1895 JOWETT Plato (ed. 3) V. 422 If any citizen be found guilty of any great or unmentionable wrong. absol. 1848 MRS. CARLYLE in New Lett. & Mem. (1903) I. 242 Her tendency towards the unmentionable is too strong for me to stay it.

b. sb. pl. Trousers. (Cf. INEXPRESSIBLE B. 2.)

1830 in Thornton Amer. Gloss. (1912) I. 478 The waist bands of his unmentionables. 1836-7 DICKENS Sk. Boz, Shabby-Genteel People, The knees of the unmentionables.. began to get strikingly white. 1882 S. C. HALL Retrospect II. 318 The priest's unmentionables drying on a hedge.

Hence Unme·ntionableness. Also Unme·ntionably adv.

1870 MISS BROUGHTON Red as Rose I. 157 At the rate of purity at which we are advancing, 'legs' will soon walk off into the limbo of silence and unmentionableness. 1879 W. COLLINS Rogue's Life ii, He asserted, with an unmentionably vulgar oath, his resolution to turn me out of doors.

Unme·ntioned, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8, 8 c.)

1545 RAYNALD Byrth Mankynde (1552) 5 Muskles of the body left apart and vnmentioned of. 1612 T. WILSON Chr. Dict. 146 Melchisedech['s] .. Parents .. be vnmentioned in the holy Story. 1661 BOYLE Style of Script. 187 Barabbas his Name is signally Recorded in Scripture, whereas the Penitent Thief is left Unmention'd. 1709 ADDISON Tatler No. 102 P 1 There was not a single Accomplishment unmentioned. 1831 SCOTT Ct. Rob. viii, And now let this singular person remain for a time unmentioned. 1879 LUBBOCK Nat. Lect. vi. 173 Stonehenge .. is unmentioned by any..Roman writer.

† Unme·nyied, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [UN-[1] 8: see MANYIE v.] Unmained. 1500-20 DUNBAR Poems lx. 155, I ask thy Passioun in me so to habound, Quhill nocht vnmenyeit be in me ane member. Unme·rcantile, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1783 BURKE Rep. Aff. India Wks. XI. 166 The false principles of this unmercantile transaction. 1848 MILL Pol. Econ. III. xii. § 3 II. 58 An improvident and unmercantile mode of conducting business.

Unme·rcenary, a. (UN-[1] 7.)

1643 PRYNNE Sov. Power Parl. I. Pref. (ed. 2) A ij b, The cordiallest Endeavours of a reall unmercenary Philo-patet. 1692 ATTERBURY Serm. (1726) I. 19 Praise is a generous and unmercenary Principle. 1702 S. PARKER tr. Cicero's De Finibus II. 135 An Inbred and Unmercenary Goodness of Temper. 1892 MEREDITH One of our Cong. xxix, She was all impulse; a shifty piece of unmercenary stratagem occasionally directing it.

Hence Unme·rcenariness.

1863 N. & Q. 3rd Ser. IV. 301 The genus 'he-flirt,' a race which is unhappily increased by the unmercenariness of mothers and chaperones.

† Unme·rchandable, obs. var. of next. 1670 J. SMITH Eng. Improv. Revived 264 Vending any unmerchandable Ware..at lower Rates.

Unme·rchantable, a. (UN-[1] 7 b.)

1602 CAREW Cornwall 105 b, They feed on salt vnmarchantable Pilchard. 1722 Lond. Gaz. No. 6022/6 Wines..corrupt, or unmerchantable. 1763 Brit. Mag. IV. 174 Damaged and unmerchantable wines. 1828 COLEBROOKE Import Colonial Corn 9 A permission to dispose of his goods..before they are..rendered unmerchantable by decay. 1896 Law Times Rep. LXXII. 640/1 So damaged by water as to be unmerchantable as dates.

Unme·rchantlike, a. (UN-[1] 7 c.) 1622 E. MISSELDEN Free Trade 100 The one taketh aduantage of our vnmerchant-like courses.

† Unme·rciable, a. [UN-[1] 7.] Unmerciful.

1382 WYCLIF Jer. l. 42 Cruel thei ben and vnmerciable. c 1412 HOCCLEVE De Reg. Princ. 3330 Where as our werkes moste ben auowed, The vnmerciable schal be disallowed. 1450 Rolls of Parlt. V. 212/1 Arraied in fourme of werre, with .. unmerciable forboden wepons. 1509 BARCLAY Ship of Folys 150 Alas mad Fole and man vnmerciable.

† Unme·rciful, a. (UN-[1] 9.) Merciless. c 1600 DRAYTON Miseries Q. Margaret xi, The Irish,..with sword and fire, Vnmercied hauocke of the English made.

Unme·rciful, a. [UN-[1] 7.] Merciless.

1. Of persons: Having or exhibiting no mercy.

1481 CAXTON Reynard (Arb.) 37 He was alway to hem vnmerciyful. a 1548 HALL Chron., Hen. VI, 167 b, The vnmercifull pagans and cruel Turkes. 1584 CONSTABLE Sonn. vii. vii, Seeke with humble prayer Meanes how to moone th' vnmercifullest fayre. 1631 High Commission Cases (Camden) 231 Though he be vnmerciful to vs vnkind men, yet we are..mercifull to him. 1667 Decay Chr. Piety viii. P 47 There are indeed no such unmerciful exactors as our own lusts. 1711 SWIFT Jrnl. Stella 7 June, Why this same Stella is so unmerciful a writer, she has hardly left any room for Dingley. a 1770 CHATTERTON Battle of Hastings 427 A wight unmercifull. 1825 J. NEAL Brz. Jonathan III. 250 Any female..unmerciful to those who had gone astray. transf. a 1588 SIDNEY Arcadia I. xiii, The unmerciful Sea deprived me of my company.

absol. 1795 SOUTHEY Joan of Arc I. 445 Will not God In sunder smite the unmerciful, and break The sceptre of the wicked?

2. Of actions, etc.: Devoid of the quality of mercy.

1549 Compl. Scot. I. 23 The..distructione of oure nobil barrons..be cruel ande onmercyful slauthyr. 1582 STANYHURST Æneis I. (Arb.) 18 Shee bears..that sept vnmercifull hatred. 1622 J. TAYLOR (Water P.) Unmatchd Feather Wks. (1630) 140/2 Weeping teares of pitilesse pity, and vnmercifull mercy. 1677 WYCHERLEY Pl. Dealer IV. i, When a Lover's hopes Are dead,..Life is unmerciful. 1798 JOHNSON Idler No. 14 P 10 Some stop might be put to this unmerciful prosecution. 1778 MISS BURNEY Evelina lxi, Her unmerciful propensity to satire. 1846 MRS. A. MARSH Father Darcy II. x. 170 He had resolved ..upon a course of the most unmerciful policy.

3. Unsparing; excessive in amount, etc.

1706 E. WARD Wooden World Diss. (1708) 69 Knock'd down by an unmerciful Bowl of Punch or two. 1710 STEELE Tatler No. 207 P 2 There was no enduring that this Fop should outshine us all at this unmerciful Rate. 1811 A. CLARKE Kneeling Wks. 1837 XI. 340 In addition to the injury I sustained by his unmerciful prayer, I had the following reproof. 1835 T. MITCHELL Acharn. of Aristoph. App. 258 note, Explain them he accordingly does at the same unmerciful length as he does every other topic.

Hence † Unme·rcifulness. Obs.

c 1440 Jacob's Well 256 Rystwysnesse may not helpe be.. in bin vnkyndenesse, in pin vnmercyfulnes.

Unme·rcifully, adv. [UN-[1] 11.]

1. Without mercy; mercilessly.

1548 ELYOT, Immisericorditer, without pitee, vnmercifully. 1596 SPENSER F. Q. V. vii. 31 The Amazon..dealt her blowes vnmercifully sore. 1653 H. COGAN tr. Pinto's Trav. liii. 209 He cutsed [them]..to be unmercifully butchered. 1711 STEELE Spect. No. 145 P 2 Ill-natured raillery to Triumph over my Ignorance. 1766 HAMILTON Vesuvius in Phil. Trans. LVII. 197, I saw it..unmercifully destroy a poor man's vineyard. 1818 SCOTT Rob Roy xxiii, The laws concerning debt, in most countries, are unmercifully severe. 1860 FROUDE Hist. Eng. V. 119 A change in the relations between the peasantry and the owners of the soil..was attempted harshly and unmercifully.

2. Unsparingly, excessively. Now dial.

1686 F. SPINCE tr. St. Evremont's Misc. Pref. C 3, In a Comedy nothing is so unmercifully insupportable as to.. explicate the Intrigue by a Miracle. 1716 HEARNE Collect. (O.H.S.) V. 332 He steals unmercifully, and .. without Acknowledgment. 1794 C. PIGOT Female Jockey Club 139 If surprised by the sight of a black lobster, she screams unmercifully. 1854 MISS BAKER Northampt. Gloss. 369 It's unmercifully bad.

Unme·rciflulness. [UN-[1] 12.] The quality of being unmerciful; mercilessness.

1545 ASCHAM Toxoph. (Arb.) 81 Made drunke with the fruite of the flesh, as infidelitie, ..oppression, vnmercifulnesse. 1565 CECIL Let. in Strype Ann. Ref. xliv. (1709) 444 To sharpen their tongues against the idols..of, malice, and unmercifulness. 1618 ROBERTS Clavis Bibliorum 1 Babylon being devoted to destruction for her unmercifulnesse to the Jewes. 1682 Sec. Plea Nonconform. 63 If Justices are not merciful, they have the Countenance of the Law, for Unmercifulness. 1792 WOLLASTON Relig. Nat. vi. 141 Injustice, unmercifulness, and cruelty are wrong. 1864 PUSEY Lect. Daniel 524 That common sin of conquerors, unmercifulness and oppression.

† Unme·rciless, a. [UN-[1] 5 a.] Unmerciful.

1545 JOYE Exp. Dan. vi. 86 b, Now ye see..their deceites, vnmercilies murther, and ingratitude. 1554 F. VAXLEY in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. III. III. 323, I was so tormented..in the unmercileese seas. 1570 GOOGE Pop. Kingd. iv. 45 b, Seeking Christ to kill, [Herod] Destroyde the litle infants yong, a beast vnmercileese. 1614 JACKSON Creed III. 199 The Egyptians consciousnesse of their vnmercileese practises against poore Israel.

† Unme·rcy. Obs. [UN-[1] 12.] Lack of mercy; unmercifulness.

c 1380 Wyclif Wks. (1880) 72 Wip-drawynge goddis word ..for ensaumple of pride, coueitise, wrabpe, vnmercy. c 1400 Pound. St. Bartholomew's (1902) 41 Our synnes askyng the vmercy of oure Lordys tre. c 1400 Lydg. Reson & Sens. 665x Daunger sholde seiled be, Vmercy also.

Unmerged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1818 Cruise Digest (ed. 2) II. 46 The estate for life of the joint tenant having the fee, is distinct from, and unmerged in, his greater estate.

Unmeritable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b.] 1. Unable to claim merit.

1594 Shaks. Rich. III, iii. vii. 155 Your loue deserues my thankes, but my desert Vnmeritable, shunnes your high request. 1601 — Jul. C. iv. i. 12 This is a slight vnmeritable man, Meet to be sent on Errands. 1797 Lo. Thurlow in Cowper's Wks. (1836) III. 272 Cowper's distemper persuades him that he is unmeritable and unacceptable to God.

2. Unpleasing. 1598 Swinburne Misc. (1686) 132 He was content to rely on his .. simplicity alone; with a result sometimes merely trivial and unmeritable.

† 2. Unmerited, undeserved. Obs.

1632 J. Hayward tr. Biondi's Banish'd Virg. 22 You..are .. come to undoe me with your unmeritable favours. 1666 Earl Orrery in St. Lett. (1743) II. 93 Those unmeritable expressions of your grace's kindness.

Unmerited, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1648 Herman tr. Unbelieuer, Vndeserved, or Vnmerited. 1667 Milton P. L. xii. 278 Favour unmerited by me, who sought Forbidd'n knowledge. 1721 Spect. No. 77 ¶ 5 Those Nods of Approbation which I never bestow unmerited. 1740 Richardson Pamela (1824) I. 170 This, sir, is all, quite unmerited on my side. 1808 Wordsw. White Doe ii. 525 The excess Of an unmerited distress. 1889 in Retrospect Med. CII. 33 Years ago I remember getting a good deal of quite unmerited credit.

Hence Unmeritedness.

1648 Boyle Seraph. Love (1659) 70 The freeness or unmeritedness of God's love. a 1680 Charnock Attrib. God (1834) II. 437 The unmeritedness of them doth enhance this.

Unmeritedly, adv. (Un-[1] 11. Cf. prec.)

1792 Eliza Clarke Sermons II. 90 The Regard which you have so unmeritedly shown for me. 1806 Scott Lett. in Lockhart (1837) II. 88 Any prepossession which my literary reputation may, however unmeritedly, have created in my favour. 1840 New Monthly Mag. LX. 369 A word thus unmeritedly sent to Coventry.

Unmeriting, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10, 5 d.) Also absol., and with obj. dat.

1594 Zepheria xix, No no Zepheria, fame is too rich a prize My all vnmeriting lines for to attend on. 1609 Shaks. Cor. ii. 1. 47 A brace of vnmeriting, proud, violent, testie Magistrates. 1795 Fate of Sedley I. 135 Why should we conceal our affections, when they are not improperly placed upon the unmeriting? 1829 Pollok Course T. ix. 296 Unmeriting alike reward or blame. 1848 Pusey Hist. Eng. I. 84 To charge heresy upon unmeriting and orthodox men.

† Unmeritingly, adv. Obs. [Un-[1] 11.] Undeservedly.

1621 Lady M. Wroth Urania 399 Bee sure you mistake him not, or vnmeritingly condemne him.

Unmeritorious, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

[1775 Ash.] 1855 Faber Growth in Holiness xiv. 233 There are a variety of unmeritorious occupations. 1862 Carlyle Frederk. Gt. xii. xiii. III. 374 You may buy them [sc. votes]..by preferments and appointments of the unmeritorious man.

So Unmeritoriously adv.

1840 De Quincey Essenes, Suppl. Note Wks. 1857 VII. 299 Josephus..most unmeritoriously found himself .. translated into the meridian sunshine of court favour.

Unmerry, a. (OE. unmyrge: see Un-[1] 7.)

a 1000 Gloss. in Wülcker 211 Colldisium, unmyrge plega. c 1250 Owl & Night. 346 Ne bee þe song ne so murie þat he ne sal þerinne sorwe. 1340 Hampole Pr. Conc. 1 Wille. c 1384 Chaucer H. Fame 74 There sleepeth ay this god [sc. Sleep] unmerie. c 1430 Syr Gener. (Roxb.) 9022 To Amanewel that was slaw Into the Cittie forto burie, For hin was Amalek vnmery. 1530 Palsgr. 285/2 Unmery, triste. 1582 T. Watson Centurie of Love lxxxv, Cares rowd with vowes the ship vnmery minde.

Unmesh, v. [Un-[2] 4 b.] trans. To undo the meshes of; to free from meshes.

c 1822 T. L. Beddoes Poems, Alfarabi 138 Hands of eternal stone, that would unmesh And fray this starry company of orbs. 1856 Ruskin Mod. Painti. III. iv. iv. § 16 They had gone back to their daily work, thinking still their business lay net-wards, unmeshed from the literal rope and drag. 1891 C. E. Norton Dante's Purgat. xxi. 136, I see the net which snares you here, and how it is unmeshed.

Unmesmerized, pl. a. (Un-[1] 8 a.c.) 1889 J. M. Robertson Christ & Krishna xii. 61 Sufficient to indicate to any student unmesmerised by religion that a nature myth underlies every case.

Unmet, ppl. a.[1] (Un-[1] 8 b: cf. Meet v.[1])

1603 B. Jonson Sejanus v. i, Winds lose their strength, when they do empty fly, Unmet of woods or buildings. 1641 Earl Monm. tr. Biondi's Civil Wars iv. 48 Had Warwick been of this opinion, succour had not come unmet withall. 1798 Monthly Mag. V. 367 Back to the desert-air Unmet shall he repair. 1818 Coleridge Import. Colonial Corn 108 Yet are his productions not unthreatened nor unmet by dangerous rivalship. 1868 Morris Earthly Par. I. iv. 662 While through this poor land range the heathen men, Unmet of any but my King.

† Unmet, ppl. a.[2] Obs.[1] (Un-[1] 8; cf. Meet v.[1]) Unmeasured. 1482 in Charters, etc. Edinb. (1871) 168 Of ilk laid vnmet i obl.

Unmetalled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1843 in T. J. Dyke Addr. Public Medicine (1885) 2 The unmetalled and unchannelled highways and streets. 1862 Patterson Ess. Hist. & Art 221 The continuation of this road .. is unmetalled. 1897 Trans. Roy. Hist. Soc. XI. 72 The balks seem to be..unmetalled roadways.

Unmetallic, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1757 tr. Hoeckel's Pyrites, (title-p.), Its Iron, Copper, Unmetallic Earth, Sulphur [etc.]. 1796 Kirwan Elem. Min. (ed. 2) I. 487 Metallic substances..held in solution by any unmetallic acid. 1841 Brande Man. Chem. 210 Heat is thrown off much more quickly from the unmetallic than from the metallic surface. 1864 Bowen Logic vi. 254 All infusible things are unmetallic.

Unmetallized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1796 Kirwan Elem. Min. (ed. 2) II. 90 Some unmetallic or unmetallized substance. 1805 Phil. Trans. XCV. 169 An unmetallized portion of that [ore].

Unmetamorphosed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1600 Tourneur Transf. Metam. xvi, If any rest unmetamorphosed. 1787 Generous Attachment IV. 35 Many .. affect for a time the rank of Captain, but I continue unmetamorphosed. 1849 Owen Parthenogenesis 39 Such unmetamorphosed germ-masses. 1880 Carpenter in Trans. Linn. Soc. XV. 214 Unmetamorphosed embryonic basals.

Unmetaphorical, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1767 Sterne Tr. Shandy ix. xiii, I am got into a cold unmetaphorical vein of infamous writing. 1831 Carlyle Sart. Res. i. xi, An unmetaphorical style you shall in vain seek for.

Unmetaphysic, a. [Un-[1] 7.] = next. 1789 H. Walpole Let. to Mrs. H. More 4 Nov., My head is as un-mechanic as it is..unmetaphysic, un-commercial.

Unmetaphysical, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1691 Norris Pract. Disc. 301 A notion of God so very natural, that even the Jews as gross and unmetaphysical as they were, could not but imbrace it. 1701 — Ideal World I. vi. 323 A blunt unmetaphysical Roman. 1825 Coleridge Aids Refl. 252 The unmetaphysical tribes of New Holland. 1871 Fraser Life Berkeley ii. 44 The book was too far in advance of an unmetaphysical generation to draw general attention.

Unmeted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) Unmeasured. 1838 Mrs. Browning Isobel's Child iii, Its mother's smile, Full of love's unmeted weight. 1883 C. Bronte Villette xii, Surely those near me must have felt some little of the anxiety I felt, in degree so unmeted.

† Unme·th, adv. [Cf. next, and unimeoð s.v. Un-[1] 3.] Immoderately, extremely.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 50 Vor ajein kunde hit is, & unmeð swuc [text, ullich, sel] wonder, þet te deade torite. c 1225 Juliana 4 Maximius þe modi keiser ..wiþ unmeð muchel hird & undubti duheðe.

† Unme·the, sb. Obs. [OE. unméþ (Un-[1] 12 + Meðe sb.).] Immoderation; excess; fault.

a 1100 in Assmann Agz. Hom. 162 þa discipulas..wæron on hoce mycelgeþwære swiðlice afyhte and gedreidde, swa hit nan unmeþ næs. a 1250 Owl & Night. 352 Eurich þing may lessen his godhede Mid vnmeþe and ouerdede. a 1300 Floriz & Bl. (Camb. MS.) 675 Min is þe gold and þe unmeþ, þat þu for mi schalt þolie deþ.

† Unme·the, a. Obs. [Cf. prec. and Meðhe a.] Unequal; unfair; ungentle.

c 1250 Owl & N. 1618 (Jesus MS.), Þarfore þe is wel unmeþe, For þhah þu ligge ded & clinge þi deþ nys nouht to none þinge. a 1300 Cursor M. 21815 þat calitif vn-meth and vn-meche Nu bigines he to seke. c 1325 Spec. Gy Warw. 615 Swich a fiht is vnmeþ, For ayein þe kinde hit geþ.

Unmethlish,-ship: see Un-[1] 3.

Unmetho·dical, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1601 Cornwallis Ess. ii. I. N n 7, They are unmethodicall, hardly to be caught by one forme, any in truth wil do it. c 1740 W. Gibson Diet Horses xi. (1751) 155 The .. Instructions..are so obscure and un-methodical, that it is not an easy matter to follow them. 1862 Lytton Str. Story II. 62 When I saw her ..smoothing his papers (in which he was apt to be unmethodical). 1869 Rogers Smith's Wealth N. I. Pref. p. xxiv, The resources and defects of vast but unmethodical learning. 1872 Liddon Elem. Relig. i. 28 Its form is of necessity unmethodical: it is, if you will, anti-scholastic.

So Unmetho·dically adv.

1632 Massinger & Field Fatal Dowry iv. 1, What fouler object in the world, then to see..a hopefull Cheualier vnmethodically appointed in the external ornaments of nature?

Unmethodized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1. Not reduced to method.

a 1677 J. Harrington Gronnad & Reasons Wks. (1700) 12 Tho the Understandings of most men seem to agree in soon general maxims, but unpolish'd, unnumber'd and unmethodiz'd. 1734 Hervey Mem. Geo. II (1848) I. 400 The loose, unmethodized, and often incoherent manner, in which it is put together. 1834 Sir H. Taylor Artevelde ii. v. ii, What is earth? A huge congestion of unmethodised matter.

2. Not become Methodist.

1752 Lavington Enthus. Meth. & Papists III. (1754) 236 Hence they justly contemn..all the Unmethodized, as of a mean and reprobate Way.

Unmethodizing, vbl. sb. (Un-[2] 6 c, 8.) 1828 Coleridge in Encycl. Metrop. (1845) I. Introd. 4 To the utter confusion and unmethodizing of the science of the human mind.

Unmetrical, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1791 Boswell Johnson Dec. 1784, Discoursing vehemently on the unmetrical effect of such a lapse. 1856 Masson Ess. Biog. & Crit. 412 The art of producing, by means of articulate language, metrical or unmetrical, a fictitious concrete. 1885 Athenæum 1 Jan. 14/2 A kind of unmetrical narrative so poetic in motive..as [etc.].

Unmew·, v. (Un-[2] 5; cf. Mew v.[2]) 1818 Keats Endym. I. 132 Let a portion of ethereal dew Fall on my head, and presently unmoulder Legion. 1821 Hazlitt Procus. a. (Un-[2] 7) 1833-4 Encycl. Metrop. (1845) VI. 758/1 A felspathic quartzose rock, of rather dubious character, which may be called..unmicaceous granite. Unmi·dwifed, a. (Un-[1] 9) 1747 Gentl. Mag. 242 Her tuberous store, To these, parturient Earth unmidwifed yields.

† Unmi·ght. Obs. [OE. unmiht, -meht (Un-[1] 12), = WFris. on-, ünmacht, MDu. (Du.) onmacht, MLG. unmacht (LG. unmagt), OHG. (MHG.) unmaht (G. unmacht), Goth. unmaht-s; cf. also ON. ómátir, MDa. unmad.] Want of might or strength; weakness, feebleness.

c 897 K. Ælfred Gregory's Past. C. xxxii. 208 Þonne hie ongietaþ hiera unbeldo & hiera unmihte, hie weorðaþ oft ormode. 1250 Lay. Vespas. 129 For þan, cunel þo done nis non strenehe, ac is unmihte. a 1290 Becket 1408 in S. Eng. Leg. I. 146 For mine sunnes and for mine onmiste, þat I ne may hire wardi nouȝt. c 1330 R. Brunne Chron. Wace (Rolls) 15564 An heuinesse, a gret vnmight, On Cadwalyn gan to lepe. c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xxxii. (Justin) 205 þe vnmycht of my compere, þat to spede had na powere. c 1400 Pilgr. Sowle (Caxton, 1483) v. xiv. 208 In him is feblesse and grete vnmyght. 1429 Rolls of Parlt. IV. 343 Grete myght on that o syde, and unmyght on that other.

† Unmi·ghtful, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7.] a. Unable. b. Impossible. 1340-70 Alex. & Dind. 762 ȝei beȝ vn-mihtful yn-mad, men for to wisse. c 1460 Towneley Myst. x. 141 No word, lady, that I the bryng, Is vnmyghtfull to heuen kyng.

† Unmi·ght(i)ly, adv. Obs.–[o] [Un-[1] 11.] Weakly, ineffectually. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 366/1 (Winn.) [Which. MS. on-myhtylȝ], impotenter. † Unmi·ghtiness. Obs.–[1] [Un-[1] 12.] Impotence. 14.. in Anglia VIII. 124 Dredynge leste þat houge wonderynge of meruelles shulde ..arrecte goddes dedys to vnmyghtynes.

Unmi·ghty, a. Now arch. [OE. unmihtig (Un-[1] 7), = OFris. un-, onmochtich, WFris. on-, ünmachtig, MDu. onmachtich (Du. -tig), MLG. unmechtich, OHG. unmahtig, -lih (MHG. unmehtec, -ic, G. unmächtich), Goth. unmahteig-s: cf. also ON. ómáttig-r, MDa. umægtug, early mod. Da. umægtig.] Devoid of might or strength; weak, feeble, powerless, impotent.

c 888 K. Ælfred Boeth. xxix. § 1 Ælc ȝescendwis man mæg witan þæt hi bioð full earme & ful unmihtige. c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 35 He bicom unmihti & wreche & unhol. a 1310 in Wright Lyric P. iv. 22 Middel-ed for mon wes mad, un-mihti aren is meste mede. c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. iv. pr. ii. (1868) 114 Nedes goode folk seoten ben mysys, and shrewes feble and vnmyȝty. 1402 Y. Upland (Skeat) § 63 He conde not make his rule so good as an-other did his, (..and so were he unmighty and not good). c 1450 tr. De Imitatione ii. viii. 49 Wban þe grace of god ..ȝiȝ away, þan shal he be poure & unmiȝty. 1483 Caxton Gold. Leg. C ij b, He was..so feble and so unmyghty that hysdysciples susteynyd..hym in goyng to chirche. 1545 Raynald Byrth Mankynde 79 Yf the matrycye be vnmightye and weakened. 1611 Florio, Impoderoso, vnmightie, vnpowerfull. 1876 Morris Sigurd ii. 97 Myself a little fragment amidst it all I saw,..unmighty as the tempest-driven straw.

absol. c 1400 Apol. Loll. 90 It is wrongfull to hem to visit þe sek, to pray for þe vnmiȝti. 1549 Allen Jude's Par. Rev. 33 Both masters and seruauntes,..hyghe and lowe, mygthie and vnmyghtie. 1587 Golding De Mornay Ep. Ded., The welbeloued Sonne of God..must stande for all:.. the mightie for the vnmightie.

b. Const. to, usually with inf.

c 1000 Ælfric Saints' Lives x. 257 Hwi come þu mid weapnum..to anum mæðene unmiltigum to wiȝe. a 1240 Sawles Warde in O. E. Hom. I. 257 Nu is riht þenne þat we demen us seolf eauer unmihte to werien ant to witen us ..wiþ ute godes helpe. a 1300 Cursor M. 6706 Qua smites vte his thuins eie, And mus him vn-mightf for-to sele. a 1340 Hampole Psalter cvi. 12 þai were vnmyghty to stande agayn vicys. 1390 Gower Conf. II. 177 Thei without loves chiere Unmyhti ben to se or hiere. 1422 Yong tr. Secreta Secret. 235 Who-so hath the pass litill and swyfte, he is suspecious, of euyl will, on-myghty to werkys.

† Unmi·ld, a. Obs. [OE. unmilde (Un-[1] 7), = MDu. onmilde (obs. Du. onmild), OHG. unmilti (MHG. unmilte, unmilde, G. unmild), ON. ómild-r (MSw. omilder, Sw. omild, MDa., Da., and Norw. umild), Goth. unmild-s unkind.]

1. Not mild or gentle; harsh, rough, unkind.

c 900 tr. Bæda's Hist. ii. ii. (1890) 100 Siþ he þonne is unmilde & oferhygdig, þonne is þæt cuð þæt he nis of Gode. c 1200 Ormin 9880 Heþenn ilk & heþenn folkess herrte Iss harrd & starcc all alise stany. Unnwoccse & all unmilde. a 1250 Owl & Night. 67 Ich wot þat þu art unmilde Wiþ hom þat ne muse from þe schilde. a 1290 Becket 1460 in S. Eng. Leg. I. 148 Ovt of Engelonde he let heom driue:.. muche was he on-milde! a 1340 Hampole Prick of Luve vi. 6 Synful men þat ere sharpe and vnmyld and contrary. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xii. x. (Bodl. MS.), þe crowe..is a langelingge brid vnmylde [L. impia], and greteuys to men. 1412-20 Lydg. Chron. Troy 1.28 Bolys ful vnmylde, wiþ brasen feet, ramegous and wylde. 1482 Monk of Evesham (l. Arb.) 100 Sche was only to her cosynis rygthe gastful and on myldc. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 113 b, Eschewe the occasyons of testynes or hastynes, and other vnmylde behauour. 1558 Phaer Æneid iv. K iij, Some Tigres thee did nurse, and gave to thee their milke unmild. 1611 Florio, Inmite, vnmilde, cruel.

2. Harsh of taste.

1566 Drant Horace, Sat. III. G j, Eatinge most bitter rootes and leaves, unmilde unto the taste.

Hence † Unmi·ldness. Obs.

1570 Drant Two Serm. I viij, Mildnes to some is oft tymes vnmildnes and cruelitie to many other. 1611 Florio, Inmitezza, vnmildnesse, cruelty. 1644 Milton Discorce (ed. 2) ii. vii. 46 The unmildnesse of Evangelick grace shall turn servant to declare the grace and mildnesse of the rigorous Law.

Unmildewed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] a 1814 A. Becket Genii i. in New Brit. Theatre I. 518 Kind Power, Still give the gold rod of our fields Unmildew'd. Unmi·litarily, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) a 1856 in Strang Glasgow & Clyde 285 A prisoner, who most unmilitarily occupied the front of the saddle.

Unmi·litary, a. [Un-[1] 7.]

1. Not in accordance with military practice or conforming to military standards.

1777 W. Dalrymple Trav. Sp. & Port. cxliii, The king has a large .. army, which had better be reduced, than continue in its present unmilitary state. 1806 Ann. Rev. IV. 246 Defence—the very word is unmilitary. 1826 Scott Woodst. xii, We must not hazard the whole troops in one sortie—that were unmilitary. 1862 Gen. P. Thompson Audit Ala. Part. III. clxxiv. 206 It is simply unmilitary babble, that would talk of the difficulty of doing what is wanted, when once the military superiority is decided.

2. Not belonging to, or connected with, the military profession.

1802–12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) V. 663 Suppose two persons in office, military and unmilitary. 1883 American I. 233 [This] may be objected to in unmilitary quarters.

Unmi·lked, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)
1548 HEXHAM II, Ongemolchen, Vnmilked. 1725 POPE Odyss. IX. 318 The ewes..with distended thighs Vnmilked lay bleating. 1891 Hardy Tess XXIV, Five unmilked cows chanced to stand apart from the general herd.

Unmi·lled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)
1555 Richmond. Wills (Surtees) 86 Item ij webbe unmilled...Item xiiij peces of clothd. c 1600 Transcript W. Riding Sessions Rolls (1888) 160 Item pecias panni lanei.. vocat. vnmylned Karsey. 1726 LEAKE Hist. Acc. Eng. Money 121 A Cutter,..which some have call'd the Unmill'd Guinea. 1783 COOK First Voy. III. xiv. III. 766 There are two kinds of coin here, of the same denomination, milled and unmilled.

†Unmi·nd, a. Obs.—1 (UN-1 7.) Unmindful. a 1300 Cursor M. 1572 Pai left be lede of par lau, Pat es, o settnes and o kind Wit-out mensk pal air (Gött. were] vn-mind.

Unmi·nd, v. (UN-1 3.) trans. To reverse the views of. 1859 J. TAYLOR Logic in Theol. 239 The attempt to unmind the Christian world at that time was impracticable.

Unmi·nded, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)
†1. Unmentioned; not borne in mind. Obs.
a 1513 FABYAN Chron. I. xxii. 17 This also is vnmynded of wryters..for rudenesse of his dedes, that clerkes lyst nat to spende any tyme in wrytynge of suche dedes. 1590 SPENSER Muiopot. Ep. Ded., Which taketh glory..to spend it selfe in honoring you: not so much for your great bounty to my self, which yet may not be vnminded;..as for [etc.].
2. Unheeded, unregarded.
1562 J. HEYWOOD Prov. & Epig. (1867) 17 Vnminded, vnmoned, go make your mone. 1596 SHAKS. 1 Hen. IV, IV. iii. 59 When he was..A poore vnminded Out-law, sneaking home. a 1625 BEAUM. & FL. Loyal Subject V. i, Where was your gratitude, who in your Coffers Hoarded the rustic treasure which was due To my vnminded Father? 1669 MILTON P. L. X. 312 Hee, after Eve seduc't, vnminded slink into the Wood fast by. 1722 Brit. Apollo No. 61. 3/2 Sable Night unminded past away. 1846 LANDOR Imag. Conv. Wks. I. 390/1 Even grandmothers ere now have been unminded by their own grandchildren.
b. Left unnoticed, overlooked.
1698 Christ Exalted § 99 It is not to be unminded how the Rebuker slides off the three first Conditions.

Unmi·ndful, a. (UN-1 7.) Not mindful; careless, heedless: a. Const. of.
1382 WYCLIF Ecclus. xxxvii. 6 Be thou not vnmyndeful of hym in thi werkis. 1500–20 DUNBAR Poems xiii. 47 Religious men..ar vnmyndifull of thair professioun. 1555 EDEN Decades (Arb.) 56 Owre predicesoures were not vtterlye vnmyndefull of these benefites. 1631 GOUGE God's Arrows II. Ep. Ded., Can I then be unmindfull of her? 1663 BP. PATRICK Parab. Pilgr. xxx. When you find them so unmindful of themselves. 1706 E. WARD Wooden World Diss. (1708) 16 One so sollicitous about other Men's Healths, cannot be unmindful of his own. 1760–2 GOLDSM. Cit. W. liv. Every person was willing to save himself, unmindful of others. 1821 SHELLEY Epipsych. 302 At her silver voice came Death and Life, Unmindful each of their accustomed strife. 1874 J. BALDW. BROWN Higher Life p. viii, Unmindful of the large blessing which intellectual culture and political activity bring in their train.
b. With inf. or clause.
1615 SIR W. MURE Misc. Poems xiv. 10 Helping wp treassour wnmyndfull quho lett it. 1652 GAULE Magastrom. 323 He caused Cassius Longinus, to be slain; unmindfull that Chærea (the man that did the deed) was so called. 1697 DRYDEN Virg. Past. VIII. 125 She seeks the weedy Pools,..Careless of Night, unmindful to return. a 1750 A. HILL Picture of Love 173 Unmindful, that of old they veil'd his face.
c. Attrib. or without const. rare.
1594 SHAKS. Rich. III, IV. iv. 446 Dull vnmindfull Villaine, Why stay'st thou here? 1598 FLORIO, Smemorato,..a forgetfull, oblivious, or vnmindfull man. 1608 BEAUM. & FL., Four Plays in One Wks. 1912 X. 359 Hear me,..And take my wrongs into thy hands, thou justice Done by unmindful man, unmercifull. 1796 SCOTT Wild Huntsman xxxix, His courser rooted to the ground, The quickening spur unmindful beats.

Hence Unmi·ndfulness.
Also unmindfully adv. (1755 Scott, and later Dicts.).
1567 ALLEN Def. Priesthood Pref., Loue of sinne,..and vnmyndfulnes of saluation. 1631 MABBE Celestina xii. 132 Of my much mindfulnesse for this nigins meeting, and your much unmindfulnesse and extreme carelessesse. a 1680 CHARNOCK Attrib. God (1834) I. 307 Why should we forget it? yea, what a shame is our unmindfulness of it.

†Unmi·nding, ppl. a. Obs. [UN-1 13.] The action of forgetting or disregarding.
1382 WYCLIF Wisd. xiv. 26 And alle thingus ben mengd togidere,..the vnmyndinge [L. immemoratio] of the goodes of the Lord,..the vnordeynyng of leccherie and of vncleennesse. 1602–9 A. MUNDAY tr. Palmerin of Eng. I. (1639) A 5 b, Pleasant passages through the grassy groves, would be an occasion of the vnminding her former fits. a 1684 LEIGHTON Comm. 1 Pet. v. 8 The fumes..cast us into a deep sleep; a secure unminding of God and of ourselves.

Unmi·ned, ppl. a. (UN-1 8) a 1849 POE Conversing Wks. 1865 III. 404 The reader will suffer the most valuable ore to remain unmined to all eternity, before [etc.]. 1895 Chambers's Jrnl. XII. 629/1 The coal in the country still unmined. Unmi·neralized, ppl. a. (UN-1 8) 1843 Penny Cycl. XXVII. 212/1 The mineralized hot springs and the unmineralized. Unmi·ngled, a. (UN-1 7 b.) 1661 BOYLE Scept. Chem. IV. 231 The Property of Oyle..of being unmingleable with the Water. Ibid. 257 Divers and unmingled oyles.

Unmi·ngle, v. (UN-2 3, 7.)
1594 T. B. La Primaud. Fr. Acad. II. 155 This faculte of the fantasie changeth and rechangeth, mingleth and vnmingleth, so that it cutteth asunder and seweth vp againe as it listeth. 1626 BACON Sylva § 14 It will unmingle the Wine from the Water; the Wine ascending and .. the Water descending. 1646 GATAKER Mistake Removed 39 To unmingle things that Antichrist hath confounded and put together.

Unmi·ngled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)
1548 ELYOT, Inpromiscuus, vnmyngled, not confuse. 1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades IV. i. 559/2 The doctrine of Faith.. ought to bee retained vnmingled, and vncorrupte in the Church. 1626 BACON Sylva § 396 Springs on the Tops of High-Hills..are most pure, and vnmingled. 1665 BOYLE Refl. v. vii, Two or three unmingled Liveries, whose single Colours are bright. 1725 POPE Odyss. IX. 238 Vessels of unmingled wine. 1746 HERVEY Medit. (1748) 38 Where Imagination dreams of unmingled Sweets. 1828 SCOTT Hrt. Midl. xix, She looked up with anxious surprise, not unmingled with a cast of horror. 1875 JOWETT Plato (ed. 2) III. 252 He to whom is given the cup of unmingled ill.

Unmingleable, a. (UN-1 10.) 1643 [see UNMATCHABLE a. 2]. 1855 MILMAN Lat. Chr. XIV. iii, VI. 463 Into this separate immaterial and unmingling world.

Unmi·nished, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)
1533 MORE Answ. Poysoned Bk. Wks. 1096/1 By hys ascendynge vp vytch hys body hole and vnminished. 1583 GOLDING Calvin on Deut. XXXVII. 215 That he must be so obeyed, as his whole right be reserued to him vnminished. 1848 PUSEY Parach. Serm. (1852) I. 121 One Everlasting, Unminished, Unchanging Joy. 1854 S. DOBELL Balder XXIII. 102 He walks, Hale and unminished, to and fro. 1870 SWINBURNE Ess. & Stud. (1875) 142 For him the sleepless wellsprings of Cephisus are yet unminished and unfrozen.

Unminister, v. (UN-2 6 b.)
1636 PRYNNE Unhith. Tim. (1661) 80 They..Un-church most Protestant Churches in forein parts, and Un-minister their Ministers. 1676 ROW Contin. Blair's Autobiog. IX. (1848) 138 They did not unminister him, and therefore did not quarrel his preaching or praying in public.

Unmi·nistered, ppl. a. and a. (UN-1 8, 9.)
1. Not administered (to a person).
1532 MORE Confut. Tindale Wks. 377/1 It were as good to leaue the sacramentes vnministred vnto him as ministred. 1545 COVERDALE Def. Chr. Man Wks. (Parker Soc.) II. 473 Therefore must so great a sacrament in no wise be left unministered.
2. Destitute of a minister.
1657 W. FENNER and Pt. Christ's Alarm 97 Any Parish that is unchurched and unministred.

Unministe·rial, ppl. a. (UN-1 7.)
1727 POPE, etc. Art of Sinking 118 Used in the praise and dispraise of ministerial and unministerial persons. 1735 HERVEY Mem. Geo. II (1848) I. 492 One of the most impolitic unministerial acts I ever knew him guilty of. 1816 COLERIDGE Lett. (1895) 650 The plain, unministerial.. spirit of your writings. 1863 EDITH J. MAY Stronges of Nethertronge 115 The perplexed minister recollected his office in time to repress a very unministerial reply.

Unmi·nted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8. Cf. DR. unmynted.)
1612 SPEED Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. xxiv. 164 [She] caused the value of forte thousand Angels in Bullion, vnminted,..to be sent. 1636 PAGITT Christianogr. (ed. 2) II. 40 The Treasury of merits was unminted. 1739 G. OGLE Gualthernus & Griselda 89 Virtue, in low, is an unminted Mine. 1845 PETRIE Round Towers Ired. 215 The precious metals were used as a circulating medium in large unminted pieces. 1881 DUFFIELD Don Quixote II. 402 To rail on the lightness of women,..their unminted promises.

Unmi·nted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1778 [W. H. MARSHALL] Minutes Agric., Observ. 136 From the above Minutes, as well as from repeated, unminuted Observations, I am clearly of opinion [etc.]. 1824 BENTHAM Bk. Fallacies Wks. III. 160 From speechless—soundless and unminuted speeches. Unmi·racled, ppl. a. (UN-2 6 b.) 1609 F. GREVIL Mustapha IV. iv, That our great lord may see Vnmiracled his owne humanitie.

Unmiraculous, a. (UN-1 7.)
1746 YOUNG Nt. Th. IX. 1262 Miracles..can not more amaze the mind, Than this, call'd unmiraculous survey. 1858 CARLYLE Fredk. Gt. IX. viii. 11. 476 The phantom becomes reasonably unmiraculous again. 1882 SELBY Nat. Religy 251 The unmiraculous part of the Christian tradition.

Unmi·red, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) c 1586 CT'ESS PEMBROKE Ps. LXIX. vi, Gratious God,..Keepe me safe unsunck, unmyred, Safe from flowing foes retyred. Unmirthful, a. (UN-1 7.) 1819 JANE AUSTEN Emma XVI, Difficulties.. enough to occupy her in most unmirthful reflections. 1835 LYTTON Rienzi I. iv, None saw that the unmirthful flash [of wit] was the token of the coming storm. Unmirthfully, adv. (UN-1 11.) 1894 WILKINS & VVIAN Green Bay Tree VII, 'Oh! come now,' exclaimed Coryton, laughing unmirthfully. Unmi·ry, a. (UN-1 7.) 1716 GAY Trivia III. 287 There may'st thou pass with safe unmiry feet, Where the rais'd pavement leads athwart the street. Unmiscarrying, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1657 TRAPP Comm. Ps. CXX. 1 The unmiscarrying return of prayer should bee carefully observed. Unmi·schievous, a. (UN-1 7.) 1821 LAMB Elia I. Quakers' Meeting, Noting-philosophy, nought-caballing, unmischievous sport. 1848 R. W. HAMILTON Sabbath V. 170 Though overtrading is a solecism, not unmischievous is the unrequired extension of stock. Unmi·scible, a. (UN-1 7.) [1775 ASH.] 1883 R. HALDANE Workshop Receipts Ser. II. 441/3 Oil and water are unmiscible.

Unmisgi·ving, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)
1693 HOWE Carnality Relig. Contention Wks. 1724 II. 211 An high and unmisgiving Confidence, and expectation to be saved. 1832 L. HUNT Poems Pref. p. xi, A small and unambitious, yet unmisgiving and happy production. 1863 COWDEN CLARKE Shakes. Char. I. 6 He has an unmisgiving confidence in his own powers. 1867 LEWES Hist. Philos. (ed. 3) II. 24 Discussing, with ardour and unmisgiving ingenuity, topics..necessarily beyond all possible demonstration.

Unmisgi·vingly, adv. (UN-1 11; cf. prec.) 1842 MRS. BROWNING Bk. Poets IV. § 6 As it is a fault in the Greek lyrist to leave his buoyancy..too unmisgivingly and entirely for the right reverence of Unity in Beauty. 1861 EARLE Gloue. Fragm. 40 Much in the same way as..one..is unhesitatingly and unmisgivingly pronounced 'a saint in glory'. Unmisguided, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1830 W. TAYLOR Hist. Surv. Germ. Poetry I. 91 Unmisguided by ecclesiastic missionaries and monastic institutions. Unministerpretable, a. (UN-1 9.) a 1631 DONNE Serm. 589 This usefull and unministerpretable Confession which we speak of.

Unmi·ssed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) a 1400 Relig. Pieces fr. Thornton MS. (1914) 105/255 Thay menskede the with manhede, with myrth Thy alles ..Perish, unaided and unmiss'd by thee. 1819 SCOTT Ivanhoe VI, Of comfort there was little, and, being unknown, it was unmissed. 1835 Court Mag. VI. 59/1 He's only fit for the dunghill, where he would not among other refuse, unmissed.

Unmi·ssionized, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1860 TYLOR Anahuac xii. 325 Various tribes of Red Men in Hudson's Bay Territory, as yet unmissionized. Unmi·st, v. (UN-2 4.) 1611 FLORIO, Distnebbiare, to vnmist, to vnfog. 1653 G. R. tr. Le Grand's Man without Passion 21 They are not very far distant from the Truth, and by a little light brought in to unmist them, they may easily pass for Articles of our Faith.

Unmista·kable, a. (UN-1 8.)
In common use from c 1835.
1666 TILLOTSON Rule of Faith I. iii. § 9. 31 Unmistakeable, indefectible Oral Tradition. a 1834 COLERIDGE Biogr. Lit. (1847) I. 305 In Nature..there are unmistakeable foretokens of Evil. 1840 HOOD Up Rhine 242 The unmistakeable Roman features of the Centurion. 1860 TYNDALL Glac. 390 The veins..cutting each other at an unmistakeable angle.

Hence Unmista·kableness.
1866 GROSART in Lismore Papers Introd. 13 The frankness and unmistakableness with which facts are given.

Unmista·kably, adv. (UN-1 11; cf. prec.) 1854 tr. Hettner's Italian Literature 51 Architectural fragments, unmistakably of very ancient origin. 1894 SALA London up to date xxiii. 347 A cleanly-shaven fellow with..an unmistakably horsey look about the eyes and lips.

Unmista·ken, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 b.) 1768–74 TUCKER Lt. Nat. II. 523 That obedience which is..the genuine product of an unmistaken sanctity. Unmista·kingly, adv. (UN-1 11.) 1870 ROCK Textile Fabrics p. xxx, The affection shown by..all our nobility..for cloth of gold in their garments, was unmistakingly set forth in so many of their liberalnesses. Unmi·stressed, a. (UN-1 9.) 1867 Chamb. Jrnl. xl Dec. 801 The unmistressed labourresses [sc. servants] sat in a smaller room. Unmistrusted, a. (UN-1 8.) 1600 TOURNEUR Transf. Metam. XXV, World's trustless trust, soule's unmistrusted fall. 1621 LADY M. WROTH Urania 393 In stead of love, to giue me frownes;..and all vnlook'd for, or, vnmistrusted; it wounds my very soule. Unmistrustful, a. (UN-1 7.) 1768–74 TUCKER Lt. Nat. II. 605 A prospect of futurity and unmistrustful hope in the divine goodness.

Unmistru·sting, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)
c 1598 DELONEY Thomas of Reading XIV, The vnmistrusting man thinking no euill, went to the doore. 1766 STERNE Tr. Shandy VI. xxix, An unmistrusting ignorance of the plies.. of the heart of woman. 1787 BURNS Highland Tour Aug. (Friday), Kind openheartedness, mixed with unmistrusting simplicity.

†Unmithe: see UN-1 3.

Unmi·tigable, a. (UN-1 7 b.)
1610 SHAKS. Temp. I. ii. 276 Her most vnmitigable rage. 1628 EP. HALL Serm. bef. Chas. I, 100 The desperate man,..pierceth his owne heart with a deepe, irremediable, vnmitigable, killing sorrow. 1646 — Devout Sould xii. 42 The unpitiable, interminable, unmitigable tortures of those..neverdying souls. 1805 FOSTER Ess. (1806) I. 174 The great Cause..assumed in his administration an unmitigable urgency. 1862 LYTTON Str. Story I. 178 A remembrance of unrelaxed, unmitigable indignation.

Unmitigably, adv. (UN-1 11.) 1868 BROWNING Ring & Bk. IV. 768 Practising,..Unmitigably from the very first, The finer vengeance.

Unmi·tigated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)
1. Not softened in respect of severity or intensity.
1599 SHAKS. Much Ado IV. i. 308 With publike accusation, ..vnmitigated rancour. 1814 J. AUSTEN Mansfield Park IX, The unmitigated glare of day. 1823 L. RITCHIE Wand. by Loire 26 [It] is not an unmitigated evil. 1866 KANE Arct. Expl. I. XXV. 328 [He] fell sick with the unmitigated fatigue. 1873 SYMONDS Gk. Poets V. 129 Supreme art lends solemnity and grandeur to the expression of unmitigated passion.
2. Not modified or toned down; absolute.
1840 MILL Diss. & Disc. (1859) I. 428 Still more unmitigated savages, the wild Indians. 1849 C. BRONTE Shirley VII, Caroline 'was glad to see them' (an unmitigated lie). 1860 All Year Round No. 72. 512 In very plain speech, I look on him as an unmitigated humbug. 1871 L. STEPHEN Playgr. Lnr. IV. 311 A slope of hard, blue, unmitigated ice.

Hence Unmi·tigatedly adv.
1851 in C. Martyn W. Phillips (1890) 242 Of all the institutions of slavery on the face of the earth, there are none so unmitigatedly bad..as [that]..in the United States. 1865 Ch. Times 11 Mar. 76/3 The unmitigatedly gloomy manner in which funerals are now conducted. 1884 Manch. Exam. 27 Dec. 3/2 Nor is it unmitigatedly depressing, though far from cheerful.

Unmi·tre, v. (UN-2 4.) 1598 FLORIO, Dimitriare, to vnmitre. 1644 MILTON Areop. (Arb.) 67 The unmitring of a Bishop. 1675 PENN Eng. Pres. Interest 35 [He] hop't.. to inculcate that Doctrine which should un-Mitre the Pope.

Unmi·tred, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)
1688 R. HOLME Armory IV. xi. (Roxb.) 442/2 The Metropolitan..standing vnmittered..saith (the other Bishops standing vnmittered) this prayer. 1848 LYTTON Harold II. ii, Nor misdeem me, that I, humble, unmitred priest, should be thus bold. 1856 MASSON Ess. Biog. & Crit. 43 Such an archbishop, mitred or unmitred, as England has never seen.

Unmi·ttened, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1853 KANE Grinnell Exp. XXXVI. (1856) 325 [It] gave..a warm impression to the unmittened hand.

Unmi·x, v. (UN-2 3.)
1558 WARDE tr. Alexis' Secr. 7 After you haue wel vn-mixed, and purged it from the saied Honnie wyth hote water. 1651 COTTERELL tr. Calprenède's Cassandra II. i. (1676) 120 The eye of the mind lost itself in the care of unmixing them. a 1693 Urquhart's Rabelais III. lii. 421 How would you unmix them?

Unmixable, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

1759 SARAH FIELDING C'tess of Dellwyn II. 142 Two things so very unmixable in their Natures as Truth and Falsehood. 1844 W. H. MILL Serm. Tempt. Christ Notes 161 Therefore things in themselves unmixable are mingled.

Hence Unmixableness.

1881 WHITNEY Mixt. Lang. 7 The unmixableness of grammar.

Unmixed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 280 b, Myne odour..is as the pure balme vnmixt. 1573 TUSSER Husb. (1878) 111 Yet may a good huswife..haue mixt and vnmixt at hir pleasure. 1607 TOPSELL Four-f. Beasts 292 The Sarmatican kinde of horses is..very fit for running, vnmixt, hauing a wel set body. 1667 MILTON P. L. VI. 742 Thy Saints unmixt, and from th' impure Farr separate. 1709 PRIOR Henry & Emma 172 Great Heav'n, bestow Our Cup of Love unmix'd. 1753 HANWAY Trav. I. iii. 134 If mankind cannot think so abstractedly as a pure effort of unmixed reason implies. 1805 R. W. DICKSON Pract. Agric. II. 1124 The Lowland or Fifeshire breed of cattle is rarely met with in an unmixed state. 1889 S. WALPOLE Life Ld. S. Russell II. 26 Lord John could not derive unmixed comfort from [such] a victory.

b. Combs. with or † from.

1602 SHAKS. Ham. I. v. 104 Thy Commandment all alone shall liue Within the Book and Volume of my Braine, Vnmixt with baser matter. 1660 SHARROCK Vegetables 29 There grew..wild Oates unmixed with other weeds. 1795 POPE Odyss. IV. 767 Joys ever-young, unmix'd with pain or fear. 1816 BYRON Prisoner Chillon 185 But these were horrors—this was woe Unmix'd with such. 1861 PALEY Æschylus (ed. 2) Suppliices 1054 note, The better part, though not unmixed with evil.

Hence Unmixedness.

1612 T. WILSON Chr. Dict., Purtite sig(nificth) Vnmixedness with sinne. 1681 DODWELL Sanchoniathon's Phœnix. Hist 8 By The particular colours they prayed, above Others,..and their unmixedness with the Prophane Vulgar.

Unmixedly, adv. (UN-1 11: cf. prec.)

1642 W. PRICE Serm. 1 Our meaning is not that they are unmixtly such, we onely denominate them from their chiefe scope. 1662 INGELO Bentho. & Urr. (ed. 4) I. ii. 60 Since nothing is unmixedly pure in this world. 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa (1811) V. ii. 12 How pleasing..to look back upon the happy days I gave her; though mine would doubtless have been more unmixedly so! 1833 Q. Rev. XLIX. 375 There is nothing..so unmixedly pathetic. 1867 M. ARNOLD Celtic Lit. 89 The genius and the literature were purely and unmixedly German.

Unmoan, v. (UN-1 14.) 1790 J. WILLIAMS Shrove Tuesday, etc. 32 They..pierc'd him as he flew: The Gods unmoan'd him as he bled—Hell yawning gulp'd its due.

Unmoaned, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1562 [see UNMINDED 3]. 1594 SHAKS. Rich. III, II. ii. 64 Our fatherless distresse was left unmoan'd. 1622 WITHER Philarete M 4 Yet t..must perish nay-theless,..Vnmoaned I must dye.

† Unmoar, obs. var. UNMOOR v.

1750 BLANCKLEY Nav. Expositor s.v., When a Ship or Vessel that Rides at two Ankers begins to get them up in order to Sail, she is Unmoaring.

† Unmoble, a. and sb. [UN-1 7 (5 b), 12. Cf. MDu. onmeubel, -moebel, etc.] = UNMOVABLE.

1377 LANGL. P. Pl. B. iii. 267 Moebles and vnmoebles [v.r. vnmebles], and al bat pow myste fynde. c 1380 WYCLIF Wks. (1880) 32 Sif bei conuertiden..be bonnis, bat ben goodis vnmeble of here neiȝeboris, as londis or rentis. 1429 Wills & Inv. N. C. (Surtees) 80 All remenant and residewe of my goods moble and vnmoble. 1466 SIR G. HAYE Law Arms (S.T.S.) 146 Gif a man takis tane possession of any guid moble or unmoble. 1594 CAREW Tasso (1881) 120 If you also prisonnent refuse, And fetters fly, as weight vnmoble fro.

† Unmo·bility. Obs.—1 [UN-1 12.] = UNMOVABLITY. a 1700 Peaslee Ex. (Powell) Heb. vi. 17 In whiche thyng god wiiande to schewe..be vnmoebilite of his counseil.

Unmo·cked, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1648 HEXHAM I, Onbegeckt, Vnmocked, or not Flouted. 1817 MOORE Lalla R., Fire-Worshippers II. 251 Here we may bleed, unmock'd by hymns Of Moslem triumph. 1902 Westm. Gaz. 2 Apr., 2/2 You'll hear a voice..Aspire a moment, pause, and die—Unmocked of Echo.

Unmo·ckingly, adv. (UN-1 11.) 1872 TENNYSON Garth & Lynette 286 Unmocking the moon-ridden knight Turn'd to the right. Unmo·delled, ppl. a. (UN-1 11.) 1875 RUSKIN Fors Clav. xlix. V. 4 Not in my model colony only, but as best it can be managed in any unmodelled place or way. 1895 Westm. Gaz. 6 Dec. 3/2 The unmodelled homes of the poor.

† Unmo·derate, a. Obs. [UN-1 7, 5 b.] Immoderate.

1398 TREVISA Barth. De P. R. xi. ii (Bodl. MS.), Sif be wiinde is contrarie and vnmoderat, panne he bringep peril. Ibid. xiii. xxvi. Vnmoderat heete geeip feyntes. 1539 ELYOT Cast. Helthe 64 If the fluxe be vnmoderate, it engenderth mysschevous diseases. 1584 FENNER Def. Ministers (1587) 50 Vnlesse he thinke the..persons..were so vnlearned, vnmoderate, and vngodlie. 1617 MINSHEU, Un-moderate,.. immoderate.

† Unmo·derately, adv. Obs. (UN-1 11, 5 b.) 1548 PAYNELL Salerno's Regim. V iv, Wyne vnmoderately taken..feblech the eies and syght. 1548 ELYOT tr. Cibus, To eate vnmoderately. 1647 HEXHAM I, Vnmoderately, onmatelick.

Unmoderly, obs. Sc. f. UNMOTHERLY adv.

Unmo·dern, a. (UN-1 7.)

1787 MRS. GRIFFITH Lett. Henry & Frances (1767) III. 126 Like an unmodern Celtic, let me first commend, before I find Fault. 1876 N. Amer. Rev. CXXIII. 182 His style is unmodern. 1889 SKEINE Mem. Throng 69 His language, so unmodern and so expressive.

Unmo·desty, n. (UN-1 6 c 8.) 1818 KEATS Lett. (1848) I. 135 I shall have to bound in Gothic—a nice sombre binding: it will go a little way to unmodernize. 1824 LAMB in N. & Q. Ser. vi. IV. 293/2 'Ween', and 'wist'..are antiquated frippery, and unmodernize a poem rather than give it an antique air.

Unmo·dernized, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

[1775 ASH.] c 1815 JANE AUSTEN Persuas. v, The mansion of the squire,..substantial and unmodernized. 1883 Harper's Mag. Mar. 533/2 That, too, had been left unmodernized.

† Unmo·dest, a. Obs. [UN-1 7, 5 b.] Immodest. 1565 COOPER Thesaurus s.v. Immodestus, A saucie and vnmodest kinde of lestyng. a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia II. xxiii, This breaking of my heart, will make you (I hope) think I was not altogether unmodest. 1632 SHERWOOD, Unmodest, immodeste. † Unmo·destly, adv. (UN-1 11, 5 b.) 1580 HOLLYBAND Treas. Fr. Tong., Intempérément, vntemperately, vnmodestly. 1632 SHERWOOD s.v. † Unmo·dnesty. (UN-1 12.) 1647 HEXHAM I, Vnmodestie, ongeschickthieyd.

Unmo·difiable, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

1825 COLERIDGE Lit. Rem. (1836) II. 353 Reason theoretical and practical,..unappreachable and unmodifiable by the animal basis. 1864 GEO. ELIOT Mill on Fl. I. v, Some of her most unmodifiable characters. 1883 F. GALTON Inq. Hum. Faculty 156 They remain unmodified and unmodifiable.

Hence Unmo·difiableness.

1876 GEO. ELIOT Dan. Der. lviii, A nature not of brutish unmodifiableness.

Unmo·dified, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1792 BURKE Let. to Sir H. Langrishe Wks. VI. 308 An universal unmodified capacity, to which the fanaticks pretend. 1823 H. J. BROOKE Introd. Crystallogr. 251 The o, by which we have proposed to denote the unmodified angles or edges. 1841 MYERS Cath. Th. III. § 30. 106 Our Lord everywhere exhibited a form of Truth unmodified by Individuality. 1872 DARWIN Desc. Man II. xiii. II. 67 We have seen that some birds..rattle their unmodified feathers together.

† Unmodish, a. Obs. [UN-1 7, 5 b.] Unfashionable.

c 1665 C'TESS WARWICK in C. F. Smith Life, etc. (1907) 327 To be so unmodish as..to walk in the straight and holy path. 1672 J. PHILLIPS Montelion's Predict. 4 To offer more Reasons would be absurd and unmodish. 1716 LADY M. W. MONTAGU Toilet 21 At Chappel..Who..appears at those unmodish Hours But Ancient Matrons? 1728 MORGAN Algiers I. Pref. p. i, [I am] so impolitically unmodish, that I never can speak one thing when I mean another.

Unmodulated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8, 5 b.)

1815 JANE AUSTEN Emma iv, The uncouthness of a voice ..wholly unmodulated. 1861 [MRS. A. J. PENNY] Romance Dull Life xx. 150 He answered with a short and unmodulated monosyllable. 1866 LIVINGSTONE Last Jrnls. (1873) I. xi. 292 A low unmodulated guttural drawl.

Unmoist, a. (UN-1 7.)

1611 FLORIO, Inhumido, vnmoist, dry, sapless. 1708 J. PHILIPS Cyder I. 323 With heavy Bulk Volatile Hermes, fluid and unmoist, Mounts on the Wings of Air. Ibid. II. 159 The Dew..left unmoist His execrable Glebe. 1825 COLERIDGE Poet. Wks. (1912) II. 1112 With unmoist Lip and wreathless Brow I stroll. 1855 SINGLETON Virgil II. 287 Jaws, unmoist with blood.

Unmoistened, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) = next. 1492 RYMAN in Archiv Stud. neu. Spr. LXXXIX. 185 Beholde, the yerde of Aaron Vnmoysted bare a floure.

Unmoistened, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

a 1625 FLETCHER New Volume II. i, Mayst thou dye with an unmoist'ned eye. 1708 J. PHILIPS Cyder II. 400 The Muses still require Humid Regalement, nor will aught avail Imploring Phœbus, with unmoistened Lips. 1735 SOMERVILLE Chase I. 176 The drooping Pack..loll their unmoisten'd Tongues. c 1830 BRYANT Murdered Traveller 28 They..marked his grave with nameless stones, Unmoistened by a tear. 1844 NOAD Electr. (ed. 2) 416 If the brass conducting bars are grasped, with the unmoistened hands.

† Unmole·st, ppl. a. Obs. [UN-1 8 b.] = next. c 1560 A. SCOTT Poems (S.T.S.) vii. 6 Thairfoir go,..And lat me leif thus vnmolest. 1773 J. ROSS Fratricide 111. 1000 (MS.), He sees his brother's sacrificial fire To Heaven ascending unmolest and bright!

Unmole·sted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1531 Reg. Privy Seal Scot. II. 134/2 The saidis personis ..to be unattechit,..unmolestit, and unrubilit. 1603 KNOLLES Hist. Turks (1621) 25 King Baldwin..lived for a season vnmolested by his enemies. 1689 BOYLE Martyrd. Theodora xii. 246 The unmolested Exercise of a Religion, that [etc.]. 1740 CIBBER Apol. viii. 164 Continuing to act with as little Authority, unmolested. 1772 PARNELLY Dust. Hyde. (1792) II. 26 They..suffered them to live unmolested. 1812 BYRON Ch. Har. II. lxxxvi, Where the gray stones and unmolested grass Ages, but not oblivion, feebly brave. 1884 SIR W. B. BRETT Law Times Rep. L. 530/1 He has a perfect right ..to have his person unmolested by the negligence of another man's servant.

Hence Unmole·stedly adv.

1641 LD. DIGBY Parl. Sp. 19 Jan. 21 To let them injoy unmolestedly, what belongs unto them. 1665 BOYLE Occas. Reft. vi. 18, The Devil sometimes do's unmolestedly suffer us to write well. 1839 LADY LYTTON Cheveley viii, They unmolestedly went to..dinners for six months. 1879 FARRAR St. Paul II. 310 Teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with all confidence unmolestedly.

Unmole·stine, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) c 1792 WOLCOT (P. Pindar) Old Simon viii, Sweetly she slept..In good old Simon's unmolesting arms. 1891 Daily News 30 Dec. 5/1 Living their quiet useful lives, unmolestingly and unmolested.

Unmo·lified, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1628 FELTHAM Resolves I. lxxv. 68 So still he rests vnmollified, for all this raine and haile. 1760–72 H. BROOKE Fool of Qual. (1809) I. 156 The ..crude element of earth, unmollified by the fluidity of water and light.

Unmo·lten, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 b.) Unmelted. 1525 in Lindsay Coinage Scot. (1845) 232 The gold..beand hoch for wil. Ll. the unce unmoltyn. 1555 EDEN Decades (Arb.) 164 The snowe lyinge continually vnmolten. 1613 PURCHAS Pilgrimage vi. i. 464 Old Atlas..hath alwayes on his..high toppes vnmolten snow. 1844 MRS. BROWNING Drama of Exile 399 The unmolten lightnings vein it motionless.

Unmo·mentary, a. (UN-1 7, 5 b.)

† 1. Of no moment: unimportant. Obs.

1624 HEYWOOD Gunaik. II. 69 Whence soever shee had that name bestowed upon her, it was neither idle nor unmomentarie. 1635 — Hierarchy I. 27 Such childish and vnmomentary grounds These Atheists build vpon.

2. Not occupying a moment of time. rare—1.

1635 HEYWOOD Hierarchy VII. 439 From heaven to earth he can descend, and bee Above and here in space vnmomentarie.

Unmome·ntous, a. (UN-1 7, 5 b.) 1824 CAMPBELL Theoretic 168 How our fates from unmomentous things May rise! 1898 CARLYLE Fredk. Gt. III. v. I. 229 There is lastly a still more unmomentous Margraf, only son of said Unmomentous and his said spouse.

Unmo·narch, v. (UN-2 6 b. Cf. UNKING v.)

1669 KATH. PHILIPS Poems 2 As we unmonarch'd were for want of thee. 1681 SIR J. TYRRELL (title), Patriarcha non Monarcha. The Patriarch Unmonarch'd..; in which The falseness of those Opinions that would make Monarchy Jure Divino are laid open. 1746 W. HOBSLEY Fool (1758) II. 2 [They] take great Pains to unmonarch me, and constitute themselves in my Stead. 1818 J. HASSELL Rides & Walks II. 123 The dignity and sarcasm..so far unmonarched his most Christian majesty, that he burst into a violent fit of passion.

Hence Unmo·narched ppl. a.

c 1844 LOWELL To the Past iv, The eternal sorrow In their unmonarched eyes. 1868 HEAVYSEGE Jeshel I. 218 Thou didst discrown Thyself, Unmonarched man!

Unmonastic, a. (UN-1 7.) 1849 L. TAYLOR Loyola & Yes. I. vii. 151 Their unmonastic habit..afforded ground enough for such imputations. 1869 TOZER Highl. Turkey I. 93 My tumbler..was engraved with most unmonastic Cupids.

Unmo·neyed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1677 W. HUGHES Man of Sin II. viii. 129 What Rich Bargains of Popish Pardons may be had..both by the Moyed and Unmoyed Chapmen too. 1742 SHENSTONE Schoolmistr. xxxiii, Apples with cabbage-net y-cover'd over, Galing full sore th' unmoney'd wight, are seen. 1822 Liberal I. 220 Their sympathy with the natural unmonied faculties of poets in general. 1868 R. LYTTON Chron. & Char. II. 230 This passing Priest..from thankless doors drave forth The messenger unmonied and amazed.

† Unmo·nished, ppl. a. Obs. (UN-1 8.) 1596 LODGE Prosopopeia Wks. (Hunter. Cl.) III. 47 O turn vnto me, whom..no man seeketh vnmonished, and no man findeth vnpurged.

Unmo·nkish, a. (UN-1 7.) 1851 CARLYLE Sterling I. iv. 45 A singular condition of Schools and High-schools, which have come down..from the monkish ages into this highly unmonkish one. Unmonkly, a. (UN-1 7.) 1833 Fraser's Mag. VIII. 323 He..shook hands in a cordial and quite unmonkly manner. Unmono·polized, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1879 H. GEORGE Progr. & Pov. III. vi, New countries where land is yet unmonopolized. 1898 Westm. Gaz. 21 Jan. 3/2 The profits that would accrue from unmonopolised sale. Unmono·polizing, vbl. sb. (UN-2 8.) 1641 MILTON Reform. II. 85 The unappropriating, and unmonopolizing the rewards of learning and industry, from the greatest clutch of ignorance. Unmono·polizing, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1875 Encycl. Brit. I. 216/2 The disinterested and unmonopolising side of æsthetic pleasure. Unmo·numented, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1865 E. BURNITT Walk to Land's End 13 [They] lay long in unmonumented graves.

Unmoor, v. Naut. [UN-2 4 b.]

1. trans. To free from moorings; spec. 'to reduce (a ship) to the state of riding by a single anchor and cable' (Falconer).

1497 Naval Acc. Henry VII (1896) 229 The Remooyng & Vnmoryng ye said Ship. 1681 Lond. Gaz. No. 1663/4 They lye Unmoored, and ready to Sail this Afternoon. 1704 Ibid. No. 3981/3 All the Ships..are unmoor'd, and will sail with the next Opportunity. 1725 POPE Odyss. IV. 786 With sails we wing the masts,..Unmoor the fleet, and rush into the sea. 1800 Hull Flowler Advt. 12 The pilot..shall be paid for unmooring..such ship. 1828 SCOTT F. M. Perth xxiv, They seated themselves in the boat and unmoored it from the pier. 1882 OUIDA' Maremma I. 235 She found her boat safe, and unmoored it and rowed backward.

transf. 1866 BRIGHT Sp. (1876) 177 They would unmoor the island from its fastenings in the deep.

2. intr. To cast off moorings. (Cf. UNMOAR.)

1610 COOKE, Demorrho to vnmoore; to moore a ship thats moored,..and put out to sea. 1693 Lond. Gaz. No. 2932/4 Sir Francis Wheeler made the Signal for the Ships to Unmoore. 1745 P. THOMAS Jrnl. Anson's Voy. 117 The next Morning we unmoor'd..and at Six weigh'd. 1778 J. ADAMS Diary 14 Feb., Wks. 1851 III. 95 At daylreak, orders were given to unmoor. 1840 R. H. DANA Bef. Mast xvii. 46 She unmoored and warped down into the bight, from which she got under weigh. 1889 BOWEN Æneid III. 639 Fly! and unmoor forthwith from his cousin.

Hence Unmoor·ing vbl. sb.

1497 Naval Acc. Hen. VII (1896) 252 The vnmoryng of the seid Ship in Portesmouth haven after her comyng owte of Scotcland. 1710 Lond. Gaz. No. 4720/3 The Lancaster fired a Gun as a Signal for Unmooring. 1829 F. T. HULME Wny Natry 25, I had..been endeavouring to secure some snap-shots of the fo'castle during the evolution of unmooring.

Unmoored, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1683 in L'pool Munic. Rec. (1889) I. 308 Woo. (ship) shall lye upon the strain unmoored. Unmo·pped, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1848 B. D. WALSH Aristoph., Clouds I. i, Dusty, unmopped, reclining at my ease.

Unmoral, a. [UN-1 7, 5 b.] Non-moral; not influenced by, or connected with, moral considerations. (Common from c 1860.)

1841 MYERS Cath. Th. iv. § 13. 254 The disorganisation and imperfection of the unmoral part of the universe. 1855 [MISS COBBE] Ess. Intuitive Mor. 17 These beings are unmoral, and neither virtuous nor vicious. 1871 TYLOR Prim. Cult. II. 326 The lower animism is not immoral, it is unmoral.

Unmora·lity. (UN-1 12, 5 b.)

1866 LOWELL Biglow P. Ser. II. Introd., That half-conscious unmorality which I had noticed as the recoil in gross natures from a puritanism that [etc.]. 1879 W. H. MALLOCK

Is Life Worth Living? iii. 44 The condition of the completest personal un-morality.

Unmo·ralize, v. (Un-2 6 c. Cf. IMMORALIZE v.) 1640 BASTWICK Lat. Eps. viii. H 3 They doe unmoralize the 4th Commandement, as concerning the Sabbath day for Christians; they allow profane Sports thereon. 1693 NORRIS Pract. Disc. (1711) III. 109 Contributing..to the unmoralizing and debauching the Age.

Unmo·ralized, ppl. a. [f. prec., or Un-1 8.] Deprived, or devoid, of morality.
1668 H. MORE Div. Dial. iv. xiv. 11. 328 Sensuality..makes holy things..hard and tedious to such unmoralized minds. 1690 J. NORRIS Beatitudes iv. (1694) 106 There being but few so wretchedly wicked and unmoralized as [etc.]. a 1866 J. GROTE Exam. Utilit. Phil. xiii. (1870) 185 The difference between the moralized and unmoralized, the better and the worse, human nature. 1886 New Princeton Rev. Mar. 180 There are no cabinets of unmoralised or half-moralised conceptions, serving as illustrations of the evolution hypothesis.

Unmo·ralizing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1889 Atlantic Monthly Nov. 701/2 He was primarily the artist, impersonal, unmoralizing. Unmo·ralness. (Un-1 12.) 1642 D. ROGERS Naaman 554 Their opinion about the unmoralness of the Sabbath.

Unmo·rdanted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1838 T. THOMSON Chem. Org. Bodies 394 When printed on unmordanted cotton and washed..in hot water. 1876 MORRIS in Mackail Life (1899) I. 315 The wool was unmordanted.

†Unmo·rrised, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Not prepared for morris-dancing. a 1625 FLETCHER Women Pleas'd IV. i. What a devil ails this fellow..Thus to appear before me too, unmorris'd? Unmo·rtrowing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1858 BAILEY Mystic, etc. 154 She laid her down, and..slept the long unmorrowing sleep. †Unmo·rtal, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) 1538 ELYOT, Immortalis, unmortall, that lyueth euer. 1608 WILLET Hexapla Exod. 75 The soule being unmortall. †Unmo·rtalize, v. Obs. [Un-2 6 c.] trans. To put to death. 1593 NASHE Christ's T. 19 b, Man, woman, chylde, he shall vnmortalize and mangle. [1623 COCKERAM II, To Kill..Vnmortalize, Inage.]

Unmo·rtared, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
a 1656 BP. HALL Christ Mystical Wks. (1714) II. 348 Some loose Stones perhaps that lye unmortered upon the Battlements. 1664 EVELYN Sylva xxxii. 122 The Haw-thorn well plash'd..is a better..Fence then unmortered walls. 1860 TRISTRAM Gt. Sahara viii. 124 An empty watercourse, built up of unmortared stone. 1895 Blackw. Mag. Nov. 642/1 A carefully mown piece of turf enclosed by an unmortared wall.

Unmortgage, v. (Un-1 3.) 1837 HEWISON Royal King IV. iv, Sir, since you chest your capital with our meanes, it came into my thoughts.

Unmo·rtgaged, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1638 QUARLES Hieroglyph. x. vi, His quick-nos'd armie.. Must now prepare To chase the turtrees like a Shout his yet unmorga'd grounds. 1676 D'URFEY Mme. Fickle v. ii, I have 200*l.* a year, I've my Lands free and unmorgag'd. 1705 ADDISON Italy 210 There is scarce a single Gabel unmortgag'd. 1776 ADAM SMITH W. N. v. iii. (1904) II. 585 The only considerable branch of the public revenue which yet remains unmortgaged. 1848 [G. C. LEWIS] tr. Böckh's Publ. Econ. Athens II. 247 Cleon..was so deeply involved in debt, that nothing he had was unmortgaged. 1882 Law Rep. Ch. Div. XV. 59 The unmortgaged portion [of the estate].

†Unmortificate, ppl. a. Obs. (Un-1 8 b, 5 b.) c 1450 tr. De Imitatione 1. iii. 5 What lettip be more..ban pin unmortificate affeccion of herte? 1612 T. TAYLOR Comm. Titus ii. 12 These lusts are fitter for the course of nature vnmortified. 1671 WHITCOMBE Tertian vi. xiii. 102 Their passions are unmortified. a 1695 Z. CRADOCK Serm. Charity (1740) 18 His yet unmortified Lusts and Passions. 1748 HARTLEY Observ. Man II. iv. § 4. 415 He finds many unmortified Desires..in his best Words and Actions. 1829 SUSANNE WINKWORTH tr. Life Tauler 390 He who wishes to..subdue such an unmortified nature.

b Of persons (or the heart).
1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 160 Ye unmortified herte hath not the houshold of ye spirit to incite peace. 1641 MILTON Animadv. 57 Unconfessing and unmortify'd sinners. 1691 HARTCLIFFE Virtues 210 As thou wouldst not demonstrate thy self to be a rash and unmortified Person. 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa (1811) III. xxi. 127 By his social (tho unmortified creature swore), .he was now in earnest in his good resolutions. Ibid. 166 An unmortified libertine. 1894 HEDLEY Retreat xviii. 207 No one can be relaxed, unmortified, and lazy, and at the same time desire to love God with ..a whole heart.

2. Sc. Law. Not disposed of by mortification.
1467 Sc. Acts, Jas. III (1814) II. 90 Pe soume..to be Raisit of all lordis...and vperis quhatsumeuer hafand land vtouth burgh vnmortifiit.

3. Not affected by gangrene.
1732 MONRO Anat. (ed. 2) 18 An unmortified Part..can have Nerves.., and yet enjoy no Sensation.

Hence Unmo·rtifiedness.
1643 T. GOODWIN Trial Christian's Growth II. iii. (1651) 73 This argues much unmortifiednesse, though it run not out into acts. a 1677 MANTON Disc. Peace Wks. 1871 II. 66 The more men increase in grace..the more they know their emptiness, unmortifiedness, and manifold sins. 1797 Biog. Presbyt. (1827) I. 398, I have seen some..become fearful Examples of Apostacy, in Covetousness and Unmortifiedness.

Unmo·rtised, ppl. a.[1] (Un-1 8 + MORTISED ppl. a.) 1678 MOXON Mech. Exerc. vi. 103 This Square Peece hath a square wide Mortess in it..to screw against that part of the Wooden Peece un-mortes-sed at the Top..stiff against the fore-side of the un-mortessed Peece. Unmo·rtised, ppl. a.[2] (Un-1 8 + MORTISE v.[1]) 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa (1811) VI. 304 An old broken-bottomed cane couch,..unmortised by the falling of one of its worm-eaten legs. 1859 TENNYSON Merlin & V. 402 The wrist is parted from the hand that waved, The feet unmortised from their ankle-bones Who paced it, ages back. Unmosa·ic, a. (Un-1 7 + MOSAIC a.[1]) 1644 MILTON Divorce (ed. 2) II. ix. 50 By this reckning Moses should bee most unmosaick, that is, most illegal, not to say most unnaturall. 1868 W. SMITH Book of Moses p. v, The Separatist Theory..breaks up the whole Pentateuch into un-Mosaic fragments. Unmossed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1863 LOWELL Memoriae Positum I. 14 Bleaker than unmossed stone. Unmo·theaten, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.) 1591 HELLOWES Gueuara's Fam. Ep. (1577) 56, I doe craue, from henceforth you keepe your letter vnmoatheaten.

Unmo·thered, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 and Un-2 8.]
1. Deprived of motherly feelings.
1607 TOURNEUR Rev. Trag. II. i, I e'en quake to proceed, my spirit turns edge. I fear me she's unmother'd.
2. Deprived or destitute of a mother.
1847 H. BUSHNELL Chr. Nurt. iii. (1861) 65 The young go forth untended, or unmothered. 1856 MRS. BROWNING Aur. Leigh I. 95 Nursing me, Unmothered little child of four years old. 1876 SWINBURNE Erechtheus 1057 Thralls of no man's blood, Unchilded and unmothered.

Unmo·therly, a. (Un-1 7.)
Also, in recent use, unmotherliness.
1593 Sidney's Arcadia IV. (1629) 413 Well hath my mother reuenged vpon me my vnmotherly hating of thee. 1622 E. CLINTON C'tess Lincoln's Nursery 13 They argue vnmotherly affection, idlenesse, desire to haue liberty. 1825 COLERIDGE Aids Refl. 357 To asperse my friend's wife for unmotherly conduct in taking an infant six months old to a crowded theatre. 1850 BLACKIE Æschylus I. 120 My mother most unmotherly, her own children With godless hate pursuing.

Unmo·therly, adv. (Un-1 11.) Unkindly.
c 1425 WYNTOUN Cron. II. viii. 702 Thai at coyme to spy Pat lande, hij dreist vnmodyly; I for sum of þaim þai slew richt par. 1456 SIR G. HAYE Law Arms (S.T.S.) 30 [They] bitterly and unmoderly will bakbyte behynd bakkis.

Unmo·tived, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1794 COLERIDGE Lett. (1895) 59 Your gossip with the commanding officer seems so totally useless and unmotived. 1830 W. TAYLOR Hist. Surv. Germ. Poetry I. 286 The sentiments of the personages..[are] often superfluous and unmotived. 1889 Pall Mall G. 2 Oct. 5/1 Looking back, we begin to understand actions which seemed cheerily unmotived.

Unmoul·d, v. [Un-2 3, 5, 7.]
1. trans. To destroy the mould or form of.
1611 COTGR., Demouler, to vnmould; breake the mould, ..spoyle the frame, of. 1634 MILTON Comus 529 His baneful cup..Whose pleasing poison The visage quite transforms of him that drinks, And the inseparable spirit quite changes Character in the face. [1745 WARTON Pleas. Melancholy 89 That charmed cup, which Reason's mintage fair Unmoulds.] 1797 COLERIDGE Dungeon 28 So he lies Circled with evil, till his very soul Unmoulds its essence. 1846 [see DISLIMN v. 1].
b. To take out of a mould.
c 1900 Century Cook Bk. 493 (Cent. Suppl.), To unmold creams. Ibid., The unmolding of creams requires great care.
2. intr. or absol. To lose form or shape.
1834 DE QUINCEY Autob. Sk. Wks. 1854 II. 223 The restless elements of opinion..mould themselves eternally,..and finally unmould and 'dislimn'.

Unmoul·ded, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Not moulded or shaped.
1620 SHELTON Quix. II. xlv. 294 Without thee I am dull, vnmoulded and confused. 1656 HOBBES Christianoy. (ed. 2) 11. 40 Their Masse was then unmoulded: Transubstantiation unbaked. 1852 TENNYSON Ode Death Wellington 233 Peace, his triumph will be sung By some yet unmoulded tongue. 1862 RUSKIN Stones Ven. II. iv. 129 Plain openings in the walls studiously simple, and unmoulded at the sides. 1875 Carpentry & Join. 41 A plain unmoulded strip.

Unmoured, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1843 POE Premature Burial Wks. 1864 I. 327 It was the skeleton of his wife in her yet unmouldered shroud. Unmou·ldering, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1821 BRYANT Ages xvii, Deeds, engraved On fame's unmouldering pillar. Unmou·ldy, a. (Un-1 7.) 1693 GAYTON Pleas. Notes I. v. 29 A piece of the Groaning Cake,..which she kept religiously..till forty good years unmouldy, and unmouse-eaten. †Unmou·ld, ppl. a. Obs.[1] (Un-1 8.] Not grown mouldy. c 1450 CAPGRAVE Life St. Gilbert 75 Ther was bred kept sextene yere aftir his deth, on-corupte, onmoued, which he blessed. Unmou·nted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) a 1661 HOLYDAY Juvenal VI. (1673) 91 Nor men Fear'd lest their..fruits should be a prey To theives, and gardens all unmounted lay. 1661 FELTHAM Resolves II. lxv. 246 Nature, he may be..of a good soyl; yet, if he lyes unmounded, he shall be sure to be alwayes low.

Unmou·nt, v. (Un-2 5, 8.]
1. trans. To unfix and take down or remove.
a 1680 BUTLER Rem. (1759) I. 23 Others conceiv'd it much more fit T' unmount the Tube, and open it. 1885 C. G. W. LOCK Workshop Receipts Ser. IV. 397/1 If the print be a mounted one, it is by no means necessary to unmount it previously to treatment.
2. To dismount. Also intr.
1787 Generous Attachment I. 131, I immediately unmounted, and giving my horse his liberty, wandered about the country. 1892 Schoolmaster 26 Mar. 519/2 The German Emperor has had to unmount his high horse, and abandon the..Education Bill.

Unmou·ntable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)
1549 Compl. Scot. xi. 98 That place stude betuix tua strait montanis inhabitabil and onmontabil. 1603 KNOLLES Hist. Turks (1621) 938 Hauing left the fennes of Meotis, and the vnmountable shores of the Blacke sea. a 1668 SIR F. VERE Comm. (1657) 11 Being reared of a good height with earth, and then with gabions set thereupon of six foot high, made almost unmountable.

Unmou·nted, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]
1. a. Of cannon: Not placed on carriages.
1629 Taking St. Espirit in Hav'n. Misc. (Malh.) III. 550 Twelve pieces unmounted in her hold. 1690 J. MACKENZIE Siege London-Derry 7/2 [We] found..most of the Guns unmounted for want of Carriages. 1790 BEATSON Nav. & Mil. Mem. I. 325 In the fort were four guns mounted, and as many unmounted. 1909 G. M. TREVELYAN Garibaldi 243 The carts that carried the yet unmounted cannon.
b. Not fixed up for use or display; not provided with a mount or mounts.
1888 Encycl. Dict. 1890 Science-Gossip XXVI. 144/1 Wanted, good unmounted material, also foreign butterflies and shells. 1891 Anthony's Photogr. Bull. IV. 235 To use unmounted silues it is necessary to have auxiliary carriers. 1892 Photogr. Ann. II. 37 We had also in our album a lot of other unmounted prints.
2. Not provided with, or riding on, a horse or horses.
1592 NASHE Four Lett. Confut. H 2, Thy excellent outcast selfe that liu'dst at Cambridge vnmounted. 1630 CAPT. SMITH Trav. & Adv. vi. 20 Captain Smith..was not long unmounted, for there was choice enough of horses. 1688 Lond. Gaz. No. 2380/2 A good part of the Cavalry will remain unmounted. 1828 WEBSTER s.v., Unmounted dragoons. 1831 JAMES Phil. Augustus III. x, All the most beautiful horses..were led..by the pages and squire, unmounted. 1900 Westm. Gaz. 3 Feb. 6/2 The number of mounted and unmounted troops.

Unmou·rned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1650 VAUGHAN Olor Iscanus, Tristium III. iii. 51 Unpitied, and unmourn'd for, my sad head..goes friendless to the dead. 1721 SOUTHERNE Spartan Dame IV. i, Oh! let me here.. Sink down..Into my grave, unmention'd and unmourn'd. 1813 BYRON Corsair II. xiv, Still he goes unmourn'd, returns unsought. a 1851 MOIR Poems, Leg. St. Rosaile v, Down to the dreary caverns of the grave Pass'd,..Unmark'd, unmourn'd, the beauteous and the brave.

Unmouse-eaten, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 d.) 1654 [see UNMOULDY]. Unmou·thable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1842 MIALL in Nonconf. II. 809 A barbarous and unmouthable jargon. Unmou·thpiece, a. (Un-1 9.) 1836–48 B. D. WALSH Aristoph., Acharnians Ep. Lead. II. 21 Aristotle also..sheweth that he knew God vnder the name of the first moouer, who was perpetual and vnmoueable. 1626 GOUGE Serm. Dignity Chivalry § 15 Like the unmoveable mountaines. a 1696 HALE Prim. Origi. Man. I. vi. (1677) 122 If we should suppose the Circle A B C to move about a fixed unmoveable Center at D. 1776 MICKLE Camoens' Lusiad p. xxxvii, They remained unmoveable on the shore till the fleet..vanished from their sight. 1870 LOWELL Among my Bks. Ser. I. (1873) 129 Some man whose brain rests on a still more unmovable basis. 1874 W. HUMPHREY in Ess. Relig. & Lit. Ser. III. 361 The unmoved and unmovable Prime Mover of the ever-moving universe of creatures.
b. sb. Something immovable.
1876 MRS. WHITNEY Sights & Ins. xx, We groped and peered under unmovables and pulled about everything that could be moved.
2. = IMMOVABLE a. 2.
1388 WYCLIF Heb. vi. 18 God..puttide betwixe an ooth, that bi twey thingis vnmeuable, bi whiche it is impossible that God lie, we han strengeste solace. c 1425 in Anglia X. 380/35 Vnmouable þrauguliite and reste of soule. 1502 Ord. Crysten Men (W. de W. 1506) xii. F iii, Sythen that luxure vnmeuable requyreth suche payne. 1599 SANDYS Europæ Speculum (1632) 111 Having their ground on the unmovable principles of true wisedome and vertue. 1638 JUNIUS Paint. Antiquis 28 A said unmoveable foundation. 1660 Saints' R. III. vii. 383 They that are sure to receive the unmoveable Kingdom must yet serve God with reverence and godly fear. 1691 NORRIS Pract. Disc. 248 This was ever..an unmoveable Objection.
b. = IMMOVABLE a. 2 b.
1382 WYCLIF Col. i. 23 Stable, and vnmouable fro the hope of the goospel. 1445 in Anglia XXVIII. 259 Onmeable thou owist not endure, whan benygne preyers be offrid. a 1542 WYATT in Nottett Miss. (Arb.) 170 Wilde beasses in them, fierce loue in me is fed. Vnmoueable am I: and they stedfast. 1570 T. WILSON Demosth. Orat., Life 129 Who helde out with a stomacke vpright and vnmooueable, in all the..stormes of fortune. a 1624 H. SMITH Serm. (1632) 34 Fabricius..remained..vndauntable, and vnmoveable. 1683 TEMPLE Mem. Wks. 1720 I. 399 The Prince was unmoveable in the Point of not leaving his Allies. 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa (1811) I. 124 Ingrateful girl, and unmovable as ungrateful! 1896 MISS WARNER Hills Shutemuc xl, She begged to be allowed to stay..; but Elizabeth was unmoveable.
†3. Of property: = IMMOVABLE a. 3. (Cf. MOVABLE a. 4.)
c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xliv. (Lucy) 90 þane sawyt þai..þare gudis unmowable sone. c 1449 PECOCK Repr. I. x. 49 The endewing of preestis bi rentis and bi vnmoueable possessions. 1467–8 Rolls of Parlt. V. 593/2 The Londes and Tenementes, Goodes and Catalles, moveable and unmoveable. 1535 COVERDALE Judith viii, 7 Hyr husbande also had lefte her..greate vnmoueable possessions and many catell. 1565 Wills & Inv. N. C. (Surtees) 235 Executrix and mynyster of all my goods moveable and vnmoveable. c 1618 MONTROSE Jtin. iv. (1902) 155 In..Italy the father dying intestate, the brothers diuide his mouable and vnmouable goods.
†b. sb. pl. Immovable goods. Obs.
1536 in Lett. Suppress. Monast. (Camden) 146 We..submyt owr selfes and our monasterye, with all the moveables and unmoveables therof, unto your majesties accustomede grace. 1562 J. HEYWOOD Prov. & Epigr. (1867) 148 Moueables, vnmoueables, lande or farme, Thou hast not one grotes woorth, of good or goodnes. a 1577 SIR T. SMITH Commw. Eng. (1609) 121 Touching marriage and the right in moueables and vnmoueables which commeth thereby.

Unmo·vableness. (Un-1 12, 5 b.)
1382 WYCLIF Heb. vi. 17 God willinge for to schewe..the vnmouablenesse, or sadnesse, of his conseil. 1398 TREVISA Barth. De P. R. vi. xxiv. (Bodl. MS.), Siepe is a kindelich vnmeuablenes and helpe of þe wittes. 1611 COTGR.

Immobilité, .. firmeness, assuredness, unmovablenesse. 1640 H. Burton Truth's Triumph 262 A most stedfast unmoueablenesse of faith. 1655 Earl Orrery Parthen. II. vi. 550 She.. by that Posture, and hir unmoveablenesse in it, by degrees took root. 1818 Ranken Hist. France IV. 43 This unmoveableness was not the effect of pride. 1888 In Memm. J. L. Aikman 38 He was..surefooted with a central unmovableness.

†Unmo·vablety. Obs. rare. [Un-¹ 22.] Unmovableness. c1374 Chaucer Boeth. iv. pr. vi. (1886) 206 It is constreynyd in to symplicite, pat is to seyn in to vnmoeuablete, and it cestih.. to fletyn diuersely. c1400 Lanfranc's Cirurg. 140 Vmouablete of alle pe membris outeept pe lacertis of pe heed.

Unmo·vably, adv. (Un-¹ 11, 5 b.)

c1400 Found. St. Bartholemew's (1923) 13 Those thyngis ..[given] to the chirche vnmoueably & stedfastly to beholde. c1440 Gesta Rom. lvi. 240 (Harl. MS.), He that .. wolte not..leeve synne.. but lithe stille in synnes vnmoueably. c1460 Oseney Reg. 161 And þat, as penne markyng whas i-sette by boundes i-sett.. Surely and vnmeveably hit be keped. 1523 Douglas Æneid iv. li. 33 Fidißit in my mynd unmovably, That [etc.]. c1555 R. Taylor in Coverdale Lett. Mart. (1564) 177 But God be prayed,.. I am vnmoueably setled vpon the rocke. a1619 Fotherby Atheom. i. iv. § 4 (1622) 23 A radicall .. conclusion, vnmoueably grounded in the heart of a man. 1683 Sp. of Prot. France vi. 75 The greatest Protectors of the holy See, to which they have always unmoveably held. 1743 J. Ellis Knowl. Dis. Th. 372 So the evil Angels are as unmoveably determined still to adhere to that which is Evil.

Unmo·ved, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8, 5 b.)

1. Not moved by emotion or excitement; unaffected, undisturbed; collected, calm.

c1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xxxvii. (Vincencius) 397 His thoght wes vnmouit ay, Sa ferme wes he in cristis fay. 1562 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. ii. 2 They which in his absence did stand assured and vnmoued. a1586 Sidney Arcadia i. i, Holding his head up full of unmoved majestie. 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. i. § 44 When he found the Duke unmoved by all the considerations and arguments .. he had offered. 1693 Dryden Juvenal v. 156 Pale of soul is still the same, Unmoved with fear, and moved with martial fame. 1720 Swift Fables Clergym. Wks. 1755 II. 11. 26 Only Consodes was silent and unmoved. 1796 Mrs. D'Arblay Camilla IV. 326 Edgar could not hear unmoved the dialogue which ensued. 1830 Tennyson Poems 39 If so be if from doubt at length, Truth may stand forth unmoved of change. 1832 James Philip Augustus III. vii, The chilling unmoved stance of her large dark eye. 1884 Mrs. Alexander At Bay v, The unmoved composure of the practised detectives.

† b. Unprovoked. Obs.—1

1634 Sir T. Herbert Trav. 212 The Mannatee or Cow-fish..is..a gentle fish vnmoued, and some say affects the visage of a man.

2. Not moved in position; unstirred; remaining fixed or steady.

c1440 Promp. Parv. 366/1 On-meyvd, immotus. 1513 Douglas Æneid VII. v. 131 His kyght vnmoyvt to the end dyd he prent. 1628 May Virg. Georg. II. 51 Therefore no windes .. orethrow Those Trees; for many yeares unmov'd they grow. 1697 Dryden Virg. Past. x. 45 Unmoved, and with dejected eyes, he mourned. 1744 Berkeley Siris § 1 The vessel must stand close moored for unmoved three days. a1795 Philidor Studies of Chess (1817) 99 An unmoved Rook. 1841 James Brigand ix, The heavy vapours hung unmoved around the peaks. 1887 Field 25 Oct. 602/2 The unmoved ground..is very dry a few inches from the surface.

3. (See Move v. 5 b.)

1843 R. J. Graves Syst. Clin. Med. xiv. 153 He told me he passed the night in great torture, and that the bowels were still unmoved.

Hence Unmo·vedness.

1628 Feltham Resolves II. xix. 61 They set him almost in the Throne of a Deitie; ascend him to an vnmouednesse. 1687 Boyle Martyrd. Theodora xi. 120 All the unmov'dness of mind, she ow'd to be Mistress of.

Unmo·vedly, adv. (Un-¹ 11; cf. prec.)

1612 Beaum. & Fl. Philaster i. 1, If you intreat, I will unmov'dly hear. 1689 Popple tr. Locke's 1st Let. Toleration 17 Then they can bear most patiently, and unmovedly, the Contagion of Idolatry. 1840 Hood's Comic Tales Wks. II. 250/2 Quietly and unmovedly as she was standing. 1883 Myers Ess., Mod. (1885) 44 Through all the perils of the siege they sat unmovedly, .. perfecting the new constitution.

Unmo·ving, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10.)

1. Not moving; devoid of motion.

c1425 Wyntoun Cron. ii. xii. 1178 Pan gert he stand Baith sone and mone, still vnmoueand As wer þe space all of a day. 1594 Selimus 1444 All those moving and unmoving eyes. 1598 Florio Stella Anst. 4 fixed, vnmoving starre. 1610 Healey St. Aug. Citie of God xiv. lix. 510 The eternall beatitude shall have both ioye and loue, .. firme, and vnmouing. 1705 Cheyne Philos. Princ. I. (1715) 186 Without this Impulse, they have continued unactive, unmoving Heaps of Matter. 1804 J. Grahame Sabbath 10 Calmness seems thron'd on yon unmoving cloud. a 1834 Coleridge Shakh. Notes (1849) 33 Succession of time and unmoving eternity. 1900 Nation (N.Y.) 27 Sept. 253 Everywhere were vast ghostly figures unmoving in the moonlight.

2. Unaffecting; stirring no feeling. rare—1.

1638 Norris Pract. Disc. IV. 54 How flat and insipid, how dead and unmoving must all Discourse of it be to him!

Unmovingly, adv. (Un-¹ 11.) 1832 James Phil. Augustus III. iv, Her eyes were fixed unmovingly on the ground. Unmow·ed, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) = next. 1763 Mills Pract. Husb. III. 325 [He] ordered a small part of a meadow..to be left unmowed till the seeds were fit for gathering.

Unmown, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8 b.)

1540 Compl. Scot. vi. 66 Ane onmauen medow. 1557 Tusser 100 Points Husb. xxii, Doune with thy hedlondes, Leave unset, at dalogs, vnmoue or hed out. 1636 W. Browne Brit. Past. ii. iii. 1086 As a meade in July, which unmowne Bears in an equall height each bent and stem. 1648 Herrick II, Oogenacyt, Vnmown, or Vntrept. 1809 Byron Bard's Lament 96 Let..beer undrawn, and beards unmown, display Your fervor for the Sabbath-day. 1820 Shelley Hymn Merc. xii, Oxen .. pastured in the flowering unmown meadows. 1830 Tennyson Arab. Nin. 29 Deep inlay Of braided blooms unmown.

Unmu·ddled, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1780 Phil. Trans. LXXI. 450 All the unwashed and unmuddled trees that I measured. 1809 W. Black Decor. Cottl. 1 Clear [water-] colours unmuddled by oil. † Unmu·ddled, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1654 Whitlock Zootomia 159 Who I hope in fine, to the unmuddled judgement, it will appeare meant the Literate. Unmuddled. ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1840 Howitt Visits Remark. Places Ser. I. 233 The Thames, there unmuddled by commerce...flowing free and pure.

Unmu·ffle, v. [Un-² 4.]

1. trans. (and refl.). To divest of something which muffles or conceals the face.

1611 Cotgr., Desaffuler, to vnmuffle, vnhood, vnhoodwinke. 1629 Daventry Athenae iv. i, Were my lean Iaws unmuffled you should see me mump. a 1652 Brome Queen & Concubine iv. iv, Take off his false beard;..And let the woman be unmuffled. 1768-74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 432 He muffled up my head all round, as with the hood of a great-coat...In this guise he held me some time...He then unmuffled and let me go. 1838 Lytton Alice VI. iv, The rest..unmuffled themselves of cloaks. 1852 Hawthorne Twice-told T. II. i. 21 'Villain, unmuffle yourself,' cried he.

fig. and in pp. content. 1652 Benlowes Theoph. xx. lxxii, Unmuffle, ye dim clouds, and disinherit From black usurping mists his spirit. 1683 Ld. Halifax Char. Trimmer (1688) 28 'Twill be worth his pains to see if he [sc. a papist] can unmuffle himself from the Mask of Infallibility. 1886 W. Alexander St. Aug. Holiday, etc. 137 And darkness was unmuffled, and was ripp'd Like crape from heaven's jewell'd bilt.

b. To remove the muffling of (a drum).

1828-32 Webster.

2. intr. To remove or cast off a muffling.

1634 Milton Comus 331 Unmuffle ye faint stars, and thou fair Moon, Stoop thy pale visage through an amber cloud. 1830 tr. Aristophe. Birds 941 Pisthetaerus. What means this? What muffling is this? Prometheus. After a while I will unmuffle.

Unmufle, v. (Un-³ 3.) 1654 Gayton Pleas. Notes III. v. 100 With three hard words, [to] un-mule, un-leg, and unable, Alanso Lopez. Unmu·filoned, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1889 Jephson Brittaney II. 25 The large unmullioned windows of the abbey. Unmu·ltipliable, adj. (Un-¹ 7 b.) 1826 Jackson Creed VI. i. iii. § 5 His incomprehensible being, who is..most truly one, because indivisible and unmultipliable.

Unmu·ltiplied, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1570 Billingsley Euclid 128 b, The one remaynyng vnmultiplied, and the other being certaine times multiplied, shall be greater then it. 1817 H. T. Colebrooke Algebra, etc. 211 Now the coefficient of the root is the unmultiplied (or original) coefficient of the square unknown term.

Hence Unmu·ltiplieddly adv.

1658 Cudworth Intell. Syst. I. v. 776 It is indivisibly and unmultiplieddly and illocally there.

Unmu·mmied, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1822 Byron Vis. Judgem. xi, As the mere million's base unmummied clay. Unmu·nched, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1870 Dickens E. Drood xii, Even Durdles pauses..and looks at him, with an unmunched something in his cheek. Unmuni·tioned, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1626 R. Peake Three to One C iv b, Cales..was held Moore, Vmmand, and Vnmunitioned.

Unmurdered, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1586 J. Mush in J. Morris Troub. Cath. Forefathers III. (1877) 363 Not one Catholic priest but judged as a traitor or able to escape unmurthered. a 1652 Brome Damoiselle IV. ii, How know I..that I haue a Son By thee unmurther'd. a 1683 Oldham Poems & Transl. (1684) 47 Poor I am only left unmurder'd yet. 1746 Young Nt. Th. IX. 1797 How unlike The lot of man! how few of human race By their own end unmurder'd!

Unmurmured, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) a 1625 Fletcher Nice Valour IV. i, That if my anger chance let fall a stroke,.. Yet it may pass unmurmur'd, undisputed.

Unmu·rmuring, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10.)

1564 R. Bage Barlaam Damas II. 33 Poverty is the natural parent of unmurmuring obedience. 1801 Southey Thalaba x. xxvii, I am cut off from all the ties of life, Unmurmuring. 1882 Farrar Early Chr. I. 170 Then come fresh exhortations to unmurmuring hospitality.

Unmu·rmuringly, adv. (Un-¹ 11.)

1845 F. E. Paget Tales Village Children Ser. II. 142 The thoughts..which best enabled him to submit unmurmuringly. 1861 Court Life at Naples II. 119 When we are punished for our sins by pain..it should be borne unmurmuringly.

Un-Murrayed, a. (Un-¹ 9.) Not described in Murray's Guide. 1873 Browning Red Cott. Nt.-cap i. 20 Meek, hitherto un-Murrayed bathing-place, Best known to a seacoast-colorful Normandy! Unmu·scled, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) VI. 362 Distended their parched mouths!—sunk their unmuscled cheeks!—dropt their under jaws! Unmu·scular, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1825 Carlyle Schiller III. 234 (Schiller) was..unmuscular and lean. 1861 Reade Cloister & H. II. Shallow women, that have neither read nor suffered, have an unmuscular barbarity of their own. Unmu·se-like, a. (Un-¹ 7 c.) 1754 J. Murphy Gray's Inn Jrnl. No. 88, An unmuse-like Poem.

Unmu·sical, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1. Of sounds: Not of a musical nature; unmelodious, harsh.

1607 Shaks. Cor. IV. v. 64 A name vnmusicall to the Volcians eares. a 1637 B. Jonson Rules Tavern Acad. ix, Let argument bear no unmusical sound. 1718 Lady M. W. Montagu Let. to C'tess Bristol 10 Apr., Their pipes..are no unmusical instruments. 1753 Gibbe Lirec Poets I. 18 His stile..is equally unmusical and obsolete with Chaucer's. 1801 Burry Dict. Mus., Unmusical, an epithet applied..to whatever is not absolutely harmonious, melodious, or agreeable to a cultivated ear. 1835 Poultry Chron. III. 500/2 At this time..its not unmusical cry is heard. 1880 McCarthy Own Times xiii. IV. 22 His voice was singularly unmusical and harsh.

2. Of persons: Not musically gifted; not appreciative of music. Also absol.

1634 Caretwright Ordinary ii. iii, I'll .. Give organs to every parish..? And so root out th unmusical elect. 1861 tr. Mendelssohn's Lett. Italy 69 The Papal singers..are almost all unmusical, and do not execute even the most established pieces in tune. 1896 Westm. Gaz. 2 June 2/3 The unmusical admired her singing, the musical her acting.

3. Not based on musical principles.

1786 T. Twining in Recreat. & Stud. (1882) 132 All this is unmusical criticism, and goes upon the false notion of the words..being principal.

Hence Unmu·sicalness.

Also, in recent use (1890), unmusicality.

1678 Cudworth Intell. Syst. I. v. 759 Matter..perpetually remains, and all other things whatsoever are but..passions and affections..thereof, as musicalness and unmusicalness.

Unmu·sically, adv. (Un-¹ 11, 5 b.)

1609 Dekker Gull's Horn-bk. 7, I make a scurvy noise, and..my tunes sound vnmusically. 1631 — Match me in London III, The song..did to your eare Vnmusically sound. 1710 Norris Chr. Prud. vi. 172 Let the Ear be unmusically disposed, the sweetest Sounds..will give it no Entertainment. 1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. III. i, The Honourable Member complains unmusically. 1896 Advance (Chicago) 6 Feb. 197/1 The sublime..thoughts which the eloquent preacher has not..unmusically expressed here.

Unmu·stered, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1581 Sidney Apol. Poetrie (Arb.) 56 Therefore, though Cato misliked his vnmustered person, hee misliked not his worke.

† Unmu·table, a. Obs. [Un-¹ 7 b, 5 b.] Immutable.

1414 Brampton Penit. Ps. (Percy Soc.) 38 Thou art unmutable be kynd! There is no changyng foundyn in the! 1429 Pol. Poems (Rolls) II. 145 Prince excelent, be .. liberal of courage, unmutable. 1491 Caxton Vitas Patr. (W. de W. 1495) II. 274/2 We have one unmutable rule in fastyng. 1548 Udall Erasm. Par. Luke 165 b, Leat that bee dooen, whyche thy wyll beyng vnmutable hath determined. 1550 Coverdale Spir. Perle viii. (1588) 93 His vnmutable truthe, wherby he doth faithfully performe all his promises.

Unmuta·ted, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1888 Sweet Hist. Eng. Sounds 129 In other words it..shows the unmutated form.

Unmu·tilated, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

[1575 Ash.] 1790 Pennant London 105 The brazier.. buried it unmutilated, and shewed to them some broken pieces of brass in tokens of his obedience. 1825 Scott Betrothed Concl., It was an unmutilated, unspotted, and beautifully formed hand. 1860 F. Marryat Rel. Father Prout 376 Thy MSS. have come down to us unmutilated by pumice-stone of palimpsestic monk. 1865 F. G. Lee Direct. Anglic. 44 As the unmutilated rubric directs.

Unmuttual, a. (Un-¹ 7, 5 b.) 1593 Tell-Truth's N. Y. Gift A 3, What is the cause of so many housholde breaches ..but vnnaturall disagreementes by vnmuttuall contractes?

Unmu·zzle, v. [Un-² 4 b.] trans. To free (a dog, etc.) from a muzzle; to remove the muzzle from.

1600 Shaks. A. Y. L. I. ii. 74 Cel. How prouue you that in the great heape of your knowledge? Ros. I marry, now unmuzzle your wisedome. 1639 T. de Gray Expert Farrier 280 Put a muzzell vpon his mouth..and the next morning vnmuzzell him. 1645 Quarles Sol. Recant. vi. 5 Why Did that corrected Twilight of his eye Vnmuzzle Darkness, and with morning light Redeeme the day from new baptized night? 1797 Burke Let. to Memb. Nat. Assemb. Wks. VI. 43 The hell-hounds of war, on all sides, will be uncoupled and unmuzzled. 1854 Emerson Lect. & Arts Wks. (Bohn) III. 181 Beware of unmuzzling a valetudinarian. 1892 Daily News 22 Jan. 3/7 Her dog was muzzled. They unmuzzled him when they got home.

Hence Unmu·zzling vbl. sb.

1760-72 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1809) III. 37 A licentious unmuzzling from all restraint. 1898 Daily News 2 Dec. 5/1 The unmuzzling of London dogs.

Unmu·zzled, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8 or f. prec.] Not muzzled; freed from a muzzle.

1600 Shaks. Twel. N. III. i. 130 Haue you not set mine Honor at the stake, And baited it with all th'vnmuzzled thoughts That tyrannous heart can think? 1604 Nottingham Rec. IV. 275 Kepyng a banddog vnmusselled. 1669 N. Riding Rec. VI. 138 A weaver presented for keeping a mastiff unmuzzled. 1811 W. R. Spencer Poems 40 Wow Pestilence was rife, And all her friends unmuzzled rush'd on life. 1891 Daily News 22 Jan. 3/7 His dog..was unmuzzled. Plaintiff's dog was also unmuzzled.

Unmyste·rious, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1746 Young Nt. Th. IX. 825 Shall God be less miraculous, than what His hand has form'd? Shall mysteries descend From unmysterious? 1846 Mrs. Gore Eng. Char. Introd., Lord Chancellors have become unmysterious as haberdashers. 1862 Spencer First Prin. I. v. § 28 (1875) 100 The disappearance of those positive dogmas by which the mystery was made unmysterious.

Unmy·stery, v. (Un-² 6 b.) a 1661 Fuller Worthies, Hereford ii. (1662) 40 He hath unmystered the mysterie of Heraldry. Unmy·stical, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1862 Maurice Mod. Philos. ii. § 18. 45 He..is ready to quote..from the most unmystical Authors, such as Cicero and Terence. 1899 Inge Chr. Mysticism 278 We cannot be surprised that the unmystical Eighteenth Century declared [etc.].

Unmy·stified, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1844 Kinglake Eothen (1845) 106 A promontory, bare and unmystified by the gloom of surrounding groves.

† Unnack, v. Obs.[1] (Un-³ 3 + nack Nock v. (¶.)) trans. To disarrange. 1649 G. Daniel Trinarch., Rich. II, cxciv, Soe wee vn-nack the Ballance, where the Spring Bears truly, to enforce another Thing.

Unnai·l, v. [Un-² 3. Cf. MDu. ontnaghelen (Du. -nagelen), OHG. tnnagalen (G. entnageln).]

1. trans. To undo or unfasten in structure by the extraction or removal of nails.

1470–85 MALORY Arthur II. xviii. 97 Their hawberkes vnnailled that naked they were on euery syde. 1543 LD. BERNERS Froiss. I. cccxii. 718 They made all ye bridge to be vnnayled, redy to be broken downe. 1595 Caxton's Blanchardyn B ij, Vnnayling his armor... he sent him to carry newes of Blanchardines valure. 1704 tr. L. le Fevre's Memoir 87 The Almoner...caus'd the Coffin to be unnail'd again. 1884 STEVENSON In St. James's Gas. to Arr. (1899) 4/2 If we do possess these opposite gifts, we must unnail the scaffolding.

2. To free (artillery) from being spiked.

1562 WHITHORNE Ord. Soulditours 24 The spediest way to vnnaile them, is firste to charge against the touch eases of artillerie, with smaller bulletes then their ordinarie.

3. To detach or unfasten from something by the removal of nails.

1598 ROWLANDS Betraying of Christ 55 Hands and feet they carefull did vn-naile, Letting the body downe. 1668 EVELYN tr. Freart's Idea Perf. Paint. 51 At the foot ... stands the B. Virgin, ... whiles Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus un-nail our Lord. 1683 MOXON Mech. Exerc., Printing xxiv. P 3 He cannot alter the position of the Rounce without un-nailing and nailing the Girts again. 1797 Trans. Soc. Arts XV. 256 This is done by unnailing from the board a part on each side. 1846 LANDOR Exam. Shaks. Wks. II. 273/2 Having...unnailed from our chapels, many dozens of decent saints. 1898 GEORGE Gard. Everyday Bk. 19/1 We must think it no trouble to unnail even large branches.

absol. 1683 MOXON Mech. Exerc., Printing xxiv. 278 The Press-man, without unnailing or un-nailing, sets the Rounce to what Position he will.

Hence Unnai·ling vbl. sb.

1622 MABBE tr. Aleman's Guzman d'Alf. II. 258 Even to the vnnayling from heaven, of the Sunne, and the Moone. 1756 NUGENT Gr. Tour France IV. 99 A picture of the unnailing from the cross, ... which is greatly admired.

Unnai·led, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1625 K. LONG tr. Barclay's Argenis I. i. 13 Two plankes artificially closed, but left unnayled. 1748 Anson's Voy. II. iii. 143 The scuttle of the fore-castle...happened to be unnailed. Ibid., The unnailed scuttle. 1849 H. HAWTHORN Visit Babylon 7 The unnailed branches of the honeysuckle. 1896 Rural World 4 Jan. 5/3 Leave the... nectarine trees unnailed to keep the blossoms as backward as possible.

† Unnai·t, a. and adv. Obs. [UN-1 7, 11 b + NAIT a. Cf. ON. óneyt-r useless, incapable.] Useless, unprofitable, vain.

a 1250 Ancr. R. 130 Siggeð þet se beoð unnute [Trin. MS. unneite] preiles. a 1300 Cursor M. 23566 If þai a-noper heuen wroght, It were vnnait and al for noght. a 1340 HAMPOLE Psalter xxviii. 7 þa þat...gas agayn til besynes of þe warld & vnnayte thynge. c 1380 WYCLIF Sel. Wks. III. 29 Folk bat hap foule lippis, foulid wip vein speche and unnayt. c 1400 Rule St. Benet (Prose) 9 Wicke þohtis do away ..; and gete yure mupes fra unnait wordis.

b. As adv. Unprofitably, vainly.

a 1300 Cursor M. 5976 'Do wai,' þai said, 'þou speckes vnnait'.

Hence † Unnai·tlike adv., -ness, -ship. Obs.

a 1300 E. E. Psalter xxxvii. 13 Vnnaitlike to-droued ilke man is. Ibid. xl. 6 Vnnaitnes Spake he, his hert samened to him wicnes. a 1300 Cursor M. 10135 For-bi reide i þaim þat yee here...And leue your vnnaitschip a quile.

Unna·ked, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1628 Robin Goodfellow II. (Percy Soc.) 40 Then...lay I them in the doore, naked or unnaked I care not whether.

Unna·m·e)able, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

1. In frequent use from c 1620.

1610 HEALY St. Aug. Citie of God 354 God is celestiall, ineffable, and un-name-able. 1652 GAULE Magastrom. 270 Invisible and unnameable powers and persons. 1824 MISS MITFORD Village Sec. 1. 234 Oh the picklings, the ... the unnamed and unnameable confectionary doings over which she presided! 1874 LISLE CARR J. Guynne I. iv. 120 Her lustrous eyes wide distended with unnamable horror.

absol. 1818 MILMAN Samor XI. 367 Th' Unnameable, he fix'd On his flint pedestal.

Hence Unnamea·bi·lity.

1862 CARLYLE Frerik. Gt. XIV. v. III. 695 The Reich...will go ever deeper into anarchies and unnameabilities.

Unna·med, ppl. a. (UN-1 8. Cf. OFris. unnamed, onnamd, MDu. ongenaemt (Du. -naamd).]

1. Not mentioned or specified by name.

1509 BARCLAY Ship of Folys 162 They shall vnnamyd my shyppis name in cure. 1526 R. WAYTROND Martlinge (1893) 65 A woman vnnamed, with her two chylder twyndles. 1599 DALLAM in Early Voy. Levant (Hakl. Soc.) 81, I have not time now to wryte them, but of force muste leave them un-named untill a time of better leasure. c 1620 FLETCHER False One II. ii, Cæsar's angry, And our design to please him lost and perish'd; Be glad thou art unnam'd. 1667 MILTON P. L. x. 595 Still at Hels dark threshold to have sate watch, Unnam'd, undedicated. 1728 RAMSAY Archers diverting themselves 136 Dear nympiis unnam'd, lay not the blame On us. 1798 S. & HT. LEE Canterb T. II. 86 [She] left unnamed, and unprovided for, the young woman she had raised so far above her condition. 1856 [Miss MAITLAND] Lett. fr. Madras (1843) 4 A number of hitherto unnamed gentlemen, who sit down to eat and drink. 1866 MEREDITH Vittoria xlv, Throwing the burden...on some unnamed third person.

2. Not provided with a name; nameless.

1611 DONNE Anat. World 35 As a child kept from the foot, thou unnam'd had'st laid. 1667 MILTON P. L. XII. 140 From Hamath Northward to the Desert South (Things by thir names I call, though yet unnam'd). 1848 BAILEY Festus (ed. 3) 219 All terms are relative expressing bound, But Deity, interminable being, Hath ever therefore been unnamed. 1868 MORRIS Earthly Par. I. i. 338 Robe...Inwrought with flowers of unnamed colours bright. 1896 SMILES Sc. Nature. x. 202 Among the plants, there is a great number unnamed.

absol. 1840 CARLYLE Heroes I. P 13 The Highest being reveals himself in man. This body, these faculties, this life of ours, is it not all as a vesture for that Unnamed?

b. Unnamed bone, the innominate bone (INNOMINATE a. 3).

1845 Encycl. Metrop. VII. 329/1 [The sides] of the Hipgirdle [are]...formed...by the pair of Unnamed...bones, each consisting...of three pieces whilst the bird is young, but becoming consolidated early. Ibid., Of the Unnamed bone.

Unna·pkined, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1607 BEAUM. & FL. Woman-Hater I. iii, An un-napkin'd Lawyers greasie fist. Unnapped, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1619 FLETCHER Knt. Malta I. i, Did I attempt her with a thread-bare name, un-napt with meritorious actions. 1620 SHELTON Quix. II. xxxviii. 248 Countesse Trifaldi..., clad all in finest vn-napped Bayes. 1884 Ingl. Dict. IV. 590/3 Unnapped cloth. † Unnath, v. Obs.[1] (UN-1 3; cf. NATHE.] trans. To take the nave or naves off. 1637 N. WHITING Albino & Bellama 1304 Methinks I see the sun...Unnath his car, and throw his whipstaff by. 1. CHAMBERLAIN, tr. (UN-1 8.) 1648 W. PRICE Mans Delinquencie 39 Wee have deserved to be un-nation'd, un-Church'd by a Bill of divorce from heaven.

Unna·tional, a. (UN-1 7.)

1753 HANWAY Trav. I. i. viii. 54 Of the partial and unnational manner in which the trade was managed. 1763 WILKES Corr. (1805) I. 227 Three known, hackneyed tools of that very minister, who were...to pursue the same system, the same unnational measures. 1834 G. CROLY Butler's Anat. p. xxvi, The rash and unnational peace of Utrecht. 1865 W. G. PALGRAVE Arabia II. 366 Their easy-going, unnational, indistinctive character.

Unna·tive, a. (UN-1 7.) 1712 BLACKMORE Creation VII. 413 British Gibbons...makes that tree unnative charms assume. 1734 THOMSON Liberty I. 336 Against depressing skies,...How shun thy spirits hold? where vigour find, Forced fruits to tear from their unnative soil? Unnative, a.[2] (UN-1 3.) 1895 MRS. GASKELL North & S. xii, Frederick had written...a pretty vehement letter, containing his renunciation of England as his country; he wished he could unnative himself.

Unna·tural, a. (sb.) [UN-1 7, 5 b.]

1. Not in accordance or conformity with the physical nature of persons or animals.

a 1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistulae c. 60 Also in þe veynes ar gendred vnnaturale humours. Ibid. 68 [It] dob away wicked colour & vnnatural, and it restoreþ natural colour. 1541 R. COPLAND Guydon's Quest. Chirurg. B 3, He ought to know the vnnatural thynges, that is yᵉ meate, the drynke, &c. 1597 A. M. tr. Guillemeau's Fr. Chirurg. 1 b/1 Physiologia...wherin is to be...noted on the seuen vnnaturalle thinges. 1614 LATHAM Falconry I. xiii. 48 Which is vnnatural, and therfore must needs be vnwholsome (for the hawk). 1617 WOODALL Surg. Mate Wks. (1639) 301 After extraction of vnnaturall things, forced into the wound. 1774 GOLDSM. Nat. Hist. (1776) IV. 72 The Black Rat...is...possessed of all the voracious and unnatural appetites of the former. 1805 Med. Jrnl. XIV. 246 The mother...was very solicitous about her on account of this, her unnatural situation, as she always thought it. 1846 MRS. A. MARSH Father Darcy II. xi. 179 The tones of their voice sounded...hollow, hoarse, and unnatural. 1890 Retrospect Med. CII. 236 The unnatural state occasioned by the presence of sugar.

2. Not in accordance or agreement with the usual course of nature. Also absol.

a 1513 FABYAN Chron. ci. (1533) 42/2 Beynge in mynde the vnnaturall deth of her parentes. 1605 SHAKS. Mach. II. iv. 10 'Tis unnatural, Even like the deed that's done. 1653 W. RAMESEY Astrol. Restored 250 There shall be...unnatural Dews and Rains. 1722 WOLLASTON Relig. Nat. I. 13 Nothing can interfere with any proposition that is true, but it must likewise interfere with nature,...and consequently be unnatural, or wrong in nature. 1814 SCOTT Lord of Isles V. xv, Faintly the moon's pale beams supply That ruddy light's unnatural dye. 1846 TENNYSON Miriam 15 The miracle is not thus unnatural, while the unnatural, the contrary to order, is of itself the ungodly. 1854 KINGSLEY Misc. (1859) I. 85 Unnatural weather, so that a fourteen days' voyage takes forty days.

b. Abnormal; monstrous.

1516 Reg. Privy Seal Scott. I. 431/2 The said Johne is be the hand of God dum and defe and unnaturale. 1632 LITHGOW Trav. II. 52 Which vnnaturall Childe being brought, I was amazed...to behold the deformity of Nature.

c. Devoid of natural qualities or characteristics; artificial.

1746 FRANCIS tr. Horace, Epist. I. x. 28 Among your Columns, rich with various Dyes, Unnatural Woods with aukward Art arise. 1827 STEUART Planter's G. (1828) 7 Whatever there was of unnatural or formal,...is now banished from the English garden. 1828 LYTTON Pelham III. iii, Hence, you perceive all people timid, stiff, unnatural, and ill at ease.

3. At variance with natural feeling or moral standards; excessively cruel or wicked.

1529 MORE Suppli. Soils Wks. 314/2 In this thei shew their affection much more vnnatural & abhominable [etc.]. 1571 Act 13 Eliz. c. 2 § 1 Moste wycked and unnatural Rebellyon hathe ensued. 1612 DRAYTON Poly-olb. xi. 178 The vnnatural's dead that e're was done by man. 1642 D. ROGERS Naaman To Rdr. § 2 Even an unnatural cruelty. 1732 Col. Rec. Pennsylv. III. 497 A final Period was to be putt to all such unnatural Differences. a 1800 COWPER Odyss. (ed. 2) II. 175 To thrust the mother forth, Who gave me birth,...were a deed Unnat'ral and impossible to me. 1828 SCOTT Tapestr. Chamb. ad fin., In you fatal apartment incest and unnatural murder were committed. 1854 KINGSLEY Ron. & T. i. 4 They tar them on to the unnatural fight.

b. Of persons: Devoid of natural feeling; acting at variance with the dictates of nature.

1552 HULOET, Vnnaturall to parentes, bactri, bactriani. 1579 GOSSON Sch. Abuse (Arb.) 66 Iupiter,...though hee were a cruell tyrant, an vnnaturall childe,...by Poets is made the king of gods. 1612 SHAKS. Wint. T. II. iii. 113 A most vnworthy, and vnnatural Lord Can doe no more. 1688 in P. Wright New Bk. Martyrs (1784) 804/1 As vnnatural as children that seek the ruin of their parents. 1819 SCOTT Ivanhoe xxix, The messengers of Jehovah's wrath to the unnatural child, who thinks of a stranger's captivity before a parent's. 1836 THIRLWALL Greece III. xix. 97 It would be impolitic in the Athenians...to countenance the revolt of an unnatural colony. 1871 JOWETT Plato II. 408 Then he is a parricide, and a cruel unnatural son to an aged parent.

† 4. Illegitimate; having no natural right or claim. Obs.

c 1550 BALE K. Johan (Camden) 4 K. J. They are thy chyldeme, thou oughtest to say them good. V. Nay, bastardes they are, unnaturall by the rood. 1570 Homily agst. Rebellion P 1 It may seeme more then marueil, that anye subiectes woulde...holde with vnnaturall forraigne vsurpers.

5. At variance with what is natural, usual, or to be expected; unusual, strange.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia I. i, They ranne unto him, and pulling him backe,...by force stickled that unnatural fray. 1647 CLARENDON Hist. Reb. II. § 104 With some cloudiness (which was not unnatural) and trouble in his countenance, he desired his Majesty to give him leave to Travel. 1668 DRYDEN Drum. Poesy Ess. (ed. Ker) I. 72 It is unnatural for any one in a gust of passion to speak long together. 1729 BUTLER Serm. (1848) 34 Since such an action is utterly disproportionate to the nature of man, it is in the strictest and most proper sense unnatural. 1780 Mirror No. 100, An unnatural violence done to the work of his favourite poet. 1849 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. V. I. 533 What seemed to his associates to be his unnatural recklessness and audacity. 1850 BAYNES Analytic 13 Unnatural, indirect or irregular predication...was...that, to wit, in which the species was predicated of the genus.

† b. absol. An unnatural thing or state.

1682 SIR T. BROWNE Chr. Mor. III. § 20 No practice being able to naturalize such unnaturals or make a man rest content not to be himself.

Unna·turalism. (UN-1 12.)

1754 WARBURTON Bolingbroke's Philos. II. 67 Which, however, (they were ready to distinguish, from the Unnatural-ism (if we may so term it) of ranker Atheism. 1840 T. GORDON tr. W. Menzel's Ger. Lit. I. 35 The writings of [our nation]...have a tinge of supernaturalism or unnaturalism; something strange, ghost-like, and ill-suited for this world. 1889 Harper's Mag. Nov. 963/1 French naturalism is better at its worst than French unnaturalism at its best.

Unna·turalist. nonce-wd. [See UNNATURAL a. 3 b.] One devoid of natural feeling. 1825 SOUTHEY Doctor interchap. xiii, Me, a poor unit of humanity, to be treated like a polypus under the scissors of an experimental naturalist, or unnaturalist.

Unna·turality. rare. [UN-1 12.]

1. Unnatural feeling or conduct.

a 1548 HALL Chron., Hen. VIII, 229 b, What vnkyndnes and vnnaturalitie may we impute to you. 1691 T. HAIG in J. Russell Haigs (1881) xi. 324 If I had had any such unnaturality lodged in my breast.

2. sc. Imbecility, weak-mindedness.

1823 GALT Entail iii, He has a because o' his ain for keeping his thumb on Watty's unnaturality.

Unna·turalizable, a. (UN-1 7 b.) 1833 LYTTON Eng. & English IV. ix. 394 Its minute details of alien and unnaturalizable mythology are carefully preserved.

Unna·turalize, v. [UN-2 6 c.b.]

1. trans. and refl. To deprive of natural character; to make unnatural in disposition.

a 1613 OVERBURY A Wife (1630) M vj, Religion is commonly his pretence of discontent, though he can be of all religions; therefore truely of none, hee doth vnnaturalizing himselfe [etc.]. 1625 LAUD Serm. Wks. 1847 I. 69 In all that large discourse...Saint Paul...conceives at full how corruption can unnaturalize nature itself. 1652 JANE Image Unbr. 6 Rebellion doth not vnnaturalized them. a 1656 HALES Gold. Rem. I. (1673) 145 Here he striues, as it were, to vnnaturalize himself, and lay by his natural sweetness of disposition. 1894 Daily News 5 Oct. 6/5 None the less do they feel the sad influence of the mixed education that has ...unnaturalised them.

2. To divest of the status or privileges of a native-born subject.

1698 J. COLLIER Immor. Stage vi. (1730) 187 Any Roman who turn'd Actor was...to be...as it were disincorporated, and unnaturalized. 1754 A. MURPHY Grey Inn Jrnl. No. 84, Mr. Arne...will apply for a private Bill to unnaturalize him, that he may then enjoy the Privileges of an Englishman. 1817 Parl. Deb. 1830 This petitioner prayed to be unnaturalized, or to be brought to trial.

3. To make unnatural or artificial. Also absol.

1741 RICHARDSON Pamela (1824) I. 6 It may disguise the facts,...and unnaturalize the incidents. 1767 Ann. Reg., Ess. 196/2 If they should thus endeavour to unnaturalize their singing, they would render it harsh. 1839 DARLEY Beaum. & Fletcher's Wks. I. Introd. p. xxv, Our poets...idealise farther than he; that is, they unnaturalise, often making beautiful chimeras of their virtuous characters.

Hence Unna·turalizing vbl. sb.

1697 N. WARD Simple Cobler 47 Such usurpations by Rulers, are the unnaturalizings of nature, disfranchisements of Freedom.

Unna·turalized, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1611 COTGR., Morte-main, ...the...estate left by...vnnaturalized strangers, and vnaffranchized villaines. 1621 BRATHWAIT Nat. Embassie Dedi., Nature, shinde the can meeuil her selfe by being adorned with vnnaturalized ornaments. 1652 EVELYN St. France 37 The goods of strangers dying in France, most inhospitably exchead to the King; putting...no difference between them, and Bastards unnaturalized. 1828–32 WEBSTER, Unnaturalized, a,...not made a citizen by authority. [Freq. in recent use (1914–), of aliens.]

Unna·turally, adv. [UN-1 11.]

1. In a manner at variance with normal human nature; with unnatural depravity, wickedness, or want of feeling.

c 1485 Digby Myst. (1882) IV. 537 Was his...gudnese out of thy mynd So vn-naturallye? 1540 Act 32 Hen. VIII, c. 24 § 1 Knightis of Sainct Johnes...have unnaturally...maynteynid the usurped powre...of the Bishop of Rome. 1562 J.

Heywood Prov. & Epigr. (1867) 96 Alas mother what is the why, That ye draw from vs vnnaturally? 1610 Holland Camden's Brit. 465 The yong man..most vnnaturally waged war against his owne father. 1634 Sir T. Herbert Trav. 30 He..had most vnnaturally..caused his elder Brother.. [to] be murdered. 1719 De Foe Crusoe II. (Globe) 261 They had acted..unnaturally by their Countrymen.

2. In a manner differing from what is natural or normal; abnormally.

1611 Florio, Distorione, a turning awry vnnaturally. 1614 Latham Falconry I. viii. 31 The fire..pierceth into the bodie, and heateth it most vnnaturallie. 1668 Dryden Dryden. Poesy Ess. (ed. Ker) I. 95 Where you see both the clauses are placed unnaturally, that is, contrary to the common way of speaking. 1721 Southerne Fatal Capua IV. i, It was a task unnaturally impos'd. 1848 W. H. Black's L. Blanc's Hist. Ten Y. II. 283 Words of malediction not unnaturally marked his parting adieus. 1878 Bristowe Th. & Pra. t. Med. (ed. 9) 850 The former may attain the bulk of a bullock's kidney, and the latter is usually unnaturally small.

Unnaturalness. [f. Unnatural a.]

1. Unnatural conduct or disposition.

1537 Cromwell in Merriman Life & Lett. (1902) II. 86 Promysing hym..forgeuenes..of his most shamefull ingratitude, vnnaturalnes, conspiracie against his honour. 1559 W. Lynne tr. Conrad Gesner 17 b, Thyse cruell dede declareth the vnnaturalnesse of the Barbarous nation. 1643 Trapp Comm. Gen. ix. 25 Their parents also through their unnaturalness are compell'd to curse them. 1689 D. Granville Lett. (Surtees No. 37) 97, I am not..guilty in the leastwise of..injustice and unnaturalness to my fellow-subjects. 1703 Quick Dec. Wife's Sister 26 A Prodigy of Baseness, Unnaturalness and Ungratefulness. 1758 Jortin Erasmus I. 549 Burnet hath retracted his notion that this Lord..sat in judgment upon his daughter, which would have impeached him of great unnaturalness.

2. Unnatural character.

1605 B. Jonson Volpone III. v, That the unnaturalness.. of the act..would stire mens mindes. 1632 J. James Rep. 77 This vnnaturalnesse of the season did torment our men. 1664 Ingrlo Bentiv. & Ur. vi. 349 The Unnaturalness of such Disobedience will appear yet farther. 1859 Geo. Eliot A. Bede xliii, The unnaturalness of crime. 1865 Pusey Truth Eng. Ch. 12 The unnaturalness and strangeness of the facts. 1884 Spectator 4 Oct. 1302/1 The unnaturalness of the situations in which he acts a part.

3. Want of natural grace or ease.

1803 Dorothy Wordsworth Recoll. Tour (1875) 49 The unnaturalness of a modern garden. 1870 Lowell Study Wind. 205 What we call unnaturalness always has its spring in a man's thinking too much about himself. 1876 A. Sidgwick Gr. Prose § 107 He will..be saved from falling into many unnaturalnesses of expression.

Unna·ture, sb. (Un-1 12. Cf. G. unnatur, Du. onnatuur.)

1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. III. i. 193 Unnature, what we call Chaos, holds nothing in it but vacuities, devouring gulfs. 1858 H. Bushnell Nat. & Supernat. ii. (1864) 46 So as to be rather unnatural after all, than nature.

Unna·ture, v. (Un-2 6 b. Cf. MDu. onnaturen.) Also Unna·turing ppl. a.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia III. x, A right heavenly Nature indeed, as it were unnaturing them, doth so bridle them. a 1626 F. Greville Inquis. Fame & Hon. xix, To be nothing to subsistence is A fatall, and unnaturing wrong. 1640 Reynolds Passions xv. 141 He can hardly so unnature himselfe, as still to feed on those vanities. 1865 Reader 11 March 286/1 Dr. Manning seems to have unnatured himself.

Unnautical, a. (Un-1 3. 28a Mnyr Antipodes (1857) 185 His great rough hands fumbling the small tapes into all sorts of un-nautical knots. Unnavigabi·lity. (Un-1 12, 5 b; cf. next.) 1835 Edin. Rev. LX. 460 We must leave the demonstration of the unnavigability to repose with the.. demonstrations of the permeability of the Polar Sea. 1884 Ld. Harris in Nat. Rev. March 125 Frustrated by the unnavigability of its upper waters.

Unna·vigable, a. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.]

1. Incapable of being sailed on or over; not admitting of navigation.

1579-80 North Plutarch (1595) 1 Deepe drye sands without water, full of foule ill fauoured venimous beastes, or much mudde vnnauigable. 1604 E. G[imstone] D'Acosta's Hist. Indies I. xxii. 72 The sea was made unnavigable, through the aboundance of banckes, rockes. 1616 Healey Theophrastus To the Reader, In Winter, the Seas were lockt vp;..vtterly vnnauigable. 1697 Dryden Æneis VI. 341 There th' unnavigable Lake extends. 1719 De Foe Crusoe II. (Globe) 595 An unnavigable Ocean, where Ship never sail'd. 1798 S. R. Lee Canterb. T. II. 440 A river,—wholly unnavigable from its rude course and stony bed. 1836 W. Irving Astoria I. 181 The men returned, therefore, in despair, and declared the river unnavigable. 1898 F. T. Bullen in Nat. Rev. Aug. 856 The unnavigable coast of Palawan.

b. fig. or in fig. context.

1656 Cowley Pindar. Odes, Praise of P. I, Pindars unnavigable Song Like a swoln Flood from some steep Mountain pours along. 1688 Dryden Ode on Round. 14 II, Yet cease to hope thy short-liv'd Bark shall ride Downspreading Fate's unnavigable Tide. 1693 Dryden Juvenal x. 13 Some who the depths of Eloquence have found, In that unnavigable Stream were Drown'd. 1768-74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 610 Nor would the unnavigable gulph utterly exclude his hopes.

c. Adverse to navigation.

a 1641 Br. Mountagu Acts & Mon. (1642) 253 He puts to Sea..at an unseasonable, and unnauigable time of the yeare.

2. Of a vessel: Incapable of being navigated.

1735 Magens Insurances II. 139 When a Ship insured is become unnavigable.

Unna·vigated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1777 Cook Voy. I. Introd. p. xxvi, To traverse a far greater space of sea, till then unnavigated. a 1796 Adml. Forbes in Cook Voy. (1842) I. p. xix, They have discovered seas unnavigated and unknown before.

† Unne, v. Obs. Forms: Inf. 1 unnan, 3 unnen. Pres. indic. 1 ann, onn, 1, 3 an, 3 on (also 3 unne, unnest), pl. 1 unnon, 3 unnen (unnēd). Pres. subj. 1, 3 unne (3 hunne). Pa. t. 1, 3 āpe, uōe (3 oupe); pl. 1 upon, uōon, 3 uōen. Pa. pple. 3 i-unnen, unen, unned. Cf. I-unne v. [OE. unnan, = OS. unnan, OHG. unnan, unnen (MHG. unnen), MDu. onnen, ON. unna (Icel., Norw., Swed. unna, Da. unde), one of the class of preterite-present verbs. The stem ann- is the base of Goth. anst-s, OE. ést Este sb.]

1. trans. To grant, allow, give (freely).

In OE. construed with the dative.

Beowulf 1225 Ic þe an tela sincgestreona. a 900 O. E. Chron. an. 755 (Parker MS.), Þa gebead he him hiera axenne dom feos & londes, ālf hie him þæs rices upon. c 1000 Ags. Ps. (Thorpe) cxxxi. 4 Gif ic minum eagum unne slæpes. a 1122 O. E. Chron. an. 1041 (Laud MS.), Earl folc geceas Eadward to cynge..healde þa hwile þe him God unne. c 1205 Lay. 14851 Habbe alc god mon his rihte, gif godd hit an. a 1225 Ancr. R. 90 Ase quite ase se beoð.. weren alle þe oðre, ure Louerd hit uōe. c 1275 Sinners Beware 272 in O. E. Misc. 81 Loke, seyde god nuþe, Hwat ich for ou oulge.

2. To wish or like (one) to have (something).

c 893 K. Ælfred Oros. III. i. 98 Nues na for þæm þe hie him eniġnġ goda uþen. c 1000 Ags. Psalter (Thorpe) xxxix. 17 Ondrædon him þa þe me yfeles unnon. c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 79 Ne wile [he]..mæðemore haten him þe..him þat unnen. a 1225 Leg. Kath. 234 Beoð blīðe, ich bisceche ow, þef se me blisse unnen. a 1310 in Wright Lyric P. xi. 40 Ich unne hire wel ant heo me wo; Ycham hire frend ant heo my fo. c 1320 Sir Tristrem 1298 Meriadok was a man þat tristrem trowed ay; Michle godie he him an.

3. To grant, permit, or allow that. Also construed with inf.

Beowulf 2874 Hwæðre him God uðe,..þæt he hyne sylfne ġewrec. c 897 K. Ælfred Gregory's Past. C. 349 Þæt is ðæt hwa..þin unne ðæt he to yrhte ġecierre. c 950 Lindisf. Gosp. Matt. xi. 14 Ic onn [L. optat] þæt in crist ðu ġetrewe fæstniġ. a 1200 Moral Ode 314 Ac drihte crist..of alle vre gultes unne us come bote. a 1225 Ancr. R. 380 Ȝe nowen nout unnen þet euil word kome of ou. a 1250 Gen. & Ex. 2249 Ich unne him eiht modes þeu, And sende me min childre agen. 1258 Charter Hen. III, We willen and unnen þæt þæt vre rædesmen..halbeþ idon..þe stedelæst.

ellipt. a 1250 Owl & Night. 1739 Ich an [v.r. vnne] wel, ȝwo the mijsegale.

Hence † Unnung vbl. sb. Obs.

a 1225 Ancren R. 282 Ondes salue, ich seide, þet was feolaulich luue, and god vnnunge: & god wil, þer ase mihte of dede wonteð.

† Unnea·led, ppl. a. Obs. (Un-1 8.)

1565 Hyll Art Garden. (1574) 71 An earthen pot, not glased, or rather vnnealed. 1748 Phil. Trans. XLIII. 506 Hollow Balls, made of unnealed glass. 1789 E. Darwin Bot. Gard. I. 203 Thus the slight wound ingraved on glass unnealed Runs in white lines along the lucid field.

† Unneas, prep. and adv. Obs. (Un-1 11 b.) 1612 J. Davies (Heref.) Muse's Sacr. Wks. (Grosart) II. 51/1 Where the Earth was couer'd with her Flould, now Cities stand, vnneere the Oceans Brim. 1648 Hexham II, On-na-by, vnneere. Unneased, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1852 M. Arnold Empedocles on Etna II. 294 [The stars] renew..Night alter night your courses, In echoing unnear'd silence.

Unnea·t, a. (Un-1 7.)

1648 Hexham II, Ongehuyst, Vnneate, Foule, or Filthy. 1849 J. Brown Amer. Poultry Yard (1855) 71 The white of their plumage is not brilliant, and is sure to be unneat in the places where they are usually kept. 1866 Miss Mulock Noble Life xii, A letter, so unlike Helen's, so unneat, blurred and blotted.

Hence Unnea·tness.

1844 N. Paterson Manse Gard. 91 A great degree of unneatness in the mode of training. a 1864 Hawthorne Dr. Grimshawe vi, The sordidness and unneatness of the apartment.

† Unneath, reduced f. Underneath prep.

1654 Vilvain Epit. Ecc. viii. lxx, A noble Pair..ly here unneath one stone. a 1718 Parnell Fairy Tale xvi, Where by the back the youth he Young to sprauil unneath the roof. c 1750 Shenstone Rudd'l Abbey 174 That their dishonour'd corse..Must sleep with brutes their vassals, on the field Unneath some path. 1847 Halliwell, Unneath, beneath. Somerset.

Unne·bulous, a. (Un-1 7.) 1845 tr. Humboldt's Cosmos I. 161 The latter ring..is a mixture of unnebulous stars.

† Unne·cessaire, a. Obs.—1 (Un-1 7.) Unnecessary. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. v. 78 Vnnecessaire is hym to plaunte yf he be wel yswoe.

Unne·cessarily, adv. [Un-1 11.] Without necessity; needlessly.

1594 Hooker Eccl. Pol. II. iv. § 2, I hope wee shall not seeme altogether vnnecessarily to doubt of the soundnesse of their opinion. 1610 Shaks. Temp. II. i. 260 There be.. Lords, that can prate As amply, and vnnecessarily As this Gonzalo. 1691 T. H[ale] Acc. New Invent. 94 Excess of thickness is not only unnecessarily paid for, but it makes the Sheet worse. 1712 Spect. No. 283 ¶ 6 Sums which they have spent unnecessarily. 1786 Cowper Let. Wks. 1837 XV. 184 Again I remind you, though perhaps unnecessarily, of the two volumes. 1833 T. Hook Parson's Dau. I. viii, You ..unnecessarily agitate yourself. 1879 Cassell's Techn. Educ. I. 322/2 Such furniture is unnecessarily heavy and clumsy.

Unne·cessariness, (Un-1 12.)

1648 Br. Hall Old Relig. 171 An opinion of the vnnecessarinesse of deuotion in these holy businesses. 1685 Boyle Enq. Notion Nat. v. 124 The unnecessariness of such a nature as is pretended. 1720 Sir J. Stewart in Wodrow Corr. (1843) II. 489 note, The unnecessariness of oaths, as being no security to a government. 1821 Coleridge Lit. Rem. (1838) III. 337, I should confine my grounds of opposition to the article thus stated to its unnecessariness. 1845 R. Balmer Lect. & Disc. II. 307 To demonstrate the unnecessariness of the miraculous gifts of the Spirit.

† Unnecessa·riously, adv. Obs.—1 (Un-1 11.) 1798 Lit. Mem. Living Authors I. 283 The extravagant price at which a Work so unnecessariously sumptuous must be sold.

Unne·cessary, a. and sb. [Un-1 7, 12.]

1. Not necessary or requisite; needless.

1548 Udall, etc. Erasm. Par. John xxi. 117 b, This vnnecessarie care that Peter had of another mans death [etc.]. 1596 Edward III, III. i. 7 To lay aside vnnecessary scoffing. 1623 Bingham Xenophon 49 To leaue behind vs our vnnecessarie stuffe, and to take with vs only such as.. we stand in need of. 1655 Earl Orrery Parthen. I. i. 8 If any thing could make me offended with Artabanes, 'twould be this unnecessary interceding. 1726 Swift Gulliver II. vii, That a prince..should, from a nice, unnecessary scruple,..let slip an opportunity..that [etc.]. 1791 Mrs. Radcliffe Rom. Forest I, This was a very unnecessary caution to La Motte. 1823 Scott Quentin D. Introd., Ringing the dinner-bell—a most unnecessary ceremony for assembling three persons. 1898 'Merriman' Rodett's Corner iii, A generation..much addicted to unnecessary haste.

b. With indefinite subject (it, etc.), and usually const. to with inf.

1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. lxviii. § 2 The greatest part of the common multitude..who thinke it either vnmeet or vnnecessary to put them euen man by man. 1612 Jas. I in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. I. III. 104 To bidde a running man goe faster, quhiche is both unnecessarie and injurioune. 1757 W. Pitt in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 214 His Majesty judges it unnecessary to send you particular Orders. 1771 Junius Lett. liv. (1788) 300 It is unnecessary to pursue the argument any farther. 1845 McCulloch Taxation II. v. 201 This would be inconsistent alike with the objects and limits of this work, and it would, besides, be wholly unnecessary. 1869 Tanner Clin. Med. (ed. 2) 10 It is almost unnecessary to say that mediate percussion must be employed.

c. sb. pl. Unnecessary things.

1559 Aylmer Harborowe P j, Vnfitting superfluitie in apparel, dyet, and other vnnecessaries. 1618 Fletcher Loyal Subject II. v, It contains nothing But rubbish from the other rooms and unnecessaries. 1691 Norris Pract. Disc. 113 Not to burthen my Discourse or your Patience with Unnecessaries. 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) IV. 184 Wanting nothing but unnecessaries. 1839 Marryat Diary Amer. Ser. I. II. 161 Very pretty did its little mistress, relieved by these expensive unnecessaries. 1881 Q. Rev. Jan. 51 Nowhere are the unnecessaries of life..sold at such extravagant prices as in San Francisco.

† 2. Not requiring much. Obs.—1

1605 Shaks. Lear iv. 157 Age is unnecessary: on my knees I beggę, That you'l vouchsafe me Rayment, Bed, and Food.

Unnece·ssitated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1635 Jackson Creed VIII. v. § 5 All other habitual sinnes or vices are not acquired but by many unnecessitated vicious acts. 1650 Earl Monm. tr. Senault's Man bec. Guilty 376 To expose himselfe voluntarily to dangers unnecessitated. 1712 Blackmore Creation VI. 480 From all compulsion free, Unforc'd, and unnecessitated, we Ourselves determine. 1813 Shelley Q. Mab vi. 172 No atom of this turbulence fulfils A vague and unnecessitated task. 1904 Brit. Med. Jrnl. 17 Sept. 692 The category of..unnecessitated motives, which the normal man predicates of part of his mental processes.

Unnece·ssitating, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1738 Warburton Div. Legat. I. 48 The unnecessitating Command of an intelligent Superior. Unnecessity. (Un-1 12.) 1672 Sir T. Browne Let. Friend § 9 So that to be carried 'sextà cervice' to the grave, was but a civil unnecessity.

† Unnedd, ppl. a. : see Un-1 3.

Unnee·ded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1844 R. Chambers Vestiges Nat. Hist. Creation 112 Blood circulating in particular vessels,..which are unneeded by mammifers. 1868 E. Peacock Myre's Instr. 67 A piece of advice..not entirely unneeded in these days.

Unnee·dful, a. [Un-1 7.]

1. Unnecessary; not required.

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. III. 58 So shal clopis be more unnedeful þan þei weren in staat of innocence. c 1450 Myrr. our Ladye 227 Her eyne..were neuer lyfte vp to beholde any vnnedeful thinge. 1543 Recorde Arithm. 119 b, I iudge that good reason, for many a vnnedeful, and vnfruitfull vse serue. 1597 J. King On Jonas (1618) 281 The matter of all their vowes vnneedefull, in some vnlawfull, in some vnposible. 1624 Capt. Smith Virginia I. 2 Which vnneedefull Southerly course..occasioned them..much sickednesse. 1677 Lond. Gaz. No. 1170/3 Since your Majesty will see what I write..it is unneedful that I should repeat it. 1768 [W. Donaldson] Life Sir B. Sapsbull I. iii. 99 Mere negative qualifications totally unneedful in the education of a polite gentleman. 1905 Athenæum 30 Sept. 431/1 The editor has ..also (a rarer thing in editors) refrained from doing what was unneedful.

2. Not standing in need of something.

1876 Mrs. H. Wood Parkwater (1879) 258 The heart has a language of its own, unneedful of common syllables.

So Unnee·dfully adv., unnecessarily.

1642 Milton Apol. Smect. 2 Yet those I intreat who have found the leasure to reade that name,..unworthily defam'd, would be so good..as to heare the same person not unneedfully defended.

Unnee·dy, a. (Un-1 7.) Also absol.

c 1440 Jacob's Well 108 Whether þi neyȝboure..be syke or hool, nedy or vnnedy. 1477 Rivers Dictes (1877) 27 b, Som simple folkes yeue to the vnnedy, and refuse hit to thoos that haue nede. 1550 Baldwin Mor. Philos. Q i b, To the vnneady a man to make hys dole, Is lyke the ministring of playsters to the whole.

Unneglected, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) a 1652 Brome Novella II. ii, My profit in this too is unneglected. Unneligent, a. (Un-1 7, 15.) 1597 Return fr. Parnass. IV. i. 1250 You are the moste unneligient Sexton that ever came these forty years. Unnegotiable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) [1775 Ash.] 1893 F. F. Moore Jerbiah Bunny xii, Discoveries of an interesting but unnegotiable nature.

Unnei·gboured, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
1657 H. King Woes of Essay 8 Making a dearth Of all inhabitants, until they stand Unneighbour'd, as unblest. 1704 D'Urfey Night Adventures 180 Homely, unneighbour'd, and alone. c 1800 Cowper Odyss. (ed. 2) vi. 9 An unneighbour'd isle, And far from all resort of busy man. 1804 Symmons Milton (1810) 79 A crowd of beauties, unneighboured by a thought, a line,..which we can be desirous of changing.

Unnei·gbourly, a. (Un-[1] 7.)
1583 Babington Commandm. (1590) 372 Hane you not often refused of a meere pinching and an vnneighbourlie mind euen in small matters? 1601 J. Wheeler Tyrant. Comm. 43 The proud, vnneighbourly Proscriptions of the Dutchesse of Parma. 1657 Pierce Div. Philanthr. Ded. 2 The late un-Neighbourly usage which I have publickly received. 1705 Sir J. Packington in Hearne Collections (O.H.S.) I. 125 Unneighbourly Proceedings against your own Tenants. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 307 These things are unneighbourly or unnatural, if we consider only their present effect upon the party suffering by them. 1807 G. Chalmers Caledonia I. 397 The cause of this unneighbourly irruption into Cumberland. 1895 Westm. Gaz. 18 June 5/1 He could not conceive conduct worse and more unneighbourly.

Hence Unnei·gbourliness.
1653 Bp. Webbe Preact. Quiet. (1657) 155 Causing barrennesse of all goodnesse where there is that unquiet unneighbourliness. 1865 Meredith R. Fleming iv, The yeoman's pride struggled..to vindicate his unneighbourliness.

Unnei·gbourly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.)
1549 Sir W. Paget in Strype Eccl. Mem. (1721) II. xix. 156 The French have..dealt on this side very unfriendly and unneighbourly towards us. 1595 Shaks. John v. ii. 39 Where these two Christian Armies might combine The blood of malice, in a vaine of league, And not to spend it so vnneighbourly.

†Unneod, -neomelich: see Un-[1] 3.

†Unne·rvate, a. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 7.) Nerveless, feeble. 1725 W. Broome Notes Pope's Odyss. II. 107 Scaliger calls them fine and lively in Musæus, but abject, unnervate, and unharmonious in Homer.

Unnerve, v. [Un-[2] 3. Cf. Du. ont-, G. entnerven.]
1. trans. To destroy the strength of; to render physically weak. Also fig.
